Immense Destruction of Property-The Hurricane Traveling Eastward.

St. Louis, Mo., May 27 .- St. Louis was struck by a cyclone of frightful fury at a late hour this afternoon. Hundreds of people were killed, and the property loss is beyond estimate. At 5:20 p.m. the clouds that had covered the city since noon broke into a furious storm. Within ten minutes FOR SALE-HORSE-GOOD DRIVER-6 miles an hour, sweeping with it dense the wind reached a velocity of eighty waves of rain. The screeching of the wind through the electric wires, the crash of debris that it swept in every direction, the electric flashes from tangled wires, and crashing thunder made a scene indescribable. The loss of life is appalling. At 7 p.m. the lowest estimate of fatalities n East St. Louis and this city is placed at 300. East St. Louis suffered probable that HUNDREDS OF PASSENGERS went down with them. It is impossible to get reports from the police stations, where many of the dead and injured have been taken, and, consequently, all statements in this regard up to the present time are the merest conjectures, but there is no doubt that the loss of life is greater than anything the country has known since the disaster at Johnstown. One thing which aided the storm in its course of destruction was the valley which separates North and South St. Louis, along which the railroads entering the city from the east and west have their tracks and yards, and through which they have access to the Union Station at Twenty-first street. This depression is some 40 or 50 feet in lepth-a regular valley, in fact-and had the tornado confined itself to this channel the loss of life would not have been so great. But at this point the streets sloped down, thus affording a means of egress for the great destroyer. It is evident that the tornado pursued a track of many miles in length, as reports from various railroad stations show that no news has been received from any point west of here as far as Moberly. Scattered information shows that between Moberly and here various small towns have been wiped out, and many persons in them It was at first thought that scores had been killed at the fair grounds, in the western part of the city, where the roof of the grand stand was blown off while the last race was being run, but it is now known that the people at the track saw the storm coming and took refuge in the adjacent

Very Excellent Pianos-Most Elegant Instruments Seen Anywhere-Singing Qualities all that an Artist Could Desire-Broad, Rich, Massive Tone-Nothing to Fear from Foreign Competition.

THE BELL PIANO COMPANY (LIMITED), GUELPH, ONT.

Tecumseh House, London, April 28, 1896.

Dear Sirs,—It gives me pleasure before leaving Canada to testify to the very excellent Pianos of your manufacture which I have met with and used in connection with my song recitals in this country. The Upright Concert Grand which was placed at my disposal by your manager in London I unhesitatingly pronounce as one of the most elegant instruments that I have seen anywhere, and whilst its singing qualities were all that an artist could desire, it possessed in addition that broad, rich, massive tone which is absolutely indispensable for solo purposes. I heartily congratulate you on your latest achievements in piano construction, and believe that so long as the present high standard of your instruments is maintained your company can have nothing possible to fear from foreign competition. R. WATKIN-MILLS. I am faithfully yours,

Troops Fought Their Way Inch by Inch-

graph has a dispatch from Buluwayo which gives a description of the fight of Capt. Plumer's force with the insurgents south of Buluwayo. "It was a stirring battle scene," says the correspondent. "Amid the cheers of the white troopers and the hoarse war shouts of King Khama's while the hills were resounding with Zulu war songs, the Bechuanas rushed on the rebels, who were under the protection of their kopjes. There was an incessant rattle of rifles and of maxim guns. The troops fought their way, inch by inch, through the bush until the enemy was suddenly struck by a panic and retreated. They were chased two miles and had 100 "It is believed there were 3,000 rebels engaged, and it is supposed that they are now massing in the Matoppo Hills for a final stand. Cecil Rhodes is expected here hourly."

