The budget of February last, by a comprehensive scheme of general and special taxation, aimed to increase the revenue of the Dominion for the present fiscal year to an aggregate of $150,000 000. From the date of the introduction of the budget the sharp monthly declines which duties were at once arrested and ou revenues until August restored to the basis of the corresponding months of the year preceding the outbreak of the war. Since August a marked and continually progressive increase has characterized our monthly revenues as compared with those of the correspond ing period of the previous year, when profound derangement of finance and commerce resulting from the war was exercising so curious an effect upon our imports and general business. From the beginning of the pre sent fiscal year up to Feb. 10, the tota

British Government Has Extended Fresh Credit of One Hundred and Fifty Millions -Changes in Tariff of Minor Character.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 15 .- Sir Thomas White, minister of finance, presented a budget to the house today which may well prove to be historical. A war tax is levied upon the profits of persons, firms, and corporations during the three-year period commencing als and partnerships one-fourth of all the federal treasury. The law applies firms, or corporations engaged in the manufacture of munitions. They entions, however, are subject to the tax, no matter how small their paid-up joy no such exemption. The proposed legislation will realize for the govern-

Will Appoint Officials.

W. F. Maclean (South York) at the conclusion of the budget speech asked what machinery would be created to carry the law into effect, and Finance Minister White replied that the finance department would be authorized to appoint all officials and make regulations for the assessment and collection of the tax. Sweeping power is vested in the finance minister in the administration of the act, and in many cases his decision is absolutely final.

The tariff changes are inconsequential. The duty upon apples is increased to ninety cents per barrel and a tax of one-half cent a gallon is levied upon oil and crude petroleum.

Heavy Trade Expansion. The financial statement for the year ending March 31, 1916, and the financial estimates for the succeeding year were clearly and concisely set before the house by the minister. Our trade for the current year would be the largest in our history, aggregating $1,200,000,000. There is an increase of $200,000,000 in exports. So successful was the budget of last session that the revenue of the Dominion for the current fiscal year will amount to $170,000,090. Current expenditures amounted to $125,000,000, leaving $45,-000,000 for expenditure upon the war-The expenditures of the Dominion upon capital account were financed with $45,000,000 borrowed last summer in New York. Of the $100,000,000 seured from the domestic loan, $50,000,-000 was placed to the credit of the British Government to finance munition orders in Canada.

$185,000,000 in Loans. Sir Thomas White estimated that out of the revenue for the year ending March 31, 1917, he would have a surplus of $35,006.000 to apply upon war expenditure. The war expenditure of next year, howaver, is estimated at $250,000,000, leaving $215,000,000 to be raised by taxation or porrowings. The taxation upon the incomes of corporations and other business concerns will net perhaps $30,000,000. The remain-ing $185,000.000, the finance minister thought, could be easily raised by

Ask For Legislation.

In consequence of the expected shortage, Sir Adam said it was his intention to ask for legislation at the coming session restricting the amount of water to be used by the three private companies. "If we could use the waters being taken by these companies and develop it in the highest the waters being taken by these companies and develop it in the highest head we would be able to develop 900,000 horsepower, whereas the companies are able only to develop 405,000 horsepower," he said. At coal value, Sir Adam pointed out, this was equal to a wastage of from 25 to 30 millions of dollars per annum. "Sufficient argument for the government to take the three companies and ficient argument for the government to take the three companies and scrap them as junk," he declared.

To thoroly impress the meeting with the absolute necessity of Ontario developing for use every available horsepower, Sir Alam declared that the coal situation in the United States was becoming annually worse. Coal values rise and coal quality decreases annually. He predicted that in 1936 coal would cost Ontario $30 per head.

tario $30 per head.
Ontario's Heritage. Ontario's Heritage.

But Ontario, with her wonderful heritage of water power abundant, need not fear this. To fall back upon we have the mighty St. Lawrence, and in this regard he hoped the government at Ottawa would not, for the sake of the people of Ontario and Quebec, grant to the big American Aluminum Corporation the rights for developing the Long Sault Falls. "And we shall sure see fit within her own lifetime to go to Ottawa and ask them to create the long deep waterway from Welte the long deep waterway from Wel-land to Montreal, making Toronto and Hamilton ocean ports and building up many of the other smaller cities along the route. "Give us that ocean con-

Into Chicago for sanitation purposes was unfair.

In conclusion, he declared that had it not been for Toronto's readiness to ossume responsibility, the hydro movement could never have been launched. "And in 1921 Toronto herself will be using 100,000 horsepower, the amount we anticipated would do Ontario for all time to come."

ATTAINED GREAT AGE

Death Yesterday Removed Well-Known Resident of York Township.

The death of David Hunter of Don, which took place yesterday at the residence of his son, removes one of the best known residents of York Township.

Mr. Hunter, who had attained the great age of 93 years, was a native of the county, having been born on Yongs stree, near the present site of the Robert Simpson Company's store. Practically the whole of his life was spent in the township, the family having removed up the Don in his early youth, where his father took up land, which has ever since remained in possession of the family.

For the present fiscal year it seems certain that we shall have a favorable trade balance in the neighborhood of $200, 000,000. That so great change has taken effected in one brief year is a striking tribute at once to the marvelous pro-ductivity of the Dominion and the capability, industry and thrift of our people. Our total trade for the year will aggregate approximately $1,200,-000.000, an increase of nearly $200,000,one in exports, and a slight reduction in imports. From this viewpoint it is our true pol.cy to augment our financial strength by multiplying our productive exercions and by exercising a rigid economy, which reduces to the minimum all expenditures upon luxuries and non-essentials. Only in this way caused by the withdrawal of so many of our workers from industrial activities, repair the wastage of the war, and find the funds for its continuance. It cannot be too frequently or too earnestry impressed upon our people that the heaviest burdens of the conflict still he before us, and that industry and thrift are. for those who remain at home, supreme patriotic duties upon whose faithful fulfilment our suc and consequently our national safety, may ultimately depend. Apart altoge her from these higher grounds, it is to be pointed out that in sofar as our present prosperity is based upon abnormal prices for our produce and upon the production of war ma-terial, it is precaricus and transient and dependent upon the continuance of the war and its conditions. On ordinary business grounds done the prudent husbanding of resources, the wise the plainest considerations of practical wisdom and good sense. It is in the spirit of these remarks that I now approach the consideration of our finan-coming year.

