CANADIANS IN HEROIC FIGHT LOSE HEAVILY

Retirement Necessary After Gallant Advance on Two Mile Front.

UNDER WITHERING FIRE

Ontario and Western Battalions Add Lustre to Canada's Name.

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—Canadian troops have enhanced their glorious reputation in the fighting on the Somme front...

The Canadian representation at the front does not inhabit the section in which the fighting took place...

Casualties 52,000. Up till Oct. 11 the total number of casualties among officers and men of the Canadian expeditionary force...

Formidable Obstacles. The despatch from the Canadian War Records Office reads as follows:

Early Sunday morning, Oct. 8, the Canadian troops attacked the German position upon a frontage of 350 yards...

The enemy at this point occupied particularly strong entrenchments, some of which were so placed as to reverse slope that close direct observation by day was impossible.

As the long rows of our men approached through the morning gloom they were met by a sweeping machine gun and rifle fire.

Sheet of Flame. The heavy fire of hand grenades which continued to the last moment, succeeded in reaching and entering a large part of their objectives.

As the long rows of our men approached through the morning gloom they were met by a sweeping machine gun and rifle fire.

On the right a task of special difficulty in the capture of a cross formation of strong German trenches known as the "quadrilateral" had been assigned to an Ontario battalion.

This battalion, encountering heavy wire on their right flank, burst through the trench and organized a bombing party steadily worked their way east until the whole of the first enemy line was in their possession.

Between 150 and 200 prisoners belonging to different regiments, including a mine division, were captured.

The trenches were found to have suffered terribly from our artillery fire, and as a further consequence they were in places literally heaped with German dead.

Difficulty was experienced in securing a supply of bombs. The weather, which had been threatening, during the night, became very rainy, and not only rendered the work of consolidation difficult but prevented aerial observation, and so deprived us of an advantage which is usually ours.

Heavy Counter-Attack. Not long after our occupation the enemy artillery began to range upon the trenches with increasing intensity.

During the morning two attempts by local enemy forces to recover the lost trench, our men stoutly resisting. The Germans hurriedly brought up reinforcements.

GERMAN AGENT TRIES TO KILL MAJOR BALFOUR

Recruiting Officer in Windsor District Has Twice Been Fired Upon.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 12.—The authorities are investigating what appears to have been a deliberate attempt, supposedly on the part of a German agent, to murder Major T. E. Balfour, recruiting officer at Amherstburg, on Thursday night.

Major Balfour, with his wife, was dining at the home of Levi Wright when a shot was fired into the window, just missing Major Balfour's head.

The major rushed outside and saw an automobile darting away. Major Balfour, who has secured hundreds of recruits by personal work, was fired on late one night while sitting alone in the barracks at Amherstburg.

BRITISH ASSAULT PICARDY HEIGHTS

Gain Important Successes in Action to Reach Peronne-Bapaume Road.

BY ARTHUR S. DRAPER. Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, Oct. 12.—The French pressed forward north and south of the Somme today, making progress in their drive against Bethune road and Chaunies.

By advancing west of Sully-Sailles, Foch's troops have repeated against the position the pocketing movement that brought about the fall of Comblès and other places.

This success has also opened the way for a joint operation south of Transloy for the purpose of driving the Germans out of their positions on the two-mile stretch of the Bethune road lying south of Transloy.

The French also moved forward from their new lines east of Vermandovillers and penetrated further into the village of Ablancourt two miles northeast of Chaunies.

If the French can win the whole of Ablancourt the drive against Chaunies can be prosecuted from the north as well as the west and, too, will fall into a pocket. House to house fighting of the most desperate character is still raging in Ablancourt, with the battle favoring the French.

To Fight All Winter. Winter will not stop the allies' drive in the west. This is the opinion expressed today by Major-General F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations.

"Fighting merely will be restricted according to the shortage of daylight," he said. "Don't forget that the French and Germans in 1915 fought a battle at Bapaume in January."

"Momentarily the advantage of ground on the western front has passed to the Germans," he continued. "This explains apparently the lull on the western front, although Joffre still keep the Germans on the jump."

Struggle in Valley. "Our hardest fight was the capture of Thiepval ridge," said the general. "This taken, the Germans were obliged to take up positions along the low ridge before Bapaume. We are fighting in the valley until the next offensive against these heights overlooking Bapaume."

Gen. Maurice also emphasized the fact that the present fighting constitutes a race between Germany's trench-digging capacity and allied power of advance. Pointing to one of the wonderful maps which the British staff is now producing, he compared the great maze of trenches around Thiepval with the narrow line representing German fortifications behind Bapaume.

Obstacles Diminish. "Every move we make we find the obstacles opposed to us lessening. The progress of progress becomes correspondingly quicker," he continued. "But I wish to emphasize the point that we are not anticipating any sudden collapse or break of the German line. We are aiming at a slow, deliberate, pushing movement, which all the time is increasing the length of the German line, making their problem of defence more difficult. Moreover, the time must soon arrive when the enemy's trenches will be 3000 or 4000 yards apart—the opportunity will come to use our cavalry."

What French Papers Say About Duke's Immigration Speech. Special to The Toronto World. Montreal, Oct. 12.—The French press of Montreal is giving more space to the advice given by the Duke of Connaught to encourage only British immigrants. Le Devoir is remarking that his excellency spoke for the first time since he came to the country on Canadian affairs. La Patrie says it is not possible that his excellency intended that our country should be shut against the people from France, Russia and Italy, which nations are fighting side by side with British soldiers for the world's liberty. Le Devoir sees here La Patrie's mistake, adding that the text of the duke's address at Ottawa leaves no other meaning than the one his excellency intended to convey.

Mr. Bourassa's paper is curious to see what sort of a reception the duke's speech will get in British Columbia and elsewhere. Le Devoir also thanks his excellency for having exposed what is in the mind of the average British statesman.

FRENCH SHOVE LINES ON FOR FRESH EFFORT

Allies Advance West of Sully-Sailles and in Ablancourt.

