ROUMANIA FIGHTING BRAVELY; BATTLE IN ENGLISH CHANNEL

RUSSO-ROUMANIAN TROOPS WINNING

Bucharest States That Several Attacks by Enemy Repelled and That Teutonic Troops Suffered Heavy Losses in the Region of Dragoslavele--Situation in Dobruja Unchanged.

HEAVY BOMBARDMENT BY GERMANS NEAR VERDUN—HUN ATTACK WEST OF VILLAGE OF DOUAUMONT ABSOLUTELY CHECKED BY FRENCH CURTAIN OF FIRE.

Bucharest, Oct. 27, via London, 4.30 p. m.—Russo-Roumanian troops are engaged in successful fighting along the Roumanian-Transylvanian frontier, according to today's war office announcement. Austro-German attacks in the Tuglies and Bicas regions and in the Trotus Valley were repulsed, while in the Usul Valley the Roumanian advance is continuing.

"Heavy losses were sustained by the Teutonic troops which vainly attacked in the region of Dragoslavele, adds the official statement, which also mentions the continuation of the fighting in the Predel region and announced a withdrawal of the defensive forces towards the southern Transylvanian frontier in the Jul Valley.

"The text of the statement follows: "In the Otus Valley calm prevails. On the Brancov frontier, in the Duseu Valley, at Table Butri, Bratocea, and Predelus, the situation is unchanged. The enemy attacked with violence at Mount Cerhoet. At Aruzel, southwest of Predel, fighting is in progress.

"In the region of Dragoslavele we have repulsed a very violent enemy attack in the Valley of Pravat, The valley is covered with enemy dead.

"West of the Alt enemy attacks have been repulsed.

"In the Jul Valley we have withdrawn towards the southern exit of the pass.

"Southern front: On the Danube and in Dobruja there has been no change.

"Northern and northwestern fronts: At Tuglies and Bicas we repulsed a violent enemy attack. At Huggis an enemy aeroplane was brought down by our artillery.

"In the Trotus Valley the enemy attacked violently, but was repulsed.

"In the Usul Valley our advance continues. We have captured one officer and 88 men and taken one machine gun.

German Machines Wrecked.

"North of Verdun the enemy today directed a continuous violent bombardment against our first line, especially on Haudromont ravine, Douaumont Fort and the Damboul battery. An attempted enemy attack west of the village of Douaumont was absolutely checked by our curtain of fire. Bad weather is general and is impeding operations.

"On the Somme front there was an intermittent cannonade. Our artillery fire blew up an ammunition depot in the region of Germenton and Ablaincourt.

"North of Verdun we carried out, during the night, some minor operations. In the sector to the west and south of Fort Vaux we took 100 prisoners and made some progress during these actions.

"The enemy violently bombarded our positions in the regions of Douaumont and Chenois.

"There is nothing to report from the remainder of the front.

"Aviation: Last night our bombing aeroplanes dropped 40 bombs on the railway station at Grand Prey, 8 on the railway station at Challersgny, 30 on enemy bivouac at Pretoy-Le-Chateau and Avricourt, north of Lasigny, where two fires were seen to break out.

"On the same night 10 of our machines dropped 240 bombs on the railway station at Conflans, and 30 on the railway station at Courcelles. Many projectiles struck their objectives.

"Another of our machines dropped six shells on the railway line at Pagny-sur-Moselle."

Bad Weather in Macedonia.

Paris, Oct. 27, 3.01 p. m.—Unfavorable weather has caused a virtual cessation of operations on the Macedonian front, according to today's war office statement, reporting on that field, which reads:

"There is nothing of importance to report. Bad weather continues to hinder operations."

Aeroplanes at Bucharest.

London, Oct. 27.—One hundred and twenty-eight French aeroplanes have arrived in Roumania for reconnaissance work on the Transylvanian and Dobruja fronts, says a despatch from Bucharest to the Wireless Press. Four English aeroplanes arrived at the Roumanian capital yesterday from Imbros, an island of the Grecian Archipelago.

Flying from the island of Imbros, across Central Bulgaria to Bucharest in a straight line, the English machines travelled a distance of about 300 miles.

FALL RIVER OPERATIVES MAY STRIKE

Textile Unions Will Vote Wednesday Night on Question of Walkout Nov. 6.

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 27.—The Fall River Textile Company representing 35,000 operatives in more than one hundred cotton mills today called special meetings of the Mule Spinners, Weavers, Loom-fixers, Slaughterers and Carders' Unions for next Wednesday night for the purpose of voting on the question of declaring a general strike on Nov. 6.

The action was taken because of the refusal of the Manufacturers' Association to grant a wage advance of ten per cent. on that date. It is the general opinion here that the unions will vote in favor of a walkout. Many of the operatives are French-Canadian.

The wages of the Fall River operatives were advanced five per cent. last winter and ten per cent. last spring.

AUSTRALIAN OFFICIALS OPPOSE CONSCRIPTION

Three Resign Their Offices, but Outlook is that Affirmative Side will Win in Today's Balloting.

London, Oct. 27.—A despatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from Melbourne says that M. Higgins, minister of the treasury of the Commonwealth; A. Gardiner, vice-president of the executive council, and A. J. Russell, assistant minister of marine, have resigned. It is understood, the correspondent adds, that they are opposed to conscription.

Official reports from all the states, says the correspondent, forecast a victory for conscription.

A referendum is to be held in Australia Saturday on the question of compulsory military service.

CARDINAL GIBBONS ENJOYS COMPLIMENT

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 27.—Cardinal Gibbons and Jacob Epstein, a wealthy merchant of Baltimore, indulged in a little private dialogue at a banquet recently of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. The interchange was greatly enjoyed by those who heard it, and by some more than the Cardinal himself. Mr. Epstein sat next to the Cardinal.

"Said Mr. Epstein—"Your Eminence, you are looking very well."

"Yes," said the Cardinal, "but it will not be very long before the Heavenly Father takes me before Him."

"Pardon me, your Eminence," said Mr. Epstein, "but in my judgment the good Lord is too good a business man to let a gift edge bond like you go for 80 or 90. He will keep you until you reach par at 100, and possibly until you are at a premium."

Roumanians Struggling Desperately to Repel Two Teutonic Armies

Field Marshal Von Mackensen and Gen. Von Falkenhayn Continue Drives—Bad Weather Hampers Operations on Somme—French Repel Violent Attacks of Enemy in Verdun Region.

Roumania, caught in the grip of two invading forces of the Central Powers, is still struggling desperately to ward off the incessant attacks of Field Marshal Von Mackensen and General von Falkenhayn. Advancing northward in Dobruja Von Mackensen's troops have reached a line running from Hirsova, on the Danube, to Casapkeul, on the Black Sea coast, from forty to sixty miles from where they crossed the Constanta-Tehernavoda railway line. The capture of Hirsova would give to the Teutonic Allies the advantage of having little marshy ground to traverse, should they attempt to make a crossing of the river here into Old Roumania, as the low lying ground virtually disappears for some distance around Hirsova.

forces in the Jul Valley, which is situated in the Vulcan Pass region. The Russo-Roumanian forces to the north have repulsed Austro-German attacks, while in the Usul Valley the Roumanians continue to advance and in the region of Okna have occupied a height and a village.

Inclement weather is hampering the operations on the Somme and Macedonian fronts, and only bombardments have taken place in these regions.

Germans Repulsed.

Another attempt by the Germans at an attack west of the village of Douaumont, in the Verdun region, was checked by the French curtain of fire. The Germans are still heavily bombarding all the newly won positions of the French in this region.

On the eastern front in Russia there has been little fighting except in the region of the Shara river, northwest of Pinsk. Near Golovitchi a German attack forced the Russians to retire to the eastern bank of the Shara.

ROLLING FIRE OF FRENCH SHATTERS GERMAN HOST IN REGION OF VERDUN

Carrier Pigeon Captured at Fort Douaumont Bears a Message Telling of Havoc Wrought by Terrific Bombardment—Garrison Disorganized—New German Loan.

Paris, Oct. 27.—A German carrier pigeon was captured by the French at Fort Douaumont during the fighting in the region of Verdun on Tuesday. It carried the following message: "The rolling fire of the enemy with guns of the heaviest calibre is such that sectors C and H are to a great extent levelled. The garrison, including that of Sector V, is disorganized completely. Some of it has been obliged to fall back on the 83rd and 98th regiments, which also had to retire.

Sector V (Von Raun's) was subjected to such a fire that its observation post was put out of order. All sorties are being abandoned, and one is occupied constantly in replacing them.

"The battalion demands its immediate relief this evening by fresh troops. It can fight no longer.

(Sgd.) "First Lieut. Steinbrecht."

NEW GERMAN WAR LOAN

Berlin, Oct. 27, via Sayville.—A new war credit bill for twelve billion marks was submitted to the Reichstag today by Count Von Roedern, secretary of the imperial treasury, who also reviewed the successes of the German war finances, and compared them with the practices followed by the countries opposed to Germany. Count Von Roedern stated that the total German war credits up to now amounted to fifty-two billion marks.

Count Von Roedern said the subscriptions to the fifth loan had amounted to 10,652,000,000 marks. He said that the number of subscribers was about 4,000,000 and, therefore, the fifth war loan must be called a "people's loan."

Count Von Roedern stated that payments on the fifth war loan, the first instalment of which was due on October 18, had today reached 8,500,000,000 marks. He said that less than three per cent. of the amount paid had been subscribed by loan institutes. Much credit for the success of the loans, he asserted, was due to the increase of the saving capacity of the German people. During the first eight months of 1916 savings banks showed increases of 1,710,000,000 marks in deposits, exclusive of the amounts subscribed in the war loan.

The imperial treasury then compared Germany's system of obtaining new capital with that used in Great Britain, declaring that the discount rate of the Bank of England had been fixed at six per cent., while the German Reichsbank had been able to maintain a five per cent. standard since December, 1914.

Marine Captains Prisoners

London, Oct. 27 (2.30 p. m.)—According to a wireless despatch from Zurich today a German official note announces that, in conformity with article 100 of the German naval code, the German naval authorities have decided to regard as prisoners all captains of merchant vessels captured from the British, French, Russian and Italians, alleging that these captains receive instructions from their respective governments to carry on espionage.

Vienna Reports "Progress"

Vienna, Oct. 27, via London.—The official communication issued today by the Austro-Hungarian general headquarters says: "Our attacks north of Campulung (Romania) and south of Predel, made progress. East of the Hungarian-Roumanian frontier enemy counter-attacks were repulsed. Our troops took a Russian vantage point on a height near Charu Dornel (on the Roumanian frontier south of Dorna Watra) and Russian counter-attacks failed.

"Front of Prince Leopold: There is nothing to report.

"Italian theatre: Enemy artillery and mine-throwers have been active against our positions on the Carso Plateau and behind it sometimes with great violence."

German Foreign Policy

London, Oct. 27.—The German Reichstag, by a vote of 302 to 31, authorized the budget committee to meet during the adjournment of the Reichstag for a discussion of Germany's foreign policy and the war, says Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent.

BRITISH VESSEL SUNK IN CHANNEL ATTACK

Two German Torpedo Boat Destroyers Sunk—British Torpedo Boat Destroyer Missing and Another Run Ashore to Prevent Her Sinking.

BERLIN AS USUAL CLAIMS THAT MUCH GREATER DAMAGE WAS INFLICTED ON BRITISH TRANSPORT SERVICE BY THE HUN FLEET.

London, Oct. 27.—In an engagement in the English Channel between British and German torpedo boat destroyers two German destroyers were sunk, while the British lost a transport. In addition a British torpedo boat destroyer is missing and another was run aground, after it had been disabled by a torpedo.

Ten German torpedo boat destroyers attempted to raid the cross channel transport service last night, but the attempt failed, says an official statement issued by the British Admiralty today. Two of the German destroyers were sunk and the others were driven off. The German destroyers succeeded in sinking one empty transport, the Queen. All the members of her crew were saved.

ed from a German base Thursday night through the Straits of Dover and Calais to the line of Folkestone-Boulogne, in the English Channel.

"According to the report of Commander Michelsen, at least eleven out-post steamers and two or three destroyers or torpedo boats were sunk partially or totally near hostile ports. Some members of the crews who were saved were captured.

"Several other guarding vessels, and at least two destroyers, were heavily damaged by torpedoes and artillery fire. Also the English post steamer Queen was sunk south of Folkestone, the crew having time to leave the ship.

"In the channel near the Farns Lightship there was a strikingly active traffic by hospital ships.

"Our torpedo boats safely returned to German waters without any loss."

The Berlin Version

Berlin, Oct. 27, via London, Oct. 25.—At least eleven out-post steamers and two or three torpedo boat destroyers or torpedo boats were sunk or damaged by a German torpedo boat squadron Thursday night in the English Channel, between Folkestone and Boulogne, according to an official communication issued here. The German torpedo boats returned safely to its base without any loss.

The communication says: "Parts of our torpedo forces mov-

SWEDEN PROTESTS TO PETROGRAD

Wants no Mines Planted in Gulf of Bosnia and will Hold Russia Responsible for Damages.

Berlin, Oct. 27, via Sayville.—"The Swedish government has instructed its minister at Petrograd to protest immediately against the Russian intention to place mines in Swedish territorial waters," says the Overseas News Agency. The minister also was instructed to announce that the Swedish government in due time will bring forward all claims for damages caused by such mines.

"This step resulted from the order recently issued by the Russian government for the placing of mines in particular sections of the Gulf of Bothnia."

