

NEWS OF MIDDLESEX

License Insp. Liquor C.

(From our Simcoe, Nov. 22.)—A month returned after cleaning-up some time down sized on the last Danville, was Price, of the fined $200 and the Victoria House wine fermented into a faulty and decanted from the same sion having test concluded likewise was dropped. A Keating's case was deferred till Dec. 10. It will no doubt be the nominal $200 here, too, judging from the evidence.

While at Danville, the Inspector saw the first public drunk for months, arrested, sobered up, tried by the magistrate and hiked out of town for the county goal on a three months' sentence because he would not tell where, how or by what means he got the dope—and the whole episode within two hours and a half, or about the time one usually waits for court to open here after the hour announced. Well possibly a little longer. Figuring it up, Inspector Edmunds is gathering in more than his salary and expects to make a big haul soon through an action against Carlings for selling over-strength goods within his over-strength.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in solution. This phosphate is the most powerful cleanser, sweeter and purifier of the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

MISS TURNER TO SPEAK ON ZENANAS

Noted Speaker is Cordially Endorsed By H.R.H. the Duchess of Connaught.

Miss Turner, the honorary deputation secretary of the Zenana Medical and Bible Mission of India, is to lecture in Victoria Hall, this city, on the 24th inst. The following is a letter from the Duchess of Connaught highly commending her work:

Government House, Ottawa, May, 1915.

Dear Miss Turner: I have spoken to Her Royal Highness about the talk we had, when you came to Government House the other day. Her Royal Highness desires me to express to you, as honorary deputation secretary of the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission, her great hope that you will meet with a generous response to your appeal for funds in this country.

As president of the mission, and also having lived for so many years of her life in India, Her Royal Highness fully realizes the admirable work which the mission fulfills. During this terrible war its work must needs be increasingly heavy, as there will be so many young widows and orphans of the Indian soldiers who will be left unprotected and unprotected for. I hope you will forgive me for not having written sooner, but have also been busy in many ways.

Yours sincerely, DOROTHY YORK. Lady in waiting

Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught follows this letter with a handsome donation, which was received, viz. 1916, just before she left the country.

CURTAIN MENUS SAYS RUNCIMAN

President of British Board of Trade Demands Less Xmas Cheer.

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Nov. 23.—Walter Runciman, president of the Board of Trade, addressing a meeting of leading London hotelkeepers, demanded an immediate curtailment of menus. He declared that there must be an immediate and drastic cutting down and a decrease in the use of imported foods. "I have the sense," he said, "a specimen of a Christmas menu which is being circulated, as an advertisement by a leading London hotel. Such an elaborate program would be wasteful even in peace times and is little short of scandalous in war time. Such a situation cannot be allowed. All menus must be cut down and there must be one or two plain and meatless days weekly. There must be an immediate decrease in the use of imported foods. Waste is especially noticeable in the use of expensive sauces and appetizers. If the trade interests will not take the necessary action, the government must force them to do so."

Pumping Out Goldfish

The large stone quarries at Amherstburg, which are being pumped free of water by Captain F. J. Trotter's wrecking pumps, are about emptied, and work will start in a few days by the Sobay Process Co. of Detroit in getting out some fine block stone for building purposes. The quarry holes are filled with gold fish, which sell at fancy prices in cities. These fish come right through the big steam pumps and go along the ditches to the big screw, where the muddy water kills them.

Send Soldiers Camphor

A man who has had a great deal of experience in the lumber shanties of Canada and has suffered something of the tortures undergone by overseas troops from small visitors which infect their underclothes, advises the use of camphor. The particular sort of insect pest indicated responds readily to an invitation to get out if it is accompanied by a good whiff of camphor. So send a package of gum camphor in your next parcel to the front.

Can't Get Goods

Can't get goods in the Dominion are becoming scarcer. In previous years when the pack was short there was usually a large carry-over, but this year the carry-over was very light. Meanwhile the pack, so far as can be gathered, is lighter than was at first expected.

Not Enough Apples

Reports from prairie markets, says British Columbia Fruit and Farm, indicate that the demand for apples this year will exceed the supply.

