

TRIPLE ALLIANCE GIVEN DEAD END

LONDON PROHIBITIONISTS CONFIDENT OF SWEEPING VICTORY AT POLLS MONDAY

Only Danger That People Will Take Success for Granted and Fail To Vote, Says T. D. McCullough — Optimistic Spirit in Camp of Liberty Leaguers.

The final rally of the London Prohibition Association in the Auditorium last night showed that the champions of the movement are fully determined that no stone is to be left unturned to bring about an overwhelming majority for the "dry" on Monday.

In the course of the proceedings the secretary of the organization, Rev. T. D. McCullough, said that London possessed the most perfect organization in the province. Between 700 and 800 workers on behalf of the movement were going up and down the streets of the city doing their duty on behalf of prohibition, and doing it faithfully.

He appealed to all those who had any cards to report for him this forenoon. There were in the city from 4,000 to 5,000 who had to be transferred; he also made an appeal to the inside scrutineers to be in their places at the various polling places by 7:45 on Monday morning, and stated that the voting would begin at 8 o'clock in the morning and would continue until 6 o'clock in the evening.

"It is quite confident," he said to the Advertiser, "that prohibition will receive a good majority on Monday. The only danger is that people will take it for granted that this will be the case and fail to do their duty by turning out to record their votes. It is of the utmost importance that all those who favor the movement should trust nothing to chance. There is a strong opposition to fight against, and there are forces being brought into the struggle this time that we have not had to contend with on previous occasions."

MAIES LIKELY TO GO BEYOND RUHR SECTION

Question of Extension of Penalties Discussed by the French Cabinet.

FOCH IS PREPARED

Would Send In an Army Big Enough To Overcome Any Resistance Offered.

Paris, April 16.—Occupation of more German territory by French forces, should the Germans fail to meet the demands of the payment of 100,000,000 gold marks by May 1, may go beyond the Ruhr district and include at least a part of the industrial section of Westphalia, it is declared by the Echo de Paris. In discussing yesterday's meeting of the French cabinet at which the question of eventual extension of military penalties was considered, the newspaper says that two reports, one military and the other economic, were adopted.

Marshal Foch submitted the military report, in which it was pointed out that it would be insufficient to fix the limits of the new occupation area on strictly military lines, adding that the economic element was worthy of equal consideration. The marshal is declared to have held that the first advance by French forces should be made to deal with any German reaction, although that would be most improbable. He declared this force could be considerably decreased once occupation was well established and would not amount to more than 50 per cent of the effective held in the Rhineland by France before April 1, when the class of 1919 was mustered out. New battalions could be obtained by calling up the classes of 1918 and 1919, one of which could be replaced in three months by the class of 1921.

SWITZERLAND DOES NOT INTEND TO ACT IN INTERMEDIARY CAPACITY

Berne, April 16.—The Swiss Government yesterday issued a semi-official note declaring that it never, in any manner, had undertaken to act as an intermediary between the allies and Germany, and that it had no intention of doing so.

CENTRAL AMERICA VOLCANO AGAIN IN VIOLENT ERUPTION

Managua, Nicaragua, April 16.—The volcano Masaya, Central America's "burning mountain," is in active eruption. The town of Masaya, which is about twenty miles south of Managua, lies at the foot of the volcano. Large columns of smoke and fire are being thrown from the crater, and earth tremors are accompanying the eruption.

POTSDAM PLANS FOR IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL FOR FORMER EMPRESS

Will Be Buried With Imperial Honors On Tuesday Next.

Potsdam, Germany, April 15.—Flags of the old empire are flying at half mast along the streets of Potsdam today and mourning bands are evident on all sides. The shop windows are displaying portraits of former Empress Augusta Victoria draped in black and flower pieces bearing her insignia. Hundreds of individuals and societies are honoring the memory of the former empress, who will be buried on Tuesday next with imperial honors in the antique temple adjoining the new palace in San Souci Park, where she lived virtually all her married life. Hundreds of persons, formerly prominent, already are arriving in Potsdam, which stands as an imperial base in Republican Germany. The former Lord Chamberlain of the court, Count August von Eulenburg has requisitioned all hotels for those coming to attend the funeral. The arrangements are progressing under virtually the same machinery as would have functioned were the empire still intact.

Hundreds of workmen are converting the old imperial station at Wild Park into an embowered chapel in which the family and immediate friends of the empress will receive the body and attend private services before the procession starts through the tree-lined lane leading immediately past the new palace to the temple, which will house the empress' tomb. Although coming to Potsdam, which stands as an imperial base in Republican Germany, the former Lord Chamberlain of the court, Count August von Eulenburg has requisitioned all hotels for those coming to attend the funeral. The arrangements are progressing under virtually the same machinery as would have functioned were the empire still intact.

At 9 o'clock Tuesday morning a brief religious service will be held in the presence of the empress's friends. Half an hour later the funeral procession will start for the antique temple in San Souci Park, where the body of the empress will be laid out in a hearse drawn by four horses. The procession will be led by members of the empress's family, followed by the former royal aide de camp and followed by knights of the Order of the Black Eagle, who will act as pall bearers, the prince and princess and other members of the former empress' suite.

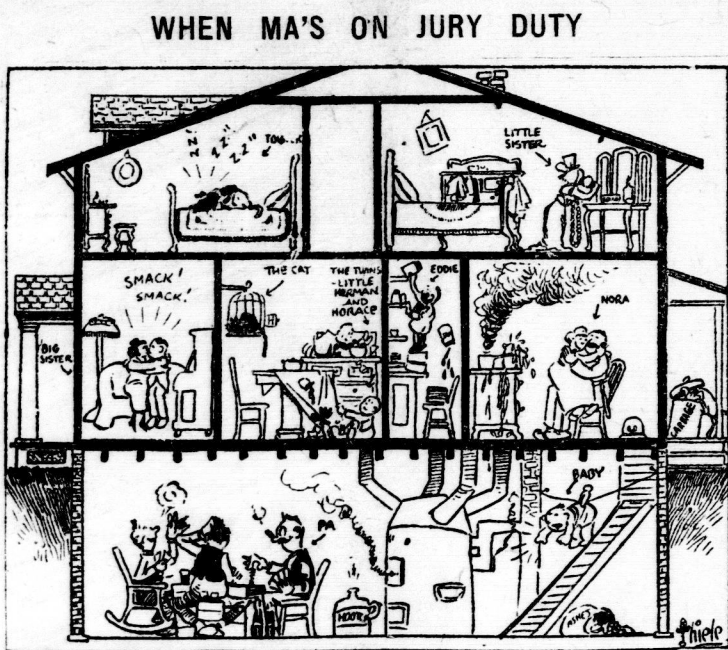

POLISH DIET VOTES FOR RATIFICATION OF PEACE TREATY

Warsaw, April 16.—Ratification of the treaty of peace between Poland, Soviet Russia and Ukraine has been voted by the Polish Diet. This action, which took place yesterday, completes Poland's engagement to have the convention approved within 30 days after the pact was signed, on March 18. The Bolshevik Government ratified it on March 22, but similar action on the part of Ukraine has not as yet been reported.

DEFEAT OF AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT DOES NOT MEAN IT WILL RESIGN

London, April 16.—Canadian Associated Press.—According to Australian cables the defeat sustained by the Hughes Government was purely accidental and does not mean necessarily that the Government is under obligation to resign. Premier Hughes at once moved the adjournment of the House as a means of testing the opinion of the House on the accident, and as the House accepted the adjournment this matter without dissent, it is expected that the incident will be straightened out.

JURYMEN WILL BE TAKEN TO "MOVIES"

Ottawa, April 16.—The jury which has been hearing the evidence in the Filip Konowal, V.C., murder trial at Hull, was locked up yesterday afternoon when court adjourned, and will remain segregated until Monday afternoon, when court reopens. They will be practically 96 hours locked up. Not since 1900, when La Croix was tried and convicted of murder, has a jury been kept within the courthouse for such a long time. The La Croix jury was locked up on a Friday afternoon, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, which happened to be Christmas Day.

When the jury, in the present case, will be secluded from friends and others, they will be provided with such entertainment that will help them take some enjoyment out of their confinement. The jurors requested Judge Cousineau to permit them to attend a movie show, and the court granted the request providing that the twelve men, accompanied by constables, went together. This may be done today, but last night some of the jurors did not care to see pictures.

Taking of evidence will be resumed Monday afternoon.

CHARGED WITH MURDER, VAUGHN AND MURRELL BROTHERS LAUGH, JOKE AND USE FOUL LANGUAGE

Three Bandits Carry On Behind Cell Bars As If Without a Care in the World—Language They Used This Morning Beyond Description, Declares the Jail Physician—Difference Between Insanity and Imbecility.

"There is a difference between insane and imbecile people," declared Dr. James D. Wilson, jail physician, in conversation with The Advertiser this morning. "When I made an examination of young Murrell last July when he was in jail charged with assaulting his mother and sister, the certificate showed that he was 'mentally and physically able to do ordinary work.' I did not say he was insane, and had no wish to cast any reflection on the sentence meted out on that occasion.

"Every indelible offence that comes into the jail shows mental weakness. These men certainly lack judgment. Take the Murrells and young Vaughn, for example. I left them at the jail but a few minutes ago. I did not say they would never dream that they have a mighty good chance of being hanged for the work at Melbourne last Monday."

FORMER NAVY OFFICER SHOT. Paris, April 16.—William Ogilvie Hozier, former commander in the British navy, and son of Col. Sir Henry Hozier, brother of Mrs. Winston Spencer Churchill, was found shot through the head in a room of the Paris hotel last night, says the continental edition of the Daily Mail.

Suspect Arrested Friday Is a Harmless Hobo.

Thursday may be chosen as the day for the preliminary hearing of Sidney and William Murrell and William Henry Vaughn, alias Henry Jack Williams, who have been charged with the murder of Russell Campbell at Melbourne Monday.

It is said that Sidney Murrell is somewhat of a boxer, having traveled with a carnival which visited this city last summer. No trace of the fourth bandit has been received by the police. The suspect arrested near Granton Friday afternoon turned out to be a harmless hobo, and was allowed to proceed on his merry way.

FORTY-THREE FAILURES IN CANADA IN WEEK

Toronto, April 16.—There were 42 failures in Canada during the week ending yesterday, according to Dun's review, as compared with 18 in the corresponding week of 1920. Of last week's failures, 15 were in Ontario and 15 in Quebec. Other provinces were represented as follows: Manitoba 4, Alberta 1, Saskatchewan 3, British Columbia 2 and Nova Scotia 3.

THOUSANDS OF VETERANS ARE OUT OF WORK

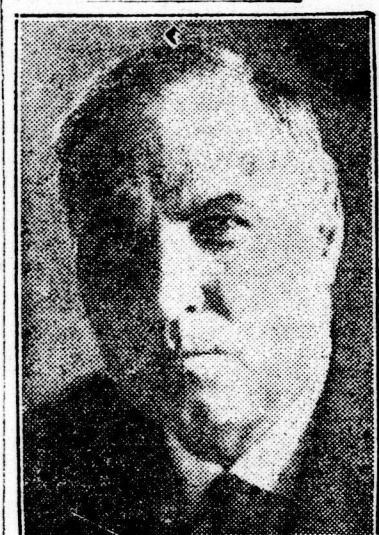

Secretary of Dominion Command, G.W.V.A., Declares Many Are in Want.

80,000 RE-ESTABLISHED

Startling Statements Made to the Parliamentary Committee.

Ottawa, April 16.—C. Grant MacNeil, secretary of the Dominion command of the Great War Veterans' Association, has issued a further statement in regard to the unemployment at the present time. Mr. MacNeil made a statement on this subject yesterday to the Parliamentary committee on pensions and re-establishment, which the committee felt was regarded as one of the most startling and vital statements yet made at the present session.

In dealing further with this matter, Mr. MacNeil stated: "Our representatives before the committee were to the effect that re-establishment activities have hitherto only benefited about 80,000 of the demobilized members of the forces. This leaves between 250,000 and 300,000 ex-service men who have not directly benefited by measures which would, if necessary, return for them a secure economic status. Fully 50 per cent of this number are at present in sorry circumstances, even worse than at the time of demobilization."

MAN HELD FOR IDENTIFICATION MAY BE SMALL

An Unknown Individual Was Found At Gull Lake.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Kingston, April 16.—County Constable E. A. Tallon reached Verona early this morning with the man supposed to be Ambrose J. Small. He was found at Gull Lake, about forty miles from Verona. Dr. Genge of Verona was called to attend him as he is suffering from exposure. The man is being held at Verona for identification.

WILL BE EXAMINED. Kingston, April 16.—About 3 o'clock last night the man of mystery who has been wandering about the vicinity of Verona, and who was thought by some to be the missing Ambrose J. Small, was taken into custody and was taken to Verona, where he will be examined this afternoon before a magistrate and physicians. It was reported this morning that Gordon Edwards, who is connected with mining interests at Verona, and who had an office a few doors from Ambrose Small in Toronto for ten years, had identified the man at Verona as Small, but when interviewed over long distance telephone, Mr. Gordon said he was not willing to discuss the matter until the examination of the man took place. Pressed by the reporter, he admitted that "the man might be Small."

Constable Talon, who took the man into custody, when interviewed said that he believed that it was Small, claiming the description tallied fairly well with that of the missing man, and that he resembled the photograph of the constable had obtained from the police here.

Labor Organ Declares Split in Ranks Is "Heaviest Defeat That Has Befallen Labor Within the Memory of Man"

Workers of United Kingdom Are Divided As Result of Refusal of Two Big Organizations To Continue Support to Miners—Rupture in Membership of Miners' Federation May Follow.

London, April 16.—Labor forces of the United Kingdom are today apparently broken into sections as a result of the refusal of the National Union of Railwaymen and the National Federation of Transport Workers yesterday to continue their support of the strike called by the Miners' Federation of Great Britain on April 1. Opinion prevails in some quarters that the action of the railway workers and the transport men means the death warrant of the Triple Alliance. This view is not held universally, but, without doubt the split which developed yesterday will have a serious effect upon the rank and file of labor.

"Yesterday was the heaviest defeat that has befallen labor within the memory of man," begins the laborer's comment on the sensational break-away of the railroaders and transport workers. "It is no use trying to minimize it. The workers have not stood together, and they have repudiated the reward."

Blames Secretary Hodges. The newspaper declares that Frank Hodges, secretary of the miners' organization, made a tactical mistake by altering the old formula of the union during his address before members of the Commons on Thursday night. The union had held it would not negotiate until assured of the establishment of a national wage board, even if such a board would not begin operations immediately, but Mr. Hodges changed the formula by declaring the union would negotiate immediately, postponing the demand of a national board. Assertion is made that in so doing he went beyond his powers.

"The old machinery has failed," the Herald concludes. "We must start afresh and set a machine that will work and develop a new spirit. This is not the end; it is the beginning."

DRAMATIC SCENE IN HOUSE WHEN SPLIT IS ANNOUNCED

LONDON, April 15.—During the discussion of the strike question in the House of Commons today, John R. Clynes, the parliamentary Labor party chairman, pointed out that the leaders of the Miners' Federation ought not to be expected to reach a decision which they knew would not be accepted or responded to by the men of their organization.