STUDENT HELD FOR FIRE IN COLLEGE

Special to The Standard.
Chatham, Oct. 27.—The trial of Etienne Levesque, charged with setting fire to St. Thomas College, occupied the police court Thursday and today, resulting in the accused being sent up for trial. Levesque is eighteen and had been a student of the college for some time. There was no direct testimony against the prisoner. Rev. Father Roach and four students were the witnesses. R. A. Lawlor represented Levesque and Clerk of the Peace Whelan of Newcastle the crown.

WILL BUILD TWO STEAMERS.

Toronto, Oct. 27.—The keels of two freighters for transatlantic service between New York and Norway will be laid tomorrow at the Polson Iron and Shipbuilding Yards. The two vessels will cost about $1,200,000.

LT. BRUCE McFARLANE TRANSFERRED TO PATS

Sergeant Major Pearson Goes to Halifax—St. John Casualties.

Lieut. R. Bruce McFarlane, who went overseas with the 140th Battalion, in a letter to his sister, Mrs. A. H. Woods, of Fredericton, states that he has been attached to the 108th Battalion for instruction, but is to go to the front with the members of the 140th Battalion who are to join the Princess Pats.

Sergeant Major Pearson to Halifax. Company Sergeant Major Pearson, formerly a member of Major Good's company at Valcartier, is to be transferred to Halifax for instructional purposes. He has been attached to the 165th Battalion as instructor.

Sergeant Major Crawford Killed. Sergeant Major Merton Crawford, who made many friends in St. John while stationed here with the 8th C. M. R., has been killed in action. The official announcement to this effect has been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Crawford, of Goshen, Queens county. He entered the ranks as a private and by his ability and excellent conduct won the rank of sergeant-major.

Sergeant George S. Sears Missing. Sergeant George S. Sears, with next of kin in St. Mary's appears in the casualty list as missing. Sergeant Sears served for several years with "H" Company, Royal Canadian Rifles.

On the outbreak of the war he left with "H" company for St. John and from there went to Halifax. He served with the R. C. R. at Bermuda and also went to England with that unit.

Corporal Smith in Ireland. Sergeant John J. Smith of the local police force received a letter from his son, Corporal Wm. D. Smith, who was recently wounded in action. He is in Dublin Castle Hospital, suffering from shrapnel wounds in face, arms and legs.

A letter received by Mrs. P. J. Shelley, of 68 Moore street, has greatly relieved her anxiety regarding her husband, who was reported wounded some time ago, and from whom she has not since heard. The letter was the kindly act of an English girl who was visiting the wounded in the No. 9 hospital in Rouen, France, where she met Mr. Shelley who asked her to write to his wife. The letter conveys the good news that the patient is decidedly on the mend, although still suffering from the effects of a bad wound in the knee joint and subsequent illness. The writer says that she has seldom met so brave a soldier. "He is wonderful and never complains," she adds. Hope is held out that Mr. Shelley may be able to return to his home and family before the winter is over.

Mrs. Thomas Madden, of 60 Brooks street, is in receipt of a letter from the Canadian Red Cross Society of London, England, stating that a member of that organization has visited her husband, Private Thomas Madden, who is there suffering from wounds received at Courcellette. The letter states that he is doing very well, and although suffering a good deal is making satisfactory progress.

TWO MORE SHOOTING ACCIDENTS IN MAINE

Two more shooting accidents, making five in Eastern Maine in two weeks, occurred within the past two days. In one case, however, no person was injured although a horse was killed. Near Ashland, Arthur Rafford, aged 20, while on a hunting expedition was killed in some way by his own gun, a bullet entering his abdomen and another through the head. After he was shot in the abdomen accidentally he dragged himself for some distance and apparently the rifle, which he still held, went off a second time, with the fatal effect.

On the road between Wesley and Crawford, near Calais, a horse driven by Mannie Jeffries, of Crawford, was shot by a party in an automobile. Whether the motorists mistook the horse for a deer in the semi-darkness is not known. Mr. Jeffries is minus a valuable horse but considers his own escape some compensation. The authorities have been unable to learn the names of the joy-riders.

Harvesters Return. A large squad of harvesters returned from the west yesterday on the Pacific express. Many of the men had been in Saskatchewan, where they had there was a snowfall of four inches just before they left. There were several New Brunswick men in the party, but the majority are in Nova Scotia and will cross the bay on the Empress this morning. The men remarked that St. John weather as they found it was a pleasant surprise to them after experiencing wintry conditions in the west.

Runaway Boys Captured. The two boys who escaped from the Boys' Industrial Home some time ago have been captured and were taken back to the Home yesterday.

GOOD WORK DONE IN SETTLEMENT PROVINCE

Farm Settlement Board Activity has Contributed Largely to Prosperity of "The Bay Road."

As an instance of the work which has been done by the Farm Settlement Board in the placing of settlers on uncultivated farms in New Brunswick, a member of that board pointed out yesterday to a representative of The Standard what had been accomplished on what is known as the Bay Road which runs from St. Stephen to Oak Bay.

Three years ago more than half the farms on that road were uncultivated and the buildings falling into decay. Today on that same road there is not a vacant farm and it is a different looking country altogether, the buildings have been repaired and painted, and the district looks prosperous. As far as he knew there was only one vacant farm within a radius of three miles of St. Stephen. The crops in that part of the province had been fairly good with the exception of potatoes and apples which were light, and the prices realized had been high for all classes of farm produce.

LUMBERMEN OF N.B. AND MAINE ORGANIZE

First International Association of Kind Formed in Maine—R. H. McWilliams of Stetson Cutler & Co., President.

Lumbermen of New Brunswick and Maine have formed an organization to be known as the Eastern Lumbermen's Association. The membership rolls were signed by twenty-five of those present at a meeting in Bangor on Thursday. The officers are: President, R. H. McWilliams of Stetson, Cutler & Co.; Vice-president, A. W. Brown of the St. John River Lumber Co.; Secretary, Wm. H. Cutler of Bangor; Treasurer, W. A. Finnigan of Bangor.

Executive committee: Samuel H. Boardman of the Guilford Mfg. Co.; Wm. H. Murphy, of Old Town, Me.; Geo. Merrill, of Patten, Me.; Mr. Cobb, of Calais; John Rainey, of Portage Lake; John Morrison, of Fredericton, N. B.; S. J. Hinch of Danforth, Me. About fifty interested in the lumber business were present. Any operators, manufacturers of lumber and wholesalers in northern New England and the Maritime Provinces are eligible for membership.

The purposes of the association are mutual protection, better acquaintance and co-operation to better conditions. It is felt that the association will result in a more complete harmony than would be possible under former conditions, when individual action was the rule. This is said to be the first international organization of the kind ever formed in Maine.

NO NEED OF CONFLICT BETWEEN U.S. AND JAPAN

Judge Gary of United States Steel Corporation Tells of His Visit to Island Empire.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 27.—There is not now and need not ever be any trouble between Japan and the United States worth going to war over, Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the Board of Directors of the United States Steel Corporation, declared today at the semi-annual meeting of the American Iron and Steel Institute. Judge Gary has just returned from a tour of the orient.

"Whenever either government has decided to provide an additional warship some one in the other country has been prompt in charging that this meant preparation for war between the two nations," he said. "I told the Japanese that American people did not want and would stubbornly oppose war with the Japanese, except in self defense. The controlling men of Japan, judging from the statements made to me, are also anxious for continued peace with the United States."

ADVERTISERS DECLARE AGAINST PREMIUMS

Price of One Cent Newspaper May have to be Doubled—The Advertiser's Burden.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the Association of Canadian Advertisers was held here today. A strong sentiment was expressed by the members against advertising in publications offering premiums.

It was pointed out by some of the members that it was not unlikely that the price of newspapers would have to be increased, one cent dailies being advanced to two cents owing to the greatly increased cost of publication. It was contended that at present seventy-five per cent. of the cost of production was borne by the advertiser, which was an unfair proposition.

Public Bequests in Will. Acadia University and the University of Mount Allison are beneficiaries to the amount of $500 each under the will of W. Albert Smith of Sackville, which has been filed for probate at Dorchester. The bequest to Mount Allison is for the purpose of assisting the institution to establish a professorship for a course in agriculture. The remainder of the large estate is distributed among a dozen or more relatives and personal friends.

Indigestion Resulted From an Inactive Liver

The Bowels Became Constipated and the Whole Digestive System Upset.

With many people constipation becomes a habit. And it is a dangerous habit which is certain sooner or later to cause serious disease.

"Daily movement of the bowels" is the first and most important rule of health. When the liver becomes torpid the flow of bile into the intestines is stopped and the bowels become constipated. But you can readily overcome this condition by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. There is no treatment obtainable which so promptly awakens the activity of the liver and bowels and thereby corrects derangements of the digestive system.

Mrs. Herbert-Doherty, of Beaver Brook, Albert Co., N. B., writes: "I can truthfully say that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a great medicine for constipation. I have suffered from constipation ever since I can remember, but got to using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and was so benefited that I began to study this malady. I found that the indigestion resulted from a bad case of inactive liver, and as soon as I got the liver working right I didn't have any stomach trouble or indigestion. I cannot praise this medicine too highly, and would advise anyone suffering from indigestion or constipation to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. My husband also claims that these pills have done him more good than any medicine he ever used. You are at liberty to use this letter."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills positively relieve and cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, backache and kidney disease. Put it to the test. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edman-son, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

"Do It Now" Is Slogan For Those Who Will Send Gifts to Fighting Men

Parcels for Boys at Front Must be Sent Off Soon and Packed Securely, So a Word to the Wise is to Get Busy and Shop Early.

"Shop early" is a good rule for any year, but it was never such a good rule as this special year when we are told that parcels for the boys at the front must be sent off soon in order that the ones so far away may receive their remembrances from their friends in time for Christmas.

Not only do we want to shop early but we want to shop with a heart full of the thoughts of what those soldiers have done for us. Having realized that we will not stop at the one parcel for the boy we know well, but will pack and send as many as we possibly can to all the boys we know, and you need not stop there either. The Soldiers' Comfort Association is a medium through which you may send a package to the poor chap who has no friends, no one to mail him the gift tied with holly ribbon and fastened with Santa Claus seals that add the personal touch to the present. Men are only grown up boys after all, and though they may make fun of the "fussy" things, they like them just the same and an attractive pretty parcel must be a joyful sight in a trench. As to the contents of these parcels you have a long list of things suitable for a soldier to choose from. Remember he likes not only edibles (but he only a grown-up boy) and smokes, but cooking outfits, the ever acceptable socks, mufflers, helmets, etc., things to write with, paper to write you on all sorts of nice toilet articles, stories to read in his all too few spare moments, games, cards, mending outfits and things that remind him of home. Elsewhere on this page will be found particulars of suitable presents. The more love and good wishes you can pack in the better for they do not take up any room nor add weight to the parcel, but they are after all the gift most appreciated. "For the lone soldier" is the address for that kind of a package and I doubt if you will find any greater pleasure in any of your pursuits than you will have when you put on the last seal on that kind of a Christmas present.

OCTOBER'S BRIGHT BLUE WEATHER.

Suns and skies and clouds of June. And flowers of June together, Ye cannot rival for one hour October's bright blue weather.

When gentians roll their fringes tight To save them for the morning, And chestnuts fall from satin burrs Without a sound of warning;

When on the ground red apples lie In piles like jewels shining, And redder still on old stone walls Are leaves of woodbine twining.

When comrades seek sweet country haunts By twos and twos together, And count as misers count their gold October's bright blue weather. —Helen Hunt Jackson.

This poem is an annual affair with me. Just as sure as October comes round I find myself repeating these verses. I'm always so glad I saw gentians "look through fringed lids to heaven." This was my "last chance to have this poem for a Saturday, so please enjoy it with me.

The annual meeting of the Women's Canadian Club will be held on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the schoolroom of St. David's church, Sydney street. The first part of the evening will be devoted to an address by Major C. R. Giegie of the 236th Battalion and formerly of the 10th Bat-

Not the veiled Prophet of Lhasa (or somewhere like that), but the fashionably veiled lady of Autumn, 1916. It has its advantages, this bewitchingly concealing, revealing veil.

The meeting will close at an hour that will allow the ladies holding tickets for the entertainment to be given later in the evening by the 180th Battalion at the Imperial Theatre to get there in good time.

FREDERICTON JUNCTION WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

A most enjoyable meeting was held in the Agricultural Hall, Fredericton Junction, on Tuesday last, when the Women's Institute entertained the ladies from the Hoyt Station branch of the Institute. The programme consisted of songs by Miss Belyea, recitation by Mrs. Murray, readings by Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. Danby and a paper entitled "Who is the Happiest Woman in the World?" by Mrs. Geo. Smith.

The reports given during the evening show that all are busy with patriotic work. Last week twenty-one boxes well filled with good things for Christmas, were sent to the Junction boys who are serving their country at the front.

During the year 162 pairs of socks, besides hospital shirts, pyjama suits, towels, etc., have been sent through the Red Cross and Soldiers' Comfort Societies and a prisoner of war is being supported in Germany.

Hamilton Women's Canadian Club. At the regular meeting of the Women's Canadian club on Monday last, in the Conservatory of Music Mr. Sanford Evans gave an address on Human Nature in War time.—Hamilton Herald.

Embroidered Neckwear.

Embroidered neckwear is very modish, but as the addition of handwork means an increase in the price of ready made wear, it behooves the economical and progressive girl to do her own embroidering.

