116 Yonge = 115 King E. HAMILTON NEWS FRED BRAND'S SHOT IN GROIN Drunken Oil Borer Discharged Revolver at Boys Who Were Teasing Him. VICTIM WILL PROBABLY RECOVER Mrs. W. S. Long Attempted Suicide by Cutting Her Throat With a Table Knife.

Hamilton, Nov. 2.—About 8 o'clock last night there was a shooting case in James-street, near the Amvets, the victim being Fred Brand, a German, who resides at 134 North McRobb-street. He was shot in the lower part of the groin by James McKinley, an oil-borer from Alaska. It is reported that McKinley was very drunk, and had sat on the curb. P.C. Cadwell saw his condition and went into the Drill Hall and telephoned for the patrol wagon. While he was inside some young men and boys got around McKinley and teased him. McKinley whipped out his revolver and fired. The bullet struck Brand, who was standing near the other side of the street. A man named McGowan carried the weapon and ran away with it. He was caught by Officer Campbell. Brand was sent to Dr. Muller's surgery, and later was taken to Dr. Cummings' operating room, where the X-rays were turned on him. An incision about an inch deep was made and the bullet, a .32-calibre, was removed. He will recover, it is thought.

McKinley, who is about 40 years of age, was placed under arrest. When searched over $500 was found on him. He is here about a month visiting his sister, Mrs. O'Brien, West Jackson-street.

An Attempted Suicide. Mrs. W. S. Long, 12 Oak-avenue, attempted suicide this morning, cutting her throat with an old table knife. She was caught by Officer Campbell. Brand was sent to Dr. Muller's surgery, and later was taken to Dr. Cummings' operating room, where the X-rays were turned on him. An incision about an inch deep was made and the bullet, a .32-calibre, was removed. He will recover, it is thought.

Death of Mrs. Fraser. Mrs. Fraser, mother of Alex. and Louis Fraser, died at her home, West-avenue, today. She was 82 years of age.

Football Player Injured. While playing football yesterday, Jacob LONDON EXCISE LAWS STRICT. Boarding House Keepers Must Have Licenses to Serve Wine.

London, Nov. 2.—Bloomberg, Pimlico and other parts of London where whole streets are almost entirely given up to boarding houses are deeply perturbed over the action of the excise authorities in prosecuting the keeper of a boarding house for selling beer and claret without license to people staying in the house. This case was convicted on four summonses and was fined £1 plus the costs of the prosecution. It is well known that intoxicating liquors cannot be sold without a license. If the boarding-house keeper, however, merely first takes the money and then goes to fetch the drink from a licensed house, the law is satisfied, but if he keeps a stock of beer, wine and spirits and serves them to guests, taking money at the time of serving them or putting it on the bill, he will be liable. The majority, however, deny the law and keep a supply of liquor, and especially beer. Sometimes if they are served with a supply of extra attendance. An enterprising housekeeper is reported to have money to cover special calls. This is drawn upon for liquors supplied and the remainder is returned to the guest's stay.

DEPOSITORS GET 30 PER CENT. Liquidators of Defunct Banking Firm Nearly Double Assets.

Peterborough, Nov. 2.—A detailed statement of the assets of the defunct banking firm of James Linton & Co., Lakeside, shows assets of $14,849 and liabilities $28,094. In addition to the above assets there are notes to the amount of $8000 which are considered to be absolutely worthless. A package of notes to the amount of $3000 which had been on deposit at the Farmers' Bank at Port Hope, as collateral security for a loan, was withdrawn by Mr. Benson, the manager, a few days ago. The bank closed its doors, and no trace of them can be found. Mr. Linton stated that he would be able to pay his creditors 20 cents on the dollar, forthwith, in all probability, if the notes are collected and no litigation or anything of the kind intervenes. The careful management, an additional dividend of 10 per cent, will be declared in a few weeks.

The Lakeside News says: It appears that the late manager, Mr. Benson, who represented the condition of the bank's affairs in the village of Port Hope, and in his statement to the head office on Sept. 20, he showed a balance sheet which, whereas on the books he had a deficiency of quite a large amount was shown. On Wednesday cheques were issued to all depositors, made out for 20 cents on their claims, and it is likely that they will be accepted by them. A further dividend is anxiously looked for.