THE SITUATION

The Teutons are steadily maintaining their pressure against the Roumans, and the foe has taken more ground on both sides of the Alt river.

The Serbs, in conjunction with French troops, are still coming back in a most marked manner. They are successfully pressing the attack along the whole north front of Monastir, and have taken more villages and heights and over one thousand prisoners.

Bad weather has stopped operations along the Italian front and there is no disclosure as to what Russian troops have recently been doing.

The Earl of Derby, under secretary of war, said yesterday during an interview with a representative of the Associated Press:

"The allies cannot entertain any idea of peace which does not give them what they are fighting for. The allies have not modified their position in this respect."

"I believe anyone who understands the temper of the British people will agree with me that they have shown no signs of weakening, but, on the contrary, are growing more determined to continue the war to a satisfactory conclusion."

The Earl also voiced the opinion with regard to the probable length of hostilities that "only a fool would prophesy."

MR. COCKSHUTT IN HAMILTON.

At the annual banquet of the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade, held in Hamilton on Tuesday night, Sir George Foster was to have been the chief speaker.

"The Dominion member for Brantford maintained his high reputation as a public speaker, his subject being Canada. In commencement, he referred in complimentary terms to the splendid way in which Hamilton had entertained the associated boards of trade."

VOTES FOR WOMEN

The suffragettes of Ontario are busily circulating petitions which will fall upon the Provincial Legislature at next session like an avalanche.

Without any doubt, there are a large number of women who do not desire the ballot. This class would stick to the domestic sphere in which by the laws of nature they reign pre-eminently, leaving the burly burly of politics to the sterner sex.

It is equally certain that another large class of feminines eagerly desire the chance to have their say in the polling booths and ultimately to get into the Legislatures.

For some years now the other matters and windows in this and other municipalities, have been recording the privilege of voting in City Council and money-by-law matters, and the plan has worked very well indeed.

All the general indications show that a general extension of this state of affairs to the wider field is just about on the tapis.

There may be some setbacks, but the thing is sure to happen in the long run.

a coward. We had too much at stake; we could not afford—I speak advisedly—to keep out of this war. (Applause) What does it mean? Prussian victory means that all the lights along the shore, lighted through weary ages by our sturdy forefathers, would be put out—the clock of time would be turned back four or five hundred years. Canada could not afford to stay out of this war.

"The British empire to-day is fighting for her very existence. Two years ago men would have told you that we were at war because of a scrap of paper or because an Austrian prince was murdered in the Balkans, but I tell you we are fighting for our life, for our race, for our empire. Therefore I beseech you to do our bit, and those who have not done to the front have their bit to do at home—and it is quite a considerable bit, too—more than we are doing at present."

I think our government is too timid. I am of the opinion that the country would stand much more drastic dealing than it is getting at present in the matter of recruiting, control of food supplies, finances, shipping, transportation, etc.

"We have 375,000 soldiers recruited in Canada. A year ago, almost, we told Britain that we would give half a million men for the cause. Our boys are falling at the front, and we are getting the men. What are we going to do? This country, especially in this district, is ready for more drastic legislation along recruiting lines, and the same with regard to our finances. We are rolling in wealth here."

"This war is not over, yet—the terms of peace have not been decided upon yet, and to talk of peace, with the enemy going as strong as he is at present, is idle, in my opinion. We will have to do more and more, perhaps in prosperity which has spoiled us in this Dominion."

Col. Cockshutt said a high tribute to the Indians of the Dominion, who have given over one thousand soldiers in Britain's cause. He said that the first man to fall in the war was a member of the Indian race, while another descendant was recently awarded the Military Cross.

The speaker mildly criticized those who were making all kinds of plans for the time when peace sets in. "My mind is so fully engrossed in the war and its problems that I have neither the time nor the inclination to consider the after-war questions. It reminds me of the man whose house is on fire and who is working with the help of his family. Then some poor fool comes up and asks, 'How are you going to build after the fire?' Our house is on fire, boys. Every time the clock goes round twice, the British empire is spending twenty-five million dollars to put the fire out, not including the four million tons of shipping at the bottom of the seas with their cargoes, and more than all, the flower of our manhood, who are diving for us on the plains of France."

