SYNOUD NEXT YEAR IN FREDERICTON

Motion to Postpone Meeting Until Fall Defeated

REPORTS ADOPTED

Seventeen Students From King's With the Soldiers—Recognition of Kingston Anniversary—Bishop Refers to Absence of Clergy From Sunday School Meeting

The next annual meeting of the Church of England Synod will be held in Fredericton, commencing on the first Tuesday in February, 1916. This was decided upon this morning after the defeat of an amendment to postpone it until October.

The bishop found it necessary to refer to scanty attendance of the clergymen at the meeting of the Sunday school association on the previous evening and asked for better support for this work.

When the morning session opened the report of business was suspended to refer to the resignation of Rev. H. C. Cady to the effect that record of the 125th anniversary of the parish of Kingston, celebrated on June 25, 1914, be placed on the minutes and that the parish be congratulated by the synod on its long and honorable career.

Notice was given of a motion calling for the setting aside of an evening on the 25th of June for the parish reports to be read to give the diocese an adequate idea of the work of the mission board.

Reports were received from the committee on religious instruction in the public schools and from the nominating committee.

The order of business was resumed and Robert W. Hewson presented his report on the visit to the Kingston College, Windsor, N. S. He reported that the attendance was good and health excellent.

The deepest regret was expressed regarding the resignation of the president, Rev. Canon J. Powell. The institution faces indebtedness of almost $40,000 on Sept. 30, but it was expected this would be reduced before the end of the year.

The report of the committee on the clergy of the fact that at the Sunday school meeting last evening there were only twenty-eight of more than sixty clerical delegates present.

The report of the committee of the Diocesan Sunday School Teachers' Association dealt with on Wednesday evening at the meeting of the association, was adopted after some minor amendments.

The report of the diocesan registrar was adopted. It showed the ordination of six priests and eight deacons. There were received into the diocese six clergymen; twenty-five clergy and twelve lay readers. Three resignations were received and two churches were consecrated.

TREAT AS PIRATES THOSE WHO FAIL TO BREAK BELGIAN LINE

New York Herald Warns Germans That Attacks on Atlantic Liners and Hospital Ships Are Bringing Matters to Crisis

New York, Feb. 4.—The Herald this morning says editorially: "The Germans complain that there is against them a conspiracy of international law and American sentiment. They declare they are being outrageously treated.

"There may be some persons who have been inclined to maintain a neutral attitude, but what are these to think now when German submarines begin war by torpedoing on hospital ships and merchant vessels?

"Germans have boasted they will isolate England and starve her. Evidently they are doing their level best to do it.

"But such a step will be against Americans as well as Englishmen. The moment they begin to sink Atlantic liners, that moment there will come a revision of neutrality and application of an old rule. The new neutrality will place a nation that commits acts of outlawry in the category of the outlaw, and the old rule revived will treat as pirates those who murder under the name of war.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Count Bernstorff, German ambassador, notified the state department today that American vessels should avoid the north and west coasts of France.

ARMORIES ALL BLOWN UP

City Alive With Sensational Rumors Which Had No Foundation—Local News of the Soldiers

Extra guards have been placed on the C. P. R. bridges and other properties about the city and province as well as elsewhere through Canada. The city properties about the harbor front are being well guarded.

Fail to Break Belgian Line

Fierce Attacks by The Germans Near Westende

BOTH ARMIES USE BAYONET

In Desperate Fighting in the Dunes Allies Prove Superior to Enemy—Germans Hard Pressed and Quick Retreat Best They Can Sometimes Do

Amsterdam, via London, Feb. 4.—A dispatch to the Telegraph says that the Belgian positions on the Yser near Westende again have been the scene of fierce attacks by the Germans. The bayonet was used by both armies. The Germans, after bombardment by artillery, made repeated but unsuccessful attacks on several important Belgian trenches. The desperate nature of the fighting of the last two days, is indicated by the large convicts of wounded being sent to Germany.

London, Feb. 4.—The Daily News Rotterdam correspondent telegraphs:—"In the course of the fighting in the Dunes, during the last few days, the allies have made steady progress and gradually have proved their superiority over the Germans. This was especially evidenced by the capture of the great dune, but in other ways the Germans are being hard pressed. They have lost several hundred prisoners, besides guns.

"The attacks of the allies have been made with a suddenness and a fierceness that astonished the Germans, who were able in several cases, only to beat a quick retreat after having rendered their guns useless for immediate service.

"Some attacks of the allies were so successful that they were able to capture some hundreds of horses stationed behind the German fighting lines."

Vanceboro, Me., Feb. 4.—Werner Horn, who attempted to blow up the international bridge over the St. Croix River, was arrested today on a warrant issued by Geo. H. Smith, a local trial justice, charging him with defacing and injuring buildings in Vanceboro.

The damage to the buildings was caused by the explosion when Horn exploded the dynamite under the bridge.

A Case in 1837

The Bangor Commercial says:—There is no exact precedent to follow in the case of Von Horn but a nearly parallel case has been investigated by Dean W. E. Walls of the University of Maine, professor of international law, Deane Falls, Me.

"In the absence of a full knowledge of the real facts it would be useless to discuss the legal aspects of the case of Von Horn. While there has been no case precisely like it in the annals of the United States, there has been a case somewhat similar that is bound to be quoted in and out of connection with the present affair. It is that of The People vs McLeod, 1 Hill 877, 23 Wendell 488, and 87 Am. Dec. 228.

"The facts were briefly these: On Dec. 30, 1837, McLeod, a British officer, aided in the taking and burning of the Caroline, an American boat, carrying supplies to men from the state of New York that had taken possession of Navy Island, in the Niagara river, in upper Canada, and were supported by citizens of the United States.

"In doing this, McLeod shot one Durfee, a United States citizen, and was alleged, afterwards, to have himself admitted that he had done so. McLeod was seized by the authorities of the state of New York and held under an indictment charging him with the murder of Durfee. Habeas Corpus was there sought to obtain McLeod's discharge. These events at once brought Great Britain and the United States into the field.

Great Britain, and in order to prevent any conflict between the state and national authorities on so important a subject, a statute was passed in 1842 providing that either of the justices of the supreme court of the United States or the judge of any district court of the United States shall have power to grant writs of habeas corpus in all cases of any prisoner in jail or confinement where he, being a subject or citizen of a foreign state, shall be in custody by any authority of the United States or any one of its officers, on account of any act done or committed under any alleged right claimed under a commission of any foreign state, the validity whereof depends upon the law of nations. The act provides for the discharge of such a prisoner, where it should appear that he is entitled to such discharge by reason of the laws of nations applicable thereto.

POLAND'S PLIGHT FAR WORSE THAN THAT OF BELGIUM

Almost Every House in Ruins, Populace Forced to Roads—Hedged in by Vast Armies

Petrograd, Jan. 1.—(Correspondence)—In spite of the fact that several commissions were appointed to investigate the devastation which Poland has suffered during the German invasions, the acute misery of millions of inhabitants still goes unrelieved. The destruction is so universal that it hardly seems possible that it was the work of human agents.

Normally Poland is a pleasantly rolling country, not unlike the American middle west, with its agricultural development, productive and prosperous, with its landscapes checked with well-groomed farms and patches of wood. It is now black and scarred, almost every house in ruins, and the mutilated roads are full of half-starved, half-frozen people who have no homes and no possibility of escaping from the charred remnants of what once were their habitations.

"The picture is drawn by Prince Radziwillo, a member of Poland's oldest and noblest aristocracy, who has come to Petrograd from his home in Minsk to see some practical method of assisting his unfortunate countrymen.

"I am afraid," said Prince Radziwillo to the Associated Press, "the world has been too busy getting its help to unfortunate Belgium that our country, which is so far off from the western world, cannot expect a full measure of sympathy. The tragedy of Belgium came first and that, of course, makes it seem more important; the Polish tragedy is not yet finished. In this second German invasion it has suffered more than in the first, and little—very little—now left is now more swept by battle than any other part of the world.

