MONTREAL ORDER OVER CARD GAME

Fatal Shooting in Orpheum Theatre After Play

PISTOL MAN ARRESTED

Charles J. Ross Shot Robert Fitzsimmons When Dispute Arose—Both Employes of the House—Ross Walked Streets for Hours and Then Arrested

(Canadian Press) Montreal, Nov. 30.—In a quarrel over cards late last night, Robert Fitzsimmons, chief usher in the Orpheum Theatre, was shot and killed by Charles J. Ross, a solicitor for advertisements for the theatre programme. The shooting occurred in the check room in the basement of the theatre.

According to the story of eye witnesses, the two men with several others went to the cloak room after the performance in the theatre to have a game of "black-jack." They had been playing a short time for fairly high stakes, when a dispute broke out between Ross and Fitzsimmons as to the amount of the stakes. Ross contended that Fitzsimmons was making them too high. After some violent language and hot temper, Ross suddenly reached back and pulled a revolver out of his pocket. The rest of the party ran to cover and while they were hiding Ross shot Fitzsimmons in the side.

Before anyone interfered with him, he walked out of the place, leaving his victim on a chair. Fitzsimmons was then taken to a hospital and died an hour later. After the shooting, Ross left the theatre, and walked around for a few hours. He was just leaving his hotel quarters when a constable arrived. At the police station a revolver with two bullets and an empty cartridge was found in his hip pocket. He was anxious to know about Fitzsimmons' condition, and asked Sergeant Fisher to telephone to the Royal Victoria hospital.

When asked what started the fight, that led up to the shooting, Ross said that they were playing a game of black-jack after the show and that Fitzsimmons tried to cheat him out of $14 on a hand. He said he refused to pay the amount as the limit was only $2. Then Fitzsimmons struck him, smashed his glasses and tried to break his back across a bench. "I lost my head, and in the excitement pulled the revolver from my pocket, and fired," said Ross, who has a wife and child and is forty-six years old. Fitzsimmons was single.

NEW CARDINALS REVEAL RED HAT IN ROME TODAY

Magnificent Scene at Ceremony of Public Consistory in Vatican

Rome Throbbing With Excitement Over The Event and Amid All Pope Pius Was One Remaining Absolutely Calm—The Ceremony in Detail

(Canadian Press) Rome, Nov. 30.—The concluding and most impressive ceremony connected with the creation of the new cardinals occurred this morning at the great public consistory at the Vatican, when fourteen princes of the church were invested with the red hat indicating their rank.

There was tremendous excitement all over the city, and inside the Vatican. The only person who remained absolutely calm was the Pope himself. His serenity of mind is one of the secrets of the influence of Pius X over all who approach him.

Every available space in all the rooms and corridors along which the papal procession was to pass and in the hall where the consistory was to take place, was occupied at an early hour. The hall of beatification is an immense chamber over the portico of St. Peter. It had been especially prepared for the occasion. At one end stood the throne flanked by the cardinal's stalls and places for high ecclesiastics and the Sistine Choir, while facing these were seats for the lay members of the consistory.

The Roman aristocracy, beneath the late Pope's patronage, had been arranged in rows of seats. Distant strains of vocal music were heard and the low approaching murmur of many voices announced the arrival of the papal procession. The picture which then unfolded itself was magnificent. First came a jeweled cross borne aloft by a white cleric figure. Following came a group of Swiss Guards in their old world uniforms of red, black and yellow, designed by Michael Angelo. The men carried halberds. Then came the Sistine choir, led by an abbe, singing as they walked, and followed by a group of all orders, priests in black, monks in brown and white, leads of religious congregations and members of the papal court.

After the public had dispersed, all the cardinals, both old and new, joined the Pope in the hall of the consistory for a supplementary secret consistory presided over by the head of the church, when he granted the new cardinals their degree of participation in the papal power. The new cardinals formed a little procession of their own, proceeding to the Sistine Chapel to return thanks for the honor accorded them.

TO BE DEPORTED. Heavy travel today again brought the Montreal train into the city in two sections, the first on time, with a large number of passengers, and the second three hours late, many for the Grampian and the S. E. Empress of Britain. The number of Englishmen coming to the city today was many of other nationalities as well, and the station was given a very animated appearance. Among those arriving was John Koullman, and a guard in charge of nine foreigners, being deported as undesirable, four of them because of being demented.

MAY BE POSTPONED AGAIN. The preliminary examination of Harry B. Clark, the former manager of the Charlotte street branch of bank New Brunswick, which was postponed on Wednesday last week, is due to come up again tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. The representatives of the bank will be ready to go ahead with the case, but it is understood that George W. Fowler, M.P., counsel for Clark, will ask for another adjournment.

