SCUTARI HAS FALLEN; MONTENEGRINS ENTER... Captured After Desperate Attack Lasting All Day

DEFENCE STUBBORN... Lurks Had Held Out For More Than Six Months - Servians Not in the Final Attack, But Their Artillery Was Used

(Canadian Press) Ottawa, April 23—It is officially announced here that the Montenegrin forces have entered Scutari.

After a final desperate attack lasting incessantly for almost twenty-four hours, during which they brought all their forces to bear to overcome the heroic Turkish resistance, the Montenegrin troops forced their way into the fortress, where, since the middle of October, 1912, they had met such stubborn defence.

The Ottoman soldiers made counter-attacks and tried to drive the attacking forces out of their works, but they were finally compelled to fall back and leave their positions in the hands of the besiegers, who received constant reinforcements.

Another report says that the Montenegrin commander-in-chief, General Pasha, was wounded in the capture of the city at four o'clock this morning.

London, April 23—While the capture of Scutari by the Montenegrin troops is believed in European capitals to have accomplished the situation, the opposite view is held in Balkan circles.

There the opinion prevails that the Montenegrins have accomplished the object they aimed at since the beginning of the war, will find it more easy to accept the decision of the great powers and that the latter, on the other hand, will be more ready to grant her a recognition of her frontier which will satisfy her.

THE 'PHONE COMPANY'S REQUEST WITHDRAWN... Commissioners Made it Clear That They Did Not Approve Application

Rothsley Service and Charges Come Into Particular Notice—The Girl Who Read Chapter of Novel and Another Who Played Piano and Kept Party Line Engaged

The application of the New Brunswick Telephone Company which has been before the New Brunswick Public Utilities Commission was withdrawn by the company's representatives this morning after the commissioners had made it clear that they did not approve of the requests made.

When the session opened, Howard P. Robinson was called as the first witness. He said he was manager of the Central Telephone Company until the time of the amalgamation and afterwards manager of the N. B. Telephone Co. He had resigned in 1909 and since then had been a director and a member of the managing board.

The general basis for long distance tolls was the air line mileage at about 60 cents per 100 miles. They followed the universal toll rate basis in use all over the continent, using the same rates up to 20 cents and charging five cents less after that.

The chairman asked the witness to explain the situation with regard to the Rothsley lines, which seemed to be on a different basis from other exchanges in the province. The witness replied that Rothsley has a separate exchange for local business connected with St. John by Frank lines. Between Rothsley and St. John persons calling Rothsley did not pay toll charges but persons calling St. John from Rothsley paid a charge of five cents.

He said he was manager of the Central Telephone Company until the time of the amalgamation and afterwards manager of the N. B. Telephone Co. WILL REORGANIZE THE CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT... Mr. Blake, Meanwhile, Will Continue As The Chief

POSITION OFFERED HIM... Could Not Accept Under Conditions Which Will Obtain Under the New Order—New Chief Must Give up All Time

The temporary appointment of George Blake as the chief of the St. John fire department and plans for the reorganization of the department were announced today by H. R. McEllan, commissioner of public safety, after the noon meeting of the city commissioners.

It is the intention to undertake a complete reorganization of the department upon a more modern basis and among the provisions will be the requirement that any chief appointed permanently shall give all his time to the department, shall have his office in one of the fire stations and shall live in the station, or if a married man, within the immediate vicinity.

Owing to Mr. Blake's position as senior district engineer and his long and efficient service in the department, he was considered entitled to the appointment as chief, but, as he did not wish to accept the position under the proposed regulations, he has merely accepted temporarily, the appointment dating until September 1.

LORD ALVERSTONE NEAR DEATH; BUSINESS OF COURTS IS HELD UP... Insists That He Will Get Better and Declines to Resign

New York, April 23—A cable to the Tribune from London says: Although Lord Chief Justice Alverstone is lying so close to death at his country residence, that he is merely the shadow of his former self, and is practically a living skeleton, he persistently refuses to retire from office, and, due to his weakened mental condition, insists he will be at his old place in court on his feet on a day.

Lord Alverstone will never be able to occupy his seat on the bench again, but the peculiar attitude he has adopted, despite a strong pressure in high quarters, renders it extremely difficult for the authorities to make any move. They desire to avoid hurting his feelings by forcing his retirement, but it is clear that some drastic step will be necessary soon in the interest of public business in the courts.

Something New in the Way of Shampoo

To the woman who wishes to have beautiful hair I say, "Keep it clean." Hair grows slowly and dull when it is not cleaned in some manner at least once a month.

If you happen to be the maid who is convinced that both dry and wet shampoos disagree with the hair, then why not use the new hair cleanser—white of egg? As you can scarcely believe that it is well for the hair to be covered with grime for five or six months at a time, you will doubtless seize with joy upon a shampoo which is neither wet nor dry.

First, of course, you should beat the whites of two eggs until they are as stiff as stiff can be, after which you must repair to your bedroom and sit down in front of your dressing table.

Now take a handful of the white of egg and proceed to massage the scalp, rubbing with a light circular movement of the fingers. When the egg whites are exhausted, take a seat near a hot radiator and read or sew for fifteen or twenty minutes. A clean hair brush should then be applied to the hair for several minutes, by the end of which time the eggs will have disappeared, leaving the hair and scalp as clean as heart could wish. I might add, on the chance of interesting you, that the white of egg treatment will make the hair delightfully fluffy.

HIGH MEDICAL AUTHORITY

"The Journal," the official organ of the American Medical Association, the organization of physicians of the United States, in a recent article lists a number of things the family medicine chest should always contain to be used in emergencies before a physician can arrive. One of the most important in the list is a good whiskey.

The great value of a good whiskey in emergencies has always been recognized by the medical profession. The stimulation afforded by whiskey has many and many a time been the means of saving life. In cases of accident, shock, or acute illness it may mean life or death whether or not you have it on hand.

But the whiskey you use should be good and pure. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is made for the home, the hospital and the sick room. It is solely a medicinal whiskey. It is made from selected grain and the distilling process is carried on far that it exceeds in purity the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia. It is the best whiskey for you to have in the house, because it is for medicinal purposes.

Be sure to get Duffy's. Sold in sealed bottles only by druggists, hotels and dealers. Write our doctors for free advice and a free illustrated medical booklet. The Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, N. Y.

Maritime Home For Girls

"The Maritime Home for Girls" is the name of an institution which is proposed to establish in Nova Scotia as a home and training school for the girls of the maritime provinces and Newfoundland who are homeless or wayward or being reared under vicious influences and conditions. The movement is backed by the general boards of the departments of temperance and moral reform of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches.

It is intended to educate the girls taken into the home in the ordinary branches taught in the public schools as well as in household science, including cooking and housekeeping and such branches of industrial education as may from time to time be considered advisable or necessary to enable the residents to support themselves and to become useful members of society and worthy citizens. There will probably be outdoor occupations such as vegetable gardening, chicken farming, etc.

That there is a work for such an institution to do will be acknowledged by all who have, even in the slightest degree, observed social conditions in the provinces.

ANOTHER FREAK MARRIAGE PLAN

LILLIAN BELL BOGUE

Chicago, April 23—Married people should never live in the same house!

This is the astounding theory of Lillian Bell Bogue, author and playwright, who has tried the old-fashioned way of wedlock and found it wanting.

Her new articles of faith, unique enough to be interesting, require husbands and wives to have—

Separate establishments, side by side or in different parts of the city.

Separate telephones.

Separate mail boxes, and Separate bank accounts.

She believes a wife should never see her husband without a collar or without a shave, and that a husband should never see his wife with cold cream on her face, curl papers in her hair or wearing an unbecoming gown.

The failure of marriage, she declares, is usually due to the fading of illusions of engagement days.

While waiting to play hostess at a luncheon in her mother's home in Chicago, Mrs. Bell Bogue unraveled some of the reasons why "in her new and novel marriage creed."

"The whole married world is suffering from too much familiarity," she announced.

"The cloak drops off when the marriage bells have rung and husband and wife see each other as they really are.

"The first time he forgets to be polite to her, and the first time she forgets to look her best in his eyes, the glamour has commenced to wear, and there's the sign of trouble ahead."

"Separate homes would remedy everything, it seems to me. If it is not possible to have separate houses, then have separate apartments in the same house, with a common hall. I wouldn't be altogether unreasonable. Husband and wife might use the same dining-room."

"There is no reason in the world why a husband should not make an engagement to dine with his wife just as he did with his fiancée before she was his wife.

The whole system of marriage is wrong. Girls are brought up with the idea that they must marry someone, and that it is their duty to make the best match they can, whether the man be suited to them or not.

"My scheme may be starting. But I think it would remedy conditions. Love can't thrive when the illusions have all vanished. Illusions won't last when familiarity has full sway."

