NO SETTLEMENT YET IN WINNIPEG

A Half Mile Track Within a Few Weeks at Bridgeport

A Modern One Will be Erected Along the Grand.
Will Have all Facilities. Probably Ready by July.

A half-mile race track here for trotters et al! This is the good news for sports today. This morning it was learned by the Record that it will be a accomplished fact within a few weeks, probably by the beginning of next month. Soon one will be able to see the best trotters in Western Ontario in action at Bridgeport.

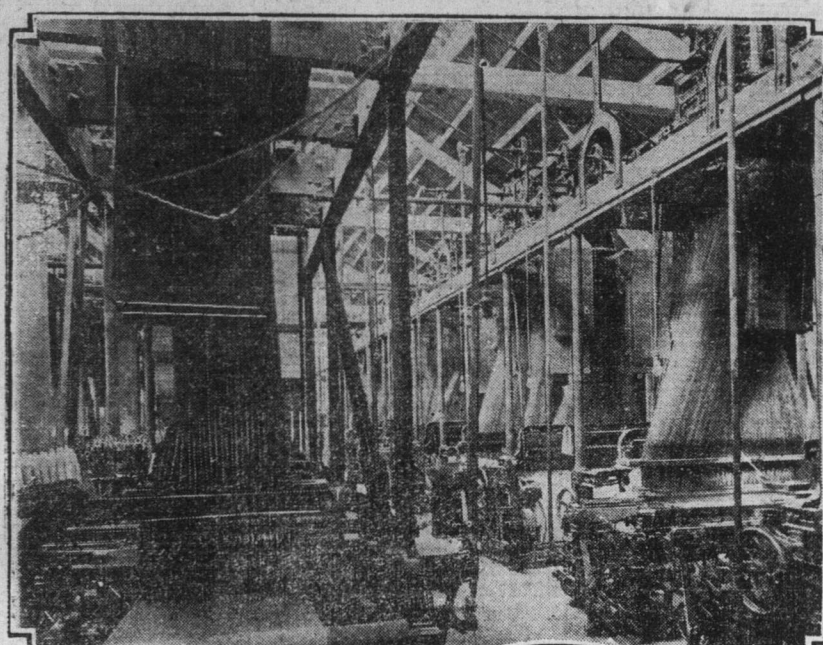

The fact is that a number of local men have taken steps to establish a track. Work will commence next week getting it into shape. The location will be across the river, opposite the casino. Thirty-five acres on the farm of Mr. P. K. Weber have been set aside for the purpose. And it will be a real track. The best that there is in the province. A grandstand will be erected, the grounds put into shape for general use such as tattoos and baseball matches. The big item at the start of course will be the race track.

The location of the site is a favorable feature. It is near the street car line and near the road. Its success is assured. One recalls with satisfaction the ice races that were held here years ago. These can again be held.

The men interested have the assurance of some real horse owners coming to the races to be held here from year to year. Already their announcement has given encouragement to the followers and fanatics of local trotters. They are preparing accordingly and are looking about for good trotters.

It is about twenty years ago since the city had a race track, exclusive of the ice track at Bridgeport. This was at Woodside Park.

It is understood that two of the gentlemen interested in the new track are Mr. Walter Dumart and Mr. Jack Davey, both prominent trotter fanatics. Success to their venture!

NOISY CONFERENCE HELD AT WINNIPEG SETTLEMENT FAR OFF

YET EMPLOYERS ACCEPT MEDIATION TERMS AND THEN WILLING TO DO SO.

NOYES, Minn., June 7.—(By J. J. Conklin).—Mayor Gray called the strike leaders to the city hall at the request of the Citizens' Committee. The conference was noisy and the settlement of the strike is apparently far away so far.

The Labor leaders said the Citizens' Committee had carried on a campaign of destruction, claiming that it was through its efforts that the supply of bread and milk had been resumed. They pointed out that these commodities had been available to citizens through their own efforts.

At one stage a proposal of attempts to settle the entire strike was brighter but they finally were upset by Joseph Flye, who declared Mayor Gray was in league with the Citizens' Committee.

Edward Parnell, who represented the master bakers, declared with Alderman Ernest Robinson, secretary of trades and labor council, Parnell told the strike committee that the city had enough of its nonsense. James Winings said a strike committee had no authority to pull out anybody and that the operators in the bread and milk plants went on strike voluntarily. "We have absolutely no power," Mr. Winings said. "Everything was voluntary on the part of the men who went out."

Before the close of the meeting, Mayor Gray asked if any progress had been made toward bringing the metal trades men and employers together. He was told that progress had been made but it was being hindered by the interference of the Citizens' Committee. President James Winings, of the trades council, said one of great troubles of strike had been inability of strike leaders to get in touch with men in authority on other side. He with others went into the status of the men at this conference, asking if they had power to go to the masters and try to effect a settlement, as they were coming to the strikers asking them to give way.

R. N. Russell declared that metal trades employees were "sparring for time," to see what the Citizens' Committee did. "Call your Citizens' Committee dogs off and there might be something doing," said Russell.

Half a dozen other strike leaders supported his statement that metal masters were sparring for time to see what became of the efforts of the Citizens' Committee. The Free Press newspaper is, however, out with an extra stating the employers have accepted the decision reached by the mediation board of tripartite on collective bargaining and it will be similar to the system in force with railway shops and their employees. R. B. Russell, secretary of the metal trades, told your correspondent that it will also be accepted by employees.

Despite the order of the strike committee, cutting off bread and milk supplies, citizens were able to secure milk at various stores and bread at bakeries on Thursday and yesterday. A number of smaller bakeries kept their ovens working overtime and as each batch appeared for sale it was eagerly bought by citizens, who were awaiting its appearance. Most establishments refused to serve more than two loaves to one person.

DR. DERNBURY ON FINANCIAL DEMANDS

SAYS GERMANY WILL NOT SIGN.

LONDON, June 7.—Germany's inability to meet the financial demands of the peace terms and inability of allies to make her pay, are insisted upon by Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, German Minister of Finance, in an interview telegraphed by the Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent.

Dr. Dernburg reiterates his recent declaration that Germany will not sign terms as presented.

GALT HOUSING BOARD CALLING FOR TENDERS

To Start Erection of 50 to 100 Houses Within a Short Time.

GALT, June 6.—With houses to rent at a premium the housing commission is alive to the great need of houses and its plans for four and five-room houses has been approved by Provincial Housing Director Ellis.

Tenders are being called for 50 and 100 houses to be equally divided in to sizes, and as soon as contracts are let work will start. A decision will be made next week as to whether to be purchased by the commission.

SASKATOON SUFFERS $500,000 FIRE

QUAKER OATS ELEVATOR BURNED.

(Special to The Record)

SASKATOON, June 7.—Damage to the extent of half a million dollars resulted from a fire in Cribb's elevator of the Quaker Oats plant here last night. The origin is attributed to the burning out of a motor in the pulley house and the fire had gained considerable headway in the wooden and galvanized iron super-structure before being discovered.

The fire burned throughout the night, having started shortly before eight o'clock. It was brought under control about midnight, after desperate efforts by the fire department, but broke out afresh at five o'clock this morning and gave the department another strenuous battle. A forty-mile gale, which continued throughout the night, spread the sparks a quarter of a mile, and made it necessary to secure the help of a large number of volunteers to save other buildings.

A bank near Pittsburg, Kas., was robbed of $43,000 in Liberty Bonds. The thieves reached the vault by tunnelling.

U.S. mints are ordered to run 24-hour shifts and make 90,000,000 pennies a day to meet the great shortage.

WILL EMPLOYEES ACCEPT TERMS OF MEDIATION GROUP

ONE OF THREE FIRMS READY TO DO SO.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 7.—(By W. R. Plewman).—All of Winnipeg's waiting with bated breath for the reply of the three big manufacturing concerns to the settlement proposed by the running trades, which has already been accepted by metal trades employees.

"I cannot say anything for publication," said Norman Warren, western manager of Dominion Bridge Co. at his home last night. "I can't indicate either the nature of the answer nor the time when it will be ready."

An answer has not yet been drafted, said L. R. Deacon, president of Manitoba Bridge and Iron Co., when seen after supper, as about to leave his residence. "It does not only depend on me, a number of men have to be consulted in making answer. I expect the answer will be ready some time on Saturday."

Rumor has it that one of the three firms is ready to agree to the proposed settlement, which is an application of collective bargaining to the control shop of metal trades in the form now existing in the railway shops of the same trades but slightly modified. It has been suggested that Dominion Bridge Company is reluctant to concede so much.

Meanwhile the railway men mediators are becoming impatient over time taken by employers to reply.

President Beatty of C.P.R. is in the city and has conferred with the heads of the railway brotherhoods. His influence is as far as exerted, believed to be in favor of a settlement. He leaves Winnipeg Sunday morning for East.

I stated in a dispatch yesterday that the feeling in Winnipeg was that Premier Borden should take a hand in the efforts at settlement. That certainly is not the feeling in official and business circles, generally, but represents moderate workers' views point and that of most thoughtful observers.

BERLIN SOVIET MAKES PROTEST AGAINST EXECUTION OF NISSEN

BERLIN, June 7.—The greater Berlin Soviet, which is dominated by radical proletarian elements, has adopted a 24-hour general strike, in protest against the execution, at Munich on Thursday, of Levine Nissen, Bavarian communist leader.

PARIS SITUATION IS UN- CHANGED

PARIS, June 7.—The strike situation was unchanged this morning. While a few of the smaller walkouts have been settled to the satisfaction of workers, several fresh ones have broken out. The principal strike movements are in transportation and metal industries, settlement seemingly being as far off as ever.

NOYES, Minn., June 6. (By W. R. Plewman).—Labor's announced intention to intensify rather than call off the sympathetic strike at Winnipeg and to stop all wheels of industry in Canada, has not materially changed the situation so far.

Secretary Duncan, of the Seattle trades and labor council, is now on a train en route to Toronto, having left here Wednesday night. That an attempt was made to have Duncan stopped at the Canadian border but that such action was refused by Ottawa, was the intimation given out at the city hall.

June 19th The Date For The Citizens' Campaign

On That Day There Will be Opportunity to Help to Get Suitable Quarters for the G.W.V.A.

Thursday, June 19th will be the big day. It is then that every citizen will be given the opportunity to help in a financial way to assure suitable quarters for the local branch of the Great War Veterans Association. The campaign in Kitchener and Waterloo will be on that day.

Last evening steps were taken to organize for the campaign. At a citizens meeting in Victoria Hall, the present quarters of the G.W.V.A., which was attended by both ladies and gentlemen, besides a number of veterans. The necessary executive was appointed. This consists of Messrs. H. F. Boehmer, V. M. Berlet, J. H. Dobbie, S. J. Williams, (Chairman), Carl Kranz, Reinhold Lang, L. O. Brühaupt, A. R. Kaufman, N. M. Davison, J. H. Baetz, G. M. DeBus (Secretary), and L. McBrine, sr. In conjunction with it will set a Waterloo representation, namely the trustees, Dr. W. L. Hilliard and Mr. J. A. Horper, and the special campaign chairman and secretary, Mr. J. H. Ross and Dr. Wells.

The hope is to raise enough money so that Kitchener and Waterloo will be assured quarters in keeping with the worthiness of the cause and to make it possible to carry out the pre-peace pledge to the men that everything possible would be done for them not only while they were overseas but after they have returned. It is the purpose of fully equip rooms, to promote a banquet facilities and the necessary furniture. The funds are to be sufficient to carry the organization for three years.

No objective has been set. One sum was mentioned at the Waterloo meeting, this was $12,000 but this calculation is not final. The aim will be decided on in the near future.

The funds of the campaign will be placed in the hands of three trustees from this city and two Waterloo. They will be men who have had sons overseas. The local men elected trustees last evening are Messrs. L. McBrine, sr., I. Master and J. B. Weaver.

The campaign will be conducted along the intensive lines of the first and second patriotic fund campaigns. In the first of these 5500 people subscribed.

Through proper organization the individual will be reached as well as the business man, including the professional the merchant and the manufacturer. The card system for recording subscriptions will be used. Options for paying cash or over a one year period will probably be given.

The Executive met this afternoon when the preliminary arrangements were made.

AN IDEAL COMMUNITY CENTRE, MAYNARD HALL, SOON TO BE OPENED

Progress in the direction of community centres and housing is being made in the city even if only gradually. An institution useful and timely has been brought into being. It is Maynard Hall at the corner of Maynard Avenue and Margaret Avenue, the beautiful home formerly owned by the Mr. Dilmann Shantz.