BANKS ARE AUTHORIZED TO ENTER NEGOTIATIONS

Agreement Not Yet Before Finance Minister for His Ratification.

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—The announcement that Sir Thomas White has sanctioned the purchase of the Quebec Bank by the Royal Bank is premature, according to officials of the finance department. Sir Thomas White has come to Toronto. Sir Thomas authorized the banks to enter negotiations, but the agreement of sale has not been made before him yet for ratification.

The case is not parallel with that of the Hamilton Bank, which the Royal Bank, which came before the minister some time ago. In that case the sale of the Bank of Hamilton would have been made at the head office of a bank from Ontario to Quebec. In the present case the head offices of the two banks concerned are in Quebec.

ALLIES TO KEEP ON CENSORING MAILS

France and Britain Reject the Demands of President Wilson.

MAKE SOFT ANSWER. Note Also Claims United States Admits Right of Examination.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Identical memorandums from the British and French Governments replying to the American protest against seizure of neutral mails were delivered today to the state department by the embassies. The text was not made public, but the allies are understood to have renewed promises that every effort will be made to minimize delay and annoyance caused by examination, but to insist upon certain legal rights in regard to mails which the United States has denied.

The principal complaint of the American Government is based on the contention that many vessels have been diverted from the high seas into British ports in order to give British censors jurisdiction. There is no indication that the new memorandum makes any concession of principle on that point.

Reply is made in the memorandum to the American note of May 4th characterizing the allied treatment of mails as a "radical practice," and saying that "only a gradual change in the present British and French policy regarding the U. S. to its full rights as a neutral power will satisfy the government."

The allies claim that as the U. S. admits the right of censorship for purely war purposes, it cannot rightly object to reasonable delays inevitable to that censorship. The new communication is the second to come from the allies in the mails controversy, which began January 4 with the U. S. entering a protest against "unwarranted interference with inviolable mail" which was regarded as "excessively inquisitorial."

WOMEN'S BOARDS THRUOUT CANADA

Their Duty Will Be the Registration of Female Labor.

PLAN OF EXEMPTIONS. Directors of Districts Will Decide in Cases of Individuals.

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—Committees of women to be known as "Women's National Service Boards" are to be organized in all parts of the Dominion by the directors of national service, who have been meeting in Ottawa for the past few days. The duty of these boards is to be the registration of women labor and the securing where possible of the employment locally of such labor. Where considered desirable advisory committees composed of prominent employers and others are to be created to co-operate with the boards.

In reference to the exemption of military age from enlistment because their services in the employment in which they are engaged are of more value to the state than if they were enlisted, the directors state that any man of military age, who will offer in writing to enlist will be exempted if the director of the district is satisfied that his services are of more value to the state by continuing in his employment, and he will be given a badge and a certificate. The wearing of such a badge, the directors state, shall entitle him to enlist and that he has been exempted.

BIG RESOURCES OF MEN STILL TO BE TAPPED

Lloyd George Says Exemptions Are Far Too Numerous in England.

ASSIST ROUMANIA

Allies Do Utmost to Support Armies Against Vicious Attacks.

London, Oct. 12.—Replying to Sir Edward Carson, who again raised the question of man-power and Ireland's contribution in the commons today, the war minister, Mr. Lloyd George, said there was no doubt whatever about the country's available man-power and reserves, but it was necessary to get them. The exemptions, "we declared, had been far too numerous, and if he gave the figures, he would startle the house. The exemptions had run into millions.

The minister believed the government had power to deal with the exemptions, but if not, they would consider the question of successful measures. "We must lay the foundations for a war extending over a prolonged period," said Mr. Lloyd George. "That is the only way to insure victory."

Pledges for Roumania. John Dillon complained that France had given assistance that the utmost Roumanians would be employed to help Roumania in the hour of her trial, to come from the fate of Belgium and Serbia.

"If we allow Roumania to be overrun," said Mr. Dillon, "maybe we will never beat Germany. There have been rumors that the British Government regards the Saloniki expedition with an evil eye."

He expressed the belief that the war would be decided in the Balkans, and asked for a plain assurance from the war secretary that the allies would strain every nerve to assist Roumania by a strong counter-offensive in Macedonia.

Allies Do Utmost. Mr. Lloyd George said that obviously he could not enter into details, but he could assure Mr. Dillon that the allies were doing their utmost to support the brave Roumanian armies against vicious attacks.

"We have not the least doubt," said the minister, "that Germany is concentrating her strength in order to crush Roumania, not merely in her own interest, but in a desperate attempt to gain a brave people dared challenge her power."

Perfectors of Tanks. The British public has displayed unbounded interest in the doings of the "tanks" at the front and curiously regarding their history. The subject was raised in the house of commons tonight when Mr. Winston Churchill gave primary credit to Col. Winston Spencer Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty, whose energy and enthusiasm, he added, was mainly responsible for bringing the idea into practical operation when he was head of the admiralty by making the necessary experiments and appointing a committee to carry out suggestions.

Mr. Lloyd George said he hoped that with further experience the efficiency of the "tanks" would become even greater. Among the admiralty experts and others deserving of credit, he mentioned Eustace H. W. Tennyson, director of naval construction, Sir Maurice Hankey, secretary of the war committee, and Col. Swinton and Stern, who had previously been named in this connection.

Nevertheless, he added, the suggestions would never have been put forward but for Col. Churchill's enthusiasm.

HUGHES RAPS WILSON IN CASE OF LUSITANIA

Would Have Broken Friendly Relations With Germany at Once.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 12.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential candidate, answering a question here tonight as to what he would have done when the Lusitania was sunk, declared that he would have "made it known in terms unequivocal and unmistakable that we should not tolerate a continuance of friendly relations" when notice was published "with reference to the threatened action."

The origin of the fire is not known. The loss on building and contents will be considerable.

GOVERNMENT SOON TO OPEN AVIATION SCHOOL

Factory for Construction of Aeroplanes Will Be Erected.

