AUXILIARY OBSERVES ITS TWENTY FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Interesting Papers Read Today Describing Former Conditions in the West and Telling of the Work Done There—The Election of Officers This Afternoon

The conference of the Women's Auxiliary of the diocese of Fredericton was resumed this morning. At 10 o'clock a thanksgiving service was held in St. John's stone church. Rev. J. DeWolfe Cowie opened the service with prayer. Rev. Gustav A. Kuhring was the speaker. He said that the twenty-five years ago today, and it was appropriate that thanks be offered to God in return for the great prosperity which has attended the auxiliary since its formation. Rev. Mr. Kuhring referred to the great work which has been done in western Canada and thought that it must be a source of pleasure to the ladies to know of the good performed through the Women's Auxiliary.

After the address a thank offering was taken for the pan-Canadian congress. At 10.30 the business session was resumed. Miss Edith L. B. Coster read the report of the Leaflet editor. The report stated that the leaflets in the Junior and baby departments had been distributed in about the same quantities as last year.

Mrs. G. A. Kuhring reported for the "Babies' Branch." At the close of the year 68 babies were enrolled. The Women's Auxiliary members belong to St. John. Much good has been done by this branch. Mrs. Kuhring also read the literature report. A number of new books have been published on missions which Mrs. Kuhring thought the ladies of the diocese should read.

Mrs. George F. Smith stated that the delegates were welcome to visit the library in the church of England Institute. The nomination of officers was to have taken place, but as it was one o'clock when the other business had been transacted, this section of the programme was postponed until this afternoon.

RAILWAY CLEARING HOUSE A FAILURE

Companies are Likely to Give up the Scheme They Claim That There is No Noticeable Improvement in Car Service Arrangements—System a Costly One.

CHICAGO, April 17.—After less than a three-months trial the railroads are considering a proposition to abolish the American railway clearing house which was established to facilitate the movement and distribution of freight cars and to prevent further car shortages and freight congestions. A meeting of railway presidents has been called for next Monday to determine what shall be done with the organization which was launched with great hopes of results and which some roads now declare to be a failure.

The clearing house was established late in January by Arthur Pale, who was taken from a high position with the B. and O. R. R., and given charge of the movement. Offices were opened and a number of people employed. The organization costs about $8,000 and some of the railroads assume to say it has not returned four cents a month in value.

REAL ESTATE BROKER ROBBED IN PARIS

Sydney Smith Put Money and Jewels in a Box, Which His Valet Carried off.

NEW YORK, April 15.—With the arrival of the North German Lloyd liner Kron Fritz Wilhelm, which docked last night in Hoboken, it became known that Sydney Smith, real estate broker of this city, had been robbed of $15,000 in Paris. Mr. Smith was travelling on the continent with a party of friends, and while stopping at a hotel in Paris placed $2,000 in cash and jewels valued at $15,000 in a steel box which he kept in his room. The police of Paris were notified, and they began a search for a valet who had employed for the party. The traced him to the southern part of France and were close upon him, when they found he had booked passage for New York on a slow second class steamer. Mr. Smith said that the man was now in this country.

C., April 17.—It was learned here last night that a registered package, containing $10,000, sent by the Atlantic National Bank of Wilmington to the Chemical National Bank in New York during the last few days, was not in the registered package when opened in the New York post office. Thaw's lawyers with reference to the probability of having Thaw admitted to bail. The conference will probably be held Thursday. It is known that the defendant's family, fearing the effect on Thaw's health of the confinement in prison during the long summer months, are most anxious to arrange for his temporary release, and if Mr. Jerome could be persuaded to listen to their pleadings, they are willing to give assurance that Thaw will be properly cared for and will be produced for trial.

HOLY GIRLDE ARRIVES.

Venerated Belle From Cathedral of Tortosa Brought to Madrid.

MADRID, April 16.—In accordance with custom, the Holy Girdle from the Cathedral of Tortosa, has been brought thence and placed in the oratory in the Queen's apartments in preparation for Her Majesty's accouchment. The girdle is an ancient and highly venerated relic, which is given to the Queen to kiss, it being regarded that prayer directed through the girdle is peculiarly efficacious. The Pope, who has blessed the beautiful and costly layette, made by the most skillful nuns in Rome for the use of the Royal baby, will send by Count Honorati, who will bring the robe to Cardinal Rinaldi, a handsome robe for the infant. The Queen is enjoying excellent health. She drives daily. She attended a public concert yesterday.

WESTERN CANADA IS FACING AN INDUSTRIAL CRISIS

JAMMED HIS HEAD IN A CAR DOOR

Fred L. Fuller, of Truro, Was Badly Injured But Set His Teeth, and Told the Doctors to do Their Worst—He Will Fully Recover.

TRURO, N. S., April 17.—Fred L. Fuller, manager of the Nova Scotia Government farm at Bible Hill, Truro, suffered a serious accident this morning while loading stock on cars at Truro station. There was a defect in the door of the car in which he was fastening the animals. An iron strap or stay had bent outward. He was looking up the track as an engine and other cars passed. The moving train caught the projecting iron and brought the car door to with force, jamming Mr. Fuller's head, desperately bruising one cheek and jaw against the jamb, and the door itself catching the other side of his head behind the ear, tearing it off excepting a portion by which it hung when he was extricated from the car. As soon as possible he was removed to a doctor's office and with the assistance of another the utmost attention possible to surgical science at command of the physicians, was given him. The car was re-attached by stitching and his other wounds dressed. It is probable, so quickly was the work done, that Mr. Fuller will suffer no permanent injury. He remained under the doctor's hands two hours and withstood the stitching on his ear, and other attention, without the administration of anaesthetics.

RUSSIAN COUNTESS ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Married Without Money—Her Husband Arrested for Theft, She Became Despondent.

PARIS, April 17.—The Countess de Jotemps committed suicide by shooting with a revolver in this city yesterday. The Countess was a Russian and is said to have possessed considerable beauty. She was married two years ago, against the wishes of her parents, to the Count de Jotemps. The couple were continually in financial straits. Last summer the Count was arrested on a charge of pawning certain jewels which had been sent him on approval to a Paris dealer and was held in custody for two months. Upon his release the Countess went to Russia, presumably with the object of appealing to her parents for aid. On her return to Paris she appeared most despondent and made no attempt to conceal her desperate situation. The fact that her husband, after his arrest, was ostracized by society, added greatly to her anguish, and it is believed helped to unhinge her mind.

INTEREST IN THE COMING MEETING OF KINGS

BERLIN, April 17.—King Edward's approaching meeting with King Victor Emmanuel is attracting much attention in the German press, which comments on the event as being an effort to isolate Germany and win Italy away from the triple alliance. The Cologne Gazette says public opinion in Germany sees in King Edward's course an attempt to disturb the European equilibrium, which is calculated to awake misgivings regarding his disarmament proposal, and finally warns Great Britain that "war with Germany would be dangerous for any opponent or any coalition of opponents."

THE NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERIES ARGUMENT

Supreme Court at St. Johns Engaged in Hearing an Important Case.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 17.—The supreme court yesterday resumed consideration of the appeal of the Bay of Islands fishermen from the penalty of $500 or the alternative of serving three months in prison, imposed in November by a magistrate at Bay of Islands upon their being convicted of working on an American schooner Ralph Hall, during the herring fishing season. The magistrate ruled that such work was contrary to the provision of the Colonial Fish Act.

