LAKELET.

Peter Weber had 9 teams plowing sod on Monday afternoon and they plowed over 16 acres. Peter has rented the Ernest Mahood farm for a term of 25 years.

The people of this section can verify the recommendation of Hugh Douglas re Mr. Schwalm's work. The work on the school house is a credit to any firm, and now we have a school that grades 1. You are to be congratulated on having such a famed contractor in your town.

It is reported round here that Thos. Bennett is seriously ill up in Carrick. Tom has the constitution of half a dozen horses. We trust he may survive the present illness and give us a few tongue thrashings. We get at least a dozen a year from him.

We are going to have a pretty busy burg this winter. The two chopping mills are bringing farmers here from a distance. F. Gadke is going to have one of the best outfits in this county when he gets the new engine and boiler installed. The boiler is here now. He apparently understands his business as now with the old power he is making first-class chop. He charges 5c per bag while Mr. Huth charges 5c per cwt.

Miss Dobson, present teacher, has been appointed first assistant in Clifford Pub. school for 1909. Miss Dobson gave first-class satisfaction, but for a few dollars she was allowed to go. It is poor policy and militates against the advancement of the pupils in every school.

Anniversary services in the Methodist church here next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Harvey of Dundas, a former popular pastor, will preach at 2.30 p.m. On Monday evening the annual fowl supper will be given. A good program consisting of addresses by Revs. Harvey, Ball of Fordwich and Atkins of Harriston. Some of the Carrick people will be down. It is going to be good.

Chester Cook, son of our carpenter, returned from the West last Thursday night. He went out on one of the excursions. Gordon Horton, who accompanied him remained there and is going to make a home for himself. A very wise thing for a young chap to do.

The Chesley Enterprise has figured J. J. Donnelly's actual majority in South Bruce to be 188.

—Mrs. O'Brien of Walkerton was united in wedlock on Tuesday to Henry Addis, and the happy couple came to Mildmay to celebrate the event. They celebrated it all right, all right.

—Mrs. Peter McDonald returned to her home in Port Arthur last Tuesday after a two months' visit with her mother, M's. N. Vollick.

FORMOSA.

Messrs. Philip and Andrew Schumacher of Chesley spent Sunday with friends in town.

August Miller has bought Frank Rettinger's 75 acre farm in Culross for $4,300. Frank intends buying a larger place.

Jacob Kuerten has opened a cooper shop in Mildmay. He moved his tools to that town on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schnurr of the Station hotel, Mildmay, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Rev. J. J. Gehl attended the funeral of his father, Anthony Gehl, at New Germany last week.

Edward, Alfred and William Bildstein, and Andy Schnurr returned from the West last week.

On Sunday afternoon the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Kuntz was buried here. The infant died shortly after birth.

A FARMER'S WANT SUPPLIED.

Some farmers are under the impression that they must have a purely agricultural paper to supply agricultural information, but they overlook the fact that there is a Canadian publication that not only furnishes the most reliable information pertaining to the farm, but at the same time furnishes them with a newspaper giving the news of the world and a magazine every week as good as any of the English or American magazines in quality and quantity of good wholesome family reading. The paper alluded to is The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, which costs but one dollar a year and is the greatest value to be had. It is a weekly newspaper, family magazine and agricultural paper combined—all three in one—and if any farmer after giving it a trial does not think it the best value on the market he can have his money back. No farm house in Canada can afford to be without Canada's greatest paper—The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal.

BELMORE.

Meetings under the auspices of South Bruce Farmers Institute will be held in the Foresters' Hall, Belmore, on Monday, November 30th, afternoon and evening. At the afternoon session, 2 p.m., R. R. Elliott of Owen Sound will speak on "Stable Management and Common Ailments of Cattle," and Dr. J. Standish of Walkerton will speak on the "Breeding of Horses." At the evening session Dr. Standish will speak on "Educating the Young Horse," while Mr. Elliott will take for his subject "Beautifying of Home Surroundings." Miss Yates will address the Ladies at 2.30 p.m. on any one of her subjects, of which she has a great many. She will also be a speaker at the evening meeting taking for her subject "Winter Egg Production." All are invited to attend these meetings and don't be backward in asking questions. Ladies are especially invited to evening meeting.

Clifford.

Mrs. James Hazlewood has returned from West Toronto, after several weeks' visit with her son, Rev. Dr. Hazlewood.

Mr. Henry Demmerling, of Howick, has rented his farm to Mr. Wm. J. Clegg, the present tenant on the Robt. Burnett farm, which has been sold.

Messrs. Dahmer & Kolpean have the contract of erecting the weigh scale house at the station, and are pushing it forward as fast as the weather permits.

Mr. Fred. S. Schaus has moved from the village back to a farm in the country, and Mr. McGregor, the butter maker, and agent for cream separators, is occupying the house in Rahn's butcher block which he vacated.

