The Waterproof and Motor Coats For Men's Spring Wear

This is the Week for April Showers

The waterproofs we show this Spring have certainly been designed with an eye to usefulness. Generally the paramatta cloth is used; it is very serviceable in both texture and color, and is quite light in weight. The coats button to the neck, protecting the tie and collar, and are cut full and long.

HERE IS AN IDEA OF THE PRICE RANGE:

AT 5.90—Rubberized waterproof coat of olive paramatta cloth; 50 inches long with Russian collar buttoning close to throat; slash pockets; checked linings, all seams sewn; sizes 36 to 46.

AT 10.00—A fine quality English paramatta in olive or fawn, 50 and 52 inches long with military stand collar; talma or slash pockets; wind cuff in sleeves; all seams sewn; sizes 36 to 46.

AT 13.50—The "Raglan" is an imported English, double texture paramatta cloth, fawn and reseda. Buttoned-through front; military stand collar; wind cuff in sleeves. The seams are all strapped in the outside, giving a decidedly smart effect to the garment.

AT 7.90—Pleasing quality of cashmere paramatta cloth in reseda green and fawn, military collars, slash pockets, sewn seams, rubber-faced bottoms; sizes 36 to 46.

The "Raglan" is the style leader in the season's waterproof; it is fashioned with continuous sleeves to neck, doing away with the shoulder seams. The paramatta cloth is of a noticeably fine texture, and in two shades, reseda and fawn. Military stand collar; wind cuff in sleeve; sizes 36 to 46. Price 11.50.

AT 11.50—"The Mobile" has a triple front, making it a splendid protection in a rain storm. Long, full-skirted coat with slash pockets and military collar. The shades are the new reseda and olive paramatta cloth; sizes 36 to 46.

600 Men's Knitted Neckties at 9c

In spite of all the care that is exercised by the operators, slight imperfections are frequently found when the finished tie is examined. Usually no more than a dropped stitch; sometimes an oil spot. If the fault will not show in the wear, the goods are held for us to sell as "seconds" at a small fraction of their real value.

Here is such a lot. The ties are of the regular medium width four-in-hand shape, and in all shades. Some silk neckwear will be included. See the window display. Can't promise to fill phone or mail orders. Take your early choice, for each .9c

Men's Working Shirts, Wednesday, 25c

Black sateen and black and white drill; collar attached, double sewn seams, full size bodies; sizes 15 to 18. Not more than two shirts to each customer. While the lot lasts, each .25

Handle Variation in Umbrellas

It may seem like putting the wrong foot forward to mention the handles first. But the handle of your umbrella is quite as important as the weatherproof qualities. EATON umbrellas all are good clothes protectors in a rain storm, but, putting that aside, do you realize that a handle you cannot easily recognize is a constant source of embarrassment that usually ends in loss? These umbrellas have a big assortment of handles—not to consider the splendid value they give, for the Wednesday price .87

Gloves That Will Wear, 65c

That's what you want in a glove, wearing quality. Then you choose a glove that is gracefully as well as properly cut, the seam must be well sewn (these are firmly oversewn) and the pointing must be silk of good quality.

For an inexpensive glove this 65c quality for women has these points in a good degree and besides gives a color range of tan, mode, brown and green. Two dome fasteners complete a very serviceable glove. Wednesday, per pair .65 MAIN FLOOR—YONGE ST.

Odd Pillows, 69c

Only 100 of them, complete pillows with stenciled burlap tops or art dimity in floral designs, thoroughly useable and just the size to toss into a hammock or to be used as a head rest. These pillows include a form covered in our workrooms and are easily worth nearly twice as much. Wednesday, each .69

The usual cost is nearly twice the Wednesday price, per yard .19 MAIN FLOOR—YONGE ST.

Women's Vests and Slips

Naturally after such a torrent of buying as we experienced before Easter there'd be havoc played with many assortments—we've got things in order again, and Wednesday we clean up stock properly by getting rid of the lines too broken to remain here.

Women's Princess Slips, fine cotton, neck finished with lace beading and ribbon, skirt with frill of fine lawn with two clusters of fine tucks, and edge of fine lace; sizes 40 and 42. Price .75

Women's Vests, fine quality merino (wool and cotton mixture), light spring weight, long and short sleeves, color cream; sizes 32 to 38. Price .25

Women's Gowns $1.00

Ostrich Plumes For Millinery For Dress Occasions

The woman who chooses ostrich plumes for her millinery trimming has a hat particularly adapted for dressy wear—especially one of those elegant, large picture hats; the graceful ostrich plume has a softness, richness and beauty no other millinery trimming possesses. We're showing a beautiful feather in Prince of Wales style, specially suitable for the arrangement of plumes this season; with very full fibre, in rich glossy black; 21 inches long, each 10.00

AT $4.25 PRINCE OF WALES plume, long fibre, well curled, black only, 19 inches long. Price 4.25 SECOND FLOOR—YONGE ST.

Women's Spring Suits

Those who have yet their Spring costume to buy will select from assortments that give no hint of the great business done this Easter—a business that has grown purely upon the merit of the values and good styles offered—what's particularly pleasing is the great number of different styles from which one may select, in suits, coats and dresses, and the earlier Easter this season has had a tendency to divide the favors between the separate coat and the Spring suit. As a convincing evidence of our preparedness for after-Easter buyers, we ask you to see these lines Wednesday. 9.75, 10.00, 10.95 up to 22.50.

High-Class Spring Walking Suits, at $25.00

Both imported models and our own make, in French and English suiting, beautiful wide waives, and diagonal weaves, fine striped worsteds and shepherd's check; the correct shades for spring. 25.00 SECOND FLOOR—JAMES STREET.

Young Women's Suits $10.75

It's not so long ago that a "young woman's suit section" was an unknown quantity, true a few styles were displayed, but more as a completion to other stocks—the young woman was content to take what she got—but what a change has since taken place! The great wave of popularity for the ready-made garment swept over the land, the cry was taken up amongst the young women—manufacturers turned their attention to young women's styles and needs—and EATON designers weren't behind in the march, until now there's an array of styles and fashions for the young woman that leaves nothing to be desired.

Here are racks and racks of garments that portray every good style feature—the neat pleated skirt—the trim plain-tailored style—all the fashion newness that the great designers have devised to gratify the demands of more mature folks is applied to designs for young women. The youthful grace and simplicity that marks these garments both in EATON made and imported, strongly denotes the thought, care and attention that has been devoted to the designing, and the remarkable scope afforded by our lavish assortments gives the young woman ample opportunity to gratify her every whim as regards color, weave, style or price.

After an Easter business that has broken every record we ever made, there's no better test of the attention we've given to this Section than to see such a wealth of desirable styles—no sign of the inroads into quantities, sizes, etc., that were made by that great Easter rush—we had expected such, and had prepared accordingly—expected it because never have we given such good choice or such good values. Here's an instance:

Young Women's Suits $10.75

New spring styles, three-buttoned single-breasted semi-fitting coat, notch collar with long lapel, turn cuffs, skirt pleated in a very smart style, material of worsted cloth, colors include ashes of violet, navy, ashes of roses, amethyst, grey, aeroplane, cadet or black; bust 32, 34 and 36; skirt lengths 35 to 38. Very special value, 10.75 exactly as illustrated, each 10.75 2ND FLOOR—JAMES ST. NORTH.

Special: Men's Box Calf Boots, $1.25

For serviceable and comfortable every day wear, box calf is the best leather a man could buy, it's almost as pliable and soft as kid, yet turns dampness, doesn't scuff easily and gives most pleasing service. Remarkable about these is the price—any man who has ever bought $1.25 boots will quickly realize that here's an offer that deserves special early-shopping attention.

600 PAIRS, splendid style and good wearing box calf skin, blucher cut tops, heavy solid soles and heels, a neat comfortable shape, a splendid boot for working, sizes 6 to 11. Wednesday 1.25

AN ATTACK ON MANHOOD.