Fiscal Year 1916-17. It is well to make it perfectly clear at the outset that notwithstanding the satisfactory increase in revenue and our diminishing civil expenditures, the burden of financial administration will be much heavier in the coming than it has been in the past year. The last War Appropriation Act authorized an expenditure of $100,000,000. The War expenditure of $100,000,000. The War Appropriation Act of this session will authorize an expenditure of $250,000. 600, all of which and possibly more will be required for the raising equipping, transporting and maintenance ping, transporting and mamionance of our rapidly increasing forces. The all-important question, therefore, to be considered is "how shall we provide that money?" There are only two sources from which it can legitimately come, namely, from revenue and from orrowing. The government is resolutely resolved to maintain the standard of our currency and not to resort to the issue of unsecured paper money, which is merely a forced low without or 64.2 per cent. of the outstanding carculation. IS GIVEN AN UPWARD SWING

As regards our ordinary and capital expenditure, we shall endeavor to continue to effect all possible reductions. Our estimates contain numerous items hitherto adopted by parliament, representation with which it is not our senting works with which it is not our senting works with which it is not our intention to proceed during the period of the war. The policy adopted from its outbreak, which has given such excellent results to given such excellent results to date, of proceeding only with works actually under contract, will continue to guide us. Further, should financial exigency so require we shall not hesitate to terminate contracts and leave works in an unfinished condinotwithstanding the immediate and prospective loss and damages involved. I do not, however, think that such a course will be necessary

So far as we can estimate our ordinary expenditure for the coming year will amount to about $135,000,year will amount to about $135,000,000 as compared with $125,000,000 for this year and $135,000,000 for last year. Our capital estimates are $30.000,000 as compared with $46,000,000 for this year. Adding the ordinary and capital expenditure we look forward to a total civil expenditure forward to a total civil expenditure for ward to a total civil expenditure for the year of $160,000,000 as compared with $165,000,000 for the present less than $20,000,000 represents in-creased interest due to our war borrowings and a further sum of $2,000 of the war. In making a comparison between our ordinary expenditure for the coming year and that of preceding years, these important items, aggregating an increase due to the war of $22,000,000, must be taken into ac-

Should it seem expedient we shall feel justified in borrowing as we did during the present year, for our capital expenditure. Assuming that capital expenditure. Assuming that this is accomplished, we should have on the basis of present revenue a surplus of $35,000,000 to apply upon our war expenditure. This would leave the sum of $215,000,000 additional to be borrowed for the war. Adding to this our proposed borrow-ing for capital expenditure, we are fronted with an increase of public nearly $250,000,000.

The question has often been discussed as to the true financial policy of a nation in time of war. Some have strongly favored the policy of large borrowings; others have insisted that the cost of a war should be de frayed by a nation at the time it is teing waged. Obviously in a war such as this, the latter course would be impossible. The truth seems to ce that it is not practicable for all nations to adopt the same policy or for any nation the same policy at all times. On the financial side stability consinues to be maintained.

The circumstances and conditions of individual nations must be taken into commenced, including the Hudson Bay Railway. Welland Canal, Quebec are institutions disclose a position of rowing strength. This sum with a substantial amount added yearly for a sinking fund could in my opinion be met, propeace, the empire will require to put vided strict economy be practised by governments, from the future revenues of the Dominion. In national finance, if debts can be funded, the practical question is that of payment of annual interest. But while this is so, the fact must not be overlooked that debt is debt, a financial obligation and burden upon the body politic, whether owe: to investors at home on abroad.

We believe, however that the people of Canada desire the government to put forward the maximum of effort in the cause, and that will, both for the present and the future, be prepared to cheerfully bear whatever burdens may be en-tailed upon them in consequence. While I have stated, as I think correctly, what the general policy of Canada should be so far as relates to our war finances, I do not desire to be understood as saying that we should not endeavor to raise by taxation a considerable part of our war expenditure. Total Revenue $170,000,000.

Sir Thomas White, in opening, congratulated the house, and the country upon the remarkable increase of revenue for the current fiscal year. He said that it had been estimated that the additional taxation imposed last thust be borne in mind that included in our ordinary expenditure for the coming year is the sum of $36,000,000, representing charges upon our public debt, of which sum no $36,000,000, representing charges say that the result had far exceeded upon our public debt, of which sum no less than $20,000,000 represents instead of $150,000,000, the revenue for the current fiscal year would amount to $170,000,000. (Appleuse.) Up to Feb. 10 the actual revenues collected since April 1 amounted to $145,000.000, an increase of $31,000,000 over the cor-responding period of last year.

The budget of last year had no soon-er gone into operation, the finance minister continued, than the decline in our custom receipts was arrested. Our custom receipts for April, May, June and July equaled the custom receipts for the same months of 1914. The custom receipts for the six months be-ginning Aug. 1. 1915, had shown enormous increases over the customs receipts for the first six months of the war. Of the $145,000,000 revenue so far collected $82,000,000 came from customs, and $19,000,000 of the same special taxes other than postal levied under the special War Revenue Act

Expenditures Decreased Not only had our revenues increased, Sir Thomas said, but the expenditures had decreased. The expenditures of the government upon current ac-count for the fiscal year up to date, amo inted to only $93,000,000, a decrease of $13,000,000 compared with the expenditures for the similar period of last year. Upon capital account our expen-ditures amounted to $30,500,000. Proctically all the money had been spent upon works in progress when the war commenced, including the Hudson Bay Railway. The finance minister said that imperial authorities between the outbreak of the war and last June had advanced us 27,000,000 pounds sterling. No further advances had been made.

Periodic unemployment occurs about twice in ten years. There is also the anemployment which is of continuous occurrence. The causes for this are two-fold. They are economic and personal. To cure conditions there is no one remedy. What her commission seeks is to formulate and have adopted a plan for national development.

A second feature of the meeting was the presentation of a club-bag to one of its popular members, Miss E. M. Saunderson of The Star, who is shortly to enter the bonds of Hymen.

