The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Seminary of Quebec
Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Séminaire de Québec
Bibliothèque

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., pouvant être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PREFACE.

IN offering this small work to the Legal Profession and the Public at large, both here and abroad, many thanks are due to Her Majesty's Diplomatic and Consular Representatives abroad, to the Diplomatic and Consular Representatives of Foreign Powers in London, and to many correspondents both at home and abroad, for the valuable and friendly assistance which has been rendered towards making this work as reliable and trustworthy as possible, and one which, in these days of growing commercial intercourse between the nations of the world, I venture to hope may be found useful to both Members of the Legal Profession and Laymen, not only in England but abroad, and trust that any apparent shortcomings may be treated with a generous forbearance, and that I may continue to receive assistance both as to corrections or suggestions for improvement of which advantage may be taken in future Editions which in a work of this kind is essential to its value, as it must be kept up to date. Whilst endeavouring, with the assistance and help above mentioned, to make this work such an one as will merit confidence, it will be readily appreciated that I can accept no responsibility in respect to the acts of any of the Practitioners whose names are inserted herein. It not being within the scope of this work to give a list of all Solicitors in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, any more than of those abroad, the selection which has been made must be taken in no way as invidious to those Practitioners whose names are not inserted.

AVANT-PROPOS.

EN offrant ce petit ouvrage au Barreau et au Public en general, ici et à l'étranger, je me fais un devoir de présenter mes remerciements sincères à Messieurs les Représentants Diplomatiques et Consulaires de Sa Majesté à l'étranger, à Messieurs les Représentants Diplomatiques et Consulaires des Pouvoirs Etrangers à Londres, et à tous les correspondants qui ont bien voulu me prêter leur amiable concours afin de rendre ce livre aussi exact que possible, à une époque où les relations commerciales ne cessent de grandir entre les différents pays du monde, j'ose espérer qu'il sera utile aux membres du Barreau aussi qu'au public Anglais et étranger, et prie le lecteur d'être indulgent au cas où il découvrirait çà et là quelques fautes. J'espère aussi que l'on voudra bien continuer à m'aider dans ma tâche en m'adressant les corrections ou idées nouvelles que l'on jugera propres à améliorer ce travail, ce dont je tiendrai compte dans les éditions à venir indispensables pour conserver le livre au courant des changements du jour. Grâce à l'appui bienveillant dont j'ai parlé plus haut je crois avoir fait cet ouvrage digne de la confiance du public mais on comprendra facilement qu'il me soit impossible de prendre sous ma responsabilité les actes des personnes dont les noms sont ici inclus, et comme l'étendue que je désirais donner à ce livre ne me permettait pas de fournir une liste complète des avoués d'Angleterre, Irlande, Ecosse, Pays de Galles, et contrées étrangers, on ne croira pas je l'espère que mon intention ait été de favoriser en rien les hommes de loi dont les noms figurent ici, aux dépens de ceux que la petitesse du volume m'empêchait de mentionner.

APPENDIX.

AFFIDAVITS, DECLARATIONS, AND AFFIRMATIONS FOR USE IN ENGLAND. BEFORE WHOM TO BE TAKEN.

In Scotland, Ireland, or the Channel Islands, or in any place abroad under the Dominion of Her Majesty before any Judge, Court, Notary Public, or any person lawfully authorized to administer oaths in any such place.

In Foreign parts out of the Dominion of Her Majesty before any British Ambassador, Minister, Chargé d'Affaires, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, and any other person deriving his authority to administer oaths in such country from a British source (see 52 Vict., c. 10, s.s. 3 and 6), also before a Judge of The High Court of a Foreign Country under the Seal of such Court.

If an affidavit, &c., is sworn or taken before any person authorized by the law of a Foreign Country to administer oaths, a certificate that such person was duly qualified to take such oath must be signed by a British Consul or Vice-Consul, or verified by the Seal of The High Court of the Country.

With reference to Germany it must be pointed out that the law in force prohibits any person whether in the Diplomatic Service of any other Country or not to administer an oath who has not been duly authorized so to do by the German Government.

APPEALS TO THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE OF
HER MAJESTY'S MOST HONOURABLE PRIVY COUNCIL.

The following short instructions and advice are intended for the assistance of Colonial Solicitors and Agents :

In each case the appeal is regulated as to procedure by some Act of the particular Colony or Dominion, or by instructions issued to the Governor of such Colony or Dominion, or by an Order in Council, though it is not within the scope of these instructions to deal with such a large subject as the rules applicable to each Colony or Dominion.