The proposal to stop betting by stopping horse-racing is a rather far-reaching and drastic method, but it is the method of the Miller bill now up at Ottawa.

Moreover it is an interference with personal liberty in a way that ought to be of some concern to every man. Personal liberty is our dearest possession. And to have the preachers of the country, concerning in a demand for a law making it a crime to bet with a bookmaker at a racetrack, or with a friend for that matter, is the most dangerous kind of interference with personal liberty that we know of. These reverend gentlemen wish to regulate all our lives, and they would if they could or if the peg is not now put in. There are many other regulations they would like to make. We decline to live by the rule of life that Reverend MacDonald of The Globe would make for us. And he seems to be the chief mover in the Miller bill. And yet this same Globe that supports the Miller bill in its editorial page denounces it on its sporting page. It is MacDonald, the holy editor, against the wicked Nelson of the sporting page. Nelson the racing official and the companion of bookies! Surely there is some regard for decency and consistency to be expected in a newspaper of such pretension as The Globe. When The Globe has rid itself of its own betting annex it can clean other people's houses!

And on top of this attack on personal liberty is the most disgraceful kind of attack on the freedom of members of parliament, instigated by the citizens and The Globe and The Star in the prayer meetings of the churches. Members of parliament are being intimidated in this way to vote for the bill! Morality based on law and intimidation is worthless and can only end in perversion.

The world trusts that parliament will refuse to be intimidated by the preachers or the professional moral reformers that edit The Globe and The Star, and that it will go slow in turning over our personal conduct to the whims of the preachers.

There is a noted Englishman in America to-day and he may be here amongst us in a few days. What he said about clerical interference in politics in The New York Sun of Saturday last we printed in The World of yesterday. We ask the men of Canada to read it once more. Said Sir Robert Perks:

"As for the present position of the nonconformists in England, they are beginning to discover what their forefathers found out in the time of the commonwealth, and that it is never safe to follow clerical advice, and that no greater mistake can be made than to intrust their political destiny to the leadership of their preachers."

There is an evil of betting and it may become a public menace; when it does regulate it; but do it in the right way. The amendment that allows bookmaking for seven days meets twice a year on incorporated tracks and only during the progress of a meeting will meet every objection and will still leave some liberty to the men of the nation. Miller's bill as it stands is an attack on manhood; it is an effort to revive clerical regulation of our lives in things where each man ought to be his own master. When you've killed off the national sports you've killed national manhood.

ON THE OTHER TACK.

It would be strange after all these years if the street railway adopted the policy of killing the city by kindness. It is doubtful if even in ten years the people could forget what they have put up with in the last ten, but it is the best chance the company has to get a renewal of its franchise, and that is what the company wants. It remains to be seen, therefore, whether, in pursuance of a definite policy of conciliation, and having a perfectly free hand to do so, the company will now proceed to give the people a faultless service, in which there shall be no overcrowding, no shortage of cars, a regular and adequate schedule, an up-to-date night car service, a considerate regard for passengers generally, and a willingness to accede to reasonable requests.

There has never been any desire on the part of anyone to obstruct the company in carrying out the terms of its contract. Criticism and opposition were the natural results of the treatment the citizens received from the company.

Manager Fleming's announcement may well inaugurate a new era. The new lines he proposes having constructed will supply tracks beyond the possibility of congestion, and with a hundred new cars there ought to be a sufficient service for the districts covered. The city will give Mr. Fleming every opportunity to make his professions good, and will welcome the

TUBES THE CITY'S PROTECTION.

About $500,000 is the estimated revenue for the year to the city from the street railway percentages. This is an important amount, however, considered in the city accounts. Assaults are being made upon it from various quarters, the Ottawa Government apparently not being too anxious to protect the city from the attacks of sundry corporations, figuring as the franchise in the city accounts. Assaults are being made upon it from various quarters, the Ottawa Government apparently not being too anxious to protect the city from the attacks of sundry corporations, figuring as the franchise in the city accounts.

Moreover it is an interference with personal liberty in a way that ought to be of some concern to every man. Personal liberty is our dearest possession. And to have the preachers of the country, concerning in a demand for a law making it a crime to bet with a bookmaker at a racetrack, or with a friend for that matter, is the most dangerous kind of interference with personal liberty that we know of. These reverend gentlemen wish to regulate all our lives, and they would if they could or if the peg is not now put in. There are many other regulations they would like to make. We decline to live by the rule of life that Reverend MacDonald of The Globe would make for us. And he seems to be the chief mover in the Miller bill. And yet this same Globe that supports the Miller bill in its editorial page denounces it on its sporting page. It is MacDonald, the holy editor, against the wicked Nelson of the sporting page. Nelson the racing official and the companion of bookies! Surely there is some regard for decency and consistency to be expected in a newspaper of such pretension as The Globe. When The Globe has rid itself of its own betting annex it can clean other people's houses!

The city ought to take steps to make assurance doubly sure that there is no danger of the alienation of this revenue, whether by legislation at Ottawa and the introduction of unwarranted competition from outside with the city traction services, or by the failure to take advantage of the opportunities which Toronto has at present. Out of a sum approaching $500,000 a year Toronto ought to be able to take at least $30,000, or little more than 5 per cent. of the present percentage, and devote it to getting the best engineering, legal, and traction advice that can be found anywhere. There must be no mistakes about the building and the operation of the new tube system. There must be no legal flaws or loopholes by which the city may be entangled with alleged rights or privileges. There must be no blundering in laying out of the system so as to give the most efficient service with the greatest economy of outlay.

The whole world ought to be made aware of what Toronto intends at the present time. There would be no difficulty in getting organized capital to take hold of the tube proposition for the city, build it and operate it for the ten years remaining till the expiry of the main street railway franchise, and then hand it over to the city to be run in combination with the central city system. It has been suggested that Toronto would not be willing to vote the money to build the tube system, but there will be no difficulty in showing the citizens that the scheme is a perfectly sound and solvent one. What a company would willingly do the city can profitably undertake.

CANADA AND THE WEST INDIES.

Considerable difference of opinion was found by the royal commission, appointed to enquire into the matter, to exist over the possibility of arranging a general system of preferential trade between Canada and the West Indies. In the larger islands of Jamaica and Trinidad, dependent to a large extent on the United States market, a feeling of apprehension prevails among a section of the planters that if the United States were discriminated against through the granting of preferential duties to Canadian importers, it might retaliate by imposing import duties on the maximum duties on West Indian products, that are now admitted free or subject to the minimum tariff rates. As Canada under present circumstances can only absorb a fractional percentage of West Indian exports, the possible restriction of the United States market is a factor that naturally enters into the discussion.

Another deficiency that militates against more extensive trade exchange between the Dominion and the West Indies is that of inadequate steamship service. This difficulty has figured prominently during the course of the committee's investigation and appears to arise in part at least from the hazardous system of subsidies given to the various lines by the Imperial, Canadian and the principal island governments. It is expected that the commission will devote special attention to the problem, particularly with the view of devising such a co-ordinated system as will best meet the requirements of trade and tourist traffic. The solution is dependent on the possibility of arranging for co-operation between the steamship companies and the governments and for the influx into the West Indies of additional capital. In this latter connection it is regrettable that part of the Canadian capital invested in Mexico, Cuba and South America was not employed in the development

PREPARING FOR EVENTUALITIES.

Among the banking and financial paragraphs appearing in "Canada," a London, Eng., illustrated weekly, devoted to affairs Canadian, under date of March 19, is one side-headed "Preparing for Eventualities." It deals with the financial position of the Toronto Street Railway, and the fact that its directors "have not been unmindful of the possibility of the refusal of the municipality to renew the company's franchise in 1921."