HAVE THOUSANDS OF SOX

An Informal Entertainment Closed "Sox Day," One of City's Greatest Events.

This is going to be a "hurrah" story. All the hurrahs you like-and then some! Doing something is the right and only way of expressing patriotism nowadays. Well, The World Sox Day campaign has well, The World Sox Day campaign has brought in a number of pairs of socks for Canadian boys in the trenches. Quite a number, too—in fact, four figures across are the requirement to count The World "Sox Day" campaign results. They will be published in a doy or so, when counts are accurately checked over. At present we can modestly say that there are over 3000, and perhaps over 4000, and even a chance of more, for there are many who still work to contribute.

Great Donation.

3000, and perhaps over 4000, and even a chance of more, for there are many who still work to contribute.

Great Donation.

It is now one month since our campaign was first announced.' Now, every live-wire citizen, and all the citizens of all the towns in Ontario, knows about our endeavor, and many hundreds have signified their willingness in a most common-sense way. As a result, the largest donation collected yet in Toronto is waiting to be packed and shipped away to our khaki-clad boys at the front.

Stream of Donators.

All day yesterday hundreds filed up to the receiving tables to give give a package of gum, a dozen pairs of socks or a plug of tobacco. Schools and clubs sent in donations mounting to hundreds. As usual, Red Rose tea was served to all the visitors, and musical programs were provided from three till nine-thirty.

In the evening an informal entertainment was given, at which all the friends of "Sox Day" had a most enjoyable time. An excellent program was provided by some of Toronto's best-known artists, including Miss Barbara Foster, a pupil of Carboni's, who is already popular thru her work at Katisha in "The Mikado' production. Miss Byans-Jones played several delightful numbers, and Miss Violet Herbert sang sweetly. Mr. Roberts contributed a violin solo, and Miss Wareton recited. The orchestral numbers were provided by Chas. Musgrave's orchestra. The evening finished successfully with a buffet supper.

Continue Work.

Toronto has done nobly in this great enterprise. We will not stop here. Our knitting-room is to remain open as long as the women want it. Do you want the work to go on? Hurrah! It will commence in a day or two after the donation is shipped away to those lads in the trenches. Thanks, and thanks again.

I finally ran onto a simple recipe which I mixed at home that gives wonderful results. I gave the recipe, which is as follows to a number of my friends, and they are all delighted with it. To 7 ozs. of water add a small box of Orlex Compound, 1 oz. of bay rum and ½ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Use every other day until the hair becomes the required shade, then every two weeks. It will not only darken the gray hair, but removes dandruff and scalp humors, and acts as a tonic to the hair. It is not sticky or greasy, does not rub off and does not color the scalp.

PROBLEMS OF HIGHWAY PLACED BEFORE BOARD

George Gooderham, M.L.A. Tells Why More Money is Required Now.

CARE OF FEEBLE MINDED

Deputation Asks City to Make Donation to Carry on Work.

Yesterday was deputation day with the board of control and the controllers were once more asked to listen to an appeal on behalf of the feeble-minded children of the city and province. Among those making up the deputation were: Justice Osler, J. K. Macdonald, W. W. Hodgson, Mrs. A. M. Huestis and Dr. Helen Mac-Murchy. Mr. Osler thought that the city had a poor excuse for not doing anything because the government would not, the mayor having pointed out that the latter body would not give any aid until after the war.

because the government would not, the mayor having pointed out that the latter body would not give any aid until after the war.

Mr. Osier thought that the war made the necessity for some action greater than ever, declaring that the best of the country's population was going to war and that something should be done to prevent the people of the future from becoming mental defectives. Mayor Church contended that the government was responsible and that if the city shouldered the debt now it would be burdened with it for all time, and Controller O'Neill suggested that it would become the work of each municipality if the city established a precedent.

The deputation, it appeared, had come at the dnyitation of the board, the mayor having stated that the city would contribute $100,000 if the government would give a like amount. The outcome was that the board, along with those interested, will have a conference with the provincial government next Wednesday.

Highway Problems.

The opportunity that the board has been waiting for to deal with the extra grant required by the Toronto-Hamilton Highway Commission came when George H. Gooderham, M.L.A., chairman of the commission, came before them to explain why an added $110,000 was required from the city to complete the work. The cat was let out of the bag when Mr. Gooderham stated that in the hurry to provide work for the unemployed last winter no survey had been made of the road and no estimate upon which to base the figure of $600,000, the amount presented to the municipalities as representing the cost of the road.

Mr. Gooderham said that the municipalities knew that no estimate had been made as to the cost of bridges and culverts, and that the cost of bridges and culverts, and that the cost of the form of $600,000 for the improved road west from the Humber. Mr. Gooderham termed the action of the municipalities along the highway between the Humber and Etoblooke Rivers as "practically holding a pistod to the head of the commission to force the other municipalities along t Employes at the high level pumping station yesterday sent a deputation to the board of control with the request that they be paid at the same rate as men doing similar work at the main pumping station Works Commissioner Harris will be asked to report.

APPOINTED TO CONSIDER ASSESSMENT REFORM

Ball- Elected Chairman of Sub-Committee to Deal With Matter.

LAW BEHIND THE TIMES

Mayor Declared Toronto Was at the Mercy of the Legislature.

Ald. Ball was unanimously elected chairman of the sub-committee of the city council appointed to consider the question of assessment reform, when it met yesterday. In opening, Mayor Church referred to the suggestions made in his inaugural address, and pointed out that the city was entirely at the mercy of the legislature in the matter of assessment. "There is one law for assessing the small man, and another for the companies," he declared. "The assessment law is ten years behind the times."

Ald. Maguire thought it would be a good thing to have associated with the committee men who had made a study of the assessment question, and was of opin-

Ald. Magnire thought it would be a south thing to have associated with the committee men who had made a study of the assessment question, and was of opinion that a definite plan would have to be prepared before the city could go before the legislature and get any relief.

Assessment Commissioner Forman stated that the assessing was carried on according to the act, pointing out that the rolling stock of street rallways was not assessable, as it was held that it was personal property, and that the Bell Telephone Company was only assessed on its gross receipts, while the steam roads could only be assessed every five years.

