A subscriber once received a dund through the post office and it made him mad. He went to see the editor about it, and the editor showed him a few dunds of his own—one for paper one for type, one for fuel and several others. Now, said the editor, I didn't get mad when these came because I knew that all I had to do was to ask several reliable gentlemen, like you to come and help me out, and then I could settle all of them. When the subscriber saw how it was he re-acted, paid up, and renewed for another year.

TO MONTREAL IN EARLY OCTOBER.

With richly wooded Mount Royal in its beautiful Autumnal tints, the magnificent stores brisk with fall trade, the theatrical and concert season at its best, and that contagious snap in the air so peculiar to the Canadian climate in early October, no more ideal season could be selected for a trip to the Canadian Metropolis. The hundreds of satisfied passengers who are now returning to the Maritime Provinces from the September excursions and Eucharistic Conduct will no doubt prove good advertising mediums for the People's Railway. And when it is taken into consideration that the rates quoted are less than single fare for the round trip from all points on the Railway in the Maritime Provinces it should certainly provide another opportunity for the Intercolonial to demonstrate its excellent facilities for transporting a large number of people from St. John to Montreal, and no doubt it will. October 1, 3, and 4, are the going dates with a return limit leaving Montreal not later than the 18th, and it would be advisable to make early application for sleeping car reservations on those popular trains, the "Ocean Limited" and "Maritime Express."

THE GRANITE TOWN GREETINGS

Interesting Items.

Lots of people who want to be forgiven don't want to be forgotten.

The improvement of Jamaica Bay, which is now under way, will add 150 miles of water front to the New York harbor.

The Lewiston Evening Journal says that the seventeen year locust is due to appear during the summer of 1911. Last time this dreaded scourge appeared was in 1894. The Journal urges that preparations be made beforehand to fight the pest.

W. H. Matthews, of Holton, Kan., made a pond in his grazing pasture opposite the home of Frank Jarrell. It rained a few days afterward and Jarrell, seeing the pond filled with water, painted on a shingle. "No fishing in this pond. Next day four strangers were seen sitting placidly on the shore of the pond with fishing tackle in their hands, waiting for a bite.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 20--Mrs. A. E. Winslip, aged eighty, has registered as a student in Ohio State University. Mrs. Winslip will take an optional course and says that she is going to college simply because she likes to acquire all the knowledge that she can. She returned recently from Michigan where she attended a summer school.

The final revised edition of the New Testament, together with the Psalms of David, is now issuing from the press in Chinese, and stacks of the volume are being shipped to remote parts of China. The translators are now gathering at Chifu at the annual conference. It is estimated that the entire task will be completed about the year 1915.

The first anthracite coal mine worked in the world, the Hacklebernie at Summit Hill, Pa., from which a first load was taken in 1793, is being closed by the Lehigh company. There is still coal to be found in abundance in the mine, but the company will not operate it yet on account of its many collieries at other and more convenient places.

Some time ago a young married woman of our town whose name we omit, made a curious blunder. She put some eggs on to boil soon after breakfast one morning. They were still on when he came home at dinner time. Upon her husband asking what was in the saucepan, she answered: "Eggs for your dinner. They have been on since soon after breakfast I have tried them with a fork and they are not boiled yet."--Chatham World.

Chicago, Sept. 20--The beginning of the end of the hobble skirt is noted by certain of dressmakers gathered here today in convention. It is stated that the skirts already are falling out. A plan to establish a dressmakers institute in connection with Chicago's public schools system will come up at a dinner of the dressmakers next Friday. Superintendent of schools, Ella F. Young, representatives of the Chicago Association of Commerce and others will discuss the matter. It is stated that dressmaking schools in Boston and New York have proved successful in providing much needed expert assistance to the makers of women's apparel.

Boston Advertiser: Alexander Pottle of 34 Myrtle street, Wednesday returned to work at the Parker house for the first time in nine weeks, after treatment for a broken neck. He owes his life to the skill of the surgeons connected with the Lawrence hospital. The seventh cervical vertebra was not only fractured when an automobile in which he rode brought up against a tree in North Reading on July 10, but the spinal cords were pulled out of their sockets as well. In the delicate operation that followed Dr. A. H. Catter removed one and one-half inches of the vertebra. For three weeks Pottle endured frightful pain as the bones knitted.