"Canada," "Canada" has been reminded by a "prominent Canadian financial house" that the surplus profits have been wisely invested in anticipation of this eventuality, and it adds that "the authority we have quoted is of the opinion that, in view of the remarkable growth in the business of this company, there is every prospect of the present capitalization being fully represented by assets in 1921."

This last is not so much a surprising as a significant admission that it will take the present wisely invested surplus profits, and the surplus profits of the street railway company up till 1921, to make up the deficiency between its capitalization and its assets. That the stock of the company is heavily watered has been frequently alleged, and it is something to have the charge admitted by a "prominent Canadian financial house," and an indication of the millions of dollars involved. The paragraphist concludes by observing that, "whether or not the belief that operation of public utilities by municipalities in the next ten years will have the effect of reducing the value of municipal results and better service can be obtained thru municipal operation of such service, is justified, certainly it must be admitted that such an opinion will not be endorsed by those who constitute the head, and front of municipalization in Canada in 1910." Certainly not by Toronto, which is thrifty and of providing dividends on millions of watered stock and surplus profits, to provide for the deficiency between capitalization and assets. Is it wonderful that the service is starved that this may be done?

GOLD HEADED CANE

Will Be Carried This Year by Dr. Cullen of Baltimore.

The ex-house staff of doctors of the Toronto General Hospital held a banquet at the King Edward Hotel last night. A gold-headed cane was presented to Dr. Thomas Cullen of Baltimore, to be carried by him for one year for making the best contribution to medical literature of the past year. The cane is a copy of one in the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, London, England, which was carried for a period of 125 years by its celebrated London physicians. The cane presented last night was given by P. C. Larkin, vice-chairman of the board of trustees of the hospital. Owing to bereavement in his family Mr. Larkin was unable to attend and J. W. Flavell made the presentation.

Those who spoke were Dr. R. Hill, M. J. Haney, Dr. Samuel Johnson, Dr. T. H. Middlemore, I. H. Cameron, Dr. Thomas Cullen, Dr. H. C. Parsons, Dr. C. O'Reilly, Dr. S. R. Rymon, and Dr. W. E. Galtie. Music was furnished by Dr. W. E. Tindale, W. J. Cameron, Dr. H. C. Scadding, and Dr. W. A. Davies.

FIRST INTO PORT

Macassa Arrives From Hamilton With Mayor on Board.

The steamer Macassa of Hamilton, under the captaincy of James Henderson, again claims the distinction of opening Toronto harbor to navigation. She left Hamilton at 9:10 a.m. yesterday and arrived here at 11:45, tying up at her new docking quarters on the east side of the city wharf.

Her appearance in the harbor was hailed by blasts and screeches of all the harbor tug and ferryboats. The question as to who shall receive the harbor-master's hat is still in dispute. Mr. Postlethwaite was not in the city yesterday, but it is pretty generally believed that Capt. Henderson has for the third time copied this trophy.

Among the passengers aboard were Mayor McLaren of Hamilton; General Manager Walsh, Chief Engineer William Noonan and Capt. Pat Walsh of the Modjeska. Ald. Alf Maguire and Local Manager Callaghan of the Hamilton Steamship Co. welcomed the vessel's arrival.

MONTREAL, March 28.—(Special.)—The Rev. When he went to the west his particular district did not raise a bushel of wheat, yet last year he less than 800,000 bushels were gathered.

"I had suffered several weeks with La Grippe. Had pains in my head and eyes. It felt as though there was a heavy weight on the top of my head, until it seemed that my brain would burst. I was so nervous that I could not rest or sleep. When I dozed off I would awake with a sudden jerking of my whole body. Dr. Miles' Nerve, Heart Remedy and Nerve and Liver Pills cured me. A number of friends have since realized the same benefits."

O.L.A. DEBATE PROBLEM OF THE SMALL LIBRARY

Formation of Committees Recommended by Inspector Nurey To Deal With Institutions.

The problems of the small library were discussed at considerable length at the afternoon session of the Ontario Library Association, which commenced its tenth annual meeting in the physics building of the University of Toronto yesterday. Several suggestions of combating the apathy which prevailed throughout many rural districts in regard to the upkeep of a public library were adduced by the various speakers, the general trend of the speeches indicating that insufficient financial support and lack of competent librarians were at the root of the trouble.

"Time was when the public library was dealt with by the struggling institutions which received neither legislative nor municipal grants. He recommended the formation of committees to investigate the cases of these smaller libraries, whose annual receipts in many instances were less than $1. His recommendation that financial assistance, graded to meet individual cases, be extended by the government, met with warm approval from his hearers.

In conclusion he paid a tribute to the traveling libraries inaugurated by the Ontario Government. Miss Aherne, editor of The Public Library, Chicago, in a brief speech expressed the opinion that the smaller institutions which found difficulty in supporting themselves should amalgamate with the other libraries.

"Time was when the public library movement was looked upon with a certain amount of skepticism," said Judge Hardy, speaking on "Our Library Situation," in his annual address. "But Carnegie's advent in the field has given the movement a great impetus, and the Ontario Government has also assisted in a practical manner."

He emphasized the need of good librarians, remarking that Ontario was still virgin soil in that respect.

The suggestion which he made in conclusion, that library schools should be established for the training of librarians, will be dealt with by a special committee.

Dr. N. C. Hodges, Cincinnati, president of the American Library Association, and A. Denholm, Blenheim, made the report of the special committee on "technical education in public libraries."

Among other things the committee recommends a department for technical books for the artisan; the formation of reading clubs for workmen; the posting of lists of books in the factories; the adoption of picture collections, and conferences with the manufacturers.

Edwin E. Stevens, Brooklyn, N. Y., gave an address on "The Public Library and Technical Education." The election of officers resulted as follows: President, A. W. Cameron, Woodstock; 1st vice-president, L. J. Burpee, Ottawa; 2nd vice-president, Dr. C. R. Charter, Chatham; secretary, C. A. Hardy, Toronto; treasurer, H. H. Langton, Toronto; councillors, Judge E. Hardy (Brampton), G. H. Locke (Toronto), W. F. Moore (Dundas), D. H. Williams (Collingwood), H. J. Clarke (Belleville), Rev. W. A. Bradley (Burlington), Dr. M. Grant (Sarnia), Mrs. Jacob (Oshawa).

A resolution was unanimously passed to increase the secretary's honorarium from $100 to $150.

WOUNDED BY RIFLEMAN

Bryant Fryer, a Galt Boy, Gets a Bullet Thru His Thigh.

GALT, March 28.—(Special.)—Bryant Fryer, the only son of J. H. Fryer, manager of the Galt Bros. Dry Goods, was seriously wounded this afternoon by a bullet fired from a rifle. A man, whose name is not known, was on the west side of the river, and Fryer, in crossing the river, was hit in the thigh. Several of the bullets whistled around them and Fryer proceeded to run, when he was hit. A callous bullet passed thru the thigh, inflicting an ugly wound. Fryer was taken to the Galt house and Dr. MacKendrick attended him.

FARMER IS FOUND SHOT

Young Married Man Thought to Have Been Accidentally Killed.

WINDSOR, Ont., March 28.—The body of Vernon H. Goss, a well-known young farmer of Gosford Township, married but a few months, was found this morning near a fence on his father's farm.

It is believed he accidentally shot himself while out shooting crows.

Imperial Teachers' Alliance. The third annual meeting of the Imperial Teachers' Alliance was held in the auditorium of the normal school yesterday evening. The secretary's report showed a gratifying increase in membership, and a notable feature of the past year was the publication of the Ontario Teachers' Alliance Register.

Officers were elected as follows: President, D. Young, Guelph; first vice-president, W. Scott, Toronto; second vice-president, Principal Ellis, Kingston; secretary, E. T. Young, Toronto; treasurer, C. Kelly, Hamilton. The executive committee are the same as last year with the exception of the substitution of Dr. Embree for Principal Ellis.