SCORED 887 RUNS. The latest English sporting papers

bring accounts of the first two days play in the country match between Yorkshire and Warwickshire, in which the former put on the magnificent total of 887 runs. The mach took place on the grounds of the latter. Yorkshire batted first, and early in the second day the record of the individual hundreds for one side in one ball lovers may reasonably expect a winning team. One thing may truthfully be said of it—it will be the score in county matches went by the long before the eighth wicket Alerts are handicapped by a poor start in the race for the pennant, but the season is early, and if they play a record for a time—was passed with out further loss. Afterward's Lanca-shire's total of 801 against Somerset at Taunton, which was the biggest aggregate for first-class county cricket, was beaten with the two wickets still to fall, and before the end the phenomenal performance by the last Australian team of 843 against Oxford and Cambridge Past and Present, at Portsmouth, in 1893, was topped. London, Thursday, May 28.

Where the Money Has Gone. Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, when Premier of Canada, wrote that one of his hardest tasks was to prevent the public treasury from being exploited for private purposes. Hon. Mr. Foster, of the Tupper Government, is going up and down the country quoting the deceased Premier's letter as an indication of the kind of men who supported the Mackenzie Administration. It is difficult to see where the application comes in, except it be to the fact that the Liberal party put leaders in power who regarded it as their first duty to prevent any boodling or malappropriation of e's taxes, whereas Mr. Foster millions of dollars of public boodled by subordinates. rast is so marked that it Mr. Mackenzie's manly declaration, to force it to be made. We have for years had a Government which does not govern-an aggregation that has spent its time, not in looking after the manof their departments, and running them on a business basis, but in intriguing to get ahead of their fellow-politicians and to retain office at all hazards. Then, when it is found that the public has been defrauded, that public money has been stolen, a deputy is blamed, a bluff is made at punishing him, he is dismissed for a time, and then taken back to keep his mouth shut, for he knows too much to make it safe to permanently cast him out, scapegoat though he has been put the case effectively when, discussing the Soulanges Canal scandal, he said: "But in the Department of Public Works and in the Department of Railways and Canals there is no public work completed within the last twelve years that has not cost from 50 to 100 per cent more ought to have cost, and every one of them has been attenddisgrace, fraud and scandal. And yet the Minister says: 'I did not know anything about it; I was not there; I left it to my deputy." The evidence is to be found in the records of the House, and it may be profitable to summarize some of the means whereby millions of dollars of be boodled. How much additional has been stolen may not be known till the new Administration, soon to be established, goes into power,

St. Charles Branch Railway $822,000; cost of land damages, over $900,-

Tay Canal (six miles)-Estimated 128; revenue for 1894, $126; cost of maintenance, 1894, $2,458.

Little Rapids Lock-Contract estimate of cost,$86,680; paid to contractor, the Crookes tube with the ordinary X $260,000; contractor's claims unpaid, $6,100; no traffic and no receipts from the work.

Galops Rapids Channel (Cornwall Canal)-Contract price, $306,600; paid o contractor, $446,500; contractor's claim still unpaid, $130,000. The Minister of Canals declared in Parliament after the work was taken over that no one would use it. Sheik's Island Dam (Cornwall Canal) -The original contract was canceled, and a work abandoned upon which $15,500 of money was absolutely thrown away. The new work was given to a favored firm of contractors without tenders, who have been allowed $22,- Langevin Block-Estimate of cost, less than $500,000; already paid, $781,-000; outstanding claims, $250,000. Contractor Charlebois had this clause put into the contracts which other contractors on the building had with the Government: "The contractors will agree to bind themselves to buy the right of way from the contractor, Mr.

Charlebois." Connolly-McGreevy Works-Cost to contractors of work, $2,184,259; cost to country, $3,138,234; contractor's profits, $953,975; loss to country after deducting a fair profit, $700,000. Printing Bureau Scandal-Senecal's commissions on purchases of supplies and machinery, $50,000.

Curran Bridge-Estimated $123,000; Government commissioner's estimate of reasonable cost, $160,000; actual cost, $430,000; stolen from the country, $270,000.

