PARLIAMENT OF IRELAND OPENED

Sir James Craig Announces His Cabinet.

Hugh O'Neill is Speaker—Sinn Fein Bulletin Replies to Sir Hamar Greenwood—Three Men Executed This Morning in Dublin.

Belfast, June 7.—The parliament of Northern Ireland, elected last month under the new home rule measure, was opened today amid impressive scenes in the council chamber of the city hall here.

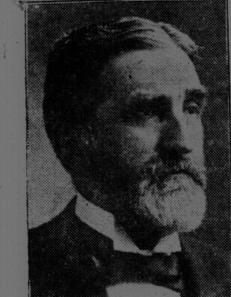

The Belfast city hall although architecturally one of the finest buildings in Europe was hardly adequate for the installation of the parliament. The council chamber, although it contains ample accommodation for the fifty-two members elected to the House—six Sinn Feiners and six Nationalists who did not appear today, having been chosen to the body in addition to the forty Unionists—is hopelessly small when considered from the spectator's standpoint.

WILL AWAIT THE PREMIER'S RETURN

Matter of Co-ordination of the Grand Trunk With Government Lines.

(Special to The Times.) Ottawa, Ont., June 7.—Co-ordination of the Grand Trunk Railway with the government-owned railways is not expected until after Premier Meighen's return in August. It had been intended to hurry on this project, but the premier's hurried departure for London made it necessary to defer this and other matters.

Sir Joseph Flavelle, chairman of the Grand Trunk Board, is in Ottawa today, and the temporary board under him has begun the work of preparing the co-ordination. While there are two boards, one under President D. B. Hanna and the other under Sir Joseph Flavelle, the fact that Mr. Mitchell, vice-president of the Canadian National, is on both boards will enable the arrangements to go ahead almost as well as expected. Duplicate services will be eliminated so far as possible, and staff cut down where possible.

It is expected that the appointment of the permanent board will await the premier's return. If Sir Joseph Flavelle refuses the position, President D. B. Hanna will probably carry on.

The Canadian National act will be proclaimed when the premier returns.

IN WALL STREET. New York, June 7.—(10:40)—Initial prices in the stock market today followed a continuance of yesterday's selling pressure. This was based in part on further settlement of foreign exchange rates. High grade rails, oil, motor shipments and numerous unclassified shares were lower by liberal fractions to 1/2 points. Special heaviness was shown by Texas and Pacific, Mexican and Pan-American Petroleum, General Asphalt, Atlantic Gulf, American International, Cuba Cane Sugar, United States Rubber, International Paper, and the several leather issues. The few nominal gains at the opening included C. P. R. and Houston Oil.

Closing out of speculative amounts and further calling of loans by banks provoked heavy liquidation during the morning. Sales in the first two hours approximated 50,000 shares; the entire list establishing lower prices. Losses of 1 to 4 points attended the extensive offerings of oils, motors, equipments, sugar, shipping and rails. Among the latter were Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville and Nashville at recessions of 3/4 and 4-1/4 points. New York Air Brake, International Paper, Famous Players and several of the express company shares were included among the weak specialties. Foreign exchange steadied slightly, but only a moderate supply of call money was obtainable at 7 1/2 per cent.

MONTREAL STOCK EXCHANGE. Montreal, June 7.—The local stock exchange was fairly active during the early trading this morning. Abitibi was unchanged at 35 1/2. Weyburnanek strengthened a quarter to 63 3/4.

FIRES ARE QUITE NEAR THE CITY

Those at Sandy Point Road and Spruce Lake Reported Vigorous Today.

The forest fire in the Sandy Point road district assumed more alarming proportions today and was spreading through a heavy timber growth just above the Pedersen property. At 3 o'clock this afternoon the fire was burning furiously in the hilly section just in the rear of the old road and was working down towards the old Pedersen homestead, which is a house built on the site of the large green-houses and dwelling house. Mr. Pedersen had six men on hand taking precautions to save his valuable green-house barn etc. They collected water and got ready their fire fighting apparatus in case of emergency. Further along the road there is a farm owned by Mr. Sheppard and on the hill on the opposite side of the road is the Isolation Hospital with its barns, etc.

The fire which started in the woods to the north of Spruce Lake yesterday afternoon, spread over about 100 acres during the afternoon and died down during the night. This morning, however, a fresh breeze fanned the flames into activity again and by noon today they had covered in the vicinity of 800 acres and were still traveling almost due north towards the St. John River. Most of the land covered by this fire was burned some four or five years ago, so that the damage done up to the present has not been serious.

