TO THE PUBLIC OF TORONTO—STREET RIOTING.

The World must trouble the public with some reference to its own affairs. In order to explain certain unusual proceedings on the streets of this city for the past four Saturday nights. A very ingenious effort is being made to have the people believe that The World has put up the wholesale price of its Sunday edition, that it is trying to squeeze the poor newsboys, and that it is treating the newsboys exactly as before, and, as a matter of fact, they make more money and stand to make more money out of the Sunday World than any other paper handed by them. But somebody is trying to break down the wholesale price of The Sunday World, not for the benefit of the boys, but for rival concerns.

THEY ATTRIBUTE IT TO MILK.

Frenchmen Attribute the Depopulation to Adulteration.

Paris, Jan. 18.—A crusade has been started here to fight the adulteration of milk, to which the great mortality of infants is largely attributed.

The adulteration of milk is a very serious matter, and it is pointed out that a carrier was recently arrested at night time while he was filling his cans with the filthy stagnant water from the fountains on the Place de la Concorde.

It was upon the information furnished by the police that the Police Commissioner, Thompson, and Inspector Chapman, Thompson and Inspector Chapman, went to the premises of Wan Lung & Co. Chinese groceries, at 692 West Queen street, with a liquor search warrant late on Saturday night.

When the officers entered the premises they were busy in the place, and their search revealed 18 cases in which were carefully packed in sawdust and straw upwards of 400 bottles just as described in the report.

Most of the liquid was in the stout bottles, but several jars were also found, and some of the stuff, although of a different color, is believed that the liquid was bottled in China and sent to Montreal through the Customs House in the usual way.

Wai Lung & Co. it is stated, have been selling the adulterated milk at retail, the latter price, it is understood, being 85 cents. What the bottles are made of is not stated, but the percentage of alcohol, if any, the stuff contains, Inspector Stephen of the police department, who is in charge of the raid and who now has the matter in his charge, when asked last night to enlighten the newspaper men as to what they contained observed: "I don't know, we would like some light on the subject, but the stuff appears to be acting in the dark in connection with this case, it is understood liquid of a similar nature was seized recently in Montreal, and a conviction for selling liquor without a license."

MR. CHARLTON'S PANAGEA

Tells Chicago Club Canada Will Enter Upon Policy of Imitation of Yankee Tariff.

From The Sunday World. Chicago, Jan. 18.—Mr. John Charlton, member of the Canadian parliament, delivered an address on the trade relations between Canada and the United States at a banquet given by the Marquette Club last night.

At the outset, Mr. Charlton spoke of the importance of the subject to the two countries, dwelling side by side, and possessing the same natural facilities. Canada, he said, could support 100,000,000 people from the production of her own soil, 50,000,000 in the great Canadian Northwest. Her trade, therefore, should not be a matter of indifference to the United States, he said, in fact, she is the third best customer of the United States.

During the period when the reciprocity treaty was in force, from 1854 to 1896, the business relations between the two countries were cordial, and trade expanded with great rapidity, the export trade of Canada to the United States having more than quadrupled in less than twelve years.

Increasing from $10,000,000 in 1854, to $44,000,000 in 1896. Owing to the Civil War, the exports of Canada to the United States were stopped, but the trade between the two countries was not interrupted, and Canada continued to export to the United States.

Canada was importing more and more every year of American finished products. Since the outbreak of the war, the trade between the two countries has been interrupted, and Canada has been unable to export to the United States.

Some time ago, the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville, Ont., shareholders, holding a majority of the stock, offered an option on its purchase at $200 a share to the International Rapids Transit Company. The option ran out about the beginning of this year, and the shareholders did not take it up by the Rapid Transit Company.

As a result of the delay occasioned by the shareholders, the option was not taken up, and the Rapid Transit Company, which is now owned by the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville, Ont., shareholders, is now in possession of the property.

Mr. Charlton then went on to contrast the trade policies of the two governments, and to show that the trade between the two countries has been interrupted, and Canada has been unable to export to the United States.

He pointed out that the trade between the two countries has been interrupted, and Canada has been unable to export to the United States.

