LOST AND FOUND. A little chap aged about three years and neatly attired in a print frock was found wandering about on Market Square today. A good natured lone-shoreman took him to the police station and on the way supplied the little tot with a candy smucker which he enjoyed. Whether the little fellow was too much engaged with the candy or looking about the strange large room of the central station, he at least would not answer the many questions put to him, but hugged the big tough-shoreman and sucked away at the piece of candy on a stick. Just before noon relatives came to claim him and took him to the home of his father, Charles Peterson, Ekmoth street.

FINDING HOW THE MONEY WAS STOLEN

Secret Notes of Bank Teller Found Yesterday

And It Seems That All Officials in the Milwaukee Bank Had a Share in the Stealing.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Secret memoranda covering illegal transactions in the Milwaukee Bank were found yesterday by Police Inspector Shippy among the effects of Frank Kowalski, the teller, whose suicide followed closely the exposure of the bank's condition. The record kept by Kowalski, it is alleged, indicates apparently that in less than a year Henry Wierling, the imprisoned cashier, personally obtained $10,000 of the money of depositors by the same means adopted by Stenland in his systematic looting of the vaults. In four months, by the use of "cash tickets," which he placed in the drawers, he obtained $6,000 more according to Kowalski's schedule, and in another month $2,000. The discovery of Kowalski's tell tale figures is the result of the opening yesterday of a wooden cupboard in one of the bank vaults which had remained unopened since the bank examiner, Jones, took charge of the institution, August 4th. When it was forced open in the presence of Attorneys Weisenbach and Loeb, representing Receiver Feizer, a bundle of forged notes was found, the existence of which had not been suspected, and which will increase materially, it is believed, the amount of money stolen from the bank. There was also a memorandum in the hand-writing of R.W. Hering which tallied closely with the memorandum of Paul O. Stenland's forgery and which he left behind when he fled from Chicago. One of the new forged notes was for $25,000.

MERCHANTS SATISFIED WITH THE EXHIBITION

Business Done During the Week Was Very Gratifying. The merchants of St. John are well satisfied with the business done during exhibition week. There were "a great many visitors in the city, and the large stores were continually crowded with strangers. Wednesday and Thursday were the busiest days, and there was a great rush, especially in the dry goods and clothing stores. A well known Union street clothing store that has been done by him during exhibition week was a hundred per cent larger than during the same week last year. The visitors did not see much of the fall styles in clothing and millinery goods, as it was a little early in the season. A few fall openings were held in some of the millinery houses, however, and a good business resulted. The information bureau on Prince William street was crowded with visitors, and those in charge had their hands full directing the strangers to boarding houses and hotels.

HUNDREDS KILLED BY A SLIDE OF MUD.

City of Tiflis and the Surrounding Country Overwhelmed—Two Hundred and Fifty Persons Buried.

TIFLIS, Sept. 10.—Bulletin.—The city of Tiflis has been overwhelmed by an avalanche of mud from a mountain in the neighborhood. The township of Kvarrel has been practically obliterated. Some 250 persons have been buried alive. TIFLIS, Sept. 10. (Bulletin).—Practically without warning, the side of a mountain rising above the township of Kvarrel broke away, and in a sea of semi-liquid mud, sand and stones, swept down on the township and overwhelmed and obliterated it. Fifty-five bodies already have been recovered from the mire, which is about six feet deep. In addition to the lives lost, countless heads of cattle perished and the crops were destroyed. Kvarrel township occupies an area of five kilometers in the district of Telav, in the Caucasus. Similar disasters are of common occurrence in Caucasian valleys.

The seconds were all well known members of King Alfonso's retinue.

LOTS OF INTEREST IN THE MAINE ELECTIONS

And the Vote Will Likely be a Large One.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—A fair day interesting and important issues and determination of party leaders to get out every possible vote, all combined today to bring throngs of citizens to the polls, shortly after they opened. Voting will continue until five o'clock. It will be several days before the result in all of the 22 cities, towns and villages will be known. The question of the sale and manufacture of liquor, always the bone of contention in Maine state politics is practically the sole issue of the voters at large this year, while those residing in the second congressional district are called upon to deal, not only with the liquor question, but also indirectly with the question of labor legislation in the lower branch of congress. The candidates for governor are: Wm. T. Cobb, Republican; Cyrus W. Davis, Democrat; Henry Woodward, Prohibitionist; Chas. L. Fox, Socialist.