What happened before, said he, and there was no leader in any walk of life compelled more to follow than the leader of a trades union. It was understood to be the provisional proposition made by Frank Hodges last evening for a temporary settlement if those leaders could feel confident that the million men whose interests were in their keeping would abide by their decision.

He urged, however, that there can be no assurance for the leaders in the absence of evidence or reasons for their action. He said that if the proposition was that they were influenced by the conviction that the seeking of a temporary settlement on this basis would mean something which the rank and file of the organization would not approve.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE SESSION. LONDON, April 15.—When the Triple Alliance reassembled this morning it became evident that the offer of Frank Hodges, the miners' secretary, last night, making concessions for a reopening of the negotiations between the miners and the owners, had not the solid support of the rest of the miners' executive body. At the same time, the invitation of the prime minister to the miners' executive to meet the owners around what was hoped to prove to be a peace table was pressing for a reply.

J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the Railwaymen's Union, and other moderate leaders pressed the miners to

TORNADO'S TOLL MAY REACH 50

Damage in Southern States Greater Than Anticipated.

Little Rock, Ark., April 16.—A rapidly mounting death list that may exceed 50, dozens of persons injured and property damage as yet unestimated are results of a tornado that cut a wide swath across parts of Miller and Hempstead counties, Arkansas and Cass county, Texas, last night.

Reports coming into Little Rock from the storm areas augmented rather than diminished the extent of the damage and because of paralyzed wire communication officials were of the opinion that several days might elapse before the full extent of the destruction is definitely known.

Apparently the heaviest loss of life and property was caused in the two Arkansas counties. In the rural sections of Upper Miller County, near Texarkana, eleven persons are known to have been killed and a large number injured. Near Hope, in Hempstead County, press dispatches say from fifteen to twenty persons were killed and scores injured by the storm, which swept the entire length of the county. The storm approached within a few miles of the town, according to reports here.

Prescott is another town in Hempstead County that may have been struck by the storm. A brief message received late last night said there were several bodies there, but it was not known just where the fatalities occurred.

In Texas the damage was in the vicinity of O'Farrell, a thickly settled farming community west of Atlanta. The dispatches reported an unknown number of persons killed and injured. Eleven bodies had been brought into Texarkana early today it was reported. Four bodies had been taken to Hope from the storm district in that locality. Early newspaper estimates here placed the number of dead at approximately 30.

Seasonable Pointers For Farmers

European Corn-Borer A Much-Dreaded Pest

Found in Canada for First Time in August, 1920—Strenuous Fight Necessary Against This Destructive Caterpillar.

Observations made in Elgin County, Ontario, particularly in the district of St. Thomas, by officers of the entomological branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, and others, indicate that the European Corn Borer found in Canada for the first time in August, 1920, has come through the winter in a very healthy condition. The department urges, therefore, the assistance of all farmers in affected districts, in the efforts which are being made to exterminate this dreaded pest and preventing its further spread. The borer or caterpillar is the destructive stage in the life of the insect and it is in this stage at the present time within corn stubble, pieces of stalk, old ears, or other parts of the corn plant which were large enough to shelter it during the winter. Farmers, therefore, should realize the importance of destroying, at once, preferably by burning, all unused, vetch seeded at the rate of 1 1/2 bushels per acre. Crop refuse around silos and also that left during the winter in infested corn fields should be carefully gathered up and destroyed by burning. Fields with the infested district should be kept free from weeds, as the borer has been found in thick stemmed grasses, ragweed, smartweed, lambs' quarters, etc.—Arthur Gibson, Dominion Entomologist.

Growth Is Stimulated By Orchard Cultivation

Loosening Up the Earth Warms the Soil and Liberates Plant Food—Shallow Cultivation Checks Excessive Evaporation and Retains Moisture for Growth of Fruit.

It is a well-known fact that growth in the orchard tree is made during the months of June and July, after which the growth has out and ripens. It is also known that early cultivation stimulates growth. The loosening up of the earth aids in the warming of the soil and makes it possible for soil organisms, which liberate plant food, to become active earlier; air will penetrate better, and these organisms will become active to a greater depth than if cultivation is not given. Hence the importance of early spring cultivation to furnish suitable soil conditions for the tree and the organisms upon which the tree is dependent for the liberation of plant food.

Uncultivated areas may be made suitable for the tree by supplying nitrogen in an available form early through the use of nitrate of soda and by using a mulch to conserve moisture, but on the whole the practice most suitable for general orchard areas is early cultivation followed by frequent cultivation at intervals of a week or ten days from the middle of June or July 1, after which orchard cultivation should cease.

The First Cultivation. The first cultivation may be shallow plowing, four to five inches deep, after which surface cultivation with the disc and smoothing harrow to maintain a surface mulch of fine earth is all that is required. Deep cultivation is not desirable, as the feeding roots naturally grow in the surface soil, and deep cultivation may injure them. Shallow cultivation prevents the formation of a surface crust, thus checking excessive evaporation of moisture and retaining it for continuous growth of fruit, and insuring a proper moisture supply for the tree later in the spring. As soon as the ground is dry enough after rain it is wise to start the harrow, producing thereby a dust mulch.

Sowing Cover Crop. After the middle of June a cover crop during the fall, take up excess plant food and develop humus for the following spring. The common vetch seeded at the rate of 1 1/2 bushels per acre, is the best cover crop. This plant can extract nitrogen from the air and increase the store of nitrogen as a result. This crop makes vigorous growth on most soils, but will do better if the soil is limed. It is a crop fairly easily turned under, and it is satisfactory at plowing time, as it fattens down after making considerable growth. This cover crop may be plowed under in the fall or not until the following spring, but the usual practice is to fall plow and work the disc harrow in the spring, which is considered the best method.

The area close to the base of the tree looks better if kept well cultivated, but the cultivation of this area is not necessary and very often much injury is done to the main roots from plowing too deeply close around the tree. It usually is better to leave this space uncultivated and keep the grass cut. This gives a neat appearance.—W. S. McLAIR, superintendent, Experimental Station, Kentville, N. S.

Hints For Hatching Eggs And Rearing Chicks

How To Set the Hen to Best Advantage—Newly-Hatched Chicks Require the Greatest Care for the First Few Days.

The following instructions issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture for the hatching and rearing of chicks, in connection with rural school fairs, will be found useful to all poultry raisers:

On receiving the eggs keep them in a dry, cool place for twelve hours, and then put them under a hen as soon as possible.

Hatching the Eggs. If you have a broody hen in your pen remove her to some place where she will not be disturbed. Make her a nest in a small box about one foot square and six inches deep. Partly fill it with straw, a bed cut the size of the box and placed with the earth side up does very well. Be careful to fill the corners well. Make the nest of old straw or fine dried grass.

In this nest place a couple of nest-eggs and at night thoroughly dust the hen and nest with sulphur or insect powder and place her on the nest. The next night remove the nest-eggs, and in their place put the eggs you have received.

Place food and water near the sitting hen, as she must have the nest frequently to eat and drink during the three weeks it requires for the eggs to hatch. Feed the kind of grain the hen has been accustomed to getting. Corn is also an excellent grain to feed at this time. Also place a small box, filled with dry earth mixed with ashes, so she can dust herself.

Rearing the Chicks. Chicks should not be fed until they are 48 hours old. They may be given water and sand or grit, but no other food during that time. Their first food might be finely-broken bread crumbs mixed with hard-boiled eggs in the proportion of four of bread to one of eggs. Feed this dry, four or five times per day. Give water to drink, or sour milk. Commercial chick feed is also good.

When two or three days' old, if the weather is fine, remove the hen and the chickens to a coop out of doors. This coop may be two feet wide, three feet long, and two and one-half feet in front and two feet high at the back. On the front lower half have vertical slats two and one-half inches apart to keep the hen confined and let the chicks run. On the upper half a piece of wire netting or coarse canvas may be stretched to give ventilation at night when the pen is closed. An ordinary drygoods box, with two sides removed, makes a very good substitution for this coop.

Change the food gradually to chick food or cracked wheat and corn mixed. Give meat scraps, if you have no milk, and give grit occasionally.

Move the coop from time to time. If the coop can be set close to the fence on the sod and the chickens run on cultivated land all the better. An orchard or corn field is ideal because of the shade and abundance of insects.

Close the coop at night to prevent the ravages of animals. The hen may be removed in six or eight weeks.

Feed the chickens well during the whole summer, so that they will get their full growth.

The chickens should be marked by punching a hole in the web between the toes, and later the leg bands, which we supply, should be put on.

Keep your best cockerel and all your pullets for a breeding pen next year. The remaining cockerels may be sold.

Time of Hatching. For several years, three months, viz.: March, April and May, have been used for hatching and the general results have given a preference for the chicks hatched in the month of April. This year the general fertility was the same during the months of March and May, namely, 84.3 per cent. April gave a slightly less fertility of 81.3 per cent. In the percentage of fertile eggs hatched, the month of April was 1 per cent higher than May and 8 per cent higher than March and in the percentage of total eggs hatched, May was the fraction of 1 per cent higher than April, whereas March was 6 per cent lower than May. In the percentage of chicks that were hatched that lived, March was 1 per cent higher than April, but April was 8 per cent higher than May. The difficulty with the March-hatched chicks, especially those hatched later in the month in the central portions of Canada, is that the warm weather of July and August is hard on them. The total number of eggs required to produce one growing chick was one egg more for March and practically the same for April and May so that again this year, taking the growth of the chicks into consideration, April has been the best month for hatching chicks throughout the whole Dominion.

Hens Versus Pullets. In this comparison it must be remembered that only the best of the pullets are used for breeding purposes and these are well matured, started laying early and are not forced for egg production. The figures show that such pullets compare very favorably indeed with older birds. The average fertility from hens was 82.5 per cent and from pullets 80.7. The average hatch for hens was 44.9 per cent, and pullets 45.2, that is, though the fertility was slightly higher in the hens, the hatch was slightly better with the pullets, but in the total eggs set the hens beat the pullets by nearly 1 per cent. This comparison must be taken, however, as noted above, in that these are not late hatched or pullets of various ages, but well matured, strong, vigorous birds.

Europe During Wartime Lost Much Live Stock

In All Classes of Animals Figures Show Decreases Compared With Pre-War Totals—Cattle and Sheep Dropped 12 Per Cent and Swine 36 Per Cent.

In the Agricultural Gazette, the official organ of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Mr. T. K. Doherty, L.L.B., has a well presented statement on the world-numbers of farm livestock which is full of hopeful significance to Canadian farmers. Mr. Doherty is commissioner at Ottawa for the International Institute of Agriculture, whose headquarters in Rome collects information which is the "last word" on farming conditions the world over.

His figures are brought down to a date of December 31, 1919. Portugal shows the European countries as one unit, and the newer countries of the world as another. In the latter are included Canada, United States, Argentina, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, and Tunis. (The New Zealand and South African figures are not included in this statement.)

In all classes of animals the European figures show decreases when compared with the pre-war figures. In cattle and sheep the drop is 12 per cent each, and in swine as much as 36 per cent. In Great Britain, which remains Canada's best market, there is a decrease of 12 per cent. Portugal shows a drop of 4,633,000 head (a decrease equal to one and one-half times the entire number in Canada), and in swine of 523,700 head.

Only one European country shows an all-round increase. That is Spain, where the growth in swine totalled 1,219,000 head (or at the rate of 50 per cent over pre-war figures), cattle 334,000, and sheep 788,000. Portugal shows a small increase, and Germany an increase of 1,108,000 in sheep. Denmark, which is our chief competitor in the bacon market, had a decrease of 1,488,000 in hogs and 2,833,000 in sheep. Germany's drop in hogs was by the enormous total of 11,339,000.

It is true that, throughout the world, there is a net increase of 4 per cent in cattle, but there is a world-wide drop in sheep and swine.

CALF FEEDING IS A REAL PROBLEM. "It is well known to dairymen," says A. J. McGuire, dairy extensionist at University Farm, Minnesota, "that calves under six months old make little or no gain on pasture alone, however good the pasture may be. Their feeding is a real problem. For this reason dairymen try to have the calves come in the fall so they will be ready for pasture in the spring."

"Spring calves or calves born in late winter should be kept in the barn during the summer if they are to make proper growth. It is well to have a small pasture or yard in connection in which they can run a hour or two a day. In hot weather, the best time for them to be out of doors."

"For feed, skim milk, mixed whole oats and corn half and half, and clover or alfalfa hay, are always satisfactory rations. When there is a shortage of skim milk or clover or alfalfa hay, some oilmeal will greatly add to the ration."

"Calf scour is frequently caused in summer by unclean masts. The masts should be used and they should be washed every day and set out in the sun. Clean dry quarters, clean pails, skim milk and grain in medium amount, fresh water, and a yard for exercise, make the requirements for raising calves successfully."

BARON SHIDEHARA SAYS PREMIER HUGHES' VIEWS SOMEWHAT MISLEADING

Washington, April 15.—Commenting on the recent speech of Premier Hughes before the Australian Parliament, in which future relations between Australia and Japan were discussed, as well as the advisability of renewing the Anglo-Japanese alliance in its present form, Baron Shidehara, the Japanese ambassador here, said last night that Mr. Hughes' reference to Japanese laws and practices concerning the treatment of foreigners "was at least misleading."

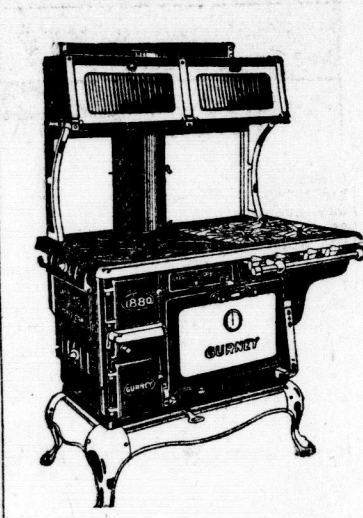

The ambassador said that aliens "are freely permitted to hold land in Japan for any length of time, under the 'law of supercedence' which for all practical purposes is just as good as fee simple."

It is also possible, he added, for companies formed in Japan under exclusive foreign control to own land. Foreigners resident in Japan for more than five consecutive years, he continued, are duly qualified to apply for naturalization.

SENTENCED TO PRISON. Cornwall, April 15.—Wm. Bradley of Ottawa and George Alfred Lucy of Barton Township, near Hamilton, were yesterday sentenced to terms in Kingston Penitentiary by His Honor Judge O'Reilly, the term given to Bradley being two and a half years, while Lucy was sentenced to five years. The young men were in jail here for a week awaiting trial, both having pleaded guilty to breaking into the store of McMillan and Co., at Finch, near which village they were rounded up by a posse of citizens.

COLUMBIA PRODIGY GIVES HIS IMPRESSIONS OF CIRCUS

Edward Roche Hardy, Jr., Writes That Elephants Looked Disdainfully at Him and Seemed To Be Very Wise — He Finds Trapeze People Perform by Kind of Rhythm.

New York, April 15.—Here is a circus story written by Edward Roche Hardy, Jr., the boy prodigy who manifested at Columbia University last fall at the age of 12. He is the son of Professor and Mrs. Edward Roche Hardy of 419 West 118th street, and is one of the youngest freshmen ever to enter an American college.