Campaign contributions paid by Senstor Ross to Sir Adolphe Caron, and Jack Potts in any way.

recouped by subsidy to the Lake St.

John Railway, $25,000. Fredericton and St. Mary's Bridge-Paid-up capital of company, $20,000; Government loan at 4 per cent, $300,-000; Government bonus, $30,000; total cost of bridge, $418,000; floating debt of bridge, $19,000; interest due the Government upon loan since 1888, $66,000; total amount of public money sunk in the private speculation, $396,000.

Caraquet Railway-$224,000 of pubic money has been put into this sinkhole. The road is not paying running expenses, and the public expenditure which was incurred for election purposes, is a total loss.

Ald. Nutkins said he had received numerous complaints about the lights going out in the vicinity of Dufferin avenue and Quebec street. It was thought that this matter should have been reported by the police, but this was a section which the police seldom visited.

Ald. Skinner—That's the trouble.

The police don't get in half the reports. He moved that the engineer be instructed to notify the electric light company about the general dissatisfaction all over the city, and that unless improvement is made at once, action will be taken to cancel Canada. One of these days, mayhap, the contract, special mention to be made of the vicinity named by Ald

Nutkins. A lengthy letter from the oil refiner, Tahei, Japan, has bought Percha Rubber Company, of Toronto, was read. It gave the committee pointers about the keeping and use Somebody had evidently been filling the company up with "gush." On motion of Ald. Garratt the letter was received and filed. A letter from the management of Knox Church, South London, was read, requesting that the fountain in front of the church be removed. Referred to No. 2, with a recommendation that the fountain be moved to

The question of better facilities for watering the asphalt pavement was left in the hands of the chairman. Acting Street Commissioner Ironsides recommended that the macadam on the market be picked up and rolled with the steam roller. Ald.Skinner thought that this would be too expensive, and that the streets

A story is going the rounds at the expense of one of the best known men of this place. We shall not mention nis name, but you know him. Of rather determined mien, he has of late been showing signs of mental agitation. He wears a full beard, but a few days since his wife, much to her alarm, found him sharpening a razor. She thought his mind was unhinged and went into hysterics. Explanations followed, and it was found that life had for him still some charm. He intended to use the razor upon painful corns. A friend who had used Putnam's Corn Extractor with success advised its use, with the following results: Man quite wife ditto, razor sent away. Use Putnam's Corn Extractor.

Dunn, agent, Chatham; John Benedict and Peter McDonald, London, at their inability to attend. The toast list was commenced as usual, the "National Anthem" being sung in response to "The Queen."

"The Guest of the Evening" was then honored in a manner that could leave no lurking doubt about his universal popularity. The glasses were filled to the brim and heartily quaffed, after which "He's a Jolly Good Fellow" was sung, and cheering indulged in that made the walls shake. The next was an address read by Mr.

Rose, as follows: "To Mr. Williams, assistant superintendent. C. P. R.: "We, the employes of the C. P. R., on the eve of the departure of Mrs. Williams and family from this city, have concluded that we cannot allow such an occasion to pass without testifying our regards in some manner.

From the first day I took charge of the division west of Toronto, some nine years ago, it has been my idea that the division contained some of the best men of any railway in America. (Applause.) The majority of the men then on the road still hold their positions; some have been removed by death, while a few have been dismissed. I do not believe there is a man on the division but who is loyal to me-(applause)and when they are loyal to me they are loyal to the interests of the com pany and to themselves. I have to thank you most heartily for this service you have presented to my dear wife, which shall always bring to me fond remembrances of residence in London and my pleasant relations with the employes of the road. This is the proudest moment of my life. I feel too full for further utterance.' He sat down amid another burst of applause, and on his face was pictured the sentiment he failed to convey in words. 'The Greatest Railroad on Earth," was the next toast, and as Mr. Houston rose to reply he was warmly greeted. He said Mr. Williams had struck the keynote when he referred to the men on the line as the best in the world. The occasion was to him like a large, happy family gathering, but after it was all over they might feel like a flock of chickens cut loose from their mother. He paid a fitting tribute to Mr. Williams as an able railroad man, and wished him success in his new home.

