 Robbed of $1,000
 Boston, Aug. 20.—It was a costly visit that Frank G. Coombs of Alliboro paid to Boston this week, for, all told, it meant a loss to him of more than $1,000 in jewelry and cash.
 He was standing in Court street near Washington, when he became acquainted with a young man of friendly disposition. After a chat it was decided that they take a trip around the city for refreshment. They strolled around and had a few drinks according to Coombs. Then there came a knock on the lady's nursery and he remembered no more until he awoke in a Federal street doorway.
 When Coombs pulled himself together and made an inventory of his belongings he found there was considerable missing. A diamond ring valued at $800 was one of the articles that had disappeared. A diamond sapphire worth $200 was another. His roll bills comprising $218 had also disappeared.
 He tried to recall something of his trip around town and then decided to visit the police. No one went to police headquarters and reported the robbery.

BUILD AIRSHIPS IN SECTIONS

For Military Purposes, Each Part to be Detachable from the Rest
 Berlin, Aug. 20.—Count Frederic von Holtke, minister of the armed forces, and eldest of the Holtke family, has formed a company to construct a fleet of airships on the Rhine specially designed for military purposes. The vessels will be capable of carrying light guns and a quantity of explosives. The type chosen is a peculiar triple Zorn balloon, which is a single framework of Canadian birch, contains three motor balloons, each with its own motor, and each detachable from the main body. This is a great advantage, together with its own share of the framework, thus is independent of the front balloon can be quickly detached and back to headquarters. The airship is designed to take part in the fight and drop bombs on the enemy. All three parts can be put together again as they fly.
 The whole construction is 300 feet long. The net effective lifting power is 11,000 lbs. The entire framework can be quickly dismantled in sections. Each part of the triple balloon can also be anchored separately to the ground. This is a great advantage in case of emergency. The works are at Grefrath, near Rottig. "COMING BACK" AND STAYING FIT.
 (New York World).
 James H. Riley and James A. Ten Eyck, famous single scull oarsmen of the seventies, now themselves in the hearty sixties, are training for a three-mile race on Seneca Lake. Their arrangement is a private little argument as to the possibility of an old champion "coming back." Many people will consider their performance in a resurrection than a demonstration of the advantages of "staying young." In their professional days Riley and Ten Eyck were not given to injurious excesses in their ways of living. Their races were usually over the three-mile course, which is short of the "fatal fourth mile" which has wrought lasting mischief for many a lanky college crew. When Mr. Riley declares from his training shed today that he is as good as he ever was he pays his tribute to the same fashion of sensible living which has just enabled the veteran Weston to amaze the world with his feats in peteetrianism.
 Gladstone cut trees at eighty. At the same age Ericsson pulled two younger men off their feet in a tug-of-war. Plato wrestled at eighty-three. Jim Mac was appearing at seventy-six. Blondin was athletic at seventy. The memory is fresh of Dr. Furnival coming to a green old age at the same age.
 The strong man who uses his powers rationally does not need to "come back." His strength is his loyal ally.

Large Ships For Halifax

(Receorder).
 Another indication that the port of Halifax is to boom this winter is the change in the schedule of the White Star-Dominion Line steamers' sailings to and from Halifax. Last year the line had two steamers, the Canada and the Halifax, calling at this port on their way from Liverpool to Portland. Word has been received by A. G. Jones & Co., the Halifax agents, that there will be additional sailings to Halifax this year, and that their larger boats will come here as well as the smaller ones, and in addition there will be two sailings from this port to Liverpool. These latter, it is thought, will be a "try-out," and if there is sufficient freight and passengers offering, the remaining ships will call here homeward bound from Halifax.
 The Laurentic and the Megantic are two of the largest ships in the Canadian service.

CLEER CROOK

IS CAPTURED IN CALGARY

Chased Across Continent by Pinkerton Men, He Confessed SLEUTHS SPOILED SYSTEM
 Foiled at New York and Chicago He Secured $2,650 at Winnipeg and Was Jailed Further West (Montreal Gazette).
 One of the cleverest crooks who have worked Canada in recent years was run down last week in Calgary when Gerald M. Crowe, former bank robber, cheque riser, and general light financial artist, was arrested by the Northwest Mounted Police, through the efforts of the Pinkerton Detective Agency. While Crowe had apparently had a tour which promised to net him half a million through his smooth methods, he was caught early in the game, and not only has secured practically no cash from his work, but he has qualified for an appearance before the courts at Winnipeg and other places which will insure that for many years to come he will be kept busy at stone heaps reducing large stones by the aid of a hammer, without danger to any bank except the stone bank.
 Crowe has a long record as a general cheque riser, and he had not much chance to offset his genius against the many armed forces of the law. As soon as he came to this continent some time ago he was watched by the Pinkerton people, who have a contract to protect the banks from such men as he. He was traced from New York to Chicago, Toronto, Winnipeg, and Calgary and was made to confess, and also to give up the details of the only coup he had pulled off, so that most of the money was recovered.
 The crime for which he was arrested was a felony passed upon at Montreal, Hamilton at Winnipeg, for $2,650, with drawing the account of a prominent legislator in the city. He is also wanted in Toronto for uttering a forged cheque for $200 upon the Metropolitan Bank. Besides all questions are: Stages street Co., by whom he was formerly employed. The bulk of the proceeds of the Winnipeg race were turned over to the inspector of Detectives Duncan, by an unwitting woman accomplice in Toronto, to whom the money was sent by her sister and brother, Mrs. M. A WORD OF CHEER