Planting Sweet Peas. The earlier the seed of sweet peas is sown the better. If sown in fall and wintered over by means of an impromptu frame, the plants are much better than if sown in spring, but as this is out of the question for this year we will make a point to get them into the ground as early as possible.

Plant the seed just as soon as frost is out of the ground. Sow in trenches six inches deep, in which some good manure has been turned under, and as the seeds sprout and grow keep them covered with soil until by spring the trench is level with the surrounding ground. In filling the trench do not throw in the soil with the seeds, but take a handful and rub it between the hands to thoroughly pulverize it—Garden Magazine.

Security is the Important Feature in Life Insurance

The Manufacturers Life during 1909 added the very large sum of $1,270,685 to its reserves for the protection of policyholders.

This places all its business on an exceedingly conservative basis—(Hm. 3 1/2 per cent. throughout).

The company's policyholders thus have unexcelled security.

To accomplish this for the policyholders' protection required the setting aside of $277,000 more than would have been needed on the Reserve basis previously used.

It is gratifying to know that this was done without reducing the Surplus.

It pays to insure in such a successful company.

FESTIVAL OF LILIES WINS GREAT PLAUDITS

Best Entertainment in Many Years—Distinguished by Special Features.

A quite new feature marked the Sixteenth Evening of "The Festival of Lilies," at Massey Hall last night. This concert is one which annually draws a very large audience, but never before in the musical history of this popular performance has there been such a perfecting house as greeted Mr. Law Rice and his artistic fingers in the auditorium and galleries of Massey Hall yesterday evening.

Children's Delight. The event is always important from the father's and mother's side, and naturally the children were most interested in the "pantomimes," so cleverly devised, yearly, by Mrs. Rogers. She sang, as yet, as little as a child, but was very happily assisted last night by George Graham at the organ, who displayed an interpretative style of a quality which marked him as an artist who will eventually attain high celebrity.

Tandy's Solos. Not the least to be congratulated was Mr. Rechab Tandy, a gentleman who is always foremost in support of charitable causes. Mr. Tandy sang last night Grainer's "Rosanna" and Elgar's "Land of Hope and Glory."

His rounded, resonant tones and his sympathetic vocal style disclosed him as a thoroughly musical vocalist, possibly not surpassed in concert work in Canada.

Mr. Rees has a fondness for "plain song" and seemingly delights in the "doubled" voiced female quartet, which, to say the least, is disconcerting to modern harmony. (He might try 2-4 chords once in a while for variation on the cadences of "My Old Kentucky Home.")

The management of "The Festival of Lilies," however, may congratulate themselves on the most successful concert in their history. J. D. Logan.

Languages of the World. Statisticians who have delved into the subject of languages tell us that there are approximately 279 now in use throughout the world. To give absolutely the number of tongues would be manifestly impossible, for the reason that there are still unexplored parts of the world where tribes are known to exist.

Until ethnological surveys are made of every nook and cranny of this old world it will be impossible to classify all of the languages.—La Crosse Daily Chronicle.

AT THE THEATRES

Royal Alexandra

"Havana."

That another Easter Day is passed and over was sufficiently obvious from the long line of motor cars that awaited the closing of the first performance of the London Gaiety success, "Havana," presented at the Royal Alexandra last night. It was greeted by an audience which left few seats unoccupied in the parquet and none in the balconies, and included many representatives of Toronto society. This musical play, composed by Leslie Stuart of "Florodora" fame, and with the book written by George Grossmith, Jr. and Graham Hill, met with marked approval, a result deservedly due to the bright music, clever comedy, attractive dancing and exceptionally beautiful scenery and staging.

Following classic precedent, "Havana" has a double plot—humorous, turning on the career of Samuel Nix, a matrimonial outlaw and ho'um of an American yacht, The Wasp—the other of a more farcical character concerning a meditated revolution of a distinctly South American flavor. Sam had visited Havana in the year 1901, and there married Anita, a woman whose personality he does not remember. Seven years later he again finds himself in the Cuban city, but in mortal dread of running across his deserted spouse, who for her part expects to be freed by 10 o'clock of the eventful day the ho'um enters upon the adventures recorded in the play.

The watchword of the revolutionaries in 1901, and Sam is everlastingly miffing it while bewailing his unfortunate position. This involves him in the conspiracy and leads to his mistaking the expedition against his long lost wife. She is the sister of the mayor, an impetuous cigar manufacturer, who seeks to retrieve his fortunes through the revolution and the marriage of his son, fresh from an English university, and his niece, Consuelo, the real owner of the establishment. She has had a love affair with J. D. Poyater Jackson, the owner of the yacht, who returns, seeking a reconciliation and also gets involved in the conspiracy. All this leads to a series of odd complications, which are the paces on which hangs the fun of the comedy.

As Samuel Nix, James T. Powers finds a role that suits his fresh and original humor. He throws himself heartily into the spirit of the comedy and his varied appearances were accompanied by a constant ripple of laughter that showed the hearty enjoyment of the audience. The plot of the several verses which had more point than sometimes happens were greatly helped by his amusing business and he scored a decided hit. He was supported by a very large and excellent company of players, dancers, singers, chorus and show ladies. Cuban gentlemen and soldiers, who filled the stage with life and movement.

Miss Edith Decker as Consuelo sang and acted with taste and expression; Miss Geraldine Malone as Anita, Sam's wife, showed herself a vivacious comedienne, and Miss Suzanne Willis as the ambitious sister was sufficiently ponderous for the part. Ernest Lambert as the English son took the leading part in the two outstanding choruses, "Hello, People," and "Cupid's Telephone," two numbers which were remarkably attractive and won repeated recalls. Harold Vizard as the Mayor, Joseph Phillips as the American owner, Will Phillips as Sam's nephew, Percy Ames as Reginald Brown, steward of the yacht, and Sammy's cronies, all showed marked ability. The numerous other characters in the cast were competently filled. Havana will be played during the week, with the usual Thursday and Saturday matinees.

Princess

"A Fool There Was." "When destiny can't get a man any other way, she sends a woman and she gets him." On this comment on the last initiation of physical life, and with the grisly elements of suicide, lust and drunkenness to make the lesson a shuddering horror is built up the drama, or the series of dramatic episodes in the story of Emerson Brown, known as "A Fool There Was." It drew a capacity audience to the Princess last night, and ought to fill the house all week.

The path of the red rose and the path of the white are delineated with broad, unwavering touches. The career of a public man, a cabinet minister, an honored diplomat, agent, is shown to be capable of wreckage under the lure of the "Strange Woman," and just how low he can fall, and what the inevitable end is, even he who preserve a shred of manhood sufficient to resist his destruction, is pictured with ghastly fidelity. The story is very simple. A charming scene opens the play. In a delightful morning room a little girl is playing her brother's fast attended butler. Her father is just going away to Europe on a mission for the president. His friend, Tom, comes in to see him off. His wife is unable to accompany him on account of the illness of her sister.

The next scene is splendidly mounted, and brings the action on board a trans-Atlantic liner about to sail from New York. As a piece of stagecraft this was capital, and there was a real crowd of passengers. In the midst of the bustle appears the "Strange Woman." One of her victims confronts her with a revolver. The dramatic conclusion which she exhibits and her meretricious fascination is more than can conquer and he shoots himself. This, in itself, and what she does, is one of the most perfectly managed things ever put on the stage. C. Russell Sage, who takes the part, lends himself cleverly to the situation. Hon. John Schuyler, "The Man," is started by the apparition of the Lame-like demoness, and the curtain falls on the beginning of the tragedy.