The department had compared its assessment rigures win actual sale pice and found that the assessment figures ranged from 61 per cent. to 67 per cent. less, the properties varying in value from $2.00 to $16,000.

Ald. Ball thought there should be a body of supervising assessors to revise the assessmens made by the regular assessors, but Commissioner Forman pointed out that the court of revision, the county judge and the Ontario Rallway Board acted in this capacity. He also said that he had two men that did nothing but look after land values, and contended that the assessment of land was at present equitable.

It was finally decided to invite representatives from the Tax Reform Associations to come to the next meeting and express their views. Commissioner Forman and the city solicitor will be asked to report on the suggestions made in the mayor's inaugural address. It was the concensus of opinion, however, that nothing could be done this year.

Electric Power for Heating

A tour among the professors of New York and Toronto colleges ten years ego obtained no encouragement for the belief that electric energy might be successfully applied to heating purposes. But the idea will not down. While there is a surplus of electric a new reformation. power unconsumed, the great outlet of heating must continue to suggest itself to theorists who dwell in latitudes where zero weather is a regular factor in the domestic economy.

The view of the professors was that it was not profitable to turn water into heat and then again turn heat into water, to be let loose in heat again. The proposal was that surplus power could be used in heating water for house-warming purposes. When the peak load period approached, the power could be taken off the heating and the water would retain sufficient heat to tide over the peak period.

The professors with one consent rebelled against the waste of energy It was of no use to point out that the energy was being wasted anyway, not being put to any useful purpose. They saw no relevancy in the fact that coai is turned into steam power with a loss of about 95 per cent. of its potentiality. They would neither admit nor agree that there would not be a loss of 95 per cent., nor anything like it in the use of electric current for heating water. They simply declared that it would not be profitable.

The idea is being taken up, however, and if there is unlimited water power thru the land, there seems to be no reason why the "white coal" should not be turned into heat at a loss which would not be equal to the lost energy when coal is turned into steam power. Ten years ago electric heating was declared, in Chicago, to be equal to coal at $12 a ton. Probably the progress of invention will cut this price in two. Then the price of coal will come down in Ontario.

A Fine Example

Mayor Walters of Hamilton has fined the army. We understand that had Mayor Church been able to pass the doctor he would also have joined, but the will is equal to the deed in such cases. It is a fine ex-ent to set. Hamilton will be the worthier and the stronger for having a mayor who knows what his duty is when the call comes, Mayor Walters is a married man, too, and has a family of three little children. But no doubt he thinks as so many do, what fate would be theirs did the Germans triumph and what would their lives be should Canada become a German colony.

An example like this should potent to draw other men to a realization of their opportunity and privilege in taking part in the great struggle which is to decide the destiny of humanity. When it is all over those who might have helped in advance will pay for The Sunday Will feel that they have lost the greatest treasure of their lives, the dress in Canada or Great Britain. > Dr. Eaton's Demand for Freedom Rev. Charles Eaton has struck an entirely new note in church history. If his demands be met, the old idea of church teaching will have gone for ever. We need not be afraid of this, altho there will be alarm in many quarters at what will be regarded as ing of the imperial parliament. With an ultra radical step. Dr. Eaton had proud and grateful confidence he looks resigned his position in Madison Avenue Baptist Church, New York, but of the army and navy. constantly making compromises with themselves, deciding what they shall say and what they shall leave unsaid, what may be freely uttered and what must be whittled away or left not even suggested. The important question behind all this is whether the people really wish to be served with halftruth or compromises with truth, or would they not prefer the open declarations of a man like Dr. Eaton, without reservation and without restraint? If the people actually want to be fed with what to the honest mind of a man like Dr. Eaton is refuse, and not the best that is in him, the censure lies with the people rather than the preacher. But if the people want the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, as honest men think it, and if the fashion that Dr. Eaton has set should spread, then there will be a great awakening in the churches, and

The new generation of preachers are saying and thinking what our fathers and grandfathers would have regarded as the vilest heresy. They themselves entertained views which their fathers and grandfathers would have regarded as equally vile heresies. Every generation moves on, but the way is not so free for the new generations as it might be. The fathers and grandfathers always obstruct the paths.

Dr. Eaton's example may infect large numbers of preachers who have only been waiting for a lead. And it may awaken in the congregation the desire to progress also, and to hear what may inspire and invigorate the work which admittedly in many quarters is growing feeble and apathetic. Harold Begbie has been giving warnng in England that the churches will be less and less attended if the lessons of the war are not learned. These teach the true meaning of religion, he declares, self-sacrifice, devotion and service. The Homiletic Review has an article on the subject, and Mr. Begbie's conclusions that the day of formalism in the churches is almost over, will be acceptable to a large body of the Christian world.

Dear Sir-I have had 18 years of experience in military hospitals as C.F., and I can say without hesitation that I have never seen hospital work performed with more order, efficiency, and regularity than I saw it being done out here. I was more than edified by the scrupulous attention, de-votion and self-sacrifice of the medical officers and nurses for their patients. The patients themselves saw this and were profoundly impressed by it, and could not help making special mention of it in their letters home to England, Ireland and Scotland, and to other countries in the empire.

One of my duties at the hospital was to censor letters, and as the numbe of patients was considerably over 1000 the number of letters was also large and in all the letters the patients sans their praises in honor of the medica officers, of the nurses, and the hospital in general. I could cite hundreds of such praises, but the following, think, will be quite ample to show how deeply impressed the patients at No Canadian Hosptial were by the excellent treatment they received:

Bishop Ingram Defends Cruel Action of Skipper.

Speaking to an audience at Stoke-Newington, England, the other night, Bishop Ingram of London said:

"One of the saddes' men in England must be the skipper of the trawler which came upon the sinking Zeppelin in the North Sea. The skipper would have liked to rescue the men, tho they were enemies, but was unable to trust the Germans' word. Therefore we ought to stand by the skipper. The Germans have killed chivalry in warfare."

The conduct of British seamen during this war has been, as a rulé, all that is expected of a race of sailors whose history is so splendid and so magnanimous.

magnanimous.