Conditions More Serious Than at Any Time in Country's History—No Strikes, But Men Refuse to Work—Train Service Being Cancelled—M. E. Nicholls Arrested for Criminal Libel

MONTREAL, April 17.—The Westmount Amateur Athletic Association last evening at its annual meeting withdrew from the C. A. A. U. They adopted the definition of an amateur laid down in Great Britain. They will not, at least for the present, join the A. A. F.

WINNIPEG, April 17.—M. E. Nicholls, Editor of the Telegram, has been arrested, charged with criminal libel, as the result of the publication of an article referring to G. W. Woods, who was accused of operating a bucket shop.

CALGARY, Alta., April 17.—The situation in Western Canada created by the action of the miners in leaving work is demoralizing business. A condition quite as serious has ever existed since this country came before the public," said R. R. Johnson, Superintendent of the central division of the C. P. R. tonight.

"Already the cement works in Calgary have closed down. This means the loss of many hundreds of dollars. The C. P. R. is handling no dead weight and the C. P. R. officials announce that it is only a matter of a week or two when all freight and passenger trains must stop. Manufacturers in Calgary are soon to close. The domestic supply of coal at present is not interfered with, and will not suffer for some time. There is no strike, the men say. The miners are merely leaving work. There is no law to prevent that and there is no conciliation act ever framed which can reach it. If a miner does not want to work, what is to prevent him from being idle. He is not on strike, he is merely resting."

Yesterday at a meeting of the board of trade, Mr. Jamieson stated that the railway had endeavored to get coal from Duluth but without success. There is great alarm in this city over the result. The C. P. R., which usually has a good reserve was depleted on account of the coal famine in the winter. At a meeting of the board of trade this afternoon a resolution was passed that the following message be sent to the minister of labor, M. S. McCarthy, M. P., the boards of trade of Winnipeg, Nelson, Edmonton, Toronto and other places: "The Calgary board of trade strongly urges immediate action in the board of Confederated Miners' disagreement. Freight traffic has ceased entirely, passenger traffic also to cease in a few days. The coal mining has practically ceased. Manufacturing plants are closing. Miners leaving work in large bodies though no strike is officially declared. Situation most serious in the history of Western Canada."

As far as can be learned the boycott of work which has been so pronounced in Perno and the Crow's Nest line has not reached the Bankhead in the same proportions though the mines have been partially deserted. It is from the Bankhead the C. P. R. gets its coal. It is believed now, that Winnipeg and all intervening points will be affected as much as Calgary.

It is understood that Sir James was returned by Americans interested in the case and that the previous plea of the appellants was withdrawn at his direction. The new feature of the situation has created much interest here. The argument will be resumed Friday.

SPORTING MATTERS

BEGINNING TO TALK ABOUT BASEBALL

With the drying up of the streets and the peeping forth of the blades of grass, the local ball players are beginning to organize. As in basket-ball, the Algonquins, the flourishing North End club, intend having a strong team, and have some very good material to choose from. They have not as yet secured any grounds.

It has been reported, perhaps erroneously, but certainly persistently, that the St. Roses team would not be entered in the Society League during the coming season.

In case of such an event, or even should it not occur, it has been suggested that the Algonquins enter a team in this league. The interest would certainly be increased with the advent of such an aggregation, but whether such a plan is feasible is not yet known.

ONTARIO'S MINERAL OUTPUT

According to a statement prepared by the officials of the department of mines, the mineral products of Ontario for the year 1906, represented a total value of $22,221,808, as compared with $17,854,296 in 1905.

This is estimated on the value of the minerals in the form in which they leave Canada. The net value of the metallic output was $13,179,162 and of the non-metallic $9,042,646.

The most noticeable gains during the year in the metallic group are those of silver, which was $2,170,212; nickel, $483,455; copper, $209,555; pig iron, $644,720.

In the non-metallic the excess of value produced in 1906 over 1905 were: Portland cement, $555,583, and natural gas, $215,570. The output of crude petroleum was worth $135,999 less than in 1905.

The output of mines at Cobalt for the year was: Silver, $37,320; copper, $2,845,089; cobalt, $12 tons, worth $30,819; nickel, 156 tons, and arsenic, $1,558. Up to the close of 1906 the Cobalt camp has produced a total of 8,016,601 ounces of silver, valued at $5,015,473; 446 tons of cobalt, 245 tons of nickel, and 1,319 tons of arsenic, estimated to be worth $159,773, $15,467 and $3,596 respectively.

THE FIRST FLY FISHERS.

Doubtless the reason why artificial flies were originally invented was because it was impossible to use the smaller and more delicate natural flies as baits on the hook. The first fly fisher cast his eyes about him in search of something that would answer in imitating the flies upon which the trout were feeding. Feathers were naturally the first materials thought of, and the old red cock's hackle was the first of all the artificial insects, the old Adam of them all. The breed has been increasing for several hundred years and numbers 2,000 or more at the present day. Of salmon flies alone there are several hundred patterns. These belong to the lure order mostly, as do many of the large flies used for bass and trout. The little old red hackle remains a good fly to this day and is put upon bodies of many colors, peacock hair being perhaps as well liked as anything; red wool is favored by many.

such that no amount of taxing will prevent the traveller from doing business, and the government really needs his money. However, that may be, the commercial interests of Canada may well rejoice over two sinners that have repented.

But these, as well as all the other provinces of the Dominion, need to do a lot more repenting. There have been too many petty jealousies among them? They have not been following the Golden Rule. Their legislators have given more time and study to seeing that the other fellow did not get ahead of them, than they have to promoting the real welfare of the Dominion. Instead of facilitating the transaction of business as between province and province, they have been building high board fences around themselves. Instead of opening the gates to a free interchange of lawyers, doctors, engineers and professional men, they have been enacting legislation which is tantamount to an invitation to the people of other provinces to keep out.

If Canada is ever going to amount to anything, the provinces will have to abandon this attitude of narrow provincialism. If they persist in their policy of jealous interference with one another, they will wake up some day to the fact that a rank outsider has beaten them all out. What the provinces ought to do is to join hands and help each other along as much as possible, instead of wasting their time in a fruitless endeavor to trip each other up. Co-operation, concentration of effort is the keynote of success in modern commercialism, and the sooner will the best interests of the nation be served.

ILL-FATED WARSHIPS

Sad Record of Marine Disasters From 1870 to Today.

Examples of Shipwrecks Through Accident or Design—Causes of Early Ironclad Catastrophes.

In recent years there have been great additions to the growing list of battle-ship catastrophes, which opened in 1870 with the loss of her majesty's ship Captain, the first fully rigged turret ship tried in service at sea. Within the past two years no fewer than four large and more vessels of the first class have been destroyed in time of peace, and as the total number of such vessels does not exceed 300 in the world, the loss has been a disquietingly large, says the London Mail.

All the earlier ironclad catastrophes were due to instability or to collision and thus differ greatly from most of the disasters which in the last ten years have overtaken fighting ships. The British ironclad Captain, with which the story of misfortune opens, was lost in the Bay of Biscay in September, 1870. She was cruising with the Channel fleet in dirty weather when a violent gale struck her and she capsized, carrying down with her to the depths nearly 600 officers and men. The survivors told how there came a heavy lurch—how the angle of the keel moved quickly from 18 degrees to 28 degrees, and the ship lay literally on her side upon the sea, while all on board waited, holding their breath, to see whether she would recover. She never recovered, but turned slowly over and was gone.

