TARIFF REFORM HAS MADE GREAT GAINS

Unionists Should Do Even Better This Week

Press Comment Favorable to the Opposition—Having Fun at Lloyd-George's Expense—Liberals Confident

LONDON, Jan. 17.—It looks as though the election result in a near thing. The best English judgment on Saturday's polling is, "Good, but must do even better to secure a Unionist majority." So keen was the feeling that despite a drizzling rain and depressing weather, 80 per cent. of the electors polled in Manchester and other districts, while in Salisbury, Gloucester and Wolverhampton the poll exceeded 95 per cent. of the total.

The tariff reform votes were 374,446, an increase of 58,787 over 1906; the free trade votes 328,216, an increase of only 4,483. The net tariff reform increase is 54,263.

This result is all the more remarkable because of 74 seats polled Saturday, 87 were held by the coalition. The present position is 43 Unionists elected, 33 Radicals, 3 Labor, 5 Nationalists.

Lloyd George's chief consolation is that his battle-axe and citadel is deserting Cobdenism. Taking Manchester and Salford together, the Cobdenite vote increased 4788 and the Cobdenite decreased 7,543. Birmingham is regarded as a unique personal vote. Chamberlain's personal vote is 10,000. Chamberlainism in its personal aspects is also largely responsible for the defeat in Wolverhampton of Sir Henry Norman, organizer of the Whiston Chamberlain Budget League in reward for which budget league he was made last week assistant postmaster general. Another article in the London is a description of the Cobdenite League which polled Saturday recorded an increased tariff reform vote of 11,463, and a decreased Cobdenite vote of 10,000. The former Radical majority were so great that London yielded only three Unionist gains Saturday, and lost three Liberal seats.

The Times says the Unionists should be greatly encouraged by the result of the better this week. It regrets the defeat of Amery and Pike Pease, one of the Unionist whips, adding that the Unionists have been obtained in circumstances of very various character, offering a fair informal representation of the different interests and modes of thought throughout the country. There is not the slightest indication either in the seats won by the Unionists or in the reduced proportion of the coalition vote that the House of Lords or that eager desire for the subversion of coalition which creates the Government have spent most their energies in trying to stir up.

The Standard says: "The progress of tariff reform in the last four years has been positively astounding. In the seats won by the Unionists or in the reduced proportion of the coalition vote that the House of Lords or that eager desire for the subversion of coalition which creates the Government have spent most their energies in trying to stir up."

The Standard says: "The progress of tariff reform in the last four years has been positively astounding. In the seats won by the Unionists or in the reduced proportion of the coalition vote that the House of Lords or that eager desire for the subversion of coalition which creates the Government have spent most their energies in trying to stir up."

The Morning Post finds Saturday full of encouragement for the Unionists. The Daily Mail expresses its opinion pictorially. Tariff reform is a smart taxicab driving along with John Bull inside; free trade is a miserable horse cab labelled "the problem with Lloyd-George waiting in vain for a fare."

The Express takes as its pictorial text Lloyd-George's mainful experience at Grimby Saturday night when he had to escape through a back door under escort of the superintendent and police for fear of an angry crowd who filled the streets with cries of "traitor and 'Pro-Door'." The Express labels the picture "Still running." But nevertheless Lloyd-George's man is got in for Grimby, evading a well known sitting tariff reformer—Sir George Douglas.

Lloyd-George's own verdict is "We are winning England is emphatically against the government by peer and boot."

Churchill says: "The Tories are on lee shores. As the days pass every tack or change of weather will bring them nearer the reef."

The Daily News smiles through its tears over fallen friends and affirms that the people demand the budget. It says: "On the indications of Saturday we are in for an enormous majority."

The Chronicle says Saturday is a good beginning. The Leader says London and Lancashire lead the way to victory.

ITALIAN MURDERER IS NOW UNDER ARREST

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 17.—The Italian, Bando, who shot and perhaps fatally wounded Petrioli yesterday at Reserve Mine, was arrested last night by Chief Norman MacDonald, of Dominions. He was found in a No. 4 shack, and offered no resistance. The preliminary hearing takes place today. The condition of the victim remains unchanged.

DOUBLE THIRTEEN FOR JACK

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—Jack Johnson, the champion heavy weight, applied for a telephone for his home a few days ago and was given "Douglas 1313." It is said that some of his friends are much disturbed that he should have accepted the number.

FATALLY BURNED WHILE STARTING FIRE

Toronto Firm to Tender for Building Canadian Navy

Montreal Glass Works Damaged—Aylesworth's Probable Retirement—Seventy Five Head of Cattle Lost.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17.—Dora L. Siga, a seventeen year old girl residing on DeMontigny street, is lying at death's door in the hospital as the result of burns received while building a fire in a stove this morning. Having pulled the shaker too violently, coals fell out and set fire to her clothes. She is, rightfully injured and no hopes of recovery are entertained.

TORONTO, Jan. 17.—Some of the battalions of the Dominion government propose to build a new shipyard in Toronto. The management of the shipbuilding department of the big Polson Iron Works has had the matter under consideration for some time, and when tenders are called for will compete for at least a portion of the work. The firm claims it has all the appliances for building some of the gunboats and smaller cruisers.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17.—Damage to the extent of twenty-five thousand dollars was done by a fire which broke out on the premises of the Diamond Mill Glass Works early yesterday. A large part of the building was destroyed. The loss is pretty well covered by insurance.

TORONTO, Jan. 17.—Robert Ramsay, a farmer near here, had his barns burned Saturday with seventy-five head of cattle. He was standing by and a spark ignited some straw.

TORONTO, Jan. 17.—Rumor that Heron B. Aylesworth is to leave the cabinet and give up his portfolio is declared to be premature, but it is understood that the minister of justice is planning to retire from public life at the end of this parliament. Dr. R. M. Muller, present deputy postmaster general, formerly a resident of Newmarket, is mentioned as a possible candidate as successor to Aylesworth as representative of North York.

KEPT HIS PROMISE TO KILL THE GIRL

Illinois Constable, Grazed With Love, Shoots Young Woman and Hisself.

LASALLE, Ill., Jan. 17.—Edward D. Faber, a constable, fatally wounded Miss Sadie Hauser in a crowded cafe yesterday and then killed himself, falling over her body. Faber on Saturday wrote a note to the girl with whom he was infatuated, saying: "I'm coming over tomorrow to kill you."

She paid no attention to this threat until he entered the cafe where she was dining with friends.

"I'm here to keep my promise," he said and began firing with a revolver. Miss Hauser, shot through the head, fell to the floor. Then Faber shot her through the body. Faber's death was instantaneous from a bullet wound in the head.

PLUMMER AND BUTLER VISIT SYDNEY TOGETHER

To Become Acquainted With Officers—Position on U. M. W. Men Unchanged.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 17.—During his visit to Glace Bay today with the new general manager, Mr. Butler, Mr. Plummer stated that his visit to Glace Bay was for the purpose of meeting and becoming acquainted with the officers of the company and to introduce Mr. Butler.

In reply to inquiries, Mr. Plummer stated that he had not met representatives of the U. M. W., and that he does not consider it necessary that he should meet them. The position of the company as regards its employees has already been plainly stated in his telegram to the Sydney and Glace Bay papers, and a meeting with the representatives even to discuss the terms on which the men out of employment may return to work, might be misconstrued and regarded as a recognition of the U. M. W., which is against the policy of the company.

Any of the men now out of employment who desire work will be taken back as fast as places can be found for them.

SURVIVED SHOCK

LYNN, Mass., Jan. 17.—Although 4,500 volts of electricity passed through his body at the Lynn lighting plant last night, James McCloud was able to leave the hospital today. McCloud accidentally grasped a heavily charged wire as only 2,000 volts are used in operations at the plant his escape is considered remarkable.