Agricultural progress in Nova Scotia is the subject of a cheering article by Principal Cumming of the College of Agriculture in that province. He states emphatically that agriculture is making progress, and submits the proof. This will give encouragement to farmers in New Brunswick and should arouse in them a healthy spirit of emulation. It is another evidence that there is a "spirit of the east," that is making itself felt.

Principal Cumming notes as the first evidence of progress the fact that young men are paying more attention to farming as an occupation, and taking greater pains to acquire the knowledge which makes for success. During the past year 33 young men attended classes at the agricultural college at Truro, compared with 40 six years ago.

Taking up the subject of dairying, which Principal Cumming regards as an industry for which Nova Scotia affords better facilities than for some other lines, he points out that whereas five years ago there were very few dairies for dairy bulls bred on the college farm, they cannot now supply the demand, and last winter were compelled to import a large number. He tells of several new butter factories, and of one locality where in the past two years three new pure-bred dairy herds have been established, while the demand for improved stock is steadily growing.

Principal Cumming next treats of hog-raising and points out that every breeder could have sold last spring two or three times as many young pigs as he had to offer. Sheep-raising is holding its own. In hog-raising greater attention is being paid to draft horses, with over 40 draft stations in the province.

Dealing with efforts to improve the methods of crop raising, Principal Cumming points out that the provincial department of agriculture offers prizes for the best three-acre fields of oats for seed purposes, while in Pictou, Cumberland and Antigonish private citizens have offered prizes for the best fields of turnips.

The growth of fruit raising has been remarkable. Principal Cumming quotes this table of export of apples for five year periods since 1880—

1880-1885	23,920 barrels
1885-1890	34,249 "
1890-1895	118,552 "
1895-1900	239,230 "
1900-1905	353,449 "
1905-1910	482,298 "

It is estimated that the number of young trees set out and the improved cultivation of those already bearing will bring the export of the next decade up to 50 per cent above that for 1905-1910.

"And as yet," says Principal Cumming, "we are but on the fringe of our possibilities, for the striking feature of our apple valleys is not the amount of land occupied by orchards, but the amount of land yet to be occupied. The management of the C. P. R. were not oblivious to this when they obtained control of the Dominion Atlantic Railway."

These statements by the head of the agricultural college of Nova Scotia are commended to the thoughtful attention of the people of New Brunswick.

THE QUEEN'S OWN

The Canadian Courier estimates that it will cost Sir Henry M. Pellatt something like one hundred thousand dollars to take the Queen's Own Regiment of Toronto to England and back again.

The Queen's Own, says a writer in the Courier, dates back to April, 1860. Its first active service was in 1864, its second in 1866, when it took part in the battle of Limeridge in the Niagara Peninsula. Some of its members served in the composite regiment under Wolsey with the Red River Expedition in 1870. It was also present, under Col. Otter, in the western trouble of 1885, notably at Cut Knife Creek. Lord Roberts is its honorary colonel. One of the most unique features of the regiment is that every officer, past or present, has risen from the ranks. It goes without saying that the Queen's Own will have a royal time in England. The arm-chair critics who have been learnedly discussing the Canadian militia and Gen. French's report will have a simple prepared for their inspection.

IN MEMORY OF THE BRITISH ARMAN, C. S. ROLLS.

(Alfred Noyes in the London Mail.)

On those young brows that knew no fear
We lay the Roman athlete's crown,
The laurel of the champion,
While those young eyes that braved the sun,
See Drake, see Raleigh, smile "Well done."

II.
Their desert sons that knew no shore,
To fight with fleets the sea and air;
But, frazier 'e'n than theirs of yore,
His seal a new-found deep would dare;
They watch, with antic-experienced awe,
What fleets shall follow through the haze.

III.
They would not scoff, though man should
To feebler wings a mightier task!
They know what wonders wait us yet;
Not all things in an hour they see,
But in each noble failure see
'Ae inevitable victory.

IV.
A thousand years have borne us far
From that dark ide the Saxon away,
And star whispers to trembling star
While space and Time shrink back Aghast.

V.
Ten thousand, thousand years remain,
For man to dare our deep again."

VI.
Thou, too, shalt hear across that deep
Our thundering fleets of thought draw
Round which the sons and systems sweep
Like cloven foam from sky to sky;
Thou dost stand at last restored,
His captives to our eyes once more.

