RUTH DOUGLAS IS LOCATED IN MONCTON

MISSING GIRL BEING BROUGHT HOME TODAY

Father and Detective Biddiscombe Leave For Railway Town

WENT BY TRAIN

Stopped at Boarding House and Told Woman She Was Awaiting Mother

Special to The Times-Star. MONCTON, Oct. 1.—Little Ruth Douglas, of Saint John, who has been missing from her home since Monday noon, is in Moncton. The young girl arrived in this city Monday night and has been staying at the boarding house of Mrs. James McMahon, Main street. This morning one of the boarders, William McDonald, on reading a Canadian Press despatch in the Moncton Times, informed a policeman that he believed the girl reported missing was an inquiry made by the officer and she admitted she was Ruth Douglas of Saint John.

Mrs. McMahon said today that she came to her house at half-past ten Monday night, saying that she had arrived from Saint John on the train and that she wished to stop there a day or two until her mother arrived.

GIRLS STORY. Mrs. McMahon said the girl told her that she desired to stay at her boarding house because her mother had been there while in Moncton about a month ago. Mrs. McMahon had no recollection of that girl, but decided to let the girl stay. Tuesday and yesterday Miss Douglas left the house and told Mrs. McMahon on her return that she had met on the train. Mrs. McMahon saw her in a local store on Tuesday with two young girls, twins, who, she said, belonged to the family where she had been visiting. Mrs. McMahon said the girl informed her that she had received a telegram yesterday which called her to Toronto and told her to remain in Moncton for a few days. Mrs. McMahon said the girl seemed bright and lively, dressed in what was apparently a new outfit. She wore a felt hat and white winter coat, a pink and white dress and dark boots. The girl will care for her home this afternoon.

Located in Moncton last night word was sent to the city this morning that Ruth Douglas, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair S. Douglas, who has been missing from her home, 183 Blyth street, was being brought home. The little girl had had $20 in her possession on leaving home, is said to have gone to Moncton on the evening train on Monday. According to the information received here she told conflicting stories about her movements. Detective Biddiscombe and the girl's sister left about 10:30 o'clock by automobile to bring her home. They will probably arrive back late this afternoon.

CHANCELLOR QUOTED ON GERMAN GUILT

Belgium Refers to 1914 Speech of Bethmann-Hollweg on Country Invasion.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 1.—The Belgian government's reply to the German observations on the responsibility for the world war, says that the question as far as Belgium is concerned, was settled by a speech made by the Imperial Chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg in the Reichstag, in August, 1914, admitting the wrong done to Belgium.

ADMIT BREAKING LAW

"Our troops have occupied Luxembourg and have perhaps also found it necessary to enter Belgian territory. This is contrary to international law. The French government has declared in Brussels, they will respect the neutrality of Belgium as long as she respects the opponent. We know, however, that France was ready to invade Belgium. France could wait, we however, could not, because a French invasion in our lower Rhine flank would have proved fatal.

TOTAL 5 BILLION

France Would Spread Payments Over Period of Sixty-two Years

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The French proposal for settlement of her war debt to the United States has been found unacceptable. This was indicated in a statement by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, this morning, which declared "no proposal acceptable to the United States commission has been made."

Mr. Mellon's statement denied that President Coolidge had been called upon to refer to the difference of opinion among members of the United States commission as to acceptance of France's latest offer. Reports which had been circulated to the effect that an agreement had been reached were also denied.

FRANCE'S OFFER. The French offer calls for a total payment of $800,000,000 in principal and interest spread over a period of 62 years, on the recorded debt of $4,210,000,000. For the first five years the payments would be $40,000,000 dollars annually, for the next seven years $60,000,000, with an increase to $200,000,000 annually for the succeeding 50 years.

The French proposal includes a security clause providing for a reopening of the agreement if its terms should in future prove impossible of fulfillment. It is this clause which is understood to have aroused the opposition.

MONEY IS EASIER

Record-Breaking Tourist Season Adds Much To Country's Prosperity

THAT the Maritime Provinces are coming back to steady, prosperous times—indeed a wonderful improvement since the last general survey—was the unqualified assertion of Henry Detchon, general manager of the Canadian Credit Men's Association of Canada, a Winnipeg visitor who is in town today after a close check-up of the territory mentioned.

Mr. Detchon, who leaves today for his western offices, told a Times-Star reporter that his tour of the Maritime Provinces just ended uncovered the happy fact that the tide of prosperity was rising most perceptibly and that there was every sound indication that the upward tendency in trade, commerce and money was permanent.

SOUND REASONS FOR. Mr. Detchon, while clad in his findings in this section of Canada was not unduly so. His enthusiasm he claimed, was based upon the abundance of facts and figures gathered during his progress as he went from town to town. It would appear that the economic conditions were everywhere advancing.

There was to start with a bumper agricultural yield this year. All Canada was sharing in the first of the western crop was on the way to town, it would appear that the economic conditions were everywhere advancing.