104 SEATS BEING CONTESTED TODAY

Weather Is More Pleasant Than on Saturday

Both Parties Go Into the Fight With Renewed Confidence—Burus Will Know His Fate Tonight.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Clear weather and a host of workers on either side using thousands of motor cars and carriages to convey voting voters to the stations gave promise of a record poll at today elections for members of parliament.

In doubtful districts the party organizers were reinforced by an army of canvassers and few voters escaped. In all 104 seats were contested today. Of these 31 were London constituencies and 73 provincial boroughs. Last year the Unionists held 21 of the 104, the Liberals 52 and the Laborites 13. The proportion for London alone was: Unionists, 17; Liberals, 12; and Laborites, 2. The city of London itself is quite safe for the Unionists, and A. B. Bal-four and Sir W. G. Sarnbury doubtless will secure majorities even larger than they had at the election.

There are a number of prominent members of the last cabinet, however, whose seats are in danger. John Burns, president of the local government moiety, is having a tight agonizing fight with the Liberal candidate for Battersea and Clapham, Battersea division. In 1908 Burns had a majority of 1,920, but that was a narrow margin. The Liberal candidate at the previous election being only 254. T. J. McNamara, Liberal candidate for Camberwell, North Division, is also in a tight contest with the Conservative candidate, Mr. H. Long, Unionist for the Strand, and quite secure. The Liberal doubtless will lose Greenwich and other London districts. Among the provincial seats contested today are Blackburn, held at present by Philip Snowden, Labor, one of the leaders of the Labor party, Bristol, where A. Birrell, Labor, and C. Hobhouse, Liberal, are in which districts both sides profess confidence in making a clean sweep; and Portsmouth, where the Unionists are depending upon Admiral Lord C. Beresford, their candidate, and their denunciation of the Liberal policy to reverse big Liberal majority returned at the last election.

Two Welsh and four Scottish boroughs, all heretofore Liberal strongholds, will also vote today.

The stock exchange is inclined to be disappointed that the Unionists' gains of Saturday were not greater and the dealings this morning caused the loss of some advances registered last week in anticipation of a Tory victory. Consols fell 5-16 while Home Ralls and Kaffirs were fractionally weaker on realizations.

John F. Redmond, for Waterford City, and six other Irish Nationalists were returned unopposed today.

MONTREAL HAD A WATER FAMINE

It Lasted Only Six Hours Last Night

But in That Time a Fire Occurred Which Resulted in a Property Loss of Fully $20,000.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17.—For six hours last night the whole of the centre of Montreal was without water. Hotels had not a drop for their guests except such as they already had in hand. Private houses were similarly cut off and remained so till this morning. The break was one of the most serious in the history of Montreal, though fortunately it occurred in an auxiliary main and will not necessitate any water famine during repairs. It occurred under a street and the escaping water making its way down sewers hindered the workmen from finding the break. So heavy was the loss from water that some of the uptown fire stations registered no pressure at all in their gauges while the water in one of the large veyen reservoirs sank three feet. In receipt of its regular supply.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17.—Serious loss by fire was a direct result of the water shortage. About three o'clock this morning a blaze started in the store of Dubuc Freres, corner of Wolfe and Robit streets. The fire brigades were soon out in force but it was impossible to get streams playing. Hose had to be laid a quarter of a mile to Steeple-brooke street, and by this time the fire had spread to the adjoining tenement block which was also gutted, being of flimsy material. The total loss was about $20,000. Had the water supply been normal, Mr. Dubuc claims one stream would have put the fire out when the firemen first arrived.

The cancelled mortgage of the Fairview Baptist Church will be burned in the church on Tuesday evening, Jan. 18th. There will be special music and speeches by the Baptist ministers of the city. Exercises begin at 7:30.

HEAVY FINES FOR COBALT OFFENDERS

School at Headingly, Man., Destroyed by Fire

Young Lad Dies From Burns—Employee Killed by Shafting—Winnipeg Merchants Bounced.

COBALT, Ont., Jan. 17.—James Murray and Napoleon Lembeau were fined two hundred dollars and costs in the police court here Saturday for selling liquor illegally. John Coughlin, on a similar charge, was fined one hundred dollars and costs, while James Chardon was sent to jail for four months without the option of a fine.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 17.—The public school of Headingly village, five miles southwest of here, was burned to the ground Saturday. The loss amounts to thirty-five thousand dollars.

KINGSTON, Ont., Jan. 17.—Murray Fraser, the four year old son of James W. Fraser, B. A., teacher in the Collegiate Institute, died at the General Hospital Saturday of burns caused by his setting fire to his night dress while playing with matches on the morning of January 7. The child's right side was burned from the hip to the shoulder and his face was also burned.

NEW MARKET, Ont., Jan. 17.—Archie Fraser, an employee of the Office Specialty Manufacturing Company, while at work in the factory on Saturday, was caught by a belt and drawn into the shafting and killed before assistance could reach him.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 17.—Traders and merchants of this city have been victimized to the extent of three hundred dollars by an unknown man and woman who represented that they were collecting for the Women's Christian Temperance Association. The swindlers have disappeared.

TORONTO, Jan. 17.—In the assizes court here Saturday, Frank Murray, of Georgetown, sued John Campbell, a farmer at Peaseville, Halton Co., for two thousand dollars for alleged seduction of his daughter Edith, aged 22 years. Campbell denied the charge but the jury after hearing the evidence found him guilty and assessed damages at a thousand dollars.

NO ONE ANXIOUS TO TAKE THIS CONTRACT

Job of Feeding the Immigrants at Ellis Island Is Not Financially Attractive.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The rising cost of living has its problems for the government as well as for the private citizen. The immigration officials here were anxiously waiting today to see if anybody was willing to bid for the contract to feed the immigrants at Ellis Island. The present caterer gets 23 cents a meal and his successor will have to contract for a term of three years in the face of a rising food products market.

"The man whose bid is accepted, if catering on a big scale," said a provision man today, "the chances are all against him unless he gets a much higher price than the now paid."

So far no responsible man or firm has put in a bid for the chances are all against somewhat dubious privileges.

ENGLISH LORD AND CANADIAN LOST

Expedition to Search Southern California for Party Which Disappeared on Nov. 10

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 17.—In a desperate effort to find Lord Osborne Beauchamp of Sussex, England, and V. Arlington Pike of Victoria, B. C., whose whereabouts have been a mystery since November 10, a typical young plainsman from Arizona, Albert Gonfaldo, accompanied by a party of five, will leave here Thursday morning. They will sail around the lower California. On November 15 Lord Beauchamp and Pike left Yuma in a small boat on a hunting voyage down the Colorado River, intending to go to Lapa, where they would take a coast steamer.

POISONED SEVEN HEIRS OF DEAD MILLIONAIRE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 17.—An arrest in the sensational case involving the death of the millionaire philanthropist, Col. Thomas H. Swope, Christian Swope, Mr. Swope's alleged poisoning of seven heirs of Col. Swope, may be expected within forty-eight hours, irrespective of the finding of the chemists now examining the stomachs of the two Swopes at Chicago. This statement was made today by a man connected with the case who declared that the chain of evidence against the alleged plotters was now almost complete.

FRANCE INTERESTED IN BRITISH ELECTIONS

Popular Feeling Is in Sympathy With the Lords

Fun at the Polls on Saturday—Scopleton of Foul Play in Western Fire From Which Sixty Victims Is Dead.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Many amusing scenes were witnessed Saturday near the polling booths. At one place a police dog, for the purpose of securing a "Vote for tariff reform," A greyhound and a portly dog, lashed together and labelled respectively "Tariff Reform" and "British Free Trade Product," were paraded through the public thoroughfares creating laughter by their frequent quarrels and angry bites. The three year old son of a Conservative candidate pronounced the streets carrying a little sandwich board inscribed "Vote for daddy."