Two incidents alone have stained that conduct—the shameful murders of surrendered German saliors committed by the crew of the Baralong and the cruel refusal of the skipper of the King Stephen to rescue the drowning men of the Zeppelin L-19.

No British sailor of the fine old type would dream of excusing these barbarous and cowardly acts.

It is a shock to hear a minister of Jesus Christ apologizing for and defending cruelty and cowardice, which are abhorrent to all the traditions and the sentiments of England's noble navy and England's fighting sailor men.

The above article is reproduced from The New York American of Feb. 14. It is another glaring indication of the policy of this American newspaper which is allowed to circulate freely in Canada. Ever since the beginning of the war The American, under the centrol of William Randolph Hearst, has been strongly but insidiously progerman. Day after day the case of the allies, and especially that of Great Britain, is distorted and presented in the worst possible light. Under the pretence of a policy of journalistic neutrality, every argument that can possibly be made in favor of Germany is advanced. England is continually pointed out as the traditional enemy

They are certainly rushing us thru now that we are going to the front, and I expect we will be on our way by the time you get this. Don't think we will see any fightin before June or July. By that tim things might have a brighter look than now, they certainly don't look any too good now, do they?

Growded With Men.

I met a fellow from the trenches while on pass, and when I told him we were going soon, he said he didn't know what we would do out there, as he said there were so many men ou there now that they did not know what to do with them. He had been at Ypres nine months and had never seen the front line of trenches yet. He seemed to think that we would never get into the fighting. I hope he is not right, for altho I don't want to get hit I would hate to go so far without get ting into action.

The sergeant-major who had charge of us on the physical course I went thru, and who has won the D. M. C. medal, the Victoria Cross and Russian war, told us that we Cross in this

CLERGYMEN LOST IN BATTLE WITH LEAGUE

Hon. T. W. McGarry Refused to Stop Sunday Recruiting Meetings in Theatres.

STATEMENTS GROUNDLESS

Objections of Alliance Were Founded on Hearsay, Said Dr. Allen.

The first skirmish between the forces of the Lord's Day Alliance and the To-ronto Recruiting League regarding Funday recruiting League regarding Sunday recruiting meetings, was held in the offices of Provincial Treasurer T. W. McGarry yesterday and resulted most decidedly not in a victory for the clergymen. The proposal of the Lord's Day Alliance was to abolish Sunday afternoon meetings altogether, because of the demoralizing effects on Sunday school attendance, and the second, that the evening meetings be not ond, that the evening meetings be not started until 8.30, so as not to affect church attendance. The net result of the verbal battle was that Hon. Mr. McGarry intimated that afternoon meetings from 2 until 5 could proceed with the usual recruiting films, and that as a slight concession to the that as a slight concession to the churches the evening meetings should not commence until 7.30. The recruiting league was represented by a score of members, headed by Dr. Norman Allen while the Lord's Day Alliance was represented by Secretary Rev. Dr. Snider.

Aid to Recruiting. "The recruiting league representa-tives have convinced me that the meet-ings ar a real aid to recruiting, and I no intention of taking steps which will hurt recruiting," the provincial treasurer said, after the meet-

Dr. Allen told the provincial treasurer that the recruiting league was wholly sincere in providing the class of eeting most efficient to stimulate recruiting. They had even offered to the Lords Day Alliance the privilege of conducting the first hour of the enter-tainment, to conduct prayer and sing symns under their direction. The objections of the clergymen were founded on mere hearsay; from unofficial scurces they heard that one of the the-atrical men got a rake-off on the collection, so they objected. Again, they heard that the recruits obtained were not nearly so numerous as the newspa-

He admitted that the of the big grounds for objection on the part of the clergymen was the on the part of the clergymen was the reetings commenced at 7 o'clock. which must influence the young men to attend recruiting meetings rather than go to hear church service. Outside of the entertainment part of the meetings and their competition with the churches for attendance, he was in accord with recruiting meetings on Sunday or any other day.

Premier Foretells Lareg Vote of Credit and Curtailment of Imports.

Opening of Parliament to Fight to End.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Shorn for the first time since the death of Queen Victoria of the pomp of a royal procession, the new parliamentary session was opened today. The important matters concerning Great Britain's conduct of her campaigns are to be brought up immediately, there was lit-tle sign in the approaches to Westminster of public interest in the proceedings. But for the presence of a number of ladies listening to the King's speech, the upper chamber would have had a bare aspect, as there were not twenty peers present when the five commissioners whose duty is was to open the parliament in the absence of King George, took their places on the

Following the reading of the King's speech, the proceedings adjourned until 4 o'clock. The speech from the throne was read in the house of commons when it assembled. The passage in it in which Great Britain's foe was described as mistaking force for right and expediency for honor was loudly

Tribute to His Majesty. Ian McPherson moved the address in reply to the speech from the throne. He said the first thought must be one of thankfulness thet the King, the control of the femoral unity should one of thankfulness when this king the centre of the imperial unity, should now have recovered from the mishap which he sustained when with his which he sustained when with his troops at the front where the hearts of so many of his subjects were. He dwelt on the onerpus nature of the duties of the throne at present, but said that nevertheless no duty had been left unperformed by the King or his royal household, no effort had been spared to bring the word of cheer to the brave soldier who lay wounded; no distance had been too great for the King to visit and encourage the men whose day of departure for the struggle was at hand.
The speaker emphasized the unity of

The speaker emphasized the unity of parliament and said that the King's speech was the embodiment of the determination of a determined people. He paid warm tribute to the work of the navy and emphasized the fact that "6,000,000 men of their own accord" had rallied to the colors to make the supreme sacrifice and that "a million or more" older men were training because their one crime, that of age, had made them ineligible for the army No Inconclusive Peace.

Large Vote of Credit.