This handsome and commodious structure is being refitted and furnished for the purpose of doing something in the line of service to the community. When the alterations have been completed the house will fulfil a mission for the general good. It will provide residential dining. It's special object is to reach those who may be new comers or who have no suitable quarters otherwise. The location of the same makes it convenient for the factory section in this part of the city. The residence which contains sixteen rooms will take care of about fifteen ladies. In it will be installed all the comforts and conveniences of a real home. There will be among others a reception room, library besides the dining room.

Surrounding it are a big lawn and beautiful shade trees. These make it ideal for the summer months.

Oh, that there were fifty such homes in the city! What a help it would be in the housing question. What a general recognition there would be of the good that such community centres have accomplished in the cities. But it is expected that the example set in the establishment of this centre will be followed by others. The advantage of having smaller places in preference to institutions with two hundred members in the same is apparent. In the smaller places the good kind it is possible to give the institution more homelike surroundings on conditions. Those who are interested in the establishment of Maynard Hall point to success in other cities where the plan is being adopted on ever larger scales. Once the Hall is open it is self evident that the good and timeliness will be more and more appreciated. When those who in any part of the city find that there they are engaged at their daily duties an impetus to the idea of establishing such centres is bound to occur and it will be a welcome one.

The location of Maynard Hall in the proximity of industries where ladies are employed will be an advantage. This location besides the value of making one's home there will appeal to these ladies. Among these who will get the benefit will be the ladies at the plant of the Canadian Consolidated Felt Company but this is only one.

At present the finishing touches in the repairs and alterations are being made. When completed the home will be one of the finest of its kind. More of it will be said at a later date.

FRENCH LABOR AIMS TO BE CONFINED STRUCK BY A BRIDGEPORT CAR

A Narrow Escape in Accident.

Shortly after six o'clock last evening what might have proved a more serious accident occurred at the corner of Margaret Avenue and Breithaupt Street. Mr. Henry Dumart in his automobile had the misfortune to be struck by a Bridgeport street car. Mr. Dumart was going east on Breithaupt and was just crossing the track when the second of two Bridgeport cars going to the village caught him. Fortunately his car was not a light one else all would have been crushed. As it was the machine with him was carried about twenty-five feet. Before the electric car was brought to a stop, it was severely smashed. Mr. Dumart and the car struck the hydrant electric post. Fortunately Mr. Dumart was not seriously hurt. Only a scratch on the hand was sustained. The car, however, was badly damaged, the top being crushed, the fender smashed, as also the wheel and axles.

The street car was being run by Motorman Louis Wolfe.

Enquiry this morning elicited the fact that Mr. Dumart is none the worse for his experience. However, he could not be gotten in touch with as to how the accident happened.

WATERLOO NEWS RECORD

C. F. THIELE—New Director W.M.S. Band.

The new Director of the Waterloo Musical Society Band is Mr. C. F. Thiele of Unionville, N.J., he having taken charge of the latter part of the band and in this short period the band boys and the Executive have gotten behind their new instructor with a vim and an enthusiasm that has been the bands fortune for some years. Being a musician of high standard and possessing the ability to instill into his band the very best of music making, the results varied and interesting, besides increasing their efficiency the result will be better musicians and better education musically to the youth living in the twin city.

Prof. Thiele was born in New York City and at the age of nine years he began his musical career. He entered the New York Conservatory of Music then quite young and on graduating from the conservatory went to Germany where he studied for over a year at Leipzig. Taking a special course in piano he spent considerable time on orchestral work having conducted many fine orchestras of his own. While proficient on many instruments he selected the cornet as his particular instrument.

Amateur bands has been his hobby and many bands of high standard to say in the United States owe their existence to his untiring efforts and ability as a conductor. Prof. Thiele did not only confine himself to the teaching of men for only a few years ago he organized in the city of Rumford Maine a girls band of 50 pieces which proved one of the finest organizations in the United States. Throughout the United States another organization which created enthusiasm wherever it appeared was the Gutsenberg Boys Band organized and conducted by Prof. Thiele.

Although travelling extensively throughout the states he found time to produce many coffee operas including "The Band," "The Doctor," and many others. Throughout the coming season our music lovers will have the pleasure of hearing selections of the professors own compositions he having written and had published many excellent numbers.

Prof. Thiele has taken up his residence in town and his wife and daughter have received a hearty welcome from our citizens.

Mrs. Thiele who is a cornet soloist and reader and her daughter an accomplished saxophonist and clarinetist have also had wide experience in the music line and music lovers will await with interest their first public appearance.

Waterloo citizens welcome Prof. Thiele and his family to Waterloo. It is a good town to live in socially being one of its outstanding features. The community is a music loving one and the Executive of the Band are to be congratulated on securing a musician of Prof. Thiele's accomplishments.

RECORD CROWD AT PARK CONCERT

MORE THAN 2500 PEOPLE ATTEND CONCERT IN PARK

Outside of a holiday night on the annual Tattoo night, the largest crowd has ever attended a band concert in the park were in attendance last night and they had the pleasure of hearing a musical program that was varied enough to please the most critical.

From the opening number until the strains of God Save the King had been wafted through the park, the audience never for a moment lost interest. There was music of the classic masters intermingled with the popular and lighter numbers that pleased each and everyone. The ever popular overture from Martha by Flotow with its bright and cheerful effects was given a fine interpretation and the Choccolate Soldier Selection with its tuneful air was a real pleasing number.

Perhaps one of the most catchy little numbers that caught the crowds' fancy was the Ghost Dance.

It was a good number and will be requested from time to time. Prof. Thiele, who chose as a soloist and although Mr. Old Kentucky Home has been given in town before last night was the first time it was given a thorough rendition. Each soloist or group of soloists excelled and well merited the applause they received. The cornet solo, "Inflammation" by Mr. Sandrin, while difficult, was well rendered and he was forced to respond to encores.

So well were the different numbers received that the audience was not satisfied with one encore but on several occasions a double encore was demanded and heartily responded to.

This is only Prof. Thiele's second public appearance in Waterloo, but if what we have heard is any criterion of what is to come during the season, the record will be broken on more than one occasion.

There was only one objectionable feature last night and that was the noise occasioned by children who would persist in kicking up a racket near the bandstand.

It was very annoying especially when the band were playing a soft passage. We noticed the gatekeepers were kind-hearted enough to let them slip in free of charge, but, unless they conduct themselves better in future means will have to be enforced to have this nuisance stopped.

The crowd numbered over 2500, there being more than 150 cars parked on the driveways.

THE WEEKLY MARKET

The weekly market this morning shows an abundance of farm and garden produce, and as the attendance of Quebec or the province of Manitoba

GROUNDS TOO SOFT

Owing to the heavy rains of yesterday and the day before the grounds were too soft to allow autos to park inside the bicycle track and consequently the concert of last evening could not be held there it being necessary to use the stand near the lake.

The portable stand was all ready to be erected inside the athletic grounds but at the last moment the committee deemed it advisable not to hold the concert there as the many autos would have seriously damaged the baseball diamond. However, the committee hope to be able to hold the next park concert in the athletic grounds where thousands can be accommodated.

Mr. Allan Shantz, Victoria street arrived home from overseas this morning and was accorded a hearty welcome by the reception committee friends and relatives.

Miss Florence Dennis of Detroit is spending several days with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Robinson and family of Cleveland, Ohio who have been visiting friends in town, for several days returned home this morning.

Hearst on 8-Hour Day Dominion Matter

PROMISES ONLY LEGISLATION TO IMPLEMENT FEDERAL LEGISLATION, WHICH MIGHT BE PASSED.

TORONTO, June 6.—In replying to the labor union deputation, chiefly from the metal trades, that waited on him to-day relative to enacting legislation to make the eight-hour day and collective bargaining recognized and compulsory, so far as it benefited industrial workers, Premier Hearst said:

"It is generally admitted that legislation affecting hours of work or rates of wages or imposing any conditions that might possibly have a tendency to increase the cost of production, should be national, and in fact, international, rather than provincial or local. For Ontario to pass laws imposing conditions on manufacturers that might have the tendency to increase the cost of production that did not exist, for instance, in the province of Quebec or the province of Manitoba might have a tendency to cause manufacturers to remove from this province to the province of Quebec or the province of Manitoba, and have a general tendency to divert capital and industries to the last named provinces. Legislation, therefore of the character in question to be in the highest degree equitable and effective, should, so far as possible, be uniform, not only throughout each country, but generally throughout the world.

"I note that the position is now taken at Ottawa that it is not within the power of the Dominion Parliament to pass legislation of the character in question. The law officers of this Government do not agree with this view, and are very firmly of the opinion that the Dominion Parliament has power to enact such legislation. It is difficult for me to come to the conclusion that the framers of the British North America Act intended that the provinces should have exclusive jurisdiction in matters so vitally affecting trade and commerce and the general welfare and prosperity of the Dominion, as hours of labor, rates of wages, methods of bargaining between employers and employees and other similar matters.

"It seems to me proper to point out that some years ago a Department of Labor was established at Ottawa and an Act passed relating to the settlement of industrial disputes. This was done, so far as I am aware, without reference to the provinces or to the powers vested in them by the Government of the Dominion at that time recognized, I believe, properly, its responsibility in connection with industrial disputes and other labor questions generally. Responsibility in that regard must necessarily continue to rest with the Government."

WILL IMPLEMENT LEGISLATION.

"If the Dominion Parliament will pass legislation giving effect to the findings of the Peace Conference with reference to labor, and any other legislation on this subject that the facts disclosed by the Royal Commission, or otherwise, may demand, and there is any question as to the authority of the Dominion Parliament to pass such legislation, this Government will undertake to introduce at the next session of the Legislature and promote the passage of any legislation that may be thought necessary or proper on the part of the province to implement the findings of the Peace Conference and put its validity beyond doubt."

New Minister of Agriculture

SUCCESSOR TO HON. MR. CRAWFORD TO BE CHOSEN

Ottawa, June 6.—The announcement of the retirement of Hon. T. A. C. Crawford from the office of Minister of Agriculture which was made in the House of Commons to-day by Sir Robert Borden occasioned little surprise.

A new Minister of Agriculture will have to be chosen by Sir Robert Borden, and it is said the selection may be made during the coming week. The Prime Minister need not, it is suggested, go outside the membership of the Commons to find a suitable incumbent for the office.

Current rumor here goes to the effect that Hon. F. B. Cawell, who is Mr. Crawford's closest ally, is his colleagues on the budget proposal, and that, while he would not resign his portfolio, he would take the extraordinary step of resigning the policy laid down by Sir Thomas White. The Minister of Public Works set this rumor at rest to-night. "I am not going to criticize the budget," he said, "but to support it, of course. The Union Government was formed for the period of the war and demobilization, and no man in it has to support any principle whatever. While, of course, I shall support this budget, I reserve full liberty to express my views regarding the future, fiscal policy to be adopted when demobilization is completed and the purposes for which the Government was formed are consummated."

Mr. Cawell's retirement, of course, embarrasses the Western Ministers and members. A certain number of the latter will doubtless follow him in his objections to the budget. All the Western members are awaiting the customary expression of opinion from their constituents and for the holding of a meeting for consultation among themselves. The great majority of Western Unionists, however, it seems apparent, desire to support the Government. They realize and believe the people of the West will realize also the necessity for maintaining stability in Canada at the present time, and the great financial burden which the country has to shoulder. The Opposition occupies a peculiar position. Many of its members are not at all anxious to welcome to their ranks the Liberals who threw in their lot with the Government in 1917. Many of the Opposition members, moreover, are protectionists. It is suggested, therefore, that the Opposition may simply introduce two amendments, one expressing regret that a more substantial increase in the British preference has not been introduced, and the other reduction of the cost of living has not been made by means of tariff changes.

Changes May be Made on Treaty

GERMANY MAY JOIN LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Paris, June 6.—Expectations in British circles, shared by the French, is that the conference rejoinder to the German right to economic control be presented toward the end of next week, so that the Germans will be allowed several days in which to deliberate on their final answer.

Although unanimity has not yet been reached by the Big Four as to their full reply, developments in the Silesian problem coincide with predictions in these despatches so that a plebiscite will be permitted in Northern Silesia, and in the section of East Prussia located over by the treaty to Poland, and the Silesian German right to economic control consideration in respect to the product of the mines will be recognized although Germany will have no share in exploiting the mines.

