LABOR MEN ELECT J. BUCKLEY, TORONTO TO THE PRESIDENCY

Succeeds Hon. Walter Rollo as Head of the Independent Party.

APPROVE COALITION

London, Ont., April 3.—J. W. Buckley of Toronto was chosen to succeed Hon. Walter Rollo as president of the Ontario Independent-Labor party at the closing session of the annual convention of the Independent-Labor party this afternoon.

While the convention decided to place all vice-presidents on equal footing, the rule was made that the vice-president who was first elected should be eligible to take the place of the president during that official's absence.

Joseph T. Marks of Toronto was again elected secretary, while R. H. Palmer was chosen as treasurer.

Resolutions pressing for the amendment of the mothers' pensions bill to permit all mothers now excluded to receive pensions, approving of the action of the Labor members-elect in forming a coalition with the United Farmers of Ontario members-elect, approving of the bill introduced by Hon. Walter Rollo, by which all property qualifications in municipal elections will be eliminated, asking that an eight-hour day with a minimum wage be placed upon the statute books, urging that unemployment insurance be paid by those industries in which the unemployment occurs, were passed.

Want Adequate Housing.
The convention also approved of taking action to pressure the owners of the workers for adequate housing with the hope that the elimination of the housing shortage would prevent the demoralizing influence of the home life of the citizens due to overcrowding. It was decided that all newspapers and periodicals should publish the names of the owners in each issue. Changes to the education act necessary to permit backward children being given special attention were urged and it was recommended that the amount for which children can be insured be increased one hundred per cent.

Political Resolutions
Resolutions calling for the holding of a bye-election in a constituency where there is a vacancy within 90 days of a vacancy occurring, urging that redistribution of seats made necessary by reason of an increase in population or for other reasons be made prior to the elections, were carried. It was also decided that the government should be asked to reopen the schools which were closed in northern Ontario some years ago by the withdrawal of certain grants called for under section 17 of the schools act. There was also a discussion on this resolution, other than to decide that it should be admitted even though it was handed in late and was not considered by the resolutions committee as a result.

Not United to Farmers Forever
Speaking of the coalition between the farmers and the labor men in the present provincial government, President Rollo expressed the opinion that labor is not bound to the farmers forever.

"We are co-operating with them during the life of this parliament for the government of the province," said he. (Continued on Page 5, Column 5).

TIMISKAMING IN DOUBT Government Supporters, Returning to Ottawa, Say Chances Favor Labor Candidate.

Ottawa, April 4.—(Special).—Government members who have returned from the Timiskaming by-election campaign say that the result is very much in doubt, with chances in favor of the Labor candidate. It is almost impossible to reach many of the settlements, owing to the great depth of snow now melting and making the roads impassable. Gowanda, with nearly a thousand voters, is cut off from the campaigners, and no one has any idea of the sentiment there. French-Canadians are 25 per cent. of the electorate, and they will vote for the Labor candidate.

INCENDIARIES IN IRELAND BURN IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS; MANY OUTRAGES COMMITTED

Offices of Income Tax Collectors Raided—Soldiers Make General Search for Arms and Erect Barricades—Thirty-Five Assaults on Police Barracks.

Dublin, April 4.—Masses of important correspondence and documents were burned in a series of fires which kept the fire-fighters rushing from 9 o'clock last night until after midnight. The circumstances indicate a well-planned incendiary plot. Fires occurred in the offices of at least eight income tax collectors and surveyors in different parts of the city.

Easter demonstrations in Ireland did not develop into a spectacular effort for force against the government, which the adherents of the Republican cause considered would be suicidal, but there was a series of outrages in many parts of the island. The malcontents took a new angle in their work when they attacked 16 tax officers in many cities and towns, destroying the records in various ways, but mostly by fire.

Attacks on the police barracks and government offices are reported from Limerick, both town and county, and also from several places in County Clare. No casualties are yet reported, except for the wounding of two soldiers by John Mitchell, whom they arrested at Glenties, Leitrim county. Mitchell fled repeatedly before surrendering.

The Sinn Fein flag has been flying all day long from the masthead of the flagstaff on the admiralty pier at Queenstown. It was hoisted during the night, and the pole was well greased to prevent it from being hauled down.

CRISIS IN DENMARK IS SMOOTHERED OVER BY A COMPROMISE

Strike Continues, But Ministry Resigns and Electoral Reforms Promised.

Copenhagen, April 4.—Notwithstanding the removal of political obstacles and the announcement that the general strike had been called off, it still continues to be effective. The employer organizations and the trade unions have not yet reached a definite agreement. Both yielded on many points, but are faced by serious, perhaps insurmountable, difficulties thru the uncompromising attitude of certain workers outside the trade unions organization. These workers include the dockmen.