A very attractive collar in the popular rectangular shape can be made of sheer white lawn. To the edge of the collar sew five lace insertion. At regular intervals around the edges of the collar embroider colored dots. So many new models are made of net. The material is well liked because, it is soft and becoming and launders exceptionally well, if carefully done. Or a collar of net one could easily embroider tiny five or six petalled flowers. If one is as clever, the design can be original, but if one needs a pattern, one can use a section of a design found in any embroidery book.

Crocheted beading can be used successfully to beautify a collar. This, in connection with hand embroidery, would greatly multiply the value of a collar.

A very unique and effective collar can be made from a square of net, around which is joined an embroidered band of lawn or linen. To the edge of the lawn a lace edge can be joined to further elaborate the model. If one has not the time nor the ability to cut out one's neckwear, the next best thing is to buy ready-made models and elaborate them. Or, as one woman frequently does, a machine-embroidered neckpiece can be bought and hand stitches can be placed over the machine ones, the latter forming a padding for the final stitches.

About Libelling Your Dear Aunt.

W. L. George, the English essayist and novelist, has been writing in the current Harper's on the decay of the home. He arrives at an abuse of relatives which nobody should mind if it were confined to generalities. It is when he comes to specifications that he provokes wrath and proves himself to be either no nephew at all or a most unlucky one.

The well-informed and the experienced know that wicked and hateful aunts exist only in books about ogres. In real life, aunts, not to mention allied uncles, are second only to grandpas and grandmas in the loving work of spoiling the children of their brothers and sisters. Yet Mr. George tells us that "however high you may rise, your aunt will never see it."

Is there a community in which one woman is ever waiting watchfully to be neighbor, friend and helper to those who need neighboring and befriending in the worst way? Whose heart and whose generous larder alike are hospitably open? Who can sing anybody's any evil, or charm anybody's older toes with fairy tales? Who is the confidante of every village lover and the comfort of every village prodigal? Well, then, she is Aunt Susan, or Aunt Mary, or Aunt Whatever; and if she has one niece or nephew, and if they have done anything at all, it is something better than any other niece or nephew ever have done, and her praise of them pervades and prevails like sunshine.

If Mr. George is going to keep on abusing members of the family, prudence will bid him let the aunts alone.

Making Over Voices.

Wellesley College is considering the establishment of a compulsory course in proper speaking for Wellesley girls. The plan is to begin an enduring campaign to exterminate the famous Yankee twang, and put in its place the pleasing "broad 'a' of the English woman.

Making over the voice of the American woman is substantially what is under consideration, says the Banor Commercial. The girls will be taught to talk, not through their noses, but through their larynxes; they will be taught to emphasize speech by carefully modulated inflections instead of by shrill and excited exclamations.

To Identify Your Trunk.

The New York Evening Sun gives this practical advice about marking trunks. Mark a bag or trunk with a marker of red, so that in identifying your baggage among that of dozens of others you can instantly point it out to the baggage man by saying "That one with the red crescent," or "that one with the red ball."

Sounded Like It.

"It was a very impressive funeral," said old Mrs. Blunderby; "and the minister delivered such a splendid paragonic over the deceased."—Boston Transcript.

NO CHANCE FOR FUN.

Little Bobby: "Ma, will I go to heaven when I die?"
Mother: "If you are a good boy, you will."
"Will you go, too?"
"I hope so, Bobby."
"And will you?"
"Yes, we shall all be there."
Bobby didn't seem altogether satisfied, but, after some thought, he said: "I don't see how I'm going to have much fun."

FRENCH LINE STEAMER ON FIRE AT SEA

Chicago, from Bordeaux for New York with 265 Passengers, Puts Into Foyal, Azores.

New York, Oct. 27.—The French line steamship Chicago, which left Bordeaux, Oct. 22, for New York, with 190 passengers aboard, caught fire at sea and put into Foyal, Azores, today, according to advices received here today by the Maritime Exchange, through Lloyd's. The Chicago is a ship of 10,600 tons, and was built in 1908. The passengers on board were in no immediate danger.

The Chicago carried only second and third class passengers, in addition to freight. The day she sailed the line here was advised she had 167 cabin and 88 stowage on board. The ship carries, in addition, a crew of about 200.

GERMANS SINK MORE VESSELS

British Steamer Huntfaul Sent to Bottom and Norwegian Vessel Burned.

London, Oct. 27.—Lloyd's shipping agency announces that the steamer Rowanmore has been sunk.
The Rowanmore was a ship of 10,320 tons gross register. She was built at Glasgow in 1900 for the Johnston Line, for Gulf and South Atlantic cotton carrying trade, having a capacity for 24,000 bales of cotton. She was last reported as having cleared from Baltimore for Liverpool on Oct. 13.
Steamer Skog Sunk.
London, Oct. 27.—The sinking of the steamer Skog is also announced by Lloyd's.
Two More Vessels Gone.
Washington, Oct. 27.—Sinking of the British steamer Huntfaul by a submarine and the burning of the Norwegian steamer Severs are added to the list of maritime disasters in the war zone by today's Lloyd's report, forwarded to the state department from London.

FILES LABEL SUIT.

Boston, Oct. 26.—A libel seeking damages of $127,000 was filed in the federal court Wednesday against the U S government by Clarence N Meyers of Searsport, Maine, and others, owners of the barkentine Mabel E Meyers, which was sunk in a collision with the Nebraska off Cape Cod on July 30, 1915. A special act of Congress enabled the owners of the vessel to bring suit against the government.
The bill stated that the barkentine was on her way from Barbados to Portland, Maine, with a cargo of molasses when she was run into by the battleship in a fog at night and sunk. The entire cargo and the effects of the master and crew were lost, it is alleged. The crew was taken off in boats from the Nebraska.

SCHOONER NOTES.

A London despatch says: Sch P W Sprague, Oran, from Naples, Oct 11, for Gulfport, has returned to Naples with masts damaged.

DEVICES SYSTEM OF BLOODLESS SURGERY

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—Painless and bloodless surgery by means of a system of nerve blocking and pressure on the arteries was one of the many delicate operations which held the attention today of members of the Clinical Congress of Surgeons of North America, in annual session here. Dr. P. G. Skillern, Jr., of this city, operating on a subject for the removal of a tumor in the head, demonstrated a method by which the patient, though conscious, was insensible to pain.
The system consisted of blocking or strangling the nerve leading from the brain to the seat of affection with an injection of a drug, regarded by surgeons as superior to and safer than cocaine, to arrest pain impulses to the brain. The stoppage of blood loss was accomplished by pressure on the arteries with a metallic clip, sometimes with a rubber band, and frequently by the finger of an assistant.

A NEW LAW.

A new law in Norway and effective this week forbids Norwegian subjects to place contracts for new tonnage in foreign shipbuilding yards, according to cable advices just received in this country. There are now building or contracted for in American yards for Norwegians at least 150 vessels, and they have acquired some 60 old American vessels. The total number of contracts for steel merchant vessels now in American yards is 417, the Bureau of Navigation reports, or about three-eighths of the total.

PEARSON'S MAGAZINE IS SUPPRESSED IN CANADA

Special to The Standard.
Ottawa, Oct. 27.—Pearson's Magazine, published in New York city, has been prohibited from circulation in Canada. This magazine which was at one time the American edition of the English magazine of that name, has fallen into the hands of anti-British parties who have changed the character of the publication.

COL. CLARK SWORN IN.

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—Col. Hugh Clark, M. P. for North Bruce, was sworn in today as parliamentary secretary of external affairs and will immediately enter upon the duties of his position under Sir Robert Borden.
The work of this branch has increased very materially since the war began. It is the channel of all communications with the imperial and other governments. The office is not one of emolument and so a by-election will not be necessary.

LATE SPORTING NEWS AND VIEWS

ST. JOHN HIGH WINS FROM FREDERICTON

A large crowd of spectators was present to witness a football game on the Shamrock Grounds, between the St. John High School team and the Fredericton High School team, the visitors losing to St. John by a score of 9 to 0. Two of the three touchdowns made were won in the first half by Wilson and Donnelly respectively. The last touch down was also made by Donnelly. The St. John line-up was: Pull back, Seely; front line, Hatfield and Cross; centre line, Les He Mitchell; 2nd line scrimmage, Robertson and Humphrey; 3rd line scrimmage, Whelpley and Wilson; quarter line, Jordan, Taylor and White; half line, Capt. Donnelly, Angus, Russell and Flemming.

The Fredericton line-up: Full back, Hagerman; halves, W. Howie, J. Howie, McAdam and Niles; quarters, Cain, K. McAdam and Lonsbury; forwards, McFarland, Porter, Jamier, M. Cain, Peacock, Donovan, Hagerman, Spares, Bridges and Walker.

Last night the players were in attendance at the Boys' Work Conference in Centenary church school room.

The Fredericton team will play the Rothersey College team this afternoon at Rothersey.

DETAILS OF MONDAY NIGHT'S ENTERTAINMENT

The details of Monday night's entertainment at the Imperial have been completed, and everything is now in readiness for St. John's biggest night at the theatre.

Tickets can now be secured at the Imperial box office.

Today a float on which the band of the battalion will be seated will be drawn through the city to advertise the 18th entertainment.

Captain Planacan told The Standard last night that it seemed a pity that there are not a few boxers in the 16th Battalion to meet the scrappers from the sportsmen's battalion here at the show at the Imperial Theatre on Monday night. While the boys in Colonel Greer's battalion are not at all adverse to battling each other the inter-battalion rivalry engendered by the bouts between the boys from rival battalions always create high tension enthusiasm.

The card arranged for Monday night's entertainment looks good enough to draw a big crowd from the battalion alone. For instance, Lunny Johnson, who boxes in the main bout against Teddy Picton, is the present 145 pound amateur champion of Canada, and one of the best welters Canada ever produced. Yet Picton, who is a veteran in the game, refuses to acknowledge his supremacy. Johnson is a boxer, while Picton is a fighter. Johnson stands off at long range, while Picton wants to stand toe to toe

New "Smelting" Area.

A new "smelting" area has been discovered and right in the heart of the metropolis—in the Union Depot. Passengers leaving last night for points east, were surprised upon entering the train sheds to see a man busily engaged in shovelling smelts into a barrel. Upon closer observation, however, they found that the supply was limited to one barrel. The barrel had fallen from the truck.

THE KILTIES U.N.B. TEAM PLAY TODAY

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, Oct. 27.—Tomorrow afternoon at the University of New Brunswick College field, the first senior game of the season will be played between the U. N. B. fifteen and the Kilties. The University players have been in practice for some time, while the soldiers have had little opportunity for team work. However, a good game is promised.

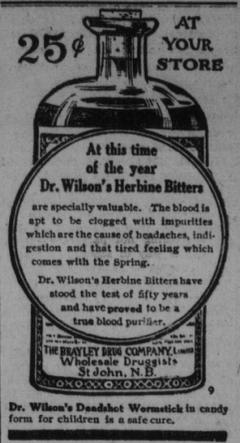

The probable line-up of the Kilties will be: Forwards, Corp. Barry, Lieut. Wetmore, Sgt. Wrenn, Pte. Simonds, Pte. J. Allen, Corp. Murphy, Pte. Sloan, Quarters, Pte. Riley, Lieut. Humphrey, Capt. Mersereau, Halves, Capt. Godfrey, Sgt. Kuhring, Pte. Skeggs, Pte. George Allen. Full back, Major Rider.

in a one hundred miles contest for the American championship. At present it looks as if Johnny Aitken, winner of the last Astor Cup race, and Dario Resta have an edge on their competitors and will probably fight it out for first place. Both will drive cars that are capable of turning laps at a speed of more than one hundred and ten miles an hour, and each driver declares his car is in shape to go the distance of the contest without trouble.

In addition to a $10,000 purse for the leading six cars at the finish, Harry S. Harkness, president of the speedway and donor of the trophy, has set aside $2,650 to be distributed as prizes for the cars leading at the end of the various laps after ten miles have been run. Of these prizes the driver will take seventy per cent, and the mechanic will get thirty per cent.

FIGHTER SQUIRES TO ENLIST

A despatch from Sydney, Australia, states that William Squires, a farmer of Tamworth, in that state (New South Wales), is about to enlist in the Australian expeditionary forces.

William Squires is none other than "Bosker Bill" Squires, one-time Australian heavyweight, whose pugilistic aspirations were swiftly and summarily ended by a punch on the jaw in California a few years back.

Squires is far from being a failure in life. After quitting pugilism he went in for agriculture, and he is leaving a valuable piece of property to his children. He has been successful at Goonoo Goonoo Creek, a dozen miles from Tamworth. A firm of real estate agents at Tamworth were the first to make known that "Bosker Bill" had decided to turn soldier. They have effected what is called a "walk-in-walk-out" sale of his Ascot farm, the buyer being a Mr. Norton. The Ascot farm comprises 706 acres of alfalfa wheat, and crazing land, and it is acknowledged to be one of the finest mixed areas in the Peel River public land section. Squires won the property at a ballot in 1909.

Another boxer-farmer who has enlisted is Arthur C. Gripps, middle-weight champion of Queensland.

NEWS AND COMMENT FROM THE FINANCIAL WORLD

WALL STREET WANTS HUGHES?

Betting is Even, However, and Apparently Certain Large Financial Interests in Alliance with Republicans are Getting Ready to Spring Something.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.) New York, Oct. 27.—Sentiment in the street with regard to the election shows a tendency to view the trend as having again been resumed toward Hughes, whether or not the betting shows it or whether or not market commitments of consequence are being made based on that outlook.