VII.
Feeble the wings, dauntless the soul!
Take thou the conqueror's laurel-crown;
Take—for thy chariot of renown;
The imperial garland of renown;
While those young eyes, beyond the sun,
See Drake, see Raleigh, smile "Well done."

HER RESPONSIBILITY.
"Sausages," said the preacher when it came her turn to answer the usual question in such cases, "do you take this man to be your wedded husband, for better or worse?"

"Yes, as he is, parson," she interrupted!
"Yes," he said, "he is just as you know of good Ladd's going to take 'em"; and he got up his wasser, w'y, ah! I tend to 'em myself, the Yankee Companion."

READY RELIEF.

PAPA'S OPINION.
He—"You know that is not your money I want to marry you for, don't you dear?"
She—"Yes, that's what I told papa."
He—"And what did he say?"
She—"He said that if that was true you didn't have as much sense as he thought you had."

TALE OF A DOG.
A dog that was which said
An auto-car when he'd see
Another dog he would bark
To growl and bark most angrily.
He'd lunge and strain with every paw,
To show he wished to start a fight
In truth, I'm sure you never saw
In any such setting fiercer delight!

One day that auto stopped, and there
Beside it lay a mummy car
With wagging tail—he were an air
As if "twere peace he would prefer."
The other dog a frantic dance
Began; he growled and leaped about
Till for some unforeseen mischance
He missed his hold and tumbled out!

I looked to see that peaceful pup
Depart in peace with a howl;
But, no, the other dog leaped up
Into the car without a growl!
The mummy here for all to see
Don't be a cur and run a bluff.
To not crawl back quite quick enough!

HON. MR. OLIVER
BRINGS GOOD WORD
FROM FAR NORTH

Ottawa, Aug. 19.—Hon. Frank Oliver, who has had a trip down the Mackenzie
River from Edmonton to the Arctic Ocean, declared tonight that there is land in the far north of western Canada.

"I made the trip to get an idea of the north country and to see if there was land suitable for occupation by civilized men. I return convinced that when the prairies have been settled, Canada has a northern area, almost as large, to offer settlement, perfectly satisfactory so far as climatic conditions are concerned for the purposes of agriculture."

"At every point we touched at, from Edmonton north as far as Fort Good Hope, which is within sixteen miles of the Arctic circle, vegetables were grown and grown successfully. There is a good crop every year, I am told."

Quite a number of hangers throughout

HARBOR EXPERT VISITS HALIFAX

Conference Over Facilities With Railway and Board of Trade Men

(Halifax Recorder)

John Kennedy, chief engineer of the Montreal Harbor Board and Messrs. Ready, Tiffin, and Pottinger of the I. C. R. Board of Management, visited the railway piers and terminals at Deep Water and Richmond yesterday, and Mr. Kennedy will make a report to the Intercolonial.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning the above-mentioned and Chief Engineer McKenna, of the I. C. R., and other officials met at the board of trade rooms, where the council, the transportation committee and other prominent members of the board of trade had gathered.

President Johnson presided, and in opening the conference expressed the appreciation felt at the government according to the wishes of the board of trade in sending an expert here to lay out a comprehensive scheme, and it was hoped that any change would be of a permanent and lasting character, so that Halifax would be put on a proper footing and in a position to meet the commerce that was increasing at this, the main gateway of the whole country. He would like to see the policy of the late Israel Tarte carried out, namely that it was the duty of Canada to make four great ports, Montreal, Quebec, St. John and Halifax, and fit them up in proper manner and at the public expense, and insist on Mr. Tarte's idea that Canadian traffic should pass through Canadian ports.

Mr. Kennedy in his reply stated that he coincided with the opinion that it was necessary to equip four great ports to carry on the growing commerce of the country. It was necessary to see that Atlantic ports placed in the best possible condition. He had been instructed by the government to go fully into the matter and make a full report, showing the necessities of the ports, not only for the present needs, but looking to the future. On his return to Montreal he intended having an interview with the Allan

WHERE HALIFAX SETS EXAMPLE FOR ST. JOHN

(Halifax Recorder)
The Civic Improvement League draws the attention of the citizens to the way in which the front of the city hall has been brightened by the use of window boxes. Many, perhaps, have not observed this, if so, it will be worth their while to go into the Parade some day soon and observe the effect of this simple means of beautification. The civic authorities are setting an example in this, that might well be copied by every resident. If the reader should be in Hollis street, if any time and has not seen the front of the Queen Hotel recently, it would be worth while to walk along the west side of the street to observe the beautiful effect of the window gardens at that place. The same thing may be seen at the King Edward Hotel, the Revere House and some private dwellings. At the league will endeavor to encourage window gardens next year, and will probably offer special prizes for the best window boxes, residents should begin to take an interest in the matter now, make inquiries and be ready to have window boxes started for next summer.