The announcement stated that all the parties had agreed it would be necessary to hold elections after a new electoral law has been passed. Premier Løbe declared, upon the king's suggestion, that he desires to retire. The king will now ask former Director of the Ministry of Justice Pihls to form a cabinet, with the understanding that the rigid law will resume its sessions as soon as possible and begin negotiations for an electoral bill. All the chairman promised to cooperate with a cabinet formed upon that basis.

The resignation of the Løbe ministry, after five days' tenure of office, means that the socialists will consent to call off the general strike, providing the new electoral bill is carried thru the parliament. The king's help to prevent the dissolution of the Rigsdag and the new elections.

RAIN OF BULLETS SWEEP THE STREETS OF PRUSSIAN CITY

Government Troops Drove Reds From Duisburg After Day's Hot Fighting.

Duisburg, Rhenish Prussia, April 4.—Easter brought real peace to Duisburg. After heavy fighting, the government troops which reached here early yesterday were today combing the industrial district to the south around Walsheim and the woods toward Mulheim, where the scattered reds are believed to have fled. How far south and east the troops will go depends on how the reds act.

It is not intended to proceed to Essen or Dusseldorf unless there are unexpected developments. Military control will be maintained here only until the authorities are satisfied of the stability of civilian administration. One of the most frequent comments regarding the disturbances at Duisburg is the earnest assurance that the fighting reds were not natives, but aliens.

It was suggested as being probable that some move will be made to have the matter tested in the courts.

WILL RENEW DEMAND FOR SCARBORO PARK

By the recent decision of the city council not to purchase Scarborough Beach Park, the residents of the eastern section and the citizens at large are losing the only available strip of lake-front and recreation ground, says a prominent member of the "Norway Ratepayers' Association." He points out that if the purchase is reconsidered at a later date a larger price for the property may be demanded, and that there is the likelihood of the owners selling for subdivision. The matter will be again brought to the attention of the mayor and board of control by the local ratepayers' association at an early date, according to a statement of Arthur Fleming, president.

The Frequent Cause of Nervous Breakdown
NOTHING so certainly breaks down the nervous system as constant straining of the eyes.
You may think that sewing is light work and wonder why it tires you.
It is the strain on the eyes.
The controlling of the sight is the most delicate work of the nervous system and when there is strain on the eyes there is an enormous waste of nervous energy.
There are times when it seems necessary to stick at this work for long hours and to sew by artificial light, but you may have to pay for it by a nervous breakdown.
It is then well to know about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, as a means of restoring a run-down nervous system.
Whatever may be the cause of your nervous breakdown, it has been demonstrated in many thousands of cases that there is nothing like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to restore the depleted nerve cells.
Headaches, tired feelings, sleeplessness, indigestion, lack of energy and appetite are some of the indications of an exhausted condition of the nerves.
Your digestive system is failing to supply the necessary nutrition to the blood and nerves, so it becomes necessary to employ such restorative treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
Rest will help. Eating only wholesome, nutritious food will benefit. But restoration is very greatly hastened and ensured by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 50 cts., a box, all dealers, or Edmonson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. ## CENTRAL BUILDINGS CHANGING HANDS

Adelaide and Richmond Realty Figure in Sales—Office Space in Demand.

Deals have been closed in the past few days for the transfer of several downtown buildings as a result of the general scramble for office space. The Canada Savings building, 41-43-45 East Adelaide street, has been sold by the Sterling Trust Corporation for $65,000. The building is a four-story structure of brick on a lot measuring 31 x 74 feet. It adjoins the Excelsior Life building, and has a dozen tenants, including the Globe Land Company. The D. G. Fitzgerald building at 122 West Richmond street has been sold to E. P. Henderson for $70,000. This property is on the north side of Richmond, between Bay and York, in a district where purchases have been frequent in the last few months. The building has four floors and a basement and the lot is 23 x 108 feet with the use of a lane on the east side, the law stationery firm of Newsome & Gilbert are one of the oldest tenants of the building. Messrs. Gibson Bros. were the brokers.

Messrs. J. H. Morin & Co., paints and varnishes, have bought the three-story brick warehouse at 54 Colborne street, from the Sterling Trust Corporation for $25,000. The purchasers have been tenants of the premises.

Half a dozen stores on Danforth avenue have changed hands in the last week and lots available for new structures have also been selling.

The Royal Bank has purchased the northwest corner of Danforth and Woodbine avenues and will shortly begin the erection of a branch there. It is understood the price was $300 a foot Danforth frontage. The lot is 29 x 110 feet. This is part of the land recently purchased by a syndicate from the Anglican Synod and which has been subdivided.