These changes in the treaty are urged as in harmony with the general principle of acknowledgment of ethnic and historical rights. It is said in French circles this the crisis that had been threatened in the conference has been avoided and that complete unity exists on all matters of importance. The French view is that consideration of the German counter-proposals should be guided, not by what Germany may think of this or that concession or whether such concession will induce her to sign, but by the undoubted right of the conference to impose conditions it considers just and necessary.

There is a report that Count Brockdorff has been cabled as to whether certain modifications would induce him to sign. The French position to any such procedure, on the ground that it would play into the hands of the Germans and weaken the position of the conference.

The Big Four have not definitely settled the precise change to be made in the reparations, but it has been practically decided to impose a fixed sum. The help to be required of Germany in the reconstruction of the devastated regions of Belgium and Northern France is a matter still under discussion by the expert commissions.

Germany may be admitted to League of Nations at once.

Winnipeg Taking Steps Against Reds

PARADES DECLARED ILLEGAL

Winnipeg, June 6.—Acting upon reports that the radical element involved in the Winnipeg general strike was threatening to launch a campaign of terrorism, the Winnipeg city government to-day decided to increase its special constable force to three thousand men, mostly returned soldiers. One thousand constables have been sworn in, it was announced.

Several thousand returned soldiers, opposed to the strike, held their second meeting to-day and threats were openly made that unless certain of the strike leaders were taken in custody to-day that action was impending to deal with revolution and Bolshevism that I did not tell you all," said General Ketchen. He received a tremendous ovation.

Mayor Gray also spoke. In a formal proclamation, published this morning, Mayor Charles F. Gray ordered the stoppage of all parades and forbade the congregation of crowds on the city streets.

Mayor Gray said, in stopping parades, he acted in the interest of law and order, and with the hope of preventing bloodshed. It is understood the mayor learned that a clash between parades of strikers and of returned soldiers was considered inevitable.

Officials at the City Hall and executives of the Winnipeg Citizens' Committee commented upon the action of the strikers in sending a national call for men prominently identified with the One Big Union movement to come to Winnipeg.

"Scores of men have come to my office and hundreds have told various city officials that they are anxious to return to work, but that they fear the wrath of the 'big five,'" said Mayor Gray. "Men with tears in their eyes, at bread and milk plants told me they wanted to stay on the job but that they were afraid."

This announcement was authorized by the citizens' committee of one thousand.

"The national call for help by the local labor leaders seems to be the beginning of the end. Following the collapse of various general strikes in different provinces, and the failure to precipitate strikes in a number of cities, it seems quite plain that the Winnipeg agitators realize the fate of their One Big Union movement."

Mrs. Avilla Noel, Haut Lameque, N. B. writes:—"I can highly recommend Baby's Own Tablets as they have worked wonders in the case of my baby. I always keep them in the house and would not feel safe without them." What Mrs. Noel says concerning Baby's Own Tablets is just what thousands of other mothers say and feel. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and stomach, colic, indigestion and a host of the other minor ailments of little ones. The Tablets are absolutely guaranteed to be free from opiates or narcotics or any of the other drugs so harmful to the welfare of the baby. They cannot possibly do harm to anyone always do good. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Returned soldier constables were on duty to-day for the first time since the strike began May 15, squads of street cleaners were in action. Newspapers again were sold in the business district. Deliveries of bread were made with the protection of constables, and milk was sold at municipal stations in the city schools.

Shortly after the soldier's meeting adjourned, strikers and strike sympathizers began a parade in the business district, in defiance of the proclamation of Mayor Gray. Strike leaders declared his proclamation was illegal. The parade started in the direction of the City Hall, where scores of returned soldiers were registering as special constables.

The parade proceeded to within a block of the City Hall. Here, policeman formed a line across the street, and halted the demonstrations. The strikers then sent a delegation to the City Hall to ask Mayor Gray, if their parade might not continue. Gray said, "No." The marchers then disbanded. There was no

TOLEDO June 7.—After four days of absolute idleness, Jack Dempsey, challenger for world's heavyweight title, resumed training today, at his Maumee Bay shore camp for his championship contest with Jess Willard here on July 4.

Dempsey according to the program mapped out by his manager and chief trainer, will work for nine or ten days and then lay off again, until about ten days before the fight. His handlers have adopted this unique system of conditioning to prevent him from going stale.

Notes From The Collegiate Halls

The reports on the test examinations of last week are being made daily, and the final report on the whole examination will be made next week.

The final examinations for promotion will take place during the last week in June. All students whose record for the year does not warrant exemption from examination must write.

All members of the staff have been offered re-engagement for the year 1919-20 by the Collegiate Board. It is rumored that two or three members have received good offers from elsewhere, but no one has decided to make any change as yet.

Our football team suffered their first defeat of the season, on the King's birthday, and that by the small score of 1 goal to nil. But it was sufficient to put them out of the competition for the Hough Cup, as their opponents, the Woodstock College team, have finished the group with nothing worse to their credit than a draw.

Besides the fact that two of the team were on the hospital list, the boys hardly put up their usually good game. On the other hand, their opponents seemed to be in good shape and determined to win. The teams still in the running are Woodstock, Dunnville, Windsor and a northern team.

DESMOND TURNS TO SERIOUS DRAMA

Star of Screen Comedy Appears in "The Mints of Hell," Spectacular and Melodramatic Picture of Yukon Gold Rush.

William Desmond, the popular big star who has been seen in the most delightful comedy-dramas recently, has in "The Mints of Hell," his latest Jesse D. Hampton production, the first serious drama he has done for Exhibitors Mutual release.

"The Mints of Hell" is the name given to "flat gold,"—gold that is black and soft and heavy—and flat, "like coins from the mints of hell."

It was in quest of this that Dan Burke went over the Lillimuit Divide, battled the terrific storm and treacherous snow-drifts, and would have died in the wilderness of ice if it not been for old man Chaudiere and his beautiful daughter Aline, who rescued him. Dan fell in love with Aline, heard her story, and went back to the little stamped town and beat up Hibbing who had tried to cheat Chaudiere of his cache of "flat gold" and had insulted Aline.

Hibbing and Rierdon followed Dan to spy on him. When Rierdon was found dead with Dan's automatic nearby, Dan was suspected of the murder. Dan and Hibbing raced on dog sleds to the Recorder's office and Dan won. Chaudiere believed Dan was trying to steal the claim, and followed in a killing rage. But Dan was staking the claim for Chaudiere and Aline, and went back to the claim with them after Hibbing was proved the murderer.

Desmond does splendid work in this production, which is notable for its graphically realistic Alaskan scenes and big dramatic action. The popular star looks and acts the part, and shows he's handy with his fists in the rough-house fight with Hibbing. Star Mon. Tues. and Wed.

Two eases of indoor sports is shooting at moving pictures. The old-fashioned shooting gallery with its bull's-eye targets, its clay pipes, or its silver balls dancing on water-jets is out of date and doomed. One can now shoot at the naturally moving likeness of beast and bird or even at columns of advancing infantry and cavalry.

It is a fact not generally known that half a million cats were enlisted by Britain. During the second year of the war someone discovered that cats have a deep-rooted aversion to poison-gas, and gave notice of its presence long before any human being had an inkling of the danger. So hundreds of thousands of stray felines were picked up in London and other cities and shipped off wholesale to the front. In addition to serving as gas detectors the cats also rendered valuable help in the clearing of trenches and dug-outs of rats and vermin.

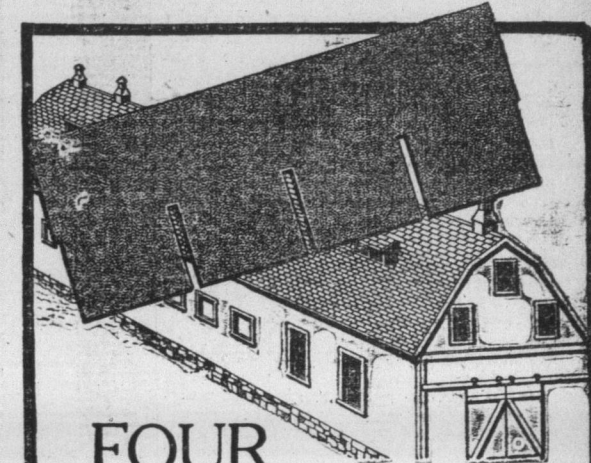

Within the past few years the price of furniture made of mahogany and walnut has almost doubled, largely because of the vast amount of these woods being used in the making of aeroplane propellers.

EFFECTS OF BUDGET

Outside of agricultural implements, on which the tariff was reduced, the budget leaves the tariff, in the main, intact. There are numerous changes but these are revisions downward rather than removals of protection.

The 7 1/2 per cent. surtax, introduced under the War Measure Act, is removed on farm implements and a number of necessities, such as foodstuffs, linen and cotton clothing, boots and shoes, fur caps, fur clothing, hoods and bonnets, gloves and mitts, collars and cuffs; hides, leather, harness and saddlery, petroleum oils and soft coal.

Wheat, wheat flour and potatoes are placed on the free list, providing countries from which they are imported admit similar Canadian products free of duty. Canada has had free wheat with the States for several years. With the American having a fixed price of $2.25 on 1919's wheat crop, they are not, in view of Canada not having fixed a price, likely to sell much wheat here nor to permit the importation of Canadian wheat before June of 1920.

Free wheat, flour and potatoes are, however, made illegal in Canada and may in later years cause Canadians to use American wheat whenever it can advantageously be done.

Knocking off the 7 1/2 per cent. surtax on hides, might give rise to the anticipation that cheaper footwear, harness and saddlery might result. But it will, owing to the scarcity of hides, be months or years before benefits accrue from the changes.

The removal of the war tax on other necessities named will tend to steady prices, although they may not immediately bring about reductions. Raw materials are scarce and high in price. Until supplies overtake demands, the manufacturing costs will be slow to recede.

More immediate benefits to the consumer are likely to come from the reduction of 5 cents on coffee and 3 cents per pound on tea, grown within the empire.

The greatest changes made were those relating to farm implements. The surtax of 7 1/2 per cent. disappears and in addition reductions in duties ranging from 10 to 12 1/2 per cent. are made. To offset the injury to the agricultural implement industry, lower freight rates to the western provinces is promised. These are to conform to Chicago rates.

For instance, the present rate from Toronto to Winnipeg is $24 and from Chicago $74 cents; from Toronto to Calgary, the rate is $149, and from Chicago to Calgary, $137. Thus the reductions in freight rates are to be substantial ones.

To enable Canadian railways to make this reduction, the surtax of 7 1/2 per cent. on bituminous coal is to be removed. Incidentally this will benefit all users of soft coal.

Builders everywhere should benefit by the removal not only of the 7 1/2 per cent. war tax on cement but also by a reduction of the general duty of 2 cents per pound on it. This will keep the cement makers in line.

The war surtax of 5 per cent. on British goods has been removed. Importations from that quarter will hereafter enjoy the oldtime preference of 33 per cent. off the general rate.

While the Finance Minister has here and there only trimmed the tariff tree, the changes will result in a loss of $25,000,000 in customs revenue. This is to be made up through heavier taxation on incomes and the continuance during the current fiscal year of the excess Business Profits Tax.

Business firms and corporations will be called to pay either 10 per cent. of their net incomes in excess of $2000 or taxes under the business profits tax which ever will yield the larger revenue to the federal treasury. When the income of an individual reaches as much as $300,000, the country will take $305,000 of it, or more than $3 out of every $5.

The present year is still regarded as a war year. A gap between $350,000,000 and $400,000,000 will be required for demobilization and grants to soldiers. It will become necessary to float another loan in Canada to raise the amount.

Sir Thomas White said when the war effort is over and its expenditures ended, the national debt of the country will, it is estimated, have reached $1,950,000,000. To the people of Canada that they are able to take up another $400,000,000 is evidenced by having had on March 31, 1919, to their credit in the banks $1,604,000,000. While the war placed a new per capita debt of $220 on Canada, they are not bending under the load. Several generations will have to take a whack at it before it is disposed of, but given continued growth and prosperity, it will be readily carried.

Viewing the budget changes as a whole, it appears that its framers made an earnest effort to appease Western Canada, though it is doubtful whether anything short of free trade will satisfy them. Therefore, a hopeless task.

It was announced that the tariff and its workings will be investigated next autumn and a revision follow at the 1920 session.