By Edward Roche Hardy, Jr., Jun. Long before I came in sight of Madison Square Garden I could see that I was coming near a circus. Almost every window had an advertisement in it with large pictures of what one would see at the circus. And then there were children in automobiles or on foot all joyfully going in the same direction. These marks showed me where I was as clearly as the loud hum that you hear by the sub-treasury tells you when you are near the curb market.

I went down to see the animals after the crowd had departed, so that they would be as much as possible in their natural state. The massive elephants swayed from side to side and looked disdainfully down upon me. I wonder what they were thinking? They seemed very wise.

The dogs barked loudly as I approached. To them such an unexpected visitor doubtless seemed to be breaking the rules. The little ponies looked at me in astonishment. The Bengal tiger was quietly sleeping, but I could see why when the rustle that he makes is heard in the grass all the little things of the jungle, below and above, become silent. The seals were all the time making a sort of grunting sound. The man at the gate told me that they really did mind the cold.

In another cage there was a horned antelope sitting for its picture. Sometimes it grew restless, like humans who sit for their picture, and moved its head, but the artist simply motioned with his pencil and the antelope again put its head down in front of him.

GHOST SEEKS COAT FRANCE DELIVERS STAGGERING BLOW AGAINST GERMANY

Trenton Seance Gets Message From One Who Killed Himself.

"HANG IT ON MY HOOK"

Then Bandit of Other Plane Is Blamed for Trying Self-Destruction.

Trenton, April 15.—John Koch, who killed himself in his home at 419 Ferry street, this city, two months ago, came back in spirit last night, apologized for the trouble he caused and asked that his coat and hat be hung on the nail where he used to put them—that is, Koch did all this to the satisfaction of a group of spiritualists and some of his family.

Mrs. Koch's complaints that the doors were being rattled by her husband's wrath and that occasionally since he voluntarily in a fit of rage, stepped off this plane, she has found cause to fear all her best dishes would be broken, led to a seance last night in which some of the best-known spirit mediums of the city were present. The only others in the audience were a policeman and a reporter, but they took no part in what went on. This is how it was done:

The "sitters," as the spiritualists called themselves, sat around the room, as might be inferred. Mrs. Koch sat with them. The leading ghost seker announced that the sitters would sit in silence unless impelled to speak by an ultra-plane force. Should any one talk, she explained, then all must conclude Koch had arrived in case any one felt like singing hymns she was to go right ahead.

Presently the first hymn was sung. One of the "sitters" had been brought under the influence of Koch's spirit and was using her vocal cords. Mrs. Koch agreed the hymn was one her husband used to like to hum. When the singer became silent the rest of the roomful exclaimed "Welcome," and the singer answered "Thank you."

Next, one of the spirit chasers asked Mrs. Koch why she didn't hang her husband's hat and coat on the old hook. That was accepted as a message from Koch and a proof that he romps around town in spirit at night and has been feeling cold.

The finale, so far as Koch's ghost was concerned was a statement from another spirit who supposed to have joined the Trenton man in a visit to his old home town. The second fellow told everybody that Koch killed himself while under the influence of a bad spirit, a spirit who likes to see trouble and makes much of it as possible. Many persons, including the Trenton cop, assumed that the bad spirit might be a sort of bandit of the other plane.

Quietly Increases Tariff On Imports From Germany by 300 Per Cent.

TO PROTECT INDUSTRY

Minimum Tariff Applies to Those Nations Giving France Preferential Treatment in Trade.

PARIS, April 15.—Quietly and unostentatiously France has just delivered a staggering blow against Germany. Its effect upon the whole occupied area in particular can hardly be estimated. On Friday, President Millerand, in the midst of a week-end holiday party for the members of the government at Rambouillet Chateau, signed a decree, which today has the force of law, after the ad valorem tariff on automobiles is raised from 45 per cent to 180 per cent. The decree goes on to say that the law applies only to the general tariff, and not to what is called the "minimum tariff," and it is here that the real significance of the action comes in.

The minimum tariff is applied to nations giving France preferential treatment. These are all the European nations excepted from the enemies of France and Poland and Czechoslovakia. The list also includes the principal countries abroad, with the important exception of the United States; but last Friday's decree expressly states that the new tariff is not to apply to the United States, despite the fact that that country is on the general and not the minimum tariff schedule. This, of course, means that Germany is the country chiefly concerned.

The effect of the new law will be to kill importation of manufactured goods from Germany to France, which reached a high figure last year, and has been steadily increasing. New Tariff Barrier. But that is not all. The council of ambassadors has just decided that the whole occupied area shall be separated from unoccupied Germany by a tariff barrier of "taxes equal to those of the German tariff and paid in paper marks." So far as concerns the export of manufactured goods from the occupied area to the rest of Germany, the German tariff barrier against manufactured goods being exceedingly high, the Rhineland will have the utmost difficulty in exporting manufactured goods to the rest of Germany.

It was thought that the French had imposed this clause with the purpose of dividing the Rhineland from Germany by making it economically dependent upon France and the other western countries. The new law, however, does away with all that, for it puts an almost insurmountable barrier between the Rhineland—which, of course, counts for tariff purposes as Germany—and France. In other words, France, already threatening to include the whole Ruhr in the Rhine tariff scheme, is putting a plug at the heads of the Ruhr industrial magnates, Stinnes, Krupp, Thyssen and Siemens, to name only the most prominent. In effect, France says to them:

"You may think that the export taxes from the Rhineland to Germany will not seriously hamper your operations. All right; now we hedge you on three-quarters of your western frontier also."

DOROTHY ARNOLD MYSTERY SOLVED, SAYS CAPT. AYERS

Makes Announcement in Lecture That Girl Is No Longer Listed As Missing.

New York, April 15.—The fate of Dorothy Arnold, whose disappearance on December 12, 1910, provided one of the greatest mysteries of the last decade, has been known to the police department for many months, according to a statement made recently by Police Capt. John H. Ayers, head of the bureau of missing persons, in a lecture on the police department at the High School of Commerce, in West Sixty-fifth street.

Capt. Ayers refused to tell whether Miss Arnold was alive or dead, saying that this was a confidential matter of the police department. "All I can say is that it has been solved by the department," he said, in reply to questions from the audience. "Dorothy Arnold is no longer listed as a missing person."

Emphatic denial of Capt. Ayers' statement was made by John S. Keith, attorney for Francis R. Arnold, Dorothy Arnold's father, at his home in the Hotel Commodore. Mr. Keith declared that Capt. Ayers' statement that the case had been solved was a "damned lie," and said the mystery of the girl's disappearance was as great as it had been the day she disappeared.

Mr. Keith declared that he would write a letter of complaint to Police Commissioner Enright and ask him to take suitable action against Capt. Ayers.

Capt. Ayers' reference to the Dorothy Arnold case came after he had told of the police department and had invited questions. A woman asked if any definite murder had been obtained in the Elwell case. Capt. Ayers replied that this matter was now in the hands of ex-Governor Charles S. Whitman for investigation and it would not be proper for him to discuss it.

Statement of Capt. Ayers. "In my statement about missing girls," continued Capt. Ayers, "I wonder how many of you have thought of the case of Dorothy Arnold. Do you recall that some time ago the search for her ceased apparently? Her parents, relatives and friends, who had been led to follow in all directions, ceased their activity."

A man seated on the platform then asked if it was an intricate case.

"All I can say is that it has been solved by the department," Capt. Ayers replied. "Dorothy Arnold is no longer listed as a missing person."

Mr. Keith said, "It is a lie from start to finish, for if he has been quoted correctly, Capt. Ayers seems to intimate that the mystery of Dorothy Arnold's disappearance has been solved, and that the family for some reason has kept the solution a secret."

"This is not true, for the disappearance of Dorothy is much of a mystery today as it was the day she disappeared more than ten years ago. There hasn't been the slightest clearing of the mystery. We don't know anything more about her disappearance, except that we have eliminated all clues as they came up."

Mr. Keith said he was to be out of town today, but that he would write to Police Commissioner Enright complaining of Capt. Ayers' remarks and asking the commissioner to take appropriate action. "I would not mind if this had been said by a private person," Mr. Keith continued, "but a member of the police department has no right to make a statement of this nature, particularly as it is not true."

OTTAWA, April 15.—Royal assent will be given the interim supply bill and other measures which have received third reading, at 4:30 this afternoon, when the acting governor will attend at the Senate chamber for the purpose.

BRANTFORD REFRIGERATORS

Testing and demonstrating the peculiar and interesting features that are part of all BRANTFORD Refrigerators

FROM OUTWARD APPEARANCES ALL REFRIGERATORS LOOK ALIKE, BUT THERE ACTUALLY IS A VAST DIFFERENCE.

SUCCESSFUL refrigeration depends almost entirely upon free and unobstructed circulation of air within it. This condition can only be obtained by freely accepting nature's laws in point of gravitation, together with the adoption of a few commonsense principles.

THE MANNER in which to successfully apply nature's laws to the inside of a refrigerator is an interesting subject. Like all other intricate things, "it's easy when you know how."

Will the milk and butter be free from taint and as sweet and fresh as when first put into the refrigerator?

Will there be any ice left? Will the walls of the ice and provision chambers be free from moisture?

These and many other interesting questions will be answered in a practical manner at the opening of our sealed "Brantford" Refrigerator Monday at 2:30 p.m.

Come and see for yourself.

The House Shortage--

Do you know that there are many newcomers to our city, who, on account of their ignorance of the city, are finding it hard to locate rooms? Since we started our "To Let" Department many are coming to us for rooms, flats and houses.

If you have either a room, flat or house, particularly unfurnished three and four room flats, list them with us. We have a large waiting list, and can probably secure you some "nice people" for your rooms in a very short time. There is no charge for this service. It is free to all. Make full use of it.

If you are looking for furnished or unfurnished rooms, we also extend you an invitation. We may have something of your liking; if not, leave your name and address and we will notify you as soon as we have. At present we have several furnished three-room bath flats in good localities.

Are not only a convenience, but are also food-savers. Much food is spoiled during the hot months that might have been saved if kept in a "Brantford." Start now to save this loss. Order your "Brantford" Refrigerator.

An Invitation to You---

We give you a hearty invitation to our store Monday (the 18th) at 2:30 p.m., when the "Brantford" Refrigerator sealed yesterday by two of London's prominent newspapermen, will be opened.

This Refrigerator can be seen in our windows, securely roped (the knots having been sealed) and chained, as well as locked. Sealed in the Refrigerator are butter, milk, chocolate, oranges, limberger cheese, herring, steak, cigars, cigarettes and matches.

The object of this test is to prove that highly odorous foods may be kept in a "Brantford" without tainting other foods.

BEGGAR BREAKS HIS 31 YEARS' SILENCE

Notre Dame Fakir Tells the Police He Tires of Lying to Lies.

Paris, April 15.—He reminded one of some down-trodden character in a Victor Hugo story. Silently, for he was rated as a deaf mute, he stood about in the shadows of old Notre Dame and asked alms of passersby. He was a beggar, but a keen observer and a bit of a philosopher also. Tall and gaunt, he left a lasting impression on all who passed. Thus in the thirty-two years during which he worked at his trade of beggar in the same neighborhood he became a widely known character, although he had never done anything except ask alms with a gesture.

From time to time the police arrested him and charged him with mendicancy, but each time the doctor's examination indicated he was deaf and dumb.

The other day a new policeman was put on the beat. He did not know the beggar's reputation and so he arrested him. But the inspector promptly ordered his release. "We know him well," he explained to the new policeman. "The poor fellow is deaf and dumb."

To his amazement the beggar replied to him, saying:

MUTT AND JEFF—On the Level, Hasn't Jeff a Silly Sense of Humor?

If Buzz Has Stand In With
Flag Man, He's No Favorite
Son of Weather MerchantHillyar and Pinto Likely To Stick, But Detrick Is Billed To Go—Stutz Keeps Up His Entertaining Patter.

[By G. H. Townsend.]

DELAWARE, Ohio, April 15.—The did man who deals out the weather has a pick on Buzz and his aggression again this year. Another shower last night dampened the diamond, so that today it was impossible to track around on the lot.

With the sun shining all day today, however, Wetzel took his Canadians out for a romp on the green and gave the men a little batting practice, and at the same time gave the outfielders a working out. The pitchers and catchers did some work in the cages also.

Ohio Wesleyan has a variety match with other Ohio colleges scheduled for Saturday, and so about all the working they did today was a little knocking around aside from getting a lecture.

Wetzel is retaining Hillyar and Pinto of the new rookies. Hall is still with the string, but it is almost sure he will be dropped off before the club departs.

He is not showing a great deal and has no experience. Pinto appears to have the makings of a real pitcher, and Buzz likes his work. Just whether Hillyar will stick is still a problem. This lad Detrick is sticking, but after a decent and gentlemanly tryout, Wetzel will ship him out.

The old boys are looking fine. They have not had a decent day this week for a warning up. Kuhn is putting out the same old stuff. He will figure in the Sunday match with the Moose, it is sure.

Stutz Still Going Strong.

Stutz has not been still a minute since he arrived. During the evenings he entertains the boys with his wild stories of the Phillies or some other league he has been close contact with. Critchlow is full of jazz and pep. He is anxious to land in London to see the crowd. Of the rookies, Wetzel still has besides Pinto, Hillyar and Hall. Catcher Curran who will probably start north. He is a good hitter. Wise and Liffman are still around. They are a bit restless, waiting on Wetzel's verdict concerning their future. McWane, the London chap, although released, is still around town and visiting the training camp every day.

SARNIA'S LACROSSE
SQUAD TO GET OUT
ON MONDAY NIGHTThirteen Players Already Are Signed Up, With Lots More in Sight.

SARNIA, April 15.—Sarnia's lacrosse team will hold its first workout at Bayview Park Monday night at 6 o'clock, the early birds showing up at that time ahead of the rest. The squad will stick it out till dark.

Monday's gathering at the park is for the intermediate players and those intending to try for places on the team only. The Juniors and the City League players, whose equipment has not yet arrived, will commence working out later on, possibly the following day. It is hardly likely that anything very strenuous will be attempted for the first week or two, passing practices, conditioning exercises being the order of the day until the winter's growth of superfluous fat and wind shears lets up.

There will, it is expected, be over twenty players fighting for places on the intermediate team, and the local club has sent to the secretary of the O. A. L. A. for more playing certificates.

CHATHAM PLANS BIG
WELCOME TO BRITISH
BOWLERS IN SEPT.N. H. Stevens and J. A. Walker, K.C., Were On Team
Touring England.

CHATHAM, April 15.—One of the biggest events in the history of the Chatham Lawn Bowling Club, and one that will bring back memories to the older generation of bowlers will be the monster bowling tournament, which will take place in this city on September 3 next on the occasion of the visit of the British bowlers, who will be in Chatham on that date.

Tentative plans have already been formed and representatives are reported to be coming from the bowling clubs at Windsor, Walkerville, Fergus, Chatham, Amherstburg, London, Galt, Woodstock, Leamington, Ridgeway, Florence, Wallaceburg and several other cities and towns which have not as yet been heard from.

Twenty-five years ago several rinks of Canadian bowlers journeyed across the seas to England, where they were royally entertained. Among them were N. H. Stevens and J. A. Walker, K.C., of this city, who were then in their prime. Although both are well advanced in years, they will be on hand to take part in the tournament.

Be Brought Here As Judge.

