Summary of C-in-C of Deslauriers 11-11-43

On Oct 9th 1943 being under enemy shelling the accused was advised more than once that he had to follow up with his section, which he did not. He then left his section without support and returned to Canada. He also admitted to wrongfully failing to proceed to the front when ordered. Previous to the 9th he showed a persistent desire that he would like to meet the enemy. He refused to advance by not showing up at his section and a considerable distance to rear.

In the awarding of an important duty, the accused can be guilty of desertion according to Army Act Sec 12 Sub 20 and Sub 2 which I am asking the Court to find him guilty of.

Charles E. Lamoureux Lt

Witness

Closing up address.

On the 9th of Oct. 1943. the accused complained several times that his nerves where in very bad shape and that he was loosing control.

No witnes here proved that the accused left his PL during actual shelling.

I really think that the accused had no intention of ~~avoiding~~ an important duty, but I think that the accused nerves failed to give him support, and that it is the reason why he left his Platoon.

On the 22nd of October 1943. the accused was sent to his coy. There was no enemy activity. There nobody told him that his coy was to meet the enemy on that day. Major Allard before dismissing the accused did not specifiy any time as when his coy was going to ~~not~~ meet the enemy. The accused left that 22nd of Nov.

in the case of 4567.
D. 36023 Tpr. Declauries P.

May it please the Court, in considering the case of the accused, to take the following factors under advisement,-

1. The accused has had only one conviction entered on his AF 116 in over five years service in the Army

2 He has been under close arrest for ninety-seven (97) days.

3. His sole purpose of leaving this Unit was to rejoin his Regt. He went to his Regt, hoping to be taken on strength immediately, but found that there were no vacancies. After waiting around he gave up all hope and returned to Rome. When he was in Sicily he had done the same thing on leaving hospital without being punished, so he thought the same device would work again.

4 He holds the 1939-43 Star

5 During the whole time of close arrest, the accused has been kept at work every day along with personnel undergoing sentence

Cm orderly Dvr in corp. at 5 Cdn Mtd Regt. Pln RCASC. Acc. has worked for me for some time. Have had no trouble with him. I have been very much impressed by his services while working with me. 1st charge against acc. since he joined platoon 6 months ago. R.P. 53 (B) complied with. Witness withdrawn.

Speech in Mitigation

In the case of B/102666 Pte. Aldoria Joseph Desmarais 5 Cdn Med Regt Pl. RCASC.

Mr. President and Members of the Court.

The accused has pleaded guilty to all charges and expressed his regrets.

In the time since his enlistment, more than three years ago Pte Desmarais has had only three charges against him none of which were of a serious nature.

He enlisted at the age of eighteen so is only twenty one now.

This is his first offence of A.W.L. and was caused partly through drinking and partly through anger at his family. He had been sending money home to pay for cigarettes and parcels and these were not being sent to him.

While this is no excuse in itself it can be understood the effect it might have on a boy of his age.

As you know he returned after his first absence and was not entirely sober at the time. He was told that his name had been sent into T.Q. and that he was going to be Court Martialed. He had previously been put under arrest by L/Sgt. Mullaney. In his condition and not knowing military law he didn't realise that his offence was a comparatively minor one and was frightened. He figured he might as well be hung for a sheep as a lamb and went A.W.L. again.

Having considered the matter, A.W.L. from arrest, he was afraid to go back. He bought the civilian clothes from a tailor in Perantino and remained there until arrested by the C.M.Ps. He then admitted his identity.

I was on the 5 Aug 44, and still am, L/Cpl in charge of the R.D.I. of 5 Canadian Medium Regiment Platoon, R.C.A.S.C. I was well acquainted with B 102666 Pte Desmarais, A.J. of 5 Canadian Medium Regiment Platoon, R.C.A.S.C., whom I now recognize as the accused and who has been for the past six months a member of this platoon. At 0500 hrs on 5 Aug 44, I had occasion to look for the accused and found that his bed had not been slept in. He was still absent at reveille at 0630 hrs. I then made a search of the platoon area, but was unable to find him. I therefore reported him absent to the Orderly Room Corporal, M 104519 Cpl Morris, T. That is all I know of the case, Sir."

The accused elected to cross-examine this witness.

Private Desmarais, having been a member of this platoon for six months previous, I recognized him and knowing him to be absent without leave, I immediately placed him under open arrest. I informed him that he was forbidden to leave the unit lines. The following morning, 11 Aug 44, at 0800 hrs I called the roll, and the accused failed to answer his name. I caused a search of the camp area to be made, but the accused could not be found. I have called the roll on all subsequent parades, and have not seen the accused until 11 Oct 44, when I saw him in custody in the unit guard room. No. B 102666 Pte Desmarais. A.J.

Royal Canadian Army Service Corps.

Sir,

At FORENTINO on the 13th September 1944 at about 2000 hours, in company with Cpl Gorton G.D., and a number of the Carabiniers I had occasion to enter a civilian house, where a shooting was believed to be living. I searched the house in question and found the above named soldier [illegible], and uniform, but the soldier was not present.

I carried out a search of the surrounding area and at about 2100 hours, I had occasion to check the identity of a civilian, who on being questioned admitted being the above named soldier, and that he was on shooting from his unit. He was wearing civilian clothes, and was also in possession of a parcel which contained two suits of civilian clothes and one pair of civilian shoes.

I arrested him and conducted him to Detachment HQ, and he was later conveyed to the 24 Canadian Corps Base, where he was handed over to the MPO i/c to be detained.

On the 15th September 1944 at about 1000 hours, the above named soldier was further questioned by Cpl Gorton with respect to a WD Canadian Chevrolet No. 4074775 which was found abandoned at Forentino on the 14th September 1944. He admitted that he had had the above mentioned vehicle and that he had used it to convey civilian foodstuffs from Piedimonte to Forentino on several occasions. When questioned on the 13th September 1944 this regard to the same matter he denied all knowledge of the vehicle.

DESCRIPTIVE RETURN of a Deserter or Absentee without Leave.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF MAGISTRATES.

(1) When a man is apprehended by the Civil Power as an absentee without leave, or as a deserter, if the information tendered leaves no doubt in the mind of the Magistrate that the prisoner is a soldier, this return should be completed and given to the Police to hand to the escort on arrival.

(2) To avoid delay in the arrival of the escort a telegram stating the Number, Rank, Name and Unit of the soldier should be sent by the Police, as soon as the man is committed, to the Officer Commanding the soldier's Unit.* The place where the escort is required to attend should be stated, also whether the soldier surrendered or was arrested.

(3) Any recommendation for a reward should be made on Part II of this return.

(4) The Court fees chargeable for Descriptive Returns should be claimed periodically from the Command Paymaster of the Command in which the Court is situated.

* (5) The stations of all Units are shown in the Monthly Army List, as are also the Depots of Corps. In the case of doubt as to the location of a particular Unit reference should be made to the nearest O.C. Troops. Where the soldier's Unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District, and the Channel Islands) the telegram for an escort should be despatched to the O.C. Depot, who will take all necessary action for its provision.

* NOTE.—Special instructions apply in war for the disposal of absentees and deserters apprehended by the civil police; e.g., such personnel will be taken over from the civil authorities by the O.C. the nearest military Unit or the O.C. Troops at the nearest military station. (A.C.I. 489/1940).

Q.

I have listened with considerable interest to the evidence given to this Court by the witnesses for the prosecution, likewise the admirable expressions of the prosecutor. While I believe in the sincerity of the evidence of the witnesses for the prosecution and, in particular, the evidence of L/Cpl Schattenkirk, the Provost witness, I wish to make it clear that I have equal confidence in the sincerity of the witnesses for the defence.

I submit to this Court that the evidence given by the witnesses for the prosecution which you have heard does not to any degree establish the guilt of the accused.

You have heard the evidence of the Provost witness in which he stated that he did see the accused drive out of the main camp gate at 1930 hrs on the 8th of Sep 44 in a 8-cwt English make car, but that he did not recognize the accused who was standing at the gate talking to witness Bdr Bogstie between 1830 hrs and 1900 hrs on 8 Sep 44, nor did he see the accused return through the main gate after completing a conversation with Bdr Bogstie lasting about five minutes. Now the Provost witness admits the accused is known to him, having once spent an evening out with him in the UK, yet he does not remember seeing the accused walk by him at the gate between 1830 hrs and 1905 hrs on 8 Sep 44 as stated both by the accused and witness for the prosecution Bdr Bogstie. That, in my opinion, seems odd in view regard to the fact that it was his duty to observe all personnel either leaving or returning to the camp through the gate, the security of which he was responsible for on the evening of 8 Sep 44.

The Provost witness is quite definite as to the time when he saw the accused drive out the gate with vehicle described as 8 cwt English make. Although he was not in possession of a watch he stated that he is a good judge of time and fixed the hr as 1930 on 8 Sep 44. On the other hand, I brought before this Court three witnesses for the defence all of whom stated, under oath, that the accused was seen by them in the camp area between the hours of 1930 and dusk and, in fact, two of the witnesses actually conversed with the accused in camp for a period of approximately twenty minutes between the hours of 1930 and 2000.

The accused, Mr President, is before this Court charged with a serious crime for which I submit definite proof of guilt has not been established. This man has been in the Army since 1940; his crime sheet is a fairly good one and, as I understand it, under British law a person accused of an offense against the realm is innocent until proven guilty. Further, if any doubt exists as to guilt the accused is given the benefit of such doubt. I submit, gentlemen, in this case there is considerable doubt from the evidence furnished as to the time the accused was supposed to have been seen leaving the main entrance of the camp. While I cast no aspersions on the integrity, wisdom or sincerity of the Provost witness, gentlemen, I do feel that this is a case of mistaken identity on the part of the Provost witness and that the accused is not guilty of the crime upon which he is now being judged.

Summation by the Prosecution

27 Sept 1944

According to the evidence of P 4586 Gnr Gillan, A.J. and B-74354 Tpr. Kerr, J.M., they both saw the accused ,No B-67928 Tpr. Desmond, W., ~~xxxx~~on the evening of 8 Sept 44 at about dusk which they brought out was at approximately 20.00 hrs. No01691 Gnr. Mac Farlane, W.R. also stated that he had seen the accused "around dusk".

There is no conflict as to times and ~~al~~though No.1-10074 L/Cpl Schattenkirk, W., the Provost, stated that the time was 19.30 ~~hrs~~ when he saw the accused leaving through the gate in the English 8 Cwt, he had no watch and was quite possibly in error.

However the last time, that there is any evidence that the accused was in camp, was at about 20.00 hrs., There is no evidence that he was seen until quite a bit later in the evening, ~~xxx~~ after he had had plenty of time to leave camp as stated by L/Cpl Schattenkirk. There is no evidence that the accused either left camp by foot or stayed in camp after 20.00 hrs. The only evaidence is that he was seen leaving in an English 8 cwt., and also that neither he nor anyone else had permission to take this car out. Although presumption cannot be taken as evidence ~~the~~ fact that he was seen leaving camp in an unauthorized 8 cwt and that this car was afterwards picked up in a damaged condition the following morning connects him with that fact.

I submit however that the accused, by the evidence brought out, did, on the 8 Sept 44, improperly and without authority, use W.D. Vehicle No M-5396717, and that proof of this ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ is the identification brought out in the evidence of L/Cpl. Schattenkirk. The occasioning of damage to the vehicle in question is tied up with the evidence that the accused was seen heading towards Neufchatel in the a/m car which was subsequently found in a damaged condition on the Neufchatel -Camp road .

SECOND WITNESS P.9952 Bdr Bogstie, H., Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Echelon 21 Army Group, sworn states:-

I am acting Transport Sgt in charge of the Transport over all the personnel and vehicles. It was approximately 11 o'clock on the 9th day of Sep that Cpl Calhoun reported in to me that he had seen one of our vehicles in a wrecked condition. I immediately went to the Camp Commandant and reported what Cpl Calhoun had told me. He gave me instructions to go and find out if the vehicle could be driven in. I went out and found that the vehicle was damaged and went out to work on it to get it in running order, to bring it in. I left the vehicle in the M.T. lines and reported to the Camp Commandant. It was shortly after this that I was given instructions to place Tpr Deamond under open arrest as soon as he reported back to camp. There was no one authorized to drive this vehicle. The vehicle should never have left the vehicle park. Two days previous is the last time there was authority for this vehicle to move. The accused Deamond whom I recognized had specifically not been given any authority to use this vehicle. I placed Tpr Deamond under open arrest at 2130 hrs 10 Sep 44.

He was going to make some tea and made quite a bit of noise, so I stayed in my bed and soon after he came in I saw him walking around with a cup and a lit cigarette lighter in his hand, it looked to me as if he were looking for the can of water. Gnr Heximer who was sleeping in the shop said to Tpr Desmond"if it is water your looking for there is a can over there" and pointed in the direction of the can of water. Tpr Desmond started arguing with Heximer about shooting off his mouth. Tpr Desmond appeared to want to pick a fight with either Gnr Heximer or myself, after an exchange of words he left. On the night of 8 Sep 44 the Austin Standard was booked out and did not arrive in until after the despatcher had gone to bed, probably around 12.00 o'clock Midnight. The remaining light utility was in the car park at the time. It was not booked out at all; it had arrived in at 1900 hrs. It didn't leave the car park. (D.R. Abbey) Lieut.
Officer detailed to take
Summary of Evidence.

E 3 Pte Desarmeaux J.H.

This soldier was on furlough to see the girl he was engaged to. When he arrived there he found her mother had just died and his girl friend sick with Pneumonia. She had no one to look after her as her father was dead. Consider this situation sir here was the girl he loved with no one to look after her. Could anyone who loved a person more than in such a condition. Surely his crime is not so great when you consider these circumstances.

Further sir he has a position waiting for him at home and he is desirous only of returning to Canada and establishing a home. I would hope you consider well the effect of any lengthy punishment on the soldiers chances of becoming an established canadian citizen rather than a care of the state.

Closing Address - Defence.

I bring four points before Court
1st - the times specified by witnesses indicating the date that the accused was detained are contradictory. Pt Ford Wt/Cpl Schuffelt 1200hrs 24 Jul. Accused says 1900hrs 24 Jul 43 when Wt/Cpl was brought to this is only after Wt/Cpl Schuffelt has been recalled before the court a penalty remembers it hearing around 1900 hrs 25 Jul 43.
2nd - Wt/Cpl Schuffelt had never explained to the accused his duties as escort the accused never having acted as before did not get the impression of Wt/Cpl Schuffelt's orders the accused was under the impression that he was detained to bull Tuesday take no part in his room.
3rd - the handing over of the prisoner is not definitely Wt/Cpl says he received formally from Sgt Wt/Cpl Cpl Ormond says he was present when Sgt Hunter was there.

K.R.

Prosecution - Reply.

Draw attention of the court to 2nd charge. The learning camp requires no proof. "N is prevaricating" two witnesses called in endeavour to prove Trumbley was the accused's prisoner. L/Cpl. Schuffelt told accused Trumbley was on extended duty & on F.P. till Monday. Pte Whittaker states that the man was under close arrest. L/Cpl carried out his duties to a sufficient degree for any reasonable person to understand. Looks as though accused & Trumbley rumbled things up. He ended admitting under cross-examination that he was ordered to act as escort & to camp out.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

L-1292 Sgt Lenton, W. D., 1 Cdn Div Sup Bn (Sask. L.I.), In the Field, having been duly sworn states:-
I was Provost Sgt of Netherdale Mill Camp on 24 JUL 43. At about 1700 hrs on 24 JUL 43 Pte Tremblay came in from hospital to the Guard Room with a chit excusing him from all duties for 48 hrs and as we had no beds and as his Detention was to expire on Monday I went to ask the Orderly Officer about the advisiability of releasing him under "Open Arrest" to the Unit. He said that there would have to be an escort with him while he was under open arrest. A L/Cpl later came down from the R 22e R and signed for Pte Tremblay and I turned the prisoner over to the L/Cpl and told him that the man was being turned over to him under Open Arrest and I said, "You are responsible for that man".

Questions By the Court

Q.1 Did the Orderly Officer know thatthe prisoner was under Close Arrest when arriving in the Guard Room?

A1 Yes, because that ~~xhe~~ I told him that the man was Under Close Arrest and had two more days to put in in detention but that he had a chit from the hospital excusing him from duty.

Q2 Did the Orderly Officer release the prisoner from "Close Arrest" to "Open Arrest"?

A2 He told me to release the prisoner under "Open Arrest" with an escort.

Q3 Is it customary to detail an escort for a man under "Open Arrest"?

A3 I have never known of any such case before. Usually an "Open Arrest"Man is treated as a C.B. case, that is, he has no escort detailed to go with him.

Q4 Did you tell the Orderly Officer that a man under close arrest with a medical certificate excused duty could not sleep in the Guard Room?

A4 I told him that we had no bed available and owing to a man's condition it was advisable to make other arrangements if possible, regarding his sleeping accomodation.

Q7 Who signed it?

A7 I couldn't read the signature.

Q8 Did the Orderly Officer ask to see this certificate?

A8 No.

Q9 Did he ask to see any certificate or document before, as you have stated in your evidence, allowing the prisoner out on Open Arrest with escort?

A9 No.

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution.

Lieut. P.A. Whitaker, 2 C.I.B. Sup Op (SLI) In the Field having been duly sworn states:-

On 24 JUL 43 I was Orderly Officer for Netherdale Mill Camp. My tour of duty started at 1800 hrs on 24 JUL 43. At approximately 2000 hrs Sgt Lenton, Provost Sgt reported to me that a man under close arrest had been returned from Hospital with a medical certificate 'Excused Duty'. He said that in that case the man would not be able to sleep on the floor in the Guard Room. He asked me what should be done. I told him to keep the man under close arrest and supply an escort to stay with him at all times. I treated this man's case as I would have treated an N.C.O. under close arrest, that is, an escort would have ebbn supplied to keep thisman in sight at all times and in camp.

Questions by the Court.

Q1 Didyou say definitely to Sgt. Lenton that this man was to be kept on close arrest with an escort ?

A1 Yes, I did.

Q2 Did Sgt Lenton produce any ducoments to substantiate his statement that the prisoner was excused duty ?

A2 He did not.

Q3 Did you ask him for any document confirming his statement ?

A3 No, I did not.

Q4 Did you see the Medical Certificate AFC 388 marked Exhibit "A" dated 24 JUL 43 ?

A4 No, I did not.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Seventh witness for the Prosecution

M31030 Pte Riding, E. 49 Edmn Regt, In the Field, having been duly sworn states :-
On 24 JUL 43 as R.P. I escorted Pte Tremblay from Edinburgh Hospital to Galashiels. I carried all the medical documents myself. I was told by the M.O. of Edinburgh Military Hospital and it was marked on the medical certificate that the prisoner was to be on 'Excused Duty' for 48 hrs. He gave me a sick report form which I left at the R.A.P. in Galashiels.
After I left the R.A.P. I came to the camp with Tremblay in a truck. I turned him over to L/Cpl Cochrane, an R.P. i/c of the Detention Room. I'm not certain whether I brought the certificate back with me from the R.A.P. or not.

Questions by the Court.

Q1 Do you recognize Cpl Patterson as the person to whom you gave the medical papers which belonged to Pte Tremblay at the R.A.P.

A1 Yes, Sir.

Witness Cross-examined by the accused.

Q1 Can you definitely testify that the medical certificate which you brought from the Edinburgh Military Hospital had on it 'Excused Duty'

A1 Yes - that's what it had on it - 48 hrs.

Q2 Can you produce that paper ?.

A2 No - because I handed it in to the R.A.P. or the Detention Room.

Eighth witness for the Prosecution

B-89779 Cpl Patterson, J, 5th Fd Amb, In the Field, having been duly sworn states :-
I am M.I. orderly in St. Paul's Church R.A.P. and was on duty on the 24 JUL 43. If and when any patient is brought to us from hospital carrying papers concerning his discharge they are handed in to the orderly on duty who immediately contacts the M.O., making an appointment to have the said person seen to at once. I cannot remember having seen or handed papers of the said Pte Tremblay because there are so many patients who pass through the R.A.P. in the course of a day. In my experience at the R?A?P. Galashiels, I have never seen a prisoner return from the Edinburgh Military Hospital with a chit of 'Excused Duty'.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

First witness for the Defence.

Evidence in the Case of C 4852, Pte Real Desjardins, 1 Bn 1 CBRD.

1st witness for Crown. | Lieut R.A. Pirbo 1 Bn 1 CBRD having been duly sworn States

On 25 Aug 44 at around 1200 hrs my Coy Comd told me to make an inspection of the accused's kit. His quarters were over the garage of 1 Bn 1 CBRD. I told the accused that I had been sent to inspect his kit. He was lying on his bed. I gave him the order a couple of times. After 5 or 10 min. I came to his bed, he stood up and tried to strike me. Sgt Chauvin stopped him. The accused put his left hand on my right shoulder and with his right hand tried to strike me. I put him under close arrest. I inspected his kit in his presence. The accused used improper words to me. They were "maudit cochon", "maudit Bavard" and "Christ d'enfant" or words to that effect. The accused called me these names while I was inspecting his kit. Sgt Chauvin, Sgt Bourgouin, L/Cpl Bentley and Pte Langelais were present as well. Pte Langelais was interested in the kit inspection because he recognized some of his kit amongst that of the accused. His number was marked on a no. of articles. The following articles were identified by witness as having been identified by Langelais in presence of accused whose the witness was not sure that they were the same he stated they were similar. B.D. jacket same mkd. Ex A. B.D. trousers, similar mkd. Ex B. 2 Choc brushes same. Ex C. Brasses similar. Ex D. 1 pr Sox similar Ex E. 1 pr Hose Tops similar Ex F; Housewife, similar Ex G. Cape comforter, similar Ex H; 1 Dressing, similar, Ex I; A.G. Wallet containing personal letter of Langelais Ex J. Same. Knife clasp, similar Ex K; I also found Pte Langelais pay book in the A.G. Wallet Ex L but I don't know where it is now. Ex J. was found on 26 Aug 44 in a garbage can near the Guardroom by the door of Border Bldg. Pte Langelais was present when I found it also the accused. I recognize the accused who is present in court.

Cross exam

I think the accused had been drinking that morning. I examined his kit.

I would not consider the accused fit for any duty at least not as a driver - may be for guard.

I asked the P.M. where the A.G. Wallet was and he told me the RP had got it.

The RP was the one who had the accused in custody.

This RP told me he had put it in garbage can.

and I found it there

2nd Witness for Prosec. | E 4370, A/Sgt Charron R. 1 Bn 1 CBRD having been duly sworn states:

On or about 24 Aug 44 at about 1200 hrs I was asked by COS to go over to wetinder a hut inspection. I left the Hqs. passing by the offrs' mess to get Lt Piche. We then proceeded to the garage where the accused was employed. The storman from CQ M stores started to inspect the accused's hut in the accused presence. During the hut inspection the accused made an attempt to strike Lt Piche. I got between the two of them and stopped the accused from hitting Lt Piche. Lt Piche, Sgt Dagenais, L/Cpl Belley and Pte Langelier were present. After a while Cpl Charette came over. After the hut inspection and in the presence of the accused Pte Langelier identified several items of kit as his. The kit so identified was taken over to Q stores by the storeman and Langelier.

Cross ex am

In my opinion the accused was so drunk he did not know what he was doing.

He smelt strongly of liquor.

I saw the kit which was identified taken away.

Re ex am.

The accused was not capable of driving a truck he was wobbling while standing up.

The fist the was stopped from hitting Lt Piche with would have missed Lt Piche.

By the Court

The accused was not capable of standing correctly when he was going to strike Lt Piche.

The accused in my opinion was intoxicated.

The accused made no statements to Lt Piche when I was holding him.

By J.A.: I recognize the accused who is in court.

There was a tunic with 1 bulleve 2 red wound stripes on it taken from the accused's kit.

The accused made no remarks when the kit was found in his possession.

I was out of the room as soon as the R.P. arrived and I heard no remarks by accused to Lt Piche.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

2nd Witness for Prosec. | D163132, Sgt Dagenais, N. 11 Bn 1 CBRD having been duly sworn states:

I recognize the accused who is in court. On 25 Aug 44 I was C.Q.S. 1 Coy 11 Bn 1 CBRU. When Pte Langelier came to the Coy office. I went and fetched the 9 Bn. and then proceeded to the accused's quarters. I saw the accused around about 1115 hrs, he had a kit bag under his arm and a small sack. I went back to the office with Sgt Charron. The accused when I saw him at 1115 hrs. was out of the sleeping quarters in the hall. The sleeping quarters which I above just referred to were on the first floor upstairs of the Pavilion Bldg, Canada Hqs. He was going towards the stairs leading outside. It was about 15 min. after I saw the accused on the hall that Pte Langelier came into the Coy office. Accompanied by Langelier I went to the C.Q. stores and fetched the storeman L/Cpl Belley. The three of us then went to the sleeping quarters of the accused - not having the power to make a kit inspection myself. I returned to the office to see Sgt Chauvin, then proceeded to 11 Bn 1 CBRD to enquire of the Coy Comd. the Coy Comd. sent Lt Piche and myself, Sgt Chauvin, L/Cpl Belley and Pte Langlois to inspect the kit of the accused. When we got to the sleeping quarters of the accused we awakened him. He was awakened by the noise of our talking. Then asked why there had been so much noise & fuss around his bed. Then the accused said "I'll find out what is the meaning of all this" at the same time pushed Lt Piche on the shoulder with his left hand. Then Lt Piche came back towards the accused, then the accused made another move threatening to strike Lt Piche. Witness demonstrates that the accused put his left hand on left shoulder and drawing back his right fist as if to hit the officer. Sgt Chauvin then came between accused and Lt Piche to prevent him hitting the officer, grabbing the accused to prevent him hitting Lt. Piche. The accused did not hit Lt Piche as a result. Sgt Chauvin talked to the accused softly. I was ordered by Lt Piche to go and get the 1 Can RCRs. When I came back the accused's kit inspection was under way. Then the accused made the following statements to Lt Piche. "Je est un maudit Bowery, tu a c'est ce n'ais pas peur de toi, si je vous dais je te frais mettre dans la clinique" in words to that effect. After the kit inspection was over we packed all the kits of the accused and took it to C.Q. stores of 20 Coy. The accused was allowed to keep his shaving kit and was taken to the guardroom. At 1115 hrs when I saw the accused I greeted him and he replied saying "I am moving again" at that time the accused appeared normal by the way he answered me. It was approx. 15 to 20 min later that we awakened him for his kit inspection.

I recognize the accused in court. Sgt Deguise came into the C.O. stores and with him I left and went over to inspect the kit of the accused. It was on the 25th Aug 44 at about 1330 hrs. The accused was asleep in his bed. Lt Pirbe ordered me to inspect the accused's kit. The accused was awake before the inspection started. Before it started he asked us what it was all about. Then the accused made the statement to Lt Pirbe in common and bad language saying "Vous etes un lieutenant bavard j'ai fait parti de ca un officier, je va vous mettre ma main sur la gueulle" or words to that effect. In English it is "You are one of those people who shoots his face off. I am not afraid of an officer. I will put my hand in your jaw." Then the accused attempted to strike Lt Pirbe. Lt Pirbe Sgt Charron, Sgt Deguise, Pte Langelier and 2 R.P.s and myself were present. Witness described how accused threatened by swinging his arms in a threatening manner. I did not see the accused put his hand on Lt Pirbe's shoulder. No one helped the accused get up from his bed.

Cross exam

There was another kit under the accused's bed and another soldier sitting near there said it belonged to someone else who had gone to hospital.

I did not return a wallet A.G. Ct S. With contents to the accused.

The wallet A.G. was not brought to the stores on the day of the kit inspection.

I dont know when it was brought in.

I was present when accused and Deguise came into my stores on 25 Aug 44 in the afternoon.

I dont know what the accused took from his kit bag at my stores.

By Court The R.P.s were in the doorway when accused made the threatening gestures to Lt Pirbe.

By J.A. I was sitting on the bed facing Lt Pirbe when the accused was making the threatening gesture about a yard away.

I could see fairly clearly what happened.

The accused said the kit we inspected belonged to him.

Pte Langelier identified a shoe brush among the accused's kit by its markings.

It could have been possible for the accused to have been issued the brush from stores.

To my knowledge the shoe brush was the only thing identified by Pte Langelier in accused's presence in Ste Anne.

There were some other clothes beside his kit

On 25 Aug 44 I came back from a route march at about 1.30 hrs to 1 Bn 1 C 13 R D. After I had been dismissed I went to my sleeping quarters in 1 Coy 1 Bn 1 C B R D billets. They are the first sleeping quarters near No 1 Coy Office on the 2 nd floor of the Bldg. in which 1 Coy 1 Bn 1 C 13 R D is situated. At that time I found out about the disappearance of my kit. I reported this to coy office. Myself, Sgt Desgnais, another Sgt and a L/Cpl proceeded to the room in the garage where the accused was sleeping in his bed. When we left to get A Pte. The accused who was still sleeping did not go. We came back around noon with A Pte who asked the accused to spread out all his kit on the floor for a kit inspection. The accused whom I recognize in court started to lay out his kit while at the same time asking what it was all about. A Pte made the accused understand what he had to make the inspection. Then the accused stood up and raised his left hand and punched A Pte behind the ear. To my knowledge the accused punched the latter and the accused seemed to be staggering as if he was drunk. There were two sgts L/Cpl present, one was someone near the door like. One of the sgts of the and every thing became normal. If I still remember I heard A Pte saying "put that man in close arrest" I dont know who it was the L/Cpl or Sgt who went to fetch the R.P. In the meantime they carried on the kit inspection. During the laying out of the kit the accused was acting to himself wildly. I didnt hear what he was saying for the remainder. I dont remember what happened. I lost an empty A.B. Wallet filled with letters - I dont remember what else was in it. I dont remember what kit disappeared. When I came back from the route march my kit bag was missing. I couldnt name exactly as to the articles that were in the kit bag. I went to the accused's quarters to see if it was there. I found some clothing belonging to me B.D. 204, Battle Dress. During this inspection the accused made an attempt to strike Pte Pike. He waved his arm in front of the man's face. I went to the accused and spoke to him telling him to quiet down which he did immediately. A Sgt from R 22 e R interfered by speaking to the accused. He didn't manhandle the accused. Defending Officer's Address

Pte Despard's Charges

Regarding the first ~~charge~~ I do not believe the evidence proves that the accused stole Pte Langelier's kit. The evidence only shows that certain kit was found under Despard's bed when at the same time other kit was there belonging to a soldier who had been evacuated. Anyone could have put the kit there. Pte Langelier can only identify his battle dress. Although the accused is charged with several articles of kit the kit bag in which the kit was supposed to have been seen as found upon has never been seen or found. Surely if his kit was locked in a kit bag it would have been the duty of someone to open the bag and produce it. Yet only 30 minutes elapsed between the accused was seen with a kit bag and the time it was the kit inspection took place. Despard was found drunk and asleep. For a man who was obviously drunk I cannot see how he could have possibly done all this. At the time Despard was seen with a kit bag no one has come forward to say who it belonged to. It could have been any kit bag. Pte Langelier has only identified the battle dress yet he seems to have forgotten everything else. He has been in No 1. C.B.R.D. Yet he does not know his right name. I believe there is a great deal of doubt in the mind about the whole thing. In view of the slightness of the charge I believe this accused should not be convicted. Not one of the other witness can possibly identify another man's kit. Further when the kit was brought to the Q.M. Stores it was laid out much a lot of others kit The kit in court may have gotten into the court by error. Further there was another man's kit under the bed. ~~In the confusion anyone could put the kit under the bed.~~

As regard the 2nd & 4th Charge. I believe the accused was drunk and had been sleeping. It him he make ups he might not know what he was doing

The evidence as to the striking is contradictory. Two witnesses say he was moving around and just passed his hand in front of Lt Pedde face. The other 2 witnesses say he put his hand on Lt Pedde. I am firmly convinced everyone was very excited and they may have antagonised the accused Specially as he was just waking up. No one likes to be awakened especially if he has been drinking. I feel they should have put the accused under arrest and when he was sober then Choked his lot. The evidence does prove he was drunk and had been sleeping.

I compare in view of the poor evidence and the seriousness of the charges the accused should be found not guilty.

Prosecution - Closing Address. (10) DMR

Reg 105 M.M.L. para 8 a.c.2.

Every person is presumed to be sane and to be responsible for his acts until the contrary is proved. The defence has endeavored to show the Accused was unbalanced due to drinking but evidence of drinking has not been material to the time of the commission of the acts. At about 1100 hrs the accused is walking with his kit from the barrack room of the Royal 22nd Company to his new quarters. He voluntarily announces that he is moving again. Fifteen or twenty minutes after that he is sleeping on his bed and is aroused by a noise of persons approaching his bed. He is thinking quite clearly when he wants to know why his kit is being inspected. He realizes that his acts are about to be discovered and becomes abusive. He does not require any help to get out of his bed and offers violence to Lieutenant Pitts and is restrained from doing him serious injury. When unable to strike Lieut Pitts he then abuses him in words, calling him

"big head", "son of a whore", "that he was not afraid of him"

On the examination of the kit of Pte. Deeprose the evidence has shown that a battledress tunic and trousers, Exhibits A & B, the missing property of Pte. Langelier, were found in the property of Pte Deeprose. The Exhibits "A" & "B" were in the possession of Pte. Langelier that morning and in a locked kit bag. While there is no evidence of the accused putting Exhibits "A" and "B" in [illegible] his own kit bag 118 Manual of Military Law states that "a person steals who without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith "takes" and "carries away" anything "capable of being stolen" with intent at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof".

Exhibits "A" & "B" are articles capable of being stolen and we have Pte Deeprose carrying his along the hallway from the barracks room to his own quarters where the exhibits "A" & "B" are subsequently found.

been through Sicily and Italy until he was evacuated for August 44
Pte Despres wants to go back to happy to have him in my Coy.

He is a very good mechanic and just now good and brave men are needed in the line. He has forwarded to his Coy. Commander to go back to the front. If a Capt sentence could be given I feel it would be a good thing, Or a suspended sentence and he would have to serve it out he again get himself into trouble. My reason for asking for this is I believe
Despres can be of great value

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut R.A. Piché, Bn, CBRD having been duly sworn states:

I am a lieutenant in 1 Coy, Bn, CBRD.

On Aug 25th 1944 my company commander Capt Charlebois ordered me to ~~take~~ make a kit inspection on Pte Despres. I went to Depot Garage where Pte Despres was employed as a driver. I told Pte Despres to lay out his kit so that I could inspect it. He was unwilling and asked why. I said it was an order from the Coy Commander. I had to tell him two or three times. Then Pte Despres put his hand on my shoulder and made a motion to hit me. Sgt Charron prevented him from completing the motion. I then told Sgt Lagenais to put him under close arrest. We then inspected the kit of Pte Despres. While we were doing so Pte Despres said to me "Maudit ecoeurant, maudit cochon, maudit ~~bastard~~ bastard" or ~~similar~~ similar words at different times. ~~then~~ Then the R.P. took him to the guard room and Pte Langelier identified the following articles as his:

Battle dress
Shaving kit
brushes

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s)[1]. If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[2], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No.[5]
(1. RP 27(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.
A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:
I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.
Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)
Re-exam: None.
Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".
RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-45 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 90(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)
(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)
(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)
(iv) Evidence in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)
(v) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal (or on question of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).)
(vi) Closing address (on matters other than as exemption of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)
(vii) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right in address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)
(viii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 82.)

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12340 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a sgt of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 89(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF M38854 PRIVATE DESROCHERS MJCK

Mr President and Members of the Court; Private Desrochers enlisted at the age of 18 on the 19 Jan 43. In Canada he was a Corporal and took part in a demonstration platoon in Farnham. He was reverted to the ranks on coming overseas, on the 16 Feb 44.

He came to Italy one month after. He joined his unit at the Hitler Line and stayed with his unit until evacuated from Russi for a month in hospital. He was evacuated from the theatre not because he had been wounded but because of exhaustion on account of too much work. Private Desrochers was a section leader in his unit at the time and even carried out platoon commander's work for four or five days when his platoon commander was wounded.

At this time Private Desrochers is quite worried about his family. His father is dead and his mother has to work to provide for his three young sisters and his one brother. The widow's pension his mother used to draw has been cut. He, himself has always sent home part of his pay but still it is not enough for such a family. The Padre is working now for this man to be sent home.

I am sure the Court will take all these points into consideration and act accordingly. When he went absent without leave from Farnham it was then the same trouble. Private Desrochers saw the mistake he made by going absent without leave and reported himself back at 4 Bn.

Exhibit "C"

(A3885 Pte Knowles H)

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans no (5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records findings of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex C, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans no (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans Yes to give evidence. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans Yes. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans

IN RE DESROCHERS

PROSECUTION :

Capt E H Kinghill, formerly Records Officer 13 CBR Bn, now 1 Ech, sworn states:-

I do not recognize the accused but I do know that he went AWL sometime in September while I was records offr 13 CBR Bn. A Court of Inquiry was held at 13 CBR Bn after the 21st day of the accused's absence. A casualty return was submitted after the findings of the Court - striking the accused off strength 13 Bn as a deserter. That is normal procedure laid on by 2 Ech. Due to the fact he went AWL he was not present at the Unit when a demand came in for personnel to go forward to an operational Unit in the fie -ld. At that time the system controlling demands on 13 Bn would probably have called for approximately 12 to 15 demands during the accused's absence. The accused was at 13 Bn as a reinforcement.

No cross-examination

Court.

In September and October we could expect about 2 demands per week for a particular unit. There were occasions when we couldn't fill Chaudiere demands completely. The accused would have definitely been on one of the Chaudiere or other drafts. Demands came in on very short notice. No one could leave camp without a pass. Control was necessary to be kept over every individual.

R P 83(b) complied with.

Documentary - declaration of Ct of Inquiry assembled 26 Oct 44 @ 13 Bn 2 CBRG showing commencement of absence - 0800 hrs 27 Sep 44.

Documentary - certif of apprehension showing arrest at ROUEN @ 2300 hrs 17 Nov 44.

Prosecution closed

D.O. makes submission of no prima facie case (see attached statement)

Prosecution replies (attached)

Submission is disallowed.

DEFENCE

Accused - sworn - states: I knew a young girl who stays in ROUEN I intended to go and see her. Then I went away and stayed with her. I never made any black market in order to live. I always had the intention to report back and then I surrendered. I never wore civilian clothes during my absence, I always kept my means of identification - discs, paybooks and identity card. I was properly dressed when I surrendered in ROUEN. I stayed with my girl's family - they gave me a place to sleep - food and money.

Cross exam - I did not know while I was at 13 Bn that I was liable to go to the front. No one ever told me that I was going up front or could expect to go from CLRG. I knew that someday I would be going to the front. When I arrived at 13 Bn I did not know it was a forward Bn and that I was liable to leave at any time for the front. When I went AWL I knew that others would be leaving for the front during my absence.

A50

Accused (cont'd). I was at 13 Bn for about 1½ weeks. I did not know of any groups of men who went forward while I was at 13 Bn. I expected that when I moved I would go to 46 Coy - which is the last coy before going to "B" Echelon of a unit. When I was at 13 Bn I was A-1 although I had no re-board.

R P 83(b) complied with.

Accused introduces statement as to character given him by Capt T.P. Taschereau, R de Chaud.

E 3

Plea by DO in mitigation of sentence (attached)

E 2

Accused states he has been in close custody since 14 Nov 44 except for two days 16 - 18 Nov 44 incl, when he escaped and surrendered himself.

NON-ESTABLISHMENT OF PRIMA FACIE CASE:

The defence submits that the prosecution h s in no way proved wilful and deliberate intention on the part of the accused to avoid active operations against the enemy and has therefore not established a prima facie case. The defence feels that the evidence presented by the prosecution established only "Absence without leave but in no way supports the charge of desertion.

"C Z Godlovitch"

REPLY TO OBJECTION OF DEFENSE AS TO THE CASE BEING A PRIMA FACIE CASE:

13 CBR Bn is considered as the forward Bn of CBRG and personnel who are sent there on drafts know that they are going forward from there to the front. Pte Roger DESROCHERS went AWL - there is no doubt about that. When he went AWL he was on his way to the front and he could expect to leave at a short notice for a Unit. His offense therefore is more serious than a straight AWL offense, and should be considered as a deserter.

"C Lagasse" Capt
for prosecution.

CLOSING ADDRESS

In the Case of E-6171 Pte Roger DESROCHERS, R de Chaud.

After the evidence given before the Court there is no doubt that the a/m was AWL. The circumstances under which he went AWL classify him as a deserter of his Majesty's service He was a fit reinforcement for the field and, being at 13 CBR Bn he knew that he would be going forward soon. By being absent he avoided leaving on drafts. Under those circumstances his offense is more serious than a straight AWL offense.

"C Lagasse" Capt
Prosecution Officer.

SUM UP OF DEFENCE:-

In summing up for the defence we maintain that the prosecution has not proved wilful intent to avoid active operations against the enemy. The evidence presented by the prosecution in support of the charge of desertion is at best merely deduced from the non-conclusive circumstances surrounding the absence of the accused and is therefore based on Hypothesis rather than fact. Whereas our plea of "NOT GUILTY" is based on the following facts.

1. The accused has stated under oath that he had no intention of avoiding service with his unit ot of not returning to His Majesty's Service. This is borne out by the fact that the accused surrendered himself to the military authorities in ROUEN.

2. He has stated that never, at any time, did divest himself of his uniform or his means of identification. The fact is that on surrendering he was properly dressed and in possession of his identity card and discs.

3. The mere length of his absence is in no way conclusive . I quote CH III Sec 18 MML:-

"mere length of absence is by itself inconclusive as a test - for a soldier who has been entrapped into bad company through drink or other causes may be absent some time without any thought of becoming a deserter.

I ask the Court to consider the circumstantiability and lack of factual information in the evidence presented by the prosecution as proving intent and the evidence the defence has brought to your attention - we ask that you find the accused NOT GUILTY as charged.

"C Z Godlovitch"

J A's CLOSING ADDRESS

I wish to point out that it is part of my duty as Judge Advocate to sum up the evidence and advise the Court on the law.
The Court, however, is the sole judge of the facts and anything I may say now or may have said previously indicating my personal views as to the facts shall be entirely disregarded. The Court is the sole judge of the facts.
As to the offence of desertion (here J.A. sums up in a manner substantially the same as the charge contained in the attached statement marked 'T')

I have nothing further to say unless the Court, or Prosecutor or Defending Offr require explanation on any question I may have overlooked.

Mr President have you any points on which you wish me to address the Court? No.

Mr Prosecuting Offr have you any points on which you wish me to address the Court? No.

Mr Defending Offr have you any points on which you wish me to address the Court? No.

"G E Collins" Lt

"T"
Referred to in J.A.'s Summing up.
D.J.A.C.

JUDGE-ADVOCATE's Closing Address to the Court
SUMMING UP

DESERTION

There are two types of desertion. (1) general desertion, the intention being not to return to military duty in any corps, (2) desertion in which the intention is to avoid some important particular service, for example, engagement with the enemy, carrying of supplies of material of war for troops in operations, reinforcement drafts, etc.

The charge in this case falls into the second category since it is alleged in the charge that the accused absented himself with intent to avoid active operations against the enemy.

As the charge is so worded it is not open to you to find general desertion but the charge must be proved substantially in the wording of the particulars, although as always it is open to you to bring in a special finding should you find the accused guilty of special desertion but find that the particulars alleged vary in some immaterial respect from the wording of the charge.

To prove an intent to avoid some particular service the onus is on the prosecution to prove the necessary ingredients, such as the role which the accused's unit was carrying out at the time, the circumstances under which the accused was apprehended, any statements or admissions made by the accused, in short any circumstance or circumstances from which you could reasonably infer that the accused had a firm intention to avoid such a particular service.

Providing that evidence or some such evidence is before you it is entirely within your power to draw whatever reasonable conclusion you wish to draw from such evidence, bearing in mind always that if there is any reasonable doubt in your mind as to such intention the benefit of that doubt should be resolved in favour of the accused.

Should there not be evidence before you sufficient to substantiate a charge of desertion the Court may always make a special finding that the absence constituted absence without leave and not desertion providing that there is sufficient evidence to prove absence.

PLEA TO MITIGATION

The accused is relatively youthful and inexperienced. At the time he is 22 years of age. He enlisted in the Cdn Army when 19 years of age on 15 Dec 41. He arrived in England in July 43 and landed in France on the 11 June 44. He joined his Regiment - "the Chaudiere" on the 4 July 44 during the battle for Carpiquet airfield, and served in the line with them until Oct 44 - when he was evacuated with appendicitis - a total of four months in action.

He has never served detention before.

I ask the Court to be as lenient as possible.

Capt. E. H. Kingshill – 13 CBR Bn. Amorn states:- (Forwarding Records Offs. now 1 Ech.

I do not recognize the accused but I do know that he went AWL sometime in September while I was records offr 13 CBR Bn. A court of inquiry was held at 13 CBR Bn after the 21st. day of the accused's absence. A casualty return was submitted after the findings of the court. stating the accused had struck 13 Bn as a deserter. That is normal procedure laid down by 2 Ech.; Due to fact he went AWL he was not present at the unit when a demand came in for personnel to go forward to an operational unit in the field. At that time the system controlling demands on 13 Bn would probably have called for approximately 12 to 15 demands during the accused's absence. The accused was at 13 Bn as a reinforcement.

no cross exam

In September we could expect about 2 demands per week for a particular unit. There were occasions when we couldn't fill Chandler demands completely. The accused would definitely have been on one of the Chandler or other drafts. Demands came in on very short notice. No one could leave camp without a pass. Control was necessary to be kept over every individual.

Defence

accused - sworn - states: I knew a young girl who stays in Rouen. I intended to go and see her. Then I went away and stayed with her. I never made any black market in order to live. I always had the intention to report back and then I surrendered. I never wore civilian clothes during my absence. I always kept my means of identification - train - paybook and identity card. I was properly dressed when I surrendered in Rouen. I stayed with my girl's family - they gave me a place to sleep - food and money.

Cross exam. I did not know while I was at 13 Bn that I was liable to go to the front. No one ever told me that I was going up front or could expect to go from CBRD. I knew that someday I would be going to the front when I arrived at 13 Bn I did not know it was a forward Bn and that I was liable to leave at any time for the front. When I went AWL I knew that others would be leaving for the front during my absence.

P70

Accused (cont) - I was at 13 Bn for about 1½ weeks. I did not know of any groups of men who went forward while I was at 13 Bn. I expected that when I moved I would go to 46 Coy - which is the last coy before going to B Echelon of a unit. When I was at 13 Bn - I was A 1 although I had no re-board.

Non-establishment of Prima facie Case

P70

The defence submits that the prosecution has in no way proved wilful & deliberate intention on the part of the accused to avoid active operations against the enemy and has hereto not established a prima facie case. The defence puts that the evidence presented by the prosecution establishes only absence without leave but in no way supports the charge of desertion.

Reply to Objection of Defense as to the Case being a Prima Facies case

13 CBR Bn is considered as the forward Bn of CBR 9 and personnel who are sent there on drafts know that they are going forward from there to the front Pte Lloyd Aberdeen went A.W.L. There is no doubt about that when he went A.W.L. he was on his way to the front and he could expect to leave at a short notice for a thrust. His offence therefore is more serious than a straight A.W.L. offence and should be considered as a deserter

In the case of: E 6171 Pte Roger Desrochers R de Chaud

After the evidence given before the Court there is no doubt that the a/m was a.w.l. The circumstances under which he went a.w.l. classify him as a deserter of his Majesty's Services. He was a fit reinforcement for the field and ~~knew~~, being at 13 CBRBn he knew that he would be going forward soon. By being absent he avoided leaving on drafts. Under these circumstances his offence is more serious than a straight a.w.l. offence. ~~and should be~~

Prosecuting Officer.

Summing up of Defence.

In summing up for the defence we maintain that the prosecution has not proved wilful intent to assist active operations against the enemy. The evidence presented by the prosecution in support of the charge of desertion is at best merely deduced from the non-conclusive ~~evidence~~ circumstances surrounding the absence of the accused & in therefore based on supposition rather than fact and the plea of Not guilty is based on the following facts.

1. The accused has stated under oath that he had no intention of avoiding service with his unit or of not returning to his Majesty's service. This is borne out by the fact that the accused surrendered himself to the military authorities in person.

2. He has stated that never, at any time, did he divest himself of his uniform or his means of identification. The fact that on surrendering he was properly dressed & in possession of his identity card & discs.

3. The mere length of his absence is in no way conclusive. I quote CO III Sec. 18 M.M.L.

"mere length of absence is by itself inconclusive as a test — for a soldier she has been entrapped into bad company through drink or other causes may be absent some time without any thought of becoming a deserter."

I ask the court to consider the circumstantiality of the lack of factual information in the evidence presented by the prosecution and the evidence the defence has brought to your attention — we ask that upon finding the accused Not guilty as charged.

A Godfrey Lt.

J.A.'s closing Address

I wish to point out that it is part of my duty as Judge Advocate to sum up the evidence and advise the court on the law.

The court, however, is the sole judge of the facts and anything I may say now or may have said previously indicating my personal views as to the facts should be entirely disregarded. The court is the sole judge of the facts.