"The refugees, or, rather—those who would like to be refugees—have nowhere to go. There are not the same railroad facilities in Poland as in Belgium. They cannot take a boat to a friendly port where there is shelter and assistance. And this is the misery almost ten times as large as Belgium's.

"It is not promises of help or contributions to be made after the war that are now needed, but immediate assistance for the starving peasants who are in a frightful condition, and whose condition is steadily growing worse with the march of winter and the scarcity of food and clothing.

"The plight of our wretched people could be printed as vividly on the minds of other nations as it is on the minds of our own people. It is a tragedy which is steadily growing worse with the march of winter and the scarcity of food and clothing.

GUARDS WITH RIFLES LOADED

Large additional forces, he said, have been organized from which further contingents are ready to be despatched as soon as the necessary arrangements for receiving them and completing their training can be consummated. Notwithstanding the inevitable disturbance of the trade which was created by the outbreak of war, on so vast a scale, the financial and business conditions of the dominion have shown great stability; and on the whole the country has adapted itself to the new conditions in a very effective way.

"My advisers will submit for your consideration measures necessary by the participation of this dominion in the great task which our empire has undertaken in this war. These measures will be maintained to an honorable and successful issue. I commend to your favorable consideration the measures which will be submitted to you to aid in this great cause, and I pray that the divine blessing may be vouchsafed to you in your deliberations."

LETTER FROM GEO. BEAMISH

Mrs. Thomas Carty, of 888 Marsh Road, has received a letter from her son, George Beamish, who is with the first contingent at Pottery, Wilt, where his company were removed from Salisbury Plain. He is in good health and his present quarters are much more comfortable than those at Salisbury Plain. He writes that a box sent him at Christmas has not yet been received, but he has learned where it is and hopes to get it. He encloses a snapshot of himself and of Fred Moore and Jack Starks.

SAYS THERE IS NOTHING TO IT

Regarding a story again revived that the C. P. R. is taking over the Hillary property, Strait Street, as a site for a new building for their bay window, present owner of the property, said today that he had not received any such proposition. H. C. Groat, general superintendent of the C. P. R. said that there was absolutely no foundation for the story.

The Alarm Out For German Who Perpetrated Dastardly Act

Paris, Feb. 4.—Cavalrymen in France from Dunkirk to Alsace, are eager to capture a certain German officer to avenge what they regard as an act of treachery. Lieut. von Schaffenburg, whose name has been passed from mouth to mouth along the whole battle front, is a more coveted prize than the crown prince himself and the regiment which takes him prisoner, will, it is felt, have won great laurels.

Near Neufchateau, in Belgium, Luxembourg, on August 10, a scouting patrol of the 28th Dragoons under the command of Lieut. Laboulle, met a slightly smaller German force, which fled, drawing the Frenchmen under the fire of a concealed machinegun. This episode could remove his horse. This he was forced to abandon and run away, holding a trooper's stirrup. The captured charger bore the name of von Schaffenburg on his saddle. Whereupon the dragoons vowing vengeance decided to communicate the story to the rest of the cavalry.

Lieut. Laboulle, though frightfully wounded, did not die, but is now approaching convalescence.

GERMANS DESTROY FRENCH VILLAGES

Geneva, Feb. 4.—The French army, which has recovered a strip of land about fifteen miles wide from the Swiss frontier as far north as opposite St. Die, has angered the retiring Germans, who are destroying every village they abandon, taking all the boys and old men with them and driving away the women and children by their sudden orders of evacuation. These refugees continue to arrive in a lamentable state, at Basle, and other points on the Swiss frontier. There is no fire and the deep snow has not prevented it being burned by continuous German bombardment. Geneva is practically destroyed and the fighting around the town continues.

The artillery battle for the possession of Altkirch becomes more violent every day. The guns are buried under the snow by the gunners on both sides to prevent their location by aeroplanes which cross and recross the frontier almost daily. The wives of all the German officers and children by their sudden orders of evacuation. These refugees continue to arrive in a lamentable state, at Basle, and other points on the Swiss frontier. There is no fire and the deep snow has not prevented it being burned by continuous German bombardment. Geneva is practically destroyed and the fighting around the town continues.

CANADIAN APPLES FOR SOUTH AFRICA

Good Market Easily Found in Union, Reports Dominion Trade Commissioner.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—The export of Canadian apples to South Africa can easily be doubled if a serious effort is made to secure the trade, according to the Canadian trade commissioner at Cape Town. A ship arrived there recently with 1200 barrels of Canadian apples which were considered the best. They were of the quality, and the packing was perfect.

GOOD FISHING.

The men engaged in fishing on the Kennebecasis and St. John rivers are making large catches of gaspereaux daily. Many of the nets taken from the water contain from 100 to 300 fish. These sell at four cents each, wholesale, thus making the business quite profitable. The nets often contain hake, but there is no sale for them at the present time.

THE WHEAT MARKET

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 4.—Although the opening of the wheat market today was the steadiest for some time, it was not long before prices made an advance of nearly four cents a bushel, say rose to $1.63, against $1.59, last night and July to $1.41, compared with $1.38 5/8.

St. Catharines, Feb. 4.—The executive of the organization of vegetable-growers have been informed by a representative of the Dominion Canners that if the demand for thirty cents a bushel for tomatoes is adhered to the canners will close some of their factories this season. The canners have been endeavoring to make contracts at twenty-five cents a bushel, but the growers say this rate does not pay, and will utilize their land for other purposes this season.

HALDANE, MAN WHO SUGGESTED LORD KITCHENER

Former Secretary of War Was Victim of Calumny
Never a Word of Protest—The Newspaper Which Led in Campaign Went into Hands of a Receiver

(Montreal Gazette Correspondent.)
London, Jan. 23.—Here is a piece of hitherto unwritten history which will doubtless receive its due place in the archives of the war, and will certainly have to be taken into consideration by the future biographer of Lord Haldane, present Lord Chancellor and former Secretary of State for War, philosopher, jurist, and much-calumniated person. Soon after the outbreak of the war, it will be remembered, Lord Haldane was the object of certain attacks which went so far as to suggest that the admiral he had always expressed for German literature and philosophy, and the efforts he had made to ameliorate the political relations of Germany and Britain united him for the work he was doing for his country, and even rendered that work suspected.
"Give us Kitchener—we don't want Haldane!" was the cry. Kitchener was given to those who cried for him. It looked as if "K. of K.'s" advent at the War Office was a direct result of newspaper campaign. As a matter of fact, Kitchener's appointment to the War Office was decided upon by the prime minister, Mr. Asquith, before a single line had appeared in any newspaper advocating his appointment, and the particular irony of the situation is that it was Lord Haldane himself who suggested Kitchener's appointment to Mr. Asquith.

Mr. Asquith Agreed.
The Lord Chancellor has been derided by his enemies and traduced in the press as having "a German mind." It was possibly thanks to his knowledge of Germany and the German character, that when the war began he realized, possibly more quickly than any other man in England, how thoroughly Germany must have prepared for it and how vast and complicated was the task before the allies. Mr. Asquith was at the beginning of last August discharging the duties of war minister at the request of the prime minister. With the tremendous extra pressure entailed by the preparations for the great struggle, the prime minister called upon Lord Haldane to assist him at the War Office. That was on Sunday, August 2. The following day Lord Haldane arrived at the War Office in obedience to his superior's call; but took immediate occasion to direct the prime minister's attention to the fact that neither one civilian nor even two could be properly qualified to do the work in hand, but that a soldier and great organizer was required.