FOR YOUR BREAKFAST

Eat Life Chips and Lay the Foundation for Good Health and a Ripe Old Age.

Life Chips appeals to so many different kinds of people that it is small wonder that it is one of the most popular breakfast foods on the market to-day.

The busy housewife likes it because it is so easily prepared, being ready for immediate use. The economical housewife likes it because there is so much of it for a small price, a large quantity costing only ten cents.

Every member of the family likes it because it is so delightfully appetizing. The delicate palate likes it because it is digested and absorbed with the greatest ease. What is best about Life Chips, however, is the fact that the longer it is used the more popular it becomes. It is wholesome and nutritious, and it is being constantly received by good health and giving strength to both body and brain.

Letters testifying to the good effects of Life Chips are being constantly received from delighted customers, among the most recent being the following from Mr. George W. Miller of London, Ont.: "I have been using Life Chips for some time, and I can say that they are doing me good."

A POLITICAL DON QUIXOTE.

We think that Mr. Charlton will be unable to find a precedent for the missionary campaign he is prosecuting in the United States. He is attempting to educate the people of that country as to the duties of the United States as he maintains that the United States is not dealing fairly with Canada. The course Mr. Charlton is pursuing will not work out in the way he anticipates. Mr. Charlton's humble plea for fair play will be construed by the United States as a weak plea for the United States as a weak-willed nation. The American statesmen at Washington of the advisability of reducing the American tariff it will only strengthen them in the belief that their tariff should remain as it is. As we have already said, Mr. Charlton should be restrained from injuring the interests of Canada by his vain pleading with the people of the United States to do justice to this country. The United States very correctly takes the view that it will be time enough for them to negotiate with Canada when Canada imposes an adverse tariff upon United States goods. There is no ostensible reason why the United States should be reticent from Canada. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been an avowed free trader all his life. He professes publicly to be a free trader to-day, and the United States is justified in taking the position that, under Sir Wilfrid Laurier, a high protectionist tariff is not possible in Canada. As long, therefore, as we have an avowed free trader in power, just so long will the United States laugh at such arguments as are being advanced by Mr. Charlton. We are surprised that a man of his shrewdness and business ability would waste his time and weaken our cause by his futile missionary work. No business man would deal with another on the same principle as Mr. Charlton thinks Canada should deal with the United States. Business men do not plead with one another for justice. They are in their hands to protect themselves and to increase their business. The same policy should be adopted by this country. If we find that the United States is exporting to the Dominion three or four times as much as we are exporting to the United States, our policy should be to raise our tariff so as to remove the inequality. We do not agree with Mr. Charlton that reciprocity, such as he proposes, would be beneficial to this country. The United States is a self-contained nation, and there is very little that Canada can export to it which it does not produce in sufficient quantity for its own needs. Canada and the United States are competitors in the markets of the world, and it is in these markets that the two countries must fight out their trade differences. The only markets where we can justify a preference over the United States are those of Canada and of the British empire.

TORONTO RAILWAY DIRECTORATE.

We trust that the change in the directorate of the Toronto Railway Company will result in the adoption of a progressive suburban railway policy. Year after year goes by and yet Toronto makes no headway in the all-important matter of electric railway extensions. No city in America has the better territory for supporting an electric radial system, but, strange to say, no city on the continent is further behind in this development than Toronto. The principal reason for this regrettable state of affairs lies in the fact that the president of the Toronto Railway Company has too many outside interests to attend to, and he has not seen fit to delegate to others the work he should have undertaken himself. It is to be hoped that the addition of Colonel Pellatt and Mr. Nicholls to the board will enable the company to branch out into fields that are overripe for the harvest. The gridironing of Western Ontario with electric lines cannot long be delayed. Within a year or two power will be generated at Niagara Falls, and once that power is available, electric railway building in this part of the country will proceed very rapidly. We ought to have a transmission line from Niagara Falls to Toronto within two years, and the electric cars will certainly follow that line to this city and branch out in various directions all along the route. Toronto has been backward in the building of radial railways, but there is no doubt that before long every important highway leading into the city will have its electric railway. With cheap power at its disposal, the Toronto Railway Company and others interested in the suburban railway business will, before many years, establish a network of electric lines in Ontario, bringing the country into closer touch with the cities. These lines ought to do as much for Toronto as the steam railways do for us in years gone by. Nothing that we know of will prove so beneficial to the city as an extensive electric railway system connecting the villages and towns, east, west, north, with the capital of the province. What is destined to come in any event would have arrived ere this if the Ontario government had developed Niagara Falls power as a provincial enterprise and sold the power to whoever wished it. The day for state ownership and control of Niagara Falls power having passed, the next best thing we can hope for is that those who control it will develop it as rapidly as possible, especially in connection with electric railway building.