LADY LAURIER'S FATHER ILL. G. N. R. Lafontaine, Living at Lisbon, Maine, Has First Sickness of His Life. PREMIER'S WIFE MAY GO TO HIM Last Summer She Spent Two Weeks With Him, Unknown to Strangers.

New York, Nov. 2.—A special to the World from Lisbon, Me., says: G. N. R. Lafontaine, father of Lady Laurier, of Canada, is ill. All over the part of Maine, he is known as an aristocratic old man, who enjoys discussing Canadian politics almost as much as he enjoys 'coon hunting.

When he moved here from Canada, twelve years ago, no one knew that he was the father-in-law of the foremost French-Canadian of the day. But the folk were not long in discovering that he liked to hunt 'coons.

With the agent of a local cotton mill he went out in the woods nearly every week, passing the night watching the trees and popping away at 'coons in the branches.

How It Was Known. That Mr. Lafontaine was the father-in-law of the Premier was a matter of common knowledge in the city of New York. A French-Canadian who was assisting the annexation of Canada to the United States advertised a meeting in a local hall. All the prominent Canadian-American had promised to be present and speak. Mr. Lafontaine was asked to attend. At last he was almost threatened. When he refused to attend, he was discovered in the rear of the hall and dragged to the stage.

Half the meeting he was called on to speak. He got up hesitatingly and spoke against annexation. He said that he was a French-Canadian and naturally did not believe in annexation, and his son-in-law, of course, would not believe in annexation, and his son-in-law, of course, would not believe in annexation.

The High Price of Meat in Berlin is Causing Much Discontent.

FARMERS CAN'T SUPPLY THE MARKET

Popular Demand to Have the Tariff Bars Let Down and Foreign Animals Imported.

Berlin, Nov. 2.—The price of meat is rapidly becoming a political issue, and may have a surprising result on the next general election.

The present prices are prohibitive to the laboring classes, and seriously affect the resources of the middle classes.

The municipal authorities have already notified the government that salaries of city employes must be raised.

The expense of the municipal government has already increased $150,000 during the current year, owing to the high price of meat.

Free Imports Demanded.—Increasing pressure is being brought to bear on the government with the object of opening the frontiers for the importation of foreign animals.

The people who advocate government action assert that the scarcity of animals is due to the closed frontiers and the exclusion of many kinds of foreign dressed meats.

The Liberal and Socialist parties are naturally, making everything possible to effect a change in the present situation.

The Marquis De Dion has the reputation of being a good swordsman and a good shot. His opponent is rather headstrong.

AT DOCTORS' SUGGESTION.

Choul Says That He Robbed Graves in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 2.—Dr. Charles Riggs and Dr. James Kinkaid, young physicians, whose names have not been connected with the grave robbing cases, were arrested yesterday on affidavits made by McClure, the white ghoul taken into custody yesterday, who charges that Riggs and Kinkaid bought two bodies from him at $25 each.

McClure says that the physicians made the offer unsolicited, and that it was their suggestion that led him to rob the graves. He also confessed to having assisted in stealing the bodies of Frank H. Crest, Julius Rogers, Frederick Hoeyner, John Whisler and an old soldier in uniform, whose name he could not recall.

None of these bodies were known to have been stolen till McClure gave the names and the cemeteries from which they were taken.

WHY MR. CHAMBERLAIN GOES

Not for Pleasure, But to Master the Greatest Task He Ever Undertook.

THE WAR'S DEVASTATION COMPLETE

Condition of Affairs Said to Be Worse Now Than It Was During the Trouble.

London, Nov. 2.—It is rather surprising that Mr. Chamberlain's prospective visit to South Africa excites an enormous amount of comment, not only in this country, but throughout Europe.

General Delarey, who is one of the Boers' most able and most intelligent generals here, in discussing the matter with a reporter yesterday, remarked: "I cannot understand why Mr. Chamberlain's mission should be regarded as extraordinary or surprising."

As a matter of fact, it is the only sensible thing to do, and the necessities of the situation make it imperative. The condition of Cape Colony, especially, is worse to-day than during the war.

