

FLAMES LICKED UP A BASKET FACTORY.

Loss of $8,000 and Insurance $2,900.

Suspicious Fire at Freeman Last Night.

Hamilton Blacksmith Also Lost Heavily.

A most mysterious fire visited the Burlington Basket and Box Factory (Glover's Basket Factory) last evening, and burned it to the ground with a loss of between $7,000 and $8,000.

The Unemployed.

New York, April 7.—A convention of representatives of various labor and other bodies was held yesterday at the Hotel Astor to inquire into the number of unemployed throughout the United States.

IN THE HOUSE.

Division Courts Bill Laid Over Till Next Session.

Normal Scholars to Have Use of Local School Rooms.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Toronto, April 7.—Hon. Mr. Foy, the Attorney-General, withdrew his bill respecting division courts when the Legislature met this morning.

Hon. Dr. Pyne asked that Mr. Craig (North Wellington) withdraw his bill to amend the Public School Act, as it refers to the equalization of assessments.

The flames could be easily seen from this city and the local fire department changed into fire fighting array while the officials were trying to find out where the fire was.

Hamilton Young Men Burned Out at Baldwinville.

Their many friends in Hamilton will learn with regret that three Hamilton young men, Messrs. W. Herbert, Fred and Dr. Robinson, sons of Mr. W. W. Robinson, of the D. Moore Company, have just suffered a very severe loss by fire.

Easter Novelties.

A splendid assortment. See them in our east window. Walking ducks, nesting ducks and chickens, chocolate eggs, colored and fancy decorated eggs, fancy baskets filled with eggs, toys, etc. And they are not expensive.

GLORY ENOUGH.

Paris, April 7.—Mme. Emile Zola has published an open letter, in which she expresses regret that she cannot retain possession of the body of her husband.

BARTON TOWNSHIP COUNCIL AGREEABLE TO ANNEXATION

Of That Part of the Township Near the East End Incline.

An agreement as to the terms is all that is required now for that section of Barton Township on the mountain top just east of the incline, amounting to about thirty acres and with a population of two hundred, to come into the city.

MUCH REPAIR WORK NEEDED

But Board of Works Has Not the Funds.

Early Meeting of Power Committee Is Proposed.

Adam Beck Likely To Pay the City a Visit.

The Board of Works to-night expects to approve of roadwork construction and repairs which will give 150 men work. The committee yesterday afternoon continued its inspection of the streets, and Chairman Sweeney said to-day that on the whole they appeared to be in much better shape than at this time last year.

Chairman Sweeney may call a meeting of the Power Committee this week to look into the form of contract submitted to the representatives of the municipalities in Toronto last week.

City Engineer Barrow will urge the Fire and Water Committee to-night to have the cleaning out of the filtering basins proceeded with at once.

DON'T MENTION IT.

To the Editor of the Times: Sir,—The ladies of St. Elizabeth Chapter, I. O. O. E., extend to you a very hearty vote of thanks for your kindness in printing their "Himerick" in your valuable paper of Saturday, April fourth, and we also desire to express our appreciation of the courtesy which you have at all times shown us.

VINCENT DEAD.

Was Founder of the United Empire Trade League.

Montone, April 7.—Sir Howard Vincent, member of Parliament for Central Sheffield, and aide de camp to King Edward, died here to-day. He was born in 1849.

THE LATE SIR HOWARD VINCENT

at Creemore between a team from the Seventh New York Regiment and a visiting team from the Queen's Westminster Rifles, of which he was honorary colonel.

Sir Charles Edward Vincent Howard, the dead statesman, was a many-sided man. He was a lawyer and a soldier (having served in the Boer war), was director of criminal investigations connected with the London police, member of Metropolitan Board of Works and London County Council.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

W. P. Northrup, M. P. for East Hastings, was reported in the Spectator magazine as saying that he was too big a coward to repeat that statement in the House in the hearing of that same Premier?

So we are to get a Technical College after all. Mr. Leake says so. That will do until after the election.

The por Herald had a fit of the jim jams or something last night over its hydro-electric power debate. That's the right word, isn't it? But it has not apologized for its backwardly attacks on the Times.

A captain or commander will soon be needed for the Sandusker—a seafaring man with Tory proclivities was preferred.

I hope Gamey will not forget to tell the Dundas people what became of the bank deposit slips.

John Hoodless needn't try to hoodwink the public about the Laurier Government.

Mr. Barker sat silent on Saturday night and heard Mr. Northrup insult the Esquimaux ladies and never said a word. I thought he was a gentleman.

Ald. Farrar also is willing to pledge his "swarney" support to the Government. A fair deal to every man? Why doesn't he apologize to the Mayor?

Gamey has three brothers and one son, they say, working for the Government. He might get in this trifling circumstance to the Dundas audience.

Mr. Northrup didn't drop dead on Saturday night. You remember Ananias' fate.

So it was the Times and Hon. Mr. MacKay that gave Whitney cold feet. The poor, foolish, silly Hamilton Herald. Hasn't the nerve, the manliness or the honesty to admit that it blundered.

Take Gamey at his own valuation: That he tricked Hon. Mr. Strachan, told him a parcel of lies, took his money as a bribe and spent part of it in his own business. What do you think of him? Would a whiskey informer do the like of that?

Like the technical college, the power scheme will do for an election card.

Excuse me, gentlemen: I know it's a sin, but I really can't help laughing at the Herald.

HAD A LAUGH AT SERGEANT

Who Ordered Woman's Hat Removed in Court.

No Case Against Either Simpson or Histed.

One Witness Had His Eye on Two Reporters.

The backbenchers at the Police Court this morning had a good laugh at the expense of Sergt. Robinson, who was at the desk. While court was on, Mrs. Simpson, James street north, came in. She is the mother of one of the men who sat in the dock. She had a dark grey overcoat on and a cap which looked like a man's cap.

"Are those the men?" asked Acting Crown Attorney Martin. "They look like them," said the witness, with his eyes on the reporters of the Times' two city contemporaries.

William J. Mehan, 27 Fullerton avenue, was charged by John Anderson with refusing to pay him $2 wages. It was a question of the value of a job done, and the Magistrate decided that Anderson had already received a fair wage for his work and he dismissed the case.

MAY BUILD SOON.

East End Presbyterians to Meet on Monday Evening.

East end Presbyterians are to hold a meeting on Monday next to talk over the advisability of building at once to meet the growing demand for a new church in that end of the city.

NOT TRUE.

Foundrymen Not Bringing Non-Union Moulders In.

The report that appeared in some newspapers saying that the foundrymen have been bringing non-union moulders into the city and starting them to work is an entire fabrication.

SEIZED BREAD.

Police Took Large Amount They Claim is Light.

Acting under orders from Chief Smith, Constables Bainbridge, Lentz and Campaign journeyed in the patrol wagon early this morning to Springstead's bakery, 185-187 King street west, and seized about 250 loaves of bread, which they claimed were light weight.

Child Fatally Injured by a Wagon.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Brantford, Ont., April 7.—There was trouble last night on Clarence street, when a big load of beds and bedding material was on its way to the Buck Store Works, to be used there by the men who have replaced the striking moulders.

Killed Sheriff.

Trinidad, Col., April 7.—Deputy Sheriff Tony Shelby was shot and instantly killed last night by an unknown man, who sprang upon him as he was nearing his home, fired two shots at short range, jumped into a nearby rig and drove rapidly out of town.

BANK BURGLARS

Try To Blow Up the Safe in Bank At St. David's.

Then Stand Off the Natives With Revolvers.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) St. Catharines, Ont., April 7.—The usually quiet village of St. David's was rudely disturbed at an early hour this morning by an explosion which severely shocked many of the residences in the vicinity of the branch of the Imperial Bank. The villagers turned out en masse and made their way with all possible haste to the bank building, where they were held at bay by three or four desperate men who threatened their lives with revolvers.

Coming to Hamilton.

It is reported that the Brantford Hosiery Co., controlled by Frank Cocksbutt, has changed hands and will be removed to Hamilton.

Street Loitering.

Matters were quiet in local police circles this morning. A large number of young men appeared before Magistrate Livingston, charged with obstructing the walk and loitering in the streets.

THE HUGGER AGAIN.

Wears Running Shoes and Follows Ladies at Night.

Jack the Hugger is in evidence again. This time he is a young man who takes delight in stopping ladies on the street and giving them a hug that would do credit to a full grown bear.

FINISH THIS WEEK.

Ontario Legislature to Prorogue on Saturday.

TWO ROLLED INTO ONE.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) St. Catharines, April 7.—The special committee of the City Council appointed to confer with the Water Commission to adjust difficulties existing between these two bodies, submitted its report last evening, recommending the amalgamation of the offices of Superintendent of Waterworks and City Engineer.

COURSE OF TRUE LOVE NOW RUNS SMOOTHLY WITH PRINCE.

Mrs. Geo. Gould Has Acted as Mediator Between Anna and Family.

New April 7.—That an agreement has been reached among the relatives of Mrs. Anna Gould to interpose no further objection to her engagement to the Prince de Sagan was reported to-day. This agreement did not, however, include George Gould, who is custodian of Anna Gould's property, but is said to comprise practically all her other relatives.

OUR EXCHANGES. Drinking Sewage. (Toronto News.)

Many times since the first of January the water has been unfit to drink because of the sewage floating around in the pipes.

Hold Enough to be Dishonest. (Toronto Globe.)

The gerrymander of Ontario has killed the favorite phrase of Premier Whitney's admirers, for he has shown himself bold enough to be dishonest and dishonest enough to be bold.

What's to Pay? (Brantford Expositor.)

The commission asks for a 40-year contract on certain conditions, and before this city enters into any obligation of the kind the electors have a right to be taken into the confidence of the aldermen and know how the amount which has been asked for is to be used, and also what the precise liability of the general taxpayer will be.

The Herald's Hot Air. (Stratford Beacon.)

The (Hamilton) Herald, however, winds up its criticism with a reaffirmation of its confidence in the scheme as a whole, which read in connection with the paragraphs quoted sounds sneaky. It is wonderful the amount of "hot air" some otherwise sensible writers can infuse into this municipal power proposition.

THE TECHNICAL SCHOOL.

The touring trustees of the School Board saw some large things in the way of schools and educational systems, while on their visit to United States cities. They appear to have been impressed greatly by the New York Trade School, and some of them speak as if they would be quite ready to take up the idea, and establish a school of the kind in Hamilton as a Board institution. Of course the trustees will have plenty of time for second thought, and second thoughts are always to be preferred; they give more time for cool consideration.

The Times has long been an advocate of technical education in its broadest sense. It has urged the importance of technical education when it had fewer newspaper advocates than it appears to have to-day; and it has lost none of its enthusiasm for technical training along reasonable lines and on a system which promises successful results. And any such system must presuppose the groundwork of a fair common school education as a foundation on which to build. It must not be an altogether top-sidled education. Moreover, it must not repeat the mistake that we have too often made of warping a pupil's direction of mind to divert him from the course of life in which he would find the greatest success, and be of most use to the community. The technical education which we undertake to furnish should be on a system carefully thought out, so that there should be no retrogressions, so that there should be as little chance as possible of having to undo what we have done, and waste money that might be put to good account. There should be a well-defined system into which any local movement in the direction would fit.

We are not sufficiently seized of the views and intentions of the Board to discuss intelligently the institutions which are reputed to have met with the favor of the visiting trustees; but our idea of an institution for technical education for Hamilton is hardly that of a school to teach boys to become printers and plumbers. It is not even a general institution for turning out tradesmen of any certain kind, although its teaching should be of the first importance to all tradesmen—to all who work with their hands. Just how far such a school should go in turning out master mechanics in any trade is a question about which considerable differences of opinion arise. But on two things we think many in Hamilton will have very decided opinions. One is, that $65,000 is not such a sum as will build and equip a technical school—we do not mean a Provincial Technical College—such as a city of Hamilton's importance ought to have. To properly equip a suitable building for technical education is not to be done on any such sum, and we hope that the Board will have an attack of "enlargement of the heart" before the scheme reaches the practical stage.

Another feature to which we have decided objections, and in support of which we have not heard a single citizen speak, is the proposal to build this one-house technical school on the Collegiate Institute grounds. For two reasons the idea should not be entertained. First, and most important, because it would place the Technical School in a part of the city far from the manufacturing quarters; cramp it for space and have a tendency to interfere with the work carried on at the Institute. Secondly, it would needlessly trench on the Collegiate Institute grounds. Nothing could be saved thereby, but the small cost of a few feet of ground for a site, and that only by placing the Technical School in a disadvantageous situation. We have heard it hinted that certain trustees advocated placing the Technical School there with the expectation of impressing Collegiate teachers to do some part of the work, "thus saving money." That would be a great mistake. Money is not "saved" in that way, and it would be a very short-sighted policy to enter upon our career of technical education on the principle of "do it on the cheap."