PARIS, Jan. 17.—The British general elections are being watched here with thrilling interest. The trend of the popular feeling, particularly in official circles, is in sympathy with the Lords. This is largely due to the prevailing belief that victory for the Radicals would mean the effacement of Britain as a naval and military factor in European politics. Only a few Socialists journals support David Lloyd-George. Reactionary organs like the Gaulois predict that the triumph of the Radicals would prepare the way for a tremendous social upheaval in France.

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 17.—It is understood that Westley Scott, whose wife was acquitted last week of the charge of murdering her father-in-law, will contest the old man's will by which Westley received less than he was led to expect, the bulk of the property going to a son of Westley's brother Alfred.

JEWES ARE RETURNING TO THEIR OWN COUNTRY

Constitution in Turkey Induces Many Thousands to Come Back to the Old Land.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—A cable dispatch to the Times says that the proclamation of the constitution in Turkey has thrown open the doors of Palestine to the incoming Jews from all parts of the world. In Jerusalem alone four-fifths of the population of 100,000 now belong to the Jewish faith, while at Jaffa, Tiberias, Safed and Haifa, Jews are reckoned with by tens of thousands. Almost the whole extensive plain of Esdrasland has been bought up by them. Their prosperous colonies spread from Dan to Beersheba and even south to the outskirts of Egypt. Thousands are escaping from Persia to find shelter and protection in the Holy Land, while every ship from Odessa carries hundreds of them.

LOVE DRIVES CLERGYMAN TO COMMIT SUICIDE

GREENVILLE, Ill., Jan. 17.—Leaving a note declaring his love for a young woman, Rev. Harry Keene yesterday swallowed the poison and died in the arms of the woman's father. The pastor took the poison at the gate of the young woman's home, thrust the note in at the door which had been opened at his summons and fell dead.

SQUIRES DEFEATED BY LANG AT SYDNEY

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 17.—Bill Lang today retained his title of heavyweight champion of Australia by defeating Bill Squires in the seventh round.

LIQUOR LICENSE MATTERS

The liquor license commissioners will shortly make an inspection of a number of bars about the city. Since the amendments to the act were made, the commissioners find it essential to make visits to the saloons to see that the proprietors meet the requirements of the act. On Wednesday the granting of licenses will take place. In no ward is the number of applications in excess of the number of licenses that may be granted.

However, it is improbable that all the new applicants will be granted licenses.

NEWS OF SPORT

LYNCH WRITES LONG LETTER TO MONTREAL. Local Boxer Replies to a Large Number of Challenges—Will Fight All Challenges.

MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—Here is a batch of challenges and denials that will be of interest, since Billy Allen is scheduled to box here a week from today, although his opponent is not yet chosen. C. E. Huck, his manager in Syracuse, writes: "I do not know who his opponent will be, but we are satisfied to meet any one in the world at 125-130 pounds. Yours etc., C. E. Huck, P. S.—We will be glad to box Dave Rennie, if we can agree upon weight, but Allen could not travel and to us 125 at 123 at 120—C. E. H.

The "Soo" Kid writes: "Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. 'Having noticed Dave Rennie's challenge in your paper to fight any one in Canada at 115 to 120 lbs. I hereby beg to accept said challenge, fight to take place in Montreal for best purse offered."

"Hoping Mr. Rennie will arrange with me at once, I remain, W. Hughes, the 'Soo' Kid."

Mr. Lynch writes from 193 Union St., St. John, N. B., to a friend here, saying: "Seeing all sorts of challenges in the Star for me, I thought to write you and see if you could answer some of them for me. The first one would be that of Allen's. The only letter I received from Huck was one asking me to fight Allen at 125 lbs., weighing in at three o'clock day of fight, and surely he did not expect an answer to it. Now this man Quinn, who calls himself a personal friend of mine, and manager of Henry Myers, George Kennedy sent me a letter in the middle of this month, and if the terms had been satisfactory, I would have accepted. At the same time this man Quinn sent me a letter about fighting Myers at Boston, and I told him about the chance I had to fight Allen, and asked him to answer at once, and he undertook to write Huck and find out if Allen was matched with me, and this is what Mr. Huck is chewing his head off about. I am satisfied to fight Allen at 125 lbs. at six o'clock for the featherweight championship that he claims, and 122 lbs. ringside any time after six weeks from date of signing articles.

"Now, about all these challenges from Myers, Rennie, Quinn and others, I will say I am satisfied to fight any boy in the world that has a claim on the bantamweight championship and who will make the weight for a suitable side bet and a big and small end of the gate. All I want is time to train, so as I can give the sporting public a run for their money. "All I want is to make it plain to the public that they haven't got to offer me as long as the conditions are satisfactory."

PRESIDENT FARRELL AGREES WITH LYNCH

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 15.—When President Thomas J. Lynch of the National League, suggests a plan to the joint rule committee next week to suppress kicking and boisterous behavior by players on the benches, he will receive the endorsement of both major organizations, it is believed. President Farrell, of the Americans, said today, "President Lynch has made a move in the proper direction. He is absolutely right in his contention that the regular players and substitutes while on the bench cause much trouble by hurling complimentary remarks at the umpire, calling balls and strikes when his back is turned. There is no specific rule preventing substitutes from shouting at the umpires from the benches, and I have no objection on my own part to such remarks being rattled by this practice. It is anything but sportsmanlike, and I believe that if President Lynch has a rule to prevent the evil of the American League will promptly adopt it, as President John is a stickler for clean ball at all times. Personally I do not believe in kicking at all. It does no good and simply riles spectators, at the same time angering the umpires, so that they perhaps become prejudiced because of the abuse they are compelled to withstand. Umpiring is a hard and thankless job, yet there are some very competent judges of play. I believe they should be strictly enforced and penalties should be severely dealt with. Disorderly conduct on the ball field does not win games.

One of the athletic clubs in Chicago has started to reform their running game, Marathon racing at the full distance being discarded by the Illinois Athletic Club. It was decided to abandon the Greek classic of 28 miles 355 yards for all time, because they say the long race was injurious to athletes.

The fine weather brought out another big bunch of horsemen on the Marsh Road yesterday, and during the afternoon there were some lively brushes between the fast ones. Parkola, owner by Thomas Hayes, and William McDonald's Factory Stays Lead some pretty fast going, and honors were about even between the two. Golden Gate, owned by Frank Mullin, was also out, and showed that the fast ones would have to step some to keep ahead of it. William Reed of Fairville had his new American horse out. Its performance was good.

BALL TEAMS ARE PREPARING TO TRAIN. Athletics' First Division Will Go South About March 1—Second Division Will Follow Ten Days Later.

In less than seven weeks, American and National League baseball teams will be ready to travel to the milder climate of the South to start training for their respective championship races. The Athletics' first division, composed of the younger members of the team, will leave for Atlanta in charge of Connie Mack on March 1. Ten days later the second division, composed principally of veterans, will start for the training camp in charge of Captain Harry Davis. Charles Dooin, the Phillies' newly appointed manager, expects to take his squad of thirty-one men to Southern Pines, N. C., on March 2. "While it is a dangerous undertaking to attempt rating the strength of baseball teams at this time of the year, there is every reason to believe that the Philadelphia fan will have better baseball than last season. "There was nothing last year to warrant rosters to feel dissatisfied with the Athletics, which were in the championship fight to the last few days of the season, and only lost the pennant because of the spiking of Shortstop Jack Barry by Ty Cobb, but the Phillies were sore disappointed, as they finished in the second division.

CROCKET WILL PLAY WITH TRURO TEAM. Players Known to St. John Will Participate in Nova Scotia League Matches.

If reports are true, Crockett will be with Truro next Tuesday, and Crockett, and Murphy, Dunphy and others from Cape Breton are likely to appear in the playing season on behalf of the team. This would be, of course, against the rules, but the claim is made that if a team makes a protest against the residence clause that a counter claim will be entered. It is pointed out as an instance that at Truro the Crockett protested Curry and McGrath as being ineligible, when Truro protested some of the Crockett players as having violated the amateur laws. Those who want to see good hockey, and who do not care whether the teams are "amateurs" or "shamateurs," will be glad for the present at least if the rumors are correct.