CLERK PRESIDES AT COUNTY COURT

No Business Done in York, as There is Yet No Judge.

(Special to Times.) Fredericton, N. B., June 7.—The force in connection with the county court, judging for York, Sunbury and Carleton, proceeded another step this morning when Harris G. Fenety, clerk of the York court, presided at the regular June sittings—before they can again declare the court adjourned because there was no judge.

Seven Jewish residents of Fredericton were present to make application for naturalization. Should a judge not be appointed soon, they will have to wait until October before they can again make application.

It was said on what was considered good authority, that the appointment of Judge J. H. Wilson to the vacant judgeship from which Hon. William Wilson retired more than three months ago, would be made at Ottawa last Saturday. No appointment was made, however, and nothing has been heard since.

H. G. Prince, chief forester, accompanied by C. E. Tracey, will leave this evening for Madawaska County, where they will inspect suggested sites for a look-out tower for fire protection. They also will investigate some cases of fires.

CHURCH BUDGET
IS $1,800,000

Presbyterian Assembly Hears of $200,000 Increase.

Forceful Addresses in Support of the Addition—Call to Ministers to Make Situation Clear to Congregations.

Toronto, June 7—(Canadian Press)—A budget calling for $1,800,000 for 1922 or an increase of $200,000 over the 1921 budget, was announced at the Presbyterian general assembly last night. Members of the general board delivered forceful addresses in defense of the increase. Dr. W. G. Wilson of Moose Jaw said eighteen funds now shared in the budget but fifty per cent. of it or $900,000 was allotted to home mission and social service. Estimates had brought in calling for $2,281,880, but the board had reduced it to $1,800,000, which meant that many places on the frontier which had asked for missionaries this year would not get them. Speaking to the ministers he said that in order to get the money to meet the budget, the church members would have to be fully informed regarding the need and he hoped the ministers would see that they got the information. Dr. Wilson believed that the day was coming when men would apologize for their wealth which was not working for the benefit of humanity.

The duty of getting down to action and raising the money needed by the church was put squarely up to the laymen by a layman from Listowel, William T. L. Hamilton. He believed laymen should be held equally responsible with ministers. A stewardship in the church to him did not mean just handling the money but it meant also consecration to the work of God and the church.

The forward movement, said Principal Dr. Gaudier, had brought the church through the re-construction period and without the fund it would have been impossible to meet the obligations. The Presbyterian people had been asked for $4,000,000, and they had responded with $8,000,000.

The report of the general board will be laid before the assembly in detail today.

35,000 CHURCHES WITHOUT PASTORS

5,000 Preachers Needed Each Year to Fill Vacancies in United States.

Ashbury Park, N. J., June 7—Thirty-five thousand churches in the United States are without pastors, and only 1,450 ministers will graduate this year from theological seminaries to fill these places, declared Rev. Dr. Wm. D. Brown tonight at the annual synod of the Reformed Church of America. D. Brown, national board, said 6,000 preachers were needed each year to fill pastoral vacancies.

The report, which was adopted by the synod, included condemnation of public dance halls, bad books, and unit motion pictures and called for "positive aggressiveness along the lines of public morality in each community."

It endorsed the work of the Anti-Saloon League and the Lord's Day Alliance.

MORE SUNSHINE MAY BE RESULT

Sir Oliver Lodge Thinks Increased Quota May Follow Solar Eruption.

London, June 7—Recent solar eruptions which have caused brilliant auroras and disorganized cable and telegraph service throughout the world, may result in the earth receiving an increased quota of years, says Sir Oliver Lodge, the noted astronomer. He declares it is probable that moon will be strengthened, and that in consequence the Indian harvest will be improved. He even ventures the opinion that the electrified particles thrown off by the sun during the disturbance may assist in the development of vegetation and reduce the amount of dust held suspended in the atmosphere. Sir Oliver says the magnetic disturbances that attended the solar eruption were due to a torrent of electrified particles, which constituted a gigantic electric current. This opinion is also held by Camille Flammarion, the veteran French astronomer, who has expressed surprise at a storm of such unusual violence occurring at this time.

M. Flammarion has pointed out that the sun is now at a period of diminishing activity, the eruptions on the surface of the luminary recurring at intervals of eleven years. Sir Frank Dyson, the astronomer royal, declares the disturbances caused by the sun spots were the worst ever experienced in England.

A Danger Signal—Tender and Bleeding Gums
Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhoea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhoea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills.
Pyorrhoea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.
Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhoea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.
Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhoea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

THE IMPERIAL CONFERENCE

The departure of Premier McPherson for London, to attend the conference of British prime ministers, attracts public attention to that conference and what it may do.