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—An aviation school will shortly be established in Canada by the Government and in connection with this proposal arrangements will be made for the establishment of a factory for the construction of aeroplanes, including the motors, which hitherto have not been built in this country. The school will be under the direction of the imperial authorities, who have agreed to provide a competent staff for the purpose. It is likely that the imperial munitions board will be entrusted with the duty of establishing and operating the factory.

Orders from the British government for the output of the factory have been assured during the continuance of the war.

GREECE PROTESTS BUT SURRENDERS

"Imperative Necessity" Mentioned in Explanation of Yielding Attitude.

WARSHIPS TURNED OVER. Allies Now in Complete Control of the Port of Piraeus.

Athens, Oct. 11, via London, Oct. 12. The Greek Government today issued a statement in which, after reciting the demands set forth in the ultimatum of Vice-Admiral Dartige de Fournet, commander of the Anglo-French fleet, that the entire Greek fleet, except the armored cruiser Averoff and the battleships Lemnos and Kiklis, be turned over to the allied fleet, it says: "Besides these measures, the delivery of the fleet to the commander-in-chief of the allied forces declares it indispensable that the Greek fleet be accompanied by all batteries of Piraeus, which batteries he proposes in part to occupy."

The admiral declares he will exercise control of the port of Piraeus thru officers he will name. Finally, to guarantee France's orient advance, the admiral demands that the exercise thru officers he will appoint, the control of the police and the service of the Piraeus-Larissa railway.

The government's statement then adds: "The Hellenic Government before the terms of a few hours were allowed to expire, replied that it considered its duty to protest against the exigencies formulated, to which, however, it will submit in the circumstances, making of it an imperative necessity."

On the arrival of the crews of the abandoned ships in the capital they were wildly cheered by the populace.

GIRL DRIVING CAR KILLS OLD WOMAN

Sarah Horn Meets Death When Amateur Driver Loses Control.

JUMPS SIDEWALK. C. H. Short Was Teaching Bertha Morrison to Run Machine—Both Arrested.

Sarah Horn, 64 years of age, of 119 Epsa avenue, was fatally injured about 10 o'clock last night, when run over by a motor car owned by Charles H. Short, 130 Leslie street, and driven by Bertha Morrison, 563 Pape avenue, at the corner of Danforth and Carlaw ave. The woman was picked up and rushed to her home in the motor car, and Dr. Murray, East Gerrard street, was called. She died about half an hour later.

Short and Miss Morrison were arrested on a charge of manslaughter. According to the police, Mr. Short was teaching Miss Morrison to drive. The car was going east on Danforth avenue and was just turning on Carlaw avenue when Miss Morrison lost control and it jumped the sidewalk knocking down Mrs. Horn, who was on her way home. The wheels of the car passed over her body.

Mrs. Horn is the eighth person to be fatally injured or killed outright by motor cars since the first of the year.

Pte. J. J. Bristow is Among Prisoners Exchanged

Bristow, one of the Brockvillians who left with the First Canadian Contingent for overseas service, was written in Switzerland on his way to England. He was taken prisoner during the battles of St. Julien and Langemarck, and was exchanged by the Germans on account of his ill health. He says he had a hard time of it during the six-months he was a prisoner in Germany.

ITALIANS DRIVE TEUTONS BACK IN BIG BATTLE

Ally Enlarges Ground Captured in Fighting Toward Trieste.

GUNS CONTROL TOWN

Seventeen Hundred More Prisoners Come in After Fight.

London, Oct. 12.—As a result of further fighting on the Carso plateau and in the zones of Sober and Gorizia, the Italians completed the tactical plan on which they acted in the opening stages of their renewed offensive towards Trieste. An entire Carso plateau alone they took 1771 additional prisoners. This brings the total number taken by them in two days of fighting to well over 8000 and the total number taken on the front of the Julian Alps since Aug. 6 to 30,881 prisoners, including 736 officers.

The Italians also considerably enlarged their territorial conquests, besides capturing the positions they set out to reduce in further actions on the slopes of Hills 144 and 43 to the east of Novafeltria Village.

The fighting on the whole front of the Julian Alps was marked by artillery duels. At first the density of the fog impaired the effectiveness of this fire.

The Austrians hurried up their reserves and they made a series of counter-attacks on the most important points in the line lost, east of Verbolzina on the Carso. These were all repulsed by the Italians with heavy losses to the enemy.

This latest Italian success has brought their lines to within seven miles of Trieste, and the Italians have opened a bombardment of the city with their long-range artillery and heavy guns.

The Italian advance on Mount Parnaso in the Frontino provoked heavy Austrian counter-attacks, especially at the Doornikes. These were all repulsed by Bersaglieri and Alpina troops. These advanced and counter-attacked the advancing Italian line, the enemy with the bayonet, cutting them up severely.

HUGHES DID NOT KEEP BIG STEAMER WAITING

General Says Toronto Newspaper Story is Silly and Malicious.

By a Staff Reporter. Ottawa, Oct. 12.—The report published by a Toronto newspaper today to the effect that the steamer which carried Sir Sam Hughes across the Atlantic last week had been delayed at Liverpool by Sir Sam for sixteen hours, thus entailing a considerable loss to Canada, which has been under charter, is without foundation. The fact is that General Hughes boarded the steamer an hour and a half before the scheduled time of departure. The vessel was delayed for twelve hours by admiralty orders, which he had nothing whatever to do. General Hughes described the story tonight as particularly silly and malicious.

Applicants for Civil Service Are Required to Show Badges

By a Staff Reporter. Ottawa, Oct. 12.—During the war no man of military age may be appointed to either the inside or the outside civil service unless a badge has been issued to him. It is the significant clause in an order-in-council which was issued Tuesday. The possession of such a badge means that the possessor has offered to enlist and has been exempted from military service.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

ON the second day of their offensive towards Trieste the Italians enlarged their gains by vigorous attacks. They cleared the Austrians out of more trenches in the zones of Sober, Gorizia, and Ellis 48 and 144, east of Novavilla, on the Carso.

In the offensive which captured Gorizia the Italians, who were opposed by about 100,000 troops, took 10,000 prisoners in three days' fighting.

On the Picardy battlefield the British and the French have begun attacks with the object of joining forces on the Peronne-Bapaume road, and they have already made progress in the position.

As the Rumanians are still withdrawing in some places to their mountain positions in Transylvania for the purpose of defence, the Germans, who are following them up, are gathering in a few stragglers, and their defensive positions they are repulsing the German attacks.

They're the Prevailing Style for Both Men and Young Men, and We're Showing Them in a Great Variety of Fabrics, Weaves and Colors at Extremely Low Prices

SINCE THE INNOVATION of the slip-on top coat, there has been an increasing demand for them season by season until now they are worn quite extensively by almost all well-dressed men, particularly young men; and this winter the prospects are good, judging from the great number sold so far, for one of the biggest slip-on seasons ever known.

THE KEYNOTE of our display of slip-on top coats is variety. There are many fashionable designs, colors and weaves, and the prices, despite the increasing cost in everything entering into the making of clothing, are extremely low, in fact in some cases they are the same as last year.

THE FEATURES of this season's models are velvet collar, narrower and longer lapels, large square patch pockets with straight and slanting flaps and box back effects, with no seams down centre of back and without vent.

All are in loose-fitting swagger effect, in single and double-breasted style and with set-in sleeves. Particularly suitable for young men is a stylish slip-on coat in single-breasted style, with soft rolling peaked lapels, patch pockets with top flaps, velvet collar to match coat, and cuffs on sleeves. The back hangs full from shoulder and is without vent. It is made of soft tweed material, in a greenish grey, with a slight tinge of golden, making altogether a very smart and attractive looking overcoat. Price 16.50

Another tweed slip-on is in a dark brown shade, showing small check pattern. It is a single-breasted style, and has a full box-back without seam down centre or vent. Has self collar, cuffs on sleeves, and patch pockets with flaps, and is lined in body with Beatrice twill and in sleeves with brown mohair. Sizes 34 to 40. Price . . . 20.00

Another smart slip-on Coat is made in a striking new color of a brown and golden mixture tinged with green. It is made of tweed, in rough finish, with plaid back, forming a self lining. This coat is full box-back, with natural width shoulders, soft rolling notched lapels and patch pockets. Is lined with satin at shoulders and sleeves. Price 22.50

Another Very Popular Style is the Overcoat With Close Fitting Back

Decidedly distinctive and very fashionable are these close-fitting overcoats. They are either in single or double-breasted, and in a length coming just below the knees. Those with velvet collars and slanting flap pockets being the smartest styles for young men. One single-breasted model is made of brown and golden tweed in herringbone stripe and shot mixture of red and green. Sizes 34 to 40. Price 13.50

A double-breasted model that fits close to waist line has sharp-pointed lapels and velvet collar to match. Made of tweed, in a grey and black mixture, woven in small checked pattern, and lined with a twill serge. Price 15.00

Another double-breasted close-fitting model has heavy peaked-shaped lapels that roll to second button. Made of soft, fluffy-finished material, in olive and blue mixture; lined with grey. Very stylish. Price 20.00

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING AN ISSUE

Labor Men Ask That People Vote on Civic Bakeries and Coal Yards.

A special meeting of the Trades and Labor Council was held in the Labor Temple last night for the purpose of hearing the report of the special committee appointed to investigate the high cost of living and to take some definite action in regard to remedying matters.

The report of the committee disclosed some valuable information and was followed by lively discussion and debate. After careful investigation the committee reported that at $8 a ton coal dealers are making a fair profit, but that $8.50 is an excessive price for a ton of coal.

It was also recommended that the executive council of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada press for Dominion legislation compelling the sale of perishable goods after the expiration of two weeks held in cold storage, and that this council request the federal government to nationalize cold storage businesses throughout the Dominion.

CANADIAN TROOPS IN HARD FIGHTING

forcements, however, and in the early afternoon, after a half-hour's concentrated bombardment, launched a determined attack from three directions against the centre of the quadrilateral. Our men were gradually compelled to withdraw to east and west until the whole position was evacuated. Nothing daunted, they organized successful bombing counter-attacks, but were unable to re-establish themselves.

Major G. S. Crags, Canadian Pioneer Training Depot, Shorncliffe, has been transferred to the Canadian Training Division, Bramshott. Hon. Capt. W. Flindland, Y.M.C.A. officer, has been taken on the strength at Shorncliffe.

At 9 o'clock the retirement began, and in the midst of it the Germans launched the fresh attack with large numbers of men. An officer with the crew of a Lewis machine gun, remaining to cover the retirement, opened fire and successfully held off the attack until the gallant defenders were able to disengage and reach their former positions in safety. He himself and his men then withdrew, taking their gun with them.

When the full story is told this regiment is expected to have added fresh lustre to a name already famous. On their left one company of an Ontario battalion reached the trench, but certain elements penetrated the German position and continued to hold it against counter-attacks as long as resistance was possible.

True to their resolution arrived at some weeks ago, when the agitation against the high cost of living became a pronounced feature in the press, and almost at every gathering, the women of Bedford Park, held a demonstration in various kinds of cooking, to illustrate where saving could be secured by making bread and general cooking in the home. The demonstration was held yesterday in the S. O. E. Hall, Bowdoin avenue, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Mission. A professional demonstrator was on hand, who gave an object lesson in setting, raising and baking bread, and in several kinds of dairy confectionery. There was also a display of delicious looking preserves, fruit which had been made after a very economic method in the matter of fuel saving. Victor Hicken, 14 years of age, who lived with his mother on West Gerrard street, disappeared from his home about 8:30 Wednesday morning, and has not been seen since. The boy was employed as an office boy at the C. N. R. railway offices, Toronto and King streets, and he left home ostensibly to go to work. When last seen he was wearing a grey suit, bloomer pants, wideawake hat, black shoes and stockings, and grey tie. In the lapel of his coat he wore a C. N. R. button. Take Our Visitors to Copper Cliff

When our good friends from Quebec come to visit Ontario and promote the Bon Accord movement let them by all means be taken to Copper Cliff. They will there see the vast nickel mines of Ontario...

