RATEPAYERS TO GET NOTICE OF IMPROVEMENTS

City Council Decides On Radical Change in Civic Work.

MANY PROTESTS HEARD

Mayor Wilson Believes New Plan Will Overcome Many Objections.

The present city council is being so overwhelmed with complaints and objections to local improvement work and the high cost of such work, that it will make a radical change in the system of undertaking this work in the city.

In future when a work is to be undertaken every ratepayer interested will be notified of the estimated cost of the work long before it is to be undertaken.

During the past year 103 of the 155 local improvement bylaws launched were put through on the two-thirds vote of the council plan. A few of the balance were petitioned for. In many of the cases where the work was petitioned for, the ratepayers now complain that the cost of the job was considerably in excess of the estimate.

On Tuesday night the board of works heard innumerable complaints in regard to public works. Deputation after deputation swarmed to the meeting. It was a night of protest.

City Clerk Baker pictured to the committee the multitude of protests which had greeted the new court of revision at its sitting during the afternoon, and explained that under the ruling of the court most of the complaints would come before the board of works.

Mayor Wilson said that to avoid such trouble in future, the city would have to notify the persons interested in an improvement. He also defined the broad principle that henceforth if people did not want an improvement, they would not have to take it, unless the general good of the city warranted it.

Allow Time to Protest.

City Clerk Baker further said that when the two-thirds vote principle was placed on the statutes, it was never intended that it should be put to the wide use that it has been.

Ald. Drake pointed out that most of the complaints come from work undertaken on petition. He said that Mayor Wilson said that in future the people would be given a certain amount of time to protest.

Engineer Brazier pointed out that in regard to sewer systems the policy of C. R. Somerville, when he was mayor, of putting in a system in a locality, regardless of whether it was petitioned for or not, was being employed.

Mayor Wilson came back that the ratepayers are entitled to say whether or not they will have an improvement.

Some of the members of the committee did not think this plan a feasible one. It was pointed out that if a sewer was asked for a couple of blocks, the engineer would have to plan to take care of whatever other parts that might later connect up, it would mean that the pipe would have to be larger.

Labor Is Largest Cost.

Mayor Wilson contended that the cost of a sewer was in the labor, the digging of the ditch. The cost of the tile did not amount to a "hoot." He added that the present system of doing work is wrong, and there has got to be a change. "There is nothing to it," he declared.

Chairman Ashton remarked that if that policy had been in vogue before there would not be the kicks there are today.

The mayor declared that there were more kicks over sewers than walks, curb and gutters together.

Ald. Drake pointed out that many of the works done were begged for and now the people are kicking against the cost. He said that Knollwood Park was begged for.

F. C. Higman acted as spokesman for a number of William street residents residing between Central avenue and Grovenor street. A new sewer was laid on their street in 1915-17, and this year they have received the bill. They object on the ground that the old sewer was good enough, and they did not ask for a new one.

Sewer Petition Granted.

The same matter was before the court of revision in the afternoon and had been declared to outside the power of the court.

C. E. Mabee said that he purchased a house since the sewer was put down, and he wondered where he was going to get off.

The committee decided to have the engineer report on the whole matter, and it will be dealt with at the next meeting of the committee.

Three families, two Rosiers and McKinley, who live on Woodward avenue just where the county line crosses the street, will at last get a sewer. They have been battling for a long time, and have now a sufficiently signed petition. The extension will be 210 feet.

Ald. Watkinson said that if the city could not do something to drain the area of Bridge and Swinard streets, East London. A sewer has been petitioned for.

Engineer to Report.

The engineer will report on the matter. It is understood that a sewer to drain the area in question will cost about $200,000.

Thomas Young, Gargamale street, declared that gravel has been piled on the road in front of his place 3 to 5 feet deep. The result was that all the water ran into his cellar. Mayor

WAR ON CITY "BOOTLEGGERS"

REVENUE FROM WATER POWER WILL PAY COST

Oscar E. Fleming Declares Deepening Will Pay For Deepening St. Lawrence.

SOME HOSTILE TO SCHEME

To Interest of Canada and U. S. To Open Seaway From Lakes.

That the development of water power along the St. Lawrence River by the governments of United States and Canada, will pay for deepening that stream so that ocean going boats may ply at Canadian and American Great Lakes ports was the declaration of Oscar E. Fleming, K.C., of Windsor, president of the Canadian Deep Waterways Association since its inception, speaking to members of the Chamber of Commerce and Canadian club at luncheon in the Tecumseh hotel at noon today.

He asserted that the power developed by this project would serve the electrical needs of Eastern Canada and the Eastern States so cheaply that the deepening of the channel carried on simultaneously would not cost either country a dollar. The west would be served with power for ocean-going traffic to carry wheat to foreign ports at a great saving.

However, opposition in the Canadian West, Quebec and New York is feared by the International Dept. Waterways Commission, which has recommended that the project be tackled at once. Montreal and New York interests are hostile to the scheme because of the fact that these centres are "funnels" for the entrance and egress of people to Canada and the United States, which lucrative positions they aim to retain.

Armed with an array of figures and statistics to prove his point, Mr. Fleming succeeded in convincing his audience that it is to the best interests of both countries to deepen the St. Lawrence River and improve the canal, thereby opening the Great Lakes to ocean draft.

Important to Canada.

"It is just as important to the people of Canada as it is to the Middle Western States," said Mr. Fleming. "We were first able to get the governments to refer the question to a body of men to investigate the proposition from every angle. It was referred to the international waterways commission, which, no doubt, was doubly interesting to you, because the late Sir George C. Gibbons of your city was a member for many years."

Outlines Nine Points.

The speaker then outlined the nine points investigated by this commission which included, the engineering practicability of the project, the proportion of costs to be borne, electrical power development, and the areas to be benefited. He stated that there is sufficient trade to justify the report recommending development of the deep waterways and water power.

By comparisons, he brought out the fact that more marine tonnage passes Detroit in nine months than the combined tonnage of the Mediterranean and Black Seas. That more tonnage passes the lower end of Lake Superior than twice the amount utilizing the Panama and Suez canals, and that the Detroit River serves more tonnage than that entering or leaving the ports of Liverpool or New York harbors.

Load at Fort William.

He declared that the entire Great Lakes Waterway to be developed is within a distance of 1,000 miles. Canadian grain now shipped at Buffalo could be loaded at Fort William or Port Arthur for foreign ports without future handling.

The Canadian government has spent thirty million dollars on the Welland canal and is pledged to spend eighty millions. Provision is made to accommodate ships to a draught of 25 feet which is 82 per cent. of the world's shipping. Thirty foot draught includes 99 per cent. of the world's shipping which would take care of the needs of commerce for many years.

The power developed in the project aggregates 1,450,000 horsepower, at a total cost of $253,000,000. He mentioned the war debt and railway debt of Canada, which he said was considered by the commission in its investigation. The power to be developed would cost two mills per kilowatt hour.

"I think it is very cheap power," continued Mr. Fleming. "So cheap that the people of New England can hardly realize it. It is so cheap that the consumer can pay for deepening the waterway, and will take five years to develop. We cannot use it but what is the objection to letting our cousins across the border take it? It is 300 miles from New York."

He concluded by mentioning the great benefit to be derived by the Canadian West, and urged those present, as business men with interests of various kinds in the west, to give their support to the project.

Hume Cronyn, president of the Canadian club, introduced the speaker.

Rome Awaits Pastoral Pope

DOUBTS MEMBER OF CURIA WILL BE NEW PONTIFF

Highest Ecclesiastical Authorities Agree That Italian Will Succeed.

PREDICT 'RELIGIOUS' POPE

Cardinal Maffi of Pisa Retains Popularity in Wide Circle.

By special cable to The London Advertiser.

Rome, Feb. 1.—Well-informed persons in ecclesiastical circles here are today unable to point to any one cardinal as the most probable successor to Benedict XV.

But everyone in Vatican circles agrees on two points:

ONE—That the next pope will be an Italian.

TWO—That he will be picked from among the pastoral cardinals—those in charge of various dioceses—rather than from the members of curia, or pope's council.

That the next pope will be an Italian is certain, ecclesiastical experts say, because 31 of the 61 members of the Sacred College who convene here tomorrow—a majority—are of Italian birth.

Base Predictions on Past.

And the prediction that the next pope will be a pastoral cardinal is based on a careful study of the papal elections of the last two centuries.

Observation has shown Vatican observers that whenever a so-called "political" pope is elected, he is followed by a "religious" pope as a sort of reaction.

And, in the same way, when a "religious" pope occupies the pontificate, he is followed by a "political" pope.

Thus, Leo XIII. was called "political" because of the world conditions under which he was elected.

He was followed by Pius X. purely a "religious" pope.

And Benedict XV. quite naturally was a "political" pope, having been elevated to the pontifical seat at a time when the whole Christian world was in a turmoil.

See "Religious" Successor.

That's why in ecclesiastical circles it is predicted a "religious" successor to Benedict XV. will be named.

Now, of the 31 Italian cardinals, 21 are members of the curia. They live in Rome, sit on various ecclesiastical tribunals and aid the pope in governing the church.

It is doubtful if any of these can be considered as probable popes—not only because they are eliminated by the rule of "religious" and "political" succession but because all the outstanding curia members are too old to assume the burdens of the pontificate.

Of this group Raphael, Cardinal Merry Del Val, and Peter, Cardinal Gasparri, are by far the most influential, but it is believed doubtful here today that either of them will be able to overcome historic precedent.

Besides Cardinal Gasparri is 70 years old, and is exhausted from the tremendous labor of codifying the canon law, which was one of his duties as papal secretary of state.

Cardinal Vannutelli, an outstanding cardinal, is 84. Cardinal de Belmonte is 70. Cardinal Vico is 74.

Ten Other Possibilities.

So the possibilities narrow down to the ten Italian pastoral cardinals who head the various dioceses.

Cardinal Maffi of Pisa is one of

May Be Pope Benedict's Successor

PETER (PIETRO) CARDINAL MAFFI is the most logical successor to Benedict XV. It is said in ecclesiastical circles in Rome today. When Benedict was elected, Cardinal Maffi received the greatest number of votes in the first ballot, but failed to get the necessary two-thirds. Cardinal Maffi is 64 years old. He was born in Pisa, Italy, in 1858, and was made a cardinal in 1907.

PROTESTS HIGH FREIGHT RATES

National Dairy Council At Winnipeg Voices Indignation At Railroad Charges.

Winnipeg, Feb. 1.—Canadian Press—Adding its voice to the numerous insistent demands from the west for lower freight and express rates, the National Dairy Council at its session yesterday afternoon went on record as strongly protesting against the present "abnormally high and unduly oppressive freight and express rates on dairy products."

The resolution, unanimously passed, called the attention of the companies, the railway commissioners and the Dominion government to the fact that a reasonable reduction of rates on dairy products would so stimulate the industry that it would lead to increased volume of shipments that would yield a larger revenue to the railway companies than they now were receiving from the dairy industry.

Another resolution asked the Dominion government to refrain from introducing any legislation dealing with oleomargarine at the forthcoming session of parliament, the statement being made that present legislation lapsed after Sept. 1, this year.

As a result of the adoption of further resolutions the Dominion government will be asked to take all necessary steps to obtain the widest foreign markets for Canadian dairy products, and to pass legislation prohibiting the importation, manufacture or sale of filled milk or filled cream in this country.

FAVOR MANITOBA VOTE ON LIQUOR

Legislators View Petition As Legitimate Group Demand.

Winnipeg, Feb. 1.—Benton extracting the Moderation League's petition for a referendum on government controlled liquor from the tangle into which it had got in the Legislature, J. T. Haig, at yesterday afternoon's session, moved another amendment which, he claimed, put the proper issue right before the House.

The amendment provided that as 53,800 had signed the petition, 53,800 had signed the petition referred to the people for decision. The Conservative leader maintained that the position substantially complied with the provisions of the initiative and referendum act, and having recalled the election attitude of the various groups, regarding this legislation, declared they would not be true to their platforms if they refused to grant this referendum.

Hon. Edward Brown, provincial treasurer, took the same stand as Mr. Haig, saying there was only one question before the House, and that was whether the petition should be granted or refused. The Legislature, Mr. Brown asserted, had no right to differentiate between classes and the petition of the Moderation League should be treated just the same as a petition from the Social Service Council, the brewers and distillers, or any other class.

LUCAN CITIZEN LOSES $10,000 DAMAGE CLAIM

Jury Declines To Award W. Sovereign Recompense For Wife's Death.

AUTOIST FULLY CLEARED

James Ward Absolved From Any Blame For Fatal Accident.

Holding that Mrs. Sovereign, wife of Walter Sovereign, a printer, residing at Lucan, might have avoided the accident on May 18, 1921, which resulted in her death the next day, by the exercise of ordinary care, the jury failed to allow Mr. Sovereign one cent in his $10,000 damage action against William and James Ward, also of Lucan. James Ward was the driver of the car that struck down Mrs. Sovereign as she was walking across the crossing close to the Methodist Church.

The verdict, arrived at late Tuesday night, was handed to Chief Justice R. M. Meredith in a sealed envelope when court opened at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, the third day of the winter assizes.

The jury also stated in the verdict, which was unanimous, that according to the evidence Mrs. Sovereign took no precautions after leaving the sidewalk, concluding their statement with the two significant words, "Safety first."

Fully Exonerated.

James Ward was exonerated from any blame in the accident when the jury answered in the negative the question put by the judge, as to the car being driven in a manner dangerous to the public, and further stated that the plaintiff's loss did not arise from the negligence or improper conduct of the owner.

The judge then dismissed the action, and by consent of both parties, without costs.

The case for the defence was in shortly before court adjourned for lunch on Tuesday, and the reply was concluded by 3:35 in the afternoon. J. M. McEvoy, K.C., for the defence, while T. G. Meredith, K.C., for the plaintiff, talked for the same length of time.

The jury filed out to the jury room at 5:35 p.m., being called back by the judge at 6:10, and told that if they arrived at a verdict, it was to be put in an envelope, sealed and given to the sheriff.

Nine Witnesses Heard.

Nine witnesses for the plaintiff were heard on Tuesday afternoon. Cecil Hodgkins gave evidence as to the condition of the brakes of Ward's car, stating that the emergency brake was working O. K., but the service brakes were not in good shape some few weeks after the accident. He could not say as to their condition on May 18.

Wm. Seed, who examined the car during the week of June 15, said the service brakes would not respond. The old "liners" were worn perfectly smooth and couldn't get in that condition in one month.

Beulah Abbott, who was with Helen Simpson in an automobile on the Abbott lawn at the time of the accident, thought that the car was going between 15 and 20 miles an hour.

Saw Body Drop.

Frances Chown did not see the accident on Tuesday, Feb. 1, Column 4.