There are three acts, with two scenes each. In this way the gloom of the play is artistically relieved by the lighter intervals, in which the little girl, the friend, the wife and her sister, elaborate the foils of incident and character necessary to bring the plot to its interest. The little girl is a wonderful study for a child. She has almost the longest "book" and she rattles off her lines in the most natural and accomplished way. Nothing could have been better than her expression as she reads the letter she had written to her father, looking in with the utmost naïveté, as she repeated, "God has sent our cat four kittens." The next scene takes place in the husband's home in New York. The spell is wearing weak, as the spells of the Venusberg must, and the act ends in a logical piece of brutality. The applause when the curtain dropped and through the denunciations and stormy interview between Tom and Schuyler showed the powerful hold the rare acting of Robert Hilliard and Walter Courtleigh took upon the audience. But Mr. Hilliard surpassed himself in the last act. Not since Charles Warren's great study in "Charles Reade's version of 'L'Asommoir'" has a more powerful interpretation of the mind and mania of a drunkard been achieved. The grim methods by which Tom tried to arouse the smouldering spark of humanity in his friend and the lured close when the vampire laughs her heartless laugh over the corpse of her victim and blows the lurid petals over his ruin is unsurpassed for sobriety and intensity of the nethermost. But the man won even in death, and the red roses did not redden his defeat. Miss Edna Conroy was very true to the part, and is an actress of wonderful power, and rose to every opportunity. But it is difficult to imagine a woman so lost to womanhood as the one who has to represent. She carried her audience as near the reality as they were willing to go, and perhaps a little further. To do so much was a great artistic triumph. The mounting of the piece is beyond the average, and indicates an artistic appreciation of atmosphere and color, even to the hanging of the pictures in the library, which adds much to the effect.

Grand

"The Man of the Hour." "The Man of the Hour," that sprightly and witty play, is back in the city, this time at the Grand Opera House, and was presented twice yesterday to capacity audiences—both the special matinee and evening performances being large. The purpose of the author of this popular political play, and his method of treatment are so well-known that a detailed sketch of the plot is hardly necessary in commenting upon the production. A young man who has been seized by the police, is suddenly seized by the police because nothing is known against him and it is believed he can be handled. After a game campaign he is elected and when the time comes for him to prove himself, he finds he is lined up against the men who have made him, and must work them great injury, if he does the right thing. Much of the incident of the play, gathered around the collection of the several verses which had more point than sometimes happens were greatly helped by his amusing business and he scored a decided hit. He was supported by a very large and excellent company of players, dancers, singers, chorus and show ladies. Cuban gentlemen and soldiers, who filled the stage with life and movement.

While the story of the play is absorbing, the finest thing about it is the characterisation which the author has introduced. Types are shown and developed so vitally real that they become more than actors and are men taken from life. The party boss (John G. Sparke) is as true as he is rough and blustering, and the ward boss (John G. Sparke) is as true as he is smooth and cunning. The company is one well balanced and capable at every point. John S. Robertson, as Alwyn Bennett, the mayor, displayed exceptional ability in the part. The two political characters in the cast were competently filled. Havana will be played during the week, with the usual Thursday and Saturday matinees.

Why these cuts in price of high-class pianos?

One simple reason, that in a short time we remove from these King street warerooms that we have occupied for forty-one years to our new warerooms, 193-197 Yonge street.

Reason enough—is it not?—to clear out the heavy stock on hand, rather than be compelled to cart the stock from one store to another.

ITALY AND TRIPLE ALLIANCE

Doesn't Want to Be Tightly Bound to Germany.

ROME, March 28.—Notwithstanding the official statements depicting the relations of Italy with the other two powers of the triple as a never-interrupted state of harmony, who believes this blindly would be very much astray and not have an exact idea of the real situation of the triple alliance or of the attitudes of its three members in the event of possible European complications.

The German Chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, has come to Rome expressly to see with his own eyes and listen with his own ears to what is difficult to tell in diplomatic notes, even for a country which prides herself on having had Machiavelli as one of her sons.

He was made to understand plainly however, that Italy appreciates the triple as a compact of powers imposing the maintenance of peace, and, from this point of view and with the addition of some clauses better protecting Italian interests on the eastern frontier, in the Balkans, and in the far east, she may even renew the arrangement in 1915, one year before its expiration.

Still, the tone changes when the possibility of common action is spoken of. Italy absolutely refuses to accept any plan for the sake of favoring German plans, and will not agree to use not only her force, but even her influence in anything in which she is not guarding Italian interests is not one of the supreme objects.

PRISON PLAY WORKS REFORMS

Winston Churchill Amalgamates Conditions for Certain Convicts.

LONDON, March 28.—Winston S. Churchill since his promotion to the home office has directed a good deal of his attention to the English prison system, with the result that he has already ordered a number of reforms with the idea of making the prison a lot of the convict. Mr. Churchill is a most impressive person, but it is not generally known that the seeds of reform were sown in his mind while witnessing recently a performance of John Galsworthy's prison drama "Justice" at Charles Frohman's Repertory Theatre.

The first outward sign that the seeds fell on good ground was the announcement last week that the home secretary had authorized the prison commissioners to relieve all prisoners not actually guilty of any crime but who were called dishonorable convicts or who were the victims of many of the degradations hitherto put upon them by the prison rules. For instance, they may wear their own clothes, will not be forced to bathe or clean their own cells, or have their hair cut, and may occupy their time by reading their favorite authors. In this category are included the militant suffragettes who get into trouble.

During the present week Mr. Churchill visited the new prison for habitual convicts at Parkhurst. This is the very latest thing in prisons, but the new home secretary has come to the conclusion that there is still room for improvement. Among other luxuries to be provided is a recreation ground of an acre in extent, while it is understood that a billiard room will be installed to relieve the ennui of convicts.

Local Option to End Strife.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 28.—

Declaring that the passage of a local option law would hasten the settlement of the trouble between the Rapid Transit Co. and its employees, the Central Labor Union to-day adopted resolutions calling upon the members of the trades unions of this city to agitate and vote for local option at every opportunity.

The failure of the brewers' workers to join in the "sympathetic strike," it was alleged, was responsible.

Provincial Appointments.

Theodore A. McGilivray of Whiteby has been appointed registrar of the high court, clerk of the county court and registrar of the surrogate court of the County of Ontario. The following have been appointed bailiffs: C. St. McGilivray of Egl. Lake, Alexander McRae of Woodstock, and Robert Casement of St. Ola.

On Wall Street.

Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following: The stock market withstood the bear attack very well to-day. Such issues as U. S. Steel and the Harriman group were well-absorbed on decline. The short interest is largely increased. The decline was clearly the result of a bear raid; all the bad rumors could be traced to their doors. As for the possibility of a decision being handed down in the American Tobacco case next Monday, it is strange that anybody should assume that it is possible to get the facts in advance. We would ignore these rumors. After such a setback we must look for an irregular tone in the market, but it will do to buy on setbacks for quick turns for some days to come.

Finley Barrell wired J. P. Bickell & Co.

Consolidated Gas Earnings.

NEW YORK, March 28.—According to the public service commission, the profits of the Consolidated Gas Co. last year were $3,371,000 more than they were during the previous year, and this is equivalent to about 3.4 on the outstanding capital stock.

Joseph Aysenough support will be found in Smelters. Buy Copper and any recession. Panhandle will go much higher. Bull Wabash and Chesapeake & Ohio. Buy Cons. Gas.

Wall Street Gossip.

Whenever heavy, we consider Rock Island, Southern Pacific, American Car Foundry, Amalgamated, Union Pacific and New York Central excellent purchases. U. S. Steel is in a trading position, the time being. There are reasons for expecting further professional attacks on St. Paul—Financial Bulletin.

Nothing of importance has developed over the holiday to influence any change in general sentiment, but the labor situation is working out satisfactorily and good buying may be expected when the market is under pressure. The object of the leading bull interests seems to be to foster the short interest and pave the way for a big advance later in the year, when prospects open up for a larger public participation.—Town Topics.

Wall Street Opens Buoyant But Stocks Are Pressed for Sale

New York Securities Under Heavy Pressure All Day—Toronto Market Dull and Undertone is Easier.