To take our visitors there would only be to return a courtesy. Yesterday morning The Globe's correspondent from Sherbrooke, describing the tour of the Ontario visitors to the Province of Quebec, incidentally mentioned that:

At 2 o'clock a special train left Levis for this city, a stop of an hour being made at Theford, while the party inspected the asbestos mines and mills at that point.

Quebec has a monopoly in asbestos as Ontario has a monopoly in nickel. The foreign owners of these deposits, mine, or rather quarry, the crude asbestos in Canada, and send it for refining and commercial purposes to the United States...

The Ontario Government has been getting forty thousand dollars per year as its share of the International Nickel Company's net profits, reckoned at one million dollars per month. What the Quebec Government gets out of the asbestos companies we do not know, but our impression is that no royalties whatever are collected.

In a contest for the booby prize Ontario and Quebec are running neck and neck. Naturally we think our province is entitled to it, because our nickel has not only gone to enrich our neighbors, but it has also gone, and is still going, to aid and comfort our enemy, and give him power to destroy us. If Quebec has its Theford, Ontario has its Copper Cliff.

And here's an item on the same subject from another Canadian province: Vancouver, B.C., News Advertiser, Oct. 7.—The $78,000,000 exports to Russia from Puget Sound in the last eight months included $27,000 worth of zinc, $730,000 worth of lead, and $1,750,000 worth of copper. We suspect that this metal was produced in British Columbia, and refined, or partially refined, in the United States. It is time that our native metals should be wholly refined at home and shipped directly in the finished state to the country of consumption.

But we'll soon have a new party in Canada that will change all that.

The Hearst Embargo

When Britain gets it is usually with consideration, discretion, and for good cause. And when she acts it is with effect. The action taken in cutting off the Hearst newspapers from the facilities offered by the official press bureau, so that the International News Service will no longer participate in British official information or have the use of the British cables was not taken without just and grave cause. There can be no greater evil in a time of war like the present, when the whole world may be swayed by a word, than to hear false witness against one's neighbor. Mr. Hearst has been found guilty on this score, once, twice, three times, and the British Government has drawn the line, and declared that no longer will he have the countenance of the British Government in circulating his infamous fabrications. The official charge is "garbling of messages and breach of faith." The ninth commandment covers the offence in definite terms.

The British Government overlooked the first offence on the plea that it would never occur again. Likewise a second time, when it was promised that never again would official despatches be tampered with. But a third occasion followed, and the British Government decided that if the Hearst despatches were to be partly manufactured in New York they had better originate there entirely. So Mr. Hearst may write his own despatches in future in full.

What has Canada to say to this, however? We have been loaded up with these tampered with despatches for a long time. The pro-German taunt pervades every article and every newspaper that comes from the Hearst presses. They have been scattered broadcast thru Canada, and they have had their effect and more influence than any patriotic Canadian should desire in confusing public sentiment, and deflecting public opinion. Those who depend on one newspaper only are usually most difficult to reason with, and if that paper is a medium of false and distorted views great harm must result.

It should be noted that the New York American asserts that the action taken by Britain is on account of the publication by the Hearst newspapers of information suppressed by the British censorship. This, in itself, is an example of the distortion and falsification of which the Hearst papers are guilty. The Hearst papers are welcome to print any news of an accurate character to which they may obtain access. It is a much graver charge that is brought, when a British official despatch arrived at the Hearst headquarters on three different occasions it was tampered and changed, and handed out as the true and actual British official despatch. If the Hearst press wished to contradict or correct the British despatches that could have been done, but to put words into the British despatches, which the British Government did not authorize, and to present this as British truth is an offence which no government can pardon. The Hearst press may try to evade or ignore this point, but it must be emphasized.

Unfortunately the same spirit of distortion and falsification pervades the Hearst newspapers in dealing with the cause of the allies. Under these circumstances the government of Canada would do well to take note of the action of the British Government, and for the same grave and just cause forbid the circulation of the Hearst papers in the Dominion.

Active and Passive Neutrality

There would have been no trouble and no complaint about German submarines in American waters, had the United States Government taken the same stand as Holland has done. Holland stated her position shortly after the war began, and refused access to Dutch ports or waters to the warships of any of the belligerent nations, except under stress of weather or damage, or when by reason of distance from their bases they needed food or fuel.

The submarine U-53 was not driven into Newport by stress of weather, nor by damage, nor by reason of need of supplies, but the United States gave her shelter and a friendly reception, and enabled her to obtain news of vessels about to sail, and, therefore, in danger of attack. Holland interned a German submarine in November last year, and a British submarine in January of the present year, and maintains an active neutrality of a different character from the passive and somewhat flabby neutrality of the United States. These questions will probably be threshed out after the war, when claims for damages will be made by vessel owners. It would be quite like Germany to assert that the United States and not Germany was liable for the damages as the United States had been accessory to the fact.

HOW FRITZIE GETS THE NEWS

Political Intelligence

Those who heard Sir Wilfrid Laurier and saw the big Liberal gathering at London Wednesday reached the conclusion that the Liberals do not expect a Dominion election in the near future.

Sir Wilfrid did not sound the keynote for a national campaign. He may have some progressive planks to nail in the Liberal platform and we hear that he may come out boldly for a truly national nickel policy and for the nationalization of Canadian railways. But he knows how dangerous is premature pronouncements. He may also shrewdly suppose that dissatisfaction with the Conservative party, rather than faith or hope in the Liberal party, will be the determining factor in the next election.

However that may be, Sir Wilfrid's speech could scarcely be said to violate the somewhat shadowy truce. He had a good meeting in London and may stay there long enough to look over his fences in western Ontario, which were pretty well blown down in the whirlwind of 1911.

