McMULLEN ATTEMPTS TO GET OUT OF JAIL

WILSON FOUND GUILTY IN COX SLAYING CASE

Accused Undisturbed When Verdict Announced in Courtroom.

FEAR LIBERATION PLOT

Special Deputies Guard Building to Frustrate Escape.

Los Angeles, Cal. Sept. 1. — Herbert Wilson, former London, Ont., evangelist and reputed millionaire bandit, was tonight found guilty of first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Herbert Cox, an alleged pal.

Wilson heard the verdict of the jury without the slightest trace of emotion. The murder of which Wilson was convicted was committed on Oct. 16 last on the Bridge of Sighs joining the Los Angeles jail and court house. Wilson at his trial claimed that Cox committed suicide.

A recommendation for a sentence of life imprisonment was made by the jury.

The jury deliberated 7 hours and 45 minutes, beginning at 2 o'clock. There was no disturbance in the courtroom when the verdict was announced at 9:45 o'clock.

Assist To Escape.

In anticipation of any special demonstration or outbreak that might occur, a special corps of deputies in plain clothes were stationed in and about the courtroom of Judge Wood late yesterday afternoon. The statement of Frank Wilson to the effect that he would assist his brother, Herbert, to escape at any cost, has not been forgotten by the officers, and every precaution was taken to thwart any effort that might be made to free him.

Numerous strange faces aside from the ordinary onlookers haunted the courtroom and nearby halls. Despite the fact that the trial in itself has been very ordinary, there has been the constant feeling that the interest taken by the underworld of Los Angeles would sooner or later manifest itself.

Herbert Wilson, alleged master mind of one of the largest and most thoroughly organized bands of thieves uncovered by the Los Angeles police, is the one man more than any other that the underworld would like to set free.

Deputy District Attorney Clark, chief prosecutor for the state in the trial, closed his final argument at noon today.

Flays Evidence.

In a trial which was unique in the annals of reason of the fact that all the witnesses for both the prosecution and the defense were present.

RAPS POLICY ON UNEMPLOYMENT

British Labor Scores Government On Providing Relief Work.

LONDON, England, Sept. 2.—Canadian Press.—Criticising the government unemployment committee's proposals for dealing with the unemployment problem directly by providing relief work and indirectly by promoting trade as totally inadequate, the Labor party has put forth a program as follows:

First.—Take steps to check the flow of juveniles into the labor market; second—legally fix a maximum of a 44-hour week; third—review government contracts for the next decade and put production work in hand immediately; fourth—engage in a 5-year program of house building; fifth—effect railway and waterway repairs that are overdue; sixth—reorganize land cultivation throughout the country by agricultural committees; and seventh—increase road-making and road repairing.

In connection with the unemployment committee's proposals for dealing with unemployment, it was stated a few days ago that the government was concentrating largely on emigration as the chief solution.

WANTS TO GIVE AWAY $17,000

Gordon Miller, Claiming London as Home, Makes Offer in Vain.

Says He Must Rid Himself of Money in United States.

Midland, Mich., Aug. 30.—This morning Gordon Miller, who claims London, Ont., as his home, left Midland, Michigan, for Duluth, Minn., after he had apparently found a taker for the $17,000, which he has been trying to give away, according to his story. For two days Miller tried to make someone a present of $17,000, while staying at the Stearns Hotel in Ludington, Mich., but without avail. So he came here last night and registered at Hotel Day under the name of Gordon Miller of London, Ont.

At Ludington, Miller seemed to pick out the ministers of the city to make his donation, as he offered to donate $17,000 in cash and real estate to Rev. C. A. Lemon, pastor of the First Baptist Church and to Rev. Walter Cutler, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. But when he came to Midland he made his unusual offer to Joan Day, son of the proprietor of the Day Hotel, and to Under Sheriff E. G. Beckerson.

Miller claims that he is a former Canadian soldier, having served during the world war as an officer. He says his parents and sisters were killed in an automobile accident at Duluth. He claimed that he went to Ludington to look up an aunt, whom he found dead. His reason for coming here was not made known, except that he wanted to raise his fare to Duluth.

If one is to believe Miller's story, under the Canadian law he is entitled to a farm of 300 acres, $8,000 in cash and $95 a month, including board, for service in the Canadian army. He says he must first get rid of the $17,000 to which he is heir in the United States. He shows a letter from a nurse in a London hospital, who says she will try to send him $100, because he makes one condition in giving away the $17,000, and that is that his fare be paid to Duluth.

The fact that he paid his hotel bill here this morning, after claiming to have no funds, and departed on the morning train, leads local people to believe that he found a person willing to accept his money.

PROTEST KILLING BELGIAN SOLDIERS

Berlin, Sept. 2.—A semi-official statement, made public today, says the shooting of two Belgian soldiers at Ober Cassel, Rhineland Prussia, yesterday will be most severely condemned, and that immediate clearing up of the affair is desirable in the interest of Belgium as well as Germany.

Brussels advices, telling of the shooting at Ober Cassel yesterday, said unidentified persons, who were not captured, killed a sentinel doing duty in the Belgian occupied territory, and likewise shot down a sergeant who went to his assistance. M. Jasper, the Belgian foreign minister, ordered a protest telegraphed to Berlin, together with a demand for an apology.

WOULD ADD TO CITY'S REVENUE

Diversion of Percentage of Amusement Tax Sought by Municipalities.

Association Makes Recommendation on Matter to Provincial Legislature.

Provided that the recommendation to the Ontario Legislature, made by the Ontario Municipal Association in session at Toronto this week, that the members consider the advisability of paying a percentage of the revenue derived from the sale of amusement taxes theatre, pool rooms, billiard rooms and bowling alley licenses to municipalities is put into effect, London will benefit to the extent of several thousands of dollars per year.

This recommendation was unanimously approved by the convention, and if ratified officially by the legislature, will provide a lucrative revenue to municipalities of the province.

In addition the meeting passed a resolution that the legislature of the province and department of highways be requested to enact such legislation as will provide for the standardizing and erection of danger signals on the roads and highways throughout the province. A rider attached to this resolution urges that the Dominion Railway Board provide that at points where electric signs are used, or are necessary as warning at railway crossings, these said signs be placed at both sides of the railway crossings at a distance of not less than fifty feet from the railway.

It is expected that this recommendation will meet with the approval of the Legislature, as it is drafted in the interests of public safety, and will mean a reduction in traffic accidents throughout the province. The convention requested the Legislature to consider the passing of a law providing for superannuation of all municipal officers of the province. As London has on the civic staff several veteran officers, this recommendation is of particular local interest, as it will be necessary within a short time to superannuate them.

Other resolutions passed by the association included one asking that municipal councils be given control over creeks and other non-navigable streams, which give a great deal of trouble to municipalities by flooding each year, thereby causing damage.

TORONTO GREET BRITISH NOTABLES

The British visitors inspected the Canadian National Exhibition, passing many complimentary remarks on the big fair.

They left for Port McNicoll this afternoon.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

St. John, N. B., Sept. 2.—Arrived: Solana, Tampico. Sailed: West Nopaka, London.

OBJECT TO FUEL CONTROLLER'S INTERFERENCE

Fifteen London Dealers May Lose License To Sell Coal.

THINK CITY PRICE HIGH

Can Offer Same Grade Fuel For $2.50 Less Per Ton.

That J. A. Ellis, of Toronto, fuel controller for Ontario, has written letters to fifteen coal dealers of London, threatening to refuse to issue licenses for them to sell fuel this winter, because they have refused to purchase and retail Ohio lump coal obtained by the city of London, was the announcement made here Saturday morning.

George R. Kettle, one of the coal dealers who has received a letter from Mr. Ellis, informed The Advertiser Saturday that he will not accept any of the city-purchased soft coal, which is to retail at $15, because he now possesses a stock of bituminous coal of equal quality, which he offers for $12.50 per ton delivered to city cells, but which he cannot sell. "I have 25 tons of good soft coal," said Mr. Kettle, defending his action. "It is known as Miller's Quick, and is as good as the city coal, but I cannot make the people buy it, although I offer it at $12.50 per ton, in contrast to $15 for city coal. I don't see why I should take similar quality coal and try to sell it for $15 when I have no orders for the $12.50 fuel."

"Fuel Controller Ellis wrote me a letter after Mayor Wilson reported me for not taking the city coal. The controller did not say he would refuse me a license, but intimated that he might not give me one if I did not take city coal. There are fifteen dealers in the city who refused to take the city coal and they have all received letters from Mr. Ellis, similar to mine."

"If Mayor Wilson would guarantee no loss on the city coal if we could not get rid of it, we would be quite willing to distribute it," continued Mr. Buchanan. "I had a quotation Friday for Pittsburgh lump coal at $5.25 per ton at the mines, which I can deliver to customers for $12.50 a ton. We cannot make the people take coal that they do not want. "We coal dealers are willing to co-operate with the city in averting a fuel famine, but we must not be interfered with in our legitimate business. We do not want to get in wrong with the provincial fuel controller, but cannot see why we should be compelled to retail coal at $15 a ton, when we have a product just as good to sell for $12.50."

"I have written Mr. Ellis, explaining the facts of the case," concluded Mr. Kettle, "and I think if a fair view is maintained on the question there will be no danger of our licenses being cancelled."

RAILWAYS CLAIM EIGHTEEN VICTIMS DURING AUGUST

Eleven Accidents Occurred at Unprotected Crossings—Five Rail Employees Are Killed.

Ottawa, Sept. 2.—By the Canadian Press.—Eighteen persons, five of them railway employees, were killed, and 221, of whom 152 were employees, were injured in railway accidents during the month of August, according to statistics issued today by the railway commission. One passenger was killed and 40 injured; five railway employees were killed and 152 injured and 12 "others" were killed and 29 injured during the month. Highway crossing accidents accounted for four deaths and injuries to 15 persons. Eleven of the crossings were unprotected; two had bells, one a watchman, and one a gate. ### Million and Half Bushels of Grain Moving From West Daily

Special to London Advertiser.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 2.—Grain was moving through Winnipeg to the head of the lakes all this week at the rate of a million and half bushels a day. Total for the week runs close to nine million bushels. The daily average of cars loaded was around 400, and this will be increased to 600 next week. Absence of smut is a very noticeable feature this year, also high grading, except from districts where weeds have been threshed with grain.

Seventy-five per cent of the wheat at present is coming from Manitoba, the great wheat-raising province of the west, while Saskatchewan is hardly shipping any wheat yet. When that province starts cars will average around 1,500 to 2,000 daily.

GOMPER'S FLAYS RAIL INJUNCTION

Characterizes Action of U. S. Government as "Outrageous."

BULLETIN.

New York, Sept. 2.—Interest in the United States strike situation today centered in the possibility of a general strike of organized labor all over the country, bringing about a national situation similar to that which tied up the city of Winnipeg when the "One Big Union" faction of Canadian labor held sway there three years ago.

While Samuel Gompers, chief of the American Federation of Labor, has been very guarded in his statements, he has indicated a general strike, there is strong belief that a walk-out embracing practically all unions under the control of the federation may be organized labor's reply to the move made by the government yesterday.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Under restrictions placed upon them by the United States government, by means of the most drastic and far-reaching temporary injunction ever issued in an industrial crisis, the 300,000 railroad shopmen who walked out on July 1 in protest against wages and working conditions prescribed by the railroad labor board, today had entered a new era of the nationwide rail strike.

The life of the temporary injunction extends to Sept. 11, when Judge Wilkerson will hear a motion for a permanent order.

Meanwhile the executive council of the American Federation of Labor prepared to meet on Sept. 3. Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, who condemned the injunction as "outrageous," said in Washington that communications from labor organizations requesting the federation to sponsor a general strike in sympathy with the shopmen would be placed before the council then "purely as a matter of routine business."

Officials of the federation explained that it was not within the authority of the council to order, or even authorize, a general strike. Such action, they said, would require a "national convention."

At the same time, officials of the shop crafts asserted that the order would have no effect on continuance of the strike. In a statement issued by the executive council of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor, strike leaders pledged to aid by their every power enforcement of the injunction against "lawlessness and violence" in connection with the strike. From the White House came the declaration that the federal government will not stop with the restraining order if it finds "that other steps are necessary."

BLAMES U. S. A. ALOOFNESS FOR EUROPE'S CHAOS

Col. E. M. House Says America Must Help Sooner or Later.

UNDERSTANDS FRANCE

Declares Britain and U. S. Together Can Restore World.

Special to London Advertiser.

London, Sept. 2.—"Europe is in a worse condition now than it was last year."

That is the judgment of Col. E. M. House, one-time unofficial American ambassador to Europe. He has made an all-summer study of what he terms "a very sick patient."

"And there is no sure cure, no panacea, no patent cure-all," he said. The blame, he says, rests largely on America's policy of aloofness. "It is not very easy to be optimistic about sick Europe's condition," said Col. House, in an interview, "when one considers the chaos of Russia, the hopeless despair of Austria, the collapse of the German mark, and the apparent drifting apart of France and England over German reparation payments."

Needs Cash.

"France's position is understandable. More than any other nation she needs two things—cash and safety. Vast sums are needed to repair war damage to territory, which she alone has had to endure."

"And France alone looks across an imaginary boundary line, face to face with a Germany she fears, with her ever-growing population, her industrious workmen, her factories and farms intact. France fears a Germany bent on a war of revenge."

"Things would have been different for France, for Germany and for the world at large if the United States and Britain had honored the signatures of their representatives. France would have been free from fears if these two nations had signed the pact guaranteeing her from German aggression. She would have been in a different frame of mind about German reparations. She would feel that she cannot reduce the size of her army, expensive as it is."

Regret United States Action.

Col. House declared that Germany's most statesmanlike and most far-sighted men of affairs told him last year how much they regretted that America and England did not sign the pact to protect France.

"These Germans feel that such a pact would have eased the situation between Germany and France," he said. "That it would have led to a quicker restoration of Europe."

Germany, in Col. House's opinion, lost her strongest man in the assassination of Walter Rathenau.

In discussing the proposed cancellation of inter-allied debts, he said:

"That all goes back to the Versailles peace conference. If we had given France the guarantee she wanted, it is possible that some plan could have been worked out at Versailles which would have helped to stabilize finances and yet would not have crippled any country. Among other things it would have been possible to work out a sum that Germany could pay and that in all justice she should pay."