Philadelphia, Nov. 18. — The feeling entertained by the late George D. Wolf of Somerdale, a suburb of this city, toward Charles W. Wenzel, his son-in-law, was shown in the following paragraph in his will, which was admitted to probate to-day:

"Fifty cents to be paid to my son-in-law, Charles W. Wenzel, a native of Huntingdon, Pa., to enable him to buy a good stout rope with which to hang himself."

The deceased left an estate valued at $10,500.

SAM GOLDBERG IN TROUBLE

Hamilton, Nov. 20.—Harry Wienstein, a young man, died in the City Hospital this afternoon under peculiar circumstances and his father demanded an inquest, which was opened this afternoon by Coroner Griffin. There is a possibility that his death may result in a charge of manslaughter being preferred against Samuel Goldberg. About a month ago Goldberg was talking to a Miss Hines in front of her home on Napier Street, when Wienstein came along and insisted on talking to the girl. Goldberg interfered, and finally gave Wienstein a shove. Soon afterward Wienstein was taken to the City Hospital suffering from spinal meningitis and the senior Wienstein had a summons issued for Goldberg, charging him with assault. The case was tried in the Police Court this week and Goldberg was acquitted, the doctors attending Wienstein swearing that they did not think the shove Goldberg gave him had anything to do with his illness, although they admitted that it was possible that it brought on the trouble. The senior Wienstein was not satisfied, insisting that Goldberg was responsible for the boy's illness, and, when young Wienstein died to-day, his father insisted that an inquest be held. It was decided to have Dr. Edgar perform a post-mortem examination, and on his report as to the cause of death will depend whether or not a charge will be preferred against Goldberg.

Both Goldberg and Wienstein were well known at Mildmay, having worked at the junk business for B. Goldberg.

AN ESTRAY GIRL.

Constable Russell received word from Owen Sound on Saturday night asking him to keep his weather eye open for an estray girl named Irene Straith, daughter of Geo. Straith, who has put up many awnings in Walkerton. The girl is about 15 years of age, and is described as having dark curly hair and fair complexion. She had on a brown coat, with conspicuous brass buttons, and when last seen was leaving Hanover in the direction of Walkerton. A substantial reward was offered for information as to her whereabouts, and spurred on by such considerations as these the local police are turning things topsy-turvy to locate the treasure. All day Sunday Constable Russell patrolled the road between Walkerton and Hanover, and all day Sunday the local limbs of the law were sizing up females with a suspicious eye, but the Lord's Day passed into history without their coming up with the missing girl. Any person seeing her can make a day's pay by telling Constable Russell.—Bruce Times. Mr. George Straith was formerly a resident of Belmore, and used to peddle dry goods in this township. He married Miss Agnes Bruce, who with her parents resided on the Elora road.

PILES FOR FOUR YEARS

Only those who suffer from piles can know the agony, the burning, throbbing, shooting, stabbing pains which this ailment causes and the way it wrecks the sufferer's life. Zam-Buk is blessed by thousands who used to suffer from piles, but whom it has cured. One such grateful person is Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor of Greenwood Avenue, Toronto. She says: "For four long years I suffered acutely from bleeding piles. During that time I spent an immense amount of money on 'remedies' and doctor's prescriptions. But I got no ease. Zam-Buk was different to everything else I had tried and it cured me. I am grateful for the cure, and as I have never had piles since, I know the cure is permanent."

Another thankful woman is Mrs. A. E. Gardner, of Catelina, Trinity Bay. She says: "In my case Zam-Buk effected a wonderful cure. For 12 years I had been troubled with blind, bleeding and protruding piles. I had been using various kinds of ointments, etc., but never came across anything to do me good until I tried Zam-Buk which cured me! That this may be the means of helping some sufferers from piles to try Zam-Buk is the wish of one who has found great relief."

Zam-Buk is a purely herbal balm and should be in every home! Cures cuts, burns, ulcers, eczema, ulcers, hemorrhoids, itching, cold sores, chapped hands and all diseases and injuries of the skin, etc. All drug stores and stores at 50c box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

FIGHTING FIRE IN CHINA STRANGERS HELP TO QUENCH THE FLAMES.

Travellers Come Upon a Burning Bridge and Find Strange Sights.

Following the main road we found it only thirty miles north-west, to the Fu city of Yuencheo, but several passes had to be climbed, the days were hot, and in spite of the 1,000 or more feet of altitude we were nearly roasted, entirely tired out and looking for a couple of days of rest with fellow foreigners.

Little did we dream of getting the most unusual fire experience that we did, says a correspondent of the Shanghai Mercury. It was a Saturday morning and the first day of the Chinese fifth month or "moon," when everybody must have out a lighted candle and incense for some one, no one knows who if you ask them. It is "ancient custom" and that settles it. We had just crossed the long fourteen span bridge which connects the city with its busy western suburb, called Kiangsi Street, and had noticed blazing candles, one or more in front of each of the 108 shops or booths lining the bridge on both sides.

