

EVERYONE.

EIGHT PAGES TO-DAY.
WEATHER FORECAST.
TORONTO, Midnight—Fresh to strong winds, unsettled, with showers.
ROPER'S, Noon.—Bar. 29.45; Ther. 70.

THE "PEOPLE'S PAPER" IS A LIVE DAILY IN A BUSY CENTRE—STUDY ITS NEWSY ADVERTISING.

EIGHT PAGES TO-DAY,
READ BY OVER 40,000 PEOPLE
EVERY DAY.

THE EVENING TELEGRAM.

VOLUME XXXVI.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, MONDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1914.

$3.00 PER YEAR.

NUMBER 236.

REID-NEWFOUNDLAND CO.

Autumn Excursion to Boston!

September 10th to October 17th.

Excursion Tickets will be sold from all points on the Reid-Newfoundland Company's System to Boston.

Good GOING up to October 17th, and good for 30 Days from date of issue.

SPECIAL REDUCED FARES.

Reid - Newfoundland Company.

ROSSLEY

THEATRE.

Farewell Week of
THE 4
BRITISH BELLES--4
In everything new. Songs and Dances.
England's Leading Vaudeville Artists.
4 FINEST PICTURES EVER FILMED--4.

Rossley is now noted for good pictures, as he buys only the latest and best.
October 19th, SERPENTELLO, "The Lady without Bones," and the marvellous FROG MAN.
Another wonder from across the water.

NOTICE.

THE STEAMER.

Portia

Will leave the wharf of Bowring Bros., Ltd., on Wednesday, Oct. 14th, at 10 a.m., calling at the following places.

Cape Broyle, Ferryland, Renews, Trepassay, St. Mary's, Salmonier, Placentia, Marystown, Burin, St. Lawrence, Lamaline, Fortune, Grand Bank, Belleoram, St. Jacques, English Hr. West, Hr. Breton, Pass Island, Gaultois, Pushthrough, Richard's Harbor, Francois, Cape La Fume, Rameau, Burgeo, Rose Blanche, Chantrel, Bay of Islands, Bonne Bay.
Freight received until 6 p.m. on Tuesday.

For freight or passage apply to the Coastal Office of BOWRING BROTHERS, LTD.
Telephone 386.

LECTURE ON THE WAR!

BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

The Literary Committee of King George the Fifth Institute has arranged for a course of Illustrated Lectures and Patriotic Concerts. The first of the former series will be delivered by His Excellency the Governor, Sir Walter E. Davidson, K.C.M.G., on Monday evening, 19th instant, in the Institute Hall. Subject:—

"The Causes and Progress of the Present War."

An interesting incident of the evening, before the lecture begins, will be the uncovering, in the Grenfell Hall, by His Excellency, of Autograph Portraits received from three distinguished American friends of the Institute—President Wilson and ex-Presidents Roosevelt and Taft.

The National Anthem will be sung by the audience at the opening of the lecture and "Rule Britannia" at the close.

Chair to be taken at 8 o'clock. Tickets to be had at the Institute.
ALEX. A. PARSONS,
Secretary Lit. Com.

BUY AN OVERCOAT

with the New "Bartell" Pockets.

FOR the man who is really a good dresser and particular about his appearance, we have a splendid asset in the "Bartell" Patent Pocket which we are exploiting in our Men's high-grade Overcoats this Fall. It has special features that must surely appeal to the man who insists on always looking well-groomed and is a boon to anyone who has pockets that must be "for use and not for ornament."

¶ This season's Overcoats in Tweed, Chinchilla, etc., with the "Bartell" pocket are very desirable garments. We carry a full stock of them in all the fashionable colors and mixtures, and in all sizes.

¶ The "Bartell" Pocket never sags or becomes untidy, while it is capable of holding far more than the ordinary pocket. Call and see our Overcoats, see the "Bartell" demonstrated, and get our prices. You'll be delighted at the result.

U. S. Picture & Portrait Co.

GRAVENSTEIN APPLES, Etc.

To arrive and in stock:
150 brls. APPLES, Choice Gravensteins.
15 boxes ORANGES.
30 cases SILVERPEEL ONIONS.
10 bunches BANANAS.
30 half barrels PEARS.
PRICES RIGHT.

BURT & LAWRENCE, 14 New Gower St.

'Matchless' Paint.

A Paint about which more good things are said than any other brand on the market.

And why?

Because of its Quality.

That's all.

THE STANDARD MANUFACTURING CO., LTD.

Red Cross Line.

INTENDED SAILINGS.
From New York S. S. "STEPHANO" Oct. 10th
From St. John's S. S. "STEPHANO" Oct. 17th Passenger Tickets issued to New York, Halifax and Boston.
FARES INCLUDING MEALS & BERTH ON RED CROSS STEAMERS—

| | FIRST CLASS | | 2nd CLASS |
|----------------------------------|-------------|---------|-----------|
| | Single | Return | Single |
| To New York | $40.00 | $70.00 | $15.00 |
| To Halifax | 20.00 | 35.00 | 8.00 |
| To Boston (Plant Line) | 23.00 | 51.00 | 18.00 |
| To Boston (D.A.R.) | 20.00 | 51.00 | 18.00 |

Connections at Halifax for Boston: (1) Plant Line Saturdays at midnight. (2) Dominion Atlantic Railway through the beautiful land of Evangeline to Yarmouth, thence by Boston and Yarmouth S. S. Co., Ltd., four times weekly. Luxurious accommodation and excellent cuisine by either route. Full particulars from

HARVEY & COMPANY, LTD.,
Agents Red Cross Line.

Latest From Amsterdam.

Whilst we wish to sincerely thank the trade of Newfoundland for the magnificent batch of orders given our Local Agent, we cannot but regret the fact that war conditions are such in Europe that for the present we are unable to ship. However, at the very earliest opportunity, which may not be far distant, we will give them our earliest attention. Again thanking you,

KORFF & Co.,
Amsterdam.

BUILDING LOTS!

FREEHOLD:
Hamilton Street.
New Town Road.
Barnes' Road.
King's Road.
Queen's Road.
Circular Road.
Fleming Street.
Albion Road.
Blackmarsh Road.
Cornwall Avenue.
Topsall Road.
Cockpit Road.
Mundy Pond Road.
Maxse Street.
For particulars apply to Fred. J. Roil & Co.,
Real Estate,
SMALLWOOD BUILDING,
Duckworth St.

Tenders Wanted!

Tenders will be received until Wednesday, the 14th day of October, 1914, for excavating out basement, laying sewer, making driveway and general grading to be done at building site on north side of Topsall Road for James Haw, Esq. Plans, specifications and full information can be had by applying to

W. F. BUTLER, Architect,
The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
oct12,11

RIVERSIDE BLANKETS

The name "Riverside" on a pair of Blankets is a guarantee of quality. Woven from selected wools on up-to-date machines by experts, these Blankets are light in weight yet give a maximum degree of heat. They have proved SUPERIOR TO OTHER MAKES.

NOTICE!

Any person who was a member of the crew of the S. S. Morwenna when rendering assistance to the S. S. Lingal will, upon applying to Capt. Holmes, S. S. Morwenna, International Pier, Sydney, receive their portion of the salvage.
oct10,31

TO LET—Dwelling House No. 34 Freshwater Road, at present occupied by Mrs. James Black, together with the Stable in the rear. For particulars apply to WOOD & KELLY, Temple Building, Duckworth Street.
sep10,11

TO LET—A Suite of Offices at present occupied by Mr. George Knight; possession Nov. 1st; apply to U. S. PICTURE & PORTRAIT CO.
oct5,11

TO LET—House No. 65 Prescott Street. Possession given at once. Apply R. J. COLEMAN, McBride's Hill.
aug26,10,11

TO LET—Office Room in Cabot Building; apply W. V. DRAYTON, Music Store.
oct7,10,11

TO RENT—Dwelling House No. 47 Freshwater Road. For particulars apply to WOOD & KELLY, Temple Building, Duckworth Street.
sep17,11

WANTED—One or two Gentlemen can be accommodated with Board and Lodging, either double or single bedroom; comfortable home; hot and cold water baths. Terms moderate. Apply 51 Cochrane Street.
oct9,31

LOST—Between the premises of The Empire Wood-Working Co., Ltd., and Flatrock, 1 roll "Go-let" Sheathing Paper and 1 roll 2-ply "Far-oid" Roofing. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving same at the office of the above named Company.
oct12,11

LOST—On Saturday evening, on Theatre Hill, a small Yorkshire Terrier Dog. The finder will be rewarded on returning it to MRS. NORMAN OUTERBRIDGE, 26 Montebrown Road.
oct12,11

LOST, STOLEN or STRAYED—From Torbay; a Black Setter, answering to the name of "Shot." Finder will be rewarded upon returning same to M. CONNOLLY, Duckworth Street.
oct9,31,10,11

STRAYED—From Pleasantville, 6 Head Cattle, branded M. C. Y. Finder will be rewarded upon returning same to M. CONNOLLY, Duckworth Street.
oct9,31,10,11

DANCING—Miss Bremner, 99 Military Road, resumes the Children's Dancing Class Tuesday, Oct. 13th; also evening classes.
oct12,11

Help Wanted.

WANTED—Position as Housekeeper with a man; five years with present employer; want home rather than big wages; can sew for children. Apply at Evening Telegram Office.
oct12,21,11

WANTED—Immediately, a girl who understands plain cooking; apply to MRS. JOHN ANGEL, 130 Hamilton Street.
oct12,11

WANTED—A General Servant; apply to MRS. CHAS. CROSS, Masonic Terrace.
oct10,31

WANTED—A Housemaid; references required; apply to MRS. W. D. REID, Circular Road.
oct7,11

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES BURNS, ETC.

A Great Intrigue, —OR, THE—Mistress of Darracourt.

CHAPTER XXXII.

She wrung her hands.
"I can't tell you, Master Harry. I promised! Don't press me! You can make me say anything! I knew you could if ever we met, but don't, for mercy's sake, force me to tell, Master Harry!"

"Come, come, Susie," he said, soothingly. "You shall tell me no more than you like! Don't cry! For the tears were running down her cheeks. 'If you have been in trouble, your troubles are all over now, I hope. I am not a rich man—a very poor one, indeed—but you shall have a good home and'—he smiled—"an indulgent master and mistress."
"Mistress!" she said. "Then you are married, Master Harry?"

"Not yet, Susie," he replied, gravely, and with a dull pain at his heart. "But I am going to be—"
"Going to be?" she repeated.
"Yes, and to some one whom you know, Susie," he said, gravely.

"Some one I know, Master Harry? Who can that be?" she asked, drying her eyes. "Oh, I do hope you'll be happy! But," and she trembled, "if you had only gone abroad."

"You don't seem anxious to know who it is, Susie?" he said. "But I'll tell you. It's Miss Marie Verner."

"Miss Marie Verner!" repeated Susie, dully, her eyes expanding with terror. "Miss Marie—"
With a frightened cry she sprang from her chair and actually covered her face.

Harry went to her and got hold of her arm.
"My poor girl, what is the matter?" he said, gently. "Come, come! Why should Miss Verner's name frighten you so? Why, Susie, Susie!"

But she could only shrink from him and wring her hands.
"Oh, Master Harry, let me go! Let me go! She will come and find me here."
"She—Miss Verner!"

"Yes, yes! and I promised, promised on my knees to go; and she sent the money, and I didn't go! I hadn't the heart. But I've got the money still; I haven't spent a penny, though was hard pushed sometimes. But I couldn't leave England all alone, and leave father without the hope of ever seeing him again, and—ah!" for the office door opened.
It was only Mr. Doyle.
Harry signed for him to go out again.