These remarks, made in no capricious spirit. We want to see the city's effort prove successful, and to that end we desire to see it begin right.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Take the lid off that Cobalt Lake stew. The public will be much surprised if an odorous mess is not disclosed.

To-day license vote in Illinois will have very important results to the liquor traffic. In 84 of the 102 counties the question, wet or dry, will be decided. The arid region is being extended.

Halford John MacKinder says the centre of the Empire will move to Canada. MacKinder is slow. Some of the aldermen could put their finger on the exact centre now, if they could get Mayor Stewart's plug hat off.

Whitney is "going it some." The supplementary estimates shows that he will spend some eight million dollars the coming year. This is two or three millions more than Mr. Ross spent in the last year of his Government. What does John Hoodless think of this?

Hon. Mr. MacKay's exposure in the House last evening of the gerrymander iniquity makes good reading, and shows that Whitney, instead of being bold enough to be honest, is bold enough to be dishonest. Every change made has for its purpose the benefit of some Tory.

There is something truly pathetic in the situation presented by the Hamilton Tory machine in begging Mr. R. L. Borden to send out the Maesonian cry, "Come over and help us," to McBride, Haultain, Roblin, Whitney and the rest. What about Sam Barker, Gordon Wilson and Regan?

Dealing with the extension of credits by retailers. The Merchant sees no reason why the customer's credit, based on his honesty and responsibility, should not be as proper a subject for investigation as the retailer's by the jobber. And its position is logical. The retailer's losses are heavy enough, even when he uses his best judgment in giving credit.

The British Liberals have been exceedingly unfortunate in losing their Premier by illness. But his resignation makes way for a successor in the full flush of health and vigor. They have material plenty for Premiers, and perhaps the new Premier may deal more vigorously with certain elements requiring a curb than did Sir Henry.

Auditor General Fraser's sworn statement that some of the officials in the Marine Department antagonized Hon. Mr. Brodeur's efforts at bringing about reform directed attention to a grave abuse. The discharge and suspension of some of these officials has quickly followed. Were they the men who have been priming the Tory members?

Hon. Adam Beck is credited with saying in an interview at London, that "the Hydro-Electric transmission line would cost between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000." Wonderful exactness and lucidity! It reminds one of the careful toll-gate keeper who, on being asked: "Is it three, four, five or six miles to the next town?" replied assuringly, "I think it is."

Mr. W. D. Scott has given in an interview, a very enlightening statement setting forth the many careful restrictions which the Government has placed on immigration by way of excluding the undesirable. That is an excellent work, and one to which special attention should be given. Canada wants immigrants of the right sort; but we have no use for any other.

Manitoba Election Frauds.

Not in His Seat. (Toronto News.)

Still another Legislative incident occurred yesterday during the clearing of the afternoon order paper.

"Questions by Members," recited Mr. Speaker, reaching that order, "Mr. Stuchburt."

The Labor man had given notice of an inquiry of the Ministry.

"There was silence—so unexpected that Hon. Mr. Whitney swung round in his seat and peered over at the desk of the member for East Hamilton.

"What?" gasped Hon. Mr. MacKay. "The hon. member is not present," observed Mr. Speaker.

"Call in the members," put in the irrepressible Sam Clarke (West Northumberland), and the House smiled.

Manitoba Election Frauds. (Winnipeg Free Press.)

Some guileless folk will wonder why the Liberals of the Province do not prosecute the registration clerks, guilty of these illegal practices. They evidently are not acquainted with the character of the administration of justice in this Province.

If the Liberals were to proceed against a registration clerk, he would doubtless be defended by W. H. Hastings, in his capacity as a member of the staff of the Attorney-General. Moreover, the law says explicitly that registration clerks are guilty only when they "intentionally" break the law. And no doubt the magistrate, himself a partisan and an appointee of the Roblin Government, would find in any given case that an illegal action by a registration clerk, tending to benefit the party, was done in ignorance, and not by intention.

OLD FOLKS' REUNION. Pleasant Evening in Barton Street Methodist Church.

The annual reunion of the old folks of Barton Street Methodist Church and district took place last evening in the church under the auspices of the Epworth League. The league entertained all the members of the church who had passed the age of three score years at supper, and then later an entertainment made up of speeches and a lecture by Rev. Dr. Mullin, for thirty-six years the pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Fergus, and a member of the union committee.

The lecture by Dr. Mullin was on "Misfits," and he spoke of the failures of many men and the reasons for them. His address was full of pithy and humorous sketches from real life, and he well pleased his audience.

James Wild, sen. was in the chair, and gave an address on his life in the church, which was followed by one by his wife, E. A. Wild and his wife both spoke, and J. Gibbs gave his experiences in his long life in connection with the church. Several of the old folks entertained with vocal selections. The meeting was very largely attended. Rev. H. G. Livingston was on the platform and made a speech of welcome and well wishes to the old folks.

THE FIGURE. How Too Much Fat May be Safely Reduced at Home.

"Oh, that this too, too solid flesh would melt!" cry the ladies nowadays as they try to enquire into a princess frock. How much would the too generously proportioned dame not give up for four inches less in the waistline as she compares herself with the more fortunate one diminished and twenty-five pound sister. Various devices are suggested to arrest the flesh-producing tendency and keep the figure trim, including exercising, walking and dieting, as well as numerous patented remedies, but these are objections to all of these. Exercising is hard work and takes up previous time; dieting is distasteful and a real punishment; and most of the patent remedies are dangerous to health.

The very best thing for the overweight, whether male or female, is a simple home receipt: 1/2 oz. Marmola, 3/4 oz. Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatica, 1/2 oz. Syrup Simplex, which can be obtained of any druggist at small cost. This should be taken a teaspoonful at a time after meals and bedtime, and results will be both speedy and certain. This is a harmless mixture that cannot bring on any stomach troubles nor cause the dried-up, wrinkled appearance of those who starve or take "patent reducers" to get thin. On the contrary, although it often takes the fat off at the rate of a pound a day, it is really very beneficial to the system, cleansing the blood and causing the complexion to become fair and beautiful. The cost of the three ingredients is a mere bagatelle, and one may, if one prefers, get them separately and mix them together at home.

THE TORONTO VOTE. Under the new system this liberty will be gone! Suppose that an elector desires to vote for one Conservative and one Labor candidate. The two, under the new system, may both be nominated for constituency A. He must make his choice between them, surrendering one of his preferences. He then takes up ballot B, which contains only the names of those for whom he does not want to vote at all, and he must make his

FINCH BROS., 29 AND 31 KING ST. WEST.

SETTLED. Right of Way Case of Cataract and Burns.

The expropriation case of Hamilton Cataract Company vs. Burns came up at Toronto yesterday. W. W. Osborne for the company; W. A. H. Duff for Burns. Order pursuant to consent minutes increasing the damages by $800; each party to pay their own costs of arbitration and appeal, and the company to allow Burns two crossings to the land expropriated, and Burns to be entitled to the use of the barn, and the company to Burns a lease, etc.

This is the case in which Mr. Burns declined to accept the company's offer for land for the B. & H. Railway, and the case went to arbitration, the arbitrators allowing him less than he demanded. The case has now been settled satisfactorily to both sides.

Stewart vs. Tilden was also up at Toronto yesterday. W. A. Logie for plaintiff, and W. M. Douglas, K. C., for defendants. Motion for injunction enlarged for two weeks. This is the case of Stewart & Witton, architects, against the Tilden-Jackson Typewriter Company. The prospects for settlement are good.

CHILDRENS' PARTY. Miss Pearl Wilson was the hostess of a children's tea party last Saturday afternoon at her home on the mountain top. This event was held in honor of her two cousins, Aleatha and Loonee Jones, of Pittsburg, Pa. About fifteen children responded to the invitations, and a merry, noisy time was spent from 2 to 8 o'clock in games and amusements. About 6 o'clock the wet toes sat down at a well-filled table. Much fun was found in the honor cake, which held a ring, button money, and several small toys. After supper four prizes were given for pinning the donkey's tail on. The party broke up, all having had lots of fun.

BOY FELL OFF TRAIN. Landed in a Snowdrift and Was Picked Up All Right. Montreal, April 6.—On the immigration train which arrived here yesterday from Halifax a Scotch family by the name of Finlay tell a remarkable story. Near St. Pierre their eight-year-old boy fell off the train while going from one car to another. At the time the train was going fifty miles an hour. The boy was not missed for some time, and then the parents alighted and a search was made for the missing child. He was found and brought in by a light engine. He had fallen from the train into a snowdrift between St. Jean, Port Joli and Ste. Louise, while crossing between two cars, and was found all and unhurt, but cold and crying bitterly, thirty miles from the place where his absence was first noticed.

THE BROTHERHOOD. Local Assembly Preparing For the Dominion Convention. The regular local assembly of the Hamilton Brotherhood of St. Andrew was held last evening in St. Luke's Parish hall. A very large attendance was present, totaling 117 members. The clergy present were Rev. E. N. R. Burns, B. A., Rev. W. G. Davis and Rev. J. W. TenEyck. Reports were read from the different chapters, which showed a total membership of 224. Mr. Fred Lamb was elected as Treasurer of the local assembly, and the following committees were appointed for the Dominion convention of the Brotherhood, to be held in Hamilton on Oct. 8, 9 and 10 of this year: Finance Committee—H. E. McLaren, Major Herring, and Holland A. White. Billposting Committee—W. Blandy, L. Launcefield, T. J. Fairclough, J. F. Leishman, 2, Wooley, W. J. Atkinson and J. Bowstead (chairman). Transportation Committee—Charles W. Henning. Reception Committee—W. Noble, E. Stephenson, Major Herring, T. Harley. Hall Committee—M. Medlem, W. Mra. Sinden. Advertising and Press Committee—Charles W. Henning, Harry Smith, L. Woolcott, John Howitt, Stuart Bankier. Short addresses were given during the meeting by Rev. W. G. Davis and M. Farrar Davidson, K. C. of Toronto.

Warm the teapot (crockerie is best). Put in a teaspoonful of "Salada" Tea for every two cups. Pour on freshly boiled water and allow it to steep (not boil) from five to eight minutes. Pour the liquor off the leaves into another teapot and serve. When made in this way, it kept warm, "Salada" Tea will retain its delicious flavor for hours. On account of its delicious strength a pound of "Salada" will go as far as a pound and a quarter of other teas.

The best thing about hor is that it costs nothing.

COST GUILD ABOUT $8,000

To Defend the Wholesale Grocers' Combine Cases.

Matter Under Discussion by Board of Trade.

Small Claims Against Railways Also Considered Yesterday.

An echo of the celebrated conspiracy charges against officers of the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Guild was heard at the quarterly meeting of the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon, when H. C. Beckett explained the act regarding restraint of trade, which has been given one reading in the House. The new law will permit manufacturers, merchants, wholesalers and retailers to meet and agree on anything reasonable for their own protection. What Mr. Beckett objected to was a clause providing that any action taken under the criminal code was to be through the Attorney-General.

"That is a dangerous clause," said Mr. Beckett. "The Attorney-General is very often influenced by the howls of the rabble, and very often by misstatements in the press. They get up an agitation making him think it is necessary to issue a fiat for an investigation at great expense."

One good thing about the new law was that it permitted merchants and manufacturers to meet and protect their capital, something they could not do before. This matter was receiving attention in the States, Mr. Beckett said, on the very lines he had suggested to the Government months ago. While Mr. Beckett was explaining that owing to newspaper talk the Attorney-General might be influenced in ordering an investigation, Secretary Stiff pointed out that it was not necessary to act through that official.

Cost Guild $8,000. "A man can go to a lawyer now," he said, "and get an investigation."

"Yes, but he is afraid to do it, because he is liable for damages," said Mr. Beckett. Some of the members pointed out that J. W. Currie, formerly Crown Attorney of Toronto, had acted on his own initiative in laying conspiracy charges.

"We have been robbed of $8,000 for expenses," said Mr. Beckett, alluding to the prosecution of the officers of the Guild. "And now we get it back, and the Attorney-General will issue a fiat by which we can take action against the Government. If he does the decent thing we will sue the Government."

The Board passed a resolution approving of the change in the law. It was agreed that it was too late to ask that any change be made in the clause to which Mr. Beckett objected, as the bill has had one reading. It is hoped that later on it may be amended.

Roast the Railways.