Makes No Forecast.

Col. House would make no prediction about the League of Nations. "But there is one sure thing," he added. "We can't have it both ways. If the United States turns its back upon Europe and the leagues, it will then have no right to complain if, as a result of the unsettled conditions in Europe, the United States trade is crippled and many people out of work."

"In some fashion America sooner or later will have to help to restore the world. The war made it inevitable that the world should be divided into two great powers, as against about eight before the war. These two are the United States and Britain. Britain cannot bring about order in the world single-handed. United States and Britain, working together, can do so."

The duke died suddenly in the south of France in 1884, leaving a daughter, born in 1883, and a posthumous son, Arthur Charles Edward, born in July 1884, who succeeded to the dukedom of Albany, and who in 1900 became Duke of Saxe-Coburg on the death of his uncle. She was born in 1861.

Lays Blame on U.S.

COL. E. M. HOUSE.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—"America's policy of aloofness, is largely to blame for the unsettled condition of Europe today," says Col. E. M. House, former unofficial ambassador to Europe.

"Only two great powers out of eight before the war are left—Britain and America. And Britain cannot bring order in the world single-handed."

DUBLIN PASSES WORST NIGHT OF SEVERAL WEEKS

Irregulars Attack Positions of Free State Troops in City.

ALL ATTEMPTS FAIL

General Brennan Believes All Ireland Conference Useless at Present.

London, Sept. 2.—Dublin passed last night through its worst night of fighting since the surrender of the irregulars early in July, says an Evening News dispatch from Dublin this afternoon. Strong detachments of irregulars attacked positions of Free State troops all over the city and firing continued until today.

National army posts in various parts of Dublin were attacked in force by the irregulars at about 10 o'clock last night, but without success. The fighting in some instances lasted for two hours.

Among the points attacked were the city hall, the Four Courts Hotel and the Technical School. Revolvers, rifles and machine guns were freely used.

In the battle at the Four Courts Hotel, the irregulars used machine guns posted on a roof on the opposite side of the Liffey, and the rain of bullets forced a suspension of tram service in the vicinity. One Nationalist was wounded.

An all-Ireland conference, in an endeavor to bring about peace as suggested recently by the Roscommon county council could not bear fruit at the present time, in the opinion of Commandant General Brennan of the National army.

ALLEGED BANDIT MAKES DARING TRY AT LIBERTY

Imprisons Jailors in Bedroom at Point of Spurious Revolver.

BEATEN UNCONSCIOUS

Engages in Desperate Battle With Warden of Prison.

Sarnia, Sept. 2.—Only the pluck of Warden James Dodd in attacking Edward McMullen, one of the four alleged Wyoming bank bandits, who made a sensational dash for freedom when he was being taken from his cell for a bath at 9 o'clock this morning, prevented the prisoner from carrying out his plan. When Dodd encountered McMullen in the Children's ward, the latter had already overpowered and bound Turnkey Pat Burns and Night Watchman J. Forbes in their bedrooms, using sheeting from one of the beds to tie them.

McMullen will face a charge of attempting to break jail in police court next week.

As soon as McMullen stepped out of his cell in charge of the two officials this morning, he produced a revolver, and shouted: "Hands up!" Then he backed them into their bedroom, and forced them to submit to being bound and gagged.

After overpowering his guards, he went to a cell, where Jack Yohn and George Anderson, who are charged jointly with him in the Wyoming affair, and offered them freedom. They refused to leave their quarters.

McMullen then decided to make an escape alone. The arrival of Warden Dodd frustrated his plan. Dodd advanced on him, armed with a baton, McMullen ordered him to stand back and put his hands up, threatening to shoot him if he failed to obey. Undaunted, Dodd grasped the revolver McMullen held. In the struggle it was broken. Then a life and death struggle ensued. After several minutes Dodd was able to bring his baton into play and beat McMullen into unconsciousness.

It was found that the revolver was made of wood, and had been covered with lead paper. Officials were unable to find the instrument with which it was fashioned, but which it was feared could have escaped with ease by walking out the kitchen, as when he encountered Dodd, that official knew nothing of what had transpired a few minutes previously. His attack on Dodd was the cause of his failure to gain liberty.

McMullen, Anderson and Yohn have been confined in the Sarnia jail awaiting trial. The fall assizes, which open here Sept. 25, on a charge of robbery with violence. The jury disagreed in McMullen's case at the last session of the court. William Ayres, the fourth member of the imprisoned gang, was convicted for his part in the Wyoming robbery, and sentenced to 12 years in Kingston Penitentiary. He was removed to Portsmouth a few months ago. All the prisoners are London men.

FRANCE WANTS ALL ALLIES TO ATTEND PARLEY

Draws Distinction Between Debts Owed Britain and United States.

REPLIES TO BALFOUR

Declares Agreement of War Obligations Necessary To Solve Reparations Problem.

PARIS, Sept. 1.—The French government in reply to the recent circular note sent out by the Earl of Balfour, as acting secretary for foreign affairs, dealing with an international settlement of debts and reparations on the basis of a general cancellation of inter-allied indebtedness and a reduction in German reparations, points out the necessity of a conference for general consideration of war debts at which will be represented all nations, without exception, interested in the settlement of such obligations.

Until such a conference is held, France, it is declared in the note forwarded to the British government tonight, will be unable to give definite indication to the creditor powers as to the payment of the debts she contracted during the war.

The note, which is signed by Premier Poincaré, draws a distinction between the debt to Great Britain and that owed to the United States. After explaining that part of the debt to the United States was contracted after the armistice through the purchase of surplus war stocks, and therefore regarded as a purely commercial transaction, the premier continues:

"Without doubt, for the remainder of the debt to America, the same reasoning applies as for the other war obligations of France. But it cannot be forgotten, nevertheless, that the United States entered the war without her existence being directly menaced, to defend with her honor the principles upon which civilization is based, while Great Britain, like France, fought to safeguard not only the independence of her territory but the property and the means of existence of her people."

The note declares that the reparations problem can never be permanently disposed of until there is agreement of war debts, and without mentioning the United States specifically in this connection, plainly indicates that the United States should participate in a general understanding.

Bowler, counsel for the Great War Veterans' Association, and by Secretary MacNeil of that body, in regard to the interpretation of the pensions act and amendments, and the practice followed by him during his term as commissioner.

Little of an outstanding nature developed during the examination and Dr. Gordon Henderson, counsel for the pensions board waived cross-examination.

BRACKEN WOULD DEVELOP MINES

Declares Mineral Indications of Manitoba Are Equal To Those of Ontario.

THE PAS, Man., Sept. 1.—(By Canadian Press.)—In his first political speech since he was sworn in as first minister of the province, Premier John Bracken last night told a meeting of the Northland Association that he had not come to The Pas to "foist" himself on the constituency, but to outline the policy of the new government.

Premier Bracken remarked that if Manitoba was to have a great future she could not look solely to the growing of wheat. Regarding prohibition he had been presented asking for a referendum and he was present as a member of the government to say that the petition would be offered to the people to vote on.

The government was firmly resolved to give the people an opportunity to express their opinion. Premier Bracken stated that as far as the transfer of the natural resources to the province was concerned his government intended to endeavor to obtain from the Dominion government the right to administer these resources. He had been informed that Northern Manitoba had just as good surface mineral indications as Northern Ontario, but they had not been investigated. Once they were developed, mining should continue for 100 years.

SEEKS CHANGES IN IMMIGRATION

Hon. Charles Stewart Proposes Co-operation of Federal and Provincial Authorities.

Suggests Placing Children in Teens On Farms Under Contract System.

TORONTO, Sept. 1.—A special dispatch to the Star from Ottawa dealing with the immigration question says that two new proposals will be placed before the cabinet by Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of immigration, who has just returned to the capital from a tour of investigation.

One proposal contemplates co-operation between the federal and provincial authorities, by which the former will appoint representatives, who will pay attention to local conditions, look after the arrival and destination of the newcomers, assist him in securing the best location and follow up his future.

In this the municipalities could assist, and once a year the provincial representatives would go to Ottawa and confer with the federal government as to the classes most easily absorbed.

A further proposal is to bring boys and girls in their teens to the Dominion and place them under a contract system in rural homes, where they can graduate for the work of farming or domestic service. There is at present a great demand for such, especially in Eastern Canada.

Selection and rejection are the guiding principles of the immigration act and regulations. Selection will depend upon times and conditions. On the other hand, many of the exclusion provisions of the act are mandatory and apply equally to the people of every class of every country. They cover the physically, mentally, morally and otherwise unfit.

All governments are agreed upon the exclusion of the above, which is provided for in the act.

Other exclusions may be provided from time to time by regulation through order in council as condition warrants.

Hon. Mr. Stewart and certain officials of the immigration department have, during the past few months made a complete canvass of the Dominion with the object of ascertaining just how many and what class of immigrants are required in the various provinces.

In the meantime the regulation passed on May 9 last stands in force.

LIQUORS CHEAPER IN QUEBEC THAN IN B. C.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—Quebec liquor prices range as high as 65 per cent cheaper than the new scale announced by the British Columbia government, according to a comparative tabulation made here today.

The widest gap is on rye whiskey, with Seagram's '53 heading the list, selling here at $3, as against $5 in British Columbia. Walker's Club Imperial sells here at $3.30, as against $3.25 on the coast. Champagne is next, selling at $2.50 a pint in Quebec. The British Columbia cost is $4.25, having been reduced from $4.50. Gins also range from 25 to 35 cents cheaper here, while various brands of Scotch are more evenly priced, the difference ranging from 35 cents per bottle downward. Many of the prices are identical. Brandy are substantially lower.

Mysterious Suitcase Episode Near Windsor Arouses Officials of C. P. R.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—Quite a stir was caused in C. P. R. circles this morning when they learned a story published in the Listowel Banner and commented editorially this morning in Toronto newspapers.

The story published in the Banner refers to the unloading near Windsor from the C. P. R. flyet en route from Montreal to Detroit of many suitcases which had been carried in a drawing-room of one of the cars occupied by three persons, two men and a woman.

"There must be a sequel to the suitcase mystery. What did the cases contain? Where were they going. Who owned them? Were they unloaded officially or unofficially?"

In answer to the above, J. J. Scully, manager of eastern lines, C. P. R., stated emphatically that if such an occurrence had taken place it was entirely without the official knowledge or sanction of the company.

Waterloo Liquor Carrier Pays $1,000 Fine, Loses 70 Cases of Seagram's 83

Special to London Advertiser.

CHATHAM, Sept. 1.—Charged with having liquor in a place other than his private dwelling-house, L. McDonald of Waterloo paid a fine of $1,000 and costs in the county police court this morning and lost 70 cases of Seagram's '83 to boot.

The "place" was a high-powered motor truck which was seized together with the whiskey and driver about two weeks ago at Highgate.

"What about the liquor?" asked R. L. Bracken, K. C., who appeared for McDonald.

"It will be confiscated of course," said Magistrate S. B. Arnold. "Too bad," murmured Mr. Bracken as he walked away with his client.

CLOSE BRIDGE TO CARRIAGE TRAFFIC

County Authorities Decide Port Stanley Structure Unsafe For Vehicles.

Special to London Advertiser.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 1.—Friday morning the Port Stanley steel bridge crossing Kettle Creek at the L. and P. S. depot was closed to all motor and horse-drawn vehicle traffic, as had previously been announced by County Engineer Bell's office. Cortagers on the west side and those wishing to visit the beach will now have to cross at the Selbourne bridge at the north end of the village. However, provision has been made for handling all foot passengers across the closed bridge.

Action of this nature was necessitated by the weakening of the west abutment this spring, as the summer tourist and holiday traffic was just about to commence then it was decided to brace the western end and keep the bridge open until Sept. 1. The task of preparing the bridge is a big one, and the engineers will consider it lucky if the work is completed within six weeks. The west approach will have to be excavated and 160 wooden piles and 173 steel ones driven down to hard pan bottom. The concrete will then have to be filled in and the approach rebuilt.

According to reports given out Friday morning, considerable difficulty is being experienced in putting down the foundations for the new steel structure over Stalter Gulley and some delay has resulted. The first cylinder was sunk 20 feet to hard clay, and the second cylinder is now nearly down to hard bottom. One of the north cylinders was put down 20 feet, but at that distance hard clay could not be found. Subsequent borings revealed the fact that hard clay could not be reached at a depth less than 35 feet. This will necessitate securing two 18-foot cylinders before the north foundation can be laid.

Several of the injured were members of the Missouri National Guard, who have been stationed at Moberly, Mo., on strike duty. None of the dead have been identified. They were chair-car passengers. Several of the coaches crashed into the creek.

The following officers were elected: President, Miss Mary Grant, clerk and treasurer of Logan Township, Middlesex; vice-president, M. Huneberg, Kitchener; J. F. Vance, Wentworth; Mayor W. H. Gregory, Stratford; William Johnston, Toronto, and Mayor G. C. Copley, Hamilton.

Kept House Warm For 15 Hours With 9 Cents Worth of Oil.

KINGSTON, Sept. 1.—When it comes to heating a house by the use of water and crude oil, Kingston claims first place, although dispatches sent out from New York gave the credit of the discovery of water gas as a heat producer to that city.

Henry Wood, jeweler and inventor of this city, heated his home here last winter by the use of water and crude oil, and found it most successful. He states that he was able to keep his furnace going fifteen hours by the use of 9 cents worth of oil, and his house was kept warm. The cost of installation of the necessary apparatus in his furnace for producing the gas from water and crude oil was $25.

MISS M. GRANT HEADS O. M. A.

London Township Official Honored by Provincial Association.

Ontario Temperance Act Is Flayed by Delegates To Convention.

TORONTO, Sept. 1.—There was a merry moment at the Ontario Municipal Association today, when a resolution by the city council of Sault Ste. Marie provided that the magistrates be permitted to sentence O. T. A. offenders to hard labor on municipal work instead of imprisonment, applying the money earned to the maintenance of dependents.

"Why confine this to O. T. A. offenders?" was asked. Assessment Commissioner Grant, London: "Many responsible men have bottles."