"SPOTTERS" TO ENFORCE O. T. A. VISIT LONDON

Squads Arrive in City Simultaneously With Raids in Hamilton.

"CLEAN UP" UNDER WAY

Alleged Dispenser Recognizes Former Secret Service Officer at Border.

War has been declared by the provincial authorities upon the "bootleggers" and "buy run" peddlers of Western Ontario.

Simultaneously with the arrival in London last night of a squad of officers from Toronto, several alleged "blind pigs" and "speakeasies" in Hamilton and elsewhere from Toronto, this morning indicate that enforcement of the dry law on a greater scale than ever yet attempted is scheduled throughout the western section of the province.

Are the provisions of the Ontario temperance act being strictly observed in London?

While there may exist a diversity of opinion on this point it is evident that the Toronto authorities have concluded from a survey of the general provincial situation that it is long past time for a general "clean-up" in London.

From every indication it would appear that Hamilton is not the only city to come under the direct observation of the police. It was definitely learned Tuesday night that London had been invaded by "spotters" from outside points, who descended upon the city in their respective assumed capacities, and are at the very moment frequenting the popular "haunts" in pursuit of the elusive "crook" and the dispenser thereof.

Raney Reticent.

Questioned Wednesday morning as to the truth of this statement, Attorney-General Raney replied:

"It may be so," adding that the provincial government, as a general rule, "does not advertise prospective raids and the like."

Several arrests were made in Hamilton, while a score of summonses were issued as a result of Tuesday night's "crash and carry" proceedings.

One of the several places searched was the Velox Hotel, Sherman avenue and Brant street. The proprietors conduct an express business and they were given permits to carry fire-arms recently not only to guard their business, but because they have received "black hand" threats.

The officers found five revolvers which were seized and carried away. The place was searched two days ago by the Hamilton city police, but no liquor was found.

Stranger Observed.

A pleasant and obliging city "chap," whom Dame Rumor cruelly alleges dispenses "a wee dooch and doris" oftentimes at a second-story club room, alleged to be but two blocks from police headquarters, was not a trifle startled, it is said, when Tuesday evening he noticed among a group of genial visitors one individual whom he has cause to remember, he is alleged to have said, as a one-time aggressive Border City secret service liquor worker.

It so happens, however, that "a wink is as good as a nod to others than a blind horse" and the careful proprietor in question, it is said, is one of them.

Without arousing undue suspicion he is alleged to have contrived to craftily "break up" the party as speedily as the boys could be pried

Draft Treaty for Naval Limitation Submitted to Full Arms Parley.

SCRAPPING RULES MADE

Brief Preamble Explains Purposes of Five Contracting Governments.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The draft treaty for limitation of naval armament submitted today to the plenary session of the Washington conference contains only the following preamble in explanation of the purposes of the five contracting governments in reaching the agreements set forth:

"Desiring to contribute to the maintenance of the general peace, and to reduce the burdens of competition in armaments;

"Have resolved, with a view to accomplishing these purposes, to conclude a treaty to limit their respective naval armaments, and to that end have appointed as their plenipotentiaries;

The treaty is divided into three chapters. Chapter one contains the general language of the agreements, covered in twenty separate articles.

Chapter two contains the detailed, specific agreements on naval matters, many of them in complicated tabular form, which amplify and complete the meaning of the general agreements of chapter one.

Chapter three is devoted to "miscellaneous provisions" and contains four additional articles of the treaty.

Chapter one is headed: "General Provision Relating to the Limitation of Naval Armament."

Article one thereunder is merely the agreement to limit naval armaments as provided in the treaty.

Ships to be Retained.

Article two provides that the contracting powers may retain respectively capital ships specified in part one, chapter two. The ships thus named in part one are as follows:

United States:

Maryland, California, Tennessee, Idaho, New Mexico, Mississippi, Arizona, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, Nevada, New York, Texas, Arkansas, Wyoming, Florida, Utah, North Dakota, Delaware—total tonnage 509,650.

Great Britain:

Royal Sovereign, Royal Oak, Revenge, Resolution, Ramilies, Malaya, Valiant, Barham, Queen Elizabeth, Warspite, Renown, Emperor of India, Iron Duke, Marlborough, Hood, Renown, Repulse, Tiger, Thunderer, King George V, Ajax, Centurion—total tonnage 550,450.

France:

Bretagne, Lorraine, Provence, Paris, France, Jean Bart, Courbet, Diderot, Voltaire—total tonnage 221,170.

Italy:

Japan:

Mutsu, Nagato, Hanga, Ise, Yamashiro, Fuso, Kikishima, Haruna, Hiei, Kongō—total tonnage 301,320.

Article two then provides that, on the coming into force of the treaty, all other capital ships "built or building" by the five premiers shall be disposed of as prescribed in chapter two, part two, therefore reference being to the extensive "rules for scrapping vessels of war" carried in the part two mentioned.

Naval Ratio Agreement.

Article one then provides that in addition to the specified capital ships "the United States may complete and retain two ships of the West Virginia class under construction" and on their completion dispose of the North Dakota and Delaware as capital ships.

Article three is the agreement of the powers to "abandon their respective capital ship building programs" and to build or acquire no new capital ships except as replacement tonnage.

Article four is the naval agreement stated in standard displacement tonnage aggregates for capital ship replacement as follows:

United States 525,000 tons; British 450,000 tons; France 400,000 tons; Italy 350,000 tons; Japan 300,000 tons.

BROTHER BILL'S ANOTHER FORD--BUT ONLY IN DEARBORN

BY NORRIS QUINN
(Copyright, 1922.)
[Special to London Advertiser.]

DEARBORN, Mich., Feb. 1.—Did you ever hear of William Ford?

No, you never did. For everywhere William's been overshadowed by the greatness of his brother, Henry Ford, multimillionaire auto manufacturer.

Everywhere—except in William's home town, Dearborn.

Here William—or "Bill"—as they all call him—is the biggest man in town, and the best liked.

Not because he's a big businessman or an industrial promoter or a philanthropist, like his brother.

But because he's the best village president and chief of police Dearborn ever had.

Because he's a good mixer and a member of almost every lodge in town.

Because he knows every one of the 2,000 people in Dearborn and calls everybody by his first name and never gets puffed up over his brother's riches.

"Brother Bill" sells tractor accessories and appliances in his little red brick shop on a side street.

And he lives with his wife and three children in a modest but comfortable red brick house on another side street.

"Bill" doesn't envy his brother, Henry, the publicity he gets.

"I try to keep my name out of the papers—and my face, too," Bill says.

"Yes, business is mighty good. You see, I've got a belt of territory, including part of Michigan, part of Indiana and part of Ohio for these appliances."

"They're things to use with a tractor—plows, hay presses and things like that—in all."

SLAYS WIFE AND WOUNDS 2 OTHERS

Vancouver Man Shoots
Spouse, Small Son and Aged Uncle.

Vancouver, Feb. 1.—Mrs. Edward Clegg is dead, her 5-year-old son Edward, and an aged uncle, Henry Morgan, are believed to be dying in hospital, and Edward Clegg, husband and father, is being sought by the police here following a brutal shooting here last night. The Clegg family came from Toronto eight months ago.

The killing and wounding occurred when Clegg, who had been in Seattle for the past three weeks, returned to his home here, and after a few words with his wife, it is claimed, opened fire. The woman fell, shot through the heart, and her uncle, who rushed to her aid, dropped with a bullet through the lungs. Clegg then turned the revolver on his tiny son, who sat on a table, a terrified spectator of the tragedy; the bullet lodging in the back of the head, fracturing the skull.

Some trouble is said to have developed between husband and wife over the disposal of money realized from the sale of the Toronto home, owned by Mrs. Clegg, and which Clegg induced her to sell.

In September she made formal complaint to the authorities that her husband had abused her, and the matter was bound over for twelve months to keep the peace. Clegg went away with the boy, but his wife succeeded in getting the custody of the child in October. Soon after this Clegg went to Seattle, and did not return to Vancouver until a few days ago.

FINED $10 FOR DRIVING OVER HOSE DURING FIRE

G. Wright, who was charged in police court Wednesday morning with driving over a line of hose during the Cowan Hardware fire, was fined $10 and costs by Deputy Magistrate P. H. Bartlett.

A short time ago a number of citizens appeared in police court, to answer to a similar charge. It was then pointed out that it was a very bad practice, as the hose might break, and not only delay the fighting of the blaze, but endanger the lives of the firemen.

Fire Chief John Aitken states that often in a big fire the firemen are inside the building, surrounded by flames, which makes it necessary that they keep throwing the stream on all sides. If a line they were using was broken by some careless motorist driving over it, in all probability the men would be burned to death.

OPENS CAUCUS IN PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE

Government Supporters From Over All the Province
Gather in Toronto.

PREDICT STORMY SESSION

Indications Are That Sessional Program Will Be Laid Before Convention.

Toronto, Feb. 1.—The caucus of government supporters in the provincial legislature opened this afternoon with M. L. A.'s from the four corners of the province present. It has for many years been the custom to hold a meeting of the members on the government side of the house a short time before the legislature opens, so that today's caucus is quite in keeping with past usage, although it is probably the most important conference that has been held since the Farmer-Labor party took control at Queen's Park.

On the threshold of what nearly everyone anticipates will be a fighting session, Premier Durney's followers assembled today evidently determined to lay their plans to meet their opponents carefully and well, and at the same time expressed confidence that they would be successful in the interesting weeks which are to come.

This was a busy forenoon for the members of the cabinet. The M. L. A.'s brought with them the views of their constituents relative to the many questions up for discussion this afternoon, and were eager to impart their views to the ministers of the departments most directly affected. The result was that the time of the department heads was at a premium today with waiting-rooms crowded with visitors.

Both the members of the government and its supporters were of one mind in not wishing to say anything in advance about what was to take place this afternoon, but one thing seemed definitely indicated, and that was that the meeting would be long and the whole program of the Farmer-Labor party for the coming session would be laid before every one of its supporters right to the back benches. This will no doubt include the radical policy of the government, the temperance act, the reforms proposed in the administration of justice, including the position of sheriffs, aid to unemployment, and there seems to be a strong probability that the question of the separate school demands will be discussed. This latter is bound to prove one that will need very careful handling.

LONDONER SUED FOR ATTACK ON GODERICH GIRL

Robert Foley Brings Action Against Robert Kelly of Beattie Avenue.

DEFENDANT DENIES ALL

Claims Jewelry Clerk Was Mistaken as to Purchaser of Watches.

The action of Robert Foley of Goderich, against Robert Kelly, 29 Beattie avenue, is being proceeded with at the winter sittings before Chief Justice R. M. Meredith. Mr. Foley is asking damages for an alleged attack on his daughter Clara, who was employed as a domestic at the Kelly home from April 1, 1920, till December 17, the same year.

Clara Foley, the youthful daughter, appeared in court with a baby born August 14, 1921. She stated that she had had relations with the defendant on a number of occasions and that at different times he had purchased clothing for her. Mr. Kelly had also bought her a watch before Christmas and had given her money frequently. Asked by J. W. G. Winnett as to the paternity of the child, Miss Foley with tears coursing down her cheeks, sobbed out "Mr. Kelly." She said she received $3.50 a week from Mrs. Kelly as wages.

Cross-examined by Jared Vining, counsel for the defence, Miss Foley admitted that when she was visiting a Mrs. Crockett at Dorchester she had taken a purse and skirt from the house without the permission of her hostess. She denied having been friendly with numerous young men.

Girls' Sister Testifies.
Mrs. Charles Simpson, sister of Miss Foley, stated that she had seen her sister and Kelly together a number of times, and had accused Kelly of taking her sister to St. Thomas.

A resident of Queen's avenue where Miss Foley went to work after leaving Kelly's, stated that he had seen the defendant call for the girl at his home.

Roy Burridge, clerk at Young's jewelry store in East London, stated that Kelly had purchased two ladies' watches from him. He paid $30 by check for one and $20 cash for the other.

Charles Simpson said that he had seen his sister-in-law with Kelly the day before Thanksgiving 1920. He and his wife went to see Kelly in April 1921 and the latter had declared that he knew nothing about the matter.

Cross examined by Mr. Vining, witness became angry, the judge interrupting with the remark, "civility on both sides if you please." This ended the case for the plaintiff.

Defendant Denies All.
Robert Kelly said that he had lived in Thorndale for 23 years before moving to London seven years ago. He denied ever having any relations with the Foley girl. He had never taken her to St. Thomas, given her money or bought her clothing, or a watch. Witness, who had said that he bought a watch from him was mistaken, as was also the resident of Queen's avenue who had stated he had seen him at his house.

Mrs. Robert Kelly declared that she had paid Miss Foley $4 a week for her services, and that almost from the first she had not been satisfied with her habits. The girl was always wanting to go out in the evening.

LUCAN CITIZEN LOSES ACTION

cident happen, but a few seconds later saw Mrs. Sovereign's body drop away from the car, 20 feet from the crossing where she had been struck. The car was still moving, she declared.

Frank Kent, a mail clerk, stated that he saw the car shoot past the corner going at 20 miles or more. He helped take Mrs. McElhardy off the bumper of the motor.

Mrs. Bridget McElhardy, the last witness called, told of leaving the Methodist parish with Mrs. Sovereign and her little daughter sometime between 8.30 and 9 o'clock. It was still daylight. They walked to the corner and before crossing the road looked both ways. There was a wagon and a buggy about 20 feet from the crossing, but they thought they had lots of time to cross. They did not see the motor car approaching. She stepped along the crossing and couldn't tell any more about it. The witness had to be lifted into the witness-box on a chair, and seemed to be quite bright and cheerful, notwithstanding the handicap of not being able to walk.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH CLUB GIVES ENTERTAINMENT

An entertainment of a decidedly novel character, presented at St. James church, Asklin street, on Tuesday evening, met with such great approbation that those who witnessed the program, "The Nursery Review," as it was called, was presented by the Girls' Auxiliary and the Clover Leaf club, assisted by a few of the choir boys. The children were trained by Miss Elsie Green and the piano accompaniments were played by Mrs. Bingle.

The scene was laid at twelve o'clock midnight. Two children entered, dressed in pyjamas and carrying lighted candles. They had come to be entertained by Mother Goose. Mother Goose, who was in reality Miss Thelma Bamford, treated the children by allowing them to witness some of her nursery rhymes enacted. There were about five numbers on the program and about 40 children took part. The concert will be repeated some time during the next week.

these. He is extremely popular in Italy. He's 64, and has been a cardinal 14 years. He is a strong Italian patriot and stands for reconciliation between the Vatican and the Italian government.

Another leading possibility is Cardinal Ratti of Milan. Ratti has been a cardinal only one year, but Pope Benedict had been a cardinal only four months when elevated. Ratti started his career as curate in the libraries of Milan and the Vatican.