"Neither you nor I, nor both of us," said Lord Haldane to Mr. Asquith in effect, or probably in different languages, "can fill the bill. Kitchener is the man wanted."
Mr. Asquith agreed with his colleague's suggestion. There was just one difficulty in the way, Lord Kitchener, as the British agent in Egypt, was in the employ of the Foreign Office, and this latter department fully recognized the value of having him at the head of affairs in the Khediviate where trouble even then was foreseen. However, it was realized that the need of his services was greater even at home than in Cairo, and the Foreign Office gave way. Long after the first newspaper attacks on Lord Kitchener who had already on that Monday morning left London for Dover on his way to Egypt, was recalled by telegram as he was about to board the channel steamer. He returned, saw Mr. Asquith, the following morning at 10 Downing street, and the next day, Wednesday, he was appointed secretary of state for war. Lord Haldane, who is of a most sensitive nature, sat without a word of defence or protest. Greater things were at stake, he realized, than his personal feelings; and when a Liberal newspaper, the Daily Chronicle, took up the cudgels on his behalf, it was practically against his wishes. His friends however, maintained that it was to the interest of the country that his slanders should be exposed and the exposure was made with such telling effect that "Fleet street was not surprised to learn that the paper which had led the attack had gone into the hands of a receiver."

THE WAR NEWS.

The rumor is revived that the Germans contemplate a naval attack and an attempt to land troops in England, and it is said that Emperor William's visit to Wilhelmshaven is in connection with this proposed movement. If Germany has really decided to bring her fleet out into the open, the announcement will have no terrors for the British Admiralty but in view of what happened to the last German squadron which approached the British coast it is altogether unlikely that any attempt will be made to convey troops to England, whatever action the German navy may take.

The reports from the eastern war zone show that the Russians are still on the offensive along the greater part of the line from East Prussia to the Carpathians, and that the Germans are continuing their efforts to advance on Warsaw without success. It is said to be the view of most military men that in this movement the Germans are uselessly wasting their strength, because there is practically no hope of capturing Warsaw, and even if they succeeded the Russians would merely fall back a little to another very strongly entrenched position.

There is nothing sensational in the news from France and Belgium, and the news from Egypt and the Suez Canal region merely treats of some skirmishes in which the advantage was with the British. From South Africa comes news that a commando of Boer rebels has surrendered. The premier of Bulgaria in an interview offers some criticism of Serbia and Greece, but says his country's relations with Roumania are steadily improving. The general tenor of his remarks is to the effect that Bulgaria will remain neutral for the present, but is not altogether satisfied with the state of affairs in Macedonia, and the course pursued there by Serbia and Greece.

Today's reports say that during the last few days the Allies have made steady progress in the sand dunes of Belgium and proved their superiority over the Germans, capturing several hundred prisoners besides guns. Further very vigorous attacks by the Germans on the Belgian positions on the Yser have been repulsed, and large convoys of German wounded have been sent to the rear. Today's reports also say that the Germans will probably attempt the relief of Przemysl, withdrawing for that purpose a large force now operating in Russian Poland. From South Africa comes word today that the Canadian army has captured the middle of the St. Croix river, and so passed the boundary and entered Canada. So long as he admits that he blew up the bridge on the Canadian side, the flimsy pretence that he did not plant his foot on Canadian soil will be brushed aside as of no weight whatever in the argument against his extradition.

An interesting situation appears to have arisen in regard to the Intercolonial Railway men who have elected, they claim, that the general manager. They have a circular announcing that employees who enlisted for active service would receive their pay while in the army, and have their old positions back again when they returned from the war. Without discussing the question whether these men should be entitled to full pay from the railway in addition to their soldiers' pay, there is no question whatever that if the general manager gave a pledge and that pledge is now repudiated the men have a very decided grievance.

If ward politics is the only remedy that can be offered for the improvement of civic administration in St. John the city must be progressing backwards. The commission plan of government is undoubtedly superior to the old ward system. No system, however, can take the place of intelligent public interest in civic affairs. The commission plan provides the machinery by which the best men may be elected to office, and it also provides machinery to recall men who do not prove satisfactory administrators. They say that Britain is jealous of their wonderful progress. Is it reasonable to suggest that a nation is jealous of the trade expansions of a neighbor—a nation that preaches and practices "free trade" that stands for the "open door" throughout the world; that has had command of the seven seas for over a century, and that this generation has not taken any unfair advantage of any other nation through that control?

BRITAIN'S PEACEFUL POLICY. (C. A. Magrath in the Canadian War) The people of Germany say the responsibility for this war scourge rests on Great Britain, and a deep hatred is developing towards us. They say that Britain is jealous of their wonderful progress. Is it reasonable to suggest that a nation is jealous of the trade expansions of a neighbor—a nation that preaches and practices "free trade" that stands for the "open door" throughout the world; that has had command of the seven seas for over a century, and that this generation has not taken any unfair advantage of any other nation through that control?

MORE PRODUCTION. The Times has received a copy of what is called the "Agricultural War Book" issued by the Canadian minister of agriculture. Patriotism and Production More Than Usual is the title of the book, which contains nearly 160 pages, and concludes with the following quotation from Lord Kitchener: "I do not know when the war will end; I do not know when it will begin—in May next." This book is issued in connection with the campaign for bigger crops which was inaugurated in Toronto yesterday with the minister of agriculture as the chief speaker, and which will be carried on throughout the length and breadth of Canada. The book opens with a message from the minister of agriculture, and a short statement from Sir Robert Borden, and contains articles by the minister of finance and the ministers of agriculture of the various provinces, as well as a series of articles from professors in agricultural colleges, and a very large amount of valuable information concerning agriculture in Canada, with also a survey in brief of conditions in other countries. No doubt a very wide and profitable use will be made of the contents of this book by those who take part in the campaign in the various provinces for increased production.

DIPHTHERIA AT HALIFAX ARMORIES. Diphtheria has developed among members of the 25th N. S. regiment quartered at the armories in Halifax and more than twenty of the men have been removed to the Infectious Diseases Hospital. With about 1,100 men at the armories the quarters were somewhat crowded. The crowding has now been relieved by the removal of about 400 of the men to the immigration building at the minister of agriculture as the chief speaker, and which will be carried on throughout the length and breadth of Canada.

The first name signed to the Hague agreement which says that hospital ships shall not be fired on in war was that of the German Emperor. The Germans were the first to attempt to torpedo a hospital ship.

Russia has decided that airmen who drop bombs on undefended towns should be treated as pirates. If a pirate is a good name for a wanton murderer the Russian designation will do, although the one that is more likely to stick is that applied by Mr. Winston Churchill when he used the term "child killers."

Bradstreet's reports that the labor market in the United States has taken a turn for the better, and that there is not quite as much idleness throughout the country as there was in December. It adds, however, that "the situation will stand considerable improvement before it can be said that affairs have returned to a normal basis." Bradstreet finds "an actual betterment in business," and looks for continued improvement.

Apparently the Socialists of Germany have not yet come to see the iniquity of a war begun in the interests of militarism, and which if successful would sacrifice the very principles for which these Socialists profess to stand. They have practically read out of their party the representative who in the Reichstag voted against the war credit. In other words the German Socialists are still for war. Their awakening has not yet come.

The German who attempted to blow up the bridge at Vaneboro alleges that he did not put foot on Canadian soil. He admits, however, that he attempted to blow up the Canadian end of the St. Croix bridge. To do so he must have crossed the middle of the St. Croix river, and so passed the boundary and entered Canada. So long as he admits that he blew up the bridge on the Canadian side, the flimsy pretence that he did not plant his foot on Canadian soil will be brushed aside as of no weight whatever in the argument against his extradition.

An interesting situation appears to have arisen in regard to the Intercolonial Railway men who have elected, they claim, that the general manager. They have a circular announcing that employees who enlisted for active service would receive their pay while in the army, and have their old positions back again when they returned from the war. Without discussing the question whether these men should be entitled to full pay from the railway in addition to their soldiers' pay, there is no question whatever that if the general manager gave a pledge and that pledge is now repudiated the men have a very decided grievance.

If ward politics is the only remedy that can be offered for the improvement of civic administration in St. John the city must be progressing backwards. The commission plan of government is undoubtedly superior to the old ward system. No system, however, can take the place of intelligent public interest in civic affairs. The commission plan provides the machinery by which the best men may be elected to office, and it also provides machinery to recall men who do not prove satisfactory administrators. They say that Britain is jealous of their wonderful progress. Is it reasonable to suggest that a nation is jealous of the trade expansions of a neighbor—a nation that preaches and practices "free trade" that stands for the "open door" throughout the world; that has had command of the seven seas for over a century, and that this generation has not taken any unfair advantage of any other nation through that control?

