

A VALLEY OF HUMILIATION FOR PEERS, SAYS CHANCELLOR AND BALFOUR SEES DEFEAT

Lloyd-George Declares Lords Consider Commons a House of Lunatics and Themselves the Keepers—Unionist Leader Makes Sensational Anti-German Speech.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

London, Jan. 5.—Every available prominent speaker of both parties, as well as a host of minor men, were engaged last night in addressing political meetings in various parts of the country.

Premier Asquith at a meeting at Brighton, from which women were excluded, and Chancellor Lloyd-George at two meetings in London, made a great play at the expense of the peers' oratorical campaign. The Premier thought that if the peers could only be induced to prolong this campaign another fortnight at the same rate as to volume and venom, the Liberals might be content to hold their tongues altogether.

PEERS WORKED HARD.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer expressed the belief that the peers never worked so hard in their lives. They seemed to think that the House of Commons was an assembly of lunatics, and that the peers were their keepers. The peers, he said, were walking through the valley of humiliation, in order to find work for the unemployed.

BALFOUR AT HANWELL.

Arthur J. Balfour, leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons, speaking at Hanwell, said that 1910 would remain in the history of the Empire as the year in which was fought the first round of the struggle which might last for years, perhaps generations, and become a dominant influence upon all that citizens hold most dear. Never before had the ideals of two great state parties been so widely divergent.

BALFOUR HOPELESS.

This time in Mr. Balfour's utterances on previous occasions has been commented upon as an indication that he realizes the hopelessness of a Unionist victory in the coming elections.

The Marquis of Londonderry declared that the Unionists would rather occupy the Opposition position till the clock of doom, than hold office for a few minutes dependent upon the Irish vote.

London, Jan. 5.—The result of the plebiscite taken among the electors in the Gateshead division by independent residents, with a view to taking steps to prevent a three-cornered contest, resulted as follows. Of the 19,138 post-cards sent out, 7,101 were returned, and the votes recorded as follows:

Mr. Harold Wilson, Liberal, 3,617
Mr. John Johnson, M. P., Labor, 2,425
Mr. Gratton Doyle, Unionist, 1,059

STOLE A WATCH TOLD A MEAN LIE

George Beares, of Toronto, Is Certainly a Pusillanimous Individual.

FOUND GUILTY BY P. M.

Attempt to Drag a Lady Into the Scrape to Clear Himself Failed Miserably.

George Beares, a young man who gave his age as 21, and his place of residence as St. Marys, where he says his parents reside, was arrested last night on a charge of stealing a valuable gold watch from a Horton street house, and with defrauding another woman who lives on Horton street of a week's board.

Has Two Names.
When placed under arrest, Beares told the detectives that his name was George Jackson, that he came from Hamilton, where he had been employed on the Grand Trunk, and that he had relatives living at 1033 Sherbourne street, Toronto.

In the box this morning Beares stated that the watch had been given him by the woman whose husband owned it, and that she wanted him to elope with her and go and live in Toronto.

A Fabrication.
When pressed by the court and Crown Attorney McKillop, Beares admitted that the story that he had worked on the Grand Trunk was a fabrication, and that the fact that he had relatives in Toronto, that he had lived in St. Marys most of the time.

Lady Denies.
The lady who had implicated Beares in the story against her absolutely and said that Beares had represented to her that he was a Grand Trunk employee and wanted board.

"You have told me so many untruths," the court told Beares, "that I look upon your story about the way you obtained the watch as absolutely false, and I want to tell you I regard it as a dastardly and cruel attempt on your part to injure a woman's reputation. Even supposing for a moment that the circumstances were as you admit, and the woman stole the watch from her husband, you are a thief for taking it from her. I demand you to jail for a week for sentence, and in the meantime your parents will be communicated with."

HELD AT BUFFALO

French-Canadian Charged With White Slave Practices.

Buffalo, Jan. 5.—On the allegation of the immigration inspector that the defendant had forced his 21-year-old wife to enter a house of ill-repute, Judge Nash in city court today held Elizee La Verdure, a French-Canadian, for the grand jury. The specific charge against La Verdure is violating a section of the penal law, which touches on the white slave traffic. The penal law provides for ten years' imprisonment for conviction of the crime in question. La Verdure was arrested last night after an investigation conducted by Immigration Inspector Buchanan, of Buffalo. The prisoner, who is a barber, is said to have come to this city from Toronto four months ago. Previous to that time he lived with his young wife in Montreal.

Mrs. La Verdure, according to printed reports here, formerly worked in a Toronto restaurant. The Toronto address has not been given.

The police force of Detroit is taking heroic measures to halt the epidemic of murder.

THE HARDWARE CONVENTION

At a meeting of the programme committee of the Retail Hardware Association, held last evening, arrangements were made for a banquet in connection with the convention to be held in London on Feb. 10 and 11.

It was decided to hold it in the Tecumseh House on the evening of Feb. 10. A splendid feast list is being prepared, and many prominent men from a distance will be asked to deliver addresses. A musical programme will also be carried out.

From all indications, the convention promises to be one of the greatest ever held in the city. A large number of dealers have stated that they will be present.

"We will have one of the best conventions ever held in the city," said Secretary A. M. Hunt. "All the space has been taken in the city hall, and the local manufacturers are looking after the arcade. It will be a big boost for London, I can assure you."

LOCAL MEMBERS WANT A.O.U.W. CONVENTION HERE NEXT YEAR

Move to Be Inaugurated to Secure a Big Advertisement for the Forest City in 1911—This Year's Convention Will Be Once Again Held in Toronto.

A determined move is to be made by London members of the A. O. U. W. to have the 1911 convention of the order held in this city.

Seven prominent workers have had the matter under consideration for some time, and they are firmly convinced that there is no reason under the sun why the Forest City should not get the convention.

It is pointed out that there are in London alone about 1,000 members of the order, while in the London district there are over 2,000 members.

From this it will be seen that the local members are in a position to make their influence felt, and they intend to put up a big fight for the order.

convention, which would mean very much advertising for this city.

Cognizance is taken of the fact that councils such as this year's will be very likely to assist in a liberal manner any move to bring conventions to London, and that if the A. O. U. W. members come here they will be assured of a royal reception.

The order will meet in Toronto this year in March, and has met in that city for some years.

It is altogether likely that the movement will spread to the other fraternal bodies in London, and that local members will see to it that if the city does its share big conventions will be held here periodically.

TRACK ELEVATION LOOMS UP G. T. R. BUYING PROPERTY

Real Estate Holders Are Notified That the Purchasing Agent of the Railway Will Be Here Shortly to Talk Business—Official Did Not Come to London Today.

The Grand Trunk Company is taking the question of track elevation seriously, and some definite steps towards the work are being made. Some years ago, when Mr. F. H. McGulgan had the matter of track elevation under his charge, deals were made for the purchase of certain properties near the railway for that purpose. Some of the lots were purchased, and in the case of several valuable pieces, everything was settled with the exception of the seal of the Grand Trunk Railway. The price was agreed upon, and everything appeared most satisfactory.

However, the city and the company could not agree, and negotiations were called off.

Agent Is Coming.
That was the last heard from the company by the owners of the property from that time until the other day.

Several letters have been received in the city from the company, stating that Mr. E. Donald, who is in charge of the land purchasing department for the company, would be in the city today and close the deals.

An announcement was made that Mr. FitzHugh and other prominent officials would be on hand today, and it was understood that Mr. Donald would arrive. However, they had not arrived, nor had Mr. Donald at 2 o'clock.

A Definite Move.
This is the first definite move made since negotiations were called off some years ago.

It looks as if the company had at last definitely taken hold of the proposition. We will talk business with them.

This man is interested in rather a valuable piece of property which the company want.

ST. KITTS DOWN GRIMSBY

Latter Defeated in O. H. A. Game by Twenty to One.

Grimsbey, Jan. 5.—In the intermediate O. H. A. match between St. Catharines and Grimsby, the latter place last night, the visitors put it over the home team to the tune of 20 to 1. The score is a very fair indication of the respective strength of the teams. The game was rough in places and penalties were quite numerous, as many as four players decorating the fence at one time. Farrell, of the Grimsby team, had a foot badly cut, and was forced to retire in the second half. Referee Cook, of Toronto, handled the game in a very satisfactory manner.

St. Catharines came over by special train, bringing about a hundred spectators.

Mr. Wilson Moves Up.
Mr. W. H. Wilson, formerly with D. S. Perlin & Co. of this city, was elected vice-president of the National Cigar Stands Company, of New York, at the annual meeting held in New York this week. Mr. Wilson has been secretary of the same company for some time.

Illustrated Lecture.
"School and Home Garden Work" will be the subject of an illustrated lecture in the Normal School this evening by Miss Louise Klein Miller, curator of the school gardens in Cleveland. The lecture is entirely free, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance, as Miss Miller is one of those who has done a great deal towards beautifying many of the cities.

CUTTER STRUCK BY SNOWFLOW

Two Persons Dying as Result of Accident at Beachville.

ARE BROTHER AND SISTER

Sleigh, With Family Party of Four, Hit on Level Crossing Last Night.

[Special to the Advertiser.]

Woodstock, Ont., Jan. 5.—As the result of an accident at Beachville, five miles west of here, last night, two more lives are expected to be added to the deadly toll of the level railway crossings.

Miss Marion Zuseit and Ernest Zuseit, brother and sister, are the ones so badly injured, that it is stated this morning that their chances for recovery are so slight as to be practically nil.

On Way to Church.