THOUGHTS ON CITY GROWTH

Uncle Henry and the writer were discussing the coming of the new industry, which is to be located on the Hawley property. He is one of the city's public-spirited men, who has in the last thirty years done his full share in securing factories.

None better knows the value of a stable industry to the community. Their coming means greater variety and continuity of employment. They exchange their products for cash, gathering it from every Canadian enter and distributing it among their workmen and others, who in turn expend it for the necessities and comforts of life.

The municipality itself benefits, since its revenues are increased; revenue from assessments on the industry and from the increased number of homes rendered necessary by its coming.

In the end it means more schools, better streets, increased church accommodation, and the dozen and one services and conveniences that a growing city needs must have.

Uncle had a good word for Mr. T. H. Rieder, whom he has known since he was in knickerbockers, and whose rise as a leader in Canadian industry is alike creditable to himself and the town of his birth. He appreciated the compliment which he has paid the city by undertaking to establish another big industry here.

Its coming without asking concessions of any kind was a credit to his careful mind. It will stand on its own feet.

He is of the opinion that the intelligence and dependability of city workmen was a factor in the decision and believes the native sons, who have gone to other Canadian and American cities, ought to be induced by their parents and relatives to return and share in upbuilding the community.

The securing of a technical school now becomes more imperative. Skilled mechanics will more than ever be in demand. The better jobs will go to those who are best equipped to fill them. Industry will attract many who were id, in earlier days, have entered one or other of the professions.

Our boys are of too good material to allow them to become Jacks-of-All-Trades. An Occupational school course will enable instructors to discover their natural bent and give them a grounding in the occupation they are best suited for.

It will also be necessary in the near future to provide cross-town transportation, either by street railway or motorbus. Easy means of going to and from work is due, if not overdue.

Uncle was quite pronounced in his views on housing. This latest acquisition will undoubtedly increase the already serious shortage. In his opinion, the supplying of needed dwellings cannot under present circumstances be left to private enterprise.

For a year or two at least the demand will be greater than ordinary methods can supply. He thought that, given a careful Housing Commission and requiring that a fair percentage of the cost of a house be paid with the application, this community could well and safely utilize a proportion of the provincial housing fund. No other means of securing the sums needed, and at as low a rate, offers anywhere.

In rising he referred to an invitation given by the Prophet Isaiah (54-2):
Enlarge the place of thy tent and let them stretch forth the curtains of thy habitations; spare not, lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes.

Extracts of Exchange

A New Idea

Vancouver Province—As a result of spraying their dairy cows as a protection against flies, Iowa farmers report a marked increase in butter production. No self-respecting "bossy" can be expected to yield her usual quota of milk while her tail is busily engaged in repelling insects attacks on both flanks.

Common Sense

Toronto Mail—After 1926 British communities with a population of 20,000 and over will be compelled by law to engage in town-planning on modern lines. The local council will have to submit to the Local Government Board "a scheme embracing the limitation of densities per acre, defining the portion of a site area to be covered with buildings the character of the buildings, the lines of arterial roads and the provision of open spaces." The distinguishing feature of the Housing and the Town-planning bill is this compulsory feature. It will affect about 235 communities.

The Champion Smoker

London Chronicle—Myer Van Klaes, who flourished about fifty years ago has always held without dispute the title of the "king of smokers." His den was a museum of nicotine relics containing specimens of every kind of tobacco smoked in the world and every kind of pipe through which the nations drew inspiration. Here he smoked incessantly—his life consumption was estimated at four tons of tobacco or ten pounds every week of his sixty smoking years. He died at eighty-one devoting his whole life to the burning of incense of Nicotia. His funeral was in harmony with his life. By his express direction his coffin was lined with the wood of old cigar boxes. At his feet were placed a bladder of the finest Dutch golden leaf and a packet of Caporal; by his sides were laid his ch'na-bowled pipe and a box of matches and steel flint, and tinder. In accordance with his will all the smokers of Rotterdam were invited to the funeral and instead of the old-fashioned mourning rings each was presented with ten pounds of good tobacco and two pipes bearing Van Klaes' arms. All the mourners during the funeral service smoked and at the words "ashes to ashes, dust to dust" shook the ashes out of their pipes on the coffin lid.

HEART FLUTTERING EASILY

Good Advice to Folks Bothered With Palpitation, Weakness, Etc.

If your heart flutters, be careful. An attack is liable to come one at any time. Excitement, over-exertion or emotion may cause it.

If blood rushes to the head, if palpitation and short breath are noticeable, there's cause for alarm.

If you want a good honest remedy try Ferrozone. We recommend Ferrozone because we know it's just right for heart trouble. It cured A.F. Beattie who lives at Allen Hotel, Bay City, Mich. See if your symptoms resemble these:

Some Symptoms of Weak Heart
Nervousness, Palpitation, Trembling, Dizziness, Sinking Feeling, Heart Pain, Short Breath, Weakness.

Mr. Beattie says:
"I was weak and miserable."

"I was subject to heart palpitation and dizziness."

"As I grew worse I began to have trembling and sinking sensations."

"Ferrozone strengthened my heart gave vigor to my nerves, soon made me well. It's a great rebuilding."

By strengthening the muscles of the heart, giving proper circulation and causing a general rebuilding of the whole system, Ferrozone is bound to do grand work in heart trouble; try it 50c per box or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct by mail from The Catachzone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Cincinnati man tells how to lift off any corn without hurting one bit

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called ferrozone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

It is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and is said to simply "draw" the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of ferrozone will cure a very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

MUSKOKA LAKES THIS YEAR.

It is gratifying to learn that the prospects are for a bumper season in Muskoka this year, and which is indicated by the many applications that have been received by the hotels in that district up to the present.

The entire fleet of steamers that was operated in this district in re-war days will be in commission this year. The summer cottages are being taken up very quickly and reservation at the hotels are large. Those desiring to secure rooms should apply promptly.

THE QUIET LITTLE WOMAN

She is dead—the quiet little woman who reminded one of Queen Victoria. She slipped timidly out of life in the night when the household slept. On her dead face there was an apologetic smile, as if she regretted having to tell this last attention to herself.

She died as she had lived. Quiet was the key of her life and of her death.

I often used to wonder about her exceeding quietness. Had she always been quiet? And did her handsome swashbuckling husband choose her because of that quality?

Or was she one of those "vivid" individuals? And full she give up the struggle to compete against her vivid, noisy personality and settle down wearily to become a mollusk?

Who will miss her? NOT the swashbuckling husband—at least. He will miss saying "DON'T be old fashioned!" and, "I think I have a meeting to her to id" questions. He will miss her until the new housekeeper learns how to prepare his orange.

Enough material and workmanship has been donated to build a tobaccoist store for Pte. Bill Dies, well-known former Kew Beach sportsman, who lost one hand and the sight of both eyes in France.

Ernest Currell, McCullough's death watch, was found guilty of aiding and abetting the prisoner's escape.

Under- Currents By The Duchess

How does Griselda like his clothes, and what does she think of 'em?
"Telegraphed to town a week ago,
and when he got up yesterday, man had 'em ready. Such a glorious feel to be in decent things again, how does she think they fit, eh?"
He looks over his shoulder to try and get a glimpse at his ow smart back as he says this, and is indeed quite much gratified with whole get-up. He appeals to Griselda about it as though she were already his wife and that satisfactory girl answers him as though the marriage lines had indeed been read; it is altogether a delicious day
As to Vera, he greets her at once as a sister-in-law of the most approved type, regarding her as the fact-forgetful of it, I think—that this is only the second time he has ever seen her.

At the Woodley station they find a brougham waiting for them.
It seems to them almost sinful to enter anything on such a glorious evening, and seeing an extremely proper driver in the distance, sent to meet some man or men who have not arrived. They unanimously decide in favour of it, and, Peyton getting rid of the groom in a summary dry fashion, the drive away through the still sweetness of the coming evening towards The Friars.
The sea seems very close to them at every opening in the trees that guard each side of the road that the coast seems to them very much to resemble the coast near Greyouth, although this is so much farther on that dissimilarity might reasonably be expected. The day is gradually nearing its grave, but still the warm claspings of the dying sunlight surround and hold them, touching each leaf and sprig to burning gold. The hills rising upon their right seem on fire with it, and the blue sky overhead has gained through it a richer hue; whilst the swaying, laughing, riotous trees seem to whisper to them assurances of love and gladness and delight.

It is five o'clock when they arrive and enter the spacious hall of The Friars, that now is filled with a delicious, sombre light. A crimson stream from a painted window, somewhere in the distance, casts a flood of glory, blood-red Vera's feet feel a comfortable tinkling of spoons clinking against china smites upon their ears. Mingled with this is another sound happily still.

"Vera, it is laughter," whispers Griselda, pressing Vera's arm in a little excited, spasmodic fashion,
"and cups and saucers! Can't you hear them? Ah, how the good past comes back!"

And then Lady Riversdale emerges from behind a huge screen, and welcomes them with a beaming air, and hurries them upstairs, with injunctions for them to come down again directly for their tea, and a general introduction to the guests already arrived.

There is something so hearty in her greeting, that Vera gives in to Griselda's verdict, "that she is quite good enough to be Tom's sister."

CHAPTER XLIII.

A skirmish of wit between them.
O, how full of briers is this waking-day world!

The soft, subdued laughter is still going on. The hum of conversation becomes louder as Lady Riversdale pushes back the portiere and leads the girls into the small drawing-room.

It is a deliciously cosy apartment full of colour, and sweet with a delicious, undisturbed perfume. Each room in the house, through a whim of Lady Riversdale's has been painted and pranked out to represent a flower, and this one in which they now stand declares itself a pomegranate with charming distinctness.
It is rich in warm but subtle shading, and the faint, lingering hues of the yet sunny twilight throw through the windows a subduing influence over tint and carving.

There is a momentary, an almost imperceptible, hush as the girls enter, but it dies the instant it is born and conversation flows on again as though that little check had never been. Just one or two of the men perhaps, continue to be a little distrast for the best part of a minute whilst they take the newcomers to pieces, and declare them in the end faultless.

Vera looks round her with a little thoughtful gaze that is part of her charm. She has been introduced to her host, Lord Riversdale, a particularly silent man, as she finds to her joy, and sinking into a deeply cushioned seat she gives herself up to a mental analysis of those around.

There is the usual mixture of the human types that in itself is deli-ghful. Modern endurance is not proof against society. "Variety is charming," says an old and sound proverb. To Vera it is a very feast to sit here, and once more watch and listen to the various members of the universal family to which she belongs.

Here is the stout young man, beaming with good humour, who talks
a great deal and has many listeners, there is the tall, lank young man, who looks his conversation, and that into but one pair of eyes at a time.
A turn of the ead shows one thin dancer who still refuses to be old, and near her the little bit of sixteen who declines altogether to be young, each a ridiculous foil to the other. Over there, lounging ne-glectfully and in perfect safety against the door, stands the lady-like fop, who wears an eyeglass only because he doesn't want it, whilst in the middle of the crowded room, terribly on evidence is the man, who won't wear one, although every spindle-shanked table and dainty gimcrack tremble to their full when he is near.

E. T. Duffon, possibly the oldest manufacturer in Stratford, who never had a strike or lockout in thirty-seven years in his woolsen mills, is dead at the age of seventy-three.

WALLACE REID HAS TWO BIG DESIRES IN "THE ROARING ROAD"

How Star Wins Great Automobile
Race and a Bride Shown in Thrilling Scenes

In his latest Paramount Picture, "The Roaring Road," Wallace Reid, the popular star, playing the role of "Toodles Waldon," has two great ambitions or desires. The first is to win the hand of his employer's daughter, known as "The Cub," and the second, to drive the Darco car of which "The Bear," his employer, has the key, in an impending Grand Prize Road Race. He seeks to win the former by accomplishing the latter.

Three Darco cars, which his employer had ordered shipped to him, are smashed in a train wreck and "The Bear" has to give up the race. But Toodles sees in this his chance, and buying the wrecked cars from the express company he rebuilds one good car from the wreckage and on the day of the race carries off the first prize. But even then the Bear refuses to give Toodles his daughter's hand. But Toodles later wins the girl in a clever and ingenious way.

There are several thrilling and exciting race scenes in the picture which will be shown at the Allen Theatre Fri.-Sat. Mr. Reid drove his own car in all the scenes, attaining at times, incredible speed. James Cruze, directed, and Marion Fairfax wrote the scenario from a series of stories by Byron Morgan. Well-known players, including, Guy Oliver, Ann Little, Theodore Roberts, and C.H. Geldart, support the star.