As to the offence of desertion (here J.A. sums up in a manner substantially the same as the charge contained in the attached statement marked 'T')

I have nothing further to say unless the court, or Prosecutor or Defending Offr requires explanation on any question I may have overlooked.

Mr. President have you any points on which you wish me to address the court? no

Mr. Prosecuting Offr have you any points on which you wish me to address the court? no

Mr. Defending Offr have you any points on which you wish me to address the court? no.

Whelan

JUDGE-ADVOCATE's Closing Address to the Court

DESERTION

There are two types of desertion. (1) general desertion, the intention being not to return to military duty in any corps, (2) desertion in which the intention is to avoid some important particular service, for example, engagement with the enemy, carrying of supplies of material of war for troops in operations, reinforcement drafts, etc.

The charge in this case falls into the second category since it is alleged in the charge that the accused absented himself with intent to avoid active operations against the enemy.

As the charge is so worded it is not open to you to find general desertion but the charge must be proved substantially in the wording of the particulars, although as always it is open to you to bring in a special finding should you find the accused guilty of special desertion but find that the particulars alleged vary in some immaterial respect from the wording of the charge.

To prove an intent to avoid some particular service the onus is on the prosecution to prove the necessary ingredients, such as the role which the accused's unit was carrying out at the time, the circumstances under which the accused was apprehended, any statements or admissions made by the accused, in short any circumstance or circumstances from which you could reasonably infer that the accused had a firm intention to avoid such a particular service.

Providing that evidence or some such evidence is before you it is entirely within your power to draw whatever reasonable conclusion you wish to draw from such evidence, bearing in mind always that if there is any reasonable doubt in your mind as to such intention the benefit of that doubt should be resolved in favour of the accused.

Should there not be evidence before you sufficient to substantiate a charge of desertion the Court may always make a special finding that the absence constituted absence without leave and not desertion providing that there is sufficient evidence to prove absence.

IN RE DESROCHERS

PROSECUTION :

Capt E H Kinghill, formerly Records Officer 13 CBR Bn, now 1 Ech, sworn states:-

I do not recognize the accused but I do know that he went AWL sometime in September while I was records offr 13 CBR Bn. A Court of Inquiry was held at 13 CBR Bn after the 21st day of the accused's absence. A casualty return was submitted after the findings of the Court - striking the accused off strength 13 Bn as a deserter. That is normal procedure laid on by 2 Ech. Due to the fact he went AWL he was not present at the Unit when a demand came in for personnel to go forward to an operational Unit in the fie -ld. At that time the system controlling demands on 13 Bn would probably have called for approximately 12 to 15 demands during the accused's absence. The accused was at 13 Bn as a reinforcement.

No cross-examination

Court.

In September and October we could expect about 2 demands per week for a particular unit. There were occasions when we couldn't fill Chaudiere demands completely. The accused would have definitely been on one of the Chaudiere or other drafts. Demands came in on very short notice. No one could leave camp without a pass. Control was necessary to be kept over every individual.

R P 83(b) complied with.

Documentary - declaration of Ct of Inquiry assembled 26 Oct 44 @ 13 Bn 2 CBRG showing commencement of absence - 0800 hrs 27 Sep 44.

Documentary - certif of apprehension showing arrest at ROUEN @ 2300 hrs 17 Nov 44.

Prosecution closed

D.O. makes submission of no prima facie case (see attached statement)

Prosecution replies (attached)

Submission is disallowed.

DEFENCE

Accused - sworn - states: I knew a young girl who stays in ROUEN I intended to go and see her. Then I went away and stayed with her. I never made any black market in order to live. I always had the intention to report back and then I surrendered. I never wore civilian clothes during my absence, I always kept my means of identification - discs, paybooks and identity card. I was properly dressed when I surrendered in ROUEN. I stayed with my girl's family - they gave me a place to sleep - food and money.

Cross exam - I did not know while I was at 13 Bn that I was liable to go to the front. No one ever told me that I was going up front or could expect to go from CBRG. I knew that someday I would be going to the front. When I arrived at 13 Bn I did not know it was a forward Bn and that I was liable to leave at any time for the front. When I went AWL I knew that others would be leaving for the front during my absence.

PSO

Accused (cont'd). I was at 13 Bn for about 1½ weeks. I did not know of any groups of men who went forward while I was at 13 Bn. I expected that when I moved I would go to 46 Coy - which is the last coy before going to "B" Echelon of a unit. When I was at 13 Bn I was A-1 although I had no re-board.

R P 83(b) complied with.

Accused introduces statement as to character given him by Capt T.P. Taschereau, R de Chaud.

E 3

Plea by DO in mitigation of sentence (attached)

E 2

Accused states he has been in close custody since 14 Nov 44 except for two days 16 - 18 Nov 44 incl, when he escaped and surrendered himself.

NON-ESTABLISHMENT OF PRIMA FACIE CASE:

The defence submits that the prosecution h s in no way proved wilful and deliberate intention on the part of the accused to avoid active operations against the enemy and has therefore not established a prima facie case. The defence feels that the evidence presented by the prosecution established only "Absence without leave but in no way supports the charge of desertion.

"C Z Godlovitch"

REPLY TO OBJECTION OF DEFENSE AS TO THE CASE BEING A PRIMA FACIE CASE:

13 CBR Bn is considered as the forward B_ of CBRG and personnel who are sent there on drafts know that they are going forward from there to the front. Pte Roger DESROCHERS went AWL - there is no doubt about that. When he went AWL he was on his way to the front and he could expect to leave at a short notice for a Unit. His offense therefore is more serious than a straight AWL offense, and should be considered as a deserter.

"C Lagasse" Capt
for prosecution.

In the Case of E-6171 Pte Roger DESROCHERS, R de Chaud.

After the evidence given before the Court there is no doubt that the a/m was AWL. The circumstances under which he went AWL classify him as a deserter of his Majesty's service He was a fit reinforcement for the field and, being at 13 CBR Bn he knew that he would be going forward soon. By being absent he avoided leaving on drafts. Under those circumstances his offense is more serious than a straight AWL offense.

"C Lagasse" Capt
Prosecution Officer.

SUM UP OF DEFENCE:

IN summing up for the defence we maintain that the prosecution has not proved wilful intent to avoid active operations against the enemy. The evidence presented by the prosecution in support of the charge of desertion is at best merely deduced from the non-conclusive circumstances surrounding the absence of the accused and is therefore based on Hypothesis rather than fact. Whereas our plea of "NOT GUILTY" is based on the following facts.

1. The accused has stated under oath that he had no intention of avoiding service with his unit ot of not returning to His Majesty's Service. This is borne out by the fact that the accused surrendered himself to the military authorities in ROUEN.

2. He has stated that never, at any time, did divest himself of his uniform or his means of identification. The fact is that on surrendering he was properly dressed and in possession of his identity card and discs.

3. The mere length of his absence is in no way conclusive . I quote CH III Sec 18 MML:-

"mere length of absence is by itself inconclusive as a test - for a soldier who has been entrapped into bad company through drink or other causes may be absent some time without any thought of becoming a deserter.

I ask the Court to consider the circumstantisbility and lack of factual information in the evidence presented by the prosecution as proving intent and the evidence the defence has brought to your attention - we ask that you find the accused NOT GUILTY as charged.

"C Z Godlovitch"

J A's CLOSING ADDRESS

I wish to point out that it is part of my duty as Judge Advocate to sum up the evidence and advise the Court on the law.
The Court, however, is the sole judge of the facts and anything I may say now or may have said previously indicating my personal views as to the facts shall be entirely disregarded. The Court is the sole judge of the facts.
As to the offence of desertion (here J.A. sums up in a manner substantially the same as the charge contained in the attached statement marked 'I')
I have nothing further to say unless the Court, or Prosecutor or Defending Offr require explanation on any question I may have overlooked.

Mr President have you any points on which you wish me to address the Court? No.

Mr Prosecuting Offr have you any points on which you wish me to address the Court? No.

Mr Defending Offr have you any points on which you wish me to address the Court? No.

"G E Collins" Lt

Referred to in J/Bs summing up. GCG.

JUDGE-ADVOCATE's Closing Address to the Court

DESERTION

There are two types of desertion. (1) general desertion, the intention being not to return to military duty in any corps, (2) desertion in which the intention is to avoid some important particular service, for example, engagement with the enemy, carrying of supplies of material of war for troops in operations, reinforcement drafts, etc.

The charge in this case falls into the second category since it is alleged in the charge that the accused absented himself with intent to avoid active operations against the enemy.

As the charge is so worded it is not open to you to find general desertion but the charge must be proved substantially in the wording of the particulars, although as always it is open to you to bring in a special finding should you find the accused guilty of special desertion but find that the particulars alleged vary in some immaterial respect from the wording of the charge.

To prove an intent to avoid some particular service the onus is on the prosecution to prove the necessary ingredients, such as the role which the accused's unit was carrying out at the time, the circumstances under which the accused was apprehended, any statements or admissions made by the accused, in short any circumstance or circumstances from which you could reasonably infer that the accused had a firm intention to avoid such a particular service.

Providing that evidence or some such evidence is before you it is entirely within your power to draw whatever reasonable conclusion you wish to draw from such evidence, bearing in mind always that if there is any reasonable doubt in your mind as to such intention, the benefit of that doubt should be resolved in favour of the accused.

Should there not be evidence before you sufficient to substantiate a charge of desertion the Court may always make a special finding that the absence constituted absence without leave and not desertion providing that there is sufficient evidence to prove absence.

PLEA TO MITIGATION

The accused is relatively youthful and inexperienced. At the time he is 22 years of age. He enlisted in the Cdn Army when 19 years of age on 15 Dec 41. He arrived in England in July 43 and landed in France on the 11 June 44. He joined his Regiment - "the Chaudiere" on the 4 July 44 during the battle for Carpiquet airfield, and served in the line with them until Oct 44 - when he was evacuated with appendicitis - a total of four months in action.

He has never served detention before.

I ask the Court to be as lenient as possible.

FIRST WITNESS PROSECUTION

L-26465 Cpl Wilk M. (QOR) of 49 Coy, on the strength of 10 CBR Bn, having been duly sworn states:-

I am L-26465 Cpl Wilk M. (QOR) of 49 Coy, on the strength of 10 CBR Bn. I was Coy Orderly Cpl for 42 Coy, 10 CBR Bn on 16 Nov 44. At approx 1645 hrs, 16 Nov 44, I was escorting Pte Desrochers, the accused, whom I now recognize, to the Mess Hall for supper. At 1700 hrs, 16 Nov 44, I was escorting him back to the Guard Room, 10 CBR Bn, and he dropped his mess tins and started to run. I gave chase but I could not catch him. Then he spoke to me of the front line and said a lot more things I did not understand. As I became angry I told him I would not take shit from him. He came out of the hole and I was surprised to see he was a C.S.M. He spoke to me and told me to stand at attention and button up my tunic. My tunic was perfectly buttoned up. Only the two holes were not done up. Seeing I was angry I did not stand at attention and he called two escorts. He told me to put my cigarette out. I came back to my senses and obeyed his order.

E 4794 Pte. Wilfred Louis DESROCHERS C.I.C.

Plea of mitigation.

This soldier enlisted 14 Nov 39 and arrived in England 18 Dec 39. His record while in England contained a few minor offences.

He landed in Sicily with the 1st Div. July 43 and fought with them constantly in all their campaigns up to and including the assault on the Hitler line - approximately ~~one~~ 12 months of fighting.

At this time he was evacuated with shell shock and on recomendation of the medical authorities he was returned to England in March 45. and posted to 1 Can. Recep. Depot.

Added to the mental stress incurred through a long front line service this man also contracted V.D. while in the field and on returning to England voluntarily broke his engagement with his fiancée.

It is submitted that this man was under considerable strain and being of a nervous disposition he allowed an urge ~~of~~ for freedom from Army restrictions to overcome his better judgment and his conduct was not of a malicious nature.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

Prosecution

First Witness

H-72 L/Cpl Pfaff, J.E. 4 Sec. 2 L of C Pro Coy, sworn states.

At about 2100 hrs 12 Aug 44 on patrol in Caen with L/Cpl Wildeboer. I saw PG Uterwelle coming towards us wearing a black civilian overcoat. When he saw us he about turned and walked in the opposite direction. We caught up with him and checked him. He had no pay book identity card or disc. He told us his name, number and unit. In the pockets of the civilian overcoat we found 1 bottle Bordeaux wine, full, 1 wrist watch, 3 prs ladies panties, 3 ladies slips one ladies blouse, 1 ladies sweater, 1 pr ladies gloves above articles produced to the Court and marked Exhibit 'A'

I arrested Uterwelle and we escorted him to the Town Guardroom and turned him over to the guard, obtaining a receipt.

Cross-examination

It was on a side street near the church in the centre of Caen. He walked about 15 yds towards us and then turned. We caught up with him just around the corner off the main road. He was in sight until he turned the corner. There were two fellows with him when I first saw him. They all turned back together and disappeared around the corner. When we came around the corner there was only the accused standing there about 10 yds from the corner. He was wearing the coat. His arms were in it but it wasn't buttoned up. He told us that an old man gave him the coat. Then he told us some Limey's gave him the coat. The first thing he said was "get those two Limey's, they owe me some money". L/Cpl Wildeboer went after the other two and brought back two RAF men in battle dress. The accused said they weren't the two and we let them go. I noticed a bottle inside the tunic of one of the RAF men. He said he had bought it from the accused. I checked their identification but did not make a record of it and I cannot give their particulars.

R.P. 83 (h) complied with.

H-26794 L/Cpl Wildeboer J.W. 10 Sec. 2 L of C Pro Coy, sworn, states.

About 2110 hrs 12 Aug 44 I was on patrol with L/Cpl Pfaff. We saw PG Uterwelle and two other soldiers walking towards us. They turned around and went around a corner. When we got around the corner PG Uterwelle was standing there alone. PG Uterwelle had on a civilian coat in which were three articles. Eg A and a card with an address on it "Albert Marie, Cafe des Ecrits, 171 Rue St Pierre, Caen." PG Uterwelle said they were two Eng Irish fellows with him who had purchased a bottle of wine from him but did not pay him for it. I went after them and found two men of the RAF regiment. I don't know whether they were the same ones I first saw with the accused. I brought them back to the accused who said they weren't the fellows who were with him so we let them go. They said they had been with him but were only showing him the road back to Camp

Cross-examination

Civilian. He gave us about four different stories of how he got them. It is possible that they were purchased or even given to him. I checked the address on the card. It is a cafe that had been bombed out. The cafe was fairly well wrecked but there were apparently some people living upstairs at the far end of the building. We checked the cafe dining room and kitchen. There was nothing there except empty bottles. The S.P.S. takes over from there.

By the Court

He said it was given to him by two Eng link soldiers. That they had purchased a bottle of wine from him and he had paid him for it. I didn't see any wine in his possession. As I didn't check the identity of the RAF men.

R.P. § 3(b) complied with.

Defence

F-5776 AG Charnock, C. R Cdn CTpt Coy RCASC sworn states.

On 12 Aug 44 just after tea I started out for a walk and ended up in Caen. Then I had a few drinks and hung around the NAAFI. about 2100 hrs before it got too late I decided to go back to the unit. On the way out of Caen just before you leave town on the main drag I noticed two Eng link chaps walking in front of me. They slowed down as I got to them. One of them said "Well go have a drink Canada". So I said "sure". One of them was carrying this blue coat (Ex A). He said lets go in this side street. So we went in and he pulled out a bottle and gave me a drink. Before he gave me a drink he said hold this coat. I took the coat and threw it on my shoulder. At the time I was feeling fairly good. I noticed there was a bottle in the pocket but this is the first time I saw these things. When the provost came up they asked me what I was doing with the coat on. I had it on my shoulders but did not have my arms in the sleeves. It was unbuttoned. I'm between going up the side street this Eng link chap said carry this coat and we'll go give you a bottle of cognac. From there we went up around this block back to the main street leading for home. Then they gave me another drink. All of a sudden they saw. So I turned around and found three provosts right on top of me. One of them asked me what was I doing with this coat on. I told him I was holding it for two Eng link chaps who had run down the street and who had promised me a bottle of cognac for carrying it. So one of the provosts went down the street and came back with two air force chaps. I said these were the chaps as he told them to go. Then they arrested me. I got huffy the chaps as he told them to go. Then they arrested me. I got huffy stayed with me. I never saw the two RAF before. He asked them if they had any thing to do with me and the air force fellow said no. Then he let them go.

Cross-examination

There was only the full bottle and the one the lumys were taking me from. I didnt say the lumys owed me any money. I didnt say dont let them get away they owe me money or anything like that. The R.A.F. didnt say they had bought a bottle of wine from me. My turnie was at camp. I never saw these articles before. I saw them for the first time to-day. I can speak French. I bought a bottle of wine from a Frenchman on the 7th francs about 7 o'clock. I dont know what to make of it. It happened so quick and so funny. That was my first night in Caen except on convoys. I didnt have my identity album with me. My pay book was in my turnie in camp. I hadnt been around the corner and walked back. I didnt tell the Provosts until they came up and got me. I thought I was arrested for being improperly dressed and not having any identity. I didnt know what was in the pockets until they in front read out the charge sheet.

By the Court

I never mentioned anything about an old man. I did not notice a bottle of wine on the R.A.F. men. All I know about them is they came back and the L/Cpl. asked them if they had any thing to do with me. They said no. The L/Cpl said "you fellows can go". I had never seen them before. The fellows who were with me belonged to the Key at Bay mines.

R.P.S.3(b) complied with.

L-72 L/Cpl Puffett J.E. recalled, still on oath, questioned by the court.

L/Cpl Wiledowny brought back two RAF men to my billyard the accused. Wiledowny stood off two or three feet. The accused stood beside me. L/Cpl Wiledowny went over across a narrow road to a wine shop to look at it. I asked the RAF fellows for their A.B.64 and they showed them to me. L/Cpl Wiledowny came back across the corner. I asked the accused if the two fellows he was with. He replied no. I asked one of the RAF what he had in his turnie. He told me it was a bottle of cider which he had purchased from the accused. His words as nearly as I can remember. He said "I got it off him" pointing to the accused. I'm sure L/Cpl Wiledowny was there when I ~~got~~ was questioning about the wine.

The accused said "dont let the two lumys go it away they owe me some money"

~~I took the articles out of the pockets in the presence of the accused on the stand~~

I took the blouse and the sweater out of the coat pockets while we were on the stand when we first caught up with the accused. Every thing was taken out of the pockets in the presence of the accused at the gardenroom.

The defending officer declines to cross-examine.

R.P.S.3(d) complied with.

E-5776 PO Barnes, C. recalled with permission of the court.

They took me in the form guardroom into a little office before a Sgt. He asked me my name, number and unit. I gave it to him. They put me in a cell. Sunday morning I was brought before the same Sgt and asked if my unit had been notified and he said it had. [redacted]. They never showed me any goods in the street or at the guard room.

R.P. ¶ 3(a) complied with.

Prosecuting Officer declines to make a closing address.

Defending Officer declines to make a closing address.

Summing up by Judge Adv.

The accused is charge with:- reads charges — the court can only find the accused guilty of one of these alternatives although it may find him not guilty of all of them. What facts have been proved the credibility of the witnesses + the weight to be given to the evidence of any witness are matters for the court to decide - Stealing is defined in MML Page 118 1st column of para 5 a. reads — The offence of receiving is set out in MML 124 para 65 reads — Coupled with that I refer the court to the doctrine of recent possession set para 66 - 124 MML - reads - To find the accused guilty on the 3rd charge that the prosecution must prove not only that the accused was in possession of articles but that there was something improper in his possession - having regard to its nature + the circumstances in which it took place + applying the courts military knowledge that such improper possession amounted to conduct to the prejudice of both good order and military discipline + finally the court will remember that the accused is to be presumed innocent until he has been proved beyond reasonable doubt to be guilty - To warrant an acquittal the doubt must not be light or capricious doubt such as kindly or passion prompts a corruption readily adopts. It must be such a doubt as upon a calm view of the whole evidence a rational understanding will suggest to be an honest doubt.

J. Jervois 4th Capt.

Summary of evidence in the case of E-5776, Pte Conrad DESROCHES, 2 Canadian Corps Transport Company, Canadian Army Overseas, B L A, charged with being in unlawful possession of civilian property, failing to carry means of identification, being improperly dressed, on 12 Aug 44.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

L-72, L/Cpl Puff, J E, 8 Section, 2 L of C Provost Coy, Cdn Army Overseas, sworn, states:

I was on 12 Aug 44, and am still, Lance-Corporal of 8 Section, 2 L of C Provost Coy, Cdn Army Overseas. At about 2115B hrs on 12 Aug 44 whilst on street patrol in CAEN in company with L/Cpl Wilchowy, I noticed a soldier walking towards us wearing a black civilian overcoat. Apparently noticing us, he turned about and walked away. We followed him, caught up about one hundred yards on, and stopped him for questioning. There were no means of identification on the man but he stated he was E-5776 Pte Desroches, C., of 54 Tpt Coy. In the pockets of the civilian greatcoat we found the following articles of clothing: 3 ladies' slips, 3 pairs ladies panties, 1 ladies night dress, 1 pair ladies gloves, 1 ladies sweater and 1 ladies blouse. In addition there was a full bottle and a card addressed to M. and Mme Albert Marie, Cafe du Centre, 121 Rue St, Pierre, CAEN.
I arrested the man and took him to the town Guard house where he was detained. The articles were confiscated as evidence.

CROSS EXAMINED BY ACCUSED:

Q.- Are you sure that I about-turned and walked away because I saw you two Provost ?
A.- No, but I did get the impression that that was the case.

Q.- When you came up to arrest me, did I not tell you there were two English chaps, Royal Engineers, running away down the street?
A.- Yes. L/Cpl Wilchowy proceeded down the street immediately upon hearing this. He came back a few minutes later with two Air Force men in khaki. We asked Desroches if these were the men, and he said "No". We asked them if they were with Pte Desroches and they replied "No". I noticed a bottle inside the tunic of one of them, and on questioning he informed me that he had purchased it from Pte Desroches. When Desroches originally told us about these two English chaps running away, he said that they owed him money.

J E Puff L/Cpl

Second Witness

H-26794, L/Cpl Wilchowy, S W, 10 Section, 2 L of C Provost Coy, Cdn Army Overseas, sworn, states:-

I was on 12 Aug 44 and am still, L/Cpl of 10 Section, 2 L of C Provost Coy, Cdn Army Overseas. At about 2100B hrs on 12 Aug 44 I was on town patrol in CAEN, accompanied by L/Cpl Puff. I noticed a soldier dressed in a civilian overcoat and with a bottle in his hand. Apparently he saw us and he turned around and walked up the side street away from us. We followed him and stopped him just around the corner about a hundred yards further on. On checking him for being improperly dressed we found him in possession of some civilian ladies' clothes, a full bottle ~~of~~ partially emptied bottle of wine. L/Cpl Puff placed him under close arrest and we took him to the town Guard room. When apprehended by us he had no means of identification on him, no pay-book, no identity card, no identity discs.

CROSS EXAMINED BY ACCUSED:

Q.- Did I not tell when I was picked up my name and number and also tell you my unit was just down the road and I was going there?

A.- Yes, you did.

Q.- Are you sure that I tried to get away from you and the other Provost?

A.- No, I am not sure, but that is the way it looked to me.

Q.- When you came up to me first what was I doing?

A.- You were just standing in the road.

S W Wilchowy L/Cpl

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The accused: I desire to give evidence under oath.

The accused, E-5776, Pte Conrad Desroches, 2 Cdn C Tpt Coy, RCASC sworn, states:-

"On the evening of 12 Aug 44 I set out for a walk and ended up in CAEN. While there I had a few drinks and at about 2100 hrs I started back to the unit. On the way out of town I met two English soldiers Royal Engineers, and they stopped me and asked me if I'd carry a civilian overcoat for them. One of them promised me a bottle of cognac if I did so. I was feeling fairly good at the time, so I thought it ~~xxxix~~ was a good deal and I did it. We went along for a little way and then went up a side street where I had a drink out of a bottle they had with them. We were standing there talking when all of a sudden they ran away. I turned around to see what was going on and found the Provost right on top of me. They asked me what I was doing with this civilian coat on. I told them I was holding it for two English chaps that had just ran down the street. One of the Lance-Corporals started after them but came back with two Air Force men I had never seen before, and who said they had nothing to do with me. I have never seen any clothes that the Provost says were in the coat, nor did I know there was anything in the coat at the time.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 42 I ordered the accused to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the paras in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 80(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 9-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Con 562(a).)

Due to being in Hospital when his unit R.C.C.S. was sent to Italy, Pte Desroches was remustered into R.C.A.S.C.

Since that time he has been dissatisfied with his work and has made repeated attempts to transfer back to sigs. Without success. He has been discouraged and worried due to lack of mail from home - in 4½ years Overseas has received only two parcels.

