Lieut.-Col. Robert Innes

Lieutenant-Colonel Robert Innes, in command of the 106th Nova Scotia Rifles, is the only son of Mr. P. Innes of Coldbrook, Kings County, N.S. He received his early education at Coldbrook and later at the Kentville and Halifax Academies where he passed his several examinations with marked distinction. Subsequently he studied for some time at the Ontario agricultural college at Guelph, of which college he is an Associate Diplomatist. After leaving Guelph, he entered Macdonald College of McGill University.

There he received a thorough education and, after a successful career as a student graduated with high honors and the degree of B.S.A. At McGill he was prominent in athletics and took a leading part in all college sports and pastimes. Almost immediately after graduation he was offered and accepted an important and lucrative appointment with the Wm. Davies Company of Toronto, the largest packing establishment in the Empire.

In 1906 he was gazetted a Lieutenant in the 68th Kings Regiment with which unit he served and took an active part in its annual trainings at Aldershot Camp until it was disbanded in 1911 at which time he held the rank and appointment of Captain and Adjutant. He was at that time strongly recommended to take command of the Regiment with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

On the outbreak of the war he promptly reported at headquarters, Halifax, for Active Service, whereupon he received, temporarily, an appointment as Musketry Instructor. Later he was promoted to the position of A. D. A. & Q. M. G., 6th Division at Military Headquarters, Halifax, with the rank of Major. His opportunity for an overseas appointment came when the 106th Nova Scotia Rifles were authorized and he accepted the appointment of Second in Command of that Battalion with headquarters at Truro, N.S. Since the middle of February he has been acting as Commanding Officer of the Battalion.

He holds the following military certificates, Lieutenants, Captains, Field Officers, Machine Gun,—obtained at the R. S. I., Halifax, Equitation—St. Johns, P. Q., and Musketry—Toronto, Ont. In the Active Militia he now holds the rank of Senior Major of the 81st Hants Regiment and is therefore at the present time in command of one Battalion and second in command of another.

It may be said generally that his disposition is genial and obliging, with a spice of firmness when discipline demands it, his manners are agreeable, courteous and gentlemanly; his temperament is spirited and courageous. He is intelligent, well educated and well read, earnestly devoted to his profession and a close observer and student of military affairs and events; all of which in conjunction with his past training, practices and experience, and his steady progressive record, give promise of an honorable and distinguished career in the services of his country.

The Lieut.-Col. in his Regiment is a strict disciplinarian, kind, fair and just in all his decisions. He is highly respected by his officers and the idol of his men.—Truro Daily News.

Murder Trial in Annapolis is Postponed

Annapolis, July 18.—The preliminary examination of Mrs. Warren, who is charged with murder of Mrs. George Taylor, which was to have taken place before Justice Vroom, at Clementsport, today, has been adjourned till Thursday.

When the case was called, Crown Prosecutor Irvine stated that Dr. Finn, of Halifax, who was present in court, had been ordered by the attorney-general's department, to make an autopsy on the body of the deceased. The body, which has been buried about eleven months, will be exhumed tomorrow and the stomach examined for traces of poison. A large number of witnesses and spectators were present.

Daniel Owen is defending the accused, who, whilst evidently realizing the seriousness of her position, seems confident of the final result. Interest in the case increases and the result of the post mortem examination is eagerly awaited. With the exception of the Graves case, which was transferred from Kings County, this is the first murder case which Annapolis County has had for a number of years.

Further information from Bucharest forecasts developments at almost any moment.

Paris, July 18.—Official advices from Saloniki, under date of Monday, say cannonading is in progress along the entire front. Allied aeroplanes burned part of the Bulgarian crops in the region of Monastir.

King George Sends Best Wishes to the British Troops.

LONDON, July 18.—King George today sent the following message to General Sir Douglas Haig, commanding the British troops on the Franco-Belgium front:

"The continued successful advance of my troops fills me with admiration, and I send my best wishes to all ranks. The Emperor of Russia has asked me to convey his warm congratulations to the troops upon the great success they have achieved."

"(Sgd.) GEORGE R.I."
General Haig replied as follows:

"The British armies in France offer most respectful and grateful thanks for this further mark of Your Majesty's gracious appreciation of what they have achieved. They also respectfully beg that their grateful acknowledgements be conveyed to the Emperor of Russia for His Majesty's congratulations."

WHAT SHALL WE GIVE

What shall we give to the men who have died?
Order or cross for their mourners' pride
Can the dead so cheaply be satisfied?