"Canada's trade figures are simply astounding in these times of war, during the present year. If it keeps up during the next two months, Canada will show trade figures of two billions of dollars, or double the best figures preceding the war. For the first time in twenty-five years we have had a trade balance in our favor. We are on the right lines, but we should have been there long ago."

"I believe that Canada is ready to stand anything that a conscientious government deems is necessary to a successful conduct of the war."

With regard to the settlement of the war, Col. Cockshutt said that in his opinion those who had borne the brunt of the struggle should have the say in the peace terms. "I believe in the old motto, 'He that will not work, shall not eat,' and in the same way, regarding our neighbors south of the border, those that will not fight shall not say. I believe that Canada will have voice in the affairs of the empire which she never had previously."

NOTES AND COMMENT

The Serbs are not only coming back, but also going forward, which is much more to the purpose.

Villa bandits have killed six more American citizens in Mexico. Meanwhile, Uncle Sam's capture of that worthy has been indefinitely postponed.

By this time the eyes of the potatoes must be bulging over the price paid for them.

A hotel man in Belle River was fined $200 for having a bottle of biters on his premises. No question about the bitter part of it.

President Wilson in sending a message of condolence with regard to the death of the Emperor of Austria states that he regards it as worthy with "sentiments of high esteem and regard." Woodrow must be a man of peculiar tastes.

MAY BE HARI-KARI FOR LIBERALS

(Toronto Illustrated Courier) There are rumours in the air that the Liberal party proposed to commit 'hari kari' next year. It seems almost incredible to an old stager like myself that any group of public men should deliberately march to political death down a road which they have twice trod to that undesirable consummation within my own memory.

But persistence is not a virtue that this is precisely what they are bent on doing; and all the surface signs of the situation point to the same dark issue. The astonishing rumour is that the Liberal party proposes to refuse its support this next session of Parliament to a further extension of the life of that body, and so precipitate a general election in Canada during the most critical period of a great war—a war in which the very existence of the British Empire and the independence of Canada are at stake.

That will mean, of course, an Old Flag election. If the Liberal party takes the responsibility of forcing a dissolution of Parliament in wartime, they cannot possibly escape the responsibility of applying this method of a life-and-death struggle in which Liberals and Conservatives are dying daily, in the side by side, and the boys on the Somme do not know whether they are Liberal or Conservative.

Canadian soldiers fighting for the greatest cause in history—viz., human liberty—against the most insidious of all enemies, the Hun, are being killed by a nation of blood-drunk bullies. But an election in Canada, thrusting ballots into their eyes, would be tantamount to a stab in the back.

Canada's trade figures are simply astounding in these times of war, during the present year. If it keeps up during the next two months, Canada will show trade figures of two billions of dollars, or double the best figures preceding the war.

With regard to the settlement of the war, Col. Cockshutt said that in his opinion those who had borne the brunt of the struggle should have the say in the peace terms.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mr. Geo. Howey and hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. Jas. Fields of Vanessa had theerals will have the true patriotic issue. They will criticize the conduct of the war. Does any sensible person really imagine that they can get by with that? We are all criticizing the conduct of the war—we all know things that could have been done better—but is there any God-given military genius among the Liberals to whom the people will turn in the midst of war to save us from mistakes? As Kitchener might carry a military genius among the Liberals against a 'Pacifist Government; but certainly not one civilian Government against another. It is also suggested that they will attack 'war-graft.' Again, we are all attacking 'war graft.' The present Government would have to discredit the work of its own commissions to deny that there has been 'war graft.' But will the Liberal front bench come into court with such clean records that the people will believe that their sole purpose in precipitating an election in war time is to put an end to 'graft'? Go to.

No; the naked fact will stand out from any reticence by the Liberals to support an extension of the life of the present Parliament—that they have compelled a party fight in Canada in the midst of a world-war. The callous, partisan, selfish unpatriotism of that course will be THE ISSUE of the elections; and the voters will be a most doubtful as to what the people will do to the party responsible for this crime against the nation against the Empire, against the Allied cause. The party which deliberately invited the nation to pronounce judgment on its conduct in forcing a war election will be a long period before resurrection. No party can afford to be beaten by the Old Flag three times in one generation.

