DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By E. R. Walte, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce

That buyers hunting bargains should always read the advertisements because when merchants have some extra bargains they always advertise that fact. That real merit is behind goods persistently advertised; if there was not merit behind them, the merchants would not sell them to the same people time after time. People can always save money by reading the ads before they shop. That advertisements are busy little things working for you all the while. That when you buy merchandise you make your buying pay you a profit. That advertisements are a great medium of information. They tell you of new goods on the market and remind you of things you need. They tell you where you can find what you want when you want it. That the business concerns whose goods they are to sell have no excuse for printed page are giving you the most efficient service any business concern could give. Advertisements are the best thing you can do for your business. (Copyright 1924, by E. R. Walte).

JUNE SESSION COUNTY COUNCIL

(OFFICIAL REPORT)

The semi-annual meeting of the Council of the Municipality of Carleton commenced in the Court House at 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning, June 11th.

The Council board consists of the following gentlemen: Aberdeen—Arthur E. McIntosh, Hugh J. Fleming, Brighton—Fred Brown, Henry Smith.

Kent—G. W. Perry, Louis Boyd, Northampton—H. A. Phillips, G. Arthur Gibson.

Peel—E. W. Melville, Edward Sains.

Richmond—K. F. Dalling, W. A. Mc Dougall.

Simonds—W. N. Raymond, Jas. W. Peters.

Wakefield—Robert Bell, J. Allan Good.

Wicklow—Hugh Tweedie, R. Beecher Tracey.

Wilnot—W. F. Anderson, Bert E. Cliff.

Woodstock—Chas. W. Clark, John W. Marston.

Woodstock Town—Wm. Balmalm, Harry T. Stevens, H. M. DeWitt.

Hartland Town—Warren White.

The officials present were: J. C. Hartley, secretary treasurer, J. P. Maloney, reporter; Sheriff Foster, Deputy Sheriff Moores, Herbert Holmes, clerk, were absent on account of illness.

There was one death since the January session, F. B. Bull, of the parish of Woodstock, who is succeeded by John W. Marston.

The session opened by the members of the Council singing the National Anthem, led by Coun. Bell.

Rev. J. T. Cavers, pastor of the Methodist church in Woodstock, the chaplain for this session, offered prayer for the guidance of the Council.

Warden Anderson welcomed the Councilmen to the June session. Since last they met, death came and took their ranks, the esteemed friend, Coun. F. Byron Bull. He was a faithful servant of the people, and had been particularly interested in the movement to erect the soldiers' monument. The county was on the whole prosperous and everything was looking fine compared to the situation that existed in January last. The farmers have realized good prices for everything they had to sell. If we had a few years more like this one, Carleton county would be in great shape. For three years conditions have been bad, but the County will soon be back to previous times.

The minutes of the January session were read. Approved.

Mr. Hartley said that owing to the death of F. Byron Bull, he had held an election in the Parish of Woodstock. Only one nomination was filed, that of John W. Marston. He was declared elected, had taken the necessary oath and was duly qualified to sit at this board. Adopted.

Coun. Bell, Perry and Melville asked for some information as to the amended law for the protection of sheep from dogs, and Mr. Hartley said that he had received from Premier Veniot a letter, in reply to his own stating that the enforcement was now in the hands of the Municipal Council.

Coun. Bell—How does the county now stand financially?

Mr. Hartley—Last year we only had a warrant for $25,000. The county has only $16,000 in debentures. We pay off $2000 each year and in eight years we will be free from debt. Last January we had a deficit of some $350.

By the good work of the collectors we paid that amount, paid the bills voted in January and had a surplus of $2500.

Since then we paid $7000 school drafts making a deficit at present, but when the collections are in we will have a surplus. This is the best statement that has been given for any town or county in the province that I have heard about.

Moved by Coun. Perry, seconded by Coun. Tweedie, that the Council adjourn until 2 o'clock. Carried.