Ald. W. L. Wilkinson, Niagara Falls: "We have a gang of police giving most of their time to the pursuit of men with bottles. If a murderer had a bottle they'd get him. The Ontario temperance act is a humbug. Instead of more persecution the law should be wiped from the statute books."

Mayor Wilson, Windsor: "To give work to O. T. A. offenders would be unfair to others needing work."

C. W. McCrae, Soo: "This is intended to apply to indigents only."

Dr. Brittain: "If a man can support his wife and family he need not do this work, I take this resolution to mean?"

Mr. Grant, London: "The law is sufficiently humiliating without parading the name of the streets."

Ald. Wilkinson, Niagara Falls: "Cut out this resolution."

Jesse Weiland, Galt: "I second that." . . . and the O. T. A. innovation was stricken out.

The following officers were elected: President, Miss Mary Grant, clerk and treasurer of Logan Township, Middlesex; vice-president, M. Huneberg, Kitchener; J. F. Vance, Wentworth; Mayor W. H. Gregory, Stratford; William Johnston, Toronto, and Mayor G. C. Copley, Hamilton.

125,075 KIDDIES OF LONDON USE PLAYGROUNDS

Chief Supervisor Brock Makes Detailed Report On Summer's Work.

CHILDREN WELL BEHAVED

Lauds Staff and Citizens Who Made Venture Successful.

Having concluded his term of office for 1922 season, G. Mel Brock, chief supervisor of city playgrounds, has submitted his annual report to the public utilities commission, in which he declares that this summer was the most successful in the history of operating recreational centers in London.

Chief Supervisor Brock's report is a comprehensive one, in which he points out that changed locations of playgrounds this year worked out very satisfactorily, and in addition to making several recommendations for improvements in 1923, he lauds his staff and all those Londoners who assisted in making the kiddies' visits to the playgrounds such a success.

Following is the report in full, as submitted to the public utilities commission:

"I have the honor to submit the following report of activities on the city of London playgrounds for the past summer:

Thames Park was the first playground opened this year, on June 17, and the others on June 24.

We operated the same number of playgrounds this year as last, viz., eight, and the locations and names were as follows:

Birkett's Flats, Chelsea Green, playground and bathing camp.

Bottrill's Field, Wharncliffe road, south of Oxford street, playground and bathing camp.

Lord Roberts School, Princess avenue, playground and swimming tank (three weeks).

Queen's Park, East London, playground and wading pool.

Riverview School, Wharncliffe road, south of Oxford street, playground and bathing camp.

Simcoe Street School, Clarence and Simcoe streets, playground.

Tecumseh Avenue School, playground.

Thames Park, Ridout and Horton streets, playground and swimming pool.

Proved Successful.

You will note that Dexter's dam and Simcoe Street School are two new ventures, and I am glad to say that both proved highly successful.

The attendance at Dexter's was considerably greater than that of the valley camp, which we ran last year, and the bathing facilities much better.

The work at Simcoe was highly successful, and possibly no section of the city, except Birkett's, was more successful in a playground than Simcoe. It stood four on our attendance roll.

The attendance at the two bathing camps and the Thames Park swimming pool showed very conclusively the necessity for this form of recreation, and I would strongly advise that the Queen's Park wading pool be enlarged next year into a swimming pool.

We purchased no bathing suits this year, and I am afraid that next season will necessitate a complete new outfit of suits.

Before leaving the matter of bathing camps, I would like to remark on the manner in which those who attended Birkett's Camp conducted themselves, there being no complaint during the whole of the summer of any wilful destruction of property, such as we had last summer. I attribute this to two things, first, the education received by the playground habitués last year, and second, to the excellent work of Mr. McWilliams, our bathing camp supervisor.

Nine Weeks' Attendance.

Following is a detailed statement of the attendance for the nine weeks, ending Aug. 26:

| Week Ending    | Actual Attendance | Games In Progress | Wading & Swimming | Parents.      |

Northern Life Polar Bear Club Convention

FOR the last three days a most notable convention has been held in the city of Northern Life men from coast to coast. This convention was composed largely of those qualifying in the company's Polar Bear Club. All the agency managers of the company were also in attendance. The Northern Life is one of the aggressive, rapidly-growing financial institutions of London, and the men of the company from coast to coast were exceedingly delighted with London and vicinity, and much constructive work was accomplished in business sessions.

playgrounds' attendance separate, and I would suggest that you take as a conservative estimate 40 per cent of the swimmers, and add to the total attendance, in order to secure the actual attendance. By doing this we get an attendance of 158,251, as against 99,511 during the same period of time last year.

The number of games engaged in this year, adding the actual playground games to the swimming, was 376,812, as against 201,694 for last year.

The attendance of parents this year was also very gratifying.

Through the kindness of several citizens of London some 1,800 children were taken to Port Stanley on Tuesday, Aug. 22. It was a gigantic undertaking, but thanks to the excellent work of the supervisors and the co-operation of the London and Port Stanley officials and staff, and the London Mothers' Clubs, the day was very successful, there being no accidents of any kind to man, dog, or horse.

The pleasure of the children, the first train left London at 10:20 a.m., and the last train ran in to London at 7:10 p.m.

Urges Annual Outing.

I might say that this outing was looked forward to by almost every child of the playgrounds, and I would suggest that if possible it be made an annual event.

Before outlining the baseball leagues, I would like to mention that the whole summer games of hard ball football, basketball, etc., were conducted between the various leagues. This course worked very successfully last year, and was just as successful during the past few months.

Instead of running one baseball league, as we ran last year, we ran two, one for boys and one for girls, and we branched out this year and ran two leagues, the second one being for children 13 and under. Both these leagues were highly successful. The only difficulty we had was in securing umpires for the senior league, whose games were played Tuesday and Friday nights. The interest was so keen this year that it was useless to send a person to umpire unless he was thoroughly conversant with the rules, and had the ability to handle the players so much as the parents who came to cheer. There was the usual amount of heckling of umpires, but I am pleased to state that there was not one instance reported where this was done by the players.

Birkett's won three of the four championship games, viz., baseball, basketball, and football. The senior boys' team, while Bottrill's won the senior girls' Shields on which were the city coat of arms, together with the words, "City of London Playgrounds," and the figure of a ball player, were presented to the winning team. The expense of these was borne by the commission, and I found that they were much more acceptable to the children than the more expensive medals given last year.

Children Cheered.

The closing display was held on Saturday, August 26, at Thames Park, and I think I am safe in saying that over 3,500 children took part in the parade, in the events, or cheered for their respective playgrounds.

We broke away from the usual display programs, and endeavored to stage what one enthusiast described as "a three-ringed circus of play."

During the whole of the afternoon there were at least two events going on in different parts of the grounds, so that the limited seating accommodation was used to the best advantage.

The children of the various playgrounds met at 1:30 at the Federal Square, and headed by the G. W. V. A. band and their respective supervisors, marched to Thames Park via Dundas and Ridout streets.

The parade was a very impressive one, there being some 2,500 children taking part. Arriving at the park, the following program was carried out:

A swimming meet of eight events.

Four baseball games.

A track meet of nine events.

Semi-finals and finals, girls' dodgeball.

Two folk dances by the girls.

Pyramids by the boys.

Volleyball.

Tennis tournament.

Change Scoring System.

In order that the smaller playgrounds might have an opportunity to compete against the larger ones—Thames Park and Birkett's—the scoring system this year was changed. Bottrill's and Riverview playgrounds combined their points, as did Simcoe and Tecumseh, and Queen's and Lord Roberts. This gave five groups, and when you realize that the final scoring, including the summer's baseball, as well as the events at the display, brought these five groups within 150 points of one another, you can readily see that the system was a good one.

The swimming trophy donated last year by the James Cowan Company was won by Thames Park with 25 points. The other playgrounds ranged as follows: Bottrill's and Riverview, 20

Clerk Takes City Treasurer For G. T. R. Official Who Is a Brother

Finance Commissioner James Bell of this city and C. Bell, traffic manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, whose headquarters are in Montreal, are brothers. To make matters more confusing, friends of these two popular officials declare that they resemble one another so much that they are "as much alike as two Belles."

Thursday morning, Finance Commissioner Bell journeyed to Toronto, to attend the 24th annual session of the Ontario Municipal Association. While in the Queen City he sauntered into the Grand Trunk offices, and walking up to a clerk on duty asked if Mr. Bell of Montreal was in town.

Not wishing to show any ignorance on the matter, the clerk laughingly replied: "I guess you are Mr. Bell."

"His guess was right, and yet again I was wrong," said the finance commissioner, relating the story at the city hall. "He thought I was my brother, whom I later met Thursday."

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

How long will ye love vanity, and seek after falsehood?—Psalm lvi:2.

IN the dream of Nebuchadnezzar it was only the feet of clay; but many of us now are getting so crusted in our vanity that it seems as if, in us, the very heart of us were part of iron and part of clay.

—John Ruskin.

GEO. T. BELL of Montreal, passenger traffic manager of the Canadian National-Grand Trunk Railway, was in London on Friday.

He came to London from Toronto with his brother, Mr. James Bell, city treasurer.

Bandit Robs Aged Woman of $200

TORONTO, Sept. 1.—Admitted to her home as a real estate agent, a well-dressed young man held up Mrs. H. Dwan, an aged widow, who resides in New Toronto, at the point of his revolver and robbed her of $200 yesterday afternoon. When Mrs. Dwan was showing the visitor through the house he suddenly turned on her with revolver leveled and demanded her money.

The woman who is 66 years of age nearly fainted when she saw the man who had $200 hidden in an old hat. She gave it to him.

"At the same time I handed it to him he grabbed me by the arms and threw me violently into a corner of the room," she said.

There she lay for some time, for her head had been stunned in the fall. Remaining full consciousness, she crawled downstairs and told the neighbors, but the man had disappeared.

PLAN BIG TIME FOR LABOR DAY

Local Body Arranges Program of Sports at Queen's Park.

Boy Scouts' Drill Competition to Feature Events.

Among the many outstanding attractions that will feature Labor Day—Monday, Sept. 4—in this district, is the monster celebration to be held at Queen's Park. After weeks of untiring efforts, the Labor Day committee has drawn up a program of sports and novelty events that, if favored by ideal weather, will attract hundreds to the city on that date.

An innovation this year will be a Boy Scout drill, in which more than eight crack Scout teams of the city will take part. This event is said to be one of the most interesting and novel of the day.

Efforts are being made to make the day show one of the best features of the afternoon. Many beautiful prizes are being offered for this event, among which will be cups for the winners of premier honors.

Thrills that will be plenty, and some of the best-known dare-devil automobile and motorcycle riders of Ontario have announced their intention of being on hand to compete in the dirt track auto and motorcycle racing.

The entries for the horse races have been coming in steadily, and before the entries close Monday at noon, the officials predict that the citizens of London will see as good an array of thoroughbreds as ever started on the Queen's P.Park track.

Competition dancing, boxing, football and bicycle racing are a few of the other feature events that constitute the afternoon's program.

URGE CHEAP HYDRO FOR USE ON FARMS

Ontario Municipal Association
Favors Reduction in Rates.

During the session held at Toronto this week, the Ontario Municipal Association passed a resolution, which, if ratified by the Legislature, may assist farmers of London district, to obtain electric current for lighting and power at a much lower cost than existing.

The motion passed at the annual meeting stipulates that the Ontario Legislature be requested to consider the advisability of further advancing the construction of hydro in rural districts by granting bonuses to the construction of the secondary lines.

Westminster Township residents are anxious to obtain a secondary line, and if the bonus is granted, it will relieve the burden on these farmers.

The committee also agrees that a committee of the association should be appointed to interview the Accident Underwriters' Association with a view to obtaining an equitable basis of premium rates for insurance to municipalities against claims arising on account of accidents on highways.

MANY PREFER JAIL TO FINES, SAY OFFICIALS

1,034 Cases Tried in Police Court
During Last Quarter.

During the quarter ending Aug. 31 the majority of persons upon whom heavy fines were levied, preferred to go to jail rather than settle, police court officials declare.

According to statistics prepared in Police Court Clerk John Moulé's office, 1,034 cases were tried during the three months, and 787 convictions were registered. Forty-three persons were found guilty of indictable offenses. Fines paid totaled $3,818.

The number of cases, convictions and the amount of fines paid were less than during the corresponding quarter of 1921.

Preparation of statistics each quarter involves much clerical work, as three copies of all convictions are made, one for the attorney-general at Toronto, one for the clerk of the peace, and one for the police court clerk's office.

Back on the job at the city hall, after attending the 24th annual convention of the Ontario Municipal Association, Assessment Commissioner Stephen Grant returned Saturday morning that many changes in the assessment act were recommended to the Ontario Legislature, and that, if put into effect, will prove of inestimable benefit to municipalities of the province.

"The convention was a very successful one," declared Mr. Grant, "and the delegates present did good work. City Treasurer James Bell, who spoke on 'City Financing' Thursday morning, did exceptionally well, and I was proud of him."

CORRECTION.

In Friday's issue of the Advertiser, the Standard Drug Company's advertisement for Pebecco tooth paste read regular 50 cents for sale at 54 cents. This should have been regular 50 cents on sale at 34 cents.

The Advertiser regrets the error and makes this correction.

Locates Good Home For Runaway Lad

AS a result of the publicity given in The Advertiser to the escape of a 10-year-old ward of the Children's Aid Society who ran away from the Thomas Alway Hall Home here last month, and was located a few days later at St. Thomas, officials of the society announced Saturday that a foster home has been secured for the lad.

According to the information given out, a respectable farmer from London district presented himself to the Children's Aid Society, and declared that news of the young boy's runaway had aroused his interest, and that he desired to adopt a boy with such initiative. Investigation revealed the fact that the farmer was well adapted to provide a home for the lad, and he is now residing happily with the foster parent.

FREIGHT SITUATION IMPROVES HERE

Northern Navigation Company Again Routing Cargoes by Water Route.

Local freight on both the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railways, which for a while was threatened with a cut on account of the coal shortage, and which in time might have taken on a serious aspect, has improved considerably the last week or two, officials stated Saturday morning.

The fact that the freight of the Northern Navigation Company, which a week or so ago was routed entirely by rail, is again being sent by lake as well, puts a very optimistic look on the freight situation, a prominent G. T. R. official in London said.