David Lavine, owner of the King George Hotel, Queen and Augusta streets, has sold the property to Goldie Sherman for $18,000. It is understood that there will be no interior change in management.

Mr. George F. Burton has purchased the residence at 51 Prince Arthur avenue from Mrs. J. Fleury for $20,000.

Mr. Joseph Price, owner of properties on Lee avenue, has given some 25 tenants one month's notice to vacate, as he intends to place the property on the market. The tenants claim that it is almost impossible to rent suitable properties at such short notice, and propose to hold a protest meeting.

James S. Gordon has purchased a store and dwelling at 57 Danforth avenue from Arnott & Needam for $15,000, and will open a first-class drug store on the premises in the near future. The deal was negotiated by Campbell & Campbell.

SCORES CHURCHES FOR AIDING NEEDY

Let the People Get Up Against It," Declares Rev. Ernest Thomas.

"True democracy should be the cooperation of government, industry and law," declared Rev. Ernest Thomas at the Open Forum yesterday. In the course of his address on "Can Democracy be Made Safe for Morality?" He stated that this triumvirate had been referred to as a sort of background for Bolshevism, but if Bolshevism was nothing more than that, then he was not afraid of it. He thought that parliamentary government was not a great aid to democracy. "Poverty must go," he said vehemently. "It is not here to be relieved. It must be entirely done away with." He declared that the churches should stop relieving poverty and let the people get "up against it." That is the only way it could be abolished, and in this regard the church should function properly.

"A community has the right to demand an uninterrupted supply of the necessities of life," continued Rev. Thomas. "No community can do the best work when it is wondering where the next meal is coming from. It has been falsely stated that hunger and threatened starvation are a stimulation to greater effort, but I reiterate that fear of starvation never helped to accomplish anything."

"In this regard it has been stated by many that men who leave their work and go on strike because they are not getting a square deal, are committing an outrage, by hampering the progress of industry and commerce. Yet in spite of this, when a big flour-milling concern in the west closes down, no criticism is forthcoming. It is an actual fact that one western mill, recently, which supplies us with our staple article of food, shut down operations, simply because they could not dispose of the flour at an advantageous price. So far no cry has been raised as to this act being seditious."

after a survey had been made of four of the big industries of Ontario, it was found that sixty per cent. of the women employed were receiving four dollars a week less than the minimum wage required to enable them to live properly. "We throw up our hands in horror at the socialization of women in Russia," he said, "but the far greater evil of the commercialization of women as it exists here, is let go without scarcely a comment. The whole question is summed up in the fact that poverty must go."

He produced statistics showing that

Only Ship Available Would Not Satisfy Public, Says Manager.

The Toronto Ferry Company has decided not to supply a ferry service to and from the island for several weeks. It was announced on Saturday. Manager Solman of the Ferry Company said two of his boats were in drydock in the Don river and could not be floated at present. "I have only one boat at the island, and if I put it into commission it would not meet the requirements, and no one would be satisfied," declared Mr. Solman.

CRISIS IN DENMARK IS SMOOTHED OVER

The councillors, bearing the resolution, were immediately admitted to the king's presence. The mounted police attempted to prevent the crowd from entering Amalienborg square, but a sudden display of red flags frightened the horses, and the next moment thousands surged into the square, which is bordered by four royal palaces.

The king, attended by Premier Liebe, received the deputation. The councillors implored the king to dismiss the newly-appointed ministry, and the monarch replied: "I will negotiate on everything when the general strike is called off."

Meantime, from outside the palace were heard shouts of "Republic! Long live Social Democracy!" These cries were redoubled when the deputation reappeared, and former Minister Stauning addressed the crowd from the steps of the palace, announcing the result of the conference with the king. The manifestos, however, soon dispersed in orderly fashion.

Late Saturday night the scenes were renewed in the great square outside the town hall and in the adjoining streets, when one speaker after another harangued the people on the constitutional crisis and the unfamiliar cry of "Long live the republic!"

The king evidently recognized the gravity of the situation when he summoned the various party leaders, and the conference proceeded all night long, sometimes in the king's presence, and sometimes in groups in anti-chambers. Premier Liebe was all the Duisburg. The contingents arrived simultaneously at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Fired on Red Groups. A detachment of police undertook to search houses for resisting reds while the government artillery took up a position north of the old gates of Duisburg, from which spot it placed shots where the reds were grouped, principally in the high school groups.

The first shots between the Kabisch forces and the reds were fired in Kaisersberg, on the eastern edge of the city. Fighting soon followed in the downtown streets of Duisburg; the Reichswehr advancing from corner to corner, driving the reds before them. The reds fought in small groups, sometimes only three or four men, with a machine gun, supplementing its fire with rifles.