Council met at two o'clock, Warden Angerson in the chair.

Coun. Fleming—On behalf of the committee appointed to wait upon the executors of the Fisher Estate, we performed our duty and were told by A. B. Connell that the executors would give their assistance to the cost of paying the Fisher Hospital, and the executors have since done so. Adopted.

Mr. Hartley said that he had written to Dr. Anglin asking him to address this board at the June session. Dr. Anglin replied under date of April 2, but on June 13 he wrote that he had to attend the Rotary Convention in Toronto. Adopted.

Coun. Balmalm said that he, with Coun. Melville and the late Coun. Bull, was a member of the committee to have the charter engraved. They had attended to that duty. The job was a good one and the charter was now hanging in the Council Chamber.

Coun. Balmalm, for the committee appointed to see about purchasing an adding machine for the office of the (Continued on next page)

BATH BREEZES

Domitian Day passed quietly and so also, the fourth, that is as far as the people were concerned. The next big day for Bath, however, is the St. Gertrude's Church Afternoon and Evening Fete, which is to be held on Tuesday, July 15.

Miss Ella Gibson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Gibson, who for the past year has been residing in Lowell, Mass., arrived home on Dominion Day, having come by motor car from Woodstock.

On Wednesday evening the Misses Bohan were hostesses to a large number in honor of their niece, Miss Dorothy Bohan, student-nurse of Hotel Dieu Hospital, Chatham, who is home on her vacation. A most enjoyable dance was enjoyed by all. There was a large number present. The most enjoyable features of the evening were the vocal selections, beautifully rendered by Miss Ella Gibson. At the midnight hour dainty refreshments were served.

On Friday the Misses Mary A. and Catherine E. Bohan left on an extended visit to Montreal, Kingston, Ontario and other centres. In Montreal they will be the guests of their sister, Mrs. M. Lynch; in Kingston, the guests of their brother, M. Bohan and Mrs. Bohan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan and son, A. Vesey of Forest City and Harry Ryan's mother, Mrs. McKinley, Main Street.

On Monday, June 7, Amos Gibson celebrated his 75th birthday and his sister, Mrs. Harriet Barker, her 54th. Both Mr. Gibson and Mrs. Barker have been lifelong residents of this place and are the only two surviving of a family of 14. It may be interesting to note that the farm on which Mr. Gibson lives was first granted to his father on Oct. 12, 1824. A lawn party was held on the lawn of Mrs. Barker's home, where their immediate relatives and a few friends gathered to offer them their congratulations, and to express the hope that both Mr. Gibson and Mrs. Barker may enjoy many more such birthdays and that health and happiness may always mark their way.

Scott McAuley has erected his road construction gang camps on Hanford Craig's property and is about to commence the construction of the permanent highway from Musquash north.

Cecil Crane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Crane, returned home from Lowell, Mass., on Monday.

James Young who for the past two years has been engaged in carpenter and contracting work in Weymouth and Boston, Mass., returned home on Saturday.

The baseball nines of Bath and Plaster Rock met on the local diamond on Friday evening. Plaster Rock carried with a score of 10-5.

Mrs. Carl London and infant son are visiting at Belle-Arch View Farm the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Bohan.

Miss Ellen Bohan accompanied by Mrs. Leo Kearney motored to Port Fairfield on Tuesday.

The motion picture partnership, Messrs. Brennan and Gorman, has been dissolved. Pictures, however, shall be conducted in future by Mr. Bedell of Andover.

Barry Tweedie of Westfield, Me., is visiting relatives in Wicklow.

The death of Mrs. Carr occurred on Saturday evening about 7 o'clock at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Turvey Drost. The late Mrs. Carr had been in failing health for some time.

The leaves to mourn several sons and daughters. The funeral services took place on Tuesday afternoon.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT

The body of Doris London, 18-year-old daughter of Harry London, of Jacksonville, Carleton county, who was one of the victims of the double drowning fatality at Upper Woodstock on the St. John river, Sunday afternoon, was found Monday afternoon at the scene of the accident. The body of Carl Gibson, the second victim, 15-year-old son of Mrs. Byron Gibson, now of Fredericton, is still being searched for.

