AN ILLITERATE COUNTRY. Roumania would appear to be the most illiterate country in Europe. The last census shows that, in a population of about 6,000,000 nearly 4,000,000 can neither read nor write, and that only Mems of the Merry War.

John Gilson, the East Middlesex Liberal candidate, speaks tomorrow (Thursday) night in London West, and you to reflect over in Hamilton-or on Friday night in London East. Mr. will be after Nov. 7. Gilson is one of the best informed speakers on the public platform, and is always bright, eloquent and well worth hearing.

Hon. J. I. Tarte, Minister of Public Works, expects to be in St. Thomas on Saturday afternoon to turn the first sod for the new drill hall in that city. He may addresss a meeting there in the evening.

The shrewd New York Observer says: 'The average Canadian voter is scarcely likely to give up the substance of prosperity for the promise."

"I belonged for twenty years to the Conservative party, and, thank God, in those days the Conservative party never tried, to my knowledge, to excite racial prejudices between the different portions of this community. The old Conservative party is gone with the old leader."-Hon. J. L. Tarte.

There is some talk of a third candidate in the London election for the Commons. In the Leys-Beck election for the Legislature on March 1, 1898, there were four candidates, who polled as follows: Leys, 3,994; Beck, 3,693; Ashplant, 126; Gould, 67. Col. Leys' majority over Mr. Beck was 301. Mr. Ashplant ran for the "Socialist Labor Party," and Mr. Gould for the "Canadian Co-operative Commonwealth."

Hugh John is probably sorry by this time for his boomerang talk about throwing off every vestige of protection on agricultural implements.

The lightning bug is brilliant, But it hasn't any mind; It stumbles through existence With its headlight on behind.

The Free Press, with what we fear we must describe as characteristic disregard for facts during election time, is again trying to mislead the electors by a sweeping and general charge that the employes of the postoffice are being poorly paid, and that some of the officials, with families dependent on them, only get 72 cents per day. This statement is without foundation, and given merely to mislead the people. The facts are simply as follows: The present Government, owing to the largely increased postal service of the country, appointed a number of young men to act as "sorters," these young men to gradually work their way up as they would do in any warehouse or mercantile business. These young men on entering the postal service receive 300 per cent higher wages on the start than a young man entering almost any warehouse. The Free Press also charges that the employes do not get the statutory yearly increase to which they are entitled. The employes get this increase as regularly as the year comes round, and nobody knows It better than our contemporary. The law regarding this matter was made under Conservative rule, and no change has been made by the Laurier Administration. A vote for Charles S. Hyman is a vote for Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The Laurier Administration has done more in four years for the cause of labor than the Conservatives did in eighteen years.

Why should any man be asked to vote against a Government under which Canada has prospered as she never prospered before?

"For my part I am one of those who love England. I love my race, but there are other races which have rights as well."-Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

To an esteemed contemporary: The London drill shed will be built all right. The Fair Wage officer of the Dominion Government has already been in the city, to set the fair wage scale, acaccording to which all tenders must be put in. Our esteemed contemporary indulged in gloomy Tupperian prophecies about the Normal School, but it was built all the same, and so will be the great drill shed and armory.

The World says that the Liberal Government has caused an increase in the price of Canadian coal oil of ten cents. But all that the Government has done was to reduce the duty on coal oil. The farmers are not to be deceived by that kind of clap-trap .-Toronto Star.

In a letter to a London (England) newspaper, Hon. J. I. Tarte said: "Speaking for myself, I do not hesitate to say that British institutions are the best in the world." The same gentleman, on St. Jean Baptiste day, sent a message of loyalty and respect to Queen Victoria. Those speakers and writers busy misrepresenting Mr. Tarte should remind themselves of the uncomfortable lake in reserve for economisers of truth.

Samuel Barker, one of the Hamilton Conservative candidates, is also prophesying. Never mind "all Ontario," Samuel, my son. There is plenty for

"I dunno how Bill's goin' to vote in this election," said the campaign worker; "I've hearn tell he's on the fence." "He wuz thar," replied his neighbor, "but one o' the candidates let fall a dollar on the off side o' the fence, an' Bill got dizzy and fell over."

The latest Yankee invention, we are told, is a steering apparatus to be fastened to the tail of a hunting dog to enable him to turn more rapidly, and to double on his own tracks with the speed of a lightning calculator. The way the Tupper people are doubling on their tracks on almost every question, would indicate that they have been infringing on the Yankee

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is to give the oration at the Montreal Caledonian Society concert on Hallowe'en. Lord Strathcona will preside

At every general election there are some who change to the other side. In this general election, for one who changes to the Tupper side, there seem to be ten who turn to the Laurier side. Individual changes, however, are not the important thing. The important thing is the general trend of sentiment. The traveler by steamer down the St. Lawrence at some places now and then sees side eddies of the river actually flowing west. This is owing to peculiar conformation of shelving rocks, but the main stream flows on calmly eastward. So in this general election. Tupper may get an eddy of comfort here and there, but the grand trend of all-over sentiment moves as steadily in Laurier's favor as the St. Lawrence moves eastward to the sea.

London, Oct. 22, 1900.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: I was surprised last evening when reading the Free Press to see that my name was brought in question with regard as to who is the workingman's friend, Mr. Beattle or Mr. Hyman. I do not know who had the gall to use my name, and who ever he is I hope he will not repeat it. They say that I worked for Mr. Hyman for a quarter of a century, and now I am working for the return of Mr. Beattie, which I have a perfect right to do. I can tell that party that I worked for Mr. Hyman for 29 years, and I can honestly say that he always acted as a perfect gentleman, not only to me, but to all his employes. If that party thinks that I would say anything against Mr. Hyman, he never made a bigger mistake in his life. I believe that both Mr. Beattle and Mr. Hyman are the work-ingmen's friends. Mr. Hyman knows well what my politics are, and he would not expect me to do different than what I am doing. Thanking you for your valuable space, I am, yours respectfully,

S. FRIENDSHIP.

The Paris, Temps, which is a semiofficial organ, under a London date, says: "The belief in diplomatic circles is that the Anglo-German agreement is purely a mutual guarantee, against either country seizing the Yang Tse Kiang Valley. Germany, even if not in an economic cris's, is at least in serious embarrassments, owing to considerable over-production brought about by the enormous industrial mabrought chinery which she has created at a great cost. She, therefore, seeking commercial outlets, cast her eyes on China, and especially on the Yang Tse Kiang Valley, and fearing that England might attempt to seize that territory, she signed the published agreement. Two Money-Letters Containing $3,000 Taken.