NEARING COMPLETION. The work of repairing the break in the water on the K. P. R. property in Mill street, is being pushed ahead rapidly. The covering is already well under way, so that the filling in with earth will probably be completed in a few days. The work of erecting the freight platforms, of which there are to be three lengthy ones, is also going along at an encouraging rate.

HEART DISEASE CURED

Kingston Girl Saved By
"Fruit-a-tives"

Heart Weakness and Heart Irritation are the common outgrowth of Indigestion. Gas is formed in the stomach and this accumulation of gas bulges out the walls of the stomach and presses against the heart. Palpitation, pain over the heart, and sometimes a feeling of smothering and dizziness, all are caused by the stomach and not because of any organic heart disease.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure this weak, irritated condition of the heart by curing the stomach.

Freedom of City of London to Earl Grey—The 200 lb Pie at Howick Hall—Lord Kitchener's Great Sway

(Copyright, 1911, by the Brentwood Company.)

Earl Grey is about to receive the freedom of the City of London in recognition of his services as Governor-General of Canada, just in the same way that it was bestowed upon Lord Cromer on his final return from Egypt and upon Lord Curzon on the termination of his viceroyalty of India. The four other survivors of the nine governor-generals who have held office in Ottawa since the confederation of Canada into a dominion in 1867, will be present—the Duke of Argyll, who as Marquis of Lorne, was governor-general in 1878; the Marquis of Lansdowne, who was governor-general in 1883; the Earl of Aberdeen, in 1888; and the Earl of Minto in 1898. Lord Monck, who was governor-general in 1867; Lord Lisgar, who followed him in 1868; the late Marquis of Dufferin, who was governor in the early seventies; and the late Earl of Derby, who figured in Ottawa as Lord Stanley of Preston, have all since been gathered to their fathers.

Lord and Lady Grey are now established at Howick Hall, their country seat in Northumberland; and they hold office which has been in the possession of the Northumberland Greys since Sir Edward Blyth, who was the first Earl of Grey, of James I. It may be added that he was even in those days regarded by his contemporaries as one of the most ancient houses of England's northernmost shire.

Howick Hall stands in the midst of a beautiful garden and of an extensive park stretching to the sea. It is about forty miles from Newcastle, the nearest town. The earl has found one family treasure missing from Howick Hall since he returned from Canada, namely, the portrait of Benjamin Franklin, which the ill-fated Major Andre, while serving on the staff of the first Lord Grey, had taken to the island of St. John's, N.B., during his term of office as Governor-General of Canada presented to the United States Government, on the occasion of one of his visits to Washington, announcing the gift at a banquet given in his honor by the Society of Loyalists in New York, and at which Senator Root, then secretary of state in the Roosevelt administration, was present.

Nowadays, peace reigns at Howick Hall. But this was not the case when it belonged to Lord Grey's uncle and immediate predecessor, a very old character. He had no children, but his seven brothers and his five sisters, with their numerous children, were always welcome at Howick Hall, which was invariably chock-full of guests, every one of whom was either a brother or sister, or nephew, or niece, sometimes even a grand-nephew or grand-niece, of the old host. Somehow, with the exception of "Betty" Grey, the present earl, they had all inherited the disputatious and quarrelsome disposition for which the Greys of Howick have always been celebrated; so that the scenes at table used to be exceedingly lively.

Suffered With Nerve Trouble For Two Years.

IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO SLEEP.

Diseases of the nervous system are very common. All the organs of the body may be sound while the nervous system alone may be diseased, therefore it is necessary for anyone suffering from any nervous trouble to procure a remedy which will at once quieten the nerves and build up the system.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will do this for you, preparing you give them a fair trial.
Mr. Chas. W. Woods, Montreal, Que., writes:—"For two years I had suffered with nerve trouble, and it was impossible for me to sleep. It did not get better until I went to bed, in the morning I was even worse than the night before. I consulted a doctor, and he gave me a tonic to take a half hour before going to bed. It was all right for a time, but the old trouble returned with greater force than before. One of the boys, who works with me, gave me half a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I took them and I got such satisfaction that I got another box, and before I finished it I could enjoy sleep from 10 p.m. until 6 a.m., and now feel good."
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By BUTH CAMERON

WHEN the Pilgrims instituted Thanksgiving Day they meant that on that day special thanks should be given to God.

Everyone knows that, and presumably everyone with intelligence enough to regard the day as something besides an opportunity for overeating, does that.

May I suggest an additional observance? Don't you think it would be a grand idea to make today your Thanksgiving Day to your fellow men, as well as to the Almighty—that is, to give thanks to those you love for some of the innumerable kindnesses they do you, and which for the most part of the year you are sadly apt to accept as a matter of course?