Robt. Scott, roadmaster, Wood-stock, had come to London to look after Roadmaster Murphy. He congratulated Mr. Williams, and expressed his regret at losing so kind a boss. Roadmaster Murphy—I am not much of a speech-maker, but I am glad to present to do honor to the worthy lady to whom this present has been made. I have known Mr. Williams for a great many years, and have always found him honorable to all the men in his jurisdiction. Mr. Williams had during his railway career had two objects—one, the interest of the company, and the other the interests of the men. Every car in his division has had to carry its full capacity, and every engine has had to draw its full tonnage, even to the snow plow.

Thomas Leonard followed in a hubrous speech, in which he said if Mr. Murphy had not been under Mr.

ing between he and Roadmaster Rose, and which afterwards turned up all right.

Mr. Rose, Woodstock, said that in the change he felt like a man who had lost his right hand, and spoke in flattering terms of Mr. Williams. If a man was faithful to his obligations to the company he had nothing to fear from the superintendent.

had displayed. Several other gentlemen replied to this toast, and if they wore a beard were greeted with "Look at His

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier Warmly Welcomed in Rural Quebec.

Two Conservative Ex-M. P.s Join Laurier and Mowat.

Surprise Caused by Another High Tax Cave-In in Manitoba.

COULDN'T STAND TUPPER. St. John, N. B., May 28.-In Gloucester county the Liberals have se cured an exceptionally strong candidate in Mr. Turgeon, who was one of the ablest leaders on the Conservative side in Gloucester. He says he cannot follow Tupper any longer, and, attracted by Laurier's magni-ficent exhibition of statesmanship, has publicly thrown in his lot with the Liberal party. His election in the county is sure. This is the opinion of one of the leading men in Gloucester. Everywhere throughout the Province the Liberal candidates are well received. MR. LAURIER'S MOVEMENTS. Huntingdon, Que., May 28.-Mr. Laurier spent a most satisfactory day with the electors of Beauharnois and Huntingdon. The train arrived in Valleyfield in the morning, and the leader was accompanied by Hon. J. E. Robidoux and Mr. G. W. Stephens, M.P.P. Mr. Laurier paid a visit to the cotton mills, where he was received and shown through by Mr. Louis Simpson, the general manager, and at noon, accompanied by Messrs.

Tarte, Robidoux, Stephens, N. W.
Trenholme, A. L. Demartigny, E. H.
Brisson, M.P.P., A. T. Brossedt, Q.C., Wilfrid Mercier and about 30 others, he drove the ten miles to St. Louis de Gonzague, where a public meeting was called in the interests of Mr. Tarte. The village was gay with flags and bunting, and a platform was erected in the square near the church. About 1,500 electors were present, principally from Beauharnois, but there were also many from Chateauguay and Huntingdon. Warden Bow-yer was in the chair. In the course of his speech, Mr. Laurier said that he had all along wanted the Manitoba school question settled by conciliation, but the Government re-fuse. No government can settle the question in the way that the present one purposes, and the only possible way to settle it is by the means he himself proposed, and he declared that of the 215 Conservative candidates who would be nominated on June 16, more than half would be pledged against coercive legislation. The colleagues of Mr. Taillon, Mr. Desjardins and Mr. Angers in Ontario were all opposed to the Government's policy. The Government has two faces, one for Ontario and one for Quebec. STILL THEY COME. Kingston, Ont., May 28.-Yesterday's Canadian Freeman says: Hiram Calvin, the head of the firm of Calvin & Co., Garden Island, is a gentleman who is under no obligation to either political party, but has always had a leaning towards the present Government. He was elected as an independent Conservative to succeed Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick as member for Frontenac, Mr. Calvin, when a member of the Ottawa Parliament, did his own thinking, and intends to do the same now. He will not again go back to Ottawa as a member, and will be content to use his franchise like any other elector. In the meantime he has per, and has also given the general policy of each leader due consideration. Mr. Calvin has found that in the interest of all concerned a change of Government is much needed, and will, therefore, support Mr. Britton. the Liberal candidate in this city. He

