CAMPAIGN ON IN NORTHUMBERLAND

weeks before their campaign had said that the agreement was a good one. It was not a "let well enough alone," they said, Canada is prosperous enough as it is. There can be no question about that, said Mr. Kite, but there is no reason why it should not become even more so.

He then quoted some statistics showing the great growth of trade since 1896. "Who," said Mr. Kite, "is entitled to the credit for that? Is it not the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding, the latter particularly so because he is the minister of finance. It is likely that a man who has done so much for the development of the country, would be likely to want to negotiate a trade arrangement, which would have such disastrous effects as the opponents of reciprocity would like to make out?"

Hard Questions for Tories

What reason is there that Canada must not trade with the United States? Opponents of reciprocity say we must trade with England. Well, England's markets are open to the world alike. Of course we must trade with England but if we can get a better price for our goods from any other country is there any reason why we should not send such goods there?"

Mr. Kite then quoted extracts from statistics showing that the market for many of our products is much larger in practically confined to the United States. He said Britain did not take a portion of them, for the simple reason that the British did not want to sell to the people who want it and if one man does not want any particular article the producer must find another market elsewhere.

"The same with nations. Canada will sell all that she can to England, but if she has articles to sell that England doesn't want, she must find another market. America wants many of the natural products of Canada, particularly fish, that England does not want. Is there any reason why we should not sell to her?"

"There is no question of loyalty in the matter at all and all the outcry raised by the opponents of reciprocity will not make it affect the loyalty of Canadians to Britain."

What is the record of the Laurier government in this respect? Did they not introduce the British preference clause, the strongest protection of the Conservative leaders, who prophesied ruin to Canadian industries in consequence, and had only this British preference increased the trade with Britain tenfold?"

"It will become the Conservative party to bring up the loyalty cry. There is no need for it, as the proposed trade agreement is merely a tentative one which will continue just as long as both parties wish, and can be put an end to at any time."

Even the Ottawa Citizen, the leading organ of the Conservative party at Ottawa, declared only last week that there was no ground whatever for saying that the proposed trade agreement would be harmful to Canada."

Mr. Kite concluded a most eloquent and forceful address, commending his listeners to be led by the loudly voiced assertions of those opposed to reciprocity but to give the matter that quiet consideration which it deserves.

Mr. S. Logie followed in a short but effective address.

A large number of Conservatives were present who appeared to appreciate the force of Mr. Kite's statements.

AYLESWORTH WILL RESIGN HIS POST

Minister of Justice to Quit Politics

Increasing Deafness Too Much of Handicap

Will Assist Liberals in Their Fight for Reciprocity, But Will Not Be a Candidate—Hugh Guthrie is Likely to Succeed Him in the Cabinet.

Special to The Telegraph.

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—Sir Alan Aylesworth, after six years of splendid public service to Canada, first as postmaster general, and for the past five years as minister of justice, is retiring from the government and has definitely notified the North York Liberal Association that he will not again be a candidate.

Sir Alan intimated to the prime minister over two years ago that he desired to resign his portfolio, principally on the ground that his deafness was a constant embarrassment to him in parliament and cabinet council meetings and militated against his usefulness to the government, both in the commons and in the country.

Sir Wilfrid, however, knowing the full value of Sir Alan's services, both as minister of justice and as an adviser at the council board, has always strongly urged him to continue in office. And in his appreciation of "the best minister of justice Canada ever had" the premier has been backed up by every Liberal in parliament.

However, Sir Alan, whose high sense of honor makes him very loath to resign, has finally decided to do so.

Certainly Sir Alan's resignation is a great loss to the government. He has been a most successful and able minister of justice, and his services have been of the highest value to the country.

It is expected that Sir Alan will continue to assist the Liberal party in their fight for reciprocity, but he will not be a candidate for the cabinet.

Hugh Guthrie, Likely Successor.

Sir Wilfrid has not yet accepted the resignation of his minister of justice and Sir Alan will probably hold the portfolio and administer the department for some time yet, pending the appointment of his successor, who will probably be Hugh Guthrie, K. C., the able and eloquent representative of South Wellington in the commons since 1906.

Sir Alan retires with honor and dignity from the government to which he has always given faithful and distinguished service, and he has possessed in rare degree the confidence, esteem and affection of all his colleagues and of every Liberal member of the house. He will return to Toronto and resume the practice of law as counsel in his old law firm, with which his son is now connected. During the election campaign he will take an active part in support of the Liberal candidate in the county of Ontario and will address a number of meetings.

Guthrie an Able Man.

Toronto, Aug. 7.—(Special)—A special despatch from Ottawa says that Hugh Guthrie, K. C., the member for South Wellington since 1906, will probably succeed Sir Alan Aylesworth, as minister of justice.

Mr. Guthrie is a native of Guelph and has had substantial majorities in all his contests for the riding he represents, that of 1906 totaling 701. He was elected chairman of the common railway committee in 1907. A keen debater and a parliamentarian, whose work is distinguished by ability and thoroughness, he has come rapidly to the front during the past few years. In religion Mr. Guthrie is a Presbyterian. He was born in 1866.

LAST HOPE OF UNIONIST PARTY SHATTERED

Balfour's Motion to Censure Government Defeated by 119 Majority—Premier Asquith Declares the King's Guarantee to Appoint More Peers Was Entirely Constitutional—A Lively Debate.

London, Aug. 7.—A vote of censure of the government for having obtained from the king a pledge to create, if necessary, sufficient peers to pass the veto bill, was rejected by the house of commons tonight by a majority of 119.

The motion was introduced by Arthur J. Balfour, leader of the opposition, and its defeat is considered to have failed to improve the Unionist cause.

The greatest of the opposition charges against the government was that Premier Asquith had taken advantage of the king's inexperience to bring about an abuse of the royal prerogative by securing the guarantee before the last general election.

Mr. Asquith easily disposed of this charge by showing that the ministers had pursued a proper constitutional course. The result was that after the premier's speech the debate on the Unionist side virtually collapsed.

Frederick E. Smith and others of the "die hards" made brave attempts to fan the flames against the government but were compelled to fall back on the well worn argument that the members of the government were being driven by their taskmaster, John Redmond, and that their whole object was to secure the easy passage of Irish home rule.

Water House, an ex-hibitor secretary for Ireland, challenged Mr. Asquith to reveal his conversations with King George, but Winston Spencer Churchill, the home secretary, who wound up the debate, declined to consider for a moment such an unusual request.

An incident of the sitting was the strong disapproval shown by the main body of the Unionists with the reflections made against the leadership of Mr. Balfour and Lord Lansdowne by Mr. Smith and other representatives of the Balfour revolt. The debate was characterized by numerous interruptions but there was no disorder.

Balfour's Motion.

Mr. Balfour's motion, which he gave notice on Aug. 2, was as follows:—"That His Majesty's Majesty by his Majesty's ministers whereby they obtained from His Majesty a pledge that a sufficient number of peers would be created to pass the parliament bill in the shape in which it left this house is a gross violation of constitutional liberty by which, among other consequences, the people will be precluded from again pronouncing upon the policy of home rule."

The rival leaders were loudly cheered as they entered the room, and Mr. Balfour received an ovation as he rose to present his motion rebuking the government. The former Unionist premier emphasized that he was conscious of the gravity of the situation and the motion to the step which he asked the house to take. He thought that it would be admitted that never in the history had there been a more serious case, or one which more urgently deserved or indeed required the consideration of parliament and the emphatic denunciation of the ministers.

"The ministers," said Mr. Balfour, "have grossly abused their rights, put themselves above the constitution, they have acted wholly without precedent."

"Not," Mr. Balfour concluded, "to meet any great question of state, but in order to carry out a party arrangement between the different sections who support them and in order to prevent the stream of the country from pronouncing their opinion on home rule."

The Unionist leader asserted that the ministry had placed the sovereignty which had just come to the throne in a cruel position. The king was a fount of honor, but the government by their advice had poisoned and corrupted the stream at its source. He dubbed the proposed new peers "supers in this session-drama."

Premier Asquith appeared in his best

MANITOBA TORIES CAUGHT NAPPING

Fail to Revise Election Lists Within the Prescribed Time

GOVERNMENT STEPS IN

Ottawa Orders County Judges to Do the Work in Brandon and Winnipeg, and Hon. Robert Rogers is Wrathful.

