The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

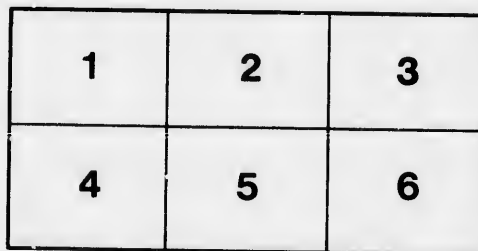

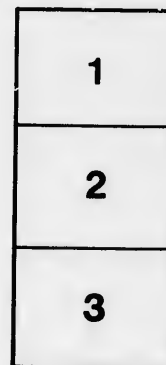

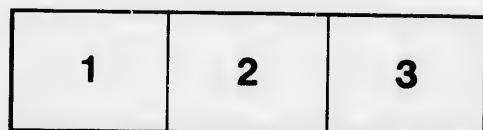

Harold Campbell Vaughan Memorial Library
Acadia University

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche sheet contains the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Harold Campbell Vaughan Memorial Library
Acadia University

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaître sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

EXTRACT

From the Act of Incorporation of King's College, Windsor, passed the 4th day of April, A. D. 1853.

2. The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, the Honorable Brenton Halliburton, Reverend George McCawley, D. D., the Honorable James B. Uniacke, and Lewis Morris Wilkins, Esquire, together with eight persons, being members of the Church of England, to be elected at a general or special meeting of the "Alumni of King's College, Windsor," shall be Governors of the College hereby incorporated.

3. The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, for the time being, shall be always ex officio a Governor, President of the Board and Visitor; the said Brenton Halliburton, George McCawley, James B. Uniacke, and Lewis Morris Wilkins, shall be Governors, for the term of their respective lives; and of the eight persons so to be elected by the Alumni of King's College, Windsor, two shall in each and every year, successively, in the order of their election, go out of office, but such two Governors may be re-elected.

At a meeting of the Governors of King's College, Windsor, held at Halifax, on Wednesday, the 12th day of May, 1875, were revised and passed the following as the Statutes, Rules and Ordinances of the University, King's College, Windsor, in the Province of Nova Scotia.

STATUTES, RULES AND ORDINANCES OF THE UNIVERSITY,
KING'S COLLEGE,
WINDSOR, NOVA SCOTIA.

CAP. I.

OF THE PATRON, THE VISITOR, AND THE GOVERNORS.

1.—The Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, for the time being, is Patron of the College and University.

2.—The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, for the time being, is Visitor of the same. It is his office to take care that the Statutes are observed. He may summon before him, within the college, the President, Professors, and all other members of the University or College, and examine them touching all matters whatsoever, relating to the University and College, or any of its officers or members, and more particularly as to their religious principles and behaviour. He may admonish offenders, either publicly or privately, but he shall not inflict any further punishment without the consent and concurrence of the Governors, or the major part of them.

3.—There are twelve Governors, exclusive of the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, who is ex-officio President of the Board. They are elected by the incorporated Alumni, two going out of office annually in rotation. They meet once a month in Halifax or Windsor, and five are a quorum for the transaction of business. A special meeting may at any time be called by the President of the Board or by any three members thereof.

4.—The government of the College and University is vested in this Board. They have power to frame such rules and ordinances touching any matter or thing respecting the College and University as to them shall seem meet, provided that such rules and ordinances shall not be repugnant to the laws and statutes of the realm or of the Province or to the Charter as amended by the Act of 1853.

And whereas it is declared by the Charter, that all statutes, rules and ordinances may be disallowed by the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being; therefore these statutes and every revocation, augmentation, or alteration thereof shall be forthwith transmitted to the said Lord Archbishop.

5.—The appointment of all officers of the University and College belongs to the Governors. The President and the Professors shall hold their offices during good behaviour, but they shall be liable to be removed for neglect of duty, inefficiency or other just cause, if nine members of the Board vote for such removal.

6.—At their annual and any other meetings, which they may think proper to hold at Windsor, the Governors are entitled to the free use of all public rooms, buildings and gardens, belonging to the College; they shall be supplied with meals according to their own choice, and at their own expense, by the steward, and shall be waited upon and attended by the College servants.

7.—The Treasurer shall be appointed by the Governors during pleasure, and shall find competent securities for the faithful performance of his duties. He shall have a seat at the Board, and may speak but not vote on all questions of finance. He shall submit his accounts for the inspection of the Governors, whenever required so to do,

CAP. II.

OF THE UNIVERSITY.

1.—A Matricula, or Register, shall be kept, in which the names of all persons who shall be admitted members of the University shall be enrolled, with their age and other particulars, by or in the presence of the President or his deputy.

2.—The person to be matriculated must have completed his fifteenth year,—have passed a satisfactory examination in the Greek and Latin languages,—and have signed a declaration that he will comply with the rules and regulations of the University, of which he shall receive a copy.

3.—The Academical year shall begin in October, and shall contain three terms, in which all scholastic exercises shall be performed and all degrees conferred. Michaelmas term shall extend from the first Saturday in October to December 22nd ;—Lent term, from the second Saturday in January to the Saturday before Palm Sunday ;—Easter term, from the Monday after Easter Monday to the last Thursday in June.

4.—Undergraduates shall not ordinarily be considered to have kept a term, otherwise than by a residence from the first to the last day. But with the written permission of the President, any term may be kept by a residence of not less than fifty-six days.

5.—Residence shall be kept by attendance in chapel, and at the appointed Lectures. Undergraduates shall not quit college without leave from the President, and shall wait upon him immediately after their return to it.

6.—University and College examination shall be arranged according to regulations put forth by the College Board subject to the approval of the Governors.

7.—The following days shall be observed as Holidays in the University :—All Saint's Day, Ash Wednesday, Ascension Day, Whit Monday, and the Accession of the reigning sovereign.

8.—A Public Festival, to be called the Eneænia, shall be held annually on the last Thursday in June, in commemoration of the Foundation of the University by His Majesty King George III.

On that day the Governors with the members of the University, in their proper habits, shall proceed to the College Chapel or the Parish Church of Windsor, where Divine Service shall be celebrated, and a Sermon preached by the Professor of Divinity, or such other person as may be appointed by the Visitor.

After service, they shall repair to the College Hall, where shall be held the public Academical Act. An Oration shall be delivered by the President of the College, or some other member of the University appointed by him. Degrees shall be conferred, prize Compositions shall be read, and other Academical exercises performed as the College Board may direct.

9.—A Proctor shall be appointed annually by the Governors, whose duty it shall be to take care that the Statutes are not transgressed in the town or neighborhood outside the College.

CAP. III.

THE PROFESSORS.

1.—There shall be at least four Professors, of whom one shall be the President, and two others Fellows of the College. They shall subscribe the Declaration No. 2 in appendix.

2.—They shall lecture upon the following subjects:—

Hebrew.

Divinity—including pastoral theology.

Classics, and Moral Philosophy.

Logic and Rhetoric.

English Language and Literature.

Mathematics, Natural Philosophy and Astