

almost totally spoiled with wet, and the few that remain are of a pale, yellow, sickly color, and will hardly return as much as the seed sown in the Spring, while those on the drained land are exceedingly thrifty and well loaded, not a sickly vine appearing on tea acres. Now, with regard to durability of underdrains, all I shall say is, that there is no fear of them wearing out in man's lifetime, but they seem to get better year after year; and the satisfaction obtained from walking on dry ground, instead of wading through water and mud each spring, and fall, is certainly very great. I am certain that any person who is willing to risk ten dollars in under-draining some wet pieces of ground will be well pleased with the result, and will speedily make his application at the tile yard for a supply of draining material.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Amherst Gazette & Railway Commissioners.

To the Editor of the Chignecto Post.

MAGGAS, 30th Nov. 1871.

Sir,—The cold weather has electrified the Editor of the Amherst Gazette into extraordinary vitality, developed in his leading article in last week's issue, "Our Railway," and which appears to have been written under high pressure.

The editor informs his readers "but from what we know of the action of the Commissioners we must say that their course has been one of haggling from the beginning to the present, and will be to the end, if the Government allows them to continue to retain the position they have so long disgraced," and having so delivered himself, he, with the most charming innocence, hopes he will not be considered censorious.

There can be no doubt it is a great disappointment to the Maritime Provinces that the Intercolonial Railway they have so long been anticipating is not yet completed, or, at any rate, that the Section between Truro and Amherst is not opened. But this anxiety should not justify the Amherst Gazette in writing and publishing such cruel slanders. I use a word which signifies "a false tale, a report maliciously uttered and tending to injure the reputation of another by bringing him in the esteem of his fellow citizens, by exposing him to impeachment and punishment by impairing his means of living" and will not mildly call it "censures."

If the Editor knows the Commissioners have been haggling from the beginning and have so long disgraced their position, I call upon him to state distinct facts capable of being investigated, to justify such an attack. If he cannot do so, let him admit his accusation is unfounded; if he can, let him; and at the same time explain how it is; that he is a watchman, guarding the public interest having known from the beginning of the misconduct of the Commissioners and witnessed their waste of Public moneys and postponing the finishing of the Railway, has until the present time kept silent.

"Mr. McLellan is only interested in Contractors." What an infamous charge to make against a Government official. Receiving a handsome salary to contract on behalf of the Public with others, he prostitutes his position and becomes himself a contractor. What more disgraceful charge can be made against a public man—a commissioner entrusted with the expenditure of public money, associating himself with Contractors and robbing the public by giving a larger price for the work, or by having the work performed in an inferior manner. Mr. Chandler appears satisfied with the building up of Moncton. What innocuous are his intentions in this charge. No one who reads it but must ask himself why Mr. Chandler is so apprehensive of being considered censorious. Out upon such squabbles. If Mr. McLellan is interested in Railway Contracts, publish the fact, and he will no longer disgrace the position of Commissioner. If Chandler is satisfied with the building up of Moncton to the neglect of his duty to the public, let it be known and his power for injury will cease; for no Government would dare for an instant to sustain them, but would ignominiously dismiss them branded for dishonesty.

The charge made by the Amherst Gazette against the Commissioners are, that with ample funds at their disposal they, for base and selfish objects, are haggling the finishing of the road to extend the period on which they will draw their thousands a year salary, and are actually disgracing their position, by diverting to their own benefit the public moneys entrusted to their charge. To speak of it "as to be relieved of any charge of censoriousness" as does the Amherst Gazette, is to be called a keen business operation. To speak of it as it means, is to call it a swindle. We again call upon the Amherst Gazette to publish what he knows.

The Gazette owes it to the public to give his proofs, if he has any, and to the Commissioners if he has none he must therefore give facts or retract.

Yours,
AN ENQUIRER.

The Sessions.

The Sessions met on Tuesday, Justice S. F. Black presiding. The chairman delivered a well considered charge to the grand Jury calling their attention to their duties in passing the County accounts, and taking strong grounds in favor of the efforts now being made for the suppression of intemperance by withholding Tavern Licences. The following Justices were present: From Sackville Messrs Cahill, Fawcett, Kincaid, J. L. Black, Hicks, Palmer, and Ogden. One or two from each of the other Parishes were also present.
A committee consisting of Justices O'len, J. L. Black and Harshman, was appointed to investigate the County accounts, to settle the contradictory rumors prevalent is to the financial state of the County. A pound at Cole's Island was established. On motion of J. L. Black Esq., it was resolved to hand over some $60 assessed two years ago for an unopened road, and now lying in his hands, to the Sackville Overseers of the Poor. Petitions from over 500 rate-payers of Shediac against licence introduced. This prevents the issue of licences for that Parish for 12 months. Petitions from other Parishes were handed in, but owing to insufficiency of names, Licences were granted.