WEATHER CONDITIONS FOR TODAY'S RACE

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Sept. 10.—The contest for the Koozait cup reached what might be called the semi-final stage today with three yachts, the American, Vim and Auk, and the German boat, Vannuse still in the running. The Vim had a slight advantage with two victories to her credit, to one each for the Auk and the Vannuse. Conditions early today, with a triangular race scheduled, seemed to favor the Auk. A ten-knot northeaster was blowing in the harbor when the yachts prepared for the day's event.

A meeting of the Marlborough A. A. Association will be held in the Canada Permanent Building at eight o'clock this evening. All members are requested to attend. Persons desirous of joining the club are also requested to be present.

WILL SINK THE FIRST CRIB IN A FEW DAYS

This morning Alderman McGoldrick, chairman of the Board of Public Works, in company with Engineer Peters, visited the West Side, and Engineer Shewan reported that the site for the new wharf was dredged out and ready for the sinking of the first crib. The lines were given to the city engineer and as soon as they are verified by him Contractor Clark will be given the opportunity of sinking a crib which has been ready for some time. As soon as Engineer Peters gives word that everything is ready, the Board of Works will be called together. It is expected, said the chairman, that the first crib will be sunk in a few days. Contractor Clark was seen by the Star and said that as soon as the Board of Works was ready to have the cribs sunk he was ready, but he would not attempt to float the cribs into place until the board was satisfied that they were ready.

CAMBRIDGE VICTORIES. PUTNEY, Eng., Sept. 8.—Today's boat race between crews of Harvard and Cambridge universities, which was won by the Englishmen by two lengths, was probably the most surprising ever rowed on the Thames, not so much because of the result, as it had been considered anybody's race since the crews moved to Putney, as of the way in which it was won.

The members of the two crews and those associated with them are extremely reticent in giving opinions on the outcome of the race on the ground that it was a friendly contest and in no way a test of skill, style or boat.

HIS THRILLING ESCAPE
Lucky Shot in Dark Saved Man
From Bear.

On Getting Out of Bed Thomas Allen of Revelstoke Was Accused to Find Big Animal Close by.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 8.—A lucky shot in the dark saved Thomas Allen of Revelstoke from becoming food for a bear. Allen was staying with his brother at the latter's ranch at Eagle Pass. About 3 a. m. he was awakened by the sound of a door being opened. On getting out of bed to see who the intruder was, he was astonished to see an enormous brown bear standing about six feet away. Reaching for his rifle which was hanging over his bed, Allen fired at the brute, the bullet penetrating the breast and breaking its back. There were no more cartridges in the house, and the wounded bear lay in the doorway, tearing everything to pieces within reach of its paws. At daylight Allen crawled through the window of his bedroom and ran to William Mackay's house, about a mile away, got another rifle, and killed the bear. It was fortunate that the shot in the dark was so effective. Black and red blood oozed back and prevented his walking. Allen was taken to the Revelstoke hospital, near Grand Forks, recently and almost as a matter of course. He is now recovering from his wounds. The bear was a big fellow, measuring more than seven feet from tip to tip, had only one eye, and was in a state of rage. It started a boxing match as soon as Ewel got near. The trapper had only a pole spear with him, but he used it to secure a knockout. Every time he struck at the bear, the brute dodged and came back with a vicious strike with the unencumbered paw. After half an hour's sparring Ewel managed to land a blow on the head with the pick which put the bear to his final sleep. Prospects all over the province report that bears are pretty numerous this season. The crop of bear stories has been unusually large this year as a consequence. One of the most recent named MacAdams recently brought from Lillooet the fur of a large grizzly which he had secured on a previous hunt. It now adorns the wall of the smoking room of the Elks' Club.

CUT HIS FRIEND'S THROAT IN DISPUTE OVER A BALL GAME.

Horrible Murder Committed by a Young Lad at Hartford.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 8.—Losing his temper during a dispute over a ball game, Francis Curtin, 17 years old, cut the throat of Robert S. Jardine, while the latter was standing in a doorway at Hartford. The young man, who was named MacAdams recently brought from Lillooet the fur of a large grizzly which he had secured on a previous hunt. It now adorns the wall of the smoking room of the Elks' Club.

