HORRORS OF EMPRESS OF IRELAND DISASTER DEPICTED BY CAMERA

Herewith we present the horrors attending the great Empress of Ireland disaster, in which 960 lives were lost when that vessel went to the bottom of the St. Lawrence River after a collision with the Storstad. In the photograph are shown bodies of the victims lying on the pier at Rimouski. It is the first picture received from that point.

PRISON FARM SCHEME IS NOT FAVORED

Was Presented by Delegates From Neighboring Places

County Council Struck Estimates For Year Today.

A delegation interested in the movement to establish a prison farm for the local counties, after the style of the Guelph prison farm, waited upon the County Council yesterday afternoon with a view to getting the Brant County interested in the scheme, of which several surrounding counties approve. The delegation consisted of R. Squire of Norfolk, Jacob Goble of Norfolk, L. E. Weaver of Waterloo, N. B. Detwiler of Berlin, Dr. D. R. Stauffer of Oxford. Opening their arguments, Mr. Squire said he was one of a group who styled themselves a joint committee of investigation. That committee was not complete and they came asking for its Brantford complement. He did not come to shed much light upon the system of prison reform, which had not been shed before, but rather to ask something of the council. That was, if they thought the Meeting on Saturday Night

A meeting of Conservatives will take place in the Borden Club hall, corner of King and Dalhousie streets, on Saturday night, at 8 o'clock. This, as usual, will be a rousing gathering, and a cordial invitation is extended to friends of the Whitney Government. Speeches will be made by Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., Mr. W. S. Brewster, K.C., Mayor Spence and others.

L. E. & N. Has Opposition

Galt is Objecting to Carving Up of Beautiful Park.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] GALT, June 5.—The proposed continuation of the Lake Erie and Northern Railway to the C. P. R. main line means that the line will go through the centre of Jackson Park one of the town's most beautiful grounds. The parks commission will take the matter up with the industrial committee of the Council, and no doubt there will be a strong objection from the citizens to the railway interfering with the park. When the new line reaches the C. P. R. main line tracks it will run parallel towards the east for some distance.

TRADE MEN HAD A FINE TIME IN CITY

Greeted by Brass Band on Arrival at the Station.

Pleasant Intercourse Between Live Wires of Two Cities.

Heralded by music from the 13th Royal Regimental band of Hamilton and the Dufferin Rifles Band, the delegation from the Hamilton Board of Trade on an industrial tour of inspection over Western Ontario, arrived in Brantford last evening on their way back to the Ambitious City, and were conveyed in triumph through the streets of the city in automobiles provided by the members of the local Board of Trade, whose guests the Hamilton men were. The Hamiltonians 180 strong, accompanied by their regimental band, they took with them on the three days trip, arrived at the T. H. and B. station at 7 o'clock in a special Pullman train. A large number of the members of the Brantford board were there to receive and welcome them, including Reg. Scarie, president of the board; W. F. Cockshutt, M.P.; W. S. Brewster, M.P.P.; Mayor Spence and others. Chief among the visiting members might be mentioned: D. B. Wood, president; G. C. Copley, vice-president; G. E. Main, treasurer and T. L. Brown, secretary. As soon as the welcoming and handshaking was over, the procession of automobiles formed, headed by the 13th and 38th regimental bands and proceeded up Market and Colborne streets to the Armouries where the bands dropped out. The party then continued on up Brant avenue to St. Paul's avenue to the Institution for the blind, then around and down Brant avenue again to Dalhousie street and down Dalhousie where the visitors were given the opportunity of seeing the beautiful new government building. From this point the party were escorted along Chatham street, and passed the many fine residences which won many a word of admiration from the visitors. They then returned by way of Colborne street to the Armouries. Here a crowded arena awaited them. Both galleries and floor were packed with citizens listening to the splendid music provided by the two bands. The first two numbers on the programme were given in unison by the two bands. Bandmaster Wm. F. Robinson of the 13th conducting the first joint number and Bandmaster Frank Johnson

Wireless Telephones On the French Navy

Two Officers Claim to Have Solved the Problem Five Years Ago and it is Now Perfected--A Useful Invention.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] PARIS, June 5.—By means of a wireless telephone apparatus invented by two naval officers, Commander Victor Colin and Lieut. Maurice Jeune, conversations were carried on yesterday over a distance of 150 miles. The words came with greater distinctness, it is said, than is customary even over a telephone connected by wire, the speaker's voice being clearly recognizable. The inventors of the new apparatus succeeded in transmitting speech by wireless five years ago. Their instruments were installed in the French battleships Verite and Justice, but they could not be depended upon, chiefly owing to the variable quality of the oscillations of the Hertzian waves. By experiment, the inventors finally succeeded in overcoming the difficulties by means of an attachment which filters the waves. They declare that any number of posts can exchange conversations at the same time without interfering with each other by slightly varying the respective wave lengths. While antennae measuring 150 feet are necessary for long distance transmission, conversations can be received on the small apparatus which is used by many persons to catch the Eiffel Tower time signals. Successful tests of an extensive character were carried out today between Paris and a receiving station installed in a country house at Mettracq, near Tours.

A GOVERNMENT THAT DOES THINGS

NO. 4—SCHOOL BOOK MONOPOLY DESTROYED.

When the Whitney Government came into office they found that a School Book Monopoly existed, and that the people were being milked accordingly. They soon changed that. They appointed a commission to investigate a condition of affairs extending under a Liberal Government for over twenty years, and the disclosures were astonishing.

Thereupon the Administration made these pledges:

1. To establish a single text system of authorized school books.
2. To control the publication of these books and of any alterations in their contents.
3. To improve the mechanical production of text books.
4. To improve the mechanical production of text books.

All these things have been done.

LARGE SAVINGS TO PURCHASERS OF PUBLIC SCHOOL BOOKS.

It is estimated by a careful computation on the basis of the numbers of the new authorized text books sold from the making of each contract to the end of 1913, compared with an equal number of the old books, that the savings on these books during the full term of the contracts will be as follows:

Public School Readers, a saving of over.....	$370,000
Copy Books, a saving of over.....	102,000
Arithmetic, a saving of over.....	107,000
Grammar, a saving of over.....	64,000
Speller, a saving of over.....	59,000
Geography, a saving of over.....	59,000
Hygiene, a saving of over.....	13,000
History, a saving of over.....	68,000

LARGE SAVINGS TO PURCHASERS OF HIGH SCHOOL BOOKS.

A careful estimate of the total savings on High School books computed on the same basis as that used in the estimate for Public School books gives the following remarkable figures:

Arithmetic, a saving of over.....	$29,000
Algebra, a saving of over.....	20,000
Geometry, a saving of over.....	25,800
Latin, a saving of over.....	23,000
Ancient History, a saving of over.....	7,500
Chemistry, a saving of over.....	3,800
Physical Geography, a saving of over.....	26,000
Bookkeeping, a saving of over.....	7,000
Reader, a saving of over.....	9,000
English Grammar, a saving of over.....	31,000
English Composition, a saving of over.....	6,000
History of England, a saving of over.....	20,000
French Grammar, a saving of over.....	17,000
German Grammar, a saving of over.....	5,900

TOTAL SAVINGS OF OVER ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

Without including the total savings on the drawing books, which will exceed $20,000, the savings on public school text books during the term of the present contracts will exceed $845,500; and the savings on High School books will exceed $303,000. The total savings on all authorized text books during the terms of the contracts will exceed $1,168,000. Deducting from this total the cost to the province in the form of payments to authors, printers and electrotypers, there will remain a net saving of at least $1,150,000. (Quoted from an official return presented to the Legislature, April, 1914.)

All this has been accomplished, it should be remembered, not by publishing inferior books, because they are better in literary merit, quality of paper, printing and binding than the old issues.

In fact, they have attracted most favorable comment, not only in Canada, but in the States and Great Britain. Two other provinces have also adopted them. If you appreciate what the Whitney Government has done in this matter you will vote for Brewster and Westbrook.

BRANTFORD LABOR MEN ARE NOT FOOLED SO EASILY

Refuse to Have So Called Head of I. L. P. Speak For Them in Matter of Their Franchise.

The following letters speak for themselves and plainly show that Brantford labor men are not being fooled by partizan Grit declarations, which are labelled as coming from official labor sources:

Editor of The Courier:

Sir,—I was more than surprised to find the chairman of the Independent Labor party supporting the Grit candidate in forthcoming provincial election. What kind of an "independent" organization is this that allows one of its most prominent men to break one of its cardinal principles. I understand that the I.L.P. does not allow its members to support any other political organization. I would like to ask: "Is the Rowell party a political organization, or is it only a pink tea or 'brothers' meeting?"

Surely the workmen of this city, have been humbugged enough by so-called labor leaders, without this latest piece of political thimbleregion, the part of the chairman of Tuesday's meeting of the Independent Labor Party. To add insult to injury he states that the labor men of this city will do as he does in this matter. Well, here is one that will not anyhow, and I could find a good few more just as good labor men as said chairman of I.L.P. Are Brantford's workmen to be a laughing stock from coast to coast? No, say I for one.

Yours,
RICHARD J. GADSBY.
Another One.

Editor of The Courier:

Are we to understand that the "Independent" Labor party consents to be dragged through the mire at the coat-tails of the Rowellites?

Yours truly,
FRANK BUSH.

Editor of The Courier:

Sir,—Who is the so-called chairman of the Independent Labor party of Brantford, who has the audacity to declare that because he, a life-long Grit, and as I understand, one of the Grit heeled in Ward Two, is going to vote in the same old way as he has always voted, Brantford labor men are going to be so ridiculous as to follow suit?

I know dozens of workmen union men at that, who are highly incensed at the suggestion that they could be so easily gulled.

Yours,
Moulder.

SIX PLACES FOR REGISTRATION ARE ANNOUNCED

Registration will take place June 10, 11, 12, 13.

INLAND REVENUE RETURNS TO DATE

There is a General Falling Off Reported in Excise Goods at the Brantford Office.

The monthly returns for the Inland Revenue office covering the month of May, show a continuance of the general falling off in all lines of excise goods, now prevalent over Canada. For May, 1914, the figures are: Spirits, $3,450; malt, $650; tobacco, $1,575; meth. spirits, $465. For May, 1913 the figures were: Spirits, $3,550; malt, $600; tobacco, $2,250; meth. spirits, $475.

This general falling off in the returns, Inland Revenue Officer O'Donahue stated this morning, was due to the general business depression now prevalent over Canada. The above goods are luxuries to the majority of people, and when there is but little money in the pocket, the sales of tobacco, etc., generally falls off.

ESTIMATES FOR COUNTY STRUCK THIS MORNING

Total Expenditure of $33,600 is Required For Current Year.

The County Council resumed its adjourned sitting this morning when the estimates and assessments were dealt with. A new by-law re the equalization of the Assessment Rolls of the different townships and town in the County of Brant was passed, and the results of the business was as follows:

Town of Paris.....	$ 1786.008
Township of Brantford, 71-369 acres at $2.00.....	3,711.188
Township of Brantford, 66-702 acres at $46.....	3,068.292
Township of South Dumfries, 46,625 acres at $52.....	2,424,500
Township of nondaga, 20-465 acres at $50.....	1,025,250
Township of Oakland, 10-663 acres at $48.....	511,824
Total sum.....	$12,525,122

In the event of any minor municipality appealing from their equalization, the council is willing to have the equalization made by the County Judge.

The estimate submitted and passed for the current year were also under consideration by the council and they were passed as drawn up by the Chairman of the finance committee, Hudson Jennings.

The Estimates. To the Warden and Councillors of the County of Brant:

Gentlemen,—Your Council in Committee of the Whole beg to report that the estimates of the expenditure and income for the current year be as follows:

Administration of Justice.....	$10,500.00
Roads and Bridges.....	2,500.00
Miscellaneous Grants:
North Brant Agricultural Society.....	$ 150.00
South Brant Agricultural Society.....	150.00
Onondaga Agricultural Society.....	100.00
South Brant Farmers Institute.....	25.00
North Brant Farmers' Institute.....	25.00
Total.....	$13,575.00

BRANTFORD MAN STRIKES BIGGEST GAS WELL IN ALL CANADA

(Special to the Courier) OIL SPRINGS, Ont., June 5.—The company in which W. J. Aikens and other Brantfordites are interested has just struck the largest gas well ever discovered in Canada. It is estimated to have a capacity of forty million feet a day, which is a sufficient supply of pure gas now for Brantford, London, St. Thomas, Berlin, and all intervening towns. The roar of gas from the casing head can be heard ten miles away. Experts are now engaged endeavoring to cap in the well. When the gas was struck the pressure blew the drill, weighing thousands of pounds, through the top of the derricks, causing all present to run for their lives. They estimate a loss of ten thousand dollars already until the well is got under control.

Ancient Church In Derbyshire is Gone

Believed to Have Been the Work of Militants—Edifice Dated Back to Norman Times and Contained Many Antiquities of Great Worth.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] DERBY, Eng., June 5.—The ancient and historic church at Breadsall, dating back to Norman times and containing many priceless relics, was destroyed by fire during the night. While no direct evidence was obtainable that the fire was started by suffragettes, they are suspected by the authorities as explosionists similar to those caused by the bombs usually employed by the "arson squad" were heard before the fire was discovered. It was pointed out that some weeks, a suffragette meeting in the village of Breadsall was broken up by boys and it is generally believed that the women destroyed the church for vengeance. Among the things consumed by the flames was an ancient chained bible which was unique in Derbyshire, while monuments to Erasmus Darwin, the poet, and the grandfather of Charles Darwin, the famous naturalist, and other Derbyshire notables were ruined. Fortunately however, the church register, dating back to 1523, was saved, as it was kept in the rectory, which escaped the flames.

CATARACT WANTS ECHO FRANCHISE

On Such Basis Private Company Will Supply Light to That District.

The regular meeting of the Echo Place Improvement Association, was held last night in Mohawk Park School, reports of various committees were received, an judging from these reports there will be something doing in the very near future.

Mr. Jas. McCormick, chairman of the Sidewalk committee, stated that the tenders would be opened June 10th, by the Township Council, and that the sidewalk in Echo Place would be the first ones to be laid. The dust committee working in conjunction with the Road Committee from the reports handed in last night shows that they have been working very faithfully since the last meeting. Mr. Andrews of the Queen City Oil Co., was present last night to give the members information as to the cost and the proper way and methods of oiling the roads. This information was very much appreciated. The committee on this matter will meet Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Bayless, and will give the oiling of the Hamilton Road.

President Morley Myers advised the members of the Association that they could go ahead and spend all the Statute Labor money due from property holders on the Hamilton Road to repair said road. This matter was left to relatives in San Francisco, Mr. Deakin is a native of England and intends to return to the old country this fall, being interested in the canning industry there.