PURITY CONGRESS

Convention to Be Held in Minneapolis in November

A WORLD GATHERING

Annihilation of White Slave Traffic, Suppression of Public Vice, and Other Social, Civic and Moral Reforms Aimed At

The Seventh International Purity Congress will be held in Minneapolis, from November 7 to 12. It will be a world gathering for the annihilation of the white slave traffic, the suppression of public vice, instruction in sex hygiene, and for social, civic and moral reform.

This congress is called by and will be held under the direction of the World's Purity Federation, with the cooperation of government officials, various societies organized for the social uplift, and eminent reformers and philanthropists throughout North America and foreign lands.

The six great international gatherings which have preceded this congress, held since 1899 under the auspices of the federation, have been prominent factors in bringing about the present general agitation against the social evil, and in creating that high state of sentiment and intelligence on the problems resulting from public vice and contributory and allied evils which today makes the discussion of these questions possible and demands clean men and women and clean cities.

The coming congress gives every promise of being far more successful than any of the gatherings which have preceded it.

Minneapolis is known the world over as one of the most beautiful and enterprising of cities, and its hospitality as a "convention city" is famous. It is a principal rail road centre and possesses unsurpassed advantages in hotel and auditorium accommodations for entertaining large conventions.

Our invitation to meet in Minneapolis comes from the Civic and Commerce Association, joined by Governor Elmer, Mayor Nye, and leading religious, educational, social, civic, and reform bodies, and we are assured that every possible most advanced method of dealing with vice by cities.

A programme of the highest merit will be carried out, including addresses by eminent reformers and religious workers, discussions covering the various phases of our movement by recognized authorities, and possibly one or two debates touching points where there now appear to be honest differences of opinion. Ample opportunity will be given at morning sessions, and following addresses, for open discussion in which delegates may feel free to participate. Every moment will be of real and practical worth to all who are endeavoring to promote true morality.

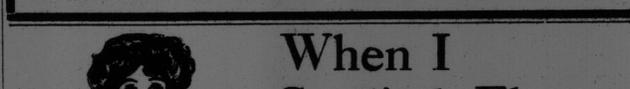

The one aim of the congress will be to give needed information and impart helpful knowledge and to formulate safe and sane constructive methods and plans of work for the individual and organizations represented.

A most cordial invitation is heartily extended to religious, reform, civic, and philanthropic societies, and to all organizations laboring for the social uplift and to promote purity and eradicate vice, to send official delegates to this congress. Governors of states and provinces, mayors of cities, police departments, and other departments of government are invited to send representatives. Individuals not connected with any organizations will welcome. For further information address: World's Purity Federation, La Crosse, Wis., U. S. A.

When I Studied Flour

LIKE many other women, some of the things I have used most I have known least about. Flour is one of them.

When I studied flour, I was surprised to learn that only about 72% of a grain of wheat is fit to go into flour; and only about 40% goes into Rainbow Flour, which is the very best flour made.

That is why it pays to remember the name of the most carefully made flour and insist on having it.

I heartily recommend Rainbow as being all that a good flour should be.

The great difficulty of the miller is to separate perfectly the waste particles from those that belong to good flour.

If he is too zealous he takes away much of the good gluten without which flour will not raise properly. If he is careless he is not particular about leaving in some part of the five skins, the germ and the "crease dirt," and the fibre. His make of flour would be impure, bad in color and poor in keeping qualities.

It is only the expert miller who can make perfect flour.

ST. JOHN HAS HOUSING PROBLEM

Medical Health Officer at Public Meeting. SOME INSTANCES. Six Persons in One Room in Basement—W. F. Burditt Urges Reform—Com. Schofield Talks of Lancaster Cottage Proposition—Mr. Fenton Expresses Some Doubts.

Dr. Melvin, medical health officer, said at the public meeting in Keith's assembly rooms last evening that St. John has a housing problem, and that the question of preventive measures and the need in St. John of houses costing from $1,000 to $2,000 to rent $8 to $10 per month. He showed in this connection what had been done in Brantford, Philadelphia and Washington and described the English system in England. As a policy to be pursued in St. John he suggested the following:—

A thorough, systematic survey to ascertain the exact facts in regard to housing conditions in St. John.

The enactment of a housing code and effective building regulations.

Appropriate provision for inspection and enforcement of the law.

The formation of a co-partnership or other form of building company, to set an example and standard for emulation by erecting a group of model cottage houses.

Commissioner Schofield in a very interesting address outlined the housing problem of the city and pointed out that the houses which the city owned in Lancaster were not very desirable, and that the houses which the city owned in St. John were not very desirable.

Dr. G. G. Melvin, medical health officer, submitted some interesting figures showing the average number of houses and of population per acre in the various sections of the city. He pointed out that while the average number of houses per acre in the city was one, in some sections it was as high as six.

It was not, however, in crowded districts necessarily that the worst sanitary conditions existed. Crowded districts sometimes had much better drainage, greater cleanliness and other advantages than some of the outlying districts, where there were fewer houses than people to the acre.

Dr. T. D. Walker, a vote of thanks was tendered the speakers.

HOME RULE MATTERS FROM BOTH SIDES

(Times' Special Correspondence) British troops, and his answer was unhesitatingly "Yes."

Dublin, April 5.—The British League for the Support of Ulster and the Union has issued an appeal in which it says:—

The government has announced their determination to take full advantage of the Unionist act in order to establish a parliament and executive in Dublin in spite of the sworn intention of the men of Ulster to resist this measure by every means in their power.

"We desire to point out to our countrymen that this determination does not affect Ulster alone. We believe that the repeal of the union would be fatal to the prosperity of Ireland, to the safety of the United Kingdom and to the consolidation of the empire. We also believe that to force the home rule bill into law while the Unionist act is in suspense, and with grave changes affected by Ulster."

It is quite clear that the men of Ulster are not fighting only for their own liberties. Ulster will be the field on which the privileges of the whole nation will be lost or won.

"We therefore appeal to all British citizens who sympathize with Ulster, and who value their own freedom, to join the league that has been formed to support the men of Ulster in the great struggle that lies before them. All who wish to join are requested to send their names and addresses to the Honorary Secretary, T. Connors, Flat 25, Ryder street, St. James' together with a contribution to a fund that has been opened for carrying on men movements."

The appeal is signed by three or four hundred prominent Unionists. It is expected that the government will reintroduce the home rule bill in the House of Commons just before Whit Sunday. There is every probability that a parliamentary meeting will be allowed for the second reading, but that the subsequent stages will be merely formal.

An anti-home rule demonstration, attended by members of Unionist clubs in Belfast and district, was held a few days ago in Dundonald, County Down. The demonstration was organized by the Queen's Island Shipyard Club and the Cliftonville Club. About 6,000 men took part in a procession, and they were loudly cheered by the crowds lining both sides of the route. The meeting was held in a field surrounded by the Castlerough Hills. The proceedings opened there were between 30,000 and 35,000 people present.

E. Selator, president of the Unionist Club of Ireland, occupied the chair, which was one in which King William once sat, being lent for the occasion.

After the singing of the first verse of "God our help in Ages past," Rev. T. G. Collins led in prayer. The chairman said the Unionists of Ulster had entered into their solemn league and covenant each with one another to defeat the present conspiracy to set up a home rule parliament in Ireland, and in the event of one being set up to refuse to recognize its authority. They had never doubted their ability to carry out their resolve.

Lord Londonderry asked the working men of Belfast to trust their leaders implicitly. Let them do nothing rash or foolish. Their leaders had led with wisdom, and they had followed with trustfulness and common-sense.

A GOOD BEGINNING

The most important meeting held in St. John last evening was not the most largely attended, but there were enough people present, if they were seriously impressed by the facts presented, to ensure a more active general interest in the housing problem. It was perhaps unfortunate that the last of the speakers on the programme should be the one who was in doubt about the necessity for such a meeting and that his address should have gone without reply. It was quite proper that every phase of the question should be discussed, however, and though Mr. W. I. Fenton expressed some doubt whether there were a housing problem in St. John, and whether such cottages as proposed could be built except as a charitable proposition, and whether anybody could be persuaded to live in them after they had been built, yet those who heard his enlightening address could not forget the more definite and convincing statements made by Mr. W. F. Burditt and Dr. Melvin, the medical health officer. A city which has six persons living in one room in a basement, and which has the living quarters for people which were illustrated on the screen last night certainly has a housing problem, and the medical officer very emphatically declared that such a problem really exists.