The reds, who numbered only two or three hundred, were driven out within two and a half hours, but desultory fighting continued into the night as small nests of the radical element were located and cornered. The number of reds captured is not announced.

A report was current that reds were executed, but this is denied. No brutal acts were observed. The city, which had lived in a state of fear for three weeks, took the matter coolly. The street cars continued operating in all parts of the town except where the fighting was hot, but cellars were popular.

LABOR MEN ELECT J. BUCKLEY, TORONTO

"Next election unless there is some working agreement that will alter our understanding, we will dissolve ourselves into a separate organization. We will place our candidates in the various fields and the farmers will likely do the same, but where it will be possible for both parties to agree to one candidate that may be acceptable to both this may be worked out."

"Can we co-operate with the farmers in the federal elections?" queried Delegate Douglas. "This is a point which should be worked out," stated Chairman Rolfe. Delegate H. B. Ashplant suggested that the present policy of co-operation with the farmers could be carried on without the formality of a resolution, as he understood the constitution forbids an alliance with any other political party.

Some delegates objected to endorsing the coalition of labor-farmer, on the grounds that the U.F.O. principles differ in several respects from those of the moderate red outposts on all the roads leading into the city, who are under orders to receive, disarm and conduct to the barracks all returning reds.

The executive committee in charge announced that it is prepared to prevent the city becoming the scene of resistance to the peace terms. Should

The Toronto World

FOUNDED 1826. A morning newspaper published every day in the year by The World Newspaper Company of Toronto, Limited.

DR. REID'S EASTER EGG.

Remarkable Case of the C.P.R.

Before dealing with the C.P.R.'s relation to the $47,000,000 deficit on the government-run railways, a pertinent word may be said upon the peculiar slants that are given to the discussion of this vital national question by well-meaning, but poor-thinking newspapers.

The Montreal Gazette, chief fugleman of the C.P.R., naturally evades the essentials of the situation by fulminating against public ownership, to which it attributes the trouble, instead of placing it where it belongs—on the shoulders of the alliance of magnates and politicians who beguiled the country into reckless orgies of railway building with little regard to traffic production.

The Ottawa Journal, friend of public ownership, and special friend of the government, argues against increasing rates, on the ground that it will be good discipline for the National directors to be kept short of money, in order to "prod them into more efficient competition with the C.P.R. In other words, the way to make a shabby man feel equal to his well-dressed competitor is to compel him to wear a ragged suit.

The Hamilton Herald shakes its head in its own engaging manner, and concedes the necessity for increasing rates. But, it says: "Nothing like 25 per cent. should be thought of. Just sufficient to cover the prospective deficit should be enough."

FEARLESS CANDOR THE FIRST REQUISITE.

Truthful, fearless candor is the first requisite to a proper understanding of the situation that confronts every Canadian taxpayer and railway user. As soon as you begin to apply it some excellent souls have a violent fit of the shivers. They have a wonderful capacity for believing that if you don't tell the truth out loud it will never be known.

"If you say anything that suggests that the C.P.R. isn't as almighty flourishing as most people believe it to be," said a business man, in discussing these articles with "The World." "The C.P.R. won't be pleased."

The C.P.R. is not so foolish as to suppose that its position is not known to those who live by trading in securities. Neither is it unaware that the public which must make up immense deficits on its own railways, by higher rates or higher taxes, is just as much concerned with the finances of the C.P.R. as it is with the finances of its own lines.

BEATY LIFTS A FLYING SIGNAL.

The C.P.R. is magnificently managed. It is in a railway class by itself. But even C.P.R. wizardry can't make bricks without straw. When President Beaty tells the public, as he told the Toronto Canadian Club, how wages have gone up—millions a year was the extra bill of the Canadian railways, he said, last November—he is obviously flying a signal which is really the same that President Hanna of the C.N.R. has courageously been nailing to the masthead like a business man and not a political servant, who is not scared of political mosquitoes. Long ago the Beaty signal was read in Wall Street figures that are infinitely more eloquent than any figures of speech that can garnish Canadian Club luncheons. Look at what they are, and discern there also, inevitably, clear, floor-are the gross railway earnings of the C.P.R. for the last four years:

Table with 2 columns: Year (1916-1919) and Earnings ($129,471,885 to $148,996,024)

The earnings last year were 36.6 per cent. higher than in 1919 thanks to rate increases, which followed the McAdoo awards as to wages. Now look at the working expenses for the same four-year period:

Table with 2 columns: Year (1916-1919) and Expenses ($80,255,965 to $22,998,036)

The operating expenses, observe, rose 54.2 per cent. as against a rise of 36.6 per cent. in gross earnings. What was the effect of this on net earnings, from which fixed charges and dividends have to be paid? This table tells the story of net earnings:

Table with 2 columns: Year (1916-1919) and Net Earnings ($49,225,965 to $22,998,036)

The amount of money available for the shareholders, then, was 46.1 per cent. more in 1919 than it was in 1916. What had to be met out of the profits of 1919? First the fixed charges. Owing to various bond retirements the fixed charges of the C.P.R. are relatively very low. Bonds are a first mortgage on the property. If the interest on them is not paid out of earnings the concern becomes bankrupt. If somebody else comes along and pays the interest the concern is bankrupt, in fact, if not in name—which is the position of the C.N.R. and G.T.P. lines, the interest on whose first-line securities has had to be paid by the guaranteeing taxpayers—the ladies and gentlemen who read these paragraphs.

HOW WALL STREET READS THE BIG STORY.

The C.P.R. has been paying the interest—the fixed charges—on its first mortgage, and dividend on the other securities which have only a claim on the earnings—dividends which can be passed without fear of the sheriff stalking into Mr. Beaty's office. Less than ten years ago those securities, of the par value of $100, sold in the open market above $200. Quotations for them last week were around $140, which represents Wall Street's reading of the figures here considered.

The C.P.R. has sources of revenue outside the railway operations (which alone have been included in the tables foregoing)—steamships, hotels, lands, etc. Owing, no doubt, mainly to an increase in ocean shipping rates, which have offset rising costs, the special profits have not seriously fluctuated. They totaled $9,940,954 in 1916 and $9,049,342 in 1919. They have long contributed to surpluses that were put away, after the fixed charges were met and the dividends, statutorily limited to ten per cent., were paid.

Following is the most eloquent table that it has been possible to construct from the C.P.R. balance sheets for many years. It gives the railway surpluses after fixed charges and dividends were paid:

Table with 2 columns: Year (1916-1919) and Surpluses ($15,444,158 to $44,250)

So, you see, the annual velvet pile of the C.P.R. has already worn pretty thin. What are the prospects of it being renewed this year? Glance back at the fixed charges. They are, roughly, ten million dollars. The two months' earnings and expenses already reported show this:

Table with 2 columns: Month (January, February) and Earnings/Expenses

HAS GONE BACK TO EQUIPMENT BONDS.

Of course, January and February are not good months. But the net profit was only about forty per cent. of what it was in the same months of 1919. The pointer is unmistakable. Without an immense crop in the west this summer to boost profits, the C.P.R. will be up against it. The fixed charges out of operating revenue, and it will certainly have to draw on the old stocking in order to pay dividends on the second-class securities.

Plainly, the C.P.R. cannot return to where it was in the middle of the war without increased rates. There is no means of knowing what has happened to its accumulated surpluses. Often enough railways turn their surpluses into betterments. But whatever the C.P.R. has done with its surpluses, it has given a remarkable sign that it is feeling the same sort of pressure that afflicts the Canadian National.

Railways without heavy surpluses buy equipment thru special trust securities—an instalment plan which spreads payment over a term of years. The Dominion railway report for 1918 shows the Canadian Northern as having equipment trust obligations amounting to $11,756,000, and the C.P.R. as having a similar liability of $9,480,000. The C.P.R. equipment trust indebtedness was a left-over from leaner years than those which have recently blessed it.

A few weeks ago the C.P.R. went to New York for $12,000,000 worth of equipment bonds, for which it is paying (subject to correction) 6 3/4 per cent. At one crack, therefore, the C.P.R. finds it desirable to increase its equipment obligations by a greater amount than those of the national lines, and the Grand Trunk Pacific combined. (The St. L. Ex. shows equipment

CANADIAN AIR FORCE WILL BE RECRUITED

(Continued from Page 1) The formation of a Canadian air force has been decided upon by the immediate organization of such a force from among the ex-officers and airmen of the Royal Air Force resident in Canada. Provision will later be made for the recruitment of all ranks of the force so constituted, but the number of ex-officers and airmen in Canada is immediately to make provision for such recruitment.

The force will be a militia, not a permanent force. Almost the whole personnel will be non-professional, and the professional personnel will be negligible in number. The total authorized strength will probably be in the neighborhood of 5000. It is proposed that the training should be carried on at training centres, which, as individuals, the training centres will be arranged or created during the year in every twenty-four hours. They will receive pay at all other times. They will receive pay at all other times. They will receive pay at all other times.

Officers and Airmen Eligible. "All officers and airmen who have served with the Royal Air Force in any branch or department and are willing to undertake service with the Canadian Air Force on the lines of the proposals above indicated and in the ranks of which they held on demobilization, are invited to send notice to the secretary of the air board, Ottawa, with particulars of the air crew showing the full name of the applicant in block capitals, his permanent address, his age and his rank on discharge from the Royal Air Force or of his transfer to or of discharge from the reserve of such force. The application should be accompanied by a copy of the applicant's discharge certificate or of the advice that he has been transferred to the Royal Air Force reserve."