The lad jumped up, unhurt, but badly scared. His cap was recovered for him by the driver. The incident should serve as a lesson to the young lad to exercise care and caution in crossing street corners.

DIES IN FITCHBURG

Mrs. George Starkey Passes Away After Illness of Several Weeks.

A telegram to Mrs. E. D. Starkey, Duke street, Fitchburg, announced the death of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Effie, wife of George Starkey, in Fitchburg, Mass. The young woman had been ill in hospital for some eight or ten weeks, and for some time it was feared she could not recover, despite all that loving care could do. She passed away about 2:30 o'clock this morning. She had visited Saint John, her husband's home, on more than one occasion, and numbered many friends, won by her goodly qualities, here as well as in her native city of Fitchburg. Her funeral will be held there on Saturday, Mrs. Starkey, her mother-in-law, is doubly bereaved in the passing away of her son's wife, as her own mother, Mrs. Wilson, of Cambridge, Queens county, died only a few days ago.

Courtenay Bay Terminal Work To Be Started Monday

SITE FOR NEW C. N. R. WHARVES TO BE PREPARED

Hon. Dr. Foster Makes Announcement; Whole Work to cost $30,000,000

FOUR BERTHS PLANNED IN INITIAL PROJECT

When Completed, Accommodation for 25 Steamers Will be Available

AUTHORITY for starting dredging work in Courtenay Bay preparatory to the construction of the first unit of four large docks for the Canadian National Railway has been given by the Federal Cabinet and Hon. Dr. W. E. Foster, Secretary of State, announced yesterday that the necessary order-in-council had been passed for the extension of the contract of the Saint John Dry Dock & Shipbuilding Co., Ltd., providing for the dredging and filling necessary for the building of the wharves and warehouses.

Operations will begin Monday morning when a large dredge will be put to work. F. G. Wilson, manager for the Saint John Dry Dock & Shipbuilding Co., Ltd., said last evening.

TO INCREASE FRONTAGE.

The new work the preliminaries of which are to be started at once will provide four berths each 600 feet long or in all a total wharf frontage of 2,400 feet along the eastern shore of Courtenay Bay and north of the dry dock. The plans call for warehouses of permanent construction with complete equipment for handling all kinds of freight which may be hauled over the Canadian National Railway and the erection of a grain elevator with a capacity of 1,000,000 bushels.

For the dredging and filling the area needed for the first unit, $300,000 has been provided by the federal authorities with promises of additional grants as the work progresses.

SMALL PART OF SCHEME. The first unit is only a small part of the scheme for the Courtenay Bay harbor, which, when completed, will have 12,500 lineal feet of docks with wharves from 1,600 to 2,000 feet in length, capable of providing accommodation for 25 steamers of the type and size which usually visit this port. The water at these docks will be deep enough to accommodate the largest ships afloat.

In Courtenay Bay there is an entrance basin with good, safe anchorage providing an area of 140 acres of deep water. When completed the warehouses will give a storage area of 25 acres and there will be an area of 70 acres for industrial purposes, cold storage plants and other buildings. The plans also provide for a possible trackage of 70 miles in this area, with provision for three huge grain elevators.

Layout of C. N. Ocean Terminals

—Drawn especially for Telegraph-Journal and Times-Star.

The picture shows Courtenay Bay as it will appear when completed as an addition to the Saint John harbor with its terminals for the Canadian National Railways. The shaded portion shows the area which is to be filled as a site for the wharves and warehouses of the unit of four docks with slip in front where dredging operations are to begin Monday morning.

TOTAL COST $30,000,000.

When completed the whole harbor in Courtenay Bay will have cost upwards of $30,000,000, it is estimated. Hon. Mr. Foster said last night that he had been notified that an order-in-council had been passed authorizing the commencement of the construction of the first unit of the proposed work in connection with the C. N. R. in Courtenay Bay.

TO COMPRISE FOUR BERTHS.

In reply to an inquiry, Dr. Foster stated that the first unit of these works would comprise four berths of 600 feet each, or in all a total wharf frontage of 2,400 feet, in connection with which there will be constructed a grain elevator with at least a million bushel capacity. He further said that the authority for providing for this work had for some time been urged by the port committee, which was the outcome of a meeting held here last year between the railway authorities, steamship representatives and the Common Council and the Board of Trade. As a member of the port committee, being familiar with the requirements of the port of Saint John, he had insisted before taking office that the needs of the province, and particularly the port of Saint John, should be given prompt consideration by the Government. The assurance of the Prime Minister was carried out and the order-in-council passed yesterday.

OUTCOME OF JOINT ACTION.

The plans approved and decided upon were the outcome of joint action between the railway officials and the Department of Public Works as being best suited for the anticipated growing export business of the Canadian National Railway to be carried through the port of Saint John.

Much has been said with regard to the lack of export business over the Government road through the port of Saint John. "I have always contended," said Dr. Foster, "that in order to encourage this business, in a large way, proper facilities should be first provided, which would naturally lead to the establishment of additional steamship lines, the latter being naturally the medium in getting shippers to route their business in winter time through Canadian ports."