For instance—there's father. On three hundred and sixty-four days of the year you probably take his daily self-denial of all the luxuries he might have had, for the sake of bringing you up, as a matter of course—a sort of debt he owes you for bringing you into the world. Suppose today you go to him and give him thanks and tell him you do appreciate that it means sacrifice to him to smoke a pipe instead of the cigars he used to be so fond of, to dine at cheap restaurants and wear shabby clothes and to give up that club to which he was once so proud of belonging.

Then there's mother. Perhaps on three hundred and sixty-four days of the year you take most of her little day-by-day services as a matter of course. You are so used to having her sew in the rucing, press the ties, mend the trousers or press out the gown for the party, that you have to-day you surprise her by going to her and giving her thanks for all these dear services. Mention them one by one and tell her how splendidly she performs them and reassure her of that truth which you surely must have told her many times before—that she is the very best mother that ever happened to an underserving son or daughter.

Suppose you have a very faithful employe. Ordinarily, you accept his service as something you have paid for and should have. In the bottom of your heart you know you can't wholly pay in money for such splendid service. Suppose you sit down today and write him a few words, telling him so and thanking him for his faithfulness. And then—but enough. You know yourself what are the kindnesses, the blessings, the services that you take as a matter of course on all the matter of course days of the year.

Could God be better thanked or Thanksgiving Day better observed than by your giving thanks to your neighbors for some of these?

Lady Grey will have to face, now that they are committed to spending Christmas at Howick Hall, after so many years of absence. It is an infliction in the form of the celebrated Howick Christmas pie, of which both are expected to partake liberally. The pie which weighs some 200 pounds, is nine feet in circumference, and so huge that it is fitted neatly into a wooden case on four wheels, so that it can be wheeled round the table. An idea of the richness of the pie may be gathered from a list of some of the ingredients. According to the recipe, which dates back to the middle of the eighteenth century, the pie is made up of several bushels of flour, twenty pounds of butter; four geese; two rabbits; six wild ducks; six woodcock; a dozen snipe; three brace of partridges; two nests' tongue; seven black birds; six pigeons; and six lewises, the latter, it is said in the recipe, "by way of flavor."

Recalls Port Arthur
Vice Admiral Prince Alexander Lieven, who has just been appointed chief of the general staff of the Russian navy, is the officer who, commanding the cruiser Diana at the outbreak of the war between Russia and Japan in 1904, took part in that gallant dash out of Port Arthur by the Russian warships in harbor in defiance of preposterous instructions received from St. Petersburg.

It will be recalled that the Russian ships were either driven back into port, damaged almost beyond repair, or else sunk, by Admiral Togo. Only one of them got away, namely, the Diana, owing to the superior seamanship of her captain, Prince Alexander Lieven.

Fighting off an escaping Japanese cruiser sent in pursuit, Lieven managed to navigate her in safety to the French port of Saigon, thousands of miles away, where she was dismantled in accordance with the requirements of the laws of neutrality to be held until the end of the war.

While at Saigon, Lieven was joined by his wife, who had made her escape from Port Arthur through the tightly drawn Japanese lines of the besieging force, by disguising herself as a Chinaman, and under the cover of a binding snowstorm. In fact, her extraordinary adventures, and the romantic features of her escape, appealed so powerfully to the great people of St. Petersburg, that they have since then forgiven her husband for marrying her. Their former objections to her were due to the fact that she was a divorcee and a woman of birth far inferior to his own.

Alexander Lieven can trace his ancestry in an unbroken line to Henry Lieve, who was a feudal baron, vassal to the Archbishop of Riga, in the thirteenth century. The Lievens owe their title of prince, and their prefix of "serene highness"—enjoyed by so very few of the princely houses of Russia—to the fact that the widow of General Count Otto Lieven was governess of the children of Czar Paul and that Emperor Alexander I. and Nicholas I., as well as the Czarovitch Constantine, who waived his rights of succession to the throne in favor of his younger brother, all three regarded her as their second mother.

Kitchener's Great Sway
Although the representative of Sir Edward Grey, the Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, was careful to explain at the time of Lord Kitchener's appointment to the position of minister plenipotentiary in Egypt last summer that his duties there would be identical with those of his predecessors, that is to say, purely diplomatic and civil, yet it is apparent, from the general order just issued by the war department in London, that Lord Kitchener will, as field marshal, have, de facto, supreme command of all the military forces not only in Egypt and in the Soudan, but also in the military district of the Mediterranean, comprising Malta, Gibraltar, and Cyprus.