Then he became apostolic visitor to Poland, while Poland was struggling for freedom.

When Poland was freed he became papal nuncio. He also acted as ecclesiastical diplomat in Finland and Russia, making an enviable record of accomplishment.

Cardinal la Fontaine of Venice also is considered. La Fontaine is 62, and was made a cardinal in 1910. Alessio Ascalesi of Benevento has been mentioned as another possibility. But by most he is considered a long shot—he's 49.

WAR PLANNED ON CITY BOOTLEGGERS

loose from the long black bottle and incidentally, rumor says, passed the word around among the faithful that "there would be nothing doing for a day or two."

He opened, however, that the Border City visitor was a quick worker as it was evident that he had not been in town long.

Down in the wet belt, south of the Grand Trunk tracks, the tidings spread Tuesday evening with increasing speed and alarm, and the familiar and likewise popular "hipper" was forthwith discarded by all and sundry until further notice.

Suspicious Reigns.

Usually more than eager to please, and ready to rise from bed at any hour of the night or early morning to satisfy the wants of a thirsty clientele the greater majority of the "boys" were somewhat reluctant, however, Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning to perambulate in the downtown area with anything more incriminating than an acrid thirst.

One or two of those, however, whose business in the past has been of such volume that they can undertake the risk, are alleged to have reported, "This is my busy night."

Strangers at parties Tuesday evening, it is said, were the object of mingled suspicion and hostility until it was proven beyond a shadow of a doubt that they were not the long-expected visitors from the Toronto headquarters.

For the first time in London in months it would appear, a casual observer maintains, that the bootlegging fraternity actually seemed to recognize that there is such a statute as the O. T. A., and persons who even looked like a policeman were promptly "given the gate" at the earliest opportunity, it is alleged.

MINERS TO CONSIDER GILLEN BOARD AWARD

Sydney, N. S., Feb. 1.—A district convention of Nova Scotia miners will be held at Truro in a few days to decide whether 12,000 miners will accept or reject the award of the Gillen conciliation board in respect to the dispute between the Nova Scotia Coal Companies and their employees. The district board is in session, and is expected to fix the date of the Truro convention today, too young—he's 49.

LIVER TROUBLE BAD BILIOUS ATTACKS

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, the tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach full and sick, and bilious spells occur on account of the liver holding back the bile which is so essential to promote the movements of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood, instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The only way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the nasty bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using

MILBURN'S

LAXA-LIVER PILLS.

They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and there is nothing of the griping, weakening and sickening effects of the old-fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Caron, Donavon, Sask., writes: "I was troubled with my liver and had severe bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, so I took two vials and I have had no more attacks."

MILBURN'S

WILL CONSULT MEDICAL MEN

License Board Agree Not To Suspend Doctors Before Profession Advised.

TORONTO, Jan. 31.—Preliminary discussions which took place today between Chairman James Haies, K. C., of the Ontario License Board, and the Ontario Medical Association's special committee, concerning liquor prescriptions, cleared up a good many misunderstandings, it was announced.

Briefly, the license board has undertaken to consult the profession, through an advisory board, before suspending medical men in the future. It is stated that this advisory board, while it will be nominated by the association will in reality be a provincial body, since it is proposed to pay its members $25 a day and expenses for time spent in conferring with the board upon matters requiring consideration.

It is understood that while the question of placing a limit upon prescriptions was discussed there was no disposition on the part of the doctors to object to a limit of some sort. Under the arrangement entered into, however, the main contention of the doctors—that a limit should have some relation to the practice of the physician—has been recognized. A doctor whose practice requires the issuing of a larger number of prescriptions will get that privilege by going to the advisory committee. This committee might also be instrumental in reducing the maximum in the case of those whose practice does not justify the issuing of the full amount.

WOULD REFUND FOREIGN DEBT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The bill authorizing the refunding of the $11,000,000 foreign debt into securities maturing in not less than 25 years, was passed tonight by the United States Senate. The vote was 39 to 25.

Final enactment of the measure must await adjustment of differences between the house and senate, which is expected within a week or ten days. Under the terms of the bill a commission of five members, headed by the secretary of the treasury, would have authority, subject to the approval of the president, to refund or convert and to extend the time of the payment of the principal or the interest, or both, of the foreign debt.

Realizing this, our main idea while preparing this advertisement, is to attempt to re-establish the prestige of this famous sale by offering even greater bargains than formerly offered in those old-fashioned price-slashing One-Cent Sales, as originally presented by Standard Drug Stores.

Delayed Action.
A THEATRE ROOF caved in at Washington, and about 100 people were killed. Now there is a hustle all over the land to inspect the roofs of similar buildings.
Quite right, no doubt, but why do we always need an accident with a casualty list to get action?
A bad smash at a level crossing sets every place going with a new agitation for the elimination of all level crossings.
A case of a fireman or a fireman getting caught with live wires brings out a new demand for burying the wires instead of the workmen.
A big fire and a frozen hydrant will make all the cities move to make sure their hydrants have not been lulled to sleep by the frosty weather.
A drowning accident in a river in the summer causes agitations all over for a supervised swimming place in the municipality.
All these moves are splendid and right, but the sorry part is that it should be necessary for human life to be offered up every time to the signal for a start.

Getting Industries.
D ISCUSSING THE question of grabbing industries, which was popular a few years ago, the Kitchener Telegraph takes note of the latest development in Quebec, where a deputation waited on the premier the other day to ask for the abolition of the anti-bonus law of that province. The Telegraph interprets the premier's words that "he would not permit other provinces to take industries away" to mean that Quebec is ready to go back "to the restoration of the old vicious principle." The suggestion is made that it would be much better for the provinces to get together in this matter, rather than allow those seeking locations to bump the heads of provinces and cities in order to secure the best deal.
The history of industry coaxing and wheedling is not favorable, either in Ontario or Quebec. Ontario cities can furnish a fine list of tombstones that stand in the graveyard of promoters' glib talk and the credulity of their victims.
When it comes right down to a business basis, there are a number of localities in Ontario that cannot offer a keen manufacturer the things he most needs, and chief among these is a desirable place for the employees to live.
There are cities, plenty of them, with free sites, water and sidings, but the principal thing cannot be given, a place where the men who are to work there can live comfortably and within their means.
It is doubtful if there are many worthwhile industries ready to grab at a red wool ball held out by way of a bonus. The day of that sort of business belongs to the past.

Use the Scientist.
W HEN manufacturers in general get a thorough grasp of what science, chemistry and investigation will do for their problems there will be a new and an extensive field opened, and in that field will be made remarkable progress toward securing the efficiency their plants must have if they are going to compete successfully in the markets of the world.
In London a move is being made through the chamber of commerce to link up London manufacturers with the science and chemistry departments of Western University. There is something so entirely practicable in the move that the wonder is no one started it before.
It is not contemplated that there shall be a dry, academic discussion, or course of lectures. The idea carries something much more real, and, in fact, it must if it is going to succeed.
The program is still in the course of making, but at once there comes such a question as this: How many London firms buy coal on the basis of chemical analysis? How many users of inks and colors thoroughly understand all that the skilled chemist can tell them about their problems? How many little problems, in the way of the need of a new shop "link" remain unsolved?
Those in charge of the proposed work no doubt have a much more extensive program in mind, but the above are simply lines along which such work could be carried on to the interest and satisfaction of the chemists and scientists, as well as to the distinct advantage of the manufacturers of this city.
Those who became familiar with the manufacture of munitions in the Dominion know quite well the place the chemist won for himself in that work during the war. When he found, by careful analysis, the grades of steel best suited for forging and machining, a great portion of the problem of satisfactory production, with the minimum of rejections, was solved.
The move now being made in London is right, necessary and practical. There is no doubt concerning the co-operation that will be given.

Picking Immigrants.
S OMETHING SEEMS a little slack in the way immigrants are looked over when coming to Canada. One writer in the Canadian Magazine claims the method to be a very cursory and formal examination by the ship's doctor before the emigrant goes on board ship. This is a precaution taken by the ship owners in order to prevent the necessity of giving a free passage back to a rejected immigrant—for all rejected immigrants must be returned to port of sailing free of charge. In this way the immigration authorities seek to put the onus of selection upon the steamship companies, but they are either incompetent to judge or are willing to take a chance on the emigrant passing the immigration authorities at the ports of arrival since from 1903 to 1919 12,559 persons were rejected for the following reasons:
Accompanying patients 581
Bad character 946
Contract labor 91
Criminality 76
Head tax 6
Lack of funds 3,243
Likely to become public charges 2,071
Medical causes 4,974
Not complying with regulations 561
Previously rejected 10
Total 12,559
The writer who has compiled these figures goes on to show the regret and disappointment that must be the lot of those who are turned back at the rate of 1,000 per year. True, no doubt, but think of the regrets of this country were the barriers pulled down.
The claim is also made that the present $250 cash clause, which amount is necessary to allow entrance to Canada, works to the advantage of the foreigner, and to the disadvantage of the British immigrant, because many foreigners have societies that will put up this amount of money to get the newcomer past the gates of the country, whereas there is no such action on the part of the British people.
It ought to be possible to have doctors at various points in Britain where any person desiring to come to Canada could be examined in regard to health and fitness. It should not be necessary to start in selling possessions and pulling up stakes generally before it is known for sure that admission can be granted to this country.

LITTLE 'TISERS
Rumania still owes Canada a small sum of $20,000,000 loaned in 1918, and just to show what a trifle she considers it is, won't even acknowledge the interest bill.
Reindeer steaks and roasts are soon going to be on the United States market, says an Alaska man. If they go backin' roasts off the reindeers up there how is Santa Claus going to make his flying visit down here every year?
A New York man goes to jail for six months for trying to take a bottle of whiskey away from a citizen there at the point of a gun. The judge didn't say whether he was sending him down for using a gun for trying to steal the whiskey.

READ YOUR CHARACTER
[By Digby Phillips]
NO. 107—LIMBER JOINTS.
You wouldn't think that the elasticity of the individual's joints had anything to do with his character, would you? But it has.
It's not as important a signification, for instance, as the shape of the head or the color of the hair, or even as certain of the signs revealed by handwriting. But it is by no means negligible. It is natural that limber joints should spell activity in the physical sense, and so they do, though not necessarily muscular strength. But they indicate more than this.
They indicate quick mental reactions and slow thought, if you can understand the distinction made in this apparently contradictory statement. Put it another way. The impulsive and emotional mental processes of the limber-jointed ones are very quick, though they are slow in their processes of reason and analysis. They are, in short, intuitive. The intuitions of the individual may be right or wrong, on the average, according to the other character indications which you see in him or her.
For the rest, you'll find it not very difficult to impress them. They're quite responsive to suggestion, but not so responsive to argument, which means that they are more easily led than driven.
Another thing about them. Their interest centres more in personalities than in abstract considerations of theories and facts.

NOAH'S POETRY
ON BEIN' JOYFUL.
Sometimes we get a great old day with sky a-runnin' bright and high, and when I roll from off my cot the sun is squintin' in my eye.
The speckled hen has wandered out and sings to me a barnyard lay, the weather stirs her to the point of makin' sixteen eggs that day.
And all around the place is glee, and folks would rather walk than ride, I take great gulps of atmosphere and stow 'em down inside my hide.
My neighbor's feelin' powerful good, he ain't no more a grouchy jade—he's fussin' in his barn a spell, and pawin' on the hoe and spade.
I meet my friend upon the street, we waddle down a block or two, but on his jaw he has a look that's powerful near to black and blue.
I wondered if he'd lost a friend, or else his brother Hank and John—he says we'll pay up for this day by storms what's comin' later on.
Oh, I would like to swat this bird, and land on him my husky paw, likewise I'd like to swing at him, and place a blister on his jaw.
What is the use in goin' around and spillin' trouble by the peck, and spoilin' all good things we've got by hangin' mournin' on yer neck?
—NOAH.
HOW TO KEEP WELL
Your Nose
BY DR. R. H. BISHOP.
EFFECTIVE drainage and ventilation of the upper air passages. In the nose is one of the factors causing colds.
The normal healthy nasal passages should be large enough to allow free entrance of all the air required by a person in breathing, whether at rest or during exertion. In the latter case, fortunately, the tissues have the power of contracting and thus making the passages larger.
The inner wall of each nasal passage is the septum or partition and is made of bone and cartilage. From the outer wall of each passage project two prominent, bony, curved bodies, the turbinates.
These turbinate bodies are irregular in size and shape. They add a great deal to the surface over which the air passes. In them are partly located the nerves of smell.
The ventilation or free passage of air through the nose and in and out of its cavities may be diminished or destroyed by twists, curvatures, and folding of the septum or by bony or cartilaginous growths projecting into these cavities, or by overgrowth of the adenoids or tumors or membranous thickness of some sort.
Such obstructions in nasal ventilation prevent proper evaporation of the mucus. Consequently this accumulates in masses and drops into the throat or is blown out by the person frequently.
These conditions produce all the symptoms of a chronic cold and they invite the onset of more acute ailments from various infections, since germs are apt to grow rapidly in such spaces full of abnormal secretion.

Job hunters at Ottawa are starting to slacken off in their chase for something to do. Messrs. McGIBERN and CHEVRE, the Ottawa city members, have had to meet many of the outsiders. It was wisdom that kept either of these seats being opened for Hon. JAMES MURDOCK. A Minister of Labor, holding one of the Ottawa seats, would be in a poor position for giving real service to the Dominion. As it is Mr. MURDOCK will have good reason to drop back into Kent quite frequently, and go back to Ottawa with somewhat of an outside view.
While Mr. PARSONS tells Toronto people, on his return from Britain, that he doesn't know what is going to happen to the Old Country, the pound sterling reaches the highest mark on Wall street since 1919. By way of explanation it is stated that "Brokers associated the strength of the pound sterling with the marked improvement shown by Great Britain's foreign trade balance, together with purchases of British bills to meet February payments." Mr. PARSONS should be more careful of the company he picks while in the Old Country. There are a few cheery old Britishers left yet.

TO DISTRIBUTE FIFTY BOX CARS AMONG NEEDY

St. Thomas Health Inspector
States M. C. R. Fuel Quota
Now Ready.

WILL ASSUME DUTIES

Duncan Ross, K.C., To Be Officially Declared Elgin
Senior Judge Thursday.

[Special To London Advertiser.]
ST. THOMAS, Jan. 31.—Fifty condemned freight cars will be ready for distribution among the poor of St. Thomas for fuel Wednesday or Thursday morning, it was stated today by Health Inspector Shaw. The cars promised two weeks ago were reported in the M. C. R. yards Tuesday, but they at that time had not been placed.