There is, however, on record a resolution adopted by an Imperial conference in 1917, which is worthy of note at this time.

"They deem it their duty to place on record their view that any such readjustment, while thorough, preserving all existing powers of self-government and complete control of domestic affairs, should be based upon a full recognition of the Dominions as autonomous nations of an Imperial Commonwealth, and of India as an important portion of the same; should recognize the right of the Dominions and India to an adequate voice in foreign policy and in foreign relations, and should provide effective arrangements for continuous consultation in all important matters of common Imperial concern, and for such necessary concerted action, founded on consultation, as the several governments may determine."

General Smuts said:—"If this resolution is passed, then one possible solution is negatived, and that is the Federal solution. The idea of a future Imperial parliament and a future Imperial executive is negatived by implication by the terms of this resolution."

ANGLO-AMERICAN FRIENDSHIP

The subject of Anglo-American relations came up in the United States senate last week, in a discussion on the navy appropriation bill. Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin opposed as excessive the appropriation of $500,000,000, which was championed by Senator Poincaré of Washington, acting chairman of the committee on naval affairs; and declared himself as in favor of the United States being the world's second naval power, Great Britain being first.

"The speaker went on to point out that Great Britain, owing to the vast extent of her possessions, needed a larger navy than the United States, and the fact should be recognized," Senator Williams endorsed this view, pointing out that even in a war in which she was not a participant a situation might arise which would mean the starving of England, and she must therefore be prepared to protect the sea routes that made possible the feeding of her people.

Unofficial correspondence sent out from government headquarters at Ottawa indicates that the request of the delegation from the maritime provinces is to be negatived. The press of the upper provinces appears to be entirely unsympathetic. If the formal government answer is no more comforting, the formation of a maritime province party would seem to loom up in the not distant future.

This "Big Stick" policy appears to have the approval of the majority of the senators, as Senator Lenroot's amendment to reduce the appropriation for the construction of airplane carriers from $59,000,000 to $37,000,000 was defeated by a vote of thirty to twenty. It is worth noting, however, that President Harding is said to have sent out feelers to ascertain whether it would be desirable to bring about an international conference to provide means for a limitation of armaments; and the senate has already gone on record by asking the president to invite Great Britain and Japan to join the United States in a conference for the purpose of restricting naval construction by mutual agreement. The president is also reported to have in mind a new association of nations which would include the United States, and would be a development of the present Allied Supreme Council.

A fine illustration of international good-feeling was given last week when the Prince of Wales and the American Admiral Sims together received the honorary degree of doctor of laws at Cambridge.

At a luncheon the Prince and the Admiral both dwelt on the need of Anglo-American friendship as the one thing that could save world-civilization. Admiral Sims said the co-operation of the Allies was as necessary in peace as it had been during the war.

When General Smuts said:—"If this resolution is passed, then one possible solution is negatived, and that is the Federal solution. The idea of a future Imperial parliament and a future Imperial executive is negatived by implication by the terms of this resolution."

The fire department was called out about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a still alarm to extinguish a fire in the roof of Campbell & Fowler's ice factory, City Road. The blaze was extinguished without much difficulty, although one stream had to be played on it for a time, and a certain amount of cutting was necessary to get at the seat of the trouble.

There many a shy white violet, With orchid fair and lily blue, Amid the soft green moss is set, Where spilling foot can seldom come.

Only the squirrel may invade The secrets of that calm retreat, Or romp in its monastic shade, Or pry its quest with nimble feet.

So jealously the maple trees Weave far above a leafy screen To guard its fragrant sanctities, That scarce the sun may peep between.

And vagrant breeze has never stirred The estimate of its lily breast, Only the crooning of a bird, To soothe the vigil of its nest.

The hazels throw their tangled shade Where, mid the brackets cool and sweet, Sky creatures wander unafraid, And fairies may with fairies meet.

I know a quiet woodland pool, Only the vixen beside, Re-echo in the spaces cool, And through the rustle shallow floats.

DR. CLARK ON THE RAILWAY PROBLEM

Outlines Contributing Factors in Address at Portage La Prairie.

Reduce Private Cars and Passes, His Advice—Thinks Extension Should be Suspended for Present—Question of Revaluation.

Winnipeg, June 7.—The problems of Canadian railways were discussed here today by Dr. Michael Clark, M. P., Red Deer, Alta., who is on his way home from Ottawa business and the stopping of the railway situation.

Increased business and the stopping of the railway situation. Conditions causing the wavering of a glass of magic wand. The railway problem is part of the national problem, and can only be solved by steady adherence to these fundamental business qualities.