FAST HOCKEY AT MONTREAL. MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—Playing in near championship style, the Wanderers defeated Renfrew at the Jubilee Rink Saturday night by 7 to 2. According to early season schedules this was the fourth game of the National Hockey Association, but the decision of the afternoon's meeting made it really the opening game of a new series.

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 15.—Ottawa and the Shamrocks have withdrawn from the Canadian Hockey League and joined the National League, which will now consist of Ottawa, Shamrocks, Wanderers, Les Canadiens, Renfrew, and Hitleybury. This practically ends the end of the Canadian Hockey Association, as only Quebec, All-Montreal, and the Nationals are left in it.

Accountants took three points; Ramblers one point. The fine weather brought out another big bunch of horsemen on the Marsh Road yesterday, and during the afternoon there were some lively brushes between the fast ones. Parkola, owner by Thomas Hayes, and William McDonald's Factory Stays Lead some pretty fast going, and honors were about even between the two. Golden Gate, owned by Frank Mullin, was also out, and showed that the fast ones would have to step some to keep ahead of it. William Reed of Fairville had his new American horse out. Its performance was good.

It is impossible to be well, simply impossible, if the bowels are constipated. Waste products, poisonous substances, must be removed from the body at least once each day, or there will be trouble. AMERICAN LEAGUE PUTS THE BAN ON Exhibition Games Will be Frowned Upon by Magazines—Many Sports Prohibited.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Contract blanks for 1910, featuring the twelve months' service of the ball player, arrived here yesterday. Secretary Robert McRoy of the American League will mail the papers to the various club-owners today. Changes were made in articles 3 and 4 of the agreement binding the player and club owner, but the new regulation on barn-storming reads just as President B. B. Johnson of the American League ordained that it should be prior to the annual meeting in New York. Exhibition ball games before, during, or after the playing season will be frowned upon, and heavily at that, by the magazines unless they see fit to grant the necessary permission to players. All forms of strenuous athletics come under the ban. Basketball, indoor baseball and football go hand in hand with barn-storming among the list of sports to be tabled when the league pennant races are not in progress. But league boys are wintering here gave vent to some lusty objection yesterday when shown the new document, especially the clause affecting the barn-storming pastime. CLAUSE IN NEW CONTRACT PROHIBITS BARN-STORMING. Article 3.—The party of the second part will not be permitted at any time, either during the playing season or before the commencement or after the close thereof, to participate in any exhibition baseball games, indoor baseball, basketball or football, except that the consent of the party of the first part has been secured in writing.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 14.—From a trance in which she had lain for three months and a half, Mrs. Kate Mendelsohn passed to death at a hospital here today. The physicians are puzzled over the case. Mr. Mendelsohn thinks that his wife must have been shocked into unconsciousness some night when the baby tumbled out of bed, believing that the child was killed.

BOSTON, Jan. 14.—One half of one per cent. of the population of Boston is addicted to use of drugs, while a close relation between the drug habit and "white slavery" is shown, according to the report of the directors of the New England Watch and Ward Society, issued tonight, and covering the work for the last four months of 1909.

Another letter to his wife, of which the police did not give out.

CHINA THROWS OPEN TWO MORE PORTS

As Result of Treaty With Japan—Great Advantage to Foreign Commerce

PEKIN, Jan. 15.—China has opened two more ports to international trade, notwithstanding the fact that the agreement has not yet been reached with Japan regarding the matter of the tariffs to be collected on the Korean-Manchurian border. The question of tariffs will come up for settlement at an early date.

Hun-Chun and Lun-chun are two of the treaty ports provided for in the agreement between Japan and China, signed at Peking, September 4 last, and designed to settle the Chinese boundary dispute between the two countries. Recently a disagreement arose over the subject of Korean immigration into China. This and the question of the tariffs delayed the promised opening, which was expected January 15.

The importance of the opening of Hun-Chun to foreign commerce, is apparent when it is understood that the town is situated nine miles northeast of the Korean boundary, 35 miles above the mouth of Tumen River, and less than 100 miles from Vladivostok.

The eruptions of Vesuvius greatly increase the fertility of the ground in the vicinity.

IMPORTANT CRIMINAL TRIALS AT ALBERT

Aggravated Assault and Incendiarism

Young Englishman Tried to Kill David Crossman With an Axe—Boys Accused of Burning a School-house.

HOPEWELL HILL, N. B., Jan. 17.—The January session of the Albert circuit court will open at the Cape next Tuesday, with Judge White presiding. Two important criminal cases are to come up for trial, that of the King against Thos. Molyneux, who is charged with aggravated assault on David Crossman, and the King against Curry Bishop, Stanley Bishop and Emmerson Magee, charged with burning the school house at West River, Albert Co. Crossman, the complainant in the former case, it will be remembered, was attacked and had his head split open with an axe, his injuries placing him in the hospital for weeks and he is nearly proving fatal. Molyneux, a young Englishman living near Crossman, was charged with the crime and the former also being engaged as counsel for the accused boys. These two cases will comprise the whole docket, there being no civil matters to come up.

Word has been received of the death at Dover, New Hampshire, Mrs. Annie Rogers of Dover, N. H., and one brother, Joseph A. Rogers of this place. Mrs. Clement was a teacher in the public schools in this county and her friends here will regret to hear of her death.

MOTHERS BLESS ZAM-BUK

Read How It Gives the Little Ones Ease.

A most important thing for mothers to watch is the treatment of rashes, such as the measles, chicken pox, etc. When you put an ointment on a child's skin it gets into the blood through the pores just as surely as if you put it into the child's stomach. Did you ever think of that? How important, therefore, that the ointment should be pure! Zam-Buk is absolutely pure; contains no animal fat, no mineral coloring matter, and contains no irritating or burning antiseptics—yet it is antiseptic! It is purely herbo-vegetable and thus meets all the requirements of that superior way in which nature always provides.

Mrs. R. Gentleman of 1020 St. James St., Montreal, says: "My two-year-old daughter had eczema for over six months on her face and neck. Doctor didn't cure. We tried various remedies in vain, but could give the little one no ease. When Zam-Buk was used, it was very different. It soothed the pain and the irritation, and the child ceased to scratch. Perseverance with Zam-Buk brought a complete cure."

Mrs. C. W. Boverman, of 125 Denison Ave., Toronto, says her baby's face was covered with a burning eruption, little one was terribly pinched, scratched, and made the place very bad. Zam-Buk cured.

Score of similar cases could be cited. Zam-Buk should be in every home, because it heals sores, eczema, itches, and other skin diseases. Eczema, itchy, ulcers, bad legs, poisoned wounds, abscesses, cold sores, cracked hands, and other troubles of the skin. Children are cured by Zam-Buk. It is also a cure for piles. All druggists and chemists sell it. For post free literature, send a stamp for price, from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto for price. Send a one cent stamp to pay return postage, and we will mail you a free trial box.

THE ROLLER TOWEL TO BE SET ASIDE. Kansas Board of Health Calls It More Deadly Than the Poilo Drinking Cup.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—All our favorite gods and sacred traditions fall one by one before the onslaught of reform. So closely have the clippers of the political seals torn us that our personal privileges enjoyed by our aires and the modern man stumbles in his melancholy pathway to the grave, beset on all sides by proscriptions, regulations and rules of conduct, and feels himself lucky if he dies out of jail. In Kansas, beautiful, proud, prosperous and far famed Kansas, the reformers have found their paradise. Topeka is the latter day Delphi and the oracle of reform speaks in many tongues.

The latest reformatory utterance is a condemnation of the roller towel, according to the Kansas City Journal. It has been officially declared that the roller towel is even more dangerous than short skirts, drinking cups and cracked dishes. Per square foot the roller towel contains a greater number and variety of germs than are to be found anywhere else in the Sunflower State, and for the protection of society the time honored rotating rag must go. Perhaps this is all for the best, yet it is permissible to pause and sigh at the passing of the old roller towel. It has served long and well, and millions of our most respected citizens have left their cozy impressions upon its inviting folds.