Special to The Telegraph.

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—Hon. Robert Rogers and Tory machine are mad—very mad.

The control of the voters lists in Manitoba has always been one of their chief liabilities in political fights. They have been caught napping and in the cities of Winnipeg and Brandon at least the Liberals may be assured of fair lists.

The dominion election act says that where lists have not been revised within one year prior to the date of the issuing of the writs the governor-in-council shall appoint officers to revise these lists in accordance with the provisions of the act.

The lists in Brandon and Winnipeg have not been revised for over a year preceding the date of the writ for the coming election, namely Aug. 3. Consequently, under the provisions of the election act the dominion government has authority, and in fact has been compelled to now step in and order the revision of the lists by officers appointed by the governor-in-council.

Hon. Robert Rogers had found out his error too late. He has hastily ordered a revision of the lists and has appealed to Ottawa to let that list serve on Sept. 21, but even if the federal government were willing to consent to such a revision, the unfairness of voters' lists prepared under the manipulation of the provincial government machine they could not do so, for the act as it applies to the case in point, mandatory and a federal revision must take place.

This revision has been ordered by an order in council which fixes Aug. 10, 11 and 12 as the dates for hearing registration applications, and August 24 for the sitting of the court of revision. The local judges of the county who have been appointed to take charge of the work of revision.

LOYALTY

What decent man doubts Canadian loyalty? Why should our loyalty be under discussion today, when such an issue is in itself an insult to the whole Canadian people? For this discussion Mr. Borden is directly responsible, and it is not an honor which any statesman should court.

SENATOR KING ON ELECTION PROSPECTS

Senator King, who is a political observer of ripe experience, and who knows this country, east and west, better than most people know it, returned yesterday from a two months' visit to the western provinces. All who are interested in the trade question, which is the leading issue in the present campaign, should read the interview with Senator King published on another page of today's Telegraph, in which he presents the impressions formed during the tour he has just completed.

THE SHIPBUILDING PLANT

The Canadian Press yesterday sent out by wire an article published in yesterday's Montreal Herald in which that newspaper said it understood eight tenders had been received for the construction of the Canadian naval vessel, and that the Campbell Laird Company of Glasgow and Birkhead was found to have submitted the lowest tender.

APPRENTICESHIP AND THE UNEMPLOYED

Much help is being given in solving the problem of the unemployed in England by the National Institute of Apprenticeship. The majority of the unemployed are out of work because they are unskilled laborers, and the great number of unskilled is largely due to the diminution of apprenticeships. This institution was founded six years ago "in order that boys and girls should start life not only with a liberal education and training given in the schools, but also with a practical training which was to be had in the workshop."

On the registers of the institution there are the names of nearly 300 carefully selected masters, many of them ranking among the most important in their respective trades, who have taken or agreed to take apprentices for the institution.

A man who teaches his boy a trade provides more certainly for his future than if he leaves him a large property but without knowing how to turn his hand to useful employment. The ancient Hebrews had a saying: "He who does not teach his boy a trade leaves him to a thief."

THE SALISBURY AND HARVEY RAILWAY

Dr. Pugsley's telegram to Dr. D. H. McAlister, M. P. for Kings-Albert, in regard to the purchase or lease and operation of the Salisbury and Harvey railway, a copy of which appears on another page this morning, will be most welcome news to residents along the railway in question. Hon. Mr. Graham, Minister of Railways, has written to President Swan of the Salisbury & Harvey, saying the Dominion government will introduce legislation to buy the road at Mr. Swan's offer of $120,000, or less if on the basis proposed at a recent conference.

A TYPICAL TORY

One of the humorous features of the campaign in Charlotte county, where Mr. Todd, the popular Liberal representative, will be returned on September 21 by a fine majority, is the circulation by the Conservative campaign committee of a pamphlet containing some utterances in regard to reciprocity by one of the younger and wilder Conservative members of the House of Commons, Mr. C. Jameson of Digby. If Mr. Todd's friends could only persuade Mr. Jameson to visit Charlotte county, in addition to having his speeches circulated there, it might be unnecessary for the Liberals to do any more campaign work.

price of their stock is becoming higher every day. While Mr. Borden talks about trade going north and south instead of east and west, his lieutenants are telling the people that the United States would have lowered their tariff, or admitted Canadian products free of duty entirely.

There is considerable laughter in Charlotte county because of Mr. Jameson's feat that fresh fish will be sent into New Brunswick from Norway, Sweden and Denmark. Mr. Jameson is young in politics, but even he must have heard of the difficulty of selling souls in Newcastle.

GOOD COMMON-SENSE IMPERIALISM

Healthful and invigorating Imperial sentiment was the distinguishing characteristic of a lecture delivered in Bainsborough, Hampshire, England, some ten days ago by Agnes Deans Cameron, the well known writer. The Hampshire Observer of July 29 contains a report of Miss Cameron's address, during the course of which she devoted some attention to the question of Canadian Imperial sentiment and the influence of the reciprocity agreement upon it.

THE BRITISH BORN

"A British subject I was born and a British subject I will die," is a famous statement by Sir John A. Macdonald that did duty in his last election. In view of the fact that the anti-reciprocity league now issue a pamphlet entitled: "An appeal to the British born," it might be well to recall that Sir John used these words first in 1891, after he had dissolved Parliament to appeal to the people for permission to go to the United States and ask for reciprocity. The cry and the issue were both popular in the country, and Sir John Macdonald was returned with a substantial majority. Now a chilling doubt has entered into the heart of these patriots as to the integrity and stability of Canadians in general and the "British born" in particular, and they make this feverish appeal to them to save themselves and the country by retaining the duty on wheat and cattle, horses and swine.

LET THE FARMER HAVE HIS TURN

Let the farmer have his turn! (P. S. To Conservatives: He is going to take it anyway. Therefore, gentlemen, you might as well make a virtue of necessity.) Despatches from Montreal say the election betting is three to one in favor of victory for the Liberal government. The odds will be heavier later on. No one really believes Mr. Borden has one chance in ten.

nomination for the Commons. The Hon. Richard McBride sends his blessing instead of entering the lists himself. The Hon. Frank Cochrane is quite willing to give Mr. Borden advice about the political situation in Northern Ontario, but the Hon. W. J. Hanna, who was named as one of the on-to-Ottawa statement some time ago, is very busy working out reforms of the prison system of Ontario, and is loath to seek "the bubble reputation" in the Federal arena.

"Where there is a real expectation of victory would all these gentlemen stand forward? Not for two minutes. They are waiting for the psychological moment when the Conservative party—thrice defeated under the leadership of Mr. Borden—will call for new leaders. When that comes the Hon. Richard especially will be less choosy than he is today. Meanwhile Mr. Borden has Colonel Sam Hughes and Major Currie to lead the attack."

Father Morriscy's Lung Tonic Really Cures. Treating a cough with most "cough cures" is like repairing a leaky kettle with a piece of rag or a dab of putty. Though you succeed in stopping the leak for a little while, you never know when it may break out again, for the hole is still there. Ordinary "cough cures" relieve, temporarily, the irritation in throat or lungs which makes you cough, but that is all. They do not cure the cough. Father Morriscy's No. 10, commonly called "Lung Tonic", relieves the irritation by loosening and removing the mucus in the passages, but that is not all. No. 10 tones up the whole system, especially the affected parts, restores the inflamed membranes to a healthy condition, and so strengthens them that they will not easily fall a prey to the same trouble again. Father Morriscy's No. 10 is sold in trial size 25c. and in the large regular size at 50c. At your dealer's. Father Morriscy Medicine Co., Ltd., MONTREAL.

