Great Convention Down to Business in Ottawa This Morning—A Feature is Eloquent Tribute Paid by Sir Alan Aylsworth in Resolution on Life and Death of Sir Wilfrid Laurier—Speech by Hon. Mr. Murray

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 5.—The 1,500 Liberals from all over Canada who met in convention in Ottawa today were re-minded that time flies rapidly. It is more than a quarter of a century since the last great Liberal convention of 1893, and much change in thought and leadership has taken place in that time.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific the leaders of Liberalism have been gathering for the last week, and when the convention opened at 10.30 this morning at Howick Pavilion, the largest auditorium in Ottawa, the crowd of men and women delegates were on hand early, full of anticipation and full of expectation also, because there never was a political convention which opened with less of the "cut and dried" aspect about it.

For the last two days, as one of the chief candidates for the leadership remarked to your correspondent this morning, the gossip has changed almost every hour. There are so many "dark horses" in the running that all the prophets have given up in despair.

The convention opened with the national anthem and O Canada. Premiers Murray of Nova Scotia and Gouin of Quebec were chosen joint chairmen, as were senior provincial premiers. D. C. Ross, M. P., and Lucien Pascard, M. P., were chosen as assistant secretaries of the convention and all party councillors, senators, members, provincial premiers and the leader of the opposition in Ontario, Harry Donner, were invited to the platform.

After the joint chairmen had addressed the convention briefly, Mayor Fisher gave an address of welcome. Sir Alan Aylsworth, visibly affected by the duty he had to perform, then moved the following resolution:

Solely and mournfully the members of this national convention of the Liberal party of Canada record their sense of the irreparable loss the country has suffered in the death of the Right Honourable Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

During more than forty-five years he was continuously prominent as a member of the Canadian parliament. For nearly thirty-two years he was an outstanding figure among the members of the Liberal party in this country.

Through all his life his chief aim and object was to bring into better accord and greater harmony with each other the two principal races of this country that all might be of French or of British descent.

Pure of heart, unswerving in character, devoted always to the highest ideals, he led, as he governed, wisely and well. Great in success, he was perhaps even greater in adversity.

He was indeed our country's best and greatest—in all things a chevron peer of our greatest men. He was in French, second the resolution in one of those eloquent tributes at which he is undisputed master.

LLOYD GEORGE TO OFFER THANKS OF THE EMPIRE

Resolutions Praising Navy, Army, Air Force and All

HEROISM OF NOBLE DEAD

Premier in House Tomorrow to Present Resolutions—Special One Pays Tribute to Fecht—Grants Proposed in Message From King

London, Aug. 5.—Premier Lloyd George will move in the House of Commons on Wednesday resolutions of thanks to the navy, army, the air force, the dominions, India, and all contributors to victory and to the dead heroes.

"That the thanks of this House be given the officers, petty officers and men of the navy and royal marines for the sleepless watch over seas and the courage, resource and devotion with which, during four years of constant peril, they maintained the blockade of the enemy's coast, convoyed armies from most distant lands, and defended the commerce of the civilized world against the craft and subtlety of a ruthless foe."

The resolution to the officers and men of the army expresses thanks "for the matchless valor and endurance with which, amid circumstances of unexampled hardship, they sustained the shock of war in many climes; for the good humor, clemency and patience of their bearing and the undaunted spirit which carried them through four years of strenuous toil to a complete, splendid victory."

Similar brief resolutions thank the air force and the colonial and Indian forces and the women of the medical and other auxiliary services for "devotion and duties faithfully and bravely discharged," and the merchant marine "for the fearless seamanship, with which our people were preserved from want and our cause from disaster."

Another resolution provides "that this House doth acknowledge with deep submission and reverence the heroism of those who have fallen in the service of their country and tenders its sympathy to their relatives in the hour of their sorrow and their pride."

The Premier will also move a resolution which reads: "That this House doth acknowledge with deep submission and reverence the heroism of those who have fallen in the service of their country and tenders its sympathy to their relatives in the hour of their sorrow and their pride."

The proposals for grants to victorious leaders of the British armies will be presented by the Premier today in the form of a message from the King.

The following is the text of the resolution to be moved by Premier Lloyd George in thanks to the overseas troops:

ARMED AND NEAR HOME OF CLEMENCEAU IN PARIS, TWO MEN ARE ARRESTED

Paris, Aug. 5.—Two laborers, one of whom had two revolvers and the other a large knife, were arrested yesterday near the residence of Premier Clemenceau by detectives, who said their manner excited suspicion.

As they were being taken to the police station, a detective said, the men offered money for their release. They gave their names as Ernest Vallee and Alexander Honnard. They said they had an engagement with friends and relatives at a cafe in the street where M. Clemenceau resides.

SENATOR FOWLER SPEAKS OF PROHIBITION LEGISLATION

Senator George W. Fowler came to the city at noon today from Sussex. Asked with regard to the recent action of the senate on the prohibition measure, he defended what had been done, saying, however, that he was not opposed to prohibition, but certainly was against government by order-in-council, now that the war had ended.

The order-in-council of the government would continue prohibition in force for one year after the ratification of peace, but this had been killed by the senate amendment to restrict the bill for the war-time period.