The whole South African problem is so complicated and difficult that no man, however able, should attempt to deal with it without seeking personal knowledge of its principles.

General Delarey is quite right in regard to the gravity of the problem in South Africa. The condition of the country has increased instead of diminished the difficulties.

From a government viewpoint, the war has been a success, but the problem of ordinary, everyday existence is still unsolved.

Chamberlain's mission has been so complete that even now, six months after the peace agreement has been signed, 65 per cent. of the population of South Africa is deprived of such ordinary necessities as food, clothing and shelter.

The average Britisher who thinks that Mr. Chamberlain is going on a sort of pleasure trip to South Africa, has no conception of the dire necessity which compels the man who is said to be chiefly responsible for the present crisis to study his problem close at hand.

Confidential comment, which suggests as a matter of course that some great political scheme is back of Mr. Chamberlain's mission, is not without place. The Colonial Secretary goes to South Africa simply to strive to master the situation, but in fact, which has confronted a British minister in the present generation.

KNOCKED DOWN BY MRS. NATION

She Hits a Military Academy Boy for Smoking on a Street.

Charleston, S.C., Nov. 2.—With a right swing on the jaw Carrie Nation knocked down a cadet from the South Carolina Military Academy yesterday morning because he was smoking a cigarette on the street.

The boy was caught by his companions before he had struck the pavement. He sprang to his feet and drew back to hit the woman, but she was too quick for him.

"Come on," she said, "I am Carrie Nation. I am here to smother you." She stopped the cadet, and he did not get in a blow. Friends of the cadet retorted that Mrs. Nation had been dining at a restaurant with a bartender.

She visited several "blind tigers" without inflicting damage. In several places, bouncers were stationed by the door, with instructions to throw her in the street if she undertook to smash things.

Calgary, Nov. 2.—(Special Staff Correspondence.) I want a free life, and sweet fresh air. And I sigh for the center after the cracks of the whip like shots in a battle.

The cracks of horn and hoof and head, That war and wrangle and scatter and give me the green beneath and the blue above.

And dead and danger and life and love. This is the song of the rancher, and a wild, free melody it is, as wild and free as the life he leads amid the foothills of the Rockies, or eastward among the prairies.

It means wheat, but ranching means more, real men every time. It is an industry that produces a distinctive type of westerner, a man keen of eye, lithe of limb and fearing neither man, devil nor woman.

Take a thousand Albertan ranches, form them into a regiment under their own officers, and you would have a cavalry corps that would make the crack regiments of Europe look silly.

As it is reported to us that, notwithstanding our denial, statements are being made continuously that we have been supplying Hard coal at exorbitant prices, ranging from $12.00 to $20.00 per ton, and as these statements are causing our friends, who are not in a position to deny them, much annoyance, as well as ourselves.

Make Men Strong. Spermatorrhoea, Losses and Drains and All Ailments Which Destroy Manhood's Vigor Are Cured by Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. To be strong and manly is the aim of every man, yet what a large number of men have wasted or are losing this strength and vitality. Instead of developing into or remaining the strong, manly fellows Nature intended them to be, they are weak, stunted, dependent, nervous, tired in the morning, and losing ambition and energy. It is to such I am offering as a positive cure of their condition my Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. It was invented and perfected for the cure of these troubles. It gives back to men the animal electricity they have lost by the abuse of the laws of Nature, by overwork, worry or disease, or drugging to cure their ailments. It cures Nervous Debility, Early Decay, Lost Vitality, Variacoele, Weak Kidneys or Bladder Troubles, Weak Back, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Stomach, Liver and Bowel Troubles, and some forms of Paralysis and Locomotor Ataxia. It is worn while you sleep, and never burns or blisters. It gives a pleasant, warming, soothing sensation into the body, the causes you are in the morning ready and anxious for the day's duties. It fills every part and organ with vigor and banishes pain. It cures after drugs and other treatments fail. I have thousands of testimonials to the truth of this statement, and will show them to you if you call, or will send by mail some of them hitting your case. If you are doubtful because of past failures to cure you and want proof in your own case before paying one cent, then I make you this unprecedented offer, viz: Any man who will give me reasonable security that I will get my pay when he is cured can get my Belt and use it without paying one cent unless it cures him.