Three Zuseit brothers and the sister, children of a family living three miles south of Beachville, who went to that vicinity from Peterboro neighborhood a few months ago, were on their way to Beachville to attend the practice of the orchestra in connection with the Methodist Church. At the library one of the brothers got out, and the others—Ernest, Harry and Marion—continued in the double cutter. At the C. P. R. crossing the cutter was struck by a snowflow running east.

The cutter was demolished and the occupants were thrown out. Harry had a miraculous escape, not even sustaining a bruise. Ernest and Marion however, were picked up unconscious, with their skulls crushed.

The snowflow was in charge of Conductor Toll, of London, and was being driven by engine No. 147 in charge of Engineer McCausland, of London.

Grand Jury Chosen FOR WINTER ASSIZES

Chief Justice Sir W. R. Meredith Will Preside at the Court.

The grand jury for the coming session of the winter assizes which opens on Jan. 10 before Chief Justice Meredith, are as follows:

Robt. Allan, drover, Carleton Place; Campbell, farmer, Adelaide; Morwood, farmer, Elfrida; Thomas N. Dunn, Stratford; John Gibson, farmer, London Township; S. Frank Glass, London Township; T. B. Hudson, farmer, London Township; Frank Hawkey, Parryville; A. K. Hodgins, farmer, Biddulph; Thomas Knapton, London Township; Joshua Morgan, McGillivray; Frank W. Smythe, marble cutter, London; Victor M. Stanley, farmer Biddulph.

CITY COUNCIL HAS A SURPLUS

Will Begin the Year With a Balance of About $5,500.

ONE DEFICIT IS NOTED

It Is That of the Board of Education—How the Different Spending Bodies Closed the Year.

The city council will have a surplus of practically $5,500 to commence business with.

The financial statement is in the course of compilation, and will be shortly ready to show at least that sum to the good.

In spite of the somewhat heavy expenditures of 1909, each committee showed a balance on the right side.

All to the Good.
The finance committee showed a good surplus.

The board of works was fully $1,200 ahead, while No. 3 committee had a balance of $2,321.

The receipts totalled $9,900 more than was figured on.

The board of health was responsible for an overdraft of $3,500 due to the erection of a new smallpox hospital. Some of the other boards showed an overdraft.

The hospital trust broke about even, and the library board had something to spare.

An Overdraft.
The board of education will have an overdraft of approximately $3,000. Of this $2,000 was due to the installation of manual training. This was estimated on, but the finance committee asked the trustees to carry the item over until this year to bring the rate down, and this was done. The rest was for current expenditure more than was estimated.

The Colleague account, the only one affecting the council's finances, quit about even, and the board of 1910 must attend to the overdraft. No overdraft from the colleague can be carried over.

Debiture Charges.
There will be a considerable increase in the debiture charges in 1910, and the council's rate will be high. No attempt has been made to prepare the estimates as yet.

Miss Vrooman Wins.
For the second time in two years Miss Caroline Vrooman, of 373 Grey street, a daughter of Mr. D. G. Vrooman, has carried off the first prize in a map competition for the Girls' Own Paper, a Toronto juvenile publication.

Miss Vrooman's subject was Ontario, and the map is a most complete one.

Hockey Practice.
The Forest City Club hockey team held their first practice in the Jubilee rink last night, and will be ready to take on games at once. W. Loughlin, manager.

THE WRECK.

Train—No. 4, the fast C. P. R. express for Toronto. Place—One and a quarter miles west of Ayer, 52 miles from London. Time—7:55 this morning.

Damage—Tender, baggage car and five coaches derailed. Cause—Unknown as yet. Injured—Several people, but none fatally. The third railway wreck in three days in this district.

C. P. R. express No. 4 for Toronto, which leaves London at 4:45, was wrecked at 7:55 this morning at a point a mile and a quarter west of Ayer.

The entire train, with the exception of the engine, left the rails. The cause of the accident has not yet been ascertained, but an official investigation will be held at once to learn the cause.

LEFT LONDON AT 4:45.
The train pulled out of London this morning on time, drawn by engine 1105. The express was in charge of Conductor Swinerton, of Toronto, and Engineer Johnston, of Toronto, was in the cab.

It is a very fast one, and was going at the rate of 60 miles an hour when it was wrecked.

The big engine remained on the rails, but the tender, baggage car, and five coaches were all derailed.

Both London and Toronto were notified, and wrecking crews proceeded at once to the scene of the accident.

The line is badly torn up and traffic will be blocked for some hours.

A SINGULAR COINCIDENCE.
The accident occurred only a few miles from the spot where C. P. R. express No. 3 was wrecked on Sunday night.

This makes the third wreck in three days, the C. P. R. having had two and the Grand Trunk one.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

THE INJURED.

Ayer, Ont., Jan. 5.—(Later)—The only persons injured were: J. W. Barry, sleeping car attendant, London, cash in forehead, not serious.

C. P. R. FAST EXPRESS TRAIN LEFT THE RAILS AT AYR, ONT.

Several Passengers Injured—Pulled Out of London at 4:45, o'Clock This Morning and Was Ditched at 7:55—Wreck Occurred in Almost the Same Place as the Express Was Thrown From Tracks on Sunday.

THE INJURED.

Ayer, Ont., Jan. 5.—(Later)—The only persons injured were: J. W. Barry, sleeping car attendant, London, cash in forehead, not serious.

Mr. Stevens, of Detroit, arm wrenched. Maude Chambers, Toronto, bruised knee. Mrs. Thomas Barons, wife of implement agent at Bolton, bruised on ribs.

Mrs. James Cummings, pianist, Ottawa, badly shaken up. Professor Jimmey, Coaticook, Quebec, elbow injured. Frank Delan, Wheatley, right knee bruised. Miss Caroda, sprained wrist.

Three of the passenger coaches are leaning on their sides against the side of the cut in which the accident occurred.

C. P. R. officials who have thoroughly investigated the accident, are of the opinion that it was caused by the spreading of a rail. The tracks of two of the coaches were torn off. The auxiliaries cannot have the line open for traffic this evening. The afternoon and evening trains will run over the Grand Trunk as far as Woodstock and from there take the C. P. R.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Ayer, Jan. 5.—C. P. R. express No. 4 was wrecked a mile and a quarter west of this station this morning at 7:55. Engine 1105 alone remained on the tracks and the rest of the train, including the tender, the baggage coach, two day coaches and two Pullmans, left the rails. The cars were not badly damaged and none of them were thrown clear of the tracks.

One was seriously injured, although a great many of the passengers were thrown out of their berths and seats, and some crushed. How the accident occurred is not yet known, although an official investigation is being through passengers from Detroit on a train, which will be sent from Toronto to take them in.

At High Speed.
The train was running at a high rate of speed at the time of the accident, and only the splendid construction of the cars prevented them from toppling. None of the cars even tipped over. There were a great many through passengers from Detroit on a train, which will be sent from Toronto to take them in.

A broken rail was the cause, for Toronto and Montreal.

ALDERMEN ARE AFTER PLUMS CHAIRMANSHIPS IN THE AIR

Slate Has of Course Been Prepared, and It Is Altogether Like ly That in the Motion It Will Carry—How the Different Civic Bodies Look at This Time.

The question of the different chairmanships for the committees of the council is creating much discussion in the municipal circles.

Some of the gentlemen interested are anxious for chairmanships, and there is the possibility of some quite disagreeable results. It is expected that there will be an amicable arrangement arrived at.

There is no doubt that Ald. Richter will be chairman of No. 1 committee. It is also practically decided that Ald. Eckert will take charge of the board of works.

There may be some difference as to the chairmanship of No. 3, and in connection with that Ald. Fitzgerald and Ald. Tancock are mentioned.

There is a disposition in certain quarters to give no former alderman a committee chairmanship, but if this course is not adopted Ald. Fitzgerald will be awarded that committee.

The Line-Up.
The committees would line up as follows:

No. 1—Ald. Richter, chairman; Ald. Underwood, Ald. Stevenson, Ald. Rose.

No. 2—Ald. Eckert, chairman; Ald. Saunders, Ald. Asplund, Ald. Poocek.

No. 3—Ald. Fitzgerald or Ald. Tancock, chairman; Ald. Morgan, Ald. Jeffries.

There will be two representatives appointed to the board of health. Dr. Niven can have the appointment if he so desires. Mr. Harry Clarke may also be reappointed.

Mr. Jos. L. Goodburne, the Labor representative on the public library board, will be reappointed by the council also.

As for the London and Port Stanley board, Mayor Beattie, Ald. Richter, Ald. Tancock, Ald. Fitzgerald, Ald. Saunders, Ald. Stevenson and Ald. Poocek will probably be named.

Some of the aldermen are anxious to get on the Western Fair board, and it is probable that the selection will be Ald. Saunders, Ald. Morgan, Ald. Jeffries, Ald. Asplund, Ald. Rose and Ald. Underwood.

Board of Education.
The chairmanship of the board of education has been settled. Mr. W. W. Langrange will be selected for this position.

The double-session kindergarten will ask that either Mr. Weekes or Mr. C. M. R. Graham be given a committee to perfect the work of organizing the kindergartens, and it is quite possible that Mr. Weekes will be chosen.

Mr. W. T. Strong may be selected for the office, however. The committee would be composed of Chairman Weekes or Strong, C. M. R. Graham and J. M. Gunn.

Dr. A. J. Wyckoff will be given the chairmanship of No. 2 committee and Dr. Balfour will be selected as head of the audit committee.

Rev. Dr. Sage will be selected as the board's representative on the library board. Mr. Thomas Gillan will likely be chosen head of this board.

A meeting of the striking committee of the council will be held this evening, when the committee will be spoken.

WORK OF QUALIFYING STILL GOING ON

All Papers Are in Save Those of Ald. Rose and Ald. Richter.