LOW MAN OUT AFTER THE FOURTH BALLOT IS TAKEN

"Like the good people of Israel?" Mr. McKenna asked. "What do you mean by that?"

Mr. Murray, the chairman, said there were many matters on which the convention would agree. There were some on which delegates might not agree.

MAY TIE UP THE RAILROADS IN THE UNITED STATES

Chicago, Aug. 5.—The strike of Federated Railroad Shoppers which started last Friday continued to spread today, and, according to officials of the district council directing the walkout, a complete tie-up of the railroads of the country will result in a few days unless their demands for higher wages are met at once.

While the Chicago district is the centre of the strike, reports from the northwest, southwest, southeast, Ohio, Indiana and as far west as Colorado show that the shoppers continued to join the walkout. In some instances, however, local unions voted to remain at work until the order to strike came from the officials of the grand league in the regular way.

The day's claims of further strikes as made by the district council officials were concurred in by the grand league officials. They predicted a complete tie-up of the railroads within the week, and yielded to the plea to return to work pending action by the grand league officials, who are now presenting the demands to Director-General of Railroads H. W. Hays.

Mr. H. Ashton, regional director of railroads, said that traffic thus far had not been impeded by the strike, but he expected a speedy return of the men now out.

HALT PROCESSION IN MEMORY OF SOLDIER DEAD

Suggestion in Connection With St. John Celebration

New Features for Soldier Day and Welcome to Prince—Further Plans for School Children Who Will Take Part

A suggestion which will doubtless meet with the approval of those who have in charge the arrangement of the parade for Soldier's Day was made by a citizen this morning.

His suggestion was that at some time during the parade, say at high noon, the whole procession halt; those in uniform would stand at the salute and the male civilians uncover their head for a period of one minute in veneration and respect for the memory of those who gave their all for the cause.

North End residents are planning an elaborate decoration scheme at the entrance to Riverview Park and to have a large number of school children stationed there to greet the Prince of Wales. The committee in charge is composed of J. Fraser Gregory, chairman of the park commission; Fred C. Beattie, W. H. White, John Russell, Commissioner Thornton and George E. Day.

West Side Children. There were more than 200 children present this morning at LaTour school for their first rehearsal, and the committee in charge were very pleased with the showing made.

King Square in Grafton. Commissioner Thornton has in hand the decoration of King square. A handsome arch is to be erected over the band stand and all the Charlotte street side and the side opposite the Imperial will be gaily decked.

The Ferry Traffic. The superintendent of ferries, George Waring, was in consultation with Commissioner Bullock this morning with regard to the handling of increased traffic on the Carleton ferry during the days of the celebration, and the conclusion was reached that the ferry would be able to handle all the traffic offered.

A Symbolic Pageant. Among the details of arrangements for the first welcome to the Prince at Rec'd's Point, those in charge are working on the arrangement of a scheme to have a group of young ladies, each representing a province of the dominion, dressed in distinctive costumes and carrying a shield with the arms of the province, take part in the programme at that point.

The Hospitality Committee. A joint meeting of the committees looking after the housing and the feeding of the visitors are meeting this afternoon at the rooms of the board of trade to further their plans.

A meeting of the Polymorphs was held last evening, Robert Wilkins presiding and elaborate plans were made for the big parade on August 14. Another meeting of the committee will be held this evening to further necessary arrangements.

PROPERTY TRANSFERS. The following property transfers have been recorded recently: Wm. Johnston to J. L. Jones, property in Simonds.

Estate of James Kennedy to Abraham Freedman, property in Somerset street. R. R. Smith to J. B. Jones, property in King street east.

JACK CLEMENTS PARALYZED IN ARMS AND LEGS

Dives Into Shallow Water at Campbellton And Strikes Bottom

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 5.—Sergt. Jack Clements, heavy-weight boxing champion of the Canadian Expeditionary force, was admitted to the New Brunswick Military Hospital here last night, paralyzed in both arms and both legs.

While at Campbellton bathing he dove from a considerable height into what he thought was deep water, but it was only four feet. He struck the bottom.

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 5.—Mrs. Harry E. Douglas died on July 30 in Phoenix, Arizona. She formerly won the Mabel Foreman of Stanley. She is survived by her husband and two small children; also her father, Eric Foreman, an officer in the Canadian Expeditionary force, two sisters, Mrs. Bert White of Stanley and Mrs. Harold M. Young of Fredericton.

Mrs. Priscilla Gereau, wife of Louis Gereau, died on Monday at her home in Waas, aged seventy-seven. Her husband, three sons and one daughter survive. The children are James of Fredericton Junction, Frank of Marystown, David of Waas and Mrs. Ora Smith of Moncton.

The Fredericton city council last night declined to take action on a petition of the Fredericton G. W. V. A. for legislation to abolish the police commission and return control of police matters in Fredericton to the city council.

Mayor Hanson informed the council that Chief Finley had been asked to report on the three men and reported that the police commission had since appointed a returned soldier as a probationer and the appointee was not a member of the G. W. V. A. Several aldermen expressed themselves as opposed to a return to the control of the police by the city council.

