Strike Fever Has Reached Kent County

The strike epidemic has reached Buctouche, where the men employed in J. D. Irving's mill have quit work to enforce their demand for shorter hours. About forty or forty-five men are affected. The men are asking for a nine-hour day instead of ten hours with the same pay for the shorter hours as for the longer day. Mr. Irving, it is understood, is willing to concede the demand for a nine-hour day but is unwilling to pay the same wages for nine hours as for ten. The men, of course, want no reduction in pay, and to enforce their demand for a nine-hour day quit work Tuesday morning last. At latest reports the men were still out and the mill closed down; while an effort is being made to get men to replace the strikers.

Andrew Carnegie Steel Magnate Dead

Lenox, Mass., Aug. 11—Andrew Carnegie, the steel magnate and philanthropist, died at his Lenox summer home, "Shadow Brook," at 7.10 this morning after an illness of less than three days with bronchial pneumonia. So sudden was his death that his daughter, Mrs. Roswell Miller, was unable to get to her father's bedside before he died. His wife and private secretary were with him at the end.

Mr. Carnegie had spent most of the summer in Lenox, coming here late in May, and up to a few weeks ago enjoyed himself in almost daily fishing trips on Lake Mahkosnae, which borders his big estate, and in riding about his grounds. He was taken ill on Friday and grew steadily worse. His advanced age and lessened power of resistance hastened the end.

Mr. Carnegie leaves his wife, who was Miss Louisa Whitfield, New York, and his daughter, Margaret, who married last April Ensign Roswell Miller, of New York.

Although Mr. Carnegie, who was in his 84th year, had been an invalid since 1917, when he suffered an attack of grippe, the news of his death was a shock to old friends and former business associates here. Since his previous serious illnesses he had been under the care of two nurses.

Identified so long with the international peace movement, Mr. Carnegie was said to have been more severely affected by the world war than most men.

After his retirement he was compelled to limit the number of his daily visitors, and until his last illness he met and spoke with only a few of his closest friends.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 11.—This city, where Andrew Carnegie laid the foundation for his vast fortune in the steel business, today paid tribute to the dead magnate. Mr. E. A. Babcock, mayor, ordered all flags in Pittsburgh lowered to half mast. At the Carnegie Institute, the scene of one of his philanthropic works, plans were made to drape the buildings with crepe in respect to the benefactor. News of Mr. Carnegie's sudden death at Lenox spread rapidly through the city. At the steel mills which bear his name, preparations were made to suspend work and other institutions in which he was interested planned similar action.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The sudden death of Andrew Carnegie apparently had little effect upon the stock market. The common stock of the United States Steel Corporation, of which the Carnegie companies formed an important part lagged behind the general list, but it was declared in well-informed quarters that Mr. Carnegie's holdings in the steel corporation were limited to first mortgage bonds.

Newcastle Will Honor Her Returned Heroes

Public Meeting Held On Wednesday Evening Decided to Hold Reception August 27th—Committees Busy Formulating Plans For Biggest Day Ever Held on the North Shore.

The adjourned public meeting to arrange matters for the Returned Soldier's Celebration to be held in Newcastle on Wednesday August 27th, was held in the police magistrates office last Friday evening 8th inst. at 8 o'clock. Those present were, Messrs. George Stables in the chair, Mayor D. P. Doyle, R. C. Clark, J. R. Lawlor, J. D. Creaghan, E. H. Sinclair, H. H. Stuart, Cameron Smallwood, D. S. Creaghan, A. D. Farrak, George Johnston, W. A. Park, Wm. Ferguson, A. H. Cole, Cecil McWilliam, T. M. Maltby, G. G. Stothart, Wm. Stables, Thos. A. Clarke, Capt. Barry, W. W. Cormier, C. P. McCabe, J. P. Ryder, and D. A. Jackson, the Secretary.

Mr. C. P. McCabe thought that Monday Labor Day Sept 1st would be more suitable than Wednesday the 27th Aug. to hold the celebration, as Labor Day was a recognized holiday, and he felt that more people would come to town on that day than would probably come on Wednesday. Mess. J. D. Creaghan and D. S. Creaghan both spoke along similar lines as Mr. McCabe did, as they felt certain a larger number of people would come to town on Labor Day.

Mr. R. C. Clarke said that Monday would be a bad day to hold the celebration, from the ladies standpoint, as it would necessitate the ladies cooking on Saturday, and keeping the cooked food over until the following Monday, with the liability of some of it spoiling. Mr. Clark stated that Mr. J. R. Lawlor who was looking after the procuring of the foodstuffs had probably made his arrangements with the ladies, and before doing anything further in regard to the changing of the date, Mr. Lawlor who was unavoidably absent, had better be consulted.

Mayor Doyle and Mr. Wm. Stables were both of the opinion that Wednesday was the better day, as Monday was too early in the week to hold an affair of this kind and it would not be fair to the ladies, as they usually had enough cooking of their own to do on Saturday without any extra work which this reception would necessitate.

Mr. W. A. Park suggested that probably it would be well to leave the matter in the hands of the committee, who could wait on the ladies and ascertain their views.