Roy Mulhern, who was paddling the canoe, reached the shore in safety after unsuccessful attempts to rescue the children. The entire community is saddened by the fatal accident. The search for Gibson is still being carried on.

The funeral of Miss London took place on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Gibson, the mother of the other victim is now at Jacksonville.

On going to press the reports are that the body of the Gibson boy has been recovered.

ELECTRIC CAR FOR VALLEY RAILWAY

Following is a report dated last Friday concerning the proposed Electric Cars to be operated between Fredericton and Woodstock:

"It will be at least three weeks before the Canadian National Railway will establish their proposed service with electric storage battery cars on the St. John Valley Railway, between Fredericton and Centreville to replace the present daily train service with locomotives."

Assistant Superintendent J. O. Crookshank said this morning that it would probably take that long before charging sets are completed for the storage batteries at both South Devon and Centreville. A crew of electricians are now busy installing the charging sets at South Devon, where connection will be made with the Maritime Electric Company's transmission lines and they will later go to Centreville to undertake the work there, where a transmission line has been constructed to the location of the charging station.

The electric storage battery car which will be operated on the St. John Valley Railway will be one of the most modern designs, the type which it will undertake being the longest for which storage battery cars are used in the Atlantic Region. The car which is being sent here is of the latest type, fifty-three feet two inches in length, the main compartment accommodating sixteen additional passengers, there is also a baggage compartment twelve feet six inches in length.

"Railwaymen express the view that on Saturdays, when the traffic is especially heavy, it will be necessary to operate steam trains to take care of the volume of traffic on the St. John Valley Railway west of Fredericton, unless a trailer is operated with the storage battery car."

MOREHOUSE-VEYSEY

The Forest City Baptist church was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday, June 18, when Rev. E. A. Alaby united in marriage Miss Nettie A. Veysey of Forest City and Harry Morehouse of Woodstock.

The bridal party entered the church at 2 p.m. to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Miss Teresa Lewis. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers, and the arch was made of evergreens and honeysuckle flowers. The bride was becomingly gowned in white duchess satin, trimmed with pearls and wore a veil with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of opelia roses. She was given in marriage by her brother, Tyson Veysey. The maid of honor, Miss Elsie Veysey, a sister of the bride, wore a dress of audle satin Canton crepe, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Little Joyce Morehouse, a niece of the groom, was flower girl and wore a dress of yellow organdy with hat to match. The groom was supported by Byron Chase of Ripley. The brides were Arthur Hamilton, Jr. and Omar Patterson.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. About sixty guests were present.

The bride, who has been engaged in teaching school for three and one-half years, received many beautiful gifts. The groom's gift to the bride was a milk marmot choker, to the maid of honor and organist, bracelets to the best man, cuff links, and to the usher, mother-of-pearl cuff links.

Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse left by automobile for Westfield Beach and other parts of the province. Upon their return they will reside in Bangor, Me., where the groom is engaged in manual work. The bride's suit was gray hair line twill, with hat to match.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Margaret Ballentine, mother of the groom, Mrs. Talmage Ballentine and Joyce Morehouse of Green Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Otha Bither and family, Miss Hazel Goodall of Houlton, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis of Bangor.

Commissioner and Mrs. A. C. Wetmore, Miss Vesta Dunphy of North Lake, Mrs. Frank Pray of Newport, Me. Mrs. Harry Hall of Millinocket, Mrs. A. Davidson of Kincardine, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gosman and Miss Valma Smith of Canterbury, Miss Inez Clark of Fredericton, Mr. and Mrs. Tyson Veysey of Danforth, Me. Messrs A. Montgomery, Plennie Carpenter and Messrs G. McAllan and H. Montgomery of Woodstock.