Vienna, Aug. 4.—(By the Ass's Press.)—Reports from Szegedin say that the Szegedin government does not recognize the new Hungarian government because the cabinet contains two communists.

A Budapest message says Soviet forces have been proclaimed temporarily valid. Socialist officials already have replaced communists in the state departments.

Paris, Aug. 4.—(By the Ass's Press.)—Advices reached peace conference circles today that the anti-Bolshevik government established in Szegedin, which is southerly and peasant, was first chosen at his head, has moved its troops toward Budapest and seized Szegedin, forty-five miles distant from the Hungarian capital.

Paris, Aug. 4.—(Havas)—Most of the newspapers, commenting today that the Hungarian situation expressed the belief that it would be unwise not to take every advantage of the present circumstances to establish a stable government in Hungary.

The New Government. Berlin, Aug. 4.—(By the Ass's Press.)—"The Hungarian People's Republic" is the official title of the new government at Budapest. This was announced at Vienna by members of the Hungarian government after a conference with Allied representatives here.

A programme of policies agreed upon at the conference was given out by Dr. Peter Agoston, new Hungarian minister of foreign affairs. He announced that the Budapest government would change from the Soviet system to the Social Democracy. The new government, he said, guaranteed the Allies that a new constitution would be created, a constitutional legislature elected, industries already socialized will remain in public service until the legislature meets and laws and acts of the Soviet will be kept in force until changed by the new legislature.

It was announced that complete amnesty for all offenders pursued under the Soviet law has been granted.

Paris, Aug. 4.—(Havas)—Lieut. Colonel Romanelli head of the Italian military mission says the new Hungarian government absolutely intends to carry out as quickly as possible the conditions of the armistice. He asks that the Allies send a mission to support the Hungarian government.

"YE MARINERS OF ENGLAND."

In the House of Commons tomorrow Lloyd George will place upon the records resolutions expressing the gratitude of the House and the nation to the men of the Royal Navy, of the Army, of the forces of the Overseas Dominions of His Majesty, to the merchant mariners, and to the women of the medical and other auxiliary forces, for their matchless services in the great war.

AT OTTAWA

Very important political history is in the making at Ottawa now. Canada's intense interest in the Liberal congress is by no means wholly partisan.

"That the thanks of this House be given the officers, petty officers and men of the Navy and the Royal Marines for their sleepless watch over the seas, and the courage, resource and devotion with which, during four years of constant peril, they maintained the blockade of the enemy's coast, convoyed armies from most distant lands, and defended the commerce of the civilized world against the craft and subtlety of a ruthless foe."

In speaking of the officers and men of the army the House resolution gives thanks "for the matchless valor and endurance with which, amid circumstances of unexampled hardship, they sustained the shock of war in many climes; for the good humor, clemency and patience of their bearing, and the undaunted spirit which carried them through four years of strenuous toil to a complete and splendid victory."

The resolutions themselves recall the many-sided character of the war, the unparalleled nature of the fighting, the inventions which added new forms of danger to all of the old dangers of war on land and sea.

The spirit with which the British race met the greatest test to which the endurance, the courage and the moral fibre of any nation were ever subjected surely justifies the moving character of these resolutions. That spirit recalls the blithe and resolute front of those old mariners of Ulysses.

"That ever with a frolic welcome took The thunder and the sunshine." In the black days of the conflict—and they were many—it was often said, with set teeth, that at long last the British would pull down the Kaiser and his nation even as of old they pulled down Napoleon. Today it is done.

THE OLD DEVICE

Speaking of the Premier of Ontario, the Toronto Globe says: "Sir William Hearst has started to save The Old Flag. This is a sign of listlessness."

It is, now, Sir William Hearst is not a sounder; but his recourse to the flag-waving process in attempting to defend himself and his colleagues is bound to recall old Dr. Johnson's epigram: "Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel."

Whenever the Conservative party has found itself in a corner, in federal or provincial politics, its habit has been to declare that the electors should consider its services for the flag and the Empire and the safety of Canada, instead of allowing their thoughts to dwell upon the weakness of Conservative rule.

Canada and the Empire is the Conservative long suit. They do it, of course, mainly at election time. During the intervals between elections they do not work so industriously at the business.

deception and double dealing and disregard for the common decency, made the situation exceedingly plain to an aroused electorate. When the flag-waving process is again begun in this province for political purposes, the people will see the flag upon the school house wall—to recall Mr. Fielding's saying—but they will not forget the dirt it is intended to conceal.

It may not be doubted that the present great meeting marks a most important stage in the history of the Liberal party. There is some danger from lack of unity, as always is the case after a period of coalition government, but that danger will pass. More to be feared is a tendency to listen to reactionary counsel, to give ear to the political "trimmers," to make the same mistake made after 1898 when the Liberal party got into power, and, failed to live wholly up to the platform laid down in Ottawa twenty-six years ago.

Tomorrow's work and that of the day following at Ottawa will be scanned eagerly by good Canadians in all of the nine provinces. The opportunity before the Liberal party is magnificent. If the men now in council measure up to the duty before them we shall have another Liberal administration in Canada before a great deal more water has gone down stream.