Grand Forks, B. C., Oct. 24.-It has leaked out that the postoffice here was robbed Wednesday night, and two registered packages, one containing $1,000 from the Bank of Montreal, Greenwood, and the other containing $2,000, from the same bank, were stolen. The bills had been sent to the bank branch here for redemption. James MacKinnon, acting manager of the bank, states it will not suffer any loss, as the remittances were fully insured in the British & Foreign Marine Insurance Company. The packages were left in a drawer in the postoffice over night. The mysterious part of the robbery is the fact that the office was found locked in the morning. A sime ilar robbery occurred a year and a half ago, when the robbers carried off several mail bags and their contents.

THE MCALL MISSION

Evangelization Work in France the Subject of an Interesting Address by Dr. Rossiter of New York.

In one year's time four missions were established, and now there are eighteen in Paris, eleven in the environments, and 54 in other cities, while endless opportunities are being offered for work elsewhere. The workers, said Dr. Rossiter, were one in Christ. The movement was originated by the Holy Ghost, it was directed by the Holy Ghost, and kept from mistakes because of the present spirit of the Lord. Dr. Rossiter said the singing of hymns was one of the means opted to bring the people to Christ. It was only about 28 years ago that the people of France knew anything at all about singing sweet Christian hymns, and they had before that time been accustomed only to hear chanting of choirs. The Gospel was now being introduced to them in a new and attractive way in the sounds and words of hymns. Rev. Dr. Saunders, pastor of the church, being unable to preside, the chair was taken by Mr. William Bowman, who said in introducing Dr. Rossiter that the progress of Protestantism in France was the arbiter of peace to the nations of the world.

Mrs. J. H. McMechan, one of the most prominent workers in the London Auxiliary, also made a few remarks regarding what had been accomplished here during the past ten years. She paid a high tribute to two members, now deceased-Mrs. Henry Matthewson and Mrs. Thomas Evans-who had done much to promote the work of the auxiliary.

Before the beginning of the meeting short organ recital was given by Mr. W. H. Hewlett. The choir was also present and rendered a number of an-

A Communication From the Walkers Re the Port Stanley Lease-City's Terms Too High.

At a meeting of the Port Stanley Railway Board, held last night, the following answer to the resolution re | > the terms of extension was received from General Manager Woollatt:

"Your letter of the 6th of July was duly received and contents noted. Your proposition has been laid before our president, who has instructed me to say that we cannot accept the terms as mentioned in your letter. He suggests that a committee be appointed to confer with us to arrange, if possible, for a satisfactory solution of the matter. If this is acceptable, and your committee care to come to-Walkerville, we shall be pleased to arrange for such without expense to your board or the members of the committee. If the trip to Walkerville cannot be arranged we shall be glad, of course, to meet the committee in London. Your early attention will oblige. Absence of our president has prevented an earlier reply."

The suggested trip to Walkerville was not considered favorably, and a committee, consisting of President Rumball, Vice-President Douglass and Director Jolly, was appointed to meet the company's representative. Mr. Pritchard wanted to have the letter filed and to decline the invitation to Walkerville.

Hay Fever Can be Cured by Japanese Catarrh Cure.

CAUSE OF THIS MOST PREVA-LENT COMPLAINT.

Hay fever has been the cause of much scientific study and research by many of the most prominent physicians throughout the world. Many of them differ as to its real cause, but the majority agree that the cause is due to the little germs contained in pollen grains, principally hay pollen, but many other flowers and plants contribute largely to its cause. Japanese Catarrh Cure has been found the only complete cure for hay fever. It contains an organic compound of jodine, which is a thoroughly harmless antiseptic, and destroys the hay fever germs completely. It soothes, heals and gives almost immediate relief. You will find it pleasant to use. We will be pleased to send Prophecies of "Blue Ruin," The editor of our city contemporary, the Free Press, must have great difficulty in keeping his face straight when he writes that the manufacturers are in danger unless the Opposition succeed in the ensuing election. That was an outery which the Conservative press and orators turned to full account in 1896, and no doubt with considerable effect; but it will not frighten intelligent electors this time. The cry of prospective "blue ruin" in which the Free Press indulges now is but a continuance of its tactics in the last general election. Then our contemporary professed to be just as sure that the country would go to smash unless its political friends were allowed to rule as it is today that a like disaster will result unless Opposition candidates are elected. On June 20, 1896, the Saturday before election day, the Free Press delivered itself as follows:

"To the mechanic, the agriculturist, the laborer, again comes the bugle note of warning. Be not deceived; the success of Laurier and his associates means the commencement of an era of discontent, of uncertainty, of suspicion; an era when people of capital will not put another dollar into any manufacturing concern. It will inaugurate a period when the banks will refuse to aid the manufacturer with advances to proceed with his undertakings. Let the working classes—the bone and sinew of the country-stay and reflect before it is too late, what Laurier's success would do for us! It would frighten away capital, dispirit all enterprise, shake the very foundations of commercial credit."

No lack of "blueness" in this prophecy, and we know that there were some who believed our contemporary, which, like the political orators who talked on the same side, set up a position which it a leged was the Liberal position, and then proceeded to demolish it with fearful forebodings of what would occur unless Sir Charles Tupper and his associates were retained in office.

In spite of the expedients resorted to, following is the record: and they were many and questionable, the late Government was defeated, and the results of four years' administration by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues are now before the Domin-

With a record of improvement of conditions, under the new order of things, such as these authenticated returns prove, we are certain that no workingman will today listen to the gloomy forebodings of the Free Press. The two-faced game being played by the Opposition in the present campaign was never better exemplified than in the speech made the other day, at St. Lazare, Que., by Mr. Gelley, Conservative candidate for Bellechasse. He devoted nearly all his attention to making a bitter attack on the Laurier Government for sending the Canadians to take part in what he called an unjust war. He scathingly denounced Great Britain as having entered the war from the basest motives. The English, he said, went to South Africa simply for robbery, plunder and rapine, to rob the unoffending Boers of their gold and of their country, and to crush to the earth two freedom-loving republies who dared to stand up for their rights. He delivered a most eloquent eulogy on the Boers-"those quiet, peace-loving farmers"-and compared them to the honest farmers of the county of Bellechasse, and he closed by an impassioned appeal to the electors for their support in the coming struggle for the Conservative party, which was not tinged with this imperialism so dear to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his friends. It may be that such an atment, were assembled in the Red Par- tack was regarded as good politics by the Opposition managers, but it is to the credit of the electors that they received it with silence. The False Prophet Again.