The bridge and booths seemed to be all of wood, and it was remarked that this looked somewhat dangerous. However, a nice inn was found at the end of the bridge which had a back veranda facing the river and giving a good view of the bridge. As usual with sights seemingly worth it, we took a

SNAPSHOT OF THE BRIDGE, put the camera back in the box, were soon more presentable for city life and found our way to the hospitable mission compound in the middle of the city. As usual a warm welcome was found at the hands of the six or seven foreigners here. These were all of the German branch of the C. I. M., and we were just enjoying breakfast and telling and receiving all the news when the fire trumpets were sounded.

Soldiers were parading the streets and warning the people that a fire was on, and that they should be watchful. This is doubly necessary here, as so much wood is used in construction, being the cheapest material at hand, and fires get fearful headway and burn out very rapidly. The missionaries, having a pump and hose for self-protection, sometimes go to big fires, where they can be of help.

In this case breakfast was forgotten by every one, the pump and hose got ready, and by this time some one said it was the bridge that was on fire. This being near the personal effects of the writer, and of special interest now, a hurried visit was made, in the wake of the "Gospel Hall Fire Department," and sure enough, there was the great crowded bridge a mass of flames in the centre, where the candles had been thickets, in front of the idol, and there seemed no hope of saving the 100 odd shops on the bridge itself.

THE PUMP AND HOSE were soon to work, and did splendid work for their size, but there were three men to manage that, and the writer seemed to be of no use. Hearing that the Hsien Mandarin who should come to such fires and supervise some effective measures was absent on business in the country, and that the two other pumps native owned in the city were not coming, and also noting that there was but one small official helping to quell the fire, and that with only about twenty soldiers, the writer hurried to them, snatched two more pictures of the bridge burning, sent the goods and the coolies into the city and himself appeared on the scene in straw sandals, short clothes, and with a large wet towel wound around the head, held in place by the useful queue. A great fire brigade we all were, not an axe, saw or hardly a pail among us all!

A raid was again made on my friend the innkeeper, and down in the basement a two foot poker was found, while next door we commandeered a small pail from an old lady. The poker was not much for power and the pail was small and lonesome, but a big noise was made on the light woodwork of the four booths (two on each side) we were trying to get out, and the tiles flew as well. The pump and poker inspired the soldiers, and the fire was stopped at the east end of the bridge, to the good wetting of the flooring by the G. F. D.

Where can I get some of Holloway's Corn Cure? I was entirely cured of my corns by this remedy and I wish some more of it for my friends. So writes Mr. J. W. Brown, Chicago.

Just after sunrise is said to be the coldest period of the day, owing to the evaporation of a cold moisture from the earth under the sun's first rays.

Merchant—"He was an excellent book-keeper. He kept our books for many years in an exemplary way. I should have kept him at it." Friend—"What did you do?" Merchant—"I made him cashier." Friend—"How did he do in his new position?" Merchant—"Excellent. He kept the cash."

The cheapest tea to use is not the lowest priced. You can buy tea a few cents a pound cheaper that will make a drink, but if you want an absolutely pure, healthful, cleanly prepared tea use "Salada." It is infinitely more delicious and decidedly more economical than other teas, because it goes farther.

SMART. Slick (to Blossom)—"Is this Mr. Bloomer's office?" Blossom—"No. His office is on the other side of the passage." Slick (leaving the door open as he walks out)—"Thank you, sir." Blossom—"Hey! Come back and close that door! Haven't you any doors in your house?" Slick—"Yes, sir; but they all have springs on 'em. Allow me to show you, sir, my patent double-back-action-door-spring. It closes the door without a bang, and will last a lifetime."

HOW MRS. CLARK FOUND RELIEF

AFTER YEARS OF SUFFERING DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HER.

Pleasant Point Matron Tells Her Suffering Sisters How to be Free From the Terrible Pains that Make Life a Burden.

Pleasant Point, Ont., Nov. 16—(Special).—That most of the ills that the suffering women of Canada have to bear are due to disordered Kidneys, and that the natural cure for them is Dodd's Kidney Pills, is once more shown in the case of Mrs. Merrill C. Clarke, a well-known resident of this place and a prominent member of the Salvation Army. Mrs. Clarke is always ready to give her experience for the benefit of her suffering sisters.

"My sickness commenced twenty years ago with the change of life," says Mrs. Clarke. "My health was in a bad state. Water would run from my head which would make me faint. When I came out of the fainting spells I took fits. I was bloated till I was clumsy. The pain I suffered was awful. It would go to my feet and then to my head. Many doctors attended me, and I tried many medicines, but nothing gave me relief till I used Dodd's Kidney Pills. The first box stopped the fits and seven boxes cured me completely."

Every suffering woman should use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They make strong, healthy kidneys, and the woman who has good Kidneys is safeguarded against those terrible pains that make miserable the lives of so many women.

BRUDDAH BEN'S PHILOSOPHY

"Wimmin folks am queer institutions," said Bruddah Ben.

"In what way?" asked Bruddah Hickey.