The breaks in Cotton and Wheat are being associated with the realising in stocks. It is said large operators have been committed heavily in all these markets and have been lightening their loads generally.

NEW STOCK MARKET PLAN IN MONTREAL

North American Pulp & Paper Co. to Market Million Shares Under System Never Before Tried Out in Canada.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Oct. 27.—The local market is now to have its first experience with the shares of a company issued on the no par value principle that the interests connected with the North American Pulp and Paper Co. are making a market for a million shares of that character, which are worth just what the earnings and the market make them.

This seems to suggest a method by which some companies which are apparently worried by a huge par value capitalization might get rid of the load. There are several of these in Canada, and it is thought the principle might be worked to advantage in their case.

BUOYANT WALL STREET MARKET

Indications of Revival of Public Interest, Although Professionals will Dominate Trading—Several New High Records.

New York, Oct. 27.—There were indications in today's trading, the broadest and most active since Monday, of a revival of public interest, that element having been conspicuously lacking for almost a fortnight.

Professionals dominated the market, however, this being clearly demonstrated by the activity of pools and cliques in the low-priced rails and the specialties embraced in the sugar and paper, leather and minor industrial groups.

NEW BRITISH LOAN DECIDEDLY POPULAR

Outlook is that it will be Over-subscribed More Hastily than Previous Issues—Canada Sends Million in Gold to U.S.

New York, Oct. 27.—In less than two weeks $50,000,000 of British gold has come into this country, most of it from Canada. The movement has synchronized with the negotiations for the new $300,000,000 British credit.

With call money on stock exchange collateral at 2 1/2 per cent, yesterday and time yield at 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 per cent, well over the year, all the bankers who participated in the $250,000,000 United Kingdom note issue and who are taking part in the new $300,000,000 issue of the same character were besieged with applications for participation.

BETHLEHEM STEEL AT NEW HIGH MARK

Mr. Schwab Doing Some Business—Market Generally Strong—British War Loan to be Offered Monday

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.) New York, Oct. 27.—The market was strong throughout a good part of the day, although irregularly with evidence in some issues.

News of the naval fight in the North Sea in which two German destroyers were sunk had something of a stimulating effect on the market, but later it was learned that the British had also suffered considerable loss and there was some reaction in the standard issues.

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved."—H.M. The King. TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

OUR DEBT TO THE BRITISH NAVY

At the present time Canadian wheat is worth about $1.85 per bushel and is said to be headed toward the $2 mark. In Russia wheat is worth about 50 cents a bushel, yet the Russian wheat is of high quality and has competed with the Canadian output for the markets of the world. A very large part of the difference in price between the product of the Canadian wheat fields and that of the great wheat areas of our ally is directly due to the fact that the sea lanes to the world markets have been kept open for Canadian and American wheat by the absolute supremacy of the British navy.

The necessity for this supremacy is obviously apparent. Suppose that one of the attempts of the German navy to break through Jellicoe's cordon in the North Sea had been even partially successful, and half a dozen of their cruisers had escaped into the Atlantic. They might have paralyzed trade and commerce between this continent and the old world and have prevented the landing of troops and supplies for the motherland. Today, however, and uninterrupted since the commencement of the war, the Atlantic has been an open road to be traversed in safety. True there have been isolated cases when through piratical and unrecognized methods the enemy has succeeded in sending to the bottom of the ocean commerce carrying ships, yet such losses are infinitesimal when compared with the volume of traffic daily carried from this continent to the Motherland.

Canada has benefitted from the protection of the British navy. Canada should be represented in that navy. We had an opportunity for that representation to take the form of ships of a class and character that would have been found in the front rank of the Empire's naval forces. Through the ill-advised action of the parliamentary and Senatorial representatives of the Liberal party that honor was denied to us but there is now an opportunity to be represented by our men.

This country has done well in the supply of soldiers to the Empire's armies and those soldiers have won undying fame by their valor and ability. Through arrangements which have been perfected by the Naval Department of the Canadian Government we can now have our own fleet and blood fighting for the Empire in the navy as they have done in the army. It is the duty of Canadians to encourage recruiting in the navy, and we can do so most heartily for the scheme outlined by Hon. Mr. Hazen's department makes the most liberal provisions in the way of maintenance, pay and separation allowances. Men who join the Canadian contingent in the British navy will receive the same pay and allowances as men in the army and will have the satisfaction of knowing that they are "doing their bit" for the Empire in a most effective manner.

THE PREMIER'S APPEAL.

Sir Robert Borden, in one of the most notable utterances Canadians have ever heard, has appealed to the manhood of this country to contribute still more largely to the Empire's armies, and to the women of Canada not to stay their hands in the worthy efforts they have so successfully prosecuted since the commencement of the war.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, when asked to join in a work of Empire-wide importance, refused—because he was not pleased with the action of the Government in the matter of an appointment to a clerkship.

On every side the Premier's statesmanlike appeal has been received with warmest approval. Also, on every side, can be found nothing but the blindest sort of condemnation for the action of Laurier, the partizan.

Sir Robert Borden, in his public career, has done many things which prove his high patriotism and strong ardent devotion to the cause of Empire, but no action in his whole life will win for him more hearty endorsement or more certainly commend him to remembrance as a great imperial statesman than his clear-cut clarion call to the men and women of Canada to rally to the service of the Empire, in this, the hour of need.

The Allied troops have made much progress in the battle against Prussian militarism. Canadians have won signal honors as participants in the history-making events of the past two years, but the battle is not yet won; opportunities for laurel-winning and, more important than that honor, for faithful, patriotic service, are awaiting Canadians who don the khaki.

To quote the Premier: "The climax of the war is rapidly approaching. The last hundred thousand men that Canada will place in the fighting line may be the deciding factor in a struggle the issue of which will determine the destiny of this Dominion, and of our Empire and of the whole world."

Sir Robert does not mince words. He plainly tells us that if we Canadians, are unprepared to support the splendid men who have already gone to fight our battles on land, on sea, or in the air, if we are not willing to reinforce that incomparable army to the last man and the last cent the humiliation of defeat may yet be our portion.

There is an imperative call to sacrifice, a call in which all parties and all divisions of thought should have joined. Sir Robert Borden has voiced it. If Canadians fail to respond the shame and the responsibility for what may come will rest upon them.

And what a dreadful responsibility must be borne by the men or group of men who, forgetting honor, forgetting that the nation stands pledged to participate in this conflict until the desired victory comes, will willingly place party ahead of Empire, politics before patriotism, and who having the ability to help, fail to do so. It is not a question of politics expect for those prejudice-blinded ones who, through unworthy motives, make it so, and who have refused to do their part in the most important work Canada has ever faced.

Sir Robert Borden's appeal merits and demands the co-operation of all Canadians without division. With nothing less can the desired results be achieved, with nothing less will Canadians be satisfied.

THOSE "PATRIOTIC SPEECHES."

The Telegraph complains of The Standard's failure to publish the "loyal and patriotic recruiting speeches" delivered by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the province of Quebec. Why does the Telegraph, itself, not publish them? In fact The Standard challenges the Telegraph to publish the full text of Sir Wilfrid's speech in Montreal when he spoke from the same platform as Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux—and also publish the Lemieux speech, which Laurier heard and applauded. Such publication will give the people an opportunity to see for themselves that Sir Wilfrid's "patriotic" and "loyal" speeches contain very little patriotism and a great deal of partizan politics.

AN OUTSIDE VIEW.

To the earnest attention of those Liberal newspaper editors who have taken objection to the statement that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's refusal to join in a recruiting appeal would create adverse criticisms outside of this Dominion we submit the following from the Buffalo Express, a newspaper which has no interest in Canadian affairs, except a news interest, and which cannot be accused of trying to arouse opposition against Sir Wilfrid for political purposes. The Express says:

"Sir Wilfrid Laurier, former premier of Canada, and now leader of the opposition, is not an imperialist. While professing the greatest loyalty to the British flag, there is no doubt that as a French-Canadian his nationalism overshadows his imperialism. His politics from 1896, when he first took office, until his reciprocity proposal defeated him in 1911, have all been national rather than imperial. He apparently does not sympathize with the anti-British utterances of that Quebec Nationalist, Henri Bourassa, and his lieutenant, Armand Lavergne, but there are indications that he believes that Canada's destiny should be along the lines laid down by those two and others who would leave the Dominion a nation with as little to do with London as possible, short of actual severance of the traditional nominal allegiance to that monarchy which holds the sceptre but does not rule.

"Specific acts of Sir Wilfrid's which indicate this policy include his reluctance to send an expeditionary force to South Africa in the Boer war until public sentiment compelled that he take some action, his opposition in the imperial conferences held in London during his regime to anything which would tend toward closer relations, trade and otherwise, between England and the colonies, and his opposition to the contribution of three battleships to the British navy four years ago.

"At London, Ont., last week Sir Wilfrid made a partizan speech in which he declared that he is a partizan, and warned his hearers against the danger of militarism, in such language that the Conservative papers declare that Britain's present state of militarism is the worst kind of militarism in Sir Wilfrid's estimation. One wonders if Sir Wilfrid would have a peace party in Canada and how much of a following he would have."

COST OF CHURCH UNION.

To the Editor of The Standard, Dear Sir:—Misleading statements have been given wide circulation through the public press this week regarding the Church Union Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, as to the personnel of the committee, the cost of its administrative work, and the legality of the expenditure incurred.

The committee was appointed in St. John, N. B., in 1904. It consisted of sixty members, thirty of whom were pastors, twenty were elders, and the remainder represented the great missionary, educational and benevolent departments of the church. When the committee was appointed the assembly resolved: "That the expenses of the committee be paid, and that they be levied pro rata upon the various schemes of the church according to the receipts of the year 1903-4, east and west."

The committee was appointed with absolute unanimity, and the resolution regarding the payment of expenses also. From the floor of the assembly has ever challenged the legality of the payment of the committee's expenses as they were reported from year to year by the treasurers, east and west. The audited accounts show that no expenses incurred by either the majority or minority of the Union Committee in their propaganda were ever paid out of Mission Funds.

The total amount paid from the inception of the work in 1904 until the present time has been $17,519.43. The men on the committee represented the church from the Atlantic to the Pacific, to every family, communicant and adherent of the church. The last vote taken required sixteen tons of paper to print the document. . . . When statements are made that the cost was $40,000.00, and even more, and that the majority of the committee used the mission funds of the church illegally, they are therefore not only misleading, but false. It was the general assembly, which represents the whole church, and acting for the whole church, which incurred the expenditure, and not the minority who used the mission funds just as surely as was the majority.

Signed by JOHN SOMERVILLE, Joint Clerk of the General Assembly, and Agent of the church Toronto, Oct. 21, 1916.

UNITED STATES NEWSPAPER HAS GOOD WORD FOR CANADA.

An American newspaper strongly praises the Canadian government and Canadians for the response which has been made to the call of the Empire to fight the foe. The Bangor Commercial says editorially:

"The Canadian government is making another strong appeal to its people to respond even more liberally to the call for troops and points out that while the enlistments from the first of the year until April were on an average of 1,000 a day, they have fallen off of late, which means that there must be renewed effort on the part of Canada.

It is not strange that the enlistments should be reduced, especially when one notes that there have already been 270,000 enlistments in Canada and that 270,000 Canadians are in the field. If one takes into consideration the population of Canada it is seen that the enlistment has been very large. And the Canadians have rendered a splendid account of themselves in the field. They have been given very severe service and have responded with the utmost gallantry leading many correspondents to say that the Canadian soldiers rank with the very best.

Canada has stood firmly by Eng-

INSPECTION OF THE LOCAL CADET CORPS

Capt. Robinson Black Expresses Himself as Very Well Pleased With Efficiency of City Units.

Capt. Robinson Black, inspector of the cadet corps, arrived in the city on Wednesday and has been busy inspecting the various corps in and around the city.

On Thursday he visited the Rothery Collegiate School and inspected the corps there. He complimented them on the fact that they had a larger membership than last year and also on the fact that they made such a good showing last year, taking second place with a percentage of 86, only one point below the winners.

Thursday evening he inspected the St. Stephen's church corps and found them in excellent shape. Yesterday morning he visited the new corps at the Tower School, on the West Side, and was much pleased with the progress made by them. The new principal is a qualified cadet instructor, and it is expected that the St. Patrick and La Tour Schools will join with the Tower School in the near future which will make this one of the strongest corps in the province.

Last night he inspected St. Andrew's and St. Mary's corps and was well satisfied with the work they are doing.

Brigadier General McLean expressed great interest in the work of the cadet corps and promised to use his power to advance the work of the organization. Capt. Black will leave the first of the week for St. Stephen, Milltown, Woodstock and Fredericton.

SAYS HOT WATER EACH DAY KEEPS THE DOCTOR AWAY

Drink glass of hot water before breakfast to wash out the poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, all the acids and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Notable Books by Local Authors

The production from the same household of two especially creditable volumes, is a literary event sufficient to merit more than passing attention. When these volumes include a work of fiction, gripping, compelling, and with a strong, wholesome, human interest strain, and a little book of delightful verse the fact is even more worthy of note.

Among the recent productions of the Copp Clark press of Toronto, is a novel, "The World, the Church, and the Devil," by Rev. John Archibald Morrison, of the First Presbyterian church, West St. John, and a volume of verse, "My Soldier Boy," and other poems, by Mrs. John Archibald Morrison.