Five years later the British ironclad Vanguard, then cruising with the Channel fleet, was struck by the ram of the Iron Duke in a thick fog in the Irish Sea. The water poured in quickly, and nothing could be done to save the ship, but the crew were safely removed before, one hour after the collision, she went to the bottom. The next battleship lost at sea was the German Grosser Kurier. She was cruising with the German active squadron off Dover when she was rammed by another German ironclad, the Konig Wilhelm, in May, 1878. She was struck almost amidships with a terrible crash and a violent shock. The armor was torn through as though it had been orange peel, and an immense volume of water poured into the ship. Her captain made a desperate attempt to run her into shallow water, but only five minutes after the collision she went down, carrying with her nearly 200 of her crew. The Konig Wilhelm suffered such injury on her ram and forward that she, too, was in great danger of foundering.

A FATAL SIGNAL. But the most tragic and terrible of all these disasters was the loss of the new battleship Victoria, by collision, on June 22, 1883. She was the flagship of Admiral Tryon, commanding the Mediterranean fleet, and was engaged at the time of the collision in carrying out the "gridiron" evolution. In which two lines of ships turn inward toward each other. The maneuver was ordered on the morning of the fatal day, and her captain, Bourke, had protested in vain against its danger. At 3:28 p. m. the signal was made to turn, and the battleship Victoria and Camperdown, at the head of the two lines, began to move toward each other. Three minutes after the signal it was clear to all that a collision was imminent, but another minute passed before the bugles sounded the "G," which is the order for collision stations and for closing watertight doors. With a crash that rang through the air—a dreadful crunching sound—the Camperdown's ram tore through the Victoria's bow and drove the fine ship bodily back some 70 feet or more in the water.

lines broke and the men threw themselves into the water. Almost at the same instant the Victoria dove, stem foremost, and disappeared in a cloud of steam, taking down with her her admiral, who remained at his post to the last. It is a strange and touching fact, according to credible witnesses, his wrecking was seen that same day in London by one near and dear to him, and this before the catastrophe was known to a soul.

SUBLIME DEVOTION. On board the Victoria perished 358 officers and men. Of these who escaped alive, Rear Admiral Jellicoe is today director of naval ordnance. The Camperdown suffered great damage in the collision, and had the weather been stormy, would probably have gone down, too. The great feature of this disaster was, however, the order and discipline displayed by all—the calmness of officers and men in the face of death—the heroism of the engineers and stokers, who never stirred from their posts, and died to a man in her engine rooms.

Five years passed after the loss of the Victoria before the explosion which destroyed the American battleship Maine in Havana harbor. She was lying there, when, on the night of Feb. 15, 1898, a noise was heard like a shot. Observers in other ships looked out over the water and saw the bow of the Maine lift. Then came an uprush of smoke and flame, and a prolonged rending roar. The shattered hull settled on the bottom, and of the crew 253 officers and men were killed on the spot. One hundred of whom were wounded, were rescued. The exact cause of the disaster is still a mystery. But it is thought that a mine was exploded under the ship, and that the shock of the mine detonated the powder in the magazines and this was the conclusion of the American court of inquiry.

The officers and men who survived were for the most part half-starved by the explosion. They all described it as a violent—crashing and rending, accompanied by an intense flame of fire or blue light. Several of them were blown through the air and badly burned. "I heard a terrible crash," said one of them, "an explosion, I suppose it was. Something fell, and then after that I got thrown somewhere in a hot place. * * * I got burned on my legs and arms and got my mouth full of ashes. * * * Then the next thing I was in the water."

MUCH the same were the incidents on board the Russian battleship Petropavlovsk, when her ammunition was exploded by a Japanese mine off Port Arthur on April 13, 1904, and on board the Japanese battleship Hatsuse, which suffered a similar fate from a Russian mine on May 15 of the same year. Both battleships sank almost immediately, carrying down with them a large part of their crews. Yet another Japanese battleship, the Mikasa, was lost in Sasebo harbor in September, 1905, in much the same way. She took fire and the flames must have reached her magazines. These exploded with deplorable consequences, killing or wounding a great part of her crew and sending the ship to the bottom. The Mikasa was raised last year and is now undergoing repairs.

Little more than two years ago the French navy lost one of its best armored cruisers, the Sully, of 10,000 tons, flagship of the French Far Eastern squadron. The Sully was a new vessel, and had been sent out to the east on account of the war between Japan and Russia. In February, 1905, she struck an uncharted rock on the coast of Tonkin. The attempts to float her were unsuccessful, and she broke in two some weeks after striking. Fortunately, in her case, no lives were lost.

Buildings complete or under construction. J. W. MORRISON, Ritchie Building, 50 Prince street, Ring 1563. FEAR IRISH FAIR WILL BE A FAILURE. Half the Population Pledged to Boycott It—Royalty Not to Open It. DUBLIN, April 16.—Once the scheme was under way high hopes were entertained that Ireland's international Exhibition would be a huge success from which the whole country would be a gainer. A writer in a leading Irish paper a month ago said: "The exhibition will be, above all, an Irish exhibition. The nations of the earth are, of course, free to take part, and a great many of them are availing themselves of the privilege, but the interests of Ireland are paramount over all." Success in a measure is still hoped for, but at the present moment it is felt in Ireland that the exhibition is more than considerable of a failure, and the guarantors are anxious to underwrite their risks. It is freely stated that half the population is pledged to boycott the show, and as a result of dissections royalty will not open the exhibition, as was hoped and intended. James Shanks, formerly Lord Mayor, who is the chief executive officer of the exhibition, has created a hot feeling of antagonism by ordering English furniture, importing London caterers, superseding the musical committee, and arranging for foreign bands. It is feared that such anti-Irish conduct will go far towards wrecking the great project. The exhibition will open in a fortnight.

YESTERDAY'S ELECTION. There has never been a civic election in St. John in which such energy was displayed by candidates and their friends as was the case yesterday. Not, possibly, has there been a contest in the past ten years which aroused more interest than that held in Stanley ward. The campaign while not of such a nature as to arouse any excitement in the south end, was energetically carried on in the north end and in Carleton, where it was anticipated, and where the results showed, opinion was more evenly divided.

The council elected yesterday contains five new men, three of them filling the places of present aldermen who were defeated. These five, while not so entirely strong even if united, to institute of their own accord any material changes in the conduct of civic business, will undoubtedly be able to exert an influence on the general policy.

Each new day brings its own sensations. Already Harry K. Thaw is almost forgotten.

SCHOFIELD PAPER CO. LTD. SELLING AGENTS - ST. JOHN, N. B. DOVES BECOMING EAGLES. London Magistrate Refers to the Change in Woman's Nature.

LONDON, April 16.—Mr. Justice Plowden, the Marylebone police court magistrate, whose obiter dicta has acquired general fame, delivered in court on Friday the following reflections on the modern woman: "It would seem that woman's nature is undergoing very considerable modifications in the twentieth century. The gentleness, spirit of dependence and sweet reasonableness that used to distinguish the sex is giving place to love of advertisement and a taste for unseemly scenes of rowdiness and violence. The doves are changing into eagles. These changes in the nature of women have been forced on my attention by what is constantly occurring in the police court."