STAR-SIMMONS

On July 2 a quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. P. J. Quigg, 103 Main Street, Woodstock, when Austin Starr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Starrs of Lower Southampton, was united in marriage to Ella Simmons, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Simmons of Allendale. Emma Starr, sister of the groom was bridesmaid and Franklin Scott, brother of the bride acted as best man. After the ceremony the happy couple left by auto for Lower Southampton where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

BRADLEY-SMITH

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at Riverside on Wednesday afternoon, July 2, when Miss Irma Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manning Smith, was united in marriage to Ernest W. N. Bradley, late principal of the Allen School. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. J. Bogue in the presence of immediate friends of the contracting parties. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served. The newly married pair left by automobile on a honeymoon trip.

FIRE DESTROYS SAW AND CRIST MILL AT GRAND FALLS

On Wednesday afternoon the saw and crist mill owned and operated by Alexander Leclerc were completely destroyed by fire. A barn quite near by was also destroyed. The fire is supposed to have caught in the engine room while Mr. Leclerc was at dinner, and when discovered had made such headway that nothing could be done to save the mill. Mr. Leclerc's loss is heavy and there is no insurance.

A little girl answered the telephone for the first time, and was surprised to hear her father's voice. She burst into tears.

"What's the matter, dear?" asked her mother.

"Oh, mummy," she sobbed, "how on earth shall we ever get daddy out of that little hole?"

JUNE SESSION OF COUNTY COUNCIL

secretary-treasurer, asked for an extension of time. Granted.

Coun. Melville, for the committee to wait upon the Hartland Town Council, asked for an extension of time. Granted.

Moved by Coun. Perry, seconded by Coun. Boyd, that R. P. Hartley be heard before the board. Carried.

R. P. Hartley told of the difficulty in keeping a record of the bonds to be given by officials handling county money. The secretary-treasurer gave bonds when he took the office about 26 years ago and since then one of his bondsmen had left the country and he was in doubt where the other bondsman was. The same was true of the collectors. The agent of a Surety Company, called upon him. This company will issue a short bond that will take in all the officials. About $200 a year would pay for the bonds for all officials. York county has taken out bonds in this Surety Company.

Moved by Couns. Melville and Boyd that a committee be appointed on bills and accounts. Carried.

The warden appointed Couns. McDougall, Bell and Fleming.

Coun. Melville said as a member of the committee to ascertain if the government paid any part of the board of prisoners in the county jails convicted of bootlegging, he was unable to make a report at present.

Moved by Couns. Brown and Saunders that the committee be given an extension of time until the January meeting. Carried.

Coun. Perry asked for an extension of time to report on the Potato Growers' Convention which was attended by Warden Anderson and himself. Carried.

The following resolution was moved by Coun. Clark, seconded by Coun. Marsten and carried unanimously:

"Whereas Since our last regular meeting, in January, Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, has removed by death one of our members in the person of Councillor F. Byron Bull, a man who has earned the esteem and regard of every councillor who was ever associated with him at this board. His sound and mature judgment was always eagerly asked for and cheerfully given to the new and younger men coming for the first time to this board; therefore,

"Resolved—We wish to place on record our appreciation of his many fine qualities of heart and mind. He will always be remembered for his frank genial manner—a man possessed of all the characters of an honorable gentleman. To know him was to honor and esteem him. This makes another vacant chair among the older men who have served at this board. We bow in humble submission to Him who doth all things in His own wise way.

"Furt" or resolved—That this manifestation of our regard for the departure of one so recorded upon the minutes and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased and signed on behalf of this council by the Warden and the secretary-treasurer."

Coun. Perry thought that now that

The Dog Law was to be administered by the Municipal Councils they should discuss the matter. He understood that Woodstock and Hartland were liable to pay one-third of their dog tax collections into the county fund.

Coun. Balmain did not think that Coun. Perry was right. Anyway they haven't been making a business of collecting the dog tax in Woodstock.