The trouble with the railways over small claims also caused a glibly-discussed effort that is being made to get a clean bill of lading. Mr. Beckett reported that on behalf of the Grocers' Guild he had written to Judge Mabey, the new Chairman of the Dominion Railway Commission, Judge Mabey replied that as the law stood now the Board had no power in this matter. He suggested, however, that the Guild and Board of Trade send a deputation to thrash the matter out with representatives of the railway companies before the Commission and the information volunteered by both sides could be used for legislation. It was agreed that Mr. Beckett, who is thoroughly conversant with the matter should represent the Board of Trade.

"The way the merchants are treated by the railways is an outrage," said Mr. Beckett. He referred to one case of a claim for $23. He had written the Grand Trunk solicitor to see if he would consent to affidavits instead of bringing witnesses from away up north. The solicitor insisted on the witnesses, with the result that it would cost more to pay their expenses than the claim was worth. Mr. Beckett thought there should be a provision making affidavits sufficient as evidence in claims for small amounts, within a certain limit, without putting the trade to the enormous expense of paying witnesses.

Claims for $20,000 Here.

"I desire to say that in Hamilton there are small claims to the amount of over $20,000, and the railways won't pay them," he added. "That is right," observed Mr. John Hoodless. "It is shameful the way the merchants are being treated in this matter."

He referred to a claim of $68 that had been standing four years. Secretary Stiff pointed out that there was a proposal to increase the number of members on the Railway Board and also extend its duties. It was thought that it would be a good idea to get the local members to take the matter up with this end in view. If this did not succeed Mr. Beckett had another suggestion.

"We ought to take it up in the house," he said. "If we can get any one to do it, it is difficult thing though, unless there are a lot of votes behind it. At the meeting of the Ontario Guild in May and the Dominion Guild in June the matter would be taken up, he said, and committees appointed to meet the commission and wait on the railway men. A memorandum of the aggregate amount of these small claims against the companies made out and the Railway Commission asked if it considered justice was being done. Mr. Beckett said the companies were talking compromise now, when they saw it was something more than a bluff, but those interested were prepared to see it through. Mr. Beckett was asked to write a letter outlining the grievances and the board will endorse it and send it to the proper authorities.

Travellers Want to Vote.

E. S. Goddard, of the Commercial Travellers, asked the Board to support a petition requesting the Government to amend the law so that travellers will have an opportunity of exercising the franchise, by appearing before the judge, magistrate or justice of the peace, on the Friday or Saturday before election day and casting the ballot. The petition pointed out that it was only possible for a traveller to vote by losing much time and going to considerable expense.

Chairman W. B. Champ asked Major Herring for an opinion. "I think it is impossible," he said. "I think it is carrying a fad to an extreme."

"Why won't it work?" inquired Mr. Beckett. Major Herring replied that it opened many doors to corruption and bribery. "My idea is that the man who won't stay home half a day or a day for the ballot does not deserve it."

Mr. Watson Truesdale argued strongly in favor of the petition and said he thought there should be a mass meeting of the travellers to endorse it. It was pointed out that the matter was being taken up in the Ontario House now.

Want Duty Off Coal.

The Owen Sound Board of Trade wrote asking that the Hamilton body unite with it in an effort to have the duty of fifty-three cents a ton on soft coal removed. It was urged that it was unfair to the Canadian tugs and boats in northern waters.

Superintendent Fisher, of the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway, made a strong argument in favor of the removal of the duty. It was no benefit, he said, to the soft coal industry of the country. The duty had been put on because it was thought it would protect the coal mines of Halifax. Mr. Fisher pointed out that coal from there seldom got further west than Montreal.

Ald. Peregrine thought it was discriminating against the Canadian boats and that the Government should be asked to remove it. "The Transportation Committee will take the matter up."

Another argument used against it was that it handicapped manufacturers in Ontario. "It will get your coal 53 cents a ton cheaper if it is removed," said Ald. Peregrine.

Proud of Its Success.

The Board feels quite elated over the success attending its efforts to have the mountain brow preserved for park purposes. It took the initiative in this matter last October with the result that the preservation of the mountain face for all time to come is now assured. A report on what has been done was read by Secretary Stiff. A vote of thanks was passed to the committee which looked after the matter. It will continue in office until the east end property is secured.

Other Business.

Welland Board of Trade asked cooperation in having the export of natural gas stopped. Five or six mains are laid across the river at the Niagara Frontier. As a result one of the factories in Welland had to close down on account of the lack of the flow. As the matter is before the Ontario House no action was taken.

St. Catharines appealed for Hamilton's support in the matter of the Georgian Bay Canal route. Mr. Champ thought a suggestion already made that a commission should look into the matter was the proper thing. Hamilton will support the appointing of such a commission.

The matter of a Royal Commission to investigate the alleged combine in ocean rates, said to work against Canada, was referred to the transportation committee.

DUKE'S ROMANCE.

King Victor and Family Discuss Miss Elkins as His Choice.

Rome, April 7.—The Duke of Aosta arrived here to-day and had breakfast with King Victor Emmanuel, the Duke of the Abruzzi and the Count of Turin, after which a family conference was held relative to the arranging of a marriage engagement between the Duke of the Abruzzi and Miss Katherine Elkins, daughter of Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia.

Although nothing official is known, it is reported that the Duke has confirmed his engagement to Miss Elkins, and that his intention is to return to the United States shortly. It is also asserted that the engagement will not be officially communicated, it being the custom of the royal family to reserve announcement until after the marriage ceremony has actually been performed.

The Duke will leave to-night for Spezia to resume command of the battleship Regina Elena.

PASSENGERS CHANGE CARS.

To the Editor of the Times: Sir,—I would like to ask the following question: On what terms and conditions did the citizens of Hamilton build the Hamilton, Guelph, Palmerston, Southampton, Kincaidine and Durham lines? I have always understood it was built for Hamilton trade, and we used to have through trains running from Hamilton to the above named stations.

W. E. S. Knowles wrote, protesting against garbage being dumped on the property of George Martin, near the canal. The communication was received and the nuisance ordered to be abated. The Hamilton Dustless Housecleaning Co. was given permission to operate its machine on the streets on condition that it secured the town against any damage arising therefrom.

The bad condition of Flamboro street was referred to the Board of Works. A letter from James B. Bertram, informed the Council that the offer of Andrew Carnegie, re grant of public library, was still available. Chisholm & Logie wrote that they had issued a writ against the town for damages sustained by J. E. Wood by falling over the dam in October last. Referred to a special committee.

James Wright was given another year's lease of the cottage at the park gate. A recommendation of County Crown Attorney Washington and town Solicitor Gwyn it was decided to appeal against the judge's decision in Sutton vs. Dundas, as against the Dundas Electric Co. This is the case in which Mr. Sutton was killed by a fallen electric wire last winter. The report of Chief Twiss for the past

Dundas Council So Decided at Last Night's Meeting.

School Representatives Were Before the Board

Pressing For Erection of a $16,000 Building.

(Special despatch to the Times.) Dundas, April 7.—The April meeting of the Town Council was held last evening, and was the record for the amount of business gone through with. All the members were present. The first business was consideration of a letter from the Board of Education asking for $16,000 for building a new high school building on the present grounds, in front of, but twenty-five feet from the present building. A deputation from the board was present to lay the matter before the Council, and Inspector Smith was also present on behalf of the public school. The inspector and the delegates were given a courteous hearing. The contention was that the town had altogether outgrown its school accommodation, and the request was that the Council furnish the money without submitting a by-law for the purpose to the people. Principal Moore stated that the public school attendance had of late years increased from 300 to over 500. The proposal is to use all the present building for public school purposes and have a new up-to-date high school building. Inspector Smith asserted that the present public school building was very much overcrowded, and was constantly run through to Toronto. If the citizens of Hamilton wish to go north of Brantford on the morning train they change at Brantford and in the afternoon they change at Guelph, so as not to inconvenience Toronto people travelling north, and if you are coming from north to Guelph on the morning train you change at Guelph, to save the Toronto passengers any trouble or inconvenience, which is exceedingly kind of the Grand Trunk management, as it has been very pleasant for women travelling with little children during the past winter to have to change cars at that lovely station at Guelph, and if they should have to make the change at the Warrington or Durham branches they must again change at Palmerston—surely one change should be enough to make in such a short run. If you are in Warrington or Owen Sound, and want to go to London, you don't have to change, and if you want to go to Toronto from Kincaidine or Southampton, you have the same comfort of not having to change, but if you want to come to Hamilton you change at Palmerston and Guelph. Of course, Hamilton does not count so long as Toronto and London are properly served by the Grand Trunk officials. I have written our Board of Trade twice as to this matter, but they don't seem to have any influence or must be very weak along that line. I think it very time that the citizens, especially the wholesale trade, should wake up and look after their own interests, as it is quite evident that the G. T. R. are not working for the city's interest. It looks very much as if they are trying to side-track Hamilton.

Trusting that this will stir up the citizens to look after their own interests, I remain, yours very truly, W. W. Godard, 108 East avenue north, Hamilton, April 4th, 1908.

An ugly frame of mind doesn't set off a picture as a picture

year was submitted. It claims that the cost of keeping the pump on since the behavior was less here than in most places. There had not been much crime during the year—very little of a serious nature. Among the offences were: Selling liquor to a minor, 1; selling during prohibited hours, 3; total amount of fines and costs collected, $302.08. The number of tramps afforded shelter was 74; previous year 31. Thirty-four doors were found open. Total number of police court trials, 154. Disposed of as follows: committed for trial, 13; sent to jail, 4; fined 98; dismissed 29; withdrawn, 6. The report asked for another year, but the Chief was decidedly told that the good order maintained by the present force shows an addition unnecessary. Among recommendations made by the Property Committee were the following: That five electric lights be installed in the town hall; that tenders be asked for on iron fence at Grove Cemetery; that former Hyde be granted $5 for flowers; that 25 spruce trees be furnished for the cemetery and that a number of good chairs be furnished for the Council chamber. The report was adopted except last clause against which Reeve Lawson vigorously protested, and it was referred back for further consideration. The finance committee's report, which was adopted, recommended that J. D. Pennington be released from his agreement retaining wall at the creek, on Head street, and that his factory be given water in the meantime at same charge as the Bertram works. The finance committee's report, which commended that a six inch water main be laid on the Hamilton and Binkley Hill road and that the house rented from Wm. Campbell, near the fire hall, be repaired at a cost of $125. All these wires, the report stated, had been removed from the fire alarm system; the bath in the fire hall was to be proceeded with, a septic tank installed and a shed erected in rear. The report was adopted and Council adjourned at 11.30.

FARMERS' GYM. EXHIBITION.

The Farmers' gym. exhibition at the Y.M.C.A. on Friday and Saturday promises to be one of the best which the Association has put on for some time. It will not only be funny and laughable, but there will be some of the best exhibitions of gymnastics that the local boys have ever given. In fact, no effort is being neglected to make this event as successful as possible. The admission will be 15 cents and reserved seats 10c extra. Plan for both evenings now open at the Y.M.C.A. office.

HOWARD GOULD Charges Wife With Following Actor Through New England.

New York, April 6.—Coincident with the motion of Katherine Clemons Gould for a jury to try her separation suit against her husband, counsel for Howard Gould to-day filed his answer to Mrs. Gould's suit, in which he charges his wife with improper conduct with Dustin Farnum, an actor, and alleges that she has brought scandal upon him by becoming intoxicated in various hotels in this city. The allegations regarding Farnum go into considerable detail, and allege, among other things, that Mrs. Gould, enamored of the actor, followed him upon his itinerary in the New England States in the fall of 1906. Mr. Gould's answer also reiterates the charges relative to Colonel Cody (Buffalo Bill).

BRASS BALL BOMB. Silverstein Tells How It Happened to Explode.

"I made the bomb from the top of a bedstead," Silverstein is reported to have said. "It was a round, brass ball and hollow. I bought a quarter of a pound of nails, broke in half and put them in the ball. I put nitro glycerine on top of them, and on top of the nitro glycerine I put some gunpowder. When I got to the park I saw a policeman who had beaten me. I put a fuse in the bomb and walked over to the fountain. I had a lighted cigarette in my hand and I tried to touch off the fuse, but in my excitement I put the cigarette in the wrong hole, causing the explosion."

New York, April 7.—The bomb thrown by Selig Silverstein, in Union Square Park a week ago last Saturday, following the dispersal by the police of a meeting of New York's unemployed, was made out of a brass top of a bedstead. This statement was made by Silverstein to an attendant at the hospital, where the bomb thrower lies, hovering between life and death, and is the first information from Silverstein since he committed his desperate act.