RAW MATERIAL FOR THE PROPHECY

The end of the first week's campaigning finds the Conservatives bragging in a most Falstaffian fashion, but when the texts from which the new book of the prophets has been compiled are examined there seems to be a repetition of the conditions of 1908. The Tories of Ontario expect a sweeping victory in Quebec, and the Tories of Quebec expect a sweeping victory in Ontario. It is always on some distant horizon that the sun of victory is rising. It is worth while getting a grip on the essential facts of the political situation as a preliminary to passing judgment on the work of the election prophets. The standing of the parties in the House of Commons at dissolution was as follows: Ontario—Liberals, 35; Conservatives, 51. Quebec—Liberals, 53; Conservatives, 12. Nova Brunswick—Liberals, 11; Conservatives, 2. New Scotia—Liberals, 12; Conservatives, 6. Prince Edward Island—Liberals, 3; Conservatives, 1. Manitoba—Liberals, 2; Conservatives, 8. British Columbia—Liberals, 2; Conservatives, 5. Saskatchewan—Liberals, 9; Conservatives, 1. Alberta—Liberals, 4; Conservatives, 3. Yukon—Liberals, 1.

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher

When I was young I loved a maid who left all others in the shade. Her eyes were of an azure tint, her charms too numerous to print. I hoped to make that girl my bride, but fate to me was cruel. THE DREAM MAIDEN boon denied. I left my native town to stray in towns and cities far away. The years passed on, and youth was fled, and silver hairs grew on my head, and hope became an aching void, and I wore teeth of celluloid. And all the time and everywhere I dreamed about that maiden fair. No other damsels had her grace, her sunny locks, her gentle face. Ah me! I loved her from afar, as one may love a shining star. Last month I journeyed home once more, to see the friends I loved of yore, to see the shagk where I was born, and blow my father's dinner horn. There I'd dreamed so many years; I saw her through a mist of tears. Ah! she had whiskers on her chin, and bore the sign: "We Women Win!" He nose was red, her person flat, she wore the most outrageous hats! I shed about a million weeps, and uttered some despairing cheeps, and sought a drug store, there to drink a gallon of refreshing ink. Copyright, 1911 by George Matthew Adams, WALT MASON

Britain Provides That Self-Governing Dominions Must Agree to Arbitration, When Their Interests Are Involved, Before It Goes Into Effect.

Washington, Aug. 5.—The senate today adopted the rather unusual but not unprecedented course of making public the text of four treaties which have not yet received action at its hands. These were the Anglo-American and the Franco-American general arbitration treaties and the treaties providing for the adjustment of the finances and customs of Honduras and Nicaragua.

Publicity was given to these important conventions at the request of the administration, which desires that the subject shall receive the fullest consideration by the press and the public in order to advise the senate as to the wisdom of its action.

Some justification for this procedure developed today when in the course of executive session two senators of opposite parties, Borah, of Idaho, and Bacon, of Georgia, voiced their dissent to the conclusion of the arbitration treaties in their constitutional prerogatives.

The treaty advocates, however, felt that there had been a misunderstanding of the scope of the treaty by the two senators named, and that a clause in article 1 of the treaties, which provides that there shall be no arbitration except under the terms of a special agreement, was being misconstrued as giving the senate a special agreement which would receive the senate's sanction in order to become operative.

Will Consult Self-governing Dominions.

The British and French treaties are substantially the same with the exception of the preamble, some small differences in dates of existing treaties referred to therein, and some of the machinery of the treaty between the treaty-making methods of the two governments. One important provision in the British treaty requires the British government to obtain the consent of any of its self-governing dominions affected by the proposed arbitration.

In view of its importance, it is intimated that a motion may be made to ratify them in open session, an almost unprecedented procedure.

The preamble, after reciting the fact that all outstanding differences between Great Britain and the United States have been settled by arbitration, since the arbitration of the Maine, goes on to state that it has been desirable to extend the scope of the arbitration treaty of 1908. The treaty, which is practically the same in both cases, reads:

Article I. All differences hereafter arising between the high contracting parties, which it has not been possible to adjust by diplomacy, relating to international matters, in which the high contracting parties are concerned by virtue of a claim of right made by one against the other under treaty or otherwise, and which are susceptible in their nature by reason of being susceptible of decision by arbitration, shall be referred to arbitration, and the principles of law or equity, shall be submitted to the permanent court of arbitration established at The Hague by the convention of October 18, 1907, or to some other arbitral tribunal, as may be decided in each case by special agreement, which special agreement shall provide for the organization of such tribunal, if necessary define the scope of the powers of the arbitrators, the question or questions at issue, and settle the terms of reference and the procedure thereunder.

The provisions of articles 37 to 40, inclusive, of the convention for the permanent settlement of international disputes, concluded at the second peace conference at The Hague on the 18th of October, 1907, so far as applicable, and unless they are inconsistent with or modified by the provisions of the special agreement to be concluded in each case, and excepting articles 53 and 54 of such convention, shall govern the arbitration proceedings to be taken under this treaty.

TAFT CASE IS BESS IN GLOUCESTER CO.

Great Majority of the People Favor Reciprocity, and Mr. Turgeon Will Sweep the Constituency.

Bathurst, Aug. 4.—(Special)—The political pot in Gloucester county has not yet begun to boil very lively. The Liberals are quietly organizing for the fight, while the Conservatives are moving about in a very uneasy state of mind seeking a lamb for the slaughter.

The outlook for Liberals in this county was never so bright as in the present contest. The party is thoroughly organized. Every day brings new advances from the Conservative side to the principle of reciprocity, and while these converts to the new trade arrangement may not take an active part in the fight they do not hesitate to openly state that in the interest of the country reciprocity should be adopted. This fact has a very strong influence on the minds of other Conservatives who have not yet made up their minds that they should follow the leaders against a movement that must stimulate the commercial development of the northern part of New Brunswick.

Mr. Turgeon, the present member, will appear next week making a tour of the constituency and is in hopes of being able to visit nearly all the polling districts before his opponent is chosen, as no Conservative convention has yet been called for the choice of a candidate.

So far only two names of probable Conservative candidates are mentioned, viz., T. M. Burns, defeated by 487 votes last federal election, and Ed. J. DeGraze, a school teacher, a native of Shippenwa, a certain wing of the opposition is pushing the latter because Mr. Burns has not shown any great desire for further participation in the federal politics, while the more sober element of the party freely admit that a fight in Gloucester against Mr. Turgeon is a forlorn hope and that there is absolutely no chance of success.

Dr. McAlister, M. P., Expects Larger Majority in House Than Ever

PROSPECTS BRIGHT

Member for Kings-Albert Pleased to Announce That Minister of Public Works Will Be Present at Liberal Convention in Sussex Next Wednesday.

Friday, Aug. 4.—Announcing that he had received a wire from Hon. Wm. Pugsley, minister of public works, that the latter had consented to be present at the Liberal convention to be held in Sussex on Wednesday next at 4 o'clock, Dr. D. H. McAlister made a hurried trip to the city yesterday. Dr. McAlister returned to his home at Sussex on Wednesday evening and was in the city yesterday to stay for a few hours.

He says everything is looking in splendid shape for the Liberal party in his constituency. The forced dissolution by the opposition had, he regretted to say, prevented many important measures from being passed, among them the branch lines bill, which would have meant the prompt acquisition of the Harvey and Salisbury and other branches in Kings county by the Intercolonial. However, that was not the fault of either of the government and the delay would be understood by the people of Albert county to whom this was an all important necessity.

Steps were being taken now by the government to make an arrangement with the owners of the road whereby repairs could be undertaken at once and the Harvey and Salisbury operated by the Intercolonial at an early date. His words, he said, were pledged to the people of Albert that this branch would be taken over and he was going to see that his promise was carried out.

Big Liberal Majority.

Everything points to an increased Liberal majority in Canada. He never saw the French members more eager for an election or more confident of giving Sir Wilfrid a large majority. As the Nationalists find fault with both parties their influence will not be so effective as at one time anticipated.

Soon after his arrival at Sussex on Wednesday evening Dr. McAlister received a telegram from Dr. Pugsley at Ottawa stating that the minister of public works would be present at Sussex to participate in the convention of Wednesday next at the Kings-Albert constituency. The publicity and organization meeting will start the Liberal campaign in the province under very bright prospects. The presence of the minister of public works at the convention will add an intense interest in the proceedings.

Arrangements have been made so that everyone along the I. C. R. wishing to attend will have an opportunity to do so.

The Liberal convention for the city and county of St. John will be held in the Queen's rink on Thursday, Aug. 10. At this meeting the delegates elected at the primaries in the several wards and parishes will meet to select candidates to represent the city and the county and Mr. St. John in the dominion parliament. The meeting will be called to order at 7.30 o'clock.