Several hundred dogs will probably be benched for competition at the fourth annual spring show of the London Canine Association and convention of dog fanciers which is to open on April 22 and 23. Citizens and merchants of the city have joined with the association to make the show a success, and as a result a very handsome prize list has been prepared and is now ready for the prospective exhibitors.

Mr. George Ward of Toronto, the well-known expert on all breeds, is to judge the show, which is notable on account of the fact that this will be Mr. Ward's last judging engagement in Canada, as he is to leave shortly for England. The London association is being congratulated on their good fortune in securing such a judge of international fame.

Novice Classes.
Although many of the principal winners of Canada will be benched for competition, the local association has made special provision for dogs that have never before been shown at shows other than evening shows, and classes have been provided for them. This will give the local owned pet dogs an opportunity to carry home some of the prizes, and will make the show of additional local interest. Most of the competitors of the evening shows are expected to be benched, but as there is a much more complete classification in the novice classes, they will be well distributed among the classes. Speculation is rife as to whether the expert judge will sustain the same order of award passed upon local dogs at the evening shows throughout the winter, and the opportunity is offered exhibitors who feel their dogs were not correctly placed to bring them out for expert inspection.

LISTOWEL BOWLERS HAVE NOT DECIDED ON DATES

LISTOWEL, April 15.—The Listowel bowlers are organized and ready for the weatherman to do his part and provide a streak of consistently warm weather.

The club has not yet decided on the dates for the annual tournament and the Scotch doubles competitions.

The officers are: Patrons, H. B. Morphy, K.C., M.P., F. W. Hay, M.P., and Mayor H. Malcolm; president, W. W. Scott; secretary, M. Archibald; treasurer, H. Zilliox; auditors, A. M. Smith, G. A. McDonald.

AS YOU WERE

(BY SEE S. GEE)

The feminine portion of the city has been so prominent this year in basketball that it was prophesied they would branch out into soccer, field hockey or lacrosse, three summer games that recently added to the popularity of the feminine but thus far the athletes appear to be all in favor of taking a rest for the next few months. However, rumors to the effect that they may take up some of these suggested pastimes may yet be justified.

The Ladies Ontario Basketball Association has shown that girls can run an athletic organization, even on a provincial scale, and get away with it more than creditably, both financially and every other way. Similar organizations of other pastimes are inevitable with the present feminine trend toward organized athletics.

The proposal to do away with the "jab check" and the "cross-check" in lacrosse, which is causing much discussion at least shows one thing, and that is that those interested in the game are getting to the root of the game's unpopularity—its roughness. The jab check can be done away with speedily, but it will be hard slugging trying to do anything with the cross-check. The cross-check, in variations, of course, is the natural way for a defence man to check an opponent coming in on him, when it comes to the actual check. But that is not the nature of the cross-check. It is to hang the opponent under the chin or keep barring and bumping him when he's not netting a pass, and is practically out of play. If the referees were given plenty of room for judgment as to when a check was too much of the cross-check, many of the many of the clashes on the field, having their source in this kind of play, would be avoided.

A little less than a month and London will be staging an opening day. By the reports from Delaware, out of the big squad of material gathered at the training camp, Buzz has had little reason to change any of the old vets for the new talent. A couple of new hurriers, an outfielder and utility man, and the squad will be pretty nearly complete, and won't look much different to last year. It won't need to make a hit with the local fans.

On behalf of the Michigan-Ontario

League, George H. Malnes, president of that circuit, presented a loving cup to Manager Ty Cobb, and one of similar design to Manager Gleason—Detroit Free Press.

Among Increases in Population.

OWOSSO, Mich., April 15.—William J. Dowling, manager of the Owosso senior team, has signed a pitcher, catcher and shortstop. The balance of the team will be signed within a few days. A diamond is planned at the Fair Grounds.

The Hamilton Spectator says: Hamilton has many enthusiasts in various lines of sport, but none that could compare with Mike Collins. Michael is not as well known in the city as some of the other sporting men, but if he succeeds in making his lacrosse team winners this season, there is no doubt that he will gain a place in the local hall of sport fame.

Lacrosse is his middle name, and he has played and seen it played in all parts of the country. He knows every good lacrosse man that ever handled a stick, and he claims that he has enough material on hand to give Hamilton a winning team. Several men have tried to make the game popular here, but without success, and if Collins succeeds, he will be looked upon by the outside lacrosse world as the miracle man of the national game.

Mike would have already been the miracle man of lacrosse in putting London on the map in two seasons, if the referee had let him.

SARNIA WANDERERS IN JUNIOR SOCCER LEAD

SARNIA, April 15.—The Wanderers went into the lead in the Lambton County Soccer League here tonight by virtue of their 2-1 win over the Sarnia Juniors at the Athletic Park. The Wanderers showed a big improvement over their last appearance. Bending and Perry scored for the Wanderers and Gault for the Juniors.

TWO CHAMPIONSHIPS
NOW UNDER EYE OF
NEW TENNIS ASSOC.Plan Inclusion of Every Tennis Club in Province.

Following a meeting of the newly-formed Ontario Lawn Tennis Association in Hamilton last night, the following dates were announced for tournaments to be held under its jurisdiction:

Ontario championships—Rideau Club, Ottawa, June 25 to July 2; J. M. Bates, official referee.

Toronto City championship—Rusholme Club, Toronto, June 15 to 25. The association also laid the foundation for its work, which will ultimately result in more frequent inter-club competition, and more numerous and representative championship tournaments. Encouragement of the game among juniors and pre-school youngsters is also promised to be a feature of the work of the new body.

The meeting laid plans for the inclusion in its membership of every tennis club in the province as the objects for which it stands will appeal to the followers of the game. An interesting and important feature of the association's work in the control exercised upon all tournaments held within the province, except Canadian and international championships, and the fact that nonplayer is eligible to enter the Ontario or any city or section championship who does not belong to a club of which is a member in good standing of the association or an affiliated body. The Ontario Association is affiliated with the parent Canadian Association, as well as with the other provincial, and the American and British bodies.

Ten Teams Will Be in City
Soccer League This YearGood Meeting Last Night
Augurs Well For Second Season of Organization.

There's at least a possibility of ten clubs for the season. City Soccer League, which was started off on its second campaign at a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. last night. Mr. Morgan, for years president of the Toronto Scottish and now a member of the London and District Council, was elected president last night.

It was decided to leave the entry list open until May 15, but from the meeting last night at which there was a good attendance, it is safe to predict that approximately ten teams will take up the City League season when it is started.

The King Edward and McCutcheon Cups will be the objectives this year, and are at present held by Grand Trunk and Utilities.

The officers elected last night are: President, Max Morgan; first vice-president, J. W. Cunliffe; secretary, treasurer, R. G. Sim, 682 Adelaide street; council, Dr. A. G. Fraser, Dr. McChie, Mr. G. Lewis, Mr. W. C. Butler.

A Message From the President of the Cadillac Motor Car Company

Year after year it has been necessary for us, at this season, to caution prospective buyers of the Cadillac Motor Car against possible disappointment in the matter of securing delivery.

The necessity was never more urgent, as it is our conviction that the months of May and June, and the remainder of the year, will witness the greatest shortage of Cadillac cars in the history of the company.

The Cadillac Company is firmly committed to the policy of building 8-cylinder cars which will continue to be the Standard of the World.

Present prices on Cadillac Motor Cars will remain unchanged throughout the year 1921.

What the Press Agents Say
About the Shows

AT THE GRAND.

THE "DUMBELLS" AT THE GRAND TWICE TODAY.

The "Dumbells," the original entertainment company of the 3rd Division at the front, will appear at the Grand twice today in their farewell engagement. The "Dumbells" are now known throughout the length and breadth of the Dominion, and their work has won for them the highest reputation as singers, impersonators, comedians, and actors. In "Biff, Bing, Bang!" they give a series of widely varied feature acts, all of which are of the highest vaudeville standard. Ross Hamilton, the one and only "Marjorie," whose female impersonations are so remarkable that he has been offered big sums to appear on the vaudeville stage, is still with the "Dumbells."

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, IN "THE KID," AT THE GRAND ALL NEXT WEEK.
Charlie Chaplin has the honor of being the highest paid screen actor in the world and the amount he has received is publicly known.

Two years ago he signed a contract for $1,000,000 for a single year's work. Newspapermen and the public generally were present when the contract was signed. It stipulated that he was to appear in twelve different productions in the course of the year during which the contract was in force, and he was to receive monthly payments which would total $1,000,000 by the end of the year.

This contract was accepted as being the high-water mark of compensation for a film actor. Newspaper editors as well as many men in the film industry openly declared that it would never again be equalled. They pointed out that Chaplin was then at the height of his popularity and that the contract would be a paying one for the company making it, but that it could not be repeated without disaster.

When that contract expired, Associated First National Pictures, Inc., made a contract with the comedian that was just fifty per cent greater in point of compensation than the first one he had made. This association of exhibitors stipulated to pay him $1,000,000 for eight pictures, instead of the twelve, which had been the basis of the first $1,000,000 contract signed by Chaplin. "A Dog's Life" and "Shoulder Arms," the first two pictures he produced under this contract gained a degree of popularity among American audiences that had never before been attained, and speculation as to what his next contract would call for became current. That his time was actually worth more than $1,000,000 was an established fact.

Then Chaplin produced the million-dollar picture.

After completing half his contract with Associated First National Pictures, he voluntarily relinquished the income he would receive from it, for the purpose of working on the production of "The Kid," which will be the attraction at the Grand Theatre for six days, beginning Monday. He devoted twelve months of his time to the making of it, besides defraying all the expenses of it himself. There does not have to be any conjecture as to what the first six months of the year he spent on the production cost him, for he could have collected $500,000 for them, under his contract with Associated First National had he chosen to do so. There is no reason for thinking that he could not have gotten an equal amount, if not more, for the next six months of his time which "The Kid" occupied. It is a real million-dollar picture in point of cost.

There will be daily matinees at 2:15, and two shows at night at 7 and 9 o'clock. Patrons are requested to come to matinees and avoid the crowds.

AT ALLEN'S.

MARGUERITE CLARK IN "SCRAMBLED WIVES," MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, WITH PARAMOUNT MYSTERY PHOTOGRAMMA. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Allen there will be another double program. Heading the offerings will be Marguerite Clark. "You mustn't let them know I ever married you," she said, and he echoed her request. But how were they going to keep the secret when around them was a suspicious wife, a jealous fiancée, and a girl who was present when the terrible event happened. And then the scramble started. "Scrambled Wives" is just the happy sort of a play in which you like to see dainty little Marguerite at her best.

Of all the novels that stand to Oppenheim's credit none have reached the pinnacle of popularity as his "Cinema Murder." Adapted to the screen by the Paramount Company, this thrilling story will keep you guessing until the very last scene.

A host of added attractions, including Rollin Comedy, Allen News, Chester Outing Pictures and musical novelties, will complete this program.

"IDOLS OF CLAY," STARRING MAE MURRAY AND DAVID POWELL, PICTURESQUE STORY OF SOUTH SEA ISLANDS, AT ALLEN THURSDAY NEXT.

"Idols of Clay" has been secured for an engagement at the Allen next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Mae Murray, supported by David Powell, appears to the best of advantage in the role of a young man of society in the many different and varied settings of London society life, the Limehouse district, and in the tropical settings of the South Sea Islands, where the greater part of the story takes place. The misty and mystical glimpses of the Limehouse district of London hint at deeds dark and strange.

Among the added attractions will be one of those big special Mermaid Comedies, Allen World News, Screen Snapshots, musical novelties, variety entertainment.

"THE SON OF TARZAN" AT ALLEN NEXT THURSDAY.

The first episode of "The Son of Tarzan," which is showing at the Allen next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is entitled "The Pirates' Prey," and, unbelievable as it may seem, it is even more thrilling than any of those yet shown. In the opening scenes young Korak the Killer, the boy, meets and battles with a ferocious lion, saving Meriam, his sweetheart, from a horrible death. Later Korak goes off to a native village, and on his way meets Tantor, the great elephant, former companion of Tarzan, the boy's father, when that great man wandered through the wilds, and the boy and the elephant became fast friends, so that Korak continues his journey on the elephant's back. After arriving at the village Korak is captured by the blacks, but rescued by the great elephant.

MOST UNIQUE OF FISH TALES CLAIMED FOR FILM COMEDY.

A new record for fish stories is promised in "Dynamite," the third of the Mermaid two-reel comedies, which comes to the Allen Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week with Lloyd Hamilton, of "Ham and Bud" fame, who was the star in "Duck In." In this picture Ham catches fish without line or rod or net, but still he uses flies for bait. He neither sits on the bank nor dries, and does not use a boat. It would be spoiling the fun to tell how he does catch 'em, but there are more laughs in this comedy than any fish story ever told.

WALLACE REID A TEACHER OF CHARM!

Wallace Reid has become a teacher of charm in a young ladies' school! The pupils are taught how to make themselves charming, the course comprising lessons in Grecian and modern dancing, swimming, daisies and beauty culture.

But before Mr. Reid is swamped with letters of inquiry from admiring screen fans, it should be said that this is only a part of the star's latest Paramount picture, "The Charm School" which will be shown at Loew's Theatre next Monday.

According to the story, Mr. Reid as Austin Bevans inherits the girls' school from his aunt. Believing that women should devote more time to making themselves charming he converts the institution into a "charm" school and drama of the artist quarter of Paris, "Body and Soul," from the play by William Hurlbut, Thursday next at Loew's Theatre.

In this picture, it is understood Miss Lake will be seen first as an American girl art student in the French capital; and again as the same girl as she was after an unusual incident which changes her entire personality. It promises to present to Miss Lake decidedly her greatest opportunity. Not a dual role picture, "Body and Soul" nevertheless is a test of the young actress' range of character portrayal, in that the nature, the soul, of Claire Martin undergoes such a radical warping as the result of the strange great adventure befalling her in "The Quarter Latin."

A funny Sunshine comic, Loew's Pictorial and three vaudeville offerings complete the program for the last three days of next week.

MAJESTIC.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Manager Grew has secured for the Majestic patrons for next week, commencing April 18, a combination of players that will by far surpass anything yet produced by him at the Majestic Theatre. The combination is as follows:

Mr. Lawrence D'Orsay, late of Al Jolson's Winter Garden Show, 1920; Mr. Geo. H. Summers of Shubert's Gaities 1919 and principal comedian with Stuart Whyte's production this past season, together with the famous Majestic Players comedian, James V. Swift, in a play with music, entitled "The Rented Earl."

"The Rented Earl" was written by Mr. Salisbury Field, who, by the way, wrote the famous farce comedy "Twin Beds." He wrote "The Rented Earl" first in book form and later at the request of Mr. D'Orsay dramatized it. In it he portrays the young Englishman, full of robust health, on his way to take possession of his ranch in the West, but not a lemon ranch, old chap! Lemon ranches are rotten, don't yer know? Cows and all that sort of thing. "You will be sure and write and tell us how they like your cowboy costume, old chap! Well, good-by. Oh, write and tell us how you get along with your lasso. It's a corker, don't yer know. All of which must be correct, as you get them in Bond street, London."

Many words of advice given to the young lord pass unnoticed as the ship dropped down stream.

CROATS ASSERT THEIR FREEDOM

Vienna, April 15.—What purports to be an address to Belgrade by the Croatian Peasants' Party, formulated at a meeting in Agram and suppressed by the Government, is printed by the Reichspost of this city. It is virtually a declaration of independence of Croatia.