READY REPLY.
Quite recently a warship of the Atlantic fleet found it necessary to call for a few hours at a military port on the coast of Ireland. Tommy Atkins, meeting a full-bearded Irish tar in the street a couple of hours later, said: Pat, when are you going to place your whiskers on the reserve list? "When you place your tongue on the civil list," was the Irish sailor's reply.

Lots of people who want to be forgotten don't want to be forgotten.

A TYPICAL SUMMER GIRL OF 1910

The foulard frock of this season is charmingly cool and simple, yet has a dash and smartness of its own. The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"I HAVE half a dozen invitations to visit different friends of mine this summer—two or three of them people I'm very fond of, too," said the pretty little stringer lady who was curled up in my Gloucester hammock, "and yet I'm going to take my hard earned money and go to a hotel for a two weeks' vacation."

"Why?" in answer to the expected question on my part, "because I'm tired, and I know it will rest me just about twice as much as visiting even people I love. There's no two ways about it—visiting, even the nicest people, is a strain."

"Now don't think I'm ungrateful, Ruthie," sniping up on her elbow in the enthusiasm of her subject, "because I'm really, really, I'm not. And don't think I don't know what I'm talking about, because I do. I've done a good deal of visiting at one time or another, and at some very pleasant places, too, and it's all very well when you have plenty of energy to spare, but when you want a complete rest—nervous and body and soul—thank you, no."

"Let me tell you about last year. I went to see some of my young married friends, as nice and jolly a girl as ever lived and a lovely home, but—well, you don't know who she is and never will, so what's the harm in telling you why I'm going to a hotel this year?"

"In the first place she has three small children, who wake up a little before the birds, I should say, and consequently they all have to have breakfast by seven o'clock. Rita said that you must show it all the time, it makes you uncomfortable and constrained. I think that's one of the best things about a paid-for visit. You don't feel obliged to look delighted all the time. Positively, my delighted muscles were so overworked last year that I hardly smiled for a month afterwards."

"I have a great objection to coming home just the day before I must go back to work, so I wanted to have two or three days before the two weeks were up, but Rita is one of those people who overdo a hospitable urgency to prolong your visit into an iron-bound insistence that you shall stay longer, so I had to give that up."

"Actually, Ruth, I had been looking forward to those two weeks all the year, and yet I was more relieved than anything else when it was over. "Why don't you say something in some of your talks about the evils of visiting, Ruthie? Tell working girls that if they really want to get a thorough rest and change, they can't afford to try to fit themselves into someone's else routine."

"I will, I said. But I thought I'd let her, instead."

Cover the bottom of a pudding dish with 12 broken macarons. Make the following custard and pour over them. Scald 1 pint of milk in double boiler. SUSSEX MAN PIONEER IN GOOD WORK

C.T. White Has Striking Printed Notices on Trees on His Properties Urging to Conservation of the Forests

(Sussex Record.)

There are more ways than one to build up New Brunswick. Publicity does much to assist and it encourages many who might otherwise take no interest in this important matter of doing something for their native province, but a lot can be done without loss or feathers, to help the province and this is true of the lumber industry than of any other.

The lumber interests of New Brunswick are most important, and their value increases with time. It is now recognized by almost everybody to be valuable when greater care is being exercised in the protection of the forest wealth of Canada.

The properties controlled by Mr. White, personally, and those operated by himself and his son, Garfield, under the firm name of C. T. White & Son, are among the best in the Maritime Provinces. At least one of the holdings was declared by some of the leading operators to be valuable when Mr. White, Sr., acquired it. Nevertheless the limit has been lumbered for over two decades and is now worth far more money and carries more large trees than at any time since an axe was first put into it.

This desirable result has been brought about by care. No trees have been ruthlessly destroyed and fires have been watched closely. The men in the employ of the concern have been taught to regard the protection of the trees as a duty they owe to themselves, their children and their children's children, and so they are, as it were, interested partners in the operation which has been for years wedded to conservation in its most practical form.

The Messrs. White do not talk conservation. They get right down to the lumbermen and speak to them in their own language, as illustrated by a printed notice that is posted from one end of the White properties to the other. Here it is:

"DANGER."
"Save every young spruce. He'll be there for you or your boys to cut in a few years."
"Do not destroy the lumber of the future by careless cutting now."
"It is every one's interest to protect the smallest spruce or fir."
"We will be thankful for the help of every man in the cause of Careful Lumbering."
"Think it Over Seriously."
You see, there's no threat suggested in this. It is an appeal to the common sense and business interests of the lumberman. Every spruce he goes in the course of his daily task, he is confronted by a polite request which goes right home. His cooperation is asked for and the protection of the forest becomes to him second nature. The results of this appeal have been good. But its terms may well be taken to heart by every New Brunswick who has an interest in his province. "Save every young spruce. He'll be there for you or your boys," is a sentiment that interests more than the man who fells the tree. It is a direct appeal to men of every class. "He'll be there for you or your boys."