Mayor Doyle concurred with the suggestion, but Mr. A. H. Cole, chairman of the advertising committee, said that this putting off business kept him back from his advertising work and he would like to have a definite date set, so he could go along with his advertising.

Mr. J. D. Creaghan wished to know if the committee and ladies had met to formulate their plans and in answer, Mr. R. C. Clark said that Mr. J. R. Lawlor was in charge of this work and could not say how far Mr. Lawlor had gone with his plans, but he (Mr. Clark) was rather inclined to think that Mr. Lawlor was waiting to see how the Finance Committee was getting along securing funds before deciding definitely just what his procedure would be.

Mr. Thos. M. Maltby stated that he had met with very favorable support, financially, from the citizens whom he had already called upon, but it was a large undertaking and would take considerable time before the finance committee would be in a position to say about how much money they could secure.

At this juncture, Mr. J. R. Lawlor entered the meeting and Mayor Doyle explained to him the deadlock which had occurred, and requested him to state his views on the matter to the meeting.

Mr. Lawlor said that his idea of the matter was, that it was much easier to hold the celebration on Wednesday than on Monday, as it was almost impossible to ask the ladies to do the cooking on Saturday and hold it over until the following Monday.

After Mr. Lawlor had given his views on the matter Mr. D. S. Creaghan felt that Mr. Lawlor's suggestions practically closed the question, and he thought that the meeting should now proceed with other business. This was decided on and the

Elkin May Succeed Carvell

Ottawa, Ont. Aug 7—Stanley E. Elkin, Liberal Unionist M.P.; for St. John and Albert, is mentioned as a probable successor to Hon. F. B. Carvell in the New Brunswick cabinet representation.

Mr. Elkin has been in Ottawa this week and saw Sir Robert Borden and he has returned home to consult his friends.

It is supposed here that he may enter the ministry with the understanding that he takes office for a two-year term only.

Mr. Elkin declined to discuss the matter last evening when asked about it by The Telegraph.

Montreal Gazette Approves

Montreal, Que Aug 8—The Montreal Gazette, commenting editorially on report that Stanley Elkin may represent New Brunswick in the dominion cabinet says:

It is reported from Ottawa that Mr. Stanley Elkin, Unionist member for St. John city and the counties of St. John and Albert, may be the next New Brunswick representative in the dominion cabinet. The suggestion is an interesting one and by no means unwelcome one. Mr. Elkin, although a young man, has been unusually successful in business, nor is there any reason to suppose that he has reached the possible maximum of achievement in that political experience but his lack in that respect does not disqualify him for useful public service, or preclude success as a parliamentarian. On the other hand, he has displayed in his relatively short term as a member of the House of Commons, an aptitude for public life and a clear understanding of public questions. There is unquestionable room in the government for a man of Mr. Elkin's proven business capacity. If the rumor is correct he will, as a Liberal Unionist succeed Hon. F. B. Carvell, also a Liberal Unionist, and recently appointed chairman of the Railway Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Keeley left on the Ocean Limited for a short honeymoon trip through the Maritime Provinces, and on their return will reside in Campbellton, where the groom is employed with the C. & P. R. Miss Murphy has for the past three years been the successful teacher of Shives-Athol school.

Transfer of International Railway

An event of more than ordinary importance from a financial standpoint to the province of New Brunswick took place Thursday, when, at the office of the Royal Trust Company, Montreal, conveyance was made to the crown, in right of the Dominion Government, of the International railway, extending across the province from St. Leonard's to Campbellton.

Bonds of the railway company to the amount of $896,000 guaranteed by the province as to principal and interest were cancelled, and the province was thereby wholly relieved from liability.

William G. Pugsley, K. C., of Ottawa, represented the International Railway Company, while H. A. Carr, K. C., of Campbellton, represented the Dominion Government.

If you have seen "The Birth of a Nation" see it again at the Opera House Wednesday.

ORDER OF MERIT FOR LLOYD GEORGE

London, Aug. 6.—King George today conferred upon Premier David Lloyd George, the Order of Merit, a sign of his appreciation of Mr. Lloyd George's war services.

Situation In England Is Serious

London, August 5 (By The A. P.)—With the Yorkshire strike still unsettled, the baker's strike continuing; a number of minor sporadic strikes in other trades in sympathy with the smouldering discontent of the police at the failure of their strike to secure the withdrawal of the police bill, and the possibility of another big railway strike, the labor situation has again become so threatening, that it is stated that Arthur Henderson, the labor leader, who is attending the Socialist conference at Lucerne, has been hurriedly summoned to London.

Liverpool was quiet today, but it remains the centre of agitation, for a strike of the dockers is now being threatened in support of the striking policemen. The executive of the dockers' union met today and passed a resolution demanding reinstatement of the dismissed policemen failing which they will give whole-hearted support to the police.

Another meeting of trade union organizations of all trades was convened at Liverpool tonight to consider the advisability of calling a general strike in support of the police union and to elect a strike committee.

It is stated that Tom Mann, president of the Workers' Union, will go to Liverpool to take charge of the situation.

