An Attractive Resort in the Sunny South

To the Monitor-Sentinel:

While we are thinking of spring and are looking for the buds on the trees, and also mayflowers, we here in Alken, S. C., are enjoying the summer, for it is summer here with the temperature eighty-five to ninety. The heavens are one blaze of light with the millions of stars so bright, and just a soft, gentle breeze rustles the leaves. The air is heavy with the exquisite perfume of the ever-blooming roses and the magnolias.

It is now nine-thirty and all is quiet but for the tinkling of a cow-bell, and an occasional street car as it goes down to the town and gets its passengers for Augusta, Georgia, which is about twenty miles distant. We hear the twanging of the banjo and mandolins and a dapper quartette singing some of their songs, and such delightful melody they produce, the evening, the scenery, and music make it all so very enchanting. One thinks it might be Paradise. The mocking birds are singing so sweetly, for it is so light that they sing as well at night as in the day.

The cotton fields are green now with the newly planted cotton, and the corn fields, the corn about a foot and a half high, are green looking. The long level fields stretch miles and miles. The oat in the fields is ready to reap, the black-berries are ripe, and the plums, peaches and figs are ripening very fast.

We had a very heavy rain and a severe thunder storm here yesterday and last night, a very damaging hail storm, which cut the corn and cotton and destroyed a great deal. This morning the rain had been so deep that the main street looked like a small river. The water was so deep one could not cross the street, but after the sun came out and the rain had stopped, inside of two hours, you would not know that it had rained, for the soil here is so very sandy that the rain soaks into the soil very quickly, and that is one reason Alken is not stay in pools and become stagnant, and, therefore unhealthy.

We have a very nice water supply here. The water is from artesian wells and is the best water to be found anywhere in the United States. All our ice is manufactured in the ice plant here and frozen by chemical, which are pumped through pipes that line big vats. The ice is purer and more healthy than the natural ice, for all the water is filtered.

The water that is used in Charleston, S. C., is all distilled rain water, caught in cisterns, and it is really unsafe to drink, and that alone is the cause of so much typhoid there in the extreme hot weather.

Alken very seldom has a case of typhoid, for it is a very healthy climate. Mr. William C. Whitney, of New York, built a large race track here, where they hold race meets every year, and he also built a drive which is famous as the "Whitney drive." It is seven miles long, and is very picturesque, with all kinds of tropical shrubs and vines and little rustic bridges. There is a deer park, and "Lover's Lane," and a little picturesque spring called Coco Springs, and paths winding over hills and ravines that have been washed out by some terrific storms long ago. Now they are covered with mountain laurel, honeysuckle, jasmine, and wild azaleas in profusion. Under arches of beautiful dog-wood trees, there by the ponds, are an old cotton gin and saw-mill, probably over a hundred years old, over which you may see a party of tourists, who are looking for the first drive a tourist takes when he comes to Alken.

Chronicle of Clarence Schools and Churches

The following interesting paper was prepared and read by Miss Durling at the Public Examination of the Clarence Centre school on Friday last, and is published by request:

I have attempted to write something of a history of the Section, the schools getting the larger part. I have received from persons in the community that my outline is almost wholly educational. In regard to education—the first school-house was on land now owned by Mr. Robert Marshall, very near the mountain road. The last teachers employed in that schoolhouse were Mr. Henderson, 1826, Captain Stone, of Upper Clarence, and Mr. Ashp Marshall, half brother of Mr. Robert Marshall. After this building was vacated, it was moved up to Mr. Sydney Marshall's, and was still made useful—namely, as a pig pen. Then for a very short time there was a school in the dwelling of Mr. Dalton on farm now owned by Mr. Allen. After this the children were compelled to take a much longer walk, as then the only school was near the Bent Road, on land now owned by Mr. William Spurr. The next school was organized by Mrs. Frederick Roach, but only for a year and a half, as in 1854 the second school-house was built on land now owned by Mr. Harry Viets, to the east of blacksmith shop. This house was built by share-holders, but only provided for a few years in this way. The school law was passed in 1864, compelling each owner of property to pay taxes to the schools. For several years after that the school year consisted of two terms—namely, summer and winter terms. Some of the teachers employed in this second schoolhouse were: Mr. Alfred Marshall, 1854; Miss Ada Parker, Mr. William Horner, 1855; Miss Rose Marshall, Miss Venus Bent; Miss Annie Brown; Miss Siboumb, 1873; Mr. Stramberg, 1874; Mr. McGill, 1875; Mr. John Hicks, 1876; Miss Abby Parker, 1877; Mr. Albert Saunders, 1878. The last teacher was Miss Mary Marshall, 1879, employed while the present schoolhouse was being built. The old house was moved down to the late Mr. Elijah Sproul's, as a cooper's shop.

The first teacher in the new schoolhouse was Mr. Everett Bishop, who taught in 1879 from November to April, when his health compelled him to return to his home. His term was completed by Mrs. Lemuel Shute.

Winter term, 1880-1881, Miss Mary Florence Nightingale Parker; summer term, 1881, Miss Stella Brown; winter term, 1881-1882, Mr. Abner Chesley; summer term, 1882, Miss U. B. Brown; winter term, 1882-1883, Mr. Jonathan Woodbury; summer term, 1883, Mr. Jonathan Woodbury; winter term, 1883-1884, Mr. Jonathan Woodbury; summer term, 1884, Miss Eva Freeman; winter term, 1884-1885, Miss Eva Freeman; summer term, 1885, Miss Eva Freeman; winter term, 1885-1886, Miss Odessa Banks; summer term, 1886, Miss Odessa Banks; winter term, 1886-1887, Mr. William Calnek; summer term, school closed. Winter term, 1887-1888, Mr. H. Slocumb; summer term, 1888, Mr. H. Slocumb; winter term, 1888-1889, Mr. J. H. Balcom; summer term, 1889, Miss McCormick; winter term, 1889-1890, Mr. J. H. Balcom; summer term, 1890, Mr. J. H. Balcom; winter term, 1890-1891, Mr. J. H. Balcom; summer term, 1891, Mr. J. H. Balcom; winter term, 1891-1892, Mr. Fred Bishop; summer term, 1892, Miss Odessa Banks.

The year 1892 was the last that the school year was divided into two terms.

1893, Miss Odessa Banks; 1894, Miss Amelia Moore; 1895, Miss Odessa Banks; 1896, Miss Etta Elliott; 1897, Miss Etta Elliott; and Mr. Avard Bishop; 1898, Mr. Robert Longley; 1899, Mr. Robert Longley; 1900, Miss Susie Leonard; 1901, Miss Susie Leonard; 1902, Miss Cora B. Elliott; 1903, Mr. Andrew Durling; 1904, Mr.

Nova Scotians on The Bisley Team

Nova Scotia will have two riflemen on the Bisley team next year. Private B. M. Williams, of the 69th Regiment, was notified, as we stated last week, that he had been chosen. Private Williams will represent this province at the great international contest in England this summer. Mr. Williams began shooting in 1904 and quickly became known as a good shot. He won the grand aggregate at Bedford that year, besides capturing one of two first prizes, and the next year he tried for the second prize in the grand aggregate and otherwise distinguished himself. In 1906 he was ill and did not do so well as usual at Bedford, but was in good trim again in 1907 and reached the century mark in the first stage of the Merchants' cup match, but was overtaken by Colonel H. F. Plovers in the second stage at the 100 yards range. He went to Ottawa last year for the first time and did excellent work, winning 26th place on the Bisley team. He has won a place on the provincial inter-maritime team for the past three years, but has never been able to take part in the match.

Our Boys and Girls Factors in Empire Building

President R. A. Falconer delivered an instructive address on the occasion of the Empire day celebration of the pupils of the Normal and Muelci schools in Toronto. The president of the university told his young auditors that the British empire was not built altogether in wars; but, on the contrary, he enforced the truth upon the minds of the children and youths that it was by the whole mass of the British people through centuries doing their duty day by day and living honest and useful lives. Such men as Lord Cromer had done much to build up the empire. He had struggled and denied himself ease in order to serve his countrymen, and at the same time help the Egyptians. Although many great men as governors or as leaders in parliament did much for the empire, still we must not think of them as the chief factors in empire building, but rather the whole people. Boys and girls in Canada and children who did their school tasks and daily work to the best of their ability, they were helping build the great empire, and they were making it better by such conduct. When they grew up they would be able to transact their larger duties with patience and efficiency. If they were mean and had to be watched, then they would be unable to build up a good empire. If they were cruel at heart, then such would make the empire a cruel one. If, on the other hand, they had clearness of heart and soul, the empire would also have clearness of heart and soul. Greatness did not consist in largeness and endowment of spirit, or in cleverness, but it was rather the man or woman upon whom all men looked with confidence. The president urged the pupils to take heart from the noble record of their empire and do better than their predecessors had done, for such they were expected to do.

Meeting of the Annapolis Rural Deacons

The chapter meeting of the Rural Deacons of Annapolis, began its sessions in Trinity Hall, Digby, on Tuesday, the 19th inst., when a most interesting report was read by H. T. Jones, Esq., of Weymouth, the Deacons' Representative on the Board of King's College, Windsor. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Jones for this report and for the great interest he has shown during the year in the work of the college. He was unanimously re-elected as the representative of the Rural Deacons on the board of governors. At 7:30 p. m., a lecture illustrated by lantern views was delivered by the Rev. J. Lockwood, Rector of St. Clement's. The lecturer dealt in a most interesting way with the introduction of christianity into the British Isles and the history of the early British church. A similar lecture was delivered on Wednesday evening by the Rev. Rural Dean How, Rector of Annapolis. The second lecture treated of the mission of St. Augustine of Canterbury to the Anglo-Saxons. This furnished an eloquent sequel to the introductory history of the previous night.

Meeting of the Annapolis Rural Deacons

It is intended that eventually all periods of church history shall be dealt with in a similar manner throughout the Rural Deacons. On Wednesday morning at eight o'clock the Holy Communion was celebrated by Rural Dean How in Holy Trinity church, when a most helpful sermon to the clergy was preached by the Rev. E. Underwood, Rector of Bridgetown. Meetings of the chapter were held on Wednesday both morning and afternoon, when a variety of business was transacted, and a portion of the Great Testament was read and critically commented on. The Rev. J. E. Warner, Rector of Wilmot, read a paper on Sunday School Association which was heard with much interest and appreciation. The important matters and suggestions contained therein were referred to a committee to report to the next meeting. The Rural Deacons had an instructive and thought-provoking paper on Eternal Punishment. This gave rise to great discussion which was finally cut short by the fast of time. It being arranged that another paper on the same subject should be prepared by the Rector of Digby.

Meeting of the Annapolis Rural Deacons

Yesterday morning a quiet hour for the clergy was conducted in Holy Trinity church by the Rev. W. C. Wilson. This most inspiring service concluded a series of very successful and interesting meetings.

The next meeting will be held in Weymouth the last week in August or the first in September.

Lobster Fishing Good in Nova Scotia

The lobster fishing in Nova Scotia this season promises to be the best yet. All along the shore from Halifax to Digby the fishing was never better. Notwithstanding the bad weather at times and the scarcity of bait at some places, the catches of lobsters have been very large. From Halifax to Canso the fishing has not been quite so good as in former years, but it is expected to improve before the close of the season.

The total pack for the season will be very large, some of the canneries already having hundreds of cases more packed than they did at the same time last year. Two weeks still remain before the close of the season. On one factory on the Western shore has packed two thousand cases to date.

Some of the exporters of live lobsters had not been determined up to a late hour to-night, owing to the difficulty of removing the dead bodies from the debris, but the Great Eastern did not conduct a local line. At this point a train carrying a large number of pilgrims on their way to a local shrine was standing. Into this the Antwerp-Brussels express dashed at a speed of fifty miles an hour, literally leaping on top of it. The heavy coach express crushed the lighter train into splinters. The sides of the express cars were torn from the fastenings, the floors practically collapsing, thus precipitating the passengers to the side of the track unharmed, whence they fled across the fields. But for this fact, the death roll would be much greater. Few of the occupants of the local train escaped alive. Those that were not killed were badly injured, many of them fatally. The rescuers, even the doctors, who were hardened to such scenes, were sickened at the sights that met their gaze. Evidences were found of horrible death struggles that had occurred in the crushed coaches. In one place a disembodied hand was found clutching one of the supports of the wrecked car. One body was some upon lying across the boiler of a locomotive, crushed into a shapeless mass. The majority of the dead could not be recognized, either being decapitated or their heads terribly crushed. The judicial authorities of Antwerp soon arrived on the scene and opened an investigation into the disaster. They ordered the men in charge of the switches under arrest, although it is believed by the authorities that they were blameless. The engineer and fireman of the express both were killed at their posts. Prince Albert went to Costlich this evening and visited the inquest, having cancelled an engagement to preside at a banquet at Antwerp.

Brakeman on H. & S. W. Killed

Henry Taylor, a young brakeman on the Halifax and South-Western railway, met a horrible death Wednesday night at Bridgewater. His lifeless body was taken off the track in two pieces.

Young Taylor, who was not yet twenty years old, was assisting in shunting the train at Bridgewater station. He gave the sign to the engine to go ahead. The signal was acted upon. As the train moved ahead Taylor was noticed to fall backwards between two cars. The train passed over him before it could be stopped and his body was cut in two by the car wheels.

The young man entered the employ of the road a year ago. He was a smart railway man, and his chances for promotion were excellent. His fellow trainmen and employers all liked him very much. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Lodge Bismarck, No. 723, Kentville. The order will take charge of the funeral arrangements. The body will be taken to Mount Unlace reaching there tonight. Mr. Taylor was unmarried. His father is a section foreman on the I. C. N. His home is at Mount Unlace.

College Prank With Serious Ending

New York, May 21.—As the result of a college prank, which the police allege took the form of an attempt to break into a candy booth which had been repeatedly robbed, Edward H. Cook, of Albany, a freshman student in Columbia University, is in the J. Hood Wright hospital today with a bullet wound behind his left ear. Cook is eighteen years old, and the son of John T. Cook, former district attorney of Albany county, who was one of the best known members of the Albany bar.

Howard T. Cole, of Brewsters, N. Y., also a freshman of Columbia, who was a companion of Cook in the prank, is a prisoner in the 125th street police station and is charged with attempted burglary. Young Cook was shot by policeman John Harton, who discovered Cook and Cole in what the police say was an attempt to break into a candy booth and soda water store in West 125th street, near Riverside Drive, last night.

At the appearance of the policeman the boys started to run, but Cole stopped when Harton fired a shot in the air. Young Cook continued to run and was about to dodge into a hallway when Harton shot him in the head.

At the hospital today it was stated that Cook was conscious and did not then appear to be in a serious condition, but the bullet had not been located and the danger and extent of the wound will not be determined until the physicians have made a more complete examination, than was possible last night. It is not known whether the bullet entered the skull or lodged in the bone behind the ear.

The police are inclined to believe that the two youths broke into the track-stand in a spirit of mischief.

Fatal Accident at Woodville

A very sad accident occurred at Woodville on Wednesday morning about ten o'clock, by which Mr. David A. Parker, a much respected resident of that place, met a sudden death. Mr. Parker and his son were really unable to drink, and that alone is the cause of so much typhoid there in the extreme hot weather.