Mr. Asquith said that next week a very large vote of credit would be asked. He announced that the war expenditure amounted to nearly £5,000,000 daily, with no prospect of reduction. The nation's liabilities on Jan. 1 had reached 2 figure which would strain its resources for a generation and staggered imagination. He asserted that the burden could only be met by large additions to taxations, such as the chancellor of the phrased it, upon which the empire was founded, Mr. McPherson referred ap-preciatively to the appointment of Gen. Jan Christian Smuts to the supreme command of the forces for the cam-raign in German East Africa. Concluding, he said there could be no in-cenclusive peace, declaring that the security of the future was the unalterable answer to the immeasureab

Francis S. Jackson, the famous cricketer, seconded the address, dwelling upon the unity of the empire and the great sacrifices of its dominions. the great sacrifices of its dominions. He deprecated the policy of reprisals for Zeppelin raids, saying that Great Britain could not play "a dirty game successfully." He hoped, however, that she would use all the powers she pcssessed, and a complete and efficient blockade would be established. Premier Makes Speech.

The prime minister, Herbert H. Asquith, in his speech, said that a short interval had elapsed since the close of the last session, and he did not think that anything had taken place in the theatre of war which called for mentren, with one or two exceptions. In France there had been during the last few weeks a recrudescence of activity on both sides and the allies had well held their own. Looking to the other sphere of war the allies might record with satisfaction that largely owing to the assistance of Italy the Serbian army had been successfully withdrawn from Albania and was now being refitted. He hoped that the Ser-bian army would become an effective factor in the future conduct of the Better in Mesopotamia. Turning to East Africa the premier declared that the idea of the appointment of Gen. Jan. Christian Smuts to the supreme command of the forces there had originated in England. With respect to Mesopotamia the situation had materially improved. Gen. Town-shend at Kut-el-Amara was holding his own and had supplies which would last for a considerable time. He thought there was every ground for hoping that the forces of Gen. Aylmer and Gen. Townshend would unite and that anything in the nature of a serious British check would be averted During the last three months, said the premier, the outstanding feature of the general European situation had been the growing intimate relations, co-ordination and concentration, unity of direction and control amog the allied powers. The developmet applied to diplomacy just as much as to strategy. The French premier, M. Briand, had visited both England and Italy, where cordial he met with the most reception, as was ex-and these visits were to nected. be followed, the premier hoped, at an early date by a general conference of all the allied powers in Paris, at which both the political and strategi-

By this growing intimacy, confidence and co-operation in regard to the campaign in all its aspects, the allies, he declared, should effectively counteract the advantage their enemies undoubt-edly posessed in the earlier stages of the fighting in both fields, strategy and

Of the British navy, the prime minister said that its work had been largely unobtrusive, but it had performed, was performing and would continue to was performing and would continue to perform four supreme duties, namely, first the defence of the British shores against the possibility of invasion; second, complete neutralization of the aggressive power of a hostile fleet;

Ten Times the Original Force.

Regarding the army in the actual theatres of war, the "fighting areas" Great Britain, said the premier, had at this moment, ten times her original expeditionary forces. He was not in-cluding India or the garrisons at Gibraltar and Malta, but referred to the troops sent from this country. A member here interrupted Mr. Asquith, asking whether he included

TEAMS ARE BUNCHED

Canadiens Have Grand Chance to Take Lead Tonight-News and Gossip.

N.H.A. standing after tonight's games. Wanderers are the only team to remain the surprise during the last week by trouncing Ottawa, and if they can repeat over Quebec at Montreal tonight the with a one-point margin. A win for Quebec will pull the Buildogs out in front allone. Ottawa play here and a trouncing will leave them trailing the

at the Arena Thursday night.

A Montreal despatch says: Montreal triends heard today a report from the Pacific coast that Lester Patrick, the oribidant defence hockey player, may have played his last game, due to a wrenched knee suffered in a practice game two days following Christmas. Goaler Sergt. Percy Lesueur of the 134th Battation gets special leave to piay his N.H.A. games with the Torontos. Toronto and Ottawa had a red-horargument the last time they met here.

Lieut, Jack McCamus is working hard at the Argonaut practices, and it won't be his fault if the scullers fail to down the Riversides.

Weston and Brampton will play off the tie for their intermediate group in Toron-to. Weston beat Bolton handly, but the tie was made possible by Brampton fall-ing before Bolton. Weston will be 8-to-5 favorites when the teams hook up.

RIVERSIDES TAKE LISTLESS EXHIBITION

Only Defeated T. R. and A. A. by Two Goals in Senior Fixture at Arena.

Riversides defeated T.R. and A.A. 5 to 3 in their senior fixture at the Arena last might, but it was anything but real hockey. Both sides bunched, hooked and jebbed and let the combination go hang. Riversides have no excuse to offer for their poor showing as they had their best team on the ice. The first period was the most uninteresting of the long sea-

By defeating Ottawa at the Arena tonight the blue shirts will be in line for the leadership in the second section of the schedule, the winning of which will give Torontos the right to play the O'Brien Cup holders for a special trophy and $2000, as confirmed by President Quinn. If Torontos are victorious this evening it will make their fifth straight win on home ice. The youngsters are burning up the league with their speed and combination and will give the Senators the time of their lives to come out on top. So well are they going that The Montreal Herald, speaking of the Wanderer game, says: "The blue shirts fought all the way, and had it not been for the brilllant work of Bert Lindsay in the nets Wanderers' title aspirations would have received a painful joit. The fast-skating Toronto forwards did not find a great deal of difficulty in penetrating the Wanderer defence."

The blue shirts are again in good shape, tho they were sadly crippled in Montreal. Harry Meeking, who has a bad hand, is the only possible absentee.

Charge of $50 for Seat Stirs Barber Tom Jonesto Much Talk

"Don't Ask So Much for Your Boxer," Answers Rickard, "and I Will Reduce the Price"—Lots of Sportsmen Have Asked for Reservations at That Price-Bout May Prove Farce.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.-Tex Rickard, serious enough to necessitate any such action.

A Picturesque Figure.

Rickard, who, with McCracken, is giving up so much money for this bout, is one of the most picturesque figures in the fighting game. He has been lucky in every venture he has tried and in 1906 surprised the sporting world by offering $34,000 for the fight between Nelson and Gans at Goldfield, Nevada.

When the negotiations for the Jeffries-Johnson fight were being conducted in Hoboken several years ago, and all the big promoters of the country were bidding for the fight, Rickard won the prize by making the record offer of $101,000.