WOMAN POISONS HER DAUGHTER'S BABY

Confesses Her Crime to Police When Arrested and Told Them Where to Find Body.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Sept. 8.—Mrs. Louise Smith, about sixty years old, was arrested tonight on a charge of murdering her daughter's baby. The daughter, Lizzie Smith, is weak minded. She became a mother Thursday night and the child was cared for by the neighbors in Victoria block where the mother and daughter have rooms. It was noticed that the baby had disappeared and the police were notified. The case was found this evening in a peach basket hidden in some weeds back of a barn in the west end. Mrs. Smith admitted to the police that she gave the baby poison which killed it and then she took its body and placed it where it was found. She told the police where to find it.

Black, of Winnipeg, sold to Master Bros. of Regina, twenty-seven feet on South Railway street for $27,000, or $1,000 per foot. Mr. Black purchased this lot in 1888, after the big fire, for $1,500. The price he then paid being the highest figure for business property in the town.

A COMFORT TO SORE HEARTS

"Kerry Gow" is a comfort to sore hearts. It is one of those tender and lovable bits of Irish life which cause one to believe once more that the world is indeed beautiful and that in the end the right will surely triumph. There can't be any too many plays of this sort. Heavens knows there's sorrow enough in reality without having it put before our eyes on the stage as well as the sorrow and the trouble that conquer.

CANADA A RIVAL OF THE U. S. IN ELECTRICAL MACHINERY.

The largest generator ever made in this country has just been made ready for shipment to British Columbia from the works of the Canadian Westinghouse Company, of Hamilton. The purchaser is the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, of Vancouver. The generator is 2,000 horsepower, 3 phase, 7,200 alternations, 200 type for direct connection with the water wheel. The order also includes one rotary converter of 1,200 horsepower, 530 volts, 3 phase, 7,200 alternations, 400 revolutions per minute, and eight air blast transformers each of 725 horse power, 2,300 volts to 24,200 volts, 7,200 alternations. The necessary switch boards and regulating and controlling devices were also manufactured in this plant, and will be shipped within the balance of the order in the course of a day or two. The new machinery is required by the Vancouver company to provide added power to meet the ever increasing demand of Vancouver and vicinity. It is the fourth generator of the size ordered by the Vancouver company, but the other three were supplied by the Westinghouse Company from its Pittsburgh works previous to the building of the Hamilton works. The one now ready for shipment is by long odds the largest ever manufactured in Canada.

BROKE HIS ARM WHILE RUNNING A RACE.

DIGBY, N. S., Sept. 8.—A serious accident occurred at the Digby Baptist Sunday school picnic, held at Port Wade yesterday. While a number of boys were racing Roy, the twelve-year-old son of Captain C. F. Lewis, master of the George L., ran into a tree and broke his left arm just above the wrist. The steamer made a special trip across the harbor and a physician met the boat at the government pier and set the bone.

- HONEST ADVICE
- (From the Pittsburg Press.) Dr. Leonard Pearson told at a dinner in Philadelphia a horse anecdote. "A farmer," he said, "wrote to the editor of the Farmer's Friend this letter: "Mr. Editor—Sir, I have a horse that has been sick for the past year with periodical fits of dizziness. Please answer through your valuable paper, and let me know what I should do with him, as he seems to get worse instead of better; I am afraid he will be unfit for work if something is not done soon." "The editor replied in the next issue as follows: "Our honest advice, based on a careful perusal of that excellent work, 'Every Man His Own Horse Doctor,' would be to take this horse some time when he is not dizzy and sell him to a stranger."

IMITATIONS

Butter-Nut Bread.

It may be that the reason

Why?

You do not appreciate B. B. like others do is that an imitation has been given you in place of the genuine article. If not using B. B. give it a good week's trial. Make sure you get bread with name BUTTER-NUT BREAD printed on every label and the name ROBINSON stamped on every loaf. We believe you then will agree with the rest of the public that Butter-Nut is the best bread on the market.

Notice—Those who are selling any other bread as Butter-Nut should remember that they are liable to prosecution. Butter-Nut Bread is registered under Canadian Patent Laws, Trade Mark Register No. 46, Folio 923.

The remains of Mrs. A. H. Berry were taken to Houlton, Me., Saturday evening for interment. Service was conducted at the deceased's late residence at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon by Rev. D. Hutchinson.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 7.—The executive committee of the Southern Cotton Association, in session here today, fixed ten cents as the minimum price for which cotton should be sold this season.

Good Blood Good blood, good health; bad blood, bad health; there you have it. Why not help nature just a little and change the bad to the good? Bad blood to good blood; poor blood to rich blood! Ask your doctor how this applies to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and how it applies to you! Could anything be more fair?