"Why, during yo' courtin' days dey am always ready to fall on yo' neck, an' aftah de wedding ceremony dey am always ready to fall on yo' pocket-book."

How to Cleanse the System.—Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are the result of scientific study of the effects of extracts of certain roots and herbs upon the digestive organs. Their use has demonstrated in many instances that they regulate the action of the liver and the kidneys, purify the blood, and carry off all morbid accumulations from the system. They are easy to take, and their action is mild and beneficial.

If the appetite of a man were as great in proportion to his size as a sparrow's, he would eat a whole sheep at one sitting.

"A Little Cat'd You Know" will become a great danger if it be allowed to reach down the throat to the lungs. Nip the peril in the bud with Allen's Lung Balm, a sure remedy containing no opiates.

Brushes made of such thin glass fibre that they are like spun silk are used by artists when decorating china.

A cough is often the forerunner of serious pulmonary afflictions, yet there is a simple cure within the reach of all in Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, an old-time and widely recognized remedy, which, if resorted to at the inception of a cold, will invariably give relief, and by overcoming the trouble, guard the system from any serious consequences. Price 25 cents, at all dealers.

A police-sergeant was boasting of the honesty that prevailed in his division. "Why," he said, "you might hang your gold watch on a lamp-post in the evening and find it still there in the morning." "You don't mean to say nobody would take the watch?" exclaimed the listener. "No; I mean to say nobody would take the lamp-post," said the sergeant.

PILES CURED AT HOME

A POOR MEDICO.
"I don't believe in that doctor."
"Why?"
"He didn't tell me everything I wanted to eat was bad for me!"

A Wide Sphere of Usefulness.—The consumption of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has grown to great proportions. Notwithstanding the fact that it has now been on the market for over thirty-one years, its prosperity is as great as ever, and the demand for it in that period has very greatly increased. It is beneficial in all countries, and wherever introduced fresh supplies are constantly asked for.

Switzerland heads the list of European countries in divorce, the rate being 40 divorces for every 1,000 marriages, France, with 21 per 1,000 coming second, and Germany third with 17 per 1,000.

Teasing Down Sigmars does not delay storms. Opium-aden "medicines" may check coughs, but the cold stays. Do not trifle; when you begin to cough take Allen's Lung Balm, free from opium, full of healing power.

Medical Man—"Jobson has done the meanest thing I ever heard of; he came to my house the other night, ate a big dinner, got it digested, and then went to another doctor to be cured."

Not a Nauseating Pill.—The expectant of a pill is the substance which enfolds the ingredients and makes up the pill mass. That of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills is so compounded as to preserve their moisture, and they can be carried into any latitude without impairing their strength. Many pills, in order to keep them from adhering, are rolled in powders, which prove nauseating to the taste. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are so prepared that they are agreeable to the most delicate.

First Youth—"Scientists say that trees contribute to the heat in the atmosphere." Second Youth—"That's so; a birch has warmed me many a time."

After a Cold Drive don't fail to take a teaspoonful of Painkiller mixed with a glass of hot water and sugar. It surely prevents chills. Avoid substitutes, there is but one "Painkiller"—Ferry Davis'—25c. and 50c.

During the month of October the Provincial Treasury received $33,055 in succession duties from thirty-six small estates. This brings up the total received for the ten months of this year to $1,138,276. From this sum, however, there will be some small refunds of over-payments.

The British battleship Invincible, the latest addition to the British navy, in a trial the other day under seven-tenths of her power, attained a speed of 25 knots an hour. It is expected that the new vessel, when working under full power, will reach a speed of 30 knots, a world's record.

The Port Hope Guide reports the passing through that town on its way to the Canadian West of a train of twenty-one cars laden with whiskey from the Corby distillery in Belleville, said to be the first special of the kind to go west. They have brought everything with them that is necessary to found a flourishing colony, even to their own minister. Their effects include nearly twelve hundred head of stock. The body is regarded as one of the model colonies.

A man named Williams, welder in the Dominion Steel works at Port Egin, was instantly killed on Friday last by being struck by a crow-bar while moving a heavy machine. The machine slipped off a pair of rollers and caused the crow-bar to suddenly swing in the direction of Williams, hitting him and caving in his side. The death of Williams caused the steel works to temporarily close down as the deceased was the only welder in the institution.

If you think you are wise and well-informed, just see if you can answer these questions:—You have seen hundreds of white horses; why did you never see a white colt? Why does a horse eat hay backwards and a cow forwards? Why does a hop vine twine to the left and a bean vine to the right? Why does a horse when staked out by a rope unwind the rope while a cow winds it up into hard kinks? Why does a horse get up on his front feet and a cow on her hind feet? And why does a dog always turn around three times before lying down?

Prof. Johnston of the U-Needa Concert Co. put some of the packing house boys on the "pork" on Friday evening when he introduced the "box trick" where a man is bound and locked up in a box and gets out in a stated time. The porkers introduced their own box (one ordinarily used in shipping bacon) and expected to beat the show at its own game. They got left and badly left. Those fellows are not dead pigs or sides of bacon that are going to stay in there. Our smart Alecks are real raw, and are just entitled to the haw-haw they got. Who got stung?—Harriston Review.