Can it be said that any effort to provide sanitary and comfortable homes for working men at a low rental is in any way related to charity? Does it matter to the man who lives in his own home on Germain street or Princess street or some other desirable street, how the family lives that is located in a shack or an unsanitary tenement in the rear of a lot on Brussels street or Erin street? The answer is readily given. It does matter to every citizen of the city, and to every other citizen who lives in the city. If their homes are breeding places for disease there is a risk for him. If they live in fire traps other property is in danger. If there are slum conditions which breed incompetents, the latter become a burden upon the community at large. So long as people live together in cities and towns, just so long is there an obligation upon every citizen, purely from self-interest, to see that the conditions of life are such as to prevent as far as possible a development of slum conditions and the breeding of disease, vice and crime. It is not, therefore, a purely charitable proposition when serious minded people come together to ask what may best be done to improve housing conditions, make homes more sanitary and healthy, avoid overcrowding in dark tenements, and let in the light and air. It is a business proposition, and it ought to appeal to business men, for to them the appeals are made when money must be raised for the victims of such conditions as are found in the slums of cities.

Following last night's meeting, steps should be taken to carry out the suggestions made by Mr. W. F. Burditt for a systematic survey of housing conditions, the enactment of a housing code, proper regulation and inspection of buildings, and the adoption of some plan by which a group of model cottage homes might be erected as an illustration of what may and can be done for a given sum of money. The Times received by this morning's mail from the National Housing Association of the United States a little booklet entitled "The Fight for Better Homes," accompanied by a letter which says that the people of the United States have been dismayed to find that even in their smaller cities there are areas comparable to those which have made the slums of New York and London cause for uneasiness. The writer adds: "The danger is not confined to the metropolis. It is national, and the danger is growing with the constant crowding in of new arrivals. The unwholesome, overcrowded shacks and tenements are becoming commonplace in our prosperous communities, though we fail to note them either because our life is lived in a different part of town or because we look at them without seeing."

In this letter Mr. John Hilder, field secretary of the National Housing Association, adds that Dr. Hastings, medical health officer of Toronto, who has shown the people of that city that the tendency was downward, told the National Housing Conference that his experience forced him to believe that any city which claims to be without bad housing is simply proclaiming that it has not looked, and if refrains from looking long enough it will approximate New York conditions. "The business men of St. John may take one of two positions with regard to this question. They may refuse to look, and say that it is none of their business; or they may pursue the wiser course, recognize that this is a problem which in the end must affect the interests of all the people, and join with Mr. Burditt and others who have given the subject serious consideration, to devise a means by which present conditions may be improved and the development of the slums in the future prevented. St. John is growing, and will grow more rapidly from year to year, and because of that fact the question of town planning and proper housing becomes of paramount importance.

The United States senate will give no public hearings on the tariff bill. This is bad for the spellbinders, but will greatly facilitate the passage of the bill.

CHURCH UNION

When an individual who is not what may be described as a partisan in church matters, asks why a minister of one church should not be given permission to speak in that of another denomination, he finds it difficult to get an answer which from his point of view is satisfactory. The Christian world has passed the stage where the people of one communion entertain the belief that those of other communions are in grave danger of eternal torment. The emphasis is now placed upon the essentials recognized by all churches, rather than upon differences in minor doctrines or in ecclesiastical forms. Of the billion and a half of people living in the world today the great majority are not Christians at all, but they are looking out upon the Christian portion of the world, observing its differences and disputes and asking questions. The world of today is not the world of half a century ago, much less that of two or three centuries ago. The people of Japan and China and India are no longer looked upon as they were when the rest of the world was more ignorant of the people, their history and their philosophy. The next hundred years will witness still greater changes and modifications of religious belief in the whole world. Looking back and looking forward, with some knowledge of what has passed and some faint conception of what the future must hold, one does not find sound reasons for the assumption upon the part of any religious denomination that they are the sole guardians of religious truth. So far as the Dominion of Canada is concerned, the cause of true religion would be immensely benefited by church union. With some narrow exceptions there is Christian fellowship among the members of different churches in every community. It might well be extended not merely to the point of an exchange of pulpits, but a union of forces to uphold the standard of true religion in the face of the materializing tendencies of modern life.

THE CALL OF SPRING

The number of people enjoying the air on King Square yesterday, comfortably seated on the benches or moving about the walks, tells the story of the universal relief that is experienced in the pleasant spring weather. Soon there will be a longing to get out of town to places where the grass is springing up and the trees are putting forth their leaves and blossoms. However many attractions there may be in a city, the springtime and the summer bring a desire for the pleasures which are only obtainable in the country. The great difficulty in the way of a proper enjoyment of rural pleasures by St. John people has been the absence of suburban car lines. If on a fine summer afternoon or early evening the members of a family could enter a street car at the corner nearest their own home and ride for a mile or two into the country it would be a great boon to them and especially to the children, who ought to be given more of the fresh air and freedom of country excursions. It may be hoped that before another year has passed something will have been done toward making it easier for the city dwellers to enjoy the pleasures which are so near them, but of which they have not availed themselves because of a lack of easy transportation.

There is no emergency, and no excuse whatever for spending thirty-five million dollars without some attempt to build up Canadian shippers.

Mr. Lloyd George says that the mother country has entered upon "the most growing year that British trade has ever seen." This is sad news for the tariff reform party.

Speaking of the closure bill in parliament yesterday Sir Wilfrid Laurier said: "We know generally that their design is to gag the opposition, and to prevent free speech by representatives of the people." This is a terse and accurate statement of the case.

Bulgaria and Greece are now quarreling about the spoils of the late war, and little Montenegro continues to show her teeth. The matters in dispute will no doubt be adjusted without serious difficulty, as the great powers are in harmony, and the British premier has declared that the relations between them are most cordial.

A Cleveland, Ohio, paper says: "Courses in dentistry and personal safety have just been added to the curriculum of the Cleveland public schools. They are under the direction of Dr. E. A. Peterson, chief school medical inspector. The dentists' organization mapped out what they thought should be incorporated in a course of lectures which are now being given by doctors and teachers. Physical instructors are giving personal safety talks in the gymnasium classes. They are telling the smaller pupils how to avoid dangers in the streets, and the older pupils how to board and get off cars. One result of the dental talks, which have been illustrated with moving picture films, has been nearly 3000 new pupil-customers for Cleveland dentists."

CARELESSNESS OF SPEECH
It is frequently the precursor of carelessness in conduct, while exactitude in speech is generally an evidence of exactitude in thought, and exactitude in thought is generally accompanied by integrity of action. "The tongue of man," writes Carlyle, "is a sacred organ. Action hangs, as it were, dissolved in speech. The kind of speech in a man betokens the action you will get from him."

This organization has done much to keep green the memory of their patron saint and, by the practice of good fellowship and practical charity have given expression to the aims and ideals of the society and the objects for which it was formed.

Give me your ears, O Patriots List ye to this short lay - With lusty shout and stout heart true, Proclaim this world-fam'd day.

For "St. George and Merric England" "Twas our forefathers' cry: Still "St. George for dear old England" Our voices make reply.

Bonnie Scotland loves St. Andrew, St. David guards fair Wales; And Erin sings St. Patrick's fame O'er all his hills and dale.

And shall not we, too, loyal be, Our brave St. George to own? Shall we not keep his Patronal With bright and merry tone?

Can we forget all his brave deeds, Who courage nobly taught? Who stay'd the Tyrant's gory scourge, And peace and freedom wrought?

Can we not him our pattern make? Can we not help the weak? And when in dang'rous paths they tread, Shall we then dare to speak?

Can we not teach our sons to fight For true for conscience' sake; Make England's Patron gay scourge, When honor is at stake?

So would we hope that England's sons (This shall we ever pray) - Support the weak, defend the right, The odds be what they may.

So will we e'er unfurl the flag, Extending in the breeze; It's blood-red cross on pure white ground Ne'er speaks of selfish ease.

So "St. George for dear old England" Again we shout the cry; Sound forth his praise, his fame proclaim; Patriots never die.

ST. VITUS DANCE IN YOUNG CHILDREN

A Striking Example of Its Cure By the Tonic Treatment

St. Vitus dance is the commonest form of nervous trouble that afflicts young children, because of the great demand made on the body by growth and development, and there is an added strain caused by study. It is when these demands become so great that they impoverish the blood, and the nerves fail to receive their full supply of nourishment, that the nervous debility which leads to St. Vitus dance begins.

