Duke of Devonshire's Term Not Up Till Next Year—Some Like Idea of Prince of Wales—Some Favor a Canadian.

(Special to Times.) Ottawa, April 3.—(Office) Ottawa professes to hear the suggestion for the first time that Viscount French should be the next Governor General of Canada as the Freeman's Journal, Dublin, has announced to be likely.

The appointment is made in London, but the government here is always consulted to see if the appointment will be pleasing to Canadians. Nothing official has been done in regard to the matter, and it is said here that nothing will be done unless the present governor general should indicate a desire to go back to England earlier than next year.

Some suggest that here a distinguished Canadian should be chosen to act as the king's representative in Canada, the government of the day in each case to advise the king as to their desire in the matter. Others still talk of a new departure in the method of appointment of a governor general, as first rumored last year, when the Prince of Wales was in Canada.

GAVE MILLIONS
BUT NOT NAME

The Story of George Eastman, the "Mysterious Mr. Smith" — A Wonderful Money Maker.

(Toronto Mail and Empire.)
When John D. Rockefeller gives a million dollars or ten million dollars to some charitable or benevolent purpose, newspaper humorists point out that the price of coal oil or gasoline is due for an advance. In order that the public may have the opportunity of contributing to the cause, this is suggested to Mr. Rockefeller, who is one of the most generous givers in history. Nevertheless, the man who devotes vast sums to the public good and keeps the matter a secret is rare indeed. Even if he is not over fond of publicity he does take a normal human satisfaction in being praised, in having the admiration and respect of his fellowmen. Not in recent history has there been a man who gave so much money under a seal of secrecy as George Eastman of Rochester, the famous kodak maker. The fact has recently been disclosed that Mr. Eastman is the mysterious "Mr. Smith" who at one time and another has presented to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology more than $10,000,000. The gifts have been spread over several years, yet it was only a few days ago that the secret leaked out.

Mr. Eastman may not be the wealthiest of American millionaires, but if the poet is right when he says that all you can take with you when you pass out is what you have given away, he must rank very high indeed. He began with nothing. When he was six years old his widowed mother moved to Rochester, and by her stern exertions the boy was kept at school until he was fourteen, and then he began to work. Chance took him to a bank, where he toiled eleven hours a day over ledgers at a task in which he has said since it is not possible for one to be interested. His hobby was photography, and in his spare hours he worked and experimented, eventually making inventions out of which films were developed, and which proved the foundation stone of his fortunes. He did not spare himself, nor did he spare others, for it is related that the men who knew him thirty-five years ago considered him a crank and bore and one whose mania on the subject of photography put him almost out of the ranks of the rational. In the meantime he saved his money, knowing that one day he would need it for his own business.

Wonderful Money-maker.
That time came, and he bade adieu to the bank, and began the business which now employs 18,000 men and women. As William C. Cheney points out in the New York Times, only one romantic element is lacking in the story of George Eastman's great success. He never was seriously handicapped for lack of capital. To begin he had his own savings, and then when he needed a few thousand dollars more he found another Rochester man who was willing to back him to that extent. Not long ago this former partner died, leaving an estate of about $10,000,000, mostly the fruit of the small investment he made thirty years ago. The business grew by giant strides. There were new inventions and one of the finest advertising campaigns ever carried on. Who is not familiar with the slogan "If it isn't an Eastman it isn't a kodak?" The name "kodak," a copyrighted word, entered into the English language like the other copyrighted word, "aseline." When other men invented something useful to the science of photography Eastman bought it up, and in the meantime Eastman's own staff of highly paid specialists was always at work.

A Patriotic Sacrifice.
One of the most interesting things we recall about Mr. Eastman is that in the winter of 1917-18, when war demands produced a coal famine and many people were without fuel, he shut off the heat in his own magnificent conservatory, and permitted his collection of exotic plants to perish, rather than waste the coal to keep them alive. We can imagine that to a lover of beauty like George Eastman, this was a far harder test of patriotism than would have been the giving of thousands to a war charity. He was a cheerful subscriber to war funds, and gave more than a million dollars to relief. Mr. Eastman lives in what has been described as a dual palace. He is a bachelor with no near relatives, and thus is free from most millionaires to dispose of his wealth without any regard to the claims of family. His greatest hobby is music, and his ambition now is to make Rochester a musical centre whose fame will be world wide, and with this end in view, he has, among other things, established the Eastman School of Music at an expenditure of $4,000,000.

What the Worker Needs.
This column does not, as a rule, give any breathless attention to the opinions of millionaires on subjects not connected with their money making, but Mr. Eastman is an exceptional millionaire. He says that under modern conditions of industry it is practically impossible for a workman to take a keen interest in his work. It was different in the

ST. JOHN MEN SHOOT WELL IN MONTREAL

Montreal, April 2—In the Montreal Gun Club tournament held here today, in a downpour of rain, the St. John representatives did very well. The grand aggregate was won by Bryce Clark, of Montreal, with O. J. Killam, of St. John, taking third place. In the regular events Killam won one first, two seconds and one third. In the merchandise event, which had 150 entries, Killam, of St. John, and Newtown, of Sherbrooke (Que.), tied for first place, both making perfect scores. In the toss-up to decide the winner Newtown won, Killam taking second place. R. E. Anderson, also of St. John, was another competitor and shot well, finishing only thirty points behind Killam. In the sweetstake Killam finished second.

The St. Hubert Gun Club, of Ottawa, are holding a tournament in that city on Monday. The St. John and Montreal men will also compete in that event.

13th Coburg Street Troop.

Tuesday evening the Coburg Street Christian Troop held its regular meeting, having the Wolf Cubs in attendance also. During the evening the 8th Mission Troop visited the Coburg Street Troop in return for a visit which the latter made some time ago. Scoutmaster H. C. Hoyt took charge of the joint meeting, teaching some new games and encouraging acquaintance and friendship between the boys of the two troops. Toward the close of the evening the boys formed in horseshoe formation and presented a gold Thanks Badge to Miss Annie Hughes for her excellent services in connection with the troop during the last two years. The Thanks Badge entitles Miss Hughes to the services of Boy Scouts throughout the British Empire wherever she may have need of them. Miss Hughes is leaving St. John to take up residence in Brooklyn, New York.

