ENGINEER BRADY IS BLAMED BY THE JURY

Say the Dead Engineer Was Responsible for the Disaster.

PASSED IN SPITE OF THE DANGER SIGNALS

Driver Iven of the East-Bound Freight Tells of His Narrow Escape.

Conductor Purdon Says That Brady Was a Peer Among Engineers—Switchman Murphy Told of the Duties He Had to Perform and Admitted a Grave Oversight—Jury Add a Word of Censure on the Grand Trunk Company—Evidence at the Inquest.

Brighton, Ont., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—The inquest into the cause of the Murray Hill disaster on Tuesday morning was continued today before Coroner Sanford. As it was understood that Switchman Murphy would be called upon to testify, the Town Hall was crowded. The same counsel were present.

Murphy on the Stand.
Mr. Murphy, operator at Murray Hill, was called and sworn. He said that his sole business was that of telegraph operator, but admitted that he acted as switchman; that he had filled the position for the past six years; that his hours are from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. He said that he worked twelve hours and had no assistance while on duty. The day operator was Mr. Patrick Fox and his hours were the same. The witness said he boarded with Mr. John Tait, about ten minutes' walk from the office. Mr. Fox lives in Trenton.

Mr. Murphy said that he was in the office all the time, unless attending to the switch or other duties. He said the office was about 12 x 12 feet, and contained a stove. His work, on going on duty, was to ascertain the locations of trains. He did not put up lights; that was the day man's work. During part of the year the lights were up and he did not interfere with them, except to take them down at 7 o'clock in the morning. The lights were all right during the night. The different colors were explained by Murphy. He said it was a single track from Trenton to Murray Hill. He was required to again explain the workings of the switch and lights. While stating that the red light indicated danger and the white light meant "go ahead," yet, under certain circumstances, it was not adhered to.

The explanation was that passenger trains obtained right of way and ran on schedule time, while freight trains ran by orders from dispatchers. Mr. Murphy said that he was not advised of the coming of train No. 5, nor did he know of train No. 90 coming from the west.

Lawyer Gordon Objects.
Lawyer Gordon, Mr. Murphy's counsel, objected to the witness answering further questions, on the ground that his answers may tend to incriminate him or make him liable for civil proceedings.

Subject to this objection, the examination was continued.

Mr. Murphy said that trains stopped unless they got signal "All right"; that he expected any and all trains to stop when a red light was shown. He said that the last train that passed before the accident was at 1:32 o'clock on Tuesday morning. He said he knew No. 5 would come and that No. 96 was on particular time. There is no time-table for freight trains. Passenger train No. 5 was due at 3:40.

An Awful Oversight.
The question was asked: "Why didn't you open the switch?"

After some hesitation, the witness said: "It was an oversight."

He was again asked if he knew when the train left Trenton, and a negative answer was given. Witness said Brady should have stopped, and that the conductor of No. 96 knew when the express train was due and to look out for it.

"What did you do when you saw No. 5 was on the wrong track?"

Witness said he swung his light, and did not notify the company until directed to ask for a relief train. Sent the message to Dispatcher Happer at Belleville. It was about 15 minutes after the accident that the switch was easily turned. He did not hear No. 5 coming until she arrived.

An Experienced Operator.
To Mr. Pope, G. T. R. solicitor, the witness said that he had been at Murray Hill six years. Mr. Pope asked him if his record was good and he replied in the affirmative and said that he was an experienced operator. Mr. Pope asked witness if there was any necessity for a second man at Murray Hill. Mr. Murphy said that it would make it more sure, but admitted that the second man would get orders from the operator. Further questions brought out the fact that all trains are not on the time-table, but are run by special order from the dispatchers. He said that all hands carried standard time and each employed got it every day and that all were required to carry watches that would pass inspection. Mr. Murphy said that he knew Brady and the fireman personally and that they were both accustomed to run over the road.

To Mr. Gordon he said that he could hear

$30,000 IN ONE DAY

Received by the Ontario Government—Estate of Sir Casimir Gawaski Pays $25,000.