Although neither road, in as far as the Western Ontario divisions are concerned, felt to any great extent the scarcity of "black diamonds," prevalent throughout both the United States and Canada, it was thought for a time that the freight service would have to be curtailed in keeping with the railway's plan of economizing in the use of coal.

A few Grand Trunk passenger trains operating in Western Ontario were withdrawn temporarily to conserve as much coal as possible so that if the situation developed a real serious aspect the roads would be able to run the important trains according to schedule.

The Canadian Pacific has probably been more fortunate than any other road, as at the time of the crisis it had a large reserve supply to draw from. The Grand Trunk, while not having in this district a reserve worth bragging about, has nevertheless been receiving at short intervals enough coal to supply the needs in the London division.

Trapped in Tryst.

Mr. Kuh is a wealthy commission merchant. He was arrested after the shooting and is being held for investigation. Mrs. Kuh is distraught.

According to Kuh he trapped White and his wife in a love tryst by tapping the telephone wires of his home. He claimed when he confronted White the latter attempted to kill him and that the shooting of White followed a struggle for a pistol.

Mrs. Kuh, a handsome woman in her early thirties, bitterly assailed her husband for shooting her admirer.

"He shot Stanley down in cold blood," she declared, grief-stricken over the youth's fate.

Kuh declared that young White had broken up his home.

Following a quarrel with her husband over her infatuation for the youth, Mrs. Kuh called White on the telephone, Kuh declared.

"I heard his voice at the door," Kuh said. "He threatened to kill me."

Invaded Bedroom.

"Entering our apartment White came into our bedroom where I was standing and made a rush at me. My gun was in the dresser drawer. I seized it just as he reached my side. We clinched and in the struggle fell to the floor, rolled over and over, fighting for possession of the gun."

"Once I managed to get it free and struck him several times with it, rather than shoot him. He clung to me. In the struggle the gun went off and I felt White go limp beneath me."

After that, Kuh said, his wife ran at him, shrieking with rage and grief. She called the hospital while Kuh telephoned to the police.

Mrs. Kuh met White at San Diego last January, Mr. Kuh said. He said he knew nothing of their love affair until he joined his wife in California early this spring.

On his wife's promise to end her affair with the youth, Kuh said he forgave her and returned to Chicago.

Man Invades Home.

Recently he learned that she had returned here with White in the youth's automobile. A week ago she asked to come back to him, telling him that she had not seen White since she left California.

"She lied to me," he said, "but I took her back."

"A few days ago I learned that she was again receiving visits from White in our apartment. I confirmed the reports by tapping our telephone."

"Last night he again attempted to gain admission to our home, but was refused by the landlady."

Obituaries

A. D. LEARN.

The funeral of A. D. Learn, aged 79 years, was conducted from his late residence, Westminster Township, to St. Thomas Cemetery Friday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Kitchell of Lambeth.

Palbearers were Mr. Learn's three sons, Llewellyn, Morton and Gordon, and three sons-in-law, Russell, Weldon, E. Pearn and E. Elgie.

S. K. DAVIDSON.

The funeral of S. K. Davidson, a teacher of long standing at the London Collegiate Institute, and known to hundreds of students and ex-students with sincere affection as "Skidney," was held from his late residence, Wellington street, to Woodland Cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Services were conducted by Rev. A. Trummer of the Church of England, Exeter.

Palbearers were Messrs. John Dearness, retiring principal of the London Normal School; W. H. T. Mooney, principal of the Central Collegiate Institute; Lieut.-Col. William Spittal, Andrew Stevenson, of the Normal School; W. A. Tanner, secretary of the board of education, and W. A. Bluetner.

Proposed amendments to the canons of the Church of England, by which a bishop shall be able to give occasional authority to a minister of any other communion to preaching in an Anglican church in his diocese, will be introduced for consideration at the Provincial Synod of Ontario of the Church of England in Canada, which meets in London, Tuesday, Sept. 26, for its fifth session.

W. H. Thornloe, the most reverend the archbishop of Algoma, Metropolitan, Sault Ste. Marie, will preside over the upper house (composed of bishops) at the sessions, while Very Rev. Dean Tucker of St. Paul's Cathedral will preside over the lower house, formed of clergy and laymen.

Right Rev. J. C. Roper, M.A., D.D., LL.D., lord bishop of Ottawa, will preach the sermon at the opening session.

Discussed at Lambeth.

The issue of "open pulpits," whereby clergy of another denomination may preach in Anglican pulpits, first arose out of the Lambeth conference, at which commenced the first movement toward church union.

The memorial to the provincial synod was drawn up at the May meeting of the Synod of Huron, in Cronyn Hall, and the notice of motion, drawn up in accordance with the memorial, reads, in part: "Nevertheless this shall not prevent the bishop of any diocese from giving occasional authorization to any minister of another communion to preach in an Anglican church in his diocese, providing he is assured that such minister is working towards the ideal of union set forth in 'The Appeal to All Christian People,' issued by the Lambeth Conference, in 1920."

Expect 200 Delegates.

Over two hundred delegates, both lay and clerical, are expected to attend from the dioceses of Toronto, Huron, Ontario, Algoma, Niagara and Ottawa.

A second important resolution to be introduced is that "inasmuch as the Church of England in the province of Ontario is invited to become a unit in the Social Service Council of Ontario, therefore be it resolved: That this provincial synod appoint ten delegates to represent the church in the province in the Social Service Council of Ontario."

Lauds British Laws.

IT IS WELL perhaps for Canadians to be told at times that there is a great respect for law and order in this country. Only a few days ago, ROBERT BARRY made a speech in London, England, and referred to United States in this manner: "United States is being pictured daily throughout Europe as a nation of gun-toting bootleggers, jazz-mad idlers, immoral divorcees and blood-thirsty lynchers." The Los Angeles Times takes issue with the statement, but admits that there are enough in each of the above classes to make the accusation strong enough to stand alone.

The Los Angeles paper believes that there is no feeling there that when a crime is committed the perpetrator of that crime will be speedily punished. "Whether it is under-policing," says the Times, "the laxity of the courts, the weakness of the probation system, the lack of co-operation between bar and bench, the sentimentality of the public or the confusion of state and federal laws or a combination of them all, the fact remains that criminals have a better chance of escaping the penalty of their crimes in this country than anywhere else. Out of fourteen murders committed in all Canada for 1920 sixteen men were hung—three being disposed of as being implicated in one murder. Los Angeles alone has that many murders a year, and it is rare for us to have one hanging."

Nine murders were committed in the city of London, with eleven millions of population for the greater London area—and just nine murderers were hung—during the year 1921.

"Both of these instances seem to be excellent examples of cause and effect. It is obviously very unhealthy to commit murder in either London or Canada. But, even if the murderer were caught and condemned to hanging in this country, a petition would probably be started by some well-meaning, sentimental citizen for a reprieve. But his chances of being caught in the first place or convicted in the second are very meager."

"Hence our reputation in Europe. It is an unpleasant reputation, and we don't like it. But under present conditions we are likely to have quite a job to live it down."

Miss Grant Honored.

DELEGATES to the Ontario Municipal Association, who concluded their 24th annual meeting at Toronto Friday afternoon, elected Miss MARY GRANT, clerk and treasurer of London Township, president for the ensuing year.

Aside from the fact that Miss GRANT is probably the first woman to be honored in this manner by municipalities of Ontario, the results of the election are of interest to citizens of London and district, because the premier office has been tendered to an official who has spent practically all her life in the environs of the Forest City.

Miss GRANT has served as clerk of London Township for several years, during which time she has acquired a large host of friends who will welcome the news of her latest success with gratification. In her official capacity she has become well known and favorably known to many Londoners, who are not surprised that her executive ability has been recognized by the Ontario Municipal Association.

Elected to the presidency of this organization is not the first honor that has been bestowed upon Miss GRANT by her fellow delegates in session at Toronto. Last year they elected her vice-president, which office she filled in approved manner.

Other Londoners have also directed the destiny of the Ontario Municipal Association as president in past years. CITY CLERK S. BAKER being the most recent from this city to be elected president. But Miss GRANT's recent honor presents the added feature that she also represents the fair sex, although chivalry was not the chief motive of the association in electing her as its head.

Miss GRANT's many friends predict a most successful year for the Ontario Municipal Association during her term of office. The ADVERTISER offers her congratulations on the occasion of taking over her new duties, and at the same time tenders her the best wishes of the entire province for a successful administration.

S. K. Davidson.

AFTER 42 years of service to the young people of London S. K. DAVIDSON is dead. As art instructor at the London Collegiate Institute and the Normal School, Mr. Davidson became known to thousands of citizens who attended his classes, and who are now residing in all parts of the world.

To these many friends news of Mr. Davidson's death will be received with regret. He taught the subject of art at the London Collegiate Institute for 35 years, and was the oldest member of the staff in point of service. In addition, he established a record of 22 years' service as art instructor at the Normal School.

Mr. Davidson possessed a kindly disposition, which was appreciated by his pupils, who looked upon an afternoon's instruction from him as a pleasure. He loved art, and as a result was enabled to impart his knowledge of it to his students with an enthusiasm which added to its value.

As an artist he was regarded as worthy of recognition, several of his paintings being frequently exhibited. Landscape paintings were his particular hobby, although Mr. Davidson was an authority in all works done in oil. The walls of his classroom in the old Collegiate Institute were adorned by his own paintings, which he took pleasure in showing to his friends.

Despite the fact that Mr. DAVIDSON was 76 years of age and eligible for superannuation last June, he agreed to remain on the staff of the Central Collegiate Institute for another year by special request of PAUL W. H. T. MOORE. Unfortunately death intervened, and concluded a useful career.

S. K. Davidson worked unceasingly in London to better the younger generation, and to mould the characters of future citizens. He succeeded well in his task, and thousands of former pupils devotedly bow to his memory.

On their behalf, scattered as they are in all parts of the globe, THE ADVERTISER tenders sincere sympathy to his widow and family.

Road to Ease.

A BLACK-SKINNED Algonquin Indian canoes down to the Hudson Bay post at Bear Island, Ontario. He brings a story about an Eskimo in the far north who has tamed polar bears and trained them to do his heavy teaming.

Big game hunters will doubt it, for the polar bear has a body about as large as a piano box, and is one of the most ferocious and cunning of all animals.

The incident, however, sets you thinking about the tremendous amount of work that man has passed off on domesticated animals. He has made slaves of horses, cattle, chickens, Eskimo dogs, camels, elephants, and a host of others.

Of all these, horses are the most intelligent. Elephants come second. In India they are trained to work all day on such tasks as mowing and plowing logs.

Any old man can recall when farmers used dogs, running on a treadmill, to churn butter. Horses were similarly used to operate threshing machines.

Man is a parasite. Until the invention of the steam engine, his existence depended almost entirely on his parasitic use of animal and vegetable life.

The steam engine ushered in a new era of power. Previously, there were few instances of man using power not generated by animals—such as wind moving sailing ships and water power turning the prayer wheels of India.

Gradually we are shifting from our position as a parasite on animal and vegetable life. The auto is relieving the horse. So are railroads and flying machines. There is talk of food being produced synthetically in laboratories instead of by growing and killing plant life. Where we once preyed exclusively on trees, a form of plant life, for our dwellings, we now turn to brick, concrete and metals like iron.

In school, you studied about the three kingdoms of nature—animal, vegetable and mineral.

Man rose to his present state by being a parasite on the animal and vegetable kingdoms. Slowly but surely he is relaxing his grip on these and fastening himself as a parasite on the mineral kingdom. A good illustration is taking oil out of the ground instead of getting it by killing whales and hogs.

It is a peculiar change, taking place without much attention. But it is vastly important in the history of mankind, a definite and separate step higher in the cycle of man's existence.

DR. BISHOP'S ADVICE

RHEUMATISM

THE verdict of an physician with an aching knee, elbow or some other joint is almost sure to be "rheumatism."

This, however, is not necessarily the case. The ache may be due to a strained position of the body, causing the gristle of the knee to be come unstable. This occurs frequently among athletes or during violent exercise at tennis, swimming, baseball, football or the like.

Real rheumatism is a pus infection, so to get at the root of the trouble, one must rid oneself of the offending bacteria. This is aided by leading a hygienic life, and adopting a correct posture. Too much acid-containing food should be avoided.

READ YOUR CHARACTER

By Digby Phillips.

NO. 312—HOW EXECUTIVES WRITE.

Right at the outset it should be understood that by this word "executive," as here used, is not meant anybody who may happen to hold an executive position of some sort. For in a given business the best executive may not always be the man who is, by his character and disposition, best fitted to be an executive. It may be the man whose knowledge and training in that business, coupled with ordinary common sense, overbalances the one-line ability of the "natural born" executive.

But other things being equal, you may remember from a previous article, the man who makes the most efficient executive is the man whose head looks widest at the ears, and who has ears that stand out. The reason is simple. It is close to the ears that the part of the brain is situated in which the natural executive function is located.

What kind of hands do these people write?

You will find that for the most part they are backhand writers, sometimes vertical, but rarely forward slanting. They write small hands also, moderately shaded. In all cases you will find that their writing is well spaced and even, and that the crossing of the "t" slants a bit downward, and is firmly made. For these things indicate the decision of character which is essentially indispensable to the good executive.

News of the World as Told by The London Advertiser Camera

George Sure Is Some Sprinter.

GEORGE DAVEY (right), a mere youth of 84, decided he was as good as the rest of them, so he entered a racing contest at Chertsey, England, in which his son and granddaughter took part. George is seen making a break for the lead.

In spite of the number of years he has left behind him, Davey can come in, unwinded, and as fresh as the younger members of his family. He is a lesson to everyone that "growing old" is not a matter of years.

Hold 'er, Newt; She's a Rearin'.