TELEPHONES:— BUSINESS OFFICE, 25. EDITORIAL AND NEWS DEPT., 117

ST. JOHN STAR. ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 10, 1906.

ONE THING AT A TIME.

A committee from the St. John Board of Trade has been selected to meet Hon. Mr. Hyman on the occasion of his visit here, and endeavor to impress upon him the merits of certain schemes for the extension of harbor accommodation below Sand Point.

The plans which have been prepared and which are under consideration are no doubt very good ones, but the chances are that before they will be adopted Mr. Hyman will be in that land where cabinets do not meet a victim of old age, while most of those who are now members of the board will be located in Fernhill, each with several tons of granite to hold him down.

It is well to be prepared for what is likely to occur in the future, but it is more advisable to get into condition for that which is happening now, and what St. John needs at the present time is not a pleasing dream of strings of piers to Pizascuro, but some active effort to hustle along the wharf at present under construction.

It is six years since the members of the common council and of the board of trade first actually realized that the four berths at Sand Point were not sufficient for the amount of business offered. Now, in the seventh season a start has been made on one new berth. During the interval steamships have been towed from one end of the harbor to the other, have been compelled to remain idle until there was space available, and have been put to little expense. The same will be true during the coming winter. The new berth may be finished and it may not, but even if it is ready in time there will be too little accommodation.

And there are still two sections to be added to this wharf, dredging has to be done for it, contracts for the construction must be made, the builders will have to get out their timber, and in fact everything remains to be done which would be found if the present work had never been begun. To the completion of this new Rodney wharf it would seem that the energies of the board of trade should be directed. Let those of the members who feel an interest in the harbor, offer their suggestions or bring pressure to bear on the council and a beginning made now on the rest of the wharf. It is not a day too early. The wharf might be built in the coming winter and the stevedores, and then there would be the whole of next summer for the work of constructing the wharf.

Mr. Hyman may perhaps be interested in a discussion of the possibilities of the harbor, but this is a small matter. St. John has to be Canada's winter port, and in the years to come wharfs must be built somewhere, but by the time any of that space to the south of Sand Point is needed, the harbor will be owned and managed by the government, and the board of trade will have no further reason to appoint committees.

The principal object at the present time is to hurry the completion of the new wharf, and when it is finished will be the time to talk of others.

MUST HAVE A STRONG CASE.

Hon. Sydney Fisher speaking at the Liberal convention in Ontario a few days ago touched on the subject of increasing provincial subsidies. Mr. Fisher remarked: "I am not giving Cabinet secrets, but as a member of the Government at Ottawa, I can say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has arranged within the next few weeks to meet the Premiers of the various provinces to listen to the case they are able to make out for increased subsidies. I am also right in assuring the people that if the case made out were good and strong we will have to yield to it—but they will have to make it good and strong before we can yield to it."

MR. FOSTER'S ABSENCE.

The statement is now made that Mr. George E. Foster is in poor health and has gone to Toronto to consult a physician. Mr. Foster had been billed to speak at Conservative picnics at North Sydney, Halifax and Truro, and was boomed as the great attraction at each place. He did not appear at any of the picnics, his absence causing much disappointment. Is it physical weakness, or has his political stomach been soured by something in the Conservative policy which does not agree with him?

THE LATEST HAT.

I took my last year's Panama, and knocked it out of shape. Then I dyed it in some "Alice Blue" and fastened on some crepe. I pulled that hat way out in front, and bent it up behind; I stuck some feathers on one side, the biggest I could find. I took it to a maniac and made him do his worst. He added some few touches till it looked like something cured. And then—I gave it to my wife—this little joke, so pat—Who thanked me with unforgotten delight For 'just the sweetest hat.' —Fanny L. Ledford, in "Boston American."

AND DESERVED BETTER PAY.

Bishop Vincent was praising at Chataqua the Chataqua architecture. "Beautiful buildings," he said, "are a personal delight, and the architects who give us them should be more highly honored and rewarded than they are."

"Whenever I look at our superb buildings here I think of what their architect once said to me. He said that a Bishop employed one of his brothers in the designing and erection of a fine house. When the house was completed the Bishop was well pleased with it, but when the architect's bill was presented to him he was not so well pleased."

"My good brother architect," he said, "don't you think that your charges are too high? The yearly salary of my curates don't equal the amount of this bill of yours."