SINN FEINERS MAKE RAID

Pres)—Sinn Feiners, on Saturday raided the freight depot at Greenmore and carried off a quantity of rifles, which had just arrived in England. The rifles were addressed to the commanding officer of the royal artillery.

Preventing Loss of Farm Poultry

The annual losses in poultry flocks from preventable diseases must be enormous. On the general farm the loss of an occasional hen causes no discouragement and no effort to remedy the case. Of course, hens are subject to a certain death rate that cannot be prevented but it seems as if the farm poultry flock often suffers a mortality rate that is far more serious than is necessary.

Lice and mites are responsible indirectly for many losses. These pests sap the vitality of the fowls and reduce their resistance until they become subject to colds and roup and other diseases which might skip the healthy fowls. The cure for lice and mites is almost too well known to repeat. However, it should be emphasized that many farmers who know the cure do not take time to apply it and prevent their valuable flocks of fowls from being ruined by mites and lice.

A dislike to using the axe on a sick fowl often results in the contagious spreading. A bird may have its head swollen with a bad cold until its eyes are nearly shut. It should be isolated for treatment but too often it is allowed to go without treatment and sometimes it is carefully treated but placed back in the flock where it can infect other birds. Colds are very contagious and they not only temporarily cause discomfort to the bird but they reduce its vitality and about destroy its value as a breeder. A bird that has suffered from a severe cold is more apt to have another cold and we also feel that it is apt to transmit a susceptibility to colds to its offspring.

If a bird is very sick and not of unusual value it often saves time, worry and the risk of infecting other birds if the sick fowl is killed and burned. The burning of the infected bird prevents the body being dug up by a dog and left somewhere on the farm where the hens have access to it. If a diseased fowl is buried it should be put down far enough to prevent its being recovered by the scratching or rooting of the animals.

AUTO-INTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Absolutely Prevents This Dangerous Condition.

The chief cause of poor health is our neglect of the bowels. Waste matter, instead of passing from the lower intestine regularly every day, is allowed to remain there, generating poisons which are absorbed by the blood.

In other words, a person who is habitually constipated, is poisoning himself. We know now that Auto-intoxication, due to non-action of the bowels, is directly responsible for serious Kidney and Bladder Troubles; that it upsets the Stomach, causes Indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Sleeplessness; that chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Pain In The Back, are relieved as soon as the bowels become regular; and that Pimples, Rash, Eczema and other Skin Affections disappear when "Fruit-a-tives" are taken to correct Constipation.

"Fruit-a-tives" will protect you against Auto-intoxication because this wonderful fruit medicine acts directly on all the eliminating organs. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Alcohol and its Effects

TO the Editor:— It is reported that a committee of the New Brunswick Medical Association has brought in a report affirming that alcohol is a "necessary drug and should be under no more restrictions than any other drug." That is indefinite, as it does not say whether or not the association adopted the report. It is also indefinite in not mentioning what drugs are meant when they say that "alcohol should not be under any more restrictions than any other drug." There are many drugs that even a physician cannot purchase without filling out a blank order.

Let me point out a few of the authorities who do not agree with the views of that committee. I will place first the British War Office, which in a hand book for the Royal Army Medical Corps experiments on animals to show that alcohol lessens the power of the system to defend itself against the germs of disease. (2) The report of the British Commission says that alcohol increases liability to disease, adds to its severity and retards recovery." (3) The American Medical Association says the use of alcohol as a therapeutic agent should be discouraged." (4) Dr. Welsh of Johns Hopkins University, at a meeting of the American Association of Physicians in Washington, said: "Alcohol in any form or in any dose lessens a patient's chance of recovery." And there was not a single dissenting voice. (5) Alcoholic liquors of all kinds have been removed from the United States Pharmacopoeia, the list of official medicines in the United States. (6) Sir Frederick Treves says that the sale of alcohol should be placed under the same restrictions as morphine, cocaine or strychnine.

I might give many others, but those who refuse to listen to these would not likely be convinced by any authority.

Strike of Railway Shopmen Spreads

Chicago, Aug. 5—The strike of Federated Railroad Shopmen which started last Friday continued to spread today, and according to officials here of the district council directing the walkout a complete tie-up of the railroads of the country will result in a few days unless their demands for higher wages are met at once.

While the Chicago district is the centre of the strike, reports for the northwest, southwest southeast Ohio Indiana and as far west as Colorado show that the shopmen continued to join the walkout. In a number of instances however, local unions voted to remain at work until the order to strike came from officials of the Grand Lodge in the regular way.

Weekly Agricultural Report

Haying has been generally delayed by the wet weather, but at every opportunity farmers are engaged in taking the crop off. With suitable conditions, many sections will practically finish this week. Reports from Eastern Counties state that considerable hay has been damaged by the wet weather.

The Grain Crop is reported as coming along quite satisfactory. A few of the earlier sown fields are showing signs of reopening. The crop is well up to the average and the quality of grain should be good.

The Potato Crop report is still favorable. They are making splendid growth and up to the present, no signs of Late Blight has been reported, although at this time last year it was quite prevalent. The number of farmers spraying with Bordeaux is said to be on the increase.