All the gentlemen elected to office have qualified with the exception of Ald. Rose and Ald. Richter. The latter will do so today or tomorrow, and the whole slate will be completed.

On Monday at 11 o'clock the new council will be organized, and the work of the year commenced.

No objection has been made officially to the qualifications of any member of the council, and it is not thought likely that anything will be done now.

Mayor Beattie, Ald. Richter, Ald. Tancock, Ald. Fitzgerald, Ald. Saunders, Ald. Stevenson and Ald. Poocek will probably be named.

CROWN, PEOPLE AND CONSTITUTION

Sir Edward Grey Sharply Rebukes the Duke of Northumberland.

THE HEREDITARY ABUSES

A Peers' Attack on the Foreign Secretary Cleverly Countered.

London, Jan. 4.—The Foreign Secretary addressed a meeting in the North Country, and pointedly criticised the Duke of Northumberland for introducing the King's personality into the discussion of the position of the crown in the constitution. The fight with the Lords, he declared, is to be a real one. They were on the eve, he said, of a very great and important political contest, and their opponents were having to spare no efforts to win. The issue was more than ever one between the rights of the people and the party which historically in all controversies had taken the side of privileged interests rather than the side of the community as a whole. The other night at a supper or dinner of the Union Club at Berkeley, Sir Edward proceeded, "a great many speeches were made, and the subject of the speeches, as far as I can gather, was mainly myself. With regard to what was said of me personally I have one complaint, and that is what was said by the Duke of Northumberland. (Cheers.) The Duke of Northumberland said something about my position, and supposed he intended to be offensive, but which as a matter of fact was offensive. He accused me in effect of having been wanting in respect to the crown, of not having any proper sense of decency in some of the remarks I have made about the crown, and of having said something which none of my forefathers would have said."

Crown and Constitution. "Whatever I said about the crown is nothing new. It was about the constitutional position and practice of the crown in our constitution, which has been recognized and acknowledged for centuries. What I said was not only something which my forefathers would not have repudiated, but something which everyone of my forefathers who was a Whig, and took a prominent part in the life of his day, would have said when they were in question. If and if any of my forefathers had been in this connection at all they would have been indignant not of what I said, but at the idea that what I said should be called in question. (Cheers.) In the first place, whenever I have spoken of the crown I have spoken of the sovereign or the crown impersonally. The crown is a recognized and perfectly well understood position at the head of our constitution, of which it is an integral part, and as such it is often the subject of reference when questions of government are being discussed. When any reference is made to the constitutional position of the crown it is made without reference to the person of the sovereign. The King himself, and I made my reference impersonally in the way in which it is generally done."

But the Duke of Northumberland, when he deals with the matter, thought it fitting to bring the person of the King into the question to constitute himself the champion of the King's personality, and I can only say that handling the question in that way seems to me most unusual and undesirable and much more wanting in respect and decency than anything that I have heard of. (Cheers.) I would suggest to the Duke of Northumberland that he and his party have quite enough to do in challenging the rights of the House of Commons without raising any question about what has been the constitutional practice which has been acted on by the crown and recognized by the people for at least 500 years. (Cheers.)

Hereditary Distinctions. Continuing, Sir Edward Grey alluded to a recent speech of Lord Curzon when discussing the hereditary principle. Lord Curzon said the hereditary principle worked well in some cases, and he instanced the crown and monarchy. That was perfectly true, but the hereditary principle in our constitutional monarchy had gained its strength from generation to generation, and was held in loyalty, respect, and affection of the people. (Cheers.) But how had it done so? It had done so because the crown, though it had the right to choose its advisers and change its advisers, always chose those advisers who possessed the confidence of the House of Commons, and the advisers of those ministers, and the ministers took full responsibility for the public acts of the sovereign. (Cheers.) And so the hereditary principle, so far as the monarchy was concerned, held their respect and affection, but that was no reason why the hereditary principle in the House of Lords should have a hold upon the affections of the people. (Cheers.) That House did not act upon the advice of ministers. On the contrary, it claimed nowadays to act in opposition to the ministers who had the confidence of the House of Commons. The power of overruling the House of Commons was not a thing which should be entrusted to any body of men which was not founded upon popular election or upon the choice of the people.

Mr. Bennett's Condition. Mr. C. W. Bennett, formerly of this city, is only able now to write notes to personal friends in this city. He is recovering now from a second relapse, sustained a week or so ago, and expects to leave for the south shortly. If at all possible, he says, he would be pleased to come to London. Mr. Bennett has been ill for about three months.

Epilepsy, Spasms, St. Vitus' Dance

"I suffered for many years from what some people call epilepsy. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine cured me, and you can imagine how thankful I am."

M. I. COFFMAN,

Coldwater, Mich.

"My daughter was cured with Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, after having been afflicted with fits for five years."

PETER McAULEY,

Springfield, Mass.

"For a year my little boy had spasms every time he got a little cold. Since taking Dr. Miles' Nervine he has never had one of these spasms."

MRS. MYRTLE DAGUE,

Rochester, Ind.

"My daughter couldn't talk or walk from St. Vitus' dance. Seven bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine entirely cured her."

MRS. NANNIE LAND,

Ethel, Ind.

"Until my son was 30 years old he had fits right along. We gave him seven bottles of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. He has not had a fit since he began on the fifth bottle."

MRS. R. DUNTLEY,

Wautoma, Wis.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists. Give it a thorough trial.

MANY BYLAWS WERE CARRIED AT THE POLLS

Several Places Favor Commission to Manage Public Utilities.

Civic improvements and aid to institutions of various kinds were voted on Monday throughout the province. Amherstburg voted for a new $20,000 school, and for a franchise for natural gas.

Not Enough Aldermen. Belleville went back to the ward system and was to select three men from each of the seven wards for council, but only eighteen men were elected, so that the authorities are in a quandary. The city also voted to buy a new fire engine, also to extend William and Brock streets.

Barrie refused to support a $20,000 loan to the Tudhope Cattle Company.

Carleton carried its gas bylaw.

Berlin voted for a commission to manage the street railway.

Brampton voted favoring the management of waterworks by commission.

Campbellford carried a bylaw to appoint a waterworks and electric light commission.

Carleton Place favored a fixed assessment for the C. P. R. for ten years.

Collingwood carried the Morrill Shipyard bylaw.

Chatham rejected the fruit-growers' bylaw, and defeated that for natural gas, and for half-yearly payment of taxes.

Dorham favored a $15,000 loan to the McGowan Milling Company.

Dundas carried the library bylaw; so did Fergus.

Galt declined to extend its market.

Georgetown declined to exempt the new elevator from taxation.

Fewer Aldermen. Hamilton voted to reduce the number of aldermen from three to two in each ward, fourteen in all. A $200,000 good roads bylaw received a majority of 1,882, one for $50,000 for police offices and stations and one for a new registry office each carried.

Kingston confirmed an agreement with the Trenton Electric and Water Power Company; the appointment of a commission to take over the Corby Public Library was also favored.

London voted favorably to new ward schools.

Mount Forest passed a bylaw to aid a local factory.

Napanee carried its water commission bylaw.

Ottawa favored the construction of an incinerator, the purchase of the Metropolitan light and power plant. The public utility bylaw also carried.

Port Dalhousie carried a bylaw granting a fixed assessment for the Maple Leaf Rubber Company.

Back to Ward System. Peterboro returns to the ward system of electing aldermen; a 30-year agreement with the Peterboro Light and Power Company was confirmed. The bylaw for a $10,000 isolation hospital was defeated.

Prescott voted almost unanimously for the extension of sewers and to bonus a prospective industry.

Port Dover unanimously decided to grant a free site and $10,000 to an implement company to locate there.

500 Collegiate Institute, and augmentation of water power.

St. Thomas defeated a bylaw to improve the city street railway by a large majority.

Sault Ste. Marie carried both the sewer and sidewalk bylaws.

St. Catharines defeated a proposed $15,000 grant to a new hospital.

Stratford killed three bylaws: To raise $10,000 for park purposes; to raise $5,000 for an athletic park; and for $108,000 to buy out the electric plant.

Trenton voted to a food factory, and refused to grant a fixed assessment to the covered rink.

Thornbury carried a bylaw to enlarge its park.

Thorah Township voted strong for a new township hall at Beaverton.

Thamesville voted $10,000 for waterworks.

Treswater carried the public library bylaw.

Windsor carried the natural gas and ward bylaws and defeated that for the park commission.

Welland defeated the saving bylaw. Those to pay for the burning of the Methodist Church and to appoint a parks commission carried.

Waterloo favored the erection of a new market building and the purchase of a gravel pit.

Wales defeated a bylaw for a two-year term for council.

Power bylaws were voted on in several municipalities Monday.

Brampton heartily endorsed hydro-electric power, carrying a bylaw to erect a $40,000 distribution plant by 256 to 149 while the contract received 245 majority.

Bridgeburg voted the Canadian Niagara Power Company permission to Yesterday we commenced what we consider the greatest sale of Swiss Embroideries in point of value, or we might well say, for bunches of bargains ever offered at this store. We refer to the 3,200 yard lot advertised in Monday's paper, bought in St. Gall at about half price—EMBROIDERIES, FLOUNCINGS, ALL-OVERS, CORSET COVER EMBROIDERIES and BLOUSE FRONTS. We will give you the prices again today.

40c, 75c and $1 All-Over Embroideries, yard, 19c, 39c, 59c

40c and 65c Swiss Flouncings for, yard.....19c, 29c

65c and $1.00 Blouse Fronts for, yard.....35c, 50c

65c and $1.00 Corset Cover Embroideries for, yard, 39c, 59c

75c and $2.00 Flouncings for, yard.....50c, 75c, $1.00

All new goods fresh from St. Gall, and cannot be duplicated. Get your share of the above while they last. Main Floor, East Aisle.