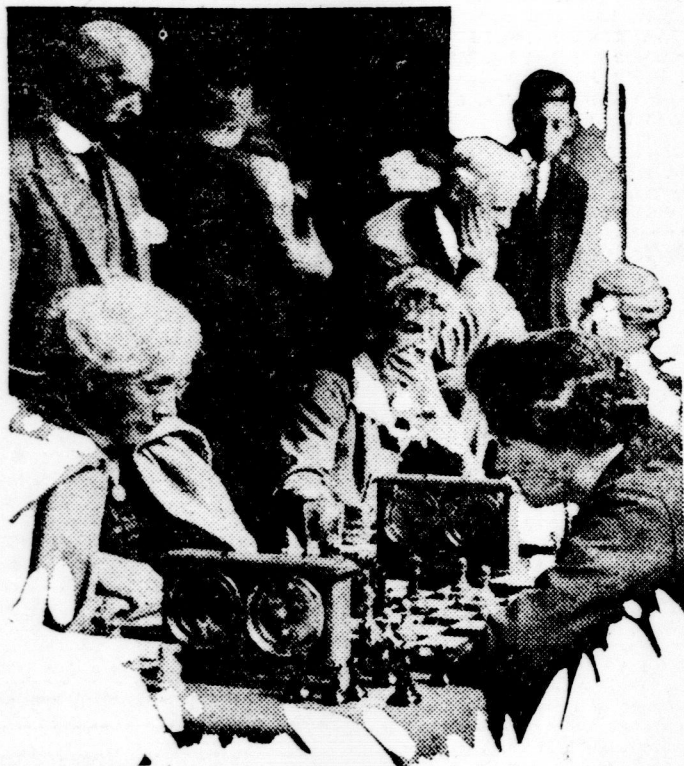

MANY new and thrilling forms of water sports have featured this season at our summer resorts. This fair bather came in for a good ducking when she tried to sit on top of a mammoth ball, which, naturally, just rolled from under her.

This amusing event happened at a water carnival, in which one hundred girls participated, showing that women are not going to be left without fair representation in the realm of water sports.

Women Invade the Chess World.

MR. BUSINESSMAN, better be careful how you talk to your pretty stenographer. Underneath the letter "Z" on this typewriter is hidden a small, but powerful dictaphone. London, England, detectives are now using this method to listen in on office conversations. This is quite handy in divorce actions.

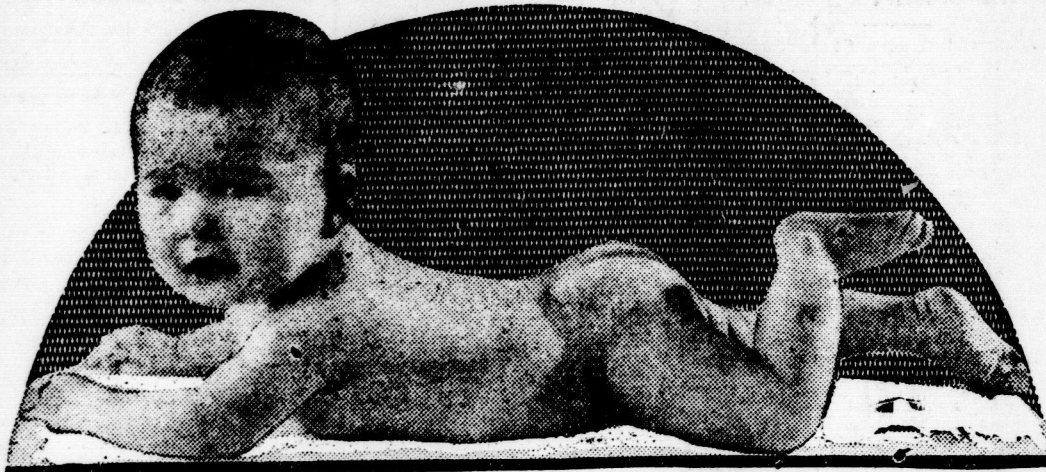

THE fair sex have taken to polo, soccer and other sports which have, heretofore, been considered for men exclusively. Chess was, up till recently, thought to be a game too deep for the feminine intellect, but now even it is not immune from invasion by women.

Nancy Goes Over the Top.

THIS is Nancy Vorhies, high jumper on the team of girls which represented the United States in the Olympic games at Paris, practicing just before the contest. In the Olympic she tied for first place with Carrie Hatt of England, with a mark of 1.45 metres.

Ninety Days Old, But Earns Own Living.

"IT'S never too late to begin," is the wording of a trite old saying, but Dawn Bedan has changed the phrase a little, because at the age of 90 days she is self-supporting, earning her own living as a professional model in New York. She has earned fame as "the baby that never cries."

Cause of Disruption in Italy.

IT is predicted that George Hackathorne, the brilliant young actor, will go far in the film world in plays of a human interest nature.

His features are mobile, he understands pantomime, and, better still, he shows penetration in portrayal of his characters. In "Human Hearts," his latest release, he plays the part of a witless boy, a marked contrast to the title role in "The Little Minister," in which he recently appeared.

DEPUTIES TURATI AND MODIGLIANI are the Socialist leaders who forced the recent crisis in Italy, in a vain attempt to form a Socialist cabinet. The deputies appear to be in high good humor over their attempted coup.

Famous Dancer Injures Shoulder.

IRENE CASTLE, internationally-known exponent of the terpsichorean art suffered a sprained shoulder when thrown from a horse at Ithaca, N. Y., recently. Although the fall was not serious, she will have to cancel all her theatrical engagements for some time. Despite her injuries, the beautiful dancer is acting as judge at the Michigan State Dog Show now being held.

SAY, fellows, can you wonder at the judges declaring Ruth Andrea, "Queen of All Queens" of the various beaches, at Brighton Beach, N. Y.

Ruth Andrea will be known as "Miss Brighton" at the American national bathing-beauty contest to be held at Atlantic City in September.

VISCOUNTESS RHONDDA, British coal magnate, reformer and political leader, believes that, because principle and right always triumph, all countries will eventually pass laws for the protection of children and grant equal political rights to women.

School Girl Wins Beauty Contest.

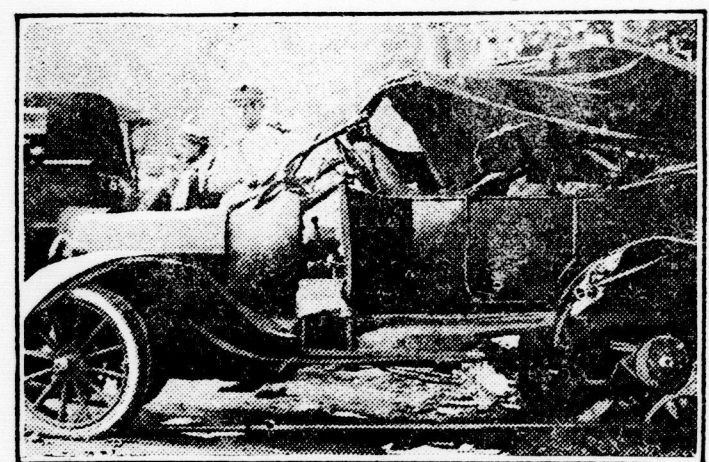

MARY KATHERINE CAMPBELL, 16 years old, was recently acclaimed the peer of 170 competitors in a beauty competition at Columbus, Ohio. She is to take part in a pageant at Atlantic City, when she will be known as "Miss Columbus."

Takes Flight Into Matrimony.

LOYD WILSON BERTRAND, who holds the world's endurance flight record, and his bride, Helen Virginia Lent, in the flying boat, in which they were married above New York City, by Rev. Belvin W. Maynard (right), who is known as the "flying parson."

The Result of Too Much Speed.

WILLIAM M. WOOD, JR., heir to millions, lost his life when he lost control of the auto in which he was speeding along the state highway at Reading, Mass., and it crashed into a telephone pole being reduced to the wreck pictured above.

Beef, Beef, and Not a Butcher Near

"BRAYMORE" Hereford bull, is valued at $20,000 by his owner, W. L. Yost, Independence, Mo., who has entered him in the National Hereford Show to be held at Wilmington, Del., Sept. 4-5. More than 250 head of Hereford cattle have been entered from ten states.

DOES this pup look worth $8,000? Well, that is what R. M. Jennings of Pittsburgh, Pa., paid for him. He is straight from Germany, and is named Alwih von der Reichsburg. The price is said to be the highest sum ever paid for a police dog.

ALICE MILLER of Youngstown has been selected by three doctors and two nurses from among 1,100 babies as the healthiest in Ohio. She is 26 months old, weighs 27 pounds, is 33½ inches tall, and last, but not least, she has 16 teeth.

ADVANCE fashion note. The proper thing for the flapper next winter is a rubber gaiter, or bootee, fur topped, which, it is expected, will replace the well-known galoshes of past seasons.

JUST when Frank X. Schwab, mayor of Buffalo, N. Y., was in the midst of the street car strike, someone gave him a lion cub. Thinking he had enough trouble on his hands, he presented the cub to the children at the hospital for tuberculosis.

RESURRECTION ROCK

BEGIN HERE TODAY.

It was fast becoming dark, as the mile from the shore of Lake Ontario was the mysterious and darkly Resurrection Rock, symbol of great wrong done in the past. The young army officer now became connected with a natural force in the mind of EL CAREW. That morning came to the home of her father, old AS CULLEN, SENIOR, who had a million in violent struggles timber lands in Northern Michigan. She asked for money carry on the engineering project undertaken by her father before he had been killed in France. LOUTRELL then entered the scene. The young army officer received messages from her father during a seance. He must to the Resurrection Rock. He thought that the trip would solve the mystery of his obscure parentage and of his rearing by Indians. The news of his presence throws Lucas Cullen into a fit of rage, and he tries to bribe Ethel to tell what she knows of Loutrell.

Worried Women Need Rich Blood

the Blood Is Not Kept Pure, Health Will Break Down.

It is useless to tell a hard working woman to take life easily and not to worry. To do so is to ask the almost impossible. But, at the same time, it is the duty of every woman to have strength to meet any unusual demands. It is a duty she owes herself and family, for her future health depends upon it.

To guard against a complete breakdown in health the blood must be kept rich, red and pure. No other medicine does this so well as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This medicine strengthens the nerves, restores the appetite and keeps every organ healthily toned up. Women cannot always rest when they should, but they can keep their strength by the regular use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Among those who have found relief from this medicine is Mrs. Conrad, Broad Cove, N. S., who says: "My system was very much down, and my blood poor and thin. I suffered a great deal from dizziness; my appetite was poor and I tired easily. I tried to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and have every reason to believe that I did so. Soon I felt better and under the continued use of the pills the dizziness and dizziness gone, and my blood seemed in better condition than before. For this reason I recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Autumn Gowns Follow French Lines

ALL the early fall frocks shown in the shops are modeled along lines suggested by the trend of French fashions. Styles do not differ radically from what we have been wearing, but vary usually in some minor characteristic.

The skirts are noticeably longer and many of them are circular or made with circular panels. Pleatings are especially good both in the dress itself and in its trimmings.

Brown and red shades are especially modish and are expected to be worn in the autumn. Navy is more in demand than it was last year.

It is noticeable, however, in spite of the fact that black is supposed to be going out, many of the most smartly-dressed women still prefer it to the new colors.

Lucas remained at the table only a moment before he proceeded to the front room, where, in recent years, family prayer was said each evening after supper.

While Ethel knelt, listening to her grandfather's voice go on and on, and amazing panic possessed her. She was feeling that the long, deliberate reading and now the endless supplication was for a purpose other than devotion, and that purpose was to keep her kneeling in that stuffy room with her face to the back of a chair. Suddenly she arose and slipped into the hall, where she found her coat and cap and shoes. She drew breath, when she opened the outer door, as though she had been stifling, and she went out upon the snow in the direction of the lake.

She heard her grandfather's voice shouting after her; but she did not heed it, and he did not pursue her. It was after 8 o'clock and very cold, with a constant wind blowing off the ice. The Rock lay lost in obscurity. She gazed frequently for the reappearance of the light which she had seen the hour earlier. Its absence filled her with dread.

She turned back to St. Florentin and soon heard a shout which she recognized to be Sam Green Skye's voice. When she replied, Sam hastened up, reporting friendly:

"Old man send me after you, awful mad; old man tell you to come right home and stay there."

Ethel found her grandfather to be "awful mad" indeed; he met her at the door and ordered her to go to her room and to bed and stay there. What did she mean by going out in the dark to see a stranger whom she had met on the train? She was his granddaughter and at his own house, and he would be obeyed.

At 11 o'clock, when the household, except Kinchloe, had gone to bed, Ethel rebuilt the fire in her stove and sat in a chair by her window. From the room on the other side of the wall at her left she could hear sounds which told her that her grandfather was still restless; she heard him open his door and go out into the hall and come to her door and stand there. He was listening, she knew; but he probably supposed her to be in bed and asleep. At any rate, he moved away and went downstairs.

In her stocking feet, she moved noiselessly across to her door which she opened carefully. She crept halfway down the stairs. Something clicked; she recognized that her grandfather was loading a repeating

"DR. FOWLER'S" SAVED THE LIVES OF FOUR CHILDREN

Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum and summer complaint are responsible for more deaths, especially among children, during the summer months than any other form of disease. According to statistics, in the city of Toronto alone, in the past five years out of 1,008 deaths of children, from diarrhoea, 757 died during the four summer months. It therefore behooves every mother to look after her children on the first sign of any looseness of the bowels by using Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, a remedy that has been on the market for the past 77 years, and has been proven to be the best there is.

Mrs. Harold Sellers, Pennfield, N.B., writes: "Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry saved the lives of four of my children when all other remedies failed. It stopped the vomiting and terrible diarrhoea with which they were troubled. I will always recommend it, and now always have a bottle on hand in case of emergency."

Fried Tomatoes on Toast

NOW that tomatoes are at their best and cheap, one should use them often and serve them cooked or raw at almost every meal. When a tomato is stuffed with meat, or egg, or fried and served with a cream sauce, it is a hearty dish for either luncheon or supper. The following recipe supplies all that is needed except a sweet:

- |                     |                      |
|---------------------|----------------------|
| 6 large tomatoes    | 4 tablespoons butter |
| Butter or bacon fat | 3 tablespoons flour  |
| 6 slices toast      | 1/2 teaspoon salt    |
| 2 cups milk         | 1/4 teaspoon pepper  |

Wash, cut tomatoes in halves, roll each piece in flour seasoned with salt and pepper. Fry in butter or bacon fat until a nice brown, and soft but not broken.