The cars are a gift of the railway to the needy of this city. It was expected that they would have been in this city one week ago, but owing to some hitch in the plans, they were held up until this week.

Since the announcement that more cars were to be turned over to the city for fuel there has been many applicants, but until the cars are ready for breaking up no permits will be given out by Mr. Shaw.

Assumes New Duties.
Duncan C. Ross, K.C., newly-appointed judge of Elgin County, will arrive in this city Thursday at noon, according to a letter received today by Crown Attorney McCrimmon. He will assume his duties Thursday afternoon, it is expected, when there will be a county audit of criminal justice accounts.

The judge will experience a busy time for some days, as no less than 70 cases in the division court are awaiting disposal.

He will be tendered an official welcome on his arrival in this city by Mayor C. E. Raven, members of the city council and the officials of the chamber of commerce. It is expected that the Elgin Bar Association will tender the judge a formal reception in the near future.

FISHERMAN DIES FROM BEING STRUCK BY ICE

WHEATLEY, Jan. 31.—Thursday of last week while the fisherman at the lake shore were storing ice from the lake, a load of the ice slipped while being elevated, and struck Everett Fagan, badly breaking one of his legs below the knee. Fagan was taken to Hotel Dieu, Windsor, where surgical attention was given, but by Sunday it was found necessary to amputate the leg. These efforts to save his life were of no avail, however, and he died on Monday. Interment will take place at Wheatley. He is survived by an aged mother and three brothers.

PAINTER DROPS DEAD.

CHATHAM, Jan. 31.—John Foreman, a painter, aged 80 years, dropped dead late yesterday afternoon just outside his home. The cause of his death was heart-failure. During the day he had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Blackburn, at 37 Gray street. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence on Shandon avenue. The deceased leaves his wife, two sons and five daughters to mourn his loss.

LABOR MEN MAY OPEN SEAT FOR MINISTER

EDMONTON, Jan. 31.—A movement is on foot in East Edmonton among the Labor forces to open that riding in the interests of the Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior.

Mr. D. F. Kellner, the Progressive member for that riding, denied over the telephone today from Edmonton that he made any statement to the effect that he was willing to throw the constituency open and run against Mr. Stewart. Mr. Kellner will be in Edmonton Thursday.

A Special Reason Why You Should Buy Your Electric Washer This Week

See this unequalled price; the extraordinarily easy terms; the machine itself—the famous Kribs' Miss Simplicity. It washes thoroughly daintiest fabrics, or heaviest blankets. Wrings them, too, in its power-driven wringer. The big oversize electric motor does all the work of a weekly washing in about an hour, using less than a cent's worth of electricity. You are relieved of all the work, the fuss, the worry that makes washing a bugbear alike for women who are beset with the bothers of outside help or the tiring fatigue of a day in the tub. Miss Simplicity washes and wrings at just the right speed, but not too fast, for excessive speed risks injury to the sheer things that Miss Simplicity cleanses with never a rub of a thread. Made of cypress, "the wood eternal," with rustless bronze castings and brass screws Miss Simplicity gives a lifetime of satisfactory service.

The Hydro Shop is anxious to show you just what Miss Simplicity will do on your own things. Before next wash day come to the Hydro Shop or phone 7000 and arrange to have a machine sent to your own home. A representative will go with the machine, or if you prefer you may run it yourself. It is easily done. Just put the clothes in, touch the button and in 10 or 15 minutes they will be scrupulously clean.

How Cardinals Will Select Successor To Pope Benedict XV.

HISTORY SHOWS PONTIFFS RARELY ELECTED FROM PRELATES IN PUBLIC EYE

Three Members of Sacred College Likely To Attend Open Conclave in Vatican at Rome Thursday.

THE Sacred College of Cardinals meets Thursday to elect a successor to Pope Benedict XV. There are sixty living cardinals, of whom thirty are Italian; these thirty, twenty-nine are already present in Rome; it is doubtful whether the health of Cardinal Prisco of Naples will permit him to attend. Of the remaining thirty non-Italian cardinals it is possible that from twenty-four to twenty-six may be present at the opening of the conclave, while two or three may appear in later sessions—if there are any.

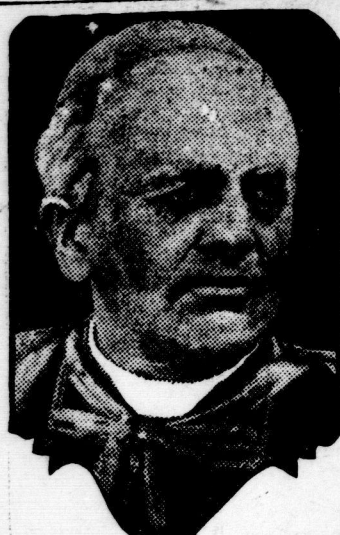

As is being written about the favorite cardinals—the cardinal papal—and reasons, both political and ecclesiastical, are expounded demonstrating the predominant chances of this or that candidate. History shows, however, that the election of a Pope has been elected among those Cardinals most in the public eye. Take for example the election of Pius IX. in 1846. Then as now the opposition between conservatism and liberalism prevailed. On the side was Lambruschini with the Jesuit Cardinals; on the other, the reformists, led by the anti-Jesuit, Micara, Gizi and Oppolzer. It was after persistent rumors of Gizi's election, it was discovered that Cardinal Mastai-Ferretti, Archbishop of Bologna, was the fortunate one, and he only as he appeared on the balcony to bless the people.

This election was the result of a deadlock finally broken by one of the leaders of the Lambruschini group, Cardinal Falconieri, advising his followers to vote for the Archbishop of Bologna as a safe man. The latter was little known in Rome and even his blessing was coldly received. And down to the days of the storming of the Porta Pia by the troops of Victor Emmanuel II. in 1870, which destroyed his temporal power, the attitude of the Romans changed very little.

A Decisive Vote of Honor. Although the death of Pius IX. came after a protracted illness in February, 1878, it took the Catholic world by surprise. The minds of the cardinals, diverted by other matters, had no time to formulate a policy and find one of their number, as Pope, should give it expression. At that time the Camerlengo was Cardinal Gioacchino Pecci. He was 68 years of age; nobody dreamed of him as a cardinal papable. It was because of his masterful arrangement for the funeral and the conclave, his distinguished churchmanship and personality, the Cardinals decided to give him a vote of honor, believing that even if he were elected he would reign as Pope for a very short time, when his policies would be in a better shape. That vote of honor elected him. He reigned for a quarter of a century and fulfilled them all save one, Cardinal Borgia.

When Leo XIII. died on July 20, 1903, at the age of 93, the cardinal papable par excellence was Cardinal Rampolla, who for many years had been his able secretary of state. From the very start in the new conclave Rampolla had a plurality of votes. On August 2 he was rapidly approaching the required two-thirds, when Cardinal Kolzelesko Puzyna of Cracow evoked the so-called "Spanish vote" against Rampolla on orders of his imperial master, Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria. Thereupon the aged Oreglia di Santo Stefano, for the moment forgetting his Latin, cried out vehemently in Italian: "The conclave rejects this unwarranted interference with our freedom." Then

The upper part is folded down so as to conceal the name of the elector; the lower part is folded up for a similar reason. Both are sealed, but the sheet make the paper above and below opaque. Only the name of the candidate is revealed in the exposed middle part.

When all this has been done the cardinals advance in due order to the altar steps and pronounce the oath:

"Testor Christum Dominum qui me iudicaturus est me elegere quem secundum deum iudico eligi debere et quod idem in accessu praestabo." That is to say: "I call Christ our Lord, who will judge me, to witness that I elect the person who I think before God should be elected, and whom I shall support in his succession."

The elector then ascends the altar steps and lays the folded ballot on the paten, from which it drops into the urn or chalice.

All the ballots having been thus deposited, the three scrutineers ascend to the altar. One takes the urn, covers it with the paten, and shakes it. A second scrutineer then passes the ballots one by one into another urn, counting them as he does so. If this number does not agree with the number of electors the vote is void, the ballots are burned, and the balloting must be repeated.

If the number be correct, the scrutineers take the second urn to a large table in the center of the chapel well within sight of all the electors. As each ballot is drawn from the urn, each scrutineer in turn as he receives it reads aloud the name upon it. As the names are thus read out each of the electors, who has a list of all the cardinals before him, makes a mark opposite the name he hears thrice read.

When all the marked names have been verified, and if no name has received the necessary two-thirds vote, the ballots are burned in a little improvised stove whose pipe passes through one of the chapel windows. The appearance of the smoke informs the crowd without that no election has taken place.

Changing a Ballot. In the second voting the same procedure is repeated, those voting for their former candidate adding to their names the phrase, "accedo, nemini," while others who wish to change use a second form of ballot, exactly like the first, but with the phrase, "I change to —," written in the middle part.

But when the count of the scrutineers, verified by the auditing of the electors, shows that a candidate has received the desired two-thirds vote of the cardinals present, then the ballots are not burned, and for a few moments there is a great silence. Will the elected candidate accept?

Then the master of ceremonies, accompanied by the sub-dean, the senior cardinal priest, and the cardinal deacon, approach the seat of the cardinal who has been elected and the sub-dean asks:

"Do you accept the election canonically made of you as supreme pontiff of the Catholic Church?"

If the cardinal accepts, and in whatever words he accepts, the master of ceremonies then claps his hands, and at the sound all the canopies are lowered, save that over the seat of the new pope, as the symbol of his now sole sovereignty. The sub-dean then asks: "By whose name do you wish to be called?"

The new pope then tells him. He is then, after a short prayer before the altar, taken behind it, where he is divested of his cardinalial robes and clad in the traditional white vestments of the pope.

Meanwhile, a portable throne—the Sedia Gestatoria—has been brought to the altar steps. The Pope advances from behind the altar and takes his place on the throne. The sub-dean then removes from the Pope's finger the sapphire ring of the cardinal and replaces it by the fisherman's ring of the Vicar of Christ. There are other brief ceremonies, which have varied at different conclaves, and then the senior cardinal deacon asks the Pope's permission to announce the result of the election to the outside world. But as no smoke had poured from the chapel window, the crowd below already knew that an election had taken place. The breathless silence there, when suddenly there appears on the exterior loggia of St. Peter's the Papal Cross, with acolytes, mace-bearers, followed by the senior cardinal deacon. More silence, and then he begins the official announcement:

"I proclaim to you tidings of great joy," etc.

Benedict's Administration. But aside from a broader churchmanship, the efforts to raise the church as a great moral force in national, and even in international, politics characterized the administration of Benedict XV. in a manner that is bound to exercise a great, possibly a predominant, force in the conclave which is to elect his successor.

When he died he was the head of a great international organization consisting of over 300,000,000 members, which was fighting revolution, where it could exert influence or power. When he died he was the patron of a political party in Italy whose efforts were only second to those of the Fascist in saving the country from revolution and anarchy. It is significant at this time to recall a declaration of his made in the darkest days of the war, on Nov. 27, 1917, through his Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Gasparri, which, while it explains his policy of non-intervention against the Teutonic Catholics, at the same time reveals his position as an Italian patriot. He directed the cardinal to declare:

"The Catholic church has always regarded true patriotism as a Christian duty and a Christian virtue, and still so teaches. The fact that the Italian parliament has warmly eulogized the clergy suffices to refute the calumnies which irresponsible persons are circulating abroad. These malicious insinuations, this tendency to attribute in great part to the Italian clergy the responsibility for the present situation (Caporetto) must be denounced. In Italy no fair-minded person attributes the situation to the clergy."

"When the destructive propaganda began to effect the morale of the Italian army, the clergy in general, and in particular the army chaplains, following the instructions and example of the chaplain general, labored to counteract it and to elevate the morale of the troops. More than once the army chaplains informed the chaplain general, and he informed the supreme civil authorities, that a harmful movement was creeping in—all this before the publication of the Papal Note." (That is, the Peace Note of Aug. 1, 1917.)

And finally, under the administration of Benedict XV., diplomatic relations were restored with France, and the door for a reconciliation with the Quirinal was left wider open than ever before.

Future of His Policies.

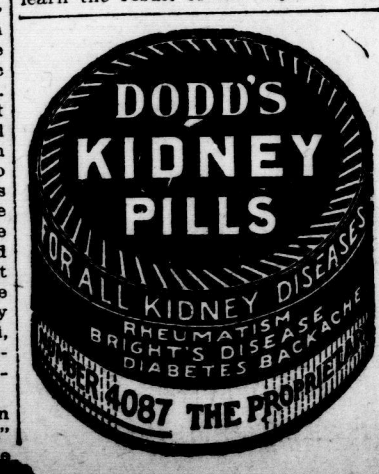

Now, against the expansion or even maintenance of these policies, which are represented by Cardinal Maffi, there is a movement to have the church return to the ritualistic and non-political days of Pius X. And it is natural that this movement should be led by Cardinal Merry del Val and supported by the foreign cardinals who owe their creation to his influence. The honors he has received from the Jesuits may be said to rival symbolically those which Cardinal Maffi has received from the Italian government. But it must not be supposed that all the Italian cardinals are in sympathy with the attitude of Cardinal Maffi, any more than all the foreign cardinals are in sympathy with the attitude of Merry del Val.

The word cardinal is derived from the Latin "cardinalis" (from "cardo," a hinge); that of conclave, from Latin words "cum" and "clavis," with a key, due to the secrecy of its deliberations. When the cardinals meet in conclave, as London Advertiser readers have learned from the cable dispatches, a portion of the vatican is set apart for their accommodation. The lot of the cardinals is not to be envied, for in the immense rooms which are divided into cubicles, or improvised bedrooms, little attention is paid to ventilation and heating, and the original sanitary arrangements, always poor, are not improved. All this may contribute toward an early decision, particularly at this time of year.

A change of diet causes many complaints among the cardinals. Shortly after the conclave of Pius X. a cardinal died from dysentery contracted there.

Every afternoon during the conclave a vast crowd assembles outside in the Piazza San Pietro to learn the result of the day's voting.

'NO DUMMY' LEAGUE LATEST IN LONDON

Victorian Order Nurses Plan War On Comforts.

Ever hear of a "1922 No Dummy League"? No, it isn't an organization to promote the gentle art of conversation, as some people might gather from the title. It is a further effort to protect the health and welfare of their majesties the babies.

Now, there is not the slightest need for holding up hands in horror and exclaiming, "What, another society? More meetings to go to? More offices to fill?"

Nothing of the kind. The "No Dummy League" is an elastic organization, including in its membership all and sundry who will pledge themselves to wage warfare against the dastardly weapon of soothing, commonly known as the baby "comfort."

The Victorian Order of Nurses has recently organized a campaign against baby "dummies" or "comforts," in the form of "The 1922 No Dummy League." The Victorian Order of Nurses staff in London believe that what is good for Western babies in this connection is good for Western Ontario babies. The Victorian Order of Nurses of London are out to "banish the dummy, banish the comfort."