Alex. Turnbull, of Osborne Tp., passed away on Tuesday afternoon of last week. The deceased had driven his team attached to a democrat wagon to Exeter for some lumber and was driving home when death overtook him. He was driving along the Thames Road and when in front of Hallie Brown's farm was seen to fall from his wagon. The horses, which were walking at the time, continued homeward. Mr. Brown saw Mr. Turnbull fall and immediately rushed to his assistance. It was thought that he was unconscious and a telephone message was sent in to Exeter for medical assistance and Dr. McGillicuddy responded. When he arrived at the place where the man was lying he found upon examination that death had overtaken him before he had fallen from the wagon, heart failure being the cause.

STILL IN THE RING.

Long after dark the brood mare and the foal, the two-year-old colt, and the big gelding, standing in the warm stable, heard the farm gate swing on its hinges, and the market wagon rumbled up the lane. And in a few minutes more the tired horses came slowly in and stood in their warm, comfy stalls. Big Bill rubbed them down, and blanketed them, and fed them their good oats, and shook out their beds, and then he took up his lantern and locked the door, and the little foal listened while his big feet went clumping, "slogity slog, slogity slog," across the frozen barnyard towards the house.

The little foal waited patiently till the weary team had eaten their grain, and were resting luxuriously, each on three legs, when he piped up:

"Did you see any automobiles to-day?"

The Nigh Mare laughed a horse laugh, and the Off Horse chortled:

"Why, bless your soul, little fellow, the automobiles hev all gone to sleep in their holes like the raccoons, an' the groundhogs, an' the bears, an' the snakes, and the snappin' turtles, an' the other critters, an' they won't come out till spring. If you went into one of their dens and hit it a kick it would never squeak. You needn't be a bit afeared uv goin' out on the road fer to play, fer the automobile can't stand the snow. When I was your age, little feller, folks were sayin' that the day uv the horse was over; but it takgs more money to buy a fine horse like me than it ever did before.

PLAYING HAVOC WITH PATENT MEDICINES

An Old-fashioned, Home-Made Mixture which Cures Kidney and Liver Troubles.

A prominent local druggist states that since the celebrated prescription of a distinguished specialist has become more or less known it is interfering with the sale of secret medicines, especially the patent or advertised kidney pills. The prescription, which first appeared in a leading health journal, is reproduced here, just exactly as originally written:—
Fluid Extract Cascara..... ½ oz.
Carriana Compound..... 1 oz.
Syrup Sarsaparilla..... 6 oz.

Directions: One tea-spoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Any good druggist can dispense this, or, even better, a person can buy the items separately and mix them at home by shaking them well together in a bottle. It is stated that the ingredients being vegetable, are harmless and simple. It has a gentle and natural action, and gradually tones up the eliminative tissues, leaving the kidneys in a perfectly healthy condition.

A merchant well known in public affairs states that this recipe cured his rheumatism. Save the prescription.

John Milne, a former resident of the township of Sydenham, is one of the heirs to an estate valued at $8,000,000, besides a valuable plantation in Florida. For the past eleven years, Mr. Milne has been at Stockton, Man., where he has a large farm and has been very successful. Recently he has been advised that he is one of the heirs of the wealthy Bernie estate in Aberdeenshire, Scotland. His uncle, the head of the Bernie family, died last spring without a will. The estate will probably be divided between the five brothers and sisters of the deceased, and Mr. Milne, who is a son of one of Bernie's sisters, will doubtless come in for his share. It is said that Mr. Milne's share of the estate will be about $300,000.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.
TORONTO.

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Though the arrivals of cattle were moderate trade was dull at the Western Market to-day. Dealers had to work hard to sell their stock and some others had to hold over their stock till the afternoon. Prices continued weak, but the quality of the cattle was almost unimproved with the exception that perhaps there was not such a big percentage of rough stock as usual. Some of the cattle were delayed on the railway and did not get in for to-day's market. Manitoba cattle were offered pretty freely and sold actively. Their quality averages better than the quality of Ontario cattle. No demand was reported for export cattle. Heavy feeders were wanted in the country. A better condition was noted in the market for butchers' cattle. The hog prices were slacker, without a quotable decline. The deliveries were 71 cars, containing 1,000 cattle, 1,680 sheep and lambs, 600 hogs and 50 calves.

No export cattle were on hand. The ocean space from Portland has been engaged till Dec. 5, and the market will not recover for a few days on that account.

Choice butchers' cattle were readily sold, for dealers were not desirous to hold back lest they should be short in this grade. Picked cattle were sold from $4.40 to $4.50, and good loads brot $4 to $4.25 per cwt. The bulk of the cattle offered was sold at $3.25 to $3.75 per cwt.

Farmers want good feeders but are attempting to buy them at lower prices. Their quotations range from $3.40 to $3.85 for steers. Short keeps are quoted at $3.80 to $4.25 per cwt.

