

WATER AND LIGHT FOR PINE LAWN SOON

Approval of Debutante Issue Will Materially Help the Housing Commission.

Increased activity at Pine Lawn, where the housing commission is building 36 houses, will result from the Ontario Municipal and Railway Board's approval of debenture issues for electrical and waterworks extensions, which is expected hourly.

The housing commission was one of the principal sufferers when the defeat of the London bill made it impossible for the public utilities commission to supply water and electrical service for the houses which the commission had under way. What action is to be taken as soon as the debentures are approved will be discussed by the housing commissioners tonight.

At Pine Lawn it was impossible to obtain water in the usual way, even for the building operations, much less for the use of the houses. The commission had to supply their own pipe to bring water from the Hamilton road. This proved a great difficulty, but in spite of it good progress was made in the building. None of the houses could be made ready for occupancy until water and light had been installed.

Approval of the debenture issues will make this possible. The housing commission tonight likely will appeal to the public utilities commission to undertake the work as soon as possible.

WILL SEND BOOKS TO PREVENTORIUM

Child Patients To Be Looked After by Public Library.

The children's department of the public library is preparing a small collection of books which will be sent to the Preventorium for the use of the children who are there under treatment. The attention of the library was drawn to the fact that the children there, who range in age from 7 to 15, were without a supply of attractive reading, and arrangements were at once made to have this provided. The books will be provided by the library and will remain permanently at the Preventorium, being looked after there by the teacher in charge.

The library has also provided a large quantity of reading matter for the soldiers who are under treatment at the Preventorium. Quite a large number of attractive books were received from citizens, and these were turned over to the hospital. The library can make use of more books of a live, attractive type, and would appreciate the co-operation of citizens in providing for the needs of the men under treatment.

GIVEN TWO MONTHS FOR INDECENT ACT

Magistrate Declares Public Must Be Protected From Such Conduct.

Albert Sonnenburg, who until his arrest recently, was a member of the Princess Patricia Regiment stationed here, and who was last week convicted of an indecent act, was today sentenced by Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon to serve two months in the common jail. W. R. Meredith, who appeared for Sonnenburg, asked for leniency on the ground that his client was seriously wounded in the heat of overseas service, and declared that the act was committed under the influence of alcohol.

"I never saw a man make such a poor example of himself," said Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon. "He has no regard for the public. He should not be out with the public. This is a very repulsive offence, and we have to be punished; if diseased, he should be examined. In either case, the public should not be exposed."

"I have never been locked up in my life," pleaded Sonnenburg. "I am now the comeback of his worship."

Christina Wannamaker was charged by Mary May with having used abusive language, and the case, which was dismissed, simmered down to a neighborhood row over children.

"You have got to make up your mind to take up your children's quarrels," warned the magistrate. "The fault is not all on one side. If you keep on not taking a hand, and you will all be fined."

Two drunks, one of whom was a woman, were fined the customary $10 and costs, with the option of ten days in jail.

WEDDING BELLS

LEWIS-DEWEY.

At Old Orchard Heights, the summer home of the bride's parents, Rev. G. W. Dewey of London, a quiet wedding took place on Wednesday at high noon, when the daughter, Anne Irene, and Fred, Albert G. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Lewis of New York, were united.

Rev. George W. Dewey, father of the bride, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Arthur W. Dewey of Toronto, looked charming in a white gown with a blue sash. The groom, who was carried to the altar by his best man, Mr. Fred Lewis, looked equally well. After the ceremony the happy couple left for Detroit for a honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 174 Northcliffe Boulevard, Toronto.

MUST PROVIDE FOR HIS FOUR CHILDREN

Wilber White Is Ordered By Magistrate To Look After Family.

That her husband gives her only $5 per week to feed and clothe herself and four children, was the allegation of Mrs. Wilber White in giving evidence against him in police court today following a charge of neglecting his children. The children, who are 12, 10, 8 and 6 years of age, are in the care of the Children's Aid Society. She admitted that she paid the rent, but retained $20 out of week's pay of $25 for herself, she stated, was expended on his motor car.

"The home is unkempt and very dirty," testified the inspector. "The children are insufficiently clothed, and one of them has an injured foot that required medical attention, but had received none."

Mrs. White claimed there were four children, instead of three, as charged, to which the inspector replied: "That makes it worse, Mrs. White."