John Fisher of California, has arrived in the city on a visit to his son-in-law, John Gatchel, and will remain here until after the Old Boys' reunion. Mr. Fisher is one of the early members of the fire department in Brantford, possibly the oldest surviving.

WON SCHOLARSHIPS

Two Brantford Boys Carried Off High Honors at Toronto University.

Two Brantford Collegiate young men were highly successful in their recent examinations at Toronto University in the second year. In mathematics E. W. Patton won the first scholarship, and in Political Science, Earl Biggar carried off a similar prize. Both young men are to be heartily congratulated and their record reflects well upon the Brantford Collegiate Institute, which they left to enter the University.

Nuptial Notes

WARD—RAMSBOTTOM.

A pretty wedding was held at Grace church on Wednesday afternoon when Miss Gertrude Ward, only daughter of Mr. Ward, 135 Eagle Avenue, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. Charles Ramsbottom, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Ramsbottom, 216 St. Paul's Avenue, the ceremony being performed by the Venerable Archdeacon Mackenzie at 2 p.m. The bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Charles Ward, was beautifully attired in Alice blue silk with hat to match and was carrying a shower bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Wilkinson, who was attired in blue silk also carrying a bouquet of roses. The little flower girl was Dorothy Moon and was prettily attired in pale blue silk and was carrying a basket of roses. The groom was ably supported by his brother Harry Ramsbottom.

Following the ceremony the supper was held at the home of the bride's mother, after which the happy couple left on the 6.35 p.m. train for Detroit where the honeymoon is being spent. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends.

W. H. A. Meets

The Women's Hospital Aid held a meeting this morning in the Public Library when a very good quorum was formed. The ladies were principally concerned with routine business this morning, and the visitors appointed for the month were Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Tisdale. This was the last meeting of the W. H. A. before September and in the meantime a committee will see that the lady visitors are appointed. An extended report will be given later.

OVERWORK AND WORRY

A Fruitful Source of Broken Down Constitutions.

A little worry does a great deal of harm. Overwork and worry gives rise to headaches, nervousness, sleeplessness, weak back, lack of interest in your work, indigestion and sometimes a complete breakdown of the nervous system leading to paralysis. If these are your symptoms you need a tonic. And the only way to tone up the nerves is through the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a direct nerve tonic because they make new rich red blood which feeds the nerves and strengthens every organ in the body. Under the tonic influence of these pills nervousness (and all the other evils of worry and overwork) quickly disappear. They restore the digestion and enable the body to take full advantage from the food eaten.

Mrs. J. C. Chapman, Omemee, Ont., says: "I became completely run-down and my nervous system shattered from overwork and worry. I always felt tired and exhausted and slept badly at night. I tried several medicines but did not find the hoped for relief. Then I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I took them regularly for several months and they restored me to perfect health, and I have since been well and strong. I can recommend these pills to any afflicted with nervousness or a broken constitution as I feel sure they will constitute a cure."

These Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE COURIER'S DAILY FASHION HINT.

Golf Notes

On Saturday afternoon next the qualifying round for the Fitton Cup will be played off on the arrival of the 2 p.m. car, and up to arrival of the 3 p.m. car. Eight lowest net scores to qualify, medal play. Mr. Schell is the present holder of this handsome trophy.

New handicaps have been arranged and the generous conditions in favor of the less experienced players, should give every one a show and bring out a big field.

A Novel Match.

Quite a novel golf match will be played to-morrow afternoon at Galt when a team of Toronto managers from the Bank of Commerce staff will play the Galt club. Mr. Laird, the general manager and Mr. Aird, the assistant general manager will be on the team of twelve players. Mr. H. W. Fitton of this city will be a guest at the luncheon to be given to the Toronto bankers.

Victorian Order

The local branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses held their monthly meeting on Wednesday June 3rd in the Public Library. There are now three nurses belonging to the Order engaged in the city.

The management hope a good deal of educative work may be carried on with the regular nursing, especially in this necessary in the care and feeding of young children, and if properly attended to would greatly lessen the morality among infants during the summer months.

An increased membership at the present time would be most encouraging and the Treasurer, Mrs. Henderson would gladly receive the fee of fifty cents, which, apart from the money, would enlarge the interest in the Society.

The following is a partial account of the nurses' report for May: Number of new cases 72; total cases nursed during month, 91; cases of more than one visit, 46; average daily hours on duty 8 1/4. Total number night cases, 28; nursing visits during month 376.

FOR THE SURVIVORS
TORONTO, June 5.—The Board of Control decided to-day to recommend to the council that the vote $25,000 to a relief fund for the survivors of the Empress of Ireland wreck. The money may eventually go to a general Canadian fund, but this was not decided.

CONGREGATIONAL WOMEN MEET

Canada Wide Conference on Missions is Taking Place in This City.

The twenty-eighth annual meeting of the Canada Congregational Women's Board of Missions officially opened its sessions yesterday morning in the Congregational Church. Delegates from all parts of Canada and a few others from foreign lands assembled for the purpose of discussing matters of interest to missions and learn of the needs and progress of the work in other climes.

A preparatory conference of mission band workers was held in the church parlors, Mrs. E. A. Cale of Toronto presiding. Addresses of instructive interest on mission band leaders and workers were delivered by Mrs. Cale and Mrs. McLean of Toronto and Mrs. Dr. McEwen of Maxville.

Committees Named. The following committees were selected: Minute secretaries—Miss T. M. Mealt, Toronto; Mrs. J. W. Wickson, Toronto.

Finance committee—Miss Thompson, Toronto; Miss Daville, Hamilton; Miss Marion Veigh, Brantford. Press—Miss Veigh, Miss Silcox, Toronto; Mrs. Davage, Westport. Credentials—Miss Cline, Brantford; Miss Silcox, Toronto. Business—Mrs. J. D. Nasmith, Toronto; Mrs. H. E. Huene, Ottawa; Mrs. Charles Guid, Montreal; Miss Richardson, Guelph; Mrs. Veigh, Brantford; Mrs. McEwen, Maxville; Miss McCallum, Kingston; Mrs. Malcolm, Scotland; Mrs. Bahuen, Berlin. Nominating—Mrs. Black, Montreal; Mrs. H. Wickson, Toronto; Mrs. Oldham, Brantford.

Resolutions—Mrs. J. T. Daley, Cobourg; Mrs. Black, Montreal; Miss T. Heff, Hamilton; Mrs. J. Lyle, Speedside; Mrs. C. A. McLean, Toronto; Mrs. Thompson, Toronto; Mrs. J. A. Stevenson, London; Mrs. J. T. Field, Cobourg; Mrs. Barlow, Kingston. Last night the delegates were entertained to dinner in the school room of the church. Rev. Mr. Kelly acted as chairman, and greetings were extended to the delegates by Mrs. G. A. Woodside, representing the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Geo. Hatley, from the Anglican church. To-night Mr. W. C. Bell, missionary from Central Africa, will give an address on his work there. The sessions to-day were taken up with the discussion of mission on boards, bands, missionary literature, etc.

Will Teach All Boys The Art of Swimming

Local Y.M.C.A. Makes This Offer and It Comes at a Very Opportune Time
 At this opportune moment, the Y. M. C. A. comes forward with the announcement that they will teach free of charge, any boy in Brantford the correct way to swim. This step has been taken as it has been felt that thousands of lives would be saved annually in ocean disasters if there was a more general knowledge of swimming.

Local News

Mrs. N. E. Fountain left yesterday to visit her sister Mrs. (Rev.) G. E. Gullen Detroit.

A. Alexander and wife of Millbro, Wash., are visiting in the city and are at the Kerby House.

Mr. Phillip Lawlor was reported as much improved this morning. He is still confined to his bed at the Salvation Army Headquarters on Darling street but his condition is not regarded as serious.

Weekly Markets to Start Soon. The Tuesday and Thursday markets will start again in about two weeks at City Market Clerk McAuley this morning. Hay is now the only produce on the market on these days and it is still selling at from $10 to $12 per ton.

Allowed Their Freedom. All the small pox patients in the isolation hospital were released by order of Dr. F. G. E. Pearson, M. H. O. this morning. There were only three of them, but they seemed as glad to get out of the confines of the hospital as if they were leaving the county prison.

Fire To-day. The Central Hall firemen had a run to 105 Pearl street at 1:03 noon today when an alarm from Box 36 came in. On arriving at the scene they found the back part of the attic of the two-story brick house occupied by Charles Tucker on fire. By breaking a hole in the ceiling they managed to get at the fire with one stream and chemicals and soon had the blaze extinguished. The total loss will be in the neighborhood of $20. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Grand View Improvements. The regular monthly meeting of the Grand View Improvement Association was held last night at which there was a large attendance of members present. President W. Eastcott presided. The matter of securing postal delivery for Grand View was discussed at some length, and a committee was appointed to wait on the city merchants and get their endorsement of a scheme for postal delivery. A committee was also appointed to see the property owners in the district regarding the trimming of trees.

Laid at Rest

The Late Frank Giddens. The Rev. T. E. Leitch conducted the last services held over the remains of the late Frank Giddens whose funeral took place yesterday at Greenwood from the family residence on Park avenue. Many friends showed their respect by observing the last obsequies and flowers presented to the memory of the deceased were numerous.

Late Mrs. Whitehead. The funeral of the late Mrs. Whitehead took place this morning to Greenwood cemetery upon the arrival of the remains at the Grand Trunk station from Montreal. Archdeacon Mackenzie held impressive services over the body at Grace church, after which the cortege proceeded to the cemetery where interment took place. The pall bearers were George and James Wilkes, W. T. Henderson, Geo. Hatley, E. L. Gould and F. Bishop. The funeral, which was private, was quietly conducted throughout.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST LAND REGULATIONS

ANY PERSON who is the sole head of a family, or may make over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Land Agency or Sub-Agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any Agency on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader must live within five miles of his homestead on a farm of five miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.
 In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section along side his homestead. Price $5.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-emption six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent), and cultivate 20 acres extra.
 A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption, may enter for a purchased homestead in certain districts, price $5.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $500.00.

J. W. Westbrook Has Made Good at Toronto

Mr. John Wesley Westbrook, who represented North Brant in the last Ontario House and is again a candidate by unanimous choice, is a well known farmer of Brantford Township, east of Cainsville. He is young in years, in fact very few men indeed, attain parliamentary honors at so early a period in life as he has, but though still youthful, he has had considerable and successful experience in public affairs.

The son of the late W. D. Westbrook, he was born on January 29th, 1880, and has consequently just passed his 34th. milestone. He took a common school education, and afterwards pursued home studies. He has farmed all his life most successfully, and when he reached manhood he commenced to take a keen interest in municipal affairs. He first ran for the Brantford Township Council when 23 years old, and was successful. For six years he remained on that body, three times after a contest and three times by acclamation. For the two years prior to his selection as a party candidate he was Reeve, and had also been a member of the County Council, occupying the important position of chairman of Finance for that body.

When Mr. Fisher, M. P. left the Local House to enter the Federal arena, there was some competition for the honor of becoming standard bearer, but Mr. Westbrook won out, and the wisdom of that choice has since been fully demonstrated. He entered the chamber at Toronto when he was 31 and was the "baby" of the House. Last time he held this old historic Liberal riding by 176, and the indications all point to the fact that he is likely to do even better on this occasion.

North Brant's Candidate For Good Government

J. W. WESTBROOK

At Toronto he is a member of the Public Accounts Committee, Private Bills Committee, Standing Orders Committee and Agricultural and Colonization Committee. He has been heard each session in debate to advantage.

He took an active part in helping to get through legislation making for the abatement of the sulphuretted gas nuisance, so obnoxious to the people of Brantford and Paris and vicinity, helped secure a district farm representative for Brant county, with headquarters in the neighboring town, and in addition has always been most courteous and solicitous towards his constituents, no matter on which side of politics.

He belongs to the Canadian Order of Foresters, and was the first member to be initiated in the new Masonic lodge in Onondaga last winter.

He is the possessor of a most pleasing personality and has developed splendidly as a public speaker. Altogether he is a forcible illustration of the fact that young men can be found on the farm fully capable of making excellent representatives. Those who have watched his career are confident that he has a notable future, and of course a majority of the people of North Brant, on Monday, June 29th, are going to see to it that this son of theirs retains a seat which he so worthily occupies.

Uncle Walt

The Poet Philosopher

INTO THE SUNLIGHT
Oh, cut out the vain repining, cease thinking of dole and doom! Come out where the sun is shining, come out of the cave of gloom! Come out of your hole and borrow a package of joy from me, and say to your secret sorrow, "I've no longer use for thee!" For troubles, which are deluding, are timorous beasts, I say; they stick to the gent who's brooding, and flee from the gent who's gay. The ways of Eldorado are open to all clear the earth; come out of the House of Shadows, and dwell in the House of Mirth. From Boston to far Bobcaygeon the banners of gladness float; oh, grief is a rank contagion, and mirth is the antidote. And most of our woes would perish, or leave us, on sable wings, if only we didn't cherish and coddle the blame fool

WORTH FIGHTING FOR.

In connection with the present Provincial contest, two former members have failed of re-nomination—McNaught in Toronto and Hon. Dr. Reaume in Windsor (a new constituency, while in other instances there have been keen fights for the privilege of carrying the standard. The Toronto Globe smacks its lips over this, and states that it is clear that the "Conservative party is disintegrating."

Nonsense. Men don't seek to carry the flag of a party which is going to pieces. Competition is the healthy sign that the Whitney Government is worth fighting for.

Take on the other hand the case of the Rowellites. In more than one riding they have failed to secure a straight party candidate and in others—South Brant for instance—they have not been able to obtain any old timer from their own ranks.

The situation is most decidedly not one over which the Conservatives have any cause to worry.

ROWELL OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN

The opposition leader made his opening address of the campaign last night in Toronto before a large audience. Liberals can always get that in the Queen City, but not the votes or the members.

Referring to the three big issues mentioned in the manifesto issued by Sir James Whitney, Mr. Rowell said in effect—

1.—Workmen's Compensation Act, "a most important and far reaching measure," but brought about by the Liberals.

2.—Good Roads Act, also brought about by the Liberals.

3.—The question of hydro radicals, "a most important one affecting both city and town," but first urged by the Liberals.