When she meets David Thomas, falls in love, and becomes engaged to him, her cup of happiness is full.

LAWRENCE HAS A PLAN.

Alice went over to the settlement house the next morning happier than she had been for a long time. She had been sure all during the year she had come down from David that love would never again enter her life. And now she felt that the best substitute in the world—a real friendship—had been given her.

She was filled with curiosity as to what happened to the little deserted baby. And so, for that matter, were the small children of Shanty-town. She found more than a dozen sitting on the steps of "Happy Home" waiting for her.

As Alice was usually the first worker to arrive, she had the key and opened up the place. Some of the small girls who had joined the "Little Mother's" class and the housekeeping class sat down patiently to await the arrival of the young girl who was to take charge of them; the rest gathered up their tools and followed Alice back to the small garden.

For an hour she talked and worked, demonstrating the best way to put in late corn, and giving a lesson in transplanting. Then, having finished the "sample garden," as they called the patch behind the house, she started off with her troupe to the vacant lot gardens.

These, according to plan, had been portioned out to all the poor families who applied for them, and both the old and the young members of the families worked in them. Alice supervised, and frequently did a generous share of the work.

She was hard at it a little after 11, when Lawrence appeared. He perched himself on the top rail of a fence where a tree gave a little shade, and watched her and her pupils with some amusement and a lot of genuine admiration. Alice came over to him finally, and sat down on the grass at his feet.

"You look rather hot," was his rather banal greeting. Alice laughed and pulled off her hat. At the same time her hair, which always looked as tho it were about to come down, carried out its threat and fell in a long coil down her back.

Alice blushed and started to hunt the hairpins in order to do it up again. "I like it that way," Lawrence approved. "What a lot of hair you have, and such a nice color! What do you do to it to conceal its beauty when you wear it done up?"

"I don't know how to fix it, I suppose," Alice confessed. "I like the way your cousin does hers, but I haven't the skill." "She would be glad to show you," Lawrence remarked. "Anybody who doesn't look pretty pinned up, and I wish you wouldn't work so hard."

"I don't want to talk about myself," Alice said, with sudden resentment. "Everybody tells me I don't know how to dress or make myself look pretty, and I know it, but I am too busy to find out. Tell me about the baby." "Exactly what I came to do," Lawrence said, quite unperturbed, and lighting a cigaret. "It's a perfectly nice baby. It didn't cry or fuss or do any of the things babies are supposed to do, and it's really rather pretty. Needs fattening. Mother fixed it up in a lot of clothes that belonged to a young cousin's baby, a whole outfit made in Paris. The deserted child of obscure parents graces its expensive wardrobe very well."

"How dear!" Alice commented. "Has anyone decided to let me have it?" "No one knows you want it, and I think you're foolish to ask for it," Lawrence answered. "I saw it first and I want it."

"My dear girl, you are a goose!" Lawrence replied. "I'm not," Alice answered, with a sudden show of temper. "It doesn't matter if I have to bring the baby up here if I am to bring it to a better way than its parents would have done. And it doesn't make any difference—I want it!"

"The unanswerable feminine reason," said Lawrence, throwing away his cigaret. "I suppose you can have it. But, look here, I wanted it myself."

"You!" Alice looked her amazement. "Me," Lawrence echoed. "You see it's this way. I've never in my life done anything for anybody, and I've never used a medical instrument. I can leave at any hour to sit on a fence and talk to you. I've never had a serious purpose in my life. And I thought I'd adopt this infant and send it—her—to a good school and college—well, take a walk and give it a chance to grow up into a happy and useful woman. It's probably the only good thing I'll ever do in my life. Better let me do it, Alice."

The girl sat looking thoughtfully at the busy workers in the garden. "I like you for talking that way," she said. "It's true you need a but-terfly, except when you're teaching me something. You suffer from one enthusiasm after another, and of course, if you adopt this baby you could give me many things that I couldn't, because you have the money."

But she looked hopelessly dejected as she watched the workers in the gardens. Tomorrow—Alice Has Her Way.

DETROIT MOTORISTS WILL TOUR ONTARIO

Three Hundred Expected to Explore the Muskoka District in July Next.

ONE NIGHT IN TORONTO

A large party of Michigan motorists will pass thru Toronto in July on route to the Muskoka district, where they will spend a few days before proceeding to Sudbury and the Sault.