Sir Charles Tupper, when he heard of the phenomenal success of the Ontario tour of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, hurried back to this Province, and in passing through Montreal took occasion to attempt to cheer up the spirits of his followers by prophesying that the Opposition would win in the ensuing contest. This was, as a matter of fact. a talking through his hat by the honorable gentleman. Sir Charles has a bad reputation as a prophet, but he never fails to prognosticate. He ts always going to win, no matter though proof to the contrary, as in the present instance, is overpowering. On the eve of the last election, in 1896, he told the Cape Breton electors:

"I am neither the prophet nor the son of a prophet, but I make the statement here and now, and I want to be judged for all future time by it, and never believed again, unless it turns out to be true. The great Liberal-Conservative party will be returned triumphantly with a greater majority than they have now."

As this prophecy was doomed to failure, and Sir Charles has asked the Canadian people never to believe him again, as a consequence there seems to be no disposition on the part of the large majority of the people either to accept his present prophecy or to aid in its fulfillment.

All at Sea.

Among the Conservatives you have Sir Charles Tupper declaring in Parliament that it would be a dangerous and bad policy to construct railways as Government works, that the only way was to subsidize railway companies. In Manitoba Hugh John Macdonald dechares that it is madness to subsidize companies, and that the only way is for the Government to build the roads. In Parliament, Mr. George Taylor (the Opposition whip) almost wept at the terrible evils coming on his neighborhood by the importation of American agricultural implements, and last week in Manitoba Hugh John announced that he would stand up for the abolition of the duty on implements. (Laughter.) On these two questions they could knock heads together, if they chose, but, after all, that was a small potato kind of policy. (Applause and laughter .- Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance at Tilbury.

Of Course He's Too British. Sir Charles Tupper has declared in the Province of Quebec that Sir WMfrid Laurier is too British for him. One can readily believe that he is speaking the truth, and that had he cared he could, with perfect honesty, have repeated this criticism in Ontario. During the last year of Tupper's administration the total export of agricultural products and animals and their products, from Canada to Great Britain (that is in 1896) was to the value of $42,000,000. This year, under Laurier's "Too British" policy, the total has risen to $72,560,000. No wonder, when Sir Charles has to face these figures before a jury of Canadian farmers, he is led to declare that Laurier is too British

The Opposition leader in Manitoba pledges himself to let in all agricultural implements from the United States, whether or not that policy destroys our manufactories. The London Free Press says we ought to have a high McKinley tariff on all imports, agricultural implements included. In unity there is strength, but not in the "unity" exemplified by Hon. H. J. Macdonald and the Opposition organ in London. These vote-catching devices are seen through by the intelligent electorate

Joining the Winners.

Still they join the great Army of Progress! The latest adherents to the Government policy embrace Mr. H. T. Stevens, of Moncton, N. B., formerly M. P. P., and at one time editor of the Times of that city. Mr. Stevens has been a life-long Conservative, but he believes that the interests of his native Province would be best served by sending to Parliament a supporter of the Government in the person of Hon. Mr. Emmerson, who resigned the Premiership of New Brunswick to run for the Commons in Westmorland. Mr. Stevens' declaration to this effect, the telegrams inform us, has caused a sensation in the district. Another noted convert to the side of Liberalism is Mr. C. S. Burley, of Portage la Prairie, Man., who has been all his life a Conservative, but now says in the present condition of affairs the Government ought to be sustained by every patricommercial and agricultural standpoint, Mr. Burley asks: "What more could any government do than Laurier has done to promote Canada's wel-

A "Hold-Up" Not Advisable.

Mr. John Charlton thinks that the British Government might "perhaps" have removed the restriction upon cattle entering Britain from Canada as a return for our giving a trade preference to Great Britain. Perhaps the British Government will soon make this concession. We have the best of authority for stating that Lord Strathcona, our High Commissioner, has been unceasing in his endeavors to have the restriction removed, and that while there was no prospect of it being romoved under the old order of things, when British products were very heavily taxed by Canada, the new era inaugurated by the present Government has so commended the Dominion to our old country kindred that they are now much more likely to listen to representations from our Government than formerly. This much is certain, that if our Government had "help up" the British Government, as its opponents have declared the proper course, and had refused to establish a preference for the Motherland until she destroyed her trade freedom, or even until she altered her law regarding the importation of cattle from all parts of the world, the Government and people of Great Britain would have postponed for many a long day the entertaining of any approaches on our behalf. Lord Strathcona, who is in a position to know, holds that the right way has been taken, and he loses no opportunity to promote our interests in the best possible ways offering.

> The hard-headed worker is asking these days what sense there would be in voting against a Government under which for four years he and his fellows have prospered as they have never done before, and Canadian interests have been looked after with statesmanlike carefulness. The "nest of traitors" have been "scotched" but not killed, and it would be risky to again put them in power.

In the celebrated Pamphlet No. 6, circulated by the Opposition in Quebec, it is stated in large type: "The first utterances of imperialism were made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Lon-Then it was that he put the don. Canadian soldiers at the service of the English." Outside Quebec the Opposition are declaring that Sir Charles Tupper "forced" Sir Wilfrid Laurier to send the contingents. As the Winnipeg Free Fress aptly remarks, these deliberate attempts to disrupt the unity of the Canadian people are the worst possible sort of disloyalty to Canada and the Empire.

The Toronto Telegram (Independent Conservative) expresses the fear that a "victory for the Opposition might license the worst elements in the Conservative party to return to their old game." It most assuredly would do so. But the danger is one against which the public means to guard. There will be no victory for the Opposition." The intelligent electors are not likely to change Sir Wilfrid Laurter. Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. Mr. Paterson, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. David Mills and their colleagues, for the Tuppers, Fosters, Haggarts, Montagues and lesser luminaries of the late Government. The "old game" played and the gamesters sent into becoming obscurity.