MARKS NEW ERA.

"In urging the expenditure for the terminal facilities I have not been unmindful of our old friend the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, which has contributed so much towards the success of our winter port business and the continued necessity of further improvements on the western side of the harbor under the tri-party agreement. "The improvements that have been made to facilitate the shipment of potatoes has been money well spent, and the extension made this year to those sheds will provide further facilities for this business. I am very glad to say that representations have been made to the Government that a large increase in the export of cattle is anticipated for the coming winter. I have, at the request of the shipping companies, placed before the Government the necessity of further extension to the cattle sheds, and I am glad to say

An article written by a Nova Scotia dealer with discontent in that province due to economic causes and disappointment over the results of the referendum, is published by The Dominion Table, the famous English quarterly, and the Toronto Globe, in reviewing it, while not in full agreement with the contentions of the Nova Scotia, warns the Central Provinces that "the fact remains that there is a case" and asks whether there is a hearing.

He contends that the chief economic effect of Confederation was to cut Nova Scotia off from its natural markets and put a premium on trade between the provinces, discounting inter-while this brought direct advantages to the Central Provinces the result in Nova Scotia's case was the reverse, because of the difficulties of land transportation.

toll of accidents, many resulting fatally. The vital question is, what is being done by the proper authorities to put a check on these speed-crazed devils; is it not time for action, or is it that nobody cares a damn? Right in our midst daily anyone can see the almost deliberate carelessness of many car drivers whose sole ambition seems to be to get ahead of the other car, irrespective of life or limb.

I drive a car when time permits, solely for the pleasure and health of my family, and regret to say that instead of deriving any pleasure I find it a nerve-racking ordeal for myself, and my family in particular.

Why is this type of driving-idiot, when caught, let loose by paying a fine? Is it because he didn't kill somebody? More luck than good judgment he didn't. Any fool can step on the gas; those who generally have the crase are too weak-minded to steer the car under the excessive speed, and surely our past experience of this type must tell us this.

There are many other menaces equally as bad in effect as the speeder. The road hog, as he is termed; nothing seems to satisfy him or give him more pleasure than seeing how near he can put you in the ditch.

Then we have what I must call the half-blind driver who at night must have his high glaring lights on to see where he is going. He wants to announce to everybody on the road that he is coming, and to clear the way accordingly.

And, again, we have the Lizzie type with a Lizzie behind the wheel, who is coming in from without giving any signal of this intention, or turns out from the curb likewise. This is far too prevalent, and shows how necessary it is to give the safety of others. All the law and regulation this kind of driver knows is leave it to the other fellow to look out.

Now we come to the car owner who allows his car to be driven by several or all members of his family. It is an everyday sight to see girls and boys from 15 to 18 years of age driving through our streets and going much too fast for safety.

that every driver must have a license, and if a family of young bloods want to drive the old man's car, each member be made pay for the necessary license. This would partly eliminate the menace and the young driver who will have to go through a rigid, medical examination showing no usualities, and, moreover, a test as to knowledge of the mechanical parts and workings of a car.

While the authorities may not be able to stymie the carelessness of the careless driver they can enforce regulations in our city streets re the parking of cars. For instance, why is it allowed to park on either side of the street, both very narrow where the traffic is heaviest?

Take a look around Union street any day and it is a common occurrence to see some car backing out towards Charlotte if a street car is on its way, because of cars parked along the sidewalk.

There are, unfortunately, many incurable diseases and millions have been spent to find the cause and cure; in our midst today we have the automobile menace, through the careless driver, which is taking a greater toll of lives than any or all of the above incurable diseases.

There is a great need for legislation which seems necessary for public safety and protection in employment of the motor cycle patrol, why not New Brunswick? And why not Saint John? Step on the gas if you like, and for Heaven's sake, get a move on, mean to the driver coming in from without giving any signal of this intention, or turns out from the curb likewise.

VENIOT REPIES TO BAXTER CHARGES ON PROVINCIAL DEBT

Asserts Facts Cannot be Known Until Audit is Completed—Hints Premier's Action is Election Move—Claims Outlay Justified

BATHURST, Sept. 30.—Hon. Dr. P. J. Veniot, recent Premier of New Brunswick, today issued a statement in reply to that made a few days ago by Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., the new Premier, in which Dr. Baxter, in charging the Veniot Government with a "riot of expenditure," declared that the debt of the Province now stood at $2,364,909 and that outstanding bills would send it up another $1,744,223 with this figure to be still further increased, perhaps hundreds of thousands of dollars, by bills for roads and bridges chargeable to capital account which were still to come in.

Dr. Veniot maintains that until the audit is completed in January, 1926, neither himself nor Dr. Baxter is in a position to deal intelligently and fairly with the finances as a whole. He intimates that Dr. Baxter has been unfair in that, while he stressed over-expenditure, he did not deal with the possibility of revenue exceeding the estimate to meet that expenditure.