BRITAIN'S PEACEFUL POLICY. (C. A. Magrath in the Canadian War) The people of Germany say the responsibility for this war scourge rests on Great Britain, and a deep hatred is developing towards us. They say that Britain is jealous of their wonderful progress. Is it reasonable to suggest that a nation is jealous of the trade expansions of a neighbor—a nation that preaches and practices "free trade" that stands for the "open door" throughout the world; that has had command of the seven seas for over a century, and that this generation has not taken any unfair advantage of any other nation through that control?

ANY DYSPEPTIC CAN GET WELL

By Taking "Fruit-a-tives" Says Capt. Swan

Life is very miserable to those who suffer with Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and Bilelessness. This letter from Captain Swan (one of the best known skippers on the Great Lakes) tells how to get quick relief from Stomach Trouble. Port Burwell, Ont., May 8th, 1913. "A man has a poor chance of living and enjoying life when he cannot eat. That was what was wrong with me. Loss of appetite and indigestion was brought on by Constipation. I had trouble with these diseases for years. I lost a great deal of flesh and suffered constantly. For the last couple of years I have taken "Fruit-a-tives" and have been so pleased with the results that I have recommended them on many occasions to friends and acquaintances. I am sure that "Fruit-a-tives" have helped me greatly. By following the diet rules and taking "Fruit-a-tives" according to directions, any person with Dyspepsia will get benefit."

H. SWAN. "Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size 25c. or sent post paid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Mr. Brown has just had a telephone put in connecting his office and house and was very much pleased with it. "I tell you the telephone is a wonderful thing. I want you to dine with me this evening, and I will notify Mrs. Brown to expect you. Speaking through the telephone, my friend, Smith, will dine with us this evening." Then, to his friend: "Now listen and hear how plain her reply comes back. With startling distinctness it came: "Ask your friend, Smith, if he thinks we keep a hotel."

His Explanation.

"There will have to be new rules made here, or I shall give notice," said the hullo girl in the telephone office to the chief clerk. "Why, what's the trouble?" "Well, some of the things said over the wires are not fit for me to hear." "Oh, that's all right," was his flippant rejoinder. "You can't expect to work around electricity and not get shocked!"

"Tommy, why don't you play with Frank any more?" asked Tommy's mother, who noticed that he was cultivating the acquaintance of a new boy on the block. "I thought you were such good chums."

"We was," replied Tommy, superciliously, "but he's a mollycoddle. He paid 't into the ball grounds."

A Comparative Value of Diamonds

WE are often asked how Diamonds compare in price in Canada with those offering them in the United States.

We are often quoted the fact that some American houses advertise Diamonds at around $90.00 a carat.

Diamonds may be had at any price you wish to pay.

On a recent visit to the American markets, I was shown diamonds as high as $850.00 a carat. The average price in the best stores for good stones is around $350.00 per carat. This is just about right, as it leaves us with preference of the duty.

Diamonds enter Canada duty free.

Diamonds pay 20 per cent entering the States.

We sell good stones from $225.00 to $500.00 a carat.

Danger Signals Warn You of Approaching Paralysis

Slowly and Surely Exhaustion Goes on Until Collapse of the Nerves is the Natural Result. You may be restless, nervous, irritable and sleepless, but you think there is nothing to be alarmed at. You have no appetite, digestion is impaired, and there is weakness and irregularity of other bodily organs. You feel tired in body and mind, and find that you lack the energy to attend to the daily task.

You may not realize that these are the symptoms of nervous prostration and the danger signals which warn you that some form of paralysis is the next step of development. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the most successful restorative for the nerves that has ever been offered to the public.

This has been proven in many thousands of cases similar to the one described in this letter. Mrs. Thos. Allan, R.P.D., 3, Sombra, Ont., writes:—"Five years ago I suffered a complete breakdown, and frequently had palpitation of the heart. Since that illness I have had dizzy spells, had no power over my limbs (locomotor ataxia) and could not walk straight. At night I would have severe nervous spells, with heart palpitation, and would shake as though I had the ague. I felt improvement after using the first box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after continuing the treatment can now walk, eat and sleep well, have no nervous spells and do not require heart medicine. I have told several of my neighbors of the splendid results obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food." PRICE LOW GANDY & ALLISON 3 and 4 North Wharf, City. THE PRICE OF BREAD (Bangor Commercial) The announcement is now made in New York city that sometime this week the price of bread will be raised by six cents a loaf while rolls are to cost a penny apiece rather than be sold at six for five cents as present. Such is the statement that has been given out by the Wholesale Bakers' Association which sets the price in bread in the metropolis. The reason for the advance is, of course, not far to seek and is to be found in the increase in the price of flour. The bakers thought that it was more advisable to increase the price per loaf than to reduce the size of the loaf. They announce that if the price of flour continues to rise that they will be obliged very speedily to again advance the cost of the loaf. The action is an expected one and the women's clubs have been endeavoring to anticipate it by urging housewives to use more rice and vegetables.

SAVING CONDITIONS IN PALESTINE ARE BAD

Feeling Between German and Turkish Officers Has Reached Acute Tension

Cairo, Feb. 3.—Refugees who have arrived in Egypt from Palestine report that conditions there go from bad to worse. The relations between the German and Turkish officers have reached a stage of acute tension, and particularly are the relations bad between Djemal Pasha, commander-in-chief, and Fressan Hack Bey, who is in command in Egypt.

Cases of actual starvation have occurred in Jaffa and Jerusalem, though in Gallilee conditions are fairly good, owing to the activity of the Zionist organizations. Their excellent work has aroused the ire of the Turkish authorities, and Aldin Bey, late governor of Jaffa, who is now attached to the staff of the Fourth Army Corps, has sworn to exterminate all the Zionist organizations throughout Palestine.

Aldin Bey is a cousin of Enver Pa-

WANT ADULTS IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Discussion of Methods at Synod Meeting

MEMBERS IN UNIFORM

Praise Chaplains and Volunteers—Bookkeeping Methods—Preservation of Records—Rothsary College Reports

For its second business day the diocesan synod of Fredericton transacted a lot of work and covered a wide field. Sunday School work.

Much interest, too, was shown in the evening conference on Sunday school work. This is nominally supplementary to the work of the churches proper and the gathering was therefore under the auspices of the Sunday School Association of the diocese. The bishop presided and the attendance of school teachers was good. The discussion in each case rose perhaps to a higher level of usefulness than at any of the diocesan gatherings hitherto.

The committee reported that at the first meeting, Rev. G. A. Kihring was appointed deputy chairman and Rev. E. B. Hooper secretary. The organization of the department is as follows: Rev. G. A. Kihring, superintendent of teacher training department; Rev. C. W. Nichols, superintendent of some department; Rev. R. P. McKim, superintendent of adult Bible class department; Rev. G. F. Scovil, superintendent of the chorale department; Very Rev. Dean Schofield, superintendent of finance department; J. A. Coster, superintendent of statistical department; Miss Ethel Jarvis, superintendent of primary and font roll department. Co-opted members of the committee: Rev. R. P. McKim, Mrs. John McAvity, J. A. Coster and Rev. G. F. Scovil.

Very Rev. Dean Schofield, superintendent of the finance department, reported that towards the appropriation of the Sunday school commission, 53 parishes and missions, during the past year, contributed $286.62, as against 48 parishes and missions last year contributing $261.88. While this is an improvement, there is a serious difference between the amount raised and the $400 which was the appropriation placed upon the diocese.

In a general discussion of Sunday school work of almost two hours' duration, the bishop mentioned that one of the weaknesses of the Church in England in relation to other churches in the same area was that they could not get the adult members of the church to contribute to the Sunday schools. When he passed some Baptist places of worship he was often struck by the many grown persons who streamed out from them. The home department work should fill a gap in the Anglican scheme.

Revs. W. J. Wilkinson and P. Ellis, Musquash, spoke of the advantages they had found from the home department lessons.