The Women's Canadian Club, by its advocacy of the establishment of a juvenile court in St. John, gives welcome aid to a good cause. The Local Council of Women will no doubt accede to the request of the Canadian Club ladies and lend support to the project.

Since Mrs. Charles Barker of Omaha, forty years old, was ill last August she has grown two inches. She now requires a No. 8 shoe, where formerly she wore a No. 5. Mrs. Barker has had fourteen upper teeth in a third set and a third set of lowers are beginning to appear.

Many bootleggers have been arrested in prohibition communities, but the police of Honesdale, Penn., have just arrested the first stocking-stealer—Clara Hobson, who was caught selling liquor on the sly to passers by, and who was found to have twelve half-pints tucked away in her stockings.

Those taking part on the programme were Mrs. Turner, Miss Gibson, the Misses Boyce, S. Murdoch, Mrs. Collins, C. Girvan and Dudley Robilliard. The committee in charge of the affair were M. E. Grass, W. A. Simonds, H. Turner, H. E. Collins, Rev. C. W. Follet, G. Robertson, O. Gibson, C. H. Brock, R. F. Wright, Mrs. Simonds and Mrs. Dudley Robilliard.

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

This preparation has been on the market for the past 74 years, and its reputation has become such that there have been many so-called strawberry compounds manufactured, and these have been in many cases represented to be just as good as "Dr. Fowler's." THE GRAVES OF FRANCE

I saw the silent graves of France Lie tangled in the night, They seemed as though they were asleep With stars for candle-light.

I thought of all the mourning hearts— The sorrow and the loss, The bright moon painted on each grave The shadow of a cross.

I saw again the graves of France Clear in the morning light, Gone were the shadow crosses then, That lay there in the night.

For flowers bloomed on every side, The leaves stirred, just to make A murmuring, crooning lullaby, Till time should come to wake.

So lay those dear brave lads, in France, To them the glory and the prize Of each white lowly cross.

—Myrtle Corcoran Watts in Toronto Globe.

LIGHTER VEIN

"Discharge that press agent immediately!" thundered the theatrical manager.

"But," protested the financial backer, "he has gotten some wonderful publicity."

"That's the point. If the actors read all he has written they will become so impressed with themselves that there will be no hope of meeting salary demands."—Washington Star.

Popular Mechanics.

Scientific Parent (on a stroll)—You see out there the street, my son, a simple illustration of a principle of mechanics. The man with that cart pushes it in front of him. Can you guess the reason why? Probably not. I will ask him. Note his answer, my son. (To the Coster): My good man, why do you push that cart instead of pulling it? Coster—"Cause I ain't a hoss, you old thickhead."—London Blythly.

Outside First, However.

"There are two sides to every question," remarked the ready-made palimpsest.

"There's two sides to a hickory nut," rejoined Farmer Corntassel; "an outside and an inside, but only one of 'em is worth payin' any attention to."—Washington Star.

MAY GIVE PRINCE A RIVER TRIP

Among the matters coming before a meeting of the executive arranging for the celebration in honor of the Prince of Wales yesterday was a suggestion that should be taken for a trip up river to see the tree planted at Harding's Point by his grandfather, Edward VII.

J. C. Chesley, local agent of the Marine Department, suggested a sail on the river for the prince. It was claimed that the prince's programme to a very marked extent was pre-arranged before he came here.

Mr. Chesley said that he was informed by letter that the prince was to spend all night at St. John and with this information to hand, the prospects for a short sail on the river brightened.

Mr. Chesley offered to supply a steamer for the occasion, and said that he would guarantee 200 fully decorated boats to go along on the cruise. He added that it might be possible to have the prince board the steamer at Rothesay, sail down to the mouth of the Kennebecasis then up the St. John river as far as Harding's Point where the prince would be shown the historic tree planted by his late grandfather, as Prince of Wales, on his memorable visit to St. John fifty-nine years ago.

This suggestion was heartily greeted by the committee and Mr. Chesley was appointed to see Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley and take the matter up. The prince could be landed at Indiantown on his return.

At a meeting of the G. W. V. A. last evening the president, N. P. McLeod, announced that it was hoped to have as many men turn out as possible on the day of the prince's visit. They would arrive about 10.30 at the Barack square. About 100 of the men who had served with the 26th were wanted to form a guard of honor to receive the colors of the unit to be presented by his royal highness and it was asked that volunteers for this should give their names to Capt. R. A. Major at the armory, Main 70.

SYDNEY VETERANS CELEBRATE BRITAIN'S WAR ANNIVERSARY

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 5.—The Great War Veterans Association celebration at Sydney Mines yesterday, the anniversary of Britain's entry into the war, was a pronounced success. A civic holiday was proclaimed and the town was thronged with visitors. The day opened with a parade in which the societies of the town joined with the veterans. Horse races and a baseball game were other features.

SAYS HE IS NOT TO BE NEW AMBASSADOR.

London, Aug. 5.—Lord Lytton, who was mentioned in Sunday's newspapers as a possibility for the post of British ambassador to the United States, yesterday said: "There is nothing in it. I know nothing about it beyond what I have seen in the newspapers."