Having thus coolly appropriated the other fellows clothes to his own smug satisfaction, Mr. Rowell stated that in the coming fight social issues were foremost. The first, he remarked, was decline in rural life and he promised a commission to look into the whole matter. Just how a commission is going to force people to stay on the farm if they don't want to is somewhat difficult to figure out. The one true solution is to encourage agriculture in a natural way, and to do everything possible to enhance interest and convenience. This the Whitney Government is doing in a variety of ways. Hydro Electric, "Beck's hired man," is already proving a great boon to many farmers, and the number making use of it is bound to steadily increase. As compared with the last year of Liberal rule, 1904, appropriations to help agriculture have increased from $475,678 to $1,252,132, or over one hundred and fifty per cent. Moreover, whereas nothing was secured for agriculture from the Federal Government in 1904, in 1913 the sum of $230,880 was thus obtained. There were no district representatives in 1904 to bring farmers in close touch with the information gained at Agricultural Colleges, and experimental stations, whereas there are now 40. There were no educational courses for young men on the farm during winter time, whereas there are now 30. There were no school fairs to interest boys and girls, while in 1914 there will be 150. There were no acre profit competitions for young men, no demonstration orchards (forty in vogue last year), no field crop competitions (competitors last year 3,500), no egg circles (50 last year), no beekeeping demonstrations and so on. When Mr. Rowell therefore seeks to claim that the present administration has done nothing for agriculture, he is talking so much guff.

Tax reform was another advocacy, and in this regard the speaker declared that "appalling slum conditions were now growing up in Canadian cities." Where?

Mr. Rowell's next great plank was giving married women owning property, a vote municipally, and then he waded into his "abolish the bar" program. That policy he forced on his own party without even a by your leave, and that is why leading Liberals, such as Mr. Pettypiece, ex-M.P.P., Hal, Donly who has more than once been a Liberal candidate in Norfolk, and others, are so open in their objections. These men do not hesitate to affirm that the issue should never have been made a party one, but be handled aside from politics, so that men of all political faiths could get together.

The Liberal leader, during his remarks, more than once intimated that he considered the Province to be in a very bad way indeed. Here is a sample of his lachrymose feelings—

"The two and a half years during which I have been privileged to occupy a seat in the Legislature and to lead a small but gallant band who were my followers in the House—during that period I have travelled from one end of this Province to the other, and I want to give you as my firm conviction that never in recent years has there been such a stirring in the minds and hearts of the people of this province, such a spirit of unrest, and dissatisfaction with existing conditions, such a groping at and looking forward to some change that will improve the conditions, as there is in the Province of Ontario to-day."

Birthdays of Note

FRIDAY, JUNE FIFTH

The Hon. J. D. Hazen, K.C., Minister of Marine and Fisheries, was born at Oroonoto, Sussex County, New Brunswick, fifty-four years ago to-day.

A lawyer by profession, he became leader of the Conservative opposition in the provincial legislature in 1899 and on the defeat of the Liberals in 1908 was made premier. A good story is told about one of his provincial campaigns. He was speaking to a crowded meeting at Bathurst and was much annoyed by the frequent and purposeless interjections of "Hear, hear," by an intoxicated man in the audience. At last he got his opportunity. He was referring to a certain deal and said: "I hope that both briber and bribed are equally culpable. Where can you find a greater fool than either of them?" "Hear, hear," shouted the roysterer. "Thank you, sir, for the information," exclaimed the speaker. "I thoroughly agree with your verdict." The laugh that followed quite subdued the interrupter and Mr. Hazen went on without further trouble.

Also born to-day: Lord Mountstephen, born Duftown, Banffshire, Scotland, 1829.

Hon. W. C. Sutherland, Saskatoon, born Embro, Ont., 1865.

Judge Calder, Ashcroft, B.C., born Inverness, N.S., 1868.

Boys' Adventure in a boat

PRISON FARM SCHEME.

scheme worthy that they would appoint a man or perhaps two, as a representative or representatives upon their committee of investigation. He asked for a man who would report the work accomplished by the committee and who would bring it before the council and which, if found worthy, would ask the council to support the committee financially. He mentioned the fact that surrounding counties had supported prison scheme. He compared the modern prison with the farm existence he advocated. It was antiquated and in centuries had not gone forward with the advance of modern ideas. Statistics compared with the two methods, showed that the prison farms gave better results. Ordinary imprisonment degraded and did not elevate prisoners. He held that citizens were not doing their duty when they allowed this sort of thing to go on. It was much better to have prisoners actively employed as on a prison farm than to have them idling the time as often happened in modern prisons.

The committee was not yet complete and they were looking for more members and they asked that Brant County be represented.

Mr. Weaver, another delegate dealt briefly with the financial side of the scheme. Government prison farms were much cheaper than ordinary prisons, as they maintained themselves to a great extent. The committee was not of complete power yet but they had land under consideration, anywhere from 200 to 1,000 acres as might be required. They had to look for land for facilities for work. Land could be purchased cheaply and $26,000 had been set aside for that purpose. The cost of maintenance would be slight as prisoners with their work would support themselves. The buildings required, would not be palaces, but they would be comfortable.

The costs to the ratepayer on a prison of this kind would be halved. Details would be gone into when the committee was formed.

Mr. D. R. Stauffer, also discoursed upon the merits of the proposed prison farm and said that he had delved into the matter for over a year and the more he went into it the more sure he was that it was a great benefit to the men whom it was their intention to benefit. It was no palace, just industrious and comfortable, simple and good. It had not the stigma of a prison, and would be used in the cases of minor offences with sentences up to two years. He also pointed out the desirability of Brant County joining in the scheme thus forming a circle of counties voting for the prison farm) So far this county had been a gap in the line.

Discussion upon the matter did not follow but the consensus of opinion seemed to be in favor of the scheme and delegates will probably be appointed. The Council will decide on the matter to-day.

The forenoon session was occupied with routine business and the minutes of the last meeting were read. Those present were Councillors Cook and Burtis of Oakland; Warden Milne of Burford; Councillors Jennings McKay and Greenwood of Brantford; Walker of Onondaga; Waite of South Dumfries; Stroud and Evans of Paris.

After a brief discussion Allan Mair Jackson was appointed as County Engineer.

The Registry Office has lately become very congested and the question of suitable housing the main document necessary therein, has become an acute one. Soon, however this condition of things may be remedied for the County Council decided yesterday that the question will be looked into and if necessary, plans will be drawn up for a suitable office on a suitable site. The report of the committee will come up at the next meeting. County engineer has for some time been found necessary to the County Council and Allan Mair Jackson has received the appointment.

The usual subscription to the Annual Winter Fair at Guelph was again granted. This means another $60 towards the prize money.

The County of Victoria has incurred an expense item of $32.56 in the case of Mrs. Christina Bowns, who was detained in an institution there and for this they sent in their account. If found correct the county will undertake the payment.

Motor vehicles would be more heavily rated if the Council was supreme for yesterday they endorsed a communication from the County of Dufferin to that effect.

WHAT THE BRANT DRAGOONS ARE DOING AT NIAGARA CAMP

SOME GOOD WORK

(By Staff Correspondent)

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE—The Dragoons camp, which commenced Saturday, has so far been a huge success. Up till yesterday no rain fell, and the health of men and horses are excellent.

Saturday saw the advance party under Q. M. Plummer and Q.M.S. Kingsley busily engaged erecting tents and marquees, draining and putting things into order for the Dragoons, who arrived on record time Monday morning.

A five minute stop was made at Falls View station, a concession much appreciated by both officers and men. The entraining and detraining of troops, the orderliness and disciplined manner in which they moved into quarters, was the subject of favorable comment by Lt. Col. Muir and staff.

A marquee, erected by Lieuts. Minnion and Watson is used as a mess room by the men, this dining convenience being far ahead of the tent messing system, and the food, to quote the men's words, "never was better." A glimpse of their table parties is alone convincing.

The four squadrons in camp, A, B, C, and D are pulled from Brantford, Brantford and Paris. They are well on their way as follows:

A Squadron: Major G. D. Smith, and Lieut. T. B. Landy; Lieut. H. J. Wilkes, Lieut. L. T. Bishop; Lieut. T. Minnion, 75 N.C.O.'s and men.

B Squadron (Paris): Major W. W. Patterson, Lieut. L. T. Saunders, Lieut. R. Thomson; Lieut. W. R. Patterson; 64 N.C.O.'s and men.

C Squadron (Brantford): Major W. T. Hearn; Capt. D. H. Second, Lieut. J. E. Latimer, Lieut. J. E. Stewart, Lieut. N. Virtue; 30 N. C. O.'s and men.

D Squadron (Brantford): Major H. F. Leonard; Capt. A. S. Towers, Lieut. H. W. Cocksbutt, Lieut. H. R. Watson, Lieut. C. W. Saunders, Lieut. H. A. Ellis; 75 N. C. O.'s and men.

Staff: Lt.-Col. F. M. Muir, commanding, Major A. T. Duncan, Major C. R. Muir, Capt. A. D. Muir, Capt. A. D. Chapin, Capt. A. B. Cutcliffe, Lieut. F. H. Pearce (chaplain), Capt. (the Rev.) H. F. D. Woodcock, M.A.

Divine service is held each morning from 6.45 to 7 o'clock, a time honored military custom.

On Tuesday the corps held a mounted parade, and were instructed in squadron movements and preliminary training. The afternoon was filled with dismounted action, scout, skirmishing and attack work.

Wednesday was set aside for musketry, and the men rode to the Missisquoi ranges where their class firing was held. After the shooting squadron manoeuvres were held on the new camp grounds.

Yesterday it poured up till twelve o'clock. The rain commencing after 10 o'clock on Wednesday night made a fearful mess of the horse lines. No morning parade was held and lectures for the officers and N.C.O.'s were conducted by Brigadier and staff.

The N.C.O.'s of the "Brants" were lectured by Adj. Medhurst on field training and general squadron and tactical work. His remarks were characterized with simplicity and brevity seldom found in staff lectures.

This year, owing to the shipping of horses in stock cars, the officers regret that many fine animals which otherwise would have been in the Dragoons, were held back by their owners, nevertheless, a walk around the camps convinces one they have by far the most serviceable animals at Niagara.

Throughout the regiment it is gratifying to remark the large number of ex-service men bearing decorations for Egypt, S. A. and other lesser campaigns.

The "cookhouse" is still as formerly, the call to which the men respond most eagerly.

At Niagara are present the 2nd Dragoons, 25th Brant Dragoons, and a brigade of rural infantry battalions. The 37th, 39th, 44th and 77th.

The 37th is the Indian regiment, and is reported to be one of the smartest present.

A notable old soldier present is Ex-Bugle Serjt. Badgett of the 44th. He is a hale, bright old fellow, carrying his fifty years of service lightly. His medals, which attract attention, are the Fenian Raid, N. W. campaign and 20 years decoration.

Echoes from Horse Lines

Trumpeter, when is 'lights out'?

When it's blown sure—and that's perfectly casual and correct—its 'lights out' when they are blown out.

Quartermaster Serjt, have you got any great coats?

"No sir,—Nor I haven't any shirt buttons, button hooks, needles, nothing?" "everybody runs to the Q.M.S. he adds apologetically, turning to the news man.

"Sergt-Major Danby's got a big grey horse"

Our Serjt. Major wears patent leather boots.

Glory, Glory, Halleujah!

Our Serjt. Major, he never tells the truth,

Glory, Glory, Halleujah!

Regimental dirty.

The above few lines of marching song have an interesting history. Pontius Pilot's "Bodyguard" was known to have sung them "While marching through the Georgia."

Squadron and cavalry chorus: "Our Squadron Officers, they never stood us a drink."

Glory, Glory, Halleujah!

The Niagara Peninsula Camp, though surrounded by water, has a "San Hughes" filtration system which automatically renders it "dead."

Truth is, the veterinary surgeon couldn't find an empty bottle to use in administering a colic-drug yesterday (?)

Lieut. C. W. Saunders is a dashing sub, equally at home in the leathers, or the lecture, in the evening.

Capt. Towers is gaining weight daily—he declares he feels well enough.

The Colonel remarked it was an 'arduous training'—the rain was coming down and from the muddied scratched lines of the troops, came snores of blissful rest.

There's a cream pony in (?) squadron—he scraped through the inspection and at first sight his hide looks as though he had scraped through somewhere.

Two men on sick list and the other 73 in squadron, dodging hospital duty of such stuff are our soldiers.

The Q.M.S. informed me he knew of a man who had taken two bottles of the local option beer, supplied in canteen and is still hale and hearty. Questioning all round the tents, failed to find the man—several spoke in a suspended breath about beer, and sobbed hysterically when I emphasized Local Option. Poor men, it's so wet outside, they must feel it inwardly to a great extent.

'A' squadron has a 'fat boy'—under age and nearly overweight—it is one of the many tactical parts of morning parade to see him mount.

A budding Blesley marksman, who was supplied with 241 gun-rags—nearly caused his S.M. to have an apoplectic fit—he tried to pull it all through at once.

Major Leonard didn't ask any news about the city hall—he seems contented far from his old familiar haunts.

Lt. Pearce has his signallers busy; the flag-waggers are going to 'helio' at a later practice.

'The little officer boy' runs the baseball team and gallops his charger; though a cavalryman, he has as yet never cut a lemon.

PARKS BOARD HOLDS MEETING

Members Are Hopeful That Railway Dispute Will Soon be Settled.

Railway matters were the chief item of business discussed at last night's meeting of the Parks Board held at the city hall. Chairman E. L. Gould was in the chair, and the following members present: G. S. Matthews, Franklin Grobb, William Glover and J. J. Hawkins.

A communication from the City Solicitor regarding the L. E. & N. railway and the sittings of the Dominion Railway Board, to be held here next Wednesday, June 10th. City Solicitor Hederson was present and explained the position of affairs, and exactly what the company is applying for, the overhead bridge to the boat-house and the using of the Parks land above Jubilee Terrace for a station. The Parks Board had previously appointed a committee to act in the matter with the solicitor. The secretary was instructed to prepare copies of the correspondence between the board and the railway company, in regard to the disputed matters. Up to date, all communications from the railway have been purely verbal.

A communication was received from the city council requesting that the Park Commissioners have Victoria and Alexandra Parks lighted from the Hydro Electric. The board was disposed to have this work done and it was thought that it would require four "large" lights in each park to light them up sufficiently.

A report of the meeting with Mrs. Livingston and other ladies regarding supervised playgrounds was adopted, and ordered to be written into the minutes.

Accounts amounting to $533.00 were passed and ordered paid.

The feeling of the board in regard to the railway question was one of relief, in view of the very strained relations for the past several months, and hope that the sittings of the Railway Commissioners to deal with the different matters may tend to bring about an amicable settlement. Meanwhile both parties are thoroughly prepared for the sitting of the commission.

City News Items.

County Court Adjourned.—County Court before Judge Hardy was adjourned from June 10th to June 22, owing to the holding of local registration courts.

Getting Ready for Camp

The B. C. I. Cadets are making great preparations for camp these days. Two companies under command of Captain Cliff Slemm, will leave for Niagara on July 1st.