"A condition of more or less general prevalence is the increase of motor traffic at the end of the parliamentary session in Britain, a large number of members of both houses of parliament, with their retinues, used to swell the ranks of the railways. Now it is quite commonly the case that these gentlemen motor from London to their shooting boxes in the provinces of England, and the Highlands of Scotland, etc., in our western provinces, to my knowledge, commercial travellers are saving time and getting fresher and fresher air by substituting automobiles for the train."

"Prohibition has adversely affected the income of railways. People who relieved the burden of long journeys by a glass of wine at dinner, supplied by the railway companies, now carry the money to the end of the journey to help to pay their water rates. This may be bad or good, just as we look at things. But the fact is there, and must be faced. If we could be made to live on water, less will be grown and less will be carried."

"A potent cause of present disaster is to be found in the inflation of wages and the expense during the war period. Time will bring some readjustments in these matters, but these readjustments must be brought about carefully. "The case of immigration has been advocated as a help to the railways by Mr. Beatty, the able and popular president of the Canadian Pacific railway. Freight trade in lumber easily commensurate itself to captains of industry for obvious reasons, and it may be readily conceded that the present immigration policy is in the cities, and the immigrants recommended are land workers, it needs to be pointed out in reply that our difficulty is not a lack of workers, but a lack of workers on the land when placed there. They have been leaving the farm for the city, in many cases leaving a wife and children behind."

"The Canadian gun-bust Canada, which during the war was in this port on many occasions and which is well known to St. John people, may be given by the government to the Navy League for use as a training ship for members of the Boy's Naval Brigade and other lads. The craft has been offered to the league for this purpose."

"The speaker went on to point out that Great Britain, owing to the vast extent of her possessions, needed a larger navy than the United States, and the fact should be recognized," Senator Williams endorsed this view, pointing out that even in a war in which she was not a participant a situation might arise which would mean the starving of England, and she must therefore be prepared to protect the sea routes that made possible the feeding of her people.

NEW HIRED MAN REVOLTS AT DOING THE FAMILY WASH

He washed his socks when in the army, but when it came to doing the family washing in Canada it was too much!

A veteran of the Sussex Regiment, who had lost an eye in France, turned his remaining optic with zeal toward Canada. His physical infirmity, however, denied him the approval of the emigration authorities until the recent visit of Hon. Manning Doherty to the British cattle embargo. Either the minister of agriculture or Dr. Geo. C. Creelman, then agent-general for Ontario in London, was moved to sympathy. Discerning immigration inspectors overlooked the glass eye and in due course the ex-soldier reached St. John, N. B.

He was sent to a farm at Cavan, near Peterboro', Ont. The religious persuasion of the family is not mentioned, but the day began properly with Bible reading and family prayers. When the ceremony was over, the "hired man" was put in his place. The work allotted to him was such that it took pretty well ninety-five hours out of every week to get through. In the leisure that was left he was not permitted to mingle with the family, could not smoke in the house, and when in the house was obliged to remain in his bedroom. All this, he says, he could stand, but when Monday came and he was told to get busy at the wash-tub, rub clothes and go through the bluing process, he began to philosophize.

Ninety-five hours a week for $30 a month, and he a Chinaman! It was too much! So he quit, or, to put it in the vernacular, he "blew." He reports that he is now working in a mining camp for $4.25 a day, with smokes in the bunk-house and out and perhaps again washing his own socks.

A WOMEN WHO SHOED AWAY AFRICAN LIONS

Although I am by nature and instinct an anti-feminist, I must confess that the most courageous settler I met in British East Africa was a woman.

Marguerite Forbes came to the country about three years before I left. She was already past middle age, and in England had won considerable fame as a painter of animals. King Edward had been one of her patrons, and although I have never seen an original, from the reproduction of her Academy pictures I can quite understand how well she deserved the vogue she had. I could never explain to her to quit a successful livelihood in fashionable London for the more precarious existence of African pioneering. Perhaps, like other artistic natures, she felt cramped by civilization and knew that if she was to possess her soul before she died it was absolutely necessary for her to get in touch with primitive essentials.

If such, indeed, had been her motive she had certainly selected a good place. The farm she bought lay this side of the great plains between the Milowa River and the Aberdear Mountains. It was quite by itself. None of the country for fifteen miles around had been taken up. I first heard rumors of her presence from the natives. A white woman, they said, was building a house for herself out there.

By the Evening Fire.