A SURPRISE PARTY.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Speedy, 222 Duke street, on Aug. 4, when about fifty of their friends and relations tendered them a surprise party. Mr. and Mrs. Speedy were made recipients of an electric parlor lamp. The presentation was made by Charles Thompson and Mr. Speedy expressed the thanks of himself and his wife in a few appropriate words. Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing, dancing and games.

GROCERY MARKET

The following comment on the market situation as regards foodstuffs appeared in Canadian Grocer last week:

Where changes are noted in the general list of grocery commodities this week, in almost every instance the change is towards higher quotations. The markets are very strong and a growing scarcity of some lines is increasing prices very high. Rice is up against and rolled oats and cornmeal show advances. Sugar is in very heavy demand, and wholesalers are experiencing difficulty in securing supplies.

Advances for the week in grocery markets apply to various feeds. Bran and shorts are on a decidedly nominal

LOCAL VETERANS MAKE REQUEST FOR BONUS

No prices have as yet been named on California raisins of the new crop, but indications point to higher figures. In the produce lines the feature of the week has been the decline in cheese to 25 cents per pound (G.A.). Montreal, Butter is firm. Eggs are higher, and the demand is being partly met by American eggs. Live hogs continue at record figures, and pork and all pork products are very strong. Winnipeg. New prices on dried fruits named by association are higher than previously named prices by independents. Trade is much disappointed. Rice becoming very scarce and prices are higher. ## WHITE BOOK ON GERMANY'S FALL

Documents Published at Weimar Cover Period Just Before Armistice—Gave Up Hope on Aug. 14

Berlin, July 31.—(Associated Press)—A "White Book" was published at Weimar today containing all the German documents relating to the period from Aug. 18 to Nov. 11 last, dealing with the peace offer of the German government and the armistice.

In a preface, the government says that it decided upon the publication of the documents because the people want to know the truth.

One of the most important subjects dealt with by the White Book is the conference in which Emperor William took part at Spa on Aug. 14, 1918, at which it was decided that General Ludendorff's declaration that the war could be won was wrong, and that an understanding between Germany and the enemy must be reached.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg and Dr. Michaelis, the imperial chancellor, thought it would be possible for the Germans to remain on French territory, and thus retain a pledge for the peace negotiations the documents show.

Gave Up Hope in Neutral. The previously held belief that the attempt to start negotiations must be made through a neutral was altered by this conference. Field Marshal von Hindenburg was still opposed to a direct appeal to the enemy, while sanctioning the idea of working through a neutral power. Meanwhile, Austria had to be consulted because of the special plans she was making.

On Sept. 21, the book reveals, developed the decision to appeal directly to the United States. Admiral von Hintze, who was then foreign secretary, is quoted as replying to a question on that date as follows:

"On order of His Majesty and in agreement with the chancellors at Vienna and Constantinople, I advise that an offer of peace be made on the basis of President Wilson's Fourteen Points, and that he be invited to call a peace conference in Washington after demanding an immediate armistice. If our allies agree, the newly forming German government will find a proper way to get to President Wilson."

Telegrams on the subject were sent to Vienna and Constantinople the same day.

Army Break Was Imminent. The affair entered a new phase at that point for the army leaders, who had previously insisted upon their own strength, now demanded that the military situation be relieved instantly by peace. On October 1 several telegrams arrived from great headquarters saying that it was uncertain what might happen at the front from moment to moment and that a break was imminent.

General Ludendorff declared that the peace offer must be dispatched instant, while he had from moment to moment for forty-eight hours.

On Oct. 2 Prince Maximilian of Baden appeared before the party leaders, who had the Reichstag and opposed any action toward peace by that body because the military situation was critical and he

BITRO-PHOSPHATE BEST THING FOR THIN PEOPLE

Women Need it to Bring Pink Glow to Health to Pale Cheeks and Forestall Tall-Tale Lines of Age. Men Need it to Make Strong, Vigorous Bodies and Steady Nerves.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft, even line of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphates than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate of potassium.

It is found in St. John and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphorus, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

It is feared that such action would affect the developments unfavorably. He said he had been offered the chancellorship on Oct. 1 on condition that he would make peace immediately.

General Ludendorff on Oct. 2 asked for a summary of the proposed peace note, and telephoned his suggestions regarding it. The note to the United States was formulated at Great Headquarters on the night of Oct. 3-4.

Prince Maximilian said that he fought against the note because he considered it the time premature. He also said he thought that General Ludendorff had been affected by a case of nerves, and that the situation was not so serious as the general public believed.

DETROIT UNDER PROHIBITION. Toronto, July 31.—The following from an article in the Christian Guardian of May 24th:—"Frank B. Esler, special representative of the Outlook, has been visiting Detroit to see how prohibition works in the biggest dry city in the world. The writer says:—"I called on James Couzens, Detroit mayor, a good liver himself, tolerant well-bred with a twinkle in his eye. Formerly he was a commissioner of prohibition, and he is therefore no theorist about conditions." He said:—"I have never been a teetotaler. I voted wet, but if another election were held I would vote dry. I believe Detroit, with prohibition, has been a revelation; it has upset all the alarmist predictions of the drys, and more than sustained the rosiest predictions of the wets. I am in favor of prohibition for Detroit because it has made us a better town, and I believe the public as a whole is impressed with its benefits. The personal liberty argument does not appeal to me. The question is, will it bring the greatest good to the greatest number? Here in Detroit it has done that unquestionably. Petty crime has been reduced sixty to seventy per cent. Child welfare has received an impetus which millions of dollars in appropriations could not have affected. Collections are better, merchants report greater business from the working classes and the banks show a greater increase in deposits. There has been no increase in the number of drug addicts. There has been boot-legging to be sure, but Detroit is the largest dry city in the world, and we have no more smuggling than we expected."