A Life of Horror

Rescued in a rail on an isolated house near Rockland Lake, N. Y., Annie Verducci a pretty 19-year old Hoboken girl, this week told a tragic story of being forced into slavery by the "Black Hand" and of turning robber at the behest for fear of losing her life if she disobeyed her captor's commands. So much of her story has been corroborated by the detectives who rescued her that two women and a man await hearings at Nyack and a second man was arrested at Union Hill N. J. Another man is in jail at Hoboken because, he says, he refused to do the will of the "Black Hand."

Annie Verducci is well educated and for a time was a rider in a Western outdoor show. Her sister, Eva, a year older, also was a rider in the show, where she met and married John Meyer, an Oklahoma cowboy, who, after leaving the show, came to live with the sisters in Hoboken. His training as a crack shot made him a marked man with the powers which prey through fear of the gun and knife. He says he was approached by men who told him that he could be a valuable ally to them. He admitted that he did not reject the proposal or inform on them to the police. In his first scrape he fell into the hands of the police.

Telling about her experience, Annie Verducci said that she determined to save her brother-in-law, and when she found her sister was not going to keep the appointment with the band she decided to go and offer herself. Leaving her home, she went with a woman named Mrs. Christina to the place of meeting.

There, she said, they were met by Angelo De Marco, who told Mrs. Christina he had a few words to speak privately with the girl, and led her away with him for several blocks. Then they got on a street car and went to Union Hill, where the man led her to a shoemaker shop. Entering at the rear door, the girl found herself in the midst of a dozen men who were playing cards.

"The men are going to raise money to get John Meyer out of jail, but you must do your share," the man said to her, holding the girl's story. Alone in a back room with twelve men and not a friendly face among them, the girl bowed to the inevitable, and feared to make any outcry.

Half an hour later she was taken to a top room in another house in Union Hill and there she remained until she was to be transferred to the lonely house back of Nyack. She said that the woman who was arrested at Rockland Lake, Aelina Piacanica, went to Union Hill and accompanied her captors back to the lonely house.

That was in July, and from that time on the girl in bondage led an existence of which she cannot speak now without shuddering. She said little about it, for she had abandoned all hope of ever returning to the world as Annie Verducci expecting to end her life as a "white slave."

To Hair Dressers

A Splendid Hair Tonic That Makes Beautiful Hair

Every hair dresser should know about Parisian Sage, the quick-acting hair-dressing, that does just what this paper tells you it will do.

Parisian Sage is a most delightful and different hair dressing, a fact that will be recognized the moment it is applied to the scalp. There is not a particle of stickiness in it; it is not greasy; it has a delicate and refined odor, and is a truly invigorating tonic that will make hair grow, if the hair root still shows the least sign of life.

Try a bottle of Parisian Sage. It will brighten up the hair in two days.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by J. Sutton Clark to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and scalp itch in two weeks, or money back. It is particularly in demand by women of refinement, who desire soft, luxuriant hair, that compels admiration. Price 50 cents a large bottle by J. Sutton Clark, or direct, all charges prepaid, from the Canadian makers, the Giraux Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont.

The receipts of the Halifax Tram Company for the week ending Sept. 14, were $4,521.37, and for the same week last year $4,199.20, an increase of $322.17 for the present year.

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link; the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

Give Away--Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 59 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A good position can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8 hour law became effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, Ohio, or Philadelphia.

Lost in Woods

Accompanied by a party of four men, Capt. Walpole Roland, 83 years old, a mining engineer of Port Arthur, Ont., left there for the Manfou Lake country, northwest of that place, prospecting for gold. After reaching the intended camping ground, Capt. Roland left the party, intending to visit a location a little off the route they were travelling, and had made arrangements that the canoe should pick him up at a certain point down Lake Wabigoon. In some way his companions failed to make connections, and Capt. Roland was left in the woods, 100 miles from civilization, without anything to eat or the means whereby to fish or shoot. His commissariat consisted of three matches.

Starting this man in the face was the suspicion that the canoe had been wrecked, and that when the next prospecting party to pass that way found them the whole party would be reported lost. He had indomitable pluck, started out to work his way through the brush in a direction which he figured the Dominion geological survey party would pass, as he had before going into the bush heard that such a party was likely to be commissioned and proceed to work under Dr. Parsons. This to him was his only hope of salvation.

As there were no berries to be had, his whole diet consisted of a few leaves, pieces of bark and water, and for 31 days this was all he had to sustain him physically. The man's strong will power and physique materially assisted in this remarkable feat.