Rev. E. B. Hooper was thanked for his twenty-one years' work as secretary of the Sunday School Association of England which as previously reported, he is now leaving for the present to serve with the Canadian forces overseas. At 10 o'clock

Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy is Home-Made

Readily Prepared in a Few Minutes. Cheap but Unequaled

Some people are constantly annoyed from one year's end to the other with a persistent bronchial cough, which is wholly unnecessary. Here is a home-made remedy that does right, relieves the cause and will make you wonder what became of it.

Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, pour into a 16-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will find the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. This ending cough that you never thought would be in a painful and highly contagious remarkable rapidity. Ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, water coughs and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, which has been found to be the world over for its ease, certainty and promptness in overcoming bad coughs, colds and throat troubles.

Get the genuine. Ask your druggist for "Pinex" and you will get it. It is not anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, in full cooperation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

The reports were formally endorsed for publication by the synod today, and the gathering closed with the benediction.

Making Careful Returns.

On the subject of the reports of the clergy of the work done during the year, which the bishop in the afternoon criticized for being so neglected, Ven. Archbishop Buchanan gave the following notice of motion:

"Each clergyman having care of souls should make a return to a committee of the synod, at the meeting of the synod, a written report of the work done in his cure since the last meeting, and also make to the secretary of the synod, on or immediately after the thirty-first day of December in each year, a return in the form (No. 1), a printed copy of which form shall be sent by the secretary to each clergyman on or before the first day of December. Such returns shall be laid before the board forthwith, and before the synod on the first day of its meeting, and the secretary shall make to any missionary, in default of rendering any such statement or return, so long as such default shall continue."

Theological Study.

The report of the committee on theological study, brought in by Rev. W. J. Wilkinson in the afternoon, recommended with regard to libraries that a grant be made to the secretary of the synod, in order that a substantial gain had been made in numbers. During the Michaelmas term there were sixty-two boarders and six day boys enrolled. In reply to the bishop the headmaster said that thirty-four old Rothsary boys had enlisted in the services for the present year.

Rothsary College and the War.

When the report of the headmaster, Rev. W. R. Hibbard, of Rothsary College, was presented it was considered very satisfactory notwithstanding the upset of the war a substantial gain had been made in numbers. During the Michaelmas term there were sixty-two boarders and six day boys enrolled. In reply to the bishop the headmaster said that thirty-four old Rothsary boys had enlisted in the services for the present year.

Another pleasing incident of the afternoon session was the presentation to the synod of two lay delegates in the king's uniform. These were Sgt.-Major Carlos, of St. Mary's church, and Sgt. A. G. Jones, of St. James' church. Archdeacon Raymond in calling the attention of the bishop to them said that it was unique for the synod to have two delegates in uniform in addition to Rev. E. B. Hooper and Rev. G. A. Kihring, two of the Canadian chaplains. His lordship spoke words of appreciation of the way in which these church members had come forward to do their duty in the war and said that the prayers of the churches would be with them.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water, and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxins, called uric acid, which are generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood, and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of forcing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

MORE CREAMERIES IN SASKATCHEWAN.

The growth of the co-operative movement in Saskatchewan is shown by the increase in creameries in that province. There were only four of these in 1907, with a patronage of 218 and an output of 66,246 pounds of butter, while in 1914 there were 212 creameries with a patronage of 3,625, and an output of 1,012,280 pounds of butter.

The dairy branch of the Department of Agriculture of Saskatchewan is holding meetings throughout the province in respect to the promotion of dairying, for which the C. P. R. is providing specially equipped cars.

PRESIDENT WILSON TAKES A HAND FOR BIGGER CROPS

Washington, Feb. 3.—Co-operation between business and the government in framing laws for the benefit of all the people was urged by President Wilson tonight, in an address before several hundred representative business men here attending the annual convention of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. He declared that "we must all pool our interests," in order to discover the best means for handling public problems.

The creation in the United States, in time of peace, of the same kind of united spirit, which moves nations during wars was advocated by the president, who remarked that "when peace is as handsome as war there will be no wars," and "when men engage in the pursuits of peace in the same spirit of self-sacrifice as they engage in war, wars will disappear."

The president predicted that, while there is a shortage of food in the world now, the shortage will be much greater. He pointed out that under the guidance of the department of agriculture efforts must be made by farmers in the United States to grow more and more grain, in order that the world may be fed.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Johnson-Peters.

A quiet wedding was celebrated in the Victoria street parlour last evening at 8 o'clock, when Howard Edward Johnson and Mabel Peters, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. B. H. Nobles. They were unattended.

The bride and groom received many handsome presents of cut glass and silver ware. Also, Mr. Johnson's associates in the Norton Griffiths Company's machine shop presented to the groom a willow rocker and parlor clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will reside in Victoria street.

San Francisco, Feb. 3.—Governor Edward Haber, of New Pomerania, in the Bismarck Archipelago, formerly a German colony, arrived here today on the liner Sonoma with one hundred other Germans captured by the British last August, when they took possession of the islands and subsequently paroled. Fourteen were women. All departed tonight for New York and New Orleans.

OHIO RIVER FLOODS DRIVE THOUSANDS FROM THEIR HOMES

Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 3.—Ten thousand men in factories in and around Wheeling and double that number along the Ohio river between here and East Liverpool (O.), were temporarily deprived of employment today by the flood. Wheeling Island was almost entirely inundated, and it was estimated that two thousand persons had been driven from their homes. Schools were closed and public buildings thrown open for the refugees.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT

London, Feb. 3, 8:56 p. m.—Premier Asquith presented a resolution in the House of Commons today to devote the present session entirely to agrarian measures.

A. Bonar Law, speaking for the Opposition, agreed to the resolution. He said that the opposition intended to treat the present sitting of the house as a war session, as had been done in Canada and France.

The house adopted the resolution.

Canadians In Comfort After Life on Salisbury Plain

The Change That Came With Billeting—Thousand of Them in Devices—People Like Them and They Like the People—A Wedding

It was difficult to get some of the horses to go into stable when they got to the town; normal conditions seemed foreign to them; while the night of their first issue of straw when the drivers first bedded them up would have made them shy if they had had sufficient energy left in them. It is no trouble to get them into the stables now; they go in as freely as when they come out for exercise, and do not mind chewing the straw when the manger is emptied of corn and the hay is gone from the rack. Quiet, careworn, steady when they came in are now look-up, as one driver observed if he patted one of his team on its fastening hip it would almost climb the wall. What the horses think of their stables now is seen when some of them from the 1st Battery of the 1st Brigade, quartered in the neighborhood of the Nursery, turn out for water. They are taken to the trough at the top of Dunkirk Hill and there they drink as eagerly, but like the donkey on the sands they come back at the "double" unless the driver takes care to prevent it. They are sometimes taken out with nothing more to hold them than the hemp-baler, but judging by the capers they cut sometimes that will not be safe much longer when they have had another week or two of coming in to the stables. Evidence of this was afforded last Sunday when a driver brought one of his team out to water. A couple of dogs following a motor car with the soldier's steel, and it began to bolt. For a moment the situation looked ugly, but the driver pluckily hung on to it, until he restored the horse's peace of mind, and brought it back without any damage being done.

Not Over-Worked.

The men, drivers and gunners, are not being over-worked; they do not get so much to do as they did on the plain, though there is no complaint that there was ever any stress of work. Revelling sounds soon after seven o'clock when the men turn out for their duties. The drivers' duties are confined to the stables, the gunners having a different sphere. The 1st Battery of the 1st Brigade has removed its guns from the position where they were at first posted on the Green, and taken them to the open square at the headquarters of the Constabulary. The men are not having gun practice so far as firing is concerned, but some of the batteries were engaged in that before they came over, and others have practiced on Salisbury Plain in conjunction with the air craft, and understood to have done some good work both in firing and manoeuvring. The drivers take their horses for exercise at intervals, now, which, with stable duties and pickets make up the day's work, while the gunners devote their attention to details connected with the campaign. The day's work finishes just before five o'clock, and the men are at liberty until 9.30. This is half an hour longer than when they first arrived. "First post" sounds at about quarter-past nine, and the "last post" at the half hour. Now that the men are in billets there is no necessity for "lights out." By 9.30 there is a Canadian soldier to be seen in the streets, save those wearing the police helmet or on picket.

Coming to the town from the grumpy plain in baths was among the first things sought by many of the men and there was quite a run on such accommodation. The civilian population tried to meet their convenience in this way, and many placed their private bath rooms at the disposal of the soldiers much to their appreciation. The bath rooms at No. 20 Northgate Street (the premises acquired

Striking Comment On War By British Papers

The Great Divide. (The Christian World.)

From Calgary in Alberta the Canadian Pacific Railway climbs to the Great Divide. This is the watershed of the Rocky Mountains. Eastward the streams flow down to the prairie, westward they flow through British Columbia to the Pacific.

1914 will stand out as the Great Divide of history. It is a year of endings and beginnings. We have an age behind us, we enter upon a new one. Old things will be passed away and all things will have become new. States, churches, industry, national and international relationships and ethics, literature and art, will for ever be different because of 1914. We have to believe that when the shadows of the war tragedy have lifted, the world will breathe a freer air and live under a clearer sky in more genial sunshine.

1914 Began on August 4.

(The Scotsman.)

The year 1914 began on August 4, at 7 p. m., the hour when our ambassador at Berlin received his final instructions to ask for his passports. The nation will never forget Sir Edward Grey's historic speech of the preceding day. It reminded us of a sentence in Beaconsfield's "Sybil," a voice like the Apocalypse sounded over England, and . . . echoed in all the Courts of Europe.

In the domestic retrospect of the year the political genius of the British people dwarfs every other circumstance. This is a particularly interesting reflection, because it touches the paramount difference between Great Britain and Germany. Though the two people are akin in blood, they are in civic spirit almost as far as possible apart. We are not a political people. Prince von Bismarck says, "What we lack," he adds, "is the art of proceeding from insight to practical application and the greater art of doing the right thing, politically by a sure creative instinct instead of only after much thought and considerable cogitation."

Britain Finds Herself

(The Pall Mall.)

We do not suppose that even the greatest optimist would have believed, when 1914 opened, that its close would witness such an awakening of the soul of Britain as the events of the year of trial have brought about. To those who looked with troubled eyes on the materialism, love of ease and amusement, factiousness and carelessness which seemed to stifle and overlie the British race, it may well appear that a miracle has happened.

The Gunner's Wedding

It was not a wedding, but a wedding in the principal figures in such an auspicious event rarely forget the circumstances, and it is risked to the other parties concerned, but it is believed that they will be here for a few weeks longer before departing for their respective homes.

her away. She was attired in a dress of chiffon velvet, with sax plush coat, black velvet hat, and also wore a set of dark fox furs. Marriage music sounded from within the church (H. H. Baker being at the organ), as the bride entered, and the congregation rose to meet the bride and groom.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. W. G. Filleau, and Canon Almond, chaplain with the divisional artillery. The groom took the preliminary part of the service, also giving the charge and the blessing, but the actual ceremony was performed by Canon Almond.

As the party left the altar rails for the vestry to sign the register, the "Wedding March" was played. The soldiers lined up inside the church for the bride and groom to pass through the lines. The bride received a bouquet of white chrysanthemums from Regimental Sergeant Major Clifford after the ceremony. It was tied with streamers of red, white and blue ribbon. Even before the shower was at its height as the bride and bridegroom left the church they were showered with confetti, and as they proceeded down the avenue to the waiting motor car the "lads" followed at the double and there was a storm of confetti and rice, officers and men alike joining in this form of showing their esteem for the newly-married pair.

The shower was at its height as the young people entered the automobile, which, however, was soon on the move. Unconsciously to the groom, and his young wife, the magic words "We are married," had appeared on the front of the car, while the ceremony was in progress, while attached to the rear were round old shoes, tin cans and such like to last more than an ordinary lifetime. Round after round of cheers went up in honor of the soldier and his newly-wedded wife as the car moved away, such as which few can remember as marking the celebration of a marriage at St. John's.

Later in the day a reception, honored by the presence of several of the officers, was held at No. 8, The Britton, where the bride had made her temporary home since her arrival in England.

On Sunday the men, with the exception of the Catholics, attended service at St. John's Church, at ten o'clock. It was exclusively arranged for the military and the building was well filled, there being over 600 present. Canon Almond, of Montreal, conducted the service, which consisted of a shortened form of morning prayer, the lesson was read by the Rev. G. H. Parsons, and the rector gave the address. The choir was not present; the organ (at which was H. H. Baker) led the singing, which was heartily joined in by the men. The hymns were specially arranged, and copies were issued to the men in leaflet form. After the service, which concluded just before the hour for the ordinary morning prayer, the men were marched back to the Market Place, where they had previously paraded, and were there dismissed. A crowd of civilians watched the assembly and the dismissal.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grams of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clear and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

culty of making money in other ways, there have been many applications of force to place gold mining rights along the North Saskatchewan River, in the Edmonton district. As the sands are known to contain gold in sufficient quantity to make the operation fairly remunerative, the government is issuing 100-foot licenses for one dollar, but requires practically continuous operation and present cancellation of license.

WOULD SHUT OFF THE SALE OF LIQUOR IN ALL CANADA DURING WAR

One thousand persons attended a "patriotic demonstration" held in St. James Methodist Church, Montreal, on Sunday night for the purpose of giving expression to the desire that the sale of liquor be stopped in Canada during the war.

His Lordship Bishop Ferington, who presided, Rev. Dr. S. T. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada and Rev. Dr. T. A. Moore, head of the moral and social reform work of the church in the dominion, spoke strongly in favor of a Canada free from liquor while the war lasted, and Doctor Moore urged all present to sign a pledge to abstain from drink until the war is over and to write to the premier of the province urging him to close every place where liquor is sold, until the end of the war.

At the close of the meeting Rev. Dr. Moore said every Methodist charge in Canada was to be urged to hold a similar meeting on a single day soon and that all the churches in Canada were going to unite in a campaign for dominion-wide prohibition until the war was over.

"And we expect that we shall win, and that the government will interfere and declare that no liquor shall be sold in Canada until the war has been finished," he added.

Rev. Dr. Chown made the statement that, taking 1914 as the average: "We in Canada spend as much on liquor as would pay the expenses for an army of 200,000 men at the front for one year, providing that they cost us $815 a man a year."

AMUSEMENTS

"MOTHERHOOD" AT THE UNIQUE

Nature Study Handled in a Delicate Manner By the Beauty Co.

Those who were privileged to see the Beauty motion picture play, "Motherhood," at the Unique theatre last night came away greatly impressed with the message it so faithfully conveys. The subject itself is not as easy one to handle, the producer used great judgment in the manner in which he exploited a theme that deals directly with humanity at large. Motherhood as presented by the Beauty Co. is an elevating subject offering food for much thought and at the same time conveying a lesson at once important and beautiful. The touch of the artist is apparent throughout the entire drama. The scenery is somewhat of a revelation, especially that picturing "The Garden of Love." Miss Margarita Fischer plays the part of the young wife with Harry Pollard as the husband, and little Kathie Fischer handles the role of Cupid to perfection. There are only four characters in the cast. This feature will be repeated again tonight, in conjunction with the Keystone comedy hit, Strong Heart but Weak Knees, and the Majestic photo play, A Mother's Influence.

ITALIAN PEASANTS TEMPTED BY THE "HIGH WAGES" OFFERED

Venice, Italy, Feb. 3, via London, 4.32 p. m.—Many Italian peasants, both men and women, are going to Germany to engage in farm and factory work, in response to offers of unusually high wages. For the men $1.02 a day is promised, and for the women 75c. Italian newspapers are warning the peasants against accepting this employment, in view of the uncertainty in regard to Italy's foreign policy, but apparently many unemployed persons are willing to assume the risk involved.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR NO DANDRUFF--25 CENT DANDERINE

Hair Coming Out? If Dry, Thin, Faded, Bring Back Its Color and Lustre

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair, and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

AMATEUR NIGHT, OPERA HOUSE

The amateur contest at the Opera House on Friday night immediately after the regular performance by the Young-Adams Company promises to be a big event. There are already twelve entries of local aspirants for stage honors not to mention the tug-of-war contest between the Army Service Corps and the 26th Battalion which will be staged at the same time. Seats are already selling rapidly and if you intend to be there you had best phone Main 1868 at once.