World Office.
Monday Evening, March 28.
It required only one session of the Toronto Exchange to-day to complete the business which had accumulated over the holidays.
Buyers were filled up without advancing quotations, and a full supply of speculative stocks was available after this.
Only a small amount of business was transacted, and prices, if anything, were slightly lower than those at the close of last week.
The break in Wall-street did not occur until the Toronto market had closed, otherwise a further shading of prices would have been quite in line with the situation.
Demand for domestic listed securities has materially lessened, and the desire among present holders to liquidate has given the market a much weaker undertone.
With the Standard Stock Exchange closed more latitude for dealings in Coblins on the Toronto market was available, and speculation in this department gave the market a semblance of life.
Bids were generally well maintained, but the market position is not such as might inspire confidence at the present.

Wall Street's Pointers.

Financial developments over holidays unimportant.

Central Labor Union calls off sympathetic strike in Philadelphia.

Early settlement of mining labor dispute expected.

Large increase in loans principal feature of bank statement.

Good weather for seeding reported from west to northwest.

Some talk of increased Amalgamated Copper dividend on completion of year.

Sensational stories of winter wheat damage entirely unconfirmed.

ALBANY, March 28.—State Superintendent Banks to-day issued a call for statement of the condition of banks and trust companies at the close of business March 24.

Imperial Bank Dividend.

The Imperial Bank has declared the usual dividend at the rate of 11 per cent. per annum, payable May 2 to shareholders of record April 16.

Chicago, St. Paul and Omaha Earnings.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha, St. Paul & Northern Pacific, and Great Northern Railroad, makes a most creditable showing for February. There was an increase of nearly $200,000 in the gross earnings, or more than 22 per cent., while the gain in operating income over $100,000, or 30 per cent. of the operating income for February, last year.

MONEY RATES ARE HARDENING.

World Office.

Monday Evening, March 28.

The holidays had no stimulating influence on domestic securities. There was no accumulation of business, and prices of speculative stocks held at about last week's close. Money is beginning to harden here, and some accounts have been transferred to Montreal, at which point, for some unknown reason, funds are much more plentiful than in Toronto. Heaviness in the New York market is having a sentimental influence on local speculation, and such as may lead to liquidation. As has been stated on several previous occasions, there is a plentiful supply of speculative stocks at current prices, and this is decidedly against a higher market.

LIBERALISM IN ALBERTA DIVIDED WITHIN ITSELF

When Even the "Bulletin" Banged the Rutherford Govt. Deal What Hope Can There Be?

EDMONTON, March 28.—(Special.)—

The Liberal party in Alberta is on the eve of dissolution. The Great Waterways deal is only an indication of what has been on the neck of exposure for months.

There may or there may not have been irregularities in the guaranteeing of the bonds of the Great Waterways Company. It is quite possible that there was no "graft" as the word is understood east. This is a side issue. The main issue is that the Liberal party has broken away from control, even if it ever was under control, and it has shown its eruptive qualities in the light of the alleged Waterways debacle.

OVERTAXED NERVES A DISTRESS SIGNAL

The Trouble Can Only be Cured by Enriching the Blood Supply

When your nervous system is exhausted the trouble makes itself evident in many ways. You feel always tired and nervous and irritable and after any exercise you tremble and perspire excessively. If the trouble is not checked your case goes from bad to worse until you feel that your condition is hopeless and that insanity is threatened.

Your nerves are craving for help,
they are straining because they demand from the blood more nourishment than it can supply. New rich blood is the secret of nerve strength and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cure nervous disorders because they feed the weak, exhausted nerves
with rich, red blood.

Mrs. Emma H. Hamilton, Ont.,
furnishes proof that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure even the most stubborn cases of nervous exhaustion.

Mrs. Hall was left a widow and was forced to work in a mill to maintain herself and her two little children.

She bravely faced the battle of life,
though she had never had to conform to such conditions before. Notwithstanding the splendid spirit she displayed, the work played havoc with a delicate constitution, and some years ago Mrs. Hall noticed signs in herself of a nervous collapse. She consulted a doctor who gave her some medicine and told her she "would be all right in a few days." But relief did not come and it was finally a daily sequence for her to faint at her work.

These fainting spells quickly developed into pronounced hysteria and chronic irritability, and Mrs. Hall says that death would have been a relief.

She consulted several doctors but got no help, and she felt that she was almost bordering on insanity. In the end, on the advice of a friend, she tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Grasping at even the possibility of help she decided to try them. After taking a box, she found some improvement, and at that time on this improvement
was steady and increasing daily.

After a few months she felt the cure was complete. She says: "Dr. Wil-lams' Pink Pills have done what doctors failed to do, and what I myself thought was impossible. They have freed me from the terrible trouble I suffered and my old joy in life has been renewed."

When Mrs. Hall took Dr. Wil-lams' Pink Pills she weighed only one hundred pounds, while under her renewed health her weight has increased to one hundred and thirty pounds.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be had

To Be DYSPEPTIC
Is To Be MISERABLE.

Dyspepsia is the prevailing malady of civilized life. It is largely due to gross error in diet, over-eating, too free indulgence in stimulants and over-taxing the stomach with indigestible food, eating too rapidly without chewing the food sufficiently, indulging in hot biscuits, pastry, pickles, confectionery, etc.

Burdock Blood Bitters has an established reputation, extending over thirty-four years as a positive cure for dyspepsia in all its forms, and from all diseases arising from it.

give such relief in dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was troubled for number of years with dyspepsia and could get no relief until I tried Burdock Blood cured and I can now eat anything without it hurting me. I will highly recommend

MORE REVELATIONS IN INSURANCE PROBE

Lobbyist Buckley Got $21,000 from One Company in 1907 for Legislative Services.

NEW YORK, March 28.—William H.
Buckley, who has been the central figure in the fire insurance enquiry for the last three days, had a most uncomfortable time of it to-day.

William H. Hotchkiss, state superintendent of insurance, kept up mercilessly his examination into the lawyer's services in connection with legislation at Albany, for which Buckley received many thousands of dollars from the companies.

Aside from Buckley's testimony, the most interesting incident of the day was the identification by George F.
Seward, president of the Fidelity and Casualty Co., of Edward A. H. Brown of Middletown, N. Y., as the man presenting State Senator Big Tim Sullivan in 1907, who asked for $10,000
on behalf of Sullivan to have a bill killed.

This is alleged to have taken place in Singer's place. Brown also testified to-day and denied that he ever had such a conversation with Seward, or had known him before.

William Smith, general counsel for the Travelers Insurance Co. of Hartford, testified that his company paid $21,400 to Buckley in 1906 to put thru
the liability reserve bill.

Buckley was put on the stand this afternoon. He was as persistent as before in his refusal to shed any light on his transactions in Albany. He had two sets of forms of replies to questions—"I don't recall" and "I refuse to discuss it."

MR. MCCONNELL'S FOURTH VISIT.

Last Saturday evening Mr. McConnell closed eleven days of continuous lecturing on Human Electricity as the basis of Health, much pleased with his visit and leaving many satisfied students. He gave free lectures Thursday and Friday in two city churches;
Saturday and Sunday in the People's Institute, at which ever-increasing numbers gathered and a profound impression was made. Monday evening
he was treated to a banquet by the Mc-Connell Health Club in Williams' Cafe, and the impression was deepened. By Saturday evening he had delivered 13 instructive lectures, afternoons and evenings, ninety-five new students having been enrolled. At the close of the lectures a social hour was held, during which, amongst other pleasant functions, the following resolution was passed:

"Resolved, that we, the students of your class for March, 1910, numbering ninety-five persons, take this occasion,
as you are about to leave the city after your fourth visit to Toronto within one year, to express to you our appreciation and gratitude for your clear and convincing presentation of the science and basis of Human Electricity. Some of us can already record a marked advance in the realization of our hopes of relief and reinvigoration, and we believe that the faithful application of your methods will come to life as never before, free from disease and possessors of normal or supra-normal health."