A ratification meeting will be held in the same place immediately afterwards, commencing at 8 o'clock, to ratify the choice of the delegates.

Writers who try to frighten the Canadian farmer with stories of the enormous export of American products ought to say that these exports have declined heavily in the last decade. For instance, in 1900 the value of animals exported was $43,689,391. In 1910 it was only $17,747,735. In the same period the exports of breadstuffs fell from $22,744,078 to $13,191,330, and the export of meat and dairy products from $184,458,055 to $139,063,783.

Famous Jap Lauds Anglo-American Arbitration Treaty as a Step Towards World's Peace—Photographers and Reporters Failed to Ruffe His Temper.

New York, Aug. 4.—Admiral Count Togo Heichiro, the man who beat the Russians in the fight in Tsushima Straits and who is going to be the guest of the United States government for the next twelve days, arrived in New York from England on the Cunard line steamship Lusitania late last night.

At 9.30 o'clock last night the derelict destroyer Seneca with the welcoming party aboard left the recreation pier at the foot of East Twenty-fourth street and put down to Quarantine to meet the Lusitania, which passed Sandy Hook at 11.10 o'clock.

On board the Seneca were the Japanese ambassador, the Japanese secretary of state, representing President Taft; Capt. Temple-Potts, U. S. N., the representative of the navy, and his aide, Lieut. A. B. Cook; Gen. F. D. Grant, commander of the department of the east of the army, and his aide; Mr. Hanihara, first secretary of the Japanese embassy at Washington, who came as representative of Ambassador Uchida; Commander Hiraoka, naval attaché to the Japanese embassy; Chief Commissioner Waldo and Inspector Schmittberger, and a party of newspaper men.

After Admiral Togo, Commander Taniguchi, his aide and sole traveling companion, the Japanese ambassador, and the Japanese secretary of state, all of whom had been taken aboard the Seneca the trip back to the foot of East Twenty-fourth street was made with all speed. At the dock automobiles for the party were waiting and a detail of twenty mounted policemen escorted the admiral to the Knickerbocker Hotel, where the government reserved a suite for him.

At 10 o'clock this morning Mayor Gaynor paid a ceremonial visit to Togo at his temporary quarters at the Knickerbocker. The admiral returned the call at the city hall. He left for Washington on the 3.38 train. Major Archibald Butt, aide to the president, will meet him at the station in Washington and escort him to his hotel. On Saturday he will meet President Taft and will be his guest at dinner on Saturday evening.

Mayor Gaynor asked Admiral Togo about the coronation of King George and the admiral, through his interpreter, replied that he had been greatly impressed with the splendor and magnificence of the ceremony.

He Loves Peace.

In speaking of the recent Anglo-American treaty Admiral Togo said: "This treaty is a mighty good thing for the peace of the world. I have the reputation of being a fighting man, but I love peace among nations more than anything in the world."

As soon as they had discussed the Anglo-American arbitration treaties, the admiral reported to the Japanese ambassador his attitude toward Russia and the Moroccan affair. Admiral Togo replied briefly that he would not discuss politics, but the reporter persisted. Mr. Hale and Mr. Taniguchi emphatically terminated the interview, but the admiral's face did not change its placid even graven expression or lack of expression.

The admiral rode aboard the electric locomotive in the Pennsylvania station, he told his aide, that in riding under the Hudson River in a fast and powerful motor he hoped to learn much of the use of the electric locomotive. The train he was shown over the new station, followed by a large crowd. He was frequently applauded.

"I am intensely interested in your world pre-eminence in electric engineering and railroading," the admiral said on departing through his interpreter. "I wish to observe both. Therefore, I will ride with the engineer."

The admiral rode in the cab to the limit of the electric zone at Harrison (N. J.) and there entered his car. He asked many questions of the engineer, concerning the electric equipment. In fact, it was remarked that he displayed more interest in this incident of his visit than in anything previously.

During his stay in the city Admiral Togo had many conflicting experiences, but there was not the least change in his almost placid countenance. He was not seen to smile nor to frown although he had much occasion to do the latter. He was entirely impassive so far as his countenance might reveal his emotions. Once when an over-zealous photographer for whom he had graciously consented to pose, roughly shoved his head to one side, with "Don't hold your head so stiffly," he even showed no displeasure. Again when three photographers became involved in a quarrel in his presence as to preference for camera position, he looked on without changing his expression, even while Chandler Hale, third assistant secretary of state, and official reporters for the government, entering the admiral, ejected the photographers.

It had been agreed by Commander Taniguchi and Mr. Hale that the newspapers' reporters would be permitted to interview the admiral on his visit here, but not on politics.

Obeyed Orders Like Veterans and Officers Were Pleased—Twenty-one Days Vacation Granted to Recruits While Repairs to Warship Are Being Made.

ALL WERE COOL

Friday, Aug. 4.

Granted a brief leave of absence owing to the repair work which is in progress upon the flagship Niobe several Canadian service cadets, including William Desroches, passed through the city last night. The Canadian recruits were given a vacation of twenty-one days and left Halifax yesterday morning for their homes.

Desroches, who was returning to his home at Sherbrooke (Que.), talked interestingly of his experiences during the voyage. "A very heavy fog had settled down on Saturday night," he said, "but there were no apprehensions. Half an hour after midnight a sudden shock thrilled the warship. Everyone knew by the shock that the ledges were going deep holes in the hull, but there was no disorder. The cadets received orders to hold themselves in readiness to disembark in the life boats and shutting the water tight doors they played the part of veterans. At the time of striking the ledge the ship was going very slow, about five knots an hour—but she had been carried about six degrees out of her course by the strong current. The ledge was about two miles from Cape Sable Island, the sea was very high and many believed that death was certain.

"The tide rose sufficiently in half an hour to permit the ship to get off the ledge under her own steam. She was anchored at Shag Harbor, with the assistance of the three tugs sent out from Yarmouth.

"The divers of the Niobe's crew made investigations of the openings in the injured parts and reported the holes as not very serious.

"After the anchorage at Shag Harbor the cadets were sent ashore in the steam launches and three boats. One of the boats went ashore but was recovered by the crew about six hours afterward. Later all returned to the ship.

"The Stanley and Lady Laurier arrived in response to a wireless message and accompanied the Niobe to Clark's Harbor. The cadets were again sent ashore and rowed for seven miles to a landing place. They embarked at Barrington station for Halifax. The cadets passed through a very trying experience early in their period of service, but they conducted themselves in a manner worthy of the blue jackets of England."

Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce Assures Committee That His Department is Very Much Alive to the Requests of St. John Merchants.

Monday, N. B., Aug. 6.—The citizens of Moncton were given to learn of the death of Mrs. F. W. Sumner, wife of Fred W. Sumner, the well known hardware merchant, which occurred about 1 o'clock this morning at her summer home, Shediac Cape.

Mrs. Sumner had been in poor health the past three years. She was taken ill Thursday, and was able to be around all Saturday morning about 2 o'clock. She was struck by a stroke and never rallied passing away early Sunday morning.

Deceased lady was forty-eight years old and a daughter of the late Thomas and Rebecca McEwan. She was born in Moncton where she lived all her life. Her husband, she is survived by one son, F. R. Sumner, of Moncton, and two daughters, Mrs. H. M. Wood, Sackville, and Miss Marguerite at home. The surviving sisters are Mrs. E. C. Cole and Mrs. L. B. Read, Moncton and three brothers, George McEwan, I. C. R. freight agent, Truro, and Gerald McEwan, of Japan.

Mrs. Sumner was a great favorite socially and other wise, and was well known throughout the county and elsewhere. She was a member of the Moncton Baptist church and her name was associated with the committee in which she spent her last days in Ottawa. All the merchants are very hopeful of a satisfactory solution of the problem.

RECORD MAY CUT ON NORTH SHORE

Bumper Output of Other Crops Also Promised—Farmers Want Reciprocity.

Chatham, N. B., Aug. 6.—Reports from all parts of the county indicate that there will be record hay crop this year, and the best feature of the situation is that it is now nearly all safely stored.

In some sections in Napan farmers state they never had as heavy a crop and many fields are yielding two and a half and three tons to the acre. So heavy was the cut in many fields that two men had to follow close to the mowing machine and with their pitchforks throw over the hay to make a path for horses and machine on the next cut.