"The World, the Church and the Devil," tells the story of a young Presbyterian minister, Rev. James Muir, from his ordination as pastor of St. Giles until it leaves him married and settled, the loving and beloved shepherd of a happy, prosperous and sympathetic church flock. The chief character in the story is a very lovable one. A man of warm impulses and catholic sympathy who does not permit the limitations of orthodoxy to fetter him to the broader opportunities for real Christian work. James Muir is neither unorthodox nor sensational, he is simply a wholesome, God-fearing Christian minister, who does his work in the daily life of a typical Scotch community in Canada—and does it as he believes the Master Himself would have it done. Forms and rituals he regards with the respect due to long age and custom, but he allows his ministerial sight to go beyond the husks of form and seeming and get at the kernel of good half concealed in their wrappings.

The author tells his story, and tells it well. He possesses that very rare gift—ability to make his characters human, a gift which, should he care to devote himself to literary effort, should carry him far in the direction of lasting success. Also he shows himself to be an artist in detail, using his pen as the photographer would his camera, presenting much in its true life without the embellishment of complimentary virtues or added vices. Perusal of the story will recall to the reader the Muirs, John MacGregors, W. G. Hales and David Bruce of real life, and one wonders at the fidelity with which the author has fashioned his characters.

But the charm of the story lies as much in its sustained plot as in its character delineations. And there is a logical, well wrought plot, interesting and with a wholesome and eminently satisfactory conclusion—but to tell it would rob the reader of the pleasure he will receive from perusal of the book.

"The World, the Church and the Devil," by Rev. John Archibald Morrison.

"My Soldier Boy," and other poems by Mrs. John Archibald Morrison.

To sum up, Rev. John Archibald Morrison's first venture into the field of fiction is very, very worth while, and it is pleasing to know that the volume has already been enthusiastically received.

"My Soldier Boy," Charming. Touching the strings of the harp of poetry lightly, deftly, but with acknowledged power, and producing rhymes of haunting sweetness and melody, Mrs. John Archibald Morrison has attained some delightful effects in her volume of poems "My Soldier Boy." The poem from which the volume takes its name is among the most powerful in the collection, and two verses, the third and fourth, deserve to rank with the best productions of the year. They are as follows:

"I give him up to England
"O England, don't you see
"I love you, I love thee, England,
"My heart I send to thee.

"My brave and true and strongest
"Pure gold without alloy,
"O England, England, England,
"I gave my soldier boy."

Another, "A Soldier's Wife," is sweetly sad, breathing the spirit of patriotic resignation with which so many of Canada's women have been made familiar by the entry of the necessities of war into their own homes. "Somewhere in France" and "God Save Our Empire," are other gems in the collection, and it is not surprising to learn that these have already won high commendation from such qualified and severe critics as the editors of The Bookman in London.

What might be termed seasonal rhymes—"June," "November," "March," "Indian Summer," "Autumn," "Winter," and "Summer," are delightful in their delicacy and artistic treatment. They afford striking evidence that Mrs. Morrison has the spirit of the true poet, the lover of nature, who finds "tongues in trees, books in the running brooks, sermons in stones, and good in everything," and can fittingly transmit her sentiments to the written page. In fact every production in the book is worthy, and the collection forms one of the daintiest volumes of verse yet produced by a Canadian pen.

Rev. and Mrs. Morrison are to be heartily congratulated upon the results of their labors, and it is predicted that the Canadian reading public will not be unwilling to accord novel and verses the recognition that quality distinctly merits.

NOVEL IDEAS IN THIS CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT

Young Ladies' Missionary Society of Main Street Baptist Church Had a Birthday Party and a Birthday Cake.

Last night the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Main Street Baptist church celebrated their tenth birthday with a party to which all members of the congregation were invited. The vestry was well filled and those present spent a very pleasant evening.

The meeting was called to order at ten minutes after eight o'clock and the programme consisted of ten numbers. The Scripture reading was ten verses from the tenth chapter of Romans.

The programme was as follows: Chorus by the Sunday school choir. Solo, Miss Edna Watters. Reading, Miss Almada Mullin. Duet, Mrs. Joseph Thompson and Miss Edna Hutchinson. 10 minute talk on 10 years' progress, Miss Helen Cowan.

Trio, Misses Verta Wilson, Hilda Morrell, Gertrude Hatfield. Missionary exercise, 10 Mission Lights, by 8 girls and 2 boys. Dissected story in ten parts. After the programme had been completed refreshments were served and they had a birthday cake with ten lighted candles on it.

The gathering broke up about 10 o'clock and everybody voted it a most enjoyable occasion.

Fred J. Patterson and the Fredericton football delegation made the Dufferin their headquarters yesterday.

Social Notes of the Week

On Tuesday St. John had the honor of welcoming another splendid battalion within its gates—the 180th, better known as “the Sportsmen’s Battalion,” and the welcome was a sincere one. Flags were flown from many of our business houses along the line of march to the armory and crowds of eager citizens pushed their way to the streets anxious to get a glimpse of the boys, whose stay it is hoped will not be a short one. The Citizens’ Reception Committee and Brigadier General McLean and staff in motors preceded the battalion and on their arrival at the armory through the kindness of the ladies of the Canadian Club and other societies a delicious luncheon was served to the men. St. John now has two battalions to be proud of in winter quarters and it is hoped every member of these will feel in this welcome the spirit of kindness and pride which every true Canadian offers in this our Loyalist city.

Mr. W. E. Foster, president of the Cliff Club, was host on Wednesday evening at a very enjoyable dinner in honor of Sir Thomas Grattan Esmond. Toasts to the guest of honor were proposed by Mr. Justice Grimmer and Chief Justice McKeown and ably responded to by Sir Thomas Grattan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fowler, Gondola Point, have closed their summer home and left for New York on Wednesday.

Miss Jessie A. Fraser, Rothesay, is visiting Mrs. Gray Murray, Crown street.

Mrs. G. D. Scarborough and children are visiting Mrs. Scarborough’s mother at Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Smith have returned to the city from their country home in Hilldale.

A familiar face was at once recognized by many friends on Tuesday as the 180th Battalion marched along our streets, that of Major Oty Sharp. Major Sharp when a resident in our city was captain in the 62nd Battalion.

Mr. A. W. Adams and Major P. W. Wetmore, St. John, have recently been elected Fellows of the Royal Colonial Institute.

The wedding of Miss Adelade L. Cutler, daughter of the late Hon. and Mrs. John L. Cutler, of Bangor, was married to Charles C. Newcombe, of Boston, on Saturday afternoon last. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride’s father, Fred E. Cutler, of the firm of Stetson, Cutler and Company, of Boston, New York and St. John. Mr. Cutler’s home being at 67 Upland Road, Brookline. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Carroll Perry of St. Paul’s church, Brookline. Miss Cutler resided in Bangor until the death of her parents, when she went to Brookline to the home of her brothers, Fred B. Cutler and George C. Cutler, although she travelled extensively.

Mrs. J. W. L. Hennigar received for the first time since her marriage at her residence, 185 Princess street, on Friday afternoon and evening of last week. Mrs. Hennigar received her guests in her dainty wedding gown of white silk crepe over white silk with princess lace and carried a showy bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Maxwell, who received with her daughter, wore a very handsome gown of black silks and lace trimmings, with corsage bouquet of roses. The drawing room was decorated with palms and ferns. Presiding at the prettily appointed table were Mrs. E. S. Hennigar, who wore black silk with black hat, and Mrs. W. G. Smith, gowned in black and rose costume and black hat. Mrs. C. H. Smythe, in a beautiful gown of black with touches of pink and hat to match, cut the ices. Mrs. E. A. Job, becomingly gowned in rose satin with velvet trimmings and black and rose hat, ushered the guests to the dining room, which had for its floral decorations yellow chrysanthemums. Assisting with the dainty refreshments were Miss Alice Lockhart, Miss Ina Cookson, Miss Laura Baxter, Miss Julia Hennigar, Miss Gertrude Hennigar, Miss Amber Teed, Miss Pauline Jenkins, Miss Edyth Maxwell, Miss Vera Maxwell and Miss Hilda Brittain. Little Miss Frances Job opened the door.

The first overseas draft from the 8th Field Ambulance Depot organized in our city under Major G. G. Corbet will leave here in a very short time. Captain A. E. MacDonald is the officer chosen to lead the men to the motherland, the draft calling for twenty-five men. Captain MacDonald during his short stay in our city has made many friends who will wish him “bon voyage,” and a safe return home.

The marriage of Miss Jessie H. Likely, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Likely, to Captain Gordon M. Johnston takes place at six a. m. on Tuesday, October 31st, in Centenary church. Miss Likely this week has been socially entertained at several enjoyable functions.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Newman and little daughter, who have been spending the summer at their residence, Hatfield’s Point, leave the first of the week for Vancouver from whence they will sail by the Empress Russell to spend the winter in Japan.

The Girls’ Association of St. John (Stone) church on Saturday, November 11th, intend holding a panty sale and 5 o’clock tea for patriotic purposes.

Mr. Thomas Bell and Mr. F. C. MacNeill were hosts at a very enjoyable luncheon on Monday at the Union Club in honor of Hon. Mr. Cochrane and the officials who accompanied him. Covers were laid for seventeen.

Dr. G. A. B. Addy left on Saturday last for Baltimore, where he will attend the American Medical Congress.

Miss Blenda Thompson, Mr. Skelton, Mr. E. C. Girvan, Mrs. E. Kent Scott and Mr. W. C. Bowden. Mrs. E. A. Masson was convener of the committee of the arrangements, and Mr. F. W. Girvan was the chairman.

Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Scott, at Rivers du Loup, returned to the city on Friday and left that evening for St. Andrews to close her summer residence. Mrs. Smith expects to return to St. John next week for the winter.

The members of the Loyalist Chapter, I. O. O. F., are busy making great preparations for their Halloween Fete, to be held in the Masonic Hall, Germain street, afternoon and evening, October 31st. Mysteries will abound everywhere. Everybody is wondering who Halloween Harry is? In the afternoon the children will have full away, bobbing for apples, and many interesting games will be enjoyed. The wonderful black cat in all his glory will be found roaming around, while at the fire place the veritable witch will be found with her grand grab bag containing so many attractive gifts. Very artistic maple leaf cards have been designed with appropriate verses, which will bring a feeling of joy to our brave soldier when he opens his Christmas box and finds the loving home message. Dainty fancy articles will be sold in the evening dancing will be enjoyed. The 165th Battalion kindly providing music. Without a doubt this novel event’s entertainment will be largely attended and will be greatly enjoyed, for everybody knows that any entertainment gotten up by this energetic chapter is always a success, and Halloween will be no exception, but each and all will come away from the Masonic hall saying “The best yet.”

Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Mitchell left on Wednesday evening for Japan. Mr. Mitchell has been appointed supervisor of the entire business of the Singer Sewing Machine Company for the Japanese empire. ## METHODIST

Local, Wilfred G. son of Rev. R. T. Bowles, D.D., Chancellor of Victoria University, has been wounded on the western front; he is suffering from shell shock. A cable from the lieutenant is reassuring. He was in the field artillery.

Capt. the Rev. A. B. Richard, D.A., has been visiting Nova Scotia, of which conference he was formerly a member. He has been preaching and meeting with friends of other days.

Richard, son of Principal Crumphy, has lately returned from the front, having been severely wounded. He has nearly recovered, and was able on Sunday last to give Grace Church, Wianapog, Y. M. Club a very interesting narrative of his experiences.

The missionaries of West China, have raised money to furnish a Y. M. C. A. hut for Canadian soldiers, and donated $500 to the fund for widows and orphans of the sailors of the Grand Fleet. Also $500 for supplying comforts to Canadian troops, and $700 to one other of the patriotic funds.

Rev. G. S. Patterson has returned from Japan, and is already in uniform, and another missionary is seeking permission of the board to do the same.

Referring to the part which Methodism has played in the war, we may mention the fact that out of thirteen chief recruiting officers in Canada, nine were Methodists, and seven of these Methodist ministers. The appointment of Dr. Chown as honorary general should be taken as a recognition that the Methodist church has done its duty in this war.

Owing to the number of young ministers and students who have enlisted there is an area in the Peace River District of 123,000 square miles left with only two missionaries.

The missionary efforts will not be curtailed this year, and the hope is to raise $800,000 for the year 1917-18 by a special campaign in the fall of 1917.

Mr. N. W. Powell, K.C., M.P.P., who recently made an extended visit to the western front, spoke in Toronto, on the subject "The Spirit of France." His address was most interesting and his tribute to France's heroism and noble endurance was very fine.

The Methodist Union of Toronto, is doing a wonderful and helpful work for that city. Why not one here? They are extending churches, promoting and providing for temporal and spiritual needs of foreigners coming in such large numbers. A home for girls, with night schools, and for children, and travellers aid. The Victor Inn does much for the down and out.

In New Glasgow, N. S., the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches united, built a Tabernacle to seat 500, a choir of 300, an annex for after meetings for 100. The leader, Rev. H. L. Stephens with six workers had been conducting meetings for several weeks with marked success, scores have been turned away unable to get into the buildings, and hundreds have decided for Christ, both old and young.

The New Central Methodist church, Moncton, is attracting no little attention. It is one of the most up-to-date church buildings in the lower provinces. It has all the modern and improved furnishings possible, and is a great credit to the pastor, Rev. H. A.

Goodwin, B. A., and his loyal people. The outstanding debt will be easily met, when the time comes to remove it. The dedicatory services were a great success and the sermons by Dr. Chown will be long remembered by the large congregations privileged to hear them. Wistful all who took part did all possible to aid the best interests of the church, and their efforts were not in vain and highly appreciated.