In the first place, it is ordered that the governor-general of the Soudan, the Egyptian army, and the English general officer commanding the British army of occupation in Egypt are to be directly responsible to Lord Kitchener. Moreover, General Sir Ian Hamilton, who is not only the commander-in-chief of the forces beyond the sea, but also the commander-in-chief of the British forces in Cairo, all his views on strategy and defence and all the measures that he proposes to take before communicating them to the war department in London.

There are several other paragraphs in the new general order on the same lines, all tending to make it quite clear that, though nominally Lord Kitchener is merely British Minister Plenipotentiary in Egypt, he is in reality in supreme command of all the military forces in Egypt and in England's various strongholds in the Mediterranean.

TH. FLAG-WAVERS
Where were the tory flag-wavers yesterday when Blomdin, who says we owe nothing to England, was elected deputy speaker of the House of Commons of Canada?

Did not those noble patriots rise up and protest against such an insult to the loyal people of the great British Empire? Nay, nay. They rose up at the crack of the party whip and gulped down Mr. Blomdin without winking. He might sneer at England, but the Nationalist vote must be made solid for Borden.

What fine imperialists these tories are. Mr. Bourassa is delighted with them, and he knows a simon-pure patriot when he sees one.

SASKATCHEWAN COLLEGE

St. John people will be interested to know that the plans for Saskatchewan College, at Moose Jaw, of which Rev. A. A. Graham, late of this city, is principal, have been greatly enlarged. It was originally intended to have only a boys' college and Principal's residence; but a drawing of the buildings, as now planned, shows a group of seven. There will be a boys' college, a junior boys' college, a ladies' college, library and science building, gymnasium and Principal's residence. These buildings will be of handsome design, set apart from each other amid ample grounds traversed by avenues, and presenting a very imposing appearance. The city of Moosejaw has granted the site, and the buildings will be erected as funds become available. This will be a residential college for young people of both sexes, and, as is the way with the west, the work of erecting the various buildings will doubtless be pressed forward rapidly. The boys' college and the Principal's residence will be erected early next year; and the college will be ready in September for the admission of boys. Although the work of financing and planning has been taken in charge by the Presbyterian church, the college will be non-sectarian, open to students irrespective of creed.

Rev. Mr. Graham is now actively forwarding the cause of the college, and those who know his energy and capacity do not need to be told that he will do effective work. His friends will be glad to know that the educational work for which he gave up his St. John pastorate, has greatly broadened its outlook, and that he will find full scope for his splendid zeal and ability.

At the last meeting of the Synod of Saskatchewan the college was especially commended by the congregations, which were urged to make available as soon as possible the funds required for the first two buildings to be erected. When all is completed, Moose Jaw will be the seat of an educational institution of far-reaching influence in the west.

TRUSTS AND THE PEOPLE

The following extract from the speech in parliament at Ottawa, made last week by Mr. Alphonse Verville, who represents organized labor, is of very general interest: "I can tell you, Mr. Speaker, that there is one big question to be decided by the people of this country and that is the question between the people and the trusts. We have come to that stage in our existence where we are confronted with the problems of other countries which solve themselves. The trusts are well satisfied with their victory. Why should they not be? They have seven millions in the cabinet, but they must not forget that the fight between the interests and the people has only just begun. The result of the last election was the victory of the trusts over the masses, and we have the proof, because both the rock trust, of which I believe there are representatives on the other side, and the sugar trust at once raised their prices, to the people, and I have reason to believe that the increase in the price of sugar was sufficient alone to pay all the contributions of that sugar trust to the campaign fund."

Mr. Monion of Yamaska took occasion in his speech in parliament to praise Mr. Bourassa. Among other things he said: "Why had Mr. Bourassa left the Liberal party? He began to lose confidence in it."

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Rev. W. Owen, of Cambridge, has been authorized to solemnize marriages. Three convictions have been made in the trial of the five Italians charged with murdering Mrs. Mary Hall in a farm house near Croton Lake, N. Y. The other two men will be tried on Monday.

When the case of the Peel Lumber Co. against Charles Watson of Cliffordville, was being opened yesterday in Andover, one of the jurors was corrected by Judge Carleton upon his manner of taking the oath. He was told that to kiss other than the open page of the book did not constitute an oath.

Before the state committee on interstate commerce in Washington yesterday, E. H. Gary, head of the U. S. Steel Corporation, outlined a scheme for having corporations as large as possible but having their affairs regulated by the government. He would have judges appointed for life, the president for eight years, and would have fewer elections. These things, he said, would tend to lessen the depression in the United States before a general election.

Engineers of the provincial department of public works are making surveys for a new bridge at Grand Falls to replace the present suspension structure. A. D. McLeod, teller in the Royal Bank at Grand View, B. C., was held at the point of a revolver yesterday in the bank until he had delivered to a foreign outlaw $1,000.