Several weeks passed, and then one day I happened to be riding near her homestead and went in to see how she was getting on. I was on my way to the Aberdear Mountains and had intended to sleep that night at the Milowa River. But she would not hear of it, and made up a bed for me in a small outhouse that she had. She was a strongly built woman, with a fine, wide forehead, and her eyes looked out at me with the tranquil, appealing look of a human being who is intelligent and lonely.

We had an excellent supper of onion soup, eggs and home made butter, and afterwards we sat before a kerosene canister with holes punched in its sides, filled with glowing logs.

Sitting there at that primitive fireplace we talked of Africa with its soulless savage beauty, and of the mysterious nature of human life, expressing itself so emphatically over the surface of the world. The door of the grass hut was open, I remember, and as we talked the moonlight shone in upon the mud floor and the rudely plastered walls. Outside in that land of weird sorcery the jackals yapped at each other, the natives sang their jocular, meaningless songs, and now and again the howls of a wandering hyena rose from the darkened places where it was prowling.

It grew late, but still we sat, talking with that eagerness of interest that people show who for a long time have been living by themselves. Suddenly we noticed that the cattle in the boma were lowing. We paused to listen, wondering what could be disturbing them. They were making a great noise. Then all at once we knew what it was.

Three Hungry Lions.

A low, rumbling sound rose out of the night, as it were at our very backs. We both sprang to our feet. There is no mistaking the grunting of a lion. Unfortunately I had left my rifle in the hut where I was going to sleep, and this was a hundred yards away. I had no weapon, and neither, apparently, had my companion, for snatching up the lantern she rushed out just as she was. I hadn't the face to let her go alone.

Once outside she ran to the boma. As we approached I saw in the moonlight what I took to be three bullocks outside the stockade, and it was only when I got quite near to them that I realized that they were lions.

I called to Miss Forbes to stop. It seemed to me that we were behaving in a perfectly mad way. At that moment, however, the lions saw her and, uttering some ugly growls, disappeared round the corner of the place. Breathlessly I implored her to come back, but hardly had I begun speaking than she heard the same grunting again on the opposite side of the stockade. The brutes were evidently trying to get the cattle to stampede and break through the heavy posts.

As soon as ever my companion heard the sound she rushed round to where they were. Again I got a glimpse of them and again they moved around the corner. It was really a comic thing, though at the time I was too scared to see it in that light. Do you know this extraordinary woman literally hunted those animals away, treating them with as little respect as if they had been poultry? And the funny thing was that she really scared those lions.

The persistent apparition of her coming round until they were glad enough to disappear in the darkness.

"Bibi Mungu kali sana" ("The white women are very fierce"), said her boy to me as he was saddling my pony the next morning. I was in no mood to dispute what he said.

PRESBYTERIANS TO COMPROMISE ON TRIANGULAR UNION?

(Canadian Press Despatch) Toronto, June 6.—An indication that an attempt will be made to unite the Presbyterian general assembly on a middle ground between immediate organic union with the Methodist and Congregational churches, and indefinite delay, was supplied when the debate on church union was resumed this afternoon. At present there are just two motions, sent on by the special union committee, before the assembly: one calling for consummation of union as "expeditiously as possible" and an amendment providing that no further action be taken without a "clear and unmistakable mandate from the people." The committee recommended that the assembly be asked to register its mind by voting on these two resolutions and by motion carried last Friday the assembly agreed to follow that course. Immediately after the opening this afternoon, the moderator was asked whether he would accept another amendment and he replied that the vote of the assembly on the two resolutions already before them would be regarded as decisive and final. Commissioners questioned the justice of this ruling and Sir Robert Falconer, convener of the committee, was asked to explain the purpose of the special committee. Sir Robert said it had been the desire of the commission to avoid having the issue bedebated by amendments which might be sprung on the spur of the moment from the floor of the assembly, but he thought it would be well to register its mind by voting on these two resolutions and by motion carried last Friday the assembly agreed to follow that course. FIFTY-SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR WEDDING

The fifty-seventh anniversary of the marriage of Alexander Willis and his wife, Hannah Lavin Lawson Willis, was celebrated at Golden Grove on Saturday, June 4. Mr. Willis is the son of the late James Willis, of Edinburgh, Scotland, and his wife was the daughter of the late Albert Lawson of the English Settlement, Queens county (N. B.). Mr. Willis is a manufacturer of woolen yarns, also cloth and blankets and has been in the woolen business since he was twelve years of age. He served his time in the Lewiston Falls Woolen Mills, Lewiston (Me.), with Senator William P. Frye's father, John M. Frye, and he received a recommendation from Mr. Frye dated March 4, 1868. Mr. and Mrs. Willis were married by Rev. McMillan Nickerson, of the Exmouth street church, on June 4, 1864. They had four sons, who were brought up in the woolen business and one daughter, Mrs. Howard Hammond, of Woodstock. Mr. Willis now also conducts a small grocery store and the post office at Golden Grove. He is eighty-two years of age and his wife seventy-nine years.