"Put on your hat and meet me at church next Sunday," is the invitation on a hat shaped card used with good effect at veteran, Alberta, with Rev. Fred E. Davies. Extra seating accommodation has to be provided for the congregation.

We are sorry to learn that Dr. W. E. Wilmore of Toronto, treasurer of the Gen. Board of Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies, is at present in the hospital, ill with typhoid fever. It is hoped he will speedily recover.

Considerable changes are being made in the auditorium of the Brick Church, Charlotteville. It is being entirely renovated in modern style. It is expected to be ready for re-opening by the end of this month.

Think of a medical man in the midst of the blackest hours of one of the great battles saying, "Padre come in here," when alone. "Now pray," and when they kneel by a broken chair, and pray as one would under such conditions, the devout and fervent "Amen" came from the medico and will never be forgotten by our chaplain, who had the experience. Then said the officer "I feel better now!" and back to dressing the wounded and doing his duty in this war.

Our own losses as a Church are brought poignantly to mind by the fall of Mr. Arthur Henderson's son in battle. This gallant young man was dear to us all, for his own sake and for his work's sake. He is also the son of a father whose form is very familiar to all our people, and whose clear judgment and wise service are beyond estimate. We forget none. Sorrow is over all the land, and in all our churches. Yet this stricken home draws our hearts to all the rest.

Dr. Clifford, E.M., celebrated his "Passive" Fast, Resister, on Friday, September 29th. At least, he and other Paddington Resisters made their fiftieth appearance before the magistrates to show cause why they could not pay the education rate. They had a courteous reception, and the magistrates listened without comment to the doctor's speech and then made the usual order. Before retiring Dr. Clifford asked the magistrates to accept a copy of his second report of the Passive Resistance Movement.

At Walmer Road and Bloor Street Churches last Sunday, were to be found large capacity audiences, when the pastor, Rev. John MacNeill and Rev. W. A. Cameron, conducted their final Sunday services before leaving for overseas. At Bloor Street Church, in the evening, the pastor conducted two services, so great was the crowd. He first preached in the Sunday School Hall, which held several hundred of those who could not get entrance to the auditorium, afterwards the did not affect his general health, and he was present at the sessions of the convention. But on Tuesday evening, as his throat troubled him, he remained at home. On the advice of his physician he made preparations to go to Boston to consult a specialist, but before the date of sailing, he was too ill to start on the journey. A virulent type of bronchitis developed and he passed away early on Monday morning. Mrs. Fletcher's bereavement is made doubly sad by the fact that both sons are now in France. She and they will have the prayerful sympathy of the whole denomination, which is bereaved with them by the death of this earnest, faithful and trusted man of God.

The Baptist church at Macao, South China, has just received into its membership Mrs. Sun at Ben, wife of the well known Chinese reformer. Mrs. Sun was baptised in the sea not far from the spot where one hundred years ago, Robert Morrison baptised the first Protestant convert in China.

We learn from the Canadian Baptist that Rev. Frank McKeehan and Mr. McKeehan, who have spent the summer months at Memorial Church, Stratford, and Tavateck, have returned to their evangelistic work, beginning a mission in Benton Street Church, Kitchener, Ont., last Sunday.

Mr. McKeehan has under consideration an invitation to spend a year under the auspices of the Board of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, in visitation of various churches of those provinces.

Some convention notes from the Maritime Baptist— It was a good convention. Many declared it was the best convention they ever attended. It was earnest and serious, but at the same time optimistic. A spirit of hopefulness pervaded all the discussions.

Perhaps this was due to the number of strong young men under consideration. Youth is ever optimistic. But the quality of young manhood being devoted to the service of Christ must have brought a feeling of hopefulness and encouragement even to those who are inclined to look upon the dark side.

We are fortunate also in possessing a body of strong and consecrated laymen. They are men of vision as well as of business acumen. Some of them, we fear, are dangerously near the point where the problem of the needle's eye ought to begin to trouble them. Do not let this be the case. Accumulating wealth consecrated to ever increasing measure to the service of the Kingdom of God.

We are not less thankful for the wise and trusted leaders of an earlier day that we still spared to us. Some are no longer able to attend the annual gathering, but among those who might mention Dr. Chute, Steele and Kempton. For the second time Rev. I. W. Porter also was absent. But Dr. Coburn, Dr. Manning, Dr. King, Dr. Chipman—these and others who for a shorter period have borne the burden and heat of the day were present to temper the enthusiasm of youth with their wisdom and experience.

It was a good thing to have with us once more a strong delegation of professors at Acadia. It was supposed that the new date for holding the convention had made this impossible. We are glad to see that this idea has been proved erroneous. The papers by Professors Perry, Balcom and Spidle contributed much of value to the sessions of the institute on Friday. This is a good beginning. Perhaps they will make this impossible for the whole convention next year.

Then there were the visitors. We gladly acknowledge our indebtedness to them. The addresses by Dr. DeBois were the outstanding feature of the gathering. Rev. H. E. Stilwell, the representative of the Forum, whose Board, had been with us before and will be enthusiastically welcomed whenever he comes. Dr. H. P. Whidden of Brandon is one of our own whom we have loaned to the work in the west. Mrs. L. A. Therrien of Grande Ligne was a stranger when she came, but holds now a secure place in our friendship and esteem.

Rev. W. A. Kinzie, the genial manager of the Boston branch of the A. B. F. S., made many friends for himself and for the work he represented. Seventy years ago the Baptist convention of the Maritime Provinces was organized in the German Street Church. Only forty-nine delegates were in attendance. Our present gathering was the sixty that convened with this historic church. As regards registration of delegates, this was the largest of the Forum, with the possible exception of the convention in Bridgetown, in 1892, was the largest gathering since the convention was organized. If the suggested Five-Year Programme is enthusiastically adopted by pastors and churches we may expect progress of the past to be more than duplicated in the future. The formulation of such a programme promises much for the denomination. Yet unless earnest effort is made to reach the goal set, it will prove a source of weakness instead of strength.

The announcement of the sudden and unexpected death of Rev. M. E. Fletcher will bring a sense of personal loss to many of our readers. His work, first as Field Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board and later as Financial Secretary, has made him one of the best known of our denominational leaders. A short time ago he underwent a slight operation to remove annoying throat trouble. But the did not affect his general health, and he was present at the sessions of the convention. But on Tuesday evening, as his throat troubled him, he remained at home. On the advice of his physician he made preparations to go to Boston to consult a specialist, but before the date of sailing, he was too ill to start on the journey. A virulent type of bronchitis developed and he passed away early on Monday morning. Mrs. Fletcher's bereavement is made doubly sad by the fact that both sons are now in France. She and they will have the prayerful sympathy of the whole denomination, which is bereaved with them by the death of this earnest, faithful and trusted man of God.

Who's Who and What's-What in the Picture World and on the Stage--Favorites and What They Say and Do.

COMING EVENTS.

The Imperial is not only a place where you can see good pictures and have the entertainment, but it is also a house that is very frequently given for patriotic purposes.

Today at five o'clock the delegates to the Older Boys' Conference will be the guests of the Imperial at a special showing of a film entitled "Thomas Jefferson Morgan," the story of a boy who was listless in school and when he found some real work to do he "made good." The actors in this picture are stars and clever boys take the different characters. It was a present to the Y.M.C.A. by the Curtis Publishing Company.

Monday the Imperial is to be donated to the 180th Battalion for a sporting tournament in which some well-known athletes will take part, including Capt. Thomas Flannigan, Tom Longboat and others. Proceeds for the regimental fund.

Next Wednesday, November 4th, the members of the New Brunswick Women's Institutes, in convention in our city, are to be guests of this hospitable house. They will see special films, shown all over the building and given an insight into the working of an up-to-date motion picture theatre.

Later, November 7th, I believe is the date, the 165th Battalion will give a concert in aid of their regimental fund. Their band, which has already during their short stay in St. John given so much assistance to patriotic objects, will play and there is a great deal of musical talent in this regiment which the citizens will be privileged to hear. The Young Women's Patriotic Society will assist at this entertainment by selling home-made candy and flowers.

"The Bull-Ring" at Castles in the Air, Atop 44th Street Theatre.

With an entirely new programme, the picturesque and novel midnight place, "The Bull-Ring," at Castle in the Air, atop the 44th Street Theatre, is packed nightly.

In a Spanish environment such as "The Bull-Ring"—it is an exact reproduction of the famous Plaza del Torro at Granada—it is natural and appropriate that the leading entertainment feature should have a Spanish aspect. Therefore, Eduardo and Elisa Cansino, acknowledged as the greatest Spanish dancers in the world, have been engaged to head the programme. They are fresh from the Royal Court of Spain.

Other features on a long and interesting bill are Lusia, the dancer from the wilds of Luzon, Hugo Jensen and his living models, the Gaudschmidts and their Spanish poolies, Patie O'Hearn, Doris Prodo, Veronica Marquise and an ensemble of seventy-five typical Broadway beauties.

Many of the leading vaudeville artists in England have sons in Khaki, including George Robey, Harry Tate, and Harry Lauder, your Lauder having already figured on the casualty list.

Mantell on Stage Again.

Robert B. Mantell is to appear again in Shakespearean repertory during the present season, and he will make an extended tour of the larger cities under the direction of William A. Brady.

LIBERTY "THE DESERT OF LOST SOULS" is the title of the 8th chapter and it's a smashing good story. Eddie Polo sets a hot pace for the bandits and the Texas Rangers are in at the finish.

CAPT. KIDD NOT SO BAD AS GENERALLY SUPPOSED

New York Authority Declares Freebooter Chief Detected Pirates and was with Difficulty Induced to go Privateering—Kidd Not First Wall Street Man Accused of Being a Pirate.

Richard Spillane, who used to make a New York Sunday paper, refreshingly different from the usual armful of deadwood, has been looking up the averages of the late Capt. Kidd, and finds that the Cap. wasn't such a bad sort after all—in fact, that he was a gentleman compared with most of the politicians with whom he associated and who finally handed him the double cross. From what Spillane says, it seems that Kidd's fatal error was in blundering through life without a press agent. With the right kind of publicity he might have lived long and died rich in bed instead of poor at the end of a rope. As it was, he never had a chance. And that's no kid. Here is what Spillane says about him in Commerce and Finance, a New York business newspaper:

Kidd's Home in Old New York.

An apartment house is to be built on the ground at 122 and 124 Pearl St., opposite the Cotton Exchange. This will be the first structure of the kind in the Wall Street district. On the mere announcement of the intention to build applications for apartments have been forthcoming and it is likely a fair number of the shabby, sombre old structures downtown, just outside the lively business sections, will be replaced by apartment houses that will return far more revenue. The newspapers have made much of this affair, not because it marks any change in real estate conditions but because the site was part of what has been known as the homestead of Captain Kidd.

It is remarkable what an amount of misinformation there is about Captain Kidd. Thousands of stories have been written about him and he has been pictured as the greatest pirate that ever sailed the sea. There is about the same amount of truth in regard to his career as a pirate that there is in regard to the centuries-old belief that the land opposite the Cotton Exchange was his homestead. The homestead of Captain Kidd was in Liberty St., near Nassau. The Pearl St. property was owned by the lady Captain Kidd married. The captain lived there for a month or two, possibly, while his home was being repaired, but that is all.

He Hated Pirates.

In the latter part of the 17th century there was not a more highly respected seafaring man in New York colony than Captain Kidd. His brig, the Antigua, plied between London, the West Indies and New York. He was well to do, hated pirates and had the confidence and esteem of all the prominent men in New York. No one thought more highly of him than did Robert Livingston, founder of the great Livingston family that has given to America some brilliant men and women.

There were many good people in New York at that time who did not look upon piracy with disfavor. In fact, New York did a glorious trade with the freebooters of the sea. It bought their plunder and it furnished them with men and stores. Many ships fitted out in New York preyed upon the commerce of not only Spain and France, but England too. Long Island was called Crooked Island, because its many bays offered refuge to the crooks of the ocean. But it was not altogether necessary for the pirates, even to hide in the bays of Long Island to refit or to get rid of their plunder. The Governor of New York, in one of his reports to the home government, declared that the time of his writing there were nine pirate ships in New York harbor; that they had $500,000 worth of stolen goods aboard, and that the pirate trade was so cherished by the people of New York that not one of the pirates was molested.

It was a time of lax morals on land and on sea, but a change was under way. So great had been the depredations of the pirates that it was thought necessary by William III. to call a halt. The King probably would not have been concerned particularly but for the losses to the commerce of England had sustained. One of the cheapest and easiest ways of abating the nuisance was believed to be to fit out vessels to prey upon the pirates. This was considered not only a good but a profitable method of combating the evil, and so in January, 1695, a syndicate was formed in London to fit out a vessel to rob the robbers. The members of this syndicate were the King, the lord chancellor, the Duke of Shrewsbury, the Earl of Bellomont, Robert Livingston, William Kidd and various other gentlemen. It was Livingston who suggested Captain Kidd. He offered to furnish bond for Kidd's portion of the syndicate fund and he told of the glorious work Kidd had done for England in two sea fights with the French. In one of these his arrival saved a British ship from capture by six French vessels that were closing in on the lone Englishman.

When the proposition was made to Kidd in London to take command of the privateer he viewed it with disfavor. Only a few years before he had married. He was well to do, home loving, and had thought of giving up the sea, so he declined.