Exhibition of Work.

An exhibition of the work of the industrial and manual training classes also art, domestic science and needle work classes is being given at the Collegiate this afternoon and evening.

Will Receive Degrees.

At the annual Commencement Exercises of the University of Toronto to-day, Messrs. T. Fleck Graham and G. M. Forde of this city, will receive final degrees from the Faculty of medicine.

Last Recruit Class

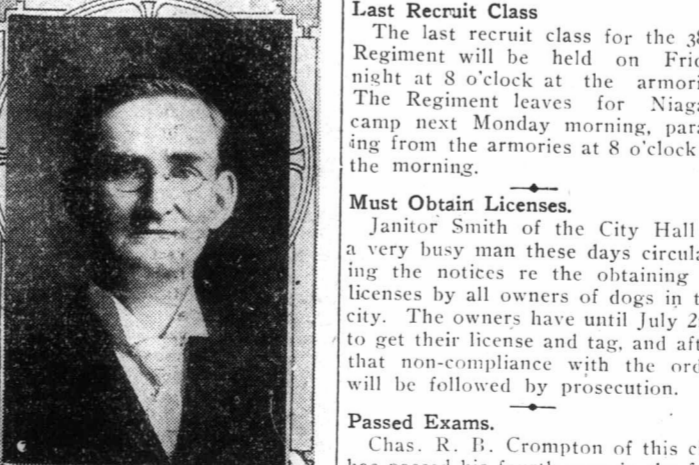

The last recruit class for the 38th Regiment will be held on Friday night at 8 o'clock at the armories. The Regiment leaves for Niagara camp next Monday morning, parading from the armories at 8 o'clock in the morning.

Must Obtain Licenses.

Janitor Smith of the City Hall is a very busy man these days circulating the notices re the obtaining of licenses by all owners of dogs in the city. The owners have until July 2nd to get their license and tag, and after that non-compliance with the order will be followed by prosecution.

Passed Exams.

Chas. R. B. Crompton of this city has passed his fourth year in the faculty of medicine at Toronto University, standing sixth in his class. In the same year, George M. Watt passed, but has two "sups" to write off in the fall. A. E. McEldonaid and N. W. Bragg passed their third year examinations.

Pastor R. H. Barber, of New York City, who will deliver a free lecture on "The Glorious Future of Earth and Man" at the Colonial Theatre on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hannon of Spring Street, Brantford, will Receive $1,125.

WINDSOR, June 5 — Two years ago Helen Marshall, a Brantford girl, was shot to death in Detroit, by her lover, Joseph Rosasco, because she refused to marry him after he had heaped upon her costly presents, including diamonds. Rosasco ended his own life immediately afterwards.

Parents of Miss Marshall made a claim against Rosasco's estate and the matter has dragged through the probate court until yesterday, when a settlement was reached.

Mrs. Marshall's parents will receive $1,125 from the heirs of the Rosasco estate in full settlement for damages.

Mrs. Marshall was the daughter of Edward Hannon, 101 Spring street, this city. The tragedy occurred on Good Friday night, April 5, 1912, in Detroit.

THE ACQUITANIA, SECOND LARGEST SHIP IN WORLD

Arrived in New York—Took No Chances in Danger- ous Ice Fields.

New York, June 5.—The Aquitania, the new liner of the Cunard Company, and the biggest ship afloat under the British flag, arrived at quarantine early to-day on her maiden voyage to this port. With her sister ships, the Mauretania and the Lusitania, the new vessel will operate between Liverpool and New York.

The Aquitania made good time down the Long Island coast last night after passing all danger of ice fields that held her speed on Wednesday and yesterday. Last wireless reports gave her average speed at 23.22 knots and for the 24 hours up to noon yesterday she covered 602 nautical miles.
The Aquitania is second in size to the Vaterland, the largest ship in the world.
Her length is 901 feet; her beam is 97 feet and depth 92 feet. Her tonnage is 47,000, and she can accommodate 5,000 passengers. The Vaterland which recently ended her interlial voyage across the Atlantic is 950 feet long.
To-day will be devoted to unloading the Aquitania and no visitors will be admitted to the liner.

With the City Police

A dramatic little scene was enacted on Dalhousie street last night when Hamparh Bogoshzian, an Armenian, suddenly seized hold of Bert Meates and held him in an iron grip until a policeman arrived and then he handed him over declaring that his prisoner was the man whom he saw leaving his own residence on Dalhousie street, two weeks ago. Bert protested but it was useless and he was conveyed to the police station where he grew violent and did damage to a cell and assaulted the police and his captor. This morning P. M. Livingston heard evidence of the capture and Bogoshzian positively identified Meates as the man who had broken into his house. Complainant however, did not miss anything from his home, and for further evidence the case was adjourned until Monday.

Mike Judge will have to keep away from his wife or go to Guelph Prison farm for six months. She complained that he was always troubling her when he was in the city and had not given her a cent for over four years. Before the bench this morning Judge said he had some work to do in Welland about the eleventh of this month.

Members of the W.C.T.U. were entertained at the home of Mrs. A. Shultis, 60 William street, last night. A very pleasant evening was spent in music, vocal and instrumental, after which a dainty lunch was served.

At the Hamilton golf tourney yesterday the beginners' approach and putting contest was won by Miss Buck, Brantford, with an aggregate score of eleven strokes in the three distances.

and was willing to keep away from her. The magistrate said that owing to the length of the trial he did not have to go back to him and if he intruded upon her home circle all she had to do was to phone and Mike would suffer the penalty.
F. J. Breeze laid a charge of non-payment against William Campbell who pleaded not guilty. It would seem that the defendant took compassion upon the homeless state of Breeze who did a few odd jobs for him and then after having given complainant his board he asked for wages which were not agreed upon after the garden work had been done. The magistrate held that Breeze was ungrateful and he dismissed the case upon payment of costs.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Botchley and daughter left for Vancouver last night.
Dr. Wm. Giddens arrived home yesterday from Missouri to attend the funeral of his father, the late Samuel Giddens.

Rev. T. E. Holling left for St. Catharines yesterday to attend the sessions of the Hamilton Conference of the Methodist Church.

The highest of the four scores to count.

Will Look Like New.

The exterior of St. Basil's Church, Palace street, is undergoing a thorough cleaning. The stone and brick is being cleaned by a machine that hurls fine sand against the walls by means of compressed air. The result is the blackened bricks are assuming the fresh color they first had when the church was erected, almost fifty years ago. After the cleaning of the walls the bricks will all be reined.

J. H. Crocker in China.

G. H. Roper physical director of the Y.M.C.A., received an interesting booklet and poster from China this morning. They were sent by J. H. Crocker the secretary of the Y.M.C.A. who officiated before G. L. Goodwin took over the reins of office, and they dealt with the rules of the Far East Athletic association, of which the officials are Dr. Wu Ting Fang chairman; Chang Po Ling C. C. Nieh, Sir Kai Ho ai and J. H. Crocker honorary secretary. The letter which accompanied the book speaks well of the progress of Y.M.C.A. work in Shanghai and the many friends of Mr. Crocker will be pleased to learn that he is in the best of health.

Stole Mona Lisa, Got Light Term

Extenuating Circumstances Were Pleaded and Sentence of One Year Imposed.

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
FLORENCE, Italy, June 5.—The plea of extenuating circumstances was accepted in behalf of Vincenzo Perugia, the thief who stole Da Vinci's masterpiece "Mona Lisa" from the Louvre in Paris, and the judges sentenced him to-day to one year and fifteen days imprisonment. As Perugia has been in prison awaiting trial since December last year, he will not have to serve more than six months.

The theft was carried out on Aug. 22, 1911, and the picture was not found until December 12, 1913, when Perugia offered it for sale to a Florentine antiquary.

CAN'T BEAT "TIZ" WHEN FEET HURT

"TIZ" for sore, tired, painful, up, sweaty, calloused feet or corns.

You can be happy-footed. Use "TIZ" and never suffer from tender, raw, burning, blistered, itchy, tired, smelly feet. "TIZ" relieves the pain and soreness out of calloused and bunions. As soon as you put your "TIZ" bath, you just feel the relief. How good your old feet feel. They want to be happy. "TIZ" is grand. "TIZ" relieves all the poisonous conditions which puff up your feet, cause sore, inflamed, aching, smelly feet.
Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" from your drug store or department store for instant foot relief. Laugh at the fakers who complain. Because feet are never, never going to hurt or make you limp any more.

FOLL MARY A

CAN'T BEAT "TIZ" WHEN FEET HURT

"TIZ" for sore, tired, puffed-up, sweaty, calloused feet or corns.

"Sure! I use 'TIZ' every time for any foot trouble."

You can be happy-footed just like me. Use 'TIZ' and never suffer with tender, raw, burning, blistered, swollen, tired, smelly feet. 'TIZ' takes the pain and soreness out of corns, callouses and bunions.

As soon as you put your feet in a 'TIZ' bath you just feel the happiness soaking in. How good your poor, old feet feel! They want to dance for joy. 'TIZ' is grand. 'TIZ' instantly draws out all the poisonous excretions which pull up your feet and make them smelly.

Get a 25 cent box of 'TIZ' at any drug store or department store. Get instant foot relief. Laugh at foot sufferers who complain. Because your feet are never, never going to bother or make you limp any more.

A baker's establishment and villa owned by Thomas McArthur at Chryston, near Glasgow, were destroyed by fire. Eight inmates, including four children, got through the window on to the roof, where they were rescued.

THE PROBS

TORONTO, June 5.—Since yesterday morning a disturbance has developed and passed into the Maritime provinces, attended by heavy rain and gales. At the same time pronounced cool wave has spread from the northward into the great lake region, bringing clearing weather. In the west heavy rains have been almost general.

AN OTTAWA TRAGEDY

OTTAWA, Ont. June 5.—James Lackey, 13-year-old son of Mr. J. Lackey, 23 First avenue, was accidentally shot and killed last night by Duke Perkins, a 16 year old boy. Perkins was demonstrating from his bedroom window a 22-calibre rifle to some other boys below and the trigger was pulled. Young Lackey was struck in the head dying in half an hour. An inquest will be held.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The laymen elected the following officers: President, E. H. Cleaver, Burlington; vice-president, A. H. Lambert, Harrison; secretary-treasurer, A. Scruton, Brantford; executive committee: Fred Mann, Brantford; W. J. Robertson, St. Catharines; S. W. Vogan, Walkerton; Mayor Carter, Guelph; J. S. Harker, Hamilton; H. B. Collens, Guelph. The address of the president touched upon the state of church work, regret being expressed that some of the churches did not show more activity. The president touched upon church union, and suggested that students for the ministry take a course in agriculture so as to be in touch with the work among the rural districts. A. H. Lambert of Hamilton, chairman of finance, advocated that the student's time be devoted to finance so as to give him a correct insight how to run a church on a proper business basis. C. H. McGregor of Hamilton introduced a discussion abolishing the limitation of the pastoral term. Mayor Carter of Guelph and Jos. Gibson of Ingersoll advocated no change in the present system.

Postman's Tragic End

The body of W. Reardon, a Cork postman, was picked up in the River Lee, at 45 years of age, thirty of which he served in the post office. A week ago he was suspended from duty on account of a missing registered letter. Later the missing letter was handed into the post office, having been picked up in the street.

Conservative Notice

Meeting Monday night at Conservative rooms, corner King and Dalhousie. Divisions 1, 2 and 3, Ward 1. All workers and supporters of Mr. W. S. Brewster invited. W. A. ROBINSON, Secretary.

PROCLAMATION

The Citizens of Brantford and surrounding districts are hereby invited to attend a CIVIL MEMORIAL SERVICE to be held in the Dufferin Rifles Armouries, Brantford, Sunday, June 7th, at 3 o'clock, as a mark of respect for those residents of this city and district who lost their lives in the terrible disaster off Father Point, Quebec, in the sinking of the Steamship Empress of Ireland, May 29th, last. The service will be under the joint auspices of the Ministerial Alliance and the Salvation Army, and the band of the latter organization will be present. The Hall will be comfortably seated. Come, and by your presence show your sympathy with those who have been bereaved in our own home district as well as all over the world, by this terrible marine disaster. H. F. Leonard, John H. BRANTFORD MEN ARE ELECTED BY ONTARIO LAYMEN

A. Scruton and Fred Mann Among Those Chosen At Conference.

ST. CATHARINES, June 5.—Rev. H. W. Crews and Rev. E. S. Colwell, of Woodstock, were elected president and secretary respectively, of the Hamilton Methodist Conference yesterday afternoon. Rev. Geo. W. Barker of Guelph, and Rev. I. M. Moyer of Burgessville, were selected as assistant secretaries, and Rev. J. E. Peters as statistical secretary. The probation association of the conference elected the following officers, all students at Victoria College: President, C. R. Albright; vice president, Zimmerman; secretary-treasurer, Joseph Stewart.

Statistics

Statistics of the conference showed the following: Membership, 55,378; increase over 1913, 976; mission giving, $95,784; increase over 1913, $45,870; ministerial support, $180,352; increase over 1913, $60,177; grand total for all purposes $741,636; increase over 1913 $66,429; report for quadrennial membership, increase 2,800; missions, increase, $70,783; ministerial support, increase $67,792; all purposes increase, $355,019.

Disciplinary questions were discussed at the annual meeting of the theological union. No changes were made in the church rules. The Laymen's Association passed with just two dissenting votes, a resolution, on motion of E. H. Cleaver, of Burlington, and F. J. Hager of Hagersville, to the effect that all candidates for the Legislature be pledged to wipe out the legalized liquor business, and that the members pledge themselves to vote for no candidate, Liberal or Conservative, who will not so pledge himself.

Officers Elected

The laymen elected the following officers: President, E. H. Cleaver, Burlington; vice-president, A. H. Lambert, Harrison; secretary-treasurer, A. JUDGE HARDY'S ADDRESS TO THE ONT. ASSOCIATION

Matters Pertaining to Public Libraries Are Interestingly Dealt With.

The following interesting report on Library matters was recently submitted to the Ontario Library Association by Judge Hardy of this city: "Gentlemen—The recent annual meeting of the Ontario Library Association, nearly 200 delegates being present. All parts of the province were well represented including Librarians in the northern districts of Inoma, Sudbury and Thunder Bay. The meeting was marked by the excellence of the addresses given and the enthusiastic character of the spirit pervading the gathering created largely by the inspiring nature of the deliverances by eminent librarians and others interested in promoting the public library as a great educational factor in the community.

The meeting was favored in having present Mr. Mathew S. Dudgeon, Secretary of the State Library Commission of Wisconsin, one of the leading experts in library work in the United States. His address on "The University of Library Service" delivered before an audience that taxed the capacity of the Toronto Free Library auditorium was an inspiring appeal for the workers in the library cause, and was greatly appreciated by all present.