Its rattle has been soothing music to aputing patrons of public wash-rooms, and in spite of the progressive circle of its layer upon layer of discoloredness it possessed a simple dignity that could not be defied. Even when limp and discredited, it festooned in unobtrusiveness from its scaffold, the roller towel was not without virtue. Always some one came to toy gingerly with its edges, in the hope of finding one small area less dirty than the rest. Bowing to the decree which banishes the roller towel from sight, we yet remember with something like affection the long years of intimate association with it in which it never failed. It has represented human democracy and comradeship. It was the bond that united the high and the low, and it touched all mankind with a welcome of humid salute. The arrogant reformer of the roller towel in the days of their affluence, but it remained faithful and its very form typified unchanging purpose. Legions of men and women have vainly sought the end of the roller towel. It has remained for the Kansas State Board of Health to lay a vandal hand upon this ancient institution and tear it from its honored place behind the door.

TAKEN ILL WHILE GOING FOR DOCTOR. ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Jan. 15.—The community has been much concerned today because of an illness that came to Samuel Craig, one of our most respected citizens. While a few miles in the country yesterday in search for a nurse to attend Mrs. Craig, who is critically ill, he was taken quite violently ill, and had to be driven to his home. The physician today considers him symptoms much improved, and it is hoped that his recovery will be speedy. W. A. Quinton of Fairville had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse yesterday afternoon. Mr. Quinton's nephew and a friend were driving the horse on the Marsh Road. When they were just opposite the Cobrook Station the animal was seized with an attack of heart failure, and dropped dead. Mr. Quinton feels his loss keenly, as the animal was a valuable one. It was worth about $500. Mr. Quinton bought it about four years ago.

Speaking yesterday afternoon at the first of a series of temperance meetings to be held in the North End as part of the campaign for no-licence and the reduction of the number of saloons, Rev. David Hutchinson of Main Street Baptist Church referred to the move for the removal of Nignt's saloon at the end of Douglas Avenue, near the bridge. It was the opinion of all moral-living citizens of St. John that this license should never have been granted. Feeling was strongly against the continuance of the saloon there, and there would be profound disappointment if it was renewed.

There was a large attendance yesterday afternoon at the St. Peter's Y.M.C.A. rooms, when an excellent debate was heard. The question was "Prohibition vs. Moral Suasion." J. Gerald Burke argued in favor of the affirmative side of the question, and Frank J. Casey supported the negative side.

The decision in the case of J. Frank Owens, rendered in favor of the affirmative, "Mr. Burke's speech was particularly forcible and eloquent.

Many persons took advantage of the opportunity and enjoyed the skating on Lily Lake yesterday. One lad had the misfortune to fall into the lake. He was skating alone near where the ice is being cut, and unexpectedly slid off into the water. A man who happened to be near the scene of the accident rescued the boy just in time. He was taken home, where he was warmed, after which he felt none the worse for the accident. The occurrence, however, was one that he would not care to experience again.

800,000 PERSONS SAW THE FUNERAL OF KING LEOPOLD

The capital of Belgium paid its last tribute to the memory of the sovereign, who, whatever may have been his shortcomings in private life, was beloved as a king. He found Belgium poor and struggling; he enhanced her status and gave her the nucleus of a colonial empire; in short, from a Belgian point of view, King Leopold made his country great. For this his people have forgiven him much.

His funeral was witnessed by probably 800,000 of his late subjects, and was attended by all the high dignitaries of the church and state. Provincial delegates from municipal and other bodies, and humble workers from the factory and mine were present assisting in the national mourning. The weather went as if in sympathy with the sorrow-stricken heart of the Belgian nation. Fog hung like a pall over the whole city. It rained heavily throughout the night, and continued today. The streets of the capital were wrapped in atmosphere, through which the gas lamps, with their draping of grape, had little chance of dispelling.

The line of route from the pelargates to the Cathedral Church of St. Gudule, a distance of about half a mile, was lined with troops, amongst which one easily picked out the men of the Civil Guard with their half-military and half-civilian dress. The bowler hat ornamented with red tassels and cord, behind the troops was a stout barricade breast high, and behind this the spectators of the royal obsequies had gathered themselves as thick as bees, men, women and children, young and old, rich and poor, shivering in the raw December air, many saturated to the bone.

Vendors of chairs and tables for the hands of more opulent sightseers spent a profitable morning for the rain ruined their business. The few stands which had been erected at points were tenanted for the same reason. An other disappointed commercial section were the camelots, who had been enriching themselves during the week selling photographs and biography, more or less apocryphal of King Leopold's favorite, the Du Barry of Belgium, but the sale of their wares was forbidden on the day of the funeral.

As I drove to the palace in the pitiless drizzle, on the wide boulevard facing the palace gates troops were already forming up in the grand square nearest the park sightseers, braving the rain, had climbed the railings of the castle of trees, their heads being dimly silhouetted against the murky sky. In the semi-darkness the huge black flag, flying from the gable of the royal residence, was barely visible. The last earthly home of King Leopold struck a chilling note; it looked so forsaken, so uninviting. At the moment the wind flung the park in the hands of the builders, and the ready wood boarding shuts it off from the street, and a forest of scaffolding poles, waiting for their gant forms above the boarding.

SCENE IN THE PALACE

With nine vast barrack-like buildings next in order of importance, the beautiful art treasures which had been the nation's pride, lay its late royal master sleeping his last sleep. The empty corridors echoed to the footfall of some solitary court functionary or workman in the Hittite splendor of the catafalque, rested the coffin, completely hidden by funeral draperies. The door was locked, waiting for the moment when King Leopold would undertake his last journey.

Earlier in the morning three sad-faced, black-robed women had gathered by the door to greet the funeral cortege. They were the three daughters of the dead king, whom his death recalled from exile and so strangely to the scene. Presently there began to arrive the invited official mourners, members of the senate and the members of the diplomatic corps and the foreign missions. These latter bodies were resplendent in uniforms. Then the hitherto deserted palace awoke from its sleep to the sound of many feet, and the corridors became reanimated, and up the broad stairs leading to the chappelle ardente passed a long line of official dignitaries of the church, army and parliament, and the chosen representatives of the royal houses of Europe.

The Cardinal-Archbishop of Malines, in mitre and cope, and surrounded by his subordinate clergy, briefly recited the first part of the requiem for the dead. The coffin was borne down the stairs to the principal corridor and thence to the chappelle ardente, but unused building material to the funeral car outside the park gate. This chappelle ardente passed a long line of official dignitaries of the church, army and parliament, and the chosen representatives of the royal houses of Europe.

of Connaught, Prince Henry of Prussia, the Infante Charles of Spain, and the Archduke Salvator of Austria. The principal members of the foreign missions followed in the other state carriages.

The three daughters of the king had already gone to Laeken and took no part in the procession. The rain was still falling heavily, and the entire route from Brussels to Laeken church was lined with people. In the crypt in the burial vault of the Belgian Royal Family, and there are already interred King Leopold I., his queen and a brother of Leopold II., who died a specially kind. The Count of Flanders and two of his children were in the church. A brief religious service was held here. The Cardinal Archbishop pronounced absolution, and the body of King Leopold II. was borne to the vault beneath and placed by the side of his forebears.

When the mourners had gone, Princess Louise, Princess Stephanie and Princess Clementine, under the escort of a dozen of the church, stole softly into the crypt, and passing into the unlocked vault took a last farewell of their royal father who had caused them to drink so deeply a specially bitterness. Then the three princesses drove away in the darkness and the rain.

A CRISIS AT GREYTOWN.

The alleged despatch from Bluefields, Nicaragua, which appeared in this morning's paper, is a typical Washington product. Not one word of it ever came from Bluefields. It was manufactured to suit the American reading public and handed out as the unofficial opinion of official personages. The whole tone of the article is to convey the impression that Britain is taking sides with an irresponsible usurper against a well established government which has the protection of the United States.