There was plenty of rain at right intervals and the farmers were blessed with exceptionally good haymaking weather when they came to cut.

Other crops are also excellent, with the possible exception of potatoes and farmers are looking forward to an early ratification of reciprocity so that no matter how heavy a crop they harvest there will be a market for all and no risk of a glut on the local market.

Wilmot may consent to be a candidate in Queens-Sunbury.

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 4.—The recent rise of water has greatly helped the corporation drive, the big jam at Grand Pass, having been broken up and the logs are running past the city to Mitchell's boom. The head of the main drive is at Joselyn Bar and the last section passed Woodstock last night.

Frank Lingley underwent a successful operation for appendicitis at the Victoria Hospital last night.

It looks now as if R. D. Wilmot, ex-M. P. would be prevailed upon to accept the Tory nomination in Sunbury-Queens. He is anxious to have A. R. Slipp, M. P. P., step into the gap but the latter's candidature would be distasteful to certain Fredericton Tories and they are doing their utmost to sidetrack him. The Liberals of the constituency are hard at work and are confident of re-electing Col. H. H. McLean, M. P., by an increased majority.

Desperado Continues His Work

The desperado terrorizing the county between Moncton and Dorchester for the past two weeks, was heard from again Saturday night. Late in the evening a farmer at Dover, seven miles below Moncton, was aroused by the squealing of a stuck pig. Upon investigating the cause of the trouble the desperado was caught in the act of killing a pig. He had killed and was about to eat it when he was disturbed. He made off in the darkness, chased by the farmer, and made his escape taking the carcass of the pig with him.

The desperado had previously stolen a wagon and harness already having a horse in his possession, but these were left behind and recovered.

Today Sheriff Willett with a posse of men, has been scouring the woods at Dover searching for the hand, but up to a late hour tonight he had not been captured. Tomorrow the sheriff's posse will be enlarged and a determined effort made to run the man to earth.

The fire which is raging in Dover and it is supposed to have been set or accidentally by men searching for the suspected man. The local police believe the suspect has a cave in the vicinity of Dover, where he is hiding.

SAYS BEST IS SOLD FOR RECIPROCIITY

All Want Larger Market

Intelligent Farmers Delighted With the Trade Agreement

Senator King, Who Has Returned from Western Trip, Declares Sir Wilfrid Laurier Will Be Returned With a Larger Majority Than Ever—Conservative Inconsistency.

Saturday, Aug. 5.

That reciprocity will receive the hearty support of the farmers of the Canadian West, was the opinion expressed by Senator G. G. King, of Chipman (N. B.), who was in the city yesterday on his way home from a two months' visit to the principal western towns. Senator King has had plenty of time to study conditions in the West and to learn the views of the farmers, and has come home firmly convinced that the reciprocity agreement between Canada and the United States will meet with the hearty approval of the western people.

"I traveled miles and miles through immense fields of wheat," he said to a Telegraph reporter yesterday, "and I think the crop this year is going to exceed that of any previous year, it being predicted in many places that the entire crop will amount to 200,000,000 bushels. The owners of most of these farms are well posted men, and they know that Great Britain's requirements do not exceed in any one year 100,000,000 bushels of wheat. They also know that Canada has never in the past been able to find a market in Great Britain for any one-third of the prospective crop of the present year, and they are asking themselves 'Where is the balance over and above Canada's requirements, to find a market, if we do not have reciprocity?' One of the things that the farmers want today is a larger market, and reciprocity will give them the freedom of entry into the markets of the greatest consuming nation in the world.

"The Conservatives are putting forth the plea that Fielding and Peterson should have stayed in Ottawa, and that in a year or so Canada would probably have obtained from the United States nearly all the concessions contained in a reciprocity bill without yielding a single concession in return. But Sir Wilfrid has walked a year or two what would have happened? The markets of the 90,000,000 then would be open to the whole world and not to Canada alone. Canada under the proposed reciprocity agreement will have a preference in the United States that no other nation on earth can claim, and cannot help but profit thereby. The farmers all know this to be true, and apparently pay little heed to the Tory arguments.

"Then again the Tories have put up the plea that the different railroad companies in Canada are afraid of reciprocity; still these roads keep on extending their roads, and their stock is getting higher and higher every day. Mr. Borden told the western farmers that the adoption of reciprocity would divert the trade of Canada from the east and west lines to those running north and south, while his supporters all over Canada are telling the people that the United States would have lowered their tariff or made it entirely free on Canadian products which they are so extremely anxious to control. And yet the Conservatives are in no way opposed to the building of other transcontinental lines to Canada north, and Mr. Borden himself promises to go one better than Sir Wilfrid in regard to the building of the Hudson Bay Railway. He is also willing to incur a debt amounting to millions of dollars to acquire terminal elevators to take care of a crop of wheat which he predicts is going south. This on the face of it is positively absurd.

"In a few weeks the farmers will be harvesting their crop and they will be interested in finding the best market for their product, and at the same time R. L. Borden and those behind him are lying awake at night trying to devise some scheme by which they can prevent the farmers from doing what they deem best with the products of their own farms. He tells them further that the Tory party in Ottawa has in some way reached the conclusion that the loyalty of the farmers would not permit them to accept American currency for a few million bushels of wheat, but he can rest assured that if things turn out as he is predicting in his campaign speeches, that the price of wheat will be lower in the United States than in Canada, that not a single bushel of wheat will cross a boundary line, and that they will have nothing to do with him or his policies. This seems to be the prevailing spirit in the West, and I think it can be safely predicted that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be returned to power with a greater majority than in ever had before. I myself want to see the farmers and manufacturers of this country get a better chance to dispose of their goods, and I know of no better way than by adopting the reciprocity agreement."

Saturday, Aug. 5.

Death came suddenly yesterday to Chas. McCrackin, following a fall from his seat on a load of wood in the Red Head road. After the accident he lost consciousness. When taken to the hospital it was seen that the base of his skull had been fractured. The pilot of Mr. McCrackin was first noticed by James Gordon, who is employed by George Stevenson on his farm on the Westmorland road. Mr. Stevenson was driving a raking machine when Gordon called to him that there was something wrong with the driver of a team which was standing in the road near the hay field. The men went over to the scene of the accident and found Mr. McCrackin at the heels of the horses, in a dazed condition. The horses had stopped of their own accord and the wheels did not pass over any part of McCrackin's body. Without assistance he crawled out of his dangerous position and laid down beside a wheel of the wagon. He soon fainted away and did not recover consciousness. Mr. Stevenson thought that the man was already dead but he telephoned for the ambulance and McCrackin was conveyed to the General Public Hospital. Soon afterward he died. McCrackin had been engaged for many years as a teamster for Alexander Clark of 30 Murray street, and the horses and loaded wagon which played such an important part in the fatal accident belonged to Mr. Clark. The unfortunate man was driving toward the brickyard when the accident occurred, but it is not known just how he happened to fall off the load.

He was born here about 58 years ago. He was a son of Margaret and Archibald McCrackin and always lived in his city. His wife is dead and he leaves no children. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Wm. McKay, of 30 Sheriff street. He has recently been living with Frederick Pace, of 202 Main street.

FORMER PASTOR HERE FROM HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Rev. Dr. Wadman, Once Pastor of Carleton Methodist Church, Home After Several Years of Mission Work in the Pacific.

An interesting visitor to the city this week is Rev. John Webster Wadman, D. D., who for a number of years past has been residing in Honolulu, where he is superintendent of Hawaiian missions of the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Dr. Wadman was formerly pastor of Carleton Methodist church here, although it was many years ago. Since Wednesday when he arrived in St. John he has been the guest of W. Watson Allan, an old friend of his.

Although the climate in the Hawaiian Islands is delightful and even throughout the year, Dr. Wadman took much pleasure in once again breathing the enjoyable and refreshing Canadian air. He is now on his way to Charlottetown, P. E. I. to visit his mother, who resides there. On August 12 he will return to St. John and on the next day, Sunday, will occupy the pulpit in one of the local churches.

An interesting feature of Dr. Wadman's visit to St. John will be a lecture on "Picturesque Hawaii," which he will deliver in his old pastorate, Carleton Methodist church, accompanied by 153 stereopticon slides, on Aug. 14.