A Never Failing Way to Banish Ugly Hairs

(Aids to Beauty)

No woman is immune to superfluous growths, and because these are likely to appear at any time, it is advisable to always have some delicate powder handy to use when the occasion arises. A paste is made with some of the powder and water and spread upon the hairy surface; in about 2 minutes this is carefully removed and the skin washed. You will then find that your skin is entirely free from hair or fuzz. Be sure, however, to get real delectable.

THE KENNEL

Noted Irish Terrier Here. Robert Magee of St. John, dog fancier, who has handled some animals of high degree, has imported from Mr. Allbright of New Jersey his famous Irish terrier bitch, Baughfell Banasher. Mr. Allbright is authority for the statement that she is considered the second best of her sex in North America and third best of her breed today. She swept all before her at the last Danbury show. Her pedigree tells of her coming from a race of champions. Mr. Allbright's famous English importation, Champion Reprieve is to be added to Baughfell Banasher. Reprieve is judged as the finest example of the true Irish terrier type in America. Mr. Magee is to be commended by the dog fanciers of this section for his addition to the number of good dogs here.

I thought the cold was turning to bronchitis, so I changed my medicine to Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I used three bottles, and they completely cured me, and I am as strong as ever. I highly recommend it to all sufferers."

2; when the gong rang for time at the end of the third period and the collegians were a happy lot, the result being a surprise to the followers of the Red and Black.

The game itself was a fair exhibition of hockey and it was a well-earned victory for the collegians. The Red and Black team is lacking in weight but nearly all are fast skaters and fair stick-handlers and as a whole the team is a tendency among the players of both teams for too much individual work, which is not shown up to good advantage in the old seven-men style hockey.

Notes.—The St. Johns were also handicapped through the absence of Shatford and Phillips both being unable to make the trip. With their regular team and playing six instead of seven men the result would probably have been different.

N. H. A. Resists

At Montreal last night the Canadian defeated Quebec, 6 to 2.

At Ottawa the home team won from the Torontos, 7 goals to 2.

The game between the Wanderers and Shamrocks did not take place owing to the death of the father of the three McNamaras. The Shamrocks asked to have the game postponed but the Wanderers refused and took the game by default.

THAT WAS ENOUGH FOR GENERAL ANDY!

Andy Burt is dead. In the army they called him Brig.-Gen. Andrew Burt, but among baseball fans he was "Andy." He was quite a ball player himself, and even after he had won his epaulettes he got out and played the game whenever there was a chance. During the Spanish-American war he was in command of a negro regiment, and one day he removed a cork turned up his trousers, spat on his hands and joined the game.

The privates on the team seemed in awe of a general, and Burt remarked: "Come on, boys. Out here I'm only a private. Play the game just that way."

In the middle of the game he reached first. A big, black trooper was coaching. "Git a lead, yeh little, sawed-off, ramed-down, bandy-legged, squinch-eyed runt, loo," he yelled. "Git offen dat bag an' slide, dawgween your hide."

Then Gen. Burt quit.

CANADA IN THE WAR

A banquet was tendered last night by citizens of Chatham to Rev. Geo. Wood and Dr. A. J. Lottier who are to leave for foreign service with the second contingent.

Fellow employees of R. Quilty in the service of R. P. & W. F. Starr yesterday presented to him a military watch.

Kenneth Bain of the Army Service Corps, while cleaning a revolver in his home in Peters street last night accidentally shot himself in the wrist. Dr. McEvey attended him.

The casualty list from the Canadian troops shows deaths of Lance Corp. W. J. Hinton of the Princess Patricia's, from meningitis. Private G. Smithson of the Princess Pals, was severely wounded.

The matter of pay for soldiers formerly in the government service, in accordance with promises said to have been made, will be taken up at Ottawa in a few days. Meanwhile some 150 former members of the I. C. R. in the 28th Battalion, and No. 8 Co. C. A. S. C. have detailed to the front.

Unpromised made to them by Mr. Gutelius, manager of the road, regarding pay during their absence are fulfilled.

LARGE NUMBER AT PORTLAND METHODIST CHURCH BANQUET

The Sunday school auditorium of the Portland Methodist church was the scene of a happy gathering last evening when about 300 men of the parish assembled to attend a missionary banquet and also to hear Rev. Isaac T. Headland, D. D., of his experience in China and Japan.

In an eloquent address he narrated many incidents. He told of good being derived from the preaching of the gospel there and explained the advancement attained by these nations since the time of the missionaries. The discourse was interspersed with many realistic illustrations of the life among the people.

The gathering was presided over by the pastor of the church, Rev. M. E. Conron, presiding. Among the invited guests were: Rev. F. McKim, pastor, chairman of the St. John district; Rev. J. B. Champion, Rev. W. G. Lane, Rev. Geo. Steel, and also the secretary of the Nova Scotia conference.

Many ladies of the church co-operated with the Ladies Aid in serving the tempting repast. The following is a list of the ladies who assisted:—Mrs. Rowley, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. McConnell, Mrs. S. Kirk, Mrs. A. Lingley, Mrs. Cowan, Miss Minnie Kirk, Mrs. C. Brown, Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. Harrington, Miss Morrow, Miss Huey, Mrs. London, Mrs. McInnes, Mrs. B. Ferris, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. T. Armour, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Geo. McConnell, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Blizard, Mrs. Corbett, Mrs. W. Myles, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Oleson, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. McIntosh, Miss Armstrong, Miss McConnell, Mrs. B. Smith, Miss Worden, Mrs. A. C. Powers, Miss Edwards.

The general committee was composed of Mrs. George Steel, Mrs. Roy Hamm, Miss Jane Henderson, A. C. Powers, chairman; S. A. Kirk, R. Corbett, John A. Kennedy, Robert Maxwell.

The Knights of the Round Table, associated with the church, had a good representation, more than twenty being present, including E. W. Merrill, president; Robert Maxwell, Allen Kirk, Henry Waters, Robert S. McConnell, secretary-treasurer; Lloyd Yeoman, Glen Cunningham, Gordon Foster, Walter Foster, and William Kirk.

The pastor announced that the committee appointed to secure increased missionary contributions to the church would begin their work today. During the evening a short musical programme was enjoyed, including a song by C. Brooke Skelton. The national anthem concluded an enjoyable function.

ROSS RIFLE PLANT AGAIN DOUBLED TO HANDLE BIG ORDERS

Quebec, Feb. 4.—The Ross rifle factory has contracted to furnish to the Russian government 2,000,000 rifles during the next two years. It will also supply to England and Canada 500 rifles a day simultaneously. The plant, which has already been doubled since the outbreak of the war will be doubled again before November, when it is expected that some five thousand men will be given employment. Representatives of the factory have announced to the city council their intention to bring over some 1200 expert hands from Europe, Belgium in particular.

MOTION PICTURES IN WINNIPEG SCHOOLS

(Montreal Mail) The Winnipeg School Board has just acquired for educational purposes the best motion picture machine obtainable. This machine will be used to teach such subjects as geography, history and natural science. A number of excellent Canadian scenes will be obtained, and the pupils directly into touch with their native land.

To have the boy "creeping like a small unwillingly to school" is no credit to the educational system. Baden-Powell, to quote a familiar modern example, taught the world that, dressed like a scout and put in attractive surroundings, the boy will run to school and will stay as long as he is wanted. Thus we have the boy scout movement—a great training school for robust manhood, self-supporting, drawing its energy from the boundless enthusiasm of young humans.