Russia has delivered to Persia her ultimatum regarding the presence of W. M. Shuster, the American treasurer-general, in the latter country, saying that only forty-eight hours will be given to permit of his dismissal. Martin Magowan has been appointed police magistrate of St. George in place of Charles Johnson, resigned. G. Hazen Adair and James D. McKenna, Sussex, have been appointed coroners also Hazen Steeves, of Bridgeton, Albert county. Regina, Sask., Nov. 29—Premier Scott is ill and the attending physician has advised him to leave Regina before the cold weather sets in, and to remain until spring.

ST. JOHN PEOPLE'S ADVENTURE. A party including J. B. Baxter, W. M. Jarvis, Dr. G. C. Hay, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Wetmore, Miss Gilechrist and others from this city who were at the anniversary services in the Central Norton church yesterday had an exciting experience on their return trip. The water of the river had risen over the temporary bridge and threatened to sweep it away. The bridge had to be held in place with ropes and pole poles while they crossed through the swirling waters.

A ZEPHYR
Over the moorland it sweeps with its scent. Hint of gorse-sweetness all tangled and blent. Bracken and heather mingled together! Brushing the hamlet, where peat is alight Binding the fragrance of smoke curling white into that scent Tangled and blent.

Salt from the sea foam, it steals on its way Ere the full measure of perfume can stray— Moor, hamlet, sea, Towardward to me! Here through the lush of the starlight it sings. Songs of romance, and all workaday things Die in that scent Tangled and blent Bracken and heather mingled together— Gorse, peat, and sea. Wuffed to me. —Lillian Gard.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Dr. Saunders' claims to have produced, at the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, by crossing brands, a wheat which will mature in ninety days. Red Eye would require one hundred and twenty days. If the new wheat does what is hoped, it will be of great value in northern Canada. Speaking of the Experimental Farm, the crop yielded 843.13 per acre this year, while the average for Canada was $15.50. We need more of the experimental farm methods.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations. It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak," the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness. To strengthen the stomach, restore the density of the organs of digestion and nutrition and break up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use. In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

CITY WATER MATTERS

At the monthly meeting of the Water and Sewerage Board last evening Mr. C. T. Jones reiterated his complaint that the foder supplied to the city was not of the proper quality.

The tenders of C. H. Peters Sons, Ltd., for cuts, straw, bran and pressed hay, and W. A. Quinon, for loose hay, were accepted.

The tenders were submitted as follows: Oats $294, Straw $23, Bran $26.50, Pressed Hay $13.90, Loose Hay $13.80.

The offer of properties at Spruce Lake and Little River were referred to the chairman, recorder and city engineer.

An additional $100 was voted to complete the payment for the work of enclosing a water course in Brooks ward.

The water assessment for the M. R. A. Ltd. stables, was reduced from $40.83 to $30.42 as the increase was due to a leak in the pipe. W. J. Fitzpatrick's assessment was reduced by $5.

The engineer was authorized to purchase six meters at a cost of $410.

The engineer reported that the decreased water pressure on Mount Pleasant was due to colder weather, that the blockade in the Mill street sewer had been removed by the C. P. R., and on the lock in the Loch Lomond main which necessitates cutting off the supply of water from Loch Lomond. He said that if a fire broke out while the water is shut off the results might be very serious.

NEVER SATISFIED (Boston Transcript).

GOOD GIN! How it can be Recognized. Canadian Red Cross Gin is produced by the transformation of grain into sugar, which, after fermentation, is combined with Juniper Berries and when distilled becomes the famous "RED CROSS" GIN. Red Cross Gin is submitted to the rigorous inspection of the excise officers, every in sample, who are present at all the various stages of its manufacture from the weighing of the grain, following the various operations of distillation, the rendering into alcohol, the aging in bonded warehouses, until "Red Cross" Gin is bottled in its specifically sealed bottles. There is no other food product in the world so carefully and constantly inspected. The public therefore possesses the absolute guarantee of the age, purity and maturity of "Red Cross" Gin whereas imported Gins cannot offer the slightest guarantee, as they are submitted to no official inspection before exportation, and are not tested as to quality, purity and healthfulness on their importation here. How can the Consumer hesitate between Canadian Gin and imported Gin? We shall leave the public judge. BOVIN, WILSON & Co. Distributors, MONTREAL. The Idea Behind The Statement

"Gourlay Pianos are High Priced, But Worth The Price"

Nine years ago Gourlay, Winter & Leeming determined to make a piano that in point of musical and intrinsic value would be a peer of any instrument made in any country. The Gourlay Piano is the result. It was not the intention to make a piano to sell at any particular price, but to make it truly and well, and then set a fair price.