When the revolution broke out in Nicaragua it was directed solely towards the overthrow of President Zelaya, who was very generally regarded as an undesirable. The leader of the revolt is one Estrada. His campaign was successful to the extent that Zelaya gave up office and retired. Thereupon Estrada was chosen as his successor, and has so far conducted Nicaraguan affairs with marked ability, incidentally denouncing Zelaya as a traitor.

But previous to this turnover, the United States having an eye on future concessions, and prompted by the clamorings of exploiters who had found difficulty in protecting their investments against the old government, came out openly in support of the revolutionists. Several warships and transports were, between their frequent stays abroad, hurried south and Secretary Knox even engaged in a heated debate with Zelaya, coming off second best.

After Zelaya retired, and Madriz was made president, the Washington government found its position somewhat difficult. It could scarcely declare against an established government which apparently enjoyed the confidence of the people. But a deal was patched up, Estrada making multitudinous promises, and thereafter the United States hailed Estrada as head of a new government and the rights of the revolutionists.

Estrada is today nothing more than a rebel. He is in open insurrection against the government of the state. Madriz on the other hand, is the Washington capitalist-statesman. Just now the revolutionary army is near Greytown, and in that city, in which British capital is very heavily interested, there is a government force.

Under these circumstances, Captain Reider of the British warship Scylla has issued orders that there is to be no fighting in Greytown. His position is perfectly sound. Britain is more deeply involved in the well-being of Greytown than either of the opposing parties, and Captain Reider takes the view that if these people want to fight they must do it in some place where they can injure no one but themselves. This action has soured the Washington capitalist-statesman. They see in it a move which may interfere with their campaign in support of Estrada. As a result, the Tacoma Des Moines is already there. These warships will not be needed. If Capt. Reider was authorized to issue his order, he will stick to it, and the whole American navy will be useless, for not a shot will be fired.

THE FIRST DAY.

In the first day's polling the Unionists have done well, but not well enough. Still in view of the tremendous fight put up by the government party and of the popularity of the policies advanced by the ministry, it is remarkable that the opposition has made any gains whatsoever. There are no evidences of a landslide, no indications that the Aquith administration will be retired, nothing very much which to base a hope for tariff reform on the immediate future, and no marked demand for a larger navy. Yet there is apparent a well defined change in popular sentiment, a belief that protection will accomplish what free trade has failed to do, and certainly a general protest against the introduction of Socialism in Britain's methods of taxation. The Liberals on the other hand, anticipating serious losses and finding these losses less than had been expected, read in the results of Saturday's polling a desire on the part of the British public to throw off the yoke of feudalism, to regard energy and ability as of more importance than the accident of birth, to insist on government through representation and not by inheritance, to more equally distribute the burden of empire, and to stand by the mass-covered policy of free trade, which was good enough for Britain in the days before competition appeared.

The failure to win Manchester is a disappointment to the tariff reformers, for there was a wide belief that on the result of the struggle in that hotbed of free trade the outcome of the fight elsewhere might be judged. Yet Balfour's supporters, although failing to capture any of the seats previously held by Liberals, have made very gains in the aggregate number of ballots cast. And certainly they have reason to believe that in such a district where the tariff policy of a party is the first consideration, free trade has been heartily condemned by a very large number of electors. There is but little encouragement for either party in Saturday's returns. The Unionists have failed to make sufficient gains to indicate ultimate success, the Liberals have lost so many that they face the prospect of coming under the power of the Nationalists. But the day is still young.

BRUTALITY.

Two incidents have occurred during the past week which tend, in the public mind at least, to lower the dignity of the law, and which are reflections on the administration of justice in Canada and the United States. In Winnipeg a man who had brutally assaulted a woman was sentenced to fourteen lashes and a salt bath; in Belleville, Illinois, a fend who murdered his child was given imprisonment rather than death, in order as the judge explained, that he might expiate his crime by a lifetime or remorse, haunted by the remembrance of his victim.

In both these cases punishment of the offender was made the principal object of the sentence. Society today endeavors rather to protect itself and to seek the reformation of the defective. In the eyes of the law vengeance on an offender is not the principal end to be attained, nor should it be given undue attention. Yet those judges in Winnipeg and Belleville, impressed no doubt with the brutality of the crimes committed, devised tortures which for intensity of suffering rival the horrors of the inquisition.

THE WOMAN WITH THE TRANSFER.

With a transfer ticket punched to expire at 11 o'clock an elderly woman got on a car.

"I can't take this, lady," said the conductor. "You see, it's marked for it, but now it's ten minutes of 2. The ticket's been dead for nearly two hours."

"Well," was the woman's reply, "I took the first car I could get after leaving the bank. I had to wait to have my interest figured up."

"If it took 'em two hours to figure the interest on my money, I wouldn't argue about a transfer. I'd pay my fare to ride in an auto," said the conductor.

The woman made no reply, but fished a ticket out of her hand bag and gave it to the conductor.—New York Press.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

After about five minutes of heartbroken wallings on the part of the two-year-old across the aisle the two-year-old's mother gave in and bought some choochies for him with which he promptly began to plant the seeds of indignation and more wallings.

"Cry hard enough and you'll get your way every time," murmured the rather cynical looking lady in the seat in front, "and that rule isn't limited to babies, either."

As the remark wasn't addressed to me I couldn't express my approval, but mentally dittoed it.

It certainly isn't limited to babies! I know a great many pretty well grown children, and some as full grown as they'll ever be, who get anything that those about them have it in their power to give, simply by applying that rule.

I know, for instance, a family of four girls, one of whom has three times what the other three have.

I heard her just the other day, after one of the others had been denied a certain luxury, boasting that she was sure she could get it.

I don't doubt it.

Because she is the best loved child? Not at all! Because she knows the value of the rule—"Cry hard enough and you'll get your way."

In very many families there is some one member who applies that rule. Usually it is one of the children, but not always by any means. Sometimes it's a father and once in a while a mother.

And always the rest of the family gladly give up anything that one happens to want.

A splendid rule, you see.

Only—well, I'll leave you to supply that "only."

If you know a family where there is such a person you doubtless can do it.

"Believing it was her fate because a fortune teller told her she would marry a Chinaman, Grace W. Miller, twenty-four, married Charles Song." I read in a Pittsburg paper the other day.

I wish there could be a law to keep those people who believe in fortune tellers away from them.

I am usually a disbeliever in the saying—"Where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise."

"Where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise." It is extremely true.

And as you never can tell whether ignorance is bliss or not it really isn't safe to risk the folly of being wise.

Fortune tellers are for those who do not believe in their powers. If you believe a fortune teller can't tell you anything of the future and merely want to waste a dollar or two, by all means waste it. It is a harmless way.

Stories of Arabian Nights' tales to those who know how to rate them as such I believe in fortune tellers, but as revealers of the future to those who regard them as such, I think they are a menace to the happiness of the community, and I advise anyone who believes in them to keep a goodly distance away.

THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

NEEDED THE KNIFE.

Speaking of table etiquette, General E. Burd Grubb told a story about a man who was justified in eating pie with a knife. Smith was standing in a hotel lobby one day, according to the general, talking to Jones, when the conversation turned to a dinner that had been given at the home of a mutual acquaintance named Brown.

"You should have had better table manners," remarked Jones, referring to one of the guests. "I thought he had better table manners. When his pie was served he actually ate it with his knife."

"I don't blame him for that," was the starting reply of Smith.

"You don't blame him?" repeated Jones in amazement.

"No," smilingly joined Smith. "I have eaten pie at Brown's myself, and it is a wonder to me that Barton didn't take an axe."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

For the benefit of the hundreds who could not gain admission Saturday night, the management have been requested to repeat "The Assault of the Ladies" tonight and Tuesday.