A Successful Record.

A somewhat remarkable record has been established by Dr. D. Lowrey, the representative in this city of the Imperial Life Insurance Company of Canada, who recently renewed his contract with that company for another year. The Doctor has been one of the largest writers of personal life insurance there, and during the past four and a half years the company has only been called upon to pay one claim, amounting to $3000, in respect of the entire business introduced by him. This record, which probably has never been surpassed, is an evidence of the care exercised by the company and its representatives in the selection of risks.

The U. S. MAY YET JOIN THE PROCESSION.

Mr. W. T. Stead has an article in The January Cosmopolitan Magazine on the future of the English-speaking world. That writer satisfies himself that union with the United States is the goal, for the winning of which we should all strive. Mr. Stead says that when Mr. Whitelaw Reid was in London for the Queen's Jubilee in 1897 nothing so surprised the American representative as to discover that all the colonial premiers were more Yankee than Britishers. What Mr. Reid really meant was colonial premiers, working each in his own land according to the British system, and it must have surprised him to see how little the American system would have to be altered to bring it into line. The British system, the fundamental part of which is not the monarchy and the House of Lords, is that which we call by the name of responsible government. Under this arrangement, cabinet ministers elected by their constituents, sit in the House and are directly and solely responsible to the people's representatives, and are responsible to them all the time.

Under the American system, the members of the appointed cabinet are solely responsible to the President; he alone can remove them; but, as far as the people are concerned, President and cabinet are only removable by death or impeachment.

THE BELLE OF NEW YORK.

The Belle of New York, with its laudable ambition, and with its remarkable record of 2000 performances, is again making a triumphant tour of the country, and will be seen at the Princess Theatre for a limited engagement, beginning on Thursday. The drama, the domestic Salvation Army Lassie, whose fascinating face is framed by a becoming poke-bonnet, is again interpreted by Miss Eoullah Dodge, who has made a great success in this role. Miss Dodge is extremely pretty and she possesses a most beautiful voice. Mr. Edward J. Connelly is still playing his original part of the elder Brownson, and Joseph Kane will be seen as the polite lunatic, Dainty Mac Sable, playing Fin, and Arthur Deagan is the "Blinky Bill" of the company.

CLASSIC PLAY TO-NIGHT.

The attraction at the Princess Theatre to-night and during the first half of the week will be Mrs. Sarah Cowell LeMay, whose reputation throughout the United States was so securely established by her first starring tour. The intelligence, the finish, and the strikingly obvious last spring by her performance of the domestic comedy, "The First Duchess of Marlborough," which resulted from a fall he had.

THE NIGHT OF THE FOURTH TO-NIGHT.

No humorist of recent years has come to prominence and renown with many novel effects, such as the author of "Artie" and "Fables in Slang," has won favor among American comedians. His first effort in play-writing has turned out equally successful in "The Night of the Fourth." The play, which is being presented at the well-known Casino, Mathews & Bulger, scored a distinct success last night. The play abounds in witty lines, clever repartee, ridiculous situations, and surprising climaxes, characteristic of this clever writer. The entire production, as originally produced at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre, New York, will be presented at the Grand this evening, when the company opens a week's engagement. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

NEW DRAMAS AT THE TORONTO.