AUTO RULES. The Many Regulations of Sutherland's Auto Bill.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Toronto, April 7.—Mr. Sutherland's automobile bill to regulate the speed and operation of motor vehicles on highways was reported by the Municipal Committee of the Legislature this morning. The features of the bill are: No person shall for hire, pay or gain, drive a motor vehicle on a public street or highway unless he is licensed so to do, and no person shall employ anyone to drive a motor vehicle who is not so licensed; licenses are to be issued by the Provincial Secretary's Department. No person under the age of seventeen years shall drive a motor vehicle. If an automobile meets a horse or horses going in the opposite direction and if the horses appear frightened, or if signalled so to do, the driver shall stop the motor vehicle, including the motor, and shall remain stationary as long as may be necessary to allow such rider or driver to pass or until directed to proceed, and in case any animal appears to be frightened the operator and any occupants of the motor vehicle shall render assistance to the driver of the animal. On meeting a funeral procession outside the limits of a city the driver of a motor vehicle is to stop, and where practicable turn into an intersecting street, road or lane until the funeral procession has passed. Provision is made for persons sustaining loss or injury upon giving notice in writing.

HON. MR. MACKAY SHOWS UP WHITNEY'S VILE GERRYMANDER.

Every Change Made to Help the Tories--Toronto Electors to Have Two Votes to Others One.

Toronto, April 7.—Never before during this session has the Liberal Opposition in the Legislature been seen to better advantage than yesterday afternoon and evening when the strongest of fights was made against the Whitney gerrymander bill. The debate was opened early in the afternoon by the Liberal leader, Hon. Mr. Mackay, whose address was replete with force and logical argument. He took up the principles laid down by the Premier, and showed clearly and unmistakably how Mr. Whitney had wandered away from them.

"The Opposition leader centred his attack on the failure of the Premier to set upon the principle that at least the population of constituencies should be equalized. Admitting even that it was not possible in every instance to follow county boundaries, he conclusively proved that on the more basic principle, that the population of constituencies should be equalized, Mr. Whitney had not acted upon what he had declared to be his policy. He quoted constituency after constituency which had not been touched where the differences in population ran into thousands. Only when political advantage was to be gained had the cry of equalization been raised for the obvious purpose of gerrymandering.

Particular emphasis was also placed upon the course pursued regarding Toronto, where electors were to be given two votes each, whereas the electors in the rural ridings would still continue to have only one. The time of redistribution was inopportune, claimed Mr. Mackay, coming as it did so long after a general census. The leader was followed by Mr. Sam Clarke (Northumberland), Colonel Atkinson (North Norfolk), Messrs. C. M. Bowman (Bruce), W. H. Hoyle (Ontario), W. K. McNaught (North Toronto), and A. C. Pratt (South Norfolk). The debate will be continued this morning by Mr. A. E. Hislop, subsequently Mr. T. H. Preston (Brant) will offer an amendment to Toronto representation, and a further amendment will be proposed by Mr. J. A. Auld (Essex) with regard to his county.

Taking Premier's Argument.

In continuing the debate on the redistribution bill Hon. Mr. Mackay said his reason for submitting the resolution to make no change in old Ontario ridings at the present time was endorsed by the Premier in his finding that owing to the age and inaccuracy of the existing census it was not safe to depend upon the figures. He stated that in 1894 the cities of Ontario had been dealt with, when Toronto had been given four members, Hamilton two and Ottawa two. In 1902 certain changes had been made in New Ontario, as it was called, whereby additional representation was given to that part of the Province. Even now he agreed that it was advisable to increase the representation in New Ontario.

Continuing Mr. Mackay went to Great Britain for precedents when a redistribution was brought into the House of Commons by a joint committee of both parties, and the leaders of both parties had adopted the principles laid down. The delimitation of the constituencies continued the speaker, had then been left to an independent committee. In 1885 the principle of one man one vote and one constituency one representative had been laid down in Great Britain.

"I thought, sir, we had arrived at that here long ago. The leaders in Great Britain arrived at it as far back as 1855," said Mr. Mackay.

Turning to the policy of the Conservative party, the speaker said that in 1874 their leaders had opposed the question of increased representation in the Province. In 1902 it was found that the Conservatives in the House had taken a distinct stand. A bill had been brought in by the member for South Grey limiting the number of representatives to sixty. Just six years ago Conservatives had placed themselves on record as favoring just sixty members.

"The proper time to make a redistribution is after a census has been taken, when the figures are fresh," added Mr. Mackay, before he again referred to the policy of the Conservatives in 1902. The bill of the member for South Grey had provided that three high court judges should do the delimitation of the constituencies. Even the present Premier had once favored such a manner of delimitation, and he had great confidence that perhaps the Premier would return to that stand.

"We observe that this Government is not following the English precedent; it is not even following its own precedent," he said, and added that the Government was now "in the hands of the fillet and the stuffing" from the land of promise, even turning away back on the promise of 1902."

Not an Honest Attempt.

"Let us see," said Mr. Mackay, "if this bill is an honest attempt to do what the Premier promised, whether an honest attempt has been made to carry out the professions here the Premier's statements with reference to the principles which were to be followed, quoted in The Globe, a paper, by the way, which he is fond of quoting from, and said that he is willing to accept its statement on March 18: 'It is proposed that county boundaries shall be followed so far as possible, and it is desired that there should be an equalization of the population of the different ridings.'"

Proceeding, Mr. Mackay said that some of the boundary lines remained as they were in 1885, and the reason for the alteration which was now proposed was obvious. Let the constituencies of Peel and Cardwell be considered. They were constituencies where the county boundaries were not considered. In the 1890 census Cardwell had a population of 18,528. Take off Allandale, which had gone out of virtue of a special act and been added to Simcoe, leaving 17,478. The population of Cardwell, from which the townships of Albion and Bolton had been removed, and by the bill placed in their own county. County boundaries were observed there, but not in other cases. What was the reason? With 772, from Cardwell, and Bolton, with 471, with a population of only 14,000, while Peel had 21,675.

An Obvious Reason.

"I want to ask any honest man," said Mackay, "any man who pretends to be honest, if that is equalizing the constituencies? Why are two municipalities taken from the small and given to the greater? How can that be honestly defined as honestly endeavoring to equalize the population? Peel was 3 per cent. more than Cardwell, and now under these proposals it will be 50 per cent. From that which hath not, in as far as population is concerned, is taken about half that it hath. The reason is obvious. Right in the front row on this side of the House sits Mr. John Smith, the only man, it is supposed, who can hold Peel. This change turns over 150 Conservative votes, the battle-axe will fall on him, and that is the reason of the alteration.

"I would like," proceeded Mr. Mackay, "the people of Ontario to perceive exactly by what means I am willing that the people of the Province should judge of the boast which comes so often from the Premier: 'Honest enough to be bold and bold enough to be honest.'"

Not Backing Out.

Dealing with Brockville, Mr. Mackay said that the riding had not been touched since 1885. "I hold no brief for the old Government."

Premier Whitney—You are prepared to back out.

Mr. Mackay—I am not backing out. I am prepared to show my opinion when any question of yesterday is wrong. In order to change the Premier that his opinion is wrong I want to say that of what he lately called a scarified remembrance of what a decent riding should be, if the opinion of a sane, intelligent man were asked, he would say that the present riding is more compact than the proposed one.

The present riding of Brockville, Mr. Mackay said, had a population of 18,322 and Leeds 19,334, a difference of only 952. With such a small difference some good reason should be given why the proposed unshapely riding should be produced.

"It looks," said Mr. Mackay, holding up a plan, "like two elevators placed one on the top of the other, and a side ladder on each. I take the old riding, and I know nothing in practical politics which is more compact, while the new riding is this jumbled, zigzag affair."

Hon. A. J. Matheson—That is up-side-down.

Mr. Mackay—It doesn't matter which way you hold it, it is not shapely.

Equalizing Population.

Proceeding, he said that the Legislature had been told that the redistribution was necessary in order to equalize the populations of constituencies. He stated in reference to Peel and Cardwell that there was only a difference of 559, and between Brockville and Leeds something like a thousand. Now let them take the other side of the picture. Lambton West had a population of 34,808, Lambton East 22,479, a difference of about 12,000.

"And," said the Opposition leader, "they are left as they are by this measure, which I am not using too strong language in calling hollow and hypocritical." Proceeding, Mr. Mackay pointed out that in the population of the Kents there was a difference of 10,296 between East and West Edin 7,827, and yet no change made. "It is the case of where there is a difference of 500 or a thousand that change is necessary. Now we all know how hollow this talk about it being necessary. Take North Oxford, with 26,644, South Oxford with 22,760, a difference of 3,884, and there is no change; take North Perth with 29,253, and South Perth with 20,620, a difference of 8,633, and there is no change; but get John Smith's constituency, where the Tory party was defeated, and it is necessary to make a change. We might as well have the old plain facts and the truth. North Lanark has a population of 18,908, South Lanark 15,428, a difference of 3,480, but no change is made. The Provincial Treasurer has a higher ideal, and when he is asked to give up a township stands up and says, 'What we have we'll hold.'"

Hon. A. J. Matheson—The hon. gentleman is only 6,000 out in his figures.

Mr. Mackay—I give the figures as they were given me from the census of 1901.

Mr. Matheson explained that Smith's Falls had been placed in South Lanark for Dominion purposes since the last census.

Making Safe Seats.

Mr. Mackay, proceeding, pointed out that North Hastings had a population of 24,088, West Hastings 17,772, a difference of 6,316, Wellington South 21,162, East Wellington 17,192, a difference of 3,970, but no change had been made. Let them take the case of the Middlesex, all within county boundaries; and where equalization of population could have been the only reasonable excuse for a change. East Middlesex, according to the census of 1901, had a population of 21,625; West, 18,060, and North, 16,412.

"If," he said, "any honest attempt were being made to equalize the population of the constituencies, would you not reduce the largest? I find, however, notwithstanding the boast that this bill is for the equalization of population, that East Middlesex, with 26,925, or more than 4,000 more than the next, is left alone, and a little thimble rigging done with the two smaller constituencies to bring about certain results and make them safe Conservative seats." (Opposition cheers.)

Panning on Mr. Mackay said that in reference to the Hurons the remark had been made that there was "nothing like them in the heavens above, the earth beneath, or the waters under the earth"; but the proposal in regard to Toronto was the most indefensible in the bill.

The Case of Toronto.

"If it is logical," he said, "to give Toronto eight members, give the city eight constituencies. I want to know what the men of the towns and townships will say to this. They will have one vote and one representative, while the Toronto elector will have two votes and two representatives."

The object of "this wonderful piece of political thimble-rigging" was plain. Nobody who was not certified by the good old Conservative party was to have a chance. There was to be no opportunity for minority representation; and he would like to know what the Labor member thought of that.

The Labor men were getting out a candidate; that was an independent movement in the Conservative party, and so a club had to be used, and it struck Labor on the head," he added.

If it were desirable, he contended, that Toronto should have eight members, it would be easy to divide the city into eight constituencies, although he contended no change was necessary. Situated as Toronto was, the people had no difficulty in making their wishes known to the Government. He dared to say that no deputations had been received from the City Council or Board of Trade asking for increased representation, but that the application came from the party, and that even in its ranks would be found many who objected to "this fair faking and peanut-and-shell rigging."

In conclusion, Mr. Mackay said that everything under this bill had been done to make the fight an unfair one and to make it lop-sided. At present the Conservatives had a majority of 44, but according to the massed vote there was only a majority of ten.

Defence of Toronto.

Mr. McNaught, though it would be conceded, every fair-minded man that it was the intention of the Government to give the Province a square deal. The city of Toronto at the present time had a population of over 300,000, and he reminded the House that the Liberal party was "representation according to population." There was no reason, he claimed, why Toronto should not be represented in both Federal and Provincial Houses according to population. If Toronto were given six members, the Premier of the Liberal leader had favored, said Mr. McNaught, every man would only be giving about one-third of a vote according to representation by population. He believed that for the last twenty years the dice had been loaded against the Conservative side of the House.

The Honest Habit.

Mr. Sam. Clarke (Northumberland) was rather surprised that the member for North Toronto could not give more reasons why the Premier and the Government were right.

"I love an honest man," he said. "I think he is the noblest work of God. A thing I don't like is a man who is honest two-thirds of the time, but one-third of the time goes wrong, and then swears he is honest. This is one of the weaknesses of the Premier of this House and this Province. I say this in all seriousness, because he is in the habit of saying he is honest."

Continuing, he drew attention to the sitting members for Toronto. The member for West Toronto was Speaker, the member for Toronto was Attorney-General, the member for North Toronto was a Hydro-Electric Commissioner, and the member for East Toronto was Minister of Education.

"Imagine four Toronto members having the finest positions and the greatest honors," he said. "What is the balance of the Province getting? Surely the balance of this Province is entitled to something as well as the city of Toronto."

"Taking what does not belong to you, that is stealing in plain English," was another applauded observation of Mr. Clarke.

Proceeding, he referred to the special Redistribution Committee, of which he was a member, and he said that the fair to change a riding in Ontario Government had culled to suit their purposes. The Ross Administration and that of Premier Hardy always had to fight for their majorities, which were small. "They never were cowards enough to change a riding in any other country," he added.

The Premier had said that the Liberal members of the committee had not said anything during the first two meetings, but Mr. Clarke intimated to the House that there was perfect unanimity on the Government side of the House. In the committee Mr. Clarke said the Premier was "boss of the job." The Liberal members of the committee, he said, should have had from a week to two weeks to consider these changes, while the Government had perhaps a year to think over them.

"The Premier cannot show me," said Mr. Clarke, "one single gain to the Liberal party of Ontario in all the changes he has made. On the other hand, that he has secured and made safe for himself two ridings in his own behalf, when we had possessed them, or had a better chance than he had of carrying them."

The Independent Stand.

Major Rathbun (Independent), East Hastings, did not think the people in the rural ridings would consider favorably the doubling up in Toronto. He was quite at a loss to know why his riding was considered at all in the redistribution. Though perhaps his riding had been made better from a geographical standpoint, there were regular ridings in the Province which were made irregular. He pointed out that East and West Hastings had each a population of about 17,000 people, while the North had 25,000 people. In the new arrangement the East had 20,000 people, the West 17,000 and the North 22,000, putting the entire county out of balance. He could not see why a township giving a majority of 162 Conservative should be thrown into a riding which last election gave the largest number of votes of any riding in the county. If the bill went through he claimed it would arrogate all the power of Hastings and Prince Edward to the bosses, a small group of men living in Belleville.

Wants Riding Back.

At the evening session the debate on the redistribution bill was resumed by Mr. Duff (West Simcoe), who said that had the Government desired they could have created many safe seats for Conservatives. He hoped that before the next session its third reading Cardwell would be wiped out and the old riding of South Simcoe reappear.

Was Mutilated.

Col. Atkinson, North Norfolk, said that if Brockville riding was scarified before the change Huron county was mutilated. The member for West Middlesex (Mr. Ross), as well as the member for Peel (Mr. Smith), had not been gerrymandered. The Minister of Public Works had secured a Liberal municipality, which had been taken from Mr. Auld in South Essex, but he would have trouble in handling it. Regarding Toronto, the speaker said his "worst expectation" had been surpassed. How were the agriculturists going to be represented in the Legislature? he asked, and he added that he did not think they would have any representation at all. In a city of 300,000 people, 100,000 people, or more than 20,000 in the rural districts. He wanted to know what the agriculturists would say to the large representation of Toronto, where a member would represent one and three-quarter square miles, though in the rural districts a member represented hundreds of square miles.

"If you link up votes in Toronto, why did you take the linking away from Ottawa?" he asked. Continuing, Col. Atkinson said that the Premier must have listened too much to the political helters of the back concessions. The Premier had been weak enough to be led.

Mr. Pratt (South Norfolk) said the dual representation in Ottawa gave the best reason for such a course in Toronto. Before the redistribution bill had come down the member for East Huron had taken "good care to get under." The only reason for such a course of action was because the count was "Whitney's wards." Notwithstanding the "lip-lip-loyalty" of Liberals, he noticed Opposition members were dropping out. Mr. Bowman (North Bruce) said the Opposition claimed that the Premier had not recognized the conditions which should govern a matter of this kind. Had the Liberals at Ottawa adopted the methods of Mr. Whitney they would immediately have taken steps to undo the iniquitous gerrymandering of 1882, but they had waited until a census was taken in Ontario at present the Government were dealing with a census eight years old. There was absolutely no sound excuse for the Government dealing with the question in old Ontario at the present time.

"The special committee business, Mr. Bowman said, was a farce.

"We attended those meetings day after day, but even had we had any suggestions to make they would not have been considered for a moment. The whole thing was cut and dried before the minority representation was thought of."

The debate was adjourned by Mr. Hislop (East Huron).

MANIAC SHOT THREE POLICEMEN.

PLAIN JOHN SMITH, OF MONTREAL, THE SHOOTER.

He Defied Arrest for Five Hours—Police- man Shea Killed With a Bullet Through the Heart—Chief Carpenter Badly Wounded, and Constable Focault Also Wounded.

Montreal, April 6.—One policeman dead with a bullet through his heart, two more policemen badly wounded, and a desperate assassin dying, in brief, the story of the most awful tragedy ever enacted in this city.

The affair took place to-night, when for five hours a desperado held an entire city at bay and defied many scores of policemen. The trouble started at 5:30, when two policemen went to serve a warrant on John Smith, who lived at 34 Manoe street. Smith, who boarded at this place with Mrs. Pritchard, got behind with his board, and his landlady requested a settlement. He refused, and after a wordy war she went down and issued a writ for his arrest. Two policemen went to serve the warrant, accompanied by Mrs. Pritchard. The first policeman requested Mrs. Pritchard to lead the way into the house, but she refused, saying she was afraid of Smith. Constable Focault then said he would go in, and made an effort to open the door, which was held on a chain.

He had no sooner put his hand to open the door than a revolver cracked, and the bullet hit him on the temple and glanced off, fell back into the arms of Constable Jack Shea, and was laid on the sidewalk. Shea, undaunted, started in after Smith, but a bullet through the heart finished Shea. The report of the shooting quickly spread, and scores of policemen and thousands of citizens surrounded the house. Efforts were made to smoke the man out by means of formalin, but they were of no avail. Every little while he would appear at the window with a double-barrelled shotgun over his arm and laugh at the people on the street. The police were ordered to take him alive and did not shoot. Although both the front and back of the house, the roof and neighboring houses were alive with policemen, none dared venture into the house, defended as it was by a madman with a gun. All the windows were closely shut and the doors bolted.

About 8 o'clock firemen came and four streams of water were turned on the front and rear. As soon as the first stream hit the front window Smith fired and brought down Chief Carpenter, who was directing the attack. The chief was shot through the hand and groin, and fell without a groan. The rage of the crowd became terrific. Cries of "Kill him; kill him!" rose from thousands of throats. Men rushed at the house, threw ice and stones at the windows and implored the police to let them shoot the desperate murderer. The police now took the initiative and began a fierce attack on all sides of the house. For two hours the streams of water were kept up, and a perfect fusillade of bullets rattled against the windows and doors. Brave men ventured into the building under cover of the flood of water and the fire of their comrades, but only after five hours did they get their man.

Smith was shot in three places, but, strange to say, is still alive. One bullet shattered his jaw, another pierced his breast, and the third broke his wrist. After this he cried for quarters, and was seized and carried out. The crowd went mad with rage and again cried to kill him, but the police said he was dead in order to calm the frantic crowd. He was carried to the hospital, but will probably never recover.

John Smith, the crazy man, who did the shooting, was a well known figure around the streets of the city. He was a book agent and canvassed down town offices with his wares. He was a conspicuous figure in the crowd, with his hair parted behind, wearing a silk hat, frock coat, patent leather shoes, and with a military bearing, he was easily noticed in a crowd. He had lived here for a number of years, but it is thought that he was a Parisian Frenchman living under an assumed name. He was about 60 years of age and unmarried. Until recently he was looked upon by Mrs. Pritchard as her star boarder. Down town business men thought him rather odd, and the general impression is that he was suddenly crazy.

Certainly no one but a maniac would have done as he did to-night. For five hours he defied the entire police force of this city, and shot down three policemen. The crowd were frantic, and cried again and again for the police to shoot, until Chief Carpenter was laid low and they refrained from firing a shot. With his fall they began their deadly work, and an hour afterwards Smith was carried away in the ambulance with three bullet wounds.

The crowd was numbered by thousands and thousands, and added the police and firemen in every possible way. Every house-top, every tree and telegraph pole, was crowded with people, while the streets and lanes for blocks around were packed.

A plucky incident happened when Chief Carpenter fell. An old white-haired man hobbled into the fire zone and tried to lift the fallen chief. For a few seconds he stood alone, and then a score of men rushed into the danger zone and carried off the chief.

For sheer dare-devil work and cold-blooded murder this attack is without equal in the annals of this city. People are stunned and shocked at the awful toll of life this maniac was able to levy.

Shea, who was shot, was a young man only married a year ago. He was brave and very popular with his associates.

Great sympathy is felt for Chief Carpenter, and the people are loud in their praise of the splendid work he did before he fell. The only criticism made was that the police were too slow in beginning to shoot. The crowd felt that the man deserved no mercy, and that the police should have opened a fusillade at once, and not waited until he had shot Chief Carpenter.

Mr. W. H. Hearns has been nominated for the Legislature by the Conservatives of Sault Ste. Marie.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST Homestead Regulations

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Provinces, excepting 8 and 28, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person the sole head of a family, or male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for homestead entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or sub-agency. Entry by proxy is not allowed, but may be made at an Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

An application for entry or cancellation made personally at any sub-agency's office may be wired to the Agent by the Sub-agent by proxy, provided the applicant has the land applied for in vacant receipt of the telegram such application is to have priority and the land will be held until the necessary papers to complete the transaction are received by mail.

In case of "pre-emption" or fraud the applicant will forfeit all priority of claim if entry has been granted it will be summarily cancelled.

An application for cancellation must be made personally at the Agency. It is eligible for homestead entry, and only one application for cancellation will be received from an individual until such application has been disposed of.

Where an entry is cancelled subsequent to institution of cancellation proceedings, the applicant for cancellation will be entitled to prior right of entry.

Applicant for cancellation must state in what particular the homesteader is in default.

A homesteader whose entry is not the subject of cancellation proceedings, may, subject to the approval of the Department, relinquish it in favour of father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister if eligible, but to one use only, on filing declaration of abandonment.

DUTIES. A settler is required to perform the duties under one of the following plans:

- (1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land during the term of three years.
- (2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the duties in accordance with the plan on farming land owned solely by him, not less than 100 acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Such residence on land will not meet this requirement.
- (3) If the settler uses the land for other purposes (such as a homesteader's saw mill, or residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than 100 acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his residence duties by living with the father (or mother).
- (4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than six miles distant from the exclusive of road allowances crossed in the measurement.
- (5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

MINING REGULATIONS.

COAL.—Coal mining rights may be leased for a period of twenty years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,000 acres shall be leased to one individual or company. A royalty at the rate of five cents per ton shall be collected on the merchantable coal mined.

QUARTZ.—A pre-emptive right of eight years of age, or over, having discovered mineral in place, may locate a claim 1,000 x 1,500 feet. The fee for recording a claim is $5.

At least 100 lbs. must be expended on the claim each year of paid to the mining recorder to keep the claim open. When $500 has been expended or paid, the locator may, upon having a survey made, and upon complying with other regulations, purchase the claim at $1 per acre.

The latest provision for the payment of a royalty of 3 1/2 per cent. on the sales.

Placer mining claims generally are for five years, unless otherwise provided.

An applicant may obtain two leases to explore for gold of five miles each for a term of twenty years, renewable at the discretion of the Minister of the Interior.

The locator shall have a dredge in operation within one season from the date of the lease for each five acres. Rental $10 per acre for each mile of river lease. Royalty at the rate of 3 1/2 per cent. collected on the output after it exceeds $10,000.

W. W. COURT,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

COMMON SPRING DISEASE.

The prevalence of Catarrh in the spring time is readily accounted for by rapid weather changes—sunny to-day—rain to-morrow—hard frost day after day.

The wise person protects his constitution from the inroads of Catarrh by inhaling "Catarrhazone." This purely vegetable remedy destroys all the germs in the air passages, treats over a thousand square feet of mucous surface at once, and goes deeper than any other known remedy can penetrate.

CAPE-TO-CAIRO RAILWAY.

Cecil Rhodes' Great Dream Near Realization.

London, April 6.—Cecil Rhodes' great dream of a Cape-to-Cairo railway is pushing on toward realization. Negotiations have just been completed for the extension of the road from its present terminus from Broken Hill to Mabaya, on the Congo frontier. It has been arranged with a Belgian group to further continue the line northwest through the great Congo belt to Ruwenzori.

Rhodes' idea was, of course, impossible. It will be necessary to traverse a great wedge of foreign territory south of the equator, including the French Congo, the Congo Free State and German East Africa. The great question of the Congo and Khartoum is not yet arranged for, but it can scarcely be doubted that the great enterprise will be carried through in the not distant future.

Wife of Burglar Imprisoned in Guelph Jail Has Vanished.