Make a sauce by melting butter, adding flour and seasonings; add milk and cook until smooth and thickened. Toast bread quickly on either side. Dip each slice in the sauce, and place on a platter. On it put the fried tomatoes, and pour around them the remainder of the sauce. The dish may be garnished with strips of bacon fried crisp, and parsley.

What sort of deed?

"Ah, it's eternal misquotation!"

The voice, Barney Loutrell's voice, seemed to float to her from far away over the snow; and she seemed to see him, when she shut her eyes, lying stretched out, with Lad sniffing over him.

"They've done it—they've done it," she repeated again and again to herself, without yet daring to allow any closer defining of it. But whatever it was, "it" was done.

She waited until dawn was spreading over the eastern sky before she went downstairs, carrying her shoes; she put them on and found her skin. The dogs roused and danced about her; she took them out with her and made for the lake.

The light had strengthened sufficiently to show her the gaunt outlines of Resurrection Rock, white and lifeless above the lake ice.

When she glanced back toward St. Florentin, she saw that someone was following her from her grandfather's house, a man who must be Kinchloe. Suddenly Ethel changed her plan and swung from the direct line to the shore and cut into the woods to the little clearing where Asa Redbird lived.

"I want you to come right away out to the Rock, Asa," she said. "I'm going there; come after me quick as you can. You understand?"

She turned away and started directly for the Rock. Kinchloe was ahead of her now and hurrying, without apparent regard for her and without looking back.

Radio Radiations

EDUCATORS of the country are looking forward to the time when school will be kept by radio. That this time is not far distant may be gleaned from the fact that already college lectures and other educational talks are being delivered by radiophone. These, at present, are free. But, according to some of the pioneers in this activity, a radio correspondence course could be devised for those who pay.

One of the leaders in the establishment of a lecture course by radio is Prof. William Oxley Thompson, president of Ohio State University at Columbus, O. When radio first gained popularity, last spring, Thompson had a transmitting set installed at the college and began delivering educational talks free.

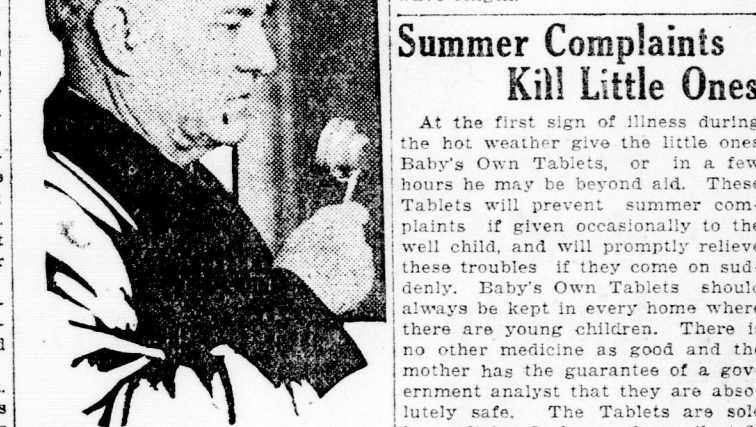

The United States Department of Commerce has just authorized its 33 co-operating offices to arrange with local broadcasting stations for the release of all cable and radio information on foreign markets. This will be more in the form of a world survey, commercial, financial and political.

RADIO FOG SIGNALING.

Summer Complaints Kill Little Ones

At the first sign of illness during the hot weather give the little ones Baby's Own Tablets, or in a few hours they may be beyond aid. These Tablets will prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to the well child, and will promptly relieve these troubles if they come on suddenly. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in every home where there are young children. There is no other medicine as good and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that they are absolutely safe. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PROF. THOMPSON BROADCASTING A LECTURE.

From this start may develop educational programs for those boys and girls who must stay home and work. For, say college leaders, radio educational courses will have to be centralized under the direction of federal educational authorities in any country. Thus there would be no duplication of effort and broadcasting of lectures would be distributed evenly throughout the country.

This is no wild dream, say these educators, and for proof they point not only to the voluntary lectures

After Vacation Peel Your Discolored Skin

Women returning from the seashore or country with browned, reddened or freckled skins will be wise in immediately taking up the mercurized wax treatment. Weatherbeaten skin had best come off for no amount of "beautifying" will ever make it pretty to look at. The surest, safest, easiest way to shed the discolored cuticle is with the treatment suggested. Put the wax on before retiring, as you would cold cream, and rinse it off next morning with warm water. Minute particles of sear skin peel off day by day gradually showing the healthy, youthful skin beneath. One ounce of mercurized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is enough to make any discolored or spotted complexion clear, white and satiny soft. Its action is so gentle no harm is caused and the face shows no trace of its use.

H. G. WELLS' "OUTLINE OF HISTORY"

WHICH MR. WELLS DESCRIBES AS

"The Common Adventure of All Mankind"

Fiction has given us nothing half as enthralling as this great romance of Mother Earth—the story of live men since the beginning of time told by a living man.

Wells does not resurrect dead bones, ancient mummies and ruined buildings saying "These were Greece and Rome and Athens." He takes his readers back to throbbing cities, breathing men and women, combats, struggles and jealousies, making all history as vital as that which we ourselves are making day by day.

Starts In The Advertiser, Monday, Sept. 11

IT IS a HUMAN STORY, vibrant with the personality, knowledge, literary genius, humor and sympathetic understanding that have made the name of H. G. Wells the most distinguished and outstanding among living writers in the civilized world today.

It is the record of OURSELVES, from the first evidence of life up to the present day.

It brings within the grasp and comprehension of any man, woman or child who can read, an amount of information that he would otherwise have to spend a lifetime accumulating from many libraries and thousands of books.

It presents that information in readable, understandable, entertaining form, so that those who are not college graduates, and who have forgotten much that they learned in high school, may have a clear, concise working knowledge of the history of the world in which they live.

As presented in daily installments of about a thousand words, it makes possible a liberal education in history for the average newspaper reader, who has neither the time nor the inclination to attack a large volume of many chapters. He can digest each daily installment, and complete it with a mind eager and keen for what is to follow next day.

"The Outline of History" was first published in two volumes at the price of $10.50; later in one volume at $5.00, which is the lowest price at which it can be bought. TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND COPIES OF BOTH EDITIONS HAVE BEEN SOLD.

"The Outline" has been the most widely discussed book of a decade. Heywood Broun says: "Among the most exciting books ever written."

Mr. Wells has dared to write of Alexander the Great as if he were as present with us as Premier King, and of Nero as if he were as modern a criminal as Landru. In other words, "The Outline," instead of removing its hat and lowering its voice in the presence of the dead, insists that all the world was, is and ever shall be ALIVE. The natural result is the most popular, entertaining and instructive history that has ever been written.

The criticisms, the arguments, the exceeding appreciation and praise have all combined to advertise "The Outline" until there is everywhere a big demand, and it is to meet this demand that The Advertiser is co-operating with other leading newspapers the world over in giving its readers this great book in daily installments at no additional cost.

Dr. Frank Crane speaks of "The Outline" as "the smashing literary event of the year. Wells, to my mind, is king of modern writers."

G. K. Chesterton, in a long, appreciative review in the New York Evening Post, says: "No praise could be too high for a diction and description which catch all their colors of Indian red or Tyrian purple, of the gold of Carthage or the granite of Rome."

Many children are planning to clip the daily installments of "The Outline of History" from The Advertiser and paste them in neat order in a scrap book for ready reference.

ORDER YOUR NEWSAGENT TO DELIVER THE ADVERTISER

AUTOMOTIVE SECTION

BUY YOUR CAR NOW.

WILL TAKE JOLT FROM MOTORING

Inventors Working On Springs and Shock Absorbers to This End.

Suggests Six Instead of Four Springs Along Sides of Car.

AUTOMOTIVE engineers are directing their attention to the riding qualities of their products. They are bound to take the jolts out of motoring.

Designs have been submitted for springs and shock absorbers which, their inventors say, should help smooth the roughest roads. Unsprung weight is being reduced to a minimum.

One of the plans submitted to automobile manufacturers in Australia consists of the use of six instead of the usual four, springs. These six springs are ranged three along each side of the car and in series, so as to take up a jolt over the whole car. They are semi-elliptic and are shackled together, the end of each of the outer springs being fastened to the front and rear axles.

In this way, length is obtained—an essential for smooth driving. While the spring itself is staunchly built, its stiffness is neutralized by its length.

French Man Has Design.

Another form of spring suspension, shown here, was invented by a Frenchman. It is practically a shock absorber. But this is designed to replace springs.

Even the axles are eliminated. Instead there is a mounting on each of the four wheels, consisting of a lever arm the end of which bears against a coil spring housed in a glycerin filled cylinder. A piston in the lower end of the cylinder is provided to check rebound.

When the car hits a bump the upward movement of the wheel compresses the spring which checks that part of the jolt. At the rebound, the sudden jolt back is impeded by the chamber full of glycerin which can escape only through small holes in the piston head. As soon as the pressure is removed the liquid returns to the bottom of the chamber by gravity.

No Axles On Car.

Since there are no axles, on this car, the differential housing is mounted solidly to the rear frame cross-member. Two universals are used for each wheel because of the upward and downward motion.

American inventions for eliminating rough riding consist of an adjustable leaf spring for any weight, transverse leaf springs in place of axles, and an air cushion arrangement in place of springs.

In practically all designs of this kind the main purpose is the reduction of unsprung weight. That is, the total weight unsupported by the springs. This includes the wheels, tires, axles and parts of the springs that move with the axles.

In the average five-passenger car the unsprung weight is more than one-third that of its total weight. It is on the unsprung weight that a car's riding qualities depend.

AUTOMOBILES SERVING PUBLIC DURING STRIKES

Travelers Are No Longer Dependent on Railways.

Due to the intervention of the motor car, passenger travel interruptions are the least of the inconveniences caused by the railway strike, it is declared.

Daily the motor car is meeting new situations in a way to inspire new appreciations of the real worth. When ever a temporary demoralization of the railway lines occurs, the people are not only quick but really glad to take advantage of the other means of transportation offered by the automobile.

Many a vacation trip or visit to distant relatives is still made possible in spite of strikes, that a comparatively few years ago would have nipped such plans in the bud.

It is safe to say that strikes, as well as high cost of travel by rail, have taught the public the value of the automobile as a means of travel for long distances as well as short ones. The modern motor car has also earned appreciation of the value of the car as a conveyance of comfort.

In fact, some cars offer more actual riding pleasure than even the best of railway coaches, no matter how many miles are to be covered.

Chronic Constipation

Relieved Without the Use of Laxatives

Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot gripe.

Doctors prescribe Nujol because it acts like this natural lubricant and thus replaces it. Try it today.

USE AUTOMOBILES AS BATH HOUSES

Californian Motorists Drive To Ocean's Edge For Dip.

Nature and man have co-operated to such a degree in Southern California that not only are the wonderful stretches of beaches adjacent to Los Angeles made immediately accessible to those in motor cars, but the vehicles—thousands in number during the summer months—serve as dressing rooms for bathers.

To Angelinos and Southern Californians the above statement will not appear in the light of being news, but the vast army of tourists that visit this paradise consider it as such, and freely comment upon it in the most enthusiastic phraseology. Even those from the Atlantic seaboard was enthusiastic over these motor bath houses.

California beach resorts are so located that automobiles may drive almost to the water's edge, and under the most unfavorable circumstances it is but a short walk from car to the beach. Along the numerous beaches easily accessible from here, there are miles upon miles of parking space within a stone's throw of the water.

Regulations in the beach cities make it permissible for individuals to pass to and from the sands in proper bathing costumes.

Were it not for this condition, there undoubtedly would be many thousands on Sundays who would be unable to bathe in the ocean because the bathhouse facilities are entirely inadequate to handle the great number of bathers who go to the beaches both by trolley and auto. Where in the east can you find such unusual facilities of that kind near the larger cities?

AUTOMOBILE PLUMBER IS LATEST TRAVELING SHOP

Carries Week's Supply of Materials Out Into Rural Districts.

The traveling business house which brings all kinds of service right to the door of the most remote places is the latest contribution of the motor truck to making life easier and more happy for those who live distances away from the cities.

Grocery stores, supply for farms, service for automobiles, and even plumbing shops, mounted on the truck chassis, call regularly in the rural and mountain sections, and bring conveniences which would be lacking were it not for this service.

One of the latest of these traveling ships is the plumber, who goes about with a week's supply of materials, a completely equipped work bench, ready to do all kinds of jobs which the man of the house would fix in a hit-or-miss way, or which would go undone. We have learned that a similarly equipped outfit goes about the city taking care of business. This enables the man to do the repairing without going back to his main shop for supplies. As this time was charged to the customer, it effects quite a saving.

Messengers in London use a motor scooter for deliveries.

More motor trucks are used in the west-north central states than in any other section of the country, according to bureau of census figures.

O'BRIEN BUSINESS COLLEGE
OPENS TERM SEPTEMBER 5

Modern School Equipped With Most
Up-to-Date Typewriting and Calculating Machines.

Among the outstanding business colleges of the province, London may justly boast of possessing, in the O'Brien College, Limited, which is the O'Brien Business College enlarged and improved, one of the best of its kind. It numbers its successful graduates by the hundreds, and is constantly expanding in influence and efficiency. The success of the school, which warrants the prediction that it will eventually develop into a great extension institute, with a continent-wide system of correspondence courses, centers about the personality and ability of William J.
O'Brien, its president and principal, who has associated with him E. Fremlin, an experienced commercial and wireless telegrapher.

Mr. O'Brien was born and brought up in this city. He was educated in the London public schools and the London Collegiate Institute, and holds a Collegiate Institute commercial specialist's certificate, and a chartered accountant's intermediate certificate, and has had several years experience as a public accountant.

In less than six years Mr. O'Brien, by hard work, combined with up-to-the-minute methods, and assisted by qualified public school and Collegiate Institute teachers, who give strictly individual instruction, has built up a business college that has a reputation for thoroughly trained graduates.

Graduates of this college are now holding responsible positions in Toronto, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Va-
nouver, Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago,
Detroit, Windsor, Sarnia,
Wallaceburg, Kitchener, Brantford, Ingersoll, St. Thomas, Hart, Michigan, and other places, besides the large number of business firms in this city that are demanding efficiency in their offices, and asking for graduates of the O'Brien College, Limited.