"In a Woman's Power" is the title of the new melodrama which opens at the new Victoria Theatre, the Opera House this afternoon. The management of the company claims to have done all that is possible to make it a complete performance, scenically and artistically. The play is a complete success, and the new production, as originally produced at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre, New York, will be presented at the Grand this evening, when the company opens a week's engagement. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

Colds

You first take cold, then you cough. Then you have a doctor. He says it's bronchitis, and he orders Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is his favorite prescription for colds and coughs. If he knows of anything better, tell him to give it to you.

"I had a very severe cough for many weeks. Nothing relieved me until I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This rapidly and entirely cured me." J. J. Hargrave, New York City. Mr. Wm. H. M. J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

WAS KILLED IN THE SUBWAY

Austin Muckleton Horribly Mangled by King Street Car Early on Saturday.

FOUR INJURED AT THE NEW HOTEL

James Spencer May Die as a Result of a Section of Flooring Giving Away.

Austin Muckleton, while on his way to work on Saturday morning, was run over by a car at the King-street Subway, and sustained such terrible injuries that he died shortly afterwards.

Muckleton left his home at 65 Argyle-st. a few minutes past 6 o'clock. He was walking thru the subway, and when about half way started to cross from the north to the south side. He, apparently, did not see a car, slowly approaching from the west, for he walked in front of it. The fender struck him, and threw him violently against one of the stone buttresses of the bridge.

The play struck the force of the blow sent Austin Muckleton flying into the air, where he became jammed in the framework. The car was quickly brought to a standstill, so firmly was Muckleton wedged in that it was necessary to jack up the car before he could be extricated. In the meantime, the ambulance had been summoned, and in it Muckleton was removed to the Emergency Hospital. There it was found that he was suffering from a broken thighbone, several broken ribs and his head and body were badly crushed. He passed away at 7:30 o'clock, never having regained his senses.

The car that ran down Muckleton was No. 600, and was in charge of Motorman John White, conductor J. Boulton, and Conductor Spencer issued a warrant for an inquest, which was held on Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Boulton.

Deceased was 50 years of age, and numbered among the employees of the Toronto Carpet Manufacturing Co. He is survived by two brothers, one in England, and one in the States.

ACCIDENT AT NEW HOTEL

The new Royal Edward Hotel, East King-street, was the scene, on Saturday morning, of a serious accident, which may have been probably fatally injured and three others were more or less hurt.

James Spencer, 95 Jarvis-st.; John Bell, 115 Hurontario-st.; George Materson, 60 South Drive, and Thomas Pickett, 118 Clarence-st., were at work on the new building, laying concrete. They were trapped down by a layer of concrete, when, suddenly, the concrete fell to the ground, a distance of 15 feet. The men were thrown into the air, and several of them were severely injured. Materson was struck on the head and body, and was thrown into the air, where he was caught by the ceiling, which was a narrow escape from being injured.

MACKENZIE RECOVERING

Wellington Mackenzie, the street railway conductor, who was badly injured last week at the corner of Yonge and Melinda-streets, was removed this morning from the Emergency to the General Hospital. He is improving and has partly regained consciousness.

"NO SMOKING" ALLOWED.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—A passage-at-arms between the Auditor General and the Minister of Public Works has led to the renewal of stringent orders against smoking in all the government buildings. After the fire which unroofed the new block in 1897, Mr. Tarte had all the buildings placarded with "No Smoking" orders, and for a time the rule was strictly enforced. Gradually, however, it fell into general disregard. Pretty nearly everywhere the rule was broken, and when Mr. Tarte went around, he found that the rule was being broken in many places. He issued orders to the chiefs of departments to enforce the rule. Finally, at the instance of his Auditor-General, Mr. Tarte issued an order that the clerks in the Audit Department be permitted to smoke. He said it was a matter of life and death, and that the permission ought to be granted, inasmuch as the clerks in the Audit Department were engaged in the work of the government. The result was that Mr. Tarte, who adds to his absence of tobacco smoke, a jealous regard for his ministerial authority, bounced over to Council and insisted upon getting the order making the office of smoking in the government buildings punishable by suspension or dismissal.