The Coburg Street Wolf Cubs met as usual on Thursday evening with a large number present. Progress was made in several lines and St. Chittick received his tendered rank.

17th St. John Troop (Trinity).

Monday, March 29, at 7 p. m., found the Trinity pack of Wolf Cubs in full strength at their ceremonial parade. After roll call and the collecting of dues, they carried on with some simple movements in drill, which was performed in such a surprising manner that it will not take many drills to be able to compete with any of the scouts of the city. These little fellows are very bright and are very willing to work. They carried on with badge work, each little group of six in its corner busily engaged in some particular work of training which will bring to them another badge. The majority of the pack hold their first star and may have their second star, while a large number hold proficiency badges as well. They are the coming scouts of tomorrow.

At 8 p. m. sharp the cubs having been dismissed, the scouts came on parade and proceeded to the Red Cross room in Hazen avenue. Here they attended a first aid illustrated lecture given by Lieutenant-Colonel Birdwhistle and members of the St. John Ambulance Association for the interest they displayed by inviting them to attend the lecture. Owing to this lecture the examination for the junior certificate of the St. John Ambulance Association was postponed until the following evening, Tuesday, March 30, when eleven scouts assembled for the examination. Dr. Skinner was the examiner.

The results of the examination will be announced later, but at the same time it might be said that the majority, if not all, passed very favorably. Rev. D. H. Loweth, scoutmaster, was the lecturer and instructor for the boys on this subject, having given six lectures and covering the ground very thoroughly, and with this excellent result his work in this connection is most complimentary. Many badges in the last few weeks have been won, among which may be mentioned a gold cord won by Percy Johnston, King scout and patrol leader. This makes the fourth gold cord won in the city and three of this number have been won and are held by scouts of this troop. Other proficiency badge winners are: Starman badge, won by Lawrence Seeds and Reginald Whelpley; Wallace Walsh and Allan Card; the Healthymen's badge, has been won by Lawrence Seeds and Reginald Whelpley; Valentine Pritchard has obtained his king scout rank and also won badges for campfire and marksmanship. THE PROPOSED PAVING LAW

An Analysis of the Bill Requiring Abutters to Pay One-third in Ten Years—How They Can Prevent Any Street From Being Paved.

The proposed paving law which has been sent to the legislature by the city council, provides that the cost of new street paving shall be borne in part by the owners of abutting property, and in part by all tax payers; those owning property on one side of the street paying one-third of the cost, those on the other side of the street paying another third of the cost, and the citizens at large paying the other third of the cost and also for the entire cost of paving the parts where streets intersect. The width of any roadway, the cost of paving which is thus to be divided, however, is limited to forty-five feet. If the roadway is wider than forty-five feet, the taxpayers at large pay the cost of the extra width. Furthermore, the cost of paving between car tracks and eighteen inches on either side of the tracks, is assumed by the city and paid for by general taxation excepting in so far as the cost may be collected from the owners of the street railway. In effect, when allowance is made for the cost of paving street intersections, etc., it would appear that at least one-half of the entire cost of street paving will fall upon the citizens at large. This is a larger proportion than is charged to general taxation in most other cities but is perhaps a not unfair equivalent for the general interest which every citizen must have in well paved streets whether he ever makes any use of the roadway himself or not.

that in the case of streets occupied mainly for residential purposes, but which by reason of their location are called upon to sustain a heavy through traffic and therefore require a more costly kind of pavement than would be suitable were it not for the heavy through traffic, that in such case the extra cost of the heavy traffic paving shall be borne by the city at large and the abutting property owners shall be assessed only for their portion of the cost of such paving which would be suitable were it not for the heavy traffic. This clause has, no doubt, been inserted by the city council to meet such cases as that of Douglas avenue and, to remove the objection, that property owners should not be required to pay a part of the extra cost of providing for heavy traffic from which they derive no benefit. This is a quite unusual concession to abutting property owners. The city of Chicago is the only other instance that comes to mind; there, however, the rule is to charge the entire cost of paving against abutting property excepting that in the case of traffic thoroughfares the city may assume not more than one-quarter of the cost. The question as to whether any particular street should be paved or not, is left by the act very largely in the hands of the abutting property owners. The owners of not less than half the frontage of property on any street may petition the common council to have the street paved and upon report of the engineer the council may decide whether or not it is expedient to pave such street. On the other hand, the common council may take the initiative and by unanimous vote decide that a certain street should be paved, but in that case, sixty per cent of the owners of abutting property, representing not less than one-half of the frontage, may petition against the paving of such street, and the council cannot then proceed with the work nor can they again initiate the paving of such street within two years after the date of such petition. The council is required to give due notice by advertisement of its intention to pave any street, stating the kind of material to be used and the estimated duration of life of the pavement, and if the property owners object they must file a petition within fifteen days. If the cause of the objection relates to the character of paving to be used, a compromise, it is presumed, might be effected by substituting some different kind of paving than that proposed—asphalt, for instance, in place of granite blocks—this, however, seems to deprive the council to a certain extent of the degree of authority it should possess. One clause of the act distinctly states that no part of the cost for repairs or maintenance should be specially assessed against the owners of abutting property nor shall they be again specially assessed for any part of the cost of paving during the estimated duration or life of any paving for a portion of the cost of which they have before been specially assessed. If the proposed bill becomes law, funds to pay the immediate cost of street paving will be provided as heretofore by the issue of city bonds payable in ten or fifteen years according to the character and durability of the pavement, and the owners of abutting property will be assessed annually, during the ten or fifteen year, cost for his own share of the charge, for interest and sinking fund. Under the act the ultimate effect would be that the general taxpayer who owns no property and does not live or do business upon a paved street would be relieved of about half of what he would otherwise be required to pay for paved streets in which he has a general but no direct interest, while the owner or lessee of property on a street paved under the act would be called upon to pay, in addition to his general tax, a small amount of assessment which in ten or fifteen years would pay for one-third of the cost of the pavement opposite to his street frontage, but he also, would be relieved of one-half of what he would otherwise pay in general assessment for the paving of other streets in which he has no direct interest.

R. J. Logan's Platform

Here is a Man Who is Not Afraid to Speak His Mind to the Public—A Reporter Interviews R. J. Logan.