The cool damp weather is especially favorable to the turnip crop. From all districts the reports state that turnips are making very rapid growth and presents indications point to a very heavy crop.

Pastures are being helped by frequent showers and cows are milking well. The farmers Co-operative Creamery of Moncton, reports very little falling off in the amount of cream delivered, as yet. In an average season the falling off is quite marked during late July and early August, due to pastures becoming dry.

A number of districts in the province are organizing to sell their lambs co-operatively. South Tota-gouche expect to have three car loads, Melrose district two car loads and Chapman one car load. These lambs will be loaded on cars and shipped to Montreal by the farmers, one of their men going with the cars and looking after the sale of the stock. F'ron Aug 5, 1919

Keeping the Home Fires Burning

THERE ARE MANY MEN YET LIVING who can tell about going to the neighbor's, miles away perhaps, to "Borrow" a chunk of fire. Until it arrived, no warmth, no light could be kindled. Whole families have shivered for hours until the messenger could return with the precious spark from a neighbor's fireplace.

Eddy's Matches

Today, with a box of Eddy's Matches on the shelf, you need not worry lest the fire die down in the night, and you can leave your house for weeks without making a plan for getting a fire started when you return. A match is a little thing, perhaps, but it has made a big difference in the world's history, since it takes a distance whether you get good matches or not. The best assurance of satisfaction you can have is to see that Eddy's name is on the box.

Debate in U.S. Senate Over League of Nations

Washington, D. C. Aug 5.—In its hearings on economic questions of the Versailles Treaty, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee got into a sharp argument today over the League of Nations during which Chairman Lodge declared that repeated attempts to secure information on the league from President Wilson had been unavailing. "The president" said Senator Lodge has never offered to come before the committee. He only sent a telephone message saying he would be glad to have the committee come to the White House. We have called for paper after paper and he has not sent one.

Senator Paul, Republican, New Mexico, remarked that the committee did not see the president at the White House on his first return from France and had failed to secure from him any important information. Democratic members of the committee replied, and the argument became so sharp that the chairman had to rap for order.

The clash interrupted the testimony of Norman Davis, an economic adviser to the Versailles conference, regarding the reparations clauses of the treaty; and was accepted by some senators as a forecast of what is to be expected when Secretary of State Lansing appears before the committee tomorrow.

The Story of Nipigon

Nipigon, Ont., Lies Picturesquely Along Waters Abounding With Fish.

During the warm summer months tourists from all parts of the world make their way to Northern Ontario, here they find the climate most delightful and plenty of fish in the rivers for sport and an abundance of wild animals for hunting. Those especially fond of fishing usually come to the Nipigon river which is known far and wide for its speckled trout.

Tourists desiring to visit this world famous river usually come on the Canadian Pacific Railway to the village of Nipigon, which is situated on the Nipigon River about three miles from Nipigon Bay and six miles east of Port Arthur. As one steps off the train at Nipigon one sees the homes of all the inhabitants stretched along on either side of the track. Besides the homes of the villagers the tourist would notice other buildings worth mentioning. He would see three churches, a Hudson Bay store, and other general merchandise stores, owned by William Mackay and Sons, two hotels, a restaurant owned by Mr. Goodridge and a school. The stranger in the village would likely follow a side street to the river and here he would find rapids in the river. Because Nipigon is situated near this fast water, it was so named. NIPIGON is derived from an Indian word which means "large quantities of water beyond." Just above the rapids the river widens out into a lake, known as Lake Helen.

As the tourist stands on the river bank and surveys the surrounding country he is greatly impressed by the size and color of the rocks in the hills around the village. Not only is the place noted for its beauty, but there are many places of historical interest along the river near the village.

About a couple of miles down the river from Nipigon is a place known as Red Rock. It was so named because of the steep, massive red rocks which form the right bank of the Directly opposite Red Rock on the left bank of the river is a steep cliff. Painted red on the rocks near the water is the figure of the devil and several canoes carrying Indians with their paddles in hand. These pictures were painted here years ago by the Indians. They painted the picture of the devil there because they thought the evil spirit lived near by. The other paintings of the canoes was a sign to other Indians showing what tribes had passed that way.

The Indians living around Nipigon belong to the Ojibway tribe. It was the habit in the western of the river that first drew the Indians to this spot. In early history when the various tribes of the Indians were at war with each other, the Iroquois being the better warriors, pursued the Ojibway up the Nipigon River into Lake Superior. The Ojibway managed to reach the shore in safety. They climbed a steep cliff and bravely kept the enemy on the lower ground. The clever Iroquois landed on an island in the lake and there dug holes in the ground in which they intended to hide and await the return of the Ojibway. However, the Ojibway saw and understood the plans of the cruel Iroquois. By means of their bows they shot arrows into the pitfalls on the island and forced the Iroquois to leave their hiding place.

Nowadays the Indians living in and around Nipigon village live as the white people do. The government has granted certain areas of land to them. These areas are known as reservations. Each year the government grants the sum of four dollars to each Indian. Mr. W. R. Brown, Indian agent of Port Arthur, by assiduous study of Indian affairs, has added much to the comfort of the Red Rock band of Ojibway at Nipigon.