In the same way, the passion of youngsters for motion pictures can be harnessed as an educational force. As a rule, it is the man who enjoys the task who does the best work, and it is true also that the boy who enjoys the lesson learns it best. Everyone who has gone to school remembers that he learned his lesson better if he liked the subject and disliked the teacher.

The old idea that no medicine is good for a child except bitter, unpalatable stuff is held today only by cranks. The modern physician pays strict attention to the patient's likes and dislikes and varies the treatment accordingly. With nature, so with human nature.

R. K. Y. C. OFFICERS

Commander H. S. Wetmore of the R. K. Y. C., was re-elected for the ensuing year at the annual meeting of the yacht club in their rooms on Tuesday evening.

It was decided to set July 7 as the day on which the annual cruise will start from the clubhouse at Millerville and a committee was appointed to arrange the details of points to be visited, services, etc.

The twenty-two members of the club who has enlisted for active service with the first and second Canadian expeditionary forces were voted to be retained in good standing for the period of their enlistment.

With Commander Wetmore, the following officers have been chosen to lead the R. K. Y. C. for the season of 1915: Vice-Commander, Walter Logan; rear commodore, Dr. J. H. Barton; secretary, H. W. Stubbs; treasurer, H. A. Allison; executive, the officers ex-officio and Fred Heans, Howard E. Holder, A. E. Everett, Charles T. Green and William H. Turner.

The commodore reported the appointments of Rev. G. M. Campbell, D.D., fleet chaplain; Dr. W. E. Rowley, fleet surgeon; D. Arnold Fox, musical director; William McLaughlin, fleet captain.

WHAT BAT THINKS ABOUT C. W. & F. V.

(Bat Nelson reports the prospects of the Welsh-White fight—By Bat.) I looked over Charlie White and Freddie Welsh yesterday. Both are in fine condition and good fighters, but I could lick either of them with one hand tied behind me. My plan is to nurse my hands carefully; knock out a few of these bum lightweights and recapture the title. My moving picture stunt is going well, and I have a new press agent. I am the only real battling and any fighter who takes that name will be restrained. If the courts don't restrain him I'll knock his block off.

WILLARD SAYS HE CAN BEAT JOHNSON

Confident That He Will Win His Fight Against Colored Champion

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 3.—"I have all the confidence in the world that I can beat that shiner. I hope Jack Johnson is as good as he was when he whipped Jeffries at Reno or when he saw the best day of his life. I can beat him and could have beaten him the best day he ever saw," says Jess Willard with a confident smile. "He has only eleven or twelve knockouts to his credit, while I have been knocking them out as fast as I meet them. He has never done anything that would make me believe that he is a wonderful man and I am not the least bit bluff."

"I went into the fight game solely for the purpose to whip Jack Johnson, and I am going to do it. Every fight I have had the fans told me I would get trimmed. But I have never been knocked down, never had my nose bled, nor my eye blacked, and they have been telling me that Johnson would lick me. I know better. I am going to win this fight and return the title to the white division where it belongs."

This statement was made by Willard just before he began to earn his training for the fight of his career. Willard weighs about 245 pounds and expects to fight at 280.

When Willard, former cowboy, steps into the ring with Johnson on March 6 at the Jai-Alais race track he will have realized his ambition as a fighter—and fulfil the promise he made to his former cowboy associates when he first took up boxing as a profession—one day to battle with the negro for the world's title.

Willard says he has been boxing only about thirty-four months and has at least twenty-four knockouts to his credit, but his victories have not been over men of the type of Jack Johnson, and his coming battle with the black wonder will prove whether he is a real high class fighter or just an ordinary second rate.

The people of El Paso are all boosting for Willard. It is perhaps due to the fact that the negro is not popular down here, but wherever the fight fans meet one can always hear a booster for Johnson.

HEART WOULD PALPITATE. HAD WEAK and DIZZY SPELLS.

Palpitation of the heart is one of the most common of all heart troubles. The heart will beat fast for several seconds, then slow, then start to flutter, and a feeling of utter depression will come over the system accompanied by weak and dizzy spells, making you feel that you are surely going to die. When you feel this way what you require is a real good heart and never tonic; one that will strengthen the weak heart and build up the nerve system. For this purpose we know of nothing that can equal Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. J. S. Nicholls, Listowel, Ont., writes: "I was weak and run down, my heart would palpitate, and I would take weak and dizzy spells. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills so I started at once, and found that I felt much stronger, and my heart was ever so much better within a short time. I cannot praise my medicine too highly for it has done me a world of good. My husband has also been bothered with heart trouble ever since childhood and finds great relief in using your valuable pills."

SYNOD NEXT YEAR IN FREDERICTON

The printed reports of the treasurer were adopted without comment. The report of the Women's Auxiliary to the Diocesan Synod was read by Miss Brock, superintendent of the junior department. The reports showed an increase of 219 in the membership, with five new branches. The total receipts were $3,222.96, an increase of $117.46 over the previous year.

On motion of Archdeacon Forsyth, a vote of thanks was tendered to the ladies for their excellent work in all departments of church work. Rev. Mr. Hallstone moved that a footnote be added to the treasurer's report to show payments since the books closed. After a vigorous discussion, the motion was defeated.

The report of the Pickett Memorial Fund was presented. The object of the fund is the providing of trained nursing for the families of the clergy in the diocese, especially in the country districts. The report suggests that an interest on $50 would pay a nurse's expenses for one day, and further suggests that special be enclosed in this way as memorials until the year is entirely provided for. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Miss Elizabeth Robinson Scovill for her work in connection with the fund.

The report of the committee of the Continental and Colonial Fund, previously presented, was adopted. Dean Schofield read the report of the Ordination Candidates Council. Six candidates were examined, three were recommended to the bishop and the other three may be ready by the next meeting. One of the accepted candidates has since died.

FINE SPRUCE LAKE BUILDING IS DESTROYED

John O'Regan's 32 Room Summer Home Razed—Outbreak in Early Morning

No part of the handsome thirty-two room summer home of John O'Regan at Spruce Lake, remains standing except two chimneys after a fire which broke out early this morning and which razed the splendid building. It was valued at $8,000 and insurance of $4,000 is carried. How the fire started is unknown. A party of young people enjoyed a drive to the house last evening but when they left all signs of fire had disappeared from the area. There was a hint at incendiarism this morning but so far as could be learned the report was not substantiated.

About 4:30 o'clock the fire was seen by Wm. Smith and family, occupying a farmhouse some seventy-five yards distant, and they had been awakened by a "fire" from someone else, but of whose identity they are unaware. The building was then almost enveloped in flames. Quite a strong breeze was blowing but fortunately it was in the opposite direction from the large barn owned by Mr. O'Regan and located on his farm with the house destroyed. Mr. Smith telephoned the residence of Mr. O'Regan in the city and when he went to Spruce Lake this morning he was grieved to see nothing but the ruins of the dwelling.

Aside from the value of the house Mr. O'Regan took considerable pride in the fact that almost every part of its finishing had been done by his own hands. It was a well planned structure, comfortable and commodious, and the plans for its construction were drawn by himself without the aid of architect or carpenter—in fact the only outside hands engaged in building were in the erection of the framework and the chimneys. The concrete he laid himself, while the beautiful hardwood floors and mural finishing were also done by him in his spare hours in summer. He had been much complimented upon his skill in this connection.

CALLED TO SILVER FALLS

Rev. Geo. N. Somers Invited By Methodist Church

Rev. J. J. Pinkerton, Methodist minister on the Silver Falls circuit, will finish his term of four years next June, and Rev. Geo. N. Somers, at present stationed in Canterbury, has accepted an invitation to call as successor to Mr. Pinkerton.

Mr. Somers spent one summer on the circuit when student and his work was much appreciated, hence the desire of the Methodist people to have him as resident minister.

Besides Silver Falls church, the circuit includes Brookville, Golden Grove, Little River, Red Head, Missac and, in the summer season, Otter Lake.

Rev. J. J. Pinkerton, the present pastor, has been invited to St. Luke's church, Chatham, succeeding Rev. R. G. Fulton.