"The function of the library was," he said, "to make readily accessible to every individual in the community such printed material as will benefit that individual's needs." He held that all rural districts should be included in library service so that books would be as readily accessible to every farm house as to a house in the city. He briefly outlined the work carried on in Wisconsin. In addition to the work of the library in the cities, the Wisconsin Library Commission had a travelling library department and during the past two years this department had sent out more than 200 boxes of books to over 700 different communities which without them would have had little or nothing in the shape of good reading matter. He laid emphasis on placing of the right kind of books in the hands of the Arizian population, outlining what may be done in assisting in his technical education, a feature which has now become a leading factor in enlightened library policy. He further dwelt on the necessity of systematic co-operation between the library and the Public Schools, pointing out the splendid work possible for the benefit of the pupils where there was sympathetic co-operation between Teacher and Librarian.

It was a matter of considerable satisfaction to your delegates to hear from so high an authority commending the department of work in which they are being successfully carried on in your library and have been giving much satisfaction to large numbers of our citizens.

A novel feature of his address was the work to be done by the library in helping the immoral and criminal to recover their self-respect and place in society by small libraries of good literature for the jails and other places frequented by the unfortunate, a field in which the work had just been inaugurated in Wisconsin. One of the most useful and most enjoyable addresses was that given by Mr. J. W. J. Sykes, Librarian of Ottawa, on "The Selection of Books." This is a subject always up for discussion at meetings of the Association, but it seemed to be the general opinion that never had the subject been handled with greater advantage to the association than by Mr. Sykes.

He pointed out the great responsibility devolving upon the Librarian in this respect and cited some of the many authorities it was necessary to consult in making a selection of the best books for Library purposes. The London Athenaeum Book list was given first place for books of the higher class, while the New York Nation, Chicago Dial and New York Times were preferred in the order named for general literature. With these and American Library Association Book List, and the list of best books published by our own Ontario association, a Librarian would find himself fairly well equipped for making the selections required.

Mr. W. O. Carson, Librarian at London, the new president of the association, gave some valuable information on the subject of book buying and by actual figures taken from library purchases throughout the province, showed that in a number of instances books that were purchased by some libraries for 88c. were purchased by others for $1.25. In one library it was pointed out they spent $100 for books which could have been purchased for $70.

He strongly urged that books should not be purchased without a careful survey of the prices and discounts of the various publishers and wherever practicable urged a personal inspection of books and thorough examination of books before purchase. He strongly condemned the handing over of books purchased to any one dealer, as all had special lines in which extra value might be obtained.

The retiring president, Mr. W. F.

Mgr. Deneau Is Anxious To Get At London Team

"Let 'Em Call Us Old Men We'll Get Them," Says Rube.

"They may call us cripples and Old Soldiers' Home boys if they like," said Rube Deneau last night in reference to the size-up given the Red Sox by a writer on one of the London papers who took the trolley over to witness the series there between the Saints and the Sox. "London plays here three days next week and we will have the last word. We will beat them to it and we will see where the men are at. I am satisfied with the results on the road. We got the best of the umpiring in two of our games at St. Thomas, but at that we deserved to lose, we weren't hitting, but the team will hit alright. Just the same no mistake should be made about that St. Thomas team. If Midge Craven gets his pitchers going right he will make a lot of trouble. I should not be surprised to see St.

Thomas beat London this week. At any rate these two teams have 25 games to play from now until the end of the season. That's going some and the Saints will be a thorn in the flesh all the way. Asked if he contemplated any changes in the Red Sox line up the Rube said he had none in mind at present. Johnny Nelson, the third baseman is the only new player to report and he will not be here until June 15. In the meantime the club will stand pat. Deneau is satisfied with his pitchers. Asher, the new man, will be a tower of strength to the club. He got credit for walking eight men at St. Thomas on Tuesday, but four of the walks came with three and two on the batter, and Asher used his hook curve over which he has perfect control, but the umpiring was such as to give him the worst of it. Wagner has been going along pretty fair at sea-ond base and has been hitting fairly well, but the team as a whole has not been bingling up to form. With the next six games at home, however, fans can expect that there will be something doing.

COMMON SENSE RE SUNDAY BALL

New York Priest Declares Sunday Should Not be a Day of Gloom.

"There is no earthly or heavenly reason why Sunday should be a day of gloom with no recreation," said Rev. Father John B. Harney, of New York in replying to a question regarding the stand of the Catholic church on Sunday ball games, at the mission for non-Catholics in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Fourth Avenue, the other day.

"The church has not officially made any pronouncement on the subject, nor has any individual bishop that I heard of, but the principals of Catholic morality come into play in deciding the attitude toward playing ball on Sunday. There is likely to be a difference of opinion between Catholics on the subject, but it is my opinion that the majority of Catholics and priests would say that Sunday ball within bounds is not to be condemned.

"It will be said that Sunday is the Lord's day and ought to be given to Him; that it is not right to give God but a tenth and then take the other nine-tenths to spend in amusement. A ball game does not consume the whole day. Two hours is the usual run of a ball game. Sometimes less and sometimes more if it happens to be an extra-inning contest. Is it wrong to have recreation and amusement on Sunday? No.

"It is useless to expect Young America or Young Canada to attend religious services all day long. It is about all we can do. Catholics and Protestants alike, to get them to attend morning services—if we get them at all. They don't stay around reading pious books, or holding religious conversations on Sunday afternoons, but hang around street corners and go to parks where they talk and talk, and if, as we case is in New York, there is a saloon open they are going to go into it. "It is not evil to attend a Sunday ball game, but the church does condemn going to excess in the matter. In this, as in many other cases, the golden mean is the way of the Catholic church.

In conclusion Father Harney said that although the church allows Sunday baseball on the Lord's day, she also exhorts her children to keep the day holy.

Sport Comment

President Humber of the W. O. B. L. is apparently not shedding any tears over the fact that the Eagle Place Stars, have dropped out of the league, according to a despatch from Stratford. Humber states that the showing of the club has been far from satisfactory, they having been badly beaten in every game and defaulted the last game to Berlin. It is likely, the President further stated, that Brantfords franchise will go to a Hamilton team, or if not that, the other clubs will take Brantfords' dates.

Two straight losses by the Red Sox should not discourage local fans. Pittsburg, considered one of the best in the National, up to Wednesday night, had lost nine straight.

Having lost four out of five at Ottawa the London Kockneys should be no longer referred to as world beaters.

Jinx, of the London Advertiser, who has been watching his own team play on the home lot all season, says Deneau has a lot of old men on the team and you can hear their bones crack on the field. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, are days of retribution. London visits Brantford and the Reising bunch will get theirs.

Brantford made six hits in the last two games at St. Thomas, three per game, which leads us to believe that the Red Sox should consult an oculist next time they take a road trip. In all three games the Saints outhit the Sox and yet we grabbed one game.

GALT OVERCOMES WOODSTOCK'S LEAD

Coose Is Found for Fifteen Hits in Bunches by Galtonians, Who Increase Lead.

GALT, June 5.—Galt last evening increased its lead in the W. O. B. L. defeating Woodstock 8 to 7 in a hard fought game. Woodstock scored twice in the first inning and it was not until the sixth that the locals tied the score. In the seventh both teams scored, and in the 8th, Coose, who was touched up for 15 hits, blew up and Galt got two runs. The game was an exciting one and fully enjoyed by the large crowd present. The score: Woodstock21100101—7 9 6 Galt10011212X—8 15 4 Coose and Chapdelaine; Hawkins and Von Ende.

Some Weak Spots Says the London Advertiser, concerning the St. Thomas team. The St. Thomas infield also needs plugging. Forgue and Thraikill are weak spots and are liable to boot away a game at any minute. Kading, the new first baseman, looks good, but he does not show as much life as he should. He is a fair hitter and a neat fielder. Hadley at second, is going along good. Midge has Gadsby, the St. Thomas youngster, in right field while he is out of the game with an injured wrist. St. Thomas is confident of taking at least two out of the three games but after watching them in two games with Brantford the writer is of the opinion that they will be lucky to get one game.

A CHALLENGE The Boy Knights of St. Luke do hereby challenge the B. C. I. Cadets to a tug of war for the cadet championship of the city. The pull to take place on either of the following nights, 25th, 26th, or 27th of June, at the Boy Knights Carnival. The teams to be composed of six cadets.

ERRORS LOSE PETES' GAME TO OTTAWA

Cresswell Pitches a Strong Game, But His Support Wavered.

OTTAWA, June 4.—The Senators took a listless game from Peterboro here yesterday, winning 3 to 2. Cresswell, on the mound for the Petes, twirled well, but got wretched support. He held the champions to 5 hits, only two coming in one inning. Shocker on the mound for Ottawa, was unsteady, but two sensational catches by Rogers in the eighth and Dolan in the ninth, saved the game for him, and the support he received generally was first class. Manager Shaughnessy had a dispute with Umpire Miller and was put out of the game in the sixth.

Canadian League Notes

Rube's Old Timers.

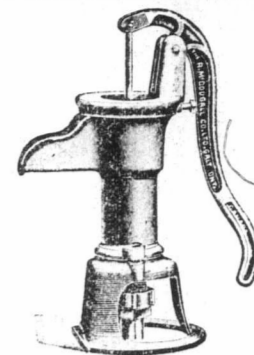

So much has been said and written about Rube Deneau's club lately that one was under the impression Rube really had a good club. But after two good looks at it in two games at St. Thomas we must confess that we are greatly disappointed. Deneau has a bunch of old timers and you can almost hear their bones creak every time they walk out on the diamond. Honeck, the shortstop, is the only youngster on the team and he looks promising. The rest of the club must have been picked from the Institution for the Old and Feeble. Rube has them going along pretty good just now, but wait until he strikes some real ball clubs like Ottawa, Toronto or London. They will blow higher than a kite and the bottom of the league will not be deep enough to hold them.—London Advertiser.

Red Sox Are Formidable.

The games to date have clearly emphasized the fact that the clubs are furnishing faster ball than ever before, and that some of the stars of former years are having their own time in going as well as they did. That London and Ottawa are the strongest clubs in the circuit is evident at the present time, with Brantford just about as formidable. The Red Sox have come along rapidly since Deneau strengthened up, and will prove contenders all the way. Toronto, Erie, Hamilton and St. Thomas appear to be in a class. Erie has suffered from poor management and an air of indifference which seemed to hold sway among the players. Both Erie and Toronto appear to be good, strong teams, but lack pitching strength. The addition of a couple of good twirlers to either team would soon boost it up among the leaders.—Hamilton Spectator.

One Rival

Philadelphia's lone rival now is Washington. Griff alone has a chance but it is only an outside chance at best. For while he has the defensive qualities, his people lack the wallop with which Mack's machine is infested. And, outside of Johnson, Griff's pitching staff is about as uncertain as Prof. Mack's.

Poor Erie!

Report has it that Erie is proving the worst town in the circuit at the present time. The fans did not cotton to Manager Heinie Smith, while indifferent work by the players also soured them. With a new manager on the job and an effort being made to whip the team into shape, improvement is expected however. The attendance at the Erie games has been away below expectation, although at that much better than Berlin or Guelph could have done.

The Hams Indifferent Work That two new infielders and a pitcher must be secured by Saturday night and that Pitcher Dwyer must be released, are the instructions given to Manager Yates of the Hamilton ball club, according to information handed out at baseball headquarters this morning. The directors of the local club are far from satisfied with the inability of the team to do better than break even in the games won and lost, and greatly displeased with the continual reports of listless and indifferent work on the part of some of the players.—Hamilton Spectator.

How The Soccer Teams Line Up On Saturday

Exceedingly Good Bill of Fare is Promised: Executive Committee Meeting on Wednesday—Other Notes

The games on Saturday in the Brantford and Paris league will furnish at least two good encounters. In the other two instances the stronger teams are opposed to weaker teams, and the results are looked upon as already cut and dried. Unless some unexpected results crop up, the lower placed clubs will remain stationary, and the middle clubs reap an advantage. A battle between giants will occur at Tutela where Cockshtuts are the visitors, and it is a pity that the ex-champions are crippled at the moment. Tutela are also under a disadvantage, so matters to some extent will be levelled up. Paris are down to meet Holmedale on the O. I. B. grounds, and as they have shown good fast foot work this season, the Parisians may take the points, as Holmedale have not kept up early promises. P. S. A. and the Scots do battle, and if form counts for anything, the Scots should add to their points. P. S. A. are playing on their own ground, and this may count for a little, although this is not a material advantage. The Duffs will play with a depleted team against the Sons, and with the latter improving, will have to struggle gamely for all they get.

The teams for Saturday are as follows:

Holmedale.
Holmedale v. Paris on the O. I. B. Saturday, kick off at 6 o'clock sharp. The Tigers will turn out in the following order: Rowcliffe, Hart, Hoyle, Goodred, Stewart, Ellison, Moorcroft, Belsaw, Solman, Midgley, Solman, Midgley, Coburn, Reserves: Bremner, Curran.

S.O.E. v Duffs.
S. O. E. line up to meet the Duffs on Saturday: Goal, W. Short; J. Smith, W. Johnson; W. Mitchell, H. Westlake, J. Mathia; W. Budd, W. Smith, W. Grover, A. Baker, A. Johnson (capt.). Reserves: H. Saunders, A. Short, A. Ellis. Dressing room at Armories. Players are requested to be at the Armories at 5.30. Duffs: Abbott, Holland, Keightley, Williamson, Anthony, Biggs, Coale, Humphries, Drake, Poynter, Alexander.

Reserves: Blower and Palmer. All players are requested to report at the armories to-night (Friday) at 8 p.m. Both teams will dress at Armories.

Tutela v. Cockshtuts.
The above teams meet at Tutela Park on Saturday in search of league points. Tutela are out to maintain their unbeaten record while Cockshtuts are just as eager to be the first team to lower the Tutela colors. Kick off at 6 p.m. Dressing room at King Edward school. Referee H. Smith. Goal: S. Fagwell; backs, T. Mason, F. Burns; halves, N. McLeod (capt.), E. Roberts, P. McLeod; forwards, E. Hamilton, J. Hingley, C. Gore, H. Collett, F. Fisher. Reserves: A. Cassell, R. Vining.

Scots vs. P.S.A.
Scots United team to play P.S.A. at Recreation Park on Saturday: Williams, goal; backs, Cook, Taylor; half backs, Harrington, Morrow, capt; forwards, Vipond, Linn, Marshall, Richardson, Ramsay. Reserves, Maich, Morison, Little. Referee, Mr. Hollister. Players are requested to be on the field at 5.45; kick off at 6.15 p.m.