IN HAMILTON. Hamilton, May 27.-Mr. A.T. Wood's address to the electors was sent out today. In it he takes strong ground against the coercion of Manitoba, promising to oppose it, no matter by whom it is introduced, and in the letter accompanying the circular Mr. T.H. Macpherson announces his agreement with the substance of his colleague's address. Even among Conservatives there is a general belief that the Reformers will win here, the peculiar composition of the Tory team making it impossible to secure harmony among the workers.

Tortures of Rheumatism.

The pains of rheumatism are removed and the disease driven from the system by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, the conquerer of thousands of the severest cases. Mrs. J. M. Monkman, of Arkwright, Ont., says: I took inflammatory rheumatism in February, 1894, and doctored for it for some weeks, found I was getting worse. All my joints were swollen very much, and I was not able to leave my bed, and could get neither sleep Hearing from a neighbor that she got your Burdock Blood Bitters for her daughter, who had the same disease and it cured her, I purchased a bottle, and after taking about the half of it I found myself recovering, and after continuing it for some time I recovered, but when the cold weather set in this winter I found it returning again. So I commenced to take the B. B. B. again, when I found, after taking it about a week, that all pain and swelling of the joints had disappeared, and I consider that I am en-

DEATH OF MRS. DANIEL LESTER.

Mrs. Daniel Lester passed peacefully away at the family residence, 308 King street, this morning, after an illness extending over several years.

Mrs. Lester had not been downstairs for over a year, but bore her sufferings with true Christian fortitude. The end was rather unexpected. Deceased was 70 years of age. She was born in Cumberland, England, on Dec. 23, 1825, and removed to this city in 1850. 1825, and removed to this city in 1850. On June 27, 1854, she was married by the late Rev. Dr. Scott, to Mr. Daniel Lester, one of the present city tax collectors. Deceased was a consistent member of St. Andrew's Church. Besides her husband, one son and one daughter, Mrs. G. A. McGillivray and John S. Lester, survive her. The funeral will be private.

Victoria, B. C., May 28 .- This morning the coroner opened an inquest into the causes of the death of the victims of the disaster, and announced that all required for the present was the identification of the bodies by the jurors, after which investigation as to the facts would go on. Several people who had been empaneled were re-moved as ineligible.

The number of wounded so far as ascertained is between 25 and 30. Four more bodies were recovered today—R. L. Holmes, son of C. L. Holmes, chairman of the board of county commis-sioners, Tacoma; Y. H. Talbot, conductor; Motorman Farr and Miss Lilly Shierrett, leaving, it is supposed three more still to be got. The clock on the insurance office showed at 3, and faint jingling of the hour came from city churches. The Swiftsure was comfortably full, and under the canvas-covered half of the deck the breeze danced refreshingly. A bell rang, and the Swiftsure backed away from the pier and then returned and bumped it once more for fun. The captain on the bridge called down the speaking-tube, the Swiftsure went out into mid-stream, selected an archway, and, its funnel lowered, went through it; the band started a selection of comic songs hewn into quadrille form; the men unloading mammoth plocks of ice at the whatves cheered; a facetious youth on board affected to shed blinding tears at the agony of leaving his native land and waved good-bye to a fictitious parent. But don't you let me go and take up all of your time, Mr. Gilbert. It's very good of you to ask us to come, I'm sure, and it would be too bad for me talk and talk and talk all the while. Is there an inquest, or any thing, in that paper you've got?" Gilbert found a good long absorbing inquest for Mrs. Reade, and that lady composed herself for an enjoyable Kittle and Gilbert walked along the deck, and watched the wharves, the old-fashioned inns squeezed tightly tween them, and the huge steamers, mid-river, unloading their cargo.