The remarkable success of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in curing St. Vitus dance should lead parents to give this great blood-building medicine to their children at the first signs of the approach of the disease. Palor, listlessness, inattention, restlessness and irritability are all symptoms which early show that the blood and nerves are failing to meet the demand upon them. Here is proof of the power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to cure this trouble. Mrs. J. W. Towns, Oshawa, Ont., says: - "At the age of eleven my daughter was attacked with St. Vitus dance, and despite all we did for her the trouble grew rapidly worse. Soon she was scarcely able to walk, her body and limbs jerked and trembled so, and she was quite unable to feed herself. When she would lie down she would be unable to rise without assistance. As nothing was helping her I wrote a friend whose daughter had been similarly affected, and she advised the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which had cured her child. I at once got a supply of the Pills, and even the use of the first box seemed to show an improvement. By the time five boxes were used she was completely cured and has had no return of the trouble since." Sold by all medicine dealers by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

IN PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, April 22-The Liberals today asked the ministry to say what its closure resolution really means, and how far it would admit of amendments and debate. Premier Borden replied that, if used with severity, the opposition would have little opportunity for action, but no government would ever be unreasonable in applying closure. The opposition would always see that the government got a reasonable show. The reply of the Liberals was that they did not want opportunity to speak as a courtesy from the government, but as a matter of right. They said that the government would not have the right to apply the closure rule, but that it would be the duty of the speaker to apply it. Finally, they intimated that if closure should be forced through they did not intend to recognize it, because they had not been consulted in its preparation. It looks as though there were still some warm times ahead. Mr. MacDonald asked Hon. Mr. Haasen as to the truth of the reports that he had caused the discharge of the men of the Niobe, but the naval minister was not prepared to make a statement until tomorrow. Fred Kay resumed discussion of the closure bill. "If they had faith in their policy," he said, "they would go to the people on it." Sir Wilfrid Laurier was enthusiastically cheered when he arose to speak. In conclusion, he said: "The proper remedy for all these twattings and turnings, for all these subtleties and dangerous expedients, is not for the majority to play fast and loose with the old rule, which has been the bulwark of parliamentary liberty and responsibility, is not in the invasion of the privileges and rights of a free people. No, the remedy is not to be found in these things. It is to be found in a direct, manly appeal to the Canadian people."

THE NASHWAAK DRIVES

(Fredericton Mail) E. B. Staples, manager at Margyville for the Partington Poly & Paper Company has received some information that indicates a fairly bright outlook for the Nashwaak drives. Although there is little snow in the woods on the headwaters of the Nashwaak there is abundance of ice and if warm rains set in shortly the water will remain at a good pitch for driving. Crews have been at work on the landings on the Nashwaak headwaters since the first of the week. It is expected that driving will begin early next week. The cut on the Nashwaak for the past winter is estimated as being between 15,000,000 and 14,000,000 feet. "That's a heavy burden you've got me, lassie," said a gentleman. "It's no burden," replied the girl; "it's my wee brother."

MORNING LOCALS

An impromptu dance was organized by the steerage passengers who landed from the Donaldson line steamer Casandra last evening while waiting for their trams. Music was supplied by a piper and the characteristic Scottish dances were indulged in with great zest. The offices of the local government and the immigration office will be located in the Walker building, Prince William street, over the C. P. R. telegraph offices, after May 1. At a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. last evening J. W. C. Rose, John R. Seely and Malcolm Somerville were chosen to act with three directors as a nominating committee for the selection of directors who will be elected at an annual meeting next week. The Crystal Stream S. S. Co. have closed with R. T. Baird of Fredericton for the lease of his wharf and warehouse and they will take possession soon. A young man charged with a theft in Campbellton last year and who was being brought back from the States on the S. S. Calvin Austin last evening made his escape by leaping from the deck to the wharf while the steamer was docking. The detective in charge of him had withdrawn the attention for a moment.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poison! Not one speck of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill. Then again, as soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the irritation. That is why children are so fond of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing, their pain. Mothers should never forget this. Again, as soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This forming of fresh healthy tissue from below is Zam-Buk's secret of healing. The tissue thus formed is worked up to the surface and literally casts off the diseased tissue above it. This is why Zam-Buk cures are permanent. Only the other day Mr. March, of 101 Delormier Aye, Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Co., and told them that for over twenty-five years he had been a martyr to eczema. His hands were at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves. Four years ago Zam-Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months it cured him. Today - over three years after his cure of a disease he had for twenty-five years - he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema! All druggists sell Zam-Buk at 90c. box, or we will send free trial box if you send this advertisement and a 7c. stamp (to pay return postage). Address Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Calvin Graves of Hancock, Me., while hunting not far from his home a few days ago, discovered a fox den in which were a mother and five little ones. Negotiations for their purchase in P. E. I. are now pending. The Blue Star Line have purchased the New Zealand liner Wakanaui and renamed her the Broadmount. The purchase price is said to be in the vicinity of $30,000. The U. N. B. students in the engineering class last night held their annual dance in the college gymnasium in Fredericton, and many attended. BRAKEMAN KILLED. Percy Kennedy, a brakeman employed with the Southampton railway, was killed yesterday at Neckarick Station, N. B., while working about some of the cars of a train. He fell and was run over by a string of cars. His body was taken to Millville, N. B., where he had resided. Kennedy was twenty-six years old and unmarried. He - "Isn't it strange that so many little men marry tall women?" - Yasson's. She - "It is a great deal stranger that so many tall women marry little men."

SYMPTOMS OF CONSUMPTION

Yield to Vinol The medical profession does not believe that consumption is inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to that disease. A prominent citizen of Evansville, Ind., writes: "I was ill for five months with a pulmonary trouble, and had the best doctors; I had hemorrhages and was in a very bad way. Through the advice of a friend I tried Vinol, and I feel that it saved my life. It is all you recommend it to be. I believe it is the greatest medicine on earth. I have advised others to try Vinol, and they have had the same results." (Name furnished on request.) Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough. Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases. Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. - Yasson's 3 Drug Stores, King street, Main street and Haymarket square.

MT. ALLISON CAMPAIGN
Good Success Reported This Morning—Greetings From Toronto

The Mount Allison campaign workers continued their efforts this morning by bringing the subscription list up to the $50,000 mark, and although no definite reports have been received from them, it is understood that they are well on their way towards raising the necessary $10,888 to make the total subscriptions $50,000. It was reported about noon that the committee had received one subscription of $800 and two of $200 each.

Mr. Borden, president of Mount Allison University, this morning received from W. A. THE 'PHONE COMPANY'S REQUEST WITHDRAWN
The present rates for direct lines on the rotary exchange were $24 for most new phones and $21 for residence. The exchange would come under class C making the rate $18 for most new phones and $15 for residences. The toll charges between St. John and Robesay, which would then be ten cents a call, continuing E. S. Carter, a subscriber to the rotary division of the said lamp trimmer to make a statement and said: "We have 108 phones in the Robesay exchange and thirty of these are only in use during the summer months. Many of the permanent residents have phones in St. John and most of the summer residents have also. Robesay is a largely because of its being regarded as almost an integral part of the city and on account of the convenience of business purposes. If the toll charge is made it will cost only two cents less to 50 cents than it would be to go to the city and back. The charge would be a business proposition. The service has become necessary. The company tries to advance the rates. The charge is not a matter of privilege. It is a matter of necessity. The charge is not a matter of privilege. It is a matter of necessity. The charge is not a matter of privilege. It is a matter of necessity."

Mr. Robinson said that he did not think that Mr. Carter's statement was in the not be affected. He also protested against the company's attempt to charge an unfair or ulterior motive. They merely wished to have the whole service on the proposed rates.

ELECTION THIS SUMMER THOUGHT TO BE PROBABLE
Ottawa, Ont., April 23—The government hopes to have the closure resolution adopted today and will make every effort to force it through the house. The Nationalists have all promised to vote for it. After the passage the fun will begin for the Liberals will refuse to recognize it and will resist to the last. The talk of a summer election continues to grow.

RODNEY WHARF WILL REORGANIZE THE CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT
In the meantime the intention to proceed with the plans for reorganization with the idea of being ready to put them into effect by September 1. If the commission is not ready by that time Mr. Blake will continue in office under the present arrangement for a longer period. The duties of the chief already include the daily inspection of all fire stations and apparatus, reports on conditions of houses and equipment, recommendations for repairs, etc., preparation of requisitions for new supplies, checking all goods supplied, work done and bills submitted, keeping records of all matters relating to the department and the preparation of reports and many other similar duties in addition to his work in directing the fighting of fires. There is also considerable work left to the commissioner which could be handled by the chief, and it is felt that there is plenty to do to keep a man engaged for his whole time.

Commissioner McLellan submitted a report on the city market to the committee on the morning of the 22nd inst. The report was in the nature of a preliminary report for the renewal of leases for the coming year. The report shows that the market is in a fair way to provide for the increase of rentals of butcher stalls and also for the changing of some of their present status as commission stalls to butcher stalls.

ST. JOHN BRASS BAND.
The officers of the St. John Brass Band, Frank McAlear, president; Frank Buehler, vice-president; and James Sadler, secretary, inform the Times that the band given to the paper on April 22 by Elijah Stewart was entirely misleading. They propose to have a fund in their rooms, Main street, shortly to raise funds to secure uniforms.