(Advertisement.)
"Mr. Logan, as I have seen no newspaper report of your platform, do you mind telling me what it is?"
"Who sent you here to see me?"
"I came on my own account as I have heard you are a live wire and a hustler."
"Well, I have so much to say I hardly know where to begin. It is not necessary to tell the public what the conditions are in this town; it is for the benefit of the public spirit the town is decaying with dry rot. I never had the slightest intention of entering this contest for commissioner until several friends of mine insisted on my coming out. Now that I am in it I am going through."

St. John has the reputation of being one of the most solvent cities in the world, but that does not prevent the axes from being high and there has been a great deal of talk about the street work that they are wrangling over now had been done eight or ten years ago it should have been done. It would only have cost about one-third of what it will now. It would be more to the credit of the city if they had a bigger budget and something to show for it.

I am absolutely opposed to shutting paying the tax. Let it be done by a bond issue. If I am elected I am going to place in different sections of this city public drinking fountains and public conveniences for men, women and children. It is a disgrace to the city that such conditions should exist and should have to be drawn attention to in this article.

After looking at men, women and children standing on the street corners freezing last winter I am going after street car waiting rooms. This last matter I have already taken up with the N. B. Power Company and they have given me every encouragement.

I am in touch with one of the leading lawyers in this town to see if the city council has the power to pass a law providing for a higher minimum wage for sales girls. I got this last idea from a personal experience of a young girl who went to work in one of the leading stores in St. John for the large and magnificent sum of $8 a week. In one year her salary was raised $1, the next year it was raised $1 more. If a girl had to pay her board out of that she would not have enough left to buy an Atlantic City bathing suit that is a piece of chewing gum and a garter.

I was stopped on the street one day by a friend of mine who said, "It is going to cost you a lot of money." I told him "Not a cent, except a small newspaper notice." That was my job I had to buy they could sell it to George; he is an easier mark.

Just think of it, here is one of the finest cities in Canada with opportunities galore, an open winter port, the terminal of two big railroads in the heart of the wood country, and we have less manufacturing industries pro rata to population than any city in Canada. Why is it? I will tell you. In conversation with Premier Frazier one day I drew his attention to the fact that the province of New Brunswick was burning up 200,000 tons of coal every year that should be a drug on the market, just because there was turned down by the government twice in the last four years an opportunity to get the biggest hydro power proposition ever offered to the public. Just think if $1,750,000 was spent on developing this proposition and 90 per cent of that money would have been spent in St. John for supplies. I told Mr. Frazier that the child wasn't born who would ever see the government develop power enough to turn a cream separator. If that proposition had been accepted we would have a three cent car fare and electric light so cheap that the Standard Oil Company couldn't give kerosene away here.

Now as to bringing industries here, there is only one thing on earth that will be an inducement for them, and that is cheap power, and when you can offer that they will flock to it. That means developed water power and the sooner the better. Now that you have a Commercial Club which has for its motto "A bigger, better and busier St. John," let them make their influence felt by bringing pressure to bear on the government. No matter who finances the water power scheme, put it through by all means. Be aggressive and progressive, do not stop now that the people are expecting something done.

Here is a city without any public sports, baseball or hockey or anything else. No one to go to the front to boost the idea of the amount of money that is taken out of St. John on every public holiday? It amounts to thousands of dollars. Not one holiday during the year is there ever held any attraction to bring money into the town. There should be a big arena here for hockey in the winter and roller skating in the summer, with a big ballroom attached with every convenience to hold receptions, balls and parties, something the city would be proud of.

Look at the court house today, an eyesore to every one. My ideas may not meet the views of the general public, but here is just what I would do with it. Tear up a building in some section of the city that would be a court house and a city hall. Have it big enough to last for years. Tear down the old court house. Get all the land available around it. Sell the fire station on Union street, also the one on Charlotte street. Build a central fire station there that would be a credit to the city. Have everything in it that they have in other cities for men to live in like human beings, shower baths, drying room for their wet clothes when they come back from a fire, a billiard room and recreation room and gymnasium—everything to make the men comfortable who risk their lives for us.

Sabbath. Whoever saw a city with the lid on as tight as this is town was any good? No one! Just think of it. Thirty-five million dollars spent by the tourists in the State of Maine every year and the best St. John gets is an American postage stamp on an envelope.

Now I am going to make the biggest statement ever made by any man in fifty years in St. John. I have thought out and fully developed the most colossal advertising proposition ever heard of to put St. John on the map. This scheme is known to a few of St. John's representative business men only, and they have promised not to reveal it without my permission. One of them is a member of the Commercial Club. My proposition will bring people here from all parts of the United States and Canada. There will be reporters here to write up the arrangements made weeks before. Every newspaper in the United States and Canada will have this article written up, every film company in the United States and Canada will have me there to film it. The films will be shown broadcast all over the country, and the event held in St. John, N. B. on every screen. This is a two day event. If I cannot prove the last statement by the business men who know of it I will forfeit five hundred dollars to the charitable institutions in this city and withdraw from this contest for commissioner, and I won't ask the city of St. John to give a dollar. It will be done by the people of the city of St. John.

Now you have got my platform, but not altogether, for I have more to come. Any voter who doesn't want a live wire, go-getter and producer for a commissioner, er tell him to vote for "Merric."

The New Brunswick Automobile Association held a meeting in the board of trade rooms Thursday evening, T. P. Regan presiding. It was decided to assist in the entertainment of the 240 American Press Association members who are to visit St. John in June. The question of having a motor repairs act brought before the legislature was discussed. It was decided that President Regan should represent the association at the seventh annual convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association, which is to be held in Winnipeg in June.

POPULATION OF ITALY LIVING ON IMPORTED FOOD

Rome, April 2.—It remains to be seen how the people will take the return to the rationing system which will be shortly put into force. It has been decided that bread, macaroni, rice, stock-fish, oil, sugar, cheese, and milk products shall be rationed as in time of war. The quantities which the public will be permitted to purchase of these commodities have not yet been fixed, but the system came into operation April 1. The sale of meat is prohibited on two days of the week, and restrictions on slaughtering are imposed. A limitation both as regards closing time and the quantity and variety of dishes to be used is put into force for the hotels and restaurants. The sale of sweets is further restricted, and this measure comes opportunistly, for the amount of sugar that is being squandered at the present time in the large cities of Italy for the manufacture of sweets and pastries de luxe is tremendous. The possibility of some system of rationing for cotton and woolen goods and cloth stuffs, and perhaps more certainly for boots and shoes, is also spoken of.