ALL FOR THE LUMBERMAN

In the chorus of entreaty now going up in the anti-reciprocity press against opening the Canadian market to the competition of the ninety millions of people south of the border it will be observed that there has been no mention of the lumber industry. As the gentleman from Michigan would say, there's a reason.

Canada's markets are already wide open to lumber, chiefly hardwood and yellow pine, from the United States. It is imported duty free because the manufacturers and the housebuilding contractors of Canada need it in their business. For the Canadian lumberman reciprocity means no possible increase of competition from the south, and a very great increase of trade by reason of the entire removal of the United States duty on Canadian lumber.

There quite a few lumbermen who have been objecting to "judgmental" free trade. They have urged that the Government should direct its energies toward getting the United States to remove the duty on Canadian lumber in consideration of the fact that Canada for many years has permitted the importation duty free of lumber from the United States. Now that the United States has agreed to that very thing they should lend their influence to the reciprocity agreement.

For the lumberman the adoption of reciprocity is all gain and no loss. The benefit of the renewal of the United States duty on Canadian lumber will go in part to the consumer in the States in the form of lower prices, and in part to the Canadian lumberman and his employees in the form of higher wages and profits.

How important to the Dominion the export of lumber and other forest products is can best be gathered from the fact that during the past five years the exports of forest products from Canada to the United States have been as follows:

1907 (nine months)	18,397,753
1908	27,470,754
1909	26,421,373
1910	31,835,326

This is a total of $127,210,246 in four years and nine months. Almost all of it had to face heavy duties. During the same period the United States sent $35,770,314 of lumber and forest products to Canada, all of it duty free. The principal items on which the United States duties are to be entirely wiped out are as follows:

Hewn timber, present duty, one-half cent per cubic foot.

Sawn boards, planks, deals and other lumber not farther advanced than sawed, of whitewood, sycamore and basswood, present duty, 50 cents per thousand feet.

Of other wood, including pine, present duty $1.25 per thousand feet.

Paving posts, railroad ties, poles of cedar or other wood, pickets and palings, present duty, 10 per cent.

Wooden staves, partially manufactured, present duty, from 10 to 20 per cent.

The remission of duty by the United States on sawed lumber alone, on the basis of the trade of 1910, will be $1,219,970 per year. That is why the lumbermen are largely for Laurier and larger markets.

WARNING TO FARMERS

The Telegraph has been informed that certain agents for cream separators and other farm machinery, who have been working lately along the St. John river, and also in Albert and Westmorland counties, have acted as though they were conservative campaign agents, making a canvass in the interests of the party of high protection.

It is said that these men have everywhere tried to convince the farmers that reciprocity would be against the interests of the country people, whereas, of course, the opposite is true. Some of the manufacturers fear that, if reciprocity passes, there may be a movement later on among the farmers looking to the removal of duties from some lines of manufactures. Of course, the farmer knows that if the duty were taken off more of the machinery and implements he uses, it would mean money in his pocket.

The Telegraph has been asked to warn farmers everywhere against such canvasses as those mentioned.

CANADA IS NOT SHORT OF MONEY

Ottawa, Aug. 4—The financial statement of the dominion for the first four months of the fiscal year shows a steadily growing revenue with expenditures remaining practically stationary.

The income for the four months was $40,209,171, an increase of $4,753,732, as compared with last year. For July the increase was $1,748,950.

The expenditure on consolidated fund account for the four months was $23,000,656, and increase of $658,000 compared with last year. The expenditure on capital account was $4,644,700, a decrease of $1,152,838.

With over $50,000,000 of supply voted by parliament before dissolution and an expenditure as far as about $28,000,000 the government still has about $22,000,000 available to carry on the administration until the new parliament meets in October.

The public debt on July 31 was $37,181,427, a decrease of $1,500,000, as compared with the same date last year.

With the revenues increasing at the rate of over $1,000,000 a month and with the public debt showing a decrease, it is safe to say the opposition will not make the government's financial administration an issue in this campaign.

BOTH ARE WON IN STRAIGHT HEATS

Halifax and Attleboro Horses Capture Moosepath Events

GOOD CROWD SEE THEM

Gallagher and Masterpiece Winners of Free-for-All and 2.17 Trot and Pace—Some Incidents Enliven a Quiet Day.

Between 1,000 and 1,200 witnessed the second day's racing at Moosepath Park on Saturday afternoon. The free-for-all and the 2.17 trot and pace were the attractions and both went in straight heats. Gallagher, owned by L. R. Acker, Halifax, winning the former and Masterpiece, owned by M. V. Douce, of Attleboro (Mass), the latter. Neither of the events furnished any excitement as both these horses had everything their own way, winning out handily in every heat.

In the free-for-all Frank Patch, which was regarded as a favorite and which had plenty of backing previous to the races, did not show up in its usual form and succeeded in getting away with only third money, Charley King, an American entry, finishing second. In the 2.17 trot, which was won by Masterpiece, Idle Moments, owned by F. Duncanson, Fairville, and which was the only local horse entered in this event, captured third money, Laura Merrill, another horse from Mr. Duncanson's stable, figured in the free-for-all but succeeded in finishing only among the also rans. T. Doyle, of Cadiz, who handled the megaphone, experienced considerable difficulty in getting the horse started and on this account the races, which were none too interesting at times, became monotonous.

The day was marked by a slight accident, the gig drawn by Masterpiece and driven by A. W. Rideout, breaking down just as the horse was approaching the wire to get away for the third heat of the 2.17 trot. This happened after about seven or eight false starts had been made in this heat and a further delay of five or ten minutes ensued.

The events.

The first heat of the 2.17 trot was the opening card. Frank Power, a Halifax entry, drew the pole. The heat was not long in progress when it became very evident that Masterpiece was not in his normal form. Although he got a poor start, he pulled up well towards the finish and by the time the three-quarters had been run was well in the lead. The race for second position between Idle Moments, Stanley Mack and Pearl Baranmore was a grueling one, however, and the run up the home stretch was of the hair raising nature. The honors went to Pearl Baranmore, which beat out Idle Moments by only a neck's length.

The first heat of the free-for-all saw Gallagher at the pole. Getting away with a good start, the Halifax horse was never headed. The fastest of this heat, in fact, the showing made by Charley King, an American horse, which, left badly in the rear by the whole field at the start of the heat, came strongly at the finish and, after showing a momentary burst of speed, finished second. The remaining heats in both races all went in procession fashion with Gallagher and Masterpiece as the "bell" horses and the others falling in behind.

As on the preceding day the track was very heavy and the time made as a consequence was only fair.

The following is a summary:

COL. McLEAN FULL OF CONFIDENCE OVER ELECTION CONTEST

Arriving on Ottawa on Saturday Col. H. H. McLean was full of confidence regarding the outcome of the approaching elections. He will go into Queens county today to start the fight on the hustings. The opening meeting will be held at Chipman tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Addresses covering the issues of the campaign will be delivered by Col. McLean, Hon. C. W. Robinson and A. B. Copp, M. P. P. The meeting will be held in a large tent to accommodate the crowds expected. A band will furnish music.

Rumors have been circulated regarding disaffection in the Tory camp as to the choice of a candidate. The names of Judson Hestington, Hon. J. D. Hazen and F. St. John Elias have been mentioned in this connection and the latest name to be added to the list is that of L. B. Smith, of Sunbury.

I. C. B. BRAKEMAN KILLED BY ENGINE IN SUSSEX YARD

Edward O. Livingstone, of Moncton, aged about twenty years, an Intercolonial Railway brakeman, met an almost instant death about 11.30 o'clock on Saturday morning at the western end of the Sussex yardway. He was brakeman on the east way freight and was assisting in shunting work when the accident occurred.

An engine was being run to a siding and Livingstone opened the switch and then jumped for the pilot of the engine. He missed and fell to the track and the locomotive ran over him, three wheels passing over his body near the hips and causing such severe injuries that he lived but a minute. The pony wheels of the engine were thrown from the track as they struck the unfortunate man.

An inquest was held by Coroner F. W. Wallace in Sussex on Saturday night and the jury brought in a verdict declaring that no blame for the accident attached to the railway or anyone.

The body was taken to Moncton in the Quebec express on Saturday night. Mr. Livingstone is survived by his wife and one or two children.