"We feel convinced that the scientific facts presented and from the results
we have seen secured, that your Science of Human Electricity will mean nothing less than a revolution in the question of health and the elimination of disease. And, in so far as man is concerned, this is the greatest discovery of the age. We feel that the development of Human Electricity should prove more valuable to civilization
than all the wonders accomplished by mechanical electricity. We pray that you restored to men depleted, the knowledge of how to produce and apply that force for continuous and abounding health, and that millions of sufferers of this new health-power be constantly increasing. We pray that the full benefit of your discovery may become long become the experience of millions of men and women now struggling with a strenuous life, handicapped with weakness and depression so easily removed.

"We tender you our thanks and wish you godspeed and great success in other cities; we will rejoice in seeing your plans for an institution of health speedily realized; we hope that you will be greeted by a very much larger class when you visit Toronto
again in June."

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 28.—Rabbi

was perhaps never honored before.

Hearing that Mr. Levy had been called voted him a salary of $15,000 a year.

His former salary was $12,000.

starting in the grocery store owned

Train Missed Landslide

MONTREAL, March 28.—The Ste.
Agathe train had a narrow escape from a landslide in the Laurentians. The train was on the way up Sunday night when the train was hit by a slide of rock, but was stopped in time to prevent any great damage. One of the boxcars was so large that it had to be dynamited.

STREET RAILWAY ISSUE FACES COUNCIL TO-DAY

City to Take Steps to Combat
Company's Demands Before
Railway Board.

Now that the street railway has announced its intention to press before the Ontario Railway Board for the power to construct lines on such streets as the company is pleased to consider desirable, it is up to the city council to prepare a statement of its case with like definiteness.

The meeting of the council this afternoon will have before it two proposals
of important bearing on the matter,
one being that of obtaining legal advice, and the other, the securing of an expert in underground railway construction. These are recommendations of the special committee on legal transportation are expected to go thru without much opposition, as the case is decidedly one for experts to handle.

Mayor Geary says that, while strongly opposed to the placing of car tracks on Bay-street, he has no objection to University-avenue being used.

"The city has not given up the idea of competitive lines of its own from the outside down to the centre of the city," his worship announced, adding that, in response to the request of the railway board, the city is preparing a statement of its case, and information in regard to the transportation question. He considers that the company's withdrawal of its proposal to build the north Rosedale extension is evidence of the insincerity of its profession of desire to serve the city.
The railway board, he says, will not deal with the transportation issue in a peaceful fashion, but will consider the whole situation at one time from the standpoint of both the city and railway.

Reviving City Hall Loop.

Manager Fleming announces that,
in addition to the lines which he stated
he would build, he has not abandoned his old design of a loop around the city hall. This would be accomplished by continuing the street from Patrick and Anderson-streets line along Agnes-street to Teraulay-street, south of Teraulay-street to Albert-street, making the loop around the city hall by way of Albert and James-streets to Queen and thence back to Teraulay-street.

If the Ontario Railway Board gives the company what it wants, it will mean the construction of 15 miles of new tracks, and that 100 new cars will be placed in commission.

Would Cost City $300,000.

City Engineer Rust estimates that if the company's program of extensions is carried out, it will cost the city about $300,000 for street widening and substructures. The city will have to widen the roadway allowance on University-avenue, Harbord-street,
Teraulay-street, Adelaide-street west of Spadina-avenue, Victoria-street and Anderson-street.

Mr. Rust figures out that while the extensions will help to relieve the down-town congestion of railway traffic, the city would be at the decided disadvantage of having no street left on which to lay down independent lines. He says he would not object to the company taking Bay-street and University-avenue, as he has previously recommended those lines.

ODD CASE OF INTIMIDATION

Result of One Man's Consultation
With Buffalo "Medium."

DUNNVILLE, Ont., March 28.—A new stunt was pulled off in the Dun-nville Police Court before Magistrate Brown, when James Follick of Canboro laid information against Richard Higgins and William Warren of Thorold for intimidation. They pleaded guilty.

In 1908 Warren had a couple of calves, which got sore feet, and he came to the conclusion they had been poisoned.
Instead of employing a detective, he went to Buffalo and consulted a medium. After writing letters demanding $25 and $2 interest to the two men without result, Warren got Bailiff Higgins and they started to personally interview them. The Niagara Falls man threatened to throw them both in the river, so they hiked for Canboro,
and after producing handcuffs made threats in order to induce Follick to desist.

Finally they left, when Follick came to Dunville and secured a warrant.
Higgins, 70 years old, was let off on suspended sentence and Warren sent to Cayuga for sentence by the county judge.

TWO HOLDUPS AT CHATHAM

Footpad Got Worst of It in One Encounter.

CHATHAM, March 28.—Returning home at 2 o'clock on Sunday morning,
John Tewksbury, a barber, was attacked by a footpad, who jumped from behind a tree.

After a hard fight Tewksbury got the man down and kicked him, but the assailant managed to escape.

A Harwich farmer named O'Neill reports that while getting out his horse
in the backyard of the Tecumseh House
he was hit on the head by an unknown man.

He had $14 in bills at the time, but the money was later found in the yard.

clares that the visit of the Bulgarian monarch to Constantinople, has had

Weak Heart, Poor Blood

Shortness of Breath a Symptom.

"It was a good thing I began taking Ferrozone when I did, or my condition would have fallen into Pernicious Anemia, and this disease I am told is incurable," writes Mr. Samuel S. Michael of Pembroke. "I am thankful both for recovery and escape from a disease that surely runs its course in a brief time. The first symptoms that gave sign that my natural strength was falling, developed from climbing to the fourth floor in an office building in Montreal. When I got to the top, a blindness seemed to overcome my eyes, I breathed heavily and my breath was very quick and short."

"My blood had turned to water I was told, and I needed the very best tonic obtainable to vitalize it. You can imagine how run down in quality
my blood was when it seemed that I was suffering from Pernicious Anemia. Ferrozone worked wonders.
Every week I could see how my blood
was making my constitution stronger.
I had not any heart disease. The palpitation was caused by poor blood—so was the shortness of breath. Ferro-zone has made a new man of me. I am hearty, ruddy and vigorous. I urge every man and woman in poor health
to build up with Ferrozone."

No tonic is so certain as Ferrozone—

meals, 50c per box, six for $2.50, all

GIRL WAS SET ON FIRE BEFORE SHE WAS DEAD

Young Wolter's Companion Gives Damaging Testimony Against Him—White Slave Dealer?

NEW YORK, March 28.—Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon is authority for the statement that Ruth Wheeler was burned alive. After the autopsy on the body he declared that the discovery of a remnant of a square of linen over the right nostril of the girl and traces of soot in the nostril and lungs convinced him that she was still living when after being strangled by the cord about her neck, her body was set on fire by the murderer.

Hours of questioning of the closest sort have failed to shake young Wolter in his declaration that he had never seen the Wheeler girl and knew nothing of the way in which she met her fate.

A fresh trail, however, was struck by the authorities in a story told them by a young woman who confessed to having known Wolter well. Her tale of the many young girls who she said, had been associated with the prisoner, set the authorities to looking up the numerous girls whose names and addresses were found in Wolter's memorandum book to see if any of them are missing. The investigation is expected to reveal whether or not Wolter had any active connection with "white slave" operations.

Since the latter part of January or February, between the ages of 15 and 17 years have been reported missing to the police. All but 15 have been accounted for.

Under a merciless grilling to-day Katie Miller, Wolter's companion, broke down and gave the police some startling additions to her testimony. "About midnight," she reported of her testimony continued, "I was awakened by a crash in the front room. I called out 'Who's there?' and Albert answered from the front room, saying, 'Part of the fireplace has fallen down and I'm fixing it. You stay in bed.'"