On the construction of Common Roads.—Henshaw, C. E., the author of this little work, has presented us with a copy, which we have perused with much pleasure. There is no one matter in which the public are so interested as good common roads, and the interest taken by Mr. Henshaw in giving to them, in a cheap and lucid publication, the conclusions of a scientific investigation, so as to enable us all to understand the essentials to a good common road, is highly praiseworthy and must be productive of good. Two things Mr. Henshaw deems "indispensable to the formation of a good road, first, thorough drainage; and secondly, an even and uniform surface, and to be kept so, after being used, by all ruts and depressions being filled up as they are formed, until the road is thoroughly consolidated. These principles underlay the whole science of road making, and if this publication has the effect of making our road makers keep them constantly in view, Mr. Henshaw's name will be blessed in the land. We shall again refer to the subject.

A STEAMBOAT, enterprise is, we understand being projected in Albert County. It is proposed to build a good sea-boat to connect Hillsborough, Hopewell, and Harvey with St. John; it being considered that the rapidly increasing business of those thriving Parishes would furnish sufficient carrying trade to pay. The capital could all be raised in Albert County. It would be a gratifying proof of the progress the country is making if such a project were successfully consummated with home capital and skill.
Has the agitation for a Steam Ferry to connect Hopewell with Dorchester fizzled out? Or are there no public spirited men in either County to press the matter to a favorable issue? It is sometimes very perilous crossing in a small open boat, and accidents have occurred. Probably if his excellency Mr. Laney were obliged to imperil his precious life, two or three times a month, in a frail boat buffeted about by the gales, and swift tides proverbial there, money would soon be found for a Steam Ferry. We trust that the agitation of this public improvement, as well as the railway extension at Dorchester to a deep water terminus, will not be allowed to drop. The prosperity of Dorchester rests upon these improvements being carried out, besides they would form an important railway feeder. The Dominion revenues for the past year are represented to be wonderfully large—every channel of State almost choked with golden sands—and nothing appears lacking but the determination to carry these improvements forward. The time has arrived when the isolation of Albert in respect to Westmorland should cease.

DORCHESTER GAOL has its full complement of prisoners. A boy 18 years old, John Ballard, is awaiting trial for horse stealing at Moncton. John is positive he was drunk when he took the horse. What he thinks looks bad, however, is when he got sober he forgot all about returning the animal, "swapped him off," and "swapped" again two or three times, and the last horse died on his hands. A bad piece of business, entirely.
The Kay family from Petticoat, accused of stealing bedding, furniture, &c., from Dr. Peck, will create a nice little bill for the County to foot up. Kay has been a fine looking man, is about thirty-five years old, and of respectable parentage; has been in bed for two years of some lingering disorder. His wife and one son thirteen years old, are in gaol with him. They have three younger children. Their servant girl, Mary Ritchie, confined with them, partly on whose evidence they were committed, belongs to the femina puce class; a class unhappily on the increase in our country towns. Mrs. Kay, who has evidently seen as much of the world as is good for her, is very voluble in her protestations of innocence. The annals of our criminal courts do not often record the incarceration of a whole family over for a petty crime.

Queen Victoria's personal fortune is said to be about $5,000,000, or only a little more than double the available assets of Mr. Tweed.

A SENSATION was created at service in a Country Church not long since by the appearance of a playing card—the Jack of Clubs—conspicuously inserted in the pocket of the Sexton. As may be readily imagined, the more circumspect of the congregation were horrified; and the more giddy, inwardly convulsed. As the Sexton boasted about with his usual collected and dignified deportment, the former were thunder struck with his calmness. It turned out however that he was totally unconscious of the presence of this symbol of worldly pleasures; a mischievous church-goer having picked it up on the street and on arriving at the door had slipped it into the good man's pocket.

DIVORCES, it is shown by Statistics, occur less frequently in families where husbands provide their wives with a Family Weed Sewing Machine. G. E. Ford, Agent.