The commercial department is equipped with the most modern desks, chairs, electric fans, etc., the typewriting department has the latest Underwood typewriters and Dalton calculating machines. The fastest typist in Western Ontario in the last two years was a graduate of the O'Brien Business College.

The latest department, the commercial and wireless telegraph department, is in charge of E. Fremlin, an experienced commercial and wireless telegraph operator.

The fall term is now opening, and intending students should join the day or night classes on Tuesday, Sept. 5, when everything will be in readiness.

company, Canadian business shows every indication of requiring a Cana-

Succeed In London

COMMENCEMENT of construction operations on new educational buildings in the city of London is one of the outstanding signs that London is not for a moment standing still. There is a continued steady advancement toward prosperity for all, and thinking men are already planning ahead for the increase in the city's population, which will mount by thousands as the city continues toward success.

As conditions stand at present, industry and education work hand in hand in London, both striving for the ultimate good of the city. With the opening of the schools next week, another generation of young Londoners commence preparations toward becoming good citizens. The facilities provided for education here are significant of the interest taken by the present generation of voters in bringing up their sons and daughters, able and willing to take their places as intelligent and efficient citizens.

The civic playgrounds will be no slight factor in the development of citizenship. The rising generation know each other. Their friends are not limited to boys and girls of the one school they attend and a few scattered acquaintances in other parts of the city. A spirit of friendly rivalry is being developed between youngsters all over the city, and it is going to mean that the men who aspire for public leadership and the management of the city will be known by more than hearsay. Men will know their neighbors, and that fact alone will preserve the purity and fineness of London civic life, when the population has reached the hundred thousand mark and the city has passed the genuine "big town" class.

Paige Company said, when interviewed: "The establishing of Canadian headquarters at Windsor is one of the most important steps this company has taken in some time. Our Canadian business has been growing greater every year. We have felt for some time that our Canadian distributors, dealers and owners were entitled to the advantages of having a Paige branch located in Canada.
Then the Jewett six opens a wide and new market for us. It brings the highest type of motor car performance within reach of the man of moderate means. The man who heretofore has had to be content with a four can now have the smooth, flowing power, speed and acceleration of a very powerful six."

The Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company is one of the strongest institutions, financially, in the automobile business. Their coming to Canada means an important acquisition to our already large automobile industry.

KEEPS BREAD STANDARD AT HIGHEST POINT POSSIBLE

J. Ruddy Has Had 30 Years Experience in Baking Business.
Considering the length of time it has been in existence, the Ruddy Bread Company has had a wonderfully rapid development.

The reason for this rapid growth is attributed to the able management of J. Ruddy, who has a wide knowledge of the bread-making business gained from more than 30 years' experience in some of the largest plants in this district.

Mr. Ruddy made a life study of the production-end of the bread business, and has kept well abreast of the times, always being on the lookout for new bread-baking processes.
He has also followed closely the development of the trade and the scientific principles adopted by the largest bread-baking interests in the country.

The plant, while not large, is modern in every respect, and the management adhere closely to the policy of quality in manufacture of their product. Only the purest ingredients are allowed to enter the manufacture of the company, and at all times the standard of Ruddy's bread is kept to the highest possible point, regardless of cost.

Among prominent American lecturers in the drugless profession who were present were: Dr. Benedict
Lust, New York City; Dr. Jay Loban, Pittsburg; Dr. Clark, Chicago, and Dr. Cochrane, Chicago.

INSTALL RADIO APPARATUS
ON DODGE AUTOMOBILE

Edward Dallin, Harvard Graduate,
Has Success With Novel
Invention.

It does not require an ultra-imaginative person to realize the possibilities of police cars, fire engines or emergency cars with a simple wireless apparatus which will transmit instantly messages from headquarters. To Edward Dallin, Harvard graduate and radio experimenter, goes the credit for a novel wireless device mounted on a Dodge Bros. car. While Dallin's equipment is for his own experimental purposes, it would be readily adaptable to purposes like those mentioned.
The set, as invented, is simplicity itself. Two broom handles and a length of lamp cord form the antenna, a wooden box originally intended to contain milk chocolate, is the cabinet for the sending apparatus, and an ordinary spark coil supplies the voltage for the vacuum tube transmitter.

Has Ten Mile Range.
With this set Mr. Dallin can travel about in his Dodge Bros. car and in the vicinity of his home at Quincy Point, Mass., receives messages from points as far distant as Key West, Fla., and Savannah, Ga. His sending range averages ten miles, and he is working now on a much more effective sending apparatus.

Dallin says it is a queer sensation to be driving comfortably along in his car and suddenly have the buzz-buzz of the box beside him begin to take rhythmical form in dots and dashes—which may be his call number, IFK, or just the rambling message of some amateur operator.

The whole set, as it appears in Mr.
Dallin's Dodge Bros. car, occupies only a few cubic feet of space between the front seat and the dashboard. The inventor says he could construct one that will take considerably less room. "And some day they will be making them so small that they will have a vest-pocket wireless," he adds with a laugh.

In Touch With Events.
Mr. Dallin takes many long trips in his Dodge Bros. car, but he can keep always in close touch with events through his radio device.

Mr. Dallin could not have picked out a more suitable automobile on which to mount his radio apparatus. Radio is without a doubt the wonder of the day, and is the outstanding achievement of recent years in the scientific world, while the Dodge Bros. car is without a peer among four-cylinder automobiles of any country, and in fact is recognized as being far superior to some of the six-cylinder machines that are running on the roads of America today.

Many motor car owners in the States have equipped their cars with compact high power sending instruments, so as to be able to call for assistance if necessary, but W. J. Chisholm, the popular and energetic Dodge Bros.
dealer for London and the surrounding district, assures Dodge Bros. owners that it is not necessary to equip their cars with radio sending outfits for service calls, as Dodge Bros. owners rarely experience the need to call for assistance of any kind.

The improved Dodge Bros. car is increasing in popularity with Londoners from week to week, and at the present time the demand is so great that the prospective buyers are asked to place their orders for fall delivery as early as possible. The Dodge Bros. showroom in London is located at 478 Richmond street, and the phone number is 5128W.

RESTRAINS RAIL STRIKERS FROM INTERFERENCE

U. S. Court Order Issued On Application of Attorney-General.

HEARING SEPTEMBER 11

Dougherty Declares Government's Principle Must Be Upheld.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Taking one of the most drastic steps ever attempted in a strike situation, the United States government today obtained a temporary federal order restraining striking railroad shopmen, their officers and affiliated bodies throughout the country, from interfering in any way whatever with the operation of railroads.

The restraining order, hearing of which was set for Sept. 11, was issued by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson, upon the petition of United States Attorney-General Harry M. Dougherty, who came here from Washington to argue for the action.

The order enjoins, until the hearing, all railway employees, attorneys, servants, agents, associates, and persons acting in aid or in conjunction with them from in any manner interfering with, hindering or obstructing railway companies, their agents, servants or employees in the operation of their respective railroads and systems of transportation or the performance of their public duties and obligations in the transportation of passengers and property in interstate commerce and the carriage of the mails, and from in any manner interfering with employees engaged in inspection, repair, operation and use of trains, locomotives, cars and other equipments, and from attempting to prevent any person from freely entering into or continuing in the employ of the companies for the purpose of inspection and repairing of locomotives and cars, or otherwise.

The underlying principle involved in the action of the attorney-general in concluding his argument for the order, is "the survival and the supremacy of the government of the United States."

Declaring that his request was not aimed at union labor, the attorney-general said that the order was necessary to the preservation of the unions themselves. At the same time he asserted that the government expected to use its authority to prevent the labor unions from destroying the open shop.

"When the unions claim the right to dictate to the government and to deprive the American people of the necessities of life," he warned, "then the government will destroy the unions, for the government of the United States is supreme, and must endure."

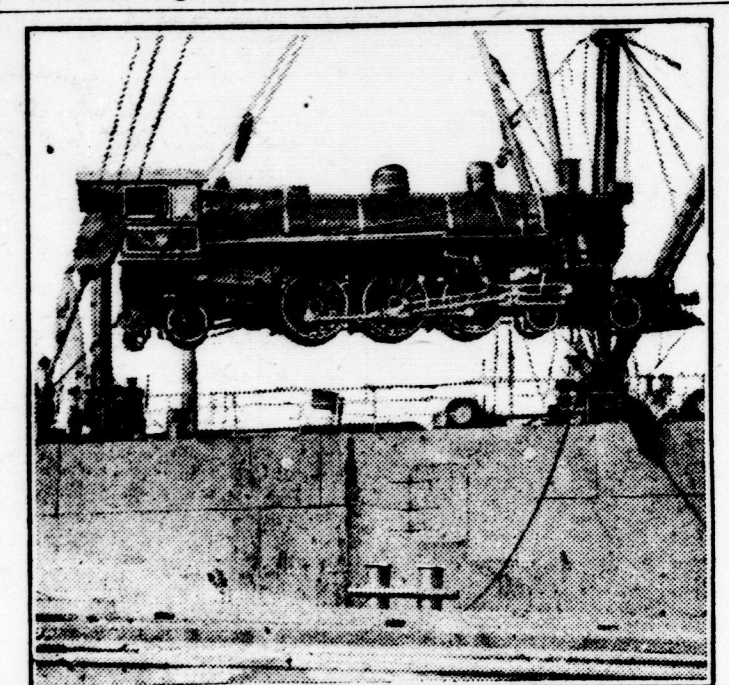

The railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, B. M. Jewell, its president; J. F. McGrath, vice-president, and John Scott, secretary-treasurer, together with the six shop craft brotherhoods, the 120 system federations and their president and secretaries were made defendants in the attorney-general's petition.

Officials of the shop crafts asserted that the order would have no effect on continuance of the strike.

The following are the terms of the order:

- 1.—Interfering with or hindering in any manner or obstructing the railroads in the operation of their systems of transportation.
- 2.—Interfering with any one from freely entering into or continuing in the employment of the railroad companies.
- 3.—Conspiring to annoy employees of railroad companies from making threats to workers, jeering or taunting employees.
- 4.—Loitering on railroad property or trespassing upon the premises of the railroads.
- 5.—Inducing or attempting to induce any person to leave the employ of the railroads.
- 6.—Congregating for the purpose of encouraging or furthering the strike.
- 7.—From encouraging strikers or directing by letters, telephone interviews, in newspaper or in any manner whatsoever conducting the walk-out. On this point the petition asks that the union officials be restrained from "issuing any instructions, requests, public statements or suggestions in any way to any defendant or to any official or member of any associated labor organizations with reference to their conduct subsequent to their abandonment of the employment of the railway companies."

Shipping Locomotive To Argentina Railroad Engine Loaded On Shipboard At Glasgow

FOR the first time in history a 75-ton locomotive is loaded on a vessel as one unit. The above engine was built at Glasgow, Scotland, for the president of the Argentine Republic.

was withheld on the appeal of the government to the federal courts, insisting that the government's brief "spoke for itself."

The injunction petition was held by the department of justice to be well preceded on the government's action in the famous Debs case in 1915, which subsequently was sustained by a decision of the United States Supreme Court.

BRITISH CONSERVATIVES PREDICT COALITION'S END

Lord Salisbury and Arthur Henderson Hold That General Election Cannot Be Long Delayed.

London, Sept. 1.—(Canadian Press Cable.)—Two prominent members heralding the opening of the political campaign in view of the next election, have appeared from the opposite camps.

The first prominent member to come from Lord Salisbury to the Unionist clubs throughout the country, in which he says: "We have good news from all parts of England and Wales. The feeling against the coalition is general, and our friends are beginning to see that with a little effort the Conservative party can, in the next parliament, regain the freedom of clean politics and Conservative principles."

The second was in a speech made by Right Hon. Arthur Henderson, secretary of the Labor party, predicting that the election could not be long delayed, and declaring that whether it came this autumn or early next year, it would be a most momentous election.

People of this birthdate are very good and generous, and very self-reliant. They are usually much interested in the love matters of their friends, and have little hesitancy in making or breaking matches. They are fine scholars, and make inspirational musicians.

These people usually have an overwhelming respect for money and position, and many imitators, and leaders are to be found among those who have not learned to overcome this false pride and ambition. Dollars and cents have a value quite apart from the comforts and pleasures they provide. These are the distinguishing marks which elevate their possessors to the most enviable altitudes.

The governing planet of this date is Wing-footed God, Mercury. The governing sign is Virgo, the sign of the Virgin, and the birth stone is a pink Jasper.

Home - Go - Church - Tomorrow

"YES, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the Creator in a grove of trees or by a running brook, or in a man's own house, just as well as in a church. But I also know as a matter of cold fact the average man does not thus worship."

Here are a few benefits to be derived from church attendance:

"You will listen to and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if you are not familiar with the Bible, you have suffered loss."

"You will take part in singing some good hymns."

"You will meet and nod or speak to good neighbors. You will come away feeling a little more charitably inclined toward all the world, even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church-going as a soft performance."

"Join in church work for the sake of showing your faith in your works."

Make your start in church service tomorrow. A fair trial of church attendance will convince you it's well worth while.

An Open Letter to Dr. Chown

By DR. E. SCOTT

THE following is an open letter written to Dr. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, by Dr. E. Scott, editor of the Presbyterian Record, on the much discussed question of church union.

Dear Sir:—Your statements re the Presbyterian and church union at the different Methodist conferences during the present summer and in a pastoral letter to the Methodist people in the Christian Guardian of 28th June ult., have been carried by the public press far beyond the churches concerned. May a word from a different "point of view" bear them friendly company?

Presbyterian "Responsibility." You write: "We will begin with the Presbyterian Church, since the movement was instituted from that source. Methodism cannot claim the honor or the responsibility of initiating the negotiations. It was in the year 1902, at our own general conference in Winnipeg, that proposals were made by the representatives of the Presbyterian Church to the Methodist Church to appoint a committee for the purpose of negotiating terms of union."

In 1902, as you have stated, your conference met in Winnipeg. Some Presbyterians brought fraternal greetings. One of them, the late Principal Patrick, afterwards writes in the Presbyterian in substance as follows: "I reserved myself for the last. The others gave the usual greetings in the usual way. When my turn came, without consulting my colleagues, without a hint to them of my intention, I threw myself into church union and urged it with all my strength. When the meeting was over some members of the conference came to me and asked if many in our church were of that mind. I said to them, 'I do not know, I speak only for myself. You can ask them and find out.'"