Three Special Lines in Ladies' Suitings

While the special rates are on in Ladies' tailoring, skirts and waist making, we direct your attention to our splendid range of colorings and the special values we are now showing at, a yard.....75c, $1.00, and $1.50

48-Inch All-Wool Vicuna, 75c Yard

This material, made from strong Botany yarn, is a clean, wear and dust-resisting suiting, one of the most serviceable cloths for coat suits at this price, and we have at the present time a full range of splendid colors—mid, light and dark navy, mid brown, olive, myrtle, cardinal, garnet, grey and walnut; full 48-inch; guaranteed to wear. Yard 75c

52-Inch All-Wool Cheviot $1

This is one of the most serviceable goods that is produced in the staple line of suitings, medium twill and medium rough finish, and when you say a staple suiting that means always fashionable. Splendid range of colors in this line—light, mid and dark navy, taupe, walnut, myrtle and brown; full 52 inch. At per yard.....$1.00

52-Inch French Broadcloth $1.50

Here is the cloth for your fine tailored suit, and an immense range of handsome colors in this high-grade French suiting. Its superior, or even its equal, we have yet to see at the price in Canada, no need to say America, for it is a well-known fact that a French cloth which can be imported and sold for $1.50 in Canada would retail for at least $3.00 or $3.50 across the line, we are so favored by the tariff. Nothing more dressy than

Farthest South

It's hard to say who did find the North Pole, but nearest the South Pole belongs to Great Britain. Lieut. Shackleton, on his return, cabled from New Zealand—"Found OXO excellent in sledge journeys and throughout winter."

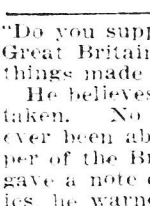

OXO is liquid beef—the best beef—with its rich extractives which aid digestion and its nourishing properties which give you strength and stamina. OXO has a wonderful effect on the vital energies—the very springs of life. OXO repairs the bodily waste and stimulates the mental faculties. It is a splendid daily beverage.

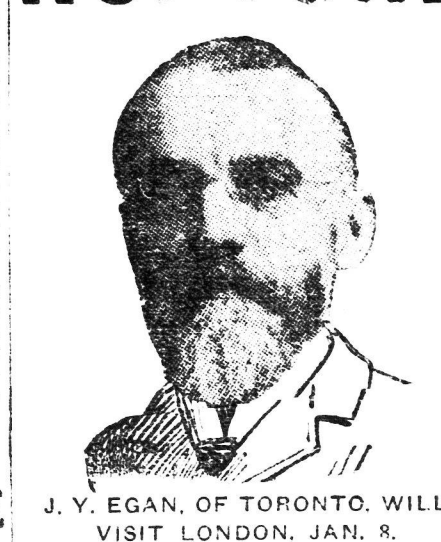

Canadian Offices: 21-27 Lombard St., Toronto.

41 Common St., Montreal. 18

OXO is sold by all Grocers, Druggists, and General Stores.

J. Y. EGAN, OF TORONTO, WILL VISIT LONDON, JAN. 8.

DETROIT STARTS WAR ON WAVE OF CRIME

Scores of Plain Clothes Men to Patrol the Streets Each Night.

Detroit, Jan. 5.—Spurred to extraordinary efforts by the involved Henry Ford, the city of Detroit has decided to start a war on crime. Scores of plain clothes men will be placed in the streets of Detroit in an attempt to clear up the mysteries and to prevent further murders and attacks on women and children.

The plain clothes men will be recruited from every nook and corner of the police department. Even clerks who are not on duty will be asked to join the plain clothes force.

In addition to the detective force, plain clothes men will be placed in the streets of Detroit in an attempt to clear up the mysteries and to prevent further murders and attacks on women and children.

THE BUFFALO EXPLOSION

Buffalo, N. Y., January 5.—No bodies were found today in the ice-embedded ruins of the portion of the Buffalo Cereal Company's plant destroyed by an explosion and fire last night, and it is not known how many, if any, workmen lost their lives.

"Marvellous Recovery"

MONTREAL MAN SO ILL WITH DYSPEPSIA THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE.

CURED BY DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS

No more convincing evidence was ever put on paper than the following letter from one of Montreal's well-known citizens, Mr. D. R. Larose, of 333 Joliette street.

"Permit me to write you a few words concerning Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for five years. I suffered so much that I could hardly attend to my work."

Free Consultation Coupon.

This coupon upon presentation to Y. Egan, 151 Dundas street, Toronto, who will visit London, Jan. 8, will entitle the holder to free consultation, examination and full information of the doctor's plan.

The Short Route to Gowanda.

Commencing Jan. 8, through service was inaugurated on the Gowanda country, via the Canadian Pacific Railway to Sudbury, then via Canadian Northern Railway and Lake Huron to Sault Ste. Marie.

Permit me to write you a few words concerning Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for five years. I suffered so much that I could hardly attend to my work."

"Go and consult with statements and diplomats of the lesser powers and you will find among them absolute unanimity of opinion that a struggle sooner or later between this country and Germany is inevitable. I do not agree with them, but that is their opinion. They have come to the conclusion, I believe utterly wrong, that we are not able to our responsibilities, that nothing can stir us to a recognition of our position, and that therefore we are predestined to succumb in a great contest to the country that does face facts, that is alive to its responsibility, and that talks little but does much."

This deprecating view of Great Britain's virility, Mr. Balfour added, had gone so far that he had known Germans connected with the Government, but men of position and character, who were engaged in great affairs, who had the audacity to say:

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 5.

WHERE CANADIANS DID GOOD SERVICE.

In a pen portrait of Lord Milner, one of a series running in the Toronto Globe, Mr. J. A. Macdonald says: "He was with us at the press conference on the day given up to 'Literature and Journalism.' Morley was in the chair, and gave a noble address on the subject. Then came Milner. Very frankly he discounted the topic and excused himself from discussing it. In order, as he said, that the conference might return to the problems of imperialism which we had already been discussing for three days. It was not tactful, but it was not courteous to Lord Morley. It was not respectful to the programme committee. The conference paid no attention to the direct suggestion, but turned to Birrell and Courtney and T. P. O'Connor, who did the parts assigned them, and swept for the moment all war scares and battleships out of our minds. Milner evidently judged that our applause for Roberts and Roberts meant that we cared for nothing else."

The episode recalls some of the un-written history of the Imperial Press Conference. Churchill spoke after Morley and before Milner, and was cordially greeted by the overseas delegates. The majority of the English in silence, apparently were in a state of enthusiasm over Milner. The ovation was so prolonged that the Canadians thought it inadvisable, and tried to restore the balance by cheering lustily for Mr. Birrell, the next speaker. Most of the English members of the Conference were at the time under the influence of the German war scare, and Lord Milner represented their opinions on this and other subjects. Fortunately the overseas visitors were not infected by the panic, for there was a danger that the Conference would bring discredit upon itself by indecisive views and policies offensive to a large body of the people of Great Britain and certainly to nearly all Canadians. The resolution declaring for compulsory military training throughout the Empire, supported by Lord Roberts, would have been adopted but for the attitude of the Canadian delegation. Mr. Macdonald himself gave the resolution its coup de grace in a brilliant speech.

Canada and the Empire were well served by the Canadian journalists upon this and other occasions. They declined to be used by the alarmists, or to identify the imperial problem or the objects of the Conference exclusively with military and naval questions. They were interested chiefly in the social conditions of the mother country, and have turned their observations to good account.

THE GERMAN WAR SCARE AGAIN.

Mr. Balfour's speech at Hanley yesterday shows the deplorable extremes to which the opponents of the Government are going in the attempt to divert attention from the real issue, the usurpation of the House of Lords. His references to Germany were deliberately provocative. If a responsible German statesman had spoken as offensively of Great Britain, the British people would have rightly blazed with indignation.

Mr. Balfour said he had known Germans who had the audacity to say, "Do you suppose we should even allow Great Britain to adopt a tariff?" This is an artful and discreditable suggestion, intended to represent the Unionist tariff policy as a form of patriotism, and rally to its support the jingoism and hatred of Germany, which it has been the business of a large section of the Unionist press to promote. One of the features of the present campaign has been the revival of the German panic which swept over the country early last year. Strange to say its chief apostle is Robert Balfour, denounced by John Burns as a "war-mongering Socialist." He has written a series of letters in Lord Northcliffe's sensational paper, The London Daily Mail, arguing that Germany meditates an early attack upon Great Britain, and urging compulsory military training. The revolutionary Socialist is hailed as an inspired evangel by the aristocratic class, and they are flooding the country with his effusions. It is pitiful to see a man of Mr. Balfour's calibre sitting at the feet of such a man, and beating the war-drum. The Government has no difficulty in producing figures to show that Great Britain's naval supremacy is absolutely assured by the present programme of construction, but the agitators are not concerned about facts. They know the main chance of Unionist success is in "obscuring the vital questions raised by the budget and by the Government's policy of social reform."

THE THREE-FIFTHS CLAUSE.

The Bradford Examiner sees no justice in the three-fifths clause as it worked out in Bradford. There was a majority of 511 in favor of the bylaw. Had the majority been 865 the license would have been wiped out. Says the Examiner:

"It is difficult to explain to the average reader why 865 votes should be so potential and 511 votes so powerless, and we shall not essay the task. It only needs such a concrete case as Monday's result in this city to show the absolute unfairness of the handicap which the Whitney Government, on its accession to power, placed upon the local optionists."