A significant feature of it is the fact that it is addressed to "His Royal Highness, the regent of the kingdom of Serbia as military commander in Belgrade." Signed by 48 deputies of the Radical party, it begins with the statement that they consider it their duty to invalidate in the name of the Croatian nation and state the address which the central committee of the national assembly, with only eight members of the Croatian Diet, presented to the regent in December, 1918, and also to invalidate the decisions of the Croatian Diet since October of that year.

Makes Meaning Clear.

Declaring that the Croatian Diet in October, 1918, proclaimed the entire independence of Croatia, Slavonia, Dalmatia and the Mur Islands and handed over to the national assembly the supreme power, the address points out that at the same time it distinctly made clear that they meant only to become members of a union, but by no means to join the centralized state of the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes. It supports this view by construing the decision of the peace conference in response to its appeal for an independent Peasants' Republic as meaning Croatia was compelled to become part of the S. H. S. only in an international sense and that the conference did not force upon Croatia the Serbian monarchy.

The monarchy was proclaimed by the regent, the manifesto continues, "on the basis of the above-mentioned address which was repudiated and invalidated by the Croatian nation in November of last year," so "that the present regime which constitutes an unprecedented reign of terror can only be kept up by force of arms and oppression."

Has Been Oppressed.

Since December of 1920, the manifesto continues, the Croatian nation has been oppressed and suppressed in a manner never before experienced in its history, while the introduction of corporal punishment and its daily practice upon the peasants by the gendarmerie because of their republican tendencies "is a deadly hurt to the national feeling, dignity and culture of the country."

Relying upon military force, the manifesto charges that the Serbs have deprived the Croats of equal rights in the union in any sphere and has outlawed them in financial, military and constitutional affairs.

Suppression of newspapers printing articles offensive to Belgrade is charged as well as the strict prohibition of a Peasants' Party organ. It recites the arbitrary dismemberment of Croatia by a packed commission in a way "not even attempted by the Venetians, the Turks, nor the Austrians," in the course of centuries. It recites the arrests and imprisonment of the Croatian deputy, Nikola Srdovic, because he defied the king and stood by his constituency and says that the Serbian commissioners publicly declare they will bring about the bankruptcy of those municipalities who do not vote as Belgrade directs.

Far Worse Wrongs Done.

"By far worse wrongs were done by your Government to the Croatian-Mohammedan majority in Bosnia and Herzegovina," continues the document, "as well as to the Croatian majority in the Earska. Two hundred thousand Croats there were treated in a manner that would have been forbidden even were they Magyars. A system of murdering and plundering is being carried on. The embitterment of the whole nation is such that history may hardly afford an analogy to such general discontent."

The manifesto concludes: "After this great war a peasant state can exist in our territory only in the form of a republic and if the present moment is not public and if the present moment is not a suitable one for the construction of a republican constitution in our territory on account of party disputes and weariness, the unbending will and resolute action of the Croatian people is that a peasant republic be created without hindrance by force. The conscience of reawakened humanity, the vigilant eye of Europe, the vital interests of our Yugoslav national unity demand categorically that your royal highness may forbid any tearing asunder of the Croats and the Serbs by military forces under your command, thus creating an encircled military camp in Croatia. Instead of building up a peaceful workshop with new constitutional life in harmony with Serbia and in community with all Jugoslavs."

The Reichspost declares that this document was printed and pressed in the Reichspost printing plant in Vienna. Incidentally the Vienna Reichspost has been forbidden circulation in South Jugo-Slavia because of a series of articles describing alleged persecutions of the minor peoples by the Belgrade Government.

MAY WIPE OUT DREAD DISEASE

LONDON, April 15.—To the world's most pitiful outcasts, its two million lepers, there has now come an English physician the first hope of a cure. The physician is Sir Leonard Rogers, C.I.E., F.R.S., who has just been elected first president of the tropical diseases section of the Royal Society of Medicine, and was, until recently, professor of pathology in the medical college, Calcutta.

Sir Leonard, who has just returned to England, with the usual modesty and caution of the scientist, is very guarded in his statements. But though he refuses to say that he has found a cure for leprosy, it is certain that he has moved further toward it than any other medical man.

Photographs Tell Story.

He has in his possession photographs that tell an astonishing tale. They show lepers, Indian and European, before and after treatment, and prove at least that it is possible now to remove marked disfigurements, not by surgical operation, but by the operation of nature stimulated by the new method.

"There is one case," Sir Leonard told me, "of a leper who has recovered his sight through my treatment, and I know of others who have regained their sense of touch. An Indian patient who could not walk 200 or 300 yards before treatment now can walk ten miles."

"For a long time the only drug known to be of value in the treatment of leprosy was cod liver oil, which is obtained from the liver of a fish which grows wild in India. Owing to the nauseating character of the oil, it could not be taken in sufficient doses to do more than inhibit the course of the disease, but in the early stages it occasionally caused the disappearance of the symptoms."

"The first step in advance was made when Dr. Heiser, the American doctor in the Philippine Islands, injected this oil with other substances intramuscularly, and obtained an apparent cure in 11 per cent of his cases as the result of a prolonged course of painful injections."

"It was at this point that I took up the work in 1915, and obtained a soluble sodium salt of the unsaturated fatty acids which form the bulk of the oil, and discovered that they could be injected subcutaneously and intravenously safely and with greater effect on the disease."

"Moreover, reactions occurred with the destruction of the leprosy bacilli in the tissues. That has never been done before."

Though the total number of lepers in the world is variously estimated at from one to three millions, in only three of the great leper countries is the state giving real attention to the problem. The United States has given the lead to the world in the Philippines, and the Government of India, faced with its 150,000 lepers, is now moving strongly in the matter. Public opinion, stirred up by Lady Chelmsford, while her husband was viceroy, has led to an important amendment of the leprosy act, which makes it possible for the provincial governments to enforce the segregation of pauper lepers.

Segregation is the only way to stamp out the scourge, but the general application of such a measure in India is both impracticable and impossible. In China, Korea and the islands of the Southern Seas, as well as in certain parts of South America, leprosy is rampant, and largely unchecked. Even the numbers of the victims are not known, and any estimate of the world's total must of necessity be but a guess based on a rough calculation from the known figures of typical districts.

As segregation is essential if the disease is to be finally beaten, the present appalling position will be grasped when it is pointed out that even in India, with a government anxious to deal with the problem, only about 7,500 of the 150,000 lepers are isolated for treatment. In China there are in segregation in mission stations roughly about 1,000, though plans are now being formed to start an island colony off the coast of Canton. In Africa and in the villages of the Southern Seas nothing as yet is being done.

No One Knows Its Origin.

It is a strange fact that no one knows where leprosy originated. It has been with us from time immemorial. In the Book of Leviticus is recorded the segregation law of the ancient Jews. "The leper in whom the plague is," it is written in the 13th chapter, "his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry 'Unclean, unclean.' All the days wherein the plague shall be in him shall he be defiled; he is unclean; he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his habitation be."

And this old Biblical method has endured to this day, with varying degrees of cruelty in its application. Now all that medical science and Christian charity can do to smooth the rough path of the leper is being done.

In the middle ages leprosy was rife in Europe, and there were no less than 22,000 leper houses established. Some of the old churches in England have still got what are known as "leper squints," small grated windows through which it is supposed the lepers were able to see the altar.

Lepers Long Ago in England.

It is popularly supposed that leprosy was brought into the British Isles by the Crusaders, but there are evidences of lepers in England long before that, one case being recorded as early as 60 B. C. Under the reign of the Crusaders from the East first made the disease general enough to require the setting up of leper houses all over the land.

It is curious that the disease lingered longest in the northern islands of Scotland. The disease was apparently exactly the same as that which is still so great a scourge in the East. All classes of the population were affected from the king downwards. Of the Scottish kings Henry III. and IV. and Robert Bruce are said to have had the disease. The plague became so widespread that every town in Scotland was obliged by law to have a leper hospital.

Shoot Lepers on Sight.

In the Stone Gateway district, Chaotung, Yunnan, China, the magistrate of the city of Double Star has issued a proclamation warning lepers that they are liable to be shot at sight if they visit or pass through any country or city market. The result is that those unfortunate live in terror in rude huts and caves, and are in great distress.

It is a pathetic commentary on the way the lepers are treated in this area that a Miss Abbott, who has been here because, although the mission has found her and was helping her, she mistook the missionaries. She thought it was too good to be true that anyone should be willing to succor her, and so took her life.

SHOPMEN RETURNING TO WORK AT M. C. R.

But Conditions Not Yet Normal—Permanent Employment Not Promised.

ST. THOMAS, April 15.—Although the average railwayman does not look for normal conditions on the M. C. R. to return for a year to come, the shopmen are returning to work in limited squads, but even their permanent employment is not promised them. A couple of dozen went to work today to meet some pressing needs in the mechanical department, and Master Mechanic Welsh hopes for more to follow, as conditions compel the management to increase the staff of employees. A similar situation exists at the Pere Marquette, but there is little prospect in sight for a re-engagement of its men, though there is considerable work to be done one way or another at the local shops.

TRAFFIC BILL PASSES HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 15.—The House of Representatives late today passed the Young Emergency tariff and anti-dumping bill. The vote was 265 to 112, with two members voting present.

BLUE LAWS FAIL AS FAR AS SUNDAY BALL GAMES ARE CONCERNED

BALTIMORE, April 15.—Blue laws, so far as they apply to Sunday baseball games have been played at Oriole Park.

When the foreman of the jury announced "not guilty" as the verdict, the large crowd in the court started to indulge in a demonstration, which was silenced by the judge.

St. Marys, April 15.—At a special meeting of the town council, held tonight, the water, light and heat board was instructed to make all necessary connections to vacant lots at once, so that their work will not interrupt in any way that of the Warren paving contractors, who will be on Queen street at a very early date. A tax rate was to have been set at this meeting, but was deferred to a later date.

HAD BAD COUGH FOR THREE YEARS

The constant hacking, racking, persistent cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it, is the kind that is dangerous.

The longer the cough sticks, the more serious menace it becomes to your health.

There is no remedy that will relieve coughs—coughs that won't let go—like Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It has a healing and soothing action on the air passages, and at the same time acts as a disinfectant of the respiratory organs, destroying the germs that produce serious lung complications.

Mrs. John Miller, Minburn, Alta., writes: "I had a very bad cough for three years. I went to several doctors and tried different cough medicines, but nothing seemed to help me. One day a friend told me about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and after using several bottles I became completely relieved. I always keep a bottle in the house, and also recommend it to others."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has been universally used for over 30 years, and so great has been its success, it is only natural that a great many imitations have been placed on the market. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper, 3 pence the trade mark; price per bottle 35c and 60c a bottle; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited.

Irish Freedom Will Come When Ireland Is Ready To Accept in Peaceable Way

The following letter addressed to the editor of the Youngstown, Ohio, Telegram by Rev. W. H. Wilson of that city deals with the Irish question in a broad and fair manner. Rev. Mr. Wilson is a former Londoner, and a brother of the late Nicholas Wilson, who taught for years in London schools. The letter follows:

"The liberty of the press is the grand platform of all our liberties, social, civil and religious." So said a great statesman. The press is the people's forum. It has voiced the claims of the Celtic race for release from Anglo-Saxon domination. The other side is entitled to a hearing.

This writer is of pure Irish blood and pro-Irish sympathies. His father lived for 70 years under the British flag, and the yoke which galls the neck of the green Isle today was never complained of. A man of more than average intelligence, the supremacy of the Saxon was not endured by him and he was loyal to his last day to the Government, though never on its pay-roll.

The man who heads the movement for Irish autonomy is on his parental side Spanish. The man who just now represents the "Republic" in this county is heralded as "The Lord Mayor." Mr. Warneke must needs be very humble in so august a presence. He asks of us "recognition" of the Irish republic. Jefferson Davis asked of Britain recognition of the Confederacy. Did we then or do we now think it should have been granted?

The English are called "barbarous" because they use the weapons of war which had already been used against them. "They take the sword and shall perish by the sword." Those who have read history and those who have seen the lands where English civilization prevails will not be deceived by the clamor about the tyranny of the Saxon. Ask of those who have gone with unselfish aims into foreign lands, Christian missionaries with one voice assure us that the English flag is the sure symbol of freedom and the precursor of progress. It has been well said that it is the only nation that has a genius for colonization. Germany made miserable failure in her efforts to colonize. Only that race which has the spirit of freedom can bring freedom to races that are oppressed. That spirit in the early days of the settlement of this land of the colonists has made this the land of the free and is today working to uplift the masses in Africa and India.

The public mind has been misled by reckless statements to inflame passions. No two men have more deserved the sympathy and prayers which Mr. Hardington now craves for himself than Lloyd George and Woodrow Wilson, who led the forces of freedom in the world war. In Washington a few days ago men elected and men appointed to office took oaths to uphold the Government. Abraham Lincoln, the apostle of peace, carried on relentless war because he had sworn to preserve the constitution of his country. He stood then where Lloyd George stands today. The madman who fired the fatal bullet expressed the opinion of 10,000,000 people when he cried "Sei semper tyrannus." Would it be any safer for the twin Islands to be separated than for the North and South to be divided? Can the Celtic temperament be trusted any more than that of the southern fire-eater?

The Irish are lovers of freedom.

POSSESS GOOD HEALTH BY LOOKING AFTER THE BOWELS

A free motion of the bowels, once or twice a day, should be the rule of every one, as half the ill of life are caused by allowing the bowels to get into a constipated condition.

When the bowels are allowed to become constipated, the stomach gets out of order, and the liver does not do its work properly on account of holding back the bile, so that it does not pass through the bowels, but is allowed to get into the blood, thus causing a poisoning of the whole system.

If you would escape constipation, sick and bilious headaches, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath, the nasty irritable, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, you should keep your liver stirred up by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

These pills, being purely vegetable, keep your liver working actively, helping it to resume its proper functions, and thereby removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the whole system. Mrs. H. Barrows, Enfield, N. S., writes: "I was troubled with such headaches and constipation. One day a friend told me of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I got two vials, and found they did me a world of good. I therefore have great faith in them."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Why then did they refuse to fight against autocracy when English, Scots and Americans submitted to conscription? The British Government allowed them to be exempted, hoping that a spirit of forbearance would be shown in the post-war settlement of the questions in dispute. For ten years the premier has labored patiently to remove from the Irish people every grievance. No mention is made of these things by those who have profited by them. The great emancipator, he holds that the paramount duty of the hour is to preserve the union. If Britain should condone rebellion in Ireland and America should condone it, why not Eugene Debs be freed by the president and feted by the people?

Six million people in Ireland are surely not more oppressed than were the four million here 60 years ago. What if the Confederate Government had been recognized in Richmond when war had raged for four years? Imagine now the outcome with rival governments in London and Dublin. It must be admitted that the Irish blood is irascible and, once aroused, its anger does not soon subside. It is an Irishman who writes these words.

We are living in tumultuous times. The horrors reported from Ireland excite resentment because we hear so much about them. The horrors where we live seem to be accepted as a matter of course. What contempt for the will of God and the rights of fellowmen! Had there been seven years ago one-quarter of the murder and robbery and licentiousness that prevails today, people would have been wild with indignation. They would not have endured it placidly as we do today.