"I work every day," declared the wife of accused, "I leave the house at 6:30 a.m. and return at 5:30 p.m., so you have an idea of how much time I have to attend to my children. In addition to his $5 weekly I have $11, which I make to spend on myself and the children."

She claimed that he used abusive language, toward her, which White admitted, but counter-claimed that she offered White and Magistrate Graydon a sum of $100 to leave the house and that he did with his $20 per week spending money.

"I will give her the whole thing if she will take over the responsibility," offered White, but Magistrate Graydon refused for four weeks, during which time the accused must provide for the children and remedy their living conditions. The family will be under the supervision of the Children's Aid Society during this period.

G. M. Reid and B. Brighton were allowed to contribute $5 and each to the motor vehicle act transgressor, to which Police Court Clerk Moule is treasurer.

FAREWELL SERVICES FOR BRIGADIER MORRIS

Impressive farewell ceremonies were given Brigadier Morris at the Salvation Army Citadel last night. Brigadier Morris was at one time divisional commander here, and later sent to Toronto, where he acted as assistant divisional commander. He is going west to take up the duties of Col. McMillan.

Col. McMillan opened the services with a parting address to Brigadier Morris. He was followed by the Adjutant Halpenny, the pastor of the Salvation Army Citadel, Mr. Staff Capt. Major Andrews, who spoke on behalf of the local corps and friends, Col. J. Cavell, who spoke on behalf of the division, and the divisional commander, both in the city and while he was in Toronto.

Brigadier and Mrs. Morris replied, saying that they were sorry they were leaving Ontario, especially London.

DENY BLOCKING TOWN PLANNING

Aldermen Are Not Perturbed Over Allegations of John Cottam.

John Cottam's charge that aldermen are trying to hamper the work of the town planning committee, of which he is a member, has not stirred the city council, but several of them declare that there is not the slightest intention on their part or on that of the council as a body to restrict the work of the new committee. They assert, however, that some of the work which Mr. Cottam wishes to take up is already capably administered by No. 2 committee of the city council, and the city engineering department.

"I do not think there is the slightest intention to block the work of the town planners in any way," declared Ald. Cameron Wilson, who is also a member of the town planning committee. "A difference of opinion exists as to just what work comes under its jurisdiction. For myself, I don't see why the work of planning sewer systems and other actual improvements of that kind should be taken out of the hands of No. 2 committee. When there is a broad, general scheme for civic improvement to be considered, and the council is called to get a quorum, I think that the town planning committee is the one to deal with it."

"As to the failure to obtain a quorum at the meeting Tuesday night, I think Mr. Cottam will find that if he waits till the vacation season is over there will be no difficulty in holding a meeting. I have had enough difficulty in getting enough members of the council together to hold a meeting, and the council committee have also had trouble that way. I don't think it is surprising that they failed to get a quorum."

No interference.

Ald. G. T. Drake said there was no intention on the part of the council to interfere with the town planning. "As a member of the board, I don't think I see why any city work should be complicated any further by referring to the town planning committee. There is no need of that sort of thing, and it is all right for the town planners to recommend to the council what they think is best. I don't think it is up to the board of works and the city engineering department."

MAY ABOLISH FEE SYSTEM

County Constables Likely To Be Replaced by Regular Force.

Radical changes in the county police system are expected as the result of the investigation of the present system made by the members of the commission of five appointed by the Drury and the city of London. The actual system of the provincial attorney-general's department. According to A. P. Pooch, the investigation of the present system, the fee system in vogue throughout the counties is the root of many evils, and in all probabilities will be abolished.

While no recommendations have been made or decisions reached by the commission, the matter is one of the most important things to be taken up by the commission, and will be thoroughly investigated, according to Mr. Pooch. Recommendations for improved systems from officials throughout the province are being received, and many evils are being pointed out by their communications.

To Be Reorganized.

A plan for reorganizing the police forces of the province has been prepared by the London member, and will be laid before the commission in the near future. According to the plan the county constable system now employed, and in all probabilities will be the fee system, will go into the discard, and a permanent force of regular men drawing regular salaries will be employed.

The force would be under a provincial head. A certain number of police, probably six, would be stationed in each county under a chief, who would be stationed in a station house. The mounted police would be stationed in touch continually with headquarters by special lines of telephone. Being stationed in the county, the police would be able to deal with any emergency as directed by the chief. The motorcycle police would be invaluable in arrest speeding on the country roads.

HAMILTON DOCTOR FINED $1,500 FOR INCORRECT RETURNS

Income Tax Defaulters Are Being Prosecuted To Limit.

Hamilton, Aug. 19.—That no mercy will be shown defaulters under the income tax law, was further demonstrated here today when, following the recent fine of $2,100 imposed on a well-known citizen, Dr. William A. Vanderburgh was assessed $1,500 for having given incorrect returns. It was claimed that in 1918 the doctor's return was for $3,400, when in reality it was $10,000. His income last year was claimed to be $15,000, whereas the return he made would only give the government $10,500, instead of $17,400, to which he was entitled.

London, Ont., Thursday, August 19.

WASTING WHILE WAITING.

All over Ontario this year there has been the old story of fine fruits and vegetables rotting in the fields and orchards because of the lack of help to gather it for market. Down in Essex County tomatoes are rotting by the thousands of bushels, but consumers in Windsor are paying ten cents a pound in the stores.

Probably similar conditions exist in other counties on a smaller scale.

During the war we regarded it as a crime that food should be wasted. Men and women, boys and girls, were recruited in the towns and cities and sent to the districts where help was needed. Now that the war is over the old conditions return and no effort it would appear is made to cope with them. Had there been some organization effected two or three months ago surely an army of pickers could have been recruited and this good food saved in a year when the world needs food as badly as it did during war time. We contribute our cash to save Europe from famine and then we allow good food to rot in our own fields. Could anything be more nonsensical than such procedure.

THE QUEST FOR TRUTH OR THE QUEST

FOR GAIN.

At ever-recurring periods with renewed inspiration the insatiable spirit of man seeks to compass the unknown. His adventurous search ranges through gradations of material gain, knowledge and glory, but terminates in the quest of the baffled Roman governor:

"What is Truth?" His quest embraces a love of achievement that spurs on explorers until Peary reaches the pole or Prof. Bell speech-transmission over wires, and Marconi messages through the air; until Edison perfects electric lighting and the phonograph; a group of mechanicians achieve bird-like flight; Dr.

Saunders, the cerealist, evolves an early maturing, or drought-resistant grain, and a Dr.

Glover is impelled in pursuit of a serum to deliver the human body from an implacable foe.

Taking another step, scientists have sought to penetrate the mystery of life's origin, but like a Goldwin Smith find themselves only making "Guesses at the riddle of existence." But still, heart and mind unite in a longing for the truth of things, and for assurance. In a deeper and profounder sense, does this apply to the quest for knowledge of the Divine Being and relationship with Him. Where is He to be found and rest attained? These are the ultimate queries, nor can their answering be evaded.

Men, communities and nations have sought satisfaction in material gain. From the fabled Midas to Ponce de Leon and his crazed dupes, the lure of gold has diverted man from the quest of Truth; but either as a life standard or a goal, experience traces its epitaph in failure or disaster. Prior to the Great War trade was heralded by doctrinaires as the great amitymaker, but the flag of commerce is not the ensign of the Prince of Peace. Material gain as an underlying purpose and end frustrated the very hope of civilization. Inevitably we are driven back to the Divine axiom, "Man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." Indeed, unless we misread the records of the Carnegies or Rockefellers, acquisition for the individual himself hardly reaches the dignity of means to an end, except as it may facilitate service to others.

Baffled in his search, man turns to the scriptural philosophy of life. The words of the Divine Teacher seem so unequivocal as to startle: "Ye cannot serve God and Mammon!"

Plainly, He designates a choice between the true riches on one hand and the world and its possessions on the other. Elsewhere these are described as "unrighteous mammon" because of the way they are secured and employed. To mammon one cannot be a slave or in servitude without turning his back upon God. He must hold to one as the commanding purpose and give it right of way. The Christ does not ignore the material basis of life nor divorce soul and body, for the latter is glorified as "the temple of the spirit." A balance is preserved, with the physical senses in subjection. "Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Bread-winning is recognized, but not as life's chief concern. And that is just where a great deal of modern endeavor breaks down. It is too restricted, and one-sided to finally satisfy. The spiritual nature with which man is endowed becomes dwarfed like an unused arm or perishes for lack of food. Furthermore, to trust in material gain is a real peril explicitly taught in the New Testament. The incident of the widow's mite shows also that even its mere distribution falls short under the Master's measuring-stick.

Man's inner consciousness prompts him to ward the Truth. Athenians ignorantly worshipped an "unknown" deity whom by revelation Paul was able to declare. Of a brilliant nature student and author, it is said that he at the crossroads of choice He offers in the most stupendous claim that ever fell from lips, an all-sufficient and unchallenged answer: "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. Follow me."