And I would advise early choosing. Watch this space Wednesday.

British Plantation Rubber Saving Canada Millions

Prices of Rubbers and Overshoes to Britain's Control of Situation

In Canada many of us have fallen into the Anglo-Saxon habit of considering the "Mother Countries" slow and a bit behind the times.

Thanks to great rubber plantations established in her tropical Dominions, Great Britain at the outbreak of the war held a firm and tightening grip on the world's supply of raw rubber—a grip secured by her dominating navy.

The result has been that the needs of the Allies, none though they are, have been plentifully supplied, while Germany has been reduced to registration and the "Deutschland" in desperate attempts to mitigate her rubber famine.

It is this foresight and generosity of the British Government in reason why rubber alone, of all the great staples, has come up in price—why rubbers and overshoes, in spite of the cost of fabric, chemicals and labor, are as inexpensive as ever.

Prize Winners at Brant County Poultry Show

Success Again Waits Upon This Annual Event, Held This Week With Large Number of Entries of the Very Highest Quality.

The selection of the prize winners at the annual show of the Brantford and Brant County Poultry and Pet Stock Association was concluded last night after the most successful event of its kind in point of quality especially, that was ever held in this city. The entry list did not equal that of some other years but the class to exhibits was splendid. In all there were about seven hundred entries, and among these there were many, which although unable to secure a prize here, had done so in larger shows, thus testifying to the general merit of the local birds.

Mr. L. G. Jarvis, of Grimsby, who acted as judge has been connected with the raising of poultry for many years, and is fully competent to act in that capacity, having a wide knowledge of all ranges of fowl.

The Rhode Island Reds, as a class were undoubtedly the best exhibit in the show and were especially worthy of mention. The exhibit of "New Cobs" White Rocks by Cook Bros. of Drumbo was also the centre of attraction for admirers of that specie.

Among the larger exhibitors were Messrs Orr and Creedon and Lawrence of Brantford, Cockburn and Son of Dundas, Coleman of Burlington, Bottrell and Son of Bowmanville, Robert Houser of Camboro and C. E. Smith of Scotland.

The special prizes were secured as follows:

Lawrence and Gardner for the best colored bird in the show, taken by their single comb Rhode Island Red pullet; Orr and Creedon for best cock, hen, cockerel and pullet in show, taken by their exhibit of Brown Leghorns; best female of the class offered by Mr. Cook of Drumbo with a White Rock bird; the prize for the best male bird was secured by J. W. Shields of Hamilton, with a White Orpington cock; the silver cup offered for the best washed exhibit was taken in by J. Cook, of Drumbo; the single comb white Leghorns of Mr. N. Robins of Brantford, took the prize for the best cock, hen, cockerel and pullet in the show.

Aside from the poultry there was also a splendid showing of pet stock including some very fine Belgian Hare and Angora rabbits. The guinea fowl and pigeons were very well represented.

An unfortunate circumstance which marred the otherwise clear success of the event was the loss of a valuable pheasant hen, the property of Mr. Thos Raines. The bird, which was valued at $25, died the second night of the show.

THE PENNY BANK SYSTEM

Toronto, Nov. 18, 1916
A. K. Bunnell,
Secretary School Board,
Brantford, Ont.

Dear Mr. Bunnell:—As you are probably aware, the Dominion Government has asked the Bankers' Association to co-operate with them in a campaign for thrift throughout the country. The Bankers' Association appointed a sub-committee to work out the details and assist in the work which is so largely a campaign of education. We hope during this autumn to address as many meetings of teachers as possible. Heretofore nothing of this kind has been done in Brantford, so far as I know, but the good results obtained in other places and the enthusiastic welcome which teachers and school boards prompts us to suggest that such a meeting might advantageously be held there.

If this meets with the approval of your board we would suggest that some one school centrally situated with regard to all the others be chosen and that the meeting be held in the Assembly Room of that school so that we could reach the teachers of all the schools without asking any of them to go far from home.

We think you will find that the managers of the local banks will be interested, and we would like to have as many members of the school board present as possible.