"I have found an old friend," he explained. "Now, Susie, you must tell me what this means," he said, gently but firmly.
"No," she cried; "not a word! Let me go, Master Harry! I'd rather meet a ghost than her. But, oh, Master Harry, she believed you did it, and now she is going to marry you!"
"She believed I did it!" he said, his brows contracting. "Did what, Susie?"
"She did at first!" said poor Susie, shaking and trembling. "She did, indeed, Master Harry. It was only when I said that you couldn't, couldn't have done it, that she gave in. But you aren't guilty, are you, Master Harry? No, I never believed it!"
"Thank you, Susie," he said, with a grim smile. "But I haven't the least notion of what I was suspected of doing."
"No! no! I said so! You were as innocent as I was. But she said they would send us both to prison, directly they found the vase in the hut, and knew that I'd gone there to speak to you the night before."
Harry started and stared, and at the sight of his face, Susie uttered a cry of despair.
"Oh, what have I said?" she wailed. "What have I said?"
"You have said that they could send us to prison when they found the vase in the hut, and knew that you came to talk to me the night before," he said, firmly.
Susie made a movement toward the door.
"Good-by, Master Harry! Good-by! I couldn't stay, I dare not! Let me go! She may come—"
He caught her arm and held her tenderly but tightly.
"Not yet, Susie," he said. "Come, wait a moment or two, and calm yourself. You must know that you have said too much to go without saying more. Flesh and blood could not stand it! What is this about a vase? Come, tell me, or I shall think you have taken leave of your senses or been dreaming."

When "Purity" is mentioned, WINDSOR SALT naturally comes to mind.
110

meet a ghost than her. But, oh, Master Harry, she believed you did it, and now she is going to marry you!"
"She believed I did it!" he said, his brows contracting. "Did what, Susie?"
"She did at first!" said poor Susie, shaking and trembling. "She did, indeed, Master Harry. It was only when I said that you couldn't, couldn't have done it, that she gave in. But you aren't guilty, are you, Master Harry? No, I never believed it!"
"Thank you, Susie," he said, with a grim smile. "But I haven't the least notion of what I was suspected of doing."
"No! no! I said so! You were as innocent as I was. But she said they would send us both to prison, directly they found the vase in the hut, and knew that I'd gone there to speak to you the night before."
Harry started and stared, and at the sight of his face, Susie uttered a cry of despair.
"Oh, what have I said?" she wailed. "What have I said?"
"You have said that they could send us to prison when they found the vase in the hut, and knew that you came to talk to me the night before," he said, firmly.
Susie made a movement toward the door.
"Good-by, Master Harry! Good-by! I couldn't stay, I dare not! Let me go! She may come—"
He caught her arm and held her tenderly but tightly.
"Not yet, Susie," he said. "Come, wait a moment or two, and calm yourself. You must know that you have said too much to go without saying more. Flesh and blood could not stand it! What is this about a vase? Come, tell me, or I shall think you have taken leave of your senses or been dreaming."

"Dreaming! It was no dream, Master Harry. I wish to Heaven it was! No, there was the vase! I saw it myself! Lord Merle's vase—in the hut."
"Where?" he cried, but in a low voice.
"In the hut," she repeated, as if desperate. "I saw it, we both saw it, just beneath the table."
"In my hut?"
"Yes. Just after you were gone we went there, and then we saw it. And the plate-closet at the Hall had been broken into, and you had been seen there the night before—"
"Well—well!" he said. "Stop! Wait! Let me think!" and he pressed his hand to his brow. "Yes, I remember," he murmured, as the night he pursued the dog to the Hall grounds, and stopped to speak to Forbes, the butler, dashed upon his mind. Great Heaven! what mystery was this? What did it all mean?
"And—and," panted Susie, as he signed to her to go on—"and I had heard the secret word from Miss Marie when she was talking to Miss Lucille, and she said—Miss Marie—that they would all say that I told it to you, and the judge would send us to penal servitude—"
The office seemed to spin round, and the strong man staggered and clutched at the desk.
Susie uttered a cry of alarm.
"Oh, Master Harry, Master Harry, what have I done? Don't take on so!"
He recovered himself with an effort.
"Go on! Go on!" he said, hoarsely. "For Heaven's sake, girl, go on! Then—then—"
"Then she, Miss Marie, said that I must go away—go far away—abroad to Australia, where they could not find me—and when I told her that I'd stay and face it, for I knew you were innocent, she said that it made it all the worse, for if you were innocent, the marquise had laid the trap for you, and—"
He ground his teeth, and shook his clinched hand in the air.
"Curse him! Oh, curse him!" he murmured, hoarsely.
Susie shrank back, but his voice broke.
"No! No!—Heaven forgive him! I cannot curse him! Go on! Oh, girl, why do you wait? You madden me!"
"That's all, Master Harry," sobbed Susie; "except that she got a bonnet and cloak of Mrs. Dalton's and made me put them on, and sent me to a lodging in London, and gave me fifty pounds, and she sent more money for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"

He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

Harry dashed his hand upon the desk.
"Who put that vase there?" said Susie, in a hushed whisper.
"Only one man could be so vile, base enough to do it!" he groaned—"the marquise! Ah! light is coming! I seem to see it all!"
"Do you think—" hesitated Susie—"that Miss Marie had anything—Oh, forgive me, Master Harry. I forgot!"
He started and looked at her with a wild horror.
"Marie Verner!" he breathed. "You think—the girl I am going to marry, Susie! But—oh, no, no! Impossible!"
"Yes, yes; she couldn't have anything to do with it, Master Harry. It was only my stupid foolishness made me think of her. But it is all so tangled up!"
"Yes; that is it!" he said, wildly. "It is tangled now; but as sure as there is a sun in the heavens, I'll unravel it!"
He paced up and down the office like a man demented.
Susie got up nervously.
"Let me go now, Master Harry," she pleaded. "I'm afraid she may come in at any moment and find me, and I'd as lief die as meet her."
"Very well," he said; "you shall go. But tell me where I can find you; and Susie, remember—he stood before her and held up his hand impressively—"wherever you are, whatever you may be doing, you must come the instant I send for you. What I shall do, what course I shall take, I can't say now—my brain whirls, and I can't think—but if I send for you, start off at once; don't wait for anything. You will come?"
"Yes, Master Harry—yes."
"You have no cause for fear, Susie," he said, more gently; "I will see that no harm shall come to you—I will do nothing to get you into any trouble."
"Oh, I don't care now, Master Harry," she said, trustingly. "Now, I've told you all, I'm satisfied. I'll abide by whatever you say."
She took a piece of paper from her pocket.
"That is the address of the place I'm stopping at, Master Harry. I've been doing needlework."
As she spoke, a piece of paper, wrinkled and dirty, fell from her hand. She picked it up and glanced at it.
"See, Master Harry, it's the address Miss Verner wrote down for me to go to in the hut the morning I ran away," she said.
Harry took it.
"I'll keep this, Susie," he said. "It may be of some use; supply some link in the chain! Heaven, how shall I set to work to unravel this!"
Susie wiped her eyes and composed herself, and Harry saw her out of the yard and into a cab.
Then he came back, and sat down in the office, with his head between his hands.
Try as he would he could not get to the heart of the mystery.
That the marquise had weaved the skillful plot to degrade him in the eyes of Lucille, he felt assured; but what part had Marie taken in it? Back upon his mind came his old distrust of her; her strange manner of late—and yet she had nursed him with the devotion of a sister; she had told him that she loved him, and was going to be his wife! Why had she never told him of the robbery and the finding of the vase? Why had she not told him everything, and helped him to clear himself from the shame that rested upon him?
(To be continued.)

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

Bright, Rudy Cheeks For Pale Girls.

NO LONGER ANY NEED TO BE PALE, WEAK OR ANAEMIC.

By Following the Advice of Miss McEwan You Can Quickly Become Strong Again.

The pallid girl always lacks appetite. What little she eats is badly digested. At night she is restless, she does not sleep soundly. Vital force must be increased, new blood must be supplied and a general rebuilding take place before she will feel like she ought.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills have invaluable experience in these cases and found nothing so prompt in building up young women as his valuable pills of Mandrake and Butternut.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills begin by cleansing the system and purifying the blood; they also improve digestion and render food ready for absorption. Additional nourishment is quickly supplied and the patient is fast strengthened and invigorated.

Full of spirit, ruddy and strong is the girl that assists her system by the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

The following recent letter from Miss Etta McEwan, of Haliburton, speaks for itself:

"In using Dr. Hamilton's Pills I find my system is wonderfully built up. It is certainly the most effective remedy I ever used. I have now a good appetite, sleep more soundly, and awaken in the morning feeling quite refreshed."

"Formerly I felt tired and depressed. I looked as if a severe illness were hanging over my head. 'Nothing could give quicker results than Dr. Hamilton's Pills and I strongly advise every young woman to use them.'"

All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. per box or five boxes for $1.00 by mail from The Catarhozone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Ont.

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing?"
"Oh, Master Harry, what else could I do?" she sobbed.
"What else! You should have defied them all; you should have helped them to find me. You ought never to have rested until the real thief was caught, and I—and you—were proved innocent!"
Susie cried bitterly.
"Ah, Master Harry, it is all very well to talk now, and sitting here; but if you had been in my place! It all looked so black! I know, I felt you were innocent; but the others—the others, Master Harry! What would you have said of any one else if the vase had been found in their house, and they had disappeared, leaving not a word behind, and known to have been seen near the spot where the robbery was committed?—what would you have said, Master Harry?"
He laid his head upon his hands and groaned.
"Why, even now," she went on, as soon as she had regained breath, "they could arrest us—you and me—and send us to prison. Who is to prove that I didn't tell you the secret word, and that you didn't break into the Hall and steal the things?"

for me to go to Australia, but I couldn't go. I skulked about and hid, and—and—" with a gasp—"at last I came here!"
He stood pawing at the air with one hand, and holding his bursting head with the other. A pitiable sight that of a strong man maddened.
"And she, she!" he burst out at last, with a heavy groan. "Did she think me guilty?"
By some intuition Susie knew who he meant.
"Miss Lucille!" she replied, weeping. "Yes, Master Harry. She must have thought it. The vase—the talking with Forbes!"
"Oh, Heaven, I see it all!" he cried, throwing up his hands. "Be merciful to me, and keep me from madness! She thinks me guilty! A mean thief! A thief! She believes that I stole—stole his property! Oh, Susie, Susie! were you mad that you did this thing

BRITISH EMPIRE GOODS.

Holland is the open door for Germany.

Why buy Dutch Goods?

George Knowling

offers the following high-class

COCOA & CHOCOLATE,

manufactured by the well-known firm of Cadbury Bros.

BOURNVILLE COCOA

(the finest Cocoa made) in 1/4 lb., 1/2 lb. and 1 lb. tins. . . . 25c., 47c. and 90c.

FINEST ICING CHOCOLATE 35c. lb.

MEXICAN DRINKING CHOCOLATE, 48c. lb.

BALTIMORE ASSORTED CHOCOLATES, (equal to best American) 40c. lb.

KING EDWARD CHOCOLATES 85c. lb.

NUT MILK CHOCOLATE, the finest made 44c. lb.

We hold the largest stock of

BRITISH EMPIRE MADE COCOAS and CHOCOLATES

in Newfoundland, and our prices are always Right.

Geo. Knowling.

Oct 10, 14

Evening Telegram.

W. J. HERDER, Proprietor
W. F. LLOYD, Editor

MONDAY, October 12, 1914.

The Fall of Antwerp.

Details of the fall of Antwerp are still meagre. It will be remembered that Secretary Harcourt in his message to the Governor on Saturday stated that the War Office had announced that the Belgian forces evacuated Antwerp on the previous day. Naturally this evoked anxiety as to the whereabouts and size of the evacuating forces and as to the size of the forces which had been left behind to mask or cover the evacuation. At the time of writing there is more information than there was on Saturday, but not very much. From Amsterdam comes the story that the Germans captured 20,000 prisoners at the fall of the city. From the same place comes the news that the main British and Belgian forces with King Albert have reached Ostend safely. From London comes the news that three naval brigades, 8,000 men, with heavy guns, had been sent to Antwerp, and that two of the brigades reached Ostend safely, while the third was cut off in East Flanders, and had found safety in Dutch territory, where they will be held until the end of the war. The losses out of the 8,000 naval men are given at 300. The total loss appears to be 2,300, two thousand of whom are in Dutch territory and will not be available for use in the war. It would appear from this that the attempt of the Germans to cut off the main army failed, and that although the Germans reached Bruges, British and French troops were in sufficient forces to repulse some 20,000 German troops further East than Bruges. The amount of news is so small that we naturally look for more. If only 20,000 prisoners have been taken at Antwerp and if the evacuating army has reached safely at Ostend, with such a small loss as is set forth in the messages yet to hand, the losses in connection with the fall of Antwerp may be regarded as light.

Belgian Grey Book.

Last Thursday the Belgians issued in London copies of the Belgian Grey Book, which contains the correspondence relating to the violation of Belgian neutrality. On July 24th, the day the Austrian ultimatum was delivered

How Many Men are Buying New Fall Overcoats?

Undoubtedly there are hundreds of men in St. John's buying new Fall Coats when, if they but new it, their last season's coat could be Dry Cleaned or Dyed and given every appearance of new.

Messrs. NICHOLLE, INKPEN & CHAFE, Ltd., Agents

UNGAR'S LAUNDRY & DYE WORKS,

Halifax.

the Government of His Majesty the King of Prussia. "Belgium has always faithfully observed her international obligations; she has fulfilled her duties in a spirit of loyal impartiality. She has neglected no opportunity to maintain her neutrality and to cause it to be respected by others. The attack upon her independence with which Germany menaces her is a flagrant violation of the law of nations. No strategic interest can justify the violation of that right.

"The Belgian Government, by accepting the propositions mentioned, would sacrifice its national army and betray at the same time its duty toward Europe.

"Conscious of the role which Belgium has played for more than 80 years in the civilized world, it refuses to believe that its independence can only be preserved at the price of a violation of its neutrality.

"If the Belgian Government be disappointed in its expectations, it is resolved to repulse by every means in its power any attack upon its rights."

Germany invaded Belgium in disregard of the Treaty to which she was a party. Great Britain called upon her to respect the treaty and on her refusal declared war. To-day Belgium is the innocent victim of the despotic Germany who had no quarrel with her, nor she with Germany, until Germany violated her independence. To-day she stands despoiled of her capital, her chief port, her fortresses, and her land has been laid waste by the ruthless hand of the modern Hun. But a time is coming when the ruthless invader will be driven back and made to pay so far as is humanly possible, for his reckless spoliation.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 11, 1903. Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Sir,—I came across a bottle of your MINARD'S LINIMENT in the hands of one of the students at the University of Maryland, and he being so kind as to let me use it for a very bad sprain, which I obtained in training for foot races, and to say that it helped me would be putting it very mildly, and I therefore ask if you would let me know of one of your agents that is closest to Baltimore so that I may obtain some of it. Thanking you in advance I remain, Yours truly,

W. C. MCGUEN, 14 St. Paul street.

Care Oliver Typewriter Co.

P.S.—Kindly answer a once.

New Singer at the Nickel Theatre.

MAURICE COSTELLO IN GREAT DRAMA.

Nickel patrons will turn out in large numbers this evening to hear the celebrated lyric tenor, Maurice Costello, who appears for the first time. He has sang in the principal cities of America, and everywhere he has made hosts of friends because of his excellent voice and genial disposition. He has a large repertoire of high class songs and ballads which have proved very popular in other cities, and will no doubt find favor here. Very few artists have come recommended than Mr. Arthur C. Huskins. The selection of pictures for this evening is a splendid one. The two-reel feature film is by the Vitagraph artists with Maurice Costello and Mary Charleson in the leads. It is entitled "Iron and Steel" and is pronounced one of the best pictures ever shown in America. "Moscow" is a travelogue which will be found especially interesting at the present time. A reel of Hearst-Selig News Pictorial will show the leading events of the world. There are two comedy pictures, one is "A Pig's Mistake" with Fatty Arbuckle and the other is "Politics and Suffragettes" by the Biograph Comedy. The whole entertainment to-day is one of quality and no doubt it will attract large numbers. Messrs. McCarty and Ross will give the latest and most popular musical selections.

Here and There.

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY.—On Saturday night the police arrested under warrant a young woman, charged with larceny.

SINDBAD LEAVING.—The S. S. Sindbad is set down to sail from Fort William to-morrow week for this port, bringing a large cargo of flour.

CITY'S HEALTH.—A case of diphtheria was reported to the Health Authorities Saturday evening from Cornwall Avenue. The patient, a 5 year old boy, is being treated at home.

AT THE CATHEDRAL.—Rev. Fr. Nangle occupied the pulpit at the R. C. Cathedral last evening and preached an impressive and instructive sermon on the Gospel of the day.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The Rev. Mother Superior, St. Michael's Convent, Belvedere, gratefully acknowledges receipt of One Hundred Dollars ($100), bequest of the late John Collins, Esq., Prescott Street—adv.

EXPRESS DELAYED.—The express did not reach the city until last midnight, the delay being caused by the tender of the engine leaving the track at Little River.

DESBETTER BROUGHT BACK.—The fugitive boy who ran away from the Pomeranian here, was brought in Saturday night by Constable Murphy from Pomeranian where he had been staying the past couple of weeks. He will be sent to his home in Glasgow by the next Allan boat.

FOGOTA BACK.—The s.s. Fogota arrived from the northward Saturday night. There is a good sign of fish at the various places visited but fishermen are greatly hampered in their operations by rough weather, which prevents boats from getting on the grounds.

Pullman Leaves

8 cents each.

JOHN B. AYRE.

Patriotic Fund.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Kindly acknowledge through the columns of your paper the following subscriptions towards the Patriotic Fund:—

| | |
|--|--------------------|
| Amount already acknowledged | 59,612 76 |
| J. A. Branscombe, Esq. | 50 00 |
| Dr. J. A. McDonald, Sal-yage, (1st instalment) | 10 00 |
| Chas. Martin, Esq., Grate's Cove | 1 50 |
| John C. Cozens, Brigus, (1st instalment) | 25 00 |
| T. A. & B. Society | 100 00 |
| President T.A. & B. Society | 100 00 |
| J. Kavanagh, on behalf of himself, H. Hill and J. Bell, who ran a race in aid of the Patriotic Fund on 22nd September, per Rt. Hon. Sir E. P. Morris | 40 00 |
| D. Bartlett, Esq. | 2 50 |
| Yours very truly, | $59,941 76 |

JOHN S. MUNN, Hon. Treas. Fin. Committee.

One Dose and You Will Better.

We are able to produce letters from all parts of Newfoundland which highly recommend the wonderful results derived from using this preparation called "Prescription 'A'". It is for sale in nearly every outport from the leading business places. Why are you too tired to do anything? A feeling of distress after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headaches. You feel more tired when rising in the morning than when you were retiring at night. Your sleep is disturbed and you feel as if you are going to suffocate and afraid to go to sleep again. You have to be careful of what you eat for your breakfast. Why go on suffering like this when you can be cured by obtaining a bottle of Stafford's Prescription "A" for small size, 25c.; postage, 5c. extra. Large size, 50c.; postage, 10c. extra. Stafford's Liniment and Phorstone Cough Mixture are still in great demand. Our Drug Store (Theatre Hill) is open every night until 11 o'clock. Oct 10, 14

Reids' Boats.

The Argyle sails from Placentia for the westward this afternoon. The Bruce leaves North Sydney to-night. The Clyde left Lewisport at 1:20 p.m. yesterday. The Dundee sailed from Port Blandford at 9 a.m. to-day. The Edith left Clarenville at 11 a.m. to-day. The Glencoe left Hermitage at 5:40 p.m. yesterday, going west. The Home arrived at Lewisport at 4:15 p.m. yesterday, and sailed again at 11 a.m. to-day. The Kyle arrived at Catalina at 5 p.m. yesterday going north. The Lintrose arrived at Port aux Basques at 6:25 a.m. yesterday. The Meigle is north of Flower's Cove. The Sagona is still north of Twillingate.

Get Busy.

Fresh stock to-day:
BLUE PLUMS.
RED PLUMS.
YELLOW PLUMS.
Season about over.
To arrive Thursday:
150 brls. Choice
NEW APPLES.

Soper & Moore.

Phone 480.

G. KNOWLING'S
Central Showrooms

SPECIAL

G. KNOWLING'S
Central Showrooms

Manufacturers' Sample SALE.

High Class Samples Women's & Children's Clothing

IN OUR CENTRAL SHOWROOMS,

Consisting of the following High-Class Articles, being the complete range of one of the largest and exclusive makers of Undewear, Knitted Goods, Children's Dresses, etc

| | | | |
|---|--|---|--|
| Ladies' Combinations worth from 90 cts. to $2.50. NOW 60c to $1.60 | Ladies' Bodices worth 85 cts. to $1.50. NOW 40c to 90c | Ladies' Vests worth from 30 cts. to $1.25. NOW 15c to 75c | Ladies' Spencers worth from 45 cts. to 90 cts. NOW 28c to 55c |
|---|--|---|--|

LADIES' STOCKINGS,

A large number of Black Cashmere, Worsted, Lisle, Silkwool, etc.; worth from 30c. to 90c. We will offer at from 20c. to 50c. pair.

| | |
|--|---|
| CHILD'S COMBINATIONS, worth 70c. to $2.10. Now 40c. to $1.30 | CHILD'S VESTS, worth 25c. to 60c. Now 15c. to 30c. |
| CHILD'S SLEEPING SUITS, worth 90c. to $2.30. Now 60c. to $1.60 | CHILD'S JERSEYS, worth 50c. to $1.85. Now 35c. to $1.25 |

A/so, few Girls' Charming & Exclusive Dresses, at about Half Price

We draw your attention to the fact that, whilst the quantity is large, it will necessitate early buying to avail of this splendid opportunity.

Central Showrooms

G. KNOWLING

Central Showrooms

LADIES!

10 DAYS ONLY

SPECIAL COAT

OFFER.

With every Ladies Coat you purchase we give one of our DAINTY SILK SCARVES — FREE —

In all the Leading Shades of the Season.

| | | |
|---|-----------|--------------------------------------|
| To Purchase These Scarves Separate Our Price is | 50 | cents. Usual Price 90c. each. |
|---|-----------|--------------------------------------|

See our West Window for these Stylish Scarves.

—LET US—
Demonstrate to you our from $2.95 to $15.
Stylish Coats for Autumn & Winter

S. MILLEY.

panora
Phon
On ences Marian warmth of her belief and relaxa

Note the wors immersion in t slipped swiftly anxious misgiv ing annoyingly i
It occurred to time that some Challenger leav hour. If he had served, what wo ready her worr sented thoughts aging gossip, to into smithereen she could quite the most strait the real facts m spectability. Th her misgivings t that night. She great deal had s some other me trance.

It occurred to to do would be story of what ha first thing in th ing the bull by t ing once and fo torted discussi this moment g the Inn. Yet he volved at this p thing, she shran and tedious expl all, might not s but might rath loner in all the light. Circumst hydra-headed on tude of lying ton ple truth can ran Well, she res would wait. She morrow, and the next, would brin Marian slept la did not make he dining room unt

Daring

NEWSPAPER B BATTLE

War may be d origin in the ne den of Eden, an was when Cain
Abel. Since the "flaming sword" symbol of war.
date back almost Moses was actu pendent of the the great Greek into his history that would mak nalist take a bac rear.