Should the Colonial Agent have any doubt as to the procedure, a copy of the rules and regulations applying to the Court appealed from, can be obtained for him from the Colonial Office by the English Agent.

In the first place, the Colonial Agent should be satisfied that he has exhausted every right to appeal entertained in the Colony or Dominion ; it is also advisable to apply to the Court appealed from for leave to appeal to the Privy Council, even though a doubt exist as to whether such Court has power to grant it.

I need scarcely suggest that in many cases it is obviously to the appellant's advantage to take the opinion of Counsel in England as to the advisability of appealing.

When forwarding instructions to England the appellant's or respondent's Agent should send a Power of Attorney, empowering the donee of the same to act for the appellant or respondent, for though a Power of Attorney may not be strictly necessary when the person instructed here is a practising Solicitor, still it is the safer course, as it avoids all question as to the authority of the English Agent.

The following form of Power of Attorney may be adopted by the appellant :—

“ Know all men by these presents that I [we] [insert name or names in full] of [insert full address and qualification] do [and each of us doth] hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint [insert full name, address, and description of the donee of the power] to be my [our] true and lawful Attorney for me [us] in my [our] name [or names] as my [our] Attorney to appear and my [our] person [persons] represent in an Appeal now depending in Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in England from a Decree [Judgment or Order or as the case may be], dated the day of 189 , being regular appeal Number [state number if record bears any] of The [proper title of Court appealed from] in which I [we] the above-named [set out name or names] am [are] appellant [appellants] and [set out name of respondent] is respondent, and for me [us and each of us], and in my [our] name [or names] or in his own name as aforesaid, to enter an appearance before the said Privy Council, or any Judicial Committee thereof, and in manner aforesaid, or in the name of my [our] Counsel, to prepare and lodge a case, and do all such acts, deeds, matters, and things in connection therewith as my [our] said Attorney may deem necessary or proper, and to make such application or applications to the said Privy Council, or any Judicial Committee thereof, as in the prosecution of the said appeal my [our] said Attorney may deem expedient, or may be advised, with full power and authority from time to time to appoint any barrister or barristers, agent or agents, or other person or persons, to do, execute and perform all or any of the matters and things aforesaid, and the same appointment or appointments at pleasure to revoke, and fresh appointments to make, and generally to do, execute, and perform all such acts, deeds, matters, or things in the premises as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as I [we] myself [ourselves] could do if personally present and did the same in my [our] own proper person [persons]. And all and whatsoever my [our] said Attorney may do, or lawfully cause to be done in the premises I [we] hereby covenant with the said [donee of power] to allow, ratify, and confirm. In witness whereof I [we] have herunto set my [our] hand [hands] and seal [seals] this day of 189

Signed, sealed, and delivered by the
 at
 in the presence of
 A. B.
 Address
 Description

This Power must be under seal, and it is advisable to have same executed before, and attested by a Notary Public, or an affidavit of due execution thereof, made by the attesting witness before a Notary Public and annexed to the Power, the Power being duly stamped according to the law in force where executed.

A Power of Attorney by a respondent will be in similar terms to the above form so far as the operative part of the same is concerned, the name of the respondent being substituted for that of the appellant.

By the Order in Council of the 13th June, 1853, the proper officer of the Court from which the appeal comes must forward to the Registrar of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council two certified printed copies, or a certified written copy of the record, this being the first step in the appeal.

The Colonial Agent will have to determine whether the record shall be printed abroad or in England, the latter I think for many reasons the more preferable course, one being that in that case the charges therefore are included in the English Agent's Bill and allowed on Taxation to a successful appellant, whereas they are not so recoverable if the record be printed abroad. If printed abroad the proper officer should forward with the certified copies 50 additional copies.

If the Colonial Agent desires any particular Barrister retained he should notify it when sending the Power of Attorney, otherwise he should mention the nature of the appeal, when a suitable Barrister will be selected by the English Agent.

The cost of appearing and retaining Counsel and notification thereof to Colonial Agent is £8 10s.

After the printing and examination of the record will come the settling of the case, which will subsequently be printed.

In heavy matters it is advisable to have the case settled by two Counsel, as it may also be if the case depends mainly on foreign law.

