To Get D. C. M.

That Herbert McKay, son of Willi McKay of this city, a member of the 26th Battalion, is to be decorated with 26th Battanon, is to be decorated with the D. C. M., is the news received in a letter from him by his brother, Robert McKay of Main street. The letter is written under the date of September 30 from Londop He says that in the last heavy battle he and one officer were the only two in his owno came through unscratched when he was coining along an old road he came suddenly on a German guard, who on seeing him fired but, he claims, he was too quick for him and a duel fol-lowed which ended in the German be-ing killed. Shortly after killing the German he ran into a dugout which had in it more than fifty Germans and, as he had the advantage in having them connered he took all fifty prisoners. For this act, he says, he has been recommended for the D. C. M. He is about thirty-four years old and prior to enlistment was a longshoreman. A wife and one child reside in Anne street:

R. E. Armstrong, secretary of the board of trade, has had a letter from the agent-general in London, informing him that his son, Lieutenant R. Fraser Armstrong, who recently went to England in command of an artillery draft, had call-Lieutenant Armstrong was in the best of health and reported an excellent passage across the Atlantic. Ottawa, Oct. 16-The adoption of the Cartan of MacLean of Duart by Lienenant-Colonel Guthrie, for the 236th Overseas Battalion, New Brunswick Kilties, Sir Sam's Own, has resulted in the members of the MacLean clan in the demanding the right to wear their own tartan while fighting the battles of the

The 236th Battalion was originally authorized to recruit only in New Brunswick, but as a result of representation authorities here, a conference was hele vesterday by Lieutenant-General Sin Sam Hughes and Lieutenant-Colone Guthrie, at which it was arranged that the 236th Battalion may recruit "all the MacLeans and their co out Canada.

To Speak in Ontario.

Lieutenant-Colonel Guthrie, who was one of the speakers at the "Bon Accord" delegation held at Montreal, and other places in the province of Quebec, last week, has been notified to be one of the speakers at the meetings which will be held by a distillation of Total to the contract of the speakers. held by a similar delegation at Toronto-St. Catharines, Peterboro, Kitchener, Brockville and Ottawa during the first week of November. It is expected that at the same time he will make his anuncement as to the recruiting of th MacLeans for his battalion.
Lieutenant-Colonel Guthrie is leaving

Ottawa today for Montreal and will arrive at Fredericton on Wednesday noon.
A meeting of the officers of his battalion will be held ther on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the arrangements for the next portion of the recruiting campaign in New Brunswick will be made.

The letter from Sir Robert Borden to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, inviting the latter's co-operation in forming a joint parliamentary committee of both parties to issue "a clear and explicit call" for war service, only reached Sir Wilfrid this fafternoon. He will reply to the prime minister tomorrow.

minister tomorrow.

The premier's suggestion is for a com mittee of twelve members, seven from the government side and five from the opposition ranks. Apart from the fact that the suggestion for coalition is now decidedly belated and that there is pracdecidedly belated and that the proposed tically no new or specific action proposed by the government it may be pointed out that the formation of a joint parlia-mentary committee might be more pro-perly timed when parliament is in ses-sion and when the members themselves would appoint their own committee.

While expressing his full desire to pro mote in every way possible the prope organization of war efforts in Canada i 2 is probable that Sir Wilfrid will suggest to the leader of the government that more practical results might be reached by asking a committee of representative business men, labor men, agriculturists, etc., to meet and issue the suggested na-1 tional appeal.

Pay Day for Kifties.

Fredericton, Oct. 16-The initial ship o ment of pipes for the 286th Kilties Battalion have left Glasgow for their first iourney overseas to the land of the journey overseas to maple leaf to return shortly producing the wild skirl of the highlands, propelled se-by the lung power of sterling Scotchmen of this country. They will arrive in Canada this week. It is reported that Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, who has had charge of the pipe fund, has recived subscriptions for nearly $2,000 and the first money from this fund was received to-day at the battalion headquarters.

This was pay day for the Kilties, and although the boys are fitted out with highland skirts they proved beyond a doubt that they never keep their money in their stocking leg, and Fredericton is receiving the benefit of their presence in town. Hard fisted Scottish thrift and en economy, which is a characteristic of the boys, but the blood's there, and that is he the fighting essential at the present tim including the men of the special of company and the boys made a fine appearance in their kilts. The pipe hand now boasts from fifteen to twenty pieces and makes a "joyful noise" every morning on the mounting of a new guard, and ing on the mounting of a new guard, and continues in mournful meter all day long, while the musicians are putting in hard hours of practice. It is believed that the battalion will be filled in record time now that all Canada becomes its recruiting area, and the tight little island at of Cana Beston is executed to the state of of Cape Breton is expected to give large contribution of Major Cuthbert Morgan and Captai

ROUMANIANS TURN ON CRIPPLED ENEMY. WINNING BACK GROUND

Allied Offensive in West Makes Further Reinforcement of Teuton Lines Inadvisable

Original Twelve or Fourteen Divisions Gathered for Campaign of "Hate" Now Well Shattered - Allies in West Seek to Strike Decisive Blow in Three Directions Which Will Shatter Whole German Front Rather Than Mere Capture of Bapaume and Peronne.