Alken very seldom has a case of typhoid, for it is a very healthy climate. Mr. William C. Whitney, of New York, built a large race track here, where they hold race meets every year, and he also built a drive which is famous as the "Whitney drive." The Inter-collegiate Track Meet at Moncton

Moncton, N. B., May 22.—The inter-collegiate track meet here today, at 2 p. m., was a surprise, as U. N. B. was expected to show up well. But of Mr. Allison's points were made in the mile run. Acadia had five all-rounders. Two U. N. B. men failed where they were expected to shine and did well in unexpected events. Baird could not be broken and one tied. Baird of U. N. B. put the shot 7 ft. 10 1/4 inches, breaking the old record. Moland of Acadia tied the record for the 220. The last named was the star. The weather was all that could be desired. The sports were handled well and the attendance was fair.

D. A. R. Difficulties

(Yarmouth Times.)

The Dominion Atlantic Railway is in trouble over a bridge that spans the Sissibio River at Weymouth. This bridge was erected by the governor in council in approving of Western Counties Railway and the plans provided for a draw forty feet in width. In some unaccountable manner the bridge was built with a span less than 45 feet. As a result, it was passed which it is claimed made this legal. Now the business interests require a draw even much wider than the forty feet and an application has been made to the minister of public works to have it declared an obstruction to navigation. Notice has been served on the railway company by the minister of public works not to proceed with any repairs and if they do it will be at their own risk, pending an investigation to be held at Weymouth into the whole matter by a department official from Ottawa. Mr. Copp M. P. for Digby, while not wishing to say anything that would injure or do any injury to the company says that the draw must be widened to at least sixty feet to meet the requirements of the port, especially as extensive dredging operations and other improvements are about to be undertaken to improve the existing conditions there. Weymouth, Mr. Copp says, has increased its business very much since the building of the bridge, being now the sixth largest port for the exporting of iron ore to Nova Scotia.

It is reported that the D. A. R. may overcome the difficulty by diverting its line in such a way as to avoid the necessity of crossing the bridge and to such a distance that chemists would be quite a way from the railway station.

It is also mentioned in railway circles that the railway company, in order to shorten the distance from Yarmouth to Halifax may divert its line at a point several miles west of Digby and take a direct course to a point at, or near, Bear River. The plan would materially affect Digby, which would have to be satisfied with a branch line service.

Canadian Club Banquet In New York.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR LAUDS SECRETARY OF STATE AT CANADIAN CLUB DINNER.

James Bryce, British Ambassador to the United States, paid a remarkable tribute to Elihu Root, Secretary of State, last night at the annual banquet of the Canadian Club, in the Hotel Astor.

Ambassador Bryce was describing three treaties recently entered into by the United States and Great Britain, which were, he said, of special benefit to the people of Canada.

He spoke in a perfunctory way of the interest President Roosevelt took in the treaties, and then said: "I want to say a word about Mr. Root, the Secretary of State. I do not believe there has lived in our time or in any time, any statesman who has more sincerely striven to work for the good interests of Canada and the United States than Mr. Root. And no statesman ever brought to any question a clearer vision or a deeper wisdom than did Mr. Root in his labors for these treaties."

The speaker who immediately preceded Ambassador Bryce, Justice J. W. Longley, of Halifax, had uttered what some of his listeners regarded as the only discordant note. Justice Longley protested that Canada would inevitably reach such a great growth that separation as a colony from the British Empire was certain.

He described the three treaties that had been entered into between this Government and the United States for the benefit of Canada. The first he said was the Fisheries of the Great Lakes which had never before been properly regulated, and which under the new conditions would mean a source of bread winning to great numbers of people on both sides of the boundary line.

The second treaty, he said, was for an exact boundary between Canada and the United States from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The third and most important of all, he said, referred to arbitration.

"Any question," he declared, "arising between the United States and the British Empire, must be settled by arbitration under this treaty. It is a declaration by these two great powers that when any question arises which they are not able to settle themselves instead of being allowed to remain as a cause of friction, and a possible cause for war, it shall be submitted to arbitration. No greater service to the people of both nations could be rendered than that treaty promise."

He declared that Canada should profit by the conference now in progress in Washington for safeguarding and preserving the natural resources, and should undertake a similar work on its side of the boundary line. He declared Canada and the United States should also co-operate in the matter of laying out national parks in the far west so that they would extend north and south of the line.

Dr. Neil Macphatter, President of the Canadian Club of New York, presided—New York World.

Judge Longley Replies to His Critics. To the Editor of the Chronicle: Sir: Nothing could be farther from my desire than to be engaged in a controversy of any kind. My address before the Canadian Club of New York was carefully prepared in advance, and I thought it absolutely free from any controversial matter. Those who have read the text in the Chronicle and Herald will not need any explanation. But any person in addressing a public audience in the United States is compelled to run the gauntlet of yellow journalism. The assembled reporters seem to be quite unconcerned about the topics they are simply on the lookout for sensationalism, and, as a consequence, they telegraphed all over this Continent and across the water accounts of the occasion, and hence absolutely false and preposterous a deluge of editorial comment here and in England, which would never have been made if the full text of the speech had been read.

One of the pleasures of the evening to me was to sit near to Right Hon. James Bryce, British Ambassador at Washington, and one of the brightest and most liberal minds in England. I had the pleasure of discussing with him the subject matter of my address before delivering it, and I was not surprised that he unreservedly stated that Englishmen did not now regard Canada as a Colony, but as a sister state, which he hoped would always remain closely identified with the Empire. In the course of his speech, which followed mine, he was careful to refer to Canada as a sister State.

It happened that it was absolutely necessary for me to return to Halifax by Saturday, and, therefore, to take the midnight train to Boston. Mr. Bryce did not begin to speak until nearly 11.30. I remained up to the last moment, hoping I should be able to hear his last word before I left. Time, however, so passed that I was compelled to leave a few moments before he finished—I only got on board my train one minute before it started. On the strength of this, the yellow Press sent messages all over the country that I had left in disgust on account of the remarks Mr. Bryce had made an allusion to my speech, nor did he utter a syllable that questioned a single word I had said. But I find a friendly correspondent half apologizing for my leaving!

I was addressing a body of three hundred Canadians—most of them citizens of the United States, but still devoted to Canada, and interested in the progress of the Empire. I said nothing that I would not say in London before His Majesty or his Prime Minister—and I am sure with the approval of both. These are the words I used:

"What in my view is likely—almost certain to happen is that the process of development Canada will gradually assume the responsibilities of an independent nation. But the only difference that will follow, so far as Great Britain is concerned, is that instead of a Colony she will be an ally—instead of a condition of dependence, the relation will be an alliance. No need to be ashamed of England's history. She has always stood for what is best and highest in human civilization. She has been on the side of the oppressed and never, or rarely, on the side of the oppressor; she has contributed more than any other nation—perhaps all other nations—to destroy the inhuman traffic in human flesh; she has been the patron of literature and the mother of political freedom. In the main, her policy in the world stands for justice and righteousness, and, therefore, when the time comes that Canada feels it fitting and proper that she should assume national autonomy, she will not hesitate to throw the weight of her influence in support of British principles and policy and put behind the Empire whatever moral and physical power she can command."

I cannot conceive that these are not words proper to be uttered anywhere and at any time. To me the matter of the future of Canada is of no personal concern; I have no political objects to serve. It is not at all likely that I shall live to see any change in the relations between Canada and the Empire. But I can scarcely make myself believe that country as large, and rapidly growing as Canada, with its vast potentialities of development can always be a Colony. If I read aright the results of the last Imperial Conference, it was that hereafter the great self-governing Dominions were to meet and hold conference with the Imperial Government upon questions of interest to the Empire—that they were to meet on equal terms and not sacrifice a single atom of their autonomy as self-governing countries. That certainly was Sir Wilfrid Laurier's attitude and he was the most important factor in the Conference. That matters relating to the Empire will always be of profound concern to Canada, I think, is common ground. But I do not believe, for a moment that young Canada will be forever content to be a dependency. In time her population will double, her revenue greatly increase and her wealth and resources endow her with a right to the status of nationhood. She will be as valuable to the Empire as an ally as a dependency. Some may think more so. Those are the views I, in common with others, have taken the liberty of expressing. I think this is the right of every Canadian. If any one takes a different view he has an equal right to express it.