What shall we do for these gallant dead?

Can this debt be paid at so much a head?

What shall we give to the men who have died?
What gerdoun asks the Crucified?
That His friends bear fruit and the fruit abide.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

Dodge Brothers have built and delivered fifty-nine million dollars' worth of cars in the past seventeen months. The car has now reached the stage where its sales are almost automatically increased.

By this we mean that one sale is certain to result in one or two other sales.

The simple truth about how the car stands with the public is hard to put in words, because it sounds like boasting.

You must have noticed that the first thing said about the car in ordinary conversation, is almost always a direct reference to its quality.

People have arrived at the conclusion that the Dodge Brothers give the manufacture of the car an unusual degree of personal attention; and that the car is right, down to the smallest detail.

Both of these conclusions are correct.

As we have said before, the Dodge Brothers are the actual, active superintendents, engineers, managers and owners of this business.

Before they began to build their own car they had built the parts for more than half a million other cars.

All of this experience, and all that followed it—coupled with intense pride in their own product and love of the work itself—keeps up a continuous process of improvement.

They have concentrated on one car, and one car only is a determination to make it as good as a car can be made.

For every part and every process that enters into it they have personally established a standard.

The work done and the materials used in each part and each process, in every car, must conform to that standard.

The factories now cover 60 acres of floor space—and are still growing—but there is no department so remote that it does not feel the influence of the Dodge Brothers, personal direction.

The intense watchfulness accounts, of course, for the remarkable things you hear about the performance of the car.

In its first year it has acquired a wonderful hold on the good opinion of the American people—and it has not developed a single fault worth talking about.

That it will steadily grow better under the Dodge Brothers generalship goes without saying.

It will pay you to visit us and examine this car.
The tire mileage is unusually high.
The price of the Touring Car or Roadster complete is $1100, add freight from Detroit.

Shipping and Marketing Fruit

Two most seasonable bulletins have been issued by the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture bearing upon the pre-cooling, shipment and cold storage of tender fruit. Both bulletins can be had free on application to the Publishers Branch of the Department at Ottawa. In the first of these publications, Edwin Smith, B. Sc., in charge of the pre-cooling station at Grimsby, Ont., gives details and advice regarding the pre-cooling of fruit along with results obtained from experiments. It was only in 1911 that the pre-cooling and fruit storage plant was established at Grimsby. Since that time extensive tests have been carried on regarding conditions for shipment and temperature at various stages in transit. Results and observations are given relative to all kinds of fruit, including tomatoes, and not only in reference to transportation but also as to the effect on marketing. During 1913, this Bulletin states, while tender fruit laid on the ground rotting in Ontario, the Dominion of Canada imported huge quantities of peaches, plums, pears, apricots, etc., from the United States, owing to the better and more provident care that had been taken. By following their counsel contained in this bulletin, this state of things will be avoided. Rates, rules and regulations for pre-cooling and storage are supplied. The second bulletin, for which J. M. Creelman, B. S. A., shares with Mr. Smith the responsibility; not only deals further with pre-cooling investigations, but also goes fully into methods of packing, shipping and storing tender fruit, tomatoes, corn and cucumbers. Both bulletins are suitably illustrated and should command the earnest attention of fruit growers and shippers.

Airmen Co-Operate in Infantry Charges

Dompiere, Picardy, July 14—A string of great balloons—you can count sixteen without glasses—is the first obvious thing that a reporter sees on this front. Next his eyes wander to the uncountable batteries in action. Above them the aerial telephone stations swing beyond the trajectory of the German gun fire.

On the German side not a single balloon is visible. Fifteen have been burned in the air by a secret contrivance known only to the allies since the offensive began. The German artillery is blinded because the allies have now obtained the mastery of the air, according to the confident claims of the British and French officers. It is true that from this point of view, a German aeroplane is rarely sighted, while French aviators are constantly on the wing.

A dramatic and startling novelty has been presented by the allied aviators in this great offensive. French and British airmen have actually co-operated in infantry charges. They have swept over the battlefield at as low an altitude as 600 feet, and some of the more daring have swooped over the struggling armies at as low a height as 300 feet. These airmen have signalled to the French artillery telephoners the precise position of the German guns and the locations of the German forces waiting for the French assault. They have taken shells of being hit by the shells of their own guns, but according to the officers, every one escaped.