LONDON, April 16.—Father Bernard Vaughan, the charterer of the aims of society, discussing Justice Plowden's statement that woman's nature is undergoing very considerable modifications, and not for the better, said one thing was certain—women were daily becoming not only less religious, but more unreligious. The danger was that, owing to the entente cordiale, they may become like some of their French sisters, irreligious. Archbishop Sinclair, of London, ascribed the degeneracy of women chiefly to drinking, especially secret drinking.

WHAT CROMER LEAVES BEHIND

(Mail and Empire.)
Lord Cromer's career, more than that of any public man of his generation, gives point to Kipling's famous phrase, "The White Man's Burden." He is retiring after a lifetime spent in the service of Egypt, and although his falling health is the ostensible reason, and although it has been officially stated that his relations with the Liberal government are friendly, it is to be remembered that he is not the first great proconsul to step down and out since the Campbell-Bannerman government became the director of British affairs. That there is in training another diplomat, at once such a sagacious political adviser and such a financial expert, may be doubted. From Cromer to any one else approved by the Little Englanders will be a descent.

GREAT MEN LEAVE.
Milner is gone from South Africa, and Curzon from India. Lugard leaves the West Coast, and it is openly hinted that Durand's resignation from Washington was primarily due to his insistence upon British and Canadian rights. The greatest of them all is Cromer, for, though he may lack Milner's brilliancy, he has put a crown upon his work that Milner was not able to do. He stuck to his post, and toiled with cheap and brittle tools, but in the end he can point to modern Egypt as the work of his hands, a work built upon as sure foundations as the pyramids themselves, but now threatened with destruction by the academic theories of a government of parish Radicals. If Cromer was laying down his sceptre at a time when there was not a rebellious subject in the realm he could be welcomed to his well earned rest; but his retirement comes at a time when the Egyptian situation is more ominous than it has been for years.

EGYPT FOR EGYPTIANS.
"Egypt for the Egyptians" is the cry that comes from Cairo, a cry that if it has any meaning at all it is a defiance of British rule. Instead of it being sternly checked or treated with the tolerant contempt of Hyde Park ravings, it is taken up and enthusiastically re-echoed by a noisy section of British public men. The cry of "South Africa for the Dutch" was heard by these gentlemen, and we have their answering shout in the Transvaal constitution. "Ireland for the Irish" will soon be answered, and they cheerfully listen to "India for the Hindoes and Mohammedans," even a shout of "Canada for the United States" would leave them admirably open for further information. In all this they are consistent enough, for their basic principle is anti-imperialism. They believe that Englishmen should confine themselves to problems that concern England alone, and leave the other parts of the empire to drift into independence or annexation, or revert to savagery, as they please.

THE LITTLE ENGLANDERS.
The loudest exponents of this doctrine are Messrs. W. T. Stead, Lloyd-George, M. P., and J. M. Robertson, M. P. The last is recognized both in England and in Egypt as the foremost champion of the Egyptian, who groans under the heel of the British tyrant. On the platform and in the press he has attacked the British Administration in Egypt from Lord Cromer down. That he has libeled it is not too much to say. Fortunately, the Liberal Foreign Minister, Sir Edward Grey, is not a little Englishman, and he defended Cromer with such eloquence and vigor that, theoretically, Mr. Robertson was annihilated. Practically, Mr. Robertson remains as pert and vicious as ever; but instead of writing to the London press, he actually writes to the Cairo Standard, a native paper that is the organ of the Nationalist movement, and the property of the avowed anti-imperialist, Mr. Robertson's ravings cannot hurt Great Britain in Egypt any more than the writings of Mr. Stead hurt Great Britain in South Africa. Nevertheless, they are dangerous.

THE DANGER.
Mr. Stead and Mr. Lloyd-George made the Boers understand that the people of Great Britain were at heart opposed to the war, and would never consent to hostilities. The war once started, they encouraged the Boers with predictions of European intervention. Relying upon this misinformation, the Boer War was begun, and continued. That something of the same kind may occur in Egypt is quite possible.

THE KHEDIVI'S INTERVIEW.
Only a few days ago the Khedive gave an interview to a French newspaper man, which, a few years ago, might have resulted in an Anglo-French complication. Fortunately, the entire mass impossible friction between the two powers; but friction between the Khedive and the British

ACCEPTS A CHALLENGE FROM ENGLISH SWIMMER

NEW YORK, April 17.—C. M. Daniels, of the New York A. C., yesterday accepted a challenge from Henry Taylor, the latter being the long champion of England. Taylor is supposed to be one of the world's fastest swimmers from a quarter to half mile. The match will take place at Eastbury, Sept. 1, where most of the English salt water championships are held.

THE DEATH ROLL.

BUFFALO, April 17.—Samuel Star McRea last evening at his apartments in the Berkeley Johnstone Park developed an attack of pneumonia and his death was announced at 10 o'clock. McRea was in his sixty-second year, born in Brockville, Ontario. Surviving Mrs. McRea are his wife and four sons, the latter including W. Stuart McRea of British Columbia.

McRea was for the past several years engaged in the customs brokerage business. Previous to this he had entered the employ of the Grand Trunk Railway and had the position of freight agent for 15 years.

Administrator has been more frequent ever since the change of Government, and is likely to become more serious in view of the Robertson crusade. The Khedive declares that he likes the French, and wants as many of them as possible to come to Egypt. In fact, he says that it was a mistake for France to give England a free hand in Egypt; but asserts that "we are very fond of the French all the same." He insists that the time has almost come when Egypt will take charge of her own affairs, but disclaims any anti-foreign, fanatical or despotic intentions, both for himself and for the Nationalist movement.

CANADA'S WEALTH IN MINERAL DEPOSITS

An Abundance of Different Forms of Iron Ore

Causes of the Hitherto Slow Development in Most Districts—Scarcity of Coal in Some Places

That the iron ore deposits of the Dominion are destined to become immensely valuable goes without saying, but the assertion that their titanic character has thus far rendered them valueless is calculated to convey a wrong impression. There are many ores of iron in the Dominion, and also in the Province of Quebec, besides the titanite kind, which chiefly occurs in the Laurentian range. We have also an abundance of the magnetic or black oxide of iron, which is the richest of all the iron ores and which is found in the neighborhood of Three Rivers. We have also plenty of red and brown hematite, the latter known as bog iron. Notable deposits of the latter exist in the neighborhood of Three Rivers, where it has been worked since the early days of the colony under French rule, and also near Drummondville, and there is no doubt that the red hematite, which enters so largely into the composition of the iron and steel manufactured at Sydney, C. B., and which is taken from Newfoundland, in the vicinity of Belle Isle, will also be found on our own coast in the same neighborhood. It is therefore erroneous to pretend that the development of our iron resources has been retarded by their titanic quality. Unquestionably the presence of titanite acid in the ore found behind Bale St. Paul and ignorance of the very way of treating them had much, if not all, to do with the failure to attempt hitherto made to realize them and to cause other deposits of the same kind to be regarded as valueless. But neither this drawback nor the absence of coal can be held to account for the hitherto slow development except at Sydney and the "boos" of the many other ore of iron which we possess in abundance. The simple fact is that the world's consumption of iron and steel has increased so much within the last 25 years that it is necessary to stimulate the discovery and utilization of other deposits in all directions. It also explains why attention is turning once more to the titanite ore. In their case the difficulty of treating or reducing them by the hitherto known methods has been practically insuperable, being aggravated so far as we are concerned in this region by the absence of coal. But if this difficulty can be electrically, as is claimed, it is unquestionably that we are on the eve of a great development of iron and steel-making in this section of Canada, and that largely benefit by the revival. Not only will Bale St. Paul, but all through the Laurentian Mountains, north and east of Quebec, there are immense masses of titanite iron awaiting utilization. In fact, titanite iron is the characteristic mineral of this mountain region in Canada, and it is produced in unlimited amount with the aid of our abundant water-powers, it can be successfully and economically treated, and we have enough of the raw material in this region to supply iron and steel to the whole world for centuries to come.