LEAVES IT TO FAIR-MINDED.

Dr. Veniot endeavors to justify his Government's action in anticipating legislation and expending half a million on the roads which, according to the legislation, should not have been spent until 1926 and 1927, by declaring that the needs of the province demanded the outlay to meet the unprecedented growth in tourist traffic. He intimates that the large increase in province-owned automobiles. The Government felt that the increased revenue from automobiles would warrant the expenditure. Dr. Veniot thinks that the haste displayed by Dr. Baxter in dealing with the finances of the province months before the proper audit is due "would almost indicate a desire on his part to mislead the public in the hope that an unfavorable impression might be created against the late Government for effect in the pending federal elections. "When all the transactions of the last year will have been laid before the Legislature it will be found that an honest and proper explanation can be given, one which will be accepted as an ample justification by any fair-minded man for the conduct of the Government," Dr. Veniot declares.

TEXT OF STATEMENT.

His statement in full follows: "I would not presume to deal in detail with the public accounts of the province for the current year until they had been properly audited and published. The fiscal year ends Oct. 31 and, under the law, the audit will only begin 30 days after the close of the fiscal year and the result of the audit will not be published until the last days of January, 1926. "Neither Premier Baxter nor myself would, therefore, be in a position to deal intelligently with this phase of the finances until the audit was complete. His reference to the expenditures having exceeded the estimate submitted to the Legislature without at the same time dealing with the revenues which might have exceeded the estimate and receipts is hardly a fair method of criticism. I am in a position to know that the revenues from certain sources have greatly exceeded the estimate and will receive nearly $200,000 more than what was estimated.

INCREASE IN AUTO TRAFFIC.

"When one considers the enormous increase in automobile traffic over previous years, an increase that could hardly be foreseen, I feel the public will think that the Government was justified in over-expenditure on roads and bridges the sum of $250,000. If Mr. Baxter's figures are correct, but I am convinced that when the proper adjustments are made by the independent auditors it will be found that the Premier's figures are somewhat astray, and that there will be another thing coming to him.

COULD MAKE COMPARISON.

"The haste displayed by Premier Baxter, and the manner adopted by him in dealing with the ordinary revenues and disbursements months before the proper audit has been made would almost indicate a desire on his part to mislead the public in the hope that an unfavorable impression might be created against the late Provincial Government for effect in the pending federal elections. "If I were to go into comparisons as a justification for what he claims we have wrongfully done, I could point out the deplorable condition in which the Murray-Baxter Government left the finances of the province when they gave up the reins of power in 1917.

REASSURES FRIENDS.

"Since that time the audit system has been changed and there is no chance to cook the accounts now in order to show surpluses when hundreds of thousands of dollars were being carried over as a floating indebtedness and had to be met by the incoming Government. No such condition of affairs will be found in the books of the last Government. Every dollar received and every dollar expended will be found charged to the year in which the revenue was received or the expenditure made. If the good Lord spares my health I will be on the floors of the next Legislature, when, face to face, Government and Opposition will meet and discuss our financial situation in all its varying phases, and I can assure our friends who have so nobly stood by us that they need have no fear of the result.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

"In the matter of the capital expenditures for roads and bridges, Premier Baxter goes beyond the mark in several respects. I do not intend to attempt to go into details at this time, because these items will also be dealt with on the floors of the Legislature with a proper audit before us. I will last fiscal year. No doubt he wished to leave the impression that we were carrying on from the accounts from one year to the other. Such a method prevailed under the Murray-Baxter Government, but could not obtain under the new audit system introduced by Hon. W. E. Foster in 1917, and still in practice. The truth about this item could have been readily ascertained by making inquiry of the Comptroller-General. That item was for patrol work done after the close of the fiscal year 1924, during the month of November, which being a very open month, it was necessary to organize what is known as a patrol party in order to protect the roads from being damaged by the heavy automobile traffic at that late season of the year.

SAYS FACTS NOT ALL IN.

"I have in a general way pointed out several glaring errors, not intentional I am free to admit, on the part of the Premier. I have not pointed these out for the sake of carrying on a controversy over the financial conditions of the province, but more especially to show that matters of the kind referred to by him cannot be dealt with fairly and convincingly without being in a position to have all the facts, data, etc., in one's possession, and such cannot be had until a proper audit is made of the accounts of the province. "I wish in conclusion to touch for a moment on capital expenditure of $1,250,000, to which Dr. Baxter refers in a way that would leave the impression that the late Government was guilty of some terrible wrong in connection with the handling of the expenditures of the province.

CAN BE EXPLAINED, HE SAYS.

"When all the transactions of the last year will have been laid before the Legislature, it will be found that an honest and proper explanation can be given, one which will be accepted as an ample justification by any fair-minded man for the conduct of the Government in the respect. "It will be found that the money adopted by us during the summer in connection with the opening of new country by the construction of a road from Campbellton to St. Quentin, if put into effect by the new Government, will still leave the sum of $250,000 more to the credit of the Province, 000 which he claims we expended all in three years when we should have carried the expenditure over a period of five years.

Evans-Crawford. The first wedding to be solemnized in the Westfield United church since the new audit system introduced by Hon. W. E. Foster in 1917, and still in practice. The truth about this item could have been readily ascertained by making inquiry of the Comptroller-General. That item was for patrol work done after the close of the fiscal year 1924, during the month of November, which being a very open month, it was necessary to organize what is known as a patrol party in order to protect the roads from being damaged by the heavy automobile traffic at that late season of the year.

Fashion Writer Tells of Some Styles Now Seen In New York

By HEDDA HOYT. (Written for the United Press.) NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—One of the first fur-trimmed cloth dresses seen in Fifth avenue is an example of what will be worn in the street this fall. This dress was made of tan kaska cloth in the popular two-piece jumper model. The V-shaped neckline was finished with a narrow collar of fancy ermine and a patch pocket of this fur adorned one side of the jumper with a cluster of tan ermine tails acting as a pocket finish. Small turn-back cuffs which finished the slender sleeves were also of ermine.

Fashion Fancies

THE vogue for colors seems to come naturally with the Fall season, when all nature wears its richest hues. The flannel frock above seems bent upon not being outdoors by nature, for it chooses gay stripes of soft reds and browns. It also adds notes of smartness in its high collar, and its row of covered buttons at the back.

SCALLOPS POPULAR

One of the most popular ways of finishing the skirt is by wide or very pointed scallops, bound with the material of the frock.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1—The reports of four pistol shots and the screams of Mrs. John Cox and two of her children, Arabelle, 5 years old, and Hazel, 3, brought neighbors running into the upper part of a two family house in Jersey City, N. FILES ALIENATION SUIT FOR $250,000

Mrs. C. H. Maxwell of New York is Proceeding Against Father-in-Law.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1—Charging her husband, Charles Henry Raymond Maxwell, with evading a court order to pay her $100 a week alimony by departing for Europe, and this forcing her to live in a small apartment in East Fifty-eighth street near Second avenue with her former maid, Mrs. Nannine Breal. Maxwell has filed suit in the County Clerk's office asking $250,000 damages from her father-in-law, George T. Maxwell, head of the stock brokerage firm of Maxwell & Co. of 40 Broadway. She charges Mr. Maxwell with alienating the affections of her husband. Miss Breal was married to Maxwell at Rye on October 21, 1924, and the couple went to live at her apartment in 64 East Eighty-sixth street. Before the marriage, it was brought out, Mrs. Maxwell was entertained at the Maxwell home here and apparently was acceptable to her husband's family. The day of the marriage, the complaint says, the younger Maxwell told his bride that he did not wish his mother to learn of the wedding and suggested that they live at her apartment. She agreed, and they lived there until November 24, 1924, when the elder Maxwell, she charges, influenced and induced the husband to desert her, leaving her without means of support. Last January, she says, he telephoned her that he intended to return and live with her, despite his parents' protests. He failed to return, Mrs. Maxwell charges, and, soon after she fled suit for separation last June he sailed for Europe with his mother. The father is a member of the Racquet and Tennis, the Harvard, Union League and Seawanhaka Yacht Club, and the son is a member of the Racquet and Tennis, National Golf Southampton and the Southampton Colony.

HUSBAND REFUSED TO TALK TO WIFE

"Yes" and "No" Only Words in Two Years—She Gets Divorce.

BOSTON, Oct. 1—The sequel to a two-year "silence strike" by Mrs. H. H. Armstrong, former Newton Highlands clubman, during which time his only words to his wife were "yes" and "no," took place in Middlesex Probate Court, where Mrs. Mabel B. Armstrong of Newton Highlands was granted a decree nisi by Judge Harris, on the grounds of desertion.

ORDERED HOME

Troubled conditions existed in the home, testified Mrs. Armstrong, from the time of their marriage at Worcester, Christmas Day, 1905, until the fall of September, 1905. For the next two years, according to the witness, Armstrong refused to talk to her at any time, merely answering her questions in monosyllables. In the fall of 1907, she stated, before her maid, while living in New York city, her husband called her into the dining room, and informed her she had best pack her bags and return to her mother, that her presence in the house was very unpleasant to his many friends. Her husband, she stated, had even purchased the railroad tickets, and she was forced to return to her mother's home at Stony Brook. The only occasion since 1907, stated Mrs. Armstrong, on which she saw her husband was close to three years ago. On the occasion of her mother's death Armstrong appeared at the funeral services, informing her that he had always had a high respect for his mother-in-law. Immediately subsequent to the services, testified Mrs. Armstrong, her husband returned to "The Hermitage," a beautiful little cottage he had erected for his own benefit, and remained steadfast in his determination not to live with her.