Any lack of knowledge or cheapening of workmanship will invariably affect the tone or the durability of a piano. One does not buy a piano often—hardly more than once in a lifetime—so the choice and purchase of a piano is of vital interest and worth a great deal of careful thought and investigation. It is a keen disappointment to a music lover to find that his instrument is lacking in artistic or intrinsic worth, or both, or that because of faulty construction it is deteriorating quickly.

The Gourlay Piano never disappoints.

And the reason why the Gourlay Piano has been such a marked success is this—the cost of manufacture has always been a secondary consideration. If by making a change in the method of construction or use of material we were able to accomplish a desirable result, that change was made.

Is this not the instrument you want?

The owner of a Gourlay Piano knows that those who play it or hear it played cannot make other than favorable criticism—no matter what their musical knowledge or experience.

Would this not be a matter of intense satisfaction to you?

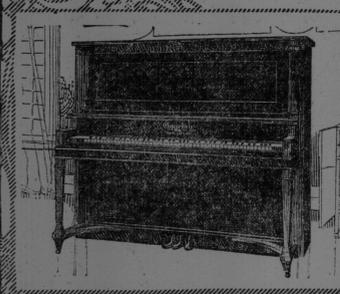

It is the absolute and unvarying quality behind every Gourlay Piano that enables us to say "High priced, but worth the price."

George A. Henderson returned last night from Boston, where he attended the annual banquet of the Canadian Club. The visitors were entertained most hospitably at lunch on Tuesday to give them an opportunity to meet each other before the big banquet in the evening, and in the Three men, a brick layer and two laborers, were injured while at work on a staging at the new armory yesterday. The staging gave way and they fell about sixteen feet. None was seriously injured.

Carroll Robly, a prominent commission merchant of Havana, arrived in the city yesterday seeking to increase the trade between Cuba and New Brunswick. He believes that this province could secure a large part of the flour trade of the Island, as prices are lower than from New York, and in return New Brunswick should be able to take more sugar and molasses. He says the sugar crop in Cuba will be a record size this year.

MC 2035 POOR DOCUMENT

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1911

Try PURITY—the every-purpose flour for bread, rolls, buns, biscuits, layer cakes, short cakes, griddle cakes, fruit cakes, pies, puddings, cream puffs, tarts, ginger snaps

IN the making of everything for which flour is required, PURITY FLOUR gives admirable results. Among thousands of cooks it is spoken of as "The every-purpose flour."

No matter what you may desire to make, use PURITY FLOUR. The results will give you a higher degree of satisfaction than you've ever experienced when ordinary flour was used.

There is added deliciousness to the flavor, extra quality in every ounce of the bread, or the cake, or the biscuits, or whatever you may make with PURITY FLOUR.

PURITY FLOUR gets its finer flavor, greater strength, extra nutritiousness and higher-quality from the high-grade portions of the hard wheat berries. All the low-grade portions are excluded during its process of milling. PURITY FLOUR will cost you slightly more than ordinary flour. But it's worth more. It costs more to make it.

The present huge demand is your proof of how firmly PURITY FLOUR has established itself among the thousands who place quality before price.

PURITY FLOUR

"More bread and better bread" "More bread and better bread"

Reminder: On account of the extra strength and extra quality of PURITY FLOUR, it is necessary, for best pastry results, to add more shortening than you are accustomed to use with a "blended" or Ontario wheat flour. Add more water when making bread.

Add PURITY FLOUR to your grocery list right now.

NEW COMPANIES

J. Arthur Freeze, Ralph St. John, Nelson W. Evelyn, William A. Jeffrey and Mrs. Margaret J. Frier, of Sussex, have applied for letters of incorporation under the name of "The Sussex Motor Company, Limited." The company is to have capital stock to the amount of $24,000 and will take over the Manufacturers' Agency of Margaret J. Frier, of Sussex, and will carry on a general motor business, with the head office at Sussex.

OUR BOARD OF WORKS

The system under which the public works of the city are carried on is about the worst that could be devised. In many instances three or four men are engaged doing what one man should do. A system has gradually grown up for which Mr. Murdoch is not wholly responsible and which there is no doubt he would change if he had time to give proper consideration to the matter, that is the cause of much waste of public money and which cannot be wiped out of existence or changed too soon.

Wolgate's Fight

The twenty-round bout between Al. Wolgate champion lightweight fighter and the challenger, Fredie Walsh, has been called off because of the sudden illness of Wolgate. He underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday. The operation was successful. The purse was $25,000 and which Wolgate was to have received $13,500.

