MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 7, 1873 The M. P.s and the Game of Grab. A number of gentlemen offered their ervices to the various constituencies at the last general election, agreeing to serve them in Parliament for six years at $6 a day. It was a fair and binding Sign Painting agreement. The salary was fixed, and the candidates of their own option offered to accept it-were eager to accept it. business to enter the public service. And now some of these gentlemen propose to abuse the confidence reposed in them by deliberately breaking the agreement into which they entered. They are forming a conspiracy to pay themselv s more than they eagerly agreed to do the work for. We have no hesitation in declaring, without waiting to learn who is for or against this scheme, that it is a GEORGE MURDOCH, sonal honor-a mercenary grab game Rooms, 1 and 2 Bayard's Building, for an example of the result of the course proposed by some grasping and dishonest members of Parliament. Con-

Conductor Ryan pleads that he misunderstood the orders given him to run his train on a siding at Brookfield. No regulations or precautions for the protection of life will avail if officials are but let him or her get one taste and there

There appears to be no excuse whatver for Captain Williams of the S. S. Atlantic for not having taken ordinary precautions to keep from running his ship ashore. He should be made to feel that his being saved from the wreck was the nost unfortunate event of his life.

The benevolent old uncle of the stage has actually turned up in propria persona in Taunton, Mass. A house there was to be sold at public vendue, and among the bidders was an unknown man, who seemed determined to have the house at any price, and got it. He then called a young man aside, and told him that he would man aside, and told him that he would give him the property. It was thought to be a joke, but, the young man's wife being summoned, it turned out that the mysterious old gentleman was her uncle from the West, and that the house was his present to her. Then they all went into the house and had a good time.

PORTLAND, March 14th, 1860, To Mes. Warrebury.—Dear Madam,—I derire to add my testimony to your already Celebrated Dinner Pills. During my whole life time, until about six years ago, I was severely afflicted with Indigestion. Biliousness and all their attendant coils. I had tried many medicines, and got but tomporary relief. At the time above mentioned. I was advised to try your Pils: I did so for three months, according to drections: since that time I have had no occasion to take any medicine, and have enjoyed good health.