The meeting would occupy from one-half to three-quarters of an hour, and be so dealt with as to give the teachers something that they might pass on to children in accordance with the suggestion of the minister of education in his circular on this matter issued last April. Faithfully yours,
M. A. MacKENZIE.

(From Financial Papers)
A banking situation in which several of Canada's best known bankers take a fatherly interest, held its annual meeting on Thursday evening of this week. The affair was not widely advertised nor did the daily press devote many columns to reporting the proceedings or eulogizing the bank's officials. Yet in its way the annual meeting of the Penny Bank of Toronto is quite a significant feature of the big chartered banks with their millions of deposits and their widespread investments.

As a barometer of conditions in Canada, this institution, patronized for the most part by children, gets pretty close to the true state of affairs financial. The report for the twelve months ending June 30 showed a marked increase in deposits. During the preceding year the bank's deposits had declined from $270,363 to $266,111, a comparatively small decrease but significant of the changed conditions following the outbreak of the war. This year the greatly improved condition of the working classes is reflected in the increase in savings from $210,111 to $294,738.

Of these deposits the greater portion are made by school children, the bank operating in the public schools of between forty and fifty cities, towns and villages in Canada.

The following table gives in condensed form the balance sheet of the bank for the three years, 1914, 1915 and 1916:

Liabilities	1914	1915	1916
Pub. school dep.	$245,041	$298,991	$274,452
Other deposits	25,822	27,120	30,132
Guarantee fund	3,100	10,000	10,000
Int. earned, etc.	1,827	5,018	8,063
Total	$285,820	$341,130	$322,647
Assets	1914	1915	1916
First mortgages	$10,367	$10,444	$10,443
Real estate	27,000	27,000	27,000
Cash in P. O.	274,062	265,062	266,044
Cash on hand	550	572	915
Supplies	—	243	790
Total	$285,820	$341,130	$322,647

To a representative of The Financial Post, the managing director of the bank, Professor M. A. MacKenzie of the University of Toronto, expressed his great satisfaction with the progress that is being made, especially since the schools opened this fall. In this connection he furnished some interesting figures comparing deposits by Toronto schools for the months of October, 1913, 1914, 1915 and 1916. These show very clearly the trend of business for the four years:

Month	1913	1914	1915	1916
October	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
November	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
December	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
January	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
February	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
March	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
April	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
May	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
June	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
July	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
August	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
September	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200	$11,200
Total	$112,000	$112,000	$112,000	$112,000

The same results also apply to other cities and towns in which the bank is operating. The increased savings, he states, come from children belonging to working class families. Thus, in Toronto schools in fashionable districts like Rosedale and the Hill, the per capita deposits of children attending falls considerably below those in the so-called poorer sections of the city, while the highest per capita deposits are made in industrial centres like Swansea, New Toronto, Galt, etc.

Will be Aim of New Austrian Emperor, He Declares in Proclamation to His Dual Kingdom—Will Continue and Complete Work of Francis Joseph

By Courier Leased Wire.
 London, Nov. 23.—10.35 a.m.—Emperor Charles of Austria has issued a proclamation to the Austro-Hungarians declaring his inflexible decision to maintain the war until "a peace assuring the existence and development of the monarchy is obtained," according to a Vienna despatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam. Sell Home-made Cooking, Etc., In Order To Raise Funds For Chapter.

The regular monthly meeting of Brant Chapter I.O.D.E. took place on Monday, Nov. 20th at the home of Mrs. C. J. Watt, Lorne Crescent. A large number of the members were present and several important business matters discussed. A letter was read from Mr. H. T. Watt, Sec. Treas. of Brant Sanitarium. A motion was passed in the form of a resolution that "we, the members homage to the late Emperor, the proclamation said: "I will continue to complete his work. I ascend his throne in a stormy time. Our aim has not yet been reached and the illusion of the enemy to throw down my monarchy and our allies is not yet broken. You know me to be in harmony with my people in my inflexible decision to continue the struggle until a peace assuring the existence and development of the monarchy is obtained. I will do all in my power to banish as soon as possible the horrors and sacrifices of war and to re-obtain peace as soon as the honor of our arms, the conditions of life of my countries and their allies and the defiance of our enemies will allow."

of Brant Chapter, I.O.D.E. convey to the Board of Directors of the Brant Sanitarium our willingness to help in accommodating any tubercular soldiers who return from the front, so long as the Sanitarium has accommodation.