SUCCESS MARKS FIRST NIGHT OF ORPHANS' FAIR

More Than 1,500 People Give Initial Swing to Big Event

SUPPORT STRONGLY URGED BY SPEAKERS

Hon. Mr. Tilley Hopes for Big Endowment—Attractions and Committees

More than 1,500 people attended the opening of the New Brunswick Orphanage Fair in St. Andrew's rink last evening, which was marked by short speeches by Acting Mayor J. H. Frink, who presided, Dr. James Manning for the orphanage directors, who told of the urgent need for funds, and Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, M. L. A., who spoke on behalf of Premier Baxter, who was unable to be present owing to pressing business in Montreal. The committee in charge of the fair have the arrangements well in hand and the generosity of the large crowd present on the opening night augurs well for the complete success of the undertaking. The interior of the rink presents an attractive appearance, the decoration work having been tastefully carried out. The booths have tempting wares which are invitingly displayed. St. Mary's Band gave a nice programme.

FINANCIAL NEEDS.

Dr. James Manning said the new orphanage building just completed had cost $270,000 and while it was building the maintenance funds had slipped behind so that there was now an overdraft of $26,000. He said it cost $48,000 a year to maintain the home and if the 217,000 Protestants in the province each contributed no more than 25 cents a year the needs of the institution would be more than provided for. Some people could not give the 25 cents and so a more generous support was asked from those who could give more, but he felt that if the people realized their responsibility the funds would be provided.

WORTHY OBJECT.

Mr. Tilley, who was accompanied by Lieut.-Col. W. H. Harrison, M. L. A., said Premier Baxter deeply regretted his inability to attend but had been called to Montreal on official business. He spoke of the magnificent new home on the Manawagonish Road and of the loving care which was provided for the children there. The building was worthy of the Protestant people of New Brunswick but had not been built by them alone, as many of their faith had assisted. He remarked the large attendance at the fair and the splendid attractions offered. He commended the committees and the interest of the patrons, declaring that when the orphanage board got short of funds as it had from time to time it had always assurance that some undertaking would be arranged to roll up the money. He said that there was at present a permanent fund of $80,000 for the endowment of the orphanage. He would like to see that fund $300,000 and bringing $30,000 a year so that the maintenance of the Home would be assured. He urged those who had money to will away to be sure they did not forget to leave a bequest to the orphanage.

MANY ATTRACTIONS.

Besides the many booths and games which were in operation at the fair last night there will be a dart game, and a fortune telling booth installed by this evening and on Monday night there will be "The Earthquake" to furnish a special attraction. "Chances" can be taken on a great variety of desirable prizes including a set of "Bonny Blue enamel ware," a model yacht, donated by Walter Logan, and a large number of other articles. The door prizes each night and the general door prize of the Ford sedan also are big attractions. Tonight the door prize will be a load of wood.

W. M. Campbell is general chairman of the fair, George Lewis is vice-chairman, James E. Arthur is secretary, and M. G. Adams is treasurer.

PRIZE WINNERS.

The crowds at the fair last night were estimated at about 1,500 and they were generous spenders. The door prize of a ton of coal was won by ticket 575. Among the prize winners at games were: A. B. Edwards; air gun, Mr. Devlin and Avard Duffy and ten pins, J. M. Clark. The five mysterious people did not appear having been caught and they are identified as A. Hartley Case, Mrs. T. A. Graham, W. A. Lockhart, S. W. Palmer and William Abel.

A contest to select the most popular postman is a special feature of the fair which is arousing special interest because the prize is a $50 suit of clothes. Some of the patrons of the fair secured record bargains of fine coats just before closing time when all of the unsold home cooking was auctioned off.

THE COMMITTEES.

The men's committees are as follows: Finance, W. M. Campbell, George H. Lewis, J. E. Arthur, M. G. Adams, J. E. Dinsmore and W. W. Donahoe; house, J. Maxwell, W. M. Campbell, Thomas Moore, Isaac Mercer, B. L. Shepherd, H. N. Hamilton, John Allan, George Oldford, A. B. Edwards and George H. Worden; ticket, J. H. Kelly, H. M. Akerley, A. E. Fleming, S. "My clothes used to be yellow - now they are snowy white"

"I always had trouble with my clothes—they used to come out so yellow. Then a friend told me about Rinso. I found it makes a wonderful soap solution. This removed every bit of dirt and then it all rinsed out completely. There was nothing left to yellow the clothes—as there was no soap to stick—it was all dissolved."

"I am now delighted with my wash—my clothes are always snowy white."

—A letter received by the makers of Rinso.

Just shake some Rinso into a suds-pail, add hot water, and you'll get the wonderful soapy solution that is the only soap you need for your set tubs, your boiler, your washing machine. Rinso soaks dirt out.

RAT CATCHING COST NEW YORK $72 PER RAT

Public Pays $77 for Each Flea Caught, Committee Chairman Says

WALLSTEIN LAYS EXPENSE TO POLITICS

Accuses Tammany of Getting Money to Fight Fake Epidemics

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Rat catching by the Board of Health under the present city administration cost the taxpayers $77 a flea, Leonard M. Wallstein, chairman of the non-partisan citizens' committee for Frank D. Waterman, mayoralty candidate, declared yesterday, basing his assertion on a recent report of the United States public health service.