We regret to hear that W. D. Rolston, of Yarmouth, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in Boston, is seriously ill and grave fears are felt by his friends and relatives. His father and sister were called to Boston last night.

The bride, who was tastefully attired in a travelling suit of navy corded silk and black picture hat, was given away by her father. Both bride and groom were unattended.

After congratulations the guests numbering about sixty sat down to a beautiful luncheon.

DR. WILFRED E. HARRIS SHOT IN BOSTON

Son of the Late T. R. Harris, M.P.P. Aylesford, N.S.

Boston, Mass., July 19—Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, President of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, and a native of Aylesford, N.S., was shot and probably mortally wounded in his office here yesterday. Dr. Eldridge Atwood, whom the police say admitted shooting Dr. Harris, is under arrest.

The death two hours before the shooting occurred of Dr. Atwood's fiancée Dr. Celie Adams, who was a student in Osteopathy, and the fact that there was much opposition on the part of Miss Adams' parents and Dr. Harris to their approaching marriage, is alleged to have been the cause of the shooting, according to a statement by Atwood to the police last night.

Dr. Harris, lay at the point of death at the City hospital today, while Dr. Floridge D. Atwood, also an osteopath, was under arrest charged with attempt to murder him yesterday in a Back Bay hotel. Dr. Atwood calmly informed the police that he shot Harris.

Hospital physicians said they feared Dr. Harris could not live. Last night they removed two or three bullets which entered his body. After being booked on a charge of assault and battery, with intent to murder, Dr. Atwood was taken to the hospital where Dr. Harris identified him as his assailant.

He made a complete confession, the police say, spent a quiet night in the Back Bay police station and was ready for his arraignment in Municipal Court.

Medical examiner Magrath planned to perform an autopsy on the body of Miss Adams today to determine the exact cause of her death. The physician who attended the young woman, gave it as his opinion that she died from an over dose of a drug, which the police declared she took with suicidal intent.

Dr. Harris, who is 45 years old and married, is a former president of the Canadian Club of Boston, son of a former member of the Canadian parliament and one of the pioneer osteopaths of Massachusetts.

Dr. Atwood and Miss Adams formerly studied under him at the college of Osteopathy in this city.

Boston, July 19—The autopsy on the body of the Dr. Celie Adams, who according to the police, poisoned herself yesterday a few hours before her fiancée, Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, shot and probably fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, was anticipated today as likely to have an important bearing on the motive for the crime, as explained by Atwood.

Atwood, a youth of 23 years, was arraigned in court this morning, and in default of bonds of $15,000 was committed to jail for a further hearing on July 28. The proceedings were brief. The prisoner was not represented by counsel, and did not plead. He appeared calm, and later said that he had nothing to add to the statement which he made when he was placed under arrest last night. The adjournment of the case was expected in the view of the condition of Dr. Harris. It was very low, and it was feared he could not survive many hours.

The version of the cause of the shooting given by Atwood was scouted by Dr. Harris during a lucid period. He referred to his assailant, as "a young fool." The wounded man's statement was stoutly supported by many friends. Both Miss Adams, who was 27 years of age, and Atwood had been pupils at the Massachusetts College of osteopathy, of which Dr. Harris was head, and according to mutual acquaintances he had counselled the young man against marrying a girl so much his senior. Francis F. Adams, the father of the girl, stated that he also opposed the match.

Dr. Harris is described by mutual acquaintances as standing high in his profession and socially. He led the fight in the legislature for the legal recognition of the practice of osteopathy. Originally he was a general practitioner, and after he had taken up osteopathy many of his patients still insisted upon going to him for advice, and to these he prescribed medicines of the old school whenever he deemed them necessary. His wife, who acted as secretary, was formerly Miss Jean C. H. Van Allen, of Morrisburg, Ont. Their home is in Cambridge.

National Division Sons of Temperance in Session.

Over one hundred delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada assembled in St. Paul's Hall, Halifax, Wednesday morning, July 12th, for the annual meeting of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance. Wednesday and Thursday were devoted to an elaborate programme of business sessions, ritualistic ceremonies and social meetings.

Wednesday morning was given entirely to a business session at which were read the reports of the Most Worthy Patriarch, Most Worthy Scribe, and Most Worthy Treasurer. The report of the Most Worthy Patriarch, Rev. R. Heley Stavart, Norton, New Brunswick, dealt in a most comprehensive manner with the outlook for temperance in general and the activities of the Sons of Temperance in particular.