"We have here," remarked Kittie, with an imitation of the showman manner—"we have here Wapping Old Stairs, referred to in the olden days, you will remember, ladies and gentlemen, in immortal poetry that can never die. Also we have here the Thames Police Station, so called on account of it being the-er-station of the Thames police.

Cheers!" remarked Gilbert. "In the old smuggling days Wapping was a prosperous place, and a good trade in wines, spirit and cigars was carried on to the satisfaction of all but King George's revenue men. Stowe tells us---"

A curious, clean-shaven man in convex glasses was watching them with much interest. She stopped her imita-"Pardon me, miss," said Gilbert, as

The wind, coming round the bend of the river down to Greenwich, lifted a youth's straw hat and sent it out to sea. A long, deep roar of laughter came from a knot of men and girls standing near. The tears rolled down their cheeks as they watched the cross, indignant youth; the ladies had to lean against the sides and fan themselves exhaustedly with their pocket hand-

'Now that, for instance," said Miss Reade, "that just shows how difficult it is to gauge the emotions of anyone but one's self. That incident doesn't amuse me at all." Yet it has added to the gaiety of nations," remarked Gifbert. She looked out at the shipping in the docks: the masts as thick as hop poles in Kent at summer-time.

ment. "Ah!" said Mrs. Reade, "time goes on, I say, Mr. Gilbert; time goes on, doesn't it?"

"There seems to be no means of stopping it," agreed Gilbert. "Sit down here, mamma dear," suggested Kittie; "this is rather a pleas-ant seat. You will get tired if you walk too much."

"I may be past my first bloom of youth," said the old lady, with sudden hauteur; "I don't deny it; it would be useless to do so. I'm mo flonger a giddymine is to dictate to me exactly when "Come along, then, mamma." Kittle always preserved her good temper with her mother. "I'll run you to the tea-room, and Mr. Gilbert shall be referee." "There she goes," complained Mrs. Reade to Gilbert; "there she goes to the opposite extreme now. I cannot understand people who change about ed Miss Samuelson and shipped the Who's this supposed to be, I wonder?"

They looked at all the white-washed busts on their way to the tea-room. Also they found at the end of the gardens a round, boarded space members of the band perched high up in the center as though they were birds, and dozens of couples dancing strenuously to the blatant waltz. "Have I ever danced with you?" asked Gilbert

"Of course you haven't. You know "I didn't know," said Gilbert can-waltz?" "After tea, perhaps," she whispered; 'when mamma is asleep.' Nothing could exceed the frivolity and light-heartedness of the excellent Mrs. Reade at the tea-table. The jokes that versatile lady told; the humorous comments that she made on the appearance of a hard-faced, flat young waitress who attended on them! Mrs. Reade, searching through the caves of memory, brought to light astounding anecdotes of much length and some obscureness, not entirely uncon-nected with one Mr. X., a gentleman to whom she begged permission to refer thus guardedly. It delighted Gilbert to watch the admirable tact of Kittie under these trying circumstances.

"And the opera house at the time I'm speaking of," went on Mrs. Reade, pouring out her fourth cup of tea, "was at this end of the Haymarket, if you understand me, Mr. Gilbert?" "Perfectly, Mrs. Reade."

(To be Continued.) MICHIGAN'S GREAT LOSS.

The Cyclone Death List Foots Up Forty-One-Damage, $1,000,000.

Detroit, Mich., May 28.—Besides the 38 persons reported dead by the great cyclone at Oakwood, the following have passed away: At Oakwood-Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Jane Copeland, Mrs. Emily Eaton, At Whigville-George Bream. The Awful Crimes of a Utah Preacher.