Gone for ever war correspond follow up the fi pany the General and shell, record of a battle in s book. Never ag fears like those famous artist-co
"Illustrated Lon thought nothing scenes while she him; or those o who carried as m

B
10

100 brls. H
300 brls. V
200 bags B
200 bags V
100 bags C
BRISH BA
IRISH RA
FIDELITY
NEW YOR
ENG. CHE
INGERSOL

T.

FIRST NEWFOUNDLAND REGIMENT.

We have a Set of 50 Pictures of the Camp, Presenting the Colors, Complete Group of Officers, Regiment Saluting the Colours, (this is a panorama Picture showing the whole Regiment), the Ambulance Squad, the Standard Bearers, the Guard, etc.
A good Set in which you are almost sure of finding any particular face you may want.

Phone 768.

THE HOLLOWAY STUDIO, LTD.

Corner Bates' Hill and Henry Street.

Divorced Life

Helen Hazong Forster

Whisperings at the Inn

ences Marian crept into the dry warmth of her bed with tremendous relief and relaxation that was exquisite. None the worse for her unshed immersion in the river, she would have slipped swiftly off into slumber, had anxious misgivings not begun parading annoyingly before her.

It occurred to her now for the first time that some one might have seen Challoner leaving her room at this hour. If he had indeed been observed, what would the result be? Already her worried imagination presented thoughts of malign and damaging gossip, tearing her reputation into smithereens, in the face of which she could quite conceive how even the most straightforward narrative of the real facts might not suffice to respectability. The garbled tangle of her misgivings tortured her for hours that night. She would have given a great deal had she been able to adopt some other means of effecting an entrance.

It occurred to her that the thing to do would be to spread the exact story of what had really occurred, the first thing in the morning thus seizing the bull by the horns and answering once and for all whatever distorted discussion might be already at this moment gaining currency about the Inn. Yet her sensitive nature revolted at this program. For one thing, she shrank from making long and tedious explanations which, after all, might not succeed in explaining, but might rather place her and Challoner in all the more compromising light. Circumstantial evidence is a hydra-headed creature, with a multitude of lying tongues which the simple truth can rarely quiet.

Well, she resolved wearily, she would wait. She would see what tomorrow, and the next day, and the next, would bring forth.

Marian slept late next morning, and did not make her appearance in the dining room until the hour of lunch.

Daring Feats in War.

NEWSPAPER HEROES ON THE BATTLEFIELD.

War may be said to have had its origin in the neighborhood of the Garden of Eden, and the first real battle was when Cain killed his brother Abel. Since those long-past days the "flaming sword" has always been the symbol of war. War corresponds to the dawn of time. Moses was actually the war correspondent of the Jews, and Herodotus, the great Greek war reporter, has put into his histories some war yarns that would make any Yankee journalist take a back seat far back in the rear.

Come for ever are the days when war correspondents were allowed to follow up the fighting line or accompany the General Staff and, amid shot and shell, record their impressions of a battle in sketch-book and notebook. Never again shall we hear of feats like those of Melton Prior, the famous artist-correspondent of the "Illustrated London News," who thought nothing of sketching battle-scenes while shells hurtled around him; or those of Bennet Burleigh, who carried as many scars as any professional army veteran, and who saved a British square from crumbling up in the Sudan with his "Now, boys, give it to them! Give it to them! Hurrah!"

Then there were "Archy" Forbes, the famous "Daily News" correspondent, who ran scores of risks in the Russo-Turkish war and the Zulu war of 1879 in order to serve his paper, and Mr. Frederick Villiers, who was on board the Condor with Lord Charles Bessborough at the bombardment of Alexandria. But perhaps the greatest of war correspondents was "Billy" Russell, who went through the Crimea, and whose letters describing the management of the war officials led to the downfall of a Ministry. The restrictions placed by the authorities on war correspondents to-day are enough to make these famous bygone journalistic giants turn in their graves.

In what is known as the Artists' Corner of St. Paul's Cathedral may be seen tablets to the memory of Sir William Howard Russell, Archibald Forbes, and Melton Prior; and it was Sir Evelyn Wood, who when he unveiled the tablet to Prior in 1912, said that he remembered him as "a good comrade, a staunch patriot, and a clever artist." Altogether Prior was in thirteen campaigns, dating from the Ashanti War in 1874 to the Russo-

By S.S. "Morwenna," 10 Boxes Purity BUTTER,
2-lb. Prints.

100 bris. Harter's A. No. 1 Flour, Cheap.
300 bris. VERBENA.
200 bags BEAN.
200 bags WHOLE CORN.
100 bags CORN MEAL.
IRISH BACON—Boned.
IRISH HAMS.
FIDELITY HAMS & BACON.
NEW YORK CORNED BEEF.
ENG. CHEDDAR CHEESE.
INGERSOL CREAM CHEESE.

BULLDOG TEA, 40c. lb.
DANAWALLA TEA, 50c. lb.
10 p.c. discount off 5 lb. parcels.
DICKSON'S TEA.
CAMPBELL'S SOUPS, 12c. tin
KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES,
12c. pkg.
BARRINGTON HALL COFFEE.
KELLEY'S MARMALADE.
BAKEAPPLES, 20c. tin.
RED CROSS SALMON, 1lb. tin.
NEW LOBSTER, 1lb. tins.

T. J. EDENS, Duckworth Street & Military Rd.

Japan fight in 1902. He practically succeeded William Simpson, another war correspondent who made the "Illustrated London News" famous, and who was undoubtedly one of the most venturesome war artists of modern times.

In some reminiscences Melton Prior graphically described how the ill-fated Prince Imperial, the only son of the Empress Eugenie, met his death in the Zulu War. "I was riding by the side of Archibald Forbes," he said, "when a short distance on our left we saw one of the troop holding up his rifle and calling out aloud. Forbes immediately said, 'There it is! Prior. Come on, ride for it!' And a magnificent rider he was. I followed hard at his heels and was the fourth man to arrive on the spot. There I saw the Prince Imperial lying on his back, stark naked, with a thin gold chain round his neck, to which was attached a locket containing the portrait of his father, the late Emperor Napoleon III. The Zulus had stripped him and taken every particle of clothing; but, looking on this gold chain and locket as a fetish, had respected it and left it still round his neck."

It is an interesting fact that the first war correspondent sent out in connection with a newspaper in this country to describe the war was Henry Crabbe Robinson, who was born at Bury St. Edmunds in 1775, and who lived to the ripe old age of ninety-two. It was during 1807-9 that he was engaged by the "Times" to describe the battles in Spain against Napoleon.

Peace.

If things were right, we'd never fight to add to our dominions; the dove of peace would never cease to wave its snowy pinions. We would abhor the name of war, detest the sight of battle; with hammers and nails we'd earn the kale where now the sabres rattle. The ages scot, and men's a brute, and culture is a fable, and to our shame we're much the same as Cain, who butchered Abel. Our grace, I fear, is but veneer, and when you chance to scratch it, you find a wretch who longs to fetch you three licks with a hatchet. The lessons dire of nations' ire we carelessly are spurning; two thousand years of blood and tears, and yet we're nothing learning! If we were wise we'd all arise and can the fierce battalions, so busy now, and to the plow we'd hitch their pawing stallions. It could be done, peace could be won, if all would work to gain it, with voice and pen, again, again, expound it and explain it. Too long the harps of poets sharps have boosted blood and battle, exalted knights who yearn for fights, and all that sort of cattle. Now let us sing of peace, by ring, of home and happy labor, and let us show that spade or hoe is nobler than the sabre.

To-morrow—An Abrupt Departure.

Rev. J. K. Curtis B. A. Meth. S. S. Field Secretary of the Maritime Conference, who will be remembered by many as a very popular and efficient pastor of Wesley Church, will arrive in the city to-day in connection with the work to which he has been appointed. Mr. Curtis has been touring the country since the early days of September in the interests of the young people of Methodism, and has had a very successful and fruitful itinerary. He has lost none of his old time energy and fire, and has gained considerable experience in Sunday School and Epworth League work. He will address a mass meeting of young people in Gower Street Church at 8 o'clock this evening, and a large and enthusiastic gathering will doubtless be present. The many friends of the rev. gentleman will be glad to greet him once again, and to hear his words of wisdom on our young people's work.—Com.

Father Matthew Celebration.

The anniversary of Rev. Fr. Matthew, the great Apostle of Temperance, was duly celebrated by the adult and Juvenile Branches of the T. A. B. Society yesterday. The Society about 400 strong, attended 8 o'clock Mass at the Cathedral, where all received Holy Communion. It was a very edifying sight to see the adults and juveniles kneeling side by side at the altar rails.

In the afternoon the regular monthly meeting of the society was held, at which several applicants were admitted. It was decided that in view of the existing conditions there will be no festivities in celebration of the anniversary this year.

A Military Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place at Valcartier, P. Q., on Monday, Sept. 30th, when Miss Mordina Olivo Ritchie, of Springhill, N.S., and Captain Dugald Sheppard, of the Royal Nova Scotia Regiment, were united in Holy Matrimony. The ceremony was performed in the Officers' tent by the Rev. J. T. Love, Miss Love being one of the bridesmaids. After the ceremony the happy couple walked under an archway, by the crossed swords of the officers, while the Winnipeg Grenadier Band played suitable selections. A few hours after the ceremony orders came for the embarkation of the troops for England, Capt. Sheppard sailing in the Ruthania, on Wednesday. Capt. Sheppard is the son of Mr. John C. Sheppard, of Bains Johnston and Co.

Back From Labrador.

The latest arrivals at Wesleyville from the Labrador are:—Bonnie Girl, 100 qts.; Erie, 200 qts.; E. and S. Barbour, 200; Jacinth, 200; Meteor, 200; Ocean Bride, 600; Emma Barbour, 100; Arments, 100; Henrietta D., 250; H. J. Yetman, 200; Fines, 300.

K. of C. Celebration.

Yesterday, in celebration of Columbus Day, the Knights of Columbus of Terra Nova Council, this city, attended Holy Communion at the Cathedral and St. Patrick's Church.

Assembling at Columbus Hall at 10.30 a.m., they proceeded to the Cathedral to attend last Mass, at which a special sermon was preached. The Celebrant of the Mass was Rev. Mons. Roche, V. G., Chaplain of Terra Nova Council, who was assisted by Revs. Fr. Sheehan and Fr. O'Brien, who are also members of that Order. The pulpit was occupied by Rev. Fr. McDermott, another Knight of Columbus, who delivered an inspiring sermon from the Epistle of the Day. Speaking of civilization the rev. preacher said that the definition of the term, as set forth in the Dictionary was inadequate since it did not embody religion as the fundamental of true civilization. Whilst progress in learning and art has done much to elevate the races, the seeds of civilization have been sown by religion. He took occasion to refer to the noble army of men, known as the Knights of Columbus, which was organized about a quarter of a century ago, and whose members have by example and precept done so much towards true civilization. Banded together in defence of their Mother, the Roman Catholic Church, they have already done much to stem the tide of persecution directed towards the Church by the enemies of her doctrines. In every land were to be found men, who unconscious of their own ignorance, set forth to the world an erroneous idea of the Catholic Church as an enemy of progress. To refute this, it was only necessary to turn back the pages of history and view the important part that the Church had played in civilization. Her universities have sent forth men imbued with religion, and versed in learning, art, and science, whose illustrious names on the generations that have succeeded them. The Knights of Columbus in perpetuating the memory of the Discoverer of America, and in defending at all times the Catholic Church are doing a most noble work.