MARRIED YESTERDAY
A wedding of much interest to friends in the North End took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. J. Langlois, when Miss Louise Langlois became the wife of John Robinson, of Victoria street. They were married at the home of the bride. Afterward luncheon was served, and the bride and groom were accompanied to Victoria street, where they were received by a large number of friends. MONCTON WANTS HOUSES.
Times—The scarcity of good houses for rental is one of the most outstanding signs of the rapid growth of Moncton's population. Notwithstanding the large number of houses which are being built in Moncton city and suburbs, a gentleman, who is accustomed to rent his home, told a Times representative yesterday that it was next to impossible to get a good, or in fact any kind of a house, for love or money. With houses rents at their present altitude, there is evidently a good chance in the city for someone with capital who will put the same into the building of houses for rental purposes.

BRIDE FOR DEPOSED MONARCH OF PORTUGAL

Reported Engagement of Manuel to Princess of Hohenzollern

Berlin, April 22.—A lively controversy has been started here on the question whether Princess Augustine Victoria of Hohenzollern, who is affianced to ex-King Manuel of Portugal, is to be called queen.

The bride, whose entire life has been spent in the south of Germany, it is understood, will bring to Manuel a plump dowry. This branch of the Hohenzollern family financed the Romanians throne, whose present occupant, King Charles, is a Prince of Hohenzollern, and in 1870 was appointed to finance the candidature of a Prince of Hohenzollern for the Spanish throne, the dispute in regard to which brought about the Franco-German war.

In all cases of headache the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, and with the cause removed the headache vanishes for all time.

Miss May Bourdage, New Richmond, Minn., writes:—"For years I was troubled with sick headache, and dizziness, and was also constipated. You Don't Know the Taste of Pure Beer Until - you have tried Schlitz in Brown Bottles. It is not enough that beer be made pure, it should be kept pure until it reaches your glass. Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives the best protection against light. The Brown Bottle protects Schlitz purity from the brewery to your glass.

The cost of purity exceeds all other costs in our brewery. We go to Bohemia for hops. One of our partners selects the barley. We go down 1400 feet for pure water.

We scald every tub, keg or barrel, every pipe and pump every time we use it. We even filter the air in which Schlitz is cooled. Try pure beer. Ask for Schlitz in Brown Bottles.

Summer Events Up

But you save on transportation, at least, when you make your excursion to Broadway, instead of to Coney Island. You do the B. R. T. out of town—'s it five or six cents. There ought to be some satisfaction in that. Even so, Broadway will no doubt suffer in the "classy" attractions when summer comes. It hasn't any accommodations yet for the all-day picnic parties, or any reason for the day-long picnics may throw what's left over from lunch. But just at present Broadway is monopolized by the sports.

Entered, say, at Thirty-fourth street and toured methodically northward as far as Columbus Circle, the thermometer that every visitor from the Middle West knows to be the gayest, whitest way in the whole world, even before he reaches Jersey City, offers the full list of "classy" attractions that have made Coney Island's Drovers so popular with pleasure-seekers, both young and old. It was not so before the advent of the trotter. That was the thing that put life into the afternoon hours along the beach. He booted there all along the line.

Of course, there is a difference. Almost any policeman will tell you there is a difference. The trotter will probably never quite take the place of those delightful affairs that for years have enjoyed the exclusive patronage of Coney's younger dancing set. But the idea is a good one, and many Coney Islanders would admit that had they known a bit of French they would have called their afternoon dances the danteau too. There is something so wicked in the sound of it, French, you know.

Dance Customs Differ

When you went dancing of an afternoon on the glazed floor of one of Coney's most resplendent ballrooms, there was a sense of camaraderie, of easy informality, which many say was lost in transplanting these functions to Broadway. Go into any trotter today at four o'clock and you will find, for one thing, that you will have to take your hat off, even when you are dancing. This seems to be the rule everywhere. In half a dozen places visited, not a man has been seen either dancing or sitting at table with his hat on. Inquiry reveals that it isn't being done. A few policemen, but none that is rigidly obeyed all over town. Now, down at Coney Island all that sort of thing was never allowed to creep in. There you could do more or as you pleased about it. Some kept hats on; others found it simpler to take them off while dancing. These latter surrendered their hats to the tender care of partners who, gripping them firmly in pink right hands, held them close to the line on their respective young man's neck where the barber stopped using the scissors and began to apply the razor.

But even that is taboo in the trotter. You can't even take your hat in with you and leave it on the back of a chair when you get up to dance. You have to check it outside. All the men nowadays do this, retaining their checks until the dancing is over, whereupon they redeem the checks and get their hats back. The system is said to have its advantages. Still, it is hard to get used to at first. It would never go down at Coney—never. Dry-dancing is another degenerating influence that has crept in with the shift from Coney to Broadway. Waiters who have worked at both resorts declared today that, whereas in the old days ginger ale, cream soda, orangeade, sarsaparilla, and light beer were all the rage, nine out of ten orders now were for Coney or orange pekoe, English breakfast, and Oolong. Ham or Swiss-cheese sandwiches with spears used to be the rule. Now it is water-cress sandwiches, lettuce sandwiches, pimento sandwiches, and macarons.

It wasn't possible to interview all the waiters in all the trotteries any more than it was possible to take in all the trotteries. Yet while holding high converse with this waiter and that, it was possible to glance furtively about the room. The next discovery that no men wore hats was followed quickly by the discovery that no women were smoking, and that was followed by the discovery that nobody but the pair of professional dancers thrown in with the afternoon's entertainment pretended to know how to dance the tango.

STERE CAUSED EXCITEMENT

A stere which was being taken from one of the river boats to the slaughter house yesterday escaped at York Point and jumped over Star's wharf. It took a crowd of men and boys three hours to rescue the animal, but later on it escaped again and was found by a policeman in Union street and placed in a stable overnight.

James McGrath & Son today denied that the steer was theirs. They neither owned the animal nor had anything to do with its being brought to the city.

FACE TO FACE WITH POPE PIUS

BY MARY BOYLE O'REILLY

The serious illness of Pope Pius X. has received general public interest in this sovereign of a great church.

AT HIS DESK

It is a little thing to look into the face of a man to whom a hundred million human beings pay homage as their spiritual sovereign.

There have been hundreds of successors of Peter the Fisherman. The papacy is a dynasty of democrats, the oldest existing on earth.

Plus X. was not great as Leo XIII. was great. But the pontificate of the present is impressive in an age of industrial revolt.

Whoever saw the Pontiff saw a man. When I saw him face to face I knew I had seen a man, a gentle, pious, earnest, simple-souled peasant.

IN HIS GARDEN

THE BRITISH BUDGET

London, April 22—Chancellor of the exchequer, Lloyd George, in introducing the budget of the British government in the house of commons this afternoon, told the country that while he could not remit any taxes, he expected to pull through without levying any new impost.

The balance of the shortage would be made up with the income tax and other revenue due last year, but only paid at the beginning of the current year, and $5,000,000 taken from the exchequer balances representing money voted for the navy in 1911-12 but not expended.

The cost of armaments, "Chancellor Lloyd George remarked, "is the largest and most sterile increase in the expenditure, and I cannot see any prospect of this menacing development coming to an end unless some change takes place in the attitude and the policy of the nations concerned."

LARGE AUDIENCE ENJOY EVERY DAY CLUB CONCERT

The Every Day Club hall was well filled last night and those present greatly appreciated the concert which the boys paid on with the aid of some of their grown-up friends.

A. F. Belding during the evening sang a solo and played a piano solo. Walter Brindle also sang two solos and Chesley Campbell and J. Smith gave recitations.

The whole concert was a revelation of the possibilities that lie in the class of work which the Every Day Club is engaged in, and was keenly enjoyed from beginning to end.

white crowned head was benign in outline, scholarly in breadth of brow. His eyes were clear blue, the blue of an innocent child's eyes, but singularly observant.

His manner was fatherly, kind, sometimes a little quizzical. But his smile was a revelation. To see it was to know how much sterling honesty of purpose attained by no matter how great a worldly experience, may preserve a childlike innocence.

To look at him gave one a sense of purity of whiteness, the snowy down, the pale gently waving hair, the rather long white hair and the fatherly face that seemed even whiter than the Pope's robes.

A determined sincerity of purpose, a will to do right in spite of all obstacles was shown in the face. To this one adds the ever-present look of paternal concern for struggling souls that were his to guide and guard with a flawless faith in a divine unseen. The church he had been chosen to rule needs great statesmen like Leo XIII. But its message to the twentieth century is better for the ten years of Pius the Good.

To see this, to know this, to feel this—that is what it means to have looked into the face of the present, this Pope, this man.

ON HIS THRONE

Special attention has been drawn to this because of the fact that the 365 clerks who have taken the matter up and are urging the ministry to make it known that any officer applying for promotion, a new post or any other favor will be disqualified by the receipt of any letter of recommendation. Nobody could complain, for as the "Liberator" points out, it is only the incapable who profit by this abuse, and good officers who suffer, as inferiors in capacity are preferred from political motives.