"A striking example of the high cost of government by politicians in this city, and the way they hoodwink the public in order to provide useless and illegal jobs for their army of political hangers, is shown by a recent report of the United States public health service, issued on Sept. 11, Mr. Wallstein said.

$5,000,000 A YEAR.

"From 1920 to date, in addition to an annual budget for the Health Department of over $5,000,000 per year, the board of estimate has appropriated special emergency funds totaling nearly a million dollars for salaries and wages of rat catchers and others, whose services were represented as essential if the people of this city were to be saved from the bubonic plague and other dread diseases.

"Touching appeals to the board of estimate for these funds and eloquent justifications for their expenditure came from the pen of the Secretary of the Health Department, Charles L. Kohler, who is a Tammany district leader in charge of the home district of George W. Olvany, leader of Tammany Hall.

$72 PER RAT.

"In his letter of June 5, 1924, to the mayor, seeking one of these appropriations, Mr. Kohler wrote:

"In connection with the United States public health service we have been investigating the possibility of an invasion of the bubonic plague through the medium of rats, and it is absolutely essential that this activity should be continued.

"The report of the United States health service shows that from April 15, 1923, to Feb. 28, 1924, the rat catchers paid out of the so-called emergency appropriations caught 4,738 rats, of which 1,420 had fleas to the total number of 4,408. The appropriations during that period for that work was $340,000. At this rate each rat that was caught cost the taxpayers of New York nearly $72, and each rat with fleas cost the taxpayers over $228, and each flea found on these rats cost $77.

LISTS IGNORED.

"Of course the high cost of political rats and political fleas is explained by the fact that the party workers needed jobs at the public expense. The jobs were distributed almost equally among the chair warmers of the Tammany clubs in the respective districts. It was not only a Tammany health department official who made the plans for these appropriations, but it was a Tammany civil service commission which authorized the filling of the jobs from outside the civil service lists.

"The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court ruled that such evasions of the civil service law were illegal, but that did not stop the administration from continuing its racketeering about epidemics, which afforded a convenient cover for political raids on the city treasury.

FAKE EPIDEMICS.

"Every one of the applications for these appropriations for fighting fake epidemics had to come before the board of estimate, and none of the appropriations could have been made without the approving vote of that board. The five borough presidents, who were the mayor's 'yes, yes' men, in voting these appropriations, are all recommended on the Tammany ticket. If these recommended borough presidents are re-elected, of course, they must again be Tammany's 'yes, yes' men to do their part in putting over similar jobs for the Tammany machine.

"The way for the people of New York to prevent further repetitions of the same outrageous abuse is to elect city officials of character and ability, who will run the city government on business principles and not for the benefit of party organizations and party workers. The board of estimate ticket headed by Frank D. Waterman affords this opportunity to the voters of New York."

MONTREAL, Oct. 1.—Consolidated Smelters continued to feature when the stock market opened this morning, opening with an overnight gain of 1-1/2, at 122, and quickly advancing to 123-1/2, as compared with yesterday's low of 117. It was easily the most active stock during the early trading.

Another strong stock was National Breweries, which was up 1-1/2 to 58-1/2 in fairly good demand. Steamships, preferred, strengthened 2-5 to 54-1/2. While Brazilian was off 1-4 to 71. The balance of the list was quiet and unchanged, the following stocks selling the same: Bell, 140; Dominion Textile, 88; Brompton, 21; Lake of the Woods, 198, and St. Lawrence Flour, in a small lot transaction, 86.

IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Rallying tendencies appeared in the stock market at today's opening, with prices generally following an upward trend despite further selling of popular motors, and specialties, such as Hudson and Dupont. Buying of the oil shares was influenced by reports of declining production in the Smackover field. Foreign developments, including the reduction in the English bank rate to four per cent, and the rejection of the French debt settlement proposal, appeared to have little effect in the initial dealings.

Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—It is impossible to say anything about the immediate trend of the market. Many stocks have a very thin market. They may go down just as easily as they become overvalued and snap back again. A piece of bad news or some real bear leadership just at this time could bring a very substantial reaction. In the selling yesterday some stocks stood out so well that they indicated there was some real buying. Have no opinion on the immediate future. It may get a good set-back or we may have a continuance of extreme irregularity. We do not think, however, that the upward move to cover in many stocks and on a set-back would be in a position to buy some of issues that indicate support.

On straight we would continue to take profits in the motors for the present. Steel acts better and we think it can be purchased on a set-back. U. S. Rubber acted well yesterday. On any dip we would buy it. Store stocks slid yesterday but in our opinion, we would buy them on any further set-back. A. G. B. Pfd. looks like a purchase at present price.

Brokers' Opinions

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Bachs & Co.—“One can hardly venture an opinion that accumulation of right sort has been going on. On the contrary, direct evidence points the other way.”

Block Maloney—“This is the time to cash in profits on the motor group. The market will be subject to ups and downs and we would buy only on drives, giving preference to standard rails.”