Referring to the war the rev. preacher paid special tribute to Belgium, that little Catholic country which has played such a heroic part in the present devastating conflict, and whose people are the object of admiration throughout the world to-day. Concluding he exhorted the congregation to pray fervently for those responsible for the war, that God may change their hearts, and speedily restore peace to the nations.

After Mass the members returned to their hall on Duckworth Street.

Rev. J. K. Curtis, B.A., Meth. S. S. Field Secretary of the Maritime Conference, who will be remembered by many as a very popular and efficient pastor of Wesley Church, will arrive in the city to-day in connection with the work to which he has been appointed. Mr. Curtis has been touring the country since the early days of September in the interests of the young people of Methodism, and has had a very successful and fruitful itinerary. He has lost none of his old time energy and fire, and has gained considerable experience in Sunday School and Epworth League work. He will address a mass meeting of young people in Gower Street Church at 8 o'clock this evening, and a large and enthusiastic gathering will doubtless be present. The many friends of the rev. gentleman will be glad to greet him once again, and to hear his words of wisdom on our young people's work.—Com.

Rev. J. K. Curtis B. A.

Rev. J. K. Curtis, B.A., Meth. S. S. Field Secretary of the Maritime Conference, who will be remembered by many as a very popular and efficient pastor of Wesley Church, will arrive in the city to-day in connection with the work to which he has been appointed. Mr. Curtis has been touring the country since the early days of September in the interests of the young people of Methodism, and has had a very successful and fruitful itinerary. He has lost none of his old time energy and fire, and has gained considerable experience in Sunday School and Epworth League work. He will address a mass meeting of young people in Gower Street Church at 8 o'clock this evening, and a large and enthusiastic gathering will doubtless be present. The many friends of the rev. gentleman will be glad to greet him once again, and to hear his words of wisdom on our young people's work.—Com.

Father Matthew Celebration.

The anniversary of Rev. Fr. Matthew, the great Apostle of Temperance, was duly celebrated by the adult and Juvenile Branches of the T. A. B. Society yesterday. The Society about 400 strong, attended 8 o'clock Mass at the Cathedral, where all received Holy Communion. It was a very edifying sight to see the adults and juveniles kneeling side by side at the altar rails.

In the afternoon the regular monthly meeting of the society was held, at which several applicants were admitted. It was decided that in view of the existing conditions there will be no festivities in celebration of the anniversary this year.

A Military Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place at Valcartier, P. Q., on Monday, Sept. 30th, when Miss Mordina Olivo Ritchie, of Springhill, N.S., and Captain Dugald Sheppard, of the Royal Nova Scotia Regiment, were united in Holy Matrimony. The ceremony was performed in the Officers' tent by the Rev. J. T. Love, Miss Love being one of the bridesmaids. After the ceremony the happy couple walked under an archway, by the crossed swords of the officers, while the Winnipeg Grenadier Band played suitable selections. A few hours after the ceremony orders came for the embarkation of the troops for England, Capt. Sheppard sailing in the Ruthania, on Wednesday. Capt. Sheppard is the son of Mr. John C. Sheppard, of Bains Johnston and Co.

Back From Labrador.

The latest arrivals at Wesleyville from the Labrador are:—Bonnie Girl, 100 qts.; Erie, 200 qts.; E. and S. Barbour, 200; Jacinth, 200; Meteor, 200; Ocean Bride, 600; Emma Barbour, 100; Arments, 100; Henrietta D., 250; H. J. Yetman, 200; Fines, 300.

Encourage HOME Industries.

We have the past year tried to bring before the public notice the many advantages to be gained by buying Home Made Goods.

We most emphatically state that never was the need more apparent, with most of our factories running half time and men earning half wages. Why? Because a certain prejudice exists against Home-made Goods. Every dollar sent out of the country makes that one less for home manufacturers. Take our line particularly

Mattress and Springs

Absolutely no need of importing them, as the cost must be higher. We offer to-day FELT MATTRESSES as good, or even better, than the Ostermoor, from $5 to $10 cheaper. Our new Health Mattress, 6 n. bands, are real beds in themselves, made of Pure Cotton, absolutely sanitary.

On and after October 15th we will have on exhibition in our Showroom, second flat, the above goods, and shall be only pleased to show and explain same to anyone requiring same. Our improved OXFORD SPRINGS are taking well. We will sell you a SURFACE OAK SIDEBOARD for $15.50 that cannot be imported less than $21.50. We will sell you a 5 PIECE PARLOUR SUITE in Fancy Velour $5 to $10 cheaper than the imported.

Then all things considered, don't you think it better to encourage Home Industries and keep the money in the country?

The C. L. March Co., Ltd.

Cor. Springdale and Water Streets.

The String Ties, Tweed Caps, Excelda Handkerchiefs, Shirts and Sox should be seen by all in need, for they are genuine BRITISH GOODS.

SOLD BY A. & S. RODGER.

BLACK DIAMOND LINE!

| PASSENGER RATES INCLUDING MEALS AND BERTHS TO AND FROM MONTREAL AND INTERMEDIATE PORTS. | | | |
|---|--------------|--------------|--------------------|
| FIRST CLASS. | | THIRD CLASS. | |
| One Way. | Return. | One Way. | Return. |
| Montreal to or from St. John's..... | $30 to $35 | $50 to $55 | $16.00 to $25.00 |
| Quebec to or from St. John's..... | $30 to $35 | $50 to $55 | $16.00 to $25.00 |
| Charlottetown to St. John's..... | $15.00 | | |
| Charlottetown to St. John's and return to Sydney..... | | $25.00 | |
| Sydney to St. John's..... | $12.00 | $20.00 | |
| Children under two years of age, between Montreal & St. John's | $5.00 | | |

HARVEY & CO., LTD., Agents Black Diamond Line.

WESLEY BIBLE CLASS.—The semi-annual meeting of Wesley Bible Class was held at their rooms on Thursday night last. The reports from the various officers showed that the class was in a flourishing condition. The election of officers for the ensuing half year was held and resulted as follows: Leader, B. Taylor; Asst. Leader, W. Ash; President, Alex. Rooney; Vice-President, J. Hudson; Secretary, H. Bartlett; Treasurer, George Evans; Librarian, J. Davis.

BONAVENTURE DIE.—The S. S. Bonaventure is now due here from Hudson Bay via Sydney.

People are doing more reading to-day than ever before, and it is very important to those who wear glasses that they should be properly fitted. If you have any trouble or are in doubt, go to TRAPNELL, the Eye-sight Specialist.—see 6.17

WINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DAN-DRIFF.

A Job Lot.

54 White and Coloured Quilts.

Values from $1.00 to $4.00 now 70 cts. to $2.80.

Sleep in Comfort and Warmth!

this winter and many winters, to come under a pair of our BLANKETS or QUILTS. Prices to-day are lower than they will be for a long time to come, owing to enormous contracts being placed by the British Government. We have been fortunate in placing our orders before advances took place.

But come—see for yourself the excellence of the values we are showing.

- White Wool Blankets - $2.40, $3.00, $3.60, $4.50, $5.00, $5.50, $6.00, $6.50, $8.00, $10.00, $12.00.
- Wadded Quilts - $1.40, $1.70, $2.20, $3.40, $4.50, $5.00.
- Eiderdown Quilts - $5.50, $7.50, $8.00, $9.50, $10.50, 12.00, $15.50, $21.00.
- Eiderdown Crib Quilts - 30 x 40 sizes, at $2.90.

Marshall Bros

War News

Messages Received Previous to 9 A.M.

FRENCH OFFICIAL REPORT.
PARIS, Oct. 10. The following official report has been issued here: "On the Oise our troops have attained real advantages at several places in their zone of action. In the region of St. Mihiel we have made material progress; as to Belgium, it was announced that Antwerp was taken yesterday. The conditions under which this place was occupied by the enemy are, however, not yet known. In Russia, very spirited fighting continues on the frontier of East Prussia, where Russian troops have had partial success. They have occupied the town of Lyck in East Prussia. The siege of Przemysl continues under conditions favorable for the Russians who have taken by assault one of the forts of the main line of defense."

ST. PIERRE BULLETIN.
October 10. The engagement is continuing under satisfactory conditions. Our battefront has been maintained even against violent attacks of the enemy on several points. To our left, in the region ranging between La Basse, Armentiere and Cassel, fighting occurred with opposing cavalry, but the result was undecided owing to the nature of the ground. North of the Oise our troops acquired real advantages on several parts of Spere of Oise. In the neighborhood of St. Mihiel good progress is noted. From Belgium it is announced that Antwerp was taken yesterday, but the conditions under which this place was taken by the enemy are not yet known.

Russia—Very sharp fighting is taking place along the eastern Prussian frontier, where Russian troops have been successful. They have occupied the town of Lyck. The siege of Przemysl is being pushed forward had established a house-to-house passage way, knocking the foundation stones out, and burrowing to their neighbors' houses, so that in many streets there were underground passage ways, extending the whole length of the street. Many perished through the collapse of the buildings overhead.

OBJECT OF THE GERMAN.
LONDON, Oct. 11. A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from the Hague, dated Saturday, says that according to trustworthy information from Belgium, the Germans are advancing swiftly towards Ostend, with the object of making the King, Queen and Government officials of Belgium prisoners. It is said that the Queen has left for England.

SATISFACTORY IN FRANCE.
PARIS, Oct. 11. This official communication has been issued by the French War Office: There is no new detail to mention, except the capture of a flag near Lasigny. The impression of the day is satisfactory.

EXPECTS A VISIT BY GERMAN AIR CRAFT.
LONDON, Oct. 11. It was announced by Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Trade, at a patriotic meeting at Kingsway Hall, last night, that if Zeppelins raided London, all the members of the British Flying Corps had pledged themselves to dash their machines right through the airships, even if both were brought to earth. Anyone passing through London, continued the speaker, can see that we expect a visit by German air-craft.

KING ALBERT WOUNDED.
AMSTERDAM, Oct. 11. King Albert, of Belgium, carried his arm in a sling during the last few hours of the defense of Antwerp, according to refugees who arrived here last night. It was reported in the city that he had sustained a flesh wound. Those who had fled from the city told a graphic story of the fort's last desperate stand against the German guns. The Belgian garrisons withdrew fighting desperate rear-guard actions, spiking their guns as they departed, and in some cases blowing up the fortifications. The city itself had capitulated earlier. Those from Antwerp now here agree that tremendous damage had been done to the Belgian city. Scores, it is said, of non-combatants in the city, who chose to remain, despite the German warning of a general bombardment, were buried beneath the ruins. Their houses were leveled by the German siege projectiles. The inhabitants took refuge in their cellars. It was not long before they

SUSTAINING NO DAMAGE.
TOKIO, Oct. 11. The following official statement relative to Japanese operations around Tsing Tau, was given out to-day: The German forts, warships and aeroplanes are trying vainly to arrest the Japanese advance. We are sustaining no damage. The Japanese warships silenced this fort and drove the warships out of range of their guns. Our aviators announced an unsuccessful attack by German airmen on the Japanese mine draggers, by flying over Tsing Tau and dropping bombs.

AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.
PARIS, Oct. 11. The following official statement was given out in Paris this afternoon: First, on our left wing, German cavalry which had seized certain points of passage over the Lyse to the East of Aire, was driven out of there during the day, Oct. 10, and retreated in the evening into the region of Armentiere between Arras and Oise. The enemy delivered a very spirited attack upon the right bank of the Aisne, without succeeding in making any progress. The statement adds that there has been slight progress by the French troops at the centre, where night attacks by the Germans have been repulsed, and that during Oct. 9 and 10 the village of Apremont, to the east of St. Mihiel, was taken by the Germans and retaken by the French. The statement sums up, "everywhere we have maintained our position."

KING OF ROUMANIA DEAD.
PETROGRAD, Oct. 10. King Charles, of Roumania, died to-day.