During those first two weeks the party from whom he had been separated stayed in the bush and prosecuted a search as far as they were able, ultimately returning to Port Arthur. Mayor Matthews on learning of the disappearance of Capt. Roland, commissioned a body of men all thoroughly conversant with the woods in that part of the country to continue to search for the captain and endeavor to find him, dead or alive. Notwithstanding the experience and persistence of these men, the task had to be given up as hopeless.

It is easy to judge of the surprise, therefore which a telegram caused, sent by Dr. Parsons from Wabigoon, stating that they had come across Capt. Roland wandering in the woods, and that while very much exhausted he was still alive and that he was being nourished back to life and would be sent by mail to Port Arthur in charge of careful hands, and it was with a strange feeling of awe that the citizens of Port Arthur saw this "man from the dead" lifted off a Pullman car. Once he was lifted to the sidewalk he showed evident signs of unbounded pleasure in being back among men, and appeared to be in fairly good health and strength. Hundreds, overcome at seeing him return, desired to shake hands with him and congratulate him on being still alive. Rheumatism was giving him considerable trouble when he went away, but it has almost completely disappeared.

An interesting story the old prospector tells of his trip from day to day through the woods. A thorough woodsman, it was nothing new to him to be alone with nature. The difficulty was to find his way out. He had no canoe and no means of making a temporary raft, and the underbrush was heavy in most places. During the daytime he struggled on, tearing off strips of birch bark and making notices with a pencil which he had in his pocket, so that should the survey party be in the neighborhood, they would ultimately come across this strangely blazed trail.

Like some other men facing death, he kept in a small notebook a diary of his wanderings, and there was even a streak of humor displayed. One day it recorded: "I find I have one ticket left in my stub book for a restaurant in Port Arthur, but neither money nor tickets are of any use here."

At night falling to the ground with exhaustion, he pulled his coat around his head to protect his face from the insects and at times from the rain. His sleep was disturbed by the howls of wolves in the distance. Luckily these animals were not hungry. Towards the end of his wanderings he recorded in his diary: "Mental faculties extremely keen. Have not yet given up hope, but am gradually losing strength." The next entry in his diary is simply to the effect that he was found by Dr. Parsons.

He has been an interesting figure from his boyhood, when he served in the British army, under Gordon in China and with Lord Roberts in India. This has not been the first time he had to go without food for a long period, as once before he and a party of five prospectors were for 168 hours without provisions, but in that case they were able to gather a few berries, which materially helped to sustain their lives.

DEER ISLAND

Deer island, Sept. 20.--Although the season has been a poor one for Deer Island fish weirs, the men are reaping the harvest in St. John and St. Andrews harbors.

A number of people visited the Dominion Exhibition in St. John last week and report the fair a grand success.

The schools opened last week with increased attendance. Lambert's Cove school building has been repaired by J. H. Ward, while repairs are reported on many others.

For the last two weeks the Christian church building at Lords Cove has been in the hands of carpenters and masons. Extensive repairs are being made on the outside, while a furnace will shortly be installed by the committee. An additional lot of land has been secured by the church on which, in the near future, an annex will be built to accommodate the increased attendance.

The building has a seating capacity of 400, and as the Sunday school has increased in proportion, the addition will be used as a class room. A minister is now being sought for, to fill the vacancy until Dr. E. E. Davidson shall come back to take up the work. During Dr. Davidson's preaching, a number were added to the church membership, while the attendance grew to such large proportions that the committee had to look around for room. The church is in better working condition and awaiting their pastor's return. The congregation is the largest body of disciples in the Maritime Provinces.

Legal Newspaper Decisions.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office, whether directed to his address or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

2. If any person order his paper discontinued he may pay all arrears; or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether it is taken from the office or not.

3. The Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them unsealed for, is prima facie evidence of fraud.

If you want to stop your paper, write to the publisher yourself, and don't leave it to the postmaster.

"Will the merchants in St. George who order goods from St. John dealers for shipment by the Stmr. Connect, please, kindly instruct the shippers to have the goods at the steamer's wharf not later than twelve o'clock Fridays. This is necessary in order to stow your freight with safety."

Tonic or Stimulant?

There is an immense difference between a tonic and a stimulant. Up one day, way back the next; that's a stimulant. Steady progress day by day toward perfect health; that's a tonic. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic, a strong tonic. The only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Do not stimulate unless your doctor says so. He knows. Ask him. Do as he says. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Constipation is the one great cause of sick-headache, biliousness, indigestion, bad breath, debility, nervousness. Has your doctor ever recommended Ayer's Pills to you?