Their slogan will be, "Protect the baby from bad habits and join the 'No Dummy' League."

Here are the objects:

1. To protect the health of the infant, the health of the nation.
2. To disseminate knowledge concerning the needless sacrifice every year of infants to a germ-spreading habit.
3. To give members a chance for public and practical expression of their views on this ill, loathsome habit that has infected our country; to arouse and organize public interest for the removal of this menace.

Does the "dummy" or "comfort" really soothe the baby?

"Sooth the baby?" exclaims Miss Mabel Symonds, superintendent of the nurses of the Victorian Order here. "You should hear what doctors have to say on the subject."

Here are some of the things she quotes them as saying:

Dummies are bad for babies.

Dummies make nervous, fretful babies.

Dummies do not favor regular habits.

Dummies cause protruding jaws.

Dummies cause adenoids.

Dummies spoil the beauty of the child.

And she adds herself, "Dummies are filthy and carry germs. Haven't you ever seen baby drop its comfort on the floor in a public place, even a street car or railroad train, and mother calmly stoop, pick it up and shove it in the tender cherub's rosy mouth again?"

"And haven't you seen mother put the comfort in her own mouth before giving it to mother's darling?"

To be sure, everybody has seen just such sights, if they only stop to think about it.

What have the mothers to say about a No Dummy League for London?

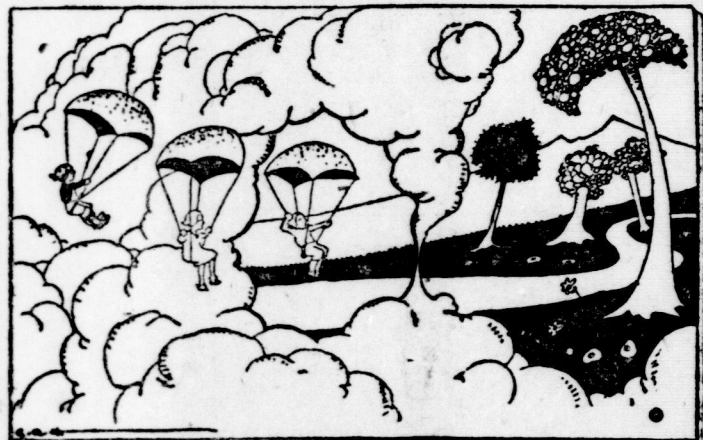

RAMBLER'S GUIDE JOINS CORNER.

Dear Miss Grey—I have been an interested reader of your cozy corner for some time, and just thought I would like to become one of the many Boxites. If it isn't too much bother would you or any of the Boxites send me the words of "Peggy O'Neil"? I saw where Blue Bell No. 2 wants a correspondent, so will leave my address with Miss Grey.

THE WORDS OF THE OTHER SONG you asked for are in the Mail-Box, so will send them along with Blue Bell's address just as soon as "Peggy O'Neil" is sent in.

PARACHUTES

(By Olive Roberts Barton.)

A little breeze came along and gently, very gently, they were lifted up into the air.

THERE was funny little old Buskins sitting on a fuzzy dandelion, smoking his pipe and asking the Twins if they would like to go to Thistle-down Land. You don't have to guess very hard to find out what the children answered. There, I know you've guessed already.

But a thought struck Nancy. "Oh, I forgot. We can't go, Mr. Buskins. We're not allowed near the apple-tree since Nick ate a green apple and got sick. So we can't get to the magical elevator."

"Don't I know it!" nodded Buskins soberly. "That's why I'm here. You see there are more ways than one of getting to the Land-of-Up-in-the-Air. This dandelion puff was just about to start for that part of it called Thistle-down Land and I thought we could be passengers. What do you say? You've got your Magic Green Shoes on and can wish yourselves as small as you like."

"Of course," laughed Nick. "I'll be lots of fun. I've always wondered

Fashion Makes Spring Hats Fantastic

BY MARION HALE.
LONDON, Jan. 31.—Spring hats are fantastic things, fashioned without a thought of durability. A flick of fancy ran amuck with yards and yards of black net and loads of turquoise beads for the designing of this Suzanne Talbot hat. Of course, it's called a Napoleon model. Its exaggerated sides are ornamented with folds of net thickly dotted with beads.

Black satin, combined with strips of silver ribbon, are used in making the attractive Maria Guy tam. The ribbon is shirred to make the brim close to the face. Circular strips of ribbon ornament the full tam crown.

PUPILS SING, PLAY.

An interesting and exceptionally successful students' recital was given in the A. O. F. Hall, Dundas street, this week by singing, piano and violin pupils of Mrs. Grant-Harris, constituting a varied offering to the large audience which attended.

Each number on the program revealed careful training and thorough preparation, and was characterized by good rhythm and an intelligent grasp of the content.

Edward Lance, a little violinist of seven years, displayed remarkable musical ability, playing from memory, in sweet, clear tones. Miss Gladys Harding of Thorncliffe, after her song, and Miss Marion Johnston, following a piano solo, were obliged to respond to requests.

Others taking part were Lillian Clements, K. Watson, Phyllis Blunt, Grace Wray, Norman Keene, Helen Prince, Katherine Barbour, Howard James, W. Dumares, Lenore Coakley, Gladys Hurle, Reginald Nicholls, Joseph Hennessey (Ingersoll), William House, Doris Effmet, Howard James, Edward Sherlock, Theresa Hennessey (Ingersoll).

ST. JOHN'S GUILD SALE.

The Ladies' Guild of St. John the Evangelist Church held a very successful sale of home cookery at the Bisco store, and realized a substantial sum to be applied to church work. The ladies who took part in the sale, as well as those who contributed the supplies, are appreciative of kindness and help extended by Mr. Northwood and Mr. Brisco for loan of the store and many courtesies during the sale.

TO BE REPRESENTED.

The London Council of Women will be represented at the meeting of the national executive in Ottawa, Feb. 22 and 23, when, doubtless, the proposal with regard to a memorial for Mrs. Harriet A. Boomer, one of the founders of the national council, as well as organizer of the London local council, will be considered. A resolution to this effect has been forwarded from the local council executive.

Cables received in the city announce the arrival in London, England, of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lawson. They leave for Paris Wednesday, and after some days there go on to the battlefields, after which they will spend the remainder of the winter on the Riviera.

On her journey homeward with the body of her father, Miss Isabel Ivey was met in Paris by Mr. and Mrs. T. Baker of this city. Mr. Baker taking her from Paris to London. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lawson have remained in London longer than they had originally intended in order to be with Miss Ivey until the sailing of her boat for New York.

Mrs. Fred Landon and Mrs. Deane were hostesses of the meeting of the University Faculty Club, held Monday evening. The club decided that the next meeting would be given in honor of their husbands. Mrs. Russell contributed several literary numbers, which were greatly enjoyed. A dainty supper was served by the hostesses at small tables decorated with daffodils and tall yellow candles, and coffee was poured by the president, Miss Hill.

Following the artists' concert, at which the Women's Music Club is presenting Mrs. E. N. Counsell of Winnipeg (formerly Nellie Campbell), contralto; Mr. Thomas Martin, pianist, and Gurli E. Hausch, violinist, the executive will entertain the club members to afford them an opportunity of meeting the artists. The concert will be held in St. Andrew's Hall on Feb. 3.

An enjoyable affair of Monday night was the ladies' euchre given by the Mothers' Unit of St. John's school. The prize was won by Miss T. Dalton, and the consolation prize was given to Mrs. James Kennedy. During the evening a delightful program was presented, including dancing by Miss Helen Galbraith and Miss Mary Frawley, and popular songs by Misses Isabel Durkin, Ruth Kennedy, Mary La France and Rita Newman, with Miss T. Dalton as accompanist. A dainty supper was served by the hostesses.

A happy event of the week was the euchre and dance given Tuesday evening in St. Mary's parish hall in aid of the social service work. The hall was gay with red and white decorations, with lights shaded in red, casting a ruddy glow. Over 300 were present, and excellent music was supplied by the Imperial Orchestra. After the first half of the program a dainty buffet supper was served. The splendid success of the social was due to the general convenor, Mrs. J. J. Roach, who was assisted by the following committee: Dr. and Mrs. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert O'Mara, Mrs. Flood, Mrs. O'Leary, Mrs. Hains, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Warcup, Mrs. Moralee, and Misses Towell, Gerlie Pelton, Olive Carty, Loretta Macdonald, Irene Connell, Mary McGregor, Frances Smith, L. V. A. D.'S SEND GIFT TO PRINCESS MARY

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—Twelve hundred V. A. D. nurses in Canada contributed to the fund raised by the V. A. D. as wedding gifts to H. R. H. Princess Mary, herself a devoted V. A. D. during the war. There were 150 contributions in Montreal.

Three Gift Funds Aid Sick Kiddies

It is a significant fact, reflecting the interest of the Princess Mary in children, and her love for them, that at least three wedding gift funds in tribute to her are to be devoted to the helping and healing of children.

The Princess Mary wedding gift fund to endow a room in the War Memorial Children's Hospital is steadily if slowly increasing. The fund, of course, was inaugurated with the gracious approval and sympathy of her royal highness.

Simultaneously, over in the home land of Britain's "fairy princess," a "Princess Mary gift fund" will be given to the Hospital for Sick Children, Great Ormond street, London, and the Victorian Hospital for Children, Chelsea, London.

In England, it is stated, great interest has been awakened in the fund, and subscriptions are pouring in from various sources. One woman over 100 years of age has been enrolled as a contributor. Many entertainments have been arranged for the specific purpose of raising money for the fund.

With the wedding day of the princess and Viscount Lascelles just exactly one month away, on the 28th of February, the committee in charge of the wedding gift fund to aid the War Memorial Children's Hospital is recognizing the importance of speeding up, in order that the list of subscribers may be sent to her royal highness in ample time.

The fund stands as follows:

In hanging sheets shake them well while still wet, and hang with the hem together and the hem edge pinned to the line. This prevents whipping the corners and lessens the wear and tear as the sheet will need less pulling.

Things Parents Ought to Know

Parents should know that their children will ultimately have a digestive tract 40 feet long, mostly muscle. Now, what has muscle to do with digestion? Almost nothing. Why is it there, then? Because nature intended us to eat food containing large quantities of waste or roughage. If roughage is not present, these muscles are not exercised and constipation results.

ROMAN MEAL is a delicious, nut-flavored, whole grain food with every nourishing element the body needs, in proper proportion, yet containing plenty of roughage to develop and exercise the intestinal muscles. Your children will never be constipated if you feed them ROMAN MEAL in porridge, pancakes, puddings, bread or cakes.

RESIDENTS ASK REDUCTIONS IN SEWER TAXES

Ratepayers in Three Sections
Present Petitions to Court of Revision.

CLAIM COSTS EXCESSIVE

Ask Similar Consideration to
That Shown Knollwood
Park Citizens.

While Mayor Wilson emphasized the fact that the Knollwood Park sewer settlement, whereby the council made a cash grant and extended the sewer debentures from 10 to 30 years, was not to be taken as a precedent, there is abundance of evidence that residents of other sections are taking the move as a precedent, and are demanding similar treatment. These are:

Residents of Dundas street, Oakland avenue to the city limits; Resident of Huron, Regent and St.

200 Jobless Will March On City Hall To Ask "Work For All."

KITCHENER, Jan. 31.—"Work for all or none," will be the slogan of 200 unemployed of the city, when they parade to the city hall at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. In the event of immediate work not being given by the council the men will ask for compensation until work is provided. These decisions were unanimously made at a meeting held in Community Hall tonight.

George streets:

Residents of Pipe Line road.

In the three above instances similar demands for concessions to those granted the Knollwood Park residents are in the making. The first two apply to sewers, the latter to a pavement.

All three cases were before the court of revision on Tuesday afternoon. Unlike the previous court, the new court ruled that it had no jurisdiction, and referred the cases to the city council.

U. A. Buchner appeared for the residents of Dundas street, east of Oakland. He said that he doubted the jurisdiction of the court in this case, but wanted a ruling to that effect, if such was the case, so that the council would not send him back to the court.

Costs $940 Per Lot.

His contention was that the cost of the sewer would mean a tax of 94 cents a foot per year for ten years, or $940 for the whole period on a 100-foot lot. The land was not worth the money. He contended that the cost of the sewer was considerably in excess of the estimates.

"Not very much," said Engineer Brazier, who explained that the high cost of the sewer was due to the depth at which it was necessary to lay the sewer.

Mr. Buchner intimated that he would ask the council for relief for his clients.

H. M. Peterman presented a petition along similar lines signed by the residents of Richmond, Regent, Huron and St. George streets.

The petition set forth that the estimated cost of the sewer was nearly 50 per cent less than the actual cost; that proper notices were not served on the property owners; that the work was undertaken at the most unfavorable time and increased the cost; that only five houses will be served by the sewer, and none are connected with it.

After reciting the above, the petitioners ask that their assessment on the sewer be cut, and that the debetures be extended from 10 to 30 years.

Appeals Individually.

William Brennan, Victoria street, also made an individual appeal. He said that quite a portion of his mother's land on St. George street was swampy, and yet the cost to this land for the sewer would be $2,045 in ten years. They would sell the land today for that amount. Mr. Brennan said that it seemed out of the question. He also contended that a result of the work done on the sewer the home of his widowed mother has been placed in a hollow, and the value of it thus reduced by about $2,000.

The court thought that his complaint was one worth looking into and will visit the property.

The Pipe Line road residents want the city to assist in paying for the pavement, which was laid on their street. This application refers to the lower part of the street. Ald. May said that the upper part of the street, just off Wharncliffe, will need repairs in the spring, as the pavement has heaved with the frost and split down the center.

City Clerk Baker has warned the members of the council of the demands that are coming in regard to the above.

Mayor Wilson said that the city was practically committed to the Knollwood Park settlement by a promise made in 1919, and a promise made last year by Mayor Little. In face of these promises of assistance the present council felt bound to help the park ratepayers.

RATEPAYERS TO RECEIVE NOTICE

Wilson was over the ground and said the street was as pictured. An effort will be made to relieve the situation.

Objection was raised to a Wharncliffe road resident cutting in on the Briscoe street sewer without paying. The resident in question is a Mr. Moore. The committee promised to see that he shouldered his share of the cost.

J. Autram, Briscoe street, gave a vivid picture of desolation in describing the area in his vicinity during flood time or after a storm. He had his piece well put together, describing the water as 8 to 10 inches deep and covering 74 feet of sidewalk. The worst part was that it carried refuse from other backyards and planted it on his, and the odor when it dried up he described as terrible.

Ald. Drake suggested that the committee should go over and see the property, and it was agreed to do so.