P.S.A.—G. Giles, F. Knowles, A. Hilsley, White, G. Richards, H. Arthur, F. Leman, L. Howell, F. Riches, Barnett J. Trebble. Reserves, Oliver, W. Rogers, W. Sweeney, W. Holder. All players are requested to be on the field at 5.30. The boys are still enthusiastic and before long intend to have a strong team. Players wanting a regular game with a good, clean team should communicate with Bert Maynard, secretary, 128 Eagle avenue.

Cockshtuts United—Goal, Pugh; backs, Stubbs and Anderson; half forwards, Plant, Richardson, H. Howell, Charlton, Dixon. Reserves, Stone, Malloy, Dyson. Meet at King Edward school at 5.30 p.m. sharp.

Football Executive.
If support is good Hingley will be considerably benefited financially by a match to be played for his benefit at Tutela Park on July 1st, between selected players from Paris and from Brantford. The executive on Wednesday night put the seal of approval on the arrangement and it will go through.

Barney Uniacke will receive a benefit match played in his favour between his team, Cockshtuts and an aggregation not yet picked upon. Any player who now plays three times for his club and then asks for a transfer, will be inactive for a month after the transfer is made.

Duffs receive into their camp Harry Carey, who has been transferred from Cockshtuts and they released the following players: Harburg and McNamara. In transfer, they took in C. Poynter from the Tutela club.

The referees appointed for Saturday's games are as follows: Duffs vs. S. O. E., Crooch; Scots vs. P. S. A., Hollister; Holmedale vs. Paris, Mears; Cockshtut vs. Tutela, Smith.

Music and Drama

At the Brant.

One of the best companies seen in Brantford is a show this week at the Brant Theatre. It is a theatrical treat. A crowded house gathered last night to witness the performance, and they were of the opinion that Miss Doneta & Company, the company consisting of a gentleman, as entertainers are superb. She is a spontaneous comedienne, and her quips touch upon everything current. Her partner ably assists this short frocked Miss, and together they take the house.

The four Nelson comedies, barbed in costumes becoming to the novel acrobatic feats, are a marvellous group of trick performers. Every move they make is grotesque, and they convulse the audience with laughter. The act has not been approached here. Lillian Burrell gave a clever expedition of dancing and sings a catchy little song, ably completing a bill of excellence. Another feature is the beginning of a serial in pictures. They deal with the adventures of Kathryn a pretty girl, who goes through many experiences, and it will be followed with interest.

ARE YOU GOING TO MUSKOKA THIS SUMMER?

If so take the 10.20 a.m. fast express from Toronto, daily except Sunday, via Grand Trunk Railway and arrive Muskoka Wharf 1.45 p.m. where direct connections are made with steamers for points on Muskoka Lakes. The train carries Parlor, Library, Buffet and first-class coaches and passengers are assured of a comfortable ride along the most interesting route to Muskoka Wharf, which is the original gateway to the far-famed Muskoka Lakes.

The curative odor of balsam and pine and the preponderance of water area to land surface together with the high altitude (1000 feet above the sea) renders Muskoka a most comfortable and perfect immunity from this annoying ailment is assured.

Return connection is made with train leaving Muskoka Wharf 10.30 a.m. daily except Sunday arriving Toronto 2.55 p.m. Tourist tickets at low fares are now on sale to Muskoka Lakes points good for stop over and valid to return until November 30th 1914. If you are contemplating making a trip ask Grand Trunk Agents for full particulars or write C. E. Hornung, District Passenger Agent, Union Station, Toronto, Ont.

Mistook the Train
Patrick Browne, an extensive farmer, of Ballydown, near Athlone, was killed on the railway. Deceased owned land on both sides of the line. He was driving cattle home off his land and mistaking a special military train for the usual evening one, the latter came around a bend in the line immediately after the military train and ran over him.

Miss Evelyn Burke, of Hartford, spent the holiday at the home of her grandfather, Mr. Woltz.

Miss Jessie Dick of Niagara Falls is spending her vacation at home.

Miss Libby Vanderlip of Brantford spent a couple of days this week with friends in the village.

On Monday evening the Epworth League held its annual At Home. The school room of the church was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being white and green. Rev. Mr. Morrow was chairman and the following numbers were rendered: Solos by Mr. Harry Silks, Hartford; piano solo, Miss Marjory Davidson; readings, by Miss Mary Edmundson; duett, by the Myers' Brothers; solo by Miss Myrtle Norrie; Quartette by Messrs. Smith, Malon Myers, L. Myers and George Woltz; solo by Mr. George Woltz. One of the most popular numbers of the evening was a monologue given by Mr. Silks. The conclusion of this excellent program light refreshments were served after which a very pleasant evening came to a close by the singing of National Anthem.

The Epworth League held its anniversary services on Sunday. Mr. Marshall, of Oxford street, delivered a very fine discourse in the morning, his subject being The Interpretation of Life at its Highest Level. The text was taken from Luke 4:18. In the evening Rev. Mr. McClintock preached a very able sermon, his text being found in the Gospels, 10:8. The music for the day was of very high class. An anthem by choir and two solos being rendered by Miss Verna Heaman in the morning and an anthem and a solo by Mr. George Woltz being sung in the evening.

Action of Brant Dean Condemned in Recently Pas

The Boy Knights held their monthly meeting on Friday evening. The meeting was attended, 60 members, and also a number of the other noteworthy members of the organization. The action of the Brant Dean in recently passing a resolution to discontinue the holding of religious services, such as to be undertaken in the O. C. shall have effect and in event of his not taking charge, the person shall delegate or in emergency, the next officer do so.

2. That we, the Boy Knights, do not deem the action of the Brant Dean in connection with the boys and young men of the Boy Knights, meeting where neither card play or low or vulgar language or encouraged, and well for them as a body these injurious influences moved from some of the things before finding fault. That a copy of this motion to the Rural Dean also, of Huron.

BOY KNIGHTS IN RESENTFUL MOOD

Action of Brant Deanery is Severely Condemned in Resolution Recently Passed.

The Boy Knights held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening. The meeting was largely attended, 60 members being present, also a number of the fathers. Another noteworthy feature of the evening was the fact that the five new members enrolled brought the membership to over the 100 mark. The following resolutions were passed: 1. That we, the Boy Knights of St. Luke's C. C. 302, have the right given us under the British flag to hold religious services as we see fit, such to be undenominational. That the O. C. shall have charge of these and in event of his not being able to take charge, the person whom he shall delegate or in case of emergency, the next officer in rank shall do so.

2. That we, the Boy Knights of St. Luke C. C. 302, do strongly condemn the action of the Brant Deanery in connection with our work and in reply to them would say all boys and young men members of our Boy Knights meet in surroundings where neither card playing, smoking or low or vulgar language is tolerated or encouraged, and it would be well for them as a body to see that these injurious influences are removed from some of their own buildings before finding fault with others. That a copy of this motion be mailed to the Rural Dean also to the Bishop of Huron.

3. That we tender a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. G. McClay, and our esteemed secretary Capt. H. Rogers, for their letters in the local press, defending the corps.

4. That we as a body do endorse the action of our O. C., trustees and officers for the manner in which the work has been carried on and pledge ourselves to do our utmost in supporting them in work in the future.

THE LIBERTY OF FRANZ AND REBELLION OF FUZZY-WUZZY

Madame Morelli, the pretty little Frenchwoman who makes a half-score of leopards, panthers and jaguars do things which nature never intended them to do, had finished her act and driven the snarling performers through the narrow runway to their separate cages, fastening each one, as she thought, securely. Two French clowns were filling in the time and making the audience of Coney Island pleasure seekers laugh by their antics with a performing dog, while the stage hands were bringing in the properties for the next trained animal act, when the proprietor came from behind the scenes and strolled, apparently unconcerned, to the back of the arena, where he could command a clear view of the performance, the audience and the cages. He said a few words to each of the trainers and keepers whom he passed, and a stranger, who knew the clock-like regularity with which each one of them went through his allotted duties, noticed an unwonted haste and suppressed excitement among them.

As he joined the proprietor the sound of hammering mingled with the noise of the blatant brass band and the cries of the ballyhoo spielers for the other attractions which came in through the open windows, and he saw that Stevenson, the mild-eyed quiet man who is always on hand to rescue imperiled trainers and keepers when their own carelessness, or unexpected revolt on the part of the animals, leads to a fight, was rapidly nailing boards over the ventilating spaces above the cages. Madame Morelli, whip and training rod in hand, hurried from her dressing room to the runway, and every keeper and trainer seemed to be loitering in the space between the leopards' den and the audience.

He looked at the proprietor inquiringly, but the little trickle of blood ran down his cheek from under his cap answered the question he would have asked; an animal was loose and the proprietor had encountered it in his rounds. A crash of weird music from the band drowned the sound of a cracking whip and a sharp command which came from the runway, and announced the appearance of a snake charming. In the exhibition cage, and the audience watched him play with a cobra, all unconscious that Franz, the jaguar, which a few minutes before had deserted from his attempt to tear the fair shoulders of Morelli only after a dozen blank cartridges had been fired in his face, was now a gentleman-at-large. The proprietor

"You wouldn't think that a woman who had just come from a fight with a two hundred pound jaguar, which could easily tear her to pieces, would be scared at a scrap between a toy terrier and a mongrel cat," said the proprietor, laughing, as he led the way to the cafe table. "But she makes a specialty of the larger species."

"This matter of specialties seems to run through every branch of the show business," said the press agent as they took their seats at the table. "I ran a dime museum in St. Louis several years ago--in those days there was lots of money in it--and the freaks would never stand for any change in their billing. We used to have a French snail, sent out by our New York agent every two weeks, and one Monday morning when I went down to look over the new arrivals, I knew that he had been up against the demon rum when he engaged such a tough-looking bunch. The alleged fat woman looked as if she was wasting away with consumption, and the bearded lady had a way of absent-mindedly humming the popular airs in a bass voice which gave the whole snip away. There was one likely-looking girl and when I asked her what she was, she told me she was the web-footed lady and showed her feet, which had little pieces of skin growing between the toes. "I knew that wasn't good enough, so I told her she was mistaken; that she was a Circassian beauty, and I gave her a wig and the fixings and put her on the platform. But say would you believe it? She was so mad and embarrassed by the change in her stunt that when the lecturer was calling attention to her blond beauty, she would blush until she looked like an Indian princess, and every time he turned his back she would take off her shoes and wiggle her toes at the audience to show what she really was. "It was up to us to get some real attraction to tide over the time until our agent should get sober and send us another bunch of freaks, so Merritt, who was my partner, and myself hunted up a big buck nigger and made a deal with him to go on as a 'wild man.' We ripped up a hair mattress and glued the contents onto him, and wired a couple of big tusks to his nose and with an iron collar around his neck and a log chain around his waist he was as good an imitation as ever faked. We put him in a big cage which we had used the week before for a many old lion; one of the five hundred ox, so Wallace the untamables' which were touring the country, and Merritt taught him to howl like a steam callopee.

"We called him 'Fuzzy Wuzzy,' the terrible man-eating cannibal," which was a waste of words, but Merritt had language to burn. He had got hold of a phony five-hundred dollar bill, and when he was giving his spiel about how Fuzzy Wuzzy was captured upon a desert island, where he was found chewing a human leg, and how he couldn't eat anything but raw meat, and was always trying to get at his keeper for dessert, he would wave his phony five hundred spot over his head and give it to 'em good. "Five hundred dollars, ladies and gentlemen! I will give to any man who will remain for the short space of two minutes in the cage with Fuzzy Wuzzy! Five hundred dollars to any man who is brave enough to run the risk of letting this terrible man-eating can-

"Jes' a minit, boss," says he. "Ah reckon ah needs dat five hundred in mah business," and Merritt looks at him in astonishment. "My deluded colored brother," says he, "do you appreciate the fact that you are going to a certain and horrible death? If this terrible Fuzzy Wuzzy gets his hinder limbs about you he will suck your ber-lud. "Ah dean reckon he'll git me, an' ah suttely needs de money," answers the coon, and continues to strip, and Merritt sizes him up and sees the flash of Fuzzy Wuzzy, who was shaking the bars and trying to get away from the super who was prodding him; but everybody thought he was trying to get at the coon to make a meal of him, and some of the women folks were getting hysterics. One of call it off, because he would refuse a permit. "But he was onto the game and he thought he had a sense of humor, so he gives him a document with a big red seal on it which looks like a doctor's diploma, which says that Thomas Jefferson is allowed to go in and win our five hundred, and the next day the coon shows up smiling and ready, and I knew we had to make good somehow. I passed the word to Merritt to delay the game and make a last grand effort to throw a spear into the coon, and he put up a spiel to beat the band. "This terrible Fuzzy Wuzzy has none of the attributes of a human being," says he. "He lives upon raw meat and would prefer human flesh crushed into an unrecognizable mass by the terrible hinder limbs of this man-eating cannibal and then torn to shreds by his horrible fangs. The management of this highly moral and intellectual show will provide a funeral for the remains, if there are any, and now, ladies and gents, I call upon you to witness that we are not responsible for the terrible end which awaits this reckless man. "I had taken the precaution to button up the box office 'taker' in my inside pocket, and while Merritt was making a bluff at looking for the key to the cage door I looked around to see that there was a free exit, for the coon was standing there swelling out his chest and grinning as if he had the five hundred already in his jeans, and I knew he couldn't be bluffing out. Just then a typical antebellum Missourian, one of the kind that has to be shown, steps up in front. He was tanked up until his safety valve would have blown off if it hadn't been wired down, but he was pretty steady on his pins when he held onto the railing in front of the cage. "Professah," says he, "did I understand yo' all correctly to say that this yeah object in the cage has none of the attributes of the human race?" "Correct," says Merritt, glad of an excuse to delay things. "He is lower than the beasts of the field. "Well, he suttely ain't much to look at," says the Southerner, looking him over carefully. "He won't eat like folks--he can't talk--an' he sleeps like a bat. I dunno why such a pusillanimous critter should cumber the yearth," and with that he puts his hand to his hip and pulls out a forty-five from under the tails of his coat. Fuzzy take some look at it, and it didn't need any prodding to make him holler, and he tries to tear off the false tusks. "Foh Gawd's sake, mistah, doan shoot!" he yells. "Dat white mah'n's been tellin' a passel ob lies about me until ah's sartain suah somefing gwine fer to git me. Ah can eat an' talk like any one, and' mos' ebery one knows me about yeah wen ah ain't got dese yeah contraptions on!" "Shut up, you blame fool!" says Merritt. "He won't shoot you." "Mebbe he knows dat, mebbe you knows dat; but how does I know dat?" yells Fuzzy. "Dat gun suttely looks big to me."