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) & call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. ..... [5]

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. No, Sir [1]
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (~~no~~) (no) opening address.[1]

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans. No neither. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.~~[2]
(1. AA 54(2), (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(2), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

R.P. 82(b) complied

Pros. Offr. - accd has been good soldier but appears evidence accd at this door with gun - leave it to Court to figure what happened - old man remembers accd at door with rifle witnesses of opinion that Bottego shot at - & was shooting at time - Dickson proved only 3 there - says was told to go into house - all jibes with Italians story - know 3 carriers & 2 men - Sgt said told accd only - Dreson saw 2 carriers & gets impression something wrong. told them to come on & get out of there - Capt. Macpherson got report & found at least 2 rifles there - found had been fired - all proves accd had misfortune to become involved in this case.

Def Offr - first witness stated 5 or 6 witnesses - when she stated only 3 there - told to go to house - good soldier won't leave rifle over to get wet - said heard shooting & also thunder & did not know difference - old man's evidence similar - Dickson stated when told went to house & then returned to carriers & saw 3 members and got rifle & went back to house - only natural for Italians to become excited when see weapons - Capt Macpherson said found rifle smelling cordite - no examination of weapon in morning - ask for acquittal

Sec 1 - defines burden of proof - fact finding function.
Sec 4 c - neglect reasonable doubt, alternative charges. Credibility witnesses.

Plea in Mitigation - heard character evidence - very strong - a charge of minor nature - accd wants to get back to duty & go into action with them.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness: BERTI, Ivo, 25 Castiglione della Valle, having been duly sworn states:

I am BERTI,Ivo, 25 Castiglione della Valle,

Q1 Do you recognize this soldier?

A1 Yes. On Sunday 6 Aug 44, when all the soldiers were leaving this area, they passed in front of our house. One of the little tanks(carriers) went in the ditch near the house. Some soldiers entered the house and asked for wine. When my father said he hadn't any, one of the soldiers asked me, and when I said no one of the soldiers struck me. When I called to my father and brother the soldiers left. After a few minutes they returned and one had a pistol. We, my father and I, closed the door and I heard shooting and the sound of breaking glass. After a few minutes silence, a friend, BOTTEGA, Angelo arrived. The shooting started again. After the shooting stopped my brother Alberto opened the door, and I saw this soldier with a rifle pointing towards the open door. I saw this soldier operate the mechanism of the rifle, and shortly afterwards this soldier shook hands with me and the others. Then I gave wine to this soldier and his companions and when they had finished, the tank was pulled out of the ditch and they left.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Fourth Witness: F45937 Pte Dickson,R.C., "B" Coy Cape Breton Highlanders, C.M.F., having been duly sworn states:

I am F45937 Pte Dickson,R.C.,"B" Coy Cape Breton Highlanders C.M.F. On Sunday 6 Aug 44, I was spare driver in the carrie driven by F60035 Pte DesRoches,D.J., whom I know and recognize here as the accused. We were in convoy and "A" Coy carrier driven by F98016 Pte Christie,L.A., which was ahead of us went into the ditch on the right side of the road. Our carrier stopped behind it. Capt C.P.McPherson Sp Coy C.B.H., who was in command of the convoy arrived and told the accused Pte DesRoche, to pull "A" Coy carrier out of the ditch and tow it to the new area. We hooked onto it and were proceeding along the road and our own carrier slid in the ditch. "A" Coy carrier then attempted to pull our carrier out. We were unsuccessful and a Sgt, whom I recognized as Sgt Hawkins, came along and told DesRoches, Christie and myself to go into a nearby house out of the rain. I went in the house with the other two, and I remained about five minutes, then I left, and went to the "B" Coy carrier, and got under it out of the rain, where there was quite a bit of room due to it being tipped at an angle. There was considerable thunder at that time. Then after about ten minutes a carrier arrived and an N.C.O., and some other soldiers got out and came over to the ditched carriers. They hooked "B" Coy carrier onto their own and after pulling it out of the ditch we put the track back on "B" Coy carrier. I believe the track came off as it was being pulled out of the ditch, I'm not sure.

Q1 Why did you prefer the shelter of a carrier to that of the house?

A1 For no reason at all.

Q2 Did you hear any shots being fired while you were near this house?

A2 No.

Q3 Did you drink any vino that day?

A3 Yes I had a few drinks before I left Sp Coy area.

Q4 Did you have any vino while the carriers where stopped near the house?

A4 No. A.C. Dickson

Fifth Witness: B72614 L/Cpl Ireson,W.G., R.C.O.C., attached Sp Coy Cape Breton Highlanders, C.M.F., having been duly sworn states:

I am B72614 L/Cpl Ireson,W.G., R.C.O.C., attached Sp Coy., Cape Breton Highlanders, where I am employed as a Fitter MV. On the 6 Aug 44 the carrier convoy comprising all C.B.H., carriers and Fitter's truck left the area near Castiglione, in the afternoon. We hadn't gone far when I noticed a carrier in the ditch. At the time there was nothing I could do for him. There was another carrier stopped on the road behind the ditched carrier. I was riding in the Fitter's truck in the rear of the column. On arriving at the new area I was detailed by F84506 Sgt MacLean,C.H., to take a carrier and return to the ditched carrier and attept to recover it. I arrived at the ditched carrier between 1600 and 1700 hrs. The ditched vehicle was near a house, and there was a lot of Italians around. F60035 Pte DesRoches,D.J., whom I know and recognize here as the accused, was standing in the doorway of the house holding a rifle at the trail. There was another soldier, whom I recognized as F78016 Pte Christie,L.A., CBH, standing in the road also holding a rifle. There appeared to be considerable excitement amongst the Italians gathered there. I jumped out of my carrier and told the soldiers; "Come on, cut out the foolishness and get the carrier out of the ditch and let's get out of here" or words to that effect. All the soldiers walked over toward the ditched carrier, and after pulling it out of the ditch, the whole party left.

Q1 What "foolishness", did you refer to?
A1 The Italians appeared to be excited at the presence of armed soldiers near their house.

W.G. Ireson Sgt.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Sixth Witness: G17928 Sgt Hawkins,R.F., #3 Pl Sp Coy Cape Breton Highlander C.M.F., having been duly sworn states:

I am G17928 Sgt Hawkins,R.F., #3 Pl Sp Coy Cape Breton Highlanders. On the 6 Aug 44, while in convoy from Bn area to Bde area, I was driving in a truck. Between 1600 and 1700 hrs 6 Aug 44 I saw F60035 Pte ResRoche,D.J., whom I know and recognize here as the accused, standing by a ditched carrier. I stopped and looked the carrier over with a view to towing it out of the ditch. It appeared impossible to tow it out with the truck, so I told DesRoche, I would continue on in the truck and send a recovery vehicle back. I told DesRoche to stand in the shelter of the house out of the rain.

Q1 Did you tell any other soldiers //to stand in the shelter of the house?
A1 No, only DesRoche.

On arriving at the Bde area I detailed B72614 L/Cpl Ireson,W.G., to return to the ditched vehicle and see whether or not he could get it out of the ditch or whether the L.A.D. truck would be necessary.

Eighth Witness: Capt C.P.McPherson Sp Coy Cape Breton Highlanders,C.M.F., having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt C.P.McPherson,Sp Coy Cape Breton Highlanders,C.M.F. On 6 Aug 44 acting on reports that I had received I questioned F60035 Pte DesRoches, D.J., whom I know and recognize here as the accused, as to what had happened that afternoon, and examined the carriers. I found rifle #F20741A in carrier #T14312 driven by the accused Pte DesRoches had been recently fired. DesRoches said it did not belong to him, I asked him how it got in his carrier and he said it was a spare rifle he was carrying. I ordered DesRoches placed under close arrest and put rifle #F20741A in my Pl Stores truck.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

(When accused charged jointly see RP 85.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 46 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

NECESSITY FOR EXPLANATION

D-5 - accused makes unsworn statement

When this happened I decided to go out. and have a lot of fun before I go to the regiment. So I went up the road to an Italian house and drank to much & got drunk. I woke up the next morning in the house & I tried to find my way back. And then I started to come back and I got lost and when I arrived at camp finally, I turned myself in.

RP & 3(B) complied with. "

1st Witness for Defence.

F 33713 Pte. Allison A.L., sworn states

On the night of June 1st & 2nd, we were called out on Draft. The accused (pointing to accused & recognizing him) was nominated for this draft.

Des Roches and I decided as it was our last night in camp that we would go out & buy some wine & started drinking. We were a little too drunk to remember now what happened from then on till the next morning. We woke up in an old Italian hovel and managed to make ourselves understood to the Italian so that we were told how to find our way back. We started back getting a ride now & then and got lost as we went down the wrong road. We finally arrived at camp & immediately turned ourselves in to the orderly room. When we left on the night of June 4 it was our intention of coming back that night. It was not our intention to desert.

Cross-examination by prosecution.

There was not any doubt in my mind that I was a draft to my regiment and I clearly understood everything. I did not have a pass to leave camp that night — I was aware that unless with a pass, I was C.B. to camp — I don't know where we spent the night but it was on the way to Caserta. — It took us about ½ hr to get to this place — The first house is only a way down the main road — I don't remember how long I stayed there — I've been in this country since 1st September 40. I've drunk wine before but not excessively. — I awoke the next morning at approx. 0830 hrs or 0900 hrs I don't know how far from Caserta we were. — I know highway six — I've never been before to the main highway — I only remember it from the day we came into camp. — There were no Provost to show us the right road back just a few soldiers. — It took us from 0930 till 2000 hrs that night to get back from there. — I'll say it to you that I did not to go on this draft the next morning.

— I don't remember nor recall Pte. DeRoches saying that he did not want to go draft. We went out for a few hours only & intended to come back early. Different kinds of wine have different effects. I had a general idea of the effect of wine. I didn't realize that I was drunk till the next morning. When I awoke the next morning, I found that we were in pretty bad shape. We were shaky when we got back to camp.

No re-examination. RP 83(B) complied with.

ADDRESS
Hon of the Defence:

The charge as laid is one of desertion. ~~desertion~~ intent ~~intent~~. Embodies on the part of the accused an ~~intent~~. It is the contention of the defence but this has not been proven by the prosecution. With reference to Lt. DE Lt. 19 M.M.L. — (Quoted.) The case presented by the prosecution merely shows that the accused was absent without leave. He had been warned for draft but it was not his intention, and this is substantiated by the witness for the defence Pte. Allison, to desert or even to be absent when this draft left. But as it was this last night before going to the field they decided to celebrate and carried this celebration a little too far. The intention of desertion has never been proven and it it is the plea of the defence that this charge be reduced to a charge of A.W.L.

ADDRESS By Prosecution — (Marked.)

Addresses by Prosecution

This man was specifically warned for a specific important duty - to go forward to his field unit. There were no questions asked by the accused of the sgt who gave the warning & according to Pte Allison who gave evidence for the accused there was no doubt as to what was meant by the warning. According to Allison the two of them were anxious to go on draft - so answer that they leave camp without a pass & proceed to drink so much that they can't remember where they are even. And they take about 12 hrs from the time they wake up on the 5th to get back to camp in a country full of army transport & with plenty of provosts & signs available. The story cannot be believed, & the accused left camp undoubtedly to avoid going on that draft. They are guilty of desertion under the A.A.

To Refer to MM C.P. 19 para. 20 re desertion the intention of the accused must be concluded from the surrounding circumstances of the case.

This story is entirely new & was brought by the accused when they returned & said they had been AWL

EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION - NOTE D-3

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
M 65860 Pte HAMANIUK, F,3 Cdn Gen Pnr Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I am attached to 1 CEAU at Hindhead, Hants. I know the accused (pointing to him). I saw the accused on the 15 Feb 44, just before midnight. I woke up at about 0200 hrs, the accused was poking up the fire in the hut where I was sleeping. I did not say anything and went back to sleep. I woke up again about 0500 hrs the next morning, the accused was stoking up the fire again. I saw him again when I got up at breakfast time. When I came back from work at about 1500 hrs next day I found that some of the property belonging to me under the mattress of the bed of the accused. His bunk is next to mine. When I got up that morning, on searching in my battle dress I found that there was missing a package of sen sen, a box of Swan matches, a package of safes (Sultan prophylactics) and a green package of Life Savers, also a fountain pen and a book of stamps, and £2 10/-. The money was in four 10/- notes and there was 10/- in change, in 2/- and half crowns, I can't remember exactly the pieces.

The articles I found under the accused's bed the next afternoon were a box of Swan matches, a box or tin of safes, a package of sen sen, a roll of life savers. They were my property.

(Prosecutor shows certain articles to the witness who continues) -

This package of Wintergreen life savers are mine which I lost and found (marked Ex 1by the Court) This is my package of sen sen which I lost and found(marked Ex 2 by the Court) These are my Swan matches which I lost and found (marked Ex 3 by the Court). These are the prophylactics, Sultan brand (marked Ex 4 by the Court) which are mine.

I have known the accused for some days, he was working on the same job as me. He was attached to 1 CEAU. The second time I wakened in the morning I got up and left the room to urinate and found my tunic on the floor, which was hanging on the hook above. I then searched my pocket and found the £2 10/- missing. It was later in the day that I found the other articles missing. I did not notice when the accused came in to go to bed the night before. I had been paid on the 15th was where I had got the £2 10/-. I cannot identify the money as mine, it all looks alike. When I found my property under the mattress of the accused the next afternoon, I did not touch it, I reported to the Orderly Room and Lt Smale came back with me and he took the articles.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I bought these articles in England, close to my camp. I think about fourteen men sleep in this building where the accused and I sleep. I got up that night because it was hot in the room.

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
Lt R.B SMALE, 1 Cdn Gen Fnr Coy having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused (pointing at him). I know M 65880 Pte HAMALIUK, F., he is one of my men. I also know Pte ABRAM who is also one of my men.

On the 16 Feb 44 Pte Hamaliuk came to see me. He reported to me and as a result he and I went to his sleeping hut and there he pulled back a palliasse from a bed which I knew to be the bed of the accused, and there I saw four articles.

(The Prosecutor shows the witness Exhibits 1,2,3 and 4 and the witness continues)

To the best of my knowledge these are the four articles which I saw there. I took possession of them and took them to the Orderly Room, and later I handed them to Cpl HERTZOG of the Canadian Provost Corps. I am the Officer Commanding these men, a working party attached to 1 CRAU. There was a pay parade for the whole party on the 15 Feb. I was present, and to the best of my knowledge each man was paid in 10/ notes. It was quite noticeable, in fact it was spoken about.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Sixteen people sleep in the hut where the accused sleeps.

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
M 60803 Pte ABRAM, M, 3 Cdn Gen Fnr Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused (pointing to him). On the 15 Feb 44 we were paid, the accused, Pte Donovan and I went for a few drinks. I do not know how much money was spent that night, but I think it was over £2. I do not know how much money the accused had before he was paid, but he was paid £12 on the 15 Feb. He told me it was all in 10/ notes. I was paid two £1 notes. The saw the accused take £2 out of his purse before we left for the pub. Later I saw him take out another pound from his purse. He bought a round of drinks. The accused and I came back to the barracks about 2300 hrs. I went to bed and do not know anything more until next morning. I found £1 in sterling missing from my pocket when I got up. I can't tell one pound from another. I have known the accused about a week and a half. I reported the theft. No one has given my back my pound yet, nor has there been any sign of it.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I had considerable to drink that night. I did not keep track of my drinks. I think the accused had approximately the same amount as I. I spent about 16/ myself on drink that night.

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
F 42143 Sgt BAXTER, W, 5 Cdn Gen Fnr Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused (pointing to him). On the morning of the 16 Feb 44 Pte Hamaliuk came to the Coy Orderly Room to me with a report, after listening to him I notified Lt Smale. About 1520 hrs Lt Smale, Pte Hamaliuk and I went to Hut No 3 where Hamaliuk and the accused sleeps. I saw four articles under the pillow of the accused.

(Prosecutor shows the witness Exhibits 1, 2, 3 and 4, the witness continues)

These are the articles I saw Lt Smale take to the Coy Orderly Room. I placed the accused under arrest at approximately 1700 hrs that afternoon.

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION (Cont'd)

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Defending Officer declines to cross examine 4th Witness.

NOTE; The Prosecutor and Defending Officer discussed taking the evidence of the next witness which did not appear in the summary. The Defending Officer did not object to it being taken.

5th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
B 748711 Pte GARDHOUSE, S.H., 1 CEAU having been duly sworn states:

I am a member of the R.P. of 1 CEAU at Louisburg South, Bordon. On 16 Feb 44 I was on duty in the guard room. I know the accused (pointing to him). I saw him at the guard room that day. He was brought in under close arrest by Sgt Baxter. I searched him and took away his personal belongings. I found among his possessions these articles - one £1 note and twenty 10/- notes, 5/- 6pd in change.

CROSS EXAMINATION declined by the Defending Officer.

6th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
Capt T.H. REID, 5 Cdn Gen Fnr Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I am the Officer who took the Summary of Evidence in this case, on the 29 Feb 44.The accused was present at the taking of the Summary. After the evidence of the several witnesses had been taken I cautioned the accused in accordance with RP 4. I said to him

"Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on Oath. You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

The accused then made a statement to me.

NOTE: The Defending Officer, at this point stated that he had no objection to this statement, being a statement contained on the last two pages of the Summary of Evidence in this case.

The Witness continued -
The signature "C. Desrosier"on the last page of the Summary is the signature of the accused. I saw him sign it. (The statement of the accused contained in the Summary was then read to the Court as evidence in the Prosecutor's case). The witness continued - I read over the statement to the accused before he signed it and he said it was correct and he then signed it.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Defending Officer declined to cross examine this witness.

PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MADE A SUBMISSION UNDER RP 40 - that

The Prosecution had not made a prima facie case with respect to any of the four charges. He particularly said "go ahead."

The ownership is not clearly proven as evidence and that the Prosecution's own evidence states that the accused went through several pockets and there is nothing but the presumption that the money might have been stolen from some one else and he referred the Court to Note 6, Page 4 MML.

THE PROSECUTOR REPLIED - stating that

First I submit that the law is properly set forth in the said Note 6 and I have clear proof of the ownership of the property, establishment of the identity of the money is not possible because a $1 note and the 10/- notes look like every other $1 note and 10/- notes, and Secondly this is only an ommission for the prima facie case. I would ask the Court a question, "If the accused has spent all the money he admits he stole, and the owners came into court and say they lost that much money by theft, is the accused to be aquitted of that theft?"

COURT IS CLOSED

COURT RE-OPENED

The submission is not allowed with respect to each of the four charges.

EVIDENCE FOR THE DEFENCE -- NOTE: D-5

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE
D 46613 Gnr DESROSIER, C.C., 5 Cdn Gen Pnr Coy, having been duly sworn states:

On the night of 15 Feb 44 I went to a pub at about 1930 hrs. Pte Abram and another soldier went with me. We drank. We drank quite a little wiskey and beer, I am not sure how much. We left at closing time and walked home, we had to carry one of the others. When we got home I put this man to bed then I went to the lavatory. Then I put some wood on the fire. Then I sat down for a while and I started to think of most everything. Suddenly I began to think of going on the loose, then I wanted to steal something, that stayed in my mind and I got up from the bench. That is all I remember, I just passed out.

The Defending Officer then read to the accused a portion of his statement starting with the words "This thought persisted...." and read to the words "..... time I went to bed."

The witness continues - That is what I thought then.

QUESTION by the Court

Did you do this?

ANSWER: I do not know if I did do it.

I got up the following morning about 0800 hrs. I usually get up about 0730 hrs. (The Defending Officer shows the accused Exhibits 1, 2, 3, and 4) I do not know whether these were under my pillow or not. I did not have time to look under my pillow when I got up in the morning.

I have been convicted of drunkeness in the Army about 12 times.

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE(Cont'd)

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

I was going on leave the next day, or very soon after, and that is why I drew £12. The pay which I drew was all in 10/- notes. I had £1 and 10/- before I was paid, I am sure that it was a £1 note. I do not know how much I spent at the pub. I do not know whether I spent the £1 note at the pub or not. When I gave the statement to Captain Reid I was confused and I thought that I had done it all.

2nd WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

F 40897 Gnr DONOVAN, J.M., 3 Cdn Gen Pnr Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I was with the accused on the night of 15 Feb. We went out for a beer, it was going on 2000 hrs when we left. We had Pte Abram with us. We went into the pub and bought a round of whiskies, the first round was doubles and after that singles, after each round of whiskey we had a round of beers. The pub closed at 2200 hrs. We bought four quarts and a pint of beer to take out. On coming down the road I broke one of the quarts. There was one quart and the pint left when we got to the hut. I do not remember getting to the hut or getting put to bed. The accused drank as much as I did.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSED THE COURT ON THE FINDING

The nature of the offence of theft requires that the Prosecution shall clearly prove that the intention of the accused was to take this money. Now the evidence before the Court as to the activities of the accused on the night of the event shows fairly clearly that a considerable amount of drinking was going on. The evidence that one of the party who had gone out drinking with the accused and drank an equal amount as the accused, and as a result of that drinking he had to be carried home and put to bed never knowing anything about it. The accused claims that he was able to walk home, but it is in the evidence that the accused had as much to drink as the other members of the party, and there is reason that we can assume that the condition of the accused mind, on the night of this particular event, was not such that we can say that he had the intention which is essential to constitute the offence of theft. Now it is clear that when intention forms a very evident part of the defence, evidence of a state of drunkeness should be sufficient to render that offence less serious and I suggest to the Court that all the evidence before it should permit it to bring the behaviour of the accused within that provision. That is the nature of my defence. As to the state of the accused on the night of the event there is no reason why we should believe that the accused condition was unaffected by this drink. They drank a great deal that evening, and without stretching our imagination to far realize that the accused was under the effects of intoxicating drink. We have seen that he did drink a lot, has been convicted of drunkeness several times in the past. In regard to this question of theft the evidence of the Prosecution is that the accused went through the pockets of several people. There is nothing to suggest that this money was stolen from the complainants pockets, or from someone else's pockets. He had gone through the pockets of several people. In his statement he says that he went through several people's pockets looking for money.

Trial of D 46613 Gnr DESROSIER, C.C. 5 Cdn Gen Pnr Coy

DEFENDING OFFICER'S ADDRESS ON THE FINDING (Cont'd)

There were sixteen people sleeping in that hut, why can't we then assume that the money was taken from any one of the sixteen, and why can't we assume that it was taken by any one of the sixteen people, and I think that is the total nature of my defence to these charges and my case rests there.

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSED THE COURT ON THE FINDING

Several facts have been proven - First that the Exhibits 1, 2, 3, and 4 were found in the possession of the accused. Secondly that Pte Hamaliuk lost these articles plus £2 10/-, his property.
Thirdly that Pte Abram had £1 stolen from him.
Fourthly that on arrest the accused was found with some of the money on him (£11 5/- 6½d).
Fifthly that the accused was awake and about the barrack room at various and suspisious hours, namely at 0200 hrs and 0500 hrs stoking the fire. The suggestion that the Prosecution has made that he was doing something more than that seems to be reasonable.
The next fact proven is the statement of the accused himself who admits forming the intention to steal and further he admits stealing these things by going through as many pockets as he could find looking for money. He says,"As I found it, I put it into my pocket,there were several bank notes, also some silver which I put into my pocket. The other articles which I had taken from trouser and tunic pockets I put under my pillow." That is where the other articles were found, under the pillow or if desired to state it differently under the palliasse. He told the Officer in charge the detachment that he was willing to return all the money that was stolen. His statement was taken before a responsible officer after the proper caution had been given. The defence would appear to be "drunkeness", I refer the Court to page 25 MML, para 48. This says in fact that drunkeness is not an offence under the law of England, but a fact in mitigation. If the Court comes to the conclusion that drunkeness in this case was sufficient to initiate the formation of the intent to steal, then it can come to any other conclusion and result in the finding of not guilty, but guilty of improper possession.

The Prosecutor asked that the accused be put under stoppages respecting £2 10/-, the loss occasioned by the commission of the offence to Pte Hamaliuk in the first charge. He also requested that the Court ask the Confirming Officer to make out an order restoring Exhibits 1, 2, 3, and 4 to the owner thereof, Pte Hamaliuk.