PILING IT ON THE PORTER

Of course you have traveled on a Pullman car. Of course you have had your shoes blocked by the colored porter. Of course you have rung the bell for "George" and given him instructions about this and that. How ever, until one has actually been a Pullman porter himself, he cannot begin to appreciate the thousand and one odd requests that are made of the dusky diplomats in charge of the average Pullman car.

William Russell, star of "Hobbs in a Hurry," the newest American feature coming to the Roma Theatre on Wed. and Thur. takes place of the Pullman porter in order to be near the girl he loves, and discovers that among "George's" regular duties are such little tasks as shining twenty pairs of shoes, heating a hot water bottle for the fat man with a toothache in "lower 'n", sending a wire at one o'clock in the morning for the pretty girl in state-room "A", and, most surprising of all, rescuing a bound and helpless prisoner in stateroom "B", who has been kidnapped by his treacherous twin brother in order that a certain mining property may be sold to an Eastern capitalist.

After completing this photo-drama, Russell said he couldn't take a job with the Pullman Company as a regular porter for $1,000 a day. And after seeing the production, you will certainly not blame him. "Big Bill" is better to get the atmosphere of the work was coached by Sunset Smiley, a veteran porter of the Southern Pacific.

MARGUERITE CLARK'S NEW PHOTOPLAY HAS FASCINATING
THEME

Dainty Paramount Star's Picture
"Let's Elope" Teaches Some Salutary Lesson

Salutary lessons to young brides who think themselves neglected by their hard working husbands and who engage in more or less harmless flirtations with other men, are embraced in the development of the story of "Let's Elope," the new Paramount starring vehicle of Marguerite Clark, which will be presented at the Allen theatre Mon. Tues. The theme is a fascinating one and its treatment by producer and star has been guided by delicacy and taste with superb effect. The story is based upon Fred Jackson's successful play "The Naughty Wife," which made a big hit in New York during the season of 1917-18. The adaptation was made by Katherine Reed and John S. Robertson directed. The photography is the work of Hal Young, who is generally recognized as a wizard with the lens.

The plot deals with a young wife of an author who believes herself neglected and plans to elope with a shallow-brained young man. How the husband learns of this and takes a hand in the subsequent proceedings combines to make this one of the greatest comedies in many a day. Miss Clark wears several stunning gowns in this picture all of which will interest her women admirers. One of the strongest companies ever assembled in support of Miss Clark, appears in this picture. The cast is headed by Frank Mills who plays opposite to Miss Clark. Gaston Glass has an excellent role and others in the cast include Helen Green, Blanche Standing, George Stevens and Albert Bushy.

"BARE FISTS" IS VIRILE STORY OF THE OLD WEST

Harry Carey's New Photoplay
Seen in the Roma Theatre
Is a Cowboy Thriller

Cheyenne Harry's father was the town marshal and disturbances were mighty scarce as a result. But occasionally they did occur, and one of them cost the marshal's life, due to a stray Mexican bullet.

So Harry's mother made him promise on the Bible that he would put aside his gun, for she feared the same fate for him. Harry promised that he would never draw it again, either in attack or defense.

His enemies, and particularly Lopez, the Mexican, and his master,

Boone Travis, soon discovered that Harry was no longer the Harry of old; quick as the trigger and fearless at all times. "They insulted him, ran off with his car," he plucked him in many ways. But when they branded his brother, Bud, darling of his heart, they unleashed a torrent of revenge and determination that was, in the end, to engulf them. The play sweeps on to a big climax, which shows the virile Harry Carey at his best. At the Roma Roma Theatre, it won general commendation.

Beside its drama, "Bare Fists" has some flashes of real comedy to recommend it. Carey is always human, always lovable, and his scenes with his mother and little brother ring true. An accident in which Carey's sweetheart finds him bathing his little brother in the "the Creek" will furnish many hearty laughs.

Bernard McConville wrote the story, and Eugene B. Lewis put it into scenario form. Jack Ford directed, and in the cast are Betty Schade, Vester Pegg, Joe Harris, Molly McConnell, Anna May Walhall (a sister of Henry B. Withall), and little Howard Eustead.

After Effects Of Influenza

Often as Serious as the Disease Itself--How to Get New Health. There are no homes in Canada that were not touched by the sorrow that trailed in the wake of the Spanish Influenza epidemic. Estimates of the loss of life caused by this epidemic show that it was almost as great as the losses caused by the war, and these take no account of the baneful after-effects which are sometimes as fatal as the disease itself.

Victims of the disease are generally left with impoverished blood and a weakened system. In this condition they are exposed to many dangers unless precautions are taken to enrich the blood and strengthen the nerves. The debility that invariably follows influenza is not a disease of any organ. It is a general condition of unfitness. It must be met by a remedy whose good results will be quickly felt throughout the entire system. In this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found invaluable. The mission of this medicine is to enrich the blood, and this new, red blood carries renewed health and strength to every part of the body. The case of Mrs. George Louder, Hamilton, Ont., proves the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind.

Mrs. Louder says: "I had a very severe attack of Spanish influenza which left me pale and very weak. My appetite completely failed me and the least noise would startle me and make me cry. I was under a doctor's care, and finally he advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I had not been taking them long before I could tell they were helping me. I used altogether nine or ten boxes and am now feeling as well as ever I did in my life. I believe if it had not been for these pills I would have been a chronic invalid."

Such proofs as this must be interesting to everyone who suffered from an attack of influenza, and who still feel in any way weakened as the result of the trouble. It points the way to new health and strength, and if you are one of the sufferers you should avail yourself of this medical aid once. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

ETHEL CLAYTON IN SPLEN-DID MYSTERY PICTURE
"VICKY VAN"

Paramount Star Seen to Great Advantage in Dramatic
New Photoplay

Ethel Clayton displays her unexampled versatility in her new picture "Vicky Van" which will be shown at the Allen theatre Wed. Thurs. Carolyn Wells wrote the book which has been one of the season's best sellers. It is probably the best of the author's long series of detective novels dealing with the exploits of Stone, her own particular creation. The story concerns a girl who marries a man old enough to be her father. She is unhappy, and when she inherits wealth in her own right conceals the fact and secures an adjoining residence to which she arranges a secret entrance from her original home. She goes there whenever her husband is away and in disguise poses as Vicky Van, a delightful hostess to a gay bohemian set. Later her husband discovers the deception as does a young man who has become interested in the unhappy young wife.

The husband chokes her in his rage. Later he is found dead. Many are suspected, and then Stone enters solves the mystery of the dual character and the mystery is solved. The two young people find their happiness together.

The cast is fine and the direction by Robert G. Vignola leaves nothing to be desired. Marion Fairfax made the adaptation. Miss Clayton doubtless will increase her popularity by this production which tests her dramatic talent in no small measure.

Jefferson County, Illinois, celebrates its centennial to-day. Many delegates are expected in Portland, Ore., to-day for the sixteenth annual convention of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association.

With the arrival of delegates and the holding of committee conferences there will be ushered in at Atlantic City to-day what is expected to be the most momentous convention in the history of the American Federation of Labor.

The Toronto Synod discussed the campaign to raise a large sum for mission work.

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY SIR THOMAS WHITE, DOES NOT REALLY ALTER CONDITIONS

The free importation of wheat, wheat flour and potatoes, as announced by Sir Thomas White in the budget address to the Commons yesterday afternoon is not a change in reality, there having been no tariff on any of these for the past 15 months, it having been removed by the Government by order-in-council.

Mr. C.R. Hunt, of Hunt Bros., millers, of this city, however, informed The Free Press last night that it had been necessary to secure permits from the food boards of Canada and the United States to ship flour to the U.S. or to bring wheat into Canada, or vice versa. These permits have been granted none too freely and since there has been some trade it has not been in great quantity. The United States, he pointed out, could continue to require these permits. In any event the removal of the tariff 15 months ago has made little change.

Mr. John Bridge, of the Neal Baking Company, said that the effect on the bakers of Canada at present would amount to nothing, as the price of flour is higher across the line than in Canada, and naturally bakers would not export American flour.

Mr. Bridge pointed out that it is possible if no restrictions are placed on the export of wheat by the United States there might be some import of wheat by Canadian mills early in the season, the American crop being ready some weeks before the Canadian.

Mr. Fred White, of White & Sons, manufacturers of farm implements, declined last night to discuss the tariff proposals.

Local cigar manufacturers were anxious last evening regarding the duty on tobacco, but there was no change in this announced.

GOST OF LIVING COMMITTEE ACTIVE

OTTAWA, June 5.—The proposal by A.B. McCoig, of Kent, to make inquiry into the prices charged for certain lots of farm tractors sold in Canada, met with some opposition in the special Parliamentary committee to deal with the high cost of living at its session this morning.

G.B. Nicholson, chairman, said he was in the hands of the committee, but that not much could be accomplished if the committee undertakes to inquire into specific matters of this kind.

Mr. McCoig maintained that the cost of tractors to the farmers has an important bearing on the matter of the cost of living.

Mr. Donald Sutherland argued that the cost of tractors has but a small bearing on the cost of production, as but comparatively few farmers use them. Mr. McCoig retorted that an increased use of small farm tractors would tend to decrease the cost of production. If thousands of dollars too much are being charged farmers for tractors, he said, this was a legitimate subject of inquiry by the committee. In view of the short period before prorogation members of the committee expressed the view that the time at the disposal of the committee should be devoted to ascertaining the "spread" of prices rather than the cost of production, more particularly in the matters of minor detail. Mr. Nicholson particularly pointed out the necessity of first investigating the spread of prices. That, he said, is what the people of Canada are most interested in. He doubted if Mr. McCoig's proposal was covered by the committee's instructions.

THE MEGAPHONE

She talked too much; that was what they told her when they gave her a cheque covering two weeks salary and told her that her services were no longer required.

She was a remarkably good stenographer and an unusually bright girl, that was why after a year in the office she had been promoted to the position of private secretary to the president of the company. She did her work well, her employer who had always a man in that position before, expressed his gratification.

And then one day things began drifting back to the office, scraps of gossip, and bits of information. She would refer to her employer as "a gay old boy", and hint that his business trips were not always purely business. The climax came one day when she was recounting the "Boss's" latest affair, to a friend in the room on Saturday afternoon. In a loud voice she told all the frills and twists even to the cheque for flowers for the fair lady, whom she had had to make out. Her object in telling, was merely to impress her friend with the importance of her position and the amount of trust placed in her. A friend of her employer's sat at the next table and drank it all in and reported the incident at once.

So that now she is out of a job, and what is more, her employer refuses to give her a recommendation, and he says that they will never give a position of trust again. Of course, we can't admire the man, but we can't excuse the girl; for while her gossip may have been well founded on fact, she was not being paid to megaphone it to the world.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty-muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out also it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women whether sick or well are advised to drink each morning before breakfast a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate mix as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Dresses for the Teens

New Phases of Clothes for Girls at the Problematical Age, as Shown in Reflections of the Season.

By Mme. Frances
The Famous Creator of Fashions

WHEN one reaches her teens, life is a serious question, indeed. Not the least serious problem is that of clothes.

The first difficulty arises when a sweet girl who has always been obedient to Mother's every wish suddenly gets a "crush" on some very elaborate, over-dressed young acquaintance, who represents all that is awful to Mother and all that is beautiful to daughter. There are few mothers who are not confronted with this grave problem. It usually occurs when a girl is about twelve or thirteen. Somebody at school has her hair done in elaborately artificial curls, wears heels that are higher than good judgment dictates or she appears in a party frock really low neck, somewhat like Mother's. And presto! Every little girl in the neighborhood wants to go and do likewise.

All the tact in the world is mobilized in the mother who successfully manages the dressing of her daughter between thirteen and seventeen—the difficult age, it is called by some, the lanky age by others. "Growing pains" may be a thing of the past, but they are as nothing compared with the pride in clothes that knoweth no pain and which is characteristic of the period known as adolescence.

When small boys of the Penrod variety begin to take a real interest in their fingernails and the cleanliness of their ears, small girls begin measuring the exact number of inches that their skirts should be below their dimpled knees and deciding on the hair bow best adapted to the maturity of their years.

The wise mother concedes and controls, guiding the taste of the girl into the simpler, sweeter lines which should govern the clothes that express youth in all its loveliness.

In Harmony with Youth

No charm of maturity can compete with the beauty of youth. Whether it measures up to the standards of beauty or falls short of the perfection of its measurement, Youth shines, radiates and attracts as nothing else in all the world.