At the present time, one-third of the population of Italy is living on imported foodstuffs, most of which come from America. With the dollar at 18 lire, it is easy to calculate the economic situation that must prevail, and the prices which the public must pay. In spite of these prices, the consumption of foodstuffs, and especially corn, has shown a tendency to rise, even in comparison with the years before the war. A writer on economic questions in the "Tempo" states that for some time now the consumption of corn has increased by millions quintals a month.

is the one that completely harmonizes with the design and finishing of the house. For this reason there is a steadily increasing demand for Brantford Asphalt Slates for the modern style of homes.

Brantford Asphalt Slates have a surface of crushed slate embedded into our asphalt coating, the base of the roofing being felt saturated with asphalt. They are cut the size of shingles, and their beautiful soft colors of reddish brown and dark green give a roof a most artistic appearance. The colors are the natural shades of the slate as it comes out of the quarries. Brantford Asphalt Slates are, therefore, unfadeable—never require painting.

Brantford Asphalt Slates

are accurate in size and pliable, which makes them very easily handled and quickly laid, saving time and labor, and therefore costing less to lay.

At the conclusion of the case the magistrate said he was determined to put off the street at nights, girls who were wandering around and not able to give a satisfactory account of themselves. Every girl who was on the street at night, later than 9 o'clock, if she was a Catholic would get a term in the Home of the Good Shepherd, and if a Protestant would be sent to Truro.

ST. JOHN-HALIFAX SHOW ENTENTE

W. H. Golding, manager of Imperial Theatre, will leave early in the week for Halifax to make final arrangements for the appearance of the Majestic Stock Company in this city; also to confer regarding the local theatricals which the Halifax Columbus Club (No. of C.) desire to bring to St. John. Plans are also to be made concerning the approaching season of grand opera, in which both the Imperial and Majestic theatres are interested. There is a strong movement in the sister city for what the writers there term the musical entente between St. John and Halifax as suggested by the proposed visit of the Loyalist Chapter, I. O. O. F., Revue party last month. The idea of a visit from the Revue company is not yet entirely abandoned and a midsummer trip may be made after Miss Catherine McVilly returns from her European tour. The trip was cancelled some weeks ago because of the ravages of influenza among principal performers.

WHAT PAVING BILL MEANS

Platform of General Assessment Paving League Outlined.

In January the common council authorized the commissioner of public works to call for tenders for the paving of Douglas avenue, City road, Marsh road and Prince William street, but before the tenders had been opened the mayor submitted his paving bill to the council. There was a disagreement in the council so the opening of the tenders was held up. Later the "committee of seventeen" and a copy returned to the council, which in turn made other revisions and decided to take the new bill to the legislature. The committee of seventeen then retired.

In the meantime the General Assessment Paving League was formed and appeared several times before the common council to protest against any legislation calling on the abutting property owners to pay a portion of the cost of permanent paving by special taxation. This league has gradually increased in strength and has decided to fight the matter to the finish.

When the tenders were opened recently it was on condition that plebiscite be held on the day of the civic election to determine if the public was in favor of the abutting tax or not.

The General Assessment Paving League's platform in the fight is that the city streets being for the public service they should be paid for by general assessment as the cost of maintenance falls on all, so should the cost of construction; that the increased tax will ultimately result in an increase in rents and it will be the tenant who will suffer; that as the cost of new water mains and sewers are paid for by general assessment, and as they are much more local in their service than the city streets, the streets also should be paid for by general assessment.

The league is daily gathering more followers and promises to fight the issue to the last ditch.

LOT OF LIQUOR BROUGHT IN; ALE SEIZED

Three cases of strong ale were seized this morning at the office of the Dominion Express Company by Inspectors MacAlush and Kerr on the grounds that they were improperly addressed. That the citizens of St. John are not suffering from the drought which is supposed to accompany prohibition is indicated by the fact that no fewer than 170 cases of liquor, mostly whiskey, arrived in the city yesterday addressed to almost as many individuals.

TAKING OVER NEW POSITION IN INDIANA

F. C. McLean, Former Superintendent of Metropolitan, to Leave the City Next Week.

Friends in the city and elsewhere will be interested in the news that Fred C. Mrs. McLean and family will follow in a few months.

Mr. McLean has had a brilliant career in life insurance circles in the city. He joined the Metropolitan as agent in 1909 and after eleven months he was promoted to be assistant superintendent and three years later received the appointment of superintendent.

SIEGFRIED SASSOON SATIRIST OF WAR

A great deal of verse has been written during the last six years in praise or extenuation of war...

"Oh my brave brown companions, when your south Flock silently away, and the eyes dead..."

Anger, hatred and the bitterest irony find virulent expression in Sassoon's war verse.

"Soldiers are dreamers; when the guns begin They think of firelit homes, clean beds and wives..."

"Sung at the club two fathers sat, Gross, goggle-eyed and full of chat, One of them said: 'My eldest lad Writes cherry letters from Bagdad..."

"Good-morning, good-morning" the General said When we met him last week on our way to the line...

"He seemed so certain 'all was going well,' As he discussed the glorious time he'd had While visiting the trenches. Ah, yes, but it's the Press that leads the way!" One more example of this poet's irony: it will do us all good. It is taken from a poem entitled, "Does it Matter?"

"Does it matter?—losing your legs? For people will always be kind, And you need not show that you mind When the others come in after hunting To gobble their muffins and eggs."

"Does it matter?—losing your sight? There's such splendid work for the blind; And people will always be kind, As you sit on the terrace remembering And turning your face to the light."

"In the grey summer garden I shall find you With daybreak and the morning hills behind you. There will be rain-wet roses, stir of wings; And down the wood a thrush that wakes and sings..."

Mr. Sassoon came to Toronto under the auspices of the Players' Club and the Arts and Letters Club, which are raising a fund for the benefit of Bliss fallen into ill-health.

Crushing. Bobbie—"Why do you reject me in three another fellow?" Bessie—"Possibly! Did you think you were the last of the species?"

Some of the aspirants have already been notified, but the others remain in woeful uncertainty till the home office committee which deals with these awards (except in special cases directly authorized by the prime minister) reaches their ears.