But the King and the King's friends in the syndicate intimated to him that he must accept. Otherwise he would not be permitted to leave the Thames.

grace and ruin. What was Kidd to do? Just what he did will remain a disputed point in history so long as time lasts. The captain's own report was that his mutinous crew locked him in his cabin, attacked and plundered merchant ships without regard to the flag under which they sailed, and even fought a drawn battle with a Portuguese man-o-war. This may be true or it may be false. But it is a fact that from out of the Indian Ocean came reports soon after that Mr. Kidd and his New York pirate chasers were the busiest pirates those piratical waters ever had known. And certain it is, too, that if the captain was locked in his cabin while the crew captured some vessels, he was not locked in the cabin when the richest prize of the cruise, the Quedah Merchant, was taken. This ship had a great store of merchandise, a lot of gold and silver, and a miscellaneous cargo such as would delight the heart of any pirate.

How many vessels Captain Kidd and his men plundered it is hard to tell. For a time they gave their attention to vessels only, and were scrupulously honest in their dealings with the merchants on shore from whom they had to purchase supplies and with whom they did any trading. The Adventure leaked so badly that Kidd had to abandon her and transfer his plunder to the Quedah Merchant. He divided the spoils fairly with his men, but 100 of them deserted, and he decided to return home. As a final stroke of business he invited a lot of traders aboard the Quedah Merchant.

Robbed the Traders. Ostensibly he wanted to sell some of the merchandise of the rich ship to them, and also he was desirous of purchasing precious stones from them. They brought money and they brought gems. After he had bargained long enough to discover what they had in the way of money and jewels he stripped them of their wealth, ordered them off his ship, and then he sailed away.

Possibly his departure was hurried by rumors that a squadron had been sent out by his friend the King to check his operations. He had been in the East two years, and had earned handsome profits for his partners, so he was not reluctant to leave. He had no interference on his way back to America. He touched at two ports in the West Indies, but was refused stores as he had been proclaimed a pirate. He was in a desperate plight. He did not know the temper of Lord Bellomont and Mr. Livingston, and the Quedah Merchant was so foul he had no chance to escape in case a warship sighted him. An enterprising merchant of the sea, named Bolton served him well at this juncture, selling him a vessel named the San Antonio, with which he went to Curacao for supplies after transferring most of the Quedah Merchant's cargo to her. The Quedah Merchant was run up one of the rivers in San Domingo and burned.

Many Stopped on Coast.

From Curacao Kidd started for New York.

But his conscience troubled him. At several places along the route he stopped and put men ashore with messages to his wife, Lord Bellomont and Mr. Livingston. He stopped in the Chesapeake. He stopped in the Delaware. He stopped on the Jersey shore. If the vague stories that have been told are true he put ashore treasure every place the San Antonio stopped. He loafed along, he was waiting for his messengers to reach New York and for his friends to have time to reach the rendezvous he had appointed. When he had waited what he believed to be a sufficient time he

I suffered from constant headaches, and had palpitation of the heart so badly that I feared that I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the constipation was dreadful. I suffered from pain in the back and kidney disease. I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no headaches, no palpitation, no heart trouble, no constipation, no pain or kidney trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was 'Fruit-a-tives' that gave me back my health."

Yielded again. But he avoided New York. He skirted Long Island and off Gardiner's Island, at the eastern end of Long Island, he dropped anchor. He remained there several days. He got some pigs, a cask of cider, some sheep and other supplies. He sent a treasure chest ashore, too. This treasure chest was buried near the mansion of John Gardiner, lord of the manor, by Gardiner himself. Kidd paid Gardiner for his trouble, not lavishly, but well. He gave gold and silk and sugar and linens to him. The silks and linens were damaged and the sugar was not at its best, but gold is gold the world over. From New York there came to Gardiner's Island a lawyer named Emmett to meet Capt. Kidd. They held long and earnest converse. The captain learned that Lord Bellomont was in Boston and was loud in his denunciation of Capt. Kidd.

The captain pulled up anchor and started for Boston town. He stopped at Block Island. There are 1964 different places on Block Island that the natives point out as the spot where Captain Kidd buried treasure. From Block Island he made a short run down to Oyster Bay. If he buried any treasure in the Roosevelt grounds, it has not been found. Next he sailed for Narragansett Bay. There has been a lot of digging for the treasure he buried there. Then he looted along the coast a little more, and on July 1, 1699 he sailed into Boston harbor.

The earl of Bellomont received him, not cordially, but not hostilely. The captain reported as to the cruise of the Adventure and the Quedah Merchant, and said he was ready to turn over the proceeds if the earl would relieve Mr. Livingston from his (Kidd's) bond. The captain played fair, but the earl did not, for he refused to release Mr. Livingston.

For a week Captain Kidd occupied a house in Boston which stood on the ground now occupied by the Boston Globe. Then one day he was arrested. Lord Bellomont, immediately after putting the captain in jail, sent a vessel to Gardiner's Island. The treasure chest was dug up. Next, everything Mrs. Kidd had received from the captain was seized. Searches were made at every point where the San Antonio had stopped, but nothing had been buried, so far as could be learned, except at Gardiner's Island. The loot that Kidd brought to America aside from merchandise of small value, was listed as about 1100 ounces of gold, 2400 ounces of silver, and 17 ounces of precious stones. The total value was less than $75,000.

From Boston Kidd was taken to London. There was a great political row on there, the Outs accusing the Ins of having sent Kidd out as a pirate to enrich themselves. For a year they kept Kidd in prison. Then he was put on trial. It was nec-

"I FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought the Joy of Health After Two Years' Suffering

MADAM LAPLANTE, 35 Rose St., Montreal, April 4th. "For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant headaches, and had palpitation of the heart so badly that I feared that I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the constipation was dreadful. I suffered from pain in the back and kidney disease. I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no headaches, no palpitation, no heart trouble, no constipation, no pain or kidney trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was 'Fruit-a-tives' that gave me back my health."

MADAM ARTHUR LAPANTE, 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Yielded again. But he avoided New York. He skirted Long Island and off Gardiner's Island, at the eastern end of Long Island, he dropped anchor. He remained there several days. He got some pigs, a cask of cider, some sheep and other supplies. He sent a treasure chest ashore, too. This treasure chest was buried near the mansion of John Gardiner, lord of the manor, by Gardiner himself. Kidd paid Gardiner for his trouble, not lavishly, but well. He gave gold and silk and sugar and linens to him. The silks and linens were damaged and the sugar was not at its best, but gold is gold the world over. From New York there came to Gardiner's Island a lawyer named Emmett to meet Capt. Kidd. They held long and earnest converse. The captain learned that Lord Bellomont was in Boston and was loud in his denunciation of Capt. Kidd.

The captain pulled up anchor and started for Boston town. He stopped at Block Island. There are 1964 different places on Block Island that the natives point out as the spot where Captain Kidd buried treasure. From Block Island he made a short run down to Oyster Bay. If he buried any treasure in the Roosevelt grounds, it has not been found. Next he sailed for Narragansett Bay. There has been a lot of digging for the treasure he buried there. Then he looted along the coast a little more, and on July 1, 1699 he sailed into Boston harbor.

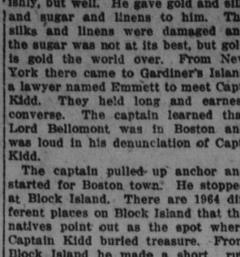

The earl of Bellomont received him, not cordially, but not hostilely. The captain reported as to the cruise of the Adventure and the Quedah Merchant, and said he was ready to turn over the proceeds if the earl would relieve Mr. Livingston from his (Kidd's) bond. The captain played fair, but the earl did not, for he refused to release Mr. Livingston.

For a week Captain Kidd occupied a house in Boston which stood on the ground now occupied by the Boston Globe. Then one day he was arrested. Lord Bellomont, immediately after putting the captain in jail, sent a vessel to Gardiner's Island. The treasure chest was dug up. Next, everything Mrs. Kidd had received from the captain was seized. Searches were made at every point where the San Antonio had stopped, but nothing had been buried, so far as could be learned, except at Gardiner's Island. The loot that Kidd brought to America aside from merchandise of small value, was listed as about 1100 ounces of gold, 2400 ounces of silver, and 17 ounces of precious stones. The total value was less than $75,000.

From Boston Kidd was taken to London. There was a great political row on there, the Outs accusing the Ins of having sent Kidd out as a pirate to enrich themselves. For a year they kept Kidd in prison. Then he was put on trial. It was nec-

The Body-Building Power of BOVRIL

In the recent independent scientific experiments with BOVRIL on Human Beings, reported to the British Medical Association, an amount of Bovril proportionate to the small dark diagram section of this circle has been proved to produce an increase in flesh and muscle corresponding to the large light section, showing the 'Body-Building Power of Bovril to be 10 to 20 times the amount taken' "It must be BOVRIL" esary, in order for the government to vindicate itself, that Kidd should hang. He did hang, but his trial was a farce. They found him guilty of first Wall Street man who has been accused of being a pirate.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! 25 CENT BOTTLE STOPS DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Your hair appears glossy, abundant, wavy and beautiful.

This, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is made of a neglected scalp of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

tor, Mrs. P. Mullaly, Mrs. Craft also leaves her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George Parks. She was a member of St. George's church. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock; service at the house at 3.30.

Richard D. Damery.

The death of Richard D. Damery occurred on Thursday in the General Public Hospital. Mr. Damery, who was in his seventy-first year, is survived by his wife, one daughter and a brother, John Damery, also of this city. For many years he was caretaker of the Martello Tower and while there he established a most interesting museum of objects of historic and general interest. Unfortunately this valuable collection was destroyed by fire after its removal from the tower. Mr. Damery was well known throughout the city and enjoyed the respect and esteem of many friends. He was a member of Elgin No. 2 L. O. A. The funeral will take place from 144 Paradise row this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

Alexander Kilpatrick.

A respected resident of Penobscot, Alexander Kilpatrick, for many years a prominent woodsman, died on Thursday, after an illness extending throughout the summer. He was born in St. John sixty-nine years ago, but the greater part of his life had been spent in adjoining counties. He was a member of the I. O. F. Mr. Kilpatrick is survived by his wife and ten children. Thomas and John reside in Fairville and Katie is at home. One other son and six other daughters are in the United States. Joseph Kilpatrick, light keeper at St. Andrews, is a brother. Much sympathy is expressed for those bereaved.

FUNERALS

The funeral of A. C. McMurtry, who died in Boston, and whose body was brought here for burial, took place yesterday morning on the arrival of the Boston train. Services were conducted by Rev. P. R. Hayward and interment was made in Fernhill.

The body of the late Michael Edward Pletcher arrived on Wednesday from St. John, the interment taking place in St. John's cemetery immediately on arrival of the train. Rev. M. L. Gregg, pastor of the North Baptist church, officiated, being assisted by Rev. E. E. Daley of the Tabernacle church, Rev. G. F. Boister of the West End church and Rev. Mr. Bishop of Dartmouth. Many have been the expressions of regret since news of the death was received here.—Halifax Herald.

Leo Rubber Tire Co. declared regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share and extra of 25 cents a share payable Dec. 1 to stock record Nov. 15th.

Hughes in Boston promises an unswerving American administration and ablest cabinet the nation can produce.

Secretary of War Baker finds plot to discredit Wilson before election by Villa raid on American troops.

Many bets made in New York at even money on presidential election. Predictions are being made that American can win 80 before the present movement stops. Many fluctuations are expected in any activity of this stock owing to the manipulation always present from pool sources. The company's earnings are at the rate of 20 per cent. for the common stock.

A trading market is expected. Professionals are bearish. When they overrule, rallies will follow. U. S. Coppers and Standard rails are reported well bought during declines. Realizing is found on advances of prices. Chicago Great Western preferred, American Can, Lackawanna Steel and low priced rails might be put higher.

MORE ST. JOHN BOYS WRITE TO F. W. SUMNER

Several more of the wounded boys of the 26th, including three St. John men, have written from English hospitals to Agent General Fred W. Sumner. The letters of the St. John boys follow:

Orpington, Kent, Sept. 22nd, 1916. Dear Mr. Sumner—Received your letter of the 21st today and was very pleased to hear from you. My right hand and wrist are "out of action" so I am trying to make use of my left, but am making a poor job of it. I am not wounded, but have rheumatism in my left hip and knee and in my both feet, and hand as I have mentioned. Am getting along fairly well. I went to France with the 6th Mounted Rifles eleven months ago. Shall be pleased to make your office my headquarters when I go on leave. My father's address is care C. P. R. office, West St. John.

Yours sincerely, HARRY ARMSTRONG. Canadian Military Hospital, Lymington, Kent, Sept. 28th, 1916.

Dear Mr. Sumner—Just a line to-day in asking you to do me a little favor if you don't mind. Would you please send me some St. John papers and oblige. I don't mind if some of them are old ones; I have not seen any for a long time. Yours truly, SEBASTIAN CLOWE. No. 69125, 26th Battalion.

Ward 26, Block D, Wharrcliffe War Hospital, Sheffield, Sept. 19th, 1916.

F. W. Sumner, Agent General for N. B. London, W. C.

Dear Sir—Your letter of Sept. 18th, also magazine, received O. K., for which accept my sincere thanks. You ask me my address in case they make inquiries from home. My sister is Mrs. Walter E. Morris. I believe you come from Moncton. If so, probably you know Walter, as his home is up there some place. When I go on leave I certainly will call and see you of course. I have trench fever, and I don't like the way it is acting. I have been one year in the trenches and never had a pass, so Dear Friend Sumner, trusting to hear from you soon.