Once again the Wellington road residents were up for a sewer. They prefaced their remarks with the statement that they have been after this sewer for 16 years, and stated that they were given to understand by last year's council that the 1922 body would grant their request.

Ald. Drake said that he thought something would be done in the spring, and the deputation went away happy.

Engineer Brazier rather startled the committee with recommendations for storm water sewer system for South London. They were up in 1921 and laid over. The cost will be $189,000, and $50,000 has been already authorized.

Protests Against Expenditure.

Ald. Drake said that the city would have to cut down on some of the storm sewers.

Mayor Wilson said that the city could not stand such sewer appropriations.

Engineer Brazier said that pavements could not be laid until the storm sewers were down.

"Why not?" asked the mayor.

The engineer's reply was that the gutters would not carry the water away.

On the recommendation of the engineer, the Front street residents who complain of the low walk along the north side of their street, will get their walk raised, if they petition for it.

Residents of East street protested against the fertilizer plant, which is located in their vicinity, and the committee will recommend to the board of health that it have the plant moved.

The Grand Trunk, in a communication to the city, says that if the municipality is desirous of enforcing its bylaw against the railway ringing bells and blowing whistles in the city, it will have to get the permission of the Dominion Railway Board. "In other words telling us to get to hell," said the mayor.

City Clerk Baker stated that the Piccadilly street residents contended that the council had promised that their pavement charge would be held up for 1922. He had contended that the council had agreed to have the pavement inspected before the first instalment was due.

This was the view held by members of the committee, and the clerk's minutes will be carried out.

The board of works is to act as a special committee, to be called by Ald. Douglass, to go into the matter of garbage collection. The question of whether it is advisable to continue the civic system of collecting or of letting a contract for collection will be gone into.

Will Inspect Pavement.

Ald. Douglass, who is fathering the matter wanted a small committee, but the mayor objected to small committees or the naming of a special committee.

Ald. May called the attention of the engineer to the fact that the Pipe Line road pavement has raised up in the center, and there is a large crack down the center, so wide that in some places a man can put his hand into it.

The engineer said he would look into it. He said the winter was a hard one on pavements, there being no snow to protect them.

Engineer Brazier and Ald. Childs were authorized to attend the town planning convention to be held in Toronto.

Engineer Brazier said that he was running shy of work, and would soon have to cut down on the gangs of workers if he was not authorized to go on with some other work. The matter was left in the hands of the mayor and Chairman Ashton.

DOLLAR'S BUYING POWER
NEVER BETTER SHOWN
THAN BY 91 MERCHANTS

Enterprising London Dealers in Dollar Day Sale Give Buying Public Opportunity To Realize That Normal Times Are With Us Again.

THURSDAY, Feb. 2, is to be a gala day for shoppers of London and district. London's merchants tomorrow launch their big 1922 Dollar Day. "Ninety-One Live Ones," as the Dollar Day Association announces, are joining hands to make the day worth while for buyers, and the announcements of individual merchants indicate a real day of merchandising bargains is at hand.

The dollar is slowly but steadily coming into its own. That is a statement frequently heard in these days of declining prices, so London's live merchants have decreed that tomorrow the dollar will come into its own with a bang! A review of the numerous bargains outlined in advertisements appearing in the columns of this issue of The Advertiser would seem to justify this claim.

The Power of the Dollar.

Thursday will be real evidence of the value of the dollar today, or rather the buying power of the dollar. In this there is a difference, as the majority of the merchants set up that it is their intention to give more for the dollar than ever before.

Behind such an announcement is good business logic, and a survey of the different stores on Dollar Day should more than support this claim. In the first place, the benefits of Dollar Day are by no means one-sided. Persons who think that the dollar is a poor thing to have, and who value are just empty catch phrases, will find if they analyze the situation and study it out, that the basis for such claims is that of good business.

Costs Coming Down.

Costs are steadily declining. The merchant with a large stock of goods on his shelves is not in the best position possible. If he had one-third of the stock and the rest in cash he would be ready to take advantage of immediate wholesale price cuts. The dollar day is the way out. It's the dollar day for the over-stocked merchant. It places him in a highly strategic position in regards to the buying market.

Facing a situation as to stock, with the prospect of the market falling, a better line of goods offered at the same price would mean that he could not face his competitors with an inferior line at the same price. It is reasonable to conclude, therefore, that the merchant will unload when his opportunity comes.

He chooses Dollar Day as his way out, and so do 91 other merchants, and if he happens to be handling ladies' ready-to-wear or drygoods, he will find that 22 of his competitors are essaying to do the same thing as he.

Buyers To Benefit.

Thus the buyers of London and vicinity will awake Thursday morning to find many elements pressing in their favor. There are many things they have put off buying because they were too dear. In many cases there are two articles they want. One of them would cost as much today as the price of one tomorrow.

"Competition is the life of trade." This is an accepted business axiom, and applied to Dollar Day, it should produce a wealth of competition which cannot help but make for real bargains.

Drygoods and ladies' ready-to-wear bargains are assuming almost the proportions of a price war tomorrow. Twenty-two merchants handling these lines are making a bid for popular approval of Dollar Day shoppers. These live-wires are aware of the competition they are facing, and know that the shoppers will go where the dollar will draw the best value.

What a wonderful opportunity to obtain a new suit, a new coat, waists, a skirt, or any of the numerous other lines which these merchants carry.

Men Not Overlooked.

The men are going to get their chance also. Twelve of London's gents' furnishing houses are out to show the people of London and district that they have the best value in style and quality that can be obtained. Here is a real chance for the men to stock up.

Everyone wears shoes, and so everyone is interested in the messages of thirteen of London's live shoe houses. This number plan to face the barrier Dollar Day, and with so many after the same manner of dollars, and with the assurance of necessity, it should be a rare opportunity to fill footwear needs.

The hardware men and electrical houses are not slow to realize also that people want their wares, and appreciate Dollar Day bargains as much as those needing clothing, etc. Eight of them are out bidding for Western Ontario's trade.

The grocers, butchers, fruit stores and confectioners, all handling necessities that keep the body vigorous, ten in all, are offering bargains that are bound to reduce the cost of living. Here is an answer to a great big problem for a couple of days at least.

All Classes In Line.

And so on down the line. Five jewelers, three florists, four druggists, five furniture houses and sundry others are in the field, numbered among the 91 live ones out to make the day a real one for themselves and for the buying public.

The merchants of the city are preparing their stores for a big day. Some of the bargains that have been offered are already being revealed in the shop windows. Others are being announced daily in the press. Today's Advertiser will be found to overflow with offerings. These tell their own story, and give the value-judging shopper some idea of the tremendous value he can make each individual dollar do tomorrow, Thursday.

The speaker of the evening was Frederick E. Shipman, president of the Detroit Real Estate Board, who took up the subject of licensing all real estate brokers and pointed out the benefit and protection received by the public by the act in the States. The speaker gave instances of men in the real estate business in Michigan, who had been forced out of the business when the law was passed. The question of licensing all real estate brokers was discussed, with which all the local boards would be federated. Other speakers of the evening were J. O. Lundy, president of the Border Cities Real Estate Board, and Mr. Connon, representative of the Hamilton Town Planning Committee, who outlined the assistance that the real estate men could render to the commission.

Four of the "Y" boys will also address the fathers and sons on the night of the first banquet. It is hoped that special services in the churches will be held in conjunction with the activities in the "Y" during this campaign to bring about a closer relationship between the parent and the boy.

Plan Meetings to Foster Use
Of Science As Aid to Industry

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their weekly gathering Tuesday, rendered hearty approval of the proposal to hold a series of meetings in an effort to arouse interest in the use of science in local industry; February 21 being tentatively set as the date for the initial meeting.

A program dealing with subjects tending to interest the manufacturers will be prepared. The topics will be handled by persons fully qualified to speak on such questions.

The postponed general gathering of the chamber has been set for February 9, when the members will consider the proposed work for the year. A playlet by the London Drama League will be featured during the evening.

RESIDENTS TO COMBAT STORM
SEWER CHARGE

William Street Property Owners Indignant Over Being Billed.

WORK WAS DONE IN 1916

Claim System Does Not Prevent Flooding For Which It Was Intended.

"We intend to fight this charge for a sewer to the last ditch, and will go to the courts if necessary. We have a good case," so declared James J. Todd, 759 William street, in speaking of the battle that has been launched by the residents of William street, Central avenue to Grosvenor, against the bills just received from the city for a sewer.

Mr. Todd was spokesman for the residents before the court of revision. He contended that there was something wrong somewhere.

The facts in connection with the sewer as he related them give rise to suspicions that all is not regular.

In 1884, a sewer was laid on William street. Gradually it was extended. In 1916-17 a new sewer was laid. In 1922, the residents got their first bill for the new sewer.

Mr. Todd, armed with a petition signed by 80 property owners, declared that when the new sewer was put down the property owners were assured that they would not have to pay a cent. This assurance came from the late Ald. Chas. Moorhead, who represented that ward. It was backed up by the late Ald. Hubert Asplund, then a member of the council.

Did Not Relieve Flooding.

"With the assurance that we would not have to pay for the sewer, we agreed that it should replace the old one," said Mr. Todd.

Other residents pointed out that they were assured that the new sewer would also prevent the flooding which occurs every year, yet since the new sewer has been put down the flooding has been worse.

"It's a farce for this corporation to say and bleed the poor workmen," said Mr. Todd. He called attention to the fact that the sewer, which he had no longer ago about the excessive charge for cleaning the pavement after one of these floods. He was billed for $5.13, and to shut him up someone, he thought an alderman, had sent him the $5.13 in an envelope.

C. A. Mabee, another of the petitioners, has brought up a new phase of the case. Since the sewer was laid he has purchased a house on the street. He was given to understand that the sewer was paid for. There was no way for him to find out that it was not. Now he is being billed for the sewer. He wondered what his position was.

Aged Citizen Protests.

A. McCallum, another resident, says that he has been paying taxes to the city for fifty years. He helped lay the first sewer on the street in 1884, and later paid his ten installments of taxes. Now in his old age, with a limited income, the city loads him with a new sewer, a curb and gutter, a pavement and increases his taxes.

"What chance have I got with my limited income?" asked the aged man.

The whole matter is to be looked into. Absolutely no explanation has been forthcoming so far as to why the bills for the sewer put down in 1916-17 are just being sent out in January, 1922.

WANTS ANOTHER CITY TAX OFFICE

The assessment department of the city has been more or less in the limelight of late, and now another proposal is mooted relating to a proposed change in that department. It is understood that one of the aldermen is to propose that the income department be made a distinct branch of the assessment work, and that it be placed in the hands of Arthur Glass, Mr. Glass now handles that work under Commissioner Grant.

Some of the aldermen are said to lean to the belief that the income tax return to the city can be doubled, if a real effort is put forth and the scheme on foot is to give Mr. Glass the opportunity to see what he can do.

GAS TANKS WILL BE ALLOWED IF
RULES OBEYED

No. 2 Committee To Recommend Installation Under Restrictions.

SAFETY IS DEMANDED

Curb Stations To Be Permitted Only If On Private Property.

Gasoline tanks are to be permitted in the city. This was decided by No. 2 committee of the council on Tuesday night, on the recommendation of the special committee which was authorized to devise some measure of control for the city.

The gasoline tank question has been waiting settlement for three months and has been the occasion of several wordy battles.

Under the new regulations, curb stations are to be permitted only if the tanks containing the gasoline are located on private property and providing the property owners, within a radius of 250 feet of proposed station site, are agreeable. Special legislation must be secured to permit the erection of the tanks on the street.

The committee recommends that all applications, made in writing, must be first passed upon by the fire chief and building inspector.

All tanks must be placed on the applicant's own property and installed according to the bylaw and they must have at least ten feet of earth between them and any other building. This regulation will pertain to tanks of a capacity up to 1,000 gallons and special permits will be issued for larger tanks.

Applicants must also furnish the written consent of a majority of the adjacent property owners for at least a radius of 250 feet from the location of the tank.

A bond will be necessary from all applicants guaranteeing the city against any claims for damages which may arise.

Tanks with visible measuring globes are to be forbidden.

The regulations will go to the council on Monday next.

LAUD SCHEME TO SHIELD INVESTORS

The London Chamber of Commerce has been advised that Premier E. C. Drury and Attorney-General Raney have expressed considerable interest in the city's plan to return the city to its attitude relating to legislation to insure the protection of investors.

It has been decided that a deputation, from the local body should wait upon the premier and the attorney-general and express more fully their views on the subject.

The various western Ontario boards of trade will more than likely be represented as well.

REPORTS $9,600 SPENT ON CITY PLAYGROUNDS

At the regular meeting of the public utilities commission, scheduled for Thursday afternoon, the commissioners will receive an itemized report relative to expenditures in 1921 for public playgrounds to the extent of $9,600.

E. V. Buchanan, director of the park and playground department, points out that the remainder of the city's appropriation of $20,000 was mostly expended for maintenance purposes.

In the future it is expected that the total expenditure figure will be substantially reduced, it being shown that the $9,600 was spent for permanent fixtures including post, tennis courts, swings, lavatories, etc., which should not have to be replaced for years.

SEEKS TO CHANGE GARBAGE SYSTEM

Alderman Douglas Has a Scheme For Greater Efficiency.

A change in the administration of the garbage department with a view of greater efficiency is the object of the proposal of Ald. J. Douglas, though so far he has not revealed all his plans.

The garbage department is now costing the city over $75,000 a year, and Ald. Douglas contends that the city should get a better system for the money involved.

It would seem that a change in the method of administration would bring about the removal of Supt. W. C. Dodd, and there is said to be a plan to turn the garbage collection over to Dr. Downham, medical health department, and would have his two sanitary inspectors do the main work of administration. This would have the effect of cutting down slightly on the cost of administration.

No. 2 committee is to look into various phases of the matter when called together by Ald. Douglas. It may be that tenders for the work will be called and the city will also submit a tender. In this way competitive prices will be secured.

Criticism has been offered because Supt. Dodd summarily dismissed a garbage collector Tuesday afternoon. Some of the aldermen expressed the opinion that the act was hasty.

Supt. Dodd says the man was to go anyway. He was a relief man and the regular man returned to work on Wednesday. However, the careless manner in which the man handled the valuable team was driving a $500 team with a $400 wagon and $95 set of harness, showed he was not fit for the job. He let one of the horses fall and then, when unloading his wagon at the Tidout street breakwater, had the outfit in such a position that the wagon tipped over. Mr. Dodd says that the man was incapable.

Religious Banners Will
Be Hung in London
Schoolrooms

RELIGIOUS instruction and memorization in the public schools will cost at least $210 as the initial expenditure. Banners inscribed with the Ten Commandments, as suggested by the teachers to be hung in the various rooms will cost at least one dollar a piece, the secretary was advised by the wholesalers on Tuesday.