"Very likely not," the architect replied, "but I am not a curate, but a Bishop among architects."

WHERE GLADSTONE ERRED.

(London Echo Standard.) Mr. Gladstone hated any appearance of idleness, and in this connection the Manchester Guardian relates a characteristic story. Years ago he met the then Duchess of Abercorn in a country house. She was accompanied by her son, Lord George Hamilton, at that time a schoolboy. Not many mornings had elapsed before Mr. Gladstone said to her: "Duchess, don't you feel that your son should spend his holidays in entire idleness? I should be happy to give him an hour's Homer every evening." The offer was accepted, and the foundation of Lord George's life-long hostility to the Liberal leader was securely laid.

THE TAINTED MONEY.

The Deacon—This trust magnate writes that he is anxious to give the church $100,000. What shall he say? The Parson—Write him that if he can find another congregation willing to take half of it we'll accept the other half. The Deacon—Any time limit? The Parson—We won't be too hard on him. Give him sixty days.

START FAIRLY.

A worthy, who had got inebriated, in his peregrinations accidentally stumbled against the pump, put his arms round it, and, feeling the handle of same, exclaimed:—"My sonny, pit doon yer stick an' I'll fight ye."

FLATTERY.

One day Dumas was entertained by a pompous parvenu, who took him over his country house, in the centre of the park was a tiny pond, and the owner proudly called "the lake." "Last month a man called on me," the host remarked in an important tone, "and was drowned in that lake." "That man was a flatterer," replied Dumas.

WHAT SHE WANTED.

BOOMING THE WEST.

C. P. R. Agent Here for the Exhibition Talks of the Prospects.

James Dale, of Glenborough, Manitoba, is in the city. He was brought here by the C. P. R. to give interesting information in their exhibit at the fair. Mr. Dale is a successful farmer, and settled in Glenborough twenty-four years ago. Mr. Dale says that the West is the place for young men. The harvester's excursion which left here on August 7th, took a great many men to Western Canada, but Mr. Dale says that there were not nearly enough to satisfy the demand. Men are receiving good pay in the wheat fields. A man working with a threshing gang gets $2.50 per day. Winnipeg is becoming one of the greatest cities in the Dominion. It is expected that $11,000,000 will be invested in buildings there next year. Winnipeg is overcrowded with young men, and it is difficult to get a good position there now. The young people should go to the smaller cities, and there they would find no trouble in getting along.

"I was forty-two years of age when I went to Glenborough. I was in poor health and had no money. This did not stop me from getting along, as with a little hard work, I earned for myself a small farm. I will say for the young men who are going west, that all they need is brains and muscle and they will provide the capital. There are great educational opportunities in the West. As soon as a village can show eight children, a school can be developed. Teachers are very scarce, although good salaries are paid them. They receive from $450 to $500 per year."

Mr. Dale may visit the Halifax and P. E. Island fairs before returning to his home.

He was one of the three Canadians sent to England, in 1903, to advertise Western Canada. While in England Mr. Dale wrote three very interesting pamphlets telling of the opportunities there are awaiting young men in the West.

One could not help but stop and look at the many interesting things shown in the exhibit of the Canadian Pacific Railway booth. The booth was situated in the northern part of the main building and was so decorated that it caught the eye of everyone who passed it. The front of the exhibit was divided into eight arches, above these arches of wheat were hung in an artistic manner. On the floor, near the front were several bags of wheat, which came from the western harvest. Large pictures of C. P. R. steamships rested on easels in the centre of the exhibit. At each end were shelves laden with various kinds of vegetables, including potatoes, turnips, carrots, beets, parsnips, corn, squash and cabbage. These were prettily arranged and added immensely to the beauty of the exhibit. The rear of the show was probably the prettiest of all. On the wall hung large sheafs of wheat. Below them were pictures of different parts of the P. R. coast. Between these, decorated with incandescent lights were the letters "C. P. R." The exhibit was undoubtedly the most interesting at the exhibition. Attendants were constantly on hand at the exhibit to give all information regarding the rates, etc., of the C. P. R.

A NEW ENEMY.

(Amherst News.) The White Spotted Tussock Moth has appeared as a pest in several points in Canada. Only in Nova Scotia, however, has its ravages been serious in orchards. The reports from the Annapolis Valley last year showed that some of the village shade trees were badly infested. This year the insect has extended to the neighboring orchards. Unfortunately, the insect did not confine itself to the leaves, but has seriously marred the fruit. The injury to the fruit will, in all probability, heal over, leaving a badly rusted scar, which will reduce a No. 1 apple to a cull, or, at best, to a No. 2.