Two courses are open to the Borden government. The government might take advantage of the feelings thruout the country against an apathetic Quebec in the matter of the war, to dissolve parliament and get a fresh mandate from the people. Or, Sir Robert might summon parliament as usual, in January, to reorganize his cabinet, bring down some progressive legislation, and get a fresh start and a good start, for an election in June or September.

There are difficulties in the way of his following the first course, and one of them is that the new governor-general may not be in Ottawa for some time. If there is to be an early election, it should be held over by Christmas, and that would necessitate a dissolution by November 1. A reconstruction of the government among its parliamentary following and give it a better chance to win later on, especially if things continue to go well and even better with our armies at the front.

Those familiar with the prime minister's mental processes and temperament, think it just possible that neither course may be followed; they think parliament will meet as usual in January, and that Mr. Cochrane, Mr. Rogers and Gen. Hughes will appear as usual of the treasury benches. Some Conservatives who do not like the minister of militia, say this will precipitate a parliamentary crisis, and perhaps a want of confidence vote. We must not forget, however, that no government has been defeated in the house since Confederation.

The Liberals do not expect an election, but they say they are ready for one whenever it comes, and they will not consent to an extension of the parliamentary term. The prospects are for another session, which is likely to be full of sensational interest.

It is rumored in London that Hon. Chas. S. Hyman is to get back into the political game and do all that he can to secure the return to power of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He seemed interested Wednesday night in Mr. Rowell's explanation of the uplift movement, and is said to have sent out and purchased a copy of The Toronto Star.

There seems to have been a lively discussion at the meeting of the ward six Liberal-Conservative executive Wednesday night, and The Toronto Telegram is authority for the statement that much dissatisfaction with the Hearst government was freely expressed; one well-known Conservative said yesterday that only three men at the meeting defended Premier Hearst and his government. Ward six Conservatives seem to think that a provincial convention will have to be called this fall to choose a leader and construct a platform. They are down

KINGSTONIAN'S SAFETY IS NOW ESTABLISHED

British Steamer, Reported Torpedoed, Has Been Located in Port.

ONLY FIVE SHIPS SUNK

Corunna First Steamer to Leave Boston Since Last Sunday.

Boston, Oct. 12.—The British steamer Kingstonian, reported as among those torpedoed by a German submarine off Nantucket last Sunday, is safe in port, according to word received today by John M. Thomas of this city, local manager of the Leyland Line, which owns the steamer. Mr. Thomas said his information showed that the Kingstonian was thousands of miles from Nantucket last Sunday.

As the Kingstonian is in the service of the British admiralty, Mr. Thomas was not permitted to indicate the port at which she had arrived, but he said that it would take her two weeks of steaming at her usual speed to reach Nantucket, so that it was evident she was nowhere near the scene of the submarine's operations in these waters last Sunday.

This information serves to confirm the opinion held by marine men here that the report of the Kingstonian's loss arose from a confusion of her name with that of the Christian Knudsen, the Norwegian tank steamer sunk by the U-boat, and that only five vessels were sent to the bottom by the raider.

ADRIATIC STARTS OUT

New York, Oct. 12.—With all lights extinguished the steamer Adriatic of the White Star Line carrying 453 passengers and 15,000 tons of war munitions, was believed tonight to be speeding south from this port, well within the three mile zone of safety off the coast. Her announced destination was Liverpool, and her course to that city would lead east from Sandy Hook. She apparently followed in the wake of the freight laden Pannonia and Minnehaha. The Danish vessel Hellig Olava, more venturesome than the British steamers, took the easterly course after clearing the bar. They were the first vessels to leave New York for European ports since the submarine raid of Sunday.

CANOPIC ARRIVES SAFELY

Boston, Oct. 12.—The White Star liner Canopic, for which some anxiety had been felt in shipping circles here because of the presence in north Atlantic waters of a German submarine, arrived today from Mediterranean ports. Her officers reported that they had not seen the U-boat.

STOP STEEL IMPORTS

London, Oct. 12.—The Daily Chronicle's parliamentary correspondent understands that the iron and steel sub-committee of Lord Balfour's committee, which was appointed to make recommendations on a basis of the Paris economic proposals, has presented a report urging the total prohibition of iron and steel imports after the war during at least the period of demobilization and reconstruction.

RED SOX CHAMPIONS AGAIN TAKE FOUR OUT OF FIVE

Defeated Brooklyn at Braves' Field Before a Record Crowd—Dodgers Unable to Hit Shore—Fifth Win of World Title.

Boston, Oct. 12.—The Boston Americans firmly clamped the championship of the baseball universe on their brows this afternoon, when they defeated the Brooklyn Nationals, 4 to 1, in the fifth and final game of the world's series of 1916. The greatest gathering in the history of the American national sport witnessed the victory, 42,230 fans departing after the contest convinced that the Red Sox were the baseball machine par excellence of recent years.

As a result of the four games to one conquest over the standard bearers of the National League, Boston is tonight celebrating its fifth victory in world's series since 1903, and there is added joy in the fact that never in its history has a Boston team been forced to bow to the superior prowess of a rival in such a contest.

Victory Clean Cut.

The victory over the Superbas in the final meeting of the teams was so clean cut and decisive that there was left no ground for argument. That the better team won the champion, despite the determined battles put up by Brooklyn in the earlier games of the series, was obvious. Before the speed and curves of Evers, Shore the Superbas were well-nigh helpless, while Jeff Pfeffer, the last hope of Brooklyn, proved unequal to the task of holding the Red Sox in check.

Also the National League champions were first to score, their advantage was short-lived, and once the Bostonians unlimbered their heavy batting artillery the game was disposed of, so closely did Shore hold the Brooklyn clan in the mystery of his deceptive delivery. The invaders were able to score but three hits for a similar total of bases and the solitary run scored was unearned. It was the result of a pass, a sacrifice, an out and a passed ball. Boston on the other hand collected ten bases on seven hits, and two of its four runs were earned.

Nothing to Entice Over.