A young girl's clothes should express the joyousness of youth. Bright colors should respond to the sparkle in her eyes and the glow in her cheeks. There are frocks, like severely tailored blue serges, which by their very unobtrusiveness throw into contrast the radiance of youth. Generally speaking, light colors should adorn the young girl because later in her life she will, perforce, have to stick to the darker shades if she would be dignified and smart. "Gather ye rosebuds while ye may" is another way of saying "Be young while you can."

Clothes have an over-valuation, it is true, because we are dependent on them for the expression of so much. Their color and line as they cover our bodies must oft proclaim the spiritual as well as the physical. Certainly they go far toward expressing personality.

Clothes, then, must be our deep concern. Some day our women will know enough to choose rightly, quickly and then to forget the material side expressed by clothes because of the certainty of their perfection. Until then we must decide upon the selection of our clothing with care.

So many of the wheels of industry turn because of the clothes which women wear.

Rob the world of beautiful feminine apparel and you would stop almost everything, from planting and sowing to the product of the looms and the ultimate creations into which fabrics are made. Stop this feminine desire for beautiful clothes and we would revert to the savage state when men and women were clad in the skins of beasts, or roamed the world as Nature originally garbed them.

The desire to be beautifully clothed is a natural instinct in every female child. First her modesty demands clothes, next her desire to be beautiful seeks the exquisite expression of this necessity. When the first missionaries went to Hawaii, they found the beautiful Hawaiians clad only in garlands of flowers. The girls as well as the boys were exquisitely developed by outdoor sports, especially swimming. Beautifully modelled and adorned, their bronze bodies glistened in the sun against the azure background of the perfect tropical sky and sea.

Primitive Beauty and Clothes

The wives of the missionaries were horrified. Forthwith they ran back to the ship and sought from their supply of extra garments their "night gowns." Made in the old-fashioned Mother Hubbard high neck and long sleeves they were entirely ugly. With them they clothed the beautiful Hawaiian girls and women. To satisfy the demands of "Wahini Haole"—white woman—the Hawaiians adopted this dress as the national costume, with the result that the most beautifully formed race in all the world is clad in the most hideously deforming garment ever designed, the Mother Hubbard. This costume of Hawaii is one instance of clothes failing to express the spirit of a race which embodies youth and beauty. That youth should be simply clad to follow the lines of the figure is so obvious that it seems "bromidic" to reiterate it.

These youthful dresses are designed with the idea of keeping simplicity uppermost in the minds of the little wearers. The street dresses express service and the party frocks portray the picturesque qualities that should characterize every gown designed for a young girl.

A dainty dress adapted to the girl between thirteen and seventeen years is found in the frock of pink chiffon. Several rows of Mechlin lace are mounted on an underskirt of pink chiffon. Mechlin lace ruffles also make the little vestee. A garland of pink roses running along a ribbon of old blue and gros grain makes the girdle. A similar band of roses and ribbon holds the small puffed sleeves. The bodice consists of a little corsage of pink net to which the vest of Mechlin lace is sewed. Over this is draped pink chiffon, surplice fashion back and front. Pink satin slippers and pink silk stockings complete a charming and effective evening dress for a young girl.

A picturesque street costume is illustrated in the suspender model of navy blue gabardine. A belt and suspenders of blue gabardine are mounted on a knife-plaited blouse of artillery red gabardine. The sleeves are also plaited. The overlapping plaits hide the stitching that holds the plaits in place. Black bone buttons hold the suspenders to the belt. The skirt is scantily gathered and carries a border hem. A Scotch cap of dark blue straw trimmed with gros grain ribbon and a silver buckle completes this delightfully youthful costume.

A paintable gown of old blue velvet makes a charming frock for a girl of fourteen. A deep bertha of real ecru lace is draped into a round collar and sleeves. The soft girdle and sash ends are of rose velvet and a huge hair bow of rose velvet makes a lovely color contrast.

Another street dress is fashioned of plaid and plain serge. Blue serge makes the peplum jacket with its fetching little darts embroidered in black silk arrowheads. A patent leather belt held by silver buckles and studded with silver nail heads outlines the slender waist. Van Dyck collar and cuffs of heavy butcher's linen are edged with old-fashioned tatting. The skirt is made of dark blue and green plaid, with a line of yellow running at intervals. The helmet hat is a delightful adaptation of a more warlike headgear to the little maiden who wears it. Navy blue straw is faced and corded with old blue taffeta. A little cotton-stuffed ball of old blue taffeta surmounts the top.

The Fashion Forecast

Smocked silk dresses will be featured for morning wear at winter resorts. Some of them are made with smocked panels, falling at the sides over a narrow underskirt. The smocking appears below tailored yokes and above linked cuffs. Developed in plain or striped silks these gowns will be very smart.

THE MONEY YOU SPEND WITH THEM STAYS IN CIRCULATION IN KITCHENER.

WOMEN CONTROL TOWN'S DESTINY

(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

It has been said that the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world and nowhere is this more literally true than in the world of trade. The woman is the purchasing agent of the household and man, as a rule, is very glad to have her handle the job.

It has been estimated by some students of the merchandising game that 80 per cent. of all retail buying is done by women. This may be a high estimate but a visit to the retail stores of any town or city is enough to convince one that the figures are not too high. The preponderance of women among the buyers is sufficient, at any rate, to make not only the retailer but the manufacturer and the wholesaler realize that it is the women that they must please with their merchandise.

Because they do by far the greater part of the buying in any community, the women have a responsibility that they do not always appreciate. The women of a town, through their buying power, can make or break the merchants of a town and as a natural consequence they can make or break the town. It is in their power to make it a prosperous town or a dead town. When the women of a town acquire the mail order habit, the town may just as well begin making arrangements for its own obsequies.

Hard to Understand

Just why a woman, who is a shopper by instinct and a shrewd judge of values in merchandise, should succumb to the lures of the mail order house it is difficult to understand but, unfortunately, some of them do. No one knows better than the woman who has had some experience in the buying of merchandise how difficult it is to distinguish between the genuine and the imitation even after a close inspection. The good shopper, when on buying bent, does not always take the first article that is offered for inspection. In fact this is the exception rather than the rule. The merchants know it and expect it. They expect a woman; if she is a good shopper, to "look around a little."

If a woman should walk into a retail store and purchase the first suit that she tried on, for instance, the shock probably would prove fatal to the storekeeper or the saleswoman. The chances are that she will try on a dozen suits and look at as many more before she selects one that suits her taste or pocketbook, and the storekeeper not only expects but wishes her to do this. He wishes her to be satisfied as he knows that a satisfied customer is the best advertisement that he can obtain.

Taking a Chance

This same woman, however, may order a suit from a mail order house on the strength of nothing more than a pretty picture and an alluring description. She has not even the opportunity to try it on, to say nothing of the chance of examining the fabric, noting the exact shade of the material and inspecting the workmanship. She is taking chances on the suit fitting her, on the material being good and durable, the shade shade becoming to her and the workmanship of such a character that the suit will not fall to pieces. The woman who takes such chances cannot be called a shrewd shopper.

It might be more easily understood why mere man, unaccustomed and averse, as a rule, to shopping excursions, should fall a victim to the catalogue habit. He might find it easier to order from the picture in the catalogue than to go to a store and look for the article that he wanted or he might take the position that he wouldn't know what he was getting anyway if he went to the store and he might as well take a chance on the mail order gamble, but why the woman who knows what she wants and knows that she is getting what she wants when she gets it should buy on the "sight unseen" plan—well, that's another question altogether.

Woman's Greatest Opportunity

Women are taking a more and more prominent part in public affairs all the time. They are aiding now in many parts of the country in running the affairs of state. Even where they do not have the ballot they are playing a big part, individually and through their organizations, in the conduct particularly of local governments, yet in the one field where they can do most to help build up their communities they may be overlooking their opportunity. With the buying power in their hands they can do more for their community by staunchly supporting their home business men than they can possibly do in any other way.

Man may think he is a very important element in the progress and development of his town but when he reflects that 80 per cent. of the buying power of the community is in the hands of the women he is apt to realize that he is a very insignificant atom.

WORLD RECORD SMASHED TEXAS OIL BRINGS MILLIONS IN DIVIDENDS

85 per cent. oil wells—247 wells drilled in April—39 dry holes—208 oil producers. Daily production 40,000 barrels or $100,000 a day. 127 wells drilled in March, Burk-Burnett field alone. 4 wells dry holes against 123 oil wells. Production 32,000 barrels daily, worth $70,000 a day.

$230,000,000 invested in Texas oilfields, already paid $120,000,000 profit. 60 per cent. on every dollar invested. Seventy-two different oil companies paid dividends averaging 200 per cent. in 8 months only. Burt Waggoner Company paid $33 for every $1. Fowler Company paid $75,000 for every $500 invested. Vancleave paid $68 per cent.—Marine Company paid 1500 per cent. Article Sunday New York Sun says Texas-Pacific Company jumped from $128 to $2150 a share. Property value increased $6,000,000 to $108,000,000. Texas statistics show 247 wells drilled in April, with only 39 dry holes against 208 oil producers. Production 40,000 barrels or $100,000 a day. Texas is the home of oil millions—billionaire wealth producer of the world.

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY

Government report to Congress says serious action necessary to conserve petroleum resources. Demand increasing faster than supply. Great Britain creating oil ministry and acquiring oil properties far afield. French Government seeking oil properties in Algeria and Rottmania. Dr. J. D. Young, Director Bradley Oil interests, says: "New York investors seem as wild over oil investments as the people right in sight of a new gusher." Eastern capitalists are flocking to the oil fields by the hundreds. At last oil has come into its own. Oil won the war against Prussianism and it is daily winning the victory for commerce and progress. Without oil no machinery would be possible, and not a wheel would turn.

For the Young People

The Star Spangled Banner

"Oh say, can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?"

WEET and clear the opening notes of the song rang out over the bare heads of a crowd of people who had gathered in the school yard to see a wonderful new flag that had been given to the school by the father of a soldier who had once gone to school there, but who now lay sleeping in far-away Flanders. Up and up crept the beautiful banner until it reached the top of the tall flag pole, where a sudden gust of wind shook out its folds and spread it out against the clear, blue sky.

"And The Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave, O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!"

As he and his father were going down the street, he asked, "What does our flag mean, daddy? Why does it have stars and stripes in it?"

His father took a little silk flag from his buttonhole and gave it to Jamie.

"Count the stripes in it," he told the little boy.

In a moment Jamie cried, "Thirteen! Why are there thirteen stripes?"

"Long ago, America belonged to England,"

"Why did it?" demanded the little American.

"Because English people came over here when only the Indians lived here, and settled here. Then there wasn't any American flag. The English people brought their own flag with them. It was a plain red flag with a white cross up in that corner where you see the stars in the American flag. These people went to different parts of America and lived close together to protect each other from the Indians. These settlements were called colonies, and there were thirteen of them. By and by, these colonies began to have trouble with England, and they decided to form a country of their own—the United States of America. And they wanted one flag for all. So they took the English flag and put white stripes across the red part, making thirteen in all, one for each colony, leaving the cross in the corner."

"What a funny looking flag it must have been!" said Jamie. "What did they call it?"

"The Grand Union Flag," his father told him. "After a while, as a big war called the Revolutionary War was being fought between the Americans and the English, the Americans decided they didn't want anything on he objected.

"Yes, there are forty-eight. As the United States grew larger, a star was added for each new State, and now there are forty-eight stars. But there will always be only thirteen stripes, in memory of the first thirteen states."

"I wonder why they selected stars for the States?" Jamie said.

"George Washington, the first president of the new country said 'We take the star from Heaven, the red from our mother country (meaning their flag that reminded them of England, for they thought that England had treated them very badly. So they wiped out the cross in the corner, which was English, and put there thirteen white stars in a circle on a field of blue, and that was the first American flag—thirteen stripes and thirteen stars."

Jamie began to count the stars in the little flag. "But there are forty-eight stars in this one,"

and true," he said. "I suppose if we were all those things we would die for our flag, like that soldier, wouldn't we?"

"We ought to be willing to do anything for our flag, it has done so much for us—given us this fine country to live in, and made us free and happy. We can't all die for it, but we can live for it, clean, brave and true lives, so that when we grow up our flag will not be ashamed of us."

"Who wrote that song about the 'Star-Spangled Banner'?" asked Jamie.