Mrs. Digby reported that thirty large packages containing Christmas cheer had been packed and sent to Brantford soldiers in the trenches. Three dozen pairs of machine-knit socks were distributed to the members to be completed.

Mrs. Julius Waterous, who was elected second vice-president in succession to Mrs. Stratford, was presented with her I. O. D. E. pin in recognition of her two sons who are at the front.

Means of raising money for the chapter were discussed. It was decided to hold a weekly "market" in the vacant Tea Pot Inn building every Saturday morning, providing it does not interfere with any large annual tea. Cakes, pies, bread, salad, jellied meats, candy and all kinds of good home made cooking will be for sale at most reasonable prices.

Mrs. Ald and Mrs. Sutherland were appointed to take charge of the soldiers' autograph quilt. A nominal charge of ten cents to be solicited for each soldier's name.

Mrs. A. B. G. Tisdale kindly donated a hand-painted bowl to be disposed of to the best advantage. The proceeds to go for soldiers' comforts.

The meeting closed in the usual manner which Mrs. Watt very kindly served afternoon tea.

Diamond Trade on the Increase

By Courier Leased Wire.
 London, Nov. 22.—A striking improvement in the diamond trade is shown in the annual report of the great combination known as De Beers Consolidated. For the years ended June 30, the net revenue of the concern was $10,710,460 against $2,871,295 last year. The actual sales of diamonds amounted to $13,262,810 and the profits to $5,186,000. This enabled preferred shareholders to receive dividends from July 1914, to December 1915, a payment of $5,000,000.

JAGOW TO AUSTRIA

By Courier Leased Wire.
 Berlin, Nov. 21.—via London, 22.—It is reported with increasing probability that Gottlieb von Jagow, the minister of foreign affairs, may be appointed ambassador to Vienna to succeed the late Count Von Tschirschy. The possibility has been discussed in diplomatic circles ever since the death of von Tschirschy particularly because it is known that von Jagow accepted his ministerial post reluctantly and never intended to hold it permanently. The Tageblatt gives prominence to this report and declares that Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg's visit to army headquarters is connected with filling the Vienna post.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With It to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50 cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application, or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

American Ship in Distress

By Courier Leased Wire.
 London, Nov. 22.—The American bark Manga Reva was in distress in the Atlantic Ocean off the coast of France and possibly may have been lost, according to a despatch to Lloyds from Falmouth. The bark was reported as arriving at London, November 5, from Rotterdam and probably was west bound. The Lloyds' report says:

"The Dutch Steamer Rydam reports that she received an S.O.S. signal Sunday in latitude 47 north, longitude 14 west from the American ship Manga Reva, saying 'come as quickly as possible. Am drifting before the wind with no boats.' The Rydam signalled she was coming at full speed and sent a wireless despatch to the American Steamer Rockingham to proceed to the assistance of the Manga Reva, the Rockingham being the nearest vessel to her. The Rockingham steamed direct towards the spot where the Manga Reva was supposed to be and should have been near her at two o'clock on Monday afternoon. The Rydam later received a message from the Rockingham saying she could not find anything of the Manga Reva, and both the Rydam and Rockingham

ENTENTE ACTED ON OWN AUTHORITY

In Demanding Departure of Hun Ministers From Greece.

By Courier Leased Wire.
 London, Nov. 23.—The ministers representing the Central Powers at Athens in requesting an audience with King Constantine, stated that they did not regard the action of the Entente powers in demanding their departure from Greece as involving responsibility on the part of the Greek Government or the king, nor as being a hostile act as far as Greece was concerned, says a Reuters despatch from the Greek capital under date of November 20. "The Greek ministers accredited to the Central Powers," adds the despatch, "will remain at their posts. The ministers and the personnel of the legations of the Central Powers at Athens will remain on board the Marienbad (an Austrian merchant vessel) until a Greek vessel or other neutral ship is available to take them to Detegachatch. The vessel will fly the flags of all the ministers to avoid the risk of the ship being torpedoed."