Coun. Melville said that the dog tax did not appeal to his people in Peel. He understood that people were putting in a claim for sheep killed by dogs when the sheep had died from natural causes. Let us stop the collection this year.

Moved by Coun. Bell, seconded by Coun. Saunders, that the dog tax be not collected this year.

Coun. Phillips was not in favor of the motion. Neither did he believe as Coun. Melville had suggested, that any farmer would perjure himself in signing his claim for sheep that were killed. He believed that nearly all the cases that come before him, as chairman of the sheep fund, were genuine cases. He found that dogs were a serious menace to the sheep industry. He gave a recent incident where sheep were killed by dogs in Brighton.

Coun. Saunders thought that the owner of the dogs that killed sheep should pay for the damage. A dog is part of the personal property of the farmer upon which he already pays a tax and he objects to paying a dog tax and they don't propose to pay that tax in his parish.

Coun. Brown agreed that the dog tax was unpopular; he also agreed that it was easier to get the money from the county fund than to find out whose dog killed the sheep. However, when a man finds out that he must make an affidavit, he is not likely to make a claim unless it is genuine. The sheep, however, must be protected and the dog tax seems to be the only way in sight.

Coun. Melville quoted an instance where about $100 was taken out of the fund under questionable circumstances. He was satisfied that the dog tax fund was being abused. He was willing to protect the sheep by punishing the man who has a dog running at large.

Mr. Hartley said that in 1923 there was paid out $534.64 in the dog tax fund; there was then a balance of $2110.27.

Coun. Bell—We have a surplus in the dog tax fund. The government has left it in the hands of the Councils. We should not collect the tax this year.

Coun. Raymond—It is a farce at present. Some of the parishes are collecting the fund and others are not. If we do not collect the tax this year, at least all dogs should have collars on them identifying the owners and those having no collars should be shot by any constable.

Coun. Melville—We never collected it in Peel. Some of the parishes collect about $1 out of $10. After the first year Peel agreed to pay the county $30. You have that money belonging to us in the sheep fund. Peel has never taken $1 out of the fund.

Coun. Perry—Yes, but after that agreement, Kent promised to collect the tax. Kent has made an effort to do so, but Peel has not.

Coun. McDougall—We won't stand as good a chance next year to collect the tax if we decide not to collect this year. The law says $1 on male dogs and $5 on female dogs. The law has never been given a fair trial in this county. It was not unpopular in Richmond until the people there found out by the newspapers that some parishes were not collecting, then in some quarters it became unpopular. I have travelled all through this county and two thirds of the farmers never heard of the law as the collectors never asked them for a dog tax.

Coun. Balmain said that people owning sheep should have some protection from dogs. He would oppose the motion as he believed the law was a good one.

Coun. White—In 1922 Hartland collected $30 in dog tax. It did not do very much in that line last year. If we suspend the operations of the law, the county will be overrun with dogs next year.

Coun. Brown—An ordinary man keeps one dog; the poor man, two dogs; the very poor man, three dogs.

Coun. Bell—The dog law has been in force six or seven years, and there are no more dogs now than then and the law has not been enforced.

Coun. Boyd—I am opposed to the motion. It will be most unwise not to collect the dog tax this year.

Coun. Perry—Some of the councillors are talking about collecting the tax. Not one of them has the nerve to demand of the collectors to collect the dog tax in full. I have lots of nerve, but not enough to give that order to the collectors in Kent.

Coun. McDougall—Well, when my collectors gave me a list of dog tax defaulters and asked me what to do, I told them to go ahead and collect. Even if the law keeps the dogs from increasing we should be complimented.

Coun. Melville—Yes, but you are leaving Richmond now and you are brave. The law cannot be worked out. You know the law is hard to handle and you only collected about half that you should in your parish.

