ENDOWMENT FUND.

The endowment scheme, begun in January, 1869, has now realized for capital $95,486.72, including $7,807.90, loaned to meet recent deficiencies in revenue. Paid subscriptions secure privileges according to the following regulations:—

1. A donor of $500 founds a SCHOLARSHIP bearing his own name or any other which he may give it, and acquires the privilege of naming annually one student to attend College for one session free of class fees. On the founder's death his lineal representatives become entitled to the privilege of free attendance in the order of seniority.
2. Donors of $100, $200, $300, and $400, may nominate, at any time during life, one, two, three, or four students respectively, to a course in Arts free of class fees.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE has, under its Royal Charter, "the style and privileges of a University."

The thirty-fourth session will be opened on the first Wednesday (6th) of October, 1875, at 3 o'clock P.M., when an address will be delivered by Professor Mowat, M.A.

Kingston is easily accessible on account of its central situation, and is one of the healthiest localities in Western Canada.

 Students are particularly requested to give attention to the contents of the following pages, as all intimations shall be strictly adhered to.

 A complete compilation of statutes and by-laws, containing information as to scholastic requirements and defining the duties of students, is published separately. The regulations in the compilation are applied consistently with any changes introduced into the Calendar. Copies may be obtained on application to the Registrar.

BOARDING.—No student is allowed to board or lodge in any house not approved of by the Senate, except by permission of parents or guardians given in writing. Information as to approved houses may be obtained from the Registrar. The expense of suitable boarding is moderate.

REGISTRATION.—All students are required to have their names with other particulars entered in the University Register.

At the time of registration they must produce the Treasurer's receipt for fees. Intrants must also present a certificate of character from their ministers or other competent persons and sign a declaration promising due respect and obedience to the University authorities, a careful and diligent attention to their studies, and a courteous and peaceable behaviour towards their fellow-students.

ATTENDANCE AT CHURCH.—All students must attend the churches to which they profess to belong, and produce certificates of attendance from their clergymen when required.

THE LIBRARY contains over 10,000 volumes. All registered students are entitled to the use of it, subject to by-laws.

THE OBSERVATORY.—In 1855 subscribers aided by the City Corporation founded an Astronomical Observatory, which was transferred by deed to the University in 1861.

THE MUSEUM.—The Mineralogical and Palæontological collections are extensive and valuable. Occasional demonstrations are given to students. Friendly services towards the furnishing and enlargement of the Museum are solicited.

FEES.—The following fees are payable strictly in advance—class fees on University day (16th October); graduation fees on or before the 26th April.

MATRICULATION.

- I. There shall be a Matriculation Examination for students entering upon the ordinary course of study, on passing which they shall be admitted to the rank of Undergraduates.
- II. The Examination shall be in writing, and the subjects of examination shall be the following:—
CLASSICS—Virgil, Æneid, Bk. II; translation of English into Latin prose; Greek Grammar; Lucian, Charon.
Candidates may profess similar portions of other Classical works, but in so doing cannot compete for rank or Scholarship.
ARITHMETIC.—As far as the Extraction of Roots, inclusive.
ALGEBRA.—To end of Simple Equations (Todhunter.)
GEOMETRY.—Euclid, Books I and II.
ENGLISH.—Bullion's Analytical and Practical Grammar.
- III. In order to pass the Examination, candidates must obtain at least one-fourth of the marks allotted to each subject.
- IV. Ungrammatical language, incorrect spelling, or illegible writing shall be a sufficient reason for rejecting the papers of candidates.

 The Examination for 1875-76 will begin in the Convocation Hall on 7th October.

CURRICULUM FOR GRADUATION.