As to the expense of an appeal, it is not possible to give a reliable estimate until the record is in the hands of the English Agent.

AUTHORITIES TO SOLICITORS OR OTHERS IN ENGLAND TO ACT ON BEHALF OF THOSE ABROAD.

In these cases it is desirable that the person to act should be armed with a Power of Attorney, setting forth fully the acts and things he is to do on behalf of the Donor of the Power.

In the case of it being desired that proceedings be instituted on behalf of the Donor of the Power, it may be stated as a general broad rule (though there are exceptions) that when the Plaintiff, or all the Plaintiffs, if more than one, are resident abroad, security for costs will be ordered to be given on an application by the Defendant.

When a Power of Attorney is sent for either the purpose of instituting or defending an action, full instructions and all necessary documents should accompany, and if the latter are in a foreign language, a translation thereof in English should also be sent. A Banker's or other satisfactory reference in England is also desirable to ensure the instructions being acted upon, if sent by a person hitherto unknown to the Solicitor instructed.

The following form will be found capable of being adapted to the various matters it may be desired to delegate to persons in England :—

“Know all men by these presents that I, A. B., of [address and description] do hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint C. D., of [address and description] to be my true and lawful Attorney in my name and on my behalf, and as my act and deed, to [here set out fully and distinctly, with proper accompanying powers the purpose or purposes for which the Attorney is appointed, such as bringing or defending actions, receiving monies, suing for monies, giving releases or discharges therefor, compromising claims, executing deeds, leasing or managing property, dealing with patents, forming companies under the Companies' Acts, winding up a deceased's estate, or, as the case may require, being careful to make the power large enough to embrace anything the Attorney may be required to do, or which is likely to become necessary in

GRANTS OF LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION, OR LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION WITH WILL ANNEXED, TO ATTORNEY IN ENGLAND OF PERSON RESIDENT ABROAD.

In the case of persons residing out of England who are entitled to a grant of Letters of Administration, or who as executor or executors are entitled to a grant of Probate of his or their Testator's Will, such persons may respectively appoint an Attorney to take out Letters of Administration, or Letters of Administration with Will annexed, in their name and on their behalf. Forms of such Powers of Attorney are as follows:—

POWER OF ATTORNEY TO TAKE OUT LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION TO INTESTATE'S ESTATE IN ENGLAND.

"Whereas A. B., late of [state residence fully] deceased, died on the            day of            189 , at            , intestate, leaving surviving him C. D., his lawful widow and relict [or as the case may be]

Now I the said C. D., the lawful widow and relict of the said A. B., at present residing at [full address] hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint E. F., of [full address and description] to be my true and lawful Attorney for the purpose of obtaining Letters of Administration of all and singular the personal estate and effects of the said A. B. deceased, to be granted to him by the High Court of Justice in England, for my use and benefit, and until I shall duly apply for and obtain Letters of Administration of the personal estate and effects of the said deceased, to be granted to me, and I hereby promise to ratify and confirm whatever my said Attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done in the premises. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this            day of            in the year of our Lord 189 ."

FORMATION AND INCORPORATION OF COMPANIES IN ENGLAND UNDER THE COMPANIES' ACTS 1862 TO 1890.

This is a large subject, and beyond the scope of this work to deal with at length, and moreover, not likely to be of great practical value, as those resident in the United Kingdom, if they do not possess it, can easily obtain information on all points connected with it, and those abroad would scarcely proceed far (if at all), without the advice and opinion of an English Solicitor; still, perhaps, the following short remarks as to the formation of a Company limited by shares, which is the one most common, may be of some use to those abroad.

Firstly as to what a Company is. The Companies' Act of 1862 enacts (a) that no partnership of more than 10 persons is to be formed for Banking purposes unless it is registered under the Act, or is formed under some Act of Parliament or Letters Patent.

(b) No partnership of more than 20 persons is to be formed for the acquisition of gain unless registered under the Act, or is formed under an Act of Parliament or Letters Patent, or unless it is formed for working certain mines within the jurisdiction of the Stannaries.

Though not bound to register unless its members amount to 20, yet any 7 or more persons associated for any lawful purpose for profit may be so registered.

Such Companies, as a rule, are formed for the purpose of raising and obtaining from the general public the Capital necessary for the object for which the Company has been formed by the issue and advertisement of a prospectus setting forth the amount of Capital and its distribution into shares, the names of the Directorate, a description of the undertaking, and its dividend earning prospects.