The headliner this week is a strong drama true to life, entitled, "For A Daughter's Sake," a comedy of exceptional merit, "Painful Plundering," one big laugh. "A Good Cur" ends with a "Painful Plundering" scene. Scenes of life in Brittany, "The Sardine Trade," an educational subject.

Mr. Percy Harnay, the popular local singer, has been engaged as vocalist, and will begin his engagement tonight in the latest New York hit, "When I Think in the Gloaming of You." A real treat to begin the week with and one which is sure to please all.

HEROIC ENGLISH NURSE

DEAD AT RIPE OLD AGE

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 17.—Miss Eleanor Williams, once a nurse in the home of John D. Rockefeller, and in that of her brother-in-law, W. C. Ruddy, died here at the age of 100 years.

Eighty years ago, when Cleveland was a malaria stricken district, she became a nurse in the children of the settlers, and to none of her patients did she ever reveal who were her parents.

A quarter of a century ago she was sent for by John D. Rockefeller to nurse one of his children who was ill. The affection for the kindly people in the old Euclid avenue home which she gained then she never lost.

Household Hints

To keep linoleum bright, use sweet milk and water to wash it. To brighten oil lamp burners, boil for fifteen minutes in buttermilk. Iced water in a pitcher will keep much longer if a paper nap is laid over the top.

Charcoal in pieces the size of a pea, or burnt cork, once a week is good for poultry.

Chin dusters will last well if a piece of salt petre is added to the water in which they stand.

A piece of mosquito wire is an excellent thing to rub a flat iron over to take off the rust.

To save grease when frying doughnuts, put half a teaspoonful of ginger into the grease when hot.

Outside leaves of lettuce, if boiled, chopped, drained and served on toast like spinach are delicious.

A discolored bean-pot may be restored to its original whiteness by letting buttermilk stand in it for a day or so.

ALASKA

A Land of Great Resources and of Amazing Distances.

Alaska on some near tomorrow is expected by an official of the United States geographical survey to have a half million increase in population. The metal and coal mining industries should each support at least 100,000, and if a third of the land classed as arable is now available for farming it will furnish 20,000 homesteads, supporting over 100,000.

The tourist who travels to Glacier Bay, the capital of Juneau, and the picturesque Sitka must not suppose he has seen Alaska.

He could skirt another 5,000 miles of coast line to Cordova, Valdez and Seward, and then writes a correspondent to the San Francisco Chronicle, if he would see Alaska his journey is only well begun.

For the gold fields of Fairbanks would be 400 miles to the north, and those of Nome would be as distant as New York is from Chicago.

It would be a still greater distance to the sea rookeries of the Pribilof Islands and the great tundras of the north, with their herds of wild reindeer and their lonely Eskimo igloos, while to reach the westernmost Alaskan island would require a journey half as long as that from New York to Seattle.

Should the tourist retrace his steps to Skagway, cross the White pass and follow the mighty Yukon for 2,000 miles to Bering sea, his knowledge of Alaska, while much enlarged, would still be incomplete.

"Let me see, your son will graduate from medical college soon, won't he?"

"Yes."

"And I presume he'll immediately start to practise his profession?"

"No, not immediately. He is going to spend the first six months trying to grow a beard so he'll look the part."

A pretty Paris novelty is a black umbrella, lined with black and white checked silk.

DISASTROUS BLAZE

ON BRUSSELS STREET

Many Families Rendered Homeless on Saturday Night—Total Loss About $4,000.

As a result of a serious blaze on Brussels street, on Saturday night three houses were badly gutted and nine families were turned out of their homes. The loss is estimated at $4,000, fairly well covered by insurance. The fire originated in the new house at 220 Brussels street. The owner had been using tar to thaw a frozen water pipe and left the tar to boil. Before the blaze was discovered it had gained considerable headway. An alarm was rung in from box 16.

The firemen worked from 8:30 o'clock on Saturday until two o'clock yesterday morning, when the all out signal was sounded.

Mr. Graham's house was badly gutted. He is insured by Wm. Thompson & Co. Andrew Miles and Hugh Ryan were the owners of the other houses, and both were insured. A. J. Mearns's grocery shop was damaged considerably by the blaze, but he is fully insured. Charles O'Keefe, John W. McKean, Gilbert P. Dykeman, Walter Cooper, Henry Talbot, James O'Brien, Mrs. Mary McKean and James Erickson lost a large portion of their furniture. Mrs. Dykeman intended renewing her insurance today.

WAKEFIELD IN GRIP OF SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC

Number of Cases Increasing and Schools and Churches are Ordered Closed.

WAKEFIELD, Mass., Jan. 16.—The continuation of the epidemic of smallpox which broke out here some two weeks ago, afflicting fifteen persons and causing one death, resulted in the Board of Health today refusing to allow the Congregational Church Society to hold its usual Sunday service. A notice was also sent out by the board that the schools, which have been closed for a week, would not reopen tomorrow, as intended, but would remain closed for an indefinite period.

There are now eight cases confined in the isolation house, while the family of Mrs. Henry Cassidy, in which three cases of smallpox were found, is being closely watched, as the five remaining members of the family are unwell and appearance of the infection is feared.

The church of the Congregational Society was burned a year ago and has not been rebuilt and the services of the society have been held in the town hall. The meeting was forbidden partly on this account, as it was feared a more general gathering would convene in the town hall and the danger of infection be multiplied.

RUSSIA NOW HAS WOMAN LAWYER.

Da. Katharina Fletscher has just been admitted to the bar in Russia and will practice her profession in St. Petersburg. She is the first woman lawyer in the czar's dominions, and she passed the final examinations with high honors. She has with much opposition when she first announced her intention of studying law. Prejudice was strong even from influential members of her sex. She persevered in her hope to fight the legal battles of women, and she seeks them especially as clients. Dr. Fletscher is an ardent suffragist and predicts she will live to see women sitting in the duma.

TRICK OF THE TRADE.

"Great Scott, man!" cried the exasperated guest in the "hotel" dining room. "That squeaky phonograph is the limit of all limits. Why, people can't remain at the table over a few minutes while it is playing."

"Ah, there is a little joke of mine," explained the suave proprietor. "That phonograph is a great saver."

"To what?"

"Why, it gets on the nerves of the diners and they have to leave the table without even waiting for dessert. If the squeaky phonograph breaks down I'm going to put on bagpipes."

LIBERAL MAJORITY OF FROM 50 TO 100 IS INDICATED

Unionists Made Large Gains on Saturday But Cannot Expect Equally Favorable Results in Scotland and Wales — Election Night in London.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—The first day's polling in what is described by both parties as the greatest electoral battle in Britain of our time, indicates that provisions are to the return of a Liberal majority to the head, parliament will be borne out. The Unionists have made some gains, but not enough, if the returns as they stand, to insure them a final victory.

There is as yet no evidence of a landslide to the cause of tariff reform, of naval increase, or of any other of the issues which the Unionists have invoked, Free Trade and the limitation of the powers of the House of Lords, judging by the returns on this, the first polling day in one election which will cover a fortnight, will secure a majority which may even be large enough to make Mr. Asquith's Government independent of the Irish vote.

This, of course, is a very remote, a certain deduction from today's results, but that the Liberals are likely to have a working majority in the new House of Commons is practically conceded by the Unionists tonight.

UNIONISTS CAPTURED 13 SEATS. The Unionists captured eighteen seats from the Liberals and they lost three seats to the Liberals—a net gain of fifteen seats on the day. At a similar rate of progress the final result would still leave the Liberals with a majority of about fifty in the Commons, exclusive of the Irish Nationalists and the Labor members. As it is generally acknowledged by the Unionists that their chance of gains outside the Commons is very remote, it is extremely unlikely that today's ratio of Unionist gains will be maintained when the polling of about 150 electors enters the field.

Predictions are made by the Liberals, in fact, that Mr. Asquith will have a majority of at least one hundred over all parties, while some go even further, estimating that the Unionists, meanwhile, are extracting what consolations they can from the fact that the party is making a general reduction of Liberal majorities.