This part of the province has not as yet been visited by this enemy of fruit and shade trees, but it is evidently working this way. Last Saturday, while walking on the I. C. R. track, we noticed a specimen of this moth in the larva form, which we immediately killed.

The State of Massachusetts has spent millions of dollars in fighting this destructive insect. It preys not only upon fruit trees but shade trees as well and property holders should keep an eye to their trees to prevent this enemy from securing a foothold in this part of the province. The Bordeaux mixture, when used in the proper season can be profitably used to exterminate this destructive insect.

BRITISH PAPERS COMMENT ON SATURDAY'S RACE.

Think the United States Crew are True Sports—Some Reasons Given for Their Lack of Success.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—All the morning newspapers devote much space to reporting and commenting and editorializing on the Harvard-Cambridge boat race, and while glorying in the sustained prestige of Englishmanhood they paid high tribute to Harvard pluck and sportsmanship.

The Daily Mail says the Americans proved gallant losers and merited the universal admiration they received, adding: "It is pleasant to discover that there are some things we on this side of the Atlantic can still hold as our own despite the steady loss of much of our best blood to the United States and the Colonies."

The Daily Mail believes that the Cambridge victory was not so much that of men as of method, and the well-known oarsman, R. B. Etherington-Smith, writing for the Daily Mail says he feels convinced that Harvard had far more latent pace in their crew than the Cambridge men, and if taught by one of the few good English coaches it would be hard to find a crew to beat them.

The Daily Telegraph in an editorial says: "It was a most fortunate coincidence, after the regrettable circumstances which led to the suggestion that Americans in the future would not be welcomed at Henley, that Harvard should have overcome it the same summer and show Englishmen that there are true sportsmen in America." Guy Nickalls, in the Morning Post, finds among the lessons taught by the race that "the days of the professional man are over, for it is self-evident that a man who has never himself rowed in a really good eight can not possibly teach eight men how to row or how to get a boat along in a way most advantageous to themselves. Wray had under him at Henley a lot of men as ever sat in an eight. We have never seen greater physical perfection in any row, yet they were outclassed."

McNickalls calls attention to the fact that the crew were not allowed to row themselves out in practice which is characteristic of every crew visiting England and always has fatal results. He also says that Harvard's loss length by her boat alone. "You had only to look at her to see that she was no traveler. She was not built on travelling lines."

The foregoing are fair samples of the comments on and criticisms of the race, but all the critics hope that international races will become more frequent, and that Yale will send a crew to England if the wins next year at New London.

YOUNG MEN ARE IN IT.
Although the young men are making names for themselves in the Canadian banking and financial world, they are doing it in a quieter way than are some of the young men of Wall Street. Every once and awhile some hardless youth down these steps up and takes a spectacular leap.

A young man named White, in Wall Street, had just cleaned up $200,000 in the United Pacific, and the first thing he did was to buy the late John A. McCall's summer home at Long Beach for $800,000.

When a very young man, an office boy in fact, White put in a bid for a lot of new U. S. Government bonds. He was allotted $1,000,000 worth, and turned them over two hours later at a profit of $100,000.

All the turn cost him was the post-office stamp which was stuck on the envelope containing his bid for the bonds.

IOWA'S WONDERFUL CORN CROP.
DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 8.—Iowa's corn crop is estimated at 331,000,000 bushels, says J. W. Kelly, secretary of the Iowa Corn Producers' Association, in his annual report on the season's crop.

Wells insists that his figures are conservative, and that with a satisfactory yield of more than 400,000,000 bushels. His estimate is an increase of $4,000,000 bushels over last year's yield. This will be $5.5 bushels per acre. The percentage reports from all sections of Iowa show that the corn crop is today 24 per cent better than at this time last year.

Other estimates of Iowa crops are as follows: Oats, 147,000,000 bushels; spring wheat, 5,000,000 bushels; barley, 14,000,000 bushels; rye, 1,500,000 bushels.

PULLMAN CO. EARNINGS.
The earnings of the Pullman Co. have been of the sensational order, having doubled since 1899. Here is the record:

Fiscal Year	Gross Earnings	Surplus
1904	24,788,730	18,017,375
1905	32,120,713	14,752,759
1906	20,997,993	10,778,028
1907	17,996,782	7,682,280
1908	15,022,858	4,894,944
1909	11,478,900	3,730,000

From the total surplus of $28,000,000 estimated for 1906, the company could pay an extra dividend of 20 per cent, still have more than $15,000,000 available for working capital.