During the civil war a Fenian raid was made from New York into Canada, but the Irish who joined them were very few and in the half century since there has been no discontent or agitation across the border. The little nation beyond the lakes is practically a republic and is happy under the "yoke" of the crown. Problems of race and religion exist there, analogous to those in the old country, and nothing but a Christ-like spirit can settle either.

Now, in all fairness, since in the course of Providence, the two races must live as near neighbors, why not as professed believers in the maxims of Christ come to a settlement in a mild and rational manner? The British Government and people are willing to grant autonomy to Ireland as they have done to Canada and will do to India so soon as they are ready for it. Why not try the better way? Those who are worshippers of God the same God, so act and teach. Then, if not an independent republic, the kingdom of God, which is better, would come and peace and love and prosperity.

BOBBY IGNORES TITLE OF EARL

This London Officer Has Little Concern Over Chatter of Prisoner.

(By Crossley Davis.)

London, April 15.—Come with me in quest of adventure! Mayhap we shall find it if we fall in behind Police Constable Bloye, a typically hefty and impassive London "bobby," as, with majestic mien and a sharp eye out for possible evil-doers, he paces along his beat. It is night in the modern Babylon; to be exact, it is close on the hour of 12.

P. C. Bloye is a member of the Marlborough street squad, which has watch and ward over the more aristocratic part of London's white light district—namely the high-toned region that lies adjacent to gay Piccadilly, with its smart shops, fashionable and expensive hotels, and its exclusive clubs, famed the world over.

His is Beat De Luxe.

This worthy cop's particular beat therein takes him through a more than commonly distinguished locality, abounding in associations with the classic past and notable today for its atmosphere of extreme gentility and exceeding culture. It is the so-called Burlington district, which includes Burlington house, the home of the Royal Academy, the Royal society and a lot of other distinguished bodies; the famous Albany, abode of London's most affluent bachelors; Saville row, where some of the most famous tailoring firms in the world have their being and a lot of other thoroughfares renowned for their "selectness" or for the eminence of the high-brow institutions that situate in them.

It is customarily a region of cloistered calm, particularly during the stillly watches of the night. But P. C. Bloye found that calm in process of being rudely violated as, followed by us, his nocturnal round brought him into Burlington Gardens, lying in the shadow which the majestic pile of Burlington house casts in the moonlight.

Felt For His Truncheon. "Wot a goin' on 'ere," ejaculated the amazed and scandalized guardian of the peace as he felt for his truncheon, concealed in a long pocket on the inside of his expansive tunic.

No wonder the burly P. C. was flabbergasted, for in genteel Burlington Gardens there was something doing, something very lively doing! It gave the appearance of being a football match, the opposing teams consisting of solitary individuals, both in evening dress, who, though obviously rather unsteady on their "pins" were engaged in energetically kicking something around.

The something proved to be not a ball, but a silk hat. The contestants in this improvised game of football were two young men, quite evidently of the upper classes. As they kicked the shimmering cylinder, British emblem of ultra respectability—they yelled excitedly, and bursting into snatches of song. It was obvious to P. C. Bloye that they had dined, not wisely but too well. That in short they were tight—gloriously, riotously and unmistakably tight. There is no Volstead law in London.

"Drunk n'and disorderly," muttered the outraged P. C., and forthwith he hurled himself into the "scrum."

Pinched Them Both. "Quite enough of that, quite enough of that!" he bellowed as he forced the surprised contestants apart. "Wot d'ye mean by it? Go in' on like that in this here place in the middle of the night! You two got to come along w' me." "Thank all 'er officers; thank all 'er! Don't get excited," protested one of the two roysters. "Little friendly game of let me explain. I'm Earl of Carlisle and my friend here—" "I don't care oo you are," thundered P. C. Bloye. "You two got to come with me to police station! Pick up that silk hat and come 'bout of it! Quietly now, mind!" And grasping an arm of each youthful reveller, he proceeded to bear them ingloriously off to Marlborough street.

That is how London came to read in its morning paper that the Earl of Carlisle, George Josslyn L'Estrange Howard, aged 26, of Naworth Castle, Carlisle and 29, of Saville street, Lowndes Square, were up before the Marlborough street magistrate, and were by him fined respectively 20 shillings and 10 shillings and six pence costs for being drunk and disorderly. Both defendants were in court and, though their solicitor pleaded guilty and expressed regret.

But They Didn't Smile. The tale of their misconduct probably brought a grin to the faces of most people who read it and a chuckled comment to the effect that boys will be boys, titled or otherwise. But it must have made fairly humbling reading to the other members of the noble family of Howard, one of the oldest and most distinguished in the peerage, of which the youthful and high-spirited Earl of Carlisle is now the head. And particularly to his pretty young wife, scion of another titled family, to whom he was married only a couple of years ago.

So far as is known this little escapade—not a very reprehensible one if it hadn't happened to wind up in a police court—is the first of the kind in which his lordship has been concerned; anyway it is the first to be chronicled in the newspapers.

"Tests of Tire Quality"

Quick turns in narrow streets—

Did you ever stop to think in terms of tons or pounds of the immense strain there is on a tire turning a sharp corner? The sudden change of direction exerts a pressure capable of twisting steel. The bead, side-walls, tread, and "friction" of a tire must endure this tremendous tension.

"Gutta Percha" Tires are built to withstand tests of extraordinary endurance. Inseparability of parts, and exceptional strength of material are the secrets of the wonderful strain-resistance built into "Gutta Percha" Tires—Cord and Fabric.

Motorists should be wary of "cheap" tires. "Gutta Percha" Tires are standard tires and standard tires are worth the standard price every time.

NINE COSMOPOLITAN VAGS GIVEN WORK BY SARNIA MAGISTRATE

Fulfillment of Their Search
Gave Visitors a Rude Shock.

SARNIA, April 15.—Nine vagrants hailing from Toronto, Montreal and other parts of Canada and the United States, were given a rude jolt today when Police Magistrate Gorman, instead of sending them out of the city, ordered them to do a day's work gratis on city improvements and then shake the dust of Sarnia off their feet. The "vags" taken into custody by Grand Trunk detectives were found wandering about the Grand Trunk yards. All gave the excuse that they were seeking work.

Burton J. Batty, whose resignation as chief of the city fire department was accepted by the council at their last meeting, is still "carrying on," and no successor has yet been selected. A meeting of the committee will probably be held soon to decide on what action is to be taken.

Definite action towards the erection of Sarnia's new half-million-dollar college and technical school was taken at a special meeting of the board of education and industrial and technical committee, held following a conference with the architects and Secord & Sons, who submitted the lowest bid for general construction work.

Some changes in the organization of the Bell Telephone Company's local plant are being made by which the Sarnia plant will be operated under the jurisdiction of London. This will necessitate some changes in the staff.

In commemoration of the anniversary of the second battle of Spres, a memorial parade and service will be held in this city on Sunday, April 24, in which all the ex-service men in the city, boy scouts, cadets, machine gunners and Citizens' Band will participate. Members of the city council and war chest committee are also to be invited to attend.

Cashier Kills Bandit, Wounds Two, Captures Two Others, Saves Bank

Five Bandits Foiled in Raid On Cicero Bank—Three Trapped in Safe—Illinois Train Held Up—Robbers Secure Only Cancelled Checks.

CHICAGO, April 15.—S. B. Winowski, cashier of the State Bank of Cicero, a suburb, successfully defended the bank against a band of six automobile bandits today, killing one robber, wounding two, and capturing two others. Only the driver of the car, who remained outside the bank, escaped.

The six men drove up to the bank soon after it opened this morning, and five of the men entered with drawn revolvers and ordered the staff into the vault. While the bandits were scooping money into a bag, Winowski pushed the door of the vault ajar and fired through the aperture. One bandit fell with a bullet through his head, and two others were seriously wounded. Meanwhile, the police had responded to the bank's burglar alarm, arriving just in time to fire upon the fleeing bandit who was waiting outside in the automobile.

The other two robbers were captured after a running pistol fight of two blocks, and the money recovered. The slain bandit has been identified as Julian Norwell, 20 years old. The wounded men are Joseph Wagner, 21, and Louis Custer, 20.

BANDITS GET $639,000.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Six armed bandits, who held up two bank messengers on an Illinois Central train early today, captured two safes containing $639,000 worth of cancelled checks. The robbery was elaborately planned, two of the bandits following the messengers when they boarded the train at a downtown station, and the other four joining them half a mile south. The robbers left the train at 22nd street, and escaped in a taxi.

BACK TO PRIMEVAL DAYS; LIVED IN CAVE

Two Vagrants Arrested by Brantford Police Seek Simple Life.

BRANTFORD, April 15.—Back to primeval days was the habit indulged in by Charles Leman and Edward Jury, who were charged in police court today with vagrancy. They had been living in a cave near St. George. Leman, who is 17 years old, had tired of humdrum life around the home. He was given a chance to return to his father, but Jury, a confirmed vagrant, was remanded until Monday.

Death of Mrs. R. Ashton.
After a life-time of activity at the Mohawk Indian Institute, Mrs. Robert Ashton quietly passed away at her home here. Since she came to Canada in 1872 as wife of Rev. Robert Ashton, an Anglican clergyman, she had taken a keen interest in the work of the institute, and was succeeded by her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Boyce, as superintendent. Other children are: Major-General R. C. Ashton, quartermaster-general of the militia; Major A. Neilson Ashton of Grimsby; Mrs. W. F. Cock-shutt, a member for Brantford; and Mrs. C. C. Cooke of Charlottetown, Virginia. The remains will be laid to rest in the noted Mohawk Cemetery in Brantford on Saturday.

On a walking tour from Toronto to San Francisco, Samuel Ziegler and Harry Rosenberg of Toronto reached here this afternoon and secured the signatures of local officials and others. Lloyd Harris was the guest of honor at the annual ladies' night of the local Rotarians this evening. The program was a novel one, large at the large attendance thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Owner Summoned To Attend
Kramer Inquest At Kitchener.

KITCHENER, April 15.—The local police are holding the car of Albert Martin of Waterloo in connection with the killing of Stanley Kramer, who was run down by a motor car on Tuesday night. The car has been partially identified as the car which was seen speeding along King street at the time of the tragedy. Martin denies he hit Kramer with his car, and states he was on the scene merely to assist the victim to the hospital. Martin has been summoned to appear at the inquest, but has not been detained by the police.

CAYUGA

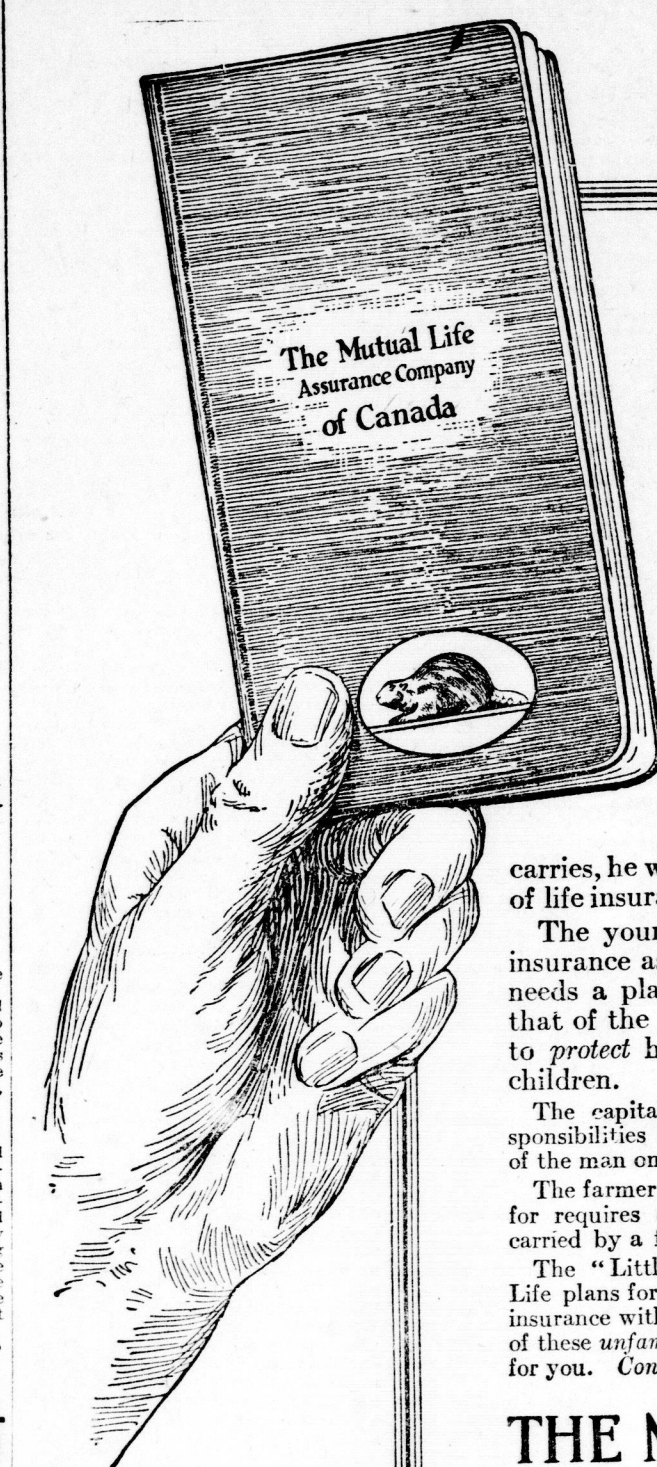

CAYUGA, April 15.—The contract for the new skating rink has been accepted by a Brantford firm, and it is expected the work of erection will be rushed.

The funeral of the late Miss Anne

She is survived by her father (96 years of age), four sisters and four brothers. Two brothers, Robert and Stephen, and Miss Mary live with their father at the homestead.

This Little Black Book Contains The Best Plan of Insurance For You

THE most sensible way to buy life insurance is to take the Mutual Life Agent into your confidence. Tell him your circumstances.

Then with the aid of the "Little Black Book," which every Mutual Life Agent carries, he will help you to select the plan of life insurance best suited to your needs.

The young unmarried man who buys insurance as an investment for his savings needs a plan of insurance different from that of the man who takes out insurance to protect his wife and family of young children.

The capitalist with very heavy financial responsibilities requires a plan different from that of the man on straight salary.

The farmer who has his farm bought and paid for requires a policy different from the one carried by a farmer with a mortgage to pay off.

The "Little Black Book" contains Mutual Life plans for everybody. It contains plans of insurance with which you are not familiar—one of these unfamiliar plans might be the very best for you. Consult the Mutual Life Agent.

Are You "TOO OLD" at Fifty?

How to Regain Health In Later Years

IN the past, it has been customary to expect certain afflictions with advancing years, and it was believed there was no remedy for them. Such ideas are fast changing, as a result of the wonderful accomplishments of medical science. When a man or woman nears the age of 50, their vital force often depends upon the proper action of the kidneys. Many people are inclined to regard backache, headaches, painful urination, swollen joints and pains in the sides as a sign of age—and something of little importance. Yet, these complaints can be remedied by affording the kidneys some assistance to enable them to properly perform their natural functions. That is the reason so many people of middle life write telling us they would not be without

GinPills FOR THE KIDNEYS

The letter of Mrs. Hugh McLeod is typical of thousands of others reaching us from all parts of Canada. She says: "I am 51 years old, and the mother of eight children. Five years ago, I was troubled with backache and dull pains across the abdomen. I used a box of Gin Pills, and feel so much better that I will continue to use Gin Pills."