THE SIEGE OF PRZEMYSL.
PETROGRAD, Oct. 11. The official announcement to-day states that General Rounekamp has resumed the offensive in East Prussia and driven the Germans from important positions west of the River Nemmen. The invaders have been compelled to flee from Russian Poland. A great battle is in progress between Russian troops and Germans and Austrians west of the River Vistula. The siege of Przemysl is now expected upon its final stages. The Czech forces have succeeded in placing artillery on advantageous sites, and the surrender of the city is believed to be imminent.

SUSTAINING NO DAMAGE.
TOKIO, Oct. 11. The official statement relative to Japanese operations around Tsing Tau, states that German forts, warships and aeroplanes are trying vainly to arrest the Japanese advance, but we are sustaining no damage. Japanese warships have silenced its forts.

SAILORS LAY DOWN ARMS.

LONDON, Oct. 11. Two thousand British marines and sailors, part of a force of 5,000 which participated in the defence of Antwerp, have crossed into Dutch territory, and laid down their arms, and will remain in Holland during the war. The German army is moving swiftly toward Ostend, and is now reported in the vicinity of Bruges, making a desperate attempt to cut off the retreating Belgians who evacuated Antwerp, and capture King Albert and his entire army.

THE AIM OF GERMAN.
LONDON, Oct. 11. The German army from Antwerp has as its main objective the investment of the new established capital, Ostend, the capture of King Albert and the surrender of the Government.

PRISONERS CAPTURED.
AMSTERDAM, Oct. 11. Advice received here state that the Germans captured 20,000 prisoners in the fall of Antwerp.

GERMANS REPULSED.
LONDON, Oct. 11. A serious German check was reported this morning at Quatrecht, near Wetteren, east of Ghent, where, according to an Ostend despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co., 30,000 Germans were repulsed by British and French troops.

GERMAN ARTILLERY.
BERLIN, Oct. 11. The German heavy artillery used in the bombardment of Antwerp, has been started off for an unknown destination in France.

ALLIES REACH OSTEND.
AMSTERDAM, Oct. 11. The main British and Belgian force with King Albert has reached Ostend safely in the retreat from Antwerp.

BRITISH LOSSES SLIGHT.
LONDON, Oct. 11. The first official admission that the British participation in the defense of Antwerp was confined to the military announcement to-day that the naval brigades with heavy guns had been sent there during the last week of the German attack. In the retreat from Antwerp two of the British naval brigades reached Ostend safely. The other, however, was cut off north of Lockeren, a town in East Flanders, 12 miles north of Ghent, and two thousand men were interned into Holland. The retreat of the Belgian army was accomplished successfully. The losses of the British naval brigades will be probably less than 300 out of a total of 3,000 men.

THE SIEGE OF PRZEMYSL.
PETROGRAD, Oct. 11. The official announcement to-day states that General Rounekamp has resumed the offensive in East Prussia and driven the Germans from important positions west of the River Nemmen. The invaders have been compelled to flee from Russian Poland. A great battle is in progress between Russian troops and Germans and Austrians west of the River Vistula. The siege of Przemysl is now expected upon its final stages. The Czech forces have succeeded in placing artillery on advantageous sites, and the surrender of the city is believed to be imminent.

SUSTAINING NO DAMAGE.
TOKIO, Oct. 11. The official statement relative to Japanese operations around Tsing Tau, states that German forts, warships and aeroplanes are trying vainly to arrest the Japanese advance, but we are sustaining no damage. Japanese warships have silenced its forts.

Obituary.

At Catalina, on Oct. 2nd, there passed away to the Great Beyond, Honora McCormack, at the ripe old age of eighty-seven. The late Mrs. McCormack was a daughter of Patrick Keough, of Bonavista, who did business on the strand now occupied by his grandsons F. & J. Keough. At the early age of nineteen she married Thomas McCormack, senior partner in the firm of McCormack & Walsh, Catalina, who predeceased her some thirteen years. The old lady enjoyed splendid health up to a year ago when her faculties became impaired, a gradual decline ensued and she passed away fortified with the rites of Holy Church. Her funeral took place on Sunday evening, Oct. 4th, and was the largest seen in Catalina. The obsequies were conducted by the Pastor, Father Dwyer, who paid a splendid tribute to his late parishioner. The late Mrs. McCormack was a woman of splendid parts. Pious, charitable and good, she was certainly a model Catholic. Till her health declined completely, she was never known to miss the Sunday mass. Her husband at Catalina was well known to the poor and some of her noblest acts of charity are only known by God Himself. Her passing is a loss to Catalina and to her relatives and friends, particularly her sister, Mrs. Stubb, of Bonavista. We tender our sympathy. By the parish of Bonavista and Catalina receives fifteen thousand dollars, the bequest of her husband, Thos. McCormack.—Com.

Patriotic Meeting at Port au Port.

A meeting of the citizens of Port au Port was held on Monday, Oct. 5th, 1914, by Magistrate MacDonnell, under the auspices of Rev. J. M. Joy, P.P., who acted as Chairman and called the meeting to order. Magistrate MacDonnell explained at length that the object of the meeting was to form local branches of the Newfoundland Patriotic Association, and related progress of the work being done along this line in other places. At the conclusion of the Magistrate's remarks, Rev. J. M. Joy addressed the meeting, speaking of the needs of our volunteers and the duty incumbent on us all to help them, by all the means in our power. He also placed the emphasis of the day along the patriotic societies for their meetings. General meeting closed with the singing of the national Anthem. Later the ladies of Port au Port held a meeting for the formation of a Branch Society and the election of officers. Mrs. Arthur House was chairman of the meeting and Mrs. Michael Joy and Miss Margaret Lawlor Secretaries. The following ladies were present at the meeting: Miss Joy, Mrs. Arthur House, Mrs. Katie Hynes, Mrs. M. Joy, Mrs. Delaney, Mrs. Martin Hynes, Mrs. Walter March, Mrs. Clara Hynes, Mrs. Isaac Hynes, Miss Sadie Leary, Miss Minnie Worrell, Miss Parsons, Mrs. Willie McIsaac, Miss Mary Hynes, Mrs. Clara McIsaac, Mrs. Dan McIsaac, Mrs. Martin Cashin, Mrs. Julia McDonald, Miss Annie Hall, Miss Mary March, Mrs. John Hynes, Mrs. M. F. Abbott, Miss Abbott, Miss L. DuBoulevard, Mrs. Alex. March, Miss Nance Joy, Miss A. M. Joy, Mrs. John Devine, Mrs. Michael Leary, Miss Josie Gillis, Miss Lawlor, Miss Litch, Mrs. James Hynes, Mrs. John Hynes, Miss Margaret McIsaac, Mrs. Columba Hynes, Miss Ada March, Mrs. Thos. Hynes, Miss Cecily March, Miss Lillie March. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Joy; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. J. M. Hynes, Mrs. Arthur House, Mrs. M. F. Abbott; Treasurer, Mrs. Katie Hynes; Asst. Treas., Miss Abbott; Secretary, Mrs. Michael Joy; Asst. Secy., Miss L. DuBoulevard. It was decided to hold weekly meetings on Wednesdays at 7.30 p.m. and the Secretary was requested to get in communication with the Society at St. John's for suggestions, patterns, etc. Meanwhile it was proposed to begin the knitting of socks with wool for military or other work. The meeting ended with everyone satisfied at the interest and enthusiasm manifested.

MRS. E. AGNES JOY, Secretary.

As the Twig is Bent.

By RUTH CAMERON.

"As the twig is bent so the tree is inclined," is a familiar saying, and like most familiar sayings, as wrong as it is right. Proverbs are as great lars as statistics. Bend a twig strongly in one direction and it may stay bent that way and thus determine the direction of the tree's growth. But on the other hand, if it is a certain kind of twig it may rebound to the opposite direction and the tree may grow, not as the twig is inclined, but just the opposite way.

There are some natures which can be bent in one direction or another by the application of sufficient pressure in the twig stage. There are other natures on which pressure in any direction produces exactly the opposite effect from that desired. For instance, I know a man who is suffering from indigestion because he has let his teeth go to rack and ruin. He hasn't been in a dentist's chair for twenty years and the reason is this: "When I was a boy my mother kept me most of the time in church or the dentist chair and since I have grown up I haven't been in either." That unquestionably was a case where the tree did not grow as the twig was inclined.

Again, I know a woman whose father and mother were very strict with her as a child. One of the forms which this strictness took was an effort to crush out the love of dainty things, which is as natural to the heart of a pretty young girl as the song is to the throat of a thrush or as fragrance is to the violet.

They dressed her in needlessly ugly clothes. They made her look unlike other children, and in thus trying to mortify her vanity they only succeeded in mortifying her pride and fostering in her a passionate determination to have pretty things some day, at any cost. Since she has earned her own money she has spent every cent she can scrape together on the most frivolous kinds of clothes. Some people think it is strange in view of her training. Myself, I think that with her intense disposition, it is the result to be expected.

Too much pressure may also have another bad effect. The most capable masterful woman I know has a daughter who is painfully timid and unobedient. It is astonishing to the mother that the daughter does not have more "go-ahead to her." It is not astonishing to anyone who realizes that the pressure of one personality has crushed the life out of the other. In other words, this mother, instead of making the tree grow in the right direction, simply broke the twig.

The birch will bend almost to the ground without breaking under a pressure that would snap the pine off short. The nature of a child is surely no less complex and varying than that of a tree. A wise mother will know not only the way in which she wants to bend the twig, but the nature of the wood with which she has to deal.

Ruth Cameron

More Fires.

Fires provoke immediate sympathy for the sufferer and also thankfulness for personal escape. Another thought should be whether one is personally and sufficiently protected. An insurance policy with Percie Johnson would provide for you this desired security and at small expense. Have you enough insurance?

J. M. DEVINE'S —SALE OF—
Men's Clothing
Comprising Pants, Shirts, Suits, Overalls, etc., starts Saturday Morning at 8.30. These goods were bought at a bargain and you will do well to call early.

J.M. Devine
THE RIGHT HOUSE

340 WATER STREET (3 Doors East Post Office).

Freshly Made Pure Irish Table Butter, Bulk and 1 lb. Blocks.

Other Teas may be more expensive than HOMESTEAD, but we do not know of any better flavored at the price, viz., 40c. lb.

Homestead Tea, 40c. lb.

C. P. EAGAN,
Duckworth Street and Queen's Road.

Partridge Berries, 20c. gall.
Cranberries, 48c. gall.
California Oranges, 24c. doz
Fresh Cod Tongues—Tins.
Japanese Crab—1 lb. tins.
Fish Sounds
New Lobster.
EAGAN'S PURE COCOA,
2 oz. pkgs., ¼ and ½ lb. tins.

The first of the... was played... The game... but the... than a... and won... half open... down field... favor the... than goal... The B.F... the half... Port's hat... while the... yend mi... breathing... and from... St. Bon... ion succe... tacks on... splendid... which rec... secured... E.P.C. wo... before fa... their effo... kick whic... remainder... interesting... to increas... however... ponents, a... tions in... times whic... 4-1 in fa... Higgins re... players we... St. Bon... nedy, back... Burke, Hal... Ihan, Dev... E.P.C.—... Constable... ley, halves... Williams...

C.M.
The oper... dral Men's... Cathedral... a special J... J. Britton... The rev... the class o... hood," and... by a lar... and friends... On next S... at the Syno... will be hel... winter seas... Beaded an... favored for of field...

Conce
Gra
This s... taining e... of prime... ley, incl... phosphat...
Good Di Clear...
St...
Crisp, rec... tizing, ea...
"There...
Grap
sold by G...
Canadian...
Ltd.

War News.

1 P.M.

THE ZEPPELIN RAID.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-day.