The company, numbering nearly 100 people, will reach here by special train next Sunday from Buffalo. Following the local engagement, "Florodora" will be presented for a week in Montreal, and then the big production will go to New York, where it will be seen at the Theatre, Boston, for a run of several weeks.

THE CHILDREN OF OLIVE'S SUNDAY SCHOOL HELD THEIR ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT AT THE HUMBER HALL FRIDAY EVENING.

The children of Olive's Sunday School held their annual entertainment at the Humber Hall Friday evening last. The program was a most successful one, and the children's recitations of the Bible children presented their pretty little Chinese operetta in Chinese costumes, which elicited much applause. The prizes were distributed to the successful little folks by Mr. Russell-Smith. All, however, were made happy with bags of confectons.

TO-DAY AT SHEA'S.

For the week beginning the matinee this afternoon, Shea promises an excellent bill of vaudeville. The attractions are headed by Stanley and Birbeck, the musical blackbirds, and their celebrated lightning change act. It is one of the marvels of stagecraft that these "peeps" of stage-folk, in less than thirty seconds, are taken from the blacksmith shop to a parlor in a twinkling. They are taken to the blacksmith shop, and back again to the parlor, and the change is so quick, that the audience is left wondering how it is done. YORK COUNTY PIONEER DEAD

Sudden Death on Saturday Morning of Salem Eckardt in This City.

WELL-KNOWN AMONG FARMERS

Deceased's Father Was One of the First Settlers in Markham Township.

Salem Eckardt, a pioneer of the County of York, was found dead in bed on Saturday morning at his late residence, 108 Wellington-place. He had been up and about the city on Friday, and appeared to be in his usual good health when he retired that night. Death, it is thought, resulted from an internal hemorrhage, due to a tumor. Mr. Eckardt was a grand uncle of H. P. Eckardt of the well-known wholesale grocery firm, and Albert Eckardt of the Eckardt Casket Co. He was the last of the first settlers of York County. In 1782 his father came out from Saxony to the Genesee Valley, where he, with others, had made arrangements for the taking up of land. The party became dissatisfied with the new home, and seeing Governor Simcoe's proclamation offering free grants of land to settlers, they formed a deputation and came to York, now Toronto. Here they waited on Governor Simcoe and were given land in the Township of Markham, which had then just been surveyed. It was this party who first opened up Yonge-street, which was then wilderness. In those days it took 21 days to bring supplies from Toronto to Markham Township, the trip being generally made with oxen. Seventy-eight years ago Salem Eckardt was born, and at an early age became interested in the business of an auctioneer. He followed this occupation until the time of his death. There are few farmers in York County who had not employed deceased at one time or another. His last sale he conducted only last Friday afternoon near Thornhill. After the sale he returned to his home in Toronto. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Fenwick, who resides in Markham. License Inspector James Eckardt of East York is a nephew of the deceased. In politics he was a Reformer and a member of the German Lutheran Church. Deceased's father was one of the first to establish grain mills in York County. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning to Unionville, where the remains will be interred in the Lutheran Cemetery. Services will be held at the church there prior to the interment.

The New Directory. The new directory will soon be published and it will contain many more names than last year. Under the "A" it will continue to have the name of Archambault, the tailor, at 125 Yonge-street. Under all the other letters of the alphabet it will contain the names of Mr. Archambault's customers. SECOND EARTHQUAKE SHOCK. Pavia in Chiapaningo in Guerrero last for Ten Days. Mexico City, Mex., Jan. 19.—Chiapaningo, the capital of the State of Guerrero, has been in a panic for two days. There came a repetition yesterday of the shock of Thursday, causing the ground many houses spared in the first earthquake. The people are camping out on the Alameda and in the fields. Hundreds of families are ruined. The buildings destroyed include the 17th Battalion barracks, from which the soldiers were ordered, thus saving their lives. The school buildings are wrecked, but the children were all saved, their teachers giving the order for them to march to the street when the first rumbling of the earth began. Great fissures opened across the streets. The church of San Mateo, in one of the outer districts, was nearly destroyed. Among the dead already found are four young women and two young girls. The list of the wounded includes many prominent citizens. No official list of dead or wounded has yet been made.