Clark Child—“Railroad market promises to break through the line again for a good run in a short time on strength of great earnings.”

Hornblower—“It is evident that stocks are in supply around the top levels of the present rally and that this supply does not originate from sources identified with the trading public. Nothing has happened or is likely to happen in the near future to change the long range upward trend.”

Wife and Friends Make Demonstration When Jury Brings Guilty Verdict.

A demonstration marked the closing of the trial of Max Lampert in the Circuit Court before Judge Byrne last evening. Lampert was found guilty in a check case. Sentence was deferred.

BEGS FOR MERCY.

The wife of the convicted man, carrying a baby in her arms, extended the child towards the judge, and with tears in her eyes exhorted him to be merciful to her husband for the baby's sake. Crowds of the accused's friends lent their appeal and His Honor had difficulty in seeing that order was kept, finally being compelled to retire in an endeavor to stay the demonstration.

Lampert himself broke down completely, screaming and rending his garments in the dock until he was borne from the court room amid scenes of unprecedented excitement. He was remanded for sentence, and court adjourned until this morning at 10.30. This case completed the criminal docket for this sitting.

The jurors empaneled to try the case were: J. H. Cullinan, Ora Wallace, J. H. B. Balmann, P. E. Spear, H. D. Finlay, M. L. Branscombe, T. L. Baxter, A. G. Gregory, Joseph Casey, H. G. McLean, W. T. Earle, C. E. Farrand.

MAY GET MORE ROOM.

As a temporary solution of the problem of the overcrowded High School there is a possibility of remodeling the school trustees' building to look after the overflow of students this year. Architect F. Neil Brodie reports that only about half of the space in the upper stories of the trustees' building is being utilized at present. Grade XII of the High School is still meeting in the assembly hall.

HARD COAL HERE IN FAIR SUPPLY

No More Looked For Until U. S. Strike Ends

Dealers Able to Meet Present Demands—Danger is Prolonged Dispute.

"Practically all the dealers in the city have a fair supply of American anthracite on hand at present, but whether it will prove sufficient depends on how long the strike in the United States lasts as no more will probably be available for shipment here until after the present dispute is settled," was stated by F. P. Johnson, manager of R. P. & W. F. Starr, Ltd., when questioned by a Times-Star representative regarding the present coal situation in Saint John.

DEMAND ABOUT NORMAL.

Thus far, Mr. Johnson said, the demand for coal had been about normal for this season of the year. The citizens apparently had not stocked up to any appreciable extent. The dealers had plenty of hard coal on hand for immediate demand and they were not placing any limit at present on the quantity sold to each customer.

Several schooners, he said, had arrived recently with hard coal from New York, but these had all been chartered and the coal contracted for prior to Sept. 1. He thought that practically all these vessels had reached the city now.

Referring to the price, he said that Saint John citizens were getting coal much cheaper than other sections of the Maritime Provinces. The price in many New England cities, much nearer the source of supply, with less transportation costs, was considerably in advance of that in this city. At present anthracite was retailing here at $16 a ton, with 20 cents discount for cash, making the price a ton $15.80 net.

IF STRIKE PROLONGED.

While there was no immediate prospect of an advance in price this would probably occur if the strike was prolonged for any considerable period. Supplies of hard coal would have to be brought from England if the present local stocks became exhausted, he declared. Substitutes would also be used more when the present stock commenced to run low.

Dr. L. M. Curren, whose name is being mentioned in connection with the question of a running mate for the Hon. Dr. W. E. Foster, secretary of state in the approaching federal election, has become prominent in the Liberal party of Saint John city and county since his election to the Provincial Legislature in 1920.

Though a continuously active family physician for 23 years, first in Fairville for a short term, but mostly in the city proper, Dr. Curren had specialized in surgery and is today almost exclusively devoted to that branch of his profession. He was a member of the local Legislature for five years as a representative of Saint John county.

In the early period of his career when resident in Fairville, Dr. Curren was from 1908 to 1911, chairman of the special board of the Municipal Council. It was here his capacity as a public administrator as well as a medical practitioner attracted the attention of his political party, causing his selection as a standardbearer. Another mark of Dr. Curren's citizenship is his chairmanship of the Board of School Trustees at this important period of expansion in local educational matters.

As Hiram Sees It

MONTREAL—Well, sir—you never kin tell what a woman 'll do. When I went to my room after breakfast this mornin' I seen our old carpet bag stamin' up against that nice new suitcase o' mine. I says to the maid, says I: "What's this mean?" "Oh," says the woman come here an' I wasn't goate let her in—but she said she was your wife. She's gone down to git'er breakfast." Sure enough in walks Hiram in a little while, an' said I'd been trapisin' round long enough an' leavin' her home—an' she got Birdie Mc-What to look after things while she took a run up to Montreal to see what I was doin'. When she got one good look at the prices on the bill-o'-fare she said she guessed she wouldn't stop long. I guess she won't—nuther—By Hen!