Coun. Smith said he was opposed to the motion. The Brighton collector made an honest effort to collect, but owing to the action of Peel, discontent spread from parish to parish and it made it harder to collect that particular tax.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR WILL VISIT HARTLAND

Mr. E. McFarland recently received a letter from the official secretary, H. S. Baker, stating that His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor, and Mrs. McFarland are visiting the shore towns of Carleton Place and Madawaska, N. B., and they will be here on the 12th inst. The matter was taken up at a town meeting on Monday night, and arrangements are being made for their reception, full parties which will be given next week.

SPARKS CIRCUS TO BE IN WOODSTOCK ON SAT., JULY 19

Saturday, July 19, afternoon and evening under huge masses of canvas, the most circus ever made by the machinery and courage of men, will parade and show in Woodstock on July 19 to make the young folks happy and the old folks young. The great parade is on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. First of all, a real wild animal circus is a 1924 acquisition, having been imported from the world's greatest wild animal training quarters at St. Petersburg, Germany. Included in these displays will be found lions, tigers, leopards, polar and grizzly bears, even trained ostriches will be seen in addition to the Sparks group of sixteen "Rotarian" horses, the two elephant herds, fancy gaited and posing horses, the 19th century circus, Captain Tucker's seals, and hosts of others of a novel nature. The circus proper opens with an elaborately staged spectacle, "Relics from the Reign of King Tut," in which all of the animals, performers, promoter and a large chorus participate. As a finishing touch to the all feature performance a genuine English Fox Hunt, introducing real Irish-bred high jumpers, broad jumpers, and perfect school fox hounds, will replace the old time and very dangerous chariot races, a rally to be found with other races. Don't forget the date, Woodstock, Saturday, July 19.

A negro named Sam had worked for his master for five years. His friend, Ben, said to him one day:

"Now, Sam, you have worked up there and made your employer rich. You ought to ask for more money. You just tell him: 'Look here, guv'nor, you pay me more money, or else'."

Sam tried his friend's advice next morning. He began: "Say, boss, you hab to gib me mo' money fo' dis job."

"Well, Sam, I'll see about it," was the reply.

"See about nothin'. You pay mo' or else."

"Pay more or else, else what?" The employer's eyes flashed and his tone was sharp.

Sam's eyes blinked as he detected his master's anger, and in a soft voice he replied: "Else I wuck for de same money."

We can hardly agree with the ancient sage who said, "there is nothing new under the sun," as there seems to be a brand new variety of potato bugs arriving which is doing severe havoc in the potato fields. This is a blue looking beetle and seems to come in swarms, as army worms do. Some potato growers claim that spraying does not destroy them, while other potato experts find that spraying annihilates them.

What came near being a very sad fatality occurred one day recently when Miss Marion Baker, only daughter of C. S. Baker, manager of the Bank of Montreal here, had a narrow escape from drowning. She with a number of other young ladies were bathing in the river and while Miss Baker is a very good swimmer, in some manner lost control of herself and felt herself going under and called for help. Her brother, Aubrey, Allen MacIntosh and Russell Britton were among the bathers and the whole three rushed to her assistance and the young lady was saved, but it might have been otherwise if stronger swimmers had not been within calling distance. This should be a warning to all lovers of the water not to venture too far unless others are near.

Rigby's Hardware for Arsenate of Lime.

What might have been a serious accident occurred early Sunday evening when the cars of H. E. Adams, of this town, and Howard Cox, of Rosedale, came in collision. The accident took place at Victoria Corner at the turn of the Rosedale road, which is a very sharp turn. Mr. Adams was going towards Rosedale hugging his side of the road closely going at a low rate of speed. Mr. Cox, who acted the man in acknowledging his fault, was on the wrong side. This road is very little frequented by autoists, is one reason for Mr. Cox's mistake. Luckily no one was hurt although the cars were both quite badly injured. Mr. Adams was able to bring his home, but Mr. Cox's car had among other injuries a broken axle. Mr. Cox had his wife and family with him, while in Mr. Adams' car were himself, his wife and two children, Miss Sarah Currie and Miss Marion W. Stevens.