Mr. E. G. Woodford writes: "Your remedy I find, at 60 years of age, to give me perfect relief."

You should give Gin Pills a trial. They will bring you surprising relief from many of the troubles of age, by helping to keep the kidneys and bladder in good condition. Try a sample, and you will never want to be without them. On sale everywhere—50c a box—remember, you get your money back, if they do not relieve you. A sample can be obtained by writing:—

MINERS' TROUBLE LIKELY TO BE BIG ISSUE IN THE BRITISH BY-ELECTION

London, April 15.—In the by-election at Bedford, where Frank G. Kellaway is seeking re-election on his promotion to the postmaster-generalship, it is expected that the ordinary citizen will take the opportunity to show what he thinks of the present industrial disputes and of the attitude of the Government in respect to the crisis. Curiously enough, the new postmaster-general has as his opponent the assistant secretary of the Postal Workers' Union, P. J. Riley, one of the moderates in the labor movement. Mr. Riley's chief criticism of the Government appears to be that it has neglected to provide the ministry of labor with an equipment of experts that would assure the settlement of disputes between capital and labor without recourse to strike or lockouts.

Mr. Kellaway avers that the miners' trouble has had the effect of rallying to his side many who otherwise would have abstained from voting.

VIVIANI APPLAUDS
CABINET DECISION
ON GERMANS' DEBT

Stirs Enthusiasm at Plaza
Hotel Banquet by Praising Harding's Stand.

CALUMNIES REFUTED

Propaganda to Cause Break
Between France and U. S.
Sternly Depreciated.

New York, April 15.—Rene Viviani, French envoy extraordinary to the United States, in an address before the Federation of the French Alliance of the United States and Canada at a luncheon in the Plaza Hotel yesterday, combated the German propaganda France believes has been deliberately undertaken to gain American sympathy for reduced indemnities. He also reassured the American people that France, far from seeking a remission of her part of the Allied debt, intended to pay in full as soon as she was able.

M. Viviani's sentiments were endorsed enthusiastically by Ambassador Jusserand, who took occasion in his introductory remarks to congratulate the American people and New York in particular on the recent American meeting in Madison Square Garden. It was a fitting answer, he said, to the "perfidious insinuations" who were trying to destroy the friendship between France and the United States. The luncheon was attended by upward of 300 persons. At the guest table, in addition to M. Viviani and the French ambassador, were Frank D. Pavey, general vice-president of the Federation of the French Alliance, who represented the president, Le Roy White, who is in Paris; Henry D. White, a member of the American Peace Commission; M. Gonzalve Desaulniers, Canadian vice-president of the alliance; Judge John C. Knox, Dr. Marcel Elnoch, secretary to M. Viviani; Justice Victor J. Dowling, Judge Edwin L. Garvin, William D. Guthrie, Justice Frank C. Laughlin, Frederic Cunliffe, Owen, M. Lucien Jouvau, James W. Gerard, M. Gaston Liebert, French consul-general; George W. Wickersham, M. Stephane Lauzanne, ex-Judge Alton B. Fargar, M. Charles de F. de Fontenay, Jules J. Mayer, Henry W. Taft, Justice Samuel Greenbaum and M. Albert Blum.

At the finish of his address M. Viviani invested Vice-President Pavey and M. Desaulniers with the insignia of Knights of the Legion of Honor, which recently had been conferred upon them by the French Government.

Warm tribute to Jusserand. M. Viviani began his address with a warm tribute to Ambassador Jusserand, who, he said, had to an unusual degree won his way into the hearts of the American people. He has, M. Viviani said, established in the minds of the American people an appreciation of the ideals of France and done it without resort to such propaganda tactics as the Germans were on their knees begging for an armistice they maliciously destroyed factories and industries to suppress foreign competition, and when there was no excuse in war for doing so, it was done wantonly and to prevent reconstruction, and we will suffer if they fail to meet our demands for reparations.

"After two and a half years France has received nothing and her people still are living in their ruined homes. To the American people this is a simple question. We ask only justice and the world cannot maintain its balance while there is a broken-down France.

"So today it was with joy that I read in the newspapers what your Administration had to say about Germany's obligations and moral responsibilities. This message will cross the Atlantic Ocean and carry comfort to hundreds of thousands of peasants in the devastated regions. For this, that you I came here simply as a pilgrim to plead a worthy cause, and it has been a great joy to me to be among friendly hearts."

M. Viviani ended with a complimentary reference to Mr. White as a member of the American peace commission and a fervent acknowledgment to former Ambassador Gerard for his efforts in behalf of fair treatment for French prisoners of war in Germany.

Jusserand Scores Germans. Ambassador Jusserand was equally emphatic in his denunciation of what he termed Germany's attempts to separate France and America.

"They (the Germans) have not repented," he said. "They may repent. When we repent we know they will understand and when they understand they will make amends. We are asking from Germany less than the interest on our own loans, which we shall repay."

"In return, their proposals are jokes—almost insults. The attitude of the Germans sometimes is not understood. They invent calumnies about France and say that we lack morality—that we are militarists. Think of the Germans calling us militarists. When we are forced into war we fight, and fight very well I dare say. But to say we are militarists requires proof. France has never celebrated the anniversary of one of her victories. That proves that we are not militarists."

"They complain of colored troops in Germany. There have been no colored troops in Germany since June 1, and as a matter of fact the Arab troops were there before the German troops.

"The United States did not forget what France did for her a century and a half ago. France will not forget what America has done for her. She will not forget where the Americans were—in the Argonne and at Chateau Thierry. United we have lived united we shall stand."

George W. Wickersham, in a brief speech, declared that M. Viviani's presence and the results of his visit would be a final answer to the element that looked toward the new national administration in the hope that it would lend support to Germany's efforts to evade her just obligations.

"Today's news from Washington," he said, "must have driven the last nail into the coffin of Germany's hopes. The two republics were together in war, and as we helped in the crisis so shall we stand by to see that justice is done. We have articulated and revived our conceptions of liberty and justice remember what Germany would have done us forget."

AUSTRIA CONVINCED OF ALLIES' FAITH
But Chancellor Mayr Deplores
the Limitation of Help to Private Credits.

FEAR BURDENSOME TERMS

Sees No Prospect of Union
With Germany Under Present Conditions.

[By Charles H. Grasty.]
Vienna, April 15.—I had a long talk with Chancellor Mayr. He spoke feelingly of America's help to Austria.

"After so much generosity I am sorry that we must beg for more," he said. The chancellor then, in reply to questions, discussed economic conditions and the possibilities of union with Germany. While careful to avoid any utterance which Germany might consider meddling or which the Austrian Pan-German party, which forms part of the government bloc in parliament, might resent, it was plain that the chancellor hoped that Germany would see a new light in approaching a settlement.

"What were your impressions in Paris and London?" I asked.

"My impression is that there is really good-will to help us," he replied, "and that these governments—French, English and Italian—are insurers of the financial situation. They don't give government credits, although public opinion is for such credits. English bankers and financiers have represented to the government that although public opinion is opposed to waste, they don't consider a loan to Austria as at all subject to that criticism. However, the governments have advised us that in view of the financial conditions we could not depend on government credits, but must seek private credits."

"Do you believe that the credit scheme agreed on will help Austria?" I asked.

"I suppose that depends on the measures which the allied governments will take," the chancellor answered. "If they simply let us drift in these private credits without giving guarantees and influencing their government, banks to float the loans, I don't think this scheme will help us."

"I cannot see why a private banker would be interested in granting credits to Austria if he gets the same 8 per cent on loans in his own country. Therefore, if we don't get government credit, the terms might be so burdensome that we wouldn't be able to bear them. If the governments do not underwrite the loans the result would be a financial raid, and after the raid was over we would be worse off than before."

"What about Austria joining Germany?" was the next question.

"We in Austria want an end of war," Chancellor Mayr said. "We want to be at peace with the world, and have an opportunity to work out our own salvation. We want a settlement of the past that would make possible the dawning of a new era of good-will among the nations that engaged in the war. The question of union between Austria and Germany depends on the final regulation of the situation between Germany and the allied powers."

"For us actually the peace treaty of St. Germain must be the basis of our policy. We can join Germany only with the consent of the League of Nations. We know that under the actual circumstances this consent would not be given us. Therefore we must shape our policy according to these circumstances."

"What we want is to get a fair trial for the policy of independent economic and political life for Austria. So far we have never got a fair deal, because we are a country which has been forced to live outside the economic body in which it previously lived, and it will take years to adapt our economic life to the new circumstances."

"At this time we want food and coal until we get our productive measures going and can pay for the necessary imports with our exports. It is true we were saved from starvation, principally by the Hoover relief, but we never got the necessary food or necessary coal, but always only part of it. And so we have not been able to develop our full industrial effort. The comprehensive plans of the reparations commission have been rejected for the allied powers on account of their financial difficulties, and they tell us that we cannot reckon on government credits."

"We will therefore have to try private help. But we cannot understand why a country which cannot live without this help should be obliged to live independently. This would make an impossible position. It would mean that the country has to perish physically by disease, starvation or by civil war. But we do not believe that the allied countries would condemn us to this fate."

"The allied powers now want us to try private help under the control of nations, and we will do this fairly and sincerely. But if it should not prove possible, then our only help would be that relations between the allied powers and Germany in the meantime would be settled in such a way that the actual difficulties would be wiped out and we would be able to take up the question of union with Germany according to clauses of the peace treaty."

"We would not be able to understand why it should not be possible for the allied powers and Germany to agree that the section of the reparations commission seated at Berlin would determine the question of whether or not Germany had fulfilled its terms up to her capacity."

"Can the Christian Socialists carry on alone or will they be forced to get into a coalition?" was asked.

"The Christian Socialists had to take over the government, though they know how difficult the situation is," was the reply, "because the other parties refused to take part in the government. The Christian Socialists being the largest party in parliament, though they lack a majority, took this difficult task, because they do everything possible to help toward the reconstruction of our country. We have carried on alone so far and hope to continue. The other parties are not going, in their opposition, so far that it would endanger the life of our country."

"Why is the government attacked by the Pan-Germans?"

"The Pan-Germans are not taking part in the government, but they are helping the Christian Socialists to form a majority. They are attacking on certain occasions because they reproach the government with trying to live up too strictly to the policy of the allied powers. They say that they already see that the necessary help is not forthcoming, and that the time spent in trying to arrange the situation is lost. But we are convinced that we must try

Even if the task is difficult, we must try to do it."

Bootleggers and Whiskey Smugglers
are Disgracing Canada

On April 18 Abolish Importation by voting YES

Since January 1, 1920, thousands and thousands of gallons of whiskey, gin, brandy and high wines have been shipped into Ontario.

Express shipments alone for a long period averaged four to six cars per day, and have run as high as eight!

Four car loads a day means at least 19,200 quarts daily, or over 5,000,000 quarts per year.

And yet the people of Ontario voted to make prohibition the permanent law!

This imported "Booze" is the stuff which enables the "Boot-legger" to carry on his illegal trade, and allows "Rum Runners" and "Whiskey Smugglers" to disgrace Canada.

Officers of the law are set at defiance.

sioners says himself.

Importation Makes
Law Enforcement Difficult

"After an experience in the administration of the Ontario Temperance Act covering the period from its first coming into force in September, 1916, I am in a position to state that importation is seriously hampering its effectiveness."

Since 1915, until the beginning of 1920, drunkenness had greatly decreased, there being 6,235 commitments to jail for that offence in 1915 and only 3,415 in 1919. In many places there were none.

Since the War Measures Act was repealed in January, 1920, and the Dominion Orders-in-Council under the Act were rescinded, the restriction upon importation of intoxicating liquor into prohibition provinces, imposed by the Dominion Government, has been lifted.
The effect of this action has been marked.

Heavy shipments of liquor into the province began at once, running very much in excess of shipments prior to January 1st, when the Federal Order-in-Council lapsed. The number of cases of breach of the Ontario Temperance Act have increased in even greater proportion."—Statement by the Chairman of Board of License Commissioners for Ontario.

SOCCER KICK-OFFS

Say it with flowers—Scotland 3, England 0.
With Scotland's magnificent win over "merrie" England last Saturday "Auld Scotland" has proven herself to be the champion soccer country in the world.
The Scots' victory over the Rose was a meritorious one and the wearers of the Thistle proved to the westward the Rose that they can still teach the English how to play the finer points of the grand old game, although the latter at times are very slow to acknowledge it.
Owing to the miners' strike and the curtailing of passenger service on the steam railways a record soccer game failed to materialize; there being only 100,000 fans present to witness the great combat.
The Scots fought a second Bannockburn over again and had it all over the Englishmen in every department right from goalkeeper to outside left.
After the great game was over with some of the Scots' fans could be heard singing the following ditty:
For ye canna sit down on the thistle though its held on gently wae, Don't touch me with impunity—a moral it can brag.
For the thistle is a modest flower if ye only let it alone,
But once ye try to sit down on the thistle, well, ye'll quickly rise again.
Ireland despite her poor showing in the soccer gridiron has at least got one consolation left in the fact that it was "Erin go bragh" that introduced the penalty kick.
One of the Zimmerkint junior players of Hamilton was ordered off the field for misconduct by the referee during the second period of his team's game against Homestead, played in Hamilton last Saturday and he refused to go, threatening the referee with all sorts of trouble.
The referee being a strict disciplinarian immediately brought the play to a sudden close and awarded the game to the Homesteads.
It's folly of the worst kind to defy the referee.
The H. J. F. A. suspended the unruly player for one month, which was letting him down easy.
Teams are piling up record scores, taking for instance, St. John's Rovers (St. Thomas) Point Edward Senior Imperials (Sarnia) I. L. P. (Hamilton) and Public Utilities (London).
A cup to be emblematic of the soccer championship of Western Ontario and to be known as the 19th Alberta Dragon's Cup has been offered to the Western Football authorities by Col. C. Y. Weaver of Edmonton.
Henderson of Alderbrook, Scotland, has so far this season netted the sphere 32 times for his side. Ferguson of Motherwell, his nearest rival, has scored 22 times in league matches.
Football excursion trains have resumed running in England at half the ordinary fares for both Association and Rugby.
The T. and D. F. A. League has been extended to five divisions, the latest to join the ranks of organized soccer being the Industrial League teams who have previously been playing in any authorized soccer body and who in previous years used to run their own little show.
Fifty senior teams are now playing under the wing of the T. and D. F. A. Petrolia ought to be a well-disciplined team.

THEATRES

AT THE ALLEN.