This prospectus must contain no statement of fact which the promoters do not actually know to be correct, and must contain no statement of probabilities which they do not believe to be correct ; the date of and parties to every contract verbal or written, affecting the Company, must be set out.

Further, any fraudulent statement or concealment of fact will subject the persons putting the same forward to criminal proceedings.

It should also be noted particularly that where a statement purporting to be a statement by, or contained in, what purports to be a copy of, or extract, from a report or valuation of an engineer, valuer, accountant, or other expert, it must fairly represent the statement made by such engineer, &c., and must be a correct and fair copy of, or extract, from the report or valuation also.

Where any statement, report or valuation is made by an engineer, valuer, accountant, or other expert, it should be shown that the person making the same was competent to do so, also that where a statement purporting to be a statement made by official persons, or contained in what purports to be a copy of, or extract, from a public official document, it must be a correct and fair representation of, such statement or copy of or extract, from such document.

By The Directors' Liability Act, 1890, the word "expert" includes any person whose profession gives authority to a statement made by him.

The exact objects, nature, and full extent and scope of business, &c, proposed to be formed into a Company, having been determined, it will be necessary to carefully consider whether the Articles of Association contained in Table A, Schedule 1, to the Companies' Act, 1862, suit the Company proposed to be registered—this will be matter for consideration by the solicitors—if not, special Articles of Association must be prepared to meet the particular case, and printed and registered with the Memorandum of Association. This Memorandum of Association of a Company limited by shares contains the following information :—

(a) The name of the proposed Company, with the addition of the word "Limited" as the last word in such name.

(b) The part of the United Kingdom where the registered Office of the Company is intended to be situate.

(c) The objects for which the proposed Company is to be established.

(d) A declaration that the liability of the members is limited.

(e) The amount of Capital with which the Company proposes to be registered divided into shares of a certain fixed amount.

This memorandum of Association must be signed by at least 7 persons, each of whom must write opposite to his name the number of shares he takes.

Foreigners on complying with the requisitions of the Companies' Acts may obtain incorporation under them, though the principal business of the Company is intended to be carried on abroad.

If the Articles in Table A above mentioned suit the Company, it may be registered without Articles, in which case the Company formed will be bound by the provisions contained in Table A.

On the registration of the Memorandum of Association of a Company, duties and fees of three kinds are payable, namely, deed stamps, fee stamps, and ad valorem duty.

When sending to England with instructions or for information with a view to registering a Company limited by shares under the Companies' Acts, it is advisable for the Foreign Solicitor or Agent to give the fullest particulars and details of the undertaking, business, concession, patent, or other matter proposed to form the subject of the Company—including the title thereto, particulars of any subsidies or bounties and how guaranteed and of any other contracts or obligations, verbal or in writing, affecting the subject matter of the proposed Company, together with his own opinion or that of an expert of what the full scope of the Company's business should embrace.

Copies of any documents, plans, photographs, valuations, models or specimens should accompany as also the opinions (if any) of any experts which may have been obtained bearing on the title to, the value and use of, or necessity for, or the probable success of such undertaking, shewing in the case of works, of a purely local character, the necessities or requirements of the district, also information, whether any, and if so, what works of a similar kind, and to what extent exist in the district, the length of time they have been in existence and the financial result and such other and additional information (if any) as may be necessary to enable the solicitors consulted here to deal satisfactorily with the matter, either by way of advice, the preparation of the documents necessary for registering the Company, drafting the prospectus, or in any other way the instructions may require.

And lastly let me say that the furnishing of a full, fair and honest statement at first saves long correspondence and waste of time and innumerable difficulties afterwards.

PATENTS, REGISTRATION OF, IN ENGLAND.

Any New Art, new manufacture or new combination of two or more known things producing a new and useful result, or any new chemical or other process, is good subject matter for a patent, as is also any improvement on existing manufacture, &c., though to be new it must be unknown to the public in the United Kingdom.

Any person, whether a British Subject or not, may apply for a patent, and any two persons may make a joint application for a patent.

The first step is an application by the Inventor in the following form.

"I (name, address and calling of inventor) do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am in possession of an invention for [insert here the title of invention as "Improvements in Bicycles" or as the case may be] that I am the true and first inventor thereof and that the same is not in use by any other person or persons to the best of my knowledge and belief and I humbly pray that a patent may be granted to me for the said invention.