SPARKS CIRCUS TO BE IN WOODSTOCK ON SAT., JULY 19

Saturday, July 19, afternoon and evening, under huge masses of canvas, the most circus ever made by the ingenuity and courage of men, will parade and show in Woodstock on July 19, to make the young folks happy and the old folks young. The great parade is on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. First of all, a real wild animal circus, is a 1924 acquisition, having been imported from the world's greatest wild animal training quarters at Stollingen, Germany. Included in these displays will be found lions, tigers, leopards, polar and grizzly bears, even trained ostriches will be seen in addition to the Sparks group of sixteen "rotarian" horses, the two elephant herds, fancy gaited and posing horses, the Irish County Pig Circus, Captain Tibbott's seals, and hosts of others of a novel nature. The circus proper opens with an elaborately staged spectacle, "Echoes from the Reign of King Tut," in which all of the animals, performers, premier dancers and a large chorus participate. As a fitting finish to the all-feature performance, a genuine English Fox Hunt, introducing real Irish-bred high jumpers, broad jumpers, and perfectly schooled fox-hounds, will replace the old-time and very dangerous chariot races usually to be found with other circuses. Don't forget the date—Woodstock, Saturday, July 19.

"Now, Sam, you have worked up there and made your employer rich. You ought to ask for more money. You just tell him: 'Look here, guv'nor, you pay me more money, or else—'"

Sam tried his friend's advice next morning. He began: "Say, boss, you hab to gib me 'no' money fo' dis job."

"Well, Sam, I'll see about it," was the reply.

"See about nothin'. You pay mo', or else—"

"Pay more or else, else what?" The employer's eyes flashed and his tone was sharp.

We can hardly agree with the ancient sage who said, "there is nothing new under the sun," as there seems to be a brand new variety of potato bugs arriving which is doing severe havoc in the potato fields. This is a blue looking beetle and seems to come in swarms, as army worms do. Some potato growers claim that spraying does not destroy them, while other potato experts find that spraying annihilates them.

What came near being a very sad fatality occurred one day recently when Miss Marion Baker, only daughter of C. S. Baker, manager of the Bank of Montreal here, had a narrow escape from drowning. She with a number of other young ladies were bathing in the river and while Miss Baker is a very good swimmer, in some manner lost control of herself and felt herself going under and called for help. Her brother, Aubrey, Allen MacIntosh and Russell Britton were among the bathers and the whole three rushed to her assistance and the young lady was saved, but it might have been otherwise if stronger swimmers had not been within calling distance. This should be a warning to all lovers of the water not to venture too far unless others are near.

Rigby's Hardware for Arsenate and Paris Greens.

What might have been a serious accident occurred early Sunday evening when the cars of H. E. Adams, of this town, and Howard Cox, of Rosedale, came in collision. The accident took place at Victoria Corner at the turn of the Rosedale road, which is a very sharp turn. Mr. Adams was going towards Rosedale hugging his side of the road closely going at a low rate of speed. Mr. Cox, who acted the part in acknowledging his fault, was on the wrong side. This road is very little frequented by motorists, is one reason for Mr. Cox's mistake. Luckily no one was hurt, although the cars were both quite badly injured. Mr. Adams' car had among other injuries a broken axle. Mr. Cox had his wife and family with him, while in Mr. Adams' car were himself, his wife and two children, Miss Sarah Currie and Miss Marion W. Stevens.

BANK OF MONTREAL
Established over 100 years

ment to pay certain bills contracted under the Prohibition Act.

Mr. Hartley—His case was not a criminal case. He was arrested for violation of the excise law. I would not care to give an opinion who should pay the bill, but the bill must be paid by the county at present as the Henderson Company should get its pay.

The amendment was lost, the bill was ordered paid and charged to the Parish of Kent.