FRENCH MINISTERS BURIED BY AVALANCHE OF TOUTING LETTERS

Special Staff of 363 Clerks Needed to Deal With The 80,000 Letters Received Annually at The Ministry of War Alone From Political Wire-Pullers—Ministers at Last Beginning to Rebel (Times' Special Correspondence) Paris, April 21—Most people are disposed to look on America as the paradise of political wire-pullers, but apparently it has got little "on" the French in this respect, as the slang phrase goes, if the sons of Gaul are not the champion lobbyists of the world they are fast qualifying for that distinction, the amount of backing that the applicants for any government job going in this country—or for promotion in the public service—is able to get, being something amazing.

The degree of written recommendations of candidates for departmental posts has become so tremendous of late that the heads of public works have begun to rebel. When M. Jean Dupuy took over the ministry of public works he issued a circular to the effect that no letters of recommendation would henceforth be taken into consideration, except in the sense that they would militate against the chances of the candidates, and it will not be surprising if M. Dupuy's colleagues in the cabinet take similar steps toward stemming this ever increasing flood of "outing" paper and ink.

Especially might the minister of war follow M. Dupuy's lead with advantage, for it has come to light recently that a staff of 365 clerks at the ministry of war is kept busy dealing with the mass of letters which pour in incessantly, all asking favors of one kind or another, either on behalf of candidates for advancement in the service or military men with axes to grind. The Ministry of War, for instance, included about 1,500 officers and an average of eight letters of recommendation was received for each officer in the infantry alone, almost all of these signed by deputies, senators, and political newspapers.

Special attention has been drawn to this because of the fact that the 365 clerks who have taken the matter up and are urging the ministry to make it known that any officer applying for promotion, a new post or any other favor will be disqualified by the receipt of any letter of recommendation. Nobody could complain, for as the "Liberator" points out, it is only the incapable who profit by this abuse, and good officers who suffer, as inferiors in capacity are preferred from political motives.

A farewell social was given last evening in Laidlaw street Baptist church, West End, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kempton Gates and Miss Evelyn Gates, who have been connected with the church for some time, and who are removing to Port Williams, N. S.

A debate between members of the Y. M. C. A. of Trinity church last evening on a resolution that St. John derives more benefit from the natural resources of the province than from her position as a port was won by the negative, supported by Cecil Markham and S. A. Holder.

A supper and sale held by the Ladies' Aid Society of Carleton Presbyterian church last evening was well attended and proved very successful. After supper an interesting programme was contributed by Howard Jamieson, the Friends Club quartet, Miss Gladys Smith, Mr. Girvan, Miss Gladys Wilson, Miss Mary Gough and other young ladies.

STORY OF A MINISTER.

Among the anecdotes told of the Rev. Dr. Somerville, of Anderson, Glasgow, is one to the effect that when I was assistant to Dr. Bonar at Larchburg he had over three miles to walk from his lodging at Larchburg to Dunipace, where he preached in the morning, giving thundering knocks on the cottage doors on his route to rouse the late-sleeping inmates, commanding them to come to church, and taking no refusal. One morning he met a quartermaster whom, as usual, he urged to accompany him. "How can I come in these boots?" was the stolid reply. Dr. Somerville took off his own footgear and insisted on an exchange. "Now," he said, "mine are good enough for you to wear in, and your are good enough for me to preach in."

LABOR UNREST IN HOUSEHOLD OF SOVEREIGN

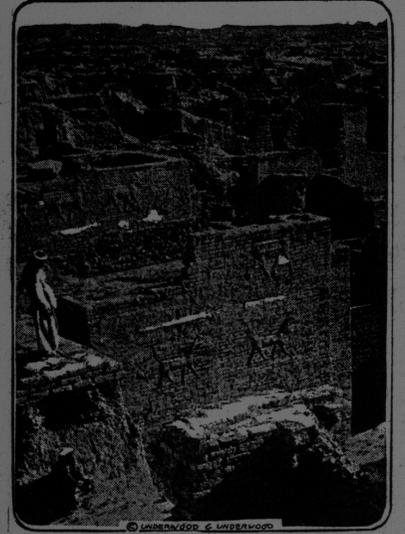

Maid Servants at Buckingham Palace Had Grievance

MANY HEIRS COME OF AGE

Fully Twenty Sprigs of Nobility Come Into Their Own This Year—Sir Lomer Gouin Welcomed in London—Canadians in Europe

(Times' Special Correspondence) London, April 12.—Labor unrest has entered Buckingham Palace, and showed itself in a recent demand of the maidservants for easier conditions of service. As a matter of fact, the conditions of service obtaining in the English royal residences have always been extremely easy though they have been rather lighter for the men than the women, because the staff of men has always been proportionately larger than the staff of maidservants, having regard to the work each has to do.

GREAT TOWER OF BABEL REVEALED TO PRESENT-DAY EYES AFTER TWELVE YEARS OF DIGGING DOWN TO BABYLON

Look at this hole in the ground! The walls that show their outlines at the bottom of this pit once formed a part of a magnificent structure that is supposed to have been built thousands of years ago as a refuge of the people of Babylon from floods.

The Canadian colony entertained him at the Restaurant L'edouard; a luncheon in his honor was given by Monsieur Floos, president of the Credit Foncier Franco-Canadian, at which influential Parisians were present, and the Comite France-Amerique gave a notable dinner in his honor.

Their reception in London is no less cordial. The Royal Colonial Institute will entertain Sir Lomer at De Keyzers Hotel on next Thursday. Colonel Pelletier will give a lunch on April 16 and on the same evening they will be entertained at dinner by Major J. A. and Mrs. Benson at their house in Ennismore Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, of Montreal, will arrive in London from the Mediterranean on the 15th inst. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. L. Ross, of Montreal, are at the Ritz. The marriage of Miss Pelly, lady-in-waiting to the Duchess of Connaught, daughter of Lady Lillian Yorke and the late Sir Henry Pelly to Captain T. H. Rivers-Baldwin, esquire-in-waiting to the Duke of Connaught, will take place in the Guards' Chapel, Wellington Barracks, on April 15. The Duke of Connaught and many Canadiana will attend.

Mr. Featherstonhaugh and Cecil MacDougal, of Montreal, who have been attending lectures at the Sorbonne, Paris, have arrived in London and will leave for Canada soon. J. A. Gagnon, of Montreal has returned to Oxford University from Paris. Other Canadiana who have arrived from the continent are Mr. and Mrs. Staver, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Plummer, of Toronto, who have been motoring in France and Italy; Mr. and Mrs. Francis McLennan and Hugh McLennan.

Monotony of Woman's Work

How is the woman with the cares, worry and work of a home to get well when she feels that her strength is being overtaxed and that nervous prostration is slowly but surely creeping upon her?

It is often monotony that breaks down the nervous system, and woman's work is above all else monotonous. Doing the same thing day after day has a wearing and depressing effect on both body and mind.

It is easy for doctors to advise change of scene and work, but how few women with families about them can follow such advice. The cure must be brought to them, and no treatment has ever proved more satisfactory under these conditions than Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

By increasing the red corpuscles in the blood this great food cure builds up the system and restores vitality to the wasted nerves. Gradually and certainly it brings back the courage and strength which have been slowly ebbing away. Unlike stimulating medicines, its benefits to the system are both thorough and lasting.

Nervous prostration does not come on you without warning. Some of the signals of danger are tired feelings and a disinclination to attend to the duties of the day; nervous headaches, feelings of depression and discouragement, nervous indigestion, neuralgic and sciatic pains and general lack of energy and ambition. Some women become hysterical and have spells of crying. Others are peevish and irritable and easily upset by a little extra strain or excitement.

Some patience and perseverance is necessary in the treatment of diseases of the nerves, but you will not be using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food long before you can note signs of improvement, and will be encouraged to keep up the treatment until thoroughly cured.

Mrs. Edwin Martin, Ayer's Cliff, Que., writes:—"Before I began taking your Nerve Food I was in a terrible condition; dizzy spells came over me, and I would fall to the floor and I could not get up as sweep the floor without fainting unless they took me out in the air. Now I can wash and work a lot, and your medicine helped me when the doctors failed. I felt as though it was a God-send to me.

"I hope you will use my name wherever you like, so that if there are any others suffering as I have done, they may be benefited by using your medicine, for it will do all it claims to do. I think it is the best of medicines. Dr. Chase's is the best that can be had for piles."

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Spread on Limbs. Red and Inflamed, Became Sores. Had to Tie Hands While He Slept. Well, Thanks to Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

St. Catharines, Quebec.—"My child was scarcely two months and a half old when his face and arms became covered with little red pimples which would not go away. The pimples were very red and inflamed. They were like a little red spot which soon became a little larger and raised up. These pimples caused him to scratch so much that he had to be tied up. He made him suffer so much that he cried part of the night, waking up most of the people in the house. The pimples became sores and were very painful.