- I. The Ordinary Curriculum with a view to the degree of Bachelor in Arts (B.A.), (except as provided in the next regulation), shall extend over four sessions, and shall include attendance for not less than one session on each of the following classes, namely, Junior Latin, Junior Greek, Junior Mathematics, Senior Latin, Senior Greek, Senior Mathematics, Chemistry, Logic and Metaphysics, Ethics, Natural Philosophy, Rhetoric and English Literature, not less than one session in either of the classes of History or Natural Science, and not less than one session in either of the classes of French, German, or Junior Hebrew.
- II. Any intransigent, who shall satisfy the Senate, on examination, that he is qualified to attend the senior classes of Latin, Greek and Mathematics, or any one of these classes, may be admitted into such class or classes without being required to attend the junior class or classes, and when a student shall be thus admitted to the senior classes of both Latin and Greek, his course of study for the degree of Bachelor of Arts may be completed within three sessions.
- III. Candidates for graduation and students having in view the ministry of the Church in connection with the Church of Scotland must take the class of Senior Mathematics before the class of Natural Philosophy, the class of Logic and Metaphysics before that of Ethics, and the class of Chemistry before that of Natural Science.
- IV. Except as provided in preceding regulations the classes may be taken in any order by students intending to graduate, and any student to whom the second or third of the preceding regulations does not apply may, on payment of the required fees, be enrolled in any class or classes which he may desire to attend.
- V. In each class occasional examinations in writing, held at such times as the Professor may appoint, shall form part of the work of students who follow the ordinary curriculum, but the number of such examinations in any class during a session shall not exceed the number of hours per week at which that class is required to meet.
- VI. There shall be two Pass examinations annually—one at the close of a session and the other at the commencement of the following session, on such days and at such hours as the Senate shall appoint.
- VII. Students who are candidates for graduation must undergo a Pass examination on the subject or subjects taught in every class of the course prescribed for graduation.
- VIII. When a student shall have completed the required attendance on any class he may present himself for examination on the subject or subjects taught in that class at either the first or second Pass Examination which shall occur next after the completing of his attendance; but he shall not be allowed to appear for examination on such subject or subjects, at any subsequent Pass Examination, unless with special permission of the Senate granted on account of sickness or some similar cause duly certified.

- IX. If a student shall fail to pass at the first of the two Pass Examinations referred to in the preceding regulation, he shall be allowed to appear at the next Pass Examination to be examined on the subject or subjects on which he may have failed; but if he shall then also fail to pass he shall not be again examined, with a view to passing on such subject or subjects, until he shall have attended for one full session the class or classes in which such subject or subjects are taught.

DEPARTMENTS AND SUBJECTS OF STUDY.

In conducting the student through the following course the Professors endeavour to overtake all the studies prescribed, but they attach much more importance to thoroughness in the manner of working than to the quantity of work done. In all the classes exercises or essays are required, and there are frequent oral examinations. Regular and punctual attendance is strictly insisted upon.

I. CLASSICS.

- JUNIOR LATIN.—Cicero in Catalinam, I. Virgil, Æneid, Book XII. Horace, Odes, Book III.
- SENIOR LATIN.—Cicero de Oratore, Book II. Virgil, Georgics, Book I. Livy Book XXII. Tacitus, Agricola. Juvenal, Satire X.
- JUNIOR GREEK.—Homer, Iliad, Book VI. Lucian, Timon. Gospel by John.
- SENIOR GREEK.—Demosthenes, Philip. III. Euripides, Alcestis. Sophocles, Antigone. Thucydides, Book I. Epistle to the Ephesians.

Careful attention is given to the analysis of the portions read, to the composition and prosody of the languages, and to Roman and Greek Antiquities. The affinities of cognate languages are illustrated, and free use is made of the best authorities on philology.

II. MATHEMATICS AND NATURAL PHILOSOPHY.

Junior Mathematics.

- Euclid I—VI; XI, 1–21; XII, 1–2 (Simpson). Algebra (Wood, Todhunter). Elements of Trigonometry. Exercises.

Senior Mathematics.

- Plane and Spherical Trigonometry (Snowball). Geometrical Conic Sections (Whewell). Analytical Geometry (Hann). Exercises.

Natural Philosophy.