Music and Drama

Charley's Aunt

"Charley's Aunt," which will be presented here at the Grand Opera House, is found a farce that contains all the desirable attributes. It has stood the test of time, and is still considered the best of all comedies. For 146 consecutive performances at the Globe Theatre, London, it enjoyed capacity business and every year or so since then it has been revived with the same success. In offering it the United Producing Company have selected the cast very carefully, picking each character as a type particularly adapted to the part to be played. The scenery has been designed from that of the original Company, and will be very elaborate and beautiful. The Producers guarantee that this company of twelve, will provide more comedy and laughter than has been in the city in many a day, and the comedy is of the hilarious and wholesome type.

September Morn

In accordance with the previous announcement made by the management of the Grand Opera House, September Morn, the big dancing festival which delighted two large audiences on Saturday last, Manager Whitaker has arranged for a return engagement.

"September Morn," is a girl, song, farce and dance show constructed purely to entertain. The story is given about the famous Chabaz painting called "September Morn"—two impostors claim to be originators, one Rudolph Plastric, owner of an art studio, who knows nothing of the art, insists that he is the originator and painted the famous picture, while immediately upon the scene arrives an actress who boasts she is the originator and engages a press agent to circulate broadcast excitement following provokes a world of mirth, while the two impostors are dodging each other, and to make the situation more ludicrous, an Army officer by chance meets and becomes infatuated with the actress and in the meantime discovers the fact that she is a good friend of his wife, which goes to entangle the situation and produce worlds of laughter.

ADVENTURE POLICY

 Stockholm, via London, Nov. 22.—The Dagblad in an article referring to the prospects of a crisis between Norway and Germany, warns Norway against a "policy of adventure" declaring that Sweden is not prepared to follow Norway in such a policy to the danger of her own interests. The newspaper adds that Sweden must not invest her friendship with Norway in an article referring to the prospects of a crisis between Norway and Germany, warns Norway against a "policy of adventure" which she can rely for support if a certain situation threatening her national existence should arise.

GONE BEFORE

When some old pickled critter who've lapped up gin and rye, and every kind of biters, got done with booze and die, we bend above their bodies, and say, quite lachrymose, "Poor victims of hot toddies! They were their own worst foes!" When any cheap old duffer, who's fallen from first to last, concludes no more to suffer the cheerless mundane blast, we sadly gather round him, where he is lying low, and sprig that gag, "Contend him! He was his own worst foe!" But it's as sure as a singer—we know it passing well—that all the failures injure the world in which they dwell. Society's a loser when any one stinks low; no man can be a hooser, and he is his own worst foe. Though we have pity ample for one immensed in gin, he sets a bad example, and that's a deadly sin. He shows the human being a sudden thing and sad—a sight not fit for seeing by any growing lad. The world for virtue yearning, must view him with alarm; at every bend and harm. And when the whiskey glutons at last turn up their toes, we sigh, "Dogsone their buttons, they were their own worst foes!"

HOW TO GET TO THE MOVIES

A neighbor of mine flounced into my kitchen the other day. I use the word "flounce" advisedly. No other could convey the indignation her manner of entering expressed. The reason for the flounce soon came out. She had met a certain woman from "down back" going to the movies. This woman is one of her charity cases, which means that she has given her old clothes, fruit from her garden, and occasionally money.

That's The Way! Those People Take Advantage of You

She tried not to let me see her, but I did. She said triumphantly, "I don't believe I'll waste any more time or money on her. The idea of her going to the movies when they can hardly get along and her husband is so sick!"

I don't believe I'll waste any more time or money on her. The idea of her going to the movies when they can hardly get along and her husband is so sick!

How Could Anyone Grudge Her That Pleasure?

How dare anyone whose life is a bed of roses in comparison, grudge her the small pleasure of an evening at the movies?

Something to look forward to, something to make her forget the monotony of her existence for two hours, and then something new to think about as she crawls over soapy floors or toils over other people's soiled floun.

Perhaps it would be wiser to save that dime or use it for more nourishing food.

But it would be an almost superhuman person who would always have that wisdom and strength of mind.