A Great Imperialist Leader. [Montreal Witness.]

That Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been one of the greatest imperialist leaders, not only of Canada, but of the empire, during the last four years is now acknowledged by Britishers everywhere. And it is his doyalty to the Queen and the empire, his Canadian patriotism, for which the people of And it Canada highly esteem him. seems evident that the people of Ontario in their general welcome of him at Toronto were proud of him as a Britisher, and especially esteemed him as a Britisher of French origin. It should be regarded as the English-Canadians' response to the French-Canadian premier's declaration of his mission as a statesman, namely, to promote the friendship, peace, fraternity and union of the French and British Canadians.

Feed peas sold at 80c to 82c, and good ones at 90c. Barley of the same grade sold at 70c. Rye sold at 70c to 80c.

Several lots of beans were marketed. and ranged in value from 75c to $1, according to the quality.

hogs were both Dressed and live hogs were both lower, selling at $7.75 to $8.25 for the former, and $5 50 to $5 60 for the latter. TORONTO, Oct. 23.-Trade was dull at the cattle market today. Receipts were fairly large. Wet weather seemed to have a depressing effect, and ed to have a depressing effect, and very little activity was manifested in any line. The only feature of importance was a drop of 15c to 50c per cwt in the price of lambs. The receipts were 45 loads, including 700 cattle, 2,000 sheep, and lambs, 20 calves and 400 sheep and lambs, 20 calves and 400 Export cattle-There is very hogs. little life in the export trade, and the inquiry for this class of stock is limited; the samples offered for sale usually fell short of the standard reand cows better desired are short-keep feeders; one load of exporters sold at $450 per cwt, and this was the only transaction reported. Butchers' cattle-Trade is very poor and prices are weak; the supply is rather indifferent, owing to the unfavorable weather, and buyers do not wish to load themselves up with in-ferior cattle; there are a great many of the latter class being offered still, and they are practically a drug on the market; picked lots bring $4 35 to $4 55 per cwt; and choice sell well at $4 to $4 30; good range from $3 25 to $4; medium from $2.75 to $3.25, and common from $2.25 to $2.75. Feeding bulls were steady. at $250 to $325; two fine beasts sold at the latter figure, and more could have been handled at the price. Stockers were plentiful, and the call for them was not at all brisk; dealers seem to be able to get all the stockers they want without any trouble, and prices show no firmness; there is an abundance of off-color stock. which has a detrimental influence on the market; light beasts are unchanged at $2 50 to $3 per cwt, and the poor grades are dull at $1 75 to $2 25. Export bulls-The supply today included four of the finest animals that have been seen on the market this year; they weighed 2,050 lbs each, and were in fine condition; needless to say they sold readily at $4 25 per cwt; others changed hands at $3 50 per cwt; trade showed a slight improvement, and all the bulls offered were cleared out;

EAST HURON IS ALL RIGHT. Wingham, Oct. 24.-The election campaign in East Huron is moving along nicely. The candidates, Dr. Macdonald and Mr. E. L. Dickinson, are holding joint meetings in different parts of the riding. Four of these meetings were held last week, and they were largely attended. The Liberals and their friends of the riding are taking a deep interest in the campaign, and are better organized than they have ever been. Liberals who were rather backward in previous campaigns are in the thick of it that time. The Conservatives have flooded the rading with copies of the "bogus Globe," and the rest of their famous campaign literature. The electors of East Huron, in common with all parts of Canada, have enjoyed too much prosperity during the past few years under the Laurier Government to bother very much with Globes and other campaign literature, supplied from Conservative headquarters. East Huron was carved at the time of the Tory gerrymander as a safe miding for them, but since 1887 the popular Liberal standard-bearer, Dr. Macdonald, has carried the riding, and with the splendid help he is getting

British Manufacturers Must Wake Up Il They Would Hold South African Trade.

London, Oct. 24.- The recent reports from South Africa that large contracts for railway and mining material had been placed in the United states owing to the lower prices and quicker delivery obtained there than from British manufacturers are causing indignation in a section of the press especially the statement that Major Girouard, military director of railways in South Africa, had placed contracts in America. Replying to a remonstrance from a private correspondent, Mr. Wyndham, parliamentary secretary of the war office, states that no orders have been placed by Major Girouard in America. He adds that he is confident that the alarm ascribed to British manufacturers lest they do not have an opportunof profiting by the business which will follow the war is unfounded. Cape government and the Witwatersrand companies, however, cannot buy in the most expensive and slowest market, and while anxious to favor industries, the conductors of the latter must be less conservative and turn out their orders cheaper and Benefits to Canada From the Preferential Tariff With Britain.

[The Shareholder, Montreal.] The Liberal party came into power under great disadvantages, in the face of which they have accomplished great things for the Dominion. Under its aegis not only have closer trade relations been established with Great Britain, but a very much stronger interest in Canadian matters generally has been awakened in the hearts of the great British people, who have been brought to feel most vividly that the Dominion of Canada is a much more desirable portion of the British Empire than it was ever hitherto regarded. Nay, more, the occurrences which have taken place during the past four years have immeasurably strengthened the bonds which unite them. These facts of themselves should suffice to lead the electorate of tons country to ponder over the immense possibilities with which such a relationship is pregnant, and to take every precaufrom the electors, the doctor will again be elected on the 7th of November. pregnant, and to take every precaution to avoid recourse to any step which might bring about a miscar-

NO CHANGE WANTED

Even Conservatives Are Satisfied With Things as They Are.