At the close of the polls today the various parties, the uncounted being included, stood as follows:—

Unionists, 43; Liberals, 43; Laborites, 6; Nationalists, 12; Total, 104.

When Parliament was dissolved last Monday, the former ambassador to the United States, who contested the two seats as a Unionist, were defeated, but cut down that city's Liberal majority from 2,387 in 1906 to 946.

The election excitement made itself felt on the stock exchange. Almost at the opening of business Canada rose a quarter of a point. This reflected growth in Unionist hopes, which has been a notable feature of the last few days. At the beginning of the week the city, however much it may have longed for a Unionist victory, scarcely dared to hope for one, and such betting as had been recorded showed odds on the side of the Liberals. It was not until yesterday that city Unionists began the courage to back their hopes with cash.

The odds were soon cut down to two to one, and today there were bets at even money.

Throughout the week and today there was some few signs of political excitement. People seemed to be going about their business on Saturday afternoon—an afternoon of pleasure as if the fate of England was in no way in the balance. The weather was not of a kind to stimulate enthusiasm.

A muggy atmosphere, misty streets and few voters remained to attend the course of the performances. At the close of the day the audience packed the house to its fullest capacity, the first contested return was given by the Liberal candidate, the late record of the Liberal gain in North Manchester, where Johnson-Hicks defeated Winston Churchill at a recent by-election, by a majority of 428. Tremendous interest attached to this election, for it was recognized by both sides that it would be a hard fight. When figures at the Palace showed that the Liberal candidate had received the last seat by a majority greater than that Mr. Johnson-Hicks obtained over Churchill at the by-election, deep despair seemed to have fallen like a pall on the London audience.

There was some slight cheering from the upper part of the house, but the stalls and balconies sat crushed for a time, too depressed to cheer. Then a strident cry was heard, "Are we downhearted?" and the audience pulled itself together and began to sing "Rule Britannia." This courage, was shortly afterwards rewarded, for the Liberal showed a Unionist gain in a London constituency, Lambeth, previously held by the Conservatives. There began a pandemonium. The audience rose to its feet and cheered frantically. Men rushed down the aisles waving Union Jacks. Women in evening dress were as excited as the men and many were the white gloves cracked in the applause.

Amid the tumult the conductor was seen beating time to his orchestra, but not until after fully five minutes of cheering could the strains of "Rule Britannia" be heard from the band. The audience took up the song itself and the orchestral effects were drowned.

This heartened the Unionists, cheered or boomed as successive returns were announced, till they were turned out of the theatre into the slushy streets.

$10,000 THE PRICE OF A NOMINATION

Chanler Says This Was the Cost Suggested of Beating Mr. W. J. Ryan

It is Coming Out in the Suit of Mr. William F. Clark to Get $20,000 From Mr. L. S. Chanler.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Presidential booms and the mysterious manner in which they are accelerated continue to occupy the attention of a jury in Judge Blackford's court yesterday in the suit of Mr. William F. Clark to recover $20,000 from Mr. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, formerly lieutenant governor of New York, for services alleged to have been performed in behalf of Mr. Chanler's presidential boom in 1907.

The session was marked by displays of bitterness on the part of counsel for the plaintiff, who was rebuffed for what the court termed "an improper and disorderly" colloquy with a witness.

Mr. Chanler was examined by counsel about certain newspaper clippings referring to his presidential boom, but the witness testified that he knew nothing of them, nor was he aware that the clippings were required in the case.

Mr. Robert Chanler, brother of the defendant and a member of the Democratic state committee, testified that Mr. William T. Manning consulted with him in the Chanler house of Great Neck in the fall of 1907 regarding a scheme to promote the boom of the lieutenant governor for president.

"Mr. Manning said he would obtain the Democratic nomination for my brother," said the witness, "provided my brother advanced $10,000 to meet preliminary expenses. He said further that the nomination would be wrested from Mr. Bryan, as the rank and file of the Democratic party were afraid of him. He intimated that the money would be returned to him later. I had little faith in his project, especially when he said the expenses would be borne mainly by the Democratic state committee, prominent politicians and others interested in the boom."

Testimony was adduced that the plaintiff, Mr. Clark, was in Mr. Manning's employ at a certain salary a week and that bills for photographic and printing contracted during the boom, which fell through, were paid in part by the defendant. It was also testified that the plaintiff at no time was in the possession of the money and that such services as were performed by him in his behalf were in the interests of Mr. Manning, lieutenant governor. The hearing will be resumed today.

ATTEMPTED TO MURDER HIS THREE DAYS BRIDE

FAIRFIELD, Conn., Jan. 16.—Knocked on the head, thrown into a well by her husband and a companion, and left for dead, was the fate that met Annie Brooks, a bride of three days, who was married in Hartford, Conn., on Thursday. According to Mrs. Brooks, the three arrived in Bridgeport early Saturday morning and after leaving the car, they entered in procession to the woman in the station all day, returned at night and brought her to the Ferris Farm here, where they assaulted her and threw her into the well, covering her up, as they supposed, with snow. On striking the water, the woman regained consciousness and drew herself out of the water by means of an iron pipe which she clung to until this morning when she was found by William Ferris. When taken out her feet were found to be frozen and they will have to be amputated.

The men returned to Bridgeport and there checked a trunk, which belonged to the woman, which she said contained $500, to Springfield, where they are supposed to have gone.

OUR GREATEST JANUARY SALE

Has an Auspicious Opening

We Say Our Greatest January Sale and That Means St. John's Greatest.

Among the clothing sales—which, with one excuse and another, have been thrust upon your attention lately—this one stands out like a giant among dwarfs.

Saturday, the opening day of our sale, the store was thronged with eager buyers all day, resulting in the greatest volume of business ever done in any one day during the month of January—and we've held very successful sales during January in the past few years—but this one promises to surpass them all. It will be thronged today—it will be thronged tomorrow—it will be thronged every day while the sale continues because quantities are too large for one or two days' selling to exhaust. And the values! The greatest ever offered in the clothing business in St. John. Make comparisons and prove this statement to your own satisfaction. Prices in themselves mean nothing—any store can advertise worth so much and reduced to so and so—but it's what you get for what you pay that counts.

A gentleman while here Saturday asked the question: Why is it you always have such generous response to your sale announcements? We answered him: "Because we live strictly up to our motto: 'Best for the money at all times,' and when we announce a sale we never overstate the facts, so that everything is found just as represented—in other words, we deal fair with the public, and through such square dealing we have gained the confidence of the public."

Do you suppose there could be any other reason for this being the largest clothing business in the Maritime Provinces? No! of course not.

Come every day while the sale lasts. Get your share of the truly remarkable values.

Mad Rose Coffee, Latest Venture of T. H. Estabrooks, Will Help to Make St. John Famous.

A new industry which will help to make the name of St. John more widely known throughout Canada is being established here by T. H. Estabrooks in the form of a coffee factory.

In conversation with the Star this morning, Mr. Estabrooks said they would handle only one grade of coffee, retail at forty cents a pound.

From the time the green beans are returned into the roaster to the time the finished product is deposited in the customer's home the coffee is not touched by human hands.

The coffee is roasted, ground and packed in air tight tins on the same day, thus ensuring its arrival in the home of the buyer in a perfectly fresh condition.

The 'Mab' Safety Razor

The most complete Safety Razor on the market.

The 'MAB' Safety Razor is not only extremely simple and effective, but differs from most others in respect of the composition of the blades, which are made of a special brand of steel, similar to that used in the manufacture of the 'MAB' Razor, ensuring a perfect and lasting edge, rendering stropping rarely necessary. When a blade requires stropping, the Blade-holder provided should be used.

We have received shipment direct from manufacturers. Prices with two blades, $1.10. Extra blades 20c. each.

He was resting comfortably this morning. The accident happened near Queen street, about the same place where young Robertson was injured last year.