"A man named Francis Scott Key wrote 'The Star-Spangled Banner,' during a battle between the Americans and the English in 1814. He was on a ship that the English had captured, and they were bombarding an American fort at Baltimore. As he paced the deck, wondering who was going to win the battle, he composed that song."

They went on, each one thinking his own thoughts about the Star-Spangled Banner, and soon they saw their own flag waving from the front porch. As they walked up the street, Jamie's father said, "Here is a little verse I read the other day. Try to remember it:

"This is our flag and we promise to follow it,
Lead where it may into shadow or sun,
Follow its beautiful stars when they beckon us,
On till its battles are won!
Where are the hands that will fail in its service?"

Where are the feet that will lag?
Over the world and on to the end of it
This is our flag.

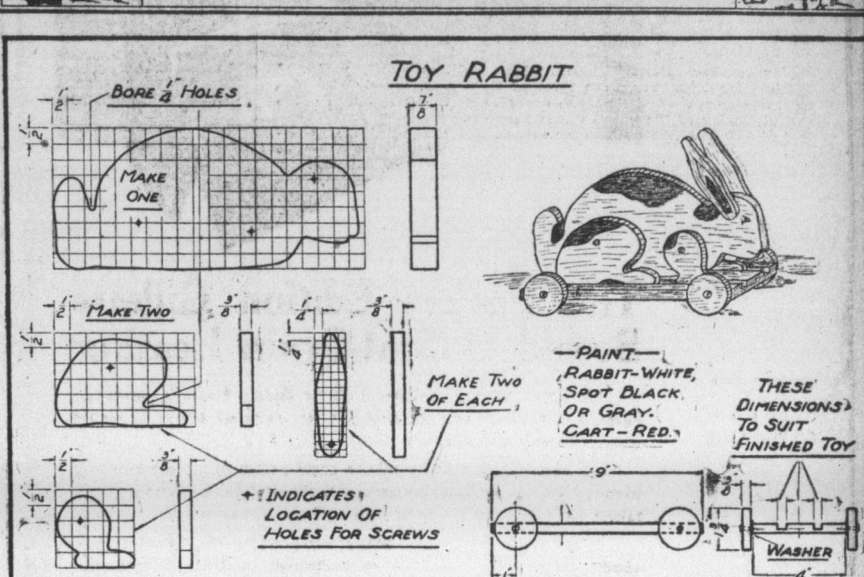

"This is our land, and we promise to live for it,
Cleanly and honestly, doing our best;
Keeping its laws, upholding its government,
Trusting to God for the rest.
Happen what may—come joy or come sorrow—
Steadfast and firm we shall stand:
Over the world and on to the end of it,
This is our land!"

much to the attraction of the toy. A coping saw or a hand saw will be necessary to do this work well. If you have the use of a hand saw, and are properly supervised in its operation, the construction will be much easier. If only a coping saw is available, make the best of it. I dare say that few boys will be able to secure the use of a power bandsaw anyway. The work can be done well with the coping saw, the only difference being that it will require a little more effort on the part of the worker. No matter what tool you use, make the finished piece as well as you can.

The first thing will be to lay out your patterns. It is suggested that thin cardboard be used. Lay out the squares as indicated and trace your design through these squares until you are satisfied with the appearance of the various parts. Be very careful with this part of the work. While it is not expected that the rabbit will have the exact appearance of the real animal, still you want it to look enough like one so your friends won't ask you where you got your dog. You will find it quite a task to get just the right lines for this.

When the patterns are completed to your satisfaction, cut them out with a pair of sharp shears, lay on the

TOYS AND USEFUL ARTICLES THAT A BOY CAN MAKE. BY FRANK I. SOLAR. INSTRUCTOR, DEPT OF MANUAL TRAINING, PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF DETROIT.

WONDER if there is any boy who has never owned a rabbit for a pet. All boys like pets and rabbits are quite common as such. This little rabbit is not alive, of course, and you cannot have the pleasure of watching him nibble a piece of lettuce, but little brother or little sister can have a great deal of pleasure with this rabbit, because he won't hop away from them. All children like a bunny and you won't make a mistake if you include this toy in the series that has been running for some weeks past. Like all the rest of the toys, bunny has his little cart and it adds stock from which the toy is to be made and trace the design. Be careful to locate all the holes exactly. It is important that all holes on the side of the body be exactly opposite the ones on the left side. Before fitting the parts to shape, it will be well to bore the holes for the screws. Select the size of screw you will use and bore the holes accordingly. When all the parts have been shaped, assemble them to see if they have the proper relation to each other. If satisfied with this test, take apart, smooth the pieces well with sandpaper, then glue them according to the suggestion on drawing. Paint each part separately and hang up to dry by means of strings tied to each piece.

Make the cart next. Be careful to get the wheels round. No dimensions are given for the location of the grooves. These dimensions depend upon the finished toy. Measure it and lay out and cut the grooves as you wish. Paint the entire cart red. Washers should be used between movable parts. This is for two reasons. First, to make the parts wear easily, and second, to keep from marring the painted surfaces. For instance, if the legs were fastened to body without a washer between, movement of the legs would soon off the paint.

When the patterns are completed to your satisfaction, cut them out with a pair of sharp shears, lay on the

OUR FLAG -- FLAG DAY, JUNE 14th

On Arch street in Philadelphia, between Second and Third streets stands in the midst of many business properties a little house that is endeared to the hearts of all Americans as the home of Betsy Ross, the maker of our flag. Betsy Ross was a gentle lady who lived during the days of the American Revolution, earning her living by making flags. To her General Washington went with his order for the first American flag. Mrs. Ross, we are told accepted the trust placed in her, and put together the first stars and stripes that were to symbolize America. If you ever visit Philadelphia, you must be sure to pay your respects to the birthplace of Old Glory. There you will enter the very room, where with one snip of her shears Betsy Ross fashioned the five pointed star which brightens the field of blue. The old house is much as it was in 1776, and the heart of every American who steps within the door beats with pride at the sight of the reminders of Revolutionary days.

There are many stories told of the American flag, but one which recently came to my notice I am sure will interest you. The scene is San Francisco, the day after the great earthquake in 1906. Upon the top of a high hill there stood the home of an American patriot, a veteran of the Civil War. The house was an old one and in it were among other things a great many fine and beautiful flags that had been collected and gathered together by the patriotic master of the house. Now it happened that on the day of the earthquake the daughter of the house was waiting to leave for a trip to Japan when all of a sudden the earth began to tremble and

BLOOD-SUCKING BATS

HOW WOULD you like a visitor that comes softly by night, charms you while it robs you, and makes a clean getaway? Such is the vampire bat of South America. Near the equator the nights are warm. A person likes to sleep with his toes uncovered, and the bat certainly likes to find them bare. He inserts his drill into a toe and pumps blood, painlessly pumps blood while he creates a pleasant draft with his fanning wings.

Oh, the vampire knows his business. The wound does not hurt and the sleeper is not aware of the bat's presence. When the awakening comes, the toes are smeared with red, the visitor has vanished, and the victim has the feeling that he slept well.

This bat is really a curious fellow. An investigator of the habits of the animal spent each night of eleven months in an open loft frequented by the vampires. Though at times he saw them hovering over his hammock, none made an attack. An English boy and an Indian in the same loft were frequently attacked, while a donkey in a nearby stall was molested so continuously that he looked, according to the naturalist, "like misery steeped in vinegar."

The vampire is gradually becoming known as the Kaiser bat because he embodies the hated characteristics of

GETTING INTO A SCRAPE

RABBITS, men, golf and Scotland conspired to produce the expression "getting into a scrape." In that part of Great Britain the game was first played. The rabbits were plentiful; then as now, they had the habit of making little hollows in which to rest. Whenever a hunter stopped in one of these scraped spots, the player had a real problem to solve. Finally the protests became so numerous that the golfing society amended the rules and permitted the players to take certain privileges, or "getting into a scrape." From that time, with the difficulty decreased, the game flourished.

GAMES FOR THE GARDEN PARTY

JAMIE and JACKIE were having a garden party and Uncle Jo had come over to help the boys play games. Let us play "Catch the Salmon," he said. Is it like "Fish Pond," asked Jamie. "No," answered Uncle Jo. "Here is how you play my game: Two boys must be the fishermen, and each take one end of this piece of clothes line that I have brought with me. Now, I will draw a line with a piece of chalk across this end of the lawn. The fishermen must stay on one side of the line, and all the rest of us, who are the fish, will stay on the other side. Now, the fun is to see how near to land—or the chalk line—the fish can come without being caught. Watch out, fish, for the fishermen can throw the rope out into the sea to catch any fish that comes within their reach. Fishermen, if you catch any fish you must land them before they get away, but remember, no fish can escape by using his arms. You can jump or slip away but you must not touch the rope with your hands." For a long time the boys played this game and shouted with laughter over the funny antics of the caught fish, but when there were no more fish in the sea, Jackie cried: "Now tell us another, Uncle Jo." And this is the next game they played. "Now," said Uncle Jo, "between the chalk line and the fence is the base and between the house and this tree is a base. All the rest of the garden is free woods. I'll be the old fox and while you boys try to run from base to base I will stand in the free woods and try to catch you. If you are caught I must hold you until I count up to ten. If you haven't gotten away by that time you will be a fox too. Ready? Go!" Oh, such fun as they had. Of course, the more foxes there were the harder it was for the boys to run from one base to the other. Finally all the boys were caught and just then mother came into the garden with a tray of goodies and games were forgotten while the real "party" was enjoyed.

ANIMAL STATUES

The Sparks Circus, which is billed to give two exhibitions in Kitchener Wednesday June 18, have many novelties and new features this season, among which is the justly famous Woodford's Animal Statues.

This display consists of snow-white Arabian stallions and pedigreed white English setter dogs. There are three of these sets, exactly alike one in each ring, and from an artistic sense easily hold the position of the most beautiful display of the entire circus program.

A number of different famous hunting scenes, and the wardrobe, trappings and paraphernalia being in the purest of white give an appearance of marble that leaves a lasting impression of beauty with the audience. Sparks is one of the four largest circus organizations in America, has been operated by the same family 33 years and is a popular favorite in the large cities of the U. S. Its first tour of Canadian cities begins next Monday June 9, at St. Catharines, Ontario; Brantford, London, St. Thomas, Woodstock, Hanover, Owen Sound and Stratford, each have the big three ring circus and menagerie for one day only. Kitchener is the ninth city on the Canadian route and the show is here for two performances on Wednesday June 18.

Tom Mix, the William Fox star, is coming to the Star Theatre next Mon. Tues. and Wed. in another western photoplay, "Fighting for Gold," which is described as a "rip-roaring," by William MacLeod Raine, and the scenario is by Charles Kenyon, the well-known dramatist and screen writer.
"Fighting for Gold" is said to be another splendid vehicle for Mix' dare-devil stunts, with a pretty love story running through it and some good hard western fighting. A live bear is one of the big amusing features. Mr. Mix has a new leading lady this time in Miss Teddy Sampson.

NOT DUPLICATED.
William Fox has picked another thriller for Tom Mix. It is called "Fighting for Gold," and is based on the book "The Highgrader," written by William MacLeod Raine. The story in its photoplay form will be shown at the Star Theatre next Mon. Tues. and Wed. Mix does many stunts—no Mix play would be complete without them—and his company contains a number of exceedingly capable screen actors. Miss Teddy Sampson is his leading lady.

STAGE PROP HOUSE USED A REAL HOME

During the staging of Tom Mix' latest photoplay the director, Edward J. LeSaint, needed a certain kind of wooden house—and it had to be an entire house, no set would satisfy. So he had an arrangement with a man who owned five acres of ground in the suburbs of Los Angeles. Here Mr. LeSaint had a pretty mountain home built. It was not done lavishly, but it was a good, comfortable home for Southern California. The building cost approximately $2,500. Now, the usual thing would have been to pay the man for the use of the ground, tear down the building and erect away the lumber. But when the owner saw the house he offered to pay the Fox Film Corporation $2,500 if they would allow it to remain. It was like finding money. It cut down the expense of the picture—which meant a good deal when one considers the pile of dimes and quarters it takes to make up $2,500. And the man got a bargain at that.
This house is seen in "Fighting for Gold," in which Tom Mix will be seen next Mon. Tues. Wed. at the Star.