The accused is a person of very limited intelligence, he cannot read, he cannot write, he was born in Vermont, & worked there as a farm laborer for the salary of $10 per month. From the questions he asked me, & from his behaviour before the Court I feel that he broadly understands a person he only is not much use to altogether of a young child. I admit that I exaggerate when I say this. I would ask the Court to review considerably this matter. I would point out to the Court that the accused has a fairly good record, save that he seemed to be quite fond of drink & that there are several convictions against him for drunkedness. I suggest to the Court that his conduct at the time of the offence contributed very largely to the offence he committed. The accused made very effort to assist the Court. He made no attempt to conceal having the money. I would ask that all these be taken into consideration in favour entered

M.65820 Private HAMALIUK, P., on the strength of 3 Canadian General Pioneer Company, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states: I am M.65820 Private HAMALIUK, P., of 3 Canadian General Pioneer Company, attached to No. 1 C.E.A.U. On the 15 Feb 1944 at approximately 2350 hours, I went to bed and left my battle dress trousers and tunic hanging on a hook above my bed. The four articles found on Gunner DESROSIER's bed I can identify as my own, and they were in my tunic and trouser pockets when I retired, in the follwoing places. 1 Box of Swan matches, in front pocket of trousers, 1 package of Sen Sen in Field Dressing Pocket, Sultan prophilactics in rear trouser pocket. I went to sleep shortly after going to bed and awoke sometime later owing to the heat in the room. The time may have been about 0200 hours, 16 Feb 1944. I noticed Private DESROSIER stoking the fire. The lights were out, but I recognized Private DESROSIER by the glare of the fire in the stove. After tossing around for a little while, I dropped off to sleep, awakening at approximately 0530 hours, when I again saw Gunner DESROSIER stoking the fire. Hearing him closing the hut door I got out of bed to urniate, returning to my bed I noticed that my tunic was on the floor. I picked it up and by my torch light examined the pockets. I found £2/10/0 had been taken, this was made up Four Ten Shilling Notes and Ten shillings in Silver. The money had been in my Pay Book. The other articles I have mentioned before and in to those are 1 Fountain Pen, Dark Red, one book of stamps, one Artillery Badge, one Field Service Cap. After going through all my pockets, I hung up my clothes and lay down on my bed. About 30 minutes later Gunner DESROSIER returned to the hut and stoked up the fire again, and then went to bed in the bottom bunk at approximately 0700 hours, 16 Feb 44 I reported the loss my money and other articles to Sergeant BAXTER, also telling him of Private DESROSIER strange behaviour of the previous night.

At this time I had the sum of ONE POUND in my tunic pocket. At reveille, 16 Feb 1944 after hearing that some money had been stolen, in the hut, I discovered that the ONE POUND was missing from my tunic. STATEMENT:

On the 15 Feb 1944 about 1900 hours, I left my unit lines accompanied by Private ABRAM and another Canadian soldier from my hut. We went to a Pub near Headley. I don't know the name of it. There we drank a considerable amount of beer and whiskey. I spent quite a lot of money for the drinks. The three of us left the Pub about closing time, about 2200 hours. We arrived at our unit lines quite late, I don't remember the time as I was feeling quite drunk. I was feeling quite drunk when I went into the hut, there were still some of the boys up. I helped to put one of the boys called TRAPPER to bed as he was drunker than I. After this I went outside to the lavatory and was there for sometime. When I came back everybody was in bed in the hut, the time may have been 12 o'clock. I stoked up the fire in the stove and then went out to the lavatory to urniate, came back and sat down near the fire for a little while. I started to think about all kinds of things, one of them was to go A.W.L. then I thought of stealing things. This thought persisted and I started going through as many pockets as I could find, looking for money. As I found it, I put it into my pocket. There were several bank notes, also some silver which I also put into my pocket. The other articles which I had taken from the different trouser and blouse pockets, I put under my pillow. I don't remember what there was, whatever it was it should still be there. I don't remember what time I went to bed. In the morning of 16 Feb 1944 I over slept and got out of bed just in time to get the work truck at about 0800 hours, not having time to look at the articles I had taken previous and put under my pillow. I just grabbed my wallet with the money I had drawn on pay day 15 Feb 1944. I also put the money I had stolen into my wallet. As I was in a hurry I told the hut Orderly Private ASHELINE to make up my bed, which he promised to do.

I then proceeded by truck to the R.C.O.C. Depot I worked there until 1700 hours, returning to my unit lines by truck. I was placed under close arrest by Sergeant BAXTER and conveyed to Stagging Camp, Guard Room at approximately 1730 hours, 16 Feb 44. I told the officer in charge of the Detachment that I was willing to return all the money I had stolen.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF D-46613 Gnr Desrosier, C.C. 34 Fd Bty, 14 Field Regt. R.C.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

FIRST WITNESS

C-51259 Gnr Yanch, F.C., having been suly sworn states:- On Sunday 18 Oct 42 I went to the 34 Bty Wagon Lines with the intention of getting my bicycle which I had left there under chain and lock. On looking for my bicycle I found it was missing. I immediately reported this fact to L/Sgt Dorey who was in charge of the wagon line picket at the time.

On Monday 19 Oct 42 I mentioned to Gnr Grisdale the fact that my bicycle was missing. He said "I think I know where your bicycle is as I saw a certain fellow in Horsham with the bicycle." Then Gnr Grisdale said to me "I saw this chap in Horsham on Saturday night 17 Oct 42 with a bicycle and know that he has not one of his own. I asked him where he got the bicycle. He said that he had gotten it near a hut in camp. I told him that he had better return it or he would get into trouble to which he made no reply. He then rode away on the bicycle."

About half an hour after this conversation Gnr Grisdale came to my hut and called me out side. He then repeated the above conversation and named Gnr Desrosiers as the person he saw.

After receiving this information I notified B.S.M. Roth of Gnr Grisdale's conversation with me. I accompanied B.S.M. Roth to see Gnr Desrosiers. During the interview which followed Gnr Desrosiers admitted having the bicycle on Sat 17 Oct 42 but claimed it to be the property of his brother whom he claimed to be in the R.C.E.. B.S.M. Roth asked, "To what Division and to what Company does your brother belong?", to which Gnr Desrosiers replied, "The fourth division, but I do not know what company because he never told me." On being asked where his brother's unit was he replied, "Near Horsham right close to where we were stationed."

The accused declines to cross-examine. Gnr C. Yanch.

SECOND WITNESS

C-50556 L/Sgt Dorey, J.B. having been duly sworn states:- On 17 Oct 42 at 1800 hrs I became M.T.Guard Commander. I was on duty untill 1600 hrs 18 Oct 42. At 1300 hrs 18 Oct 42 C-51259 Gnr Yanch, F.C. reported to me that his bicycle was missing from the Wagon Lines. I searched the Wagon Lines for the missing bicycle and when it could not be found reported the loss to B.S.M. Roth, P.L.

The accused declines to cross-examine. J.B. Dorey.

THIRD WITNESS

C-1711 Gnr Lafrance, F.J. having been duly sworn states:- On 17 Oct 42 I saw the accused, D-46613 Gnr Desrosiers, C.C., at approximately 2130 hrs in Horsham with a bicycle. I spoke to him and he passed on without holding any conversation with me.

The accused declines to cross-examine. F.J. La France

FOURTH WITNESS

C-1445 Gnr Grisdale, L.S. having been duly sworn states:- On 17 Oct 42 at 2130 hrs in Horsham I was waiting at the Bus Stop when Gnr Desrosiers came along with a bicycle. I spoke to him, asking him, "Where did you get the bicycle?" Gnr Desrosiers replied, "I got it in camp near a hut". I then said to him, "If it is not yours you had better take it back or else you will get into trouble." Gnr Desrosiers did not answer me. He got onto the bicycle and rode away.

Question: Why did you ask Gnr Desrosiers "Where did you get the bicycle."

Answer: "Because I knew that he did not own one"

On 19 Oct 42 in the Mess Hall Gnr Yanch informed me that his bicycle had been stolen. During my conversation with Gnr Yanch I told him that I had seen Gnr Desrosier in possession of a bicycle in Horsham on Sat 17 Oct 42 after this conversation I met Gnr Desrosier in the Mess Hall. I said to him, "Gnr Yanch is looking for his bicycle and if you get it and return it you will not get into trouble." Gnr Desrosiers replied, "I have it hidden half a mile from camp and I am going to keep it," he then got up and walked out.

The accused declines to cross-examine. L S Grisdale

FIFTH WITNESS

D-7500 S.S.M.Roth, P.L. having been duly sworn states:- At 2000 hrs on 18 Oct 42 L/Sgt Dorey reported to me that a bicycle belonging to Gnr Yanch, P.O. was missing from the Bty Wagon Lines. On 19 Oct 42 in company with Gnr Yanch I questioned Gnr Desrosiers as to the whereabouts of the bicycle. During my questioning of Gnr Desrosiers I established the following: Gnr Desrosiers admitted

1. having a bicycle in Horsham on 17 Oct 42.
2. that the bicycle was not his-though he claimed that it did belong to his brother whom he said was in a 4 divisional engineer company,
3. that he did not know his brother's number or company and knew only his brother's first name.

I then reported to the Bty Commander. He ordered Gnr Desrosiers to be given transport to Horsham to contact his brother and allowed him four hours in which to bring his brother's bicycle to this camp for inspection, with the intention of giving Gnr Desrosiers the opportunity of proving his statement that "The bicycle belonged to his brother."

Gnr Desrosiers failed to accomplish this. As a result at 1700 hrs 19 Oct 42 I had Gnr Desrosiers placed in the unit guard room under close arrest.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

SIXTH WITNESS

C-50750 Sgt. Dick, H.J. having been duly sworn states:- On the afternoon of 19 Oct 42 I took Gnr Desrosiers to Horsham for the purpose of locating his brother. Just before leaving Gnr Desrosiers told me that his brother was in a 4 Divisional Engineer Company which was stationed close to Horsham. When Gnr Desrosiers and I reached Horsham I enquired at the 3rd Divisional Ordnance Workshop for the location of the 4 Divisional Engineers who were in the area. The workshop people did not know of any 4 Div. Engineers in the area.

We then went to the R.T.O. the clerk on duty said, "There are no 4 Div. Engineers in this area" I then informed Gnr Desrosiers that he was mistaken as there were no 4 Div. Engineers in the area. Gnr Desrosiers now said that he was no longer sure of what Div. his brother was in I questioned him and tried to help him but he was unable to give me any information.

We then returned to camp and I reported to B.S.M.Roth that Gnr Desrosier had not found his brother and did not know to what unit his brother belonged. T

H. J. Holt

The accused declines to cross-examine.

SEVENTH WITNESS

L-10179 Sgt Reid, R. having been duly sworn states:-

In response to a phone call I received from Major Holt on the 21 Oct 42 to the effect that a bicycle had been taken , the property of a gunner of the 14 Field Regt. R.C.A. I proceeded to the 14 Field Regt, at 1000 hrs. on 22 Oct 42 where I questioned Gnr Desrosiers. As a result of my questioning Gnr Desrosiers said "I will take you where the bicycle is concealed". I accompanied him to a place 500 yds north of of the camp where I found the bicycle lying concealed in some brush. I asked Gnr Desrosier to get the bicycle out of the brush which he did. MITIGATION

Pte Desrosiers,J.P.

In this case, the Summary is a particularly clear statement of fact. However, ther are factors which detract from the seriousness of the charge.

I do not in the least wish to discount the importance of proper guard duty, especially in a theatre, but, if I may be allowed to offer my very humble opinion, I am somewhat surprised that this matter was not handled summarily. One reason why I say this is that I know the man. In the last three months approx, he has been a dvr, a batman and a D/R.

His intentions are good,- two years and eight months in the Army and he never has an entry on his MFM 6- but he is awkward, To use proper expressions, he is a"cowboy", always putting his foot in it, "a kid" who probably won't grow up for another ten years- always the first to be surprised that his good ideas have such miscarriages.

His error was one of judgement - the whole thing was a matter of judgement. He should have known better than to leave to get his coat - but rashly he went because the Unit might move at a moment's notice. Again, once out he should have known better than to stay so long, but foolishly he decided it would be enough if he returned in time for his shift. He would have been back in time for his shift if he had been with a man who was wounded. I told him the guard might have been called out - he said the guard post was only forty yards from our wasp area where men were stirring. Apparently, the accused, till now, has had a conception all his own of the functions of a guard.

Poor judgement was the cause of this whole thing - may I suggest to the court that, in view of the facts that the accused has never had an award of any kind, a very small sentence is all that is needed to impress him that, in the future, he should think not twice but three times before he leaps.

Thank you.

We came back slowly on the street and Pte Arseneault was firing in the air with his rifle. The first thing we knew he told us he had been hit in the leg and I immediately went to get a doctor to look after him. I showed the Doctor where Arseneault was and he went to see him. I then came back directly to camp to take over my guard before it was too late. When I arrived in camp Pte McDonald was on post and I took his shift. First Witness D.51078 CSM Drapeau L.R. is sworn in.

Q.1 Csm Drapeau will you tell the Court in your own words what you know in the case of D.57655 Pte. Desrosiers, L.

A.1 I, formed up a parade and made a roll call and Pte. Desrosiers L answered his name when called.

Q.2. On what date and approximately what time did you make the roll call.

A.2. At 1100 hrs on 7 Feb 44.

Q.3. Are you sure of the hour?

A.3. Yes.

Q.4. Proceed please

A.4. And then on that parade I notified everybody that we were on three hours notice and those who would not be there when the parade was called would be deserters. I then dismissed the parade. The 8 Feb 44 I formed up the parade at 0600 hrs and Pte. Desrosiers L. was absent. I have not seen him since.

Q.5. Is there anything else to be added to your statement.

A.5. I am not very sure of the date as it is a long time since this happened.

Q.6. Could it be that owing to the fact that this happened a long time ago the dates are not clear in your mind.

A.6. Yes, the dates might be wrong but I am sure that I told the man myself and made a roll call and I am positive that Desrosiers knew we were on three hours notice.

Q.7 Will you state when and how you knew that the accused had deserted.

A.7. At 0600 hrs the 8 Feb 44 I made the reveille that morning myself at 0530 hrs and when I formed up the parade Pte. Desrosiers was absent.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Under Sec 12 (1) (a) AA in the case of desertion it is necessary to prove the exact time the accused absented himself and when he returned.

Under oath CSM Drapeau stated that he is only sure of the hour that the accused left and is uncertain of the date. Furthermore the prosecution has failed to produce a witness or evidence giving the exact time of the accused, soldier's return. I request, Sir, that the case be dismissed on the grounds of insufficient evidence.

"F.S.J. Hogan" Lieut.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTION

As to the accused's apprehension and return a certificate of apprehension by the Military police is embodied in the proceedings and I was merely trying to prove that the accused had deserted.

"P.A. Tremblay", Lieut.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENCE

As the prosecution has failed to produce the evidence of the prisoner's apprehension until after the defence had taken the floor I ask the Court to please not accept the evidence of Pte. Desrosiers', apprehension as it had to be presented to the Court when the prosecution had stated he had no more witnesses or evidence.

The court allows the submission of the Defence as the Prosecution has failed to prove the charge.

First Witness D.51078 CSM Drapeau L.R. is sworn in.

Q.1 Csm Drapeau will you tell the Court in your own words what you know in the case of D.57655 Pte. Desrosiers, L.

A.1 I, formed up a parade and made a roll call and Pte. Desrosiers L answered his name when called.

Q.2. On what date and approximately what time did you make the roll call.

A.2. At 1100 hrs on 7 Feb 44.

A.3. Yes.

Q.4. Proceed please

A.4. And then on that parade I notified everybody that we were on three hours notice and those who would not be there when the parade was called would be deserters. I then dismissed the parade. The 8 Feb 44 I formed up the parade at 0600 hrs and Pte. Desrosiers L. was absent. I have not seen him since.

Q.5. Is there anything else to be added to your statement.

A.5. I am not very sure of the date as it is a long time since this happened.

Q.6. Could it be that owing to the fact that this happened a long time ago the dates are not clear in your mind.

A.6. Yes, the dates might be wrong but I am sure that I told the man myself and made a roll call and I am positive that Desrosiers knew we were on three hours notice.

Q.7 Will you state when and how you knew that the accused had deserted.

A.7. At 0600 hrs the 8 Feb 44 I made the reveille that morning myself at 0500 hrs and when I formed up the parade Pte. Desrosiers was absent.

No questions from the Defence. No further witness. Prosecution closed.

"D 7"

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Under Sec 12 (1) (a) AA in the case of desertion it is necessary to prove the exact time the accused absented himself and when he returned.

Under oath CSM Dragneau stated that he is only sure of the hour that the accused left and is uncertain of the date. Furthermore the prosecution has failed to produce a witness or evidence giving the exact time of the accused, soldier's return. I request, Sir, that the case be dismissed on the grounds of insufficient evidence.

"F.S.J. Hogan" Lieut.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTION

As to the accused's apprehension and return a certificate of apprehension by the Military police is embodied in the proceedings and I was merely trying to prove that the accused had deserted.

"P.A. Tremblay", Lieut.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENCE

As the prosecution has failed to produce the evidence of the prisoner's apprehension until after the defence had taken the floor I ask the Court to please not accept the evidence of Pte. Desrosiers', apprehension as it had to be presented to the Court when the prosecution had stated he had no more witnesses or evidence.

"F.S.J. Hogan" Lieut

The court allows the submission of the Defence as the Prosecution has failed to prove the charge.

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans Yes.(5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

E 10236 Cpl Desrosiers L

The a/m joined the army in Sept 1940 and came overseas July 1941 with the Regt de Chaudiere and in France with the same Unit on D Day. He served with his Unit until admitted to Hospital in August 1944. Result he is still weak and the night in question he had had a few drinks and it affected him more than it would have had he been Normal. He does not remember leaving the Cafe nor entering the Barracks nor breaking the Mirror.

Cpl Desrosiers is highly nervous His actions that night proved it. He did not offer any resistance to the guard, but as he was passing by the mirror he hit it with his fist. Surely the court will see that this action was not that of a normal man.

His mother died with T.B and he has two sisters suffering from it. He has a brother in this theatre of war and lost another brother in [redacted] Normandy.

I ask the court to be lenient in his case. He has proven himself in action and to a M. Desrosiers evidence corroborates that. The night in question he was only offered 3 or 4 beers. Of course his offence is not very serious. His memory is very short and it is conceivable that a change in his condition might do a thing of the kind.

I honour that in judging him the court will consider all the facts which are in his favour. He has been in detention since 12 Dec 44 which means almost two months.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE.

Ex "A"

In the case of K10236 Cpl DESROSIERS Leonard (R de Chaud) on the strength of 43 coy 10 C.B.R.Bn, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas

By direction of the commanding officer this evidence is taken on oath.

Prosecution

K67275 Pte McILRATH G K on the strength of 43 coy 10 C.B.R.Bn, having been duly sworn states:
I am K67275, Pte McILRATH G K, 43 coy 10 C.B.R.Bn. At approximately 2245 hrs 12 Dec 44 I was returning from records office, 10 Bn when I saw the accused, Cpl DESROSIERS L, whom I now recognize, going past the R P at the gate. I ordered the accused to enter the guard room. He would not go in. I called the assistance of the other R P. By this time the accused had reached the end of the gate entrance passageway. The other R P asked him to return, as he was wanted in the guard room. The accused returned with me. As he was passing the large mirror near the gateway, the accused deliberately struck it with his fist and broke it. He then came into the guard room and I secured his NDM Pt I from him, took his name, number and his coy. I then sent the accused to the MIR to have his hand dressed. He returned from the MIR with R P who had taken him there. The accused stated he realized what he had done and was sorry he had caused any trouble, and that he was willing to pay for the mirror. I placed the accused under open arrest and sent him to his coy. He had been drinking, because I could smell it, but he was not drunk. He admitted to me that he had been drinking when I asked him.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

R P 83 (b) complied with.

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution.

VIVIAN G.B. WEST having been duly sworn being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

F.A.L. I am a constable in Heathenhead Police force. I recognise the accused. At Croydon Police Station at about 3.30 P.M. on 15th MARCH 1942 I saw the accused. I told him I was a police officer and that I was going to convey him to Heathenhead Police Station where he would be charged together with [illegible] Gascoigne with the larceny of two Gelo-proof ~~Cars~~ Coats of the Crescent Cinema Heathenhead. In reply he said "O.K Sir." At about 7.15 P.M. on the same day I was present at Heathenhead police station when P.C. Desrosiers and Gascoigne were formally charged with the [illegible] offence by Inspector Russell. At Heathenhead police court the following morning when the accused was remanded ~~over~~ to the Military authorities. On the [illegible] March I was present and took in writing a statement made by he accused after he had been duly cautioned by me. ~~Harrison Richards~~ Hastard: "On Thursday 26 Feb 1942 Janet Kyleman Gascoe of 1st Batt R.O.R of C. and I spent our leave together. At about 4.30 PM on Saturday 28 February 1942 I came to Leatherhead where we had supper. We had no money and wanted to go ~~to Croydon~~ RAF to Croydon while we were going I had the remainder of our leave. Realising it was getting late and knowing we too should get to Croydon waiting, I suggested that I should get two bicycles from the Crescent Cinema Car Park. We went into the Car Park, Kyleman Gascoe stopped against the Cinema building whilst I went further down the yard to the cycle rack and got two cycles which I brought to where Gascoe was standing. We then rode one each to Dorking, Reigate & finished up in Croydon.

We slept in an air raid shelter for the night and the next morning (Sunday) we started bicycle in the direction of Purley when we saw a Police Officer and stopped to ask him the way to Wallington. The policeman asked where I had got the bicycle from and I, like a damned fool, spoke for both of us and told him that we had borrowed them.

When I stopped to speak the Police Officer Gascoe cycled down the road a few yards but after a couple of minutes returned to us. The Police Officer questioned Gascoe and then took us both to Croydon Police Station."

RULE OF PROCEDURE 73(B) COMPLIED WITH.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Q. In his summary of evidence you stated that he accused said "He found" when charged. What do you say about that now.

A. He said it was hire and his remark was made after he had been duly cautioned.

SECOND WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION HAROLD WARREN having been duly sworn states I am a special constable in the Metropolitan police Croydon. At 8.30 P.M. on March 1st 1942 I was on duty at Southend Croydon. I was approached by a Canadian Soldier who I now identify as the accused. He accused asked me to direct him to Wellington, owing to his untidy appearance I asked him where he got his bike, he replied "I borrowed them both from a friend of mine." Then Pfnr Gerson appeared after having cycled on and asked him where he got his bike and he replied. The cycle which Serjt Rossiter had was a Hedges Butterworth all black Genl upright. The number of that bicycle I cannot remember but it contained at least three 6's I think it was 81666. at any rate the last three numbers were 666. The other bicycle was a Raleigh Genl roadster model from which the number was missing.

"I am a private in the 1st Bn., The Canadian Scottish Regt, now stationed in Sussex. I went on leave on the morning of the 24th Feb 1942 for seven days and this expired on the 3rd March, 1942. On Thursday, the 26th February, 1942 I met Rifleman Gascoe, of 1st Bn., Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, who is also stationed in Sussex, and whom I have known for some time. At about 4.30 p.m. on Saturday, 28th February, 1942 Rfmn Gascoe and I came to Leatherhead where we has supper. We had no money and wanted to get to Croydon that night, where we were going to spend the remainder of our leave. Realizing it was getting late, and would be too dark to get to Croydon, walking, I suggested that I should get two bicycles from the Crescent Cinema Car Park. We went into the Car Park, Rfmn Gascoe stopped against the Cinema building whilst I went farther down the yard to the cycle rank, and got two cycles which I brought to where Gascoe was standing. We then rode one each to Dorking, Reigate and finished up in Croydon. We slept in an air raid shelter for the night and on the morning of Sunday, 1st March 1942 we started to cycle in the direction of Purley, when we xxx saw a policeman, and stopped to ask him the way to Wallington. The policeman asked me where I had got the bicycle from, and I like adamned fool spoke for both of us and told him that we had borrowed them. When I stopped to speak to the Police Officer, Gascoe cycled down the road a few yards, but after a couple of mimutes returned to us. The Police officer questioned Gascoe and then took us both to Croydon Police Station. Sir."

"I am a Rifleman in the Queens Own Rifles of Canada, in the 1st Battalion, now stationed in Sussex. I went on leave on the 24th February, 1942 for seven days, which expires on 3rd March, 1942.

On Thursday, the 26th February, 1942, I met Pte. Desrosiers and we decided to spend our leave together.

At about 4.30 p.m. on Saturday, 28 Feb 1942, in company with Pte. Desrosiers, I came to Leatherhead. I had something to eat with friends of Desrosiers. We wanted to get to Wallington that night, but it was getting late and we had no money for train or 'Bus fares and we didn't feel much like walking, so he decided to get a couple of bicycles.

At about 7.15 p.m. on 28th February, 1942, we went to the Car Park of the Crescent Cinema, with this object in mind. I stood by the Cinema building while he (Desrosiers) got a bicycle for me and waited while he got one for himself. He got them both from the cycle rack in the Car Park. We then rode off together in the direction of Dorking. We went through Dorking and Reigate and got as far a Croydon, where we slept in an air raid shelter for the night.