RUMOR OF ANOTHER TRANSCONTINENTAL

Which Will Join the Yukon With Hudson Bay

And Will Reduce Distance Between Liverpool and Yokohama, 2,700 Miles

The New York World publishes the following story of a new alleged railroad proposition for the far North road production for the far North-West of Canada.

An important addition to the transcontinental lines of railroad is about to be built by a secretary. He is the founder of the new undertaking, the York and London millionaires. The road will operate between Port Simpson, on the British Columbia Coast, and Churchill, on Hudson Bay.

The proposed road, which is announced as a certainty, will shorten the route from Liverpool to Yokohama, 2,700 miles. It will be 800 miles north of any other transcontinental line, and will open up one of the richest farming and mining countries in the world.

The Port Simpson and Eastern Railroad Company, which is to build the road is capitalized at $100,000,000. David B. May, former special agent of the United States Department of the Interior in Alaska, is secretary. He spent sixteen years in the great North-West investigating the possibilities of a railroad, and it may be said that he is the founder of the new undertaking. Mr. May lives in Seattle, Wash., but is at present stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria. He came to New York to consult with the capitalists who have agreed to finance the scheme.

"I have always believed that the plan was feasible, but I had great trouble in convincing people that the North-Western country is warm and fertile," said Mr. May. "The country has been little explored, and most people believe it to be cold and barren. It is just the opposite. The land, and the Japan current makes it almost tropical. I have never seen such crops of wheat as are raised in the North-West. The country is also wonderfully rich in minerals, and there are millions of tons of fine asphalt.

"Our road will be 1,450 miles long. We expect to run trains from Port Simpson to Churchill in from thirty to thirty-five hours. The country is also obtained terminal facilities at both places, and in six days expect to have our surveys at work.

"The road will supply an almost direct route from Liverpool to Yokohama. From Liverpool to Churchill the distance is 3,325 miles. It is 1,450 miles from Port Simpson to Yokohama, 4,445 miles. That will be our route compared to the following of other transcontinental roads:—Liverpool to New York, 3,406 miles, New York to San Francisco, 3,380 miles, San Francisco to Yokohama, 5,146 miles. It is thus seen that we save 2,768 miles to travel.

"It would also like to state that Hudson Bay is open to navigation seven months in the year, and not frozen over most of the time, as is generally believed. We can contract for two steamers capable of carrying 25,000 tons to run from Port Simpson to Yokohama, and have a line will be established from Liverpool to Churchill.

"The country in this road expects to develop has 500,000 square miles of the best wheat land on the face of the earth. Fifty hundred to the acre are taken of the farms.

"Another advantage we have over other transportation lines is that the Rocky Mountains in Canada are not so high as they are in the south. Where we cross the highest point is 2,400 feet, as compared to from 8,000 to 7,000 feet where other roads cross.

ROYAL WELCOME TO PREMIERS

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Cheered as He Rose to Speak

Citizens of London Thronged the Streets and Greeted Colonials as Procession Passed by LONDON, April 16.—Killing the premiers by kindness began in earnest today, when the citizens of ancient London from Griffin to Mansion House, flagged their streets, abandoned business and crowded every thoroughfare in a vociferous honor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his confederates. Royalty itself could not have received a more wholehearted popular welcome.

The scene in the historic Guild Hall, associated with the memories of Pitt, Wellington, Nelson, Disraeli, Gladstone, Salisbury and many another Empire hero, was magnificent, almost beyond compare, when Sir Wilfrid rose amid tremendous plaudits and waving of serviettes to respond to the toast, "Our Guests." Lady Laurier sat near him, having been escorted in the procession by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman.

The cold which caused him to retain his overcoat and wrap up his throat, somewhat hampered his voice, but he made excellent points with marked effect, greatly to the delight of the premier and other ministers. He ridiculed the thought that the conference could be a sonnet together in friendly conspiracy to provide for the welfare of the Empire was assurance enough of that success, Sir Wilfrid showed his desire not only to help them where he could by praising their immediate gift to the Transvaal of full self government which French Canada waited a century to secure. The eyes of the whole world were upon London at this moment. It went to his heart when Dr. Jameson assured the conference yesterday that he hoped the next conference would see all South Africa ranged with the Dominion and commonwealth and represented by one federal minister. "This," he added in peroration, "is truly an imperial policy. So long as the Empire is maintained upon these lines it rests on foundations firmer than rock and inviolable through the ages." (Loud cheers.)

(Associated Press despatch.) LONDON, April 16.—General Botha is becoming quite the central and picturesque figure in the gathering of colonial premiers. He was the recipient of a pretty compliment from War Secretary Haldane at the banquet to the premier given tonight by the Eighty Club.

At the Guildhall reception Lord Roberts sought out General Botha in the reception room and sat next to him at luncheon.

While driving in the Guildhall today it was noticed that General Botha saluted in passing the statue of Gladstone. It was Gladstone who restored the Boers their independence after Majuba.

TWO LITTLE CHILDREN SUFFOCATED BY SMOKE

CHELSEA, Mass., April 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marder were driven from their tenement at 99 Arlington street late tonight by a fire on the lower floor and while the mother rushing upstairs, again through the flames was able to rescue her six-months-old child, two other children, Lily, 5 years, and Israel, two, who were in a rear room, were suffocated. Mrs. Marder suffered severe burns about the head and body in coming down the stairs after she had thrown her youngest child from the window into the arms of several of the neighbors.

The firemen confined the flames to the lower floor and the rooms in the rear of the second and the bodies of the children were found only slightly touched by the flames.

LIBEL SUIT AGAINST THE HALIFAX HERALD NOW GOING ON

HALIFAX, N. S., April 16.—Before Mr. Justice Russell and jury in the supreme court today the action for libel brought by Messrs R. T. McCreith against the manager of the Herald Publishing Company was commenced. The plaintiff claims $30,000 damages for libel, injuring him in his credit reputation and profession. H. A. Lovett appeared for the plaintiff, and called F. D. Morton to prove the circulation of the Herald and Mail. Copies of those papers were put in by included, and other exhibits put in consisted of the auditor general's reports. This closed the case for the plaintiff. J. J. Ritchie opened for the defense, and Wm. Dennis, managing director of the Herald, called for the evidence. J. Ritchie opened for the defense, and Wm. Dennis, managing director of the Herald, called for the evidence. In the expression of his opinion on Foster's transactions he said: Foster was very vindictive and very unfortunate. The case will be resumed tomorrow.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE.