Certainly nothing I said in New York or elsewhere is open to the charge used by one of the London papers, "vain-glorious boasts" and "ill manners," and I think such expressions from the British Press are in bad taste, and indicate a failure to appreciate the palpable conditions which now exist, and are bound to grow in weight as the years roll by.

BETTER TIMES AT HOME

A correspondent of the Truro News writes: I noticed in your columns that there are quite a few Nova Scotians leaving home and coming west. Now I would like to advise any young man that has a good home to stay there and not believe all that he hears of this country. This country, as all right for speculators and real estate men, but it is a poor place for the working man. The majority of working men, only receive about thirty dollars a month, and in winter a man is lucky if he can earn his bread.

This place, Edmonton, has been found entirely too much. There are a few new buildings going up at present. There are hundreds of men out of work, and all clamoring for work. You can see them every day tramping the streets, eagerly watching the employment offices in hopes of getting a job.

I know of dozens of men who worked all last winter for their board, and there are plenty here to-day who would willingly work for their board. I say to all Nova Scotians to stay at home and be content with what they have, and not believe all the newspaper reports to the contrary. I am planning to take a trip back East in the near future to see old Nova Scotia once again.

OLD TIMER.

The Auto in Ontario

The tenth section of the Ontario statute enacted in 1906, "to regulate the speed and operation of motor vehicles on highways" provides that every person having control or charge of a motor vehicle shall take all reasonable precautions to prevent the tripping of horses which he is either meeting or passing on a public highway. The section cited mentions some of the precautions he is required to observe, such as slackening speed, coming to a full stop, remaining stationary long enough to allow a terrified horse to be brought under control, and giving the vehicle for which a permit is issued under the provisions of the act "shall be held responsible for any violation" of them.

In an action tried without a jury at London it was proved to the satisfaction of Mr. Justice Riddell that the driver of an automobile in the village of Dorchester had violated this law by failing to reduce his speed to seven miles an hour when passing a frightened horse, and by failing to obey the statutory signal to stop. The horse swerved from the road, breaking the buggy and harness, throwing out the two occupants of the former and inflicting on one of them serious injury. The owner of the automobile contended that he was not liable because the chauffeur was not at the time on his business but Mr. Justice Riddell gave judgment for heavy damages with costs, holding that the owner of an automobile must either manage it himself or see to it that those who get possession of it in any way obey the statutory rules.

WHOOPING COUGH.

"In February our daughter had the whooping cough. Mr. Lane, of Hartland, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said it gave his children the best of satisfaction. We found it as he said, and can recommend it to anyone having children troubled with whooping cough," says Mrs. A. Goss, of Durand, Mich. For sale by W. A. WARREN, BRIDGETOWN, W. HOW TO MAKE A MERRY WIDOW HAT AT HOME.

Take one Lycie wheel. Superimpose on the hub, one deep granite saucerpan, first slipping off the handle with an axe. Stitch on cover of wine colored velvet from your season-before-last's coat suit. Put on a three inch binding around the rim of canary colored taffeta silk from your great-grand-mother's party dress. Rip sixteen yards of box ruffling off your shirt-waist box and wind about the crown. A soup ladle and a joint fork will give a jaunty effect if used as hat pins.

Tired nerves, with that "no ambition" feeling that is commonly felt in spring or early summer, can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Sippy's Restockova. You will also lately note a changed feeling within 15 hours after beginning to take the Restockova. The bowels get sluggish in the winter time, the circulation slows down, the kidneys are inactive, and even the heart in many cases grows decidedly weaker. Dr. Sippy's Restockova is pronounced everywhere as a genuine tonic to these vital organs. It builds up and strengthens the worn-out weakened nerves; it sharpens the falling appetite, and universally cures the ailment. It always quickly brings renewed strength, life, vigor, and ambition. Try it and be convinced. Solely for sale by W. A. WARREN, BRIDGETOWN, BEAR RIVER DRUG STORE, BEAR RIVER.

FRIBBLES OF FASHION.

Possibilities of the Semiprincess Gown. The Newest Jumper Waist. Semiprincess dress, which is merely a dress with the skirt and waist joined together, is immensely popular this spring. It is very easy to take a separate jumper waist and combine it with a plaited skirt, join the two and have a semiprincess costume. The newest jumper has a suggestion of the ladder sleeve, in which tucks extend from the shoulder well down on the arm. All these jumpers and jumper dresses are suitable for blouse or street wear. In the latter case they are generally voile or chiffon, Panama or taffeta. For tea or dinner dresses they are delightful in light colored laces, willing pongee and rasha wool over lingerie gimples or walters. A model that can be easily copied is shown in the design. JUDIC CHOLLET.

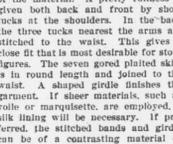

A JUMPER COSTUME—3888.

A pattern of this jumper costume is cut in size from 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Send 5 cents to this office for the pattern, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. The jumper is finished with attached bands of the material. A pretty fullness is given both back and front by short tucks at the shoulders. In the back the three tucks nearest the arm are stitched to the waist. This gives a close fit that is most desirable for stout figures. The seven gored plaited skirt is in round length and joined to the waist. A shaped girdle finishes the garment. If finer materials, such as voile or marquisette, are employed, a silk lining will be necessary. If preferred, the stitched bands and girdle can be of a contrasting material or color. For instance, if the dress is of brown marquisette a darker shade of lustrous silk may be used for the bands and girdle. JUDIC CHOLLET.

VOGUE FRILLS.

Colored Embroidery on Some of the Smart Shirt Waists. A new shirt waist shows the fronts solidly tucked and the middle box plait without the frills of last season, but embroidered in dots or color. The collar and cuff bands follow this idea. A pretty home work for needlewomen is to embroider a box plait, cuffs, collar and belts in these colors.

FRILL FOR THE SMALL GIRL—3303.

The pattern of this child's one piece dress is cut in three sizes—for children one, three and five years of age. Send 5 cents to this office, giving the number of the pattern (3303), and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. The dots. The edges may be finished with embroidered scallops in heavy mercerized cotton. The shirt waist suits lead among frocks in utility. One is far better dressed in a skirt and waist of the same material than in a tailored skirt with a different blouse, though it is not to be denied that the lingerie blouse and the linen skirt are here to stay with tailored suits. Shirt waist suits in silks and challs are made for morning and evening. The cut of the blouse, its trimming and dressiness determine its place in the day's wardrobe. The small girls' frock seen in the illustration is modeled from a French design and is very smart looking and easy to make. JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE HOME

"Well, I guess not; I think I'll pay my 'excellent' debts if I have to do without cigars."

"I never got a report like that and I wasn't so worse. You must tell you what we'll do to celebrate; we'll go and get one of the sweeter vests that you are so wild about."

"I'd rather have a collar for Spotty," said Billy, eagerly. "One of the kind full of nails that makes him look like a fighter."

"I'll see to the collar," said his mother, teasing with pride.

For the first time in his short life Billy began to study his history lesson without any proddings from his mother or threats from his father.

With a very much injured air he wanted to know "how a kid could learn his lessons and get 'B's' when Vicky's Spot were making so much noise."

"I'd give a good deal to know what has made that young imp of a William turn into the teacher he is now," said Billy's teacher to her neighbor, sitting with cranes poised on the card, "I really think these marks have been the making of him. My eye must have slipped last month."

"I'm glad I haven't got to solve the problem," said the other teacher, laughing.

Billy's card went home unopened, with a small footnote to the effect that a blunder had been made last month but that Billy was everything that could be desired "this month and the teacher was proud of him."