Also the contest was played before a record throng of fans, there was only a moderate amount of enthusiasm, the chilling weather and the ease with which the Sox disposed of their opponents dulling the edge of such outbursts as sprang from grandstands and bleachers at the more thrilling points of the game.

Aside from Shore's clever cold weather hurling and a sensational running shoe-tap by Wheat off Shore in the fifth and his mate by Lewis in the eighth, when he robbed Meekie, both Pfeffer, of an apparently sure double, the game was devoid of feature plays.

Immediately after Scott, who clinched the championship by gobbling Mowrey's short fly for the final out of the game, the younger element among the spectators rushed upon the field and fell in line for a parade. On the first circuit of the diamond they captured President J. J. Lamin of the Boston Club and then crossed the field after President C. H. Ebbets of Brooklyn. Amid the cheers of the fans, the rival club executives, arms and legs led the march. Many of the fans shook hands with the Red Sox players and with Manager Carrigan, who said again that he had retired from professional baseball with today's game.

Dodgers Score First.

As was the case in yesterday's game, Brooklyn was the first to score, its only unearned tally came in the second inning, when Shore issued his only pass of the game, sending Cutshaw to first. Mowrey sacrificed him to second, from which point he moved to third on Olson's infield out and scored when Cady uncovered the plate with a passed ball.

Boston tied the score in their half of the same inning when Lewis tripped to left and came home as Wheat threw the ball wide in an effort to get Lewis at the plate. The Red Sox added two more in the next inning. Cady hit a bouncer over Daubert's head. Hooper walked, and Cady scored when Olson threw Janvrin's grounder into centre field in an attempted double play. Hooper romped home from third on Shorten's hit over

DUFFY LEWIS IS CHAMPION HITTER OF WORLD SERIES

The world series is over and now the dopesters can tell just how it happened. Perhaps the best argument to put forward, showing why the Red Sox carried off the world honors again, is that they, as a team, settled all arguments. Brooklyn used twenty men during the series and the champions one less. A look over the table of clouting averages will show that several of the Brooklyn regulars fell down woefully. Perhaps the most noticeable is the great Jake Daubert. Boston pitchers had his number throughout the whole series, his mark of .416 being away below his season's work in the National League. Mowrey and Cutshaw also hit poorly, and it remained for Casey Stengel to uphold the honor of the regulars of the losers. He clouted for .364 and was the leading Dodger hitter.

"Duffy" Lewis is the real leader of the champions and the series. His share above him in the list, he is the real champion of the series. Manager Carrigan only appeared in one game and collected two hits for an average of .567. Shorten, Walker, Cady, Hoblitzel and Janvrin hit well.

An Appeal From the Motherland

PEOPLE OF TORONTO

To SIR JOHN HENDRIE,
Lieutenant-Governor, Province of Ontario, Toronto:

I have the honor to inform you that the British Red Cross Society, and the Order of St. John, are once more proposing to appeal throughout the Empire by street and other collections upon "Our Day," which has been fixed for the nineteenth of October. The money received will be devoted to our wounded soldiers and sailors from Home and Overseas, at the various seats of war.

The generous response which we received last year from all parts of the King's Dominions, encourages us to hope that the constantly increasing demand for our help may be met by a corresponding increase of generosity throughout the Empire.

We shall be truly grateful to you if you will assist our work by organizing an appeal and sending the proceeds to us for our sick and wounded at the Front. I shall be greatly obliged if you will communicate the contents of this cablegram to your Ministers, and recommend the proposal to their favorable consideration. Their Majesties the King and Queen, and her Majesty, Queen Alexandra, are giving us their gracious patronage, and I trust you will also see your way to help us in the same splendid manner as you did last year.

88 Pall Mall, London,

(Signed), LANSDOWNE (Marquis of),
President British Red Cross Society.

(Signed), PLYMOUTH (Earl of),
Superior of Order of St. John and Jerusalem.

TO THE CITIZENS OF TORONTO:

Whatever may be our difficulties at home, the War is not yet won, and without the aid of the magnificent organization of the British Red Cross, we cannot hope to win. Let us hope, therefore, that every citizen of Toronto will turn out his pockets for a cause which has no critics—the most superb charity in the world.

(Signed), EDMUND WALKER.

TO FACE JURY ON CONSPIRACY CHARGE

Michael B. Shortall Committed for Trial by Magistrate Denison.

BANK WAS ROBBED

Said to Have Tried to Get Possession of Big Sum in Toronto.

As a sequel to the robbery at the Bank of Montreal, New Westminster, B.C., in 1911, Michael B. Shortall came up in the police court yesterday on charges of conspiring with Michael Flannigan and J. P. Walsh to defraud the Bank of Montreal, and receiving and fraudulently altering bills stolen from the bank's branch at New Westminster.

Evidence submitted by the police showed that Shortall came to Toronto on behalf of the other men to get possession of the sum of $1925, deposited in the safety deposit vault at the head office of the Bank of Toronto, in the joint names of Flannigan and Walsh. Shortall was arrested while trying to secure the money.

Yesterday morning, J. W. Timms, of the Bank of Montreal, identified the bills, explaining that they were part of the stolen money from New Westminster. The numbers of the bills, which had been cleverly altered with the object of preventing detection.

W. H. G. Phipps, accountant for the Westminster branch of the Bank of Montreal, testified to events at the actual time of the robbery, while Mr. Gould, an official of the Bank of Toronto, explained how Shortall had tried to get his hands on the money on Sept. 7, when he arrived in Toronto. Shortall was committed for trial.

Joseph Seadon Admits He Stole Whiskey From Railway Yards.

Following the conviction of Joseph Seadon on a charge of being drunk, a second charge, that of "having liquor in a place other than a private dwelling house," was laid.

Policeman Lewis said he met Seadon last Saturday morning carrying five full quarts of whiskey and two empty ones. He was drunk. Policeman Lewis said he met Seadon on the Grand Trunk yards at the foot of Bathurst street.

Grand Constable Wood added to the surprise when he testified that the railway company knew of the theft, but had refrained from prosecuting because he had given valuable information regarding other thefts.