The Province of Ontario yesterday received $30,000 in succession duties. The whole estate of Ottawa paid in $2000 and the executor of the estate of the late Sir Casimir Gawaski paid $24,000.

This brings the total this year paid in succession duties to $140,000, the estimate for the twelve months being $225,000, and which it is thought, will hardly be reached, although the total last year was $228,518, but corresponding with this season, reached only $38,000.

It is now stated that the endowment fund that will come from Lord Strathcona is in the vicinity of $1,000,000.

Contract for Masonry Work on the New Building of the Victoria Trust Let Yesterday to Our Bros.

The Dominion Vinegar Works, Hamilton; the Hamilton Distillery Vinegar Works; A. Haas & Co., Kingston; S. Allan, Norwich; William Wilson, T. A. Lytle & Co. and the Badgerow, Scott Co. of Toronto have united and formed a joint venture. The trust is known as the Wilson-Lytle-Badgerow Company of Ontario, Limited, with a capital stock of $600,000. William Wilson of the Bay-street Vinegar Works is president, and William S. Scott of Badgerow & Scott is secretary.

Yesterday representatives of the different firms interested met at the Palmer House and, aided by Architect W. R. Gregg, opened tenders for the masonry of the new building to be erected at the corner of Front and Spadina-avenue. The new building is to cost about $1,500,000, and will have a frontage of about 200 feet. Nearly all the tenders were Toronto men, and there were about two dozen. The award was made to the Wilson-Lytle-Badgerow contract, 123 Lippincott-street. The work will be done in a few days and the tenders for other work will be let.

WAS PRETTY WELL INSURED.

The Missing Dr. Ireland Had Life Policies Amounting to $22,000.

—Some of Recent Dates.—
Montreal, Nov. 17.—(Special.)—It now transpires that the insurance taken out by Dr. Ireland on his life amounted to the large total of $22,000. Policies for $10,000 were placed with the Sun Life Canadian Life $5000, London and Lancashire $5000, G. F. $2000, A. O. U. W. $2000, Royal Templars $2000, and other companies $2000. Many of these policies were of recent date. For instance, $5000 of the Sun Life amount was issued this year. In view of these facts, some think there might be a reasonable, or at least, an understandable, explanation of Dr. Ireland's disappearance. Mrs. Ireland has applied to the Sun Life for "forms of proof of death," and these have been supplied to her. Upon these she will be able to state what the proofs of death are, and the company will be able to judge of their reasonableness when the forms are returned to it.

Robert Beth, M.P., Bowmanville, exhibited his hackney Tommy at the New York State Show. He is sore on the United States Customs officials, and is particularly wrathful that his horse, registered in the New York stock-book and bought in Philadelphia a year ago, was not allowed to go through the Customs on the presentation of a sworn declaration of the above facts, and that he had to exhibit again across the line.

"Why," said the member for Durham, "if we applied the same rule to American exhibits, there wouldn't be a single exhibition from the United States."

London, Nov. 17.—(Star Cable.)—Cables from New York give detailed accounts in a sensational form of the defence arrangements at Halifax, in view of the possibility of a menace to the United States. The officials here discredit these sensations, and especially resent, as totally unjustifiable, the efforts of such men as Goldwin Smith, who represent ordinary defence precautions, as a menace to the United States. One high official said that if Goldwin Smith realized one-half of the practical conditions now established between us and the United States he would not talk such utter rubbish.

TARIFF QUESTION AGAIN BOBS UP

Preferential Clause Stands in the Way of a Reciprocity Treaty.

THAT FEATURE MUST BE WIPED OUT

Before the American Commissioners Will Come to Any Reciprocal Arrangement.

Canadian Law Giving an Advantage to British Goods Has Hit Uncle Sam to the Extent of a Million Already—Fisheries Question Taken Up for the First Time—Free Fishing for Fish Is the Bargain Canada Will Agree To.

Washington, D.C., Nov. 17.—The Anglo-American Commission now in session here to adjust differences between the United States and Canada to-day held a lengthy session upon the two subjects, which are regarded as of the most importance, namely, the North Atlantic fisheries and reciprocity.

The fisheries question was practically taken up for the first time, and it was quite definitely understood that the position of the Canadian Government was made clear as favorable to granting enlarged rights to American fishermen in Canadian waters of the North Atlantic, if in return Canadian fish are admitted free of duty to American markets. It is expected that this will open up a wide range of discussion and an immediate adjustment is not looked for.

Preferential Clause in the Way.
Concerning reciprocity, it has now developed that while some progress is being made in considering certain articles which will be the basis of reciprocity, yet the American commissioners are likely to insist as a preliminary to any reciprocity that Canada shall wipe out that feature of her tariff law which gives Great Britain a preference of 25 per cent. on all tariff duties. If this important concession is made by Canada and conceded by Lord Herschell, who is looking after the interests of Great Britain, then it is said a reciprocity list probably will be agreed upon. Without the abolition of preferential rates to Great Britain, the opinion is very positively expressed that a reciprocity agreement cannot be reached.

The reason for this, it is pointed out, is that the Canadian law giving Great Britain preference within the last year has diverted trade from the United States and turned it into British channels. The effect has been to reduce materially the sales of American cotton goods, hardware and other lines in Canada, and to increase the sales of British goods. One of the American experts said today that the shipment of cotton cloth to Canada had fallen off from $17,750,000 in 1897 to $783,000 in 1898, a loss of about $17,000,000, due to the fact that British cotton cloths received a preference of 25 per cent. in the duties. The American Commissioners feel that if they can succeed in having this British preferential treatment stopped, it will be greater than any reciprocity agreement. The debate thus far has encouraged the American Commissioners to believe that they will succeed in having this preferential clause wiped out.

The Fisheries Question.
The fisheries question is of long standing, and aside from its importance to the commerce of the New England and Canadian coast, it is said to give the basis for a possible serious conflict between this country and Great Britain. Wounded by the length of the controversy, Canada of late has intimated that, in case it remained open, recourse might be taken to the seizure of American fishing vessels in Canadian waters. This doubling would lead to serious international complications. This has been the view of members of the commission, and, as a result, they are exceedingly anxious to secure a settlement of this question. It is understood that there is some likelihood of a commission of American, Canadian and English lawyers being appointed to determine the meaning of the treaty of 1818, which governs these fishery rights. The suggestion of this international body has come, it is understood, from Lord Herschell. Should such a body be appointed, it would do away with the chance of any collision occurring between the Canadian officials and American fishing vessels during the approaching fishing season.

A Canadian View.
A high Canadian official to-day stated the Canadian view of this fisheries question as follows:
The International Commission will have a serious difficulty to settle in the North Atlantic fishery question. It is a question which may give the commission some trouble. The position of the Canadian Government is that the fisheries are a joint resource in the United States. The treaty of 1818 provides, roughly speaking, that the United States fishermen shall not have access to the inhabited coasts of the Canadian seaboard. On those coasts American fishermen are not entitled to land save for four purposes specifically named in the treaty, namely, for food, water, shelter and repairs. The object of the treaty was obviously to give Canadian exclusive control of the fisheries as a base of operations for carrying on the fishery. Such has been the Canadian interpretation ever since the treaty was framed, and the United States has accepted it as the true interpretation.

In 1854 the United States purchased the right to land on the Canadian coasts for a number of purposes named. The United States fishermen shall not have access to the inhabited coasts of the Canadian seaboard. If this important concession is made by Canada and conceded by Lord Herschell, who is looking after the interests of Great Britain, then it is said a reciprocity list probably will be agreed upon. Without the abolition of preferential rates to Great Britain, the opinion is very positively expressed that a reciprocity agreement cannot be reached.