AND DAUGHTERS. By Beatrice Fairfax.

"My daughter has been such a blessing to me," said a gentle, little old lady to me the other day.

"She has never given me an hour's worry in her life."

I wonder how many mothers can say that? Not many, I am afraid.

"A girl deserves no credit for being good in part, but little in return, no matter what path we tread."

And each of us has his golden goal, stretching far into the years; And ever he climbs with a hopeful eye.

With alternate smiles and tears, That dream ahead is what holds him through the storms of a ceaseless fight;

When his lips are pressed to the woman's cup, And clouds shut out the light.

To some it's a dream of a high estate, To some it's a dream of wealth; To some it's a dream of a trade with Fate.

In a constant search for health, To some it's a dream of home and wife; To some it's a dream of a crown above;

The dreams ahead are what make each life— The dreams—and faith—and love!

HOW SHE KEPT YOUNG. Some one once asked a woman how it was she kept her youth so wonderfully. Her hair was snowy white, her eyes were young and her energy was waning, but she never impressed one with the idea of age, for her heart was still young in sympathy and interests.

"And this was her answer: 'I knew how to forget disagreeable things. I tried to master the art of saying pleasant things. I did not expect too much of my friends. I kept my nerves well in hand and did not allow them to bore other people. I tried to find any work that came to hand congenial.'

Spent Eighteen Dollars. "Gentlemen—I have pleasure in stating that I have used $18.00 worth of Psychine, and as a result was cured of very serious throat and lung trouble."

My case was a most difficult one, and I could not get well. I tried Psychine, and it did me so much good that I continued its use until I had taken $18.00 worth, with the result that I am now a new man physically. I have gained thirty-five pounds.

It is with the greatest confidence that I recommend Psychine to all who are afflicted with throat or lung trouble. Yours truly, C. A. FINKELHAY, Scotland, Ose, Sept., '07.

ONE RULE FOR HUSBAND AND WIFE.

There is but one rule of strict morality that a man can adopt. That would be to live as pure and perfect a life as he would have his wife live, to avoid associations, habits, and language that he would have her avoid.

The old idea of one scale of morals for the man and another for the woman is very wrong, and until the young man is attracted from society by the same act that would bring the young woman out in the cold world, social standing is a farce.

The life blood of the future is the bounding pulse of our little ones. No son or daughter should be allowed to leave the shelter of home ignorant of those principles that underlie good government.

Will the boy who is taught the sweet law of obedience for love's sake, in the tender years of childhood, be likely to rebel when he is called upon to obey those laws that are made for the preservation of our country and good of the people?

Will not the boy brought up to hold in respect all that goes to make up a noble man and womanhood abide by these teachings when he steps into the broader fields that lie before him? Will a girl brought up with such a brother give her future into the keeping of a young man who scoffs at religion, defies the law and lets his reason and judgment be led off by every morose and slouch to the weak men to destruction? Should we need to fear the future if we do our whole duty? Let us place our ambition high to make men loyal and true.

THE DREAMS AHEAD. By Edwin Carlisle Litsey.

What would we do in this world of ours, Were it not for the dreams ahead? For thorns are mixed with the blooming flowers, No matter which path we tread.

And each of us has his golden goal, Stretching far into the years; And ever he climbs with a hopeful eye.

With alternate smiles and tears, That dream ahead is what holds him through the storms of a ceaseless fight;

Two Flours in One

Beaver Flour is the best "pastry flour," just as it is the best bread flour. Because it is a blend of the two flours that are best for bread and best for pastry.

Beaver Flour contains Manitoba wheat, which is rich in gluten, and makes bread that is both tasty and nutritious. Beaver Flour also contains Ontario wheat, which is famous for the light, delicious Cake, Pies and Pastry it makes.

Beaver Flour is always blended in just the exact proportions, so that it is always the same and always gives the same results when you use it.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 27, 1908.

The address of Judge Longley before the Canadian Club of New York has provoked much hostile criticism on the part of the English press, which has been widely circulated on this side of the ocean by those who differ from the sentiments of the speaker. He is regarded as disloyal and unpatriotic by those who would hug their allegiance to the British throne under any and all circumstances. It is not impossible, however, that not so many years hence, Judge Longley may be proved not traitor but prophet. Canada is growing by leaps and bounds and it is not hard to imagine her sometime outgrowing the authority, though not the sentiment of love and respect, for her great mother-land. Judge Longley's reply to his critics is published elsewhere in this issue.

An original sketch of the Schools and Churches of Clarence will be found in this issue of the Monitor. We are indebted to our regular Clarence contributor for a copy of this sketch, which will undoubtedly be read with much interest, especially by the older members of the community. Another original article of interest is the letter contributed by a Southern subscriber, under the heading, "An Attractive Resort in the Sunny South."

AUTOMOBILE LEGISLATION.

(The Orchardist.)

The Municipal Council (Kings), when it adjourned in April, made arrangements for a special session to be called at an early date, to consider the restriction of the running of automobiles. The Councilors, to avoid hardship to tourists and others journeying through the Valley desired to have the "close season" for automobiles in Kings to correspond as far as possible with the adjoining counties.

We do not know as yet what Hants and Annapolis purpose doing but the Council of Kings seemed favorable to prohibiting the running of automobiles on Wednesdays and Saturdays and possibly on Sundays also. This would not be so drastic as the law passed by the Pictou Council, which allows these new vehicles only Mondays. Yarmouth county has just taken action and there the rule has been adopted to restrict them from 12 o'clock Friday night until 12 o'clock Saturday night.

CURED BY BEE STINGS.

London, May 17.—There is a prevalent belief in many countries that the sting of bees act both protectively and as a cure for rheumatism. Dr. Newton Friend, a reputable Suffolk physician, contributes to the current issue of Nature an account of a bee stinging cure which came under his personal observation. Two or three years ago, he says, a schoolmaster who suffered severely from rheumatism in the back deliberately exposed his arms to the stings of bees. By the time his arms were well again his rheumatism had completely disappeared, and he has never had another attack. The gentleman who took this heroic measure is now close to fifty years of age.

Shall Women Vote?

The North American Review, the publications of the Harper Brothers and Collier's Weekly have all "lined up" in favor of extending the suffrage to women; and now comes the Saturday Evening Post with the following pertinent editorial, under the heading:

"The Plea of the Clinging Vine." We are well disposed toward female suffrage, perhaps not so much for the sake of the thing itself as because of the hoary arguments that are brought against it. Man is not a sturdy oak. Merely a scrub, insecurely rooted in sandy soil, somewhat worm-eaten, in peril from every high wind. Nor is woman a clinging vine—except those who are also blockheads. Home is not the woman's sole and proper sphere. One female in seven, of all ages, at the last census, was engaged in a gainful occupation. There were twenty-four million females above the age of twenty, and five and a quarter million were earning a livelihood—or trying to.

Here, if woman's business is to cling, is a problem in reforestation, more startling and vital than any yet propounded by Mr. Pinchot. Where are the oaks for these vines? It is a fair assumption that they have failed as clients only as a corresponding male has failed as a clinging vine. The political and economic organization under which five million women work for a living is exclusively male creation. It seems to us reasonable that, in proportion as women have to make a livelihood, they are entitled to have a say about the general conditions under which livelihoods are made. We are impatient to any fear that voting would coarsen women and rob them of that virgin delicacy which is their chief charm. Many, many thousands of them pack daily in street cars, subways and elevated trains, where they are bumped, trampled and squeezed by strange men. By the hundred thousands they work in stores, offices and mills, where their experiences must be at least as sophisticated as any that would come to them from walking to a polling place once a year. It is undoubtedly true that the great majority of women do not wish to vote; but they wouldn't have to.

In the absence of Pastor Saunders who has been holding meetings at Dalhousie for the past week, Rev. H. Balcom occupied the pulpit here on Sunday afternoon.