A LUMBER MIX-UP.
MACON, Ga., Sept. 10.—At a conference of the lumber men of this city yesterday it was declared that the ruling out of short leaf pine lumber in northern and eastern cities has caused millions of feet of lumber to be piled in those cities unsalable even at 15 to 45 per thousand feet under regular prices and that as a consequence at least a thousand mills in Georgia, Alabama and Florida are affected and many of them may close unless there is a reversion of the ruling.

AN EVENTFUL TIGER HUNT.

By A. EVANS GORDON
Illustrated by J. L. Wimbush.

It has fallen to the lot of few big-game sportsmen to gaze such an eventful tiger hunt. This was the case of the writer of this paper, Lt. Colonel A. Evans Gordon, of the British Army, who enjoyed during a period of thirty years almost uninterrupted residence in, or near, the jungles of India. During that period Colonel Gordon was in the death of no fewer than one hundred and fifty tigers—the hundred-and-fiftieth, curiously enough, being not only the biggest of all that had fallen to his rifle, but constituting, as is known, a record for India. This monarch measured 16 ft. 7 in. as he lay, and was shot near Jalapaur, in Bengal—Editor Pearson's.

About five o'clock one July morning I was awakened by my bearer holding a dirty little note close to my face. It was from my friend the collector, who lived nearby, asking me to go with him to shoot a tiger that was reported to have been killing and mauling a number of people in a village about five miles away. This was a most astonishing piece of intelligence, though not the less welcome and exciting, because, so far as we were aware, the tiger was probably twenty miles off. Under the circumstances it took a very short time to get into my things, out of my house, on my horse gun in hand, and to join my friend.

Off we started at a gallop. When about a mile and a half we had begun to meet a succession of improvised litters, on which lay certain of the victims of the mysterious tiger being conveyed to the station hospital.

Presently we met the district police officer advancing along the road on foot, looking rather pale and begrimed with mud. He had been trying to shoot the tiger—an effort worthy of his name—without success, and had been because his ammunition gave out. Having so failed, he was going back for more cartridges.

My friend, one of the exclusive class of sportsmen, wanted to get that tiger before he was shot, and he had had the advantage of the earliest information. We told him we were not to be turned back with us, and we all three arrived at the village together.

The whole village—men, women and children—we found assembled in the vicinity of a large field of ripening corn. The roofs of the huts were covered with people, and every one strove for the privilege of pointing out where the tiger was. His whereabouts were not clearly indicated, but Mrs. Ellis, went to Montreal on Saturday evening's train. They will be away till Monday morning.

ARE YOU TIRED OF PAYING BLUNDER TAXES?

Many a business man pays as much money for the luxury of blundering as a steam yacht or private touring car would cost.

"Blunder Taxes" cannot be evaded—whatever else waits, these must be paid. If a business man gets into the habit of making the same blunders more than once, the taxes will soon amount to confiscation.

"Blunder Taxes" are levied with amazing frequency upon store advertisers. Among the blunders which are assessed at "full value" in advertising are these:

Selection of poor mediums;
Using too little space in good mediums;
Devoting less attention to preparing the daily newspaper advertisement than to the storing of some empty boxes in the basement;
Stopping the ad. altogether for one or more days now and then;

NATIONAL CONGRESS TO MEET WEDNESDAY

Upwards of Fifty Delegates Expected Here.

A Resolution Will Be Introduced Asking the Government to Aid in Establishing the Shipbuilding Industry.

The fourth annual convention of the National Trades and Labor Congress of Canada will be held in this city this week. The first session will commence at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning in the M. E. A. hall. It is expected that about fifty delegates will be present.

Thomas J. Griffiths, of Montreal, who is the general organizer of the Congress, is now in the city. He was seen by the Star this morning and gave the following information:

The National Trades and Labor Congress was founded in September, 1902, in Toronto. It was the outcome of a long effort to form a purely Canadian federation of labor. The main object of the Congress is to oppose the international organizations controlled by labor unions of the United States. The motto of the National Trades and Labor Congress of Canada is "Canada for Canadians."