The superintendent of police said:—"This is my answer: Only half past five and a Saturday, pay day, and me getting ready to go home; in the booze days we used to be always here until after midnight often all night; what with marauding, cutting, scampes, shootings, gambling rows, family quarrels, women screaming, beaten up men, we were as busy here as a department store on a Christmas Eve. Let me tell you that Detroit, boot-legging or not, is a better city to live in."

INDIAN MISSION. Sydney, N. S., Aug. 5.—The annual Indian mission was held as usual at Chapel Island, C. B., on Sunday. For a week before the Indians from all over the province had been gathering at the island and had been getting married and having small disputes settled by the chief.

AMERICAN DEBT TO BRITAIN

Tribute of Boston Man is Being Given Wide Circulation

(Toronto Mail and Empire). "Our Debt to Great Britain" is the title of a pamphlet by Paul Reveré Frothingham, and being widely circulated, we believe, by the Y. M. C. A. under the authority of the United States department of war. It was first delivered as a speech on the occasion of the "Britain's Day," observed in more than a thousand cities and towns, and is now published by the Beacon Press of Boston. Some objection has been made to the pamphlet by the hyperstates, which one can well understand, for such a handsome, eloquent and thoroughgoing appreciation of Britain can hardly be pleasant reading to those who hope to keep alive the differences between the English-speaking nations.

Mr. Frothingham is a hundred per cent American as one might judge from the Paul Reveré part of his name. He was born in the shadow of Bunker Hill, but, like all true Americans, he recalls this historic battle without ill-will, and salutes the brave British soldiers who fell there just as Britain has saluted the Minute Men and cherishes the memory of George Washington.

Tried to Preserve Peace. In reviewing the debt which the United States owes Great Britain, Mr. Frothingham begins with the summer months of 1914, when the Balkan war cloud was lowering. At that time, as he points out, neither Italy nor France was particularly active in trying to avert the threatened storm. This can be said in no fault-finding spirit, for both these countries were tied by alliances which limited their action. Britain, however, was free, and we think that history will say that Sir Edward Grey did more than any living man to avoid the European war, and would have given his life to prevent it. Looking back over the last five years, the whole civilized world, as well as the United States, must surely honor Lord Grey for his efforts in those days following the assassination at Sarajevo. The United States can say that her ally, Great Britain, was ready to sacrifice anything but honor in order that the conflict might be turned aside.

Another debt was incurred when Britain spared the German bribe, and when she once more told the world that her word spoken or written was her bond and that she took her stand by Belgium.

Made Moral Issue Clear. More than the attitude of any other country, it was that of Britain which made clear the moral issues at stake. She immediately lifted the struggle above the clouds of Russian plotting, and the desire of the French for revenge for the humiliation of 1871. Though she was immediately to be involved in the death grapple, the world could not forget that she entered it as might a passerby who rushed to the rescue of a small child being beaten by a bully. It was upon the moral law and international integrity that Britain took her stand. It was because of this position that she was able to raise her magnificent volunteer army, and though, toward the end, she found it necessary to introduce compulsion, yet her voluntary effort far surpasses anything that has ever been done in the world before, just as the voluntary effort of Canada surpasses all similar achievements on this continent.

The writer believes that the United States also owes a debt for the calm forbearance of Great Britain in those years when this country remained aloof, and even on some occasions hampered Britain by her protests against the blockade. Whatever might have been thought, little or nothing was said, and if there and there an Englishman rose to protest against the American attitude, another Englishman would immediately defend it.

Increases Your Weight, Restores Lost Strength, Prevents Illness

Every day come new converts to that great army of men and women who rejoice in new-found health that came to them through the use of that wonderful blood-renewing preparation called "FERROZONE." Very simple how it acts. All you have to do is take two small chocolate-coated tablets with a sip of water at the close of each meal.

Ferrozone is a marvel. It contains just what this blood lacks—lots of iron, but mark you, the kind of iron your blood is able to absorb. Ferrozone puts life and vim into the blood. Makes it rich, red and nourishing. Naturally the body is better fed and grows stronger day by day.

Of course digestion must be improved, and probably the stomach will require aid as well. Ferrozone serves the purpose admirably. Those who use it enjoy appetite and digestive powers far beyond the ordinary. The tired feeling is replaced by the buoyant joyous sensation of health and vigor. Day by day as your strength increases, you need no energy-surgings through your veins, and know that a great tonic of great merit is at work.