Gotch Names His Terms. Kansas City, Nov. 29—Frank Gotch has offered to meet Al. Monroe, the English wrestler, in Convention Hall, Kansas City, and the officials of the Missouri Athletic Club have called the Englishman an offer for a match on December 28, the winner to receive 75 per cent of the purse. In a letter Gotch said he would meet Monroe at any time before Jan. 5 when he will start on his trip to Europe. "I expect to leave America Jan. 10," Gotch wrote. "I will insist that the winner receive 75 per cent of the purse. Monroe has indicated that he can command backing for a good side bet, and I will hold him on that also."

Bouts in Montreal

Montreal, Nov. 29—Jess Pedersen last night defeated Raymond Cassez in a good match. Cassez lost the first fall on a foul in thirty-three minutes, when he attempted to kick Pedersen. Pedersen took the second with a crotch hold in thirty-two minutes. The men wrestled match-exchange style. Courderell downed Ogore and Schmidt beat Faust, both in straight falls at catch-as-catch-can.

Old Glory Sale. The seventeenth annual Old Glory horse sale began on Monday in New York under the auspices of the Fasig-Tipton Company at Madison Square Garden, did not develop a great deal of speculative activity. The sales will continue throughout the week, during which time the best light harness stock of the country will go to the block. Of course, the very best blood will not be auctioned until later in the week, but the fact that opening day prices averaged no better than $10 a head augurs none too well for the present condition of the equine market. The best price was $1,775 paid for Star Patch, by J. B. Osborne, of Plainfield, N. J., Star Patch is the bay gelding which posted a record half a mile of 28 3/4 seconds on the New York Speedway for M. P. Dey. The lowest price of the opening day was $40. Devall's Points, a fine blooded yearling colt, went under the hammer at this low figure. One of the most picturesque figures among the many notable horsemen who attended the sale was Budd Doble, the famous driver of trotters. He said he had driven more harness horses to records than any driver now living. Mr. Doble travelled from San Jose, Cal., to sell his celebrated trotting stallion Kinney Son, 2:07 3/4, champion green trotting stallion from 1903 to 1907.

McCoyle Must Wait. New York, Nov. 28—Norman Schuy, otherwise known as "Kid McCoy," the former pugilist, has applied to the federal district court for a discharge in bankruptcy, but owing to the incompleteness of the case, the matter has gone over for two weeks.

Boxing Notes

Jack White of Chicago and "Batting" Schultz will meet in Windsor, Ont., on Dec. 6. Champion Abe Attell keeps making matches, but with others he does not fear to do him any harm. His latest match is with Willie Glick, whom he will meet in Wilkesbarre, on Dec. 4.

Prof. Jimmy DeForest, who has taken Frankie Burns, the Jersey City bantam, under his charge, has finally induced Johnny Cochran, the champion, to agree to meet him. The latter is one of the best boxers in and under the direction of DeForest. It will be a surprise if he does not finally win the title.

Again Falls to Come Back

Philadelphia, Nov. 28—Jack O'Brien, who has made repeated efforts to "come back," tried once again here last night at the American A. C., but his attempt resulted in failure. For Hank Ramsey, his opponent, battled his way so valiantly to the upper hand of the milling in the closing rounds, that he was entitled to the verdict at the close.

The bout went the prescribed six rounds. O'Brien did not lose any judgment of distance nor did his punches have any visible effect on Ramsey. Ramsey invariably took O'Brien's blows to get in a solid body punch and these latter told perceptibly on the former champion.

O'Brien welcomed every sound of the going after the third round and never lost a chance to consume as many seconds as he possibly could, firing any of the blows which he could get in. Ramsey tried hard to end the milling in the sixth round, but while he shook up his opponent, heavily with hard rights he could not reach the vital spot on Jack's jaw.

Longboat and Battler

Thousands of people surging around the corner of Xenon and College streets, Toronto, waiting for the dual procession saw an amusing incident. A burly recruit "roped" away Tom Longboat and "Batting" Nelson passed that way on a training run and grabbed them as they endeavored to break through the line. The boys refused to go on getting through and were being threatened with arrest when somebody tipped off the identity of the athletes to the policeman.

Mrs. James Warren, Edmonton, Alta., writes:—"Just a few words in favor of your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. A short time ago I contracted a bad cold, and tried several remedies, but had no good results. I asked my druggist to give me some good cough medicine he could recommend, so he told me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and I can safely say I have never tried anything like it. The first dose gave me relief, and I was completely cured of my cough before I had used the first bottle. It is the best cough remedy I have ever tried, and I can recommend it to everyone." Miss Breck will today sing a general request—Moore's Memorial "Love Me All Those Things Young Charming" and Mr. Besette will continue in his mystery song "Look Out For Jimmy Valonius," in which he scored a hit upon his first appearance yesterday. The pictures in the present programme are, the famous comedy "Town Hall Taw-Night," the dramatic number is Edison's magnificent kindergarten story "On The Threshold of Life" and a fine western romance "Western Memory."

