OVER THE WIRES

REVELA CHER, Mich., November 15.—The coroner's jury on the recent Grand Trunk disaster to-day rendered a verdict: "We find the collision was caused by gross dereliction of the duties of the train dispatcher, and also find Coadjutor B. H. Scott and Engineer Woolley guilty of criminal negligence in negligently putting their train on a track at which place they had positive orders to stop. The Grand Trunk is exonerated from all blame."

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—John A. Drake, treasurer of the Indiana, Illinois and Iowa railroad company, was snatched and robbed of $50,000 in the office of the company, on the sixth floor of the Rockwell building, at 7 o'clock today. Mr. Drake had his money in a little hand satchel and was preparing to go out on the roof to see that the safe was locked when he was seized by several men and taken to the floor by several men who were waiting for him.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 16.—The emperor of the French Republic was arrested by the French gendarmes on a yacht off Kiel. In official circles many believe France will be obliged to make an apology for the explanation of the alleged connection of the prisoner with the French general staff.

QUEBEC, November 16.—Another attempt has been made at Leveite to wreck one of the C. P. R. trains from Montreal. The train was heavily laden with stores and was being towed by a tug. A section man saw the obstruction and told his superior, and the latter notified the superintendent at Quebec, who at once dispatched an engine with men to clear the track. The train was stopped at Leveite and the C. P. R. men were at the same place. Yet no one has been arrested.

LONDON, November 16.—The debate on the parish council and local government bill completed all the time in house of commons this evening. Walter MacLaren (radical) moved the committee be instructed to insert in the bill a provision for the election of a committee of the council to be known as the local government committee.

BOSTON, Nov. 16.—James Messer, cook in the Boston Industrial Home, Harrison street, was stabbed and killed by George Young, waiter there, tonight. Young was drunk and provoked a quarrel with Messer.

BOSTON, Nov. 16.—The new U. S. cruiser Columbia, on an official trip yesterday, averaged 22.4 knots an hour for four hours from New York to New Bedford, and her splendid record of 25.4 knots an hour for a distance of 200,000, or 200,000 for each quarter of a knot above 21.

Montreal, November 17.—The Catholic church authorities refused to allow the removal of John F. Gourley, who died recently at Medicine Hat, N. W. T., to be interred in the Catholic cemetery in this city. Mr. Gourley, who was a native of Nova Scotia, went to Boston when a young man and married a Boston woman, from whom he was afterwards divorced. He subsequently came to Montreal and married a woman who was a native of Medicine Hat. A short while ago he caught blood poison from a polio troy, and died in the Catholic cemetery at Medicine Hat. His expressed a wish that his remains should be placed in the Catholic cemetery at Montreal. The body arrived here yesterday, but the church authorities declined to allow it to be interred in the Catholic cemetery on the ground that Gourley was divorced.

The remains were subsequently buried in the Mount Royal cemetery, Rev. Mr. Dalton of St. John the Evangelist church, officiating. Gourley's brother, Seymour H. Gourley, G. C. of Truro, N. S., and his brother-in-law, A. McPherson, also Dr. Macdonald and M. H. H. of Alexandria, Ont., were chief mourners.

We hear that Mr. James Yoo is to contest the Second District of Prince George's county against Mr. McWilliam, a Liberal nominee. Mr. Yoo can easily beat Mr. McWilliam, although the latter did on one occasion assume to himself the high dignity of "governor" of the island.

Three outside of sheep, each containing 100 animals, arrived from Point d'Arce yesterday for the American market. Two carloads were shipped last night and the other will follow this morning. The sheep are all from the same flock, and were taken from the same pen, where they had fallen and been trampled to death by the others. Another carload of sheep, nearly stripped of one side, and agent Watson, of the S. P. C. A., refused to allow it to be forwarded. These have many sheep killed in transit this year, owing to greater care being taken by the railway men in shipping such animals.—St. John Telegraph.

Mr. Sweetman, Chief Post Office Inspector came to the island on Saturday.

Mr. John McLean, barber of this city, left for Victoria, B. C. Thursday morning last, to accept a permanent position in a territorial establishment in that city.

Dr. G. W. McKinnon of Bertha, California, who has been visiting his relatives here, left for home Friday morning.

TERRIBLE STORM

A despatch from London, Eng., of the 10th inst., states that a terrible storm swept over the United Kingdom all day yesterday, it still furrows at 12 o'clock. Through the night the wind howled and reports of shipwrecks have been received almost constantly. The people of Orkney Islands suffered terribly. Many houses were destroyed. The people of the coast were terrified. The people of the coast were terrified. The people of the coast were terrified.

At Summerside, on the 10th inst., the wife of R. M. Scott, of a daughter. In this city, on the 15th inst., to the wife of John T. Clarke, of the Post Office Department, a son.

DIED. In this city, on the 15th inst., Margaret Ann Flynn, aged 23 years, Requiescat in pace. At his residence, Kent Street, Charlottetown, on the 20th inst., Mr. John Scott, aged 75 years.

At Ross, on the 8th inst., of dropsy, Ann McLeod, daughter of Alexander McLeod, in the 29th year of her age. At Summerside, on the 4th inst., of tuberculosis, Mary Rose Arsenault, aged 21 years, daughter of John F. Arsenault.

At Fort Augustus on the 13th inst., Mrs. Mary Kelly, widow of the late Mr. John Kelly of that place, in the 72nd year of her age. Deceased had been ill for a considerable time and shortly before her death was visited by an attack of paralysis that baffled the skill of physicians and to which she finally succumbed after six days of intense suffering which she bore patiently and enthusiastically. She was a good and useful life. An affectionate wife and mother, a kind and generous friend and neighbor. Her death is deeply regretted by a large circle of acquaintances. Her funeral at St. Patrick's Church on the 14th inst. was the largest since for years in that part of the country, where she was buried with last rites in the cemetery which she was always faithful and upright member. May her soul rest in peace.