Did you have the blessing of good government in regard to trade and to 1896? "Yes," some Conservatives will say, "surely Canada made some progress." Yes, we do not deny that. You could not take people like the Canadian people, intelligent, bright, progressive people, you could not tie them up even with the Conservative policy and prevent them making some progress. They did make some progress, and the enthusiastic and pushing Conservative party said that this was the progress the country could make. But this was not the judgment of all the Conservatives. I came into Ontario in 1897 with my distinguished friend, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and my able friend. Mr. Paterson, to inquire into the tariff question, and I well remember a conversation I had with a prominent Conservative in your province. I asked him if he was satisfied with the progress Canada made under the Conservative government. He told me frankly he was not, that when he read the census of 1891 and saw how little progress the country had made he began to lose heart and faith and hope in the country, and he said that if he was obliged to look forward to another census like that he would have to take his business from the province and leave this country. I am glad to tell you he did not go away. He is here in Ontario today. He waited for the better times which came, and is today the head of one of the greatest and most prosperous manufacturing industries in Canada. You did not have good government in the sense of peace and harmony; you did not have good government in the sense of reasonable progress in the trade of your country. and the universal cry in 1896 was: is time for a change," and everybody said so. The great Conservatives of Toronto said it was time for a change. You have had four years of Liberal government. What intelligent man says that it is time for a change? (Cheers.) Sir Charles Tupper does; I do not wonder at his saying so, but the great mass of the men of Canada, the business men and the manufacturers of Canada do not say that.

Get them quietly by themselves, and the very man who is going for the sake of old party alliances to vote the Tory ticket as before, will tell you what he desires above everything else is that there will be no change, but a continuation of the progress and prosper-ity of the last four years.—Hon. W. S. Fielding at Massey Hall.

AN AGED WIDOW SUES WIDOWER

Awarded One Dollar Damages for Breach of Promise of Marriage.

Woodstock, Ont., Oct. 23. - Justice Robertson opened the fall assizes here this afternoon. As there was no crimusiness his lordship was presented with a pair of white kid gloves. In addressing the grand jury he said ment of one of the grandest efforts a common thing for judges in Ontario. improve our trade with Great Britain. had never worn. He said, however, that the presentation of white gloves to a judge did not necessarily mean that the morals of the people were improving, but merely that the county judges were trying most of the criminal cases. His lordship referred to some of the fine new court houses which had been built in recent years in this province.

The first case tried was Elstone vs. King. Mrs. Elstone, a wealthy widow, of this town, whose age is seventy, sued for breach of promise George King, a gay widower of eighty-four, who owns considerable property in Hickson, this county. Mrs. Elstone told commerce? Did Canada prosper down of the proposal on the stand. Crossexamined, she was asked why she agreed to marry a man of elighty-four. "Because I wanted a husband. Hadn't I as much right to a husband as anyone else?" she retorted. Mrs. Elstone told the court that she noticed there was a coolness on Mr. King's part last May, and she would have released him then if he had asked her, but instead of that he came to her house in Woodstock on Dominion Day and told her their marriage would take place the following week, just as soon as he got back from a visit to his daughter up north. His family, however, got him persuaded the other way, and five days later he came back and on some trivial excuse broke off the engagement. Mr. King, the aged defendant, denied emphatically that he had ever proposed marriage to Mrs. Elstone. He said that all there ever was in the line of matrimonial talk that he knew of was one time when he was making a friendly call on the widow. She mentioned a lady who had recently made a good match, and he asked her if she would marry if she got the chance of as good a husband.

"Well," Mrs. Elistone replied, "if I got a man who was a Christian, went church twice on Sunday, didn't drink, and was good to me, and was real nice, I don't know but that I might.

The judge told the parties they ought to settle, but neither side seemed inclined to, and the case went to the jury. The jurors were only out a few minutes. They awarded Mrs. Elstone $1 damages.

Another Batch of Reports From South Africa.

Col. Otter Explains His Position in Rethe R. C. R.

[Special to Advertiser per C. P. R.] Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 24. - Another batch of reports was received today at the militia department from South Africa. Col. Drury, commanding the Royal Canadian Artillery, writes from Pretoria under date of Sept 13. His dlary, covering Aug. 23 to Sept. 13, contains nothing of importance. Chaplain Cox proceeded to Bloemfontein, and secured a truckload of Canadian

Red Cross stores. Col. Evans' report is dated at Nooitgedacht, On Sept. 15 the battalion had a skirmish with the Boers. The enemy retired after the British fired two shells.

The field state slows on parade, 188; sick, 95; missing, 1, and the remainder engaged in various occupations. Corp. Trunna, Ptes. Pierson, Jackson, Wetzeldt, J. A. Paterson, J. H. Brown, Corp. Bains, Rodgers, Ptes. King, Waller and McKay, who were sick, rejoined the regiment.

COL. OTTER'S REPORT.

Lieut. - Col. Otter's reports from Erste Fabrieken, cover from Sept. 8 to Sept. 10. He again deals with the circumstances which led those now under his command to remain in South Africa. Col. Otter says that Lord Roberts met the main body of the R. C. R. and expressed his pleasure to learn that the battalion would prolong its services, as different action on its part would likely cause other colonial corps to withdraw. This was on the 10th of September.

On the 11th, Col. Otter went to Silverton to speak to the officers on the subject, but says that owing to "the ridiculous position of Capt. Stairs on the subject he did not do so." Letters came on the 12th from Capts. Barker and Fraser, reporting that their men were not satisfied to re-engage for any longer.

On the 13th, Col. Otter received letters from Major Pelletier, Capts. Barker, Fraser, and Lieut. Swift, notifying him of the refusal of men of and F companies to re-engage for further services in South Africa, and also from Capt. Stairs, of H.

Col. Otter then wired to Lord Roberts the decision of the officers and men, and asked that such be complied with. In reply thereto a wire was re-ceived from Lord Roberts regretting the decision the regiment had come to, as if was unlikely its services would be FIRES AT HARROWSMITH AND required much longer, and its going away then would prevent its taking part in the annexation ceremony at Pretoria, and being present at proposed review in England by her majesty. These messages were communicated to the men by Col. Otter. Capt. Stairs, of H. Company, reported hat all his men wished to return to Canada

Lieut. Watts, of D Company, reported that 32 of his men wished to return, and 17 would remain. No further report had, up to that date, been received from the other companies. The parade state shows 285 invalided to England, 35 killed and dead of wounds, 26 died of disease, 17 transferred, leaving 789 in South Africa at that date Lieut.-Col. Lessard's report shows an uneventful week, and Major Hordman says that his battery was inspected by Lord Roberts.

Rebels Running Things to Suit Themselves.

Imperial Troops Slaughtered Piecemeal-New Emperor Suggested.