Hugh Martin, wiring from Ostend, to the London Daily News, says: "I have received from an unimpeachable source, thrilling details of the successful aeroplane attack on Düsseldorf at 11.15 p.m. on the 11th. The Zeppelin, flying at a height of 5,000 feet to escape the German fire which was continued, succeeding in locating the Düsseldorf at a height of 120 miles an hour, he fell to a height of 1,000 feet above the Hangers, releasing two bombs, which directly over them. The German response was a furious bombardment with maximum bullets, and cut the steering wire of his machine so that the under jammed; also one of the elevation control wires was broken by the warping wing. It was still possible to steer the machine in a wide arc and the second elevation control wire held. One bullet smashed through the peak of the Lieutenant's cap without hurting him. The wings of the aeroplane were pierced in a dozen places. Looking round when he had brought the machine firmly under control, Marx saw the Hangers enveloped in sheets of flame. He then returned safely to the burning city of Antwerp which he was ordered to leave on the same evening. Commander Spencer Grey was not so fortunate. He was unable to locate the Zeppelin Hangers at Cologne, which city he visited, but dropped two bombs in the railway station which severely damaged a Zeppelin. Last night he dropped a bomb in Ghent near the South Station; no damage was done.

LOST 45,000 MEN.

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-day.

It is stated that the Germans lost 45,000 men during the attack on the fortresses Waelhem Aid Wavre and St. Catherine at Antwerp, says the Central News despatch from Amsterdam.

PIERCE FIGHTING ON THE WEST FLANK.

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-day.

The fiercest fighting during the last fortnight, says a Reuters Paris correspondent, centred around Albert, Roye and Lesigny. Not an acre of ground in this region is without traces of the terrific struggle. Albert is a heap of ruins, only the Golden Clock Tower remains. Roye sustained an uninterrupted bombardment for a fortnight and longer exists. Lesigny was the last stronghold of the enemy, being the point of the wedge which the Germans were endeavouring to drive into the Allies. The struggle in this region had much of the same character as that on the right bank of the Aisne. Around Roye like around Soissons, the Germans made most of the quarries in establishing the defensive, necessitating a regular siege on the part of the Allies there. As in many other places, the enemy had prepared his ground in time of peace.

ANTWERP NOT SERIOUSLY DAMAGED.

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-day.

Antwerp was not seriously damaged by the German bombardment, says the Chronicle's Amsterdam correspondent. "Only the suburbs of Berchem on the southeast quarter of the town suffered badly. Long after they had been evacuated, the Germans continued bring on and around the ruins of the blown-up forts. They fired the mines and hoped thus to destroy them. Near the southern suburbs, the ground had been mined by Belgians, but the Germans were warned by traitors from within the city and took care to avoid the danger zone.

Stafford's Liniment should be in every home. No advance in the price.—sep19,tf

2.30 P.M.

AIRSHIPS DROP BOMBS ON PARIS.

Special to Evening Telegram.

PARIS, To-day.

The progress of the campaign in the North of France and the fall of Antwerp were forgotten for the moment to-day by the people of Paris, who spend their time discussing the throwing of bombs on the capital from German airships yesterday, as a result of which three persons were killed and fourteen wounded. As the same time officials adopted a measure looking to the prevention of similar acts in the future. The news that one of the German bombs yesterday struck the Cathedral Notre Dame has been communicated to the Vatican. It is reported that the Pope exclaimed upon getting the message: "Providence has prevented an outrage which would have shocked the world." Military criticism commenting to-day on the movements of the armies in Apremont region, declare it is worthy of note that Apremont on the east of St. Mihiel, is on the route the enemy would take if they sought to withdraw from St. Mihiel in the direction of Lorraine. Their positions in the vicinity mean much to them, it is declared.

McMurdo's Store News

MONDAY, Oct. 12th, 1914.

Nyal's Figen is admittedly one of the best remedies for occasional or habitual constipation, and is becoming more widely used for this troublesome and dangerous condition every month. Very pleasant to take, it is mild yet effective in action. And economical as well. A ten-cent box contains eight doses, or more than a week's daily use; a twenty-five cent box contains twenty-seven tablets.

Have you tried a Grape Juice and Soda at our Fountain? Genuine Welch Grape Juice, with a dash of lemon or pineapple goes high, and is becoming a great favorite. Price with flavoring and Soda Water 5c. a glass; Welch's Grape Juice undiluted, price 15c. a glass.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.—The Lecture and Concert which were to have been held to-night (Oct. 12th) have been postponed till further notice. W. H. TOBIN, Recorder.—oct12,1f

SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY

—WANTED—Men and women for organizing and selling Thrilling European Battle War Book, authentic. Positively largest salary and commission paid. Write to JOHN A. HERRICK CO., Ltd., 182 Spadina Avenue, Toronto. sep17,1m

The "PIXIE" GRIP-ON Light hangs anywhere; no nail required; stands anywhere. No other lamp like it. One filling lasts 35 hours; 150 hours' light for 2 cents. Price 25 cts. each. GEO. KNOWLING.—oct12,4i,m,f

More New Books!

LATEST FICTION, WAR MAPS AND BOOKS ABOUT THE WAR.

The Vanished Messenger by Oppenheim. Cloth 80c.

Wild Honey by Cynthia Stockley, 60c. and 80c.

The White Lie by William LeQueux, 60c. and 80c.

The Escape of Mr. Trim by Irvin Cobb, 80c.

Dodo the Second by E. T. Benson, 80c.

Down Among Men by Levington Comford, 80c. This is a most extraordinary book.

The Auction Block by Rex Beach, 60c. and 80c. This is the best seller. Handicapped by David Lyall, 80c.

In Self Defence by Silas Hocking, 60c. and 80c. Just off the press.

Germany's Swelled Head, the book that impressed King Edward, 30c.

Lloyd's A. B. C. of the War, 18c. A most interesting book.

The Secrets of the German War Office by Armagard Karl Graves, late spy to the German Government, 60c.

How to Help Kitchener, 20c.

Dicks & Co., Ltd.

Biggest, Brightest and Best Book Stationery and Fancy Goods Store in Newfoundland.

THE TIGER

is one of the most destructive of animals, and is a source of much danger to life.

Sunlight Soap

preserves and lengthens the life of your clothes, but it is a source of destruction to all dirt and uncleanness. The amount of destruction wrought by a tiger in a single night, cannot be compared to the amount of destruction wrought by inferior soap in a single wash-day.

SUNLIGHT SOAP is an absolutely pure Soap, that saves your clothes, time, money, and labour.

TRY IT.

Canadian Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Windsor, Ont.

College Football.

ST. BON'S WIN AGAIN.

The final game of the first round of the inter-collegiate football series was played between the St. Bon's and Bishop Field College teams at St. George's Field Saturday afternoon.

The game was an interesting one, but the St. Bon's boys proved more than a match for their opponents, and won by 4 goals to 1. The first half opened with St. Bon's playing down field. With the wind in their favor they pressed hard on the Fieldian goal, but the shooting was wide.

The B.F.C. defended well and when the half-time whistle sounded St. Bon's had only scored one goal, while their opponents rarely got beyond mid-field. After the usual breathing spell, play was resumed, and from the start the B.F.C. pressed St. Bon's but that team's back division successfully resisted all the attacks on their goal. St. Bon's then sprang, and their forwards gave a splendid exhibition of combination, which resulted in three goals being scored in quick succession. The B.F.C. worked hard to score and just before full time were rewarded for their efforts by a well placed corner kick which resulted in a goal. The remainder of the game was most interesting, as the B.F.C. worked hard to increase their score. They were, however, more tired than their opponents, as the result of their exertions in the first half. When full time whistle sounded the score stood 4-1 in favor of St. Bon's. Mr. W. Higgins refereed the game, and the players were:

St. Bon's—Brown, goal; Fox, Kennedy, backs; Duboudeu, McGrath, Burke, halves; St. John, Gibbs, Callahan, Devine, Kelly, forwards.

B.F.C.—Parsons, goal; Caldwell, Constable, backs; Jerrett, Hunt, Tilley, halves; White, Bishop, Wilson, Williams, LeMessurier, forwards.

C.M.B.C. Meeting.

The opening session of the Cathedral Men's Bible Class was held at the Cathedral yesterday afternoon, with a special service conducted by Rev. J. Brinton, Chairman of the Class.

The rev. chairman also lectured to the class on the "Principles of Manhood," and his discourse was listened to by a large gathering of members and friends.

On next Sunday the class will meet at the Synod Hall, where the sessions will be held throughout the fall and winter season.

Beaded and metallic trimmings are favored for evening gowns.

Concentrated Food Strength of field grains—

Grape-Nuts

This splendid food containing all the nutriment of prime wheat and barley, including the vital phosphates, makes for

Good Digestion,

Clear Brains,

Sturdy Strength

Crisp, ready to eat, appetizing, economical—

"There's a Reason" for

Grape-Nuts

sold by Grocers—everywhere!

Canadian Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Windsor, Ont.

Big Fish Shipment.

The S. S. Beothic, Capt. Falke, sailed on Saturday night for Alicante, Naples and two other Mediterranean ports taking one of the largest cargoes of fish that ever left here at one time. We understand she took also thousand five hundred packages, equivalent to twenty seven thousand quintals, sent by various shippers. Mr. D. Curtin went on the ship in the capacity of super-cargo.

The Beothic will be absent about ten weeks, as after discharging her fish cargo she will proceed to Glasgow and load coal for this port.

Lecture on London.

Before a crowded audience Mr. W. C. Jones lectured at the Grenfell Hall last evening on London. The discourse, which was illustrated with pretty lantern slides, including the procession to and service at St. Paul's Cathedral in connection with the Jubilee of the late Queen Victoria, was very interesting throughout. Pleasing solos were rendered by Mrs. Wakefield.

Sulphate of Ammonia.

St. John's Gas Light Company.

Dear Sir,—I have analyzed a sample of Sulphate of Ammonia made at your works, and I found 20.5 per cent. of NITROGEN, Sulphates of Ammonia and Nitrate of Soda are the two principal Nitrogen manures.

Sulphate of Ammonia is less soluble than Nitrate of Soda, consequently it is a safer manure to use during a wet season.

Yours truly,

D. JAMES DAVIES, D.S.C., F.C.S., Analyst and Assayer.

Rod and Gun.

Although the opening article in the October number of Rod and Gun in Canada magazine, published by W. J. Taylor, Ltd., Woodstock, Ont., is a descriptive of a notable Canadian Canoe Race in which canoe men racing on the Lievre and Ottawa Rivers covered over two hundred miles in sixty hours, the table of contents shows a preponderance of big game hunting stories. "How 1913 Turned Out Lucky for One Bull Moose" is the story of a moose hunt in Quebec Wilds. "An Unusual Hunting Trip" describes an American sportsman's outing after moose in New Brunswick forests, while "Moose Hunting in the Riding Mountains of Manitoba" tells of a winter hunt in that province. "Trapped 55" is an amusing story of a Western sportsman outwitted the R. N. W. M. P. representative. Other stories and the regular departments make up an interesting big game issue for Canadian sportsmen.

Marine Notes.

The R. M. S. Carthaginian leaves Liverpool for this port on Saturday next.

The R. M. S. Mongolian will sail from Philadelphia at the end of the present week for this port.

The S. S. Stephano leaves Halifax to-morrow for here.

The S. S. Slostad reached port Saturday night from North Sydney with a coal cargo.

The schr. Ophelia has sailed from Grand Bank for Oporto with 2,100 qts. of codfish.

Cape Report.

Special to Evening Telegram.

CAPE RACE, To-day.

Wind W. light, dense fog; the steamers Sanford and Dredge Priestman passed west and Slostad inward Saturday afternoon; s.s. Portia in at 8.30 a.m. to-day. Bar. 29.45; ther. 48.