A great new field for motor tourists from the United States will be opened up by this 4200 international good roads tour of the Michigan Pikes Association, which is to start at Detroit, July 14 next. The tourists will travel from Detroit to Toronto, Ontario, thence north over the great northern highway to the beautiful Muskoka Lakes district, then to the mining region about Sudbury, and from there parallel the north channel of Georgian Bay to Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario. The return trip will be made from Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., by way of the eastern branch of the Dixie highway to Bay City, thence to Alpena, Lansing and Detroit.

Will Camp Out.

It is expected that about 300 tourists will take part in this two weeks' tour. They will carry with them a variety of equipment which discounts anything before attempted in any tour.

The itinerary is 1365 miles and the tour is of fifteen days' duration. Thirteen out of fifteen nights will be spent in tents. They will sleep under a roof in the American Soo and Toronto.

The party truck train will consist of four trucks and temporary campers for fourteen trucks as follows: Commissary (kitchen), four trucks, carrying three ranges and two refrigerator machines; electric lighting truck and two generators; one triple combination, fire engine and two emergency trucks to make necessary repairs to the sixty cars and the trucks and temporary campers for bridges and other necessities.

Not all of the two weeks will be spent in traveling. The first Sunday of the party will explore the Muskoka Lakes. They will also spend a day fishing in the Sault Ste. Marie and two days at Sault Ste. Marie, one day on each side of the international boundary.

Fathoming parties have reported the minimum and maximum temperatures for the entire tour. What is particularly worth while about this tour is that it will at almost all of the towns and scenic regions of Ontario and northern Michigan are to the city-dwellers of Illinois, Ohio, New York and other states in the northeastern portion of the United States. While there are hotels in almost all of the towns traversed by the trip, the number of persons in this tour is so large that it was thought best to make arrangements for campers and temporary campers. This adds a flavor of novelty to the tour. The casual tourist will doubtless patronize the hotels, however.

VETS' DELEGATES LEAVE FOR OTTAWA

Will Interview Government on Question of Soldiers' Gratuity.

Thirteen delegates from the round-table conference left Toronto at 10.05 last night for Ottawa, where they will appeal to the government for further cash bonuses for all returned men. The deputation includes representatives from the United Veterans' League, Grand Army of Canada, His Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans, Naval Veterans, Originals' Club, Veterans of France, American Volunteers in the C.E.F. Returning men, numbering about 300, awaited the arrival of the delegates last night at the union station, and greeted them with cries of "Gluck to 'em boys!" and "Here comes Harry" (J. H. Flynn). In response, the president of the U.V.L. told the men that the government had said they would be glad to receive any representatives he sent to them, as long as he himself, stayed away. He also stated that he had been assured, on good authority, that the government would do something for ex-soldiers and their dependents at their present session. The government will receive the deputation at about 11 o'clock this morning.

TABLET TO MEMORY OF MEN WHO FELL

Nineteen Names Engraved on Bronze Roll in St. Andrew's Church.

During the Easter morning service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, King street, a memorial tablet was unveiled in memory of members of the church who died on the battlefields. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Pringle, D.D., who also preached the sermon. The tablet was unveiled by the minister. In his sermon, Dr. Pringle, who served overseas, told of his experiences in France. He told of the work in advance, and when the board supported by two chairs for an altar; of the paths of administering to those who were dying of their wounds in a strange land and far from their loved ones; of work among the hospitals and dressing stations. He told of what these men bled and died for and that the principles behind their sacrifices were the principles for which all should live.

The tablet is of bronze and faces the congregation from the right of the altar steps.

Names of Men Who Fell

The names of the soldier heroes which are engraved on the tablet, together with the dates on which they fell, are: Pte. George Craig Mowat, Lieut. John Murray Skeff, Lieut. Howard Primrose Primrose, Lieut. John Henry Garrow, Major Alexander, Pte. Joseph Hope Walker, Pte. James Low, Capt. Edward Gordon Hamlin, Pte. Harold Dickson Duff, Lieut. Rodrick Ward MacLennan, Capt. Alan Pratt MacLean, Lieut. Walter Howard Curry, Lieut. Ronald Walter Lewington, Capt. London B. M. Loudon, Pte. John McCleery, Pte. Stewart Lowrie, Major John Kay, Pte. Frank Dudley Hall, Lieut. Robt. B. Sinclair.

CHARGE OF STEALING CAR

George R. Reid and John Jarvis of Dowling avenue were last night arrested by plainclothesman McIlwraith, charged with stealing a motor car owned by A. P. Muirhead. The car had been left standing on Calender street, and the prisoners are alleged to have driven it up a blind street, where they abandoned it and attempted to climb over a high fence, but they were caught by McIlwraith.

WOODWORKERS ASK FOR ARBITRATION

Approach Federal Department Because of Employers' Refusal of Wage Demands.