On the morning of the 1st March, 1942, we decided to cycle on to Wallington. We started off in the direction of Purley, when we saw a Police Officer and Desrosiers stopped to ask him the way. I did not stop but cycled on. He seemed to be rather a long time, so I turned back. Upon my return the Police Officer asked me where I had got my bicycle from and I told him it was my own. The Police Officer did not seem satisfied and so he took us to Croydon Police Station.

This statement has been read over to me and is quite true."

About 5 p.m. on Saturday, the 28th February, 1942, I left my Ridge Whitworth pedal cycle in the Cycle Rack situated in the Cresdent Cinema Car Park, Elm Road, Leatherhead, whilst I went to the Cinema.

I returned to the car park about 8 p.m. that night for my cycle but failed to find it. I searched the vicinity but without success.

I subsequently reported the theft to the Police at Leatherhead.

About 6.30 p.m. on the 2nd March, 1942, I attended Croydon Police Station and there identified a Rudge Whitworth bicycle as my property and the bicycle which was stolen from the Exr Crescent Cinema Car Park on the 28th February, 1942. I value the cycle at £6.0.0d.

I identify my cycle by the cyclometer on the front wheel, saddle cover, pump and the right handle grip which is cracked, and the black bell on the right handlebar.

I had not given any person authority to use my bicycle."

PROSECUTION

OPENING ADDRESS

In the case of C120367 Pte Desrosiers W.G.

I propose to prove to the Courtthat the accused absented himself from his platoon in a forward area with intent to avoid a specific action for which he had been personally warned, and that he did, in fact, avoid it. This constitutes desertion.

PROSECUTION

CLOSING ADDRESS

In the case of C120367 Pte Desrosiers W.G.

I submit the Court that a prima facie case of desertion has been established inasmuch as the accused absented himself from his platoon in a forward area, intending to avoid an action which he did avoid. I would like to draw the attention of the Court to the fact that he did not surrender himself until six days later, and then to a Provost in a rear area.

IN THE CASE OF PTE William George Desrosiers of the Loyal Edmonton Regiment.

Since joining the Regiment after the battle of Ortona, Pte Desrosiers has been through every action the Regt participated in. His clean crime sheet is one factor to prove he has done a good soldierly job. He was a corporal for some during the summer but lost his stripes as a result of being wounded in the chest at Fortonato Ridge.

The battle of the Hitler Line, The Gothic Line and more recent actions are the reason for this crime. The man has told me he tried hard to go on but his nerves got the best of him.

He has done so much more than so many. I ask the court for a light sentence in this mans case so he can rejoin his Regiment and continue to be a good soldier, which he has provei himself capable of being.

CASE OF

D.11541 Gnr DESBRUISSEAUX L 1 CARU

D.3 -PROSECUTION-

FIRST WITNESS

I.41302 Gnr LAROSE O.G., HQ 2 Cdn Div RCA, having been duly sworn, states:

/which I bought from the accused

The cigarette lighter was a Ronson, cigarette case and lighter combined, with the thumb piece missing. The lighter also had the initials RDR engraved on it. This is the lighter.

RONSON COMBINATION CIGARETTE CASE AND LIGHTER OFFERED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AND MARKED EXHIBIT 1.

(Witness continues)

I traded a small storm lighter and gave $1 to boot for this lighter to the accused. This all happened around 20 Feb of this year, 1944.

Q. Where did you meet the accused?

A. I was taken on strength t the School of Arty at Seaford. I did not know him before that. The conversation between and surrounding the sale, I seen the lighter and proposed buying it as he wanted to sell it. He told me he had got it from a friend who had gone overseas.

Q. When was the first time you thought there might be something wrong with this lighter, that it might not have been the accused's in the first place?

A. Not until about 6-7 weeks ago, when I was told to report to Maj Ramsay at his office. He described the lighter to me and as a result of the conversation I left the lighter with him. Maj Ramsay convinced me it was his lighter.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(2).

SECOND WITNESS

Maj R.D. RAMSAY, RMRA, 2 Cdn Inf Div, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. I first saw him at 1 CARU about the end of Sep 43 when he was detailed to perform batman duties for me. At that time I had just returned from a Staff Course and was on a week's leave and considerable kit had accumulated over a period of 3 years and I started to repack it, throwing some of it away and keeping other parts. My kit was not always locked and I was away for a couple of periods of 2-3 days at a time. An order came through to return to 2nd Div on the 9th and I had to do some hurried packing. I asked the accused to do my packing, as he was my batman at the time. I then went to 2 Div and about 2-3 weeks later my kit that I had left behind to be packed was picked up by an officer and brought to 2nd Div. About the 1 Jan 44 I was going through my kit again and noticed my cigarette case with lighter on it, was missing. It is a white metal case, chromium plated with my initials RDR on one side of it, and on the other side it was dented a bit, but had been fixed by a jeweller. On the top of the case the lighter was defective at the time. Exhibit 1 is my case, the one I am referring to. I asked various people around the Mess and the batman if they had seen it. The accused at that time was not at 2 Div, so I finally assumed that I had lost it or it had been taken from me and so I forgot about it entirely. About 10 Apr 44 I was going through my kit again with my batman and mentioned to him about this case I had lost, describing it, and a few days later he came to me and as a result of what he told me I had Gnr Larose brought in and I talked with him, and Larose produced Exhibit 1, which I recognized as my own. I made arrangements with Larose that I would keep the case until the matter was investigated. Ithen reported to the 2nd Div Cdn Pro Coy and told them the facts, and it was left entirely in their hands. WHatever has happened since, the Provost have done. This case was given to me as a Christmas gift, Christmas 1942. I had not used it since approx Jan 1943, because it was defective. It is quite possible that I would not miss it at an early date from my kit.

Q. Were there any times when your kit was left lying around your room?
A. Yes, several, when I was away 2-3 days at a time.

Q. At that time when this kit was left around it could be possible for this cigarette lighter to be taken?
A. Yes.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you get to know the accused during your short time at CARU?
A. He did help me with some packing, besides doing my laundry.

Q. You were 7 days in CARU?
A. Yes.

Q. You were in and out of CARU a lot?
A. Yes.

Q. Owing to the circumstances of your posting to 2nd Div and you had not enough time to pack your kit, and had left some of it behind, where was that kit?
A. In 2 suitcases.

Q. Would you have any reason to believe that the accused would know your first name?
A. No, I have no reason to believe that.

Q. Then he would hardly know your second name?
A. No, I should not think so.

Q. There isn't anything else you have discovered missing out of your kit?
A. There is a watch that is missing.

Q. What sort of a watch?
A. A G.S. watch with a luminous dial.

Q. Have you found that yet?
A. No.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

R.85185 Cpl ABSCOTT, J.F., Cdn Provost Corps, AFM's Office, having been duly sworn, states:

I belong on the strength of the SIS Branch, AFM's Office, C.M.H. I recognize the accused. Due to a phone call from the CARU 2nd Div an investigator was sent from our office to interview the accused. On the 29 Apr I interviewed the accused at the Officer's Mess 1 CARU. I stated my reasons for interviewing him, gave him the usual warning which is the warning typed at the top of the statement form, used by us. Before anything I warned him verbally and from what knowledge I had of the affair I questioned him regarding this cigarette case and lighter combined, and after he had given me verbally a story of the affair I asked him if he would be willing to make a written statement which he agreed to do and which I took down. This statement was obtained from the accused voluntarily and without promise. This is the statement.

THE PRESIDENT INFORMED THE DEFENDING OFFICER THAT HE INTENDED TO ADMIT

THE STATEMENT IN EVIDENCE UNLESS THE DEFENDING OFFICER OBJECTED.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER STATED THAT HE HAD NO OBJECTION TO THE ADMISSION IN EVIDENCE OF THIS STATEMENT.

(Witness continues)

I saw the accused sign the warning and sign again at the end of his statement. THESE are his signatures and this is my ~~statement~~ SIGNATURE at the end of the statement.

THE PROSECUTOR STATED THAT THE EIGHT LINES STRUCK OUT ON THE SECOND PAGE OF THE STATEMENT WERE CROSSED OUT AND INITIALLED BY THE ACCUSED AS IT WAS CONSIDERED THAT THE SUBJECT MATTER WAS NOT RELEVANT TO THE ISSUE.

STATEMENT OFFERED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AND MARKED EXHIBIT 3.

FOURTH WITNESS

Capt W.M. Mackay, No 1 CANU, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. I was rooming in the same room with Maj Ramsay. The accused was acting as batman to to Maj Ramsay and myself. He never said anything to me about finding a cigarette lighter and case in the room of Maj Ramsay.

Q. Did the accused ever say anything to you about finding this cigarette case and lighter?
A. No, not a thing.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How long have you know the accused?
A. 15 months or so. He was my batmen for 6-7 months. He was my batmen for several months before Maj Ramsay arrived. All the time he was working for me he had a key to all my personal belongings.

Q. Did you miss anything during that 7 months?
A. No, I never missed a thing, he looked after my personal effects very well. He did a first class job.

Q. Your memory could fail you about this mentioning a cigarette lighter and case?
A. Well hardly.

Q. While it could not be, still there is that off chance is there not.
A. Yes, there is.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

D-5 -DEFENCE-

The accused, D.11541 Gnr DESBRUSSEAUX, 1 CANU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Will you tell the Court where you found the lighter and case, which is marked Exhibit 1.
A. I found it in a drawer in the bedroom where Maj Ramsay had lived.

Q. When did you find it?
A. After Maj Ramsay had gone.

Q. About the circumstances of your packing Maj Ramsay's gear, would you tell the Court about it.

A. Yes, Sir. There was a little bit of stuff left lying around the room, and an extra pair of shoes to be put in a pack. After all the stuff had been packed I put it down stairs at the front door. Shortly after that I was called by the Bdr there was an officer asking for Maj Ramsay's equipment. This officer said that Maj Ramsay had sent him to get his kit for him. He asked me to help him and I said certainly. Then I helped him put the stuff in the car he shook hands with me and gave me a 5 bob tip. Shortly after that I was warned by the Bdr to go up to Block 10, St Lucia barracks. A few days after I was there I was warned to go to some other place as a batman, that turned out to be the Seaford. Shortly after I was at the School of Arty I was talking to Gnr Larose and he asked me to trade a lighter with him. I asked him what kind of a lighter he had and he showed me the lighter. I told him the lighter I had was not much good as it was as the top piece was broken. He said he might possibly get it fixed and so he told me he would trade with me. I did not receive any money from him whatever.

Q. Where were youborn?

A. I was born in the province of Quebec. I got to Grade 9 in school, which is the first year in High School. I joined the Army in 1939 and I am 24 years of age at the present time. I have served with the 2nd Field Unit in the field as a driver and I drove the Defending Officer. I have been at 1 CARU since last July on account of the injury to my foot. I am not married.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When you found this lighter in this drawer did you examine it?

A. Yes, Sir, I pressed on the button and the lighter did not work.

Q. Did you look at the lighter - did you see these initials on it at the time?

A. At the time, no, Sir, I just put it in my pocket at the time.

Q. Was it your lighter that you pulled out of the drawer and put in your pocket?

A. No, Sir

Q. Did you not realize it might belong to an officer who lived in that room?

A. I thought it might have been somebody's, somebody who had been in the room but had left it there because the spring was broken.

Q. Did that make the lighter yours?

A. No, Sir, but it was broken.

Q. Did you make any attempt to tell anyone?

A. I forget the shop's name I asked, I also asked a few officers. This was only a few hours before I was warned to go to Block 10.

Q. At the time you got the lighter did you make any attempt to talk to anyone about it?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you see anyone here today who you talked to about this lighter?

A. I am quite sure Sir, Capt McKay knew about the lighter.

Q. Did you talk to anyone about it at the time?

A. No, Sir.

Don't you know that anything you find in a bedroom that has been occupied by an officer, particularly your being that officer's batman, is not yours when you find it? Are there no NCOs in the Mess who you could take it to? Was there a Sjt in charge of the Mess at the time?

A. No.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

D-5 STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

We have traced the ownership of the lighter and case to Maj Ramsay of the Second Division. The accused admits having possession of this case and at the time he found the case, having made no attempt to try and find out to whom the case belonged. He simply put it in his pocket and on his own evidence traded the lighter for another lighter to his friend. The accused admits having illegal possession of this lighter and case. Under RP 13 therefore this particular case rests with the accused and the Defence has not brought forth any evidence to show that the accused gained this lighter and case legally. As a matter of fact the accused in his statement before the Court has quite apparently lied about his evidence in connection with Capt McKay. We have heard sworn evidence from Gnr Larose to the effect that he gave a lighter and $1 to the accused for this lighter and case.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER AT THIS POINT OBJECTED ON THE GROUNDS THAT THERE IS NO PROOF OF THIS AND THAT THE PROSECUTOR HAS NO RIGHT TO SAY THIS.

(PROSECUTOR CONTINUES)

In view of the accused vacillation we might also assume that the accused vacillated with this $1 which he received for the cigarette lighter and case. The Prosecution has proved their case that the accused was in illegal possession of this lighter and case and there has been no evidence to show that he had this lighter either with the knowledge or consent of its original owner.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER ON THE FINDING

The accused is charged with improper possession of Exhibit 1. We understand clearly the word possession but the word improper is a ma6 in this whole business. I am not so sure in my own mind even whether the proper man is in the dock today. I am inclined to think that the original owner of this case was somewhat neglectful. The accused was a batman for one of the witnesses here today for some 7 months. He had complete access to all that officer's kit, and nothing was ever missing and he had the opportunity to do with it what he wanted to do, yet he has been given a clean bill of health by that witness for a period of 7 months. Another officer comes into the room under whom the accused served a week. The officer in question is in about 6 places at once, and admits himself that he considered disposing of some of his kit. He finally leaves and packs some of the kit himself and leaves the balance of it to be turned in by the accused. Among other articles which are left in the room after Maj Ramsay leaves CANU is Exhibit 1, a broken dilapidated piece of salvage which in my own mind at looking at it, I would think that Maj Ramsay had left it there and did not want it, and admits in his evidence that he gave up using it in Jan 1943. The accused finds this in the drawer, it is initialled and the accused says he did not know who it belonged to. Supposing he did nknow whom it belonged to, which is a logical assumption - it was broken, left behind and he took it in the nature of salvage, and something that was unwanted and something which he might himself repair. Supposing he had turned it in to the Mess Sjt or to the Mess Secretary, then all I can say gentelemen is that this officer never would have received his lighter. One more point, and that is on the evidence which is here today, I feel that a court martial is sort of gilding the lily sort of business, and this is the sort of a matter which could have been handled in the Orderly Room. I don't think this is of such a serious nature that it calls for a court-martial. That is all.

PLEA IN MITIGATION E-3

In considering sentence I would ask the Court to take into consideration the past of the accused, as witnessed by his MFM 6, and the statement given in evidence by Capt Mckay whom he had served for 7 months, and for myself, the accused was my driver for a period of 6 months in the 2nd Field Rest RCA and I found him at all times reliable and willing. I would also draw the attention of the Court to the fact that he has already spent 13 days in close arrest. The action of Maj Ramsay in leaving this lighter and other parts of his kit not locked up after he had left the unit can only be described as being very careless. In addition, the lighter is defective and a person seeing it might be entitled to consider it had been abandoned.

"I have been warned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I now say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

"To show that I understand the above warning, I make this statement voluntarily and sign my name herewith."

SIGNED:- L. Desruisseau

STATES:-

During the month of February I was employed as a batman to Capt McKay & Major Ramsay in the main building, room 11 Lanisburg officers mess. About this time Major Ramsay left & I was lead to believe he would be back in a couple of days. A few days after this Capt McKay came to me and stated he had received a message from major Ramsay requesting I pack up his kit ready to be shipped on to him. The same day I had received an order to move to 10 block which is an annex to Lanisburg officers mess. This I did. After doing this I returned again to Major Ramsays quarters packed his kit, tagged it with his name and then returned to block 10. The following day I again came back to instruct the new batman in his duties. It was during this I had occassion to open a drawer on a table in Major Ramsays room and there I found a Ronson combination case & lighter. I examined this article and found it to be my property. Later the same night I contacted Capt McKay, showed him the broken case & lighter, told him where I had found it and asked him what I should do with it. He stated "It no bloody good to me" so I kept it.

About a week or two later I was informed by the Sgt in charge of the batman that I was going to the School of Artillery course at Seaford, as a batman. I left the same day for Seaford where I took over the duties of a batman to an officer whose name I do not remember I was at Seaford 4 weeks. On the completion of the battle course after all the officers had left I remained behind in a work party to clean up the buildings.

[redacted]

The returned lighter & cigarette case I am same previously mentioned in my statement I have traded with a Dr Carmichael for a Japanese lighter which I still have in my possession. He was no money involved in this transaction.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of D-11941 Gunner Leopold DESRUISSEAUX, Royal Canadian Artillery, on the strength of "A" Wing, No. 1 Canadian Artillery Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on Oath.

First Witness — Major R.D. Ramsay, M.C.A., Second Canadian Infantry Division, an Officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Major R.D. Ramsay, M.C.A., Second Canadian Infantry Division. About 1 Jan 44, while checking over my kit I found that a combination cigarette case and lighter made by Ronson was missing. I inquired from every one in my mess at the time if they had seen it, but on not getting any information about it and being unable to find it, I decided that I had lost it in the several moves I had made in the past, and gave no more thought to it. About 10 Apr 44 I was discussing with my batman the combination lighter and case which I had lost some time in the last six months, and I described it to him in detail; the fact that it had a lighter on top of the case, my initials on one side of the case, and had been dented and pushed out again on the other side. On the 13 Apr 44 my batman reported to me that Gnr. LaRose, a batman on strength HQ, MCA, Second Canadian Division, and in the possession a lighter which corresponded exactly to the one I had described. I immediately sent for LaRose and asked to see the cigarette case and lighter which he had. He showed it to me, and I identified it as being the case which had disappeared from my possession. I asked Gnr. LaRose where he got this case and he said that he got the case from Gnr. Desruisseaux when they were both batmen at the School of Artillery in January, 1944, and that he had given Desruisseaux another kind of lighter and $1.00 in exchange. On 23 Sep 43 I left Staff College at Camberley and proceeded to No. 1 C.A.R.U., Bordon, where I was put up in a room with Captain MacKay, and Gnr. Desruisseaux performed batman duties for me. Between 23 Sep and 1 Oct 43 I spent most of the time away from No. 1 C.A.R.U., with my kit left in Louisberg Mess. On 1 Oct 43 I proceeded to Larkhill to attend a course and returned to No. 1 C.A.R.U. on 8 Oct 43. During this time most of my kit was left in Louisberg Mess in the room assigned to me. On 1 Oct 43 I left No. 1 C.A.R.U. and proceeded to Second Canadian Infantry Division. Since Gnr. LaRose did not join this HQ until 6 Feb 44, and since I had noticed the loss of the lighter before he joined this HQ, and since on being challenged as to the possession of the lighter Gnr. LaRose immediately stated he had got it from Gnr. Desruisseaux, and since Desruisseaux had been my batman at No. 1 C.A.R.U. in October, I immediately assumed there was some truth in LaRose's statement and communicated the information to Second Canadian Infantry Division Provost Company. During the time I was at No. 1 C.A.R.U. my trunk and bags, which contained a considerable amount of my kit, were not always locked. The cigarette case was not used or carried by me during the time I was at No. 1 C.A.R.U., and if it was removed from the room assigned to me it was done by someone other than myself and without my knowledge or consent. When I called Gnr. LaRose in and asked to see his lighter and after he had shown it to me I told LaRose that I was going to keep the lighter until the matter had been investigated, and that he would hear from me about it later.

Question 1. Do you also ye keep your cigarette lighter in your trunk case, sir?

Answer 1. I do not know where it was kept, in one of the suitcases or in one of the trunks. For a period of two months before I went to Larkhill I did a lot of re-packing of my kit, and a very great deal of it was not on. He had no shelves in the room for part of that time and at times when I was not there the light also have been in a drawer or drawer.

Second Witness

L-41392, Gnr. LaRose, O.G., Royal Canadian Artillery, on the strength of Second Canadian Division, R.C.A. H.Q., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am L-41392 Gnr LaRose, O.G., of Second Canadian Division, RCA HQ. On or about 14 Jan 44, I was on strength of the RCA School of Artillery, when at the a/m date I was approached by D-11141 Gnr. Desruisseaux, L., who offered to sell me a Ronson cigarette lighter and case. I offered to pay him $1.00 plus my stores cigarette lighter which he accepted. He gave me the cigarette lighter and case saying he had bought it from one of his friends. This transaction was witnessed by another Gunner who was also on strength of the RCA School of Artillery. At the time I bought the cigarette lighter and case from Gnr Desruisseaux he was a complete stranger to me and I have not seen him since, nor did I have any suspicion that I was buying stolen property.

Some few days ago I loaned my lighter to Gnr. Stuchbury, Major Ramsay's batman. About an hour after I had loaned him this lighter I was ordered to report to Major Ramsay, 2nd Can Div, RCA. Major Ramsay identified the lighter before I handed it to him, and I handed it to him because he had identified it correctly. When I gave Major Ramsay the lighter he informed me that he was going to keep it in safe keeping for me until it could be turned in to the military police.

The Accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

I have no knowledge of any lighter, apart from my own personal lighter, in the room formerly occupied by myself and Major Ramsay in East Louisberg Officers Mess.

Question 1. Did you ever see a lighter in the drawer of the table beside Major Ramsay's bed?

Answer 1. No. I have no recollection of seeing any lighter there.

Question 2. Do you remember that shortly after Major Ramsay left, I was transferred to Block 10, St. Lucia Barracks?

Capt O J Price. CIC having been duly sworn states.

When I joined CBH. three years ago. Cpl Dechesney was then a clerk in the B.O.R. He was always a hard and conscientious worker. I never at any time, heard him grumble about working at nights. On many occasions, I have asked him to type out summaries of Evidence for me. This he always did exceptionally well.

During the 3 years in which he was employed in the B.O.R. he became orderly room Sgt. Leave was always very hard to get with the battalion and particularly for the orderly room staff after we went in action. When leave was being granted to home. The orderly room staff were busy catching up on the work which had accumulated during our stay in the line. Such as Court. martial and documents. Consequently Sgt. Dechesney along with the other clerks in the B.O.R. did not get leave to home while he was with the unit.

AP 73 (6) has been complied with.

O J Price

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF SENTENCE IN THE CASE OF F28316 Cpl. DETCHEVERRY, ME

1 Dec 44

The accused is a Canadian citizen, married and has one child.

Previous to enlistment he has had 13 years of continous employment with the Dominion Coal Co, Glace Bay, N.S. For 10 years he was a company paymaster.

The accused enlisted in the Canadian Army on 4 Sep 39 previous to Canada's Official declaration of war. This is doubly important because at that time the accused was 29 years old and handicapped by the loss of two fingers--two facts which in the normal course of events would have precluded his being called up or conscripted into the Armd forces. This shows the accused to have been an exemplary citizen with a high sense of duty.

In the early days of the war the accused served with HQ, R.C.A. (Coastal Defence) as an orderly room NCO. He was not satisfied and volunteered to transfer to the CBH Regt for service overseas. This he accomplished in June 41 reverting from L/Bdr to Pte. In Oct 41 he left Canada with his unit, remained with it in England and came to Italy in Nov 43. His regiment saw acti n in the period from Jan to June 44 at which time the accused came to 2nd Echelon in a normal exchange of NCO personnel.

He had thus completed 3 continious years of service with his regiment accompanied by promotion to the rank of Sgt. In the face of such facts his regimental service must have been of a high standard which in turn suggests the individual as possessing better than average ability.

On ~~15 Aug~~ 4 Aug 44 the accused received news of the sudden death of his mother. The unexpected shock of his mother's death followed by difficulties of estate settlement at home caused him considerable worry and led unfortunately to excessive drinking. On 25 Sept 44 he was reduced to Corporal due to an offence under AA Sec 40. He was given encouragement to work to regain his third stripe which he hopefully did as evidenced by the fact that he did not reduce his assigned pay.

Marital relations of the accused are most happy. His wife & he exchange letters regularly and he receives parcels from her. He has from time to time sent varying amounts to her out of his restricted pay, the last remittance being for ten dollars on 7 Oct 44. He has no VD history. Can not the accused be justly proud of this record of loyalty to his family?

The accused does not seek to excuse his actions or minimize the seriousness of his offence. However due consideration should be given to the fact that the accused was present at 1100 hrs, 14 Nov 44 at the appointed place. It is only reasonable and fair to assume that at that time the accused had every intention of making the return trip to Avellino and, had not the party been unavoidably delayed, would have done so. For a soldier who is not fortified against the evils of strong drink the downfall of the accused appears almost to be a natural sequence of events. Subsequent to the 1100 hour parade he fell in with old friends on leave from his regiment. What is more natural than to sit down with them for a few drinks--and later in a mellowed mental condition succumb to their invitation to do the sights of Rome. Accused was then in possession of an unusually large amount of pocket money due to debts paid him while visiting his regiment . At 1900 hrs 23 Nov 44 accused returned from A.W.L., surrendering himself to his present unit.