Obituary.

MRS. JOHN PRIMROSE. The death occurred at Sydney, C. B., on Thursday, 21st instant, at the home of her grandson, Dr. Primrose Parker, of Mrs. Primrose, widow of the late Dr. John Primrose, of Lawrence town, Annapolis County.

Mrs. Primrose was ninety-two years of age, and for some time had suffered the natural infirmities of advanced years, but, previous to a few years ago, she was a woman of superior intelligence and had many commendable qualities of heart and mind. She was the mother of eight children, four of whom are now living: Dr. Samuel Primrose, of Lawrence town, Dr. Fred Primrose, of Baltimore, Mr. Edward Primrose, of Boston, and Mrs. J. G. Henniger Parker, of Sydney, formerly of Bridgetown. The remains of Mrs. Primrose were brought to Lawrence town for interment, accompanied by Mrs. Parker, and the funeral took place there on Saturday, two of her sons, Dr. Fred and Mr. Edward Primrose, also being present, the third son, Dr. Samuel Primrose, being unable to attend on account of serious illness. Another son, James, who was a dentist and a resident of Bridgetown, died about a year ago. The family have the sympathy of a very large circle of friends.

Prize Health Rules

The New York World inaugurated a contest relating to health rules, and the first prize for the ten best rules was awarded to Robert Spillman, Montreal. The regulations follow:

- 1. Think healthy thoughts.
2. Breathe deep, and always through the nose.
3. Drink plenty of water between meals.
4. Eat moderately—masticate thoroughly.
5. Work hard and bathe often.
6. Relax both mind and body one hour every noon.
7. Associate with healthy people.
8. Study the "Law of Thought," and apply its teachings.
9. Relax every limb and muscle before dropping asleep.
10. Sleep in a cool, well-ventilated room, eight hours at least out of every twenty-four.

If people would take less nutrition and drink more water, there would be less rheumatism, gout, eczema and neuralgia in the world. The most frequent cause of these derangements is an excess of nutritive materials. The excess is discharged with salts which are not needed in the system.

The doctors are trying to remedy these diseases by giving something to counteract the salts, such as purgatives, diuretics, and solvents of various kinds. The rational way, however, to cure such afflictions is to stop the cause. Drink more water, eat less meat and concentrated foods. This shuts off the supply of urates in the blood.

Those who take active exercise in the open air every day require a greater amount of nutrition. Not only do they use up the nutritive materials in muscular exercise, but the amount of oxygen inhaled because of their activities thoroughly oxidizes the urates and changes them into urea. If the blood is loaded with urates, they are very likely to crystallize, especially in those portions of the body where the circulation is the least and the temperature the lowest, such as the elbows, ankles, the toes and fingers.

Drink more water, eat less food. This is a prescription which is worth more to healthy people than all the drugs in the world.

Bampton.

Charles Bent, of Lynn, is visiting his friends here.

List week was fine for work, and our farmers got a fine start.

Miss Amida Mitchell, of Annapolis was visiting her parents over Sunday.

Mrs. John V. B. Foster has returned to her home in Kings Co., N. B.

The steamer Ruby L. sailed on Tuesday last, landed freight and sailed for St. John.

On Wednesday the packet "Maiden" came in, landed freight, and sailed for St. John.

Joseph Foster, of Lynn, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to his home in Lynn.

Miss Lizette Milburn is home on a visit to her parents, having been in New Hampshire for some time.

Middleton Hotel.

(Outlook.) Mr. F. R. Elliott has sold his store and goods at Port George to Mr. O. L. Bishop, of Middleton, and has purchased Mr. Bishop's farm at Lower Middleton.

W. W. Dillon, of Sydney, C. B., G. H. P., of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Nova Scotia, is expected to pay an official visit to Middleton on June 1st.

The track at the new park is getting in good condition and every evening our local horsemen are speeding their flyers. There never was a finer lot of horses in this vicinity than now.

Recently Mr. Edward Phinney while building a load of hay took a dizzy spell. He fell from the load breaking his shoulder. Dr. Miller set the limb. Despite his 83 years, Mr. Phinney is about again, except for the broken shoulder, as smart as ever.

There is a Pink Pain Tablet made by Dr. Shoop, that will positively stop any pain, anywhere, in 20 minutes. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets, but they stop the pain as easily, no headache. Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets simply coax blood pressure away from pain centers—that is all. Pain comes from blood pressure congestion. Stop that pressure with Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets and pain is instantly gone. 20 Tablets 25c. Sold by ROYAL PHARMACY, BRIDGETOWN, BEAR RIVER DRUG STORE, BEAR RIVER.

The Famous Pedestrian

Gentlemen:—I was a martyr to catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I was so bad the doctors feared consumption. I tried many physicians and medicines. A friend suggested Psychine. I tried it and it was the only thing ever did me any good. I am now perfectly well. It is the greatest remedy the world has ever known. I do not need it for my health now but I use it as a strengthener for my walking matches. I owe much of my physical endurance to Psychine."

JAMES REYNOLDS, Port Hope, Ont. Psychine is the greatest cure for catarrh of the head, throat or stomach in the world. It is a wonderful tonic and strengthener of the down system, acting directly on all the vital organs, giving youthful vigor and strength to the system. At all druggists 50c. and $1.00. Dr. T. A. CONTROLLING NATURE.

Everybody knows that of late years natural forces have been wonderfully subjected to man's need. We are dazzled by the spectacular achievements in steam and electricity, but are likely to forget the less noisy but no less marvelous conquest of animal and plant life.

Horses are swifter, cattle heavier, cows give more milk and sheep have finer fleeces than in days gone by. In plants the transformation is even more marked. People now living can remember when the number of edible fruits and vegetables was far less than at present, and even those that could be grown were vastly inferior to what we now have. For example, our parents knew nothing of the tomato except as a curious ornament in the garden. Sweet Corn was hardly better than the common field sorts. All oranges had seeds. Celery was little known and poor in quality. In the flower bed the magnificent Pansy has replaced the insignificant Heart's Ease, from which it was developed, and the Sweet Pea in all its dainty splendor traces its origin to the common garden vegetable.

This progress has been made in spite of the great tendency manifested in all plants and animals to go back to the original type. It is indeed a battle to keep strains pure and up to the standard they have already attained. Let alone any improvement. The practical results are accomplished by man operating largely for love of the work, like Luther Burbank in California, and Beckford in England, as well as by the great seed merchants D. M. Ferry & Co., of Windsor, Ont., who are not only eternally vigilant to hold what ground has been gained, but have a corps of trained specialists backed by ample means to conduct new experiments. The results of their experiences can be found in their 1908 Seed Annual, which they will send free to all applicants.

There are business men, says an exchange, who think the local paper should fight their battles and the battles of the community, yet they send out of town to get their printing done, and some whose business would be benefited thereby, do not even advertise. There are few business that cannot be helped by judicious advertising.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DANDRUFF.

FINE BOOKLETS.

The Halifax & South Western Railway has just issued two splendid Booklets, entitled "An Introduction to the Best Country in Six Provinces," and "The Ocean Shore of Nova Scotia." The first deals with the line of railway covered by the McKensie & Mann system in the North-west, and the latter with the line from Yarmouth to Halifax. They are beautifully printed, the text is well written and the views original and appropriate. Their distribution must be the means of drawing tourists to this section of the country, and the company is to be congratulated upon its enterprise.

Copies of these booklets may be obtained upon application to P. Mooney, G. F. and P. A., Halifax, or to their New England Passenger Agent, Mr. G. E. Beakman, 293 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

For a burn or scald apply Chamberlain's Salve. It will affect the pain almost instantly and quickly heal the injured parts. For sale by W. A. WARREN, BRIDGETOWN; W. W. WADE AND BEAR RIVER DRUG STORE, BEAR RIVER.