"I went right back to sleep, but was awakened again about 2 o'clock by another sound as of something falling. Albert was down on his knees before the fireplace shoveling something with his hands back into the grate. He said the fireplace had broken down again. I said 'Can't I help you?' and started toward him. He said roughly, 'Go back to bed and stay there or I'll choke you to death.' I went back."

GIVING BOYS A CHANCE.

In St. Louis a number of manufacturers have arranged to help better chance at improvement than has been commonly enjoyed in the past. They give their boys liberty to leave their work and take seven hours of instruction each week in mathematics, mechanics, machine designing and draughting, and still pay them their established wages without "docking" for the time spent in school. And it is having the effect of making the boys more valuable to their employers—and, of necessity, to themselves. There is in that city an established school of mechanical trades, and it has the endorsement of men whose practical acquaintance with the subject gives them a right to approve or condemn. Boys granted a certain age, beyond the prohibition of juvenile court laws, St. Louis City Union-Republican.

STRIKE VOTE IS CALLED ON 2 RAILWAY SYSTEMS

N.Y.C. and Lake Shore and Mich. Southern Employees Have Not Succeeded in Negotiations.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The New York Central Railroad late this afternoon refused to grant the wage increase of from 8 to 64 per cent. demanded by 5800 conductors and trainmen, and the presidents of those unions notified the railroad company that they would order a strike vote. The company offered an increase of from 8 to 20 per cent. The road between New York and Buffalo only is affected.

Another Strike Vote. CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 28.—A strike vote was ordered taken to-day on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad by the officers of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors. The order was issued following the breaking off of the negotiations which have been carried on with the road for the last three days. About 20,000 men are involved.

This is Settled. NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 28.—Following a conference to-night between General Manager Samuel H. Hildreth of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, and the adjustment board of the railway conductors, trainmen and yardmen, it was stated that a satisfactory settlement of all difficulties had been reached and that the settlement was on the basis of that recently made by the Baltimore and Ohio.

Telegraphers Succeed. CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 28.—The board of arbitration which had in hand the controversy between the Big Four Railway and its telegraphers reached an agreement late to-day. The operators are to receive increased wages, amounting in the aggregate to $3400 a month.

MARRIED WOMAN AND COOK POSSIBLY ELOPED

East Toronto Woman Supposed To Have Flown With Husband's Employee.

Missing since Saturday Mrs. Rainford, wife of Robert W. Rainford of 1575 Danforth-road, is supposed to have eloped with one of Mr. Rainford's employees. The man suspected was employed there as a cook. He was seen by Mr. Rainford leaving the house, carrying his valise, Good Friday evening. Mrs. Rainford disappeared some time between then and morning.

Patrol Sergeant Lydall of No. 5 division was riding on a west bound car Saturday morning at about 1.40 when he noticed a man, aged about 25, and a fashionably dressed woman, aged about 31, with valises. Sizing up a possible situation he remarked to the conductor on the car, "Looks like an elopement." He asked the conductor to watch where they went.

They transferred down Yonge-street at Yonge and Carleton. The description of the pair on the car tallies with that of Mrs. Rainford and the cook.

The inference was that they went to the Union Station to leave on a train. They were not noticed at the depot, as they must have gone some place before leaving, if they did leave. The train started running at 5.30 a.m.

Mr. Rainford runs a railway boarding-house, where a number of employees of the Canadian Northern Railway are housed. He said that Mrs. Rainford had been married for some time. They have no family.

MEN WHO USE ZAM-BUK

How it Saves Them Money.

Look at the financial side of Zam-Buk's use. A cut sustained in the workshop, a sore which is unattended, results say in festering or blood-poisoning. What does that mean when pay day comes around? Zam-Buk insures you against that loss. A little Zam-Buk applied to the wound when it first appears, or as soon afterwards as possible, prevents all danger of blood-poisoning, keeps out the smarting and starts up healing.

Heads of families know how costly doctoring is. Be wise and act on the preventive line. A box of Zam-Buk in the home is so all-round useful. The baby's rashes, the older children's cuts and bruises, the inevitable burn, cut, or scald—for all these, as well as for more serious ailments, such as piles, ulcers, eczema, ringworm, etc., Zam-Buk is without a rival.

Dangers of Shaving—You get a cut at the barber's shop. A little Zam-Buk smeared on the wound prevents all danger. If any ailment has been contracted, Zam-Buk cures. Mr. George Hobden, 108 Manitoba-street, St. Thomas, Ontario, says: "I contracted my barber's rash, and the whole of my left cheek broke out in one mass of red watery pimples and sores. These spread to the other parts of my face, until face and neck were covered with running sores. How far the disease would have spread had it not been for Zam-Buk. I don't know. I applied this ointment, and in a short time Zam-Buk effected a complete cure."

The Sportsman knows that Zam-Buk is used by all the "cracks," because it is the best liniment and embrocation. It is like Longboat, Sherring of Hamilton, Kelley of the Toronto Ball Team and all the famous lacrosse teams and ball teams use Zam-Buk in this connection.

All druggists and stores sell at 50c box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. You are warned against harmful imitations.

MILK PRODUCERS MEET.

At a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Toronto Milk Producers' Association held at the Labor Temple to fix the price of milk and cream for the summer season, the whole matter, after discussion, was left to a committee to decide. About 150 of the members of the association were present, and the meeting was strictly private. The meeting of the Farmers' Dairy, held subsequently, was very satisfactory and the report of Manager Farmer was regarded as most encouraging.

WESTON.

WESTON, March 28.—(Special).—The funeral of the late Mrs. Jas. Robinson took place from the family residence here to-day to Prospect Cemetery. There was a very large attendance of neighbors and relatives. Mrs. Robinson is survived by her husband and measuring 1-1/4 inches one way and 7-1/2 inches by 4 inches.

DOVERCOURT.

Next Sunday, April 3, will be anniversary of the late Mrs. Robinson. The Rev. Crawford Brown of St. Andrew's Church is expected to have charge of the morning order of worship, and Rev. Mr. MacDonald at night. On Tuesday, April 5, at 8 p.m., Frank Yeigh will give one of his very interesting and instructive picture travel talks.

BIGGEST EGG YET.

Malvern Hen, So Far, Carries off the Palm in York County. George Robins, Malvern Postoffice, Scarborough Township, came into The World office yesterday, bringing with him an exceptionally large hen's egg, measuring 1-1/4 inches one way and 7-1/2 inches by 4 inches. Mr. Robins is one of the leading poultry raisers of Scarborough, and he says this is one of the largest eggs he has ever seen. The egg that Mrs. Pezz of Holland Landing got was only 7-1/2 inches by 4 inches.

SWANSEA.

SWANSEA, March 28.—(Special).—Easter Sunday services at St. Olave's Church (Anglican) were largely attended. The choir and narthexes arranged on the altar had a very chaste effect. The special Easter hymns were well rendered by the choir. Miss Anne Pressley, organist. During the offertory, "The Resurrection Morn," Vaughan, a solo with organ accompaniment on the Monterey was sung in good style by Mr. Thomas Earl, baritone. The story of the resurrection was graphically told by the rector, Rev. W. H. H. Sparks, taking his text from 1st verse, 20th chapter of St. John. Holy communion was administered to some 40 communicants by the rector at the morning service. The offertory was very satisfactory.

NORTH TORONTO.

NORTH TORONTO, March 28.—(Special).—The sale of debentures to the amount of $20,000 in conjunction with the parallel roads, was made to-night, the successful tenderers being the Ontario Securities Co. The amount realized was $20,500, with accrued interest. The bonds bear interest at 4-1/2 per cent. Some surprise is expressed that they did not bring par, especially in view of the splendid financial position of the town.

General regret is expressed around town to-night at the fact that Rev. T. W. Powell has decided to tender his resignation as rector of St. Clement's to accept the presidency of an eastern college. St. Clement's has grown marvellously under his ministry.

PORT CREDIT.

Hon. Adam Beck will address a public meeting in connection with hydro power contracts in the vicinity, which will be held to-night.