Seadon was fined $200 and costs or three months on the second charge.

Board of Education Has

Adopted Fair Wage Clause

The report of the special committee appointed to consider placing a fair wage clause in board of education contracts, instead of the present clause stating that the union, prevailing rate of wages shall be paid, was adopted by the meeting yesterday with the amendment of Dr. Noble. This amendment calls for a clause stating that in case of any dispute regarding the rate of wages paid by the contractors to workmen, the decision of Mr. Bishop, superintendent of buildings, will be final. This new contract will be submitted to the solicitor of the board for his revision.

THE TORONTO DAILY WORLD by authority and sanction of the British Government and the endorsement of Their Gracious Majesties presents to the citizens of Toronto and environs as a living supplement to the cabled news despatches, the official front line moving pictures as produced at the direction of the War Office under military supervision by special operators selected from the staff of the topical committee.

THE Battle OF THE Somme
"THE GREATEST MOVING PICTURE IN THE WORLD"

SOME BRITISH COMMENTS

"The public should see these pictures that they may have some idea of what the army is doing and what war means."
—The King.
"If the exhibition of this picture all over the world does not end war, God help civilization. See that this picture, which is itself an epic of self-sacrifice and gallantry, reaches everyone. Mothers, wives, sisters and affianced ones, your hearts will hear, your voices speak in honor and glory of the living and the dead."
—Mr. Lloyd George.
"The Battle of the Somme, which was shown to a distinguished gathering at the Scala Theatre yesterday, is the greatest moving picture in the world, the greatest that has ever been produced."
—London Evening News.
"Not the glory of war do the pictures depict, but war—in all its grim, murderous reality and hideous ruin, relieved from utter repulsiveness by the heroic companionship and cheerful suffering of the human soul overshadowed and dwarfed by the gigantic powers of destruction around them."
—London Daily Telegraph.
"The pictures are extraordinarily realistic. They show all the grim horrors of war. The men are seen to leap from their trenches. The camera spares nothing, and indeed shows that some of the poor fellows did not get beyond the parapet before being struck."
—London Morning Post.
"So vivid are the pictures that you almost hear the word of command that sends the men scrambling over the parapets of the trench."
—The Liverpool Courier.
"The most wonderful films ever taken."
—The Illustrated London News.
"The film of the Big Push, officially known as 'The Battle of the Somme,' is the greatest success in point of public appreciation that the cinematograph has ever known. Five firms who print positives are engaged in turning out copies, the biggest order ever given in filmdom. There has never been anything like this in the history of the moving picture."
—London Weekly Dispatch.
"If anything were needed to justify the existence of the cinematograph, it is to be found in the wonderful series of films of the opening of the British attack on the Somme, July 1st. In years to come, when historians wish to know the conditions under which the great offensive was launched, they will only have to send for these films—for we take it as a matter of course that a number of copies of them will be preserved in the national archives."
—The London Times.

RED CROSS FUNDS ALREADY RECEIVED

Major Dinnick Believes More Money Will Be Collected This Year.

MINISTERS' COMMITTEE

Clergymen to Take Up Campaign and Interest Congregations.

Major W. S. Dinnick, organizer of the patriotic fund and Red Cross campaign, which will take the form of a three-days' canvass next week, ending on Trafalgar Day, stated last night that the campaign is well under way and that money already is being sent in for the fund. A strong committee is at work, and from all appearances the money collected this year will be more than was taken in last year.

The Nordheimer building has been turned over to the committee as campaign headquarters, and a staff of twenty clerks is there all the time to answer questions and give all information.

At two o'clock this afternoon a committee of all the ministers in Toronto will meet and will hear addresses by Sir John Hendrie and Sir Edmund Walker. They will take up the campaign and interest their congregations. This evening the ministers will be the guests of Sir Edmund at dinner at the York Club.

Everyone connected with the campaign is working night and day to make it a success. The captains all have been appointed, and their terms are mapping out their ground in readiness for the big campaign next week.

Grenadiers Honor the Memory Of Officers Killed in Action

The greatest number of recruits in any single evening was received by the 10th Regiment (Royal Grenadiers) at the weekly parade last evening and many recruit classes have been started. Uniforms are given out to each on the first evening after the recruit joins.

At the conclusion of drill last night the band played the "Dead March" and the bugles sounded the Last Post in memory of Captain J. H. Oldham and Lieut. H. C. Moore, officers of the regiment who were killed a week ago. No word has as yet been received of Flight Lieut. J. A. N. Ormsby, another Grenadier officer who has been listed as missing.

A program of tactical manoeuvres has been prepared for the regiment to follow out this fall. In anticipation of some further advance in this work next week the whole battalion had some practice in extended order work last night. Prior to the parade each member of the regiment was fitted with puttees, and these added greatly to the appearance of the men.

Capt. Arthur Wainwright Reported Severely Wounded

Captain Arthur Stowe Wainwright of Toronto, who was wounded in the big Somme advance a few weeks ago, is now officially reported from England as being severely wounded. Captain Wainwright is very well known in business and military circles. He is the son of the late Major W. R. Stowe Wainwright, who was formerly of the Halifax garrison artillery and subsequently in the adjutant-general's department at Ottawa. Captain Wainwright was chief accountant in the Canada Life Assurance Company and was a member of the Albany Club.

Express Firms Loosen Up Offer to Extend Delivery

That the express companies were already beginning to concede the weakness of their case and are offering to extend the area of their delivery service in two or three at present unserved portions of the city, was the statement of J. A. McNicol, chairman of the Express and Freight Campaign committee, at a large-extended meeting of the Osgoode Ratepayers' Association, in McMurrin School last night. The chairman stated that nothing would be allowed to interfere in the preparation of facts and figures to be presented before the Dominion Railway Board. Both Mr. McNicol and Mr. Newman, solicitor for the coal and iron companies, stated that everything was in the shape for the hearing of the application. The Osgoode Association paid a warm tribute to the work of Mr. McNicol in this connection. The chair was occupied by President Jarvis.