Prices held steady in sheep and lambs. Export ewes were sold at $3.25 to $3.50 per cwt. Lambs brought $4 to $4.60 per cwt.

Though hogs did not go down in price the weaker values of bacon in the Old Country is having a depressing influence. Selects sold at $6.25 per cwt., fed and watered, off cars, Toronto.

Farmers are again busy plowing.

Three young men from Deemerton were out hunting last Thursday. They were not successful in the woods so they visited a farmer's barnyard, and caught three tame rabbits and killed them, and went home and told their neighbors that they had each shot a rabbit. We don't know whether one of their number gave the thing away, or whether the hound let out on them.

A NEW USE FOR CHEESE

An English laborer recently went into a restaurant in Liverpool and called for some bread and cheese.

"What kind would you like, sir?" enquired the waiter. "Cheshire, Yorkshire or Gorgonzola?"

"Fancy name, that last," said the laborer. "I'll try a bit of that."

He thought it so tasty that he bought a pound, took it home for his wife late at night, and left it for her on the sideboard in the kitchen. Next morning he came in before breakfast and asked her if she had found the parcel.

"Oh, yes," she replied, "I saw it there, all right, and very good mottled soap it is, no doubt, when you know how to use it. But I couldn't make it lather very well when I washed the children and after I'd done they smelled so strong that I've turned 'em out for a breath of fresh air, just to sweeten 'em a bit before they go to school."

Have you done any Christmas shopping yet? If not, do you not think it about time you started? Year after year the desirability of buying early has been emphasized; but every year the practice of a great many has been to leave it until the last week—even the last day, yet no one has ever attempted to refute a single argument in favor of early buying.

I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, rheumatic pains, looseness of the hair, swellings of the glands, palms of the hands scaling, itching of the skin, dyspeptic stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks' time the sores commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. "PORTLAND FATTY" CAUGHT

He Is Wanted for Robbing a Bank at St. Raphael, Quebec.

A despatch from New York says: When several Central Office detectives at once were strolling through Chinatown the other night looking for suspicious characters, they took into custody a party of four men because they had recognized two of them as safe-blowers. One of the strangers, who described himself as George W. Monroe of Cumberland, Maine, made a plea for freedom, saying he knew nothing of the men in whose company he had been found.

On Wednesday Monroe, or as the police say he is better known as "Portland Fatty," was in a cell awaiting the call of Canadian officials, who wish to take him across the border to tell what he knows of the robbery of a bank in Quebec. In the pockets of the prisoner the police found a number of certificates marked "La Banque Provinciale, St. Raphael, Quebec, Canada." Inquiry showed that the bank was robbed on October 23. The Canadian authorities were notified of the arrest of "Portland Fatty," and two officers are here to attempt to bring about his extradition to Canada.

He was brought to the Jubilee Hospital here, but died on Saturday. Viscount Gort is the eldest son of Lord Gort, and came to Canada to visit his uncle a few weeks ago and to hunt large game.

CHINA NOT AFRAID OF JAPAN

Men Are Being Trained for the Inevitable War Between the Two Nations.

A despatch from Philadelphia, Pa., says: Declaring that the youth of China, the younger and more progressive element in the nation, would in a great revolution overthrow the present dynasty, Rev. William Christie, a missionary at the Christian and Mission Alliance, stated that great disturbances were about due in the Celestial Empire, and also that a war with Japan was in contemplation. Mr. Christie said:

"The subject of the revolutionary movement is the overthrow of the present dynasty, which is hated for its conservatism and feared for its power. During the past year there have been three abortive attempts, each time before the movement was ripe. The unrest is being fostered by the student element.

"China is not afraid of Japan. The Government is working night and day in the training of men for the war with the Japanese that eventually will come. All this talk of conciliation between Japan and China in the event of another war with the western nations, is ridiculous."

Six Orientals Lost Their Lives on the Buffalo Sea Wall.

A despatch from Buffalo says: Several suspects have been arrested here in connection with the investigation being made by the Buffalo police with a view to finding out what white men smuggled from Canada to this port the ten Chinamen, six of whom were drowned and four rescued at the Government breakwall here early on Thursday morning. So far none of the suspects arrested has been identified by the four survivors. Chief of Police Taylor of Buffalo said he did not believe any white men lost their lives in connection with the case. The bodies of the last two of the six Chinese victims were recovered on Thursday afternoon. It is said that in the pockets of one of the drowned men were found the name and address of Marks Co., 687 Yonge street, Toronto. The name of this victim is not known.