- Mechanics (Galbraith and Haughton). Hydrostatics (Galbraith and Haughton). Optics (Galbraith and Haughton, Dupuis). Astronomy (Galbraith and Haughton).

- Lectures on Natural Philosophy with experiments. (Ganot, Deschanel).

- I. Principles of Chemical Philosophy, including—1. Dalton's Atomic Theory. 2. Weight—(a) Gravitating weight, (b) Specific weight,

(c) Atomic weight. (3) Combination of atoms—(a) Atomicity, (b) Molecule (c) Laws of combination—i by weight, ii by volume. 4. Nomenclature and Notation.

- II. Molecular forces—1, Chemical affinity. 2. Cohesion—(a) Physical state of matter, (b) Crystallization. 3. Adhesion—(a) Capillarity, (b) Solution, (c) Diffusion, (d) Osmose. 4. Heat—(a) Sources of Heat, (b) Phenomena of expansion, (c) Modes by which equilibrium of temperature is brought about, (d) Specific and latent heat, (e) Heat of combustion, (f) Theories of heat. 5. Light—(a) Modes of producing light, (b) Constitution of common light, (c) Spectra, (d) Applications to Spectroscopy, (e) Chemical action of light, (f) Application to Photography.
- III. Chemistry of the non-metallic elements.
- IV. Chemistry of the metals.
- V. Chemistry of the Galvanic Battery, and properties of Galvanic Electricity.

Books recommended—Roscoe's Chemistry. Fownes' Chemistry (Bridges). Miller's Chemical Physics.

B. Natural Science.

The lectures embrace an outline of the subjects of (1) Botany, (2) Zoology, (3) Mineralogy, and (4) Geology, and are illustrated by diagrams, specimens, photomicrographs, minerals, rocks, and fossils.

BOTANY—I. Structural Botany including—1. Organography. 2. Vegetable Anatomy.

II. Vegetable physiology.

III. Principles of Systematic Botany.

ZOOLOGY—Distinctions between plants and animals.

I. Functions of relation. 1. Sensation—(a) Nervous system, (b) Special Senses, (c) Intelligence and instinct. 2. Voluntary motion, (a) Muscles, (b) Framework or skeleton.

II. Functions of nutrition—1. Prehension. 2. Digestion. 3. Absorption. 4. Circulation. 5. Respiration. 6. Secretion.

III. Functions of Reproduction.

IV. Outlines of Zoological Classification.

MINERALOGY—I. Crystallography—1. Crystallization. 2. Fundamental forms. 3. Secondary forms.

II. Physical Mineralogy. Properties brought out by (1) light, (2) trial by instruments.

III. Chemical Mineralogy. Action of (1) heat, (2) solvents.

IV. Metallic ores and their metallurgy.

V. Study of more commonly occurring minerals.

GEOLOGY.—Origin and structure of the earth—Dynamical Geology—Lithology—Palæontology—Systematic and Chronologic Geology.

Books recommended—Botany (Gray, Balfour, Wood). Zoology (Milne Edwards by Knox, Dallas, Agassiz and Gould). Mineralogy (Dana, Collins). Geology (Dana, Page).

CLASS PRIZES.

Prizes may be awarded by the Professors for eminence in any kind of class-work.

Merit certificates are awarded according to the standing attained at written examinations during the Session—First class to students who gain a minimum of 85 per cent, and second class to those who gain from 70 to 85 per cent of the aggregate number of marks obtainable. Successful candidates take rank as prize men.

The Elocutionary Association offers two special prizes of the value of $15 each, for excellence in reading.

COURSES FOR HONOURS.

- I. Honours shall be awarded for distinguished merit at examinations, but only in one or more of the following departments, and only when such merit reaches the prescribed standard in all the subjects of a department:—
 1. Classics, including Latin and Greek.
 2. Mathematics and Natural Philosophy.
 3. Chemistry and Natural Science.
 4. Logic, Metaphysics, and Ethics.
 5. Rhetoric, English Literature, and History.
- II. Examinations for Honours in any department shall be open to candidates only after they complete their attendance on classes prescribed for graduation in that department, and provided they appear at the first or second examination for Honours after completing such attendance.

- III. If a candidate shall present himself at the first examination for Honours after completing the prescribed attendance on classes, and shall fail at that examination on any subject or subjects, he may present himself at the next examination for Honours for examination on the subject or subjects on which he may have previously failed.
- IV. First-class Honours in any department shall be awarded to candidates who obtain one half the number of marks allotted to each paper and three-fourths of the total number of marks allotted to the department.
- V. Secood-class Honours in any department shall be awarded to candidates who obtain one-half the number of marks allotted to each paper and two-thirds of the total number of marks allotted to the department.
- VI. Honours obtained in any department shall be publicly announced immediately after being awarded, and the names of successful candidates shall be inserted in the first merit lists published thereafter, and again, at the time of graduation, Honour Men being Graduates shall be announced as having graduated with the Honours obtained by them at any time during their course of study.

Arrangements will be made at the beginning of the Session by the several Professors for occasional meetings with students intending to apply themselves to any portions of the following Honour work.

PRINCE OF WALES (open to members of the graduating class).—Founded in 1860 by the Prince of Wales. Value, $60. Subjects of examination, Natural Philosophy, Ethics, Chemistry, and English Literature.

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY.

LEITCH MEMORIAL.—Founded in 1867, by subscribers in Scotland and Canada, in memory of the late Principal Leitch. Value, $80. Tenable for three successive Sessions, the last of which may be spent at a Scottish University. Candidates must have the degree of B.A., and the successful one will hold it subject to passing the first and second Pass Examinations of the Course. The third triennial competition will take place on 5th November next. Open to intrants. Subjects the same as for matriculation.

DOMINION.—Founded in 1870 by a gentleman now resident in Nova Scotia. Value, $50. Subjects of examination the same as for matriculation. Competitors may belong to any Presbyterian Church in the Dominion.

Besides the above and in addition to Scholarships awarded at the close of last Session, the Senate will be able, out of funds granted by the Colonial Committee of the Church of Scotland, to offer six Scholarships of $50 each to matriculants who attain the standard of qualification for holding a Scholarship. In awarding these the order of merit list will be followed.

 Successful candidates for Scholarships awarded on Matriculation Examinations must, besides passing the examinations, obtain at least one half of the whole number of marks allotted to all the subjects taken together. The minimum qualification for holding scholarships awarded on Pass Examinations is the obtaining of one half the number of marks allotted to each subject.

BURSARIES.

These are awarded to deserving students, being matriculants, when preparing for the ministry in connection with the Church of Scotland. Recipients must sign a written obligation to repay the money should they change their intention with regard to the ministry. Recommendations accompanying contributions for the benefit of particular students, whether matriculants or not, are duly observed. (See By-laws.)

UNIVERSITY PRIZES.

I. LEWIS—Value $25—for the best Lecture on Luke xxii, verses 14–20 inclusive. Open to students of Theology.

II. ALMA MATER SOCIETY—Value $25—For the best essay on the Oratory of Edmuud Burke. Open to students of the graduating class in Arts.

The following are also offered, iii being open to all students, and iv, v and vi to all students in Arts.

III. By Alexander G. McBean, Esq. B.A., Montreal—$25—for the best poem consisting of at least 50 lines, on the death of General Wolfe.

IV. By the Hon. David L. Macpherson, Toronto—$25—for the best essay on the Electric Telegraph.

V. By George A. Kirkpatrick, Esq., M.P.—$25—for the best essay on the Influence of David Hume on Philosophy.

X. By Donald B. Maclellan, Esq., M.A., Cornwall—$25—for the best essay on the History of the British House of Commons.

CONDITIONS OF COMPETITION.

