TORONTO, June 10, 1850.

The Welland Canal excursion is over. For any part, I desire never to be caught on such a "pleasure" trin again. All the calculations of the projection of the excursion proved erroneous. We did not reach Buffalo till Saturdey morning, not withstanding the most extensive arrangements had been made to give the company a public reception. In fact, the whole thing was failure—tadious, irixome, annoying. But I must enter a little into detail.

a failure—tedious irksome, amorying. But I must enter a little into detail.

The hour of departure was changed from five to seven. Lord Elgin was about the last to come on board. That was the first blunder. Between 50 and 70 members of the two Houses of Parliament, of whom nearly all were members of the Assembly, with 52 clerks belonging to the various Public Departmenta, and some dozen members of the Press, embarked in the steamer Chief Justice Robinson on Friday morning last for the Welland Canal. The morning was bright and benutiful. The boat had not been chartered, and, in addition to the distinguished personages already mentioued, there was a large number of ordinary passengers. After a passage of ordinary quickness, of which the only notable occurrence was the unusually great protraction "of the time of consuming breakfast," from the inadequacy of accommodation for the requirements of the occasion. We reached Port Dalbousie, at the mouth of the Canal. Here we were greated by discharges of cannon. Mr. Merritt, who had gone over the previous day, here joined the company. The band of the Canadian Rifles came on board. Mr. Thorburn, and some others, came upon the deck of the steamer, and presented an Address to the Governor General, to which His Excellency read his Reply. We proceeded, and in a short timy arrive 45.565y Thai "Potpourri," descriptive of New York, in which some Canadian Melodies will be introduced.

We beg to direct attention to the Performance of the Martinette family, at Monklands Hotel, this afternoon, and hope to find that Mr. Compain will beginging in his efforts to afford amusement and healthful serestion; he has spared no expense to give every accommodation that can be desired, and we feel convinced that there is not a more

The constables and bystanders rushed upon the culprit, felled him to the ground, and torefoom his hand the still-smoking pistol. Some assert that he exclaimed, 'Long live Liberty!' others, that he at first called out, pretending to be mad, 'I as a Prince of Syria, or Barbary;' but that, on being somewhat roughly handled and pressed, he declared bimself to be an ex-sergeant of artillery, in native of Weltzer, discharged on the last of Octaber last; and that he had borrowed the uniform, which he was not entitled to wear, for the purpose; of gaining nearer access to the royal person. The assastiuntderwent a short examination, from which it appeared that he was well-know to be a man of indifferent character and exc. table disposition. The Minister of Police having also arrived, the register was delivered into his hands, placed in, a closed post van, and conducted to the new prison of Mosbit, under a strong escert. There he will be kept as secret, closely watched, and deprived of all means of committing self-destruction. Intelligence of this must detestable crime attracted hundreds to the station, which was, however, quickly cleared of all persons whose presence was not required. THE CRITICAL POSITION OF APPARES.

From the London Times, May 25.

Nor can it be doubted that the Russian Cabinet is prepared, in confirmity with its very solemn declarations, since assee public, to mark its sense of these transactions.

When the note of the 20th of April was ten, it might still be hoped at St. Petersburg the mediation of France would prevail; we

The Germannia Sectory.

This evening is the last time we shall hear this beautiful Band, and all lovers of music, such as has never been heard before in Montreal, will regret its departure. A rich bill of fare is to be served up to the admiring audience. Among the pieces, we particularly notice the Overture "King of the Two Stricts of the Music Prench Horn, by Kuestenmachet; a Symphony, the "Consecration of Tones," by Spohr; and a "Potpourri," descriptive of New York, in which some Canadian Melodies will be introduced.

From the first hour of Lord Palmerston's return to office, these octaffic flave neval then discernible to an attentive observer of the future; they are now visible in the broad daylight of the present.

R.R.R. A new and brilliant light has lately arisen and now stands high in the bertaon, shedding its golden light of hepe agon the dark despairing minds of the bed-riskin and afflicted with pain, like the bursting forth of the con-genial rays of the sun upon the cold, distant regions of the frigid zone. The three letters which head this paragraph is the signification of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

A NEW LABEL—STEEL ENGRAVING.

To protect the public against purchasing counterfeits of Radway? Chinese Medicated Soap, R. G. Radway, the celebrated Chemist of New York, has at a great expanse engaged the services of one of the first artists of steel engraving in America, and will on the first of April, 1880, issue Radway's Medicated Soap in its new label. It is a beautiful steel engraving, it represents two fermale figures of health and beauty, recinning on a tablet and scroll work, on which are the words KADWAY'S MEDICATED SOAP in illuminated letters. On the opposite side of the tablet is the fac-simile signature of R. G. Radway. The design is meat, chaste, artistic, and elegantly executed THE VIETUES OF THE SOAP are also improved, the high popularity which this excellent soap has estained for its superiority over all others for Tollet, Medicinal, and Shaving purposes, has impelled us to strive and improve upon its ments, instead of resting satisfied on its already guined hurels. We have now entered into arrangements for the importation direct from our correspondents in Constantinople in Turkey, and Canton in China, for our seyeral oils, guns, balsanua, and extracts of rare medicinal virtues, which we use in the midulacture of Radway's Soap, mused of receiving then from third parties, so that now we have the satisfaction of knowing that the highly medical and balsamic properties of our Soap are pure and unadulterated.