No remedy more nourishing or uplifting, for it supplies more nutrition than you can get in any other way. 50c. per box or six for $2.50 at all dealers, or by mail from The Catarrhose Co., Kingston, Ont.

get that she entered it as might a passerby who rushed to the rescue of a small child being beaten by a bully. It was upon the moral law and international integrity that Britain took her stand. It was because of this position that she was able to raise her magnificent volunteer army, and though, toward the end, she found it necessary to introduce compulsion, yet her voluntary effort far surpasses anything that has ever been done in the world before, just as the voluntary effort of Canada surpasses all similar achievements on this continent.

The writer believes that the United States also owes a debt for the calm forbearance of Great Britain in those years when this country remained aloof, and even on some occasions hampered Britain by her protests against the blockade. Whatever might have been thought, little or nothing was said, and if there and there an Englishman rose to protest against the American attitude, another Englishman would immediately defend it.

The Navy and the Merchantmen. Fitting acknowledgment is made of the work of the British navy, without which, as everybody agrees, the United States would not have been able to land a soldier in France, which stood as a bulwark to America as well as to Europe, and which cast the die that the United States should fight Germany at her own door and not on American soil. Mr. Frothingham believes that the debt to the merchant marine is just as great as the debt to the navy, and throughout the war did a British sailor refuse to go aboard his ship for fear of the submarine.

The Seal of Greatness. Of this band of heroes Captain Charles Fryatt stands as leader, one of the nation's martyrs, whose name, we believe, will be as long remembered as the name of Benby.

The Seal of Greatness. The writer speaks then of the million British graves in various parts of the world that mark the resting places of men who died, not for England alone, but for all the Allies, and for civilization. If there had been no million British graves there might have been a million American graves, for every English life laid down in the war against Germany saved an American life. Similarly the work of the women of England was a work done for America and the rest of the world, and there is no finer chapter in the war's history. Mr. Frothingham believes that Britain set the seal upon her greatness when she declared her readiness in the hour of victory to enter a league of nations with the United States. At the time of writing he could hardly know, or even dream, that the chief opposition to the league should come from the United States and that Great Britain would be the first of the Allied powers to sign the treaty and the covenant. However, that is not Britain's responsibility. She has done her part, and more than her part, and has done it modestly, leaving it for others like Mr. Frothingham to speak about it and to impress upon the United States the fact there is one debt that no trade balance will ever be able to settle or gold export to repay.

TIE THEMSELVES TOGETHER AND JUMP INTO SEA. Seoul, Korea, July 7.—(Correspondence)—An extraordinary attempt of eleven Koreans to commit suicide by tying themselves together with a rope, and then jumping overboard, is reported from the treaty port of Chemulpo, about twenty miles southwest of Seoul. The incident occurred on a ferry-boat running between Chemulpo and a nearby island. The boat was stopped until the men were picked up, but three were dead. The act is believed to have been inspired by Buddhist superstitions.

THE CLAN GORDON CAPSIZED AT SEA

British Freighter 3,600-Ton Ship of Clan Line, Sank Off Cape Hatteras — Was Proceeding Slowly in Smooth Sea

While in a comparatively calm sea the 3,600-ton British freighter Clan Gordon capsized on last Wednesday afternoon when 140 miles off Cape Hatteras. Her sinking might have furnished another sea mystery like the disappearance of the United States collier Cyclops except that she sank within sight of the United Fruit Company's steamship Abangarez, which arrived in time to rescue the Clan Gordon crew. Four men lost their lives—a wireless operator, whose name is said to have been J. Nixon, and three Chinese members of the crew. The survivors were taken to New York, but the reason for the sinking of the freighter was still unexplained, for the crew would not talk of it, if they knew the cause, and Captain C. R. McLean, her commander, said he would not talk until he had reported the loss of the ship to the owners, Cayzer, Irvine & Co. of Glasgow, whose New York agents are Barber & Co. of 17 Battery Place.

The Clan Gordon, freighter of the Clan Line, left New York for Dalny, China, on the previous Monday. She carried a cargo of case oil and paraffine wax. The accident happened in plain sight of the officers and passengers on the Abangarez. Captain C. R. Glenn of the Abangarez was at a loss to account for the sudden capsizing of the British vessel. He said he noticed the Clan Gordon about half a mile away, and apparently headed for his ship. What attracted his attention was that she was listing badly to starboard. Thinking the list too acute for safety, he swung his helm about and started toward the other craft for a closer inspection. The maneuvering of the vessel attracted the attention of the passengers on board, and they came on deck, and most of them were at the rail watching when the Clan Gordon suddenly rolled over in the water.

Lifeboats were at once manned and launched. It was fortunate that the Abangarez was so near the freighter, for apparently there had been no time for them to launch a boat. The Abangarez picked up the captain and ten officers, and forty-seven crew members of the crew. The boat crew reported that when they left the Clan Gordon she was on her side, her forward port awash and the aft part about six feet out of the water.

At the office of Barber & Co. no explanation of the accident was forthcoming except a brief announcement that the vessel had capsized. An official investigation of the accident will be made, representatives of the British consul said.

The Clan Gordon was of the turret type of construction, and was built in Glasgow in 1909. She was 265 feet long and 43 feet beam. Her cargo was stowed, it was said, under the usual system of inspection and approval.

GRADUATE NURSE GAINS 22 POUNDS

Mrs. Josephine Freeman Says Tanlac Is a Perfectly Wonderful Medicine—Had Suffered Ten Years.