Mr. Griffiths said: "We have aroused the antagonism of American associations; they have lost their power in the exploitation of Canadian labor organizations. The Congress wishes to make harmony exist between the employers and employees. The Canadian Trades and Labor Congress will also reduce the international organizations which will be taken up at the convention. The American labor organizations have accused the National Trades and Labor Congress with having received aid from the Manufacturers' Association. The executive of the Congress challenges this, however, and declares that not one cent has been spent, which cannot be proved by receipts held by the different unions.

"One of the important features of the convention will be the passing of a resolution asking the Federal Government to encourage in every way the revival of shipbuilding in the lower provinces. Shipbuilding was once the greatest industry the provinces possessed, and it is to be hoped that the government will comply with the resolution of the Congress which is in line with those passed by other bodies.

The different delegates who are to attend the convention will arrive tomorrow. Among them are: John E. Mes, President of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees Union of Montreal; Gilbert LeClair, President of the Shoe Makers' National Union of Quebec; J. B. Guette, President of the Longshoremen's National Union, of Quebec; J. B. Simard and L. C. D. LaPlante, of the Trades and Labor Council of Quebec; Felix Dore, of the Brewery Employees' National Union of Quebec; Eugene Bernard, H. Heston, Joseph Dawick, Fred LeViche, Edward Barry, and Arthur Leturneau, of the Shoe Makers' Union of Quebec; John LeClair and Felix Desjardins, of the Longshoremen's National Union of Montreal; John E. Mes, Joseph Griffiths and Felix Monahan, of the Trades and Labor Council of Montreal; J. B. St. Laurent and E. Guarvu, of the Protective National Labor Union of Quebec; Hugh Beck and W. H. Stewart of the National Painters' Union of St. John; J. G. St. John, of the Sheet Metal Workers, of St. John; H. Perant, of the National Painters' Union of Quebec; J. Primeau, of the National Labor Union of Montreal; S. Kennedy, of the National Painters' Union of Ottawa; M. Tanguay, of the A short time afterwards, Mitchell Kruratz was arrested by Sergeant Caples on suspicion of acting with Minnie Wilson in the theft.

The arrested girl has been a servant in one of the South End hotels. She has only been in the city a few days, and was previously in the city and was then also working in this hotel. Through the medium of a girl friend, she became acquainted with Kruratz and the two going to the Ferris Hotel on Friday night registered as man and wife.

Kruratz gives Duluth, U. S. A., as his native place. He is twenty-five years of age. His first appearance in the city was at the time of the Barnum & Bailey circus. He appeared as the tattooed man and was selling photos of himself on all possible occasions. The case was taken up in the police court this morning before Magistrate Ritchie.

Mrs. Teresa Ferris testified that she resided in the Ferris Hotel, 70 Main street, and that last Saturday morning she missed a silk skirt that she had left in a clothes press with some other clothes. The room was occupied by a couple, who registered as Mitchell Kruratz and wife. They did not remain for breakfast, but left the hotel early in the morning. At 7:30 o'clock, when witness visited the room, she found that the skirt and a white slip waist were gone. The skirt is valued at $20.

In answer to Kruratz, witness said she recognized him as having stopped at the hotel before, but could not recognize the girl.

Mr. Ferris, son of the hotel proprietor, was the next witness and said that he saw the man and woman leave the hotel in the morning between six and seven o'clock. They had paid for the room in advance. Witness saw the couple leave the room in the morning and it was the only room on that flat with a clothes press in it. He recognized Kruratz as having been an occupant of the hotel on other occasions. Just after the Barnum & Bailey circus left the city on one occasion when with a woman he registered as man and wife. The woman he had then was not the Wilson girl. At that time the proprietor was not present, on this occasion the proprietor was home when the man registered.

Kruratz asked the court if he could get out on bail and said he had a couple of hundred dollars. He was told he would have to procure freehold property bondsmen. He thanked the court and was remanded to jail with the girl.

Both take the case in a matter-of-fact way, and it will be resumed on Friday.

We are obliged each exhibition year to turn away hundreds who come to St. John for the sole purpose of having their teeth attended to, but who neglect the main object of their visit until a few days before returning home.

We would therefore advise all to call early and avoid the usual rush so that they may not be compelled to return home disappointed at being unable to avail themselves of our SUPERIOR WORKMANSHIP AND ATTRACTIVE FEES.

Parents should remember that the vacations are drawing rapidly to a close and that as they value the health and welfare of their own children and those of others they should see that their children's teeth are in proper condition.