BE BRIDE OF MARLBOROUGH

Miss Deacon of Boston Has Several Times Been Rejected Engaged to Marry Members of European Nobility.

London Times recently announced the engagement of the Duke of Devonshire to the late Edward Parker Deacon, of Massachusetts. Deacon, who has been well known in international society for a number of years, is the sister of Princess Liekevitsh, whose husband is a member of the Russian family. She is said to have made her debut in London society as the chaperone of the Duke of Marlborough, and was long a her most intimate friend. Deacon has many times been engaged to various members of European nobility. At the time of the Duke of Marlborough's divorce proceedings, the Duchess, which was made absolute on the last day of the marriage, she married the Duke of Marlborough as she became free. Deacon, of a prominent Boston family, who made his home abroad after the death of his father, was the son of Admiral Charles H. Deacon, S. N., retired. Mrs. Deacon, as she was known, had four daughters, the youngest of whom, Miss Deacon, was noted for her beauty. She was married in 1892, and was shot and killed by a prominent man, whom it was alleged, he was Mrs. Deacon's lover. Mr. Deacon was pardoned by President Carnot, and obtained a divorce from Mrs. Deacon, who resumed her maiden name. Deacon died in a Massachusetts jail in 1893.

It was reported that Miss Deacon would marry Lord Brooke in London. In the report, it was stated that she was engaged to General Baron de la Charette, son of General Baron de la Charette. In 1911, the approaching age of Miss Deacon to Lieutenant of the Royal Navy was announced, but in August of that year it was reported that the marriage had postponed because of the illness of the groom.

Deacon, of last year, Miss Deacon was reported to have been charged with the Daily Graphic and a verdict of £200 and costs, which was paid by Miss Deacon. She was reported to have been in Germany, where her name was

BETTING ON A COCKROACH RACE

New Diversion at Constantinople—British and American Troops Introduce New Sport Customs.

Constantinople, May 17—(Associated Press, By-Mail)—Betting on cockroach races is one of the newest sports here. It was introduced by a Russian who has just opened a hall where a man who wants some real excitement for his money can get results.

The hall is darkened at the moment the race is to begin. Then a single electric light at the end of a runway is turned on, and the cockroaches, each in a separate sack, are let loose from their cages to race for the light.

More real, old-fashioned, non-professional sport may be had here than in any other city of Europe. This is due in part to the Allied troops of occupation, to the American officers and sailors on station here and the large number of American and British civilians who have come out for business since the armistice.

What the Russian refugees have done in the way of enlivening the city with concerts, dancing places and queer restaurants the other Allies have done in sporting lines.

In winter there is wild bear duck and fox hunting. There is also in and out of season plenty of horseback riding over the dirt roads and unfenced stretches of upland country on both sides of the Bosphorus. Horse races are often held. Both the British and the Americans have laid out golf courses. There are also a few tennis courts.

The troops and sailors within the city have taken charge of a large field near Taksim, in the center of Pera, and there play football and baseball matches. Yachting and swimming are commonplace sports open to all.

The Russians from the Black Sea, who are accustomed to bathe naked, have increased the popularity of the beaches, especially a fine strip of sand on the Marmora north shore known as Fiesha. There, without let or hindrance, men, women and children, undress on the open

IMPROVEMENTS FOR THE HOSPITAL

The building of an incinerator for the use of the hospital was discussed at the meeting of the board of commissioners of the General Public Hospital held yesterday afternoon.

It was thought advisable that the matter will be taken up with the finance committee of the municipal council, as the board has no appropriation for the necessary expenditure.

J. L. O'Brien presided at the meeting in the absence of M. E. Agas. The other commissioners present were Mrs. J. V. McLellan, A. McMillan, W. Emerson, J. King Kelley, Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, Dr. G. R. J. Crawford and Dr. H. Holden, superintendent of the hospital.

The suggested improvements for the epidemic hospital which include the building of a bungalow for the nurses were spoken of and the matter will be taken up with the finance committee of the municipal council. Authority was given for the payment of a certain amount of money to the architect of the plans for the bungalow.

FEET GROW LARGER

London Bootmakers Say That Development Has Been Steady—Men Not Alarmed.