Ottawa, April 4.—Acting on behalf of the local inside woodworkers, Messrs. C. E. Fisher and H. Tremblay, the president and secretary of the local union, representing upwards of 450 employes of the 16 furniture and sash and door industries of the city, waited upon acting Deputy Minister of Labor Brown on Saturday, with a request for the appointment of a board of arbitration.

This action followed the refusal of the employers to negotiate a new wage schedule which calls for a minimum wage of 85c per hour for bench hands, cabinet makers and machine operators, who are now getting only 45c an hour, while others engaged in the industries get as low as 35c per hour.

CROSS-INFLUENCES IN LABOR'S RANKS

Well-Known Leader Sees Cooperation of Soldiers and Workers.

Labor split by itself was pretty much the theme of an address given at the L. L. P. forum, Labor Temple, Sunday afternoon by John W. Bruce, the well-known labor leader. Mr. Bruce in the course of his address pointed out that so long as the opposition of labor forces within the movement was maintained just so long would labor fail to take its right place in the movement of the world. He deplored the alignment in economic fields now made, represented by the international movement on one hand and by the Canadian Federation of Labor on the other.

Touching upon the personnel of the movement the speaker pointed out that the labor movement, like every other, had its Judases, those who would not hesitate to betray the movement who worked only for their own personal aggrandizement. But, the fact remained that the dissensions within the movement and the apathy which characterized the majority of the producers of the country toward their own interests forced the real cause for any failures noted in the progress of labor. If the future of the labor movement was to be assured, the factor of indifference must be transmuted into a fire which would lead the workers on from glory to glory. No such spirit was evident today. If it were evident, the speaker would not have difficulty in filling Massey Hall every Sunday, every night.

Finally, the speaker stated his emphatic opinion that the social revolution had come, that it was within the gates.

"How do I know that, you ask?" he said. "Well, I know it because today for the first time the workers and the soldiers are challenging the government. The reason for much of the failure in the situation today lies in the fact that neither of these bodies has assumed responsible authority. The day will undoubtedly arrive when labor and soldiers will put up a government, and this will spell the real emancipation of the producers of the country."

ALBERTA PREMIER DEFINES "BONE-DRY"

Declares That It Does Not Mean That Doctors Can Write Prescriptions.

Edmonton, Alta., April 4.—Premier Stewart made clear his interpretation of "bone dry" in the legislature yesterday, when proposed amendments to the liquor act submitted by Dr. Stanley were being discussed.

"I take it," said the premier, "that 'bone dry' does not mean that the doctors can write prescriptions for liquor or medicines or anything else, so the doctors will be relieved of that if they will assist other citizens in voting on the plebiscite."

The premier referred to it to be taken in this province some time in June to finally determine the question for Alberta of interprovincial traffic in liquor. The premier takes the stand that if the vote is overwhelmingly against the importation of liquor that the province will go "bone dry."

LABOR TROUBLES BULLISH ON CORN

Highest Prices Since Last July Reached - Record Price for Spot Oats.

Chicago, April 3.—Corn letted today to the highest price since last July. The switchers' strike here made shorts increasingly anxious, and final quotations were buoyant at 44c to 45c net higher, with May $1.63 1/2, and July $1.57 1/2 to $1.64.

Possibilities that the railroad labor troubles in Chicago might assume much larger proportions were chiefly responsible for the growing strain today in the corn market.

Table with columns: Com., Oats, High, Low, Close. Rows for May, July, Sept, Dec.

TREND SLIGHTLY HIGHER IN COMMODITY PRICES

New York, April 3.—Altho not very strongly defined, the upward tendency of commodity prices continues, there being a decided advance in the list of quotations received by Dun's Review, as against 34 recessions. There has been perceptible lessening of the strong position of iron and steel, and no material changes have occurred in the miscellaneous metals. Lead stands at a high price, but tin and copper show some recovery. Raw cotton remains at an abnormally high price, and prices of all kinds of manufactured goods are very strongly held. Hides are fairly steady.

MONTREAL PRODUCE MARKET

Montreal, April 4.—The tone of Saturday's market for cash oats was firm and prices were marked up. Business throughout in all grades is very quiet. Owing to the scarcity of millfeed, a much stronger feeling prevails in the market, and wholesale jobbing prices have scored a perceptible advance, altho millers' prices are still unchanged.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET

Winnipeg, April 3.—Oats closed 1 1/2c higher for May and 1 1/2c up for July. Barley 4c higher for May and 3 1/2c higher for July. Flax 7c up for May and July.

WHOLESALE FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Potatoes kept very firm, and it looks as if they would go still higher, according to the prices now asked at country points.