LYRIC

The Bazarou troupe of Russian and Polish dancers, who are to appear at this theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week are said to be actors of exceptional ability. They present a beautiful act, it is said, brilliantly costumed. For the picture programme, the celebrated Selig "Look in the Arctic" which is pictured in Labrador and enacted by native Eskimos, among them Chief Opetek and Columbia, is the feature. This reel tells the story of an unwritten law among the Eskimos, which provides a death penalty for any member of the tribe who is too ill or too old to participate in the annual hunt. The story opens with the start of the hunt, and concludes with the rescue of the condemned girl by a party of Arctic explorers.

An Edison Comedy

An Edison comedy, called An Island Comedy which is very laughable will furnish the amusing portion of the show.

A Meeting of the Knights of Pythias

A meeting of the Knights of Pythias was held last night for the purpose of discussing the matter of erecting a new building. Nothing definite was settled.

Good? Well Rather!

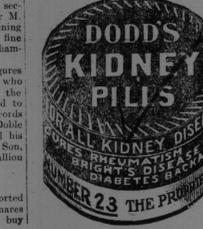

ANOTHER helping, please!
"Never tasted such good porridge before."
"Made from Tillson's, did you say?"
"Well, I guess I have been asleep on the porridge question."
After you have eaten Tillson's you'll admit there's a difference in porridge. First the flavor. That's because we pan-dry Tillson's Oats by a different process. We evaporate the moisture—not the aroma nor the flavor. Then the appetizing qualities. These are due to the careful rolling of the oats which keeps every flake whole and unbroken. All the gluten and starch in the oats is retained in the flake, so that your porridge will not have that sticky, gelatinous, unpalatable consistency. You know that porridge is unexcelled as a nourishing food. You will know when you try it that porridge made from Tillson's Rolled Oats is unexcelled as a delicious breakfast dish.

Your grocer has Tillson's. Two sizes—10c and 25c. Each 25c package contains a handsome piece of English Porcelain Tableware.

GERMANS THOUGHT THEY CAME OFF VERY WELL

Police Court Quartette Had Trouble Explaining But All Ended Satisfactorily

Four German laborers, none of whom could speak English, were the cause of an interesting session in the police court this morning. The men were Fritz Horn, Karl Mithrop, Heinrich Fash and Anton Ungelheim and they were all charged with being drunk. Bruce Watson, street clerk, started in to explain to the court but the services of two scribes had to be requisitioned before the case could be made out of his story.

He said that all four had been working on a railway in Montreal and were on their way to New York. They had five drinks of beer yesterday afternoon and were being treated to a drink.

His Honor said that they would be fined $5 each but that the fine would be allowed to stand if they would not drink any more liquor. When told that they could go they appeared to be very pleased and one was heard to remark "Good bye, bye" to which the rest all answered "bye-bye".

Four local men were each fined $4 or ten days in jail on the charge of drunkenness.

The case against Miss Carroll, charged with selling beer after hours in his restaurant in Union street, will come up in the police court this afternoon. It is possible that the trial of Kenneth Brittain, charged with giving a spurious check to Henry Hopkins for rent of clothes, will be begun tomorrow morning. The Van Bakkirk case has been set aside until tomorrow.

TURN ON THE WATER AGAIN IN MORNING

Loch Lomond Supply Cut Off At Noon Today—Hope to Resume at Seven a.m. Tomorrow

The city's supply of water from Loch Lomond was shut off at noon today to allow the men of the department to proceed with the repairs to the concrete conduit at the McConnell farm, about a mile from the city.

Until the water is turned on the pipe again, which will be tomorrow morning, the city, with the exception of the West End, will be dependent on the Little River reservoir for its water supply. This is a reversion to the system in use before the mains were extended to Loch Lomond but the situation is different in that the pressure from Little River is not sufficient to carry the water to the higher parts of the city.

The repairs to the pipe, which has a crack opening at the bottom, will be completed this afternoon if all goes well, and the water will be turned on by seven o'clock.

WILL TRY THE TWO CASES TOGETHER

Austin, the counsel agreed to consolidate the two cases and try them without a jury.

The present jury trying the case was dismissed. The consolidated case will be tried before Mr. Justice Landry in the court room next Thursday at ten o'clock in the morning.

The new counsel added to the case by reason of the consolidation are J. B. M. Baxter and C. H. Ferguson.