At 4.30 p.m. there was a Band of Hope demonstration and in the evening at 8 p.m., a reception to the National Division, Grand Worthy Patriarch B. O. Davidson of Wolfville, presided and speeches of welcome were delivered by Lieutenant and Governor McKeen and United States Consul General Young and others.

Following are the officers elected for the ensuing term:
 M. W. P. E. L. G. Hahenthal, Connecticut.
 M. W. A. — F. S. Hennigar, New Brunswick.
 M. W. Scribe — Ross Slack, New Jersey.

M. W. Treas. — Marvin M. Eayenson, Penn.
 M. W. Chap. — Rev. D. Styles Fraser, Nova Scotia.
 M. W. Cond. — Lewis P. Tanton, P. E. I.

Prohibition Prohibits

Prohibition came in force in Halifax just two weeks ago and even the most skeptical are now convinced now that prohibition prohibits, and that the new law is really a blessing.

The rumors which find circulation from time to time to the effect that the saloons are going to open again, have no foundation in fact and indeed in the fact of existing conditions the man who would open a saloon in Halifax today, would be a bold one indeed.

No one wants to go back to the man who patronized them. The police court records testify to the fact that Halifax is almost entirely free from the liquor evil and the people as a whole are accepting the new conditions gracefully.

Halifax has been sober for two whole weeks the first two weeks in her history, and the people are delighted with the experience. — Halifax Herald, July 15.

HEALTHIEST ONE IN THE FAMILY

HATTIE WARREN
Port Robinson, Ont., July 8th, 1913.
"We have used 'Fruit-a-lives' in our house for over three years and have always found them a good medicine. Our little girl, Hattie, was troubled with Kidney Disease. The Doctor said she was threatened with Dropsy. Her limbs and body were all swollen and we began to think she could not live. Finally, we decided to try 'Fruit-a-lives'. She began to show improvement after we had given her a few tablets. In a short time, the swelling had all gone down and her flesh began to look more natural. Now she is the healthiest one in the family and has no signs of the old ailment. We can not say too much for 'Fruit-a-lives' and would never be without them."

Kitchener as an Explorer

Interesting Stories of His Early Career and Labors in the Holy Land

Lord Kitchener's early career must always have a special interest for Christian people. His work in connection with the Palestine Survey yielded valuable results, that, so far, only experts have been able properly to appreciate. His Palestine Exploration work was very dear to Kitchener's heart, and moved him to the only poetical quotation that appears to be recorded in any of his utterances. Speaking before the Geographical Section of the British Association in 1878 on his survey of Galilee, Lieutenant Kitchener (as he was then) said: "We hope to rescue from the hands of that ruthless destroyer, the uneducated Arab, one of the most interesting ruins in Palestine, hallowed by the footprints of our Lord. I allude to the synagogue of Capernaum, which is rapidly disappearing owing to the stones being burnt for lime. Should we not preserve for ourselves and our children buildings so hallowed, so unique? Let us hope that if this expedition succeeds, it may be a means of leaving some 'footprints on the sands of time.'"

The speaker proceeded to quote the verse from Longfellow's "Psalm of Life," containing the reference to the "forlorn and shipwrecked brother," which, many ventured to hope, might be the worst fate that had overtaken Lord Kitchener himself. Of more general interest is the fact that while pursuing his labours in the Holy Land under the direction of Lieutenant Conder, Lieutenant Kitchener (as he was then) nearly lost his life. Arabs, with murderous intent, were about to dispatch the commander of the expedition when Kitchener interposed, and received the blows intended for Conder, the latter describing Kitchener's escape "unaccountable." The patient attention to detail, which has always been one of Lord Kitchener's traits, was doubtless fostered in Palestine, for on the great map of Western Palestine to which his name is attached appear special signs for vineyards, orchards, springs, tombs, and even wine-presses. A rare instance of his humour is permitted to appear in one of his communications to the Palestine Exploration Committee, where Kitchener explains his omission of a certain name in his map of Mount Carmel, a name which, he indicates, originally found its way into other maps incorrectly through the action of "enthusiastic travellers who look more for what should be in the country than for what is."

Effect of Prohibition

Manitoba has now experienced one month of prohibition and the eyes of the Dominion are turned toward this Province watching the operation of the Manitoba Temperance Act. Out of the many beneficial results consequent upon this new law, and which are apparent on every hand, there stand out the following facts with perhaps greater emphasis than any of the other:

The commercial end of immorality has been reduced to such an extent that if such conditions continue in the Province they will be reduced to a minimum within three months. Only 24 drunks were arrested in June as compared with 261 in the previous month of May. There have been only one-half as many convictions in the Winnipeg police court as there were during May.