Killed Girls and Cremated Them the Furnaces of the Church.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 29.-Gov. Weels has offered $500 reward for the capture of the fugitive preacher Herrpated miss of eighteen; I acknowledge mann, and other subscriptions have that frankly. But if a daughter of swelled the price on his head to $1,swelled the price on his head to $1,-000. Dentist Keyser has identified the teeth found in the church furnace ashes as those he repaired for Miss Clausen in 1891, so there is no longer doubt as to her fate.

Other developments go to show that he pastor disposed of the clothing of Miss Samuelson in various ways. Detectives think that Hermann murderremains in a large wooden box, which he made about the time she disappeared. In regard to Miss Clausen, the officers declare there is no longer the shadow of a doubt that Hermann was her murderer.

THE MISSING GIRLS. Rev. Francis Hermann is pastor of the First Scandinavian Church, and the two missing girls are Henrietta Clausen and Annie Samuelson, whom he is supposed to have murdered, cut up and cremated. When Miss Samuelson left here, January last, it was stated she indidly. "Are you engaged for this tended to visit her friend, Fritz Hiddeen, in the employ of the Pullman Car Company at Chicago. It is said a letter has been received in this city from Hiddeen saying the girl cannot be found in Chicago. The police have found books and apparel and other things in the room of Rev. Mr. Hermann in the church. These things have been identified as the property of the missing girls.

A few days before Miss Samuelson's disappearance Hermann had a large lumber box made at the yards of Taylor, Romney & Armstrong, which he had sent to the church. What was done with the box has not been explained. It is believed by many that Herman is a man with a record of crime little less extensive than that of H. H. Holmes. Hermann is of Scandinavian descent, but was born in England. He has been married three times, and it is said all his wives have died under suspicious circumstances. In his study was found a large collection of poisons and drugs of various kinds. The detectives believe the girls were outraged and murdered by the preacher. HERMANN'S RECORD. Hermann's first wife died in England under suspicious circumstances. He was pastor of a Scandinavian church at West Superior, Wis., in 1890-91, and there married a highlyrespected woman, who in less than a year died suddenly with her 2-weeks-old baby. An inquest was held, but nothing beyond a suspicion of foul play was elicited. Hermann soon married again, and came to Salt Lake in 1894 with his wife. Before long a baby was born, and the mother and child died suddenly a few weeks later. Then his acquaintance with Miss sworn to by John Sanson, a member of the church, that he murdered her, and cremated the body in the heating furnace in the church basement. He was engaged to marry Miss Samuelson in February of this year, but she disappeared, and it is charged that he poisoned her after betraying her, and carved up her body in the church cellar. As far as discovered, it is believed he had murdered seven

The church officers say that Hermann was suspended recently for embezzling church funds, and confessed his guilt, and was waiting a hearing before the annual Methodist confer-Photographs and descriptions of the man have been sent all over the country.

RAZORS IN THE FURNACE. There were found in the furnace two razors and a carving knife, with which Hermann had presumably cut up the body before depositing it in the furnace under the church. From all the evidence obtained, it appears that the cremation alluded to took nearly all of one day, and the theory advanced for the discovery of bones not entirely consumed is that the murderer must have sickened of his task and became careless before it was completed. It is presumed that he intended to complete the work at some other time, as, after the discovhe purchased some more charcoal, but did not get a chance of using It until he was called away. nedical men are agreed that the bones are those of a woman, and the woman acquaintances of the missing Miss Clausen are quite sure that the belt buckle, garter buckles and other remnants of jewelry found in the ashes in the grate of the furnace were