The royal commission was very favorably impressed with what Nova Scotia has done to establish a full system of technical education, which, when it is completely rounded out, will meet the needs of the people.

One of the chief results the college hopes to achieve through the commission is that the government will grant money to be spent on technical education. Principal Sexton thought the commission was one of the most important in Canada, and he considered that its results will be very far-reaching.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION IN NOVA SCOTIA

(Halifax Recorder.)
Principal Sexton has returned after his trip through Cape Breton and the industrial districts of Nova Scotia, including Amherst and Springhill. He referred to his visit as most gratifying, in giving evidence that the large majority in those districts believe very strongly in the merits of technical education. The only complaint, said he, was that he had not spent enough money in providing apparatus to illustrate the chemical and physical phenomena in teaching mining and engineering in the schools.

Employers of labor were all in favor of night schools. Instead of laying too much work upon the boy, the night school was a boon and was of incalculable benefit in keeping him off the streets at night. The consensus of opinion was to the effect that the "brightest boys" attended these night schools.

HOW MARBLES ARE MADE

Every year there are probably thousands of marbles by boys with holes in their pockets, yet years ago any child would have been treated just as these toys, says the Washington Star. Then the "mother marbles" known to those made by Mother Nature. You have probably seen the droplets of water or the tiny pebbles, to make them Mother Nature first sent the frosts to split off pieces of rocky cliffs. When the pieces of rock fell into the water they ground round and round among larger stones, until finally they became smooth and round. When the children found them on the shores they were happy.

About 900 years ago the Dutch of Holland made marbles much like the last expensive kind we use today. From Holland the marbles were sent to England. Later the early settlers of America brought some of these toys over. Now many of our marbles are manufactured in Saxony, India or China and brought to the United States. These agates or "real" are made by machinery in much quicker time than the pebble marbles of long ago. Now, instead of waiting for frosts, hammers break off small squares of rock. About 2,000 of these are placed on a large round millstone with a circular groove in it.

Over this a large round block of oak is put and kept turning all the time, while water pours over the millstone. Gradually the small stones work around through the grooves until they are worn smooth and round. Then they are taken out and glazed. In this way the factory, which has many millstones, can turn out thousands of real agates every day.

NA-DRU-CO

You can't judge the quality of complexion cream, of talcum powder, of headache wafers, of indigestion tablets, or of laxatives, in the drug store. You must either take chances on their quality—or buy by the NA-DRU-CO Trade Mark.

You certainly take no chances when you buy any toilet article or medicinal preparation which bears the name NA-DRU-CO and this trade mark.

As soon as you see "NA-DRU-CO" you can be absolutely certain that the article is the very best.

The Useful Sunflower

Sunflowers grown in America usually go to waste, but in Russia the seeds of the plant are quite useful.

One of the important articles of diet is the oil squeezed from the sunflower.

At one time purified sunflower oil was used to quite an extent in adulterating olive oil.

NEW DIAMOND FIELDS

Germans Determined to Monopolize Output

(New York Sun.) Maiden Lane importers have received definite reports on the new diamond fields in the German colonies of South Africa.

Mr. Diederich says that in the last year the German government has established law and order and that the German people after sacrificing many lives now have a chance of getting back at least the money which they have expended in the development of the colony.

At first a syndicate composed of the leading banks in Berlin took charge of the output, but the temporary arrangement soon gave way to a contract with the German government made with the syndicate, Kryn, Costermans & Walk, who are Germans, but have their cutting factories in Antwerp and New York.

Special attention is given in the report to the question as to the average size of the diamonds found in the German colonies, because this has been the most doubtful factor in the new diamond fields.

Professors Talk of Value as Physical Training

London, Aug. 20.—An address on gymnastic work was given by Fraulien Wilke at the Chelsea Polytechnic school.

Physical training for girls, she urged, should comprise gymnastics, dancing and games, and should be given only by trained teachers.

After a display of drill and dancing by girls, Mr. Cecil Sharp spoke on the subject of dancing, saying that educationists were agreed as to the desirability of introducing it into the schools.

The objection to dancing made by certain people was dismissed by the fact that Morris dances were performed by persons all of the same sex.

George Clunies Ross, Third of English Family to Rule Malaya

The death of George Clunies Ross, King of the Cocos Islands is reported by cable from Ventnor, Eng., where he had gone in search of health.

The Cocos Islands, over which the Ross family has reigned for more than 80 years are situated about 700 miles from Java and are under British protection.

When a young man George Clunies Ross studied engineering in Glasgow, returning to the islands in 1866.

There are no white women on the islands. Clunies Ross is known there for the parchment notes of George Ross, the carrier "jetty" are the sole medium of exchange.