As an NCO the accused realizes his offence takes on added seriousness but it is also noted that he was a clerical NCO only and never has had experience as a disciplinarian of men. He has been employed in an exacting an highly responsible job and one easily leading to nervous strain and fatigue particularly during periods when his unit is in action. Furthermore there is nothing in the accused record to show depravity. There is no hint or trace of maliciousness, in effect the very opposite is true. 1 Dec 44 Def.

In passing sentence on the accused may the court give due and careful consideration to the following:

(1) His excellent record as a Canadian Citzen prior to enlistment.
(2) His early voluntary enlistment and subsequent reversion in rank to go overseas.
(3) His 3 years of satisfactory service with his regiment as a soldier and NCO.
(4) His fine family record saddened by his mother's death in ~~June~~ 44.

Will it not be a travesty of justice to return this soldier to civilian life, to his family and friends at the end of the war--now so nearly over--with a record of Imprisonment behind him--a record which time will not erase and which will doubtless deny him a return to his previous civilian job. The accused is a soldier fit to fight and a soldier willing to fight. Today more than ever before Canada needs such men. May this court give him the opportunity.

W K Biggs Lieut
Defence Counsel.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE 1 Dec 44

Ex 1

In the case of FR8316 Cpl DETCHEVERRY, M.E., CIC, of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, AAI, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Acting Officer i/c Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, AAI, the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

Lieut E.J. SHIMEK, Gen List, of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, AAI, having been duly sworn states:

"I am Lieut E.J. SHIMEK, Gen List, of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, AAI. I know FR8316 Cpl DETCHEVERRY, M.E. That is he." (Witness points to accused).

"I was in charge of a party of 2nd Echelon clerks proceeding to the forward areas to visit field units from 7 Nov 44 till 14 Nov 44. On the return journey on 13 Nov 44 I stopped the convoy just outside Rome. I made an announcement to the party. Cpl DETCHEVERRY was present at that time. I told the members of the party that they were all to meet at the Canada Club in Rome at 1100 hrs on 14 Nov 44. The following day, that is 14 Nov 44, I was unavoidably detained and arrived at the Canada Club at approximately 1130 hrs. At this time I notified QMS BRITTON and QMS GILL that the party would move off to continue the journey to Avellino, at 1330 hrs the same day. When I arrived at the Canada Club shortly before 1330 hrs I was informed by QMS GILL that Cpl DETCHEVERRY was absent. I instructed that the remainder of the party board the trucks and at approximately 1400 hrs I instructed QMS BRITTON and QMS GILL to make a search for Cpl DETCHEVERRY who had not put in an appearance. Approximately ten minutes later these two WOs reported to me that Cpl DETCHEVERRY could not be found. I then instructed that the roll be called. This was done and all personnel were accounted for with the exception of the accused. I personally visited the Provost station at the Canada Club but learned that the Provost personnel had no knowledge of Cpl DETCHEVERRY. I made a very short inspection of the Canada Club myself. I asked a Canadian soldier to enquire in the lavatories, etc, if there were any 2nd Echelon personnel there. He reported back that there were no 2nd Echelon personnel in the places he looked. I do not know who this soldier was. The convoy then moved off at approximately 1430 hrs. There were several stops between Rome and Avellino and each time the roll was called Cpl DETCHEVERRY was not present."

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

E.J. Shimek

(E.J. SHIMEK) Lieut.

D81883 QMS GILL, W.B. CAC, of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, AAI, having been duly sworn states:

"I am D81883, QMS GILL, W.B., of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, AAI. I know F26316 Cpl DETCHEVERRI, M.E. That is he." (Witness points to accused).

"I was the W.O. i/c of a party of 56 Cdn Armd Div unit clerks of 2nd Echelon when they visited their field units 7 Nov 44 till 14 Nov 44. At approximately 1200 hrs, 14 Nov 44, at the Canada Club in Rome I was instructed by Lieut SHIMEK the officer i/c Party that the party would be moving off to continue the journey to Avellino at 1330 hrs that day. I informed all members of the party of this order. When I called the roll at approximately 1330 hrs Cpl DeTCHeVERRI was not present. I reported this to Lieut SHIMEK and he and I made enquiries of the other members of the party. No one reported any knowledge of the whereabouts of Cpl DeTCHeVERRI. I was then instructed by Lieut SHIMEK to start on the journey with the first trucks. This vehicle moved off at approximately 1400 hrs. I am sub-section supervisor of Records Sub-Section "D" in which Cpl DETCHEVERRI is employed. Cpl DeTCHeVERRI has not reported for work nor have I seen him since approximately 1200 hrs 14 Nov 44, until today."

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

(W.B. GILL) QMS.

L48228, Sgt WELSHeRReR, F.V., CMSC, of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, AAI, having been duly sworn states:

"I am L48228 Sgt WELSHeRReR, F.V., of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, AAI. I know F26316 Cpl DETCHEVERRI, M.E. That is he." (Witness points to accused.).

"On the night of 23 Nov 44 I was Orderly Sergeant at Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, AAI. At approximately 1900 hrs, Cpl DeTCHeVERRI reported to me in the Orderly Room stating that he was returning from absence without leave. I placed Cpl DeTCHeVERRI under open arrest. I took down his particulars and noted the time of his return as 1900 hrs on a slip of paper, which I gave to the Orderly Officer, Lieut LAUGHLIN. I was instructed by Lieut LAUGHLIN to locate Cpl DeTCHeVERRI and place him under close arrest. This I did. I turned Cpl DeTCHeVERRI over to the Guard Commander.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

Accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(F.V. WELSHeRReR) Sgt.

E.M.9

The accused was then cautioned as follows:
"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The accused declines to make any statement.

I hereby certify that R.P. 4 (c), (d) (e) and (f) and R.P. 83 (b) have been complied with.

The above three pages of summary of evidence were taken down by me in the presence of the accused in writing this 24th day of November, 1948.

Defending Officer makes folloing statement:

On the charge of drunkiness all N.C.Os. who had been in contact with the accused agree that he was in a fit condition to carry out any duties which they might have given him, with the exception of Sgt Mahar.

The Orderly Officer admits that he might have been able to preform duty.

Sgt Mahar's opinion was based on strict discipline and as he himself is a light drinker I believe this must have influenced his evidence.

Prosecuting Officer makes statement as follows:

Of the evidence of five witnesses each are certain accused had been drinking alcoholic liquor. Two of the witnesses were ofthe opinion that the accused was drunk when seen by them and gave reasons for their opinion. They were Lieut. Richardson and Sgt Mahar. In the case of Lieut. Richardson he was of the opinion accused could not have preformed duties given him.

The 1st 4th and 5th witnesses were of the opinion that the accused was not drunk. Their evidence introducing considerable amount of doubt as to his guilt. Sgt Monzillo and L/Cpl Leonard both heard accused ask for the Orderly Officer after he was placed in their custody

I have presented all the evidence I intend to present and leave it in the hands of the Court.

No evidence of character submitted.

The accused declines to make statement.

Defending Officer makes following statement:

Sir, with reference to the charges read Tpr Detlor has been in my troop as a carrier driver and took a great interest in his carrier. He was always up to that time ready for duty and any duty given him was performed willingly. In my opinion Tpr Detlor would be easily led and the trouble he is now in is the result of more of an escapade than a wilful attempt to do a deliberate wrong. In finding sentence I also wish the court to take into consideration the fact that Tpr Detlor has done 36 days under close arrest. During this time he has performed any duties given him, in a willing manner. The Provost Staff and the Guard Room Staff have not been given any trouble by the prisoner. He was also on the BUMPER scheme performing any duties given him while under ~~MINOR~~ escort. When taken into custody he may possibly have been given some duties which were not legally authorized but all of these duties have been carried out in a satisfactory manner.

Prosecuting Officer questions Defending Officer:

In your statement as to the accused being easily led, was he led into this escapade by someone else?

A. No. I based my opinion on my observations, such as fights when he did not force his opinion such as is the usual case, with other fellows.

I reported to Sgt Maharand then went back to the Orderly Room. Later on in the same evening Sgt Mahar and the two prisoners came in to the Orderly Room to report. On checking up, L/Cpl Boston, Acting Orderly Sgt, reported to me that he had received a message from Bn Orderly Room saying that two defaulters, Tpr Detlor and Tpr Wright were down in Edenbridge and were coming right up. This message was received at 1945 hrs from the Orderly Officer. I waited until the defaulters reported at 2130 hrs. In reporting to me, they were drunk, so I placed them under close arrest and took them to the Guard Room. They should have reported at 2000 hrs because they were defaulters; it is a Sqn Order that defaulters will report to the Orderly Sgt every hour until 2200 hrs.

was no door knob on the back door. I did this to let the dust out of the guard room while they were sweeping the floor. Tprs Detlor and Wright were standing near the back door. I went up to the front door and sat down on the bench. At approximately 0857 hrs I looked around and saw Tprs Detlor and Wright down at the far end of the Guard Room near the back door. I looked up again at approximately 0900 hrs and found that they had gone. I immediately reported the matter to L/Cpl Reid and a search was started but we failed to find the prisoners.

The Case for the Defence is closed.

The Prosecuting Officer makes his closing address:-

Gentlemen:

The accused pleaded guilty to the first charge and in considering the evidence of the second charge, I would draw your attention to A.A. Chapter III Section 19(48) which states that drunkenness often has to be considered in relation to greater offences which it accompanies. It is a principle of English Law that, "Drunkenness is no excuse for crime". I would further draw your attention to Chapter VII(6) which states, "The general rule is that a person is responsible for the natural consequences of his acts, etc," and to Chapter VII(9) which states that, "Temporary intoxication which alcoholism may bring on is not in itself any excuse for crime".

In view, therefore, of the evidence brought forward on the second charge, the Prosecution leaves it to you, gentlemen, to decide the gravity of this second offence.

The Defending Officer makes his closing address:-

The accused has pleaded guilty to the first charge, a charge of simple drunkenness. In regards to the second charge there were within calling distance, a corporal and a sergeant and also a lance-corporal that had got out of the truck. The accused, being drunk, received no help from his comrades, no help from the guard, no help from anyone in any way. He was not placed under close arrest for being drunk and didn't even get their support in any fashion. Admittedly, under Army Law or any law, drunkenness is no excuse for any offence, but I believe it goes on to state that it should be used and at the discretion of any Court, to use that to reduce the punishment when the charge of drunkenness is proven. This man, as I believe his record will prove, had just come out of serving 18 days for a first offence. He received ten shillings and went into town, had a few too many drinks, and came back to his Unit where he is in the habit of riding a motor bike. Any person in a habit, when they lose their senses, generally do the thing that they are in the habit of doing. Therefore, this man went and did the one thing that is his everyday job -- a motor bike. A motor bike that was supposed to be guarded to stop anyone from taking it out. It was guarded by the guard whom we have already questioned. The guard left to ask for and call for help.

The accused elects to make a statement not under oath:-

I was in 18 days and never had anything to drink so I went down and I met an officer and he bought me three double scotches and we had quite a bit of wine and beer to drink. Somebody gave me a drink of surgical spirits and it made me lose my head.

The Court is cleared and the Court deliberates.

The Court is re-assembled.

The Defence has no character evidence to offer but a certified true copy of Pte. Detlor's Conduct Sheet (MFM6) is produced.

The Court is closed.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of

C 5621 Pte. Detlor, L.D.

a soldier of 1 CANADIAN DIVISION RECONNAISSANCE BATTALION.

1st Witness. B 75751 Cpl. Jack, R.B.

On the afternoon of 14 Feb 41, standing in billets looking out of the Orderly Room window I noticed Pte. Detlor sitting on a machine arguing with Pte. Lalonde who was on Guard Duty at the time. I walked outside the billets and asked Pte. Lalonde what was the matter and Pte. Lalonde told me that Pte. Detlor was trying to steal the machine. I told Pte. Lalonde to put Pte. Detlor off of the machine and stop him from taking it. I went back into the Orderly Room to report the matter to the Sergeant.

Shortly after I went into the Orderly Room Pte. Lalonde rushed into the room and said that Pte. Detlor had stolen the machine, and that he had been unable to stop him.

Sgt. Dixon and I traced Pte. Detlor to one mile this side of Redhill where we found him stalled in the middle of the road.

Sgt. Dixon stopped the truck. I got out and walked over to the machine and told Pte. Detlor to get off. Pte. Detlor got off the machine and fell on the road, and threatened to strike me if I took the machine. After I got the machine away from Pte. Detlor I rode it about 100 yards down the road where it ran out of gas. Sgt. Dixon took him and tried to put him on the truck. He was unable to do so and called four men to his assistance. They lifted Pte. Detlor onto the truck where he lost consiousness.

I reported the matter to Sqn HQ and Lieut. Hepburn and myself returned to billets to pick Pte. Detlor up and take him to Sqn HQ under Major Darling's orders.

I looked for Pte. Detlor in the billets and found him in his room. He was drunk and unable to get up. I reported the matter to Lieut. Hepburn, and he gave me permission to leave Pte. Detlor at the billets, with orders to put a pair of handcuffs on him if he started to fight again.

Cpl. R.B. Jack.

There were no questions.

2nd Witness.

C 40761 Sgt. Dixon, H.

The first that I knew about it was when the Guard Commander reported to me at about 1745 hours that a machine had been taken by Pte. Detlor. The Driver of the motorcycle came in and reported it himself at that time. I then took the Guard Cpl with myself in a truck and went looking for him.

We caught up with him stalled on the road about a mile or three-quarters of a mile from Redhill. When I pulled up behind him he was trying to start the machine. I got Cpl. Jack out with myselfand told him to get off the machine. Cpl. Jack took the machine and started back to billets, I then noticed that Pte. Detlor was really drunk. I asked him to get on the truck but he would not. There were some soldiers passing by so I detailed a couple of them and loaded him on the back of the truck, and took him back to the billets. By that time he had passed out on the back of the truck.

I then detailed a Cpl and two men to carry him in and told the Cpl to put him under close arrest as soon as he woke up.

Sgt H. Dixon

There were no questions.

3rd Witness. C 40821 Pte. Lalonde, W.G.

On that night Pte. Detlor was on the motorcycle I came over to stop him from going out on the machine. Cpl. Jack had seen me talking to him and came out and made signs to me to stop the machine. I did that three times and then decided it was no use and went in to report to the Cpl and get more help to take him off of the machine, because Pte. Detlor was intoxicated and I would not have been able to handle him.

After I had reported that I returned outside. When I got within about 10 or 12 feet he got started and went down the road. I reported that to Cpl. Jack, he and Sgt. Dixon started out with a truck to catch up.

Pte. Detlor was dead drunk, lying on the bottom of the truck, when brought back.

I was helping take him upstairs, after taking him out of the truck, and he collapsed and we had to carry him into the room.

W. G. Lalonde

Question:

How many men were there when I was supposed to be on the machine?

Pte. Lalonde:

I was the only one at the machine and did not notice anyone but Cpl. Jack when he came out of the Orderly Room door.

C 5621 Pte. Detlor, L.D. (The accused)

Do you wish to make any statement, or give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything, or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

Accused.

The only thing that I have to say is that I do not remember taking the machine.

I just got out of the Glass-house for practically the same offence and if I had known what I was doing I would not have done it.

L. D. Detlor

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF C5621 PTE DETLOR L D

May it please the court to consider the following things before passing sentence on the accused.

Pte Detlor is 27 years old, married and has one child. He enlisted in Canada in March 1940 and arrived in England in Aug 40. He landed in Sicily in July 43 and has been in this theatre of action ever since. He is a driver mechanic and has been in action with his unit for many months. He is a good soldier, well liked by his companions and trusted by his officers.

As for the reason of his going AWL; he had received several disturbing bits of information, first; he heard that a brother of his who had been injured in England and sent back to Canada, had died there in the hospital. Second; He has not heard from home for many weeks and is worried about his family. Third; He heard that another brother in the Seaforths in Italy had been killed in action.

This last bit of news made him determine to find the Seaforths and learn the truth of the matter. In all, this man has had more than his share of emotional stress and he must not be judged by ordinary standards.

In his favour it may be said that he surrendered himself rather than be apprehended and is willing to pay for his moment of weakness. Now he is anxious only to pay for it and again serve his country.

In summarizing Sir, I would like to point out, this man has been a valuable member of our fighting forces, and will be so again, when he has paid for his lapse. I therefore beg that you give him every possible consideration in passing sentence.

Statement by the Defence in Mitigation of Punishment

Pte Dettling as you can see has not had much experience in the army and has started off on the wrong foot. A short time ago he committed his first crime and owing to the fact that his pay was stopped he has felt as though he has been working for nothing which is rather discouraging. Pte has two brothers at school and previous to his first crime had an assignment to his mother which came in very handy owing to the present cost of living. Pte Dettling has never seen his unit in the field and it would probably change his actions and ideas of soldiering immensely, if he were to get to the unit. He wishes very much to get to his unit where he can clear his name and do what he joined the army to do. In reference to the second charge Pte Dettling reported the loss of his MBM 1 & 11 which he did not receive. Upon trying to find his MBM 1 & 11 I find that there were made out for him but there is no way of checking what happened to them, therefore Pte Dettling has not been paid since leaving England. The defence rests

E3. Plea in Mitigation of Punishment

The Defending Officer:- I would like the court to consider that in over 2 years service this is the accused's first crime He is quite young. Condritions at Phillipville were pretty bad, bad food, a lot of mud and very isolated and the result was a wave of absenteeism Dettling was influenced by older soldiers. After his first offence he was in Custody for a month so that he has been in custody for a total of 80 days I would like the court to take this and his MFM 6 into consideration when awarding sentence.

ABSTRACT OF EVIDENCE in the case of H20126 Private Deuling, Gerhart, 1st Bn., Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas.

The first witness, H20144 Corporal Budd, Robert Henley, 1st Bn., Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas, will give evidence that on the morning of 3rd May, 1942 he had occasion to take a fatigue party to Tide Mills near Bishopstone, Sussex, to pick up lumber to make blackouts. Corporal Budd had occasion to order Deuling to pick up certain lumber and the accused failed to obey the order. He again instructed the accused and others to pick it up and among other things the accused replied, "Am I the only man in this party?" When the accused and Pte. Rogers, D.R., who were at the tail end of the party reached the pile of lumber Cpl. Budd again instructed them to pick up certain specific pieces of lumber. Rogers stopped and obeyed the order but Deuling went right on. Cpl. Budd again called the accused and the accused turned around and said, "I wish you would make up your fucking mind", and then turned around and walked on again. Cpl. Budd recalled him again and ordered him to pick it up right away. The accused turned again to Cpl. Budd and said, "If you are a better man than I am, take off your tunic". The accused stood in ffont of Cpl. Budd waving his arms in a threatening manner and accused him of hiding behind two stripes. Cpl. Budd had to order the accused to go to work again before he did so. When Cpl. Budd and the working party returned to their billets, Cpl. Budd placed the accused under arrest.

H20176 Private Charron, Leonard George, 1st Bn., Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas, will give evidence that the above altercation took place at the time stated and that the accused appeared to be aggravated at Cpl. Budd. He will also give evidence that he heard the accused comment with words to the effect that he wished he (Budd) would make up his mind.

H19414 Private Wolfe, Donald Harry, 1st Bn., Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas, will give evidence that he heard Cpl. Budd call the accused back twice. The accused said he didn't hear Budd the first time he called and the accused went back the second time. He will specifically state that he was at a greater distance away from Cpl. Budd when the orders were given and that he had no difficulty in hearing the orders given by Cpl. Budd.

A copy of the Proceedings of a Court of Inquiry will be submitted in evidence showing that the accused illegally absented himself from 1400 hrs, 9th May, 1942 and he was still so absent on the 3rd of June, 1942, and at that time he was deficient and is still so deficient in clothing and equipment to the amount of thirteen pounds, seven shillings, and no pence (£13-7-0).

Certificate of Apprehension will be tendered in evidence as evidence of the accused's return to the Unit.

Instructions for the Guidance of the Police.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

Trial on the 2nd Charge

Note D-3 Evidence for the Prosecution

1st Witness for the Prosecution
H.17313, Gnr. A.A. Gagnon, 1 CASCRU, being duly sworn, states:-

(The Prosecutor produces an electric pressing iron. The witness examines it and says.) I have seen this iron before. It is my iron. It is a Brock Snyder iron. It has a green cord fastened to a red cord. The green cord was the original cord. The red cord came from a Gnr. Gaudet, and he put the two together. I got this iron before I left Canada. (Iron and cord marked Exhibit 4 by the Court.) I had this iron taken into Aldershot and changed over to the English current. I think it cost me 4/6. I had this done when I first came over here about 25 Sep 43. On 9 Dec 43 before going on leave I spoke to Gnr. McGean. He asked me about renting my iron off me which I said would be O.K. Gnr. McGean then spoke to a Gnr. Devan in my presence and between the two of them they raised canned goods and enough money to amount to 10s. I then gave them my iron and I proceeded on leave the next morning. I got the goods in exchange for the rental of the iron. When returning off leave I inquired about my iron. This was about 21 Dec 43. I couldn't locate Gnrs. McGean or Devar. I understood that they were AWL at that time. After certain conversation with Gnr. Ellis, he showed me an iron. It was my iron, Exhibit 4. The iron was taken into the Bty. office by the B.S.M. and was held there for approximately a month, and the B.S.M. of "A" Bty. returned it to me about a month after I returned from leave. I did not sell the iron to Gnr. McGean or to the accused. I rented it to them for 9 days. I recognize Gnr. Devar. He is the accused (pointing to him).

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

When I rented the iron I just spoke to Gnr. Devar. It was Gnr. McGean who made the proposition, and it was Gnr. Devar who split with Gnr. McGean on it. I don't think I heard what went on on when Gnr. McGean and the accused had a consultation about the iron. I was getting ready for my leave at that time. I had no further conversation with Gnr. Devar before I went on leave. I am sure that Gnr. Devar had the intention to rent the iron. I can not be sure that Gnr. Devar did not have the intention of buying it. I did not buy the iron in Canada. I value it at about £2. I am not a batman. Gnr. Devar was standing at the table when I made the deal with Gnr. McGean about the iron. He was 4 or 5 feet away. That was only during part of the conversation. I heard both Gnr. McGean and the accused talking about the goods they were producing for the iron. I know quite well that Gnr. McGean knew it was just a rental. Gnr. McGean approached me and asked me about renting it. I told him I was going to be away 9 days. I suggested 10s. for the iron when on leave. I had let him have the iron before to press a few suits and we split on the money that we got. Gnr. McGean said he would make a few shillings. while I was away. The accused overheard that part of the conversation. After I told Gnr. McGean I wanted 10s for the iron he went away to speak to Gnr. Devar who was approximately 3 beds away, but when the goods were produced they were both together approximately 2 feet away from me.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution
K.69808, Gnr. I.J. Ellis, 2 CARU, being duly sworn, states:-

(The Prosecutor produces Exhibit 4 and the witness examines it.) This is the iron I bought off of Gnr. Devar. I know Gnr. Devar, the accused (pointing to him). I never saw the accused before until I bought the iron from him. Approximately 16 Dec 43 I was in my hut and I heard that the accused wished to sell an iron. I went down to see Gnr. Devar who slept in the end of the hut I slept in. I bid a pound and a half. There was another fellow there who bid, but he didn't have any money on him. I had the money on me. I gave Gnr. Devar a pound and a half and he turned the iron over to me. I was buying the iron. Gnr. Devar told me he wanted to sell the iron. I said I was buying it. I didn't get any receipt for the transaction. That is all I heard about it for about two weeks until Gnr. Gagnon came back off leave. He claimed it was his iron. I wasn't sure about it so I turned it over to our Orderly Room. I had the iron in the bottom of my kit bag. Gnr. Gagnon described the iron to me before I let him see it. I thought the description was quite good. I then turned the iron over to the Orderly Room. I never got the pound and a half back. I cannot get the iron back.

The Defending Officer declined to cross-examine.