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS TO ANY ONE WHO WILL ENTER THE GAGE

nibal get his hinder limbs about him, for then all would be lost and Fuzzy Wuzzy would fasten his terrible fangs in his victim's throat and suck his ber-lud. "Well, it was a good spiel, all right, all right, and when Merritt struck that part, and Fuzzy had been prodded up old Fuzzy, who would raise his chains and howl for fair, and the audience would get cold chills down their backs. We were playing to the S. R. O., and giving so many shows a day that Merritt pretty nearly lost his voice, and Fuzzy had been prodded so much that he had to take his meals standing up. We ran 'em through pretty fast, and one afternoon Merritt was just going to give the 'All out' signal, which cleared the exhibition hall for the next performance, when up steps a big husky black roanabout from the levee and commences to strip off his coat.

the boys had put me wise, and I broke through the crowd and called a halt in the proceedings. "Ladies and gentlemen," says I, "I didn't believe that a man existed who was foolhardy enough to be tempted to certain death by the lure of a paltry five hundred dollars. But although this man is so reckless of his own life, I must insist that he get a permit from the mayor, relieving us from all responsibility, before we allow him to be torn limb from limb. Return tomorrow at two o'clock, and if this man's courage still keeps up, you will see before your shuddering eyes an encounter which will make the historical gladiatorial combats of ancient Rome pale into insignificance. I could sling a few language myself, those days, and the mayor was a friend of mine--or I thought he was--so I figured we could catch the suckers for an admission and then if he could get it. Observe the expression of ghastly glee in his eyes as he regards the foehardy man who will soon furnish him such a meal as he formerly enjoyed in his native jungle. He sleeps at night suspended from the top bars of his cage by his claw-like hands and feet, which will soon be tearing the flesh of this man who stands before you now, a picture of perfect health and strength. He speaks no intelligible language, but he utters howls and yells, which will be more horrible than ever before when he is sucking the warm heart's be-lud of the figure which you see shapere you for the last time in human form. Just then the super gives Fuzzy a prod and he howls like Balaam's ass, but the coon stands there smiling and not feazed a bit. "It's a sad sight," continues Merritt, "to see a fine man in the prime of life, like our colored brother here, got wise and saw the five hundred vanishing, and the last I saw of Merritt he was trying to break a half-Nelson that the coon had got on him and dodge the rest of the crowd at the same time. I left St. Louis on a freight that night, wearing a few lumps and the next time I saw Merritt was in Chicago, and he was on crutches and had his head covered with plaster. No thunderbolt dropped from the tower and the proprietor, with a childlike and bland smile on his face, motioned to the waiter to refill the glasses. (Copyright, 1913, by W. G. Chapman.)

DO OIL FIRMS FEED WARFLAMES?

Strong Suspicions That Capitalists Furnish Sinews of War—Lord Cowdray Has Denied Rumor of His Financing Huerta.

The continued burning of the flames of war in Mexico for the past three years has caused much speculation as to the origin of the fuel which is keeping up the blaze. War even guerilla warfare, requires money, and none of the dominant forces in Mexico since the fall of the Dictator Diaz in 1911 have been sufficiently stable to get war loans of the kind that European nations of militaristic tendencies negotiate. There have not been wanting those who hint, more or less openly, that the Mexican revolutions, like the locomotives on Mexican railroads, derive their motive power from oil fuel. Dark suspicions have been floating about that the war of the two groups which divide the control of the Mexican oil fields has not been unconnected with the war of the rival political factions.

Enormous Oil Production.

Mexico stands third in the list of oil-producing countries. Only Russia and the United States surpass her in the annual production of oil, and it is quite possible that in a few years more, when further developments have taken place, Mexico may stand second, or may even eventually lead the world.

Last year the production of oil in Mexico totalled 1,000,000 barrels of 42 gallons each. The oil is somewhat darker and heavier than the oil found in the United States, and is not so useful as an illuminant or a lubricant. Great quantities, however, are used for fuel, especially for railway locomotives and steamships.

The oil industry centres at Tampico, the port half way up to the east coast which was captured last week by the Constitutional army, led by General Pancho Villa. The low lying flats near the city are dotted with derricks and the banks of the river, which forms the harbor of Tampico, are lined with huge steel oil tanks. At Vera Cruz, the other great port of Mexico, where the American marines landed some weeks ago, there are smaller distributing plants.

For the immense wealth represented by these oil fields a silent struggle, none the less bitter for its unobtrusiveness, has been going on for the past six or seven years. On the one side is the Standard Oil group octopus, whose tentacles in that locality go under the name of the Waters-Pierce Oil Co., of Texas. On the other side is a British syndicate, headed by Lord Cowdray, known officially as the Compania Mexicana de Petroleo el Aguila. Rumor points to Lord Cowdray as the man behind Huerta, and to the Water-Pierce people as the men behind Villa and Carranza. It is altogether probable that rumor has exaggerated their position—Lord Cowdray, in fact, has denied a story that went the rounds some time ago, that he was financing Huerta, but the cynically minded, who trace all political action to economic motives, are disposed to think that there may be some discreet connection after all.

Start as Contractor

Lord Cowdray and his associates have enormous interests in Mexico. The son and grandson of great engineers and contractors, Westman Pearson, as he was up to four years ago, got his start in Mexico as a big contractor. He built Tehuantepec Railway, the harbor works at Vera Cruz, and the canal which drained the valley of Mexico. Some eight years ago he turned his attention to oil.

When oil was discovered in large quantities in the States of Vera Cruz and Tamaulipas shortly after the beginning of the century, the Waters-Pierce Oil Co. stepped in, and by 1906 had virtually control of the field. The Standard Oil subsidiary did not own oil wells, but they controlled all the facilities for refining and distribution. Pearson saw that the oil industry had a big future, and he determined to share in some of the profits.

He organized the Company Mexicana Petroleo el Aguila, or in other words the Eagle Oil Co., and got out and hustled for concessions. He was an intimate friend of Porfiro Diaz, who had been president and dictator of Mexico for 30 years. Diaz was made a director of the company. For a time everything prospered. Then the Standard Oil group began war on their competitors. The struggle grew desperate on both sides.

The Changing Roles

A revolution broke out against Diaz mysteriously it gained force. Finally Diaz was forced to flee from the country, and Madero became president. He was not a director of the Compania Mexicana Petroleo el Aguila. For a time it seemed as if Pearson and his group had been beaten.

Go to Church Movement Will Have Wonderful Support In Rural Communities

ADVERTISING in the newspapers, securing the co-operation of the telephone companies, announcements at farmers' granges, unions and clubs are suggested as means to arouse interest in a GO TO CHURCH Sunday for rural workers. The Orange Judd Farmer says editorially:

"THE RURAL CHURCH HAS HAD ITS SHARE OF CRITICISM IN RECENT YEARS. SOME OF THE CRITICISM IS JUST, BUT MUCH OF IT IS SENSATIONAL AND UNJUST. THAT RURAL CHURCHES ARE A VITAL PART OF EVERY RURAL COMMUNITY THERE CAN BE NO QUESTION. WITHOUT THEM COUNTRY LIFE WOULD GO TO RUIN AND DESTRUCTION, AND THIS ASIDE FROM RELIGION. TO SAVE COUNTRY LIFE, THEN, WE MUST SAVE THE RURAL CHURCH, AND TO SAVE THE RURAL CHURCH WE, AS INDIVIDUALS, MUST DO OUR PART IN PERSONAL DEVOTION AND ATTENDANCE.

"The problem now before us is this: What can we as farmers do to promote this movement and accelerate the churchgoing custom of olden days? The answer is simple. Go to church ourselves, ask our neighbors to do likewise and ask minister or priest to join in welcoming everybody of the community."

To make a great success of this affair it will be necessary for each and every one to see his part, to tell him of the plan, get his co-operation and then get generally busy. Let it be known in every church in this broad land—from Pacific to Atlantic, from the lakes to the gulf—that special services will be arranged and an effort made to have every person in the community attend church.

ASK THE LOCAL TELEPHONE OPERATOR TO NOTIFY ALL SUBSCRIBERS OF THE TELEPHONE LINES. BY WORD OF MOUTH, BY ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM THE PULPIT, BY NOTICES IN THE GRANGES, CLUBS AND SCHOOLS LET THE NOTICE GO OUT THAT THERE IS A GO TO CHURCH MOVEMENT THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRYSIDE.

They were rumored to have lost $10,000,000. It was said that they were anxious to sell out to the Standard Oil people.

They came the turnover of last year, when Huerta and Felix Diaz overthrew Madero. Since then there has been no talk of the Pearson group selling out. It was rumored that Huerta got enough money to run his government for a month through Lord Cowdray. The rumor was denied but the suspicion of connection between Huerta and the Pearson group still persisted. And on the other hand there have not been wanting those who insinuate that the outcry for intervention on the part of numbers of politicians and newspapers in the United States in order that Huerta may be disposed is inspired by interested motives. The situation is one to give the "know it all fellows" who always ferret out a money motive behind all action a chance for much comment.

It is a discredit to the village that this piece of walk should be left in so dangerous a condition so long.

There will be no preaching service held in the Methodist church next Sabbath because of the minister attending conference at St Catharines.

Some people in the village are of the opinion that hydro would prove an expensive affair for the ratepayers but it might not prove half as expensive as the high sidewalk at the west end of the village if our town fathers do not make needed repairs, as it is one or two boards are out and others are loose. Let the right person step into the opening and be seriously injured and our village will be brought into court to fight a damage suit of three or four thousand dollars.

ONONDAGA COUNCIL

Onondaga, June 1, 1914. The Council met in regular session at the Town Hall. All the members were present. The Reeve was in the chair. The minutes were read and approved. No communications. On motion the council resolved into a Court of Revision. After being organized the following appeals received by the assessor, in regard to dogs, were considered and ordered erased, viz., from John Cummings, Walter Dutton, Charles Cowen, George McLellan and J. S. Churchill, after which the assessment was finally passed and certified to by the clerk.

Council resumed. Messrs. James Fair and Thomas Hunter interviewed the council regarding sheep killed and worried by dogs. Mr. Fair made affidavit to the effect that he had 12 worried, sustaining damages to the extent of $45.00, and Mr. Hunter made affidavit to the effect of having one killed, value $15 and nine injured, value $21.60. Total $36.60.

The following accounts were examined and ordered paid, viz., James Fair two-thirds value of twelve sheep injured by dogs, $30; T. Hunter two-thirds value of 1 killed and nine injured $25.40; Herb. Hamilton 500, 3-inch tile, $9.80; A. Barill 5 months salary $62.50; postage and stationery, $5.91; Municipal World, supplies, $1.16; Courier account $3; The Ingleyby, Taylor Co. for lumber $44.75; Wm. Ludlow, repairs on No. 10, Howell's bridge $10.75; American Road Machinery Co., $1.50; express on same $5c.; Anson, Gibson ditching on beat 18, $2.62; Dominion Bond Co. for Treasurer's bond $12.00; Ramsay Hardware Co., Gauge $2.00; Corrugated Pipe Co., account $109.80.

Messrs Rose and Vansickle reported on the roads and bridges in No. 1 Sub-division as follows: On Beat 34, a 36-inch tile across the road, was recommended to be lowered eight inches on the north side and given a proper slope southward. On Beat 38, 700 3-inch tile was recommended to be placed on McCauley's hill and the Overseer to have them placed.

On Howell's bridge the wood railing being much decayed, was ordered replaced by 1 1/2 inch piping and the scantling to be used to guard the approach towards the east end of the bridge. On beat 36 at Hunter's arch a cement floor was recommended to be placed in same at once and to have placed on McCauley's hill and the Overseer to have them placed.

On Howell's bridge the wood railing being much decayed, was ordered replaced by 1 1/2 inch piping and the scantling to be used to guard the approach towards the east end of the bridge. On beat 36 at Hunter's arch a cement floor was recommended to be placed in same at once and to have placed on McCauley's hill and the Overseer to have them placed.

The following resolution was carried, viz.: That the Reeve be instructed to require Mr. James Deagle to comply with the demands of the 1913 council and remove his fence to the proper line or settle with the receiver for the amount of $1.0 being valued placed on the land by the councilors. Fence to be in a straight line from telephone pole to telephone pole, and fence moved or settlement made before the first day of July, 1914.

The Council adjourned to meet at the call of the Reeve. The next regular meeting will be in Middleport on the first Monday in August.

CATHCART

[From Our Own Correspondent] Rev. Mr. Tiddis preached a very interesting sermon on Sunday night, it being his last sermon before going to conference.

The Women's Institute was held last week at the home of Mrs. Kin-sella, and was largely attended. An opening address, was given by our new President, Mrs. I. Secord, thanking the ladies of the Institute for the honor they had conferred, by electing her as President for the coming year. Then Mrs. McTavish of Parkhill, gave a very interesting talk on housework. The Secretary then read the report showing that the Institute under the able Presidency of Miss Stephenson, had been a year of progress, and very many members had been added to the list. Miss Stephenson was then appointed as delegate to the District meeting of the Institute to be held at Brantford on the 6th of June, after which a dainty lunch was served by the ladies of the Institute. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent all being delighted with the music given by Miss Giles. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Weir; it will be in the form of a picnic. Everybody welcome.

Miss Howell has returned to her home at Galt, after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. W. Stephenson, who has been quite ill.

Mrs. Casey has returned to Cathcart after an extended visit to Port Dover.

Miss Irene Sherman met with quite an accident on the evening of the 24th. The boys were playing with fire-crackers, and Irene came in contact with one and was badly burned.

One of our promising young men is about to join the ranks of Benefactors.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. Hall, a son—Congratulations.

Mr. N. Sayles was visiting Mr. Millar Lawson on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell of Galt spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. Stephenson.

[From Our Own Correspondent] Mr. I. Durham of Fairfield was visiting relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulson and children of Scotland, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr and Mrs Leo Duncombe and children of Wilsonville spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs John P. Henry.

Clarence Birdsall who met with an accident at Dorchester a few weeks ago, has so far recovered that he returned to his home here one day last week.

John Durham is having his verandah finished which adds very much to the appearance of his house.

Mrs. T. Arne of Kelvin, who has been staying with her son, David here for a week, returned home Monday evening.

Mr and Mrs E. Bloomfield of Scotland spent Sunday with Mrs. C. Johnston.

Mr and Mrs John Wintermute and daughter of Lynville spent Sunday afternoon with Mr and Mrs E. S. Birdsall.

Our British Letter

LONDON, June 4.—The troubles of Mexico and Ulster have whetted the public interest in the Balkans during recent months. But the final ending of the Balkan war has brought no rest to that long suffering region. Thrace, Macedonia and Albania are boiling with racial and religious strife. Stories of fighting, persecution and of massacres come from the London papers from many correspondents, and are printed in small type with little comment. There has come to accept these conditions as a matter of course.