They Think They Buy The Right To Get To The Movies

I have often noticed this attitude in people who give charity (how is that beautiful word dishonored by them!) They think their gifts give them the right to pry and peer into the lives of the recipient, and criticize and condemn.

They demand of the poor a superhuman strength of will to be content to toil and mull and scrimp and save and pay their debts, and forego all pleasures.

Of course, one honors such strength of mind, but why should one expect to find it in every poor man or woman, any more than one would expect to find sublime heroism of any sort?

JACK HORNER'S DIAMOND PIE

You know how it goes, that some of Mother Goose, but you don't know Mother Goose and the truth of it. I do.

Little Jack Horner sat in a corner eating a Christmas pie; He put in his thumb, and he took out a plum.

And said, "What a good boy am I!"

That's the way the verse goes, but you don't know why he stuck in his thumb in order to get out some other finger, do you? And you don't know where he got the pie or why he sat in the corner instead of on a chair. All these things old Mother Goose told me when I met her in Sleepy-town by the old, old clock in the village square.

Long ago there was a very little boy and his name was Jack Horner. And he was very poor, for his father was a wood-cutter in a forest and little Jack had nothing at all to wear but rags.

Now, it came winter and the snow lay like a blanket in the forest. Little Jack's father grew very ill and trouble came to the hut in the forest. They had no food, only what the mother hurried forth and begged. They had no fire save the blaze from sticks of the rickety furniture Jack's father told him to chop up if he could.

Jack was very, very little, but he chopped up all the tables and his father looked sad and then she wept, for there was nothing else in the cottage to chop.

"Don't cry, mother!" said little Jack Horner. "I'll take father's axe and find some wood in the forest."

Forth he went with the "bug" axe over his shoulder. He was such a little chap that the weight of the axe made him stagger so that all the wood-piles and the saw-piles in the forest peeped out to watch him pass.

"I'll make the axe lighter!" cried an elf, and "I'll make the

Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance. Rejuvenating the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating, and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Save your hair. Keep it looking charming and beautiful. You will say this was the best 25 cents you ever spent.

Please, for your sake, don't do on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

To Live on 40 Cents Per Day

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Twelve employees of the Chicago health department today began a two-week experiment intended to demonstrate that a person can live properly on 40 cents a day.

At the first meal, breakfast, served at 8.20 o'clock, Dr. John D. Robertson, health commissioner, directed the "diet squad" to learn to eat slowly, asserting that "the faster you eat, the more you eat." Forty minutes was allowed for breakfast, the menu for which consisted of fresh apples, liver, bacon, one egg, muffins, butter and coffee.

Each dieter was pledged to deny himself all nourishment except the meals prepared at the school of Domestic Arts and Sciences. Doctor Robertson announced, however, that they might drink water, chew gum and smoke if they desired.

The experiment is attracting wide attention especially with physicians, and economists, numbers of whom have asked for specimen menus and reports of proceeding.

Six men and six women are making the tests. Throughout the two weeks they will pursue their regular vocations in an attempt to keep conditions as nearly normal as possible. At the outset the weight of the women varied from 161 to 110 pounds and that of the men from 220 to 147 1/2 pounds. The heavy weight is Doctor A. B. Stokes, chief of the city's food bureau.

IN THE SMOKING CARS
or wherever congregate critical smokers, Master-Mason always makes a hit. It's the tobacco which every lover of the weed thoroughly enjoys from the lighting up to the last whiff—it's a real man's smoke—made to meet the most exacting tastes.

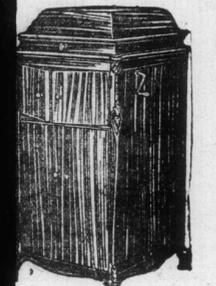

SMOKE Master Mason

it is made from choice tobaccos, fully matured and pressed into a solid plug so as to preserve all the natural moisture and fragrance of the natural leaf. This treatment ensures the characteristic smoothness and mellowness as well as the freedom from bite, parch and firing so often found in tobaccos packed in tins or packets.

Prove this to yourself by investing in a plug of Master-Mason, the tobacco which is Equal by test to the very best,
Much better than all the rest.