Fifty-four municipalities had the same experience as Bradford. The only value from a temperance standpoint claimed for the three-fifths clause is the difficulty of repealing the bylaw where it has been carried under that provision. It is just as unfair in one case as in the other. A license should not be withheld in opposition to the demand of a majority of the electors any more than it should be maintained at the behest of a minority. The regulation works to the detriment of the no-license cause nine times out of ten, as it is seldom that a majority vote is polled for repeal when the law has been well enforced. The temperance people will no doubt bring increasing pressure upon the Government to abolish the three-fifths clause, or modify it by adopting the plan in New Zealand, under which a majority vote effects a reduction of the number vote cancels a portion of the license.

In becoming an understudy of Robert Balfour, Mr. Balfour is indeed stooping to conquer.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is spending three days this week in Toronto. Isn't he wasting his fragrance on the desert air?

The latest returns show that the three-fifths clause saved 237 licenses. It is certainly doing what it was intended to do.

The C. P. R. has now a larger mileage than any other railway system on the continent. It is "the young giant of the north" in the railway world.

Mr. Chamberlain and the Duke of Sutherland have petitioned a hundred manufacturers in Staffordshire to contribute five thousand dollars each to the tariff reform campaign funds. The old country has its "Red Parlor" all ready.

A development of the British campaign is an advertisement of a land policy by some Unionist leaders. They profess to favor the conversion of tenants in England and Scotland into owners of the land they till, as in Ireland. It is a reproach to the party that not a word was heard of such a scheme until the eve of the election, after the Government had compelled its opponents to face the land problem.

Congressman Wilson, of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill providing that all persons over 45 years of age who have lived in the United States for 25 years, shall be entitled to a yearly pension of $120, provided they have less than $1,500 value in property or an income of less than $240 a year. This is not an old age pension, unless our strenuous neighbors are to be considered old at 45. Mr. Wilson appears to want to figure in the role of a national Santa Claus.

THE LORDS LOSE ANYWAY.

Whatever else comes out of the British political crisis, the House of Lords will never be quite the same again.

THE BISHOP'S CHANCE.

The Bishop of Selkirk having eaten his necessities, we would like to get on to the next man and some beefsteaks we have met.

ENGLISH VS. FRENCH JUSTICE.

Our French justice is psychological. English justice is practical. Ours is dangerous for the innocent. The English is dangerous to the guilty. That is why we should imitate it.

SPIRITUALISTIC COMMENT.

The spirit of Gladstone is said to be helping British Liberals in the present campaign. However, with the help of most of the brewers and distillers, the Conservatives are not lacking in support from spirits also.

WINSTON CHURCHILL.

The power of that speech was in its lucidity, its deliberateness of argument, its eager impetuosity of utterance, its flexibility of the language and the virility of the thought. He went straight to the root-questions as to the rights of property. Here is one statement as I recall it: "Respect for the rights of private property cannot be secured, and ought not to be expected, unless property is associated in the minds of the great mass of the people with ideas of justice and reason." You will think long on that sentence before you exhaust its depth of meaning and range of application. It raises the question put to the taxpayer, not merely, "What have you got?" but "How did you get it?" I recall another definition of principles: "Socialism attacks capital; Liberalism attacks monopoly."

WHERE ALONE IS REST.

The late Henry Ward Beecher once got a letter from a youth, asking him to find him an easy berth. Beecher replied as follows: "If you wish an easy berth, don't be an editor. Do not try the law. Do not think of the ministry. Avoid school-keeping. Let alone all ships, stores, shops, and all other things. Don't practice medicine. Be not a farmer nor mechanic; neither be a soldier nor sailor. Don't work. Don't study. Don't think. None of these are easy. Oh, my friend! you have come into a hard world. I know of but one easy place in it, and that is the grave."

CATHOLICS AND HISTORICITY.

The Ecclesiastical Commission in a recent decision insists in a special manner on the DRIVING LAND INTO USE.

A land tax would make the profitable use of British estates imperative. The game preserves would have to be utilized in supporting a productive population.

MUST MAKE A BEGINNING.

There can be little doubt that the average Admiralty official would regard it as presumptuous for a colonial parliament to undertake the management of a fleet. But a similar feeling formerly prevailed about the management of a postoffice. We are not so foolish as to believe that we have not a great deal to learn about managing a fleet, but it has to be learned some time, and a beginning may as well be made now as later.

THEY KNOW WHAT'S COMING.

When a man begins his after-dinner speech by saying, "I heard a good story the other day," a hopeless look over-spreads the faces of those who are listening.

L'ENVOI OF THE HOOKED GOWN.

When the last hooked gown's in the rag-bag, and the hooks are rusty and bent, When the buttons' gone all are buttoned, and the dressmakers' cease to invent, Dark schemes to annoy poor husbands, weary and worn and old—When our thumbs have ceased from their aching and our heated remarks grow cold,

We shall rest—and faith, we shall need it—At peace in a golden chair.

CONSERVATIVE COUNSEL.

"I want a little advice from you about going into politics." "There's only one piece of advice I can give you," answered Senator Sorghum, "and that is never to give advice."

IRISH WIT.

An Irish school inspector was examining a class in geography, and propounded a question regarding longitude, pointing at a correct answer from the lad undergoing the ordeal. "And now," he asked, "what is latitude?" After a brief silence a bright youngster, with a merry twinkle in his eye, said, "I have a face."

FREEDOM.

Put out my eyes; but when you've done See if you can put out the sun. I thought me in jail and turn the key, Freedom shall win, nor falls with me.

A PRUDENT MAID.

"Oh, mum! Please don't be after hawking Mister Latham's keyhole stopped up. Him being so deaf, it's the only way I'm savvy to tell him when he's undressed before I go into his room."

KILTS FOR BACHELORS.

Before the Japanese occupation, the Koreans had the bachelors taxed, the married men were exempted from the tax. This proved to be more effective than a law.

MORE APPROPRIATE.

"Dear," said Mr. Henpeck, timidly, "I wish you wouldn't call me 'Leo' any more." "Why not?" demanded his wife, explosively. "Leo is your given name." "I know, my dear, but it makes my friends laugh when you call me that. I was thinking you might call me 'John,' just for a pet name."

AT THE END OF THE QUEST.

It was a dark night. A man was riding a bicycle with no lamp. He came to a crossroads and did not know which way to turn. He felt in his pocket for a match. He found a match. He struck the top of the pole he hit the match carefully, and in the ensuing glimmer read: "Wet paint."

C. P. R. IS LONGEST

Now Leads All Roads of Continent in Mileage.

Montreal, Jan. 5.—It was stated today at the Canadian Pacific headquarters that with the 1,700 miles added to the system during the past year, the railway had taken the premier place for mileage amongst the railroads of this continent. The C. P. R. now has 10,048 miles of road in Canada, and nearly 5,000 owned or controlled in the United States, making a total of 15,000 miles. This is nearly 2,000 miles more than its largest competitor in the United States, the New York Central, which between owned and controlled lines has 12,524 miles. With its 10,000 miles of steamship lines on the Pacific and Atlantic oceans, the C. P. R. has 25,000 miles of transportation system, enough to girdle the globe twice, far the biggest of any transportation company in the world.

JACKSON ELECTROCUTED

Negro Who Cut His Wife's Throat Pays the Penalty.

Danemora, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Frank Jackson, a negro, was electrocuted at Clinton Prison this morning for the murder of his wife at Sandy Hill, N. Y., in August, 1908. Jackson spent the greater part of the night singing hymns. He entered the death chamber with a firm step, accompanied by the chaplain, Rev. Father Belanger. The current was turned on at 4 o'clock, and three shocks were given.

Jackson was convicted of cutting his wife's throat, after accusing her of infidelity.

On the official poster board of the On Leong Tong headquarters there is a long pink slip with more strange characters pointed out on it. That was hard to read, for the On Leongs have some words in their language that others have not, and on that poster they had used a few of them. But the poster said something about the members of their long—the head members having seen the posters on Pell and Doyer streets, and that they were agreeable to the move made by the other side.

It was explained that they, the On Leongs, were trying to bring all the other Chinese in the quarter to their feet, as they wanted to be recognized as the leaders of the quarter, and to have a share in all the shooting as well as the gambling done there. They had control of the sale of most of the opium—and then again it must be remembered that most of the white women live on Mott street. On a small long placard tucked away in the hallway of one of the houses was a list of a few of the places where an On Leong might go and spend an hour or so in a gambling game, and also where he could purchase a little opium. There appears to be little doubt that there will be a big fight soon.

HYDRO-POWER EXTENSION.

Toronto, Jan. 4.—Hon. Adam Beck, chairman of the hydro-electric power commission, was at the Parliament Buildings today in conference with Sir James Whitney.

In an interview, the Minister of Power expressed gratification over the results of the municipal voting on the power policy, notably that at Port Arthur, where a counter proposition was submitted by Mr. James Connors, M.P. The decision of Parks, Dundas, Brantford and other points to enter into contracts with the commission was also sincerely satisfactory to the minister.

The entrance of Brantford into the power effort would mean, Mr. Beck explained, the probable erection of a sub-transformer station at Port Credit, with a large market for its power product. This station would assume its share of the capital expense and reduce the rates generally. This would afford advantageously to customers the price of power in every centre of the belt.

A SECRET OF THE PAST

Revived for Use of Modern Man.

For twenty centuries the secret of the wonderful balms with which the Greeks and Romans healed their wounds lay undiscovered. This Zam-Buk is a modern counterpart of these balms, and owes its great success to the same root cause—it is purely vegetable.

Since its discovery Zam-Buk has been welcomed in mansion and cottage, and has won the approval of the most scientific and the most practical of men.