(London Times Special Cable to The Telegraph.) Bucharest, Oct. 18, via London, Oct. 19—It has already been fifteen days since the enemy began hammering at the Roumanian front in the Carpathians, which has become the tomb of thousands of our mies. The rush of Germans against the new fighting front can easily be understood as after defeats in the western and eastern fronts this is the only place where they hoped to find a spectacular victory. The Germans and their allies are playing now what is hoped to be their last card, for if repulsed in the southeast, the whole game will probably be considered lost. They are well aware of this. They have drawn from both of the principal fronts all available troops, comprising from twelve to fourteen divisions, and have massed them against the small country. Although it is more than a formicht im against the small country. Although it is more than a fortnight ce the Roumanians had to withdraw, the enemy has not advanced. The impetuous attacks of the Bavarian Highlanders were relised with enormous losses at the points which the enemy pene-

Sets have pieced the Bulgarian second line, and are now confronted by the third and final the on the western slopes of Morsbove range, which brings them appreciably nearer to Monastir.

As yet no decisive tesult has been achieved by either the Austro-Germans or the Russians in the violent fighting that has been going on for several days in Volhynia and Galicia. The Petro-Lygrad war office says that near kiselin and Sviniusky, in Volhynia, violent attacks by the Teutonic Alles were repulsed, while Berlin records the capture of Russian trenches on the west bank of the Stokhod and the repulse, with heavy casualties, of Russian attacks near Buhnow.

But BRUMANIANS RESUME OFFENSIVE.

Near the Rucar Torzburg pass the Roumanian troops were driven back and took a strong defensive line and are now holding their own. At some points the troops took the offensive. At the Oitoz pass the enemy was repulsed over the frontier and in the Buzeu Valley where the troops had taken positions at Vama Buheu.

On the rest of the front the Roumanians are resisting with strong attacks, counter-attacking at many points, the positions changing hands several times daily. The inventive spirit of the troops found a new method of fighting by rolling from heights barrels of flame which spread panic among the enemy. Although the Roumanians strongly hold the passes, it cannot be assumed that the crisis has permanently passed. Lessons learned in the present war show that the Germans will probably continue to send reinforcements as long as the fine weather will permit operations in this mountainous region.

And the state of the control of the

THE CASE OF CHEENER.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER AND THE WAR

At London Sir Wilfrid Laurier stated clearly, as he has done before, his osition in regard to the war. It was a war entered upon by a British government that abhorred war. But "it was clear to all pacifists that nothing would avail but such a victory as would crush forever from the minds of the German people the belief in atrocious theories and monstrous doctrines." Hence the act. ion of the Canadian government was supported by the Opposition; the criticism was not obstructive, but was directed toward increasing effectiveness. The people are being advised to exercise thrift, and the strictest possible economy should be applied to the public services.

While there should be energy and efficiency in war measures, there should be a clear view as to what we are fighting for. We are fighting to maintain the British system, as opposed to the Prussian system. Therefore we must keep the British system free, and not succumb to any temptation to follow Prussian methods. Such temptations do exist, and it is idle to ignore them. In a state of war certain restrictions are placed upon liberties enjoyed in time of peace. The whole community, to some extent, shares the discipline of the soldier. But always we must keep in view the aim of the war, which is not only the maintenance, but the enlargement afredom. Upon this point Sir Wilfrid

"For my part, British Liberal as I am—I do not know what the future may bring, but I have no hesitation in stating what my aspirations and hopes for British Liberalism may be. Let Britain remain true to the glorious past. Let her be in the future, as in the past, in the van of progress to that higher civilization which is now on trial, but which we hope to see, nay, are confident of seeing, emerge from the ordeal of blood and fire victorious, more glorious and "I repeat, sir, this war has got to be fought to a finish." So it is that firmly, resolutely, we go on until victory is won. But then, let the better angels of our nature guide our course. There are many speculations now as to what at the present time. It will depend on the extent of our victory. At all events f the victory be greaf or small, and I repeat that I think it ought to be great and thorough, it is not revenge that we are seeking. It is simple justice and freedom for the rest of Europe."

The chief result of a decisive victory will be to enable Canada and the other parts of the Empire, and our Allies, to proceed, secure from attack, with donestic reforms. Hence Mr. Rowell, declaring as Sir Wilfrid Laurier did for resolute action for a decisive victory, reviewed and emphasized his policy of social reform, spoke of the development of the Hydro-Electric system and government control of nickel, and advocated a real protection of Ontario forests om fire. In a large sense these are measures, not only of development, but of Mr. Redmond moved his resolution in the presence of a crowded house. Among those in the gallery were Lord Stanfordham, King George's private secretary.