LOCAL AND SPECIAL.

The Prince Rupert was put on the Bay service last week.

The hay crop is promising well, and vegetation is unusually forward.

Mass will be celebrated in St. Alphonse's church next Sunday at 11 a. m., Father McKinnon officiating.

Somewhat of the fruit awarded a medal at the International Exhibition, was from trees sprayed with Campbell's Neco Soap.

Autumn Leaf Lodge was officially visited by Mrs. Bayers, President of the Maritime Assembly of the Rebekahs, on Friday evening last.

When you go shopping don't simply say "A pound of tea," because you can secure better tea, more delicious tea, if you only ask for "Salada."

To-morrow (Thursday) being Ascension Day, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion in St. James' Church at 10.30 a. m. On Sunday this celebration will be at 8 a. m.

H. J. Logan, M. P., is compelled on account of ill health, to retire from politics. The Liberals of Cumberland will hold a Convention on June 17th to nominate a successor to Mr. Logan.

After a dry, warm period of about ten days, the farmers were getting anxious for rain. Today the ground is drinking in the welcome moisture which fell in heavy showers through the night and still continues.

The proprietor of the "Temperance Hotel" is anxious, we are informed, to get one of the most up-to-date cork-pullers to enable him carry on his philanthropic business of pulling corks for those of the inner circle who can still buy rum.

A merchant asks us to cut out a certain article from his advertisement, as in answer to it he has constant demands which he is not prepared to supply. If he had any doubts about it before, he is now convinced that advertising draws customers.

The marriage took place on Saturday at the Episcopal parsonage at Dieby of Mr. Angus McPhee and Miss Eliza Goldsmith of that place.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. McPhee are spending their honeymoon in Halifax.

The marriage is announced to take place at St. James' church, Bridgetown, on June 3rd, of Miss Genevieve Marguerite Bessie, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, to R. B. Richardson, manager of the Royal Bank at Summerside, P. E. I., and son of the late James F. Richardson, of Halifax.

F. Harrison killed and landed single-handed a fine salmon of 18 1/2 pounds in Nictaux river on May 12th. This fish was very game and took forty-five minutes to bring to snaf, after a hard fight, the fish taking place in mid-stream, with its capto soaked to the skin—Exchange.

Although salmon are reported as plentiful this season in the river and bay, few seem to be finding their way to our market. Salmon and halibut were in the local market on Saturday, selling at 20 cents and 15 cents per pound. Lobsters are also being taken in large quantities, but are being exported to other markets.

Mr. J. E. Hales, of Wolfville, made a very successful fishing trip to Annapolis county last week. He secured about eighty fine trout, many of which were such as to delight the heart of a sportsman, says the Acadian, who, with other friends, benighted to the extent of a half-dozen "speckled beauties," averaging about a pound and a half each.

The death took place at Greenwood on Saturday last of Mr. Enoch Nesby, an aged and esteemed resident of that place. On the fifth of June he would have reached his ninety-eighth year. The deceased was a consistent and faithful member of the Methodist church, for many years, and will be very much missed in the community where he lived so long.

Miss Marshall Saunders, the talented daughter of Dr. E. M. Saunders of Halifax, has a new book in hand to be published soon in which she deals for the most part with birds. She believes birds must be protected or the consequences will be most serious through the great loss sustained by insect pests. She says, "let us protect our birds, our forests and our children and we shall be a happier and more prosperous people." Miss Saunders is the author of the autobiography of a dog called "Beautiful Joe."

LOCAL AND SPECIAL.

For goodness sake, for the sake of the satisfaction you get from using it, buy "Salada" Tea. It pays to pay for quality.

A covered delivery wagon has just been completed for Moses & Young by Mr. Percy Burns, and is a creditable sample of the workmanship of our townsmen.

The "parish meeting" announced to take place this (Wednesday) evening in St. James' schoolroom is postponed until next Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. William Manthorne met with a bad accident Monday morning while at work on the store of J. I. Foster. Stepping upon a block supported by a barrel, the barrel rolled and he fell, striking upon a piece of timber which he was carrying, breaking one of his ribs and bruising him generally.

Mr. Elias Ramey lost one of a valuable pair of oxen last week, with two days of his purchase's term. He drove them in from Ont. with a load of lumber, and it is supposed the load was too heavy for the animal dropped dead in its stall on being released at the end of the journey.

Many fishing parties made trips to the South woods or the North shore on Monday, and are yet regaling their friends with stories of their sport and samples of their catch. The editor is indebted to a member of the Monitor staff for some choice specimens. Cecil was among the lucky ones.

To-morrow (Thursday) evening, there will be service, in St. Mary's church, Belleisle, commencing at 7.30, and on Friday morning a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock. The Thursday evening service will be held weekly until further notice. The monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary will be held to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church.

In a conversation with a St. John reporter on Wednesday, Mr. Giffins, of the D. A. R., said among other things that business on his road was slack at the present time. Tourists had not yet commenced to enter the province. The influx this year of fish and game seekers and lovers of summer resort life, would depend altogether upon weather conditions, and if we had a cool summer it would likely mean that very few would come to the province. No particular preparations were being made for tourists, he said, until the extent of their numbers was known. The company would undoubtedly have a steamer running to Quebec during the tercentenary.

SHALL WE CELEBRATE DOMINION DAY. A subscriber makes the following suggestion—Since our young folk, who go out of town to celebrate the holidays, have been disappointed both East and West, would it not be in line for us to combine and have a celebration of some kind on July first?

D. A. R. NOTES. Conductor W. W. Clarke, of the D. A. R., was in town Tuesday. He came over in charge of the Windsor train, he and Conductor Kelly having changed off, the latter going to Halifax for the Kentville local. "Billy" many Truro friends were all glad to see him.

Conductor C. W. McCully, of the D. A. R., who has been ill at his home in Windsor, is now much better and hopes to resume duty in the course of a few days.

It is expected the "Flying Blue-nose" will commence summer runnings between Yarmouth and Halifax in the near future. The cars of this famous train have been newly decorated and now present a handsome appearance.

Conductor George Williams, who accidentally lost a finger a few weeks ago, has been taking in Boston and New York. He is about to resume duty between Annapolis and Yarmouth.

Conductor Jack Ritchie is running on 1 and 2 between Halifax and Kentville, and Conductor Norris Margeson and Conductor William Herbert between Kentville and Annapolis.

Conductor Jack Matheson and Conductor Al. Frizale are running the freights between Halifax and Annapolis.

Owing to the falling off in traffic quite a number of the younger conductors have been put back to the baggage car.—Truro Sun.

is an absolute necessity if you want to grow good clean fruit and the best insecticide on the market is the one to use if you want the best results.

The best insecticide yet introduced FOR spraying is Campbell's "Nico Soap" which won its reputation last year in the famed Annapolis Valley and elsewhere in destruction of Bud Moth, Codlin Moth, Brown Tail Moth all Caterpillars, Cankerworms, Bark Lice, Scale, Fire Worm or Craneberries and Cherry Slug, killing by contact and also if the leaves are eaten. "Nico Soap" guarantees good clean fruit and better PROFITS.

Why the Apple Trade Collapsed

Wrong Methods of Buying and Packing Cause! Disastrous Failure in the Apple Trade.

(continued from last week.) Low-grade fruit not only sells at a loss; it brings discredit upon fruit that is really good. Retailers, who would willingly handle good apples, lose interest in apples altogether if they find that the bulk of the offerings consist constantly of undersized, unsightly, ill-keeping, wormy and scabby apples. Markets, accordingly, become depressed even though the apples arrive in good condition, and even from the fruit-houses No. 2 Spits and Golden Russets may, if they are shipped direct from the orchard, be sold at a loss. The extreme cases are where the salesman and no one can say with any conscience, that this trader is making undue profit. How to promote co-operation between the growers and the buyers with the object of minimizing expenses is, doubtless, the most difficult and complicated problem in the trade. The extreme cases are where the farmer sells his apples for a lump sum, relieving himself of further responsibility, and the farmer who packs and ships his own fruit. No central solution can be suggested but surely it ought to be possible in most individual instances to effect by mutual help a considerable saving in the expenses of packing. In any event a buyer ought to make a far greater difference than he usually does, when buying an orchard for a lump sum.