Mrs. Josephine Freeman of 647 Towne avenue, Los Angeles, Calif., a graduate nurse who had practiced her profession for seventeen years, recently made the remarkable statement that she has only been relieved of a case of stomach trouble of ten years standing by the use of Tanlac, but that she had also gained twenty-two pounds in weight.

When asked if she would be willing for her experience with Tanlac to be published, Mrs. Freeman said:—"Yes, indeed, I feel that I would be doing anyone suffering from stomach trouble and a rundown condition a good turn by getting them to take Tanlac. For ten years I have been having trouble with my stomach. I could not eat anything without suffering intense pain afterwards, and a times I would bloat up so with gas and such pains and pressure around my heart that I would almost faint. I became so nervous that I could hardly get any sleep or rest and for ten years I have been having trouble with my stomach. I could not eat anything without suffering intense pain afterwards, and a times I would bloat up so with gas and such pains and pressure around my heart that I would almost faint. And the amendment further asked that the dominion executive take up the matter with the parliamentary committee.

THIRD WIFE BRINGS ASSAULT CHARGE BUT IT IS DISMISSED

Carlton Case Occupies Police Court Attention - U. S. Official Perfers Assault Charge Against Man

In the police court this morning Edward Shubert was charged with assaulting his wife. The latter told the court that the matter started over a camera owned by one of the boys, and which she wished to use, but her husband would not let her. She said he hit her, pulled her hair and shook her. This was on Sunday night. She said he told her to go away and not to come back. She said they were married on June 11 last, and they live at 196 Ludlow street, West St. John.

Shubert was put on the stand. He said he was in bed about 10:30 when his wife came in and he asked her where she had been and she told him that she had been out with some friends. He said that he asked his wife not to use the camera so often, as it cost too much to keep it up. He said she then slapped his face and as he turned "was going to give me another lather" when he called on her to stop.

About another assault, Mr. Shubert said that he came home to supper on Friday night and there was a letter for him from his sister-in-law in Fredericton concerning his little girl of another marriage. He said he wanted to have the girl at home with him, but his wife said the two boys were enough and he could put the girl in a home. He said he told her he would not and, at this, she threw a cup of hot cocoa at him and she threw a pitcher, then went out in the kitchen and began breaking the dishes on the floor. Mr. Shubert said, "all I did was yell stop!"

When asked by the magistrate how long he knew this woman before he married her, he answered, "not more than twenty-four hours; she was recommended to me by another woman." He said, "I did not know my second wife much longer and she was a good woman."

The magistrate, in describing the actions of young girls in the city, said: "Last night there were 103 girls on the warpath."

Rev. W. R. Robinson said he has known Mr. Shubert for the last eleven years and that he is a most respectable citizen. He says he knew his other two wives, was at their bed-sides when they passed away, and their last words were terms of highest praise for their husband.

Henry Smith said that he was an eye-witness of the alleged assault on Friday night. He said he was called into the house by one of Mr. Shubert's boys. He said he found the kitchen in a deplorable state, dishes broken on the floor, table broken, and everything scattered around; while he was there he saw Mrs. Shubert throw a plate at Mr. Shubert, who did not attempt to defend himself, but yelled, "stop!"

Kenneth and Leonard Shubert corroborated the statements made by their father.

The case against the husband was dismissed. J. W. Tait appeared for Mr. Shubert.

Fred Isaacs, of Brussels street, was charged with assaulting Arthur Watkins, U. S. Immigration official, on August 3. The complainant said that on last Sunday morning he was leaving his house at 810 Brussels street and saw Fred Isaacs in company with Michael Mitchell coming out of an alley-way about a block away. Mitchell, he said, went into a house at the corner of Hanover and Brussels streets, and Isaacs walked toward the complainant, but hesitated and was about to go into a house. Mr. Watkins said he started to go by, but Isaacs assaulted him, struck at his eye, broke his straw hat and knocked it off.

The witness also said that Isaacs used profane language to him. He said that he looked for a policeman, but there was none in sight. The case was postponed until Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Wm. Ryan appeared for Mr. Watkins.

John Crosby was charged with stealing harness from Edward Hogan's livery stable, Union street. Mr. Hogan said that on Saturday morning he missed a set of driving harness and other articles of harness. The case was postponed until other witnesses could be summoned.

Two men charged with drunkenness were remanded.

HAYES CASE IS BEING HEARD

At the resumed sitting of the Supreme Court today, His Honor Judge Crockett presiding, the case of the King vs. Jack Hayes was again taken up. The accused is charged with assaulting Sheriff Wilson. A grand jury summoned by the Hon. W. F. Roberts as coroner, found a true bill, and the prisoner was immediately put upon his trial.

Evidence for the prosecution was given by Sheriff Wilson, Deputy Sheriff Clifford and Clarence Ferguson, clerk of the county court. The court adjourned at noon until 2:30 o'clock, but the case will not be finished this afternoon, as Daniel Stealin, K. C., who is appearing for the defendant, announced that he had a witness coming from Truro, who would not be available until tomorrow morning. Dr. W. B. Wallace is appearing for the Crown.