And I make the above solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act, 1835."

Declared at
in the County of this        day of 1892 before me
[Signature and Title of Officer before whom declared]

} Signature of Inventor.

Where the declaration is made out of the United Kingdom the words, "and by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act, 1835," must be omitted, and the same declared before a duly qualified officer [see ante Declarations taken abroad].

Where declared by more than one person the names must be stated in the jurat thus, "Declared by the above named, A. B. and C. D."

This Declaration must be accompanied by either a provisional or complete specification. The former must describe the nature of the invention sufficiently to enable the comptroller subsequently to say that the invention claimed by the complete specification is substantially the same as that disclosed by the provisional specification, and be accompanied by drawings if required. The complete specification must particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the invention, and in what manner it is to be performed, and must be accompanied by drawings if required, and both must commence with the Title of the invention, and in the case of a complete specification, must end with a distinct statement of the invention claimed.

FORM OF PROVISIONAL SPECIFICATION.

[Here insert title as "Improvements in Bicycles" or as may be]
 I [name, address and calling of the inventor as in Declaration] do hereby declare the nature of my invention for "improvements in bicycles" to be as follows [insert short description of invention].
 Dated this                    day of                    1892.

[Signature of Inventor].

FORM OF COMPLETE SPECIFICATION.

[Here insert title, as "Improvements in Bicycles"]

I [name, address and calling of inventor as in declaration] do hereby declare the nature of my invention for [Improvements in Bicycles or as may be] and in what manner the same is to be performed to be particularly described and ascertained in and by the following statement [insert full description of invention]. Having now particularly described and ascertained the nature of my said invention, and in what manner the same is to be performed, I declare that what I claim is [state distinctly the features of the novelty claimed in separate and numbered paragraphs, if possible].

Dated this                    day of                    1892.

[Signature of Inventor.]

If applicant does not leave a complete specification with his application, he has 9 months within which to lodge same, but no action for infringement will lie in respect of any act committed before the reception of the complete specification, though the inventor can freely work and sell his invention during this period. When completed, the protection given is the sole right for fourteen years of making and selling, or importing the article or process patented, in the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man, and on the adjacent seas, subject to the Board of Trade's power to compel an inventor to grant a licence for user on such terms as the Board of Trade may think fit.

The fees payable on application for provisional protection are £1, on filing complete specification therewith £3, or on filing subsequently complete specification £4.

A certificate of renewal before the end of 4 years from the date of patent £50, further before the end of 7 years £100, though these two latter sums may be paid by annual instalments extending from the 3rd to the 13th years (See note at foot).

Where international or colonial arrangements have been made with Her Majesty's Government for the mutual protection of inventions, any person applying for protection in such Country shall be entitled to a patent for his invention in the United Kingdom in, priority to other applicants, such patent to bear the date of the protection obtained in such foreign or colonial country—provided that application is made within 6 months, in this country or in countries beyond the sea, 7 months, of the date of application abroad, though no damages for infringement are recoverable before acceptance of complete specification here.

The above has been written rather by way of information and for the guidance of an inventor, than to be acted upon without the assistance of such agent. From experience I should not advise an inventor, unless a very able man, to dispense with the assistance of a competent Patent Agent. To begin with, the complete specification requires the greatest care and skill to prepare, and upon its validity depends the value of the patent, and inasmuch as the invention claimed by the complete specification must be substantially the same as that described in the provisional one, it follows that the latter should be supervised by a Patent Agent and made sufficiently large to embrace all that it may be desired to claim, more particularly by the complete specification, as otherwise, however clever the Patent Agent may be, he will be unable "to make a silk purse out of a sow's ear," and cure a badly drawn and defective provisional specification.

N.B.—On and after the 1st October next the order of the Board of Trade reducing the renewal and other patent fees for inventions will come into force, viz.: Before the expiration of the fourth year, £5 instead of £10; fifth year, £6 instead of £10; sixth year, £7 instead of £10; seventh year, £8 instead of £10; eighth year, £9 instead of £15; ninth year, £10 instead of £15; tenth year, £11 instead of £20; eleventh year, £12 instead of £20; twelfth year, £13 instead of £20; thirteenth year £14 instead of £20.

On enlargement of time for payment of renewal fees:—Not exceeding one month, £1 instead of £3; not exceeding two months, £3 instead of £7: not exceeding three months, £5 instead of £10.