A YOUNG MINISTER, possessing more than ordinary pulpit energy, when spreading himself before a primitive congregation in a settlement in the Maritime Provinces, had occasion to speak of the promptness with which any of his hearers would raise the alarm, if he saw any of his neighbors property in danger of being destroyed. Hereupon he suddenly stopped, fixed his eye as if gazing on some object seen through the window, and shouted "a fire! a fire!" with such natural earnestness that his congregation started up in affright, and rushed out to aid in extinguishing it, leaving him to conclude his burst of eloquence to empty benches.

THE RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS, we learn have been evaluating one of the greatest benefactors of mankind by weeding out all superfluous officials but their efforts in promoting the public good are insignificant when compared with Weed Sewing Machines. G. E. Ford, Agent.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—On Saturday the Postal Car on a train proceeding to and about seven miles from Truro, broke from the centre of the train and rolled down an embankment, and the rest of the train proceeded on about a mile (down grade) when the loss was discovered, and the train returned and rescued the persons who were in the car who were only bruised.

THE DARK AGES must, indeed have been deficient in everything that adorns and beautifies life when we consider that Weed Sewing Machines are a modern invention. G. E. Ford, Agent.

FALSE PRETENCES.—A young man named John Sullivan living at Memcook was arrested on Monday, charged by D. H. Cullhoun Esq., with selling a cow that did not belong to him; a penitentiary offence under the Dominion Acts. His examination before Justice Gilbert was postponed till Monday, and he was released on bail; C. E. Knapp his attorney having entered into recognizance.

HUSBANDS at the approaching season of Joy and Thanksgiving should cement the bonds of domestic peace by presenting their wives with a Weed Sewing Machine. G. E. Ford, Agent.

THE HONORABLE STORY going the rounds of the Press in respect to the crimes of Barnacle Bill, a Wrecker and Pirate, belonging to Devil's Peak, Chance Cove, Newfoundland, turns out to be wholly the work of an imaginative writer on a New York paper. The story bristles with as many horrible details as a first class sensational novel.

A GONE GOOSE.—On Saturday night a gentleman called at a Provision Store on Charlotte street and purchased a fine fat dead goose. The purchaser requested the proprietor of the store to take charge of it until he would call for it in the evening.
Shortly after the gentleman had gone on his way rejoicing, one of those abundant and troublesome individuals called small boys, stepped into the store and informed the proprietor that Mr. (the purchaser) had sent him for the goose. The proprietor of the store at first hesitated, but after propounding a number of questions, felt satisfied that the boy was sound on the goose and handed over the bird. Soon after this the purchaser called in proper person, and inquired for his purchase, and on being told that it was gone at once saw the foul play of which he was a victim.
A number of persons were in the store at the time of the purchase and it is supposed the boy being among them overheard the directions given, and seeing that everything was lovely and the goose hung high, operated accordingly.

The Brig. "Gem," of St. John, N. B., was totally lost at Scatarie Island on the 22nd ult. The crew were saved. The brig, had anchored to the southward of the lighthouse the night previous, and during the morning the wind blew strong from the south, increasing to a gale at 3 p. m., at which hour, she drove ashore close to the light, and went to pieces. The Superintendent of the Scatarie Light-house, who sends the foregoing to the department of Marine and Fisheries, says that a heavy gale was experienced at that place on Saturday last—probably the heaviest for some years past.

On Saturday the 14th ult., as a Hopeman crew of fishermen were drawing their haddock lines at sea about four miles from the shore and in water about 25 fathoms deep, one of the men (Macpherson) discovered attached to one of the hooks the working parts of a watch, entirely undriven, watchmaker, Elgin, who after examining it made the remarkable discovery that the name and number of the watch corresponded to one he had sold to the late William Scott, fisherman, Branderburgh, who lost his life some three years ago by falling overboard while at sea in quest of mussels. Scott's body was never recovered.—Forrest Gazette.

THE WEEKLY GLOBE.

FOR 1872 $1 per Year, Payable in Advance.

WE beg to direct the attention of our friends throughout the country to the excellence and cheapness of the Weekly Globe. Without special efforts of any kind, it has gradually won its way into favor, and is now largely circulated in all parts of the Province. It has a good corps of correspondents abroad, and its compilation of Home and Foreign News enables it to present to its readers a faithful record of current events.

80 Papers will be sent to one Address for $15.

80—Gentlemen who have kindly acted as our Agents in the past will confer a favor by continuing to act in that capacity; and we would thank any of our friends, whether known to us personally or not, to endeavor to extend the circulation of the Paper.