The reason for this, it is pointed out, is that the Canadian law giving Great Britain preference within the last year has diverted trade from the United States and turned it into British channels. The effect has been to reduce materially the sales of American cotton goods, hardware and other lines in Canada, and to increase the sales of British goods. One of the American experts said today that the shipment of cotton cloth to Canada had fallen off from $17,750,000 in 1897 to $783,000 in 1898, a loss of about $17,000,000, due to the fact that British cotton cloths received a preference of 25 per cent. in the duties. The American Commissioners feel that if they can succeed in having this British preferential treatment stopped, it will be greater than any reciprocity agreement. The debate thus far has encouraged the American Commissioners to believe that they will succeed in having this preferential clause wiped out.

The Fisheries Question.
The fisheries question is of long standing, and aside from its importance to the commerce of the New England and Canadian coast, it is said to give the basis for a possible serious conflict between this country and Great Britain. Wounded by the length of the controversy, Canada of late has intimated that, in case it remained open, recourse might be taken to the seizure of American fishing vessels in Canadian waters. This doubling would lead to serious international complications. This has been the view of members of the commission, and, as a result, they are exceedingly anxious to secure a settlement of this question. It is understood that there is some likelihood of a commission of American, Canadian and English lawyers being appointed to determine the meaning of the treaty of 1818, which governs these fishery rights. The suggestion of this international body has come, it is understood, from Lord Herschell. Should such a body be appointed, it would do away with the chance of any collision occurring between the Canadian officials and American fishing vessels during the approaching fishing season.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

This Great Privilege Celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. McLean Wishart at Bullock's Corners. Dundas, Nov. 17.—It is not to many that the great privilege of celebrating a golden wedding anniversary is permitted. Such a privilege was enjoyed yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McLean Wishart of "Piarholme," Bullock's Corners. They were married in Dundas by Archdeacon McArthur, in St. James' Church, 50 years ago, on Nov. 16, 1848. Mr. Wishart is a son of the late Alexander Wishart of the 42nd Highlanders of Scotland and is a colonel of the Canadian militia, having held his commission since 1858. He lived with his parents on the homestead, near West Flamboro, the place now belonging to William Begg. Two houses were burned down, but it was on this farm that Mr. Wishart spent the greater part of his life, as he was 28 when he was married, and it is only a few years ago since he removed to his present residence. His wife's maiden name was Louise VanDyck, and of their family of eight, five sons and three daughters, all are still living excepting Hector, a lad of 12, who died 21 years ago. The boys have all grown up to manhood and womanhood to help their parents celebrate their golden wedding. Among those present were: George G. Wishart, Toronto; Duquesa Wishart of Montreal; K. McLean Wishart of St. Louis; Charles Wishart of Windsor; Mrs. Dr. J. S. Vail of Buffalo; Dr. John Wishart of London and Miss Florence Wishart.

Spain Makes New Statements to Place Before the Commission. CANNOT ALLOW DISCUSSION

Over the Validity of Her Action in Pledging Resources of the Philippines for Payment of the Debt of the Islands—Will Not Tell Where the Money Went. Paris, Nov. 17.—The clerical force of the American Peace Commission was busy nearly all last night in translating the Spanish memorandum presented at yesterday's joint session.

Spain has, it is said, made two other important statements: That the high grounds of financial propriety she cannot admit of any enquiry as to how she has spent the proceeds of the loans based on the Philippine pledges. It is to be noted that she has done so, she practically compels the American commissioners to consider at least the question of the right and the Philippine Islands as a condition to Spain's amicable surrender of her sovereignty over those islands to-day, in review of the history of the late war, criticises the American attitude in regard to the Philippine islands. The sale of the islands to the United States, she remarked, "when you have your knee on a nation's neck you should make her cough out all you can." "It is possible the United States now remembers this brutal maxim, and it is also possible the United States has forgotten the rancor, hatred and exasperation it involves."

FROM THE WASHINGTON END. The Administration Encouraged to Hope for a Successful Issue. Washington, Nov. 17.—The administration feels encouraged now over the outlook for a successful termination of the labors of the Peace Commission at Paris.