The reasons for this triumph of science are simple and few. Taking a lesson from the ancients, the proprietors of Zam-Buk first of all wisely decided that the ideal balm must be purely heral and contain not the slightest trace of rancid animal fats or poisonous minerals. This Zam-Buk is made solely from rich and pure essences obtained from certain rare medicinal herbs. These juices and extracts are prepared and refined by ingenious scientific processes and then so skillfully blended that a unique, effective, and yet perfectly natural skin healer is secured.

Zam-Buk has an affinity for the human skin such as no ordinary ointment or liniment can possibly possess. Besides soothing pain, and allaying irritation, it possesses high antiseptic qualities, and solves the problem of always having handy at home or at one's work an ever-ready and reliable first-aid for cuts, burns, sores, bruises, lacerations, scratches, etc. Zam-Buk is without equal for eczema, ulcers, piles,

A DAY IN THE SPORTING WORLD

SIDE LIGHTS ON MANY SPORTSLONDON INTERMEDIATES WIN
FROM FAST SIMCOE SEVEN

Locals Show the Way in Simcoe Last Night Winning By 12 to 8
—Bernhardt and Casselman Star—The Forward
Line Shows Some Class.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Simcoe, Jan. 4.—In the first O. H. A. game of the season the London Intermediates defeated Simcoe here tonight in a fast game by a score of 12 to 8. The half time score was 6 to 4, in favor of London. The game was fast throughout. Both forward lines are fast and tricky shots. The visitors started scoring first, and ran in two goals. Simcoe came back with a rush, and at one time had the score 4 to 3 in their favor. However, the Londoners were not to be denied and they came very fast. There was plenty of scoring.

The London wing line did well. They are shifty, skate fast and shoot deadly. Mullin played the game of his life, but twisted his skate early in the game which made him less effective than usual. Orr, Carothers and Producers played well. Bernhardt, at cover, was brilliant. He broke through after rush, and in the scoring line was something, notching four points himself. Ken Casselman, the big point, showed better form than last year, and made many effective rushes. His work stood out prominently.

Critt, the Simcoe point, was also a star. He played a magnificent game all the way, and attended his team at all times. The forward line is fast, and checks back well.

The Londoners brought down a special train with 200 rooters. They made themselves heard on sundry occasions. It was the verdict of the fans that London's team is much faster than last year's septette, and that Simcoe has a much improved team. They will make them all bustle before the season ends.

The teams lined up as follows:

London.....Goal.....Casselman
Bernhardt.....Point.....Critt
Bernhardt.....Left.....Andrews
Producers.....Right.....Pitt
Orr.....Center.....Chase
Mullin.....Referee.....Brown, of Toronto.

Dreyfuss Talks of Shifting Star Short-stop to Initial Corner.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Pittsburgh, Jan. 4.—President Barney Dreyfuss, of the Pirates, is seriously contemplating the permanent shifting of Hans Wagner, his champion batsman and star short-stop, to the initial corner of the diamond. The Pittsburgh management, it is said, has its eye on a good short-stop and is willing to exchange Willis Leever, Phillippe, Leifield and an outfielder for the job. If the deal does not go through, and Flynn, who was drafted for the job, fails to come up to expectations, Altabeche may be the initial guardian.

LOBOITTE PICKS WORLD'S STRONGEST BALL TEAM

Gibson, Wagner, Clarke, Cobb, Mat-thewson, Chance, Collins, Stein-feld and Speaker.

Lobo, Jan. 5, 1910.
Sporting Editor, London: From the time the baseball season of the American and National Leagues open in the spring till the completion of the winter series, I have been throughout the United States, and as Canada pick on what they think the best nine in the two leagues. The following aggregation is what I think one of the strongest teams in the world today:

Catcher—Gibson, Pittsburgh.
Pitcher—Mathewson, New York.
First Base—Clarke, Chicago.
Second Base—Collins, Philadelphia.
Third Base—Steinfeld, Chicago.
Shortstop—Wagner, Pittsburgh.
Left Field—Clarke, Pittsburgh.
Center Field—Dreyfuss, Boston.
Right Field—Cobb, Detroit.

ARNST WILL RACE
BARRY ON ZAMBESI

Champion Sculler Has Accepted Challenge to Meet in August.

London, Jan. 4.—Richard Arnst, the world's sculling champion, has cabled to the Sportsman as follows:
Sportsman, London—Accept. Arnst. This means that the champion has accepted the offer of the South African sportsman to race him on the Zambesi river for the world's championship. A prize of £100, of which the winner receives £70, has been subscribed while Arnst will also receive £20 as expenses for travelling from New Zealand to South Africa. Articles of agreement and conditions, being prepared, and will be sent out to New Zealand for Arnst's approval. These suggest that the race shall take place over a 2 1/2 mile course, situated two miles above Victoria Falls, between Aug. 18 and 25.

WHAT IS THE RECORD?

Sporting Editor and Bowlers:

A NATIONAL FAN.

THERE'S TOO MUCH
"WIN AT ANY COST"

"That Is What Is Hurting Football," Says Brown University Head.

New York, Jan. 4.—"Few, if any, of our American colleges are going to abolish football," is the statement of President W. H. P. Faunce, of Brown University. "But the game must be radically modified. The spirit of winning at any cost is too prevalent these days. It is evident in all phases of our life."
"I sincerely hope that the men interested in the future of the sport will keep this in mind. Personally, I like the game."

TOM CHIVINGTON.

Tom Chivington, business head of the Louisville club, was elected to succeed President Joe O'Brien, of the American Association, but he will be a mere figurehead, it is said.

The American Association adopted a constitutional amendment, which gives the chairman of the board of directors almost a free hand, and as George Tebeau, the man who elected Chivington president, is chairman, it is easy to read between the lines, and see who the real power in the league will be.

CITY HOCKEY LEAGUE
OPENS SERIES TONIGHT

Four Teams in Great Shape—Manager Scott Satisfied With His Intermediates.

The first game in the City Hockey League will take place this evening in the Jubilee rink. There are four good teams in the race, and the games will commence at 8 o'clock. The teams are the Academics and the Medics. The second will follow at 9, and will be a contest between St. Johns and the Bank of Toronto. There will be plenty of action, and everybody should be satisfied.

Manager Percy Scott is satisfied with the showing of the Intermediates at Simcoe last evening.

"The game was a ding-dong affair, and it was not until the last few minutes that our boys came through," said Brown, Toronto, referred most satisfactorily.

Tillsburg will play here on Friday night. The Pan-Drieds are playing some game just now, and are able to start something when they arrive.

C. R. U. TO CONSIDER
CHANGES IN RULES

Annual Meeting to be Held in Montreal Saturday Will Vote on Amendments.

Montreal, Jan. 4.—The annual meeting of the Canadian Rugby Union will be held at the Windsor Hotel on Saturday afternoon. The following amendments will be considered:

By the executive: "A union must be represented by at least four clubs in the senior series in order to compete for the Canadian Senior Rugby championship." By the Ontario Union: "To rule 11, section 1, page 25, insert after word 'quarter' in the sixth line, the following: 'At the end of the first and third quarters the ball is to be put in play at the opposite end of the field, in the same spot as when time was called, the team in possession to retain possession, and downs to count the same as if play had not been interrupted.'"

To rule 11, section 1, page 21, add the following: "A distinct line shall be marked across the field at the centre at right angles to the line, and similar lines every ten yards on either side of the centre line, and parallel to it."

To rule 16, page 31, add the following: "No rule for injury to player or any other person shall exceed two minutes."

In rule 6, section 7, page 28, change the penalty for violation of section 6 to "loss of ten yards" instead of "loss of the ball." Sections 6 and 7 now read as follows:

6. At the moment when the ball is placed on the ground the players of both teams must be altogether behind the ball. Exception: The head and shoulders of the man who places the ball on the ground may be ahead of the ball, but only while so doing.

7. For any infringement of the above scrummage rules the penalty shall be loss of the ball against the team in possession, and the loss of ten yards or a free kick against the side not in possession of the ball.

8. At the moment when the ball is placed on the ground the players of both teams must be altogether behind the ball. Exception: The head and shoulders of the man who places the ball on the ground may be ahead of the ball, but only while so doing.

7. For any infringement of the above scrummage rules the penalty shall be loss of the ball against the team in possession, and the loss of ten yards or a free kick against the side not in possession of the ball.

8. At the moment when the ball is placed on the ground the players of both teams must be altogether behind the ball. Exception: The head and shoulders of the man who places the ball on the ground may be ahead of the ball, but only while so doing.

J. JEFF. HANDS OUT
DOPE ON TRAINING

Big Boilermaker Desires to Set All Doubts at Rest.

OUTLINES PLANS
IN BRIEF ARTICLE

Will Go Into Mountains on Hunting Trip and Later Get Busy in Camp.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—In order to set at rest all doubts about his training plans, James J. Jeffries dictated the following article, in which he makes public for the first time his entire scheme of preparation for the battle with Jack Johnson, July 4:

By James J. Jeffries.

There has been a lot of erroneous reports about my plans for training for Johnson. Almost every day I am credited with hiring one or more trainers, and with giving out absurd statements concerning my scheme of preparation. In order that there may be no more talk about my plans I am going to tell the people just how I will train for Johnson and just why I think I can beat him.

I shall finish my tour of the country on Jan. 18 at Los Angeles, and then will have nothing left to do but get into the ring and fight Johnson.

I have been advised to get right down to work at once—that is, start boxing and read work and keep it up until July 4. If I were to do that I would go into the ring overtrained and stale. No man in the world can stand a five- or one-half month's training siege and be at his best.

Will Fish and Hunt.