Guelph, Ont., April 6.—Mrs. Cudney, wife of Alex. Cudney, the man who is confined in Guelph jail for committing numerous burglaries in the city and vicinity, has left the city and her whereabouts are unknown to the police, who are anxious to locate her. While Mrs. Cudney was in the city she was the chief witness against George Johnson, the man implicated with her husband in the pork stealing cases.

KHEDIVE HAS NERVE.

Ruler of Egypt Showed It While Running a Locomotive.

London, April 6.—The Khedive of Egypt, whose great-fad is locomotive driving, had a narrow escape the other day while running an engine on the State Railway. He suddenly found his way blocked by a wagon loaded with pig iron. The great engineer showed wonderful presence of mind. He reversed and used his full brake power, and stopped just short of the obstruction. He then left the engine, walked back to a station and had an interview with the responsible official, during which that individual probably will never forget.

ENTITLED TO PARTICULARS

One ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion;
One ounce Compound Sarsaparilla;
Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla;
Mix, and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, drinking plenty of water.

The above prescription has been found invaluable in the treatment of kidney, bladder and urinary troubles, and diseases arising therefrom, such as rheumatism, sciatica, lame back, and lumbago, and we feel that the public are entitled to particulars concerning it.

A prominent physician states that the excellent results that have been obtained from the use of the mixture are due to its direct action upon the kidneys, assisting them in their work of filtering all poisonous waste matter and acids from the blood and expelling same in the urine, and at the same time restoring the kidneys to a healthy condition.

He further states that anyone suffering from affections of this nature will find it to be very beneficial, and suggests that it be given a trial.

Eminent Physicians

Have repeatedly stated that if constipation did not exist there would be no appendicitis. Laxa-Food will relieve constipation, and that worn-out feeling will vanish. Leading grocers sell it.—A. W. Maguire & Co.

The new school in Hochelaga Ward, Montreal, named in honor of Miss Sarah Maxwell, who gave her life to save the children in the fire some time ago, was opened yesterday.

The Tremona sailed yesterday from Sorel for Montreal. This is the first sailing for that port.

The new bill at the Savoy Theatre pleased large audiences yesterday afternoon and evening. Comedy is strong in the bill, which contains the spice of life—variety. The headliner is The Okito Family, Chinese magicians, and their act is a very pretentious one, being elaborately staged. Okito is a conjurer and deceptions of remarkable powers, and his act combines a happy blending of simple legendarian effects with a repertoire of magic and mystery of a much more wonderful character. While he introduces a number of new tricks, the easy way in which he performed many of the old 'mystifiers' was refreshing.

To lovers of vocal music the turn of the Apollo quartette was the real feature of the programme—and who doesn't love real good singing? The quartette is composed of Messrs. C. A. Broadbridge, Bruce Logan, L. Maréchal and Sidney Craven, all of whom possess rich voices that blend most beautifully. The first of all gave a musical playlet, entitled "The Man Outside," the scene being laid in a college den. Three of the people appear in the role of students and the fourth played the part of huckster. In the course of the comic quartette sing "Come to Bohemia," in a way that has never been sung here. In response to hearty encore the quartette sang several comic choruses and brought down the house.

H. V. Fitzgerald, an old favorite with Savoy patrons, being a professional artist of great ability, presented a one-man drama entitled "The Lost Pocketbook." Fitzgerald made lightning changes, some being made in full view of the audience. In the course of the piece he made 25 changes. His clever work was loudly applauded.

The rest of the bill was enjoyable, and was made up as follows: Tedd and Lazzell, in a German comedy sketch, "Delmonico's Upside Down," Finn and Ford, eccentric dancers; Wm. F. Denny, a black-faced monologue artist; Burns Morris & Co., in a comedy sketch, "What Happened to O'Hara," and the kinetograph pictures.

Mr. Leslie Harris, the English entertainer, will appear in Association Hall on Thursday, April 10 and seats are now on sale at Nordheimer's music store. He gave a recital in Massey Hall, Toronto, recently, and this is his first visit to the city since he left Toronto.

For over two hours he kept the gathering in a constant ripple of mirth, and during his imitation of amateurs in opera, it is a safe estimation to say that the people present have not laughed so heartily since the first of the year.

Mr. Aldous on Mendelssohn. Mr. Aldous gave the fifth of the series of musical lectures to a good sized audience in the Conservatory Hall last evening. The subject of his remarks was the life and works of Mendelssohn.

Unlike most famed people, Mr. Aldous said, Mendelssohn was reared in luxury. His people were wealthy, and gave him every advantage, his education being the very best procurable. He was quite as good a letter writer as he was a composer. Although having a comparatively easy life, his father and mother were sensible in letting him become master of the work wherein he knew his talent lay. He was never satisfied unless he was active, and, being a splendid gymnast, and swimmer, and an enthusiastic chess player, he was very rarely idle.

His impatience and sensitiveness made him many real and imaginary enemies, for if a person did not at once praise his works he believed that person to be against him, and would have nothing to do with him. In 1837, when he was fifteen years of age, he began his first grand tour through England, Italy, Spain, and Switzerland, playing many of his own compositions. Among these, written between 1818 and 1821, were three quartettes for piano, violin, viola and cello; a sonata, several songs and overtures, and the famous "Midsummer Night's Dream," with many other less important ones. He was well received everywhere, and astonished all who heard him for his remarkably brilliant and correct interpreting of the old masters' works far surpassed all previous efforts. At the festival of Cologne, Grand Concert of Leipzig and Frankfurt he had marked success. Shortly after this his health failed him, the continued strain being too much for his system. In 1837 he was married in Frankfurt. That year, in June, he played his magnificent work, "Hymn of Praise," with the next two foremost in the rank of oratorios, "Elijah" and "St. Paul." After not having touched the organ for many months, on Aug. 6, 1840, he gave an organ recital in England, his fugue in E major and Prelude in C minor creating a great sensation. After this he completely broke down, and had to give up his work and rest for a long time.

In 1843 Mendelssohn and several other noted musicians started a school for singing, organ, piano, musical history and Italian. Many large donations were given to the enterprise, and till the present day it is one of the foremost music schools. He holds the highest place as symphony writer, and his Songs Without Words are gems. At this stage of the address Miss Gwilda Peppi-Szós played very acceptably two of his Songs Without Words.

At Bennett's Theatre. The audience at the Bennett Theatre last evening was given a surprise when Paul Conchas, the headliner for this week, came on for his part of the entertainment. His feats of strength were little short of marvellous, and he began with which he handled cannon balls, and a large cannon, mounted, which he balanced on his chin, gave the spectators somewhat of a shock. He is a tall, well-built, athletic young man, and he certainly scored a big success. Not a little of the success of the act is attributed to his valet. The valet is a good comedian, and fills in the waiting moments between some of Conchas' feats, in a running line of comedy. A dainty sketch "A Wild Rose," captured the fancy of the audience from the first. It is replete with comedy, well acted by competent people. The story of the playlet is a simple one, that of a wife trying to regain the love of her husband, but it is worked out in such a clever manner, as to call for several curtains at the finish.

Another act which commands attention is that of Terley, the European novelty act. The curtain rises on a full stage with a large cabinet in the centre. A young lady, evidently of French extraction, in the announcement. In the cabinet is Terley, the head and shoulders of the gentleman being shown. The young lady then accordingly moulds the head and shoulders into busts of famous men of the past and present. The impersonations of Joseph Chamberlain, Pope Leo and Theodore Roosevelt are among his best efforts. It was very well received. Almont and Dumont, instrumentalists have a dainty musical act. The team is composed of a lady and gentleman, and both are players of ability. Mr. Almont introduces a new instrument to the public, called the Septophone. It is a brass instrument of an indescribable shape, but the music that comes from it is very sweet. Hibbert and Warren are two blackface comedians, who sing and dance, one of them plays the piano while the other does an eccentric dance, that is out of the ordinary. They have a neat line of patter, that goes well. Miss Emma Partridge, a soprano, with a voice of great flexibility, has a charming presence and her three selections met with the approval of the audience. Her singing of "The Last Rose of Summer" was a treat indeed. Berry and Evans open the show with a bunch of nonsense that goes fairly well. The pictures for the week are very pleasing.

Julia Marlowe. To-night this foremost actress will make her debut in Hamilton for the first time since her notable triumphs in England last spring. It is a delight to welcome Julia Marlowe and local theatre-goers seem to realize it, as is manifested at the box office of the Grand.

where the sale for her engagement has been something unusual. To-night Miss Marlowe will give her exquisite rendering of Shakespeare's capricious, but winning heroine, Rosalind in "As You Like It," an ideal bill for this actress.

Al. H. (Metz) Wilson. Golden-voiced singer Al. H. Wilson, the ambassador of German dialect, will be the interesting attraction at the Grand Saturday next. This is an event that can well be looked forward to with much anticipation by those who love the best that there is in pleasing and modern theatricals. The lovable "Metz" is possessed of a voice such as few men have ever been endowed with. When he sings it is with a plaintive feeling and a touch of romantic tenderness, while the sweet notes of his melodious voice seem to vibrate even through his speaking parts.

Madame Le Grand Reed. Do not forget the concert of the Hamilton Symphony Orchestra, issued by Madame Le Grand Reed, in Association Hall to-morrow night at 8.15. A musical treat is promised all who attend.

ON SOUTHERN BELLE. Veteran Lake Seaman Died at Toronto Yesterday. Chief Officer James Richardson, of the steamer Chippewa, died early yesterday morning at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, after a lingering illness. Mr. Richardson was one of the best known mariners on Lake Ontario, and he was in the employ of the Niagara Navigation Company for twenty years. He came to Canada from Dublin, where he was born, in 1836, being then seven years old. At the age of 13 he began his lake sailing career, and was known in every port from Montreal to Chicago, especially in Toronto and Hamilton. In 1879 he was mate of the steamer Southern Belle, which had been a blockade runner during the Civil War between the Northern and Southern States and was purchased by Keith & Fitzsimons of Toronto, and ran on the Toronto-Hamilton line for years. Later Mr. Richardson was chief mate on the Chibou, of the Niagara Navigation Company, and when she was burned at Lawiston in 1894 he was appointed to the steamer Chippewa.

AND THE FOUNTAIN BLEW UP. Denver, Col.—When Dr. Sam Rothchild struck a match to light a cigar, in front of a public drinking fountain, there was a terrific explosion. Fragments of the fountain mangled his leg, almost stripped a woman of her clothes, and upset a bicyclist, whose machine was wrecked. Gas from a street main had leaked into the fountain and was pouring from a faucet when the doctor struck the match.

This is almost as remarkable as the experience of Mr. James Dingwall, of Williamstown, Ont. All his life, he had suffered from constipation. "And the only medicine I ever remember to do me any real good was 'Fruit-atives,'" he writes. "I am now over eighty years of age, and I strongly recommend 'Fruit-atives' for chronic constipation."

"Fruit-atives" are fruit juices and tonics in the form of pleasant-tasting tablets. They cure Constipation, sweeten the stomach and regulate the liver, kidneys and bowels. 50c a box—$2.50. At all dealers.

King Edward in 1902. Besides these services he organized and directed the great memorial celebration of Purcell (1895) and of Orlando Gibbons (1907). He has composed music for and played the organ at the funerals of four of the greatest of modern Englishmen—Darwin, Browning, Tennyson and Kelvin. He played the funeral marches for all the great politicians of the late Victorian era, such as W. E. Gladstone, Lord Randolph Churchill, the great Earl of Shaftesbury, the Marquis of Salisbury and others.

About the Sheffield Choir. The Board of Trade of the city of Ottawa has followed the steps of the Mayors of Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa in extending a cordial welcome to the Sheffield Choir upon the occasion of its coming visit to Canada next November. The choir will leave Sheffield on Oct. 23 and, taking a special train to Greenock, will embark on the new steamer Grampan of the Allan line, which has been specially chartered for their accommodation. The choir is expected to arrive in Montreal on Nov. 2. There it will be given an official welcome by Mayor Payette and the Board of Trade.

Frank Daniels. Frank Daniels, with his quaint, almost roguish methods, unique mannerisms, personal magnetism, and a new opera, comes to the Grand on Friday. Mr. Daniels plays the role of a charlatan astrologer and prophet, Omar Khayyam, jun., the tattooed man, a soubriquet which he derives from the presence on his neck of a mystic tattoo mark in the form of the Persian sacred beetle. This soubriquet has been the means of his being appointed regent during the Shah's absence on a visit to Paris. The regent loses no time in getting busy with his convivial fun and the mirth is continued when he falls in love with Leila, the most beautiful of the Shah's court beauties. Complications arise because she loves a Bedouin chief, and Omar in turn is the victim of the devotion of Fatima, a wallflower more tricky than young. There is further love interest centering in Omar's pretty daughter. Omar is about to remove his rival when he discovers on his neck the same magic sign that he himself bears, and his astrologic lore has told him that his own fate is thereby linked with the Bedouin's. Situations follow which are described in ultra-comical, and the Shah's return finally sets everything in happy order.