EXITS AND ENTRANCES

A London and New York Success. "A Brace of Partridges," which will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House next week, with a special matinee on Thanksgiving Day, is a London and New York success, written by Richard Gannony, the plot of which hinges on a case of mistaken identity, which is treated in an entirely new manner. The action passes in an old roadside inn and in a London drawing room. The company coming here is the original one and was brought from London to this country by Mr. Charles Frohman. The title of "A Brace of Partridges" is pertinent, because there are two men in it named Partridge, who are cousins and exactly alike in fact, resemble each other to such an extent that they might be taken for twins. One can easily imagine the complications which ensue. New York players who are being applauded this comedy success since the beginning of the season. The actors and actresses are all new to this country, although they are well-known London favorites, and include Messrs. H. Reeves-Smith, C. W. Francis, Cecil Theobald, Fred Darr, C. F. Leicester, Lovett Fraser, Gordon Tompkins, E. Ford and the Misses Jessie Bateman, Mabel Lund and Edith Bateman. The sale of seats begins this morning at the box office.

THE SCALCH CONCERT. An exceptionally large number of seats were sold yesterday for the Scalch concert, which will be given at the Massey Hall next Tuesday evening. All the evidences point to a larger audience for this event than has been seen at any of the concerts of this concert series. The plan is to open at 9 a.m. till 5 p.m., where seats may be reserved for 75c or $1, according to location. There will be 441 seats at 25c each sold on the evening of the concert.

A Souvenir Matinee. A handsome souvenir photo of Miss Mildred Holland was given to the lady patrons of to-morrow's "bargain matinee" performance of "On the Wabash" at the Toronto. These souvenirs were given to a number of down-town windows and are very artistic. Mildred Holland is about to make her first tour to the city. Her first appearance will be at the Columbia Theatre next February.

written out, and which he will probably never commit to paper, but which is said to be remarkably interesting and entertaining, and full of the dramatic touches which are to be found in his novels. The sale of seats to-day closes at 5 o'clock and the doors will open at 7.30. The whole of the Massey Hall is thrown open to-night at 25c.

Thanksgiving Night. The program that has already been announced for Thanksgiving night in Massey Hall is a most attractive one, including, as it does, the names of Bengough, Mrs. H. H. H. and George W. H. H. This morning a further engagement for the event is announced in the name of Mr. Alf Sturrock, an actor of the greatest promise, who has returned to the city for a short vacation. Although this sterling young artist has been added to the program, the price of seats will be raised, but will remain as at first announced—25c to all parts of the hall. The plan opens on Monday morning next.

Harbord Street School. Held its Annual Commencement Yesterday—A Good Program—Excellent Record of the School. Yesterday was held at Harbord Collegiate Institute. DEATH TO BE INVESTIGATED. There Are Peculiar Circumstances Connected With the Demise of Little Stella Munchon. Peterboro, Nov. 17.—There are so many peculiar circumstances in connection with the death of 3-year-old Stella Munchon in North Monaghan last Wednesday, that it has been decided to have an inquest. Mr. Robert Cummings is determined to surprise the people by showing how interested in the case he is. He has taken the case to the court house this afternoon. He afterwards was in charge of the American cutter Greenleaf on Lake Erie, and took that boat from Fort Colborne to Cleveland, where she will tie up for the winter. The Greenleaf is a boat 100 feet long, 24 feet wide, and has a speed of 15 knots an hour. Capt. Couvrette was on his way to his home at Montreal.

An Interesting Ceremony—A Neat Reply—A Happy Time for All

The ancient and honorable function of canning the Warden was celebrated at the excellent dinner given at the Clyde.

The expression made by the Warden of York to have a poor warden, and he had never known the Council of York to be so good as the Warden than Mr. High.

The Odd Number, 19. The odd number in the Council, "No. 19," was the subject of the Warden's speech.

The Warden's speech was a gold-headed one on the occasion of the stepping down of Mr. J. D. A. Evans as Warden.

When the blessing had been asked and the knives and forks began to operate on the excellent menu prepared by the Clyde.

The Clyde, fully fifty guests were discovered seated at the tables. The great and good names of the Warden's party were names as familiar to everyone.

A few notables were present, and the Warden's speech was a gold-headed one on the occasion of the stepping down of Mr. J. D. A. Evans as Warden.