Two boats in which the ten Chinamen had crossed from the Canadian shore were wrecked against the breakwall, half a mile east of Michigan avenue, at an early hour on Thursday morning, probably about 1.30. The sea was running high and the men were thrown into the water and dashed again and again against the rocks. How the survivors came through the terrible hours that followed is a mystery, for it was not till quite 3.30 that Ralph White, a watchman on the stone boat Atlas, which was working on the breakwall, heard a cry in the darkness. He landed to investigate and met a bruised and bedraggled Chinaman crawling toward the boat. White helped the chattering man aboard and then roused the crew to help him look for others. In a short time three more Chinamen had been pulled over the rocks and set down to dry and toast beside the engine. The four men said they had come from Toronto, and gave their names as Mock Quong, aged 42; Pong Sing, 35; Ching Jing, 2x, and Chin Jon, 19.

The crew of the Atlas could find no more survivors, and though they sent repeated signals to the life-saving station, no boat was sent out till daybreak, by which time the gasoline launch and rowboat in which the Chinamen had crossed from the Canadian shore had been dashed to splinters. The life-savers could do nothing when they arrived, but attempted to extricate the six bodies, which had been beaten in among the rocks of the breakwall, and were showing here a bare stiff arm, with clenched fist thrust up; there a frozen yellow leg, and again a bundle of sodden rags and flesh tightly wedged in a rock crevice. Four of the bodies were recovered, the others remaining tightly fastened in the rocks.

Two women fought robber.

Shocking Affair in Lonely Hut in Cobalt District.

A despatch from Cobalt says: On Thursday, about 4.30 o'clock in the afternoon, two women living alone in a small log shack about a mile east of Argente were attacked by a man evidently bent upon robbery, but he may have a murder charge to face if captured. The two women are Ethel Stone and Carrie Smith. Ethel Stone is able to be out of the hospital, although she has two bad cuts on the side and the back of the head. Carrie Smith had both jaws broken, her head cut in several places, and her recovery is doubtful. Their assailant escaped through the woods and the police are still on the trail.

TWO MEN INSTANTLY KILLED.

Derrick Boom Crashed Down on Workers.

A despatch from Trenton says: About 10 o'clock on Friday morning, at the construction of the Trent Canal, near Glen Miller, about three miles north of Trenton, two men were instantly killed by the falling of a big derrick. One of the men was the foreman in charge of the work, and his home is in Trenton. His name is Wm. Cronen, a middle-aged man of forty odd years. The other man killed was an elderly Italian workman, whose name is unknown.

SLIPPED UNDER THE ICE.

Alfred W. Harvey Drowned at Saskatoon, Sask.

A despatch from Saskatoon, Sask., says: While skating with a party of friends on Wednesday night on the Hudson's Bay slough Alfred W. Harvey fell heavily on his head near an air hole, breaking through the ice and skidding for some distance beneath. Not knowing the depth of the water, which subsequently proved to be only two feet, his friends formed a chain, and after some ten minutes' distressing work succeeded in getting the unfortunate man to the bank, by which time, however, it was too late. The deceased was about twenty-four years of age, and came here some years ago from London, England.

THREE HUNDRED MEN LOST

Greatest Mine Disaster of Many Years in Germany.

A despatch from Hamm, Westphalia, Germany, says: The greatest mine disaster in many years in Germany occurred on Thursday morning at the Redbod mine, three miles from here. There was a very heavy explosion in the mine about 4 a.m., and almost immediately the mine took fire. Of 380 miners only six escaped without injury. Thirty-five were taken out badly injured, and 37 bodies were brought out. The remaining 302 have been given up for lost. The explosion destroyed one of the shafts, which had to be partly repaired before the rescue work was begun.

Heartrending scenes were enacted at the mine when the dead and wounded were brought to the surface, and there were similar scenes in the town when the injured were transported through the streets to the hospitals.

Finally the fire had made such great headway that it was decided that any further attempts to rescue the entombed men were vain, owing to the impossibility of entering the galleries. At the same time an order was issued to flood the mine. First reports indicated that the accident was the result of an explosion of coal dust, but the statements of the injured men render this impossible.

ALL-POWERFUL PIMPLE

HOW IT HAS SAVED THE WORLD FROM STARVATION.

The Efforts of Scientific Men Have Been Crowned With Complete Success.

It seems incredible, yet it is a hard fact, easily proved, that the civilized world, and England especially, has escaped starvation only by the skin of its teeth. In fact, had it not been for the investigation of the pimples on a plant, the worst might have happened.

All have heard of the experiments now going on in England and elsewhere with the "nitrifying bacteria." Examining the roots of beans, peas, and clover, a scientific man found that the little pimples at the base of the stem consisted of millions of microbes, and he also found that these microbes have the power to take nitrogen from the air and give it to the plant. After many failures, this process of manuring is now a success, and farmers in many countries buy these microbes, packed in cotton-wool, and spread them on the ground as manure.

SAVED FROM STARVATION.

To appreciate the full value of this discovery, it must be remembered that twenty-five years ago it was known to scientific men that there was every chance of the world's food supply being so reduced before they grew old that half the people of Europe and America would die of starvation.

It was all a question of manure for the land. As everyone knows, the land can grow practically nothing without its allowance of manure—neither wheat for bread, nor clover to produce beef and mutton, nor potatoes, turnips, fruit, nor flowers. Long ago, when people were comparatively few, the manure of the farmyard sufficed. But for many years past the supply of this valuable commodity has been only a drop in the bucket of what the land demands.