During the war, the home office official who acts as secretary of this committee was also in charge of conscription objections, and there was a story which I hope is not well founded that as a result of some clerical errors he had sent some conscription-munition-maker to Dartmoor and given an unsuccessful tribunal the O. Interesting News For Working Men

An Article Well Worth Your While to Read

This is a nerve-racking age—not a man in an office or behind the counter, striving hard to get on in the world, that does not feel the strain.

Nerves are in order, a man is strong, calm and sleeps well. Unstrung nerves mean weakness, and general decay of bodily strength.

Most men are careless of kind that kind of thing, instead of taking Ferronose for a few weeks when they feel dull in the morning, or when they sleep poorly or lose appetite.

Ferronose quickly brightens up the mind. It creates an appetite and improves digestion. Ferronose makes blood, and induces refreshing sleep.

Ferronose is a body builder, thousands have proved it. If you feel the greatest "Ferm" in the world's greatest health-giver, in the world is Ferronose. Because nourishing and perfectly harmless, use Ferronose today, 25c. per box, at all dealers or by mail from The Carrarosse Co., Kingston, Ont.

"End Your Rheumatism Like I Did Mine" — Says Pastor Reed, Wife Also Rid of Neuritis

Suffered Tortures For Years—Now Telling Good News to Others.

"Don't Believe That Old Humbug About 'Uric Acid' Being the Cause of Rheumatism—It's Not So!"

Emphatically asserting that thousands of unfortunate sufferers have been led into taking the "Uric Acid" theory, and I have false belief that "Uric Acid" causes rheumatism, Pastor H. W. Reed says:

"As do some of our highest medical authorities, I now know that 'Uric Acid' never did and never will cause rheumatism! But it took me many years to find out this truth. I learned how to get rid of my rheumatism and recover my health and strength, through reading 'The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism' a work written by an authority who has scientifically studied the cause and treatment of rheumatism for over twenty years. It was indeed a veritable revelation!"

"I had suffered agony for years from rheumatism and associated disorders, and Mrs. Reed was tortured with the demon neuritis almost beyond endurance. We had read and talked so much about 'Uric Acid' that our minds seemed poisoned. But the 'Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism' made it all clear to us and now we are both free from the suffering and misery we endured so many years. I would convert! For me to discard the old 'Uric Acid' theory, and what I now know to be absolutely false, for the new scientific understanding of the causes and cure of rheumatism, was like asking me to change my religious beliefs! But I did change, and a fortunate day for me and mine when I did so."

NOTE: "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism" referred to above by Pastor Reed lays bare facts about rheumatism and its associated disorders overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past. It is a work that should be in the hands of every man or woman who has the slightest symptoms of rheumatism, neuritis, lumbago or gout. Any one who sends name and address to H. F. Clearwater, 293 F. Street, Halliwell, Maine, will receive it by mail, postage paid and absolutely free. Send no money, you forget the address! If not a sufferer, cut out this explanation and hand it to some afflicted friend.

The Nervous Strain of Office Work

"BRAIN FAG" is the name usually applied when the nervous system of the office worker gets run down.

The brain demands an abundant supply of rich red blood. Once this is lacking, the thinking machinery slows down. Concentration of the mind becomes almost impossible and headaches are frequent.

At this season, as at no other, stenographers, bookkeepers and office managers feel the ill-effects of months spent in the vitiated air of super-heated offices.

The blood has got thin and watery, the nervous system is starved, efficiency is lowered and nature begins to give warning of nervous troubles.

The tired feelings tell you of the weakened condition of the nervous system and point to the need of rest. An hour or two earlier

Augustus John and His Pictures. I went the other day to the private view of Augustus John's peace conference pictures at the Artists' Club.

Mr. John's picture is a commendably small number of portraits—commensurate because it is impossible to get any impression of a picture show in which canvases are shown three or four deep round the room.

There are portraits of some of the most interesting personalities at the peace conference, but none of the more prominent statesmen are shown except, perhaps, Mr. Hughes, of whom there are two portrait sketches.

There are some very vivid paintings of ladies, of which the most striking seemed to me that of Lady Ottoline Morrell, painted in a manner reminiscent of a mixture between Gainsborough and the later days of the French impressionists.

Mr. John was present at the private view, dressed in a nice mixture of black, London clothes and Donatelli tweeds, and a great many minor celebrities looked in, such as Hugo II. Kibbold, brother of the British minister at Warsaw, who is making a great reputation for himself as the designer of theatrical productions; Mr. Guetara, who is supposed to be our coming portrait painter; Lady Cynthia Asquith, and so on.

One of the most entertaining aspects of the afternoon was the presence of the originals of two or three of the portraits, who by some sort of magnetism, stayed conveniently near their pictures on the designer of theatrical productions.

Lawrence created quite a crowd, and after he left I saw an eminent musician who had just finished his picture.

"Too Hot" Few of those who fought in the salient during the dark days of 1915-16 will forget Talbot House, Poperinghe and the later days of the Westminister Hotel. Mr. P. P. There in the danger zone the old house and its surroundings proved a happy hunting ground for thousands of officers and men, many of whom have since become enrolled in the "Too Hot" Association.

To perpetuate the work, an appeal is now being launched to secure 250,000 with which to purchase suitable premises in Bloomsbury, London, for use as a centre club. Two houses in St. George's square have been purchased by the Westminister estate and certain renovations will need to be made before they are ready for occupancy.

The scheme is intended primarily to provide a real home and companionship for young clerks, civil servants and others who since demobilization have been condemned to live in "diggins" or small boarding houses. A scale of charges will be made sufficient

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels exert more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jod Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jod Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear, cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

quarters of the horse protrude under the arch, he knows the weather is "changeable"; if, however, the knees of the rider can be seen from the side, and the drawn steel glitters in the light, he rejoices, for it is "set fair". But if only the nose of the horse is in the road and none, he turns up his collar, and a shiver goes down his spine, because he knows it will be cold, and that most likely it will rain.

His friends may wisely tap these ball barometers, but for deadly accuracy he will back his Guardsman in Whitehall every time.

FATHER VAUGHAN SCORES CERTAIN SOCIETY WOMEN

London, April 2.—"In the good old days ladies dressed for dinner, now they undress for it," declared Rev. Bernard Vaughan, the widely known Jesuit Father, in a sermon assailing fashions in women's gowns.