In one of the most unique voices of her career in the motion picture world, Dorothy Dalton won the hearts of all who crowded Allen's Theatre on Friday, April 15, when she appeared in a picture, based on an underlying element of mother's love, was staged for the first time. In a modest, loving wife, first, that of a modest, loving wife, next as a fragile flower of a girl, and finally as a dashing Parisian beauty, Dorothy Dalton is the ideal actress to display her versatility and to capitalize her beauty. Although her roles are so diverse, she has proved to be as effective as any in which she has previously appeared in this city. Many of the scenes in the picture are as effective as any in which she has previously appeared in this city. There are numerous scenes in a nobleman's banquet hall, and in strange contrast, wild Indian jungle scenes, and costumes of the women at times are gorgeous.
The plot of the story is clever and exciting, and the acting is superb. The story comes from the pen of George Barr McCutcheon. It is the tale of a mother's love in fierce struggles against the terrific jealousies of the motion picture world. This jealousy, which causes the husband to drive his beautiful wife from his home, and the mother's love, which not recognizing her marriage again, it rekindles to a terrific flame, affords many opportunities for tense dramatic work.
Although "Black and White" stands out as the feature, the program is well balanced. To all red-blooded members of the audience the great jungle serial, "Tarzan of the Apes" proved once more a treat. It was a real "must-see" appearing under the name "The Sheikh's Revenge." It was every bit as exciting as its three predecessors. Many lovely scenes, including the Booth Tarzington's story "Edgar Camps Out." (Completing the program was a weekly newsreel, and a variety of musical program was provided on the organ. The program will be repeated today.

Many of the scenes in the picture are as effective as any in which she has previously appeared in this city. There are numerous scenes in a nobleman's banquet hall, and in strange contrast, wild Indian jungle scenes, and costumes of the women at times are gorgeous.
The plot of the story is clever and exciting, and the acting is superb. The story comes from the pen of George Barr McCutcheon. It is the tale of a mother's love in fierce struggles against the terrific jealousies of the motion picture world. This jealousy, which causes the husband to drive his beautiful wife from his home, and the mother's love, which not recognizing her marriage again, it rekindles to a terrific flame, affords many opportunities for tense dramatic work.
Although "Black and White" stands out as the feature, the program is well balanced. To all red-blooded members of the audience the great jungle serial, "Tarzan of the Apes" proved once more a treat. It was a real "must-see" appearing under the name "The Sheikh's Revenge." It was every bit as exciting as its three predecessors. Many lovely scenes, including the Booth Tarzington's story "Edgar Camps Out." (Completing the program was a weekly newsreel, and a variety of musical program was provided on the organ. The program will be repeated today.

A Woman puts on Spectacles

(This was written by a woman in answer to our inquiry: "Do you read newspaper advertisements?")

Newspaper advertisements have an irresistible fascination for me. Sometimes I know I shouldn't take the time to read them—but I always do. Of course, I don't mean that I always read them ALL, but I certainly read some every day. I even read the men's ads. There is a certain satisfaction in surprising one's husband with up-to-date information on things only men are supposed to be interested in.

I used to have a prejudice against Life Insurance until I read the advertisements. I thought the premiums were too much for my husband to pay, but an advertisement I read changed my opinion about that at once. And I got my husband to make a will and appoint a Trust Company as his executor because of an advertisement I read about it, which set me thinking.

But, of course, the advertisements that interest me most are those of domestic things. Whenever I order groceries, for instance, I find myself asking for the things whose names are familiar to me through reading the advertisements in the newspapers. They may not be better than others, but as I don't know the names of others how can I tell? Goods that are attractively and regularly advertised always strike me as prosperous, and prosperous things must be good, otherwise they wouldn't be prosperous, would they?

And when I am buying things for my toilet I always buy the well-known things, although salesgirls try to sell me others sometimes. I never let them, though. Why buy the unknown when you can be sure of the quality of the known?

And I find my friends like to talk about the well-known things that they eat or use or wear—like foods, canned soups, cheese, washing machines, corsets, gloves and things like that. So there must be something in a name after all. The way I feel about it is that no businessman would spend a lot of money to advertise a poor article; therefore, those things that are advertised must have superior qualities about them. And I have found that advertised articles, far from costing more than unadvertised goods, can very often be bought for less. At least you know what you should pay for them—the makers tell you generally in their advertisements.

As for the advertisements of the stores, some of them are not as attractive as many of the more general advertisements, but I just couldn't shop without them. You see, I am like many other women. I have a young family, and I cannot get out too often during the day. But I read the store advertisements regularly, and by doing so know just what is being sold, and I can always telephone my order if I can't go out conveniently that day. That, I think, is the great value of advertisements to women in the home. They do keep one well informed. Don't you think so?

HEAVY SUPPLIES OF WHEAT ADVANCE IN EGGS AND VEGETABLES

Rain Had No Effect On the Attendance at Local Market.

Rain did not cut the attendance at the local market on Saturday morning. There were heavy supplies of eggs and vegetables, and the market was a good demand for both. Eggs were inclined to become firmer. Prices were 27c per dozen wholesale, and 30c per dozen retail.

Potatoes were lower, but they were not offered in heavy quantities. Wholesale they sold for 80c and 90c per bag, and retail at 90c and 91c per bag. It was predicted that prices would become firmer, because it is thought supplies are getting small in the country. Farmers report there are good expectations for a large crop this year.

Green onions were lower in price. They were brought from 30c to 40c per dozen. The former quotation was 40c per dozen.

Honey prices took a decided drop. Five-pound pails wholesaled at $1.10, and retail at $1.20. No comb honey has been on the square for the past three weeks.

Senator Bennett Declares Parliamentary Return To Be Farcical.

OTTAWA, April 15.—(By Canadian Press.)—In the Senate today royal assent was given to the Government's interim supply bill, amounting to one-sixth of the estimates.

Senator Bennett said that had the Senate committee appointed to deal with finance functioned in the way that those who created it hoped it would function, the country would at least have had a postponement of many of the expenditures to which it was committing itself.

He said that the increase in the income tax collections—$38,000,000 this year as compared with $17,000,000 last year—many persons were convinced this tax was not being collected.

Something farcical.

A parliamentary return had shown that only eleven men in the whole country had paid taxes on incomes of $200,000, something which was farcical to those who know anything of Canada.

It was hardly necessary to go outside the precincts of Parliament to find a sufficient number liable for such a tax. And for the farmers, the figures showed almost conclusively that they were not paying anything like the amount they should pay.

The returns for Ontario and for some other provinces were little better than ridiculous.

Senator Girouard deprecated pessimism at this juncture in the national life. Conditions of financial dislocation and industrial unrest were world-wide, and Canada, all things considered, was in a better condition than most other countries. This was no time for crying blue ruin.

The Senate adjourned until 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening next.

100 PER CENT NICKELS

New Coins Will Contain No Copper, Says Finance Minister.

OTTAWA, April 15.—(By Canadian Press.)—With but momentary reminders of a stirring week, the House spent a typical Friday—a day of brief discussions, a general cleaning up of the order paper, and the passing of much supply. The day saw royal assent to the interim supply bill, which had so stormy a career in the Commons. It saw third reading in the House of the bill to ratify the trade agreement between Canada and France, and the passing of the issue of a five-cent nickel coin in Canada.

The Canadian nickel, explained Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, would be 100 per cent nickel, as distinguished from the United States coin of 75 per cent nickel, and 25 per cent copper. The new coin would be legal tender to an amount not exceeding $5.

Hon. W. S. Fielding suggested the new one-cent piece was too small. Was it not carrying economy too far? he asked. He had heard of persons silvering the new one-cent pieces and passing them off as ten-cent pieces.

A Case of Need.

There was a touch of enlightenment, when estimates of the Indian affairs branch were under consideration. Mention had been made of the Indian commissioner in New Brunswick, Mr. T. Leger (Kent, N. B.) charged the commissioner had been an unsuccessful candidate in the New Brunswick provincial elections. "I see there is an increase in the amount asked," Mr. Leger pursued.

"He needs it," ironically exclaimed Mr. Copp (Westmoreland). "He lost his deposit."

The minister of agriculture, who was piloting the estimates, promised information.

There were raps, too, for the civil service commission. Dr. Edwards (Frontenac) knew of a case where an appointment was made first, and advertised afterwards. William Duff (Lunenburg) complained that applicants for the position of fisheries overseer had been given examinations which would have puzzled high school graduates. They were asked questions which would have puzzled the majority of the House of Commons.

New Nickel Coins.

Sir Henry Drayton introduced a resolution providing for issuing a five-cent nickel coin in Canada. He explained that it was proposed to make the coin exactly the same size as the five-cent piece issued in the United States. The Canadian coin would, however, be one hundred per cent nickel, as distinguished from the United States coin which was 75 per cent copper and 25 per cent nickel. A tested amount of money in the new coins would be legal tender for payment of an amount not exceeding $5.

Mr. Fielding suggested that the new one-cent piece issued by the Government was too small. It was easy to confuse it with ten-cent pieces in the pocket. He had heard that people had even silvered over one-cent pieces and succeeded in passing them off as ten-cent pieces. The resolution was reported and a bill based on it given first reading.

$332,000 For Mines.

The House then went into supply and passed several items in the estimates for mines and geological survey. On the estimate for geological survey $332,000 the speaker, Mr. Duff, discussed the estimate about the parties going up to Fort Norman in connection with the recent discoveries of oil. Exception was taken to the slow methods of getting in the place of horses on road grades, and has found that the machine will do twice as much work with two teams of horses, and do it cheaper.

The Women's Canadian Club has reorganized for the year with the following officers: President, Mrs. L. Lang; vice-president, Miss Mabel Cowan; secretary, Miss Annie McKee; assistant secretary, Miss Louise McKee; treasurer, Miss M. Taylor; executive, Miss J. W. Carter, Mrs. M. E. Dawson, Mrs. H. P. MacKendrick, Miss Spotton and Miss Randel.

The advance poll on the referendum has been opened here, but so far no votes have been cast.

Mrs. Gordon Wright of London addressed two largely-attended public meetings today in behalf of prohibition.

At the regular fortnightly dinner held last night the Irvanians listened to an interesting address on the "Navy League of Canada," by Lieut.-Col. C. G. Williams of Toronto.

Changed the Date.

OTTAWA, April 15.—By the Canadian Press.—When the House opened this afternoon the prime minister moved to give Government business precedence over all business except private bills, questions by members and notices of motion for the production of papers on Mondays, on and after April 25.

There was some objection from Opposition members, and the date was changed to read on and after May 2.

J. Archambault (Chamby-Verchères) moved to amend the criminal code in respect to delinquenty. Mr. Archambault said that the proposed amendment would prevent publication of evidence taken in courts or elsewhere, likely to injure any party, unless at the same time the defence of that party had been filed and was published, together with any extenuating circumstances.

Maple Sugar Act.

Dr. H. S. Beland (Beauce) introduced a bill to amend the maple products act. He explained that the present law prohibited the use of the word "maple" excepting on sugar and syrup manufactured from the sap of the maple tree. The amendment was designed to stimulate the trade in maple products by permitting the use of the word in advertising products in which maple syrup or sugar formed a part. It was evident that a portion of maple sugar or syrup contained in the product must be clearly specified on the label so that no deception was possible.

Speaker Rhodes said that he was inclined to think that the amendment should have been discussed in committee before being presented for a first reading. Matters pertaining to trade were supposed to be brought before committee. He proposed that the bill stand until he consulted the rules. This was agreed.

Waiting for Budget.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Opposition, asked the minister of finance if he could inform the House when the budget would be brought down.

Sir Henry Drayton replied that he hoped to have it ready at an early date.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King said that the session was getting on, and he would be glad if the prime minister could inform the House what legislation would be introduced by the Government.

Mr. Meighen said that he could not make a definite statement until next week. It might be necessary to introduce legislation in regard to the Grand Trunk Railway and possibly other matters.

A. Robb (Chateauguay-Huntingdon) asked whether the Government had any information in regard to the date of a convention to be held in New York.

Sir George Foster said that he had official information in regard to the convention. He understood that its purpose was to stabilize and stimulate world trade.

Matter of Writ.

T. W. Caldwell (Victoria and Carleton Place) asked whether the new report that a by-election would be held in York-Sunbury, N. B., on May 28, was correct. The prime minister replied that it was.

Hon. T. A. Cregar then asked when the writ for the by-election in Medicine Hat would be issued. The prime minister replied that no order-in-council had yet been issued.

Mr. Cregar—the order-in-council mill is not working just now.

Hon. W. S. Fielding asked why writs for all the vacant constituencies had not been issued at the same time. Mr. Meighen said no legislation was necessary. Parliament had given to the Government the authority to say when writs would issue with certain restrictions.

Third reading was then given to the bill to amend the statute relating to corrupt practices at elections.

The bill amending the judges act was given third reading after the prime minister had informed Mr. Copp (Westmoreland) that there was no reason why the bill should stand. The bill ratifying the trade agreement between Canada and France was given third reading.

Considerable discussion ensued on second reading of a bill to authorize an extension time to complete the St. John and Quebec Railway between Centerville and Andover, N. B. The bill was finally referred to a committee and given third reading.

Third reading was also given to the bill to amend the winding-up act dealing with the filing of statements, in the liquidation of companies. The bill to provide for the winding-up of the business of the Canadian wheat board was also put through the final stages.

The members of the Commons were then summoned at 4.30 to the Senate chamber, where Sir Louis Davies, deputy speaker, presided. There was attendance to give royal assent to the interim supply bill and other measures.

NO ONE IS BLAMED IN OLNEY FATALITY

Accidental Death Is Verdict of Jurors At Coroner's Inquest.

ST. THOMAS, April 15.—The evidence given tonight at the inquest into the death of John T. Olney of London, M. C. R. dining-room conductor, who was killed in the yards on Wednesday, failed to show the movements of the deceased before he was crushed by the car against the bumper board of the switch.

The first man to reach him was a dining-room assistant, Robert Peters, who found him about four feet from the bumper, badly mangled and just breathing. He died immediately after.

About a dozen witnesses were examined, some of whom heard groans in the vicinity where he met his death. It was surmised that he crossed over front of the post and without realizing his danger, was caught. The jury found that Mr. Olney was crushed to death by a car at the stop block, and the fatality was accidental. No blame was attached to any employees of the railway.

Coroner Dr. Ewin presided, and A. McCrimmon acted for the crown.

GONZALES HEADS MEXICAN REVOLT

Officials Claim New Outbreak Is Only "An Escape Valve."

MEXICO CITY, April 15.—General Pablo Gonzales, former provisional president, today crossed the Mexican boundary line from the United States at some point between Matamoros, which is near Brownsville, Texas, and San Fernando, according to a war office announcement. He is said to be in revolt against the Government.

The war office announcement said sufficient troops were on hand to suppress Gonzales before his movement became serious.

The plans of Gonzales are believed here to anticipate the forming of a junction with rebel forces under Francisco Muguria and Candido Aguilar in Mexico City.

The official version of the revolt is that it is "an escape valve, which will serve to purge and purify the army of certain malicious elements, which are well known, and which will be dealt with."

COST OF RADIALS IS EXCESSIVE, SAYS CASS

OTTAWA, April 15.—C. D. Cass, general manager of the Waterloo, Cedar Falls and Northern Electric Railway of Iowa, who was a witness here today in the radial railway inquiry being conducted by the Government commission, of which Mr. Justice Sutherland is chairman, stated that the cost of his line, which is about double the length of the proposed Toronto and Eastern Railway, was $2,164,000. "Excessive" was the term Mr. Cass used when asked what he would say if a railway half as long cost almost as much.

Mr. Cass said if his railroad had had to pay six per cent interest on its capital investment, the interest, with operating expenses would have amounted to 50 per cent more than the actual revenue.

In the opinion of Mr. Cass, all the railroads in the United States could be electrified and save in operation more than the capital investment required.