London, June 7—England is not distressed by the statement, concurred in by London bootmakers, that the English woman's foot is growing larger. The general retort is that the bigger an English woman grows the better chum she becomes.

Bootmakers say the English woman used to wear No. 4 shoes but now she wears No. 5, and soon all the sizes will be sixes and sevens. The development is due to her growing addiction to sport, but a storm of rebukes from men point out that they have no reason to complain of the increasing space covered by the feet of the English woman since they are nappier for her companionship on the golf links, the bowling green and the tennis courts.

The Evening Star says: "The English woman of today is a brawny, powerful lass. The muscles of her arms stand out like iron bands. But isn't her heart bigger, too, than it used to be? Doesn't she laugh more heartily? And as her feet have grown into fives and sixes doesn't her smile and her sweet temper extend proportionately into the thirties and forties?"

He is only twenty years old.

ARRANGING FOR WORK OF NEW PUBLIC HEALTH NURSES

A joint meeting of the Red Cross committee and representatives of the Victorian Order board was held last night at the residence of Mrs. M. B. Edwards in Queen square for the purpose of making arrangements for the placing of the public health nurses who recently graduated from the V. O. N. training school where they had been trained under the auspices of the Red Cross Society. R. J. Hayes, M. P., president of the provincial division of the Red Cross Society, was the chairman of the meeting and those present were Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. George F. Smith, Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, C. P. Allan, Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis and Miss Bertha Raddock, R. N.

A tentative list was drawn up, assigning the five nurses to the various centres in the province, where it was considered they were most urgently needed. The society had given authority for securing the services of an additional nurse trained in public health work and it was reported that some names were submitted in this connection. Definite arrangements were made as to the supervision of the public health nurses when they take up their work but all details of last night's meeting will be submitted to the regular meeting of the Red Cross Society before they are made public.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR FOR THE B. Y. P. U. OF LUDLOW ST. CHURCH

Reports of a very successful and progressive year were received at the annual meeting of the Ludlow street, B. Y. P. U. held last night in the school room of the church. Mrs. Hazen Hamilton, the retiring president, was in the chair and led the devotional exercises. She thanked the members for their cooperation and hoped the society would flourish greatly. R. J. Rupert, in his report as secretary, told of the revision of the list of members having reduced the membership to eighty-one active and interested persons instead of 116 members. At special sessions the society gave treats to the soldiers in the East St. John hospital and it produced one treat for the Boys' Club. The treasurer reported all bills paid and a satisfactory balance on hand. The mission committee report showed the work well sustained and the money allotted raised. Before the election of officers R. H. Parsons moved and Rev. Isaac Brindley seconded the hearty vote of thanks extended to Mrs. Hamilton for her efficient leadership during several years.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, by acclamation, Miss Pearl B. Wayne; 1st vice-president, R. J. Rupert; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. William Gray; secretary, Miss Sadie Burke; assistant secretary, Miss Kathleen Simpson; treasurer, Mrs. A. K. be supplied in the public school, was carried by a very small majority. In the most hotly contested judicial election in the city's history balloting was marked by the killing of a coalition watcher at the polls by a policeman, several small riots and many charges of fraud. According to the police the plain man had used profanity in the presence of women voters and it was declared that he was shot when he resisted arrest.

The delegates, who come from cities in the dominion from Halifax to Vancouver, were formally welcomed on behalf of the province by Premier Taschereau, and on behalf of the city by Mayor Sanson.

Mr. McKinnon also traced the steady growth of manufacturing in the dominion since the association was formed fifty years ago, and he emphasized that the industrial system of Canada now employed 700,000 people, who, with their dependents, numbered two million of the country's population.

He contended that it was time for legislators to call a halt in the passing of social measures dealing with the limitation of the hours of labor, workmen's compensation and minimum wages, the effect of which, he argued, had been to decrease the amount of work done and to increase the cost of products.

Mr. McKinnon also dealt with unemployment and said that it could be lessened if Canadians would purchase Canadian made goods in preference to similar articles made in foreign countries, notably the United States.

Executive Report. The report of the executive committee presented by J. E. Walsh, general manager of the association, referred to what had been accomplished towards trade stimulation in the dominion by the "made in Canada" campaign conducted during the last year on behalf of the association.

The report of the industrial relations committee of the association for the year showed that it had opposed vigorously any legislation giving effect to the following conventions:— The eight hour day, unemployment insurance, the entire suppression of private employment agencies and had endorsed measures seeking to prohibit the employment of women six weeks before and six weeks after child birth, all re-

WAVE OF UNREST IS RECEDING

Address of President of Canadian Manufacturers.