Part in Campaign Starts for Today

—Borden and Board Hard at

Ottawa, Aug. 4—The cabinet change foreshadowed some time ago in connection with the retirement of Hon. L. P. Brodeur, minister of marine and fisheries and of naval affairs, to take the position in the supreme court bench rendered vacant by the death of Justice Groulx, will take place next week.

Hon. Mr. Brodeur is now winding up pending matters of departmental administration in connection with his portfolio so as to have things in good shape for his successor, Hon. Rudolph Lemieux, the present postmaster-general.

Dr. Beland, the young, able, and popular member for Beauce, will enter the cabinet as postmaster-general and will be sworn in within a few days at Murray Bay (Que.), where Earl Grey now is.

The minister will address meetings both in Ontario and Quebec during the campaign.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux will go to Simcoe with Sir Wilfrid for the premier's opening meeting of the campaign on August 15. The other ministers to accompany Wilfrid to Simcoe will be Hon. Geo. P. Graham and Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King.

Cabinet Ministers Leaving for Home.

The cabinet council today succeeded in clearing up most of the arrears of departmental business and until after the more full meetings of the cabinet. Most of the ministers are leaving either this week or next for their respective districts to plunge at once into active organizing for the campaign. Hon. Mr. King left for Berlin tonight, and Hon. Mr. Templeman for Victoria.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley goes to St. John tomorrow and Hon. Frank Oliver will leave for the west on Sunday night.

Sir Frederick Borden, who will again contest Kings county, Nova Scotia, goes to Quebec tomorrow to meet Lady Borden, who is returning from England in the afternoon. The latter is a correspondent from the serious injuries sustained through being thrown from his horse in London during the coronation ceremonies.

Hon. Mr. Laurier will spend tomorrow in Montreal in consulting with the party leaders in Quebec relative to organization work, the selection of candidates and plans of campaign. He will return to the capital at night and spend next week here.

Borden's Plans Changed

The opposition leader will not attend the great Conservative picnic and council of war in Toronto tomorrow, as originally intended. Mr. Borden is too busy here to leave at present. He and Chief Whip Perley are engaged in fixing up political correspondence in the post office department, and private secretary to the postmaster-general, was appointed assistant deputy postmaster-general to succeed E. H. Lashinger, the former able assistant deputy who resigned last June to become a business associate of Cavitha Mulock, of Toronto.

Niobe Damage Not Serious.

Hon. Mr. Brodeur, minister of naval affairs, states that advice received from the Niobe indicate that the damage sustained by the cruiser are not nearly so serious as newspaper reports would indicate and the permanent repairs can be made at the Halifax dry dock that will make the warship as serviceable as ever. Owing to the continued fog and heavy weather the Niobe has not yet been able to leave her present anchorage for Halifax.

The department of railways is calling for tenders for the construction of the new branch line of the Intercolonial railway in eastern Nova Scotia, authorized by the vote put through parliament last session. One line will serve the district between Dartmouth and Deans, a distance of 70 miles, where there has long been a crying need for railway facilities. The other line will run from Guysboro to Country Harbor.

The cost of the two lines will be nearly $2,000,000. Tenders are to be in by September 1. The department indicates that construction work will be well advanced by fall.

Tenders have also been asked for the proposed improvements to the Richmond yards of the Intercolonial at Halifax. The estimated cost of the work is $83,000. The plans provide for new tracks, the reconstruction of the yards, straightening of tracks, etc.

U. S. CAMPAIGN FUND TO OPPOSE LAURIER

American Protectionists Are Raising Large Fund to Fight Reciprocity in Canada at the Coming Elections.

The New York Herald of Friday says: Failing in their efforts to block the Canadian reciprocity compact in congress, American opponents of the treaty are endeavoring to defeat the measure, it was learned yesterday, by raising a large campaign fund to be used in the dominion next month to bring about the defeat of the members of parliament who favor the measure.

W. H. Wakeman, treasurer and general secretary of the American Protective Tariff League, informed a Herald reporter that he had been approached by a representative of a large publicity agency, who outlined the plan to defeat the reciprocity treaty with American dollars.

SCOUT LEADS IN LONG LAKE

William Strong Four Times Brought to Surface in Gallant Effort to Save His Life

Richard McKee's Heroic Work Finally of No Avail Because of Boy's Struggles, and Lad Sinks for Last Time—Body is Recovered.

Apparently affected by heart failure and rendering futile one of the most skillful and strenuous attempts at rescue ever known in the neighborhood of this city, William B. Strong, a boy scout, son of Charles D. Strong, of 104 Wright street, went to his death in Long Lake, about a mile east of Dark Lake, and about 2 1/2 miles from the city, at about 10 o'clock on Saturday morning. Richard McKee, a fellow scout, answered his call for assistance given upon exhaustion after a comparatively short space swim and with a strong stroke and an application of a technical knowledge of first aid assistance covered himself with honor by putting up a brave fight for his friend's life.

After being drawn to the bottom of the lake four times and so often bringing the unfortunate boy to the surface he was forced to let him go when very near a place of safety. Only the scout training prevented a double drowning fatality.

The Long Lake cabin is owned by the Y. M. C. A. troop of boy scouts and during the summer members of the troop have been continuously at the place. As several are away from the city in other directions the members of other troops have been invited to share the outing and training at the cabin. Last Sunday there were seventeen boy scouts at the cabin, including William Strong, of the St. Paul's troop.

The boys are in the habit of going and coming to the city as necessity demands. Strong came to the city for provisions on Monday and Wednesday, returning each time to the lake and he intended to return to the city again on Saturday. That morning there was a party of eight at the scout boat, including L. P. Cathels, scout master of the Stone church, left early for the city.

The Disaster.

After taking a very light breakfast and spending the early morning by reading from Stevenson's Treasure Island, young Strong went out at 9:30 M. for a swim. In front of the log cabin in a swimming course has been marked off. A log float extending from the shore forms the home base of a water diamond on which the game of water polo may be played. The first, second and third bases are arranged so as to make about twenty feet from one stage to the next in the direction of the bases. Mr. Strong went down to the home base accompanied by Harold McKay. The latter swam from third to first and then to second. Strong swam for third base, rested there, and started for first. When almost to first he called for help. Richard McKee, son of James McKee of 268 Douglas avenue, heard the call and swam for first base, where his companion was struggling in the water. Harold McKay also heard the call but as he had farther to swim and was not fresh he did not reach the vicinity of first base until all was over. Some younger boys put out in a boat but did not arrive in time.

Gallant Attempt at Rescue.

When McKee came up the scout he sought to rescue was making fierce plunges. By a little cautious handling he was quieted and putting his hand on McKee's shoulder he was borne by a few quick strokes toward the first base float. When a very short distance from the place of safety the unfortunate young man again commenced his struggles, catching McKee by the neck he climbed upon his back and dragged him to the bottom of the lake. While in the water McKee was perfectly calm and used the methods for first aid assistance which he had learned as so proficient. McKee was well trained and in the moment of need he did not forget the methods so carefully rehearsed in training.

Breaking his companion's hold he bore him to the surface and this was repeated four times. Absolutely exhausted after this trying physical test McKee was forced to finally break the hold of his friend and let him go. It was only the efficient training of the scout which enabled him to save himself from a watery grave. Out of breath and the blood gone from his face he saw his friend sink for the last time. Unable to locate the spot on the muddy bottom of the lake, especially as the struggle for life had darkened the water, the boy scouts were unable to recover their unfortunate companion by diving.

The Body Recovered.

Two scouts went to the home of James Peacock, who lives not far away, for assistance. Fred Peacock took to the scene of the accident and with the aid of grappling sticks made for the purpose recovered the body. A. W. Robb and Dr. F. J. Hogan were summoned by telephone.

After the recovery of the body scientific methods of resuscitation were applied for an hour and a half. The body was rolled over a canoe. The Schafer method of restoring respiration was applied by the scouts and after their arrival Mr. Robb and Mr. Cathels took turns and continued until the coming of Dr. Hogan, who announced that life had fled. He said that the body exhibited none of the symptoms of one whose death had been caused by drowning. He attributed the death more directly to heart failure.

The father, Charles D. Strong, was at his office in King street when he received the sad message. Accompanied by Mrs. Strong he drove to the home of Mr. Peacock and was met there by scouts carrying the body of his son. It was taken to the home of Mr. Peacock, where it was placed in a coffin. William B. Strong was born in Sussex. The family moved to this city from Moncton a little more than three years ago. Besides his father and mother he is survived by three brothers, Frank, George and C. Murray; and three sisters, Mary A., Jean K. and Kathleen E. Mary is the eldest of the family and the others were younger than William. The unfortunate son was one of the most popular of the troop of St. Paul's church No. 8. He was well liked at the High school, where he had completed the ninth grade. He was a good living member of the Main street Baptist church. His popularity was due to his obliging manner and cheerful disposition.

They were greeted was a matter of great gratification to him, Mr. Hazen said. During their stay in England Mr. and Mrs. Hazen were guests at many important public and private functions and met many distinguished people. They had the honor of being presented to their majesties, Mr. Hazen said, and the premier had a conversation with the Duke of Cornwall, who will be Canada's next governor-general and the Duke of Devonshire, who expressed the hope that he might again visit Canada. Mr. Hazen added that among the New Brunswickers who have attained a high place in the life of Great Britain and whom he met were Dr. C. G. R. Parkin, Sir Max Aitken, James Dunn, Williams Taylor and many others.

The premier said he endeavored to arrange a tour of the Dominion of Wales for the British journal, and he proposed to visit Canada next month but found this impossible. He has hopes, however, that some of the unofficial members of the party will be able to visit the eastern and northern counties.

Since his last visit to England, seventeen years ago, Mr. Hazen noticed the great advance in the interests displayed towards Canada and this especially with regard to eastern Canada. He believed that if the same attention was given to advertising the maritime provinces as is given to the west there would be a tremendous influx of immigrants to the east. The premier was deeply grieved by the sad news of the death of Sheriff Ritchie, which greeted him on his return. He paid a sincere tribute to the late sheriff both as an official and as a man.

QUEENS COUNTY MINES SHUTTING DOWN BECAUSE OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT

NO TRANSPORTATION

Six Weeks Have Elapsed Since Central Railway Bridge Fire, and as Many More Likely Before Repairs Are Completed.

Another instance of the neglect of the provincial government to properly look after and repair the highways and bridges of the province comes from the vicinity of God's Station. About a month or seven weeks ago the Central railway span at that place caught fire and one of the piers was completely destroyed. One end of the span fell into the river and the bridge was therefore impassable. The bridge was used considerably by the mine owners in the vicinity for shipping their coal out and was also used to a great extent by foot passengers. The loss of the bridge was therefore a great one to the people, and it was expected that the government would have men sent to the place to make repairs immediately.

The work necessary to complete the bridge is not nearly ready and the people are being put to a great inconvenience. The mine owners are not only being time, but are also losing thousands of dollars waiting for the work to be completed so that they can ship their coal out. Some of the mines have been forced to shut down, and employment of 150 and 200 miners are out of employment.

The government has been appealed to, but this method of procedure has proven useless as they are still carrying on the work at a snail's pace. Commenting on the delay, a local business man in that locality is forced to scull across the river on an old raft if they want to get to the other side.

H. M. Balkin of the Transcontinental Railway, who was in the city yesterday, told a Telegraph reporter that "there was nothing short of an outrage." "Here are all these people, mining men and others, put to the greatest inconvenience, and the provincial government are doing but little to help them. The workmen have been engaged in making repairs for about six weeks, and the way things look now it will take them as long again to complete the work. Mines are shutting down and the owners are obliged to buy coal elsewhere in order to fill their orders as it is impossible for them to get the coal out for shipment. Any practical railway contractor would have had a new bridge up by this time, but such is not the case with the government men. They seem to believe in the old adage 'the more haste the less speed' and apparently they think that time is being completed before Christmas it will be all right."

This is only one instance of the neglect of the government in connection with the roads and highways and complaints are heard daily about the disgraceful condition of the roads, and bridges of New Brunswick. The auto owners of the province are up in arms against the government, and are waiting for election day to show them.

Mr. Dow leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters. His wife, Mrs. Dow, is a well known resident of St. John. The funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. Dow on Wednesday.

Wellington Dow, of Dow Settlement (N. B.), Wellington Dow passed away in the 65th year of his age. A few weeks ago, while assisting a neighbor to shingle a barn he had the misfortune to fall from the roof. At first he thought it was a bad cold, but he was broken he had escaped without serious injury, but very soon grave internal troubles began to manifest themselves, which, despite all that could be done, resulted in his death after four weeks' illness.

LOCAL NEWS

Cholera infantum was responsible for five of the seventeen deaths in St. John last week.

At the home of Mrs. B. B. Johnston, Upper Lockwood, on Friday night, the men bowlers presented to Miss Elizabeth Johnston a handsome set of silver spoons and the ladies presented a novelty shower. Miss Johnston is to be married in the near future. Several of the bowlers arranged a minstrel show. There was dancing, refreshments were served and a very happy evening spent.

Postmaster Sears is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Julia Grace Carey, 1277 Locust street, Philadelphia, in which information is sought regarding the location of some farm land owned some years ago by Mrs. Carey. In the course of her letter she writes: "My knowledge of the place is that it was situated on Bay Chaleur and the owner was known as the 'Widow' Carey. Postmaster Sears would welcome any information that might assist Mrs. Carey in her search."

St. John and Kings-Albert County Conventions to Be Held This Week—The Arrangements for the Meetings

Important and extensive purchases of property in St. John and near the city are being made by wealthy English people who see a great future in store for St. John and who are buying for investment purposes. Already, it is said, they have secured properties which called for an expenditure of more than $100,000 but details are not yet available.

It is stated that one of the buildings bought is that in which the Park Hotel on the north side of King Square is conducted, and while not confirmed, this is believed accurate; also that negotiations are being carried on for a Charlotte street parcel, that one or more King street places are bought or being bargained for, and that the purchasers have also gone into side streets with a view to buy residences. It is also reported that several parcels of farm lands on the fringe of the city are included in this large real estate transaction.

In the great works projected for St. John the Courtenay Bay development and the fact that another transcontinental railway is to have its terminus here, the purchasers see a great future for St. John and their course is regarded as one of the most striking indications of the growth and expansion that a few years will bring here.

While it was known that negotiations were in progress, the first authoritative announcement came at the common council meeting yesterday afternoon, when a bill from the same people was made for the city's property at Greenhead as referred to in the report of the council meeting. When the council met on the 27th of this city, has been acting for the purchasers and one of the principals is also present in St. John. The next few days are expected to bring interesting announcements.

Strong for Reciprocity.

Mr. Carvell then took up the reciprocity agreement, and the applause which greeted his remarks showed how fully the audience was in sympathy with the plan to enlarge Canada's markets. He showed that the agreement is in no sense a treaty, but an arrangement which may be terminated at the pleasure of either party to it.

He took up also the absurd annexation cry raised by the Tories, now that they have deserted the policy which they supported for many years, and he showed not only how utterly foolish that cry is but also that it is insulting to Canadian citizenship.

Passing on, he pointed out that the agreement is practically confined to natural products, and that when it comes into force the farmers and lumbermen and fishermen of Canada will have profitable markets thrown open to them. Under this agreement the farmers, for instance, will find their markets for hay, sheep, etc., much more profitable than at present. There will be more money available for the payment of labor and property values will increase.

In closing, Mr. Carvell expressed his confidence that reciprocity will be endorsed throughout the Dominion.

At the close of Mr. Carvell's address, Coun. Kinney spoke briefly. He spoke most enthusiastically regarding reciprocity and declared that the parish of Kent will give a splendid vote for it. The convention then broke up with cheers for the king and for Mr. Carvell.

The reciprocity forces here are in splendid trim for a big campaign and the Conservatives are correspondingly depressed.

IRON PIPE BARGAINS

Life is short. Why be slaves and carry water all your life? At a very small cost and with an ordinary pipe wrench you can have the water brought into the house and out again; no plumbers needed. A few hours spare time will do. Then water in your barn will pay for itself the first six months and will earn more than its cost every year afterwards.

Saves Time and Labor Every Hour of the Day

We have now ready to ship over 450,000 feet of pipe just taken out of some large buildings that are being dismantled.