A Woman's Sympathy

Are you discouraged? Is your doctor telling you a heavy financial load? Is your pain a heavy physical burden? I know what these mean to delicate women. I have been discouraged too. But I learned how to cure myself. I want to relieve your burdens. Why not end the pain and stop the doctor's bill? I can do this for you and will, if you will assist me.
All you need to do is to write for a free box of the remedy (Orange Lily) which has been placed in my hands to be given away. Perhaps this one will cure you—it has done so for others. If so, I shall be happy and you will be cured for 3 cents (the cost of the postage stamp). Your letter held confidentially. Write to-day for my free treatment. Mrs. Lydia W. Ladd.

Nothing Can Touch Catarrh—ozone in Curing Quickly

You may dislike taking medicine—but coughs are best cured without medicine. The modern treatment is "Catarrh-ozone"—it isn't a drug—it's a healing vapor full of pine essence and healing balsams. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that is congested is healed—irritation is toothed away, phlegm and secretions are cleaned out, and all symptoms of cold and catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick nothing so sure, so pleasant as Catarrh-ozone. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrh-ozone. Large size which lasts two months, price $1.00 small size 50c; sample size 25c, at all dealers.

What Causes Wrinkles? What's The Remedy?

Stop to consider what produces wrinkles and sagging of skin. Premature aging, malnutrition, etc., cause the flesh to shrink, lose its youthful plumpness and firmness. The skin then is too large for the flesh underneath; doesn't fit tightly and snugly as it used to—it wrinkles or sags.
It must be plain that to tighten the skin, make it fit the face perfectly in every place, will effectively remove the hateful wrinkles and bagginess. This is easily and harmoniously accomplished by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel and using the solution as a face wash. The ingredients you can get at any drug store. The results are surprising. The skin immediately tightens up, becoming firm and fresh as in youth. Every wrinkle and sag are affected at once.

And now for the boy there is only cleanliness and comfort, the sense of physical well being that follow a cool, clean, satiny shave such as only an AutoStop Razor can give. MADE IN CANADA

Splendid catches of trout—speckled and salmon—are being made in the Algonquin Park of Ontario this year. That great region with its 1,500 lakes and streams and millions of acres of wooded land is maintaining its reputation as an angler's playground that is never "fished out." With the removal of war-time restrictions on travel, men and women from all sections of the continent are seeking the reserve in search of sport and health-giving environment. Bass fishing will open on the 15th of the present month, and as that date also marks the opening of the Highland Inn, the largest of the hotels in the Park, many sportsmen are planning to make their trips around that date in order to enjoy the full range of angling pleasures.

THIS MOUNT IS THE FASTEST AMERICAN CAR IN THE RACE, AND IN A SHORT SPRINT IS CONSIDERED UNDEFEATABLE. HAVING BROKEN ALL RECORDS OF AMERICAN BUILT MACHINES UP TO 25 MILES.

Ralph De Palma comes to the fore again as the ruling American favorite in the classic 600 mile Livery Sweepstakes to be run at the Indianapolis Speedway this week, and will no doubt be given the coveted No. 1 position.

The American built car with its airplane engine has produced and in a short sprint is the swiftest thing on wheels. In February Ralph broke all records up to 25 miles with it. Whether this fier can stand up under the long grind is a question which only the race can prove.

One of the greatest drivers the game has produced, De Palma, has been a steady competitor for the highest honors and almost every race of any importance for the last ten years has found him either the winner or up among the leaders.

A daring, heady, game driver, always enjoying popular favor, that's De Palma.

This week's event brings to mind the spring of 1912, when, with but one lap to go and victory within his grasp, his car faltered and the hard-won fruits of victory went glimmering, but not a turn of fortune was enough to rob De Palma of the honor of having driven the best race.

De Palma will be opposed by a brilliant array of European drivers. Thomas, Guyot, Babbot and Wagner can be depended upon to give him a race for his money.

NUPTIAL EVENTS

ZELLER-HAGEY

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday afternoon at the farm of Henry Hagey on the Breslau road when his youngest daughter Violet, became the bride of Vernon Zeller who also resides in that vicinity. The wedding took place at 3 o'clock and upwards of 200 invited guests were present. The ceremony took place at the north east corner of the large parlor where a beautiful arch of evergreens sprinkled with flowers presented a very attractive appearance.

Miss Olive Zeller sister of the groom played the wedding march and the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, Mr. M. P. Conner assisted the groom and Miss Lillie Beaver was bridesmaid and the two little Misses Eva and Grace Souder were flower girls. Rev. B. Green pastor of the Zion Methodist Church performed the ceremony.

The bride looked very charming dressed in white silk covered with georgette and wore a wedding veil and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid and flower girls also carried large bouquets of roses.

Following the ceremony the happy couple were extended congratulations. The wedding party and guests sat down to a dinner served on the large lawn at the side of the house, where numerous tables had been arranged prettily decorated with flowers. The happy couple left on the evening G.T.R. train for Hamilton, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and other American cities, the bride travelling in a dress of blue silk with hat to match. On their return they will make their home on the farm known as the Zeller homestead which is situated on the Breslau road near Breslau. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and beautiful wedding gifts.

The cleanliness of the sealed package appeals to the daintiness of a woman.

She knows that it protects the contents from dust, dirt, odors and moisture.

She will be doubly pleased with our new waxed board package—which we have adopted after several years of testing—because it is stronger, more secure and more completely air-tight; altogether the best container for tea that has yet been devised.

Ask your grocer for Red Rose Tea

Chautauqua News.
 The announcement that Dr.
 Frank Bohn will again speak at the Chautauqua is being received with great enthusiasm by the large number of patrons who had the privilege of hearing him last summer in his lecture "The Mind of Germany".
 If the number of tickets sold to-date is any criterion of the patronage to be expected it will be necessary to discontinue the sale of season tickets possibly before the opening day. Those wishing to get in on the reduced rate are advised to get in before the tickets are sold out. Programmes can be had at the book stores or at Larn's Waterloo.

AT THE MARKET.

Unusual activity was evidenced around the market this morning, the building and surroundings being crowded with eager buyers and sellers. Produce there was of all kinds such as cabbage, beets, turnips, lettuce, onions, radishes, asparagus, rhubarb, etc., etc. Prices generally were 5 cents per bunch, but in some instances 3 for 10 cents prevailed. Butter was offered at 48c to 50c per lb. while eggs remained firm at 46 to 48 cents per dozen.
 All over the market there was a hustle and bustle that was good to look upon there being as much activity outside as inside.
 From the bandstand an auctioneer hid forth conducting a sale of household effects while immediately behind the city hall a similar sale was in progress.

A GENERAL CANVAS
 Kitchener and Waterloo made a Canadian Record in respect of the first Patriotic Fund—more money per head of population and a greater proportionate number of subscribers than were obtained in any other city. What did it?

Thorough organization and ardent work. The Committee in charge mean to make the coming campaign to raise funds for the G.W.V.A. just as thorough. No one is to be overlooked, man, woman or child—with or without a regular occupation.

We want all patriotic citizens,
 all citizens of Kitchener and Waterloo who are capable of feeling gratitude not only to give but also to induce his or her neighbor to give.
 By a whole-hearted effort our returned Veterans will secure funds to furnish and to maintain a home for themselves for many years.

General Delivery System in Elmira
 The general delivery system recently planned by the merchants of Elmira commenced operation Monday morning. It bids fair to become successful and popular. Through cooperation between customers and merchants in this matter, it will undoubtedly result in decided advantages for both. Due allowance should be made on either side for inexperience and consequent petty annoyances. Time will eradicate all these and once the system is in full working order no one would willingly go back to the old hit-and-miss system which has been the bug-bear of every merchant in town.

SAGINAW AGGREGATION PLAY-ED SNAPPY BALL

It was no puzzle to the fans who gathered at the ball grounds last evening to understand why Saginaw is leading the Michigan-Ontario League.

The Aces under Manager Wetzel made their first appearance of the season and proved themselves a smart aggregation of ball-tossers. They played snappy ball from start to finish, their fielding was a sensational character, they batted opportunely, were on the alert every minute of the game and took advantage of every misplay committed by the Beavers. The result of the contest was never in doubt.

About the only thing that Kitchener had to show the visitors was in the matter of attendance. Another large crowd took in the twilight performance and satisfied themselves that the Kitchener team as it stands now is not strong enough to go the route and that several changes will have to be made before the club will be in a position to fight with the real championship contenders.

Manager Wetzel introduced a lanky six footer by the name of Schriver who had a great wind-up motion and plenty of stuff on the ball. With an ordinary team, Schriver would probably not have gone the route, but his teammates booked him up in sensational style and succeeded in keeping the locals at bay in every inning but the fifth when a full-bore of electric clouts earned for the Beavers a cluster of three runs.

Sharpe was selected by Manager Beatty and was outlucked. He pitched good enough ball to win and fielded his position excellently but was unfortunate to meet disaster in the fifth inning thanks to a bold play by Hefter who had a chance to retire the side on a double play and prevent any scoring for the period.

It happened in this manner. Schriver, first man up, was out Wade to Beatty. Pike slammed the ball to right and Morse followed suit. Lipps at bat, sent a scorching straight at Sharpe who speared the ball with one hand and tossed it to Hefter who was covering second to retire the runner and double up at first. Hefter saw the play alright, but in his anxiety to rush matters along, muffed the ball and both runners were safe. Sharpe tried hard to get out of this predicament and fanned McClusky but Dodson came through with a timely double clearing the bases.

Kitchener, however, came back in their half of the fifth after Argus had been retired at first. Seanlon drew four wide ones and Sharpe laid down a beautiful bunt and rebuffed first safel.

Kyle sacrificed the runners a peg each and Hefter redeemed himself in the eyes of the fans by planting a double over the centrefielder's head, scoring both Seanlon and Sharpe.

For a time it looked as though the Beavers would overcome the lead and their hopes were searing to all kinds of dizzy heights when Beatty duplicated Hefter's double, sending the latter home from second. Wadg did his best to keep up the good work but his best effort was a long fly to deep right.

It is announced that Westlake who was injured in the first game in which he participated will be back in regular place in the outfield and Nicholson has sufficiently recovered to jump in for Monday's battle with London.

ON THE SIDE

If the great-grand grandson of the founder of this progressive city thinks that he can buy up the opinion of the sporting writer of this paper with a measly twenty-five cent pass he'd better guess again.

Sharpe's bunting was a treat. He placed a pair of them and beat the ball on each occasion. Sharpe would make a valuable pinch hitter when he is not working regularly on the mound.

Rip Harrison has had a jinx haunting him all week. His judgment of fly balls yesterday was poor and a couple of long clouts might have been speared had he obtained the accurate range quickly enough.

Gilbert played in right field yesterday despite the fact that he had a boil on his left.

Hefter was there with the big stick and carried off the batting honors of the contest with three long drives.

Next week's three game series with the Tecumseh's ought to be great betti contests. Both those teams are making a powerful bid for the cellar championship.

London tried out Gurney at first base yesterday and the scorer charged him up with five errors. This ought to constitute a season's record. Of course Flint beat them, 6-0.

Shaughnessy's clan are climbing steadily. They are now within half a game of Battle Creek whom they defeated yesterday by 7-5. Catcher Lapp of the Tigers had three hits.

The Red Sox lost again yesterday bowing to the superior pitching of Ferral of the Wolves. They were shut-out 4-0.

Active Age Proves Real Quality

Like warriors grown gray in harness, and white-haired employees still on the job, a scuffed and scarred set of Silvertown Cords on an ancient car somehow best tells the story of the matchless service of these patrician tires.

The graceful, well-groomed elegance, with which they when new adorn smart cars, may be shabby; their tough tread worn smooth; but their distinction remains.

Once a Silvertown always a Silvertown. You know them, old or new, for aristocrats.

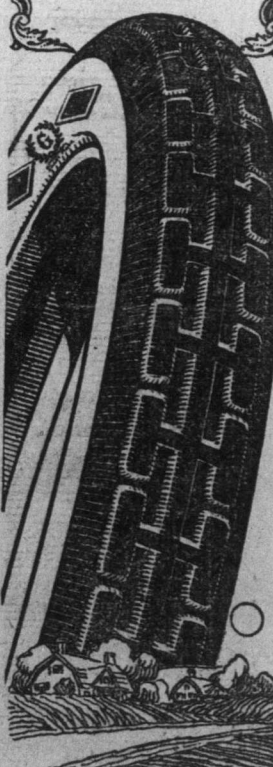

In their age, you read the history of their wonderful endurance; their useful career of miles and miles of road roughing.

You always get the long mileage of a ripe old age to round out the youthful beauty of the tires with the Twin Red Diamonds on the side-wall.