(Saturday Evening Post.) Chick Bruce was a famous Adirondack guide who accompanied former President Cleveland on one or two of his hunting trips in those mountains. Chick left Mr. Cleveland sitting on a log one morning while he went out to drive down a deer should he chance to find one. When he came back he saw his distinguished employer still sitting on the log but with the muzzle of his gun pointing directly at the presidential chest.

BAPTISTS MAY BUILD CHURCH IN WOODSTOCK

WOODSTOCK, April 15.—H. H. Mott architect, has been here at the request of the building committee of the Main street Baptist church in order to ascertain what steps will have to be taken to provide increased seating capacity. Since the union of the two local Baptist churches and the coming of the present pastor, Rev. Dr. W.C. Kierstead, the building has been entirely too small to seat the congregation. It is proposed to considerably increase the size of the church. The Methodists are also facing the problem of church repairs. Their building, the largest in the town, is also the oldest, and experts have recently pronounced it in bad shape, so much so that the cost of repairs is estimated at $7,000. The majority prefer the erection of a modern brick edifice to cost from $15,000 to $20,000. Already a large sum has been pledged and it seems altogether probable a decision to build will be reached at an early date.

The harness making business hitherto conducted by Hedley Moores is to pass into the hands of a joint stock company of which Mr. Moores will be manager, with increased facilities and the employment of many more hands. J. Sterling King, accountant in the Henderson Furniture Co., has resigned owing to poor health. He and Mrs. King will return to their former home near Belleisle, Kings Co.

This evening the jolly little comedy, "Our Jim" was put on in Graham's Opera, before a crowded house by a company of local talent. The affair was quite the event of the season. The Broadway School in which a new department was opened last term, is still so overcrowded that still another new department will have to be started at the beginning of the next school year.

THE NICKEL

The success which has attended the Keith Nickel enterprises in other towns is evidently to be duplicated here, for from the time the doors of the Nickel opened at 12 o'clock until closing time last evening there was a constant stream of people in and out all day. The claim of the Nickel is that no matter at what hour one cares to go in one can see the complete entertainment, and there can be no doubt of the attractiveness of the moving picture dramas. They are either highly laughable or intensely interesting, and with the usual Keith regard for detail the "stage effects" add greatly to the realism. There will be a complete change of programme on Thursday including new illustrated songs.

INURED MAN DIED DURING OPERATION

WOODSTOCK, N. B., April 16.—Geo. Wise, driver for the Carleton Creamery Co., who was injured a few days ago by being struck by a C. P. R. engine while crossing the track with his team near Connell's foundry, died in the hospital this morning at five o'clock. Yesterday Dr. James Christie of St. John was here at the request of the C. P. R. to examine the man. He agreed with the local doctor that an operation for the removal of a foot was necessary, which was accordingly done. Gangrene was imminent and Wise did not survive the shock. The other limb was broken in two places besides severe internal injuries. He leaves a wife. Jas. Morley, an old resident, died this afternoon. He was about eighty. He is survived by a widow. A South African veteran belonging to Frederick cut up a lively frolic on the street last night. Chief Kelly had quite a time landing him in the jug. Today the veteran was given the option of getting out of town or serving a term at the county jail. He left the town.

Endicott, and his wife, sailed for Liverpool today on the steamer Saxonia, on a hurried visit to her son-in-law, Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, the distinguished English statesman. Mr. Chamberlain is seriously ill and the Endicott party is hurrying to his bedside.

DAMAGE DONE BY EARTHQUAKE GREATER THAN FIRST THOUGHT

MEXICO CITY, Mex., April 16.—The extent and damage of the earthquake are greater than hitherto has been reported. The town of Ayutla and the town of Omotpec, about seventy miles to the east of Ayutla, have been practically destroyed. The shocks continued at Chilpancingo, 125 miles south of here, all last night and were quite severe. Many of the buildings that were left half standing by the previous tremblings were levelled to the ground. The last shock at Chilpancingo occurred at 4 o'clock this morning. The general in command of the troops was severely injured. The fall of the hospitals and the school buildings at this town were destroyed. The prisoners are now being guarded by the rural guard. The people have deserted the town and are living in improvised structures in the open air. The federal government is extending aid to the town of Chilpancingo, but it will be impossible to restore calm until the shocks cease.

HOME MISSIONS

Public Meeting to be Held in St. David's Church Tonight

The people of St. David's church pride themselves upon the number of young people whom they have sent out into Christian work. At present there are three young men from the church studying for the ministry at Halifax. These are Wm. W. Malcolm, Frank Milligan and D. C. Stephens. Stanley R. Prince has been in the mission field at Norton all winter and two more young men are in the High School preparing to enter college next autumn. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society has arranged for a public meeting this evening to be addressed by W. W. Malcolm and Frank Milligan. They will speak upon the subject of Home Missions in New Brunswick and of the work which the students of the church do in the summer months. The college having just closed the students are passing through the city this week to take charge of congregations for the summer. The meeting promises to be one of great interest and an offering for Home Mission work will be taken.

DR. ANGLIN'S SALARY WILL BE INCREASED

Solicitor General Delegated to Ottawa in Connection With Dominion Subsidies for Valley Railway Project --St. John Exhibition Association Asked for Grant-- Many Companies Granted Incorporation.

At the meeting of the Provincial Government held yesterday afternoon orders were passed granting incorporation to various companies applying for the same. The solicitor general was also instructed to proceed to Ottawa in connection with the Dominion subsidies for the railway to be built down the St. John Valley. A delegation from the St. John Exhibition Association was received and a promise of consideration given in answer to the request for a grant of $3,000 to the exhibition of 1907. After transacting the above mentioned business the government returned itself into a meeting of the Provincial Hospital Commissioners. The dispute between the commissioners and the Kings county council was considered and a sub-committee appointed to deal with it. It was also decided to increase the salary of the superintendent, the exact amount of the increase to be determined later.

Application for letters for incorporation were received from the Northfield Coal Company, which will do business in Sunbury county; from the Canadian Mineral Earth Company, Ltd., on American concern formed to remove the mineral earth from the bed of Pollet Lake, Kings county; from T. Rankine & Sons, Ltd., to take over the business of T. Rankine & Sons; from the Clifton Steamboat Company, Ltd., which will run steamers between Rothesay and Clifton and other points. The Swedish Planning Company, doing business in Northumberland county, applied for enlarged powers. Orders were passed in connection with all the applications.

Solicitor General Jones was instructed to go to the Dominion capital in connection with the granting of a subsidy from the Canadian government to facilitate the early construction of a line of railway down the valley of the St. John river by Mackenzie & Mann.

IMMIGRATION BILL PASSES

Goes Through Committee in Senate Without Change

Senate Also Passes Important Resolution --One Dissenting Voice--The G.T.P. Route Through N. B.

OTTAWA, April 16.—In the senate today, Senator Ferguson was told by Mr. Scott that the National Transcontinental commissioners had recommended the government to accept the back route through New Brunswick from Grand Falls to Chipman. The length of the river route from Grand Falls to Moncton is 240.7 miles and the back route, pusher grade, had a length of 194.7 miles. This route between Grand Falls and Chipman for a distance of 12.34 miles had a grade of 1.1 per cent adverse to west-bound traffic, for the remainder of the distance the maximum grade against west-bound traffic was 4 per cent and against east-bound traffic 8 per cent. On the section between Quebec bridge and the New Brunswick boundary there was a stretch of 9.5 miles, with a grade of 4.1 per cent adverse to east-bound traffic, the remainder having a maximum grade of 4 per cent against east-bound and 4 per cent against west-bound.