F.88485, Gnr. McGean, M.J., 3 CARU, being duly sworn, states:-

(The Prosecutor shows the witness Exhibit 4.) I recognize this iron. It is the iron I rented at 2 CARU from Gnr. Gagnon about 16 Dec 43. I got together some goods from a parcel that I received. I never had enough so I got some off of Gnr. Devar, the accused whom I now recognize (pointing to him). He had two shillings, a can of chicken and some cigarettes I think. I was renting the iron for 9 days. Then I was to give it back to Gnr. Gagnon. I asked Gnr. Devar what he had. I said to him, "I need some money to rent an iron. I am broke." I asked him for five shillings. He said he didn't have it. He had two shillings and a can of chicken and some cigarettes. He gave me that. I said to him that he and I would go into the business of pressing. He said,

Trial of F.15254, Gnr. L.J. DEVAR, 3 CARU

"All right". We intended to stay in business together until Gnr. Gagnon came back off leave, but unfortunately I was put under open arrest that day. That is I was told to stay in camp. Then I went AWL, but before going I left the iron in Gnr. Devar's charge. I told him that I would see him the next day down at Brighton. I did some pressing with the iron after I rented it, about 10 uniforms at two "bob" each. I gave some of the money to the accused and I kept the balance. The deal I had with the accused about the pressing business was whoever pressed the suit would give the other man half of the money received. When I got the goods and money from the accused he knew that I would give it back to him whenever I made the money by pressing with the iron.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

I didn't tell Gnr. Devar we were buying the iron. I told him we were renting it. I didn't use specifically the term "rent" or "rental".

Questioned by the Court.

I went AWL in the evening of the day after I rented the iron. That is the evening of 17 Dec 43. I am not positive that it was on the 16th that I rented the iron, but I am positive that it was the evening of the day after I rented the iron that I went AWL. I rented the iron from Gnr. Gagnon the night before he went on leave. I am not sure that I told the accused how long Gnr. Gagnon would be on leave. I didn't tell the accused to sell the iron. When I met him at Brighton, I told him he was foolish for selling the iron. He said he thought it was my iron, and he offered me 15 shillings for it, to fix things up with me I thought. I didn't expect the 15 shillings. I didn't expect anything from him.

The Prosecution is closed.

Note D-5 Evidence for the Defence

1st Witness for the Defence
The accused being duly sworn, states:-

The first conversation I had with Gnr. McGean about the iron was by my bed. I was in bed reading. We had a normal conversation. He said I have a way of making money. I said, "What's that". He said, "I can an iron for pressing". He said, "I need some money". He said that he could get it from this fellow who was going on leave. I gave Gnr. McGean some canned goods, some cigarettes and two shillings. Gnr. McGean got the iron. We pressed for a few days. We split the money and Gnr. McGean was put under open arrest one evening, and he said he was going to Brighton. He was going AWL. He went. I saw him the next day, I think, at Brighton. I then found out that the iron did not belong to Gnr. McGean. I was about 3 or 4 beds away from where Gnrs. McGean and Gagnon were talking in the hut. There was a lot of soldiers in the hut and I could not hear what they were saying. He did not mention specifically to me that the iron was to be rented. I was not under the impression that the iron was to be rented. I thought Gnr. McGean was purchasing the iron and I was going to make something out of it by lending him what I had. I have never bought or sold an iron of this nature. Therefore, it would be hard for me to assess the value of an iron. I didn't know how much money Gnr. McGean was putting in. I knew that Gnr.

Gagnon was going on leave soon, and as a result he needed some money to go on leave with. I was quite sure that Gnr. Gagnon was not a batman when I put up the money for the iron.

Questioned by the Court.

I have no clear idea of the value of an electric iron. I was packing the iron away in my kit bag when I sold it. I was going to Brighton. There was a bunch around the table, and I said, "How much will you give me for this iron?" Gnr. McGean did not ask me to sell the iron for him.

The Prosecutor addresses the Court on the finding, as follows:-

In summoning up the evidence that we have taken, it appears that Gnrs. Devar and McGean entered into a business arrangement together.for the purpose of earning money with the iron for which they both put up cash or goods. They both admitted that they did earn some money and that they split on the profits. I don't possibly see how a man can purchase an iron for 10 shillings and in a few days later sell it for £1/10 and not know the true value or the approximate value of an iron. It is apparent that the accused sold the iron for Gnr. McGean whom he thought was the owner but without his permission.

The Defending Officer addresses the Court on the finding, as follows:-

I maintain that the Prosecution has not proved the rightful ownership of the iron. The accused sold the iron which he clearly believed belonged to Gnr. McGean and himself. He offered to give 15 shillings to Gnr. McGean which is half of what he got for the iron. Consequently I ask for an acquittal of the accused on this charge.

During the proceedings there has been no clear evidence produced to show that the accused is guilty of the intent. The Prosecutor has brought up the point that the accused must have known what the value of an iron is. There is several things against this. One is the fact that the iron was not paid for in cash only but in goods as well. What value these goods may have been to the accused is extremely difficult to accurately estimate. It has been brought out in the evidence that the accused has had no previous dealings with irons and is ignorant of their value. It is also brought out in evidence that the accused was under the impression that he was making a joint purchase with Gnr. McGean of Gnr. Gagnon's iron. In the charge he is accused of "fraudulently misapplying property belonging" to Gnr. Gagnon. It is clear from the evidence that neither Gnr. Gagnon nor Gnr. McGean took reasonable precautions to fully inform the accused as to the nature of the deal in which the accused was taking part.

Note E-3

The Defending Officer states in mitigation:-

I base my plea of mitigation of sentence on the fact that the accused has a large number of dependents; to be specific a wife and 5 children. The situation is such that if he spends over 6 months in detention his dependents will loose the excess. It will become a hardship on his dependents through no fault of their own. His family have no other means of support except what they receive from the accused. He has been in the Army since Sep 39 and has actually a good record. He was a blacksmith in civilian life. He lived in Prince Edward Island, near Central Bedeque. The accused had about two years in high school.

2nd Witness for the prosecution

B 17313 Gunner Gagnon, A.A., No 1 C.A.S.C.R.U., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"I, B 17313 Gnr. Gagnon, A.A. on the night of 12 Dec 43 before going on leave was spoken to by F 88485 Gnr. McGean, H.J. about renting my iron. I offered him the loan of my iron for Ten Shillings (£0:10:0) for nine days. He spoke to F 15254 Gnr. Devar, L.J., whom I now recognize, and between the two of them they produced enough money and goods to equal Ten Shillings for which I gave them my iron in loan. On returning from leave I could not find either F 15254 Gnr. Devar, L.J. or F 88485 Gnr. McGean, H.J. I spoke to Gnr. Ellis, L.J. and asked him if he knew anything about my iron. He, Gnr Ellis, L.J. said that he had bought an iron. I described the iron to Gnr Ellis, L.J. and he claimed that it was the same iron, but would not return it. I went to the B.S.M. with Gnr. Ellis, L.J. and told him my trouble. The B.S.M. took the iron from Gnr. Ellis, L.J. and kept it as evidence. F 88485 Gnr. McGean, H.J. who at that time was A.W.L. could not be produced, when F 88485 Gnr. McGean, H.J. did return Gnr. Ellis, L.J. stated that it was not the same man that he had bought the iron from. Approximately one month from the time I went on leave the iron was returned to me by the B.S.M. of "C" Troop "A" Bty No 3 C.A.R.U.

3rd Witness for the prosecution

K 69808 Gnr. Ellis, L.J., No 2 C.A.R.U. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"On approximately the 16 Dec 43 I was in my hut at No 2 C.A.R.U. Ludshott and I heard someone wanting to sell an iron so I joined in and I bid One Pound Ten Shillings (£1:10:0) for the iron. I gave the One Pound Ten Shillings in exchange for the iron to F 15254 Gnr. Devar, L.J. whom I now recognize. I got no receipt for the transaction. About two weeks later B 17313 Gnr. Gagnon, A.A. after returning from leave came to me and asked me if I had his iron? I said that I had an iron but did not know if it was his or not. B 17313 Gnr Gagnon A.A. gave me a discription of the iron and it satisfied me that it was the same iron. The iron was put in safe keeping in the Bty office and when the B.S.M. returned it was put in his care. The iron has not been my property since. My one Pound Ten Shillings has not been returned to me."

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No Sir.(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes ~~an~~ (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, ~~make a statement, or do neither~~? Ans. Yes Sir. ~~Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?~~ Ans. ~~Are they witnesses as to character only?~~ Ans. ~~—~~

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(f) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex. B and Ex. C respectively.(3)

Mr. President and members of the court.

F. 15254 Gnr. Clever L. J. was born on 12 July 1912. He was married on 4 Oct 1932 and has five dependents. In civilian life he was a blacksmith owning his own business and also owned his own home. He enlisted at Charlottetown, P.E.I., on 6 Sept 39 with the 3rd Med. Bty. R.C.A. later to become the 2nd M.A.A. Regt. He arrived in the United Kingdom with his regiment in Sept 1941. He served with the regiment until Oct 1943 at which time he was admitted to hospital. Whilst with the regiment he qualified as a driver, predictor operator and a gunner on 3.7" guns. On discharge from hospital he went to No 3 C.A.R.U. later to become No 2 C.A.R.U. He tried repeatedly to get a posting back to his regiment but to no avail. By far the majority of his time at C.A.R.U. was spent doing fatigues, he claims. This man is a problems soldier.

In my estimation the talents and qualifications of this soldier were not being utilized. Certainly he was not being employed at tasks for which he was trained and definitely was not doing work that a gunners soldier with his experience should be doing. He became discouraged and disgruntled as most soldiers do under similar circumstances. For well over the first four years of his service this man has been a good soldier and has only a few minor offences entered on his conduct sheet. I suggest that had this soldiers abilities during the period he was at C.A.R.U. been utilized to the degree of his qualifications and not supervised that he would not be here today but rather with a regiment in the field where he has proved a valuable asset. I further suggest that his career in the army was allowed to "sort of bog down" due to such a lengthy period at C.A.R.U.

About the end of October 1944 he received a letter from a ~~[illegible]~~ who resides in London, to the effect that she was pregnant. He had every reason to believe that he had been a party to this. This news naturally caused him anxiety and worry. He applied for a weekend pass which was granted and proceeded to London arriving there approximately on the 11th ~~[illegible]~~ Nov. 1944. He found that the woman was pregnant and also suffering other pains. She would not go to a doctor for fear that if reported, her condition would interfere with her pension. She is a widow with two evacuated children and mother to support. She receives a government pension due to the fact that her husband was killed on active service in 1941. Due to her condition she was only able to work for a few days after Edvard's arrival. On 13 Nov 44 Edvar himself went to see a doctor as he felt quite ill. The doctor gave him a certificate to the effect that he would not be fit to travel for three days. He visited him again and the doctor tore up the first certificate and Edvar claims gave him another one dated the 13 Nov 44 and stating he would be fit for travel on the 19th. Certificate is attached. He realizes now that he should have informed his unit but at the time his own condition was one of his lesser worries.

On the 19th he thought he should return to his unit but also on his mind was the plight of this woman. ~~[illegible]~~ She had no income other than the pension which was sent weekly for the support of the two children and mother. With all these facts betoning him in the face he felt he could hardly leave her until a solution was found. Sometime later she told him she had taken some medicine and according to him the effects of which made her very ill. ~~[illegible]~~ For the next few days she was still quite ill and said she was no longer pregnant. She went to the hospital and was operated on for appendicitis on 28 Dec 44. About two months later Shaw claims he went to the hospital and brought her home. She required some attention and of course still needed financial assistance after discharge from hospital. He felt his obligations had not ceased.

~~[illegible]~~

On the 1 Feb 75 Shaw was picked up by the CID of London whilst with an American soldier. It appears they were purchasing [illegible] and [illegible] came at a profit of [illegible] which would have [illegible] actually was.

He had knowingly accepted monies from the wife of his gaoler. He was held in custody for fifteen days and when he appeared before the Court was sentenced to one month's imprisonment. This sentence he discharged. He eventually forfeited forty three days army pay.

I say that this soldier has already paid in a large degree for the error of his ways. Certainly he must have suffered mental & emotional anguish already his foray is seriously affected. I feel somewhat this unfortunate experience has done more than a lesson to him, and he has assured me that in the future he intends to be a real soldier and a credit to his uniform. I felt that if this man was to be sent out on a draft to the field that he would give a good account of himself.

And so I ask the court to be lenient when passing sentence on this soldier, for briefly there are a number of his long service and good record during the first few years in the army. That he is a notable victim of a soldier not being effectively employed. That due to the unfortunate circumstances of his absence without leave that he thought he was doing the best he could to [illegible] another unfortunate [illegible] which he had been a party.

@ that he is a problem; soldier with commendable experience and decision of getting to the field, and the sooner that fact becomes a reality the sooner this man will be able to serve this country as he originally intended on 6 Sept 42.

I hereby present this plea of mitigation for your kindest consideration.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

Pvt. J. Cotton Jr.

I the undersigned, do solomly swear, that the statment I am about to make is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

Around about Oct, 30th. I wrote to Leo. Dekar, that I was having his baby, and would he come down to see me, at this he did. I was at the same time suffering from pains in my side, Leo came about the 11th of Nov. two days later he was quite ill. I told him he had better see a doctor, this he did. Both of us was worried at my condition. I was only able to work for two days after the 13th. I did not want to go to a doctor, as I was afraid it would interfere with my pension. About the 1st of Dec: I was quiet ill, having taken some medicine and after words I was no longer regular, my appendix was still bothering me, and it was the not until the 28th of Dec before I got in the hospital —

The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex. A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 17(B). D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

CLOSING ADDRESS (PROSECUTION)

"A.M. Russell"
Maj.

This man who was warned by his C.O. that the unit was moving to the front. He was told when the unit was ready to move he was found absent. He says he had been drinking steadily and that liquor effects him. He admits he was told of the move, he says he didn't realize the time but he did know that the unit was going to move. He drank after he was warned. He made no attempt to sober up and prepare himself for the move. He says he was too far under the influence to realize what he was doing but he wasn't to far under the influence to find his way out of town and the way to Bari. He was warned he was going up the line but he wasn't going. He skipped out. He was absent for 21 days 3 hrs. That must have been great stuff he was drinking. To remain that long without realizing what he was doing. This man left his unit after being warned that he was moving up to the front line. He failed to go. He travelled a considerable distance behind the line. He has shown no proof that he intended to come back until apprehended by the Provost at Bari. In closing I think this man should pay the full penalty of the law.

CLOSING ADDRESS OF DEFENCE

"A.M. Russell"

Pte. Devarenne A.J.

The accused was at rest, for the past 6 or 7 days he had been drinking, due to the fact that he was warned about the move, whether he understood or not would not stop a man drinking, especially a man who has been drinking for days. Liquor effects a man in strange ways. A man who when sober would fully and clearly understand an order to move, at the same time would never dream of absenting himself, and maybe endangering his comrades. Again due to the fact that he did not return immediately, but was apprehended in Bari, it is possible that he was afraid of the consequence. But at last it got the better of him, and realizing that he had done wrong had planned to return the following. While in Bari the accused did not in any way sell any part of uniform or equipment an indication that he planned to return. As defending officer I plea with the court to dispose of the offence as one of A.W.L.

FINAL ADDRESS BY DEFENCE IN THE CASE OF PTE DEVARENNE, A.J.

"A.J. Russell"
Maj.

Gentlemen:

The accused has a good record he has two slight charges against him, but considering the time that he has been in the army his record is good. Now all of a sudden this charge is laid against him, a charge if he had been in normal condition would have not happened. Is this charge to be a black mark that will follow him through life, to wreck his good military career. Gentlemen as Defending Officer I plea with the court to be lenient in their judgement.

I would like to point out to the Court some of the facts concerning the accused. He still suffers the effects. The scars can be seen on his neck at the present moment.
Also, I would like to point out that this man's Statement of Character reflects that this man has only been absent three times, and the longest absence was for 3 days and 20 hrs. The other absences are for less than 24 hrs.
I would also like to point out that this man has endeavored to serve his country. He enlisted in September 1939, and was discharged as medically unfit after four weeks. He again enlisted in March 1941 and was discharged as medically unfit after one week. In conclusion I would like to ask the Court to consider leniency because of his repeated attempts to join the army and because of his present physical condition which precludes much standing or walking due to the injuries to his legs.

Court — The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

My wife is in a mental hospital and I have a son 13 years old and daughter 10 to support and as I have a wage averaging £3:10: 0 per week I think that the guilty one should be made to pay the £1 that it cost me to get the ring from the pawnshop, the Clearance Line you will receive from the Glasgow C.I.D."

(Sgd.) "Mr. W. Milne"

"I am a brushmaker by occupation and reside with my two children at the address given."

"For the past seven years my wife has been a patient in Woodielee Mental Institution. When she entered the institution I retained her wedding ring which I always keep in my wallet."

"About four months ago while in McAslin Street, I met a Canadian soldier. After some conversation I invited him to my house where we had tea together. When leaving I informed him that should he be in Glasgow at any time to give me a look up. He told me his name was John Clayton De Vaux."

"About 11 a.m. on Thursday, 1st January, 1942, De Vaux called at the house accompanied by another soldier whom I now know to be John Le Blanc. I noticed that De Vaux wore Sergeant's stripes, while Le Blanc had one stripe up. They informed me that they were broke and asked if I could put them up which I immediately agreed to do."

"On Sunday 4th January 1942, I had occasion to go to my wallet which was inside the wardrobe and in my coat pocket. On examining the wallet I missed the ring. I recalled having last seen it on 31st December 1941, and immediately suspected the soldiers for the theft."

"I did not say anything to them at the time, but on my return from work the following day I was informed by my children that the soldiers had gone to stay in the Lion Club in North Frederick Street. On hearing this I went there, but could not find them. On my return home and as I entered the close I found the Sergeant (De Vaux) standing there. I invited him into the house and he stayed with me overnight. I questioned him regarding the ring and he remarked, "That is where Le Blanc has got the money". I asked him to try and get it for me and he left the house to try and trace Le Blanc, but he returned without him or any word of the ring. He left my house on 5th January, 1942, and I have not seen him since."

"I made enquiry with a view to tracing Le Blanc but as I could not find him I called at the Central Police Office and reported the matter."

"About 1 p.m. on Tuesday, 13th January, 1942, I was passing the Lion Club in North Frederick Street, when I saw the accused Le Blanc standing at the door. I went forward and asked him about the ring. He informed me that he had seen De Vaux with the ring and that he had pawned it in Parliamentary Road. I was not satisfied and asked him to accompany me to Parliamentary Road, where I handed him over to a Constable after explaining the circumstances. I accompanied them to the Central Police Station."

"I was later shown a gold wedding ring by Detective Sergeant Robertson and I identified it as my property."

"The value of the ring is £2 and I signed label attached."

The accused does not require this witness' presence at the trial for the purpose of cross-examination.

"He gave his name as John Le Blanc, 5th Light A.A. C.E.F. England."

"On Wednesday, 14th January, 1942, Detective Sergeant Robertson called at the premises and took possession of the ring."

"He was accompanied by a soldier, but I was unable to identify him as the soldier who accompanied the Sergeant when he pledged the ring."

"I could not identify the Sergeant."

"I signed label attached to ring."

The accused does not require that this witness be present at the trial for the purpose of cross-examination.

"About 1.10 p.m. on Tuesday, 13th January, 1942, I was on point duty in Parliamentary Road, when I was approached by the witness William Milne, who was accompanied by the accused Le Blanc. Milne informed me that Le Blanc and a sergeant of the Canadian Army had lived with him between 31st December, 1941, and 5th January, 1942, and that after their departure on the latter date, he had missed a wedding ring from his house."

"I informed the witness, Constable Milne, of what I had been told, and the accused Le Blanc was asked after being cautioned, if he knew anything about the ring. He replied, "The first time I saw the ring it was in possession of the Sergeant on the street." "I accompanied the Sergeant to a pawn office, where he pledged it in my name for £1." "I did not know where the ring had come from, and I did not receive any money from the Sergeant"."

I cautioned and questioned him regarding the ring and he stated that on Saturday, 3rd January, 1942, he was in Parliamentary Road along with the boy, De Vaux, when he showed him a ring, and that he had accompanied him to a pawn shop in Parliamentary Road, where it was pledged for £1. When pledging De Vaux gave his (Le Blanc's) name and that he did not receive any of the money".

"De Blanc also stated that being a stranger to Glasgow he did not know where the pawn office was situated but that he could point it out. Le Blanc was then charged with the theft as now libelled and cautioned in the usual manner to which he replied,'I was with De Vaux when he pawned it but I did not steal it'."

"He further admitted that neither he nor De Vaux were non-commissioned officers but that they had obtained the stripes and put them up themselves. He also stated that he had been an absentee from his unit since 24th December, 1941, and that, as far as he knew, De Vaux, had returned to his Unit."

Re: John Clayton Neveau, Gunner No. F 864/14, 86th Battery, 5th D.A.A. Regt., R.C.A. (A.F.)

I beg to report with reference to the above man that on 13th January 1911, I received information from Sergt. Gibb, Eyemouth, that a Canadian soldier who was staying in my beat had been in Eyemouth some time ago and might be a deserter.

I found this soldier to be wearing a greatcoat with sergeants stripes. When I asked him to produce his leave pass he said it was in his equipment and asked for time to allow him to search for it. He later said he had lost it. He said he was on leave from 11th to 19th inst. and that he was stationed at Bramshott. I pointed out to him that there was no record in his papers of his being a sergeant and he said he had been a sergeant since early in December 1910.

Eventually he admitted that he was absent from his unit without a pass and that he was not a sergeant, saying that someone had stolen his great coat and he had stolen this one which had stripes on it. He had no stripes on his battle dress. He said he had left his unit on 19th December 1911. I took him into custody at 10 a.m. on 15th January 1912.

Neveau states that the address of his unit is 86th Battery 5th D.A.A. Regt. R.C.A. (A.F.) No. 3 C.A.D.U. Bramshott. He has no equipment nor hat.

R. Douglas P.C.

While in custody awaiting escort Neveau removed from the greatcoat the sergeants stripes and destroyed them.

Q. Does the Prosecutor wish to make an opening address?

I am here this afternoon to prove with the aid of witnesses that Gnr. DEVEAU is guilty of the first charge, in that he did dispose of or sell on a commercial or barter basis a quantity of cigarettes which arrived in this country free of duty. In this Unit's Orders an extract of Routine Order 635 has been quoted, definitely stating that such cigarettes cannot be sold. I would now like to call my witnesses.

First witness for Prosecution.

Sgt. A.C.Christopher, C.I.D. Branch Wokingham Police, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecution

Q. Sgt.Christopher would you mind telling the Court just what happened when you were called by Major Ritchie of No. 6 C.C.S. to investigate the matter of some cigarettes which were sold.

A. At about 10.30 P.M. on the 29th July accompanied by Major Ritchie, Captain Jennings and Sgt. Marples of Pinewood Canadian Hospital, Wokingham, we went to the Welcome Inn where I interviewed Mrs. Cox. On the shelf behind the bar I saw 2 packages of 25 Winchester cigarettes which I now produce.

(These are examined by the Court and returned to the witness.)

After further questioning Mrs. Cox produced a further 24 similar packages of cigarettes which I now produce to the Court.

(The 24 packages of cigarettes are examined by the Court and after examination are returned to Sgt. Christopher) I marked these cigarettes with the letter "A" on the top left hand corner of each package.

Questioned by the Court

Q. When you confiscated these cigarettes was the seal covered over with brown paper?

A. They are in the same condition as when taken from the shelf behind the bar.

Q. Where were the other cigarettes taken from?

A. Mrs. Cox went to another room and produced the 24 packages.

Second Witness for the Prosecution

Mrs. Cox, The Welcome Inn, Wokingham, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. We have one of our gunners here who has been accused of illegally disposing of cigarettes. I believe he has been to the Welcome Inn on several occassions when he was a patient at No. 6 C.C.S. Is he here?

A. Yes, there (pointing to accused)

Q. Would you mind telling us in your own words what you know in connection with the selling of cigarettes by him

A. We have always known him as a quiet, respectable sort of fellow.

Q. Had he ever mentioned receiving parcels from home?

A. Yes he had said he had received parcels from home.

Q. Did he tell you what was in them?

A. Not exactly, he said he had received cigarettes and other things.

Q. Had he ever mentioned to you that he had too many cigarettes?

A. He said he had a lot and I asked him, "What do you do with them all" and he said he did not know, he ~~suggested~~ to give some away.

Q. Was there any suggestion made by him or by you that he could give you some of these cigarettes.

A. I knew that he had given away some cigarettes and had more with him which he did not want.

Q. Did he come in with a lot of cigarettes?

A. Yes, I do not know how many.

Q. You cannot remember how many?

A. No.

Q. Did he leave any of these with you at any time?

A. Only that once there were cigarettes on the table where he was sitting.

Q. What did you do with them?

A. He did not want them all or nothing was said about selling them, he did not ask for any money, if I had not offered him money he might have given to me for nothing.

Q. How much did you offer him?

A. I gave him £ 4.

Q. What did he do with this money?

A. I do not know what he did with it.

Q. Do you remember what kind of packages they were in?

A. They were in some brown ~~cardboard~~,

Q. Were they single cigarettes?

A. They were in packets.

A. At approximately 2000 hrs on the 30th July 1942 I was instructed to prepare a ward of the hospital for an identification parade. I did this by confining all the patients of one of the wards to the ward without telling them anything as to why I was doing this.

A. Yes, sir. She was very definite.