"Women, known as 'emotional gowns,' sin against every canon of good taste," he said. "Such dresses are unbecomingly modest, and as ugly as they are expensive."

MR. FRANK HALL Wyeval, Ontario.

"For some two years, I was a sufferer from Chronic Constipation and Dyspepsia. I tried every remedy I heard of without any success, until the wife of a local merchant recommended 'Fruit-a-lives'. I procured a box of 'Fruit-a-lives' and began the treatment, and my condition commenced to improve immediately. The Dyspepsia ceased to be the burden of my life as it had been and I was freed of Constipation. I feel that I owe a great debt to 'Fruit-a-lives' for the benefit I derived from them."

Constipation or Costiveness

"Constipation, although generally described as a disorder, can never exist unless some of the organs are deranged, which is generally found to be the liver. It is nothing more productive of general ill health than constipation of the bowels, and a regular action is absolutely essential to general health. One of the most common, painful and troublesome troubles caused by constipation is Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills which help open up the use of a good laxative such as Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills which have been suffering from constipation for two years, and also had a bad cough and headache. I tried all sorts of cures and remedies, but got no relief until I was advised to try your pills. I got great relief after the first few pills. I would like to see you and give you a testimonial. I was sent by return of mail a box of your pills, and I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared." — Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

THAT CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Frement, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-two years of age, and had all the symptoms incident to that change—best flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared." — Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

How Nuxated Iron Helps Fight The Grim Spectre of Anaemia—Lack of Iron In The Blood

Which So Often Follows In The Wake of Grippe and Influenza

Lowering the Vitality of Its Victims and Leaving Them Weak, Nervous and Rundown Physician Explains Why IRON IS THE RED BLOOD FOOD

That Aids in Rebuilding Wasted Tissue, Increasing Physical Endurance and Giving Renewed Health and Strength.

Weakened in physical strength and power, robbed of the vim and energy they possessed before the dread attack which pulled them down, there are thousands who today find themselves in that condition of being neither sick nor well, yet who are nervous and broken in health simply because their power of resistance has been too heavily drawn upon and their blood is starting for want of iron. Once the iron is supplied numerous symptoms disappear, as physicians have found that Nuxated Iron so potent in nervous and run-down patients, for in my experience it is one of the best tonic and red blood builders known to medical science."

Dr. T. Alphonso Wallace, a physician of many years' experience and formerly of the British Naval Service, says: "I do not make a practice of recommending advertised medicinal products, but I have found Nuxated Iron so potent in nervous, run-down conditions, that I believe all should know of it."

Dr. H. B. Vail, formerly Physician in the Baltimore Hospital and a Medical Examiner, says: "Throughout my experience on Hospital Staffs and as a Medical Examiner, I have been astonished at the number of patients who have doctored vainly for various diseases, when in reality their delicate, run-down state was simply the result of lack of iron in the blood. Time and again I have prescribed organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and surprised patients at the rapidity with which the weakness and general debility was replaced by a renewed feeling of strength and vitality in their path. I believe physicians should prescribe at every opportunity organic

"The Little Nurse for Little Ills"

COLONEL LAWRENCE THE UNCROWNED KING OF ARABIA

(By Lowell Thomas in Strand Magazine) At this moment, somewhere in London, hiding from a host of feminine admirers, reporters, book publishers, autograph hunters and every species of hero-worshipper, is a shy, undersized, beardless youth whose name will go down in history beside those of Sir Francis Drake, Sir Walter Raleigh, Lord Clive, Charles Gordon, and all the other famous heroes of Great Britain's glorious past.

His name is Thomas E. Lawrence. In 1914, before the late lamented war upset things and threw the world into convulsions, this young scholar was pottering about among the ruins of ancient civilization in Mesopotamia.

Today—no longer an unknown young archaeologist—he is the celebrated Colonel Lawrence, "Prince of Mecca," and "Uncrowned King of Arabia." Lawrence is the mysterious young Englishman who organized the wild Bedouin tribes of the Arabian desert into a great army and liberated Holy Arabia from the Turkish yoke.

His activities were kept secret during the war. But the fame of this meek, unassuming Oxford scholar is spreading far and wide as it becomes known that it was he who led the Arab horde which co-operated with Field Marshal Allenby in freeing the Near East from Ottoman tyranny.

The Germans and Turks were so impressed with Lawrence's achievements in Arabia that they expressed their admiration and appreciation by offering rewards amounting to more than one hundred thousand pounds on his head—dead or alive.

NEW BRUNSWICK OFFICE FOUND WORK FOR 175 MEN

The employment service of the department of labor reports that returns from the Dominion and provincial offices for the week ended March 18 show a slight decrease in placements when compared with the returns of the preceding week.

When the Sheriff of Mecca, the oldest living descendant of Mohammed, started the Arabian revolution in 1916, Lawrence saw the possibility of creating an irregular army of Bedouins mounted on tracing camels and fleet Arabian horses.

At the outbreak of the war Lawrence gave up archaeology and tried to enlist in the British army as a private. Fortunately, as later events proved, he was turned down by the medical examiners.

When the Sheriff of Mecca, the oldest living descendant of Mohammed, started the Arabian revolution in 1916, Lawrence saw the possibility of creating an irregular army of Bedouins mounted on tracing camels and fleet Arabian horses.

For hundreds of years, the wild tribes of the desert had been engaged in terrible blood-feuds. Even the leaders of the tribe of Koreish, who, as descendants of the Prophet, are supposed to stand high in the esteem of all Mohammedans, were unable to check the never-ending local wars.

Lawrence led his wild Arabian cavalry in a dozen pitched battles and unnumbered raids. Usually he charged at the head of them on a graying white camel.

He had six bullet holes in different parts of his body, and all of his wounds were forced to heal themselves without medical attention. On one occasion, at the head of a handful of Arabs, he cut a picked Turkish regiment to pieces in the desert near the rose-red city of Petra.

Another time he captured the small Turkish Dead Sea fleet when the unsuspecting crews were all ashore. So far as I know, it is the only instance in history where a fleet was forced to surrender to cavalry.

The climax of the Arabian campaign came when Lawrence and his Arab, in co-operation with Allenby, swept down and captured Damascus, the ancient capital of the old Arabian Empire.

So modest and unassuming is this extraordinary man that when Allenby offered to make him a brigadier-general he declined, on the ground that he preferred not to hold a higher rank than the other officers who were assisting him.