Respectfully yours, ELMER PEAKE, Act. Corp., 24th Canadians.

P. S.—I near forgot my home address, 206 St. John street, West St. John, N. B.

CONFERENCE OF BOYS WORKERS IN SESSION HERE YESTERDAY

Leadership Conference Closed in the Afternoon While Meeting of Older Boys Opened in the Evening—Interesting Questions Discussed by Able Speakers.

The final session of the "leadership" conference and the opening session of the "older boys" conference were held yesterday. The leadership conference closed in the afternoon and the boys' conference opened in the evening. A number of splendid talks were given by the team of leaders and a spirit of enthusiasm was very noticeable at the leaders' conference and much good is expected to result from the meetings. The opening meeting of the boys' conference was largely attended and the boys settled down to work like veterans.

Morning Session.
 The morning session met at nine o'clock and three addresses were given on organization by W. A. Ross of Moncton, I. W. Williamson of Wolfville on the Sunday programme and T. H. Hutchinson of the national staff on the mid-week programme. Mr. Ross, speaking of organization, sharply defined the urgency of a clear, definite objective in establishing lines of action for the forces to be developed.

He treated of committees and touched on the advantage of congenial groups. Mr. Williamson was a believer in the departmental Sunday school, but pointed out that the aim was to do the best thing for the whole school. He did not think it wise to spend too much time in the opening and closing exercises as the lesson was the big thing. Home study in connection with the lesson should be insisted on and the lesson period should be one of discussion taken part in by all. He also expressed himself as opposed to reviews which he characterized as abominations. The talk on the mid-week meetings of the organized Bible class was given by T. H. Hutchinson. He said the object of the mid-week session was to impress on the boys that religion was a thing of every day not merely for Sunday. The meetings should be held at the most convenient time for the majority. The C. S. E. programme contained something to interest every boy and nothing better could be adopted.

At 12.30 the provincial advisory committee met at Bond's for lunch and discussed plans for recruiting men for work among the boys throughout the province.

Afternoon Session.
 The afternoon session opened at two o'clock with devotional exercises led by Rev. J. H. A. Anderson. The first speaker was Rev. C. A. Myers on "Biblical and Training Leaders." Mr. Myers said that it was of supreme importance that the forces which make for character should continue to direct the forces which make for prosperity. He referred to the development which had taken place in the last ten years in all branches of the educational life and in material prosperity. If the forces which made for righteousness were to continue to control there must be leaders, and it was the business of the church to supply these leaders, and the challenge to her today was to supply the men necessary for this gigantic task. The men were in the church and only needed to have the requirements properly brought home to them and they would respond. In proof of this contention he instanced the success of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in interesting the men in missions and the advances which had been made along that line in the last few years because the men had taken hold of the work.

Ten years ago very few men were interested in the social work of the church, today thousands of them were working along that line and the only thing needed to obtain the workers for this movement was to put it right up to the men and get them to see the necessity.

Every Canadian was proud of the boys who were fighting the battles of Empire in France and Flanders and the men who could not do their bit for the country in that way could and should do their bit by saving the boy and training him in Christian citizenship.

In a few years there would not be any lack for trained workers for the work taking this work into the schools and colleges of the country and when the men left those places they had the necessary equipment.

The problem today was to train the men after they had enlisted them in the work and to meet this need a four weeks' teacher training course had been adopted at which talks would be given on the various stages of the work by experts.

The leadership conference was brought to a close with prayer by Rev. F. H. Langford.

At the conclusion of the leaders' conference those in attendance broke up into denominational groups and talked over the best way to introduce the work to their local churches when they returned home.

Older Boys' Conference.
 At 4.30 the boys who were in the city to attend the conference met at the Y. M. C. A. and registered, and at 7.30 the first meeting was held in Centenary schoolroom. About three hundred had registered last night and several more are expected today.

At 7.30 last night the schoolroom of Centenary was well filled with "boys" of all ages from 15 to 65.

Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, chairman of the provincial advisory committee for boys' work, took the chair and the devotional exercises were led by Rev. I. W. Williamson. The chairman in a short address welcomed the boys to the city and expressed the hope that they would be benefited by their visit.

Rev. C. A. Myers took the platform and conducted the election of officers which resulted as follows: President, John Jordan, St. John; vice-president, Harold Brewer, Woodstock; secretary, James Humphrey, Moncton.

The newly elected officers took their places on the platform and each made a short speech, thanking the boys for the honor paid them, and the president in the course of his remarks announced that the New Brunswick boys would have a camp of their own next summer.

Rev. C. A. Myers next gave a short address and explained what was meant by the item on the programme entitled the "Solid Front." He said for two years the Allies had been fighting and not getting very far because they were not working in full accord, but since the first great war council in Paris they had done better because they were now presenting a solid front to the enemy. So it was with the boy problem, the churches had been working individually and not accomplishing much but now they had united on a common platform and were presenting a solid front and they would get somewhere.

He then called on the representatives of the various denominations to come and welcome the boys and the following extended a welcome on behalf of their respective bodies: Anglican, Rev. E. Taylor McKim, Baptist, Rev. I. W. Williamson, Congregational, J. W. Flewelling, Methodist, Rev. Gilbert Earle, Presbyterian, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, Sunday School Association, Rev. W. A. Ross; Y. M. C. A., L. Buckley. As each spoke he took a seat on the platform and after all had spoken Mr. Myers presented them as the "solid front."

The president then called on Rev. P. R. Hayward who introduced the Canadian standard efficiency tests to the audience.

Mr. Hayward said it was only his task to introduce the subject and others would elaborate on it later in the conference.

He asked them to notice that the gentleman he had introduced them to was a Canadian, and the biggest piece of patriotic work that any Canadian boy could get behind was this movement. It was also a standard by which to measure the life. It stood for efficiency and then furnished the tests to measure the results by. The boy needed this programme because this world was not the same world in which his grandfather lived and training was needed today in all the activities of life, and this programme supplied the necessary training and developed the boy on all sides of his life, intellectual, physical, religious and social.

SIX MEN ON HONOR ROLL YESTERDAY

Siege Battery Appears to be the Popular Unit—Draft from Ambulance Corps Leaves City Today.

- HONOR ROLL.
- Richard Canty, St. John, N. B.
  - Wm. Donaldson, St. John, N.B.
  - 236th Kiltie Battalion.
  - Harry Lockhart, Fairville, N.B.
  - 239th Rly. Con. Corps.
  - Alphonso Comeaux, Moncton.
  - Harold J. Neil, Dartmouth, N.S.
  - 9th Siege Battery.
  - Charles Taylor, St. John, N.B.
  - C. A. S. Corps.

The 9th Siege Battery appears to be the most popular unit now recruiting in the Maritime Provinces. For the past week men for this unit have been coming in daily. Yesterday two men were passed by the medical examiner. Harold J. Neil arrived in the city from Dartmouth, N. S., and is now a member of the unit, under command of Major P. W. Wetmore.

The battery came over to the city yesterday afternoon and after marching out as far as the One Mile House, and back to the city, going as far as Indiantown, thence to the ferry wharf, returned to the stand about five o'clock.

Owing to the absence of fifty of the men who are in Halifax, only about seventy-five were on the march. Their appearance on soldierly bearing were highly commented upon, as they passed through the city.

On Sunday the battery will attend divine service at St. James' church. The St. James' boys scouts bugle band will play the parade to church.

165th Battalion.
 The battalion spent the first day in the country yesterday since their arrival in the city. Leaving about nine o'clock the entire battalion, headed by the brass band, left the army equipped in heavy marching order. They marched out as far as Manoheter's field on the Manawagonish Road where they remained for the day.

After a couple hours of arduous company drill the boys had roused a ravenous appetite and the food carried in the haversack was eagerly devoured.

Lt. Col. D'Angie assisted by Senior Major A. J. Legere, put the battalion through a stiff day's training. The battalion returned in the afternoon about five o'clock after spending profitable day in preparation for the work overseas.

The 165th Battalion will attend divine service tomorrow at Holy Trinity church.

The band concert, which is to be held in aid of the regimental fund, will take place on Tuesday night, Nov. 7th. The band is making special preparations for a choice programme of music. Major Legere said rather than conflict with any other attraction he had postponed the concert from Halloween night to the Tuesday following.

Since Monday fifteen new men have signed on with the 165th Battalion. They are: Wm. Thibodeau, Kent county; Philip Thillite, Gloucester; Therault, Notre Dame; Joseph Tibodeau, Kent; U. Belamore, Kent; Wilfred Boulay, Charles Tripp, A. Dilbert, Legere, Gloucester; E. Bastarache, Philip Arsenault, J. Vaugour, Kent; R. Bernard, Fred Dolron, Westmorland; L. Peire, Gloucester; C. Estabrook and O. Herbert, Kent.

Field Ambulance.
 The draft of 59 men under the command of Captain McDonald, which is to proceed overseas, received word last night to be in readiness to leave for Halifax tonight. Upon the receipt of this advice word was despatched to several members of the draft who are at present home on a farewell visit.

A banquet was to have been held on Tuesday night in honor of the non-commissioned officers, but the despatch yesterday will alter the plans.

The men leaving tonight are those who joined the Field Ambulance when it was first authorized. The men who make up the draft were entertained last night by the members of the depot at a dance in the "Prentice Boys' Hall." A large number of friends and relatives of the boys were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

180th Battalion.
 The regular army routine work was carried on by the battalion yesterday morning. In the afternoon under the command of Lt. Col. Greer, and headed by the regimental band, the battalion paid a social visit to the Parks Convalescent Home. Here the inmates of the home, twenty-two in number, enjoyed a pleasant afternoon's entertainment provided by the boys of the 180th Bovermen's Battalion.

The celebrities in the battalion were introduced to the boys who are convalescing and Pte. Coolish, the noted singer of the battalion, rendered two solos which were greatly enjoyed by the returned soldiers.

On the lawn in front of the building the regimental band gave an excellent programme of music. The battalion spent about an hour on the premises, after which they returned to the city.

New J. P.'s.
 Lieutenant J. Charlton Berrie has been appointed as a justice of the peace for each county in the province, Lieutenant H. A. Seely for St. John and Kings counties and Sgt. Kenneth S. Storey for St. John county.

Found Dead in Woods.
 John Winchester of Balmoral, Restigouche, who had been missing five days, has been found dead in the woods. He was 80 years of age and probably died from exposure. A son, Donald, was killed at the front.

Officers Elected.
 The following officers have been elected for Gurney Division, S. of T.: James Sullivan, W.P.; S. P. McCavour, W.A.; Mrs. B. Haines, R. S.; Miss B. W. Steeves, F.S.; J. Stark, treasurer; Mrs. J. E. Arthur, A.R.S.; W. H. Patterson, Chaplain; H. McCourt, Cond.; H. D. Everett, A. Cond.; D.C. Fisher, I.S.S.; E. W. Rowley, O.S.S.

Kilties Pipers in Sunbury.
 A patriotic concert was held last evening at Crippitown, Sunbury county. Members of the Kilties pipe band helped in the programme and were accompanied by Lieut. Brewer who addressed the gathering at its close with a view to securing recruits for the 236th New Brunswick Kilties (Sir Sam's Own).

Field Ambulance Boys Entertained.
 A dance was given last night by the boys of the Field Ambulance Corps in the Prentice Boys' Hall, Carleton, in honor of Capt. McDonald, four non-commissioned officers and 35 men are going overseas shortly. The dance broke up at a late hour, the boys voting it a great success.

Boy Saved From Drowning.
 While playing around the Eastern Steamship docks yesterday afternoon with several companions, J. McGorman accidentally fell off the pier. William Oliver, a teamster at the pier, residing at 18 Charlotte street, jumped in after the lad and brought him to the surface, where a motor boat picked them up. The McGorman boy was almost gone when rescued and had to be resuscitated. He was afterwards taken to his home 225 Guellette street. This makes the second rescue to the credit of Mr. Oliver, as he saved a boy several years ago at Long Wharf.

The Tell-Lie-Graft.
 Yesterday's Telegraph contained another glaring instance of the unreliability of that journal as a news medium. In its account of the proceedings of the "leadership" conference held in this city, they stated that at the Thursday afternoon meeting "Rev. C. A. Myers explained the real meaning of the Canadian standard efficiency tests." This address was really delivered by Rev. I. W. Williamson which fact could easily have been ascertained if the representative of the Telegraph had taken the trouble to ask, instead of lifting the account of the afternoon meeting from the Times of Thursday evening.

To Foreclose Mortgages.
 M. G. Teed and Hanington & Hanington, of this city, announce that lands granted by the crown to the late Richard C. Scovill, lumber manufacturer, and Pamela C. Scovill, his wife, in 1869, at Malekoff, Westmorland Co., a second tract of land near Painsec, and marsh lands in the Parish of Moncton will be sold under foreclosure proceedings at Shediac, Nov. 25. The mortgage on these properties was held by Thomas B. Calhoun, the lumberman who recently assigned to John W. H. Teed of St. John. A dozen owners are concerned. There will also be sold under foreclosure at Shediac on Nov. 24 a number of building lots in that town. The land was mortgaged by William K. Stone in favor of Mrs. Hannah Gallagher, wife of Patrick Gallagher, the proprietor of the Minto Hotel, Moncton, and assigned by her to R. C. Tait and Mayor James E. White of Shediac, executors and trustees of the will of the late Dr. Lucien J. Belliveau of that place.