THE GRANITE TOWN GREETINGS

The warmest friends of Red Rose Tea are those who have tried some other brand said to be "as good as Red Rose" and for which they paid the same price. Very easy to say a thing is "as good" but not so easy to "make good."

Prices: 30c., 35c., 40c., 50c. and 60c.

Killed Bride to End Suffering

New York, Sept. 25.—Haunted by the memory of his wife whose sufferings he mercifully ended by sending a bullet through her head in the wilds of the Canadian Northwest, miles from help, James McDowell a prospector and miner, is at the home of friends, at No. 2774 Bainbridge ave., the Bronx, a nervous and physical wreck. He has been under treatment, but he is growing worse. He says of himself:

"How long I can stand it don't know." McDowell granted the plea of his mortally injured wife to end her agony. He was exonerated by a jury of his fellow-men. The remembrance of that awful experience has shattered his nerves until he is now hardly more than the wreck of a man.

McDowell is fifty-eight years old, six feet tall and a gaunt reminder of what was once a physically perfect man. The thought that he killed his wife, despite the fact that it was the only course open to him, is with him constantly, and his sunken eyes tell of wearisome days and sleepless nights. He is averse to talking of the experience, but last night he consented to tell his story.

"My wife was Fanny Crawford, a native of Alberta Province," he said. "Her father was John Crawford, who had been a miner, a prospector, in California and Canada for years. He and I had been close friends, and are yet, Fanny was only twenty-two when we were married. I had a rich claim near Castle Mountain, which is in the British Columbia extension of the Cascade range, and soon after we were married I decided to visit it. I had been there some time before and had cut a rough trail to the claim.

"Fanny begged me to take her with me, I demurred, as it was no place for a woman; but she persisted, and I finally consented. We visited friends in Calgary for a few days, while I was purchasing supplies and then started for the mine, a five day journey by mule. We had three mules—one for my wife, one for myself, and the third for a pack animal, carrying provisions and tools for building a cabin, as I intended to do some work on the claim.

"The trails on Castle Mountain are very narrow and steep, so much so that it is difficult for even a mule to pass over them. One day we were going along one of these trails. My wife was some yards ahead of me, and I was lounging in the saddle, half asleep. It was about ten o'clock in the forenoon, and we had been riding three hours.

"Suddenly my wife's mule brayed as if in pain, and I looked up to see him rearing on the very edge of the precipice. I have always thought he was stung by a hornet. I tried to reach my wife's side, but before I could do so the mule plunged over the precipice, carrying Fanny with him.

"I threw myself to the ground and peered over the edge. I could hear the mule's body crashing through the trees and among the rocks to the bottom, fully 2,000 feet. I nearly pitched over myself.

"It was almost twenty-four hours later before I found the carcass of the mule. I had eaten nothing for almost thirty hours and was nearly insane from grief, hunger and thirst. My clothing and flesh were torn by the rocks over which I had crawled. My skin was almost blistered by the heat and my eyes smarted so that I could hardly see.

Kidney Troubles Attack St. George Men and Women Old and Young

Kidney pills seize young and old. Come quickly with little warning. Children suffer in their early years. Can't control the kidney secretions. Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain. Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. The cure for man, woman or child is to cure the cause—the kidneys. Booth's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Cure all forms of kidney suffering. Mrs. N. Good, of 70 Stadacona street, Moose Jaw, Sask., says:

"I am pleased to state for the benefit of any person suffering with a weak and painful back, that they will find Booth's Kidney Pills a most excellent remedy. I have suffered for months with a very weak back and severe pains and aches in the kidneys, and felt very much depressed. There was also a swelling under my eyes. When I learned of Booth's Kidney Pills, I procured a box, and found them the best remedy I have ever used, as they were very quick in giving me relief. The pains have left my back and it has strengthened. They have also helped to build up my health. For sale in St. George by J. Sutton Clark.

Sold by dealers. Price 50 cents. The R. T. Booth Co. Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont., Sole Canadian Agents.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hicks of Middleton, N. Y., attempted to commit suicide recently by taking chloroform. Immediately after taking the drug she repented of her act and, telling her husband, sent him for a physician. He stopped on the way to talk to a friend and forgot all about his wife. Neighbors heard the woman's groans and notified the police, who secured a physician. Mrs. Hicks' life was saved after a considerable effort.

"The vestibule of hell" is the term used by a Boston preacher to describe Newport, the summer home of many of the greatly rich people of the United States.

As the motor of an aeroplane makes too much noise for an aviator to hear anything else; a French army officer has invented a telephone for a passenger to use to talk to him.