Mr. Ross had the power of life and death over 600 or 700 subjects. On the islands rats climb trees and nibble the coconuts, the giant land crab scuttles to and fro, sitting with its pincers the wood

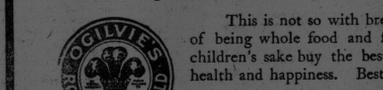

Healthy Happy Children

As everyday food for growing children, good bread and butter is much more wholesome than meat. It is lighter in the stomach, more easy to digest and furnishes every element of health and strength necessary for the growing child, provided the flour is rich in that fine quality of high grade gluten which distinguishes Ogilvie's

Royal Household Flour.

It is this rich nourishing element which makes children grow fat and happy when given plenty of bread made from this finest of all flours. Children thrive on it. It puts flesh on their bones and brings the rosy flush of health to their cheeks.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as strictly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say they he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands of cases of those disorders which are the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a carefully selected physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare print its very ingredients on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trade with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.—take the advice received and be well.

Great interest is being manifested in this afternoon's match between the St. Johns and the Clippers on the Every Day Club grounds. Fredericton Wins Fredericton, Aug. 19—(Special)—Two championships were decided this afternoon in the New Brunswick tennis tournament. Mrs. H. R. Babbitt, of Fredericton, in the ladies' singles, sensibly defeated Miss M. Fairweather, of St. John.

Mrs. H. R. Babbitt and Miss Helen Babbitt, of Fredericton, were also successful in the ladies' doubles, defeating Miss M. Fairweather and Miss M. Fairweather.

Three championships are to be decided tomorrow—the men's singles, mixed doubles and men's doubles.

A. R. Babbitt, of Fredericton, who has played a magnificent game all through the tournament, will be opposed by M. McAvity, of St. John, the present champion, and some great play is expected.

In the mixed doubles the holders of the title are not defending it and the struggle will be between Miss Helen Babbitt and A. R. Babbitt, of Fredericton, and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Babbitt, also of Fredericton.

In the men's doubles St. John will get the championship as the present champions, T. M. McAvity and Wm. M. Angus, and the qualifying pair, C. F. Inches and H. H. McLean, Jr., are from that club.

The Ring

"A Black Diamond." Since the death of Joe "Gans" sporting writers have had many fine things to say about the little colored "sport," who at one time held the lightweight boxing championship of the world. Many, whose opportunity of knowing was unquestionable, pronounced Gans to have been the best pugilist for his inches and pounds that ever stood in a ring; and in addition to the praise they attribute to him qualities of which men in other and higher walks of life would have reason to be proud.

It is said to have been honest and fair, and above all, modest, a quality not common among men of his race who have achieved distinction, and especially distinction in the field of sports. Perhaps the neatest bit of praise, offered to the

SEEING IS BELIEVING; ANOTHER ONE OF THOSE "HAZEN BRIDGES"

Speaking of the condition of the roads and bridges of New Brunswick under the Haslem government, the photograph above shows a bridge situated on the Woodstock road three miles from Fredericton, sometimes called the Springhill road. As is to be seen in the picture, part of the railing of the bridge has been torn off and placed on end in the hole in the road, in order, presumably, to warn drivers and pedestrians against their danger. But, as one correspondent writes, "If you escape the hole your horse would have no trouble going over the side bridge for want of a rail."

"This bridge," says another correspondent, "has been in this condition for the last month. It cannot be claimed that the condition was not known by the government, as both the premier and the surveyor-general passed over this road last week." Another correspondent writes in regard to the bridge in question:

"I pass the spot referred to every day on my way to and from the city. What you have heard about this bridge from another source is absolutely correct."

He adds:

"Being somewhat interested in good roads for New Brunswick, and having noticed your very consistent efforts of late relative to same, I write you concerning the Springhill road bridge. I have traveled over nearly every highway road in New Brunswick by automobile, and can honestly state that there is nothing worse anywhere at the present time than the five miles from Ryan's bridge to Springhill. This highway is undoubtedly used more than any other approach to Fredericton. The hole in the bridge has been there for some time, and there is quite a very sharp turn in the road, so that it would be absolutely impossible for two teams or automobiles to pass at this point without danger."

"If you are to have further evidence of the actual condition of the road referred to over a long distance, please write along your representative and I will give him a ride that he will remember for the rest of his natural life."

More Questions.

To the Editor of The Telegraph:
Sir,—In the Standard of Aug. 16, in an editorial on the Highway Act, the statement is made that the roads have not been in such good condition for many years past; that the improvements have not been confined to the main roads, but those in the back settlements have also profited, greatly, by the operation of the Highway Act. It is alleged that the only parishes in which the act is not giving satisfaction are those whose councillors are opponents of the government, and being desirous of discrediting it in the eyes of the electors, and not properly discharging the duties which the law imposes on them.

The government appoints a man in each parish called the secretary-treasurer, who handles all the road money and disbursements, etc. Would the Standard kindly give the names of those parishes where the councillors have been acting as it states?

Yours, etc.,
ELECTOR.

AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

THE LARK

Only this evening remains in which to see "The Lark," her singing and dancing pianissimo, the "Lark," and this is claimed to be the last attraction of its kind in this popular theatre. Again last evening this clever troupe upheld their reputation as being without an equal in their field of dancing, and the applause following their entertainment was deafening. The picture programme was found to be among the best.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, Eva Wescott and Don Conroy are to head the bill presenting a sensational society drama playlet, "The Butterfly Wife." Miss Wescott will be remembered by many as the girl who made her debut in vaudeville at the Palace Theatre, London, a few months ago, and who secured a tremendous hit there and at other places where she has performed on the vaudeville stage. Mr. Conroy is a well known and popular singer, and for the last half of the week Edw. Waldman and company, quick change artists, with a clever act will be seen.

ROAD TOO BAD EVEN FOR POST TO PRAISE

The Sackville Post is a thick and its supporters of the Haslem government, but it cannot stand for the condition of some portions of the roads. In yesterday's issue it says—

"We have heard considerable complaint lately about the condition of the main road between Sackville and Fredericton, and recently the writer made a trip of inspection. We found the road excellent in some places, but in others it was a real rough in places. However, the most noticeable defect nearly all through the woods may be found in the way in which the road has been narrowed up from year to year until now it is difficult in places for two teams to pass. The stones should be removed from each side of the road and the road itself widened out."

COMMISSIONER'S WORK HERE IS ENDED

The sessions of the technical commission in St. John were brought to a close last evening. The enquiry was, it is felt, a complete success and its results will be beneficial. The sessions were resumed at 3 o'clock and the following were heard: Geo. A. Horton, assessors; George H. Maxwell, printer; Samuel Kerr, of Kerr's Business College; Mrs. David McLean, of the Women's Council; R. B. Emery, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.; Dr. G. U. Hay, Hedley V. Bridges, instructor in manual training; W. F. Hatheway, M. P.; Dr. Bridges, chief superintendent of city schools; William McGowan, clerk; Edward E. Evans, townships; William Anyon, mill maker; Robert McKinney, president of the Stephenson Union; Charles Jones, Major Gordon, wire mill manufacturer; E. S. Stevenson, machinist; F. Hyatt, longshoreman.

Mr. Mooney & Sons have awarded the Weldon lot school contract. The figures are: masonry, $1,000; carpenter work, $2,194; steel beams, fire escapes, galvanized iron, steeled ceilings, John E. Wilson, $8,115; steam heating and wiring, J. H. Doody, $3,874; painting, J. H. Pullen, $1,460.

ORDERS OF MR. CARLETON WERE DISREGARDED

Paving Inquiry Brings Out Some Interesting Matters in Connection With Work

At the investigation into the paving matter which was continued yesterday afternoon, employees associated with the Haslem government were present. One of them, E. F. Garvey, an engineer for the company, admitted that he had refused to obey Inspector Carleton when told to take up the concrete along the railway track. He had told the inspector that the latter was not authorized.

George Clark, who was employed in connection with leveling the stone used, said that he was ordered by Mr. Carleton to have the stone rolled, but stopped when instructed by his father, and Mr. Lov. The deputy engineer was on the ground when the order to stop was given. Mr. Carleton was on the ground when the rolling commenced.

Mr. Carleton reiterated what he had said before that he gave no orders for that rolling. "I gave no orders for that stone to be rolled, but stopped when instructed by his father, and Mr. Lov. The deputy engineer was on the ground when the order to stop was given. Mr. Carleton was on the ground when the rolling commenced."

Albert Clarke, another employee with the Haslem Company said that he had been ordered by Mr. Carleton to remove the stone, but had removed it and was considered the ground hard enough. The reason he told his son to stop the rolling, was because he believed it tended to level the concrete bed. He was not familiar with the Haslem method.

IS McLEOD TO HAVE OFFICE IN RAILWAY COMPANY?

(Fredericton Mail)

Work on the spur line of railway from Millville to the St. John River will probably be commenced next week. It is understood that the company on the strength of a promise made by the Haas government, has been guaranteed the bonds would be enacted next session have been able to make the necessary financial arrangements to carry on the construction work. Solicitor General McLeod takes credit to himself for having put the company on its feet. He backed up at first against the proposition, but now it is said he is to be a director and vice president of the company.

MELBA CONCERT PRICES

Prospective Melba patrons, quite naturally, expect to pay more than an ordinary figure to be present at an event of such pre-eminence and interest, and to hear the singer who, metaphorically speaking, has been the world's queen. If one takes the trouble to figure it out, one readily finds that in proportion to the cost of production, entertainment, the prices of the Melba concert are actually lower than those which apply to the popular picture house. Many pictures will always be with us, but Melba, only for one night, and never again, the great event marking a red letter date in local entertainment history.