He clinched the big bout by dramatically piling a guarantee of $20,000 in bright, new gold coin right before the eyes of Johnson. The sight of the gold did much toward influencing the black champion in accepting the Rickard offer. Rickard, of late years, has had little to do with promoting fights. He has business interests in South America and has spent much of his time there.

willard and Moran, which is to be held at Madison Square Garden on March 8, and Tom Jones, manager of Champion Willard, are at loggerheads over the prices of seats which the promoters are planning to charge. Jones stated emphatically yesterday that he would not stand for charging the public $50 for the best box seats.

Rickard politely informed Jones that it did not concern him how much was charged for seats. Rickard told Jones if he would reduce the enormous guarantee he demanded for the champion to box ten rounds, he would reduce the prices of seats accordingly. Jones said he would not consent to any reduction of Wilhard's guarantee.

Rickard thinks that he may be compelled to charge $50 for the seats in the front row of ringside boxes. There seats. In some of the double boxes there are eight chairs, and at $50 each they would bring $400 for each box.

Pro and Con.

"It's impossible for anyone to crowd enough fighting into a 10-round, nodecision bout to make it worth $50 of any man's money," said Jones. "I tell you I won't stand for it! Suppose the bout doesn't come up to the expectations of the public. Can you imagine the awful howl that would go up? We want to stay in the boxing game. It would be foolish of us to do anything which would only tend to kill the game. Rickard doesn't care. He isn't in the fighting business. He wants to make a ten strike with this bout, and does not care about what happens afterward."

Now Mr. Rickard takes up his part of the argument.

"Jones hasn't anything to say about what prices we charge?" says the pro-

JACK JOHNSON SAYS FRANK MORAN WILL WIN CHAMPIONSHIP FROM WILLARD

Also That He Laid Down at Havana to Jess and That it is impossible For Him to Get Fair Deal in America.

Declaring the promise had been held out to him that he would be permitted to return to the United States, where "he could see his dear old mother," Jack Johnson, former champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, in an interview with a representative of The People's Journal, an Aberdeen (Scotland) newspaper, comes out flat-footedly and says that he "laid down" to Jess Willard, present champion, in their battle in Havana. "I don't want to be champion of the stored to me, and everything would be made right.

"This sounded very attractive to me, but they double-crossed me. I boxed 26 rounds and those who witnessed the fight could read between the lines. It was up to me to do something and I did that very thing. As I said before, the Willard fight was a financial proposition: that and nothing else."

Johnson was asked if he would like to have another fight with the champion and his reply was: "I have as much chance of another fight with Willard as I have of carrying the City of Dundee on my back."

Frank Moran of Pittsburg, will be the Frank Moran of Pittsburg, will be the next champion, according to Johnson, who said Willard never would be able to defend his title. Jack met both men and he wasn't slow to say that Moran gave him much the hardest battle.

"I don't want to be champion of the world," said Johnson, "If I won the title again tomorrow I would willingly hand it to the first man I met in the street.

"I am not speaking disrespectfully of Willard," went on the former champion. "because I think he is a great fellow—as far, as being a man is concerned—but if he were as good a boxer as he is a man, well, he would be a great fighter.

"My fight with Willard in Havana was a financial proposition. No one knows the persecution I suffered at the hands of the 'dandy people' of the United The one-time champion, a day or two since, was offered a fight in America, he being asked to oppose an unknown. In discussing this offer he said:

"A cold feeling ran thru my veins at the mention of that country. Wild horses would not drag me to America; all the mention of the United States would not tempt me. I was born in America, but I cannot get fair play in my native land. Give me a fight in England and I will meet any man in the world for as much money as can be found and for as many rounds as desired."

WILLARD AND F. MORAN POSTPONE THEIR FIGHT

Heavyweight Champion Has Grip and Pain in the Chest-May Fight Later in March.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15 .- Dave Lewishon who represented Tex Rickard and Sam McCracken in the recent Wallard-Moran fight negotiations, annnounced today that he had been told over the longdistance telephone by Rickard to make the date for the fight between the champion and the Pittsburger March 22. Lewishon cailed up Willard, but the latter was non-committal, merely telling Lewishon that he would see him later. According to the New York despatch Jess Willard has called off the bout, being too ill to continue training, and rather than take any chances canceled the match set for March 8.

On the long-distance telephone from Chicago, Tom Jones called up Willard and inquired when he was going to HAVANA, Feb. 10 .- Entries for to- New York to train. The latter told his manager that everything was off.
"It will be impossible for me to get in proper condition, Tom," said Widard,
"so there's nothing left to do but to call off the bout."

"Will you be able to get in condition for a bout later in the month?" inquired

"Of course," said Frank, "if Willard

THE ISSUE Is Not "Wet" or "Dry"!

HE Citizens' Committee of One Hundred claim that the issue in this Prohibition contest is "wet" or "dry." This is incorrect. The issue is not "wet" or "dry," but "license" or "no license"; for even if the Province be voted "dry," it will remain "wet," as it is now, with, however, these differences: Liquors of very inferior quality will be shipped in from the outside and illegally distributed and dispensed, with the most disastrous consequences to health and morality. Also, all Government revenue hitherto derived from legitimate sales and licenses will entirely disappear, and will have to be made up in some other manner. This latter point, by the way, seems always to be forgotten or ignored by Prohibition advocates; but it is of practical importance, after all.

The general arguments against Prohibitory laws, arguments supported by undeniable facts and figures, have been again and again set forth; but it may not be out of the way to re-

Facts That Cannot Be Denied!

First: Such laws deny the natural and inherent right of personal liberty, making it dependent upon the will, whim, or caprice of the majority for the time being.

Secondly: By reason of such denial they are subversive of the principles of free government, and especially of the fundamental principle, that the rights of the individual shall be preserved.

Thirdly: They invariably produce greater evils than those which they are intended to eradicate.

Fourthly: They can never be satisfactorily enforced, as experience has amply demonstrated.

Lastly: They create hatred, discord, and dissension in a community, a econdition to be avoided at all times, but especially during the crisis through which Canada is now passing, when the Empire is fighting for its very life.

The Personal Liberty League of Ontario believes in temperance in all things, and in its promotion; we favor the license system under proper regulation and control, but we are opposed to prohibition or any legislation which encroaches upon or curtails the purely personal liberties of our people

PETITION ON PROHIBITION.