In the following year, our assembly (see minutes, 1903), received a message from the Methodist Church, strongly pro-union, stating that it had appointed a committee "to confer with committees that may be appointed" by the other churches. The assembly took no action, but simply referred the message to its committee on correspondence.

Next year, 1904, the message was again before the assembly, with the urge that to decline the proposal for a committee to confer would not be courteous to a sister church. The action of the assembly was as follows (see minutes, 1904):

"The general assembly thanks the general conference of the Methodist Church for their courtesy in transmitting to them a copy of the resolution on church union adopted by the conference at its meeting in September, 1902."

"The general assembly, in response, appoints a committee on union, with instructions to consider the practicability of such a union, and to confer with similar committees of the Methodist, Congregational and any other churches, and to report to the next general assembly."

Presbyterian "Rights." You say: "We are well aware that there is opposition within our Presbyterian Church. In our judgment, however, there are limits of propriety that should be observed in the activities of the opposition. From our point of view, it seems that they have a right to withdraw from any arrangement made to carry out the will of the general assembly, but not to block the consummation of its declared purpose."

The mistake here is in judging the "rights" of Presbyterians in their own church from what you call "our point of view." The "rights" of the Methodist and the Presbyterian people in their own churches are widely different. The Methodist Church is incorporated. It is a legal entity. It is a legal entity. Its general conferences, within certain limits, has power to transfer the church and its civil rights and possessions whether it will, and the only alternative for the Methodist people who do not wish to be transferred is to "withdraw."

The Presbyterian Church is not incorporated. It is not a legal entity. It is simply a Christian organization, with a general assembly chosen by the church with full power for that organization, and pledged to "maintain and defend the same," but with no power to disband it, or to transfer the church and its civil rights to another control.

Presbyterians who do not wish to be transferred have no need to "withdraw." They simply continue their own church and allow those who "withdraw" who may so desire. And Presbyterians in Canada do not purpose to "withdraw" from their church home to admit of its being handed over to a new organization by the one-third of its membership that voted for the O. B. U.

Presbyterian "Good Faith." You say: "If we look at the ethical obligations under which the churches have placed themselves. It will give us an answer to the question—Will union ever come to pass? My confidence in the certainty rests, among other things, in the good faith of the churches concerned."

This is simply saying that if the Presbyterian Church does not consummate organic union, she will lack in "good faith" and fall in her "ethical obligations." May I ask to whom these terms are to apply? Who will lack in "good faith?"

On the one hand, I do not suppose you will question the "good faith" of Presbyterians who have always opposed the movement as a backward step, towards ecclesiastical autocracy and despotism, who believe that Christ calls his people, not to union but unity, who believe that the present churches can do more for the kingdom of God in Canada than could the proposed new one; who have always protested disbanding their church by one-third of her membership, and have as constantly declared their purpose to continue their own church, in unity and co-operation with other evangelical churches.

On the other hand, you cannot question the "good faith" towards the Methodist Church, of those who have done their utmost to accede to her request? If some of them in their zeal have resolved what they cannot perform, it is not a question of "ethical" but of physical limitation; and your suggestion of lack of "good faith" towards the Methodist Church cannot surely refer to them, after their efforts through the years "in response" to the initial action and proposal of that church.

The Religio-Political Realm." You further write—"I would say with all conviction that if the major churches of Protestantism cannot unite, the battle which is going on for the religious control of our country will be lost in the next few years. I refer not to the school question only, but to the whole movement within Canada in the religio-political realm."

Thank you very much for this frank forecast of the proposed merger; not church, but a religio-political "machine," incorporated as provided in the basis of union, to "battle" . . . "in the religio-political realm" for "religio-political" ends, at the bidding of its central authority.

You have here given Presbyterian an added imperative to continue their own beloved church, with a Christ her "only king and head," her "only mission and work" is not "religio-political," but to win men and women to Him, and then, as Christian citizens, will they do their duty in the state.

"The Church of the Future." Once more you write: "We cannot get a united world with a spiritually divided and broken Christianity. One more truly one that can a divided church speak with good effect to a future united world?"

Evangelical Christendom is not "spiritually divided and broken," and if it were, a big "religio-political" compass, forcing it into one organization for "religio-political" ends would not make it any more spiritually one.

World conventions and conferences, the World's Evangelical Alliance, the great Bible and missionary societies, the thousands of more local unities, the fraternal intercourse and co-operation in good work everywhere, have been proclaiming to the world for generations that evangelical Christendom is spiritually one, more truly one than when the church was one great organization "in the religio-political realm," and the heads of the church made and unmade kings at will.

Christendom is now united in the way the best statesmen are seeking a united world, not a world under central control, which Germany sought in vain, but peoples and nations, self-determining, living in amity and peace. Even the British Isles, after centuries of central control, are dividing into self-determining parts, in the hope of a peace and unity which could not otherwise be attained.

Of the two ideals of the church—a great organization, under central control, and a great Christian brotherhood, grouped and named as they may choose, living in unity, one in Christ—Presbyterians in Canada have chosen the latter, and purpose with His guidance and help to follow it.

With thanks to The Advertiser for courtesy of space, and best wishes for the great Methodist Church, and for all of every name who seek to uplift humanity by the uplifted Christ, I remain, yours truly, E. SCOTT.

Montreal, Aug. 30, 1922.

Collegiate's New Physical Director Arrives.

SERGEANT-MAJOR F. H. BLAKE, well-known Toronto boxing and physical instructor and boxing and wrestling judge and referee, arrives in London today to assume the duties of physical director of the London Collegiate. He will probably also give some boxing instruction to the troops stationed in London, and may also teach boxing at Western University, where Dr. George Smith, formerly physical director of General V. M. C. A. is in charge of athletics and hygiene. He taught boxing for a while at the New York A. and Toronto University. Blake is not only a good boxer himself, says the Toronto Star, but an excellent teacher, and a ring and mat official who has the courage of his convictions. He reported several wrestling matches he was sent out to referee as fakes, and the Ontario Athletic Commission took action to prevent repetitions of the frame-ups.

REIS AND CARMEN DRAW ASSIGNMENTS TODAY

Yesterday's lay-off will mean a double-header this afternoon with the Aces, first series champions. Eddie Reis will do the pitching in the first set-to, Lefty Carmen will hurl from the other side in the second game, and the way the team are going they should just about turn in two wins. The Aces didn't look any too good against Don Pedro Behan in the first game at Hamilton Thursday, but they came right back in the second and looked a different outfit against Tomlin's good pitching. This shows that the Aces are back to something like their first series form and means the prospects of a fairly heavy afternoon for Reis, Carmen, Ltd.

Reis was blown off the mound the last time he faced the Aces, but this sort of thing will happen. The way Reis has been doing at the home lot, however, makes it fairly certain that it won't happen today. Carmen is an in and out where the Aces are concerned, but the little southpaw, with matters as tight as they are, won't be taking any careless chances, and he should win.

For the first time this year the locals have something of the confidence reposed in the teams of the last two years, and right now they are playing heavy baseball both on the defense and offense. The pitching staff, despite the absence of Doc Huard, is at its best, and even if Schaefer hasn't been getting his double nation the last few games, the bottom half of the batting order is making up for it with steady clouting that balances out the machine on the attack. The infield as it is constituted now has a lot of experience that stands it in good stead at crucial moments, which will be more plentiful in the remaining games.

SARNIA WORKMAN
KILLED BY FALL

Samuel Body Falls to Death
When Chimney Scaffolding Breaks.

Special to London Advertiser.

SARNIA, Sept. 1.—A fatal accident occurred this afternoon at the Imperial Oil Refinery, when Samuel Body, 254 Confederation street, fell 40 feet from a scaffolding to the ground and expired almost immediately. Joseph Whaley, another employee of the company, was removed to the hospital, suffering from injuries to his head. The two men were erecting scaffolding inside a chimney, which it was the company's intention to demolish. They had reached 40 feet when the plank on which they were standing broke without warning, and the men fell to the ground at the feet of John McPhail, who was about to call a message to them. Body was a young married Englishman with two young children. It is not expected the injuries sustained by Whaley will prove fatal.

ANOTHER CHILD IN
AUTO WRECK DIES

OTTAWA, Sept. 1.—Another victim of the fatal train and automobile collision at St. Francis street crossing, Hull, last night, died here today.

He was Hector Ouellette, aged 10, brother of Lucien Ouellette, aged 12, who was instantly killed when the train hit the automobile. Of the four boys on the motor truck, when the accident occurred, two were declared by the authorities at Sacred Heart Hospital to be in a very dangerous condition.

RAILROAD BRIDGES
PUT UNDER GUARD

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 1.—All railroad bridges here were under guard today, following the uncovering of what is believed to have been an attempt to blow up the Cuyahoga River bridge of the Belt Line Railroad.

New York Central police reported last night that they had been fired upon when they surprised four men digging a hole three feet in diameter and five feet deep near the central support of the bridge south of the city limits.

SELF TO DEATH

pressions After Trip From Abroad.

Dr. J. F. Coar Predicts Collapse Will Come This Winter.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Dr. J. F. Coar, professor of political economy at the University of Alberta, upon his return from Europe on the S.S. Reliance today, predicted that winter would bring the utter financial crash of Germany.

"Hugo Stinnes, Voegler, Siemens, Deutsch, Duesberg and other capitalists and manufacturers of Germany with whom I talked," said Professor Coar, "said that a year ago they were optimistic; today they are hopeless. The late foreign minister Rathenau was in a similar mood when with me a few days before his assassination."

"Germany, with her factories humming and her products selling abroad at low prices, is slowly bleeding herself to death," Professor Coar said. "A moratorium would give no help, for it would mean perhaps the stabilization of the mark, and when that goes back to its proper place sales abroad at bargain prices will be over. Then 12,000,000 workmen in Germany would be unemployed."

"Dividends at 24 per cent in German banks are deceptive," Professor Coar said, "for that means but two and a half per cent at the American value."

"In reality," he concluded, "Germany has given away to the world, without recompense, 12,000,000 labor hours during the last year, through her present system. This constitutes an absolute total loss."

WOULD FORCE GERMANY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—"It is incredible, yes, it is more than that—it is monstrous for any one to believe that France seeks in any way to avoid paying her war debt of honor to the United States," said Henri Aubepin, representing the Barreau de Paris, which corresponds to the American Bar Association, in an interview just before sailing for Paris.

Mr. Aubepin, who is one of the most noted lawyers of France, came to the United States recently to attend the convention of the bar association held at San Francisco.

"There is a malign influence at work, without question, seeking to undermine the existing friendship between America and France," he continued.

"Just who and what is behind this movement it is not difficult to guess. I shall mention no names, but if this friendship could be nullified, it might work to the advantage of certain interests who would be glad, for reasons of international politics, to see France deprived of the good will of this country."

"Nowhere in this country have I seen the slightest evidence of this reported unfriendly attitude of the United States and its people to France, which is an evidence that the movement to create ill-feeling between the people of these countries is not having much, if any, effect. The origin of all this exists overseas, and it is there that the chief efforts are being made to create trouble."

"In 1870 the Germans ravaged and captured our country. They laid upon France an indemnity the amount of which was crushing and France was even then not rich. But she paid Germany every franc she owed."

"Can it be believed that France would now seek to repudiate the debt she owes the United States, her friend, not her enemy. Germany was, and still is, a country to whom she owes her salvation, through the loan of money and the use of millions of her troops in the world war? The thought refutes itself. France will pay America every dollar due; but all we ask is time in which to do this, for France is now poor."

"As for the militaristic attitude of France toward Germany, we only ask that Germany pay us what is our due, according to the treaty executed. Germany can pay—if she honestly wishes to. When one has a debtor who can pay but will not, then force must be applied to collect the obligation. If Germany persists in not paying her honest debt then no one can blame France for taking steps to guarantee such payment, and that is what the French people intend doing. There can be no other way."

THE TORTURE OF INDIGESTION

Thousands Made Miserable
By This Trouble

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Relieves It

What is indigestion and what causes it? As you know, solid food must be changed into a liquid by the stomach before it can be taken up as nourishment by the blood.

The stomach acts as a churn. It is covered by a strong, muscular coat and lined with a soft, delicate membrane which secretes the Gastric Juice which digests or dissolves solid food.

When food enters the stomach, the muscular coat squeezes and presses the food from end to end, or churns it, with the gastric juice to dissolve or digest it.

But—if the stomach muscles are weak—or if the dissolving fluid is poor or insufficient—then food cannot be digested properly and you have indigestion.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the most wonderful medicine in the world for strengthening the stomach muscles, and providing an abundance of pure, full-strength dissolving fluid to completely digest every meal.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" does this because it keeps the kidneys active, the bowels regular and the blood pure, which insures pure Gastric Juice.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" will correct your indigestion or Dyspepsia and enable you to enjoy every meal. Try it.

Fifty cents a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa—Advt.

League Headquarters Discusses Refusal of U. S. To Ratify Convention.

GENEVA, Sept. 1.—The refusal of the United States government to ratify the St. Germain convention for the restriction of private traffic in arms and ammunition was the principal subject of discussion at headquarters of the League of Nations today. From the talk the view seemed to be that the convention was regarded as dead.

The news of the declaration of the United States government to adhere to the convention was received Thursday night in a note from the state department, dated July 28.

China, Chile, Brazil, Finland, Guatemala, Greece, Peru, Siam and Venezuela already have ratified the convention, but as none of these countries manufacture arms this fact is regarded as immaterial.

Other countries, Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, Poland, Canada and Czechoslovakia, had notified the secretariat of the League of Nations that they would ratify the compact when the allied and associated powers had signified their intention of ratifying.

The full committee on reduction of armaments of the league had the state department's note of declaration before it today, but took no action on it.

EXPECTED TO RECOVER.

NEWCASTLE, N. B., Sept. 1.—The condition of Rev. Fr. Augustine, who is alleged, was assaulted by John Sullivan of Rogersville, is reported to be satisfactory today, and unless complications set in, his recovery is looked for.