1. Poems and essays must be given in to the Secretary of the Senate not later than the 15th November.

2. Each production is to bear a motto, instead of the author's name, and to have attached to it a sealed envelope, bearing the same motto and containing a written declaration over the author's signature, to the effect that the poem or essay is his own unaided composition.

3. The envelopes attached to successful productions shall be opened and the writers' names made known at the closing Convocation of the session.

4. The best essays or poems must be reported by the Examiners to be of sufficient merit to entitle their authors to the prizes competed for.

5. All successful productions shall be the property of the University and be at the disposal of the Senate.

GRADUATION.

- I. Candidates must pass a matriculation examination.
- II. They must produce to the Senate, at such time as the Senate may appoint, satisfactory certificates showing—
 1. That they are of the full age of twenty-one years.
 2. That they are persons of good moral character.
 3. That they have been registered, after Matriculation.
 4. That they have been engaged in medical studies for a period of four years. (One year's instruction under a qualified medical practitioner prior to attendance upon public lectures is regarded as equivalent to a year at College, and Graduates in Arts may complete their course by three years' attendance upon public lectures.)
 5. That their attendance upon public lectures has been at least four-fifths of the teaching time of each session, reckoned with regard to each subject mentioned in clause six of this By-law; provided always that allowance may be made for sickness.
 6. That they have attended lectures in the following branches: General and Practical Anatomy, Materia Medica and Pharmacy, Physiology or Institutes of Medicine, and Chemistry, two courses of six months each; and Practical Chemistry, one course of three months; Theory and Practice of Medicine, Principles and Practice of Surgery, Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children, two courses of six months each; and Medical Jurisprudence, Clinical Medicine, Clinical Surgery, and Botany, one course of three months each; and that during the first year the attendance has been confined to the four subjects first mentioned.
 7. That they have compounded medicines, &c., for two periods of six months, or one period of twelve months, in the office of a duly qualified practitioner, and have attended at least six cases of Midwifery.
- III. Candidates must pass an examination on all the subjects mentioned in the preceding By-law; but the examination may consist of two parts—a Primary and Final.
- IV. Candidates must compose an approved Thesis on some medical subject.

The Degree of M.D. entitles the holder to the diploma of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, on passing the required examination.

Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, Kingston.

Incorporated by Act of Parliament and affiliated to the University in 1866.

THE SESSION BEGINS ON THE FIRST WEDNESDAY IN OCTOBER.

TEACHING STAFF.

JOHN R. DICKSON, M.D., M.R.C.P.L., M.R.C.S.E., and F.R.C.S. Edin., President,
Professor of Clinical Surgery.

FIFE FOWLER, M.D., L.R.C.S., Edin., REGISTRAR,
Professor of Materia Medica.

HORATIO YATES, M.D.,
Professor of the Principles and Practice of Medicine, and Lecturer on Clinical Medicine.

MICHAEL LAVELL, M.D.,
Professor of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children.

MICHAEL SULLIVAN, M.D.,
Professor of Surgery and Surgical Anatomy.

OCTAVIUS YATES, M.D.,
Professor of the Institutes of Medicine and Sanitary Science.

JAMES NEISH, M.D.,
Professor of Botany.

THOMAS R. DUPUIS, M.D.,
Professor of Descriptive and Regional Anatomy.

NATHAN F. DUPUIS, M.A., (Professor of Chemistry and Natural History, Queen's University),
Professor of Chemistry and Practical Chemistry.

ALFRED S. OLIVER, M.D.,
Professor of Medical Jurisprudence.

HERBERT J. SAUNDERS, M.D., M.R.C.S.E.,
Demonstrator of Anatomy.

Certificates of attendance at this College are recognized by the Royal Colleges of Surgeons of London and Edinburgh.

The new premises of the College are commodious and convenient.
Unequalled facilities are presented for the study of Practical Anatomy, and great advantages for clinical instruction are afforded at the General Hospital and Hotel Dieu.

Full information as to subjects of study, fees, etc., may be obtained on