GROWTH OF THE MOVIES.

In what seems an amazingly short time for so prodigious a growth, a new industry has sprung into being—the business of making motion pictures. From nothing, it has grown with a swiftness that reminds one of Aladdin and his wonderful lamp, to the fifth largest industry on the continent. It is estimated that well over a billion dollars is now invested in the production of films and every year, almost every day, sees the amount increased. No one knows just how many hundreds of millions of dollars are invested in the theatres where the films are shown, nor how many millions of people, old and young, view them each evening.

Edison once said in discussing the future of electricity that he wished he could come back in five hundred years and see the progress that had been made, as he was satisfied that at the present time scientists with all their advances had merely touched the fringe of what was to come. So it is perhaps with the movie business. It has won recognition as a really tremendous power in molding public opinion. It is being recognized as an educational factor.

Its potentialities for good or for evil are being realized and efforts made to control and direct a mighty force for the greatest good. One of the problems producers are finding is the lack of good story plots. It would astonish the average individual if he knew how the producers scour the country in search of material that is suitable for screening. A few years ago when motion pictures were a novelty people were easily amused and entertained with hackneyed plots and various themes. Now there is an insistent demand for better pictures and it must be met. The producers turned to the best authors and their works. To their keen disappointment it has been found that only about three per cent of this literature is adaptable to the screen, the principal reason being too much dialogue and not sufficient dramatic action. Action, action and more action is the demand of the movies and next to action the public is demanding realism. Good comedies are even more difficult to obtain than other pieces.

A VAUDEVILLE TEST.

There are many demands in daily life upon the intellect and soul, and many activities for both, but so long as man is bound to earth by earthly ties certain necessities which would not affect an unfettered spirit are his. He has to eat sometimes, he has to sleep sometimes, and he has to be entertained sometimes. The quality of his entertainment will differ with his taste. But there will always be a place in the world for the entertainment which puts no tax on the intellect and serves purely as amusement and recreation. This is very essential for tired people, and is as much of a refreshment as a drink of clear water. The water should be clean, however, and the absence of this quality has caused the criticism with which the vaudeville variety of entertainment has been frequently met. It is to the interests of the management of any theatre to give the public what it wants. An effort is being made this week by the management of Loew's Theatre in the production of "The Mimic World" to see if the public of London wants the better type of vaudeville. It is a test case and the attraction is being tried out for the entire week to give the public every chance to signify its desires. In the better class of vaueville originality, skill and wit takes the place of innuendo and suggestiveness. Let the entertainment be tuneful and tinkly and with no strain on the intellect. Let it be full of pretty girls in gorgeous costumes. Let it sparkle with frivolity and fun. These things may not be highbrow, but they delight and rest and please.

But let the entertainment given us be high-class and clean. The public this week has a chance to signify its preferences.

A SURE SIGN.

[Buffalo News.]

Without questioning the sincerity of the interests which have obtained a postponement to April, 1921, of the referendum on the liquor question, which was originally set for next October, the Ontario referendum designed by those who urged it to make the province bone dry—one may perhaps admit the thought that since the United States went dry many American dollars have gone over the northern border.

The balance of trade has been heavily against Canada for some time. She might make some progress toward adjustment of it as an export of "bone liquor" to the United States. Of course, this trade does not come within the purview of government statisticians, so we don't know just how much it amounts to. But traffic is lively all along the border, and the value of it must be considerable.

Then the tourist trade is of some account.

"Seven hundred miles from Toronto to Chicoutimi, and a bartender busy for every turn of the ship's propeller," observed an American enthusiast. However, we would not suggest that any of these things counted with the authorities that postponed the referendum until next April.

"MADNESS LIES THAT WAY."

Only a step or so separates the view of a medical officer of the State of New Jersey. Considering the number of ouija boards that have been sold during the past year, this view would make one cheerful. The ouija board is a small, rectangular, light-board, usually of wood, with a grid of letters, num-

CHAPTER XXVII.

Mr. Elphick's Chambers.

Spargo went around again to the Temple that night at 9 o'clock, asking himself over and over again two questions—the first, How much does Elphick know? the second, How much shall I tell him?