Canton, Oct. 24.—According to official reports all the cities in the Hui Chow prefecture are still holding out, the rebels confining themselves to capturing villages and slaughtering isolated bodies of imperial troops. The rebels are also actively recruiting, and are now estimated to number 10,000. There has been no pitched battle, but the Chinese general commanding at Hui Chow is afraid to leave the city for fear of being cut off.

New York, Oct. 24.—Rev. Dr. W. A. P. Martin, of the imperial university, Pekin, who is staying at the home of his son here, said of the China problem: "The best remedy of the situation is the re-establishment of the young emperor, who possessed liberal and progressive ideas. If he cannot be put on the throne one of two things will follow-either native princes will divide the country or foreign powers will cut it up and rule through native princes. The latter, I believe, would be the better of the two."

The son, whose death is now recorded, was born here on April 29, 1862, and lived here until about twelve years ago, when he moved to Vancouver. He was loved and respected by all who knew him, as he was very amiable in his disposition, and lived a peaceable and agreeable life with all his neighbors. OPERATION FOR CANCER A FAILURE

Fully Eighty-five Per Cent of Cancer ous Growths Operated on. Return Within & Year

That operation for cancer has been a signal failure will be admitted by the best surgeons in the land. Dr. J. C. Oliver, of Cincinnati, Ohio, a pro-minent surgeon, says: "I have operated in a considerable number of cases of cancer recently, and with one exception all have died within fourmonths after the operation." That, we have no doubt, is pretty much the experience of surgeons everywhere. The trouble is, cancer is a constitutional disease, and removing the lump or growth does not eradicate the cause of the disease itself from the system. Why, then, will people submit themselves to the unnecessary and eminently useless suffering of an operation, when they can be cured in an easy and simple manner by our constitutional treatment? We have dozens of cases on record where even after operation had been unsuccessful, a complete cure was effected by our remedy. Send two stamps to Stott & Jury, Bowmanville, Ont., for full particulars and the new treatise of "Cancer, Its Cause and Cure."

The funeral of Lord Rhysworth was an event long remembered in the county. There was not one present whose heart did not go out in warmest sympathy to the beautiful young wi-

The squire was deeply affected by his old friend's death.

Who would have believed that I should outlive him?" he said, and in his heart he knew that, but for the dead man's generosity and kindness, he would not have been alive.

They buried him in the old family vault, where all the Rhysworths for many generations had slept. When his will was read, it was found that he had left all he could to his wife-Burbage Grange, with an income of five thousand per annum, which at her death was to revert to his daughter Kathleen, together with a large sum of ready money and several valuable investments, which made her wealthy for life. Deeping Hurst, with its revenues, went to the next of kin, Walter Irving, now Walter, Lord Rhysworth, who Lola's flights of fancy, was in India, where he held an office under the government. A year at least must elapse before he could come home; so he wrote to Lady Rhysworth asking her as a great favor to remain at Deeping Hurst until he returned to England. It was a respite to her. She had felt no great or passionate love for her husband, nothing but reverence and kindly affection; but she had been warmty attached to him for his goodness and kindness, and she felt his death keenly. She knew that she had lost the truest and best friend it was possible for a woman to have. It was some little comfort and relief to her that she had not to leave Deeping Hurst just then. It was a beautiful home, and she had been very happy there. She was pleased to think that she need not go away with the pain of her loss strong upon her, pleased that bally Kathleen should take with her, wherever she went, some memory of her father's home. While the three months of rigorous mourning lasted, she wrote frequently to Lady Rhysworth, being always very careful to mention the fact that she had just heard from Sir Karl; but she made no attempt to visit her. Only when the Deening Hurst carriage had been seen in the town did she venture near the phace. Dolores was pleased to see her. She was young, and the long isolation had begun to tell upon her. It was cheering to see a bright face and to hear the sound of a laughling voice. Almost her first worlds to Lola were an Invitation to the nursery to see baby Kathleen, and Miss de Ferras' first remark was:

What a great pity, Lady Rhysworth, it was not a boy. "Why a great pity?" asked the young mother repreachfully. "Could anything be fairer or sweeter than my Kath-

"I have not thought of it," answered Dolores, in a clear, low voice, but her lovely face flushed and her lips them-"My only thoughts have been of my sorrow and my beautiful baby. have had neither time nor inclination for anything else."

But Lola, looking steadfastly at her, repeated:

CHAPTER XIII.

Fourteen months have elapsed since the master at Deeping Hurst was laid in his grave, and one bright sunshing morning Lady Rhysworth took her book and called to the nurse to bring hittle Kathleen to her favorite nook under a noble cedar. The squire very often came over to see his daughter, and to smoke his cigar under the cedar- Troops Moved Against the Wazboughs while Dolores read the newspaper to him and his little granddaughter played at his knees; but on that morning it was Lola de Ferras who had ridden over. She had not slept well, she said, and fancied that the air of Deeping Hurst would do her Lady Rhysworth mas pleased to see her. During the last few months they had become better friends. Dolores was so gentle and loyable that Lola could not dislike her; and her ladyship seemed to look down upon her from such a height of calm superiority that there was no longer any rivalry possible between them. Lola felt it so; besides, the friendship of Lady Rhysworth was of great importance to her. She met at Deaping Hurst the very best society, society that Madame de Ferras, with her limited means, could not entertain. She enjoyed keenly all the comforts of a luxurious home, the thousand and one things that add to one's enjoyment of Nothing pleased Lola more than a visit to Deeping Hurst; so the friendship of Miss de Ferras and Lady Rhysworth had, ripened all the more since the old feeling of rivalry had been removed.

On this fair morning Lola had looked more thoughtful and watched Dolores with more keenness than usual.

"How beautiful the shade of this old cedar is!" she said. "Your ornamental trees are twice as large as ours. just as everything here is twice as beautiful as in any other place. You will be sorry to leave it."

"Yes," answered Dolores, "and from all that I can hear I have not much longer to remain. Lord Rhysworth is expected home at the end of this "I wonder," said Lola, "how you can mention the man's name. Were I in our place, I could not."

"Why not?" asked Dolores, smiling.

She was growing more accustomed to "Think of all he will take from you, Dolores." "It never was mine, and it is by right his own. Why should that annoy me?"

"I know it would anger me," rejoined Lolo. "I should do one of two things -either hate or marry him."

"It is not so easy to marry a man," said Dolores. The words were simple enough, and had no particular meaning, but Lola's face flushed crimson as she heard them. She knew it was not easy to marry whom she would. She changed the subject. "You are still very young, Dolores." "I am but too cognizant of the fact; why do you remind me of it?"

"Because, if the new Lord Rhysworth should marry, you will be the Dowager Lady Rhysworth. I call that nothing short of a calamity." "It would not disturb me; besides, he may not marry," returned Dolores. "Rely upon it that he will. I am sure that Lady Fielden intends him for months of her widowhood she passed her eldest daughter—she speaks of him in total seclusion with her child, and in such tones of approbation."

"It would be an excellent match," said Lady Rhysworth. "I should like" him to marry some nice girl from the neighborhood. It would be the best

"Would you not feel jealous of an-other Lady Rhysworth? I should." "No. I should feel terribly jealous if any could take even one thought of mine from my baby; but of Deeping Hurst I could never be envious. Lola looked thoughtfully at her.

"Dolores," she said, "why not marry him yourself? You would lose nothing

Lady Rhysworth raised her beautiful eyes in wonder.
"I?" she said. "My dear Lola, nothing in the world would ever make me marry him."

"But he was hardly related to your husband-nothing more than second or

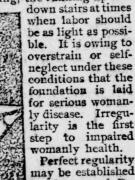

"He was hardly a third cousin; but he was the next of kin." replied Lady "To me it seems just as Rhysworth. though he had been my husband's bro-Such a marriage would be an utter impossibility to me."

Lola sighed. She saw that that idea was out of the question, and at once decided upon changing her tactics. "I was merely jesting: of course, you would not marry him. It would not be at all fair of you to monopolize two Lords of Deeping Hurst. Lady Fielden would never allow that."

HOME-COMING OF VOLUNTEERS

Statement Regarding a Slander Suit-Rev. Dr. Philp Writes on His Own Behalf.

[St. Thomas Journal, Oct. 23.] To the Editor of The Journal: Sir,-As there appeared in the Journal last evening a statement that a "writ' had been served upon me regarding a libel suit instituted by Gunner George Barrett, I desire to give to the public the correspondence concerning it. The following note was left at the parsonage yesterday afternoon: Students Who Mobbed a "Faith Healer" Fined $20 Each-Oscar

St. Thomas, Oct. 22, 1900. Rev. John Philp: Dear Sir,-Mr. George Barrett has instructed me to sue you for slanders published in church last evening concerning him. Yours truly,

J. A. ROBINSON. To this note I sent by post the following reply the same afternoon;

John A. Robinson, Esq.: Dear Sir,-I am in receipt of your notification re instructions from Mr. George Barrett to sue me for slander in consequences of statements made in my sermon last evening. It is very evident you were not present to hear for yourself, otherwise I am confident you would have given no countenance to such a charge. My remarks concerning the soldier boys' home-coming were based on the words and appeal of Lords Roberts and Wolseley, that the "welcome" given to the home-coming soldiers be worthy of the citizens of a Christian country, and especially that it be free from all intemperate tendencies or indulgence. In this connection I referred, in a sentence, to a welcome given on the streets of our city during the past week in honor of one of our brave soldier boys, and trusted that it would not be repeated. I do not suppose Mr. Barrett indulges in drinking. I made no such intima-tion. I do not hold him responsible for demonstration referred to. As a Christian teacher I felt it my duty to discountenance any such welcome to our noble soldier boys, among whom

Mr. Barrett has a wormy record. I have reason to believe that my attitude is in accord with the convictions not only of the congregation assembled last evening, but of this Christian city. I take it for granted that your in-struction is not an attempt by any party or parties to intimidate me in the discharge of my duty; if so, it would be in vain, but merely to call my attention to an impression made that Mr. Barrett was personally mentioned and assailed by me. I regret that he should have received such an impression. I had no such thought, and certainly gave no such utterance.

If Mr. Barrett insists on pushing this further, kindly inform me, and such steps as may be needful will be taken. Yours truly, J. PHILP.

I desire in justice to Gunner Barrett to say that I received a communication from him yesterday after the above was mailed, in which there is not the slightest intimation or indication of any instructions sucn as Mr. Robinson states. In his letter, while regretting my reference to the demon-stration of Wednesday last, fearing lest his reputation be impaired by it, he disavows all responsibility for the proceedings, and says: "I am very sorry the thing occurred—it was no wish of mine whatever to be there." I honor Gunner Barrett for this statement, and assure him that with such a spirit and purpose as it implies, he may ever enjoy from the citizens of St. Thomas, the recognition and high approval which his service for Queen and country claim. None will more fully delight to accord him merited praise than myself. He and all the young men of the city will ever find that those interested in their moral welfare are their truest friends. I wish further to say that while I have the honor of being a pastor in this city I shall regard it as my priviege and duty in the spirit of a tian minister, to speak plainly and without fear concerning public evils and social sins. No ban shall be put upon my words in this regard. Possibly since silence has been the weak-

The Cause of Many a Broken Down Eody - Put New, Lifs Sustaining Richness Into the Blood by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (Pills), the Great Blood Builder.

When the blood gets thin and watery and is lacking in certain elements such as iron, sulphur, phosphorus and various carbonates, it fails to sustain life and vitality and to repair the waste which is always going on in the organs of the body.

The result of this depleted state of the blood is paleness, weakness debil-ity, and the failure of the body to withstand the attack of deadly constitutional diseases. Young women become pale and languid. There are breathlessness, severe indigestion, hysteria and melancholy feelings and deficiency or absence of the periodic discharge. Young men complain of dyspepsia, pimples on the face and back, palpitation, liver ailments, and have gloomy forebodings or fears of some fearful disease. This anaemic and weakened condition of body prepares the way for consumption, or some other constitutional disease; hence it is that so many thousands of young men and women die annually from the white scourgeconsumption.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) is considered the greatest of ail blood builders because it supplies in proper proportions the very elements of nature that are lacking in the blood of a person who is weak and run down. It creates new, rich blood and nerve force, and thoroughly and completely restores the body wasted by disease, over-work or lack of proper nourish ment.