The Hudson Bay post at Nipigon is an old one. The site first chosen for the post at Nipigon was on the bank of the river. Here the company received the furs from the Indians who came up and down the river in their canoes. Since those early days Nipigon has developed some fisheries, chiefly Finlander, have bought up farms in Nipigon township from the government. They promise to clear and settle upon the land to return for the pulp wood on their farms. On account of the increase of population, the Hudson Bay company found it necessary to build a larger store in which they could keep on hand a large supply of groceries and merchandise. Now they have a big store opposite the C. P. R. station on the front street. It is of interest to know that Mr. McDonald, our deputy minister of game and fisheries, spent a part of his early life in the employ of the Hudson Bay company at Nipigon.

The country about Nipigon is one of vast natural resources. There is an immense area of forest from which the people get pulp wood, timber and railroad ties. The wood is hauled in the winter time to the water's edge to be loaded on cars or to the water's edge to be floated in a raft in the spring to the pulp wood boats in Nipigon Bay. Most of these boats belong to corporations in the United States.

There is much beautiful hard rock suitable for buildings in the neighborhood of Nipigon. The rock is drilled out and sent to where it is required. Many homes in the town of Nipigon have been built from rock taken from near Nipigon.

The water in Nipigon township is team with fish. There is a small fishing station called Port McDonald, on the west bay from Nipigon. The F. A. is situated in fact quantities to all parts of the country.

Recently Dr. Robinson of Nipigon, offered a prize for the best history of that village. The prize was won by a little Finnish girl, Inger Paajula, whose essay is given above.

OUR BIG DAY

Wednesday August 27th is the day. On that day Newcastle will have its biggest day for many years passed, because on this occasion, we are to entertain our returned soldiers. We have been quiet for five years, with scarcely a moment of festival that was not clouded by the dread of disheartening news. That time has gone by, the war is over, and while problems still confront every country, we in Canada are more fortunately placed than most and are in a position to let ourselves go for once and celebrate as we never did before. This is the time for decorating, for making our streets and homes a blaze of color which will put all other efforts in the shade. It is the time for enthusiasm, for bubbling good nature, for clear, sheer happiness which will make our boys feel at ease and realize that when Newcastle sets out to do anything, it is well done.

The success or otherwise of our big celebration does not now depend upon the work of committees. They have been busy and by their efforts have made possible the task in store for others. Whether our boys are worthily entertained or not is a matter of individual effort, for in a reception such as this the enthusiasm of the mass is what counts. Every man, woman and child is responsible for making the returned soldiers who will be our guests enjoy themselves. The programme is all that could be desired, there will be fun for everybody, but in the enjoyment of what has been arranged all should remember that the first duty is to our guests, that this reception is a tribute to the men who went overseas and that the reputation of Newcastle for putting up a good time is at stake.

Delicate Young Girls

Need New Red Blood to Give Them Health and Strength

Does your daughter inherit a delicate organization from you? The anaemia of young girls may be inherited, or it may be caused by bad air, unsuitable food, haste, and irregular eating, insufficient exercise, over-exercise and not enough rest and sleep.

It comes on gradually, beginning with languor, indigestion, mental or bodily exhaustion, irritability and a feeling of fatigue. Later comes palpitation of the heart, headache, dizziness following a standing position, frequent headaches, and breathlessness. In a majority of cases constipation is present. There may be no great loss of flesh, but usually the complexion takes on a greenish-yellow pallor.

Cases of this kind, if neglected, become serious but if taken in time there is no need to worry. The treatment is quite easy and simple. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which are free from any harmful or habit-forming drug, are just the tonic needed to remedy this wretched state of health. Though it is not noticeable, improvement actually begins with the first dose. As the blood is made rich and red, the paler leaves the face, strength and activity gradually return and if the treatment is continued until the last symptom disappears, the danger of a relapse is very slight.

If any symptom of anaemia appears, prudence suggests that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be given at once, and the sooner they are taken the more speedily will the trouble be overcome. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Sir Geo. E. Foster Likely To Resign

There is good reason to believe that when the further reconstruction of the Cabinet takes place—probably within the next ten days—that Sir George Foster, the veteran Minister of Trade and Commerce, will resign. It is expected that Sir Henry Drayton will run in his seat. North Toronto The writs will have to be issued shortly. The elections may not be able to be held in time for Sir Henry to take his seat at the opening of the session, which has been called for September 1.

Dr. Tolmie, the new Minister of Agriculture, will arrive in Ottawa the end of this week, when he will be sworn in. He will run in Victoria and it is not expected he will have serious opposition.

There are no rumors current as to the likely successor of Sir George Foster, although there has in the past been talk of Lloyd Harris, chairman of the Canadian Trade Mission. H. H. Stevens, Vancouver, is looked on as likely to be the new Minister from British Columbia, succeeding Hon. Martin Burrell.