It was proposed that one of these be placed in each school room. With more than 200 rooms this entails a cost of $210. Tenders will be let also for the printing of the various pamphlets containing the selections for the various grades. The cost for this has not been defined as yet.

PLAN CONFERENCE TO CUT EXPENSES

Aldermen Consider Proposal For Departmental Co-operation.

Ald. G. B. Drake has made a definite proposal for a conference of representatives of the different civic committees "to mend any leaks" that may be found in the civic administration.

One place where the alderman thought a saving could be made was in the employment of a city architect. He believed that one architect could do all the work of the city. There are at present two employed.

Ald. Drake also referred to the number of autos owned by the civic departments. He believed that there were rush times when the utilities commission could lend the city some of their cars, and also times when the city could return the complete.

"I think we have got too many cars around anyway," he added. Mayor Wilson opined that it would be found that the utilities commission was most reasonable to work with, and that it would be willing to co-operate in every way.

Ald. Drake wondered if the city couldn't get a mill or so off the tax rate by using the hydro or water surpluses.

Mayor Wilson pointed out that water surpluses could be so used, but not hydro.

TAXED FOR BOTH SIDES OF STREET

Can a man living on one side of a street be billed for sidewalks laid on both sides?

This is the question being asked by James Park, Simcoe street, who lives on the south side of Simcoe street, and walks over to the north side. When he got his bill from the city it read for walks on north and south Simcoe street.

Mr. Park thought this unjust and retained a lawyer to fight his case for him.

JAPANESE STATESMAN DIES IN HIS 84TH YEAR

London, Feb. 1.—Field Marshal Prince Yamagata, one of the few remaining of Japan's "Genro" or elder statesmen, died at his home in Odawara today, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Tokyo. He was in his 84th year.

CHOIR OF FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
STAGE CONCERT

Male Members of Church Organization Provide Minstrel Show.

BURLESQUE ARMY LIFE

End Men Were Worthy Contributors to Enjoyment of Program.

The young men's class, assisted by the male members of the choir of the First Presbyterian Church, presented a minstrel show in the rooms at the rear of the church Tuesday night. The first part of the program was taken up by the minstrel show, which was followed by a humorous sketch of army life.

The part of interlocutor was taken by Ed. S. Crawford, who kept the different parts going the whole time, so that there was not a dull moment from the time the curtain was raised. The four-end men, Rupert Crouch, Ellis Hall, Donald Payne, and Albert Wright, were exceptionally clever. During the various songs and solos, the end men were constantly contributing something on their own, which greatly added to the pleasure of the evening.

That every part of the program was appreciated was evidenced by the repeated calls for encores. Between the minstrel show and the sketch, Gordon Knapp rendered a very enjoyable Jewish monologue.

"An Awkward Squad," a military sketch, in two acts, was a burlesque centered around a recruiting station, and revolved around the following morning. The awkward squad certainly lived up to all traditions of such institutions.

Those taking part in the sketch were: James Brownlee, James Campbell, George Gillespie, Donald Payne, William Garrett and Gordon Knapp.

The Sunday school orchestra provided the music for the evening. Rupert Crouch acted as stage manager, and George C. Lethbridge as musical director.

WOULD PAY FOR GOLDEN STREETS

"If the money the people of West London have paid into the council in taxes was spent on their section they would be able to pave their streets with gold," was the interesting declaration made by Mayor Wilson to No. 2 committee on Tuesday night, during a discussion of the cost of sewerage system extension, having been made to the cost of the large system now under construction in West London.

CLAIMS COMPANY AND MEN NOW ON EQUALITY

"We are on an equal footing with the company now," Ald. John Ashton, a prominent member of the Street Railwaymen's Union explained Wednesday. "Our action yesterday moving to quash our agreement with 60 days notice leaves us in as good a position as the corporation."

Ald. Ashton pointed out that if the men now chose to ask the government for a board of conciliation, nothing could prevent it. "Until now," he said, "the company had a shade the better of us."

East London Merchants Plan Big Bargain Drive Dollar Day

Will Make Strong Bid To Get Share of Shoppers in Their Up-to-the-Minute Places of Business.

ALL THE Dollar Day dollars are not going to escape down town. The merchants of East London are bent on getting their share, and this busy section of Western Ontario's metropolis is making a strong bid to keep their share of the spoils of the day.

Mr. A. Arthur, speaking for the London East merchants, states that the stores whose announcements are on this page will offer exceptional bargains on Dollar Day.

There are real-live-up-to-the-minute merchants east of Adelaide street, and they have the stage set for a big drive tomorrow, London's Big Dollar Day.

They are behind the movement with the down town merchants, and it will be keen going to entice the buyers away from the stores of the eastern section.

The stores of the eastern part of the city are all ready for the big drive. For some days past the merchants have been making a bid for Dollar Day by attractive window displays, and placing their plans before the buyers through the columns of the press.

A glance over this page will convince the east enders that their stores are offering something well worth while.

MOTHER EARTH IS JARRED BY MONSTER QUAKE

Bed of Pacific Ocean Scene of Most Violent Eruption
in Years.

SHOCK WAS LONG ONE

Began Few Minutes After Five and Continued Till
Eight A.M.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The earth, in its dizzying whirl through space, got off center for a few moments today and shifted its "poles" or axis, to fit the new center of rotation.

Then, in order that it might not be traveling on a "flat wheel," so to speak, a few million tons of solid rock, somewhere off the west coast of the United States, in the bed of the Pacific Ocean, "slipped" 100 feet or so to even things up.

This is the manner in which professors of geology and seismographic experts account for the violent earth vibrations which demolished instruments in observatories throughout this country today. Although observers from Washington, D. C., to Berkeley, Cal., agree that it probably was a few hundred miles off the mouth of the Columbia River, the absence of a recorded disruption of the visible surface of the earth or of the huge tidal waves which usually radiate from the scene of an earthquake, leads the observers to believe the "slip" occurred miles below the surface of the ocean. Its violence was attested by the quivering seismographs, which in some instances were thrown from the recording rolls, while a "strong machine" at Berkeley was set in motion for the first time in many years.

LASTED LONG TIME. BERKELEY, Cal., Jan. 31.—A slip of 1½ millimetres in the earth was indicated by the earthquake-recording machines at the University of California today, the center of the disturbance probably being 600 miles northward, and on the floor of the ocean.

The "strong motion" machine at the university, which registers only the heaviest shocks, recorded the quake, while the recording pens on the smaller instruments were thrown off the drums. The shock, which began at 5:13½ a.m. and continued until 8 a.m., was peculiar, university authorities said, in that it began abruptly with a sharp shock instead of minor preliminary ones.

IN PACIFIC OCEAN. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 31.—The earthquake recorded in all parts of the United States and Canada today probably occurred in the Pacific Ocean off the coast of Washington or Oregon, it was said after rough reckoning at Harvard University today.

NO DAMAGE REPORTED. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—Earthquake shocks were felt early today along the Pacific coast from San Francisco to the Canadian line, according to reports received here. No damage was reported. Dr. Humphreys, the weather bureau's earthquake specialist, reported at 11 o'clock that the tremors still were continuing, but had greatly diminished in intensity.

OTTAWA FELT SHOCK. OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—The earthquake was registered on the seismograph at the Dominion Observatory this morning.

"A fairly severe earthquake shock," reads the official note of the record, "was registered. The first preliminary tremors arrived at 8:24:30, eastern time. The distance to the epicentre was 3,900 kilometres, or 2,429 miles. The time of the disturbance at the epicentre was 8:17:19, eastern standard time."

Earnings are more than 200 centuries old. Edison produced the first practical electric lamp in 1879.

LONDON'S LARGEST HOMEFURNISHERS

Alert and Woodstock Wins Give the Latter Junior Group Title

LOCALS SHOWED SPLENDID FORM

6-0 Score Indicates Edge They Had.

INGERSOLL OUTCLASSED

STANDING.	W.	L.	For.	Agst.
Woodstock	6	3	26	23
Tillsonburg	4	3	24	31
Alerts	4	3	24	31
Ingersoll	2	5	16	42
Drumbo	2	5	16	42

The Alert Juniors turned the hockey machine of the Tillsonburg Pan-Drieds upside down and saw what made the wheels go round last night out at the "Green" rink, and in the process registered a 6 to 0 win. Drawing this blank put a big spoke in the Pan-Dried aspirations for group honors, and, on the form of the two teams last night, the Alerts ought to come very close to winning right in Tillsonburg.

The visitors made their big effort in the first period. After Totten beat the puck from ten feet away at six minutes the yellow-clad crew made a mistake.

London added two more in the second period, Totten slipping from wing over to center for a clean tally in thirteen minutes and Trickett circling the visiting defence from a face-off in the last minute of the period for London's third.

The first twelve minutes of the third was listless, both goalies taking it easy and the locals contenting themselves with cruising around and picking off lazy passes. Totten started things well for London's fourth counter. Both teams took a spurt and started things a-courting. Granger and Auld, both redheads, met in a head-on collision in mid-ice and full career, and each took the count, crashing through the netting to the dressing-room with a badly gashed head. At seventeen minutes Granger intercepted a pass and went in on a wide-open goal for London's fifth. Wilcox in another minute went through alone for the round half dozen.

The line-ups: Alerts: Totten, Granger, Barrett, Centre, Wilcox, Valdes, R. Wing, Wilcox, Pollard, L., Tucker, Eichenberg, Subs, Cowell, Beasley, C. Armstrong, London.

WINNERS ON RAMPAGE.
WOODSTOCK, Jan. 31.—The local Juniors played sensational hockey to-night and defeated the Ingersoll lads in a junior O. H. A. fixture by 6 to 0. Considering that the ice was sticky after the first fifteen minutes of play, the combination and all-around playing of the locals was above the ordinary. The work of Sutton of Woodstock was a revelation to the spectators. He netted goals from all angles, came in fast on rebounds, and was always on his wing to take the pass. Harrington, Nee in on the defensive also played stellar hockey. For the visitors Hutt at center and Daniels on defence both goal were best. A pass from Bond to Sutton netted Woodstock's first in six minutes. Then Lynch went through on Nee and beat him early in two minutes. One minute later Roadhouse scored from left wing, a long shot that Nee did not see. The period ended 2 to 0.

In the second period the locals netted but one goal, a pretty two-man effort by Harrington and Bond resulted in the former netting from close in. In the third period Sutton scored his brace, while Harrington added two to his credit.

The line-up: Woodstock: Lynch, Daniels, Goal, Harrington, Jackson, Nee, R. Wing, Sutton, Hutt, Centre, Bond, McMillan, L. Wing, Roadhouse, Huntley, Subs, O'Bright, Ledley, Collins.

CLASSICS of the DIAMOND
BY BILLY EVANS.
Tom Hughes, who pitched in both the American and National Leagues, says he believes he pulled the costliest wise practical joke on any player in the history of the game.

It so happened that Tom pulled his bit of repartee at the expense of an umpire who didn't appreciate his humor. That is why the monologue proved so costly.

"It was back in 1911," says Tom, "that it cost me about $5 a word to express myself to Umpire Klem. 'The Yankees and the Giants were playing a post-season series. I was with the Yankees. Ford and Mathewson were the pitchers. Ford was using the new ball at the time, and he was a hard pitcher for an umpire to work behind. 'Klem was umpiring the plate, and Ford, who was pitching, was taking considerable exceptions to Klem's rulings. It was the first time Klem had seen Ford pitch. 'Knowing that Klem is rather sensitive, yet desiring to say something unkind, I hit upon a bit of sarcasm. Walking past him on my way from the coaching lines to the bench, I said: 'Ford must have a lot of stuff to lay Mr. Klem.' 'What makes you think so?' asked the umpire. 'Because you are missing so many in him,' I answered. 'That will cost you twenty-five for he thinking,' said Klem. 'And what is worse, the fine went.'"

GIVE FREIGHT EXCHANGE.

W. O. R. Wins In Overtime Game

Defeats R. C. R. 6 To 5 In Garrison Hockey Openers.

1st W. O. R. beat R. C. R.'s in the opening game of the Garrison Hockey League at the barracks rink last night, after going into ten minutes overtime for the verdict.

It looked bad for the militiamen, with the score 3 to 0 against them at the end of the first period. 1st W. O. R.'s edged up to a 3 to 0 position in the second, and the full time going found the score tied at 4-4. The militiamen scored a goal in the first five minutes, and each added tallies in the second. Wood and Rankin were the stars for the winners, Ryan and Hyman, the defence men of the regulars, were the best they had.

The line-ups: 1st W. O. R.: Hollinshead, Goal, Topham, Ryan, Defence, Smith, Murray, Richard, Centre, F. Chantler, Howard, Wings, O. Morris, Paulmire, Subs, Wood, Curran, Subs, Rankin, Hiesell.

Referee—Corp. Stillwell.

Off the Boards

London Alerts have three grounds to enter a protest on the St. Thomas game. In the second period, Loughheed pushed the puck into the net. The goal judge allowed London a counter, claiming the puck hit the back of the net. Then Kinkler's refereeing was far from first class. The winning goal was scored in a scramble in front of Reuter. St. Thomas goalie and when about fifteen feet from him shot. The goal judge allowed London a counter, claiming the puck hit the back of the net.

London peppered the St. Thomas goal during the last five minutes of play. The shots were aimed all right but had a great big elevation. One of them caught Hamilton on the forehead and he stands over six feet. Gilles and McKay's shots were exceptionally fast and high.

One St. Thomas fan asked where London imported Murray from. The answer came that St. Thomas wanted to watch out for London would have Desjardines next winter.

Incidentally "Fronche" Desjardines is just about the best player St. Thomas has. He is a hard worker and never takes "no" for an answer.

To look at Reuter during the first and second periods one would think he was playing cricket instead of hockey. Through some manner his big pads got left in London and he had to be content with a pair that hardly came to his knees.

Then when he got his big pads St. Thomas put two in. It was no fault of Reuter's because one was a fluke and the other a nice bit of work by Desjardines and Baldwin.

St. Thomas got the first counter at one minute. Murray and Loughheed had the puck and were coming up the ice. Campbell went between them and got the puck. Nothing was in his way but Reuter and he was outgassed.

Murray tied the count a minute after by going completely through the St. Thomas team. He followed the puck right into the nets too, and was prepared for a rebound.

Burgess put London ahead at four minutes when he sent a rounder towards the nets which Hamilton didn't see. McKay and Gilles rushed for London's third goal with the former scoring. It was the best bit of combination the locals showed during the whole night.

St. Thomas looked like a group-winning team Monday night. They had plenty of combination and every player checked his man. These were big factors in their victory.

Now London's cry is "On to the Senior Northern Championship."