To young men and young women with weakened and debilitated constitutions Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) bring hope and courage for future health and happiness. To the pale, weak and emaciated who daily fear consumption it comes as the only certain means whereby they can avoid an early grave.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) is the greatest of all restoratives, and a pre-paration of most unusual value. COURT OF REVISION. Nearly one hundred appeals were heard yesterday afternoon and evening by the court of revision for assessments. One-half of the appeals in have still to be considered. The number is large, but they are of a generally unimportant nature. The complaints were mostly based upon the usual grounds of dissatisfaction-one man being willing to sell for less than he was assessed, another having been assessed higher, while his neighbor had no increase, and so on. No decisions were made, but all the cases will be considered at a special meeting. Those present were Mr. J. W. Jones, who presided; Mr. McMahen, Sheriff Cameron, City Clerk Kingston, Assessment Commissioned Grant, Assessors Toll

änkankakkakkakkakkakkak

Boots and Shoes are being sold at the Bargain Shoe Store, 143 Dundas street, at less than manufacturers' prices. If you will require any new footwear this fall or winter, it will certainly pay you to purchase at that establishment now. The price you would have to pay for one pair of shoes at other stores would very nearly buy two such pairs at the Bargain Shoe Store. We are advised that while the present stock lasts, boots and shoes will be sold at lower prices than ever known in London before for such goods. It is not old, shelf-worn stock one is getting when purchases are made at that store, but new, up-to-date, reliable footwear. We would advise our readers to not let this opportunity pass. A good supply of superior footwear may be produced at the Bargain Shoe Store now for a very small outlay. The proprietor, F. A. Brown, is selling at extremely low prices in order to make a complete clearance before moving into his new shop adjoining Strong's Drug

GOOD SPORT AND

Make the University Field Day a Splendid Success.

All the Events on the Programme Keenly Contested - Divinity and Arts Win the Championship-The Results.

The field day of the Western University is always a pleasurable affair. It has seldom been viewed with unkindly eyes by the goddess who controls the winds and rains, and all the elements that make or mar a day. In her efforts to bring success to the sports, this fair inhabitant of ephemeral noon. The ceremonles were very imor the collegians. The charm of their presence ducted at the house by Rev. J. P. and their eager enthusiasm were not Morden; at the St. Johns Methodist the least likeable factors in a most enjoylable afternoon. In their restrained animation they differed noticeably from the boys, who greeted trlumph in race or jump, or any feat of agality, with exuberant and noisy good-will. When the contests were ended, and the company went to the convocation hall to see the prizes given, the students continued to show the strength of their valves, in song and cheers, and in heaping ridicule upon comrades who rashly allowed the beautiful eyes and low voices of their favorites to tempt them from the merry companionship of the healthy-lunged crowd in the rear of the hall. All the events were keenly contested, and when the results were totalled it was shown that the divinity and arts departments, in their representative, Mr. Hodgins, had excelled the medicos

STRUCK IT RICH When They Needed It Bad.

"When a two months old baby refuses to murse and cannot digest any one of the 'baby foods' or cow's milk prepared in different ways, we must do something or lose the baby. That was the condition of our litte one about a year and a half ago. "We tried every baby food on the market, beside the cow's milk, but nothing seemed to agree with him. He suffered from indigestion, until by time he was nine months old, he had grown so weak and emaciated that we didn't think he could live. At last his stomach refused to take anything, and for three days the little fellow was actually starving for something he could digest.

"I happened to have a box of Grape-Nuts in the house and getting a teaspoonful, poured a little hot water over it, letting the food stand a few minutes, then gave the baby the brown water which had the strength of the Grape-Nuts in it. He could take but two spoonfuls at a time and then rest awhile.

"His stomach retained the food and after one day's use of the Grape-Nuts in this way, his bowels were right for the first time in six months. I continued to feed him the water from the Grape-Nuts and a little cream and later on the softened food itself and he steadily improved, his little body and himbs beginning to get round and plump, and by the time he was a year old, he was as large again as when nine months old. At 15 months he weighed 23 pounds, and now at 18 months, he is a great, fat, jolly baby, climbing and going everywhere, full of fun, rosy cheeks, and bright eyes.

"During all this time his food has been Grape-Nuts; just the water at first, then later on he had the food itself. He is the best advertisement Grape-Nuts could have in this town, for every one knew his condition and no one thought he could possibly live. We give all the praise to this most valuable food, and never lose an opportunity to recommend it to persons suffering from indigestion and lack of nourishment." Mrs. C. D. Johnston. Greenfield, Ind.

DECIDED UPON A BANQUET

As the Chief Feature of the Celebra tion for the Returning Soldiers.

At last night's meeting of the reception committee it was finally decided that the welcome to the members of B company on the Idaho shall be in the form of a banquet, at which 400 or 500 people will gather. This number will comprise the local militia out of parade, the reception committee, members of all civic boards, members of parliament, the county judges, the warden of Middlesex, the mayors of towns and cities in the military district, commanding officers of regiments of No. 1 district, city officials and chiefs of the departments of fire and police.

The W. C. T. U., Short Bros., and G. W. Kent tendered for the banquet, the price of the two first-named being 50 cents per head, and that of the latter 40 cents. The matter was not settled. During the discussion the suggestion was made that ale be supplied to the Ald. Wray strenuously urged men. that this be not done. He exhorted the committee to do nothing that would the remedy that cares a cold in one day tend to destroy the manliness of the boys. He asked that London's action in refraining from offering them anything that would send the boys to their mothers, after a year spent so close to death, in any but a manly state, should be a keynote for the whole Do-

Ald. Pritchard said that there was enough manhood in the boys to go to banquet without making beasts of themselves. He, too, suggested that ale be on the menu.

Ald. Wray denied having charged any soldier with not being able to conduct himself as a man. He contended that the committee ought not to influence a soldier by putting before him anything that would destroy that manliness.

Mr. E. J. MacRobert and ex-Ald. Reed were added to the committee.

The Bad Is All Out.

To be sure you can't take the bad out of everything. But you can out of some things, at any rate. Take cod liver oil, for instance, with its disagreeable odor and taste; in Scott's Emulsion all the bad has been taken out, and you have just the oil without anything disagreeable. It is called

"Cod liver oil made easy." The noblest motive is the public good.