In committee on the Immigration bill, Hon. Mr. Scott said that the provision that the stayaways were to be deported was inserted at the request of the Shipping Federation. They said that they objected to these characters coming because they had no opportunity to look into their character and they might have to be deported a few years later.

Senator Loughheed thought a man who had the pluck and enterprise to stow away might be well advised to chance to become a citizen.

Sir MacKenzie Bowell said that stowaways were made to work their passage after they were discovered.

The following resolution was passed by a vote of 48 to 1:

"The senate will insist upon the application of the provisions of the North America act, 1867, in accordance with the spirit and true intent of that section, to the end that the exclusive powers of the legislature of the province of Canada may be protected and preserved."

SPOKE TO THE MAGNIFICENT COLLEGE MEN HEADQUARTERS

Half Dozen Presidents Made Splendid Building Built by Andrew Carnegie

End of Great Peace Congress Is in Sight--Woman's Session Addressed by Prominent Female Speakers

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 15.—That intelligence, knowledge, culture are contribute to the cause of universal peace, was the consensus of opinion of the college presidents who spoke tonight at Carnegie Hall at the university meeting of the peace congress. A half-dozen college presidents, including representatives of the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, spoke to college men in the interests of the movement, and showed the wisdom that our day should do to advance the cause of universal peace and the emancipation of Christendom from the curse of war.

Vice-Chancellor Roberts of Cambridge University and Professor Hays of Oxford were the two foreign educators who spoke. President John Zimley of the city college of New York was an American representative in place of President Elliot of Harvard, and President James of the University of Illinois, who were unable to be present.

Alex. Adler of Columbia also spoke, and President Butler of the same university presided.

The great hall was crowded and a tinge of college spirit was given to the proceedings by the presence of the Glee Clubs of Columbia and Yale, which sang several college songs.

While the Carnegie Hall meeting was in progress, another largely attended peace meeting was held in Cooper Union. This gathering was representative of organized labor. James Dunne, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, who was to have presided, was unable to be present, and Jos. R. Buchanan introduced the meeting to Charles Terence W. Powderly. The meeting, which had for its general topic "organized labor in relation to the peace movement," was an enthusiastic one.

Mr. Powderly, among other things, said: "It is fitting that labor's voice should be raised for peace. How shall it come about? I think labor and capital have provided the way. It was not dreamed a few years ago that labor and capital would shake hands. Today we may meet, clasp hands and be friends; and this has come about through the leadership of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who followed, said in part: "It takes more courage to say to engage in the silent patient sacrifice of life than it does to go into the carnage of war. Today, the God, the longer, the longer, indicates a yellow streak and it requires courage for a man to say 'peace' instead of war. Now it is written down that the man who fights goes forth to murder. Any one country that disarms alone would be wiped off the map. But we hope that the American conscience will demand that our delegates to the next Hague conference shall stand, if not for disarmament, for no greater expansion in armaments."

The morning session at Carnegie Hall was a woman's session and was addressed by a number of prominent women and speakers, including Miss Jane Adams, Mrs. Ellen Henrotin, Mrs. Lucy Ames Mead and Mrs. Frederick Nathan. Letters were read from Mrs. Julia Ward Howe and William Archer, one of England's most famous dramatic critics, spoke. During the afternoon there was a young people's meeting at Carnegie Hall while the commercial and industrial aspects of the peace movement," was discussed by the speakers. At each of these meetings, addresses were made by distinguished advocates of peace, representatives of this and other countries. The congress will close tomorrow after more speech-making and two dinners.

PURITY IN ELECTIONS DISCUSSED

THE COMMONS YESTERDAY

Mr. Borden Makes "Holier Than Thou" Speech--Fielding Anxious to Improve Election Laws, But Reminds Opposition Leader that Conservative Party Has Been Open to Criticism.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 16.—In the commons today the finance minister announced that hereafter no bounty would be paid on iron and steel exported, and where such was exported bounty would have to be repaid.

W. S. Maclean stated that native spirits were being compounded and labeled in Montreal and sold as imported goods. This was unfair to consumers and entailed a loss of revenue to the government.

The minister of customs replied that there was no loss of revenue. The fraud could be dealt with under the compounders' act.

On motion to go into supply Mr. Borden referred to the absence of Mr. Hymann, and Mr. Fielding stated he had received a telegram from Mr. Hymann, stating he had forwarded his resignation to the speaker.

Mr. Borden said Mr. Hymann and Mr. Emmerson had both denied the truth of the allegations against them, but they had received different treatment at the hands of the prime minister. Mr. Borden said amendment to the election law had been proposed in the commons. At this late stage of the session such legislation could be hoped for. Mr. Borden referred to alleged frauds in the Brookville, West Huron, London and St. Andrew's elections. These indicated operations of organized election corruption, supplied from somewhere with funds. The government took no action in the London election of 1904, Mr. Borden said there was organized corruption.

Mr. Fielding—"That shows how unfair Mr. Borden is when he desires to make a point. After what took place in the Commons away with it taken as representing more than the money and to bribe electors. He thought it time the law was amended to provide effective punishment for men who committed electoral frauds. He asked where election funds came from and said the state of New York furnished a good example by making it illegal for a corporation to contribute to the funds of either political party. He was prepared to go further and make it illegal for any one to contribute to a campaign fund, unless an account of it were given before the election and the names of the contributors be published in the London election of 1903, and declaring that the election laws should be amended to prevent and punish electoral frauds, for the better conduct of elections, to prevent the accumulation of huge campaign funds, and prohibit contributions to them by corporations, contractors and promoters, to expedite the hearing of electoral petitions, and prevent saw-offs, and regretting that in spite of the speech from the throne no amendment to the election law is to be made this year.

Mr. Borden had made a "holier than thou" speech. He did not wish to extend the wrong of the past, but he protested against the idea that all the virtues were with the Conservatives and all the vices with the Liberals. History was filled with a record of electoral offenses committed by Conservatives. Sir John A. Macdonald had made the most disqualified in Kings; Sir Hector Langevin had been unseated; Sir Charles Tupper, Geo. E. Foster, Sir John C. Abbott had all been unseated for electoral corruption. Mr. Fielding said his opponents had swept Queens and Shelburne with a comb and had only been able to disclose two or three petty cases of corruption. They said $500 had passed through the hands of his agent, Mr. Farrell, but Mr. Fielding ventured to say not one of the Conservative members in the house had spent five or ten times that amount. There was not a more honorable man than Mr. Farrell in Canada.

Mr. Borden had been charged with political activity but it was strange if told Mr. Dexter that he could not continue to hold the harbor mastership and he has sent in his resignation.

In the London election of 1904, Mr. Borden said there was organized corruption. This must be done away with if members of the Commons were to be taken as representing more than the money and to bribe electors. He thought it time the law was amended to provide effective punishment for men who committed electoral frauds. He asked where election funds came from and said the state of New York furnished a good example by making it illegal for a corporation to contribute to the funds of either political party. He was prepared to go further and make it illegal for any one to contribute to a campaign fund, unless an account of it were given before the election and the names of the contributors be published in the London election of 1903, and declaring that the election laws should be amended to prevent and punish electoral frauds, for the better conduct of elections, to prevent the accumulation of huge campaign funds, and prohibit contributions to them by corporations, contractors and promoters, to expedite the hearing of electoral petitions, and prevent saw-offs, and regretting that in spite of the speech from the throne no amendment to the election law is to be made this year.