The changes of boundaries and of sovereignty which resulted from the peace treaties, and the launching of Albania as an autonomous state, are responsible for the new era of struggle and butchery. Every power concerned in the new allotments is trying to express not only its laws but its own state religion upon those who have become its subjects, if the current Albanians are to be believed.

The Turkish government is determined to drive the whole Greek population from Thrace, according to accounts from Greek sources. It has organized a campaign of oppression which is making life impossible for people of Greek affiliations in the country about Kirk Killise, Lulu Burcas and all the land which Bulgaria conquered in the first war and lost through the final treaty. By Greeks, it means the adherents of the Greek Church, since nationality is recognized

Five Persons Wounded. A shooting affair at Burtonwood Colliery, a village near Warrington, resulted in John Weston, collier and ex-soldier, thirty-five, being remanded at Warrington, on Monday on a charge of shooting a man with intent to do grievous bodily harm by which a woman and five children were wounded. The man got in a fury because a boy teased his dog. He went into his house and fetched his double-barrelled gun. When the gun went off there were in the street, Mrs. Hannah Woods, her daughter, and two other girls about twenty yards away. A little farther away was a child passing across the street. The shots from Weston's gun seem to have spread and all these received wounds in the arms and legs. One girl had fourteen shots taken out of her limbs. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. The boy at whom the gun was said to have been fired was not hit.

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS Copyright 1913 by W. G. Chapman.

It was quite dark by the time Tarzan had gorged himself. Ah, but it had been delicious! Never had he quite accustomed himself to the refined flesh and civilized men had served him, and in the bottom of his savage heart there had constantly been the craving for the warm meat of the fresh killed and the rich, red blood. He wiped his bloody hands upon a bunch of leaves, slung the remains of his kill across his shoulder and swung off through the middle terrace of the forest toward his cabin, and at the same instant Jane Porter and William "Bill" Clayton arose from a sumptuous dinner upon the Lady Alice, thousands of miles to the east in the Indian ocean.

Heard Tarzan walked Numa, the lion, and when the ape-man deigned to glance downward he caught occasional glimpses of the baleful green eyes following through the darkness. Numa did not roar now. Instead he moved stealthily, like the shadow of a great cat, but he was not so fast as the ape-man, and the sensitive ears of the ape-man.

Tarzan wondered if he would stalk him to his cabin door. He hoped not, for that would mean a night's sleep culled in the crotch of a tree, and he much preferred the bed of grasses within his own abode. But he knew just the tree and the most comfortable crotch if necessity demanded that he sleep out. A hundred times in the past some great jungle cat had followed him home and compelled him to seek shelter in this same tree until another mood or the rising sun had sent his enemy away.

But presently Numa gave up his chase and, with a series of bloodcurdling moans and roars, turned angrily back in search of another and easier dinner.

A few moments later Tarzan was curled up in the mildewed remnants of what had once been a bed of grasses. Thus easily did M. Jean C. Tarzan slough the thin skin of his artificial civilization and sink happy and contented into the deep sleep of the wild beast that has fled to repletion. Yet a woman's eyes would have found him to that other life forever and made the thought of this savage existence repulsive.

Tarzan slept late into the following forenoon, for he had been very tired from the labors and exertion of the long night and day upon the ocean and the jungle jaunt that had brought into play muscles that he had scarce used for nearly two years. When he awoke he ran to the brook first to drink. Then he took a plunge into the sea, swimming about for a quarter of an hour. Afterward he returned to his cabin and breakfasted off the flesh of Horta. This done, he buried the balance of the carcass in the soft earth outside the cabin for his evening meal.

Once more he took his rope and vanished into the jungle. This time he hunted nobler quarry—man, although, had you asked him his own opinion, he could have named a dozen other denizens of the jungle which he considered far the superior in ability of the men he hunted. Today Tarzan was in quest of weapons. He wondered if the women and children had remained in Mbonga's village after the punitive expedition from the French cruiser had massacred all the warriors in revenge for D'Arnot's supposed death. He hoped that he should not now long a quest he should have to make were the village deserted.

The ape-man traveled swiftly through the forest and about noon came to the site of the village, but to his disappointment found that the jungle had overgrown the plateau fields and that the thatched huts had fallen in decay. There was no sign of man. He clambered about among the ruins for half an hour, hoping that he might discover some forgotten weapon, but his search was without fruit, and so he took up his quest once more, following up the stream, which flowed from a south-easterly direction. He knew that near fresh water he would be most likely to find another settlement.

Mediaeval Black Friars. Builders laborers at work in Blackfriars street, Carlisle, the site of an ancient monastery, unearthed two skulls, which are supposed to be those of two mediaeval "Black Friars." Thrilling Fire at a Baker's.

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers. The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

Five Persons Wounded. A shooting affair at Burtonwood Colliery, a village near Warrington, resulted in John Weston, collier and ex-soldier, thirty-five, being remanded at Warrington, on Monday on a charge of shooting a man with intent to do grievous bodily harm by which a woman and five children were wounded. The man got in a fury because a boy teased his dog. He went into his house and fetched his double-barrelled gun. When the gun went off there were in the street, Mrs. Hannah Woods, her daughter, and two other girls about twenty yards away. A little farther away was a child passing across the street. The shots from Weston's gun seem to have spread and all these received wounds in the arms and legs. One girl had fourteen shots taken out of her limbs. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. The boy at whom the gun was said to have been fired was not hit.

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS Copyright 1913 by W. G. Chapman.

It was quite dark by the time Tarzan had gorged himself. Ah, but it had been delicious! Never had he quite accustomed himself to the refined flesh and civilized men had served him, and in the bottom of his savage heart there had constantly been the craving for the warm meat of the fresh killed and the rich, red blood. He wiped his bloody hands upon a bunch of leaves, slung the remains of his kill across his shoulder and swung off through the middle terrace of the forest toward his cabin, and at the same instant Jane Porter and William "Bill" Clayton arose from a sumptuous dinner upon the Lady Alice, thousands of miles to the east in the Indian ocean.

Heard Tarzan walked Numa, the lion, and when the ape-man deigned to glance downward he caught occasional glimpses of the baleful green eyes following through the darkness. Numa did not roar now. Instead he moved stealthily, like the shadow of a great cat, but he was not so fast as the ape-man, and the sensitive ears of the ape-man.

Tarzan wondered if he would stalk him to his cabin door. He hoped not, for that would mean a night's sleep culled in the crotch of a tree, and he much preferred the bed of grasses within his own abode. But he knew just the tree and the most comfortable crotch if necessity demanded that he sleep out. A hundred times in the past some great jungle cat had followed him home and compelled him to seek shelter in this same tree until another mood or the rising sun had sent his enemy away.

But presently Numa gave up his chase and, with a series of bloodcurdling moans and roars, turned angrily back in search of another and easier dinner.

A few moments later Tarzan was curled up in the mildewed remnants of what had once been a bed of grasses. Thus easily did M. Jean C. Tarzan slough the thin skin of his artificial civilization and sink happy and contented into the deep sleep of the wild beast that has fled to repletion. Yet a woman's eyes would have found him to that other life forever and made the thought of this savage existence repulsive.

Tarzan slept late into the following forenoon, for he had been very tired from the labors and exertion of the long night and day upon the ocean and the jungle jaunt that had brought into play muscles that he had scarce used for nearly two years. When he awoke he ran to the brook first to drink. Then he took a plunge into the sea, swimming about for a quarter of an hour. Afterward he returned to his cabin and breakfasted off the flesh of Horta. This done, he buried the balance of the carcass in the soft earth outside the cabin for his evening meal.

Once more he took his rope and vanished into the jungle. This time he hunted nobler quarry—man, although, had you asked him his own opinion, he could have named a dozen other denizens of the jungle which he considered far the superior in ability of the men he hunted. Today Tarzan was in quest of weapons. He wondered if the women and children had remained in Mbonga's village after the punitive expedition from the French cruiser had massacred all the warriors in revenge for D'Arnot's supposed death. PARK BAPTIST MEN'S LEAGUE

Annual Meeting Was Held Tuesday Evening—Reports Show a Splendid Year.

The annual meeting of the Men's League of Park Church, was held on Tuesday night with Mr. A. E. James, President, in the chair. Reports of officers for the past season, were received and new officers elected. The Secretary in his report revealed a very gratifying state of affairs. The total attendance for the season was 2514, as compared with 1707 in the previous season, while the average attendance showed an increase of 14. A pleasing feature of the report was the statement that 187 men who had not previously attended had been welcomed at the meetings of the League.

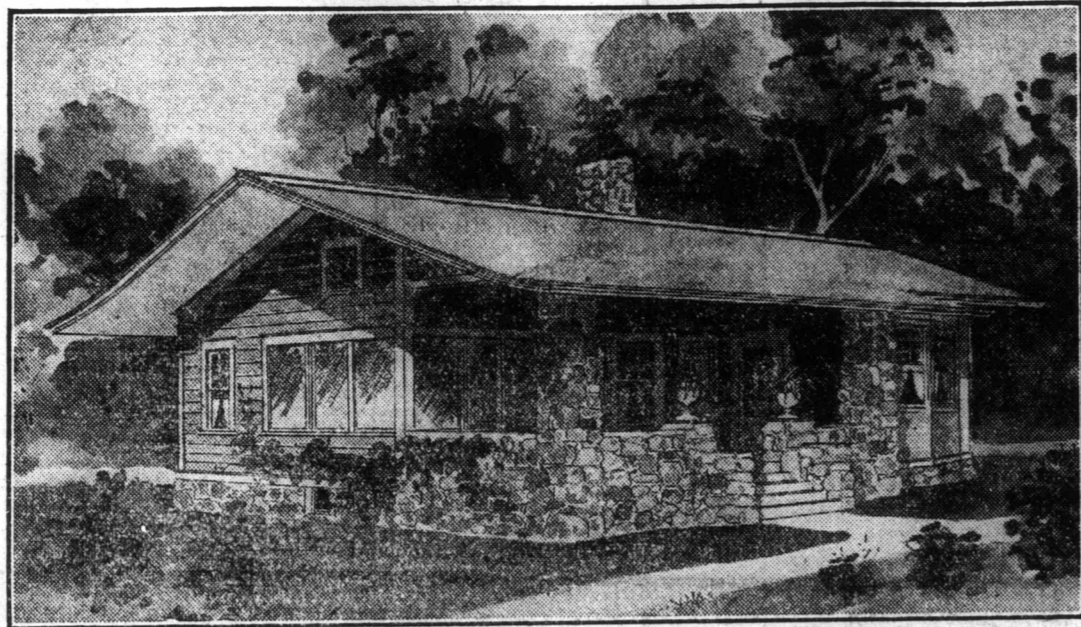

The retiring president, Mr. A. E. James, thanked the members for the loyal support accorded him during his term of office and bespoke their good will for the newly elected officers. The Rev. C. W. Rose also spoke briefly, testifying to the pleasure it always afforded him to be engaged in work among men and his conviction that very many had been benefited spiritually by the meetings. The officers elected for next season are as follows: Hon. president, Mr. Franklin Grobb; President, Mr. J. E. James; Leader, Rev. C. W. Rose; Secretary, Mr. W. T. Downes; Treasurer, Dr. G. W. Barber; Chairman of Committees: Membership, Mr. J. A. Edwards; social, Mr. J. Deming; visiting, Mr. R. Fletcher; Employment, Mr. M. A. Colquhoun; Devotional, Rev. C. W. Rose; music, Mr. E. R. Roberts; organist and musical director, Prof. J. R. Cornelius; Registrar, Mr. Holstan; steward, Mr. A. E. Rowen.

A LOW SPREADING BUNGALOW, COSTING $3,500.

DESIGNED BY CHAS. S. SEDGWICK, ARCHITECT.

THIS bungalow has a frontage of 42 feet and a depth of 36 feet over the piazza. The height of the story is 8 feet and 6 inches, this allows the use of outside studdings 8 feet high. All rooms are on one floor. The roof is low with a wide reach of cornice and no attic space for use. It is designed to have a basement under the main part of the building. One central chimney providing flues for heating apparatus, fire place in the living room and flue for kitchen. There are two bed rooms located at the rear, one in each corner, well lighted and ventilated. The living room and dining room open together and also open on to the wide front piazza with French windows. There is a convenient sleeping porch opening back from the piazza on one side, connected with one bed room and the dining room. The exterior is covered with wide drop siding of cedar or fir and stained.

The striking feature of the exterior is the boulder wall carried around the piazza and with heavy boulder piers on each corner, supporting the roof, and a pedestal on each side of the steps for flower vases. The piazza floor is of cement concrete. The roof is shingled and stained red and all trimmings painted white. The floor is of fir and inside finish, doors, casings and so forth of fir and stained with dark mission stain color. The walls are plastered and tinted or papered. The estimated cost is $3,500, not including heating nor plumbing.

There Are Two Ways of Running a Tailoring Establishment!

One way is to make clothes at several prices and make big profits on occasional customers--The other way is to specialize on one price, make the best clothes it is possible to produce at that price--better than anybody else can make for the same money--and give the satisfaction that will induce your customers to come back for more clothes.

The proof that we are giving the greatest value in Canada is the volume of business we do.

And the reason we do the big business and have the fastest growing tailoring establishment in Canada, is because our customers recommend us

AN AUSTRALIAN SINGER

The more one studies the biography of eminent musicians, whether composers or artists, the more the universality of the divine art is emphasized. No one country or clime seems ever to have been able to have a monopoly of music. In far-off Melbourne, Australia, Nellie Mitchell Melba was born. Her musical career was determined early in life and she gave up the family name of Mitchell when she made her debut after studying with Marchesi in Paris. Her debut in Bruses in "Rigoletto" was the occasion when the name of "Melba" suggestive of Melbourne, her native city, was first used. In European centres her voice captivated her hearers, whether cultivated or uncultivated in music. Her U. S. tours were successive triumphs, and when the enthusiasm of the audience was at its height there was a swelling of hearts when her beautiful tones rendered "Robin Adair" or "Mary of Argyle." "Robin Adair" and "Mary of Argyle" are both to be found in "Heart Songs" the famous song book now being offered by The Courier at what might be called the price of printing.

The Nelson Quartet, which scored a tremendous success at the Brant last evening.

Doubleheader On Saturday

Brantford and Hamilton on Saturday will wipe out one of the postponed games due to wet weather, behind the dyke. A double header, commencing at 2.15, will be played. The game which was a drawn battle here on May 25th will be played over, thus leaving the postponed game of yesterday still to be played. Manager Deneau and his Red Sox state that they will be satisfied with no less than three straight from the Hamiltonians.