"I used without success several remedies which were recommended to me. I then used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, giving him a bath every morning with hot water and Cuticura Soap, and then applied a thin layer of Cuticura Ointment on the parts affected. They gave great relief with the first application. After using one box of Cuticura Soap and Ointment a little more than one cake of Cuticura Soap my child was completely cured. Thanks to the Cuticura Soap and Ointment my baby is perfectly well, and I shall always have them at hand."

(Signed) Mrs. N. John, Jan. 4, 1912. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. A single cake is often sufficient. Liberal sample of each mailed free. With 25¢ Skin Book. Address post-card Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 37D, Boston, U. S. A.

cate handling, for it would have been decidedly awkward to have precipitated anything like a strike among the royal maids. Lady Bertha is, generally, extremely popular among the royal maidservants, several of whom she has known for years, and the upshot of her inquiries was that she recommended the engaging of ten more maids and a general reorganization of the household's duties so that the hours of work of the latter would not exceed those of the men servants.

To increase the staff of maids by ten necessitated increasing the wage bill by $1,500 per annum, but Queen Mary saw that the money to be saved by reducing the staff of the maidservants would not be worth the cost. She gave Lady Bertha a free hand to deal with the situation and she results in a new six hours' day for the royal housemaids.

No girl, under the new arrangement, is to be on duty more than six hours in the day, which means that the girls who go on what is called early morning duty—that is from 6 a.m. (when they rise) to midday—have the rest of the day free. In the late reign the early morning maids had to be on duty in the rooms if the ladies-in-waiting from 4 to 6 p.m. The early morning maids now escape this afternoon work.

The same rule obtains in the Russian royal household. In the German royal household the housemaids put in an eight hours' day.

Many Heirs Come of Age An unusual number of heirs to important titles will come of age this year. In fact, it is many years since so many eligibles have been available; the average number each year is about five or six, but this year, as many as twenty will achieve their majority. The most important, perhaps in point of rank, and the Earl of Lisburne and Lord Carbery. These two young men lost their fathers some years ago, and have already succeeded to the titles, though not to their property. Lord Lisburne is at present in the Scots Guards. He owns very large estates in Gloucestershire. Lord Carbery is an Irish peer, and after leaving school entered the sister service. He is now on the royal naval reserve list, and is hunting big game in British East Africa.

Another is Lord Grantley's son and heir, the Hon. Richard Henry Brinsley. The Grantleys count Sheridan, a famous author, among their ancestors, and all children receive his three Christian names as their own. Young Richard is also a great-grandson of the Hon. Mrs. Norton, who was the original of "Diana of the Crossways" in Meredith's celebrated novel.

A representative of one of our oldest peerages will come of age this year in the person of the Hon. Otway Plunket, son of Lord Louth. This barony, an Irish one, is more than 300 years old, and the family can trace its ancestors back into the dim ages.

The Hon. Frederick Somerset Gough-Calthorpe will come of age next month. His grandfather, who died not long ago, was in the Crimea, and on account of certain uncomplimentary remarks made about him afterwards in a book by a brother of his, he was very anxious to fight a duel, but was obliged to cool his ardor in the law-courts. Curiously enough another young fellow of the same name, Gough, and also descended from a famous soldier relative, also will reach his majority this year. This is the Hon. Hugh Gough, eldest son of Viscount Gough. It was his ancestor, the famous Field Marshal Gough, who, in the middle of last century, annexed the Punjab to the British crown, and who was given his title and a pension as a reward.

Besides these there are the Hon. Edward Hardings, eldest son of the present Viceroy of India; Viscount Olive, who is heir, not only to his father's earldom of Powis, but also to his mother's barony of Darcy of Knyth, she being a baroness in her own right; Viscount Althorp, the eldest son of "Bobby Spencer," as Earl Spencer is known among his friends, and a possessor of the late king; the Hon. William Westons, heir of Lord Rosemore, author of "Things I Could Tell"; Lord Carlton, son of Earl Wharfedale; the Hon. William Watson Armstrong, Baron Armstrong's eldest son, who astonished his

RAILROAD MAN HAD TO LAY OFF

Until He Took GIN PILLS

Buffalo, N. Y. I have been a Pullman conductor on the P. & M. and Michigan Central for the last three years.

About four years ago, I was laid up with intense pain in the groin, a very sore back, and suffered most severely when I tried to urinate.

I treated with my family physician for two months for Gravel in the Bladder but did not receive any benefit. About that time, I met another railroad man who had been cured by GIN PILLS, after having been given up by a prominent physician who treated him for Diabetes. He is now running on the road and is perfectly cured. He strongly advised me to try GIN PILLS, which I did—with the result that the pain left me entirely."

Fred Gilmore Finally Lands a Near Champion in Kelly

By TOM ANDREWS

After several years of trials and tribulations, Fred Gilmore, son of a famous fighter, Harry Gilmore, has landed a near-champion in the person of Spike Kelly, a Chicago water-weight. For several years Freddy has tried to find a boy whom he could develop into a champion, as that was his one ambition, after he had himself failed to class as a near champion, and Freddy was a scrapper at that. It was his brother, Harry, Jr., who had brought out Packey McFarland, and Freddy wanted to be as good as his brother. During the last four years Fred had had numerous fighters under his wing, but as he said, "they just lacked the necessary points to get into the select class," and for that reason he has been disappointed many times. He was so sure he had a champion in Jack White, that he was willing to bet his last cent on the chance, but Jack never got into the guild circle.

In the last year he took a youngster called Spike Kelly and coached him along by degree and Spike kept getting better all the while. He was an apt pupil and with the help of the senior Gilmore he came along fast. He has met Clarence Fera, one of the claimants to the water-weight title, and other good ones, and his latest clash against a near-champion was with Billy Walters, naval champion, whom he defeated at Kenosha a few nights ago in a slashing 10-round contest. Walters had been doing wonders in the ring about the middle west and was looked upon as a rear contender for the crown claimed by Ray Bronson of Indianapolis, and the victory of Spike makes him look extra good to his tutor and manager, Fred Gilmore.

There are really three contenders for the water-weight title here now—Bronson, who claims it, Kid Fera and Spike Kelly—and it is doubtful if Fera can make the weight of 142 at 9 o'clock and come along fast. New Pitching Record Method.

Sam Johnson has issued detailed instructions to his office scorers which are of interest to everybody interested in baseball. Last year John Heydler, secretary of the National League, drew up a table rating pitchers by earned runs of them. This year Johnson has gone into the earned run subject in detail, and his instructions, as devised by a way of forming a correct estimate of a pitcher's value, will appeal to followers of the game as having considerable merit. The American League president's instructions to his scorers are as follows:—"Your attention is called to several changes in the official score blanks of the American League for this season, the more important of them being for the purpose of establishing a basis for computing the official records of pitchers, a modification of the former 'earned run.' This is designed to replace the won and lost system of rating pitchers' ability. To accomplish this it is desired to obtain a complete record of the runs for which each pitcher was practically responsible—something quite different from the basic idea of the former 'earned run.' In determining the number of 'runs earned by opponents' in the pitcher's summary this year please follow this rule: Charge the pitcher with an earned run every time a player completes the circuit and scores by the aid of base hits, sacrifice hits, stolen bases, bases on balls, batted ball, wild pitches and balks before and after the pitcher has been offered and missed. The intent of the rule is to include under 'earned runs' the factors that produce runs for which the pitcher is chiefly responsible. Runs scored as a result of fielding errors of all kinds or passed balls are not to be charged to the pitcher in this computation. Runs should not be charged against the pitcher, even if scored by clean hitting, after good chances to retire the side have been offered and not accepted by the fielders (including the pitcher). Complications and uncertainties of opinion may arise regarding certain runs, particularly when a pitcher's sacrifice occurs with men on base. In such cases the scorer should use his own judgment or include the run in the pitcher's total. In his official report of the game, so that faults in the system may be remedied as far as possible. It will no longer be necessary to determine the 'winning' and 'losing' pitcher, which will offset partially the additional task of computing 'runs earned by opponents.' An 'earned run' column has been added to the individual record of the batsman, and also columns showing individual bases on balls, and strikeouts.

Local Men Handle Bangor.