I shall take a short rest after my stage work is over. Then I shall take a party of friends and go into the mountains, where I expect to spend a month or six weeks hunting, fishing and tramping through the mountains and get away from the fighting game long enough to be able to start my regular training routine about April 1, with a clear head and world of reserve strength.

I am going to have a small staff of hunky fellows to box with me, and take good sound linings. I need a lot of real fighting, and there will be plenty of this in my camp. Heretofore, I have been unable to get enough strong fellows to assist me—fellows who were able to take a good, hard punch. I shall have Con O'Kelly, Geth and Roller with me at the time James J. Corbett will be with me during the last 40 days. I intend to fit my sparring partners with pneumatic pads, and then waste into them and punch away for dear life. I am going to imagine that each and every one of them is Johnson, so, you know, that the job of training Jeffries is not going to be a parlor task.

Few Visitors Allowed.

The training camp will be run on a thoroughly businesslike method. There will be a small corps of men to help me, and as few visitors as possible will be permitted to see me. I don't want anything to take my mind off my work. I have not decided just what I shall do. If the fight comes off in California I'll do my preliminary training on my ranch at Burbank. If it is pulled off in Utah or Nevada I'll work near the site of the battle. All this talk about my not being able to fight in Utah on account of the climate is all rot. Why, of course, if I were to walk into Salt Lake City one day and try to fight the next, I would be unable to get about. All I will need will be about 60 days' training in Utah to be able to put up the fight of my life.

James J. Corbett has volunteered to help me with my training, and I think that he would be of great assistance to me. He is a great boxer and should be able to make me go at a tremendous pace. I offered to pay him for his services, but he declined to take any remuneration, declaring that he would gladly help me the last forty days of my work for friendship's sake.

We probably will have two or three good hard scraps, for I don't know any man in the world who would be better able to try me out than my old friend and foe, Jim Corbett.

Compares Self With John L.

A lot of people believe that I am going to my slaughter when I take on Johnson. They say that I will be no other case of John L. Sullivan and Corbett. Why, man, there is no comparison between the John L. who fought Corbett and the Jeffries who will whip this fellow Johnson. Sullivan was in no condition whatsoever when he met his Waterloo. I am going to be better than at any time in my life, and if Johnson whips me I shall have no excuse to offer. He will have whipped Jeffries at his very best. This may sound like idle talk, but I know after being in partial training for the last nine months that I am in better shape than ever before, and with six months ahead of me in which to complete my training, I am going to go into the ring in as nearly perfect condition as it is possible for man to attain.

IS SPOTTSWOOD
A PROFESSIONAL?

Always an Amateur in Athletics Until He Went on the Stage.

RUNNER IN "GOING SOME"

A. A. U. Officials Have Decided Against Him, But He'll Make Strenuous Appeal.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—An interesting point in the laws of the Amateur Athletic Association have been raised by the suspension of James Spottswood, formerly running mate with Arthur Duffey, of Georgetown, and a member of the Washington Athletic Association, on a charge of professionalism. Since leaving college Mr. Spottswood has kept up his interest in track athletics, and enters meets frequently. A few weeks ago he made formal application to the A. A. U. to have his card renewed, intending to enter several winter meets. A few days ago he was surprised to receive notice that he has been suspended on charges of professionalism.

Mr. Spottswood is on the stage, being a member of the "Going Some" company, in which he plays the part of a Yale student who runs against a professional for a purse of $500 and wins. (The company will play the Grand Opera House, London, on Jan. 14.) As Mr. Spottswood's last entrance in a meet was at the Seattle games last summer, when he was also a member of the same theatrical company, he declares that he has no knowledge of the cause of his suspension, unless it is that he is using his athletic ability in a manner to obtain money as an actor. He has appealed the suspension to the board of governors of the New York body, and has asked for an early hearing. It is probable that the hearing of the matter will decide the rights of athletes to obtain money for their athletic services on the stage.

During his college career Mr. Spottswood had the distinction of twice defeating his speedy running mate, Duffey, and was picked to go to the Olympic games in Greece, but was forced to retire on account of illness shortly before the American team left this country.

CLAIRVOYANT SAYS
JOHNSON WILL WIN

Dreamer Says Johnson Will Defeat Jeffries With a Body Blow.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Springfield, O., Jan. 4.—When Jim Jeffries was a month ago he announced he had dreamed he would whip Johnson. Johnson was this afternoon given a reading by a clairvoyant, and was told he would win.

He declared he had no faith in dreams, but he believes implicitly in fortune-tellers. Upon his arrival here this afternoon he visited a former Chicago negro clairvoyant, Professor Williams, known as the black prince. Williams went into a satisfactory trance and informed Johnson he would win by a body blow, in a terrible fight.

Johnson was at first skeptical, but he was convinced of his success, though he was disappointed that no information was forthcoming as to the number of rounds he would last.

It was announced here that Johnson has dispensed with the services of Bob Armstrong. The latter was not with him on his trip to London, and the information was furnished that Bob could not get along with Manager Little. Johnson is thoroughly disgusted with one-night stands and is suffering with a severe cold.

MARTIN SHERIDAN
TO TOUR THE WORLD

World's Champion Athlete to Make a Long Journey for Honors.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
New York, Jan. 5.—Martin Sheridan, the policeman athlete, has planned a tour of the world to begin after Christmas. He is a national all-around champion at San Francisco next July. He will work east and visit Ireland, first, then Scotland and England, and the whole of Europe that is athletically inclined, including Russia. After that, India, China, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, and Hawaii. Martin has the travel bug, for sure.

JEFFRIES CAN'T COME BACK,
SAYS JOE GANS IN A LETTER

Former Negro Lightweight Points a Moral From Downfall of Ruby Robert Fitzsimmons—Claims His Opinions Are Unbiased.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
New York, Jan. 4.—A week ago a flash came to this country informing us that Bob Fitzsimmons, one of the craftiest and best fighters that ever stepped into a ring, went down to defeat and the "knockout," he could not come back," said Joe Gans, former lightweight champion, today.

"This same expression will be written about James J. Jeffries on the night of July 4, after his battle with Jack Johnson for the championship of the world is over. For, no matter how highly they sound the praises of Jeff now, when he clashes with Johnson he will meet his conqueror. It will be a case of science against brute strength, and this again the science of Johnson will come out on top."

"I want to say that I am not favoring Johnson because we are of the same color," continued Gans. "If I thought that Jeff would whip Johnson I would be one of the first to express my convictions. I have been in the same long to allow sentiment to cut any figure. It is simply a matter of which man I consider the superior and my choice is Johnson. Again, with me there is no doubt that all fair-minded men will agree with me that a fighter is a fighter pure and simple, no matter whether he is white or black, so therefore no one must think that I am prejudiced."

Says Times Are Changed.

"When Johnson returned after beating Burns everyone got excited and shouted, 'Jeff will have to lick Johnson and bring back the title to the white race.' There was a day when he might have done so. But now it is entirely different. In his prime Jeffries was a bunch of muscles and bones that no man could hurt. He has had years of rest, and at present the retired champion is simply a mass of soft flesh that is in no condition to get back to the old days. Jeff will train hard, but nature has had such an easy time that it will not respond sufficiently to the training, and when he faces Johnson he will be far from the Jeffries of old."

Jeffries is a very real thing, the meaning of those words, 'He will come back.' Take all the old champions. In their good days it seemed impossible that anyone would ever beat them. History shows that the day arrives when the quickness of the eye is gone, the old speed is lacking, and the wallop that used to scare all rivals has lost its hitting power. When this happens a new champion will arise, and the stage, the wisecracks make the old remark that the former title holder is all in. This applies to Jeff.

Jeffries is Grand Fighter.

"Jeff is acknowledged to be a grand specimen of a man and without doubt the greatest heavyweight that ever climbed into a ring. He was, but now he is not. The old saying, 'Youth must be served' goes for Jeff. Deceitful and crafty, he is a young man who has lived long and has a lot of tricks up his sleeve. He will change his tactics and try to beat Jeff down with those sharp movements and stinging punches. He will take the big wallop of his colored rival."

"Believe me, they all can be good at one time, but don't forget they never can come back."

DREDGE THE THAMES
MAKE IT NAVIGABLE

Boat Club Took Matter Up Last Evening.

At a meeting of the Thames River Boat Club, held last night, steps were taken to further a movement made by V. P. Baham, of St. Edmund's avenue, to dredge the Thames and make it suitable for boating, for $1000 and the gravel that is obtained.

Mr. Baham, who had been a resident of New Orleans for many years, and had been connected with similar work there, proposed moving to London with his family, and to take up his residence in the Thames.

Another meeting of the club will be held today to get the matter in definite shape to present to the council.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

OFFERINGS WERE SCARCE ON LOCAL MARKET

Hay Supply Was Short as Was Also the Amount of Oats.

There was a very small turnout at the market this morning, the inclement weather and the heavy condition of the roads, owing to the deep and wet snow, evidently inducing many of the farmers to stay at home. At any rate, there was very little offered.

Hay was scarce, though the prices remained firm, ranging from $13 to $15, with the majority of them going at $15. Oats were very scarce, only a very few loads being offered, the price ranging from $12 to $13, with the majority favoring the lower price.

There is likely to be a very strong demand for both commodities tomorrow, as well as for dressed hogs and other produce, as there has been a good market since last Thursday.

Other prices remain as follows:

A Birthday Party.

A very pretty party was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tibbo, of 232 Nelson street, in honor of their son Alfred's sixth birthday. A large number of little friends and their elders were present and spent a very pleasant time. Master Alfred was the recipient of a number of very handsome presents.

Without a Name.