The opera is said to be full of tuneful songs, of which "Omar Khayyam" and "Take Things Easy," sung by Mr. Daniels, and "Nobody Loves Me," belong to that class which is unwittingly whistled.

Between the Acts. The regular literary meeting of the Young People's Union of Unity Church to-morrow evening will consist of "An Evening With Mendelssohn."

Miss Evelyn Johnson, who won the first prize in the juvenile amateur contest at Bennett's Theatre on Saturday afternoon, is a daughter of Prof. Bert Johnson, the ventriloquist and magician. She is only five years of age and she scored with an Indian song.

THOS. MEANEY DEAD SWEDENBORG'S BODY MINERS CONFER. MAN MAY DIE. Was Formerly Railway Cashier and Lumber Merchant Here. Exhumed at London and Sent to Sweden For Interment. Miners and Operators Anxious to Resume Work Again. Horseman Accidentally Shot Threatened With Lockjaw. Indianapolis, April 7.—Miners and operators of the central competitive mining field, composed of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, agreed last night to hold an inter-State conference between employers and employees at Toledo, O., on April 14th. The miners and operators present at the informal conference between the miners of the whole central field and the operators of Ohio, Indiana and Western Pennsylvania were almost unanimously in favor of holding a joint convention for the purpose of renewing contracts. A committee composed of ten miners and operators was appointed to report to the conference this morning, when the session convenes. The real work of this committee, however, is to agree on a date for the general resumption of business in the central competitive field pending an inter-State settlement. This date will probably be next Monday.

Mild Request. Mr. Stubb—Yes, my dear, I am going off on a trip and I shall send you a souvenir postal card from every place I stop. Mrs. Stubb—Er—John, would it make any difference if instead of souvenir postal cards you made it souvenir postal money orders?—Chicago News.

Washington April 7.—Thomas McCreery, the New York horseman, accidentally shot by Congressman J. Thos. Hefflin, of Alabama, a few days ago, is in a serious condition. He was operated on for lockjaw at George Washington Hospital yesterday as the only hope of saving his life. McCreery was among the bystanders when Hefflin, after an altercation with a negro named Lundy, on a Pennsylvania avenue car, threw his antagonist off the car, and fired at him twice through a window. One of the bullets hit Lundy in the neck, the other found lodgment in McCreery's leg. His injury was thought to be slight, and he did not go to the hospital until two days afterwards. Yesterday symptoms of lockjaw developed and his condition grew alarming. Congressman Hefflin's arraignment on the charge of shooting Lundy, who has recovered from his wound, is set for Friday of this week.

A RESTFUL NIGHT. London, April 7.—The bulletin issued this morning regarding the health of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman says that the patient spent a quiet day yesterday and passed a restful night. The president of the woman's club wished to resign. "No other member can fill her shoes," declared her friends. "That's so," assented her enemies. Then there was more trouble than ever.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

London, April 7.—The body of Emanuel Swedenborg, the famous mystic and writer, was exhumed in this city to-day and started on its journey to Sweden for final burial in Sweden soil. The remains were taken up this morning from the vault in front of the communion table in the Swedish Church in Princess Square, where they were deposited in 1772, one hundred and thirty-six years ago. Services were held over the body this afternoon, after which it was placed on a train for Dartmouth, where it will be embarked on the Swedish cruiser Flygia for transit to Sweden. The Swedish Government formally requested the exhumation and surrender of the body, and the British Government assented.

TOO WINDY. Pekin, April 7.—The throne has approved Admiral Sah's recommendation for the entertainment of the U. S. fleet at Chefoo, but the government declares that this will be impracticable on account of the winds if the fleet arrives after September.

Mr. Asquith's wife was once described by Gladstone as one of the cleverest young women he had ever met. She is an admirable political hostess and will be invaluable to her husband in his new position as Premier of Great Britain.

CHICAGO ELECTIONS. Chicago, April 7.—The city election to-day was confined entirely to aldermanic contests in the various wards. There was no direct issue involved except where, in eight or ten of the city wards, the election of aldermen hinged somewhat upon the closing of saloons on Sunday. In a few townships in Cook county, outside of Chicago, local option was the issue. The campaign in general has been rather quiet.

CHANGE NAME INTERCOLONIAL.

P. E. I. Member Wants It Called Interprovincial.

The Island's Demands Again Before the House.

Fisher's Bills to Amend Food and Dairy Acts.

Ottawa, April 6.—Private members had their last opportunity to-day, the Government having decided to appropriate Mondays after this. The session was devoted to another discussion of the grievances of Prince Edward Island.

Hon. Sydney Fisher's Bills.

Hon. Sydney Fisher introduced three bills. The first proposes slight amendments to the meat and canned foods act, with a view of making it more workable. The second bill is to amend the fruit marks act and the dairy act by making the penalties more stringent. For a first offence under the fruit marks act the penalty will be from $10 to $50, for a second $50 to $100, and for a third offence $500. Penalties for the adulteration of cheese will also be increased. The object of the third bill is to repeal the canned goods act, which, Mr. Fisher explained, was obsolete and conflicted in some details with the meat and canned goods act passed last year. All three bills were read a first time.

Government Railway System.

Mr. Hughes (King) moved the following resolution: "That in the opinion of this House the names 'Intercolonial Railway' and 'Prince Edward Island Railway' should be dropped and the name 'Interprovincial Railways' substituted therefor. That the Government system of railways should be considered as one entity in the keeping of accounts, and in all other respects. That the ferry service across the Straits of Northumberland should be owned and managed by the Railway Department, winter and summer, as the ferry service across the Straits of Canso is now, and as the ferry service across the Gulf of Georgia, between Vancouver and Victoria, is owned and managed by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. Mr. Hughes argued that as Canada was no longer a group of colonies, but a federation of Provinces, the name Intercolonial was not properly descriptive. The Prince Edward Island Railway should be regarded as an integral portion of the Government road, and not in any respect as a foreign road. There was, he maintained, an unfair discrimination against the Island in the matter of freight and transportation rates.

Mr. Martin (Queen's) joined in the complaint against the high rates charged for freight and transportation to and from the Island.

Mr. Macdonald (Pictou) did not think it could be urged that there was any discrimination on the part of the Government against the Island. He suggested that in the matter of rates Prince Edward Island would benefit if Port Pictou was accorded the same favorable treatment as other ports in respect of what was known as export rates. He cordially supported that part of the motion which urged that the steamboat service across the Straits of Northumberland should be under the management of the Railway Department, and hoped the method of the Intercolonial in dealing with claims would be reformed.

Mr. Lefurgey claimed that the only solution of the difficulties which Prince Edward Island complained of would be the construction of a tunnel between the Island and the mainland.

Mr. Emmerson said that as long as the Prince Edward Island Railway had a narrow gauge it could not be regarded as an integral part of the Intercolonial. He did not think that the placing of the ferry service under the Department of Railways would improve rates or alter existing conditions.

Mr. Lemox and Mr. Wright (Renfrew) favored a tunnel if it could be carried out at a reasonable cost.

Mr. Graham's Reply.

Hon. Mr. Graham said there had been no discrimination against Prince Edward Island or any other part of the country in fixing rates and maintained that the compact of confederation had been kept in regard to communication between the Island and the mainland. The complaint that the Island had been neglected was not justified, in view of the fact that it cost the country $84,000 a year to maintain communication during the winter months. Leaving out consideration of the cost, he would hesitate very much before he would consent to a change of the name Intercolonial. It was known among railwaymen all over the world by that name, and had a reputation as such which they should preserve and improve. The question of whether the Railway Department should take over the ferry service was a debatable one. If the ferry service was to be regarded as part of the general transportation scheme such a step might be advisable, but on the other hand, he did not think it would be wise to incur heavy expense in securing new steamers, when in a few years they might have to be discarded for a tunnel. The whole matter was one for consideration and further inquiry and he suggested that the motion might be withdrawn.

Mr. Borden complained of the Government's lack of action in regard to a tunnel. He favored the proposal to have the ferry service managed by the Railway Department.

Hon. Mr. Brodeur thought that as a general principle all the boats should be under the jurisdiction of the Marine Department.

Mr. Hughes withdrew his motion, and the House adjourned at 10.30.

"Ruggles, I'd rather you wouldn't say anything about it, but my success was only an accident. I can't write ads for shucks. I found that out when I advertised for a hired girl for Mrs. Squibb. We didn't get any applications, Ruggles, not a lone, solitary, dog-goned one."

The Farmer's Retort.

"What do you call your red automobile, mister?" drawled the old farmer at the drawbridge. "The Fool Killer," bantered the man in goggles. "I call it that because it kills all the fools who happen to cross in front of it."

The old farmer cleaned his pipe with a straw and then replied, evenly: "That so, mister? Well, is there any chance of it blowing up and killing the fool inside?"—Chicago News.

STEERS RACED TUG-BOAT.

Exciting Race in East River at New York. New York, April 6.—A fleet of tug-boats pursuing a drove of wild Texas steers swimming in the East River was the exciting and unusual spectacle witnessed by hundreds of persons to-day. A Lehigh Valley Railroad float carrying a carload of thirty steers and several cars loaded with coal sprang a leak in the East River near the foot of North Ninth street, Brooklyn, and sank. Before it went down the deck hands opened the door and the steers made a dash for safety. About fifteen of them got clear of the float before it went down, but the others were drowned. A lively chase ensued. Passing tugs joined in the pursuit and several unsuccessful attempts were made to lasso the swimming steers. Those that were captured were towed ashore, where

CHRISTOPHER KRESS DEAD.

Preston Springs Hotel Proprietor Passes Away. Preston Springs, Ont., April 6.—Christopher Kress, proprietor of the Kress House, passed away this evening about 6 o'clock at his hotel, after being confined to his bed for the past few weeks. Deceased was well known throughout Ontario and in many other parts of Canada and the United States. He was in his 84th year, and had since 1851 conducted the Hotel Kress in this town. He was born in Germany.

Man Caught Near Woodstock Busy With Rail.

Woodstock, April 6.—The city police were informed to-day of a dastardly attempt at train-wrecking, which took place at about 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Sectionman Hunt was patrolling his section of the track at the Hunter street bridge, a few blocks west of the station, when he observed a man prying up a rail with a crow-bar. He had been previously working at a fish-plate with a wrench. The man dropped his tools and ran on the appearance of the sectionman. He is supposed to be a tramp, and the police have a good description of him. It is supposed that his design was to wreck the 10.45 a. m. express. C. P. R., from Toronto.

Many Get Consumption In Spring Months.

The System is Generally Run Down and Lacks Power to Destroy the Germ.

Winter takes the vitality and snap out of all. Instead of being rich and healthful, the blood is sure to be thin and watery in the spring. An overpowering tiredness comes upon us—this is followed by dead weakness, loss of sleep, poor appetite and depression. Doctors all say the only hope lies in supplying lots of new blood which must be brimming with vitality and building material.

The quickest way to get the necessary supply of vitalized blood is by taking Ferrozene. It establishes a high standard of blood, increases nerve forces, restores bodily vigor in a truly marvelous way. You are amply protected from spring fever and debility diseases by using Ferrozene. This is proved by Mrs. E. J. Richardson, of Manotick, Ont., who tells in the following words how she gained in health and spirit from Ferrozene: "For about two years I was not well. I was thin and anemic. Towards spring I fell into a condition of nervous exhaustion that made life scarcely worth living. A dead tiredness seemed to hang over me like a load of lead. I simply could not do housework of any kind. A bad cough developed that worried me greatly, for I thought it might be tubercular. When I first read about Ferrozene I was convinced it was good. I took it regularly for about eight weeks and the change in my health was wonderful. My cheeks filled out and became clear and rosy. I gained eight pounds in weight and now am as strong and vigorous as possible."

Ferrozene feeds and nourishes the organs that require assistance. It sends the thrill and vim of robust health from head to foot, makes you feel better at once. Won't you use Ferrozene? Sold everywhere; 50 chocolate-coated tablets in a box for 50 cents, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers.

NEARLY 8 MILLIONS.

THAT WILL BE EXPENDITURE OF PROVINCE THIS YEAR.

One Hundred Thousand Dollars Goes to the Quebec Memorial Fund—Supplementary Estimates Laid on Table of the House.