INTER-COLLEGIATE FOOTBALL.

The second round of the inter-collegiate football series opens this afternoon, the contesting teams being the B.F.C. and Meth. College teams. The first round was finished on Saturday afternoon, and the table now stands: St. Bon's, 4 points; Meth., 3 points; B.F.C., 0.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DANDRUFF.

A Heated Argument!

You can argue for hours as to the best way of heating a house, but the fact remains that are the Best, Safest and Cheapest Oil Heaters made.

Miller Oil Heaters

Stove Pipe, 5" . . . 13c. length

Stove Pipe, 6" . . . 13c. length

L. B. Elbows, 4" 17c.

L. B. Elbows, 5" & 6" . . . 16c.

Special Side Seamed Elbows, extra strong, 5" & 6" . . . 20c

Stove Dampers, 5" 12c.

Stove Dampers, 6" 14c.

No Smoke. No Smell. $4.65, $6.40, $6.80.

COAL BUCKETS.

Galvanized 68c. to 85c.

All Black 32c. to 37c.

Black & Gilt 50c.

COAL SHOVELS,

5c. to 25c.

FURNACE SHOVELS.

All Steel 50c. to 85c.

STOVE PIPE ENAMEL,

10c. to 30c.

CLARK'S FOOT WARMER

Makes driving in cold weather a pleasure.

$2.50.

AYRE & SONS, Ltd.

The Crescent Picture Palace.

Commences the Week with a big 3 Reel War Feature,

"A HOUSE DIVIDED,"

A great war drama in 3 Reels, produced by the Bison Biograph Company. This picture is pronounced one of the best war pictures of the year.

"AN UP-TO-DATE MEDICAL DOCTOR"—A clever comedy reel. Two burglars, knowing the doctor is called away, play the doctor themselves. How they victimize the patients is very laughable.

"GOING FOR FATHER"—An Eclair comedy. Father is enjoying himself in a cabaret. All the family go for him in turn, and when grandma hears the music she makes the hit of her life. FREDERICK KNIGHTS, Baritone, sings a popular song—something different from his opera selections.

THE NICKEL—Monday and Tuesday!

FIRST APPEARANCE OF

ARTHUR C. HUSKINS, Lyric Tenor.

Another Great Vitagraph Feature in Two Parts,

"IRON and STEEL,"

With Maurice Costello in the leading role.

And the following film subjects as well:—

"A FLIRT'S MISTAKE"—A Keystone comedy with Fatty Arbuckle.

"HEARST-SELIG NEWS PICTORIAL"—News events.

"POLITICS AND SUFFRAGETTES"—Biograph comedy.

A GREAT BIG SHOW THAT'S WORTH TWICE THE ADMISSION FEE.

Lucky Coupon!

57

Buster Brown.

Will the holder of Coupon No. 57 call at our Ladies' Department and receive a real Live Buster Brown Watch and Fob?

Remember, the Buster Brown and Skuffer School Shoes for Boys and Girls wear like iron. Double wear in each pair. When purchasing these Shoes see that you get your coupon. Another Watch next Monday.

N. B.—We make a specialty of Shoe Repairing. Old shoes made like new.

F. SMALLWOOD,

Buster Brown and Blue Ribbon Shoe Agency.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.

NOTICE!

A meeting of the Licensing Board will be held at the Magistrate's Office on Saturday, the 17th instant, at 4 p.m., to consider applications for Licenses for the ensuing year.

A. W. KNIGHT, Secretary Licensing Board.

Just Received,

By S. S. "Stephano,"

800—25's—CASES

1914 CROP

APRICOTS.

HARVEY & Co. Limited.

10 Cent Music Follo.

CONTAINING

God Save the King. Ode to Newfoundland.

Rule Britannia. The Banks of Newfoundland.

The British Grenadiers. The Maple Leaf.

A Life on the Ocean Wave. Tramp, Tramp, Tramp.

and 50 others.

CHARLES HUTTON.

Your New Fall Hat should be

A Kingston Derby.

We have the right styles at the Right Prices.

J. M. ATKINSON,

312 WATER STREET.

Fishery Gear!

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS of the GILL NETS, used by Messrs. Job Brothers & Co. in the Straits this year. They have been successful at a time when traps had partially failed. We make them in all sizes to order.

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS of COTTON DRIFT NETS, such as are used in the North Sea Herring Fishery. As the catch of Herring will be interfered with during the war, a good opportunity occurs for use of these Nets in Newfoundland.

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS of the celebrated STANDARD brand of Herring Nets, which is universally acknowledged to be the very best Net on the market. We are now making the CRESCENT brand Herring Net, which is the best and strongest LOW PRICED NET MADE. It is mounted just the same as the Standard Net, and it is barked for preservation, not merely dyed like other cheap Nets.

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS of SQUID TRAPS, which are now legal; we make them in any size required, to order.

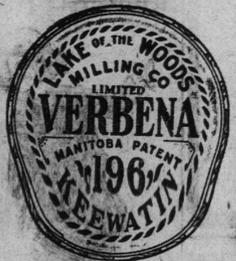

We manufacture TARRED COTTON LINES, all sizes, for Bankers' use; strong, durable and easily handled.

We make COD TRAPS, COD SEINES, CAPLIN SEINES, ETC., to order, in all sizes.

All the above fishery gear we can strongly recommend, and we would urge our fishermen to patronize articles of home manufacture, in order to give employment, which is so much needed this year.

COLONIAL CORDAGE CO., LTD.
oct11.81.m.th

The most costly war that has invested the whole human race cannot change the facts that the highest Milling Standard belongs to Verbena Flour.

oct10.8.m.w.t.f

PREMIUM MOTOR GASOLINE

(In Steel or Wood).

Royalite and Silver Star

KEROSENE

And all Lubricating Oils and Greases.

The Best Oil in the Best Packages.
IMPERIAL OIL CO., LTD.

A. H. MURRAY, Distributor.
sept.26.eod.t.f

Onions, Grapes, Etc.

To-day, ex "Mongolian," Silverpeel Onions--small,
Tinted Grapes,
Green Grapes,
Pine Apple Cubes, 1's,
Pine Apple, whole, 1 1-2's.

F. McNAMARA, Queen Street.
oct5.eod.t.f

WE HAVE NOW A FULL STOCK OF

Ladies' Newest Winter Coats,

ALL BRITISH MADE.

Good materials, handsome patterns, smart styles. The values given by us in these goods have always been Extra Special.

They are still so.

We also have now a complete range of CHILD'S and MISSES' COATS in all the sizes. We make a specialty of sizes for girls 15 to 17 years old, which are the hardest ages as regards fittings.

See our range of

Ladies' Fall & Winter HATS, of which we have received further new shipments lately.

HENRY BLAIR

Irish (J. J. St. John) Butter

Gentle and simple like

Good Butter.

The s.s. Carthaginian brought us another fresh shipment from the Lakes of Killarney. Nothing better ever entered the Narrows.

J. J. ST. JOHN,
Duckworth Street and LeMarchant Road.

SOMETHING NEW IN SUIT CASES.

"The Fibergras."

Manufactured under a patent process from a grass which is so matted as to guarantee its being absolutely waterproof and insures unusual strength combined with extreme lightness in weight. Fitted with heavy anchor handles, patent brass snap lock, two patent clips and leather bound corners. It is really a most attractive Suit Case. Our price is another attraction.

24 inch Case
$1.70.

Robert Templeton.

Who Said WALLPAPERS?

Why! Hudson's did, of course.

As we have lately opened and are now showing a large and beautiful range of both regular and job Canadian Wall Papers and Borderings, we would kindly invite you to call and inspect our showings before you obtain what you need for this fall's house cleaning.

GEORGE T. HUDSON
367 & 148 Duckworth Street.

SPECIAL SALE OF LADIES

FALL & WINTER COATS

Latest English and Continental models.

Prices:

$2.85, 3.50, 4.00, 4.15, 4.25, 4.75, 5.15, up to $40.00.

Commencing Saturday, 19th, until further notice, we will allow a special discount of 5 per cent for cash.

Mail Orders a Specialty.

Open Saturday Nights.

Mars & Co.

Smallwood Building.
(Entrance McMurdo's Lane.)
Phone 696.
sep18.f.m.w

A TASTE

of our Meat will convince you of its delicious flavor and splendid quality. We offer you only choice cuts of

THE BEST MEATS.

Why not try ordering whatever you need for breakfast and dinner here to-morrow?

We feel sure that we can satisfy you both as to quality, fair weight and reasonable prices.

M. CONNOLLY,
Phone 420. 176 Duckworth St.

W. J. WHELAN,
182 Duckworth Street.
Phone 65.

Windows Cleaned and Polished in Hotels, Club Rooms, Schools and Factories. Private Residences a specialty, at shortest notice. Carpets Cleaned and all orders attended to. P. O. Box 1127.

N.B.—Orders can be left to Janitor Board of Trade Bldg.
oct7.f.m.eod

FOR SALE.

1 YOUNG HORSE, about 6 years old.

1 MARE, about 1,000 lbs.

Also A FEW YOUNG YORKSHIRE PIGS, ready for delivery.

J. W. CAMPBELL,
ROBINSON'S HILL.

Telephone 586. sep22.eod.t.f
WILKINSON'S LINIMENT
CUMBERLAND IN COWS

CONFIDENTIALLY SPEAKING the Tailor doesn't make the man, but upon the Tailor depends the success of every man's appearance.

OUR TAILORING FOR MEN insures not only a successful appearance, but satisfactory service and long wear. Come in and let us take your measure this week.

J. J. Strang,
Ladies' and Gents' Tailoring, 153 Water Street, St. John's.
oct1.eod

TRAPNELL

The Eyesight Specialist

Examines the eyes without DRUGS, DROPS or DANGER. He not only finds the trouble, but with his perfect optical machinery he can grind the correct lenses to suit the most complicated cases, and do it quickly.

There was a time when all compound lenses had to be sent out of the country for, involving a delay of three or four weeks, but that day has passed; an hour or two is sufficient to produce any lens that may be called for.

Prescriptions filled or broken lenses replaced if you have the pieces.

TRAPNELL

IN YOUR EYE WHEN EYE TROUBLE APPEARS.

The Elite Tonsorial Parlour,

Prescott Street, near Rawlins' Cross,

F. ROBERTS, Proprietor,

Has just installed the very latest appliance in Electric Massage Machine for face and hair. Also we carry a full line of Cigars, Cigarettes, Tobaccos, etc.

OPEN EVERY NIGHT TILL 11 P.M.

NOBBY

ENGLISH CAPS

— at —

SMYTH'S.

PHONE 726.

G. F. KEARNEY, Manager.

Sugar, Butter and Cheese.

Just Received:

Choice Prime Butter,
In 14 and 28 lb. Boxes.

American Granulated Sugar,
In Barrels.

50 Choice Cheese,
Twins.

Selling at Lowest Market Rates.

COLIN CAMPBELL, - - 85 Water Street.

TELEPHONE
TORONTO strong much co and cool
ROPER
ther. 48.
VOL
Auct
BAN
THURS
at
No. 12
Stock of Hardware, convenienc
By order
William H
oct13.21
Grove
CUT F Chr
Swe Wreaths Decor
J. M
Water
COA
North
Als
ANTH Furn
Sto
M. MO Office:
Laz
MA
Not only softer than any other.
"True Oriental"
table in its subtle
In addition to Me line of Lazell's F
the most exquisite Waters superb Cr unquestionable excelle
At all Drugs
Notice f Tenders will sons wanting th over area 165 s Tenders to stat and thousand urement for highest or any cepted.
sep19.22
FOR I YOUNG HO old.
1 MARE, abo
A FEW YOU
PIGS, rea
J. W. C
ROBIN
Telephone 96