He did not have shrewdness enough to hide it, and the article, with its tell-tale blood stains, was found in an obscure corof the basement. Just prior to leaving, during the early part of the month, Hermann handed Mr. Hanson a box containing eight or ten vials of poison and some bottles of chloroform and other drugs, among which was a vial of pills for producing malpractice. Hermann had always a stock of such stuff on hand, and would tell Mr. Hanson that, having studied medicine, he "found many of these things useful." CHLOROFORMED IN THE STUDY. Another link is formed which would seem to connect the preacher with the disappearance of Miss Clausen. The theory is that Miss Clausen was chloroformed in the pastor's study on druggists, or by mail, 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. heated. The fire was started at the request of Rev. Mr. Hermann about noon. The preacher was seen to carry sacks down to the basement, and every time the door leading thereto opened an unbearable odor Mrs. Peterson asked him where the stench came from, and he remarked that it was some old garbage that he was burning. The circumstance was thought nothing of at the time, but now it is directly in line with the theory upon which the warrant was sworn out for the arrest of

No doubt a great many, and partic ularly my customers, will be surprised to hear that my milk only tests 3.30 per cent of butterfat. I deliver milk now from the same cows, in as good condition (although they never have as yet been inspected by Dr. Hutchinson), nd fed better than they were last fall, when my milk was reported 5.01 per cent. I set a creamer full, thirteen quarts, every day, and get from it 2 3-4 quarts of cream on an average, and I defy Dr. Hutchinson or anyone else to produce milk, except from pure-bred Jerseys, that will do any better than this at this time of the year. In the report, Dr. Hutchinson has placed 110 milkmen ahead of me. Now, I am willing to stake $100 with Dr. Hutchinson or anyone there are not five milkmen delivering milk in the city whose milk will show a higher per cent of butterfat than mine, and leave it to the Government T. -The Government-Official Opposition Fizzled Out-Manitoba Schools Resolution

Collingwood, Ont., May 28.-Nothing of great importance transpired at the session of the Grand Lodge held yesterday morning. At 12:30 o'clock Grand Lodge adjourned to enjoy a trip on the bay on the steamer Majestic, on the invitation of the local committee. On resuming last evening, the report of the special committee on the Manitoba school question was taken up, and a prolonged discussion ensued. The report was as follows: "We most heartly approve of the course pursued by our M, W. grand master, Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, resigning from his position under the Government when it became evident that the Government had adopted as a part of their policy the coercion of Manitoba by interfering with the Provincial autonomy of the Province in educational matters. We have received with satisfaction the almost unanimous expressions of concurrence on the part of the order, through primary, district and county lodges, with our honored grand master in the course he has pursued, and as a Grand Lodge convened, we reaffirm our unalterable determination to stand by the principles of a non-sectarian school system, and our unswerving fidelity to Bro Wallace and those who stood with him in the support of those principles. While commending those who fought for these principles, as emphatically by resolutions at former expressed sessions of this Grand Lodge, our position would be inconsistent were we -Miss Lalla Coles, of 319 Central not to most strongly disapprove, and members of Parliament who deserted our grand master at what we consider one of the most critical periods in the movement, and who have igmored the expressed wishes of this Grand Lodge, while continuing in membership in the order, and who still manifest their determination to support remedial legislation. We have noticed with intense interest the efforts of the Roman Catholic priesthood to push remedial legislation through Parliament, and it has been a matter of great satisfaction that their efforts have been frustrated, and that our M. W. grand master, with the band of true patriots who stood with him, were able to so obstruct the measure as to defeat its enactment, and thus afford the electorate an opportunity of expressing an opinion. We again commend the conduct of those members of Parliament who are opposing Federal interference. We believe it to be the duty of every loyal Canadian to use every constitutional means to have those opposed to remedial legislation elected to Parliament, and to strenuously oppose the election of all candidates who will not openly declare their determination to oppose any legislation that will impose a separate school system upon Manitoba." The report was signed by Wm. Lockhart, D. P. Watson, A. Bradley, Wm. Galbraith, John C. Gass, Herman P. Pitts.

After a long, warm and at time exciting debate, the report was adopted, the result being received with great cheering. The election of officers was proceed ing, and resulted as follows: Mr. N. Clarke Wallace. G. M., and Mr. J. Armstrong, D. G. M., both by accla-