ORIENTAL FLEA CIRCUIS

Feature of the Midway at Dominion Fair

Mr. Spencer promises many interesting features on the Midway of the Dominion Fair, prominent among them being the Oriental Flea Circus, which has been the feature attraction all summer on Hammerstein's New York Wood Garden. These flea, forty in number, perform many feats, including walking, climbing tight rope, juggling, riding bicycle, hauling miniature coaches, and other things too numerous to mention. The amount of money necessary to provide this attraction for fair patrons, Mr. Spencer asserts, to be entirely out of proportion to the size of the performers. He moreover claims it to be the greatest novelty in the world today.

BAY SHORE HAS SUIT CASE MYSTERY

A "suitcase mystery" is baffling the Bay Shore police, and until the disappearance of a stolen value can be accounted for, little progress can be made in the case against four boys, Edward and James Keleher, Gordon Kay and Edward Curran, who are charged with the theft. The former two were arrested by policeman Wm. Amos yesterday on suspicion of having taken the suitcase, the property of Mrs. Wm. Bogle, and containing articles to the value of about $20. The Keleher lads were summoned to court this morning.

Kay, who was found hiding beneath a haystack, admitted having taken the suitcase, and said he left it in the woods, but on returning for it, found it gone. The other three lads, it is said, were with him when he took the value on Saturday afternoon last. Effort is to be made to recover the suitcase, and in the meantime the lads were remanded.

POLICEMAN CLEAR IN GAYNOR MATTER

New York, Aug. 20.—The "plot" against Mayor Gaynor's life involving Policeman Joseph P. Hook, blew up yesterday afternoon, when, after a hearing, the case was practically dismissed by Deputy Police Commissioner Walsh for lack of evidence.

Hook was charged by two small girls with being intoxicated the night before the mayor was shot and with remarking vindictively that the mayor would "get his," either on his departure for Europe or on his return. Neither of the girls could identify Hook as the man with whom they said they had talked.

DASH FOR LIBERTY FROM COURT ROOM

Wm. London's Flight Ended in Fall on Sidewalk and He Was Taken Back to Court

The warmth-giving rays of the summer's sun, and the freedom of the pure open air, appealed strongly this morning to William London in the police court; and, the love of liberty being firm within him, he decided that he would rather be "on the outside, looking in, than on the inside looking out." With determined step he hastened from the court room and bounded down the stairs. But when he reached the sidewalk he landed sprawling on his face. He had been pursued by Sgt. Hastings and Policeman Higgins and was brought back to court and assigned to a seat on the mourner's bench.

A peculiar phase of the case is that London had been allowed out this morning on a deposit of $8 on a charge of drunkenness, and had returned about an hour later to try to redeem part of his money. On account of his condition Judge Ritchie ordered him remanded, but when he realized what was in store for him he attempted to escape.

IMPROVEMENT MADE IN CANTERBURY STREET

Exposure by Times-Star Has Brought Some Result There and in Other Streets

As a result of the exposure, in the Times-Star, of the slipshod manner of macadamising the portion of Canterbury street between Princess and Duke streets, men were sent to the place and the street roller was taken back, and the surface was made more smooth. It was, of course, impossible to do anything with the tar mixture that had run into the gutter, especially the portion that ran down into the catch basin, but considerable improvement has been made in the condition of the street.

Since the Times-Star exposed the half-finished job in Ward street, some further improvement has been made there.

Also some of the holes in Germain street have been filled up, although a new one has been opened.

The suggestion is made by a citizen that the journal detail a member of its staff to keep constantly on the trail of the city department, and thus ensure better work all along the line. The task is perhaps too great for one man, but if the aldermen would co-operate the thing might be done.

POLICE COURT TODAY

Trouble between Michael Walsh and Michael Clunan, which has been going on for some time, through a dispute over a few articles of kitchen use, ended this morning in Walsh, who is sixty-five years of age, paying a fine of $20 or two months in jail, on a charge of assaulting Clunan yesterday.

Thos. McNulty was remanded on a charge of drunkenness, and using obscene language, and Patrick McLean, on a charge of drunkenness. Henry Rogers was remanded on a charge of breaking the lock of a door of a house in Chesley street. He claimed that he had been given charge of the place, but it was held otherwise.

The case against J. Everett Waters, druggist of Charlottetown, charged with the illegal sale of liquor, was going on at the time of going to press.

Have You Ever Examined The Sectional Top of THE GLENWOOD RANGE

The sectional top of the Glenwood is a feature that is worth your while to consider when you are buying a range. The top of the Glenwood Range is built in sections and are made so that they are all inter-changeable and can be so shifted that you can move your wash boiler to the back of the range and have the front covers for cooking. This is a feature that is worth considering. Then the oven slide is so arranged that it will not pull out and leave your pies, etc. drop to the floor or in the bottom of the oven, but by lifting it up slightly it can be taken out. The oven door shelf sliding when oven door is opened, is another feature that adds to the worth of a Glenwood Range. These are a few of the qualifications of Glenwood Ranges. Come in and we will show you others.