The Bangor Commercial says:—According to the present plans, indications point to the Bangor baseball team being under local management. Up till now it was believed that W. Fred Mason, a New York theatrical man, who took over the Bangor franchise, was coming to this city with financial backing to handle the team without local support, thus leaving the entire management of the team in the hands of an outsider. Mr. Mason came to the city and looked over the prospects for a team here, which were unusually promising and had the plans already underway, but some business matters intervened, and he has decided that he cannot come to Bangor. Consequently it fell to Frank J. Leonard, the promoter of the Maine-New Brunswick baseball league, and a veteran baseball manager, to take over the team. The baseball game to see what he could do. In Mr. Leonard's opinion there will be about $1,000 in ready money in order to start things right. Once started he figures that the team will take care of itself with little trouble. Mr. Leonard's plan is to sell 100 shares of stock in the team at $10 a share. The stockholders will have their own organization, elect their own manager, or have a player-manager and handle the game themselves. In this manner everything should prove satisfactory to the local fans as the entire management would be in the hands of local enthusiasts, and the game would be run to suit those who supported it. Mr. Leonard was in town on Tuesday going over the situation and was expecting to begin the sale of stock. He is to have the St. John team, and the other two clubs of the league—Calais and St. Stephen and Fredericton—are looked after by competent backers and managers it is understood. That the Bangor team will be run under the national agreement means that the stockholders may have an opportunity to realize upon their holdings. The agreement signed will be the property of the club, which gives an opportunity for the sale or draft of players to bring a return on the stock, and there is the possibility of a margin of gate receipts over expenses, which would also bring a return. Among those whom he has talked with Mr. Leonard has found considerable encouragement and hopes to have the matter well in hand in a short time. The schedule will provide for two or three games at Bangor each week, with a large proportion of Saturday games.

Diamond Sparkles.

It is said there is a possibility of Sunday baseball in Washington. The Naps showed that Big Ed Walsh could be gotten at, sometimes, like the rest of them. Among those whom he has talked with John B. Foster, an old baseball writer, now secretary of the New York National League club, will travel with the Giants all season. Come to Terms With Ty Cobb. Augusta, Ga., April 22—Ty Cobb left here last night for Detroit last night in response to a telegram which Cobb said he received from President Noyan of the Detroit Americans. Cobb said the message expressed the belief that differences between the player and the Detroit management could be satisfactorily adjusted. New York, April 22—The Baseball Players' Fraternity will take no action in the controversy between Cobb and the Detroit Club unless requested to do so by them and then only as a mediator.

PLEASED WITH RESULTS
UNDER AFFILIATION

Montreal, April 23—Rev. Dr. E. Munson Hill, principal of the Congregational College of Canada, and who was dean of the faculty of the Montreal Theological College affiliated with McGill University in the first year of their co-operative work, is highly pleased with the results obtained from the new system and full of enthusiasm in regard to the future working out and expansion of the scheme.

"The expectations of those who have been in the affiliated college movement have been realized," he said. "The professors have felt the stimulus. Scholarship becomes true when it is tested from many points of view. The results from the students have been both visible and invisible."

Prof. Frank D. Adams, dean of the faculty of applied science in McGill is deeply impressed by the successful co-operation work of the college. "This is a new Canadian movement," he said, "which has attracted widespread attention throughout the English-speaking world. The federation of the college gives theology, as compared with the other professional faculties, a place of much more dignity and importance in the university than it could secure when represented by a series of separate affiliated schools."

Harrisburg, Pa., April 23—The Pennsylvania senate yesterday afternoon voted for woman suffrage 28 to 22. The house passed the measure on February 5, by a vote of 120 to 70. The resolution must be passed by the legislature of 1914 and the question of equal suffrage cannot be decided by the voters until the November election of 1915. A petition signed by 70,000 labor people helped to win for the women.

SUNDAY WORK AT SAND POINT

Case in Police Court — Increased Traffic and Lack of Accommodation The Defence

What is said by those interested to be the result of insufficient accommodation for steamships at the West Side was the cause of an interesting case in the police court this morning when William Downie, representing the owners of the steamer Mount Royal; Percy Thomson, representing the owners of the steamer Manchester Shipper, and Joseph T. Knight, representing the owners of the steamer Kumara, were charged with violation of the act by having men working on the steamers on Sunday. A. A. Wilson, K. C., appeared for the Lord's Day Alliance and F. R. Taylor for the defendants. Mr. Taylor said that lack of accommodation and the great increase in traffic made it necessary for the work to be carried on on Sunday in order that the steamers might make their sailings at the proper time.

Mr. Thomson said that there were on an average eleven steamers in port at one time and there was only the proper accommodation for seven. He asked that the case be dismissed. There was only one more Sunday in a season and he expected that next year would see additional berths at Sand Point which would enable the steamers to do their loading and unloading on other days than Sunday. He also said that the steamer people would not ask the men to work on Sunday if it were not absolutely necessary, as it meant that those who worked on Sunday were given double pay.

The case was adjourned until next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and in the meantime the magistrate asked that those interested look into the matter to see how far the steamer people could go under the definition given for work of necessity.

THE POLICE COURT

Varied Assortment of Cases Includes One of Cruelty to Horse

The case of Patrick Donovan, charged with obtaining food in a restaurant owned by Mr. Pitson, in Mill street, and refusing to pay for it, came up in the police court today. He was also charged with resisting the police. He pleaded not guilty. Night Detective Jones and Policeman Shortliffe told of being called into the restaurant and that while there the defendant admitted that he had ordered food for himself and another man, but said he was not going to pay for it. The policemen placed him under arrest, and the way to the lock-up he tried to get away and kicked Shortliffe in the chin.

Donovan was remanded. He came to this country about four months ago, and this is the third time that he has been arrested, having completed his last sentence only yesterday morning. He was arrested about the first of the year on charge of being drunk in a bar and back of Joseph Steegle's residence in German street, and was again arrested on charge of fighting in the East Side toll house. Altogether Donovan has spent about three of his four months in this country in jail.

Joseph Connell, arrested on suspicion of stealing junk from the warehouse of Morris Goss, was remanded until Friday morning.

Joseph Meahan again appeared this morning to answer a charge of beating a horse on the Marsh Road on the 17th instant. He pleaded not guilty. Mrs. W. F. B. Paterson told of seeing the defendant last Thursday driving out the Marsh Road at a fast rate of speed and beating the horse with the stamp of a whip. Mrs. F. B. Cowgill corroborated Mrs. Paterson's evidence and said that she saw the man again in the Westmorland Road on the same day and the horse was still running at a good speed.

The defendant, sworn, denied that he had a weapon of any kind in the wagon and that he did not use anything other than the reins to make the horse go.

The magistrate fined him $20 and in default of payment said he would be sent to jail.

The case of Carl Alto, charged with assaulting Charles Johnson on Rodney wharf, came up. Johnson said that he and the defendant were together on the wharf when the latter struck him on the head, making a hole in his hat and cutting his head. He produced the damaged hat. He could give no reason for Alto striking him. The prisoner was fined $20 or two months in jail.

John Castock, an Austrian, charged with drunkenness and resisting the police, was remanded. Policeman Shortliffe told of the arrest and of the prisoner kicking and attempting to bite.

Four men, charged with drunkenness, were fined $8 or thirty days in jail, and three others were remanded on like charges.

THE GIRLS ENJOY IT

Two afternoons each week Miss Murray has a class of school girls, about forty or more in number, in a class for physical culture and marching drill, in the high school assembly hall. This is in addition to her work of instructing playground teachers, and is a demonstration of what may be done to interest young people and improve their physical condition. The movements are conducted with musical accompaniment, the pianist being Miss Nola Melick.

There was a large class in attendance yesterday afternoon. The girls ranged in age from tender years to some well along in their teens and they seem to put their whole being into the various graceful movements, enjoying them hugely, and going through the exercises with precision and promptness, as soon as the director merely names the form which should be taken. The accompaniment of music lends spirit to them and makes them more interesting, and also keeps the participants moving more quickly. Much interest is being taken in the culture exercises, given by Miss Murray and her classes are steadily increasing in numbers.

DEATH OF YOUNG MAN

The death of James R. Carvell, the eldest son of Mrs. Edith Carvell, of Lancaster, took place this morning after a short illness. He was sixteen years of age. He has operated on some time ago for appendicitis, but diphtheritic croup set in, followed by paralysis, which caused his death. The sympathy of a large circle of friends will go out to his mother in her sad bereavement.

Some One Gets Too Big a Profit Out of Men's Clothing, But You Need Not Pay It.

An investigation is now being held in Chicago concerning the high cost of farm products to the consumer, and the low price that is paid to the farmer. For instance, potatoes which are sold by the farmer for 30c, a bushel cost the consumer 75c, to $1 a bushel. The investigation is to determine who gets this excessive profit.

Now the same condition exists in the clothing industry. The manufacturers of course are entitled to a fair profit, but the expensive method of most retailers doubles and sometimes triples this profit, so by the time the consumer gets it he pays a price far in excess of its intrinsic worth. This is the general condition, but it doesn't exist at Pidgeon's, because when you buy from Pidgeon, high rents and expensive selling methods are eliminated, and the consumer gets all he pays for and more, too. This accounts for the great difference between our prices and other stores' prices. This is why you can buy from us for $15 a suit which costs $18 and $20 down town. If you want 100 per cent. value for every dollar you spend, then you'll do well to investigate this condition.