(Wednesday Afternoon)

Coun. Cliff—I would like to ask the secretary-treasurer to tell us the law regarding the dog tax for towns and what portion is payable to the sheep fund?

Mr. Hartley—The towns must pay in one-fifth of what they collect.

Coun. Cliff—What amount has been collected by the Town of Woodstock?

Mr. Hartley—None.

Coun. Cliff—Can any pressure be brought to bear on those who are not collecting, to make them pay past and future dog taxes?

Mr. Hartley—I can bring no more pressure on Woodstock or Hartland than I could on Peel which is not collecting.

Coun. Cliff—Then no pressure can be brought on Wilmet if we refuse to collect the dog tax this year. I would suggest that for many reasons this dog tax should be completely cancelled for one year at least and if the sheep losers would have to look to the dog owners for the loss, it is quite possible that a lot of these sheep killing dogs would be killed off before the Act was put in force after one year of cancellation. The dogs of the towns should be considered a luxury and taxed accordingly and a farmer's dog is a necessity.

Tracey, Perry, Bell, Good, Flemming, McIntosh, Melville, Saunders and White voted not to collect the dog tax this year, but that motion was defeated.)

Mr. Hartley—Woodstock's by-law is not for the protection of sheep but to avoid the dog nuisance. According to the Sheep Act of 1917, Woodstock and Hartland must pay to the county 15 per cent of the dog tax they collect. I to be imposed on collectors who refuse to collect?

Mr. Hartley—If you start to penalize collectors who refuse to collect the dog tax you will have the county jail full of collectors.

Coun. Gibson—I am not and never was in favor of the dog tax, but I would like to give it another year's trial. I will vote against suspending the enforcement this year.

Coun. Saunders—You seem to want to get back at Peel. If Peel has not done right, she can pay and she has the money to pay.

Coun. Dalling—All dogs are not bad dogs. My dog runs at large and he is worth a lot of money to me and I pay the tax. If Peel will pay as Coun. Saunders says she can pay, all other parishes will pay and the sheep fund will have a lot of money. I am behind Coun. Phillips in his efforts to enforce the dog tax. Richmond can pay and its councillors will see that it does pay.

Coun. Flemming—The sheep fund has a surplus of over $2000 now in the sheep fund.

Coun. McIntosh—The dog tax is a curse upon the community. I am going to vote to do away with it for 1924. We have the power and can put it in force in 1925 if we wish to do so.

Coun. Tweedie said he knew of many farmers who willingly paid the tax, but realized that the law was a failure. He would vote for the motion.

Moved by Coun. Flemming, seconded by Coun. McIntosh, that the matter be postponed until tomorrow. Lost.

The original motion to suspend the law was lost.

Council adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Wednesday morning)

Moved by Coun. Flemming, seconded by Coun. Brown that the Council go into committee of the whole on bills and accounts, with Worden Anderson in the chair. Carried.

The committee rose at 12 o'clock and reported as follows:

In discussing the bills brief remarks were made by the councillors.

A change was made in one item of Sheriff Foster's bills in which $2.65 was charged to Kent and a small amount to Simonds.

Coun. Saunders found fault with some of the magistrates issuing warrants for trivial offences and charging costs up to the county.

These councillors contended that the man referred to was not a pauper, that he was arrested on a criminal charge and died in the county jail and that the county should pay the funeral expenses.

Coun. Melville—It is the law that the destitute should be looked after by the parish from which they come.

Coun. McDougall—The relatives of the deceased man were notified of his death by Sheriff Foster. They either would not or could not pay and the man had to be buried.

Coun. Stevens—This man was arrested for running a still. It looks as if Kent should pay the bill; probably there may be a come-back to the Parish, if the committee now appointed can arrange with the govern-

The celebrated Dr. Michaleff, an authority on early old age, says that it is "caused by poison generated in the intestine." When your stomach digests food properly it is absorbed without promoting death. 15 to 20 drops of "Selig's Syrup" after meals makes your digestion sound.