On March 7 or 8 the Citizens' Committee of One Hundred expect to present to the Ontario Government a petition for prohibition thruout the province signed by over 800,000 persons, half of whom are voters.

Son, ponce magistrate, on Bay street yesterday.

"Do you know who I am?" queried the colonel, in turn. On the recruiting of ficer admitting his ignorance, Col. Denison enlightened him. He informed the soldier that he had commanded the Canadian cavalry in the Fenlan raid of 1866 and the northwest rebellion of 1835. For 41 years he had been in command of the cavalry in this district, and his name was still on the militia list.

Already there have been six casualties in the Denison family.

Reached New High Record Price at Stock Yards Yesterday.

DEMAND FOR HEIFERS

Robert McLachlan, Well-Known Live Stock Dealer, is Dead.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards on Tuesday were 56 car-9 sheep and lambs, 168 calves and four Butchers' Cattle.-Less than 800 fat cattle were on sale yesterday and few among them were of good, and a smaller number of choice, well-finished seers and heifers. The percentage of co.ca well-finished steers and heifers weighing from 1000 to 1200 lbs. coming to this market has not been equal to the demand for some weeks past, and a few loads of these would have sold readily visterday, but they were not on hand or at least very few of them. John Black of Fergus disposed of his load of heavy cattle held over from Monday at $1.90, which was the top for a straight load, and $3 was the top for a straight load, and $3 was the top price for five selected butcher cattle. Trade was active, with prices very firm at Monday's quotations. Stockers and Feeders.—Prices for dehorned feeders, $00 lbs., are much stronger, as high as $7.25 to $7.40 being reported, but they had to be of god colors: they were for our American sousins, who are most insistent on having the dehorned steers. All the other classes of feeders were firm at Monday's values, but there are few coming forward.

Milkers and Springers.—These were selling at firm prices yesterday, but no

NO INCREASED DIVIDEND FOR MACKAY HOLDERS

The annual report of the Mackas

The annual report of the Mackay Compunies was issued yesterdy and was about as instructive as its predecessors. The profit and loss account showed receipts from investments sufficient to pay dividends and carry forward $150,179. The report in part seid:

The past year has been satisfactory in the volume of traffic handled by your system. During the first six months the land line receipts feld off, but with the revival of business in the United States during the last six months, the telegraph receipts have naturally responded to the normal and the communication. It is entirely possible

Smelters and Mackay Lower, Maple Leaf Strong-General Market Easier.

The Toronto stock market flattened out again yesterday and the buoyancy of Monday was entirely lost. Smelters made a determined stand against profitaking, but upwards of three points were dropped from Monday's high. Last week's advance in Mackay has petered out and the price was lowered to $4. The directors' report was issued yesterday afternoon and this definitely settled the question of dividend increase. Maple Leaf was the one strong issue and sales were made up to 76. Steel of Canada and Cement were easier and there was no sale of Nova Scotia Steel. Trading in the unlisted issues was uninteresting and duil. The Wall street market was perturbed and this duiled local specula-

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Money was in in-LONDON, Feb. 15.—Money was in increased demand and discount rates were firmer today. Exchequer bonds and treasury bills were in good demand. American exchange was quiet, cable transfers ranging from 4.76% to 4.76%.

The stock market remained generally quiet. Rubber and copper shares continued active and firm features, but only slight irregular changes were noted elsewhere as the market is waiting for details of the new loan and fresh taxation. American securities ruled quiet, and price changes were mostly downward. Treasury bids for Americans were slightly under the market.

Mining Notes

Notice of the annual meeting of the Timiskaming Mining Company has been sent out to the shareholders. It will be held on Monday, February 28th. The annual report was also sent out yesterday, but the features of it have already been published.

It is now not a question of reserves at the Dome Mines. It has become a question of mill capacity, and the man-agement has improvements under way

Important Ore Bodies Discovered on Porcupine Success Property.

ACTIVITY IN DELORO

Comparatively New Country Being Opened Up-Reorganization General.

TIMMINS, Feb. 14.-Work at the Porcupine Success has been very successful of late. Some time ago an incessful of late. Some time ago an incline shaft was started on a vein showing an abundance of free gold. This proved to be only a branch of a much larger ore body.

Now a cross-cut at a vertical depth of $5 feet has tasped the trunk vein. It is over 10 feet wide, and the assays which have been so far obtained show average values of $60 per ton. The ore carries small quantities of molybdenite. is bluish gray in color and heavily charged with finely crystalline pyrite. A rew deep working shaft will be started as soon as the snow goes and the ground can be sufficiently cleared.

The automobile road from Timmins to the control of th

as soon as the snow goes and the ground can be sufficiently cleared.

The automobile road from Timmins to the Dome mines is now open for winter traffic and will be graded and graveled rext summer. From the Vipond it follows an easterly course across the Success and Tisdale to the American gold ifields. It will greatly facilitate traffic and shorten the route from the Hollinger to the Dome.

Deloro Township.
There is a constantly increasing activity in Deloro Township. The Standard is to be reopened. The Maidens-McDonald has been optioned to Mr. Bateman, late of the Canadian Mining and Exploration Company. He is understood to represent Mr. Constant and other captailists in New York. The Doble-Drummond or Anchorite Mining Company adjoining the former on the north will be taken up by the Coniagas of Cobalt, and further south in this township several other properties are being developed.
Carbonates in the way of anchorite, dolomite and calcite seem to be more fully developed in Doloro than in Tisdale.
The iron formation is also more promin ent and some experts look very favorably on these formations. Many prospective deals for Porcupine properties are being held up by the unusual depth of snow during the present winter. But ali indications point to very great activity with the coming of spring.

NEW YORK CURB.

NEW YORK CURB.

Hamilton B. Wills says: Following the steadiness of the morning session, the curb developed an irregular tendency in the early afternoon, but at the close stocks rallied and recovered fractional losses sustained earlier in the day. The closing was more irregular, however, than steady. At no time was there any marked activity and the day was characterized by lack of speculative interest and no attempt was made to bid up prices, but stocks were freely absorbed at offered prices, which bespeaks a strong technical position and a healthy undertone.