HARRISTON'S SPIEL IS AWAY TO START

STRATFORD'S 12-3 WIN DOESN'T MATTER NOW

STRATFORD, Jan. 31.—Stratford Intermediates wound up their group games by beating New Hamburg, 12 to 3, tonight. The game had no bearing on the group championship, as Kitchener has the group clinched. Stratford was easily best and led at every period, 2 to 0, 6 to 1 and 12 to 3.

GRAND TRUNK AND CIVIL SERVICE WIN

Referee Legg Banishes Four Players From Games—Crowd Small.

A small crowd turned out to see the Manufacturers' League games in Westminster rink last night, but nevertheless there was plenty of pep in the teams, and two fairly good games resulted. Grand Trunk won their opening clash against Bell Telephone by a 6 to 4 verdict, and Civil Service gave London Motors their second defeat by a 3 to 1 score.

MANUFACTURERS' LEAGUE.

Standing.	Won.	Lost.	For.	Agst.
McClarys	3	0	16	3
G. T. R.	3	0	11	7
Civil Service	2	1	8	7
London Motors	3	2	20	14
Ferrins	2	2	11	5
Standard Drug	1	2	9	17
Bell Telephone	1	4	12	23
Jones & Sons	0	4	5	16

Referee Bill Legg had a busy night of it too. He banished Pring and Wilcox from the first game when they mixed it at the beginning of the third period. Then after five minutes of the first period of the closing game had passed Bill Lightfoot and Roy McKay were sent from the ice for the rest of the game. He was good and free in handing out penalties after this, and some of them didn't kick meet with the approval of the crowd.

Bill checked Gilles and Burgess hard in their game, and this was a big factor in keeping the score down. The Posties should have won their mix by a much bigger margin. They had the best skaters and attackmen on the ice but McLean in goal, Archie McKay and McBurny proved to be too much in the way of defence.

The teams: Bell Telephone, G. T. R., Bryant, Goal, Defence, Pring, Pymman, Gilles, Wilcox, Centre, Goddard, Hatfield, Wing, Hicks, King.

Referee—Bill Legg. London Motors. Watson, Goal, Defence, Wilson, Chown, Defence, Wilcox, Cooney, Centre, R. McKay, Lightfoot, Wing, A. McKay, Morrison, Defence, Adair.

Altrock Tells How He Came To Pitch First Game of 1906 Series

BY NICK ALTROCK.
THAT is the greatest ball game I ever pitched? It's been so long since I pitched that a lot of people probably have forgotten I ever earned my living that way.

I have pitched a lot of ball games in my career and a few good ones. However, in my memory one game stands out above all others, the first game of the 1906 world series.

Fandom will recall that the Chicago White Sox won the pennant that year. The evening session was opened by music from the Harriston Citizens' Band.

CHAMPIONS MEET KITCHENER NEXT

URGE CHURCHES TO TURN DOWN CATHOLIC PLEA

Woodstock Orangemen Succeed in Rousing Interest of Ministers.

PETITION IN CIRCULATION

Only Between One and Two Hundred Names Yet Secured.

WOODSTOCK, Jan. 31.—The Protestant clergy of Woodstock are expected to take a hand in the controversy regarding the share of corporate taxes allotted to separate schools. At a meeting of the ministerial association, the whole subject was discussed, and the result will be seen next Sunday, when the ministers will ask their congregations to sign a petition asking the government to refuse any further tax concessions for separate schools.

Several of the pastors here, including Rev. Dr. L. B. Gibson of Knox Church, president of the ministerial association, and prominent members of the local Orange Lodges, are pressing the matter as far as they possibly can in an endeavor to create a strong body of public opinion behind the petition.

File Plea With Drury.
The following is the text of the petition.
"To the prime minister and members of the Legislature of Ontario:
"Whereas the Roman Catholic bishops of Ontario have made representations to the government of the province that the assessment act should be amended so as to divide the school taxes paid by incorporated companies between the public and separate schools on the basis of population.
"And, whereas, the granting of such demands would compel Protestant taxpayers to contribute to the Roman Catholic separate schools and thereby pay for the teaching of the Roman Catholic religion.
"And, whereas, such a division of the school taxes as proposed by the Roman Catholic bishops would deprive the public non-sectarian school system of its legitimate and necessary revenues thereby seriously impairing the efficiency of the public school system.

"And, whereas, under the existing act, all the school taxes that can be shown to be derived from taxable property in the possession of the Roman Catholics now goes to the support of the Roman Catholic separate schools.

"Therefore, your petitioners humbly pray that no such change shall be made in the assessment act, and, further, that no additional concessions of any kind shall be made to sectarian schools in this province, and your petitioners will ever pray."

Orange Order Active.
At this meeting the Orangemen tried to line up the clergy to shoulder the responsibility of circulating the petition by getting their church members to take it in hand, but there was some opposition to this proposal and a compromise was reached whereby the ministers agreed to simply put the matter before the people at their regular church services.

On Sunday, in accordance with this agreement, the petition was put before the citizens in seven out of the eight leading Protestant churches in the city, the remaining minister declining to accept the agreement without first having more information on the matter.

When seen today Homer B. Neely, county treasurer of the county of Oxford, Orange Lodge, said the movement was a provincial one. "There is going to be a scrap," he said, "before this matter is settled, and we must get into it if we are going to have any chance of success. It is a matter of vital importance that this petition should be largely signed, and I think the ministers of the city are the men who can do a great deal to help us in getting it signed."

The local ministers, with the exception of one, said they were supporting the petition, and had done so in their public utterances on Sunday. Rev. Dr. L. B. Gibson, president of the Ministerial Association, and pastor of Knox Church, was out of the city today, but on Sunday he spoke very strongly in support of the petition.

A Much-Needed Step.
Rev. D. Wallace Christie, pastor of Chalmers Presbyterian Church, said: "I asked my people on Sunday to sign the petition because I feel that it is a much-needed step in the right direction. There must be no concessions to the separate school supporters. The petition must be provincial-wide in its scope, however, before it can have the desired effect."

Rev. Mr. Heslop of the Dundas Street Methodist Church also read the petition on Sunday, and urged his congregation to sign it. "The Catholic Church, in having separate schools," he said today, "is really being given a special privilege, and that privilege should not be extended."

The attitude taken by the clergy has stirred up considerable interest in this city. Before Sunday the matter had been arousing little comment here outside of the members of the Orange order.

Bennett Protests Election of Calgary Independent Labor Man

CALGARY, Jan. 31.—A petition of protest against the election of Joseph T. Shaw, Independent Labor member of Parliament for the federal riding of West Calgary, was filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court of Alberta today by Hon. R. B. Bennett, who was declared defeated after a recount by District Court Judge Winter, by a majority of 16 votes.

The petition was filed on the last day possible under the time limit of 28 days, as laid down by the Dominion elections act. Mr. Shaw's election was proclaimed in the Canada Gazette of Jan. 3. The protest will be considered by two judges of the Supreme Court of Alberta, selected by the judges of that court. The appeal from their decision is direct to the Supreme Court of Canada.

MORNING FIRE DAMAGES WINDSOR PLANT $15,000

WINDSOR, Jan. 31.—Damage that may reach $15,000 was caused to the plant of the Leggett & Platt Spring Bed and Manufacturing Co., 928 McDougall street, by a fire which broke out at 1:50 o'clock this morning. Workmen who were doing repair work in an enamelling oven at that hour stated that it started when a flash of flame spurted from the oven and ignited loose material which was saturated with grease and inflammable substances.

Windsor firemen fought the fire for more than two and a half hours. They put up a stiff fight, and managed to keep the blaze confined to the wire storage warehouse and the enamelling department.

A remedy would be found, he said, in a general reduction of outgo and increase of income.

SEIZES WHISKEY AT DOCK

Customs Officer Makes Two Hauls From New Cars in Week.

WINDSOR, Jan. 31.—Six ten-gallon kegs of whiskey, two cases of creme de menthe, and an assortment of imported liquors and brandies, all of which is valued at $4,000, were stolen today from the residence of F. J. Kirsch, Riverside. Kirsch, who is in California, left his caretaker in charge of his home. Both liquor and caretaker are missing.

Windsor Customs Officer Kelly's "nose" for liquor resulted in the arrest of Clifford Stasser, 3722 Sixth street, Detroit, tonight, at the ferry dock.

Kelly, who twice within a week has made seizures of whiskey, takes his "hunch" from new automobiles. But we'll gamble they will be sold in three hours' time. Stasser was about to drive onto the ferry boat, when Kelly demanded to "see what you have got." Search revealed six cases of liquor, every bottle bearing the label of "Quebec Liquor Commission," under the false bottom of the car. Stasser was taken to headquarters and later released on bail of $500. His car has been confiscated.

The parcel was immediately brought to the police station, where it was handed over to Sergeant Ketchabaw. How the dynamite found its way into his yard Robillard is at a loss to say.

DEADLY 'FLU RAGING AGAIN

Anxiety in London, Paris and New York over spread of this disease.

Are we to have another epidemic of influenza, such as spread consternation and left a trail of death throughout Canada in 1918?

There is a tremendous amount of influenza in London and Paris, while New York is awaking to the fact that the dreaded 'flu is showing a dangerous increase in the number of cases reported. Health Commissioner R. S. Cope land says: "Influenza is occurring at a rate considerably above thirty cases a day. This is the same disease that we suffered in 1918, and is just as deadly at present, the only difference being that it is not epidemic." The same precautions should be observed now as in 1918. Avoid crowded and over-heated places. Sleep with the window open, stomach clean and the bowels regular by taking an effervescent saline, such as Abbey's Effervescent Salt.

COMPARES CITY TAX RATE WITH OTHER PLACES

Gordon Philip Addresses the Members of London Advertising and Sales Club.

Rev. T. S. Roy Presents Views of Church On Advertising.

Members of the London Advertising and Sales Club banqueting at the Tecumseh House Tuesday night, heard speeches from Gordon Philip and Rev. T. S. Roy, and discussed from the retailers' standpoint "What we can do to better business in 1922."

A number of musical numbers were interspersed with the speeches. Gordon Philip, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, spoke first. He explained that his work was really the advertising of London. "There is in London a tendency on the part of some individuals to complain of the tax rate," said Mr. Philip, and proceeded to show to the club members, in graphic form, the status of London in assessment and tax rate, as compared with other cities of the Dominion. Two large graphs were brought out by Mr. Philip, which he said he had received from E. V. Buchanan of the Public Utilities Commission. They showed by comparison with other cities of the Dominion, that from 1911 to 1921, London had had the lowest assessment rate of any city in Canada, with the exception of St. John. The assessment rate dealt with was the per capita rate. A really low tax rate per capita was shown during the same period by the second graph. Mr. Philip also read the percentage increase in population, inland revenue returns and bank clearings during the ten years in London, to prove that London had not been governed by a "spend-thrift administration as some of the calamity howlers would have people believe." The complaints came "from a class that make themselves heard a great deal more than their importance and numbers justify."

The Rev. T. S. Roy spoke of the attitude towards advertising of the church today. "The main thing about advertising is to create a desire for something." At present the need of the church was advertising which would create a desire to go to church in the people who didn't go. Mr. Roy declared it was his conviction that "the man who is a church-going man is an asset for every merchant in the city. The first thing that happens when a man straightens up morally is that he becomes an asset to the community."

"When a man's moral life is toned up, his whole life is also toned up," declared the speaker, and went on to point out that merchants failed to realize the business that missionary endeavor stimulated, by the creation of desires in the natives of heathen lands, desires for the essentials of a more advanced civilization. The demands for the products from the newly-converted natives stimulated business.

Mr. Roy thought that it would be good business policy if the retail advertisers would advertise the church in a small way in some of their ads.

The speaker lauded the slogan of the Advertising Club, namely truth. Truth is the heart of everything even of the earth itself, said Mr. Roy, and by the slogan of truth could the advertisers change the cynic and make him a believer not only in their business but in every man's business.

George Clark, who presided at the meeting after a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Roy, on behalf of the club extended to Mr. Roy the wish that he would have unbounded success in his new charge, and paid tribute to the speaker as a man who had been loved and admired during his stay in London.

The choir of the Hill Street Baptist Church gave several choruses and songs, following the conclusion of the speech of the Rev. Mr. Roy, which were greatly appreciated.

After that the meeting was thrown open for discussion on problems of the advertisers and the retailers and "what we can do to better business in 1922." Walter Gunn led the discussion and George Clark, George Dingman, Thomas Yull, T. R. Elliot, Alex. Purdom, C. W. Beard, W. R. Jarman, Miss Margaret Wade and Mrs. Kathleen Bowker also gave three minute speeches. Mr. Gunn pointed out how the cycle of business involving the manufacturer, the wholesaler, the jobber and the retailer centered mainly on the retailer who reached the ultimate consumer. He spoke of the best manner of dressing the goods by the manufacturer for display purposes, how faulty merchandise killed advertising and other matters of interest to the advertisers. The ideas of Mr. Gunn were voiced in a similar vein by the other speakers. All were in accord that optimism as to business during the next few months would materially help business conditions.

CHAMBERLAIN'S

that enjoys a world-wide reputation as a prompt and sure relief for coughs, colds and croup. It is good for the deep-seated cough of an adult. It is good for the persistent cough following grippe or influenza. It is excellent for coughs, colds and croup in children. Keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy by you—it is a friend in need.

35c and 65c.

COUGH REMEDY

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. It is made easily and quickly. Saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex in a 16-oz. bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make 16 ounces—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better than Pinex at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

The nerves are made strong and healthy. The blood purified and made pure. Sold by every druggist in every town.

PLANS NEW RINK AT THAMESVILLE

Thamesville, Jan. 31.—A meeting was held in the town hall here tonight for the purpose of discussing plans for the erection of a community hall and skating rink. After much discussion a committee composed of the following was appointed to secure plans and ascertain ways of financing the project: L. Davidson, J. O. Puhell, D. E. Wallace, John Vance, John Buchanan, S. Wardell, Wm. McKenzie.

While no definite plans have as yet been decided upon, it is likely that a fine new rink with an ice surface of 160x60 feet, club rooms and a large dance hall will be erected during the coming summer.

JEWTRAW ACCUSED OF BEATING STARTER'S GUN

Saranac Lake, N.Y., Jan. 31.—Only one of the two senior events on the national outdoor skating championships was finished today, and even the result of that—the 220-yards dash—was in dispute. After the contest the claim was made that Charles Jewtraw of Lake Placid, who finished first, had a foot and a half ahead of the signal gun at the start. The dispute will be settled later by the judges and John Harding, the referee.

While no definite plans have as yet been decided upon, it is likely that a fine new rink with an ice surface of 160x60 feet, club rooms and a large dance hall will be erected during the coming summer.