THE FITZ-RANDOLPH DIVORCE SUIT

FREDERICTON, Aug. 11—At a session of the Divorce Court held by Judge Crockett this morning, application was made by R. B. Hanson, K. C., acting for Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., counsel for the defendant in the Randolph divorce case, to have the libel dismissed in view of the finding of the jury, who answered all the questions propounded in favor of the defendant. Mr. M. G. Teed, K. C. for the husband and plaintiff, opposed the motion and asked for time to appeal from the finding of the jury. In reply Mr. Hanson contended that no appeal could be made till a formal verdict had been entered by the court.

The point was made by Mr. Teed that the jury finding in divorce, like chancery cases, was in itself the court's decision which was not the case at nisi prius. Judge Crockett confirmed this view of the question, and upon application granted time for appeal from the decision until October 16th.

An application for alimony was made and decision will be given on Thursday morning. Payment of debts of $900 insured since February, 1918, by Mrs. FitzRandolph, was also asked.

Lake Louise and the Rockies

Lake Louise.
To the ancient, all roads led to Rome, and it was the ambition of young and old to behold the "Eternal City" and its surroundings. Now however, one might say it is the ambition of every Canadian to behold the "Eternal Shows", and as the Applan way led to Rome, so the great iron road, the Canadian Pacific Railway, leads to the Rocky Mountains. Canadians have a wide field to pick and choose from in the matter of places to spend holidays, but the West has an attraction all its own.
Lake Louise is one of the many beauty spots in the Rocky Mountains, and a trip West is not considered complete without a stop-off there. Lake Louise is one of the Lakes in the Clouds (the others being Lake Agnes and Mirror Lake) and at one time its existence was only known to the Indians. Now however, thanks to the enterprise of the C.P.R., it is visited by thousands of tourists yearly, the railway passing through at this point, and a palatial hotel, the Chateau, having been erected on the lakeshore, affording ample accommodation.
Stepping off the train at Lagran the tourist boards an electric car, which runs up the rocks to the lake, the trip only taking twenty minutes. The view is a most delightful one, the sun being open on both sides, affords an uninterrupted view of the wonderful scenery with the majesty of exertion. The Bow River is crossed by a pretty little bridge, and in the early morning sunshine the waters sparkle like opals, the river flows in eddies as the river forces its way down the valley.
Arriving at Lake Louise one feels transported into another atmosphere. If not to another world, feelings of wonder, awe, and admiration grip the mind, compelling a reverent silence. The lake itself is small, but a perfect gem, lying at the base of the Victoria Glacier from which it is fed. Its waters being pure turquoise in colour, that deep turquoise is difficult to describe. Behind the lake Mt. Leifroy towers like a giant to the heavens, reaching an altitude of over 10,000 feet—one huge mass of crystalline snow and ice, resembling the Matterhorn in Switzerland. Mt. Aberdeen and the Victoria Glacier form a background prepared for grandeur.
The surrounding country suggests an Alpine valley. Ranges of snow-capped mountains stretch as far as the eye can reach, while the air is filled

Giants' Steps near Lake Louise, Canadian Pacific Rockies.
Valley is obtained from a height of 11,000 ft. the river looking like a slender silver thread down in the valley. Still other beauty spots are the Giants' Steps and Paradise Valley, where the opalescent waters come thundering down from the sublime heights above, forcing their way through the mountains to the distant valley.
Moraine Lake is soon reached, and the tourist is allowed half an hour to rest before the return journey, enabling him to enjoy the magnificent scenery. Moraine Lake lies at the base of the Ten Peaks, a chain of mountains all over 10,000 feet high, covered with snow.
On the way to Moraine Lake a splendid view of Mt. Temple is obtained. This mountain is one of the highest peaks in the Rockies, rising to an altitude of 11,000 feet. Its sides resemble walls of coral ice, and its crest is covered with snow. At this point a fine view of the Bow

The Exposer Attacks Driver

Fredericton, Aug. 4.—The Exposer, 206, champion trotting stallion of Canada, has put his trainer and driver William Sharon, on the shelf. The big trotter made a vicious attack on Driver Sharon in his stall at the trotting park on Saturday and, as a result, it will probably be some time before the trainer of the champion will be able to resume his place in the sulky.

The big horse made a snap at Sharon's left hand and, despite the fact the sponge interfered, made such a bite that several stitches were necessary to close the wound. Tommy Raymond finished working out The Exposer, but Sharon hopes to be able to drive him in the Moncton races next week.

The Outlawed Despot

If incidents are taken at their face value, last-hour attempts are still being made to save the ex-Kaiser from the “degradation” of appearing in the dock to answer the charges made against him. The other day we had BETHMANN-HOLLWEG declaring that he accepted full responsibility for the policy pursued by the late War Lord, and offering to surrender himself for trial in his stead. Then we had HINDENBURG declaring that for all the orders and acts of the Supreme Army since Aug. 29th, 1918—the date when he was appointed to supreme command—he alone is responsible, and that all the resolutions and orders of His Majesty since that day are without exception draft and issued on my express advice and full responsibility.” Then there is the touching filial devotion of the Kaiser's sons—with the exception of the ex-Crown Prince, who probably feels he will have enough to do to save his own neck—who appeal to King GEORGE to spare the Kaiser the degradation of extradition, and offer their persons in sacrifice in his place.