THE LOBSTER EXPERIMENT.

The colony of lobsters which recently left Halifax in a special car for Vancouver, to establish a settlement on the Pacific coast and grow a new industry with the western country, have been turned loose to forage for themselves in the wide Pacific ocean, and there is every probability of the transplanting experiment proving a complete success.

THE MOST COMMON CAUSE OF SUFFERING.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm will afford relief, and make rest almost possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, when it is subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or change in the weather; a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by W. A. WARREN, BRIDGETOWN, W. WADE AND BEAR RIVER DRUG STORE, BEAR RIVER.

LIGHTNING'S STRANGE FREACK.

Harrow, Ont., May 18.—During the thunder storm which passed over this vicinity Saturday evening, an infant child of James Heriman was struck by lightning and instantly killed. The family had retired for the night, the mother, father, and two children, a little girl of two years and a little boy of four years, occupy the same room. The children slept in a cot at the side of the parents. The lightning passed clear through the bed in which the parents were sleeping and struck the little girl in the cot. Strange to say the little boy, who was sleeping with his sister, was not injured.

UNCLE JOHN'S PHILOSOPHY.

"Every time somebody does me an ill turn," said Uncle John, "this morning, 'stid o' gettin' sour on th' hull human race I just appreciate my friend's a little mite more, that's all!"

Don't talk about the thing you can't help. Don't think about it. The only time when it is sensible to think about a difficulty is when you have hopes of remedying it.

NO MORE RHEUMATISM

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" CURED HIM

Christopher D. Graham is a well known citizen of Ottawa—formerly in the City Hall and largely instrumental in forming the Ottawa Hunt Club. Mr. Graham's voluntary testimonial as to the great benefit he received from taking "Fruit-a-tives" will carry conviction.

Ottawa, Ont. Nov. 26th, 1907. Dear Sir:—

I have been a sufferer from Rheumatism for a long time—pains in my shoulder and joints practically all the time. It is a truly tormenting ailment without benefit and then I was recommended by a friend to try "Fruit-a-tives." I took several boxes of the tablets and now, for a long time, I have been entirely free from all rheumatism and rheumatic pains.

I wish to state, also, that I suffered from hemorrhoids, or piles, for years. I used all kinds of ointments and treatments and nothing did me any good, but after taking "Fruit-a-tives" for my rheumatism I am entirely cured of these dreadful piles. (Signed) C. D. GRAHAM.

"Fruit-a-tives"—or "Fruit Liver Tablets" are sold by dealers at 50c a box—6 for $2.50—or will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-tives Limited, OTTAWA.

SMILE AND WAIT.

One of the hardest, and yet one of the most useful lessons we can ever learn, is to smile and wait after we have done our level best. It is a timely trained mind that can strike with energy and cheerfulness toward the goal which he cannot see. But he is not a great philosopher who cannot smile and patiently wait. A great many people can smile at difficulties who cannot wait, who lack patience, but the man who can both smile and wait, if he has the tenacity of purpose which never turns back will surely win.

BAD ATTACK OF DYSENTERY CURED.

"An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he would feel better. He bought a bottle and used it and was promptly cured."—says M. J. Leach, druggist of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by W. A. WARREN, BRIDGETOWN, W. WADE AND BEAR RIVER DRUG STORE, BEAR RIVER.

Owing to the steps which are being taken in this and adjoining counties towards the destruction of the brown-tail moth, it is interesting to note that the legislature of Massachusetts has just appropriated the sum of $300,000 to carry on the warfare in that state against this pest and his brother, the cypress moth.

In Nova Scotia the method adopted has been to reward children for gathering the nests of the moths.

LAW TO LESSON EVIL OF CIGARETTE SMOKING AMONG BOYS OF CANADA.

Ottawa, May 20.—The government will take action this session to lessen the evils of cigarette smoking among the youth of Canada. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth has given notice of a government measure providing for an amendment to the criminal code so as to make it an indictable offense punishable by a substantial fine, for any one to sell cigarettes to juveniles under sixteen years of age for their own consumption. It is further provided that any officer of the peace may confiscate cigarettes found in the possession of boys under sixteen and the boys themselves may be fined to amounts ranging from $1 to $5. Furthermore, any dealer selling to juveniles under sixteen will have his license cancelled.

By making the law a provision of the general criminal code of Canada, it is expected that a more adequate and uniform enforcement of the restriction of the sale of cigarettes to minors will obtain than is now the case under the provincial enforcement of laws passed by the various legislatures which have taken action respecting cigarettes.

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me, I lost my usual force and vitality. Peppin's preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, help the stomach, liver and bowels, bring the system to do its work naturally. —MRS. ROSA PUTTS, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by W. A. WARREN, BRIDGETOWN, W. WADE AND BEAR RIVER DRUG STORE, BEAR RIVER.

LIP READING.

Lip-reading is coming more and more to be a resource for the adult hard-of-hearing. There are few who cannot be much benefited by it. "Lip-reading Simplified," by Edward B. Stiehm, which has been running serially in "Courage," is now published in pamphlet form; and a friend who is interested in the deaf has paid for a generous number of copies which we have been requested to distribute to those who care to ask for it. Readers may secure the lessons for the asking, merely the postage and address on a postal card is enough. The lessons constitute a full course for self-instruction. E. H. LOGAN, Assistant to Editor of "Courage" 156 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Children Enjoy It

"I have used Coltsfoot's Expectorant with the greatest satisfaction with my children. It is a wonderful cure for colds and sore throats. I believe it saved the life of my little son, who was very sick from a protracted cold on his lungs." —MRS. ANNIE BRAMBLER, Orangeville, March 15, 1907.

"I am greatly pleased with the good results we got from Coltsfoot's Expectorant. I got great comfort with it for my children." —MRS. WALTER HAMMOND, 171 Argyle St., Toronto.

Coltsfoot's Expectorant is the greatest home prescription for all throat and chest troubles in the world. No home should be one hour without it. You can have free sample by sending name to Dr. J. A. Stearns, Ltd., Toronto. All good druggists keep it. Price, 25c. Send for Free Sample To-day.

Dust is a danger your home shouldn't endure

The floor that is coated with the glass-like, germ-proof, seamless finish Floorglaze gives will exude practically no dust. That ought to mean much in your home.

Nearly every malignant disease finds dust its best messenger. And this floor-finish, in any of its ten eye-pleasing shades, deprives dust of its chief stronghold—the floor.

Floorglaze costs little—a gallon covers 600 square feet. Anyone can apply it right. It just CAN'T wear off—tho' it does dry hard in a single night.

Floorglaze is so durable, and stands hard wear so well, that it serves perfectly for floors exposed to the weather—balconies, summer houses, verandas, etc.

Most dealers sell Floorglaze. If yours doesn't happen to, tell us his name and receive a Free Book you'll like to read.

Cough Caution
 Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold—only—positively—always take, Slocum, and save the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppose it with a superior poison. It is a science how good things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons, and for 25 years he has—longer than any other man in the world—warned people not to take any of these if poisons are in your Cough Mixture. Good! Very good! The superior laboratory manufacturers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must be law to be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is sold by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take. No chance of them. Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding.

Take Notice
 The old, celebrated building mover, W. A. Chute, is again in the field prepared to move and raise all classes of buildings, to float stranded vessels, hoist boilers or engines out of steamers, etc. Have had forty years experience in the business and am the only practical building mover in the Lower Provinces. Will meet any competition. Prices right.