The story from London Township of a wedding is held over, awaiting the writer's signature. The Advertiser has so many "Old Correspondents" that it is difficult to recognize and remember who they all are by the handwriting. The name is not required for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

A Pretty Wedding.

A pretty wedding took place at "Kilham," the home of Mrs. John Shaw, of Forest, recently, when her youngest daughter, Miss Maud Winifred, was married to Mr. William H. Girvin, of Ailsa Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Girvin, of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. H. Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Girvin will reside in Ailsa Craig.

Mission to Lepers.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Mission to Lepers held last Monday in the Y. W. C. A. building, Wellington street, when Rev. Mr. Carey conducted a memorial service for their late beloved president, Mrs. Robertson, and gave a most comforting and inspiring address on the life of faith. He eulogized Mrs. Robertson, showing that it was her vision of the unseen that had made her noble life one of service for others. She will be greatly missed by the society, as she has been its faithful president since it was formed fifteen years ago. At the conclusion of the address, Mrs. Brown sang very sweetly "The Friends of Time Are Sinking."

SIGNALS WERE MISUNDERSTOOD

Supt. Bowker Conducts Investigation Into G. T. R. Accident.

Assistant Superintendent Bowker of the Grand Trunk Railway conducted an investigation last night into the week at Richmond street crossing yesterday morning, and found that it was caused by a misunderstanding of signals given by a switchman to Engineer Morris, of the freight engine.

The two wrecked engines were removed yesterday afternoon to the Stratford shops, and will be repaired as quickly as possible.

The tracks were repaired during the afternoon, and the lines are all open for traffic again.

On the Doocook!

Manager Frank Thompson, of "The Old Homestead," is authority for the statement that there is one town in the United States where until last season the inhabitants apparently had never heard of the famous New England idyll. The town is Ottawa, Kansas. Mr. Thompson brought "The Old Homestead" there last season, and even the manager of the theatre inquired what it was like, volunteering the information that it was "nothing like 'The Old Homestead'." He didn't think it would do much business, as Ottawa people had already seen it and preferred "The New Minister."

"The Blue Mouse" Saturday.

Mabel Harrison, the popular comedienne, Harry Connor, and the original New York cast seen at the Lyric Theatre, will appear in "The Blue Mouse," the famous Clyde Fitch farce—at the Grand Saturday next, matinee and night. It is in three acts, all of which are screamingly funny. The seat sale opened this morning. The demand was the largest of the season.

At the Grand Tonight.

Vaughan Glaser and his splendid company, in a dramatization of Mrs. Augustus Evans Wilson's famous novel, St. Elmo, will be the attraction at the Grand tonight. The story of St. Elmo is so well known that details need not entered into. St. Elmo becomes involved in a duel with Murray Hammond, and as he slays him, Edna Earle, the blacksmith's daughter, ap-

SALVATION IN CHRIST

WEEK OF PRAYER

Special Services Held in Several London Churches Last Night.

"Salvation in Christ Is by Faith," was the theme of an address by Rev. Dr. Manning, of the Dundas Centre Methodist Church, at a largely attended union prayer meeting held in Wesley Hall last night in connection with the week of prayer.

"The salvation of Christ," he said, "is not to be divided into two parts, part faith and part works. Every thing comes by faith. Salvation is the gift of God. Jesus Christ offered himself to those who believe on him. Looking to Christ is more inspiring than looking to men. Faith is the only channel that opens the way to God. Faith is to be had by paying attention to religious matters, by giving one's mind and by prayer. Reflection tends to heighten the desire for faith."

Among the pastors present at the meeting were Revs. G. W. Dewey, A. K. Birks, R. Whiting, James Kennedy and G. N. Hazen.

In Baptist Churches.

Week of prayer services were held in all the Baptist churches last night, the subject considered being "Personal Responsibility." The speakers at the different churches were as follows:

London South, Rev. T. S. Shillington; Talbot Street, Rev. A. J. Bowen; Malind Street, Rev. Mr. Walker; Adelaide Street, Rev. A. J. Vining; Egerton Street, Rev. Mr. Carew.

King Street Presbyterian Church.

Rev. J. G. Stuart was the speaker at the week of prayer service in the King Street Presbyterian Church last night. Choosing for his text, "Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead, to sins, should live unto righteousness, by whose stripes we are healed."

"No truth," said the speaker, "is calculated to give greater satisfaction to the heart of man than to realize that Christ is his substitute for sin. It lifts the great load of care from men's hearts. In the way God met the greatest need of the world through the redemption of Christ."

"The sin-bearer was one infinitely greater than man. He was without guilt or stain, and ready for his work. No one can realize the sufferings he bore, that through his suffering men might inherit eternal life. The act of the lawgiver and the consent of the sufferer made it proper that Christ should carry on this great work. An Christ did so because of the great self-sacrificing love that was in him."

Tonight there will be services in all the Presbyterian churches. In the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. J. A. Slimon, of China, who was a worker in the great revival in Manchuria, will speak. He is at present the singing partner of the Rev. Jonathan Goforth in the revival being at present conducted in Ontario.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PUPILS HELD ENTERTAINMENT

Pleasant Affair Held Last Night in Chalmers Church.

The annual entertainment of the Sunday school pupils of Chalmers Presbyterian Church was held in the school-room last night, and proved such a great success that it will be repeated again this evening. Rev. Walter Moffat, pastor of the church, presided, and introduced a programme consisting of numbers by Misses Pearl Spindler, Vera Lade, Alice Hussey, Masters George Carswell and R. Watson, Willie Jupp, Miss Walker, Irene Cox, William Groschaw and Miss Zansom. The programme concluded with a tableau in which all the boys and girls took part. During the evening Mr. Alfred Wick, who has had charge of the training of the pupils, was presented by Miss Maggie McBeth, on behalf of the teachers, with a handsome pair of ebony brushes, and an address, read by Rev. Walter Moffat. Miss Jessie Duggan, who was accompanying, was presented with two very handsome pieces of Haviland china.

WINTER CAMPAIGN OF THE LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT

Arrangements Were Completed at a Meeting Held Last Night.

At a largely attended meeting of the committee in charge of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms last night, the plan for the winter campaign was completed and the programme arranged as follows:

Jan. 27, 3:30—Clergy and delegates. Twenty-minute addresses: "The Bible the Missionary Book," "The Church the Missionary Agency," "Christ the Universal Saviour." First report of executive committee on policy for district. 6:30—Supper. Thirty-minute addresses: "The Making of a Nation," "The Awakening of the World," "The Responding of Manhood." Report of executive committee and discussion of policy.

A Banquet.

On Thursday evening, Jan. 27, a banquet will be held, and it is expected that between 500 and 600 laymen will be present.

Jan. 28, 10:15 a. m.—Meeting for clergy. Brief addresses on "The Pasture of the Field," "The Field," "The Forest." Discussion, 11:30 p. m.

—Mass meeting for women. Conference for clergy and delegates on "How to Bring a Congregation to its Higher Missionary Efficiency." Final report of executive committee. 8 p. m.—Denominational conferences in separate sections, led by representatives of the laymen's movement and church boards.

Series of Meetings.

Mr. Herbert H. Caskey, of Toronto, general secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, was present at last night's meeting and stated that a series of eight meetings will be held together throughout Western Ontario.

Meetings will be held at Stratford on Jan. 27 and 28 and at Woodstock on Jan. 29 and 30. The church boards of the different denominations are co-operating fully with the laymen's committee, and many of their secretaries and a number of pastors will give addresses at the meetings.

Committee Appointed.

At last night's meeting a banquet committee, composed of Messrs. J. K. H. Pope, chairman; A. J. Morgan, Thomas Bates and Israel Taylor, was appointed.

As soon as the series of meetings held in Ontario is completed meetings will be held in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Are You Using an Oily Liniment?

BEWARE OF ANY THICK, GREASY LINIMENT THAT CONTAINS ACIDS AND STRONG AMMONIA.

No doctor would think of prescribing a greasy, thick, ammonia liniment—they can't penetrate and in consequence are unable to reach the source of pain. The best liniment for general household use is "Nerviline," which is sold under positive guarantee to cure pain.

Nerviline is sure to cure pain because it is immensely stronger than other liniments, because it is more penetrating, because it relieves the congested condition that excites pain, because it restores circulation of the part. Now you understand why one person in three throughout the Dominion of Canada uses Nerviline. These people have tested it. They know how good it is, because in the hundred and one minor ailments that afflict us at odd times they found Nerviline always cured. Nerviline is an absolute antidote to pain, powerful, soothing and certain in its action.

Nerviline is inestimably the finest remedy for pain found in the world. Not an ache or pain anywhere that Nerviline does not cure.

Try Nerviline for neuralgia, headache, sciatica, stiffness, rheumatism, wherever there is soreness or pain, rub on Nerviline and you'll be cured. Refuse anything offered you instead of Nerviline, large bottles, 50 cents; trial size 25 cents. All dealers, or The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

A TRAIN MAROONED

Floods Cause 150 Passengers To Be Stalled in the Desert.

Salt Lake City, Jan. 5.—Train No. 4, on the San Pedro, Salt Lake and Los Angeles Railroad, due here from Los Angeles Jan. 1, is marooned in the desert five miles from Galiente, Nev., the track on both sides having been torn out by the flood of last week. The train is carrying in the neighborhood of 150 passengers. Plenty of provisions are on hand, and there is no danger of suffering from lack of food. Ties are being torn from the tracks and used as fuel with which to make steam for heating the cars. As soon as wagons can reach the stalled train, a matter of three or four days, the passengers will be taken to Barclay, where a train will be waiting to bring them to Salt Lake. Every one on the train is reported well and fairly comfortable.