WILL COMMENCE BUILDING BEFORE THE SNOW FLIES

L'Etiang Railway Scheme Is a Certainty Says J. Sutton Clark

He Claims Absolutely That the C. P. R. are Not Behind the Project--L'Etiang a Great Port

J. Sutton Clark of St. George, who is at the Dufferin, last evening said that the statement published in the press to the effect that the Canadian Pacific railway was behind the proposed L'Etiang railway scheme was absolutely without foundation. The project is independent of any existing line of railway. Mr. Clark was very reticent about the plans of the proposed road in which he is interested. He further said that the building operation would be commenced "before snow flies." The proposed line will run from L'Etiang to St. Croix.

Those back of the L'Etiang railway scheme intend to boom L'Etiang as a terminal port. For about a year a pamphlet entitled "National Ports of Canada" has been circulated throughout the province and other parts of Canada. Mr. Clark laughingly said that St. John people have only very recently become aware that there was another place on the south coast of New Brunswick that aimed at being the Canadian winter port. Mr. Clark had a conference here yesterday with Mr. Marsh of Toronto, one of those interested in the project, and connected with the Canada-Jamaica steamship line.

FLY THE FLAG.

American Visitor Surprised at the Bare Flag Poles in the City—Very Different in the United States.

To Editor of the Star: Sir: Having been absent from St. John for a number of years, travelling through the United States and Upper Canada, I was dumfounded at the number of bare flag poles erected on your squares and public buildings, without the slightest resemblance of patriotism to denote under which flag I am present, or why I was not made to seek for succor in case of need. On the beautiful custom house structure, of which St. John should be proud, there stand three flag poles—without the flag of Britain or Canada—and on the opposite side of the street (over the American consulate office) there was "Old Glory" the Stars and Stripes flapping with the breeze. Travelling over your city I find your public squares, school-houses and city buildings destitute of this loyal patriotism of which your people should be proud. Why, there is not a railroad station, square, school-house, hotel, public building, theatre, etc., etc., in the cities of the United States but Old Glory is flung to the breeze, and it is the boast and pride of Americans to salute their flag on all occasions. There seems to be a disposition, I understand, to display the Canadian flag from the schoolhouses of the city in the near future. Why not make it compulsory to display the Canadian flag from all public buildings and squares in and around St. John, and the love of "home and God and native land" will be more deeply impressed on your young and rising generation. Sincerely yours, etc.

Miss Macaulay is one of St. John's most popular young ladies. Dr. Sewell, who is a native of Gibson, N. B., is also very well known and the best wishes of a large host of friends will go out to the newly married couple. Dr. and Mrs. Sewell will leave this evening for New York. On their return they will reside at 135 Charlotte street.

Sturdee, daughter of the late High Sheriff Lawrence Sturdee, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles S. E. Robertson, secretary of the W. F. Hatheway Co., and son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Robertson, Pitt street. Bishop Richardson officiated, assisted by Rev. R. Heyington Jones. The bride was attired in a travelling suit of blue broadcloth with hat to match. Miss C. Sturdee was bridesmaid and Mr. B. E. Church was groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left on a wedding trip to Boston. On their return they will reside on Mecklenburg street. Among the many presents received were: silver candelabra from the choir of Trinity Church of which the bride has been the leading soprano; a handsome silver scallop dish from the Young Men's Association of Trinity Church; cut glass tumblers, water pitcher and cracked ice bowl from the employees of W. TO MAKE A NEW HOME IN A HEATHEN LAND

Farwell Reception Tendered Mr. and Mrs. Ewen G. McAfee, Who go to the New Hebrides.

The farwell reception in St. John's Presbyterian church last evening to Mrs. and Mr. Ewen G. McAfee, who leaves on Thursday next, by the C. P. R. for their distant field of labor, was well attended. Rev. Dr. Fotheringham, pastor of the church, presided. After devotional exercises, addresses were delivered. Rev. A. A. Graham spoke as representing sister churches and particularly St. David's. Mr. J. W. Parks expressed the feelings of the congregation. Mr. C. H. Dolg, superintendent, voiced the sentiments of the missionaries. The quartette rendered appropriate selections and Rev. L. A. and Mrs. McLean sang a Scotch duet. At the close of the addresses, the chairman presented Mr. McAfee with a well-filled purse in the name of the congregation, the contents of which were intended to assist him and Mrs. McAfee in setting up a Christian home amongst the heathen islands. Mr. McAfee made a suitable reply. Mrs. McAfee was then presented with a handsome bouquet of carnations from the Accot Mission. Refreshments were then served and the pleasant evening was closed by singing "All Hail The Power of Jesus Name."

It is interesting to notice that Mrs. McAfee, formerly Miss Morrison, is a grandchild of Rev. Donald Morrison, who went out as a missionary to the New Hebrides along with Rev. Mr. Gordon, who had volunteered to take the place of his martyred brother, and who himself in a short time fell a victim to native treachery. Mr. Morrison settled on the Island of Zedao, but his health failing he retired to New Zealand, where he died. Mr. and Mrs. McAfee will locate on the Island of Santo and will work in connection with Rev. Dr. Annand.

WENT TO SLEEP AND A GRUM STOLE HIS MONEY

So Robert Tait Got Free Lodgings in a Box Car, Was Arrested, and Then Set Free.

Despite the fact that the bars were closed yesterday there were three prisoners in the police court this morning to face Magistrate Ritchie. Two were drunks, one of them, John Curran, an old offender, who was sent to jail for two months. Curran was quite ill this morning and had to be assisted from the cell to the court house. Robert Tait was charged with lying and lurking in a box car in the I. C. R. yard. Tait explained that when he boarded the train at Moncton yesterday he had $4.25 in his pocket, and he was in company with a chum, who was en route to Houlton, Me. Tait says he fell asleep on the train and his chum stole his money. Having no money nor a place to put up for the night he went into the box car to sleep. He said he was in search of work in one of the saw mills. He was given a warning not to sleep out at nights and was handed over to the care of Adjutant Bowering of the Salvation Army.

CORRECTION.

The Star desires to make amends for an unfortunate error that occurred in yesterday's election report. In referring to George Green, the Stanley ward candidate, it was stated he had received a letter "from Ald. McGoldrick" offering him a clear field next year if he (Green) withdrew this year from the contest. The paragraph should have read that he received a letter, but not from "Alderman McGoldrick" himself; evidently some friend of the Stanley ward representative. The reporter's copy was written this way, but in the rush of editions the printer's version made the case quite different. This correction is made voluntarily in justice to both Mr. Green and Alderman McGoldrick, who are as good friends as ever.

HE WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT MCGOLDRICK

Among those who felt the interest in yesterday's election was James Lowell, M. P. F., for years one of the councillors for the parish of Lancaster. Shortly after six o'clock when the returns were all in, the Star's telephone rang. "It's Lowell speaking; how's McGoldrick?" was the query. The desired information was given along with the remainder of the returns, and the Star learned that Mr. Lowell, at the other end of the wire, was in the central exchange at New Glasgow, N. S. He could not wait for the papers to convey the results of the contest. Mr. Lowell is in Pictou County having a look at the roads, with a view to securing pointers for similar works in New Brunswick.