It is all very touching, and will doubtless move the sentimental German to tears. It will leave the Allied peoples stone cold. The ex-Kaiser, as he often boasted, was the supreme head of the German fighting forces, whether on land or sea. He must have known perfectly what policy was shaping the thoughts of his political advisers, and what means his Army and Navy were adopting to put these ideas into practice. He must have known what the refusal to hold the conference proposed by Sir EDWARD GREY, just before the war broke out, would mean; he must have known that poison gas and liquid flame are horrible instruments of torture, and that their use in war was pure savagery; that bomb-dropping on open towns was hardly “playing the game.”

Did he ever protest these things? Nay, did he even protest against the hideous doctrine that might is right, persistently taught to the German people, in and out of school; that Germany was destined to rule the world; teachings which led to the world war? The Kaiser will have to stand his trial. Whatever may be the way of public opinion, his judges will pronounce sentences according to the evidence adduced. If there is aught to be said in the Kaiser's defence, let it be said at the proper place and time. The occasion is too great for anything but scrupulous justice. Meanwhile, these confessions of HINDENBURG and the former German Chancellor will, doubtless, be duly noted by the Allies. BETHMANN-HOLLWEG may yet be hard put to defend his own part in the war. His ingenuous offer does not clear the ex-Kaiser, but more deeply implicates himself.

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving memory of Private Courtney Matchett who was gassed in France on July 25th 1918 and died in England August 8th.

Dear little lad, we missed thee
When you left to fall in line
And we mourned for thee dear Laddie
When you fell in Autumn Time
One year ago, in France,
You gave up life so bright
But our thoughts to England wander
Where our laddie sleeps tonight
No earthly care can harm thee
For with God all things are glad
And altho we sadly miss thee
Not one tear can make thee sad
Happy with a host of comrades
“Mother's lads,” who crossed the Sea to fight for God.
Then joined him, in the great Eternity
A COUSIN

Sgt. Jack Clements Dies From Injuries

Sergt Jack Clements of Campbellton, who won the heavyweight title of the Canadian Exhibition Forces at Witley Camp, England, last February, was admitted to the New Brunswick Military Hospital in Fredericton Monday night, 4th inst., paralyzed in both arms and legs and died early on Tuesday.

Sergt. Clements returned from overseas in July last suffering from injured shoulder ligaments, having sustained the injury while acting as sparring partner for Jack Goddard who was an aspirant for the heavy weight title of Great Britain. He remained at N. B. Hospital for some days, going to his home at Campbellton.

Hurt While Diving
Within the past few days, Clements was bathing in the Restigouche River near his home. He dove from a considerable height into what he believed to be deep water. Unfortunately the depth was but four feet and by striking his head on the bottom he received injuries which were followed almost at once by paralysis.

His wife and five children reside in Campbellton. Clements went overseas with the 6th Field Battery and was in France. Clements was desirous of going after the Canadian heavyweight title.

Beaver Brook Highly Praised Our War Ministry

London, Aug. 7.—Lord Beaverbrook, presiding at a farewell dinner given by the Canadian War Records staff paid a tribute to the work of the overseas Ministry. He had heard much discussion of its work during his recent stay in Canada, but had seen nothing in Great Britain to equal the accomplishment of the Canadian Ministry, which far outstripped the British war office or the American War Department. Lord Beaverbrook speaking of what he had said about the benefits and advantages of prohibition said it had not got any benefits or advantages. When those returning to Canada had had six weeks experience they would agree with him. Sir Hamar Greenwood speaking of Lord Beaverbrook's work at the ministry of information said it was the last Government office to be formed for war purposes and first to be dissolved. He was sorry the same rapidly had not been shown with regard to other war departments.

Sir Edward Kemp, acknowledging the kind things said of the overseas ministry declared that he did not look for praise but only wished to feel he had done his best.

Irritations of the Skin

Are Soothed and Healed by the Use of Dr. Chase's Ointment—Two Interesting Cases Reported

The old method of treating eczema by means of internal medicines is too slow and uncertain of result. The new method is by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You apply the ointment and obtain almost immediate relief from the itching, stinging sensations. In a few days the sore spots are cleaned out and the healing process is set up.

As you apply the ointment from day to day you can see for yourself the splendid results obtained, and this will encourage you to keep on with this treatment until the cure is complete.

Mrs. Stafford Leason, Winchester, Ont., writes: “I can heartily recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment, as it cured me of a very severe case of eczema. After using several remedies without relief, I was about discouraged, thinking I could never endure the intense suffering. At last one evening when I felt I could not endure the pain another day or hour longer, I thought of Dr. Chase's Ointment which I had seen advertised, and decided to give it a trial. To my great surprise, after using it a few times, I obtained relief, and in a few days my affliction began to completely disappear. My husband and I often speak of the quick and lasting cure I obtained in such a short time. That was ten years ago, and we have kept it in our home ever since, and it has been a great healer for many other complaints. I never fail to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to my friends and neighbors.”

“I might state that we have also used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in our household, and I can recommend it as relieving all that you claim for it.”