He even declined the V. C. knighthood, and all other honors which were offered him by the allied governments. On one occasion he actually flew from Egypt to Arabia by aeroplane to escape a decoration ceremony.

But I am sure Lawrence would prefer to engage in battle with the Turks every day rather than go through the harrowing experiences of the past few months, during which he has had to witness the loss of twenty-seven offers of marriage.

His friends are urging him to by all means accept the knighthood. But I suspect that some foggy morning he will disappear into the "blue," and go off to Basitoland, Tibbet, or retreat in safety to a cannibal island in the South Sea until his fair admirers have given up all hope of ever ensnaring him.

SAYS SPY SYSTEM USED IN CANADA

London, Ont., April 2—Without a dissenting vote and with considerable enthusiasm the delegates assembled in the Masonic Temple here today for the annual convention of the Ontario Independent Labor party passed a resolution of sympathy with the Winnipeg labor men who are at present in jail with the incidents arising out of the Winnipeg strike of last year.

Gordon Cascarden charged that during the last few years a spy system had been inaugurated in Canada.

"Inaccurate reports have been made and innocent remarks have been construed into seditious utterances," Mr. Cascarden said. "Detective spies have been operating to send innocent men to prison. If there are any spies present here they can come forward and get a copy of this address in which they will find the truth of the situation."

The speaker referred to the "Hon. Artless Meighen" as the one responsible for having inaugurated the espionage system. A resolution was also adopted supporting the demand of the Dominion Great War Veterans for increased gratuities.

(Toronto Globe.)
"The End of the Road," a film play launched to aid in the fight against the spread of venereal disease, was given its opening production on Saturday at Massey Hall. At the matinee there were about 1,600 persons present and at the evening presentation a few hundred more.

VAPOR-RESOLENE CO.
Chicago, Ill., U.S.A.

Hon. Mr. Justice Riddell, president of the Canadian National Council for Combating Venereal Diseases, acted as chairman in the evening, and offered a few introductory remarks. He said that, considering the gravity of the interests involved, there never had been a more important gathering in that hall. One-half a million people in Canada were afflicted with the worst form of the venereal disease. In Toronto alone there were 40,000 sufferers from the curse. There was a natural delicacy in touching the loathsome subject, and, moreover, many people were prejudiced by the idea that the sufferers were sinners, and ought to be punished. But the truth was that the majority of the sufferers were innocent women and children, infected by the fault of others. The government, while they had been keenly alive to the necessity of looking after the health of the nation, had been strangely neglectful of the health interests of women and children. But now the government had granted $200,000 to aid the province in fighting the disease. One-tenth of the blind in Canada became so from the poison of the disease, and four out of the five blind from birth because their fathers or mothers had been infected. Locomotor ataxia and tuberculosis, moreover, often resulted from the same cause. The organization of which he was president came into existence to fight the curse by every means available. Clean men and women were asked to support the movement, which they could aid by joining the society at a membership fee of $2.

"The End of the Road" was then proceeded with. It is not a sensational "movie" in the ordinary sense. There are no invincible gunmen, no railway collisions, no "wamps" and no creeping mysteries. The story tells of the love of two young girls brought up in differ-

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.
Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

NAIL SUPPLY PLENTIFUL.
Pittsburg, April 3.—By increasing the production of nails 15 per cent, steel mills in the Pittsburg district have eliminated fear of a shortage.

Building booms in New York, Chicago, Detroit and a number of other cities have drawn heavily upon the supply of nails on hand, and builders had begun to fear for the immediate future of their work. Pittsburg contractors took up the question with the mills, and full speed ahead was ordered, with the result that production soon overtook consumption, and authorities now say there is enough nails for all building projects in sight.

Why Spring Brings Out Freckles and Eruptions

The sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines at this season is attributed by scientists to the "actinic ray" which is unusually active during the spring months. Where the skin is so affected by this influence, if one will procure an ounce of common mercuric iodine at any drug store, apply a little of it before retiring, like cold cream, she can easily overcome the trouble. When the wax is washed off next morning, minute flaky skin particles come with it. The entire outer cuticle is renewed in this way in a week or two, with all its defects.

No bleach could so effectually remove freckles or blemishes. The new surface is smooth, clear, fresh looking. No harm or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment.

The Loveliest Curly Hair—So Easy to Have!

Such pretty waves and curls, having all the appearance of "Nature's own"—yes, you can have them, easily, quickly, if you will just apply liquid silmerine before doing up your hair. The hair will have such a lively lustre and wholesome beauty. And it will be fine and fluffy when combed out.

If you will get a bottle of liquid silmerine at any drug store and follow the accompanying directions, you will be simply delighted with the result—which will be in evidence within three hours, and which will last a long time. The hair will be quite manageable, no matter in what fashion it is worn. The liquid, which is perfectly harmless, will be appreciated also as a splendid dressing for the hair.

FIRST OF CUNARD POST WAR FLEET IS FINE CRAFT

The first of the post war fleet of the Cunard Line to be launched is the "Scythia", which took the water March 23, at the yards of Vickers, Limited, Newcastle, England, before a distinguished gathering.

... she makes her maiden trip to America in due season the first thing to strike the observer will be the fact that this six hundred foot, 21,000 ton boat has only one funnel.

To those in the know this will mean that the "Scythia" represents the latest word in her engine rooms, as does in every other detail of her construction; in other words she is an oil burner.

If the replacement of coal burners by oil burners keeps on a decade may see the general idea about multiplicity of funnels signifying speed totally revised. It will be the one funnel boat then which will spell modernity.

Not only is the "Scythia" the largest liner to be designed and built for burning oil fuel but she is the first vessel of liner type to have double reduction geared turbines. The adoption of this method solves a most important problem for engineers as it permits the op-

NO SIGN OF AN EASTER RISING IN GREEN ISLE

Dublin, April 2.—The situation in Dublin today was normal. There was not the slightest sign of any Easter rising, rumors concerning the possibility of which recently became so general as to provoke questions on the subject in parliament.

The resignation of James Ian MacPherson as chief secretary for Ireland was not a cause of excitement here. Irishmen regard Field Viscount French, the viceroy, as solely responsible for the direction of affairs, and seem not to be interested in Mr. MacPherson's successor.

Some fears are entertained that there may be trouble in Cork when the result of the inquiry into the death of Lord Mayor MacCurtain, who was murdered last week, is announced. The inquiry is still proceeding.

The new field marshal, Sir William Robertson who, it has been rumored, is likely to succeed General Sir Frederick Shaw as commander of the troops in Ireland, is on a visit to Belfast with Lord Davenport.

Premier's Statement.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin has received a letter from Premier Lloyd George dated March 31, alluding to the impossibility of securing evidence in the ordinary way calculated to lead to the conviction and conviction murderers in the formidable campaign of terrorism now menacing Ireland. The letter says that the fact places the executives under great difficulty, because they do not desire to arrest the guilty. On the other hand it adds, the first duty of the executives is to leave no stone unturned to lay hands on those terror-

HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

Gillett's Lye has long been regarded as a household necessity because of the fact that it is useful in so many ways, and so satisfactory in every respect that no woman feels that she can keep house without it. eration of both turbines and propellers at their respective natural and economical speed.

Further departures from previous practices may be noted. All deck machinery such as windlasses, and capstans are to be driven by electro-hydraulic power instead of by steam. The steering gear is of the electro-hydraulic type and is connected not only to the main dynamo but to an emergency dynamo. This latter is unusually large and powerful and, should the main dynamo get out of order, the emergency set can not only light the ship but is capable of maintaining most of the electric auxiliaries in working order.

The "Scythia" will be fitted with a gyrocompass, a remarkable invention which, unlike the usual compass, is not affected by the magnetic north, and requires no adjustment.

The "Scythia" is 600 feet long and has a beam of seventy-three feet six inches and a depth of forty-five feet. Her gross tonnage is 21,000, and she has a speed of sixteen knots, and accommodation for nearly 2,600 passengers—380 saloons, 280 cabins, and the remainder third class. She will have one funnel and two pole masts and will be propelled by twin screws. These will be driven by turbines capable of developing a collective shaft horse power of about 12,500. She will be an oil-burning ship, and as this fuel will be carried in her double bottom she will possess unusually spacious passenger accommodation and cargo holds. Her bilge keels, complete system of watertight doors, and installation of long-range wireless apparatus are but a few of the many features that place her in the front rank of liners of the "intermediate" class.

The "Scythia" passenger accommodations are very modern and up-to-date. In fact she will be a smaller edition of the "Aquitania" in regard to the comfort provided for the passengers.

ing society, and it may therefore be necessary to dilocate in some degree the normal life of the community.

The premier expressed the belief that the terrorist campaign is prompted largely by a desire to prevent a settlement of the Irish question by reason and good-will, which he believes the only means for attaining unity and conciliation. He declared that the government will not be deflected from what it deems the only course consistent with reason and common sense by a ruthless and cruel campaign of assassination, "but says he is anxious to make it as easy as possible for the administration of the country in reasonable lines, and if there are any means by which moderate men can be helped or encouraged to withstand or oppose the present campaign of intimidation so as to bring nearer a settlement of the Irish question, "I will gladly co-operate in bringing them into effect."

STRIKE IN MONCTON.

Moncton, April 2.—Organized painters in this city, to the number of about thirty, have struck for an eight-hour day and for sixty and seventy cents an hour.

RELIEF FROM HIGH RENTS.

Albany, N. Y., April 2.—Notwithstanding the fact that the New York legislature has prepared legislation to relieve congested housing conditions and rent profiteering in New York, Buffalo and Rochester, Governor Smith in a message sent to the lawmakers recommends that all of the cities of the state be included in the programme for relief. He urges that the legislature cooperate with the reconstruction commission, which has worked out a housing solution after an exhaustive study of the needs of tenants.

Governor Smith says that the war-created all sorts of profiteers, and that while the people can escape suffering even when abstaining from purchasing clothing and using substitutes for food they have been used to, the dweller in the house of another man is helpless. If greed for power continues, we will soon be subjected to the law of the care man, comments the executive.

The governor reviews the efforts of the legislature which convened in extra session last year to enact housing regulation laws, and says that to his view more building has always seemed the best solution of the housing question.

He proposes that changes be made which will encourage workers to build their homes.

THIS tin of Klim, pasteurized separated milk in powder form, represents the modern development in the use of such milk. Just as the flour mills make better flour than the old-time grind-stone method, so is Klim purer, less expensive, less wasteful, and easier to keep than the same milk in liquid form.

Get Klim from your grocer. Use from the tin as needed. Will not freeze nor turn sour. No bottles to wash, no tickets to buy.

out for salaries which Barney Dreyfuss refuses to pay. Schmidt's attitude is worrying Pittsburgh fans, inasmuch as he is a star batsman, and manager George Gibson has nobody who can replace him. Terry, however, can be spared, inasmuch as "Junior" Catton can play short up to the handle, and is a hard hitter.
Dreyfuss, for the present, is standing pat. He may finally yield to Schmidt, but it will not be surprising if Terry is traded or sent to the minors.
Connie Mack is Satisfied.
Lake Charles, La., March 29.—Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, has come pretty near definitely deciding upon his regular team for the championship season. There will be no change in the outfield since the early indications. Much will depend upon whether Witt's throwing arm is normal. Connie is very much impressed with Welsh, and said today he would be surprised if the youngster did not start the season for Galloway and Dykes. He says he will have a wonderfully fast infield, but he would like to have it a little stronger in batting.
Mack's present problem is in picking his pitchers, though there will be nothing definitely known until the eve of the championship season, as he plans to carry the entire squad up to that time.

Spring Changes.
Easter patrons will find our theatre in pretty nice condition for the spring and summer run. The front display windows have been freshly curtained and draped, carpeted and decorated. The color scheme is black, white and cloth of gold. Yellow roses give a relieving touch.
The lobby and vestibule plate glass doors are resplendent in ecru sash curtains, caught up with flowered spring ribbons. The reverse sides are deep rose—to shut out the daylight. Our artist, Mr. Stringer, has made his advertising decorative scheme correspond with the fabric trappings very prettily.
The Stage Setting for this season is a distinct departure—named "A Venetian Piazza." It is the work of Frederick W. Stringer and gives the patron in the seat a charming vista of the canal city with its temples, gondolas, mooring posts and picturesque skyline. A realistic moonlight effect heightens the artistic value of the setting and real flowers and foliage give forth a fragrance.