Calls on Legislators to Halt Passing of Social Measures Affecting Industries—Employs Number 700,000—"Buy Canadian Goods."

Quebec, June 7.—(Canadian Press)—The wave of industrial unrest and visionary radicalism in Canada has receded and is receding, though at high tide it caused damage that will take time to repair, said J. S. McKinnon of Toronto, to delegates to the jubilee convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, which was opened this morning in the Chateau Frontenac, in the course of his address as president.

Mr. McKinnon also dealt with the growth of manufacturing in the dominion since the association was formed fifty years ago, and he emphasized that the industrial system of Canada now employed 700,000 people, who, with their dependents, numbered two million of the country's population.

He contended that it was time for legislators to call a halt in the passing of social measures dealing with the limitation of the hours of labor, workmen's compensation and minimum wages, the effect of which, he argued, had been to decrease the amount of work done and to increase the cost of products.

Had to Spend a Day or Two in Bed Every Week Before He Got Tanlac.

"Six months ago I was suffering so bad that not a week passed that I didn't have to stay in bed for a day or two; but now I'm working hard every day and feel good all the time," said Daniel Pettis, 112 Bethel street, Quebec, in relating his experience with Tanlac, recently.

"About a year ago I lost my appetite entirely, and many days I didn't eat a bite of solid food and only took a little milk. Everything I ate hurt me, and after meals I had fearful cramps and dizzy spells when I could hardly stand up. My back often pained me so bad I just yelled out in the agony, and it seemed that I would never get up. I was so weak many days I could hardly drive myself along at my work until time to go home.

"I started taking Tanlac because so many were praising it, and in a little while I had a big appetite and everything agreed with me perfectly. My health and strength has all come back to me now, and I'm enjoying working, eating and sleeping better than I have in a long time. I'm always glad to say a good word for the great medicine Tanlac."

NUXATED IRON Helps make rich, red blood and revitalize weak nerves

YOU MAY BE A BETTER MAN AT 45, THAN THE YOUTH OF 25

If you keep your blood rich in iron to give you plenty of "stay there" strength and endurance.

In an account of a severe mountain climbing test, a New York newspaper states that 20 per cent of those who accomplished the feat were 44 years and over. It is therefore shown that you may be a better man at 45 than the husky strapping of 25 if you take care of yourself and keep your blood filled with iron. Prize fighters, wrestlers and athletes have learned the value of plenty of plain coarse foods in their training as such a diet helps supply their blood with iron. Nature puts plenty of iron in the husks of grains and the peels of vegetables to enrich your blood, but modern methods of cooking throw all these things away—by the alarming increase in recent years in Anemia—iron starvation of the blood, with its debilitating weakness, nervousness and other attendant ills. If you are not strong and well, if you lack bodily and mental vigor, do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but take some organic help enrich your blood and revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves. Organic Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. You can even eat it if you wish. It often increases your bodily and mental vigor in two weeks' time. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package, and the letters N. I. on every tablet. At all druggists.

Habit Nujol will give you the healthiest habit in the world. Without forcing or irritating, Nujol softens the food waste. The many tiny muscles in the intestines can then easily remove it regularly. Absolutely harmless—try it.

There is no need for any woman to concentrate superfluous hairs because with a paste made of mixing some powdered delonax with water it is easy to get rid of them. The paste is applied for two or three minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This treatment will rid the skin of hair without leaving a blemish, but care should be taken to see that you get real delonax. Mix fresh as wanted.

The way is easy, gentle, sure. It is the modern way, the right way. Blue-Jay is scientific. It is made by a surgical dressing house of world-wide repute. It is fast displacing treatments which were harsh and wrong. One test will convince you. Try it tonight.

Don't Judge a Carbon Remover

by the Black Smoke which comes out through the exhaust.

Many Carbon Removers contain a fuel oil which causes smoke.

D-B Carbon Remover Contains No Oil or Grease

The process of removing Carbon with D-B Carbon Remover is similar to the way Peroxide works on a wound. A demonstration on a spark plug will show you the effect it has on carbon and the way it works in the cylinder.

THE TEST: Take out No. 1 spark plug (be sure it is warm, not hot). Fill with D-B Carbon Remover. Watch results.

D-B Carbon Remover is the new scientific way of removing Carbon. The chemical action separates the carbon from the metal in such a way that it is pulverized at the first explosion, and passes out through the exhaust.

D-B CARBON REMOVER has no effect on oil; it is a help in starting; won't hurt metal, and is GUARANTEED NOT TO INJURE THE MOTOR IN ANY WAY.