Just half as many vagrants were convicted during June as May.

The wholesale houses report that collections during June have been far better, and this very desired condition is directly attributed to prohibition. The hotelmen have surrendered themselves to the new conditions, have fallen into line, and are helping to their best endeavors in the administering of the Act.

No weaknesses in the Manitoba Temperance Act have as yet been discovered, and in the cases taken to court by the license department, convictions have been obtained. The yeading retail merchants

GOOD RICH BLOOD MEANS GOOD HEALTH

Just a Little More Rich, Red Blood Cures Most Ailments

The lack of sufficient rich, red blood does not end merely in a pale complexion. It is much more serious. Bloodless people are tired, languid, run-down folk who do not enjoy life. Food does not nourish; there's indigestion, heart palpitation, headache, backache and nearly always nervousness. If this bloodlessness is neglected too long, a decline is sure to follow. Just a little more rich, red blood cures all these troubles. Then you have new health, new vitality and pleasure in life. To get more rich, red blood the remedy is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. No other medicine increases and enriches the blood so quickly or so surely. This is not a mere claim. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done this over and over again throughout the world. That is why thousands of people always have a good word to say for this medicine. Miss Gertrude Haffner, Kingston, Ont., says:—"About two years ago I was suffering greatly with anaemia, so much so that I had to give up my situation. I became so weak that I could scarcely walk without help. I had no ambition, no color, no appetite and was constantly troubled with headaches and dizzy spells. I was taking medicine from the doctor, but it did not do me a particle of good. One day a friend asked me if I had tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Though as the result of my condition I was greatly discouraged, I began the use of the Pills, and thanks to that good friend's advice after using a few boxes I began to feel much better. Under the continued use of the pills I gained in weight, my color came back and I grew gradually stronger. I looked so much better that people would ask me what I was taking and I had no hesitation in giving the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I am so grateful for what this medicine has done for me that I will do all I can to extend its use."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE FLUME AT BROOKS.

- (1) Where C.P.R. Crosses the Brooks Aqueduct.
- (2) The Aqueduct.
- (3) The interior of the Aqueduct.

THE Bassano Dam is the most important engineering work in the Eastern Section of the Canadian Pacific Irrigation Block, but it is not the only important feature by any means. Next to it in importance comes the Brooks Aqueduct. The main irrigation canal, which is fed from the lake created by the Bassano Dam, runs in an easterly direction for about five miles and then divides into two branches, one going north and the other east. The east branch, after having filled several smaller branches, discharges the bulk of its water into the Lake Newell reservoir which has been artificially formed in a depression in the hills, is nine miles long by four wide, has a storage capacity of over 50,000,000 gallons, and is designed to be filled during the non-irrigating season. Just east of the Lake Newell reservoir is a deep valley about 2 miles wide and it is for the purpose of crossing it that the Brooks Aqueduct was constructed consisting of a reinforced concrete flume 10,480 feet long with a curved cross section some 23 feet wide at the top and nearly 9 feet deep from full-flow water level to the top to the centre of the curve at bottom. It has a discharge capacity of 900 cubic feet per second, the eastern end being 4.85 feet lower than the western so as to create a grade for the water flow, and it carries water for the irrigation of 125,000 acres situated in the Bantry Hills. The flume, the walls of which are five inches thick, is suspended between horizontal girders, the whole supported by a reinforced concrete trestle made up of two lines of columns with a maximum height of 50 feet, but lower in places according to the contour of the valley. About three miles east of the town of Brooks, Alberta, the line of the aqueduct is crossed by the Canadian Pacific Ry. and, the track being at such an elevation that it was impossible to carry the flume overhead, it was necessary to build a siphon under the track. At the west side of the track the curved form of the flume is continued round and a completely circular pipe is made which dips at an angle of about 45 degrees and enters the ground, passing under the rails at a slight depth for a distance of about 55 feet when it rises again to the original level and reverts to its original form. The siphon is 9 feet 3 inches in diameter at the smallest and 12 feet 6 inches at the largest point. This is said to be the first siphon in which the peculiar form supported by concrete used and the engineering problems presented, considerable difficulties. That they were happily solved is proved by the fact that when the water was turned on the siphon maintained perfectly watertight under full pressure.