Toronto, April 7.—Supplementary estimates totalling $407,330.54 were laid on the table of the Legislature yesterday, making the total proposed expenditure for the year, exclusive of expenditure under special warrants, $7,908,206.31. Among the items of special interest, and the largest individual amount, is a grant of $100,000 to the Quebec memorial fund. Next in rank comes $90,000 for elections, $28,438 for colonization, $27,000 for the Agricultural College, $20,000 for the purchase of land for a new Central Prison, and $10,000 for an assembly hall in connection with the Brockville asylum.

For the purchase of the Ontario Veterinary College $10,000 is asked, and a further $10,000 for the services of the staff, rent and contingency. Under the head of forestry $5,000 figures, which is to be used in practical work, and $7,000 appears under the head of technical education. Of the last mentioned vote $2,000 are for plans—will this be for Hamilton—and $5,000 for Sault Ste. Marie. A special grant of $200,000 is made to the Macdonald Consolidated School at Guelph, $3,500 is asked for departmental masters in normal schools, and $2,400 additional for agricultural training in high schools.

INDIANS IN NORTH STARVING.

A Bad Year There for the Fur Hunters.

Winnipeg, April 6.—Colin Fraser, the well known northern fur trader, is here disposing of his Winter pack. He has plenty of furbearings of the future of the trade. He spoke as follows: "I have been up 20 years in the North getting furs, and I never knew so poor a year as this. I have been down not $2,000 worth of furs. This time last year I had already 380 marten skins and 12 silver fox. This year I could get altogether only three silver fox and one year for furs, and it is only the beginning. We shall have seven bad years yet, I expect. It is always the way.

"Some of the Indians are starving. About Fort Chipewyan there are no rabbits even, nothing at all but a few muskrats, and the Indians are often hungry. I gave them all the fish I had left and some flour, but that was not enough. The company also did their best, but there are many Indians without food yet. One starving man came into the fort and we fed him. I thought he would kill himself, he was so greedy to eat. We sent out for his family and brought them in. Then we gave them nets, and they can feed themselves now on white fish."

Inspector Made Flattering Report on Catholic Schools.

The report of Government Inspector Sullivan, who recently visited the Catholic schools in Hamilton, was read at the meeting of the Separate School Board last evening, and greatly tickled the trustees. "Generally speaking, the work was of a high order," Mr. Sullivan wrote. "I was specially impressed with the character of the work of the commercial classes. The equipment is very good, but maps and supplementary reading material are very necessary."

The inspector called attention to the stairway in the Sacred Heart School, which the Board has already arranged to have fixed by erecting a fire escape on the Shaffe street side. Mr. Sullivan also suggested that the stairway in St. Patrick's School be examined.

Trustee Southworth called the Board's attention to the plumbing and ventilation in St. Vincent's School. He thought that an entire new system was required there. The Internal Management Committee is looking into the matter.

Street railway employees at Winnipeg have presented their demands to the company, and a strike is not improbable.

LADIES' WORK FOR Y. M. C. A.

Annual Meeting of the Auxiliary Held Yesterday.

Twenty-Three Years of Harmony and Good Work.

Officers Re-Elected, and the Reports Adopted.

The twenty-third annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Ladies' Auxiliary was held yesterday afternoon in the lecture room and was one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings in its history. Rev. J. K. Unsworth acted as chairman. The report of the last annual meeting was read and was unanimously adopted. Miss F. L. Davis, the secretary, explained that the past year commenced with disappointments as the ladies had figured on many improvements, which they had not been able to carry out, but in spite of that, much had been done. The Y.M.C.A. rooms had been refurbished by the ladies, making the Association more comfortable and home-like for boys without a home in the city. During last year 21 new members were added and a somewhat new feature had been introduced, many young ladies being admitted who were classified as the Ladies' Guild, with Miss Aileen Davis as president and Miss Alexandra Sutherland, secretary. These young ladies had banded together to assist the older ladies in every possible way for the benefit of the Y.M.C.A. A pleasing feature of the report of Miss Davis was that during the whole time of the existence of the auxiliary there had never been any friction or unpleasantness, and that during the past year the Association had not lost a member through death.

The meeting was addressed by Mr. Best, general-secretary, who, in a few brief remarks, urged on the ladies the importance of their attendance at the coming convention to be held in Stratford on Wednesday and Thursday of this week so that they could render their valuable assistance in the work.

Mr. Robinson also enlarged on the need of the ladies' help in connection with the boys' department. He explained that he had started a rather unique, but very encouraging thing, a weekly tea to that indispensable unit to the newspapers, namely, the newswoman, and good results were coming from these weekly meetings.

The report of the past year's work was read and adopted. The election of officers then took place, which resulted in all the present officers being re-elected, as follows: Mrs. R. Gallagher, President; Miss F. L. Davis, Secretary; Mrs. George Rutherford, Treasurer; Mrs. W. A. Robinson, First Vice-President; Mrs. Ross, Second Vice-President; Mrs. Volkil, Third Vice-President; Mrs. Orr Callaghan, Fourth Vice-President.

Mrs. Dunlop, Fifth Vice-President. A musical programme was given by the younger ladies present, as follows: Song, "Less Than Dust," Miss H. B. Husband; song, "Up in a Toy Balloon," Miss V. M. Greer; song, "My Heart is Thine," Miss G. Weir; recitation, "The Echo and Ferry," Miss Laura Gage; song, "Doll's Cradle Song," Miss Alexandra Sutherland. Each number was loudly cheered and each encore graciously responded to.

At the close of the meeting tea was served in the Y.M.C.A. parlour to the members of the Auxiliary.

OTTAWA'S BILL.

Members of Board of Control to Get $1,000 a Year.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Toronto, April 7.—Ottawa's bill came before the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature this morning and most of the cases were reported.

One clause provided that no limit be placed on the expenditure for the library. Messrs. May and MacDougall thought such expenditure should be determined by the people and the committee agreed.

Mayor Scott desired to add another clause providing that the controllers be paid a sum not exceeding $2,000 a year, the exact amount to be determined by the city council. The members suggested that $1,000 be the limit, since Legislative members were only paid that amount. That amount was fixed by the committee.

Want Carp Destroyed and Inspector's Salary Raised.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Toronto, April 7.—Protection for the fish in Hamilton Bay was asked by a deputation, consisting of President Thos. Upton, William Hendrie and Mr. James Crooks, representing the Hamilton Fish and Game Club, which waited on Hon. Dr. Reaume, the Minister of Public Works, to-day.

The Minister was told that carp had found their way into the bay and were destroying the spawn of bass, pickerel, white fish and perch. The delegation expressed the opinion that larger remuneration should be given Fishery Inspector Kerr. The Minister promised to bring the question raised before the Cabinet.

CAME FROM GRIMSBY

Another Big Suburban Excursion To Stanley Mills.

This is "Grimsby" Day at the big departmental store of Stanley Mills & Co., and the company's excursion from the fruit centre this morning surpassed all the other excursions run by the company.

Twelve of the railway company's largest coaches came in during the day filled to overflowing with people from districts many miles from the starting point. Great crowds took advantage of the opportunity to see the city and spend the time combining business with pleasure. The excursionists fully appreciate everything done for their convenience by the Stanley Mill Company.

The excursion to-morrow is from Ancaster over the new electric road and will be the first excursion over that line. A large crowd is expected.

VOTE FOR KING.

Republicans Badly Beaten in Portuguese Elections.

Washington, April 7.—The United States Minister at Lisbon, Portugal, has under today's date sent to the Department of State the following dispatch regarding yesterday's election in Portugal, and the disorders in Lisbon: "Monarchicalism overwhelmingly victorious in election. Disorders confined to Lisbon. The rest of Portugal quiet."

EMMA GOLDMAN

Reported To Be Held at the Border By U. S. Inspectors.

St. Paul, Minn., April 7.—An express messenger on the Soo line arriving from the international border reports that the United States immigration inspectors have detained Emma Goldman at Novos on the International boundary line as she was returning to the United States from Winnipeg.

No confirmation of the report can be obtained here. Immigration Inspector Feaman, whose headquarters are in Minneapolis, says he cannot confirm the report, the officers acting in the case being under the direction of the Winnipeg district.

DANGEROUS CAVE-IN.

There was a cave-in on the old road close to the High Level bridge and near People's gravel pit yesterday afternoon, which might have caused a serious accident on the Grand Trunk had it occurred during the night. Tons of sand and gravel rolled down the hillside, covering the railway tracks, and one of the passenger trains was stalled for over an hour.

CAREY'S GREAT SALE OF PIANOS.

Geo. H. Carey, 90 King Street West, Sacrifices $7,500 Stock in Cash. Fulfill Contracts With Manufacturers.

Every instrument in the store has been reduced, from the fine baby grands and player pianos, which ordinarily bring from $600 to $850, to the small organs, which are marked down as low as $300.

Mr. Carey is determined to dispose of this stock quickly if low prices will do it.

Yesterday was the opening and if an estimate could be made from yesterday's business for each of the succeeding eight days the natural conclusion would be that Mr. Carey's hopes would be fully realized.

Many who had dated their piano purchase a year or two ahead, are taking advantage of this opportunity.

Many come to see if prices are genuine and as advertised, and they go away fully convinced.

Every instrument has a tag plainly marked with former price and present sale price. A little child can get the same out as the shrewdest barterer.

The store is open every evening until 10 o'clock, 9 King street west, near Park.

FERNLEIGH.

New Athletic Association Elects Its First Officers.

At a meeting of the shareholders of the Fernleigh Athletic Association, held last evening, the following gentlemen were elected directors: Messrs. John P. Hennessey, William White, Burwell Griffin, A. W. Semmens and John H. Salter.

The directors subsequently made Mr. Semmens president, Mr. White, vice-president, and John H. Salter, secretary-treasurer.

The intention is to put the new grounds at the corner of Aberdeen and Mountain avenues in first-class condition for lawn bowling and lawn tennis at once. The erection of a club house, which will be for the use of both bowlers and tennis players, will be considered with at once, and, it is expected, will be ready for occupation about the middle of June.

A city football league is being formed at St. Catharines, composed of the Caledonian, English Athletic Club, Bankers and 19th Regiment Clubs.

Kingston, April 7.—Judge Reeves, of Watertown, N. Y., has been elected president of the Eastern Yacht racing association. He is a prominent member of the Crescent Yacht Club, of Watertown, N. Y., which has a fine fleet in Champlain Bay. The association is to have a long cruising race from Hamilton to Champlain, followed by a regatta in the bay at the end of the summer's cruise.

All arrangements for the final championship basketball games have been made. The Montreal team will be here Tuesday night next. This game promises to be one of the most interesting games played this year, owing to it being for the Dominion championship. The Montreal team has won every game this year but one, losing it by one point. The plan for the big game will be open at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday. As points count in the home and home games, it is up to the local team to score every point they can in the game here.

FORGER SENTENCED.

Gets Two Years For Forgery and False Pretences.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Bellefonte, Ont., April 7.—Leopold Bryan, alias M. Long, a dashing young Englishman, who was arrested in January last, on a charge of attempting to defraud the Farmers' Bank of $816, was this morning brought up before Judge DeRoche for sentence, being found guilty of forgery, and was charged with attempting to obtain $816 from the Farmers' Bank here by false pretences, with forging the name of Wm. Van Baricrom, a prominent partner here, on a cheque given by Lawye, O'Flynn and cashed by the Farmers' Bank, also forging a receipt in connection with the purchase of the Van Baricrom farm, of $816 from the Farmers' Bank by false pretences. He was convicted on charges of false pretences and forgery, and was this morning at eleven o'clock sentenced by Judge DeRoche to two years in the Kingston Penitentiary on each charge, the sentences to run concurrently. The young man is well connected in England.

STOLE WATCH AND JEWELRY.

Samuel Wintraub, 290 Cannon street east, reported to the police this morning that his house was entered while all the family were absent yesterday afternoon between 4.30 and 6 o'clock and a lady's watch, a gold pin and a chain stolen. Entrance was effected by a cellar door at the rear, that was insecurely fastened.

PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Gulfport, Miss., April 7.—All the surrounding country for miles is being scoured by armed men to-day, searching for a lot of negro desperadoes, who escaped from the county jail to-day. Among the escaped prisoners are several charged with murder. Eight prisoners are all escaped, and up to noon to-day the only one captured was "Prince Alfred," a young negro, who is insane, and who was being held at the jail pending his transfer to an asylum.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

The Committee Closed Its Business In a Hurry.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Toronto, April 7.—The Public Accounts Committee of the Legislature concluded its work for the session this morning. Hon. Mr. Matheson moved that the chairman, Mr. Carnegie, make the ordinary report, without comment, and the committee adjourned. There were no Liberal members present at the meeting and it is probable that they will protest against the abrupt conclusion of the committee while they were detained in other committees.