It has been found by actual count that there are 11,223 trees in New York city between the battery and One Hundred and Eighty-second street. This number does not include the trees in the parks.

Before discounting any paper, the Bank of England requires at least two good British names, one of which must be the acceptor. It seldom holds over $150,000,000 in bills discounted and securities of all kinds.

During the nitrate year ending June 30, the Chilean fields produced 2,260,000 tons of nitrate an increase of 420,000 tons over 1908-9. Of this amount the United States consumed 109,000 tons, and the American market now ranges at about $42 a ton, a drop of $3 from last year. The production to Chile is now unimpeded by a combine.

An ingenious Australian machine for washing clothes by means of suction caused by steam and a vacuum attracted much attention at recent exhibitions in Melbourne. The machine not only leaves the articles washed snow white, but saves rough handling and the resulting damage to delicate fabrics.

The figures showing the decline in the United States in the value of bicycles exported from $7,005,323 in 1907 to $620,760 last year, throw further light on the passing of a national fad. But though the "wheel" did not "come to stay" as a pastime, it survives in considerable numbers in factory towns and elsewhere as a vehicle for use in saving car fare.

Exchange:—When the national negro business league was organized ten years ago there were no State negro business leagues or local leagues in the United States. There are now eight State leagues and nearly 500 local league organizations to the national organization. Ten years ago the delegates represented $100,000,000 of wealth. At the recent anniversary the wealth represented was two hundred or more millions of dollars. Ten years ago the total wealth of the United States was not more than $300,000,000; now it is estimated to be at least $600,000,000.

Why not make the best of things as they come to us? There are certain ones in this town who have been complaining of hard times ever since we knew them. They could not enjoy the last few weeks of a warm winter for fear the fruit buds would start and then be killed. They know the smelts will be a failure this year. There is always something disastrous going to happen. It is just as cheap and you are worth more to your family and the town if you will look on the sunny side of life.—Chatham World.

Gull Lake, Sask., Sept. 20—(Special.) Lewis McBride murdered his father in a drunken frenzy at the homestead they occupied ten miles from the city Friday evening. McBride and his son had been in town drinking freely. They returned to their homestead and in a drunken brawl Lewis discharged the contents of a double barreled shotgun into his father's stomach. The shot brought the younger man to his senses and realizing what he had done, he immediately sent to town for medical aid but it was too late. McBride, upon explaining what had occurred at the homestead, was arrested by Constable Fisher, of the royal northwest mounted police.

The New magazine rifle for the French army will cost at least $120,000,000, but France must have it. The Lebel rifle, in use since 1886, has become obsolete. In small arms, isn't there a limit to possible improvements?

A Canton, O., judge has sentenced a man to spend every Sunday in jail until further notice. He gives the prisoner the privilege of working all the week in order to support his family, but he must report at the jail every Saturday night. The Sunday "booze" is thus cut out.

The excise law of the State of New York provides that when the population of a city or borough exceeds 1,500,000 the fee for a liquor license shall be $1,200. Consequently the saloon keepers of Brooklyn are not rejoicing in the increase in population of that borough of the greater New York, which has added $225 a year to their license fees.

The association of West German manufacturers have adopted resolutions calling on the government to give notice to the United States of the termination of the patent agreement made Feb. 23, 1909 on the ground that the same is detrimental to the interests of German inventors, patent owners and German industry generally; or to pass a revised patent law which shall deprive Americans of certain privileges.

The wide reaches of waste land on the island of Singapore, which have been of no use since the culture of gambier, coffee and pepper was given up, are now the scenes of great activity. Rubber plants are being set out over these wastes and seem to do well. In the suburbs of Singapore city a considerable area of swamp land has been drained and converted into a nursery for Para Rubber plants which are sold at a good profit to the planters. The eastern rubber boom has caused the flotation of 75 companies with 34,000,000 shares, capitalized at nearly $90,000,000 gold.

Of all the orders bestowed on women of nobility, none is more coveted than the order of Louise. The only woman in England who are privileged to wear this distinctive emblem are Queen Mary and the Duchess of Argyll. Three years ago the honor was conferred on them by Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany. The order of Louise, which ranks as the most highly prized decoration that any gentlemanly woman can receive, was founded in 1814 in memory of Queen Louise mother of Emperor William I. and great grandmother of the present Kaiser. Her courage and self-sacrifice in the face of the heart-breaking experience in the time of her country's trouble, have earned for her the highest esteem of her countrywomen and explains the reason why the order named in her memory is so widely craved.