Fortunately, a great store of guano was discovered in Peru. But the population increased, and the guano began to give out. There was no way of renewing it, and the farmer was faced with bankruptcy, when another discovery saved him. That is the fact that one of the by-products of gas manufacture, sulphate of ammonia, is an excellent substitute for farmyard manure.

THEY WANTED MORE.

But the population continued to grow. More and more food was required. The sulphate of ammonia began to fall short of the land's needs. The supply could not be increased. And so famine again loomed ahead.

Then came the providential discovery in Chili of the nitrate of sodium, or Chili saltpetre. But, great as the store of nitrate is, it became evident that it could not last many years. No other natural source of manure is known to exist, and it seemed that by the year 1925 the produce of wheat, oats, barley, maize, potatoes, and even beef and mutton, milk, butter, and cheese would be reduced to something like one-third of the present produce. Of course, long before that time there would be scarcity, high prices, hunger, and perhaps a world-wide war for the possession of the nitrate mines.

That was the catastrophe that threatened the world. How has it been averted? This is one of the most marvellous stories in the whole of science.

In the air around us is an apparently lazy, inert gas called nitrogen. Four-fifths of the air consists of this gas, and it is so abundant that no less than 3,000 tons of it float over every acre of ground. It is a most unsociable body. Only the greatest force at the command of the chemist will make it combine with other elements. And as soon as it is wedded it does everything in its power to get free. That is why gunpowder and dynamite explode. The nitrogen which is part of them awaits only the opportunity to

SEPARATE AND LIVE ALONE.

We must eat nitrogen to live. We eat it in the flesh of other animals or in plants. These animals eat it in plants, and the plants get it from the soil. Whence does the soil get its nitrogen?

Now, although there are 34,000 tons of nitrogen over every acre, neither plant nor animal can get one grain weight of it from the atmosphere, because it exists there alone. It is then what the chemists call "free" nitrogen. In order that plants may make use of it, the nitrogen must become "fixed"—that is to say, it must become united with some other body, soda or lime. This it is not to do. But during millions of years past a quantity of it has so united. Every time a lightning flash passes through the air it pellets a very small quantity of nitrogen to unite with oxygen. brought down to the earth in rain, and there it enters in with soda or potash, or some other element.

Now, so long, of course, as there were few, there was sufficient the food of grasses and trees when the population of the world grew large, and people grew wheat and other grains. A store of nitrogen became used up.

TO CONQUER NITROGEN.

Farmyard manure is valuable because of the nitrogen it contains. That, too, is the reason the gas product—made from which is a vegetable body—Chili nitrate nourish plants. Therefore, the natural store of signs of running out, men set about the task of manure—that is, of forcing nitrogen of the air to unite with some other body; and, after many labor, their efforts, as we have seen, have been crowned with complete success.

In this way the world has been saved from famine. But close shaves, for if science had not been discovered twenty or thirty years later, starvation was inevitable.—LONDONERS.

RHEUMATISM IN THE B

Liniments and Rubbing W Cure It—The Disease Mu Treated Through the Bl

The trouble with men and women who have rheumatism is that they waste valuable time in rubbing the complaint away. Rub hard enough the friction warms the affected part temporarily relieves the pain, but in a short time the aches and pains are as bad as ever. Rubbing, and all the liniment outward applications in the world won't cure rheumatism, because it is rooted in the blood. I won't remove the poisonous blood that causes the trouble. But Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because they are a blood purifier acting on the blood. That is why the aches and pains and swollen points of rheumatism disappear when these pills are used. Why sensible people waste their time in rubbing, but take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills when the first signs of rheumatism come on, and speedily drive the trouble out of their system. Mr. John E. Kempt Road, Halifax, N. S. W. "About three years ago I had an attack of rheumatism which was in my right leg and ankle and became very much swollen and exceedingly painful. I wasted a good deal of time trying to get rid of the trouble by rubbing with liniments, but it did not do me any good. My daughter was using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the time and finally persuaded me to try them. Inside of a week the pain began to help me, and after a few weeks longer the trouble completely disappeared. It has not bothered me since. My daughter was also taking the pills at the time for weakness and anemia, was also cured by them. I am now a firm friend of this medicine."

Most of the troubles that afflict mankind are due to poor, impure blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills naturally make new red blood. This is why they cure anaemia with its headaches and backaches, and dizziness and fainting spells; pangs of rheumatism, and the stabbing pains of neuralgia; indigestion, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis and the ailments of young girls and women of mature years. King Edward and Queen Alexandra have been married longer than any other pair of crowned heads in Europe.

"I presume," said the lodge keeper, "at the conclusion of the little dispute with his landlady, 'I presume that you will allow me to take my belongings away with me?' 'I am sorry,' was the icy reply, 'but your other collar has not yet come home from the laundry.'"