The old house in the Temple to which he returned, and in which many a generation of old families had lived since the days of Queen Anne, was full of stairs and passages, and as Spargo had been told the exact number of the set of chambers he wanted, he was obliged to wander about in what was a deserted building. So wandering, he suddenly heard steps, firm, decisive steps coming up a staircase which he himself had just climbed. He looked over the banisters down into the hollow beneath. And there, marching up resolutely, was the figure of a tall, veiled woman, and Spargo suddenly realized, for the second time that day he was beneath one roof with Miss Bayliss.

Spargo's mind acted quickly. Knowing what he now knew, from his extraordinary dealings with Mother Gutch, he had no doubt whatever that Miss Bayliss had come to see Mr. Elphick—come, of course, to tell Mr. Elphick that he, Spargo, had visited her that morning, and that he was on the track of the Maitland secret history. He had never thought of it before, for he had been busily engaged since the departure of Mother Gutch; but, naturally, Miss Bayliss and Mr. Elphick would keep in ally, Miss Bayliss and Mr. Elphick would keep in communication with each other. At any rate, here she was, and her destination was surely Elphick's chambers. And the question for him, Spargo, was what to do?

What Spargo did was to remain in absolute silence, motionless, tense, where he was on the stair, and to trust to the chance that the woman did not look up. But Miss Bayliss, turned along up the stairs, and reached a landing, turned along

that traders were still marking time, waiting for further domestic and foreign news before venturing to buy or selling actively again. Atlantic Sugar was the only stock that provided transactions of volume value, its price at the flat being steady and prices virtually unchanged. The sugar issue opened quiet, but by nightfall it was night's close, and soon advanced 2 points to 14½. Profit-taking before the close sent prices back down to 14. The market was steady at 3%, while C. P. R. rose ¼ at 135. Steel Corporation at 97¾ was the most active stock. Canadian Steel of Canada was that much to the good at 68. Trading was also quiet in the unlisted section, but stocks were firm.

WIN BIG EVENTS

AT ROCKCLIFFE

48th Sgt. Took Bankers' Trophy and Mayor Blair of 72nd, the Walker.

OTTAWA, Aug. 18.—The completion of the Walker, the Bankers' matches and the McDonald "Brier" match at two ranges with the Gibson revolver and extra series competitions, made up the program of the third day of the P. D. Bankers' matches.

The Bankers' matches have so far been held in beautiful weather and without any accident to mar the pleasure of the meet.

Nothing so exciting lacking of excitement due to the smaller number of competitors, but there is more comfort for the individual shot, as there is ample room for squadding and no overlapping is necessary.

In the Bankers' matches both brought out some very good shooting and helped to place the Lee-Enfield a little more in favor.

The Bankers' went to Sgt. Hawkins, 48th, a king's prize winner, with a fine 86 out of a possible 100. Major R. Blair, 72nd, won the Walker match with 60, and finished with a possible at 600 yards.

In the Bankers' team prize, the Ward Cup, for teams of five men, was won by the 48th Highlanders, with a score of 460. Vancouver R. A. second with 441, and Royal Grenadiers, third, with 425.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF NEW ZEALAND IS PRONOUNCED EXCELLENT

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Canadian associates Press—New Zealand advocates show that the Dominion is comfortable financially. The revenue from last year exceeded the expenditure, which will be the case this year.

The government purchased 210,000 acres of land for the settlement of discharged soldiers at a cost of $2,350,000. New Zealand's total war expenditure to March was $77,000,000, and $3,500,000 more has yet to be expended. Nearly $24,000,000 was raised in the Dominion. A compulsory levy is foreseen for further necessary borrowing.

WEATHER CONDITIONS GOOD FOR FLYING IN YUKON

Dawson, Y. T., Aug. 19.—If the weather continues favorable the four planes comprising the New York-to-Nome pioneer flight to the land of the midnight sun will leave this morning for Fairbanks, which they will probably make in a hundred and forty minutes, an average of 90 miles an hour. While flying between Dawson and White Horse, the aviators found the atmosphere gathering the most favorable since leaving New York. On Tuesday the fliers were the guests of a pioneers' gathering, the occasion being the 21th anniversary of the great Klondike gold strike.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulitised coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulitised coconut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a large amount will supply every member of the family for months.

(Beauty Notes.) Women are fast learning the value of the use of deatone for removing hair or fuzz from face, neck or arms. A paste is made with some powdered deatone and water and spread on the hairy surface. In 2 or 3 minutes it is rubbed off, the skin washed and every bit of hair has disappeared. No failure will result if you are careful to buy genuine deatone and mix fresh as wanted.—Adv.