In cases of Warts Dr. Chase's Ointment is of use in every home. It keeps the skin soft and smooth. Used for baby after the bath, it cures chafing and skin irritation. It is so soothing and healing that it acts as a beautifier of the skin, keeping it soft, smooth and velvety. Sixty cents a box, all dealers or Edman Bros., Station & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Handling Wool Co-operatively

Eight years ago, after thoroughly investigating the sheep industry in Canada, the sheep associations regretfully stated: “From shearing to marketing no country in the world handles its wool in a more efficient manner than Canada. As far as the wool of mutton breeds and cross breeds go, we do not know of any country where it is handled in such an unsatisfactory way and delivered in such bad condition.”

Having reached this conclusion, the commission intimated that the way it was open to find a remedy for the trouble. It was soon after this that the Canadian Department of Agriculture was organized, and by 1914 the work of applying the remedy had begun. This consisted of the organization of wool growers' associations throughout Canada, the direction of their efforts in producing good wool, and in classifying it. During 1914, the first year of the work, 96,122 pounds were graded for sale to the wool market in Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba and Alberta. The following year, through 19 organizations distributed over Canada, 420,000 pounds were classified and offered for cooperative sale. The season of 1916 saw 1,712,586 pounds, while in 1917 this was increased to 2,097,909 pounds.

It was early in 1917, because of peculiar war conditions, that Martin Burrell, then Minister of Agriculture, recognizing the importance of centralizing the sale of wool, and the advantages that must accrue from having one centre of operation, sanctioned the rental of suitable premises in Toronto, for the storage of the wool of the various provinces where clips would be graded by the wool experts of the live stock branch, and shipped out when purchased. This led to the further step of 1918 in the organization of the Co-operative Wool Growers' Limited as the central agency for the disposal of wool shipped in and collected from all parts of Canada.

Whereas, when the central warehouse was first established, it was estimated that as much as 2,000,000 pounds of wool might be received during the season, the actual amount received was 1,500,000 pounds, and the market was 30 per cent over the 1917 wool shipments. The Southern Saskatchewan Wool Growers' Association handled eight and one-half carloads, besides the amount mentioned, the province being too large for one organization to handle at present. In Alberta, likewise, too large a territory for one agency to handle, there are three co-operatives organized. In the 1918 report, each revealing a large expansion in territory and volume of business. These associations are the Provincial Sheep Breeders' Association, the Alberta Live Stock Association, and the Elmer Creek Wool Growers' Association. These three agencies did by far the greatest business of any provincial system in Canada in 1918, when they collected, graded and shipped 1,250,000 pounds of wool of various grades, Earl W. Gage, (Breeder's Gazette).

BIG TYPHOON SCENE
One of the most realistic storm scenes ever photographed, will be revealed in the first episode of Pearl White's new serial, "The Lightning Raider" which will be seen at the Happy Hour Theatre on Monday of each week. The first episode is entitled "The Ebony Block" and shifts audiences from New York to the rubber plantations on the upper Amazon. The plot of the entire serial revolves around an Ebony Block, containing a secret so dangerous, that in unscrupulous hands it is able to endanger the welfare of the world. This block is in the possession of Wu Fang, an unscrupulous Chinaman of great wealth who owns the rubber plantation on which Tom Norton's father is in love with a beautiful girl—half Chinese and half American, who is being kept as a ward by Wu Fang, who hopes one day to marry her. Norton and Sunbeam, the ward, decide to escape from Wu Fang and take the Ebony Block with them. While they are on their way through the jungles they are overtaken by Wu Fang and his Chinese henchmen. They are attacked and Norton is about to be killed when the typhoon bursts with such force that the entire party are almost wiped out and Norton and Sunbeam, under cover of the wind and rain, manage to get away. All of the most modern mechanics for the creation of a motion picture storm were employed in the making of this Typhoon, which has been declared by experts to be the most realistic ever photographed.

With the first episode of the above serial the magnificent Western production "The Man Hunt" featuring Ethel Clayton will be shown.

COPENHAGEN CHEWING TOBACCO

Copenhagen is used differently from ordinary chewing tobacco. Take a small pinch, for a start, and put it between the lower lip and gum, in the osseus. Whenever you can increase the size of the pinch to suit the strength of the chew you desire. Copenhagen is strong, because the tobacco of which it is made is made from fine grains, which makes it burn at the strength thoroughly and evenly. It is a little "kick" goes a long way, showing that Copenhagen is not only an extremely economical chew, but also one of the finest chewing tobaccos made of the best, old, high-grown tobacco.

DIVORCE IN HOLMES CASE
In the case of Ralph Sherman Holmes vs. May Jacobina Holmes, a Doaktown action in which Rev. Sterling W. Stackhouse a Baptist clergyman formerly stationed at Doaktown, was named as co-respondent, a decree of divorce was ordered to issue. Court stated that the ground for issue of decree was that the defendant had given birth to an illegitimate child during the absence of her husband overseas. Court, however, would not find that she had been guilty of adultery with Rev. St. ring W. Stackhouse although one witness Margaret Brown had given positive evidence. Court did not wish to reflect upon the witness but considered the occurrence highly improbable.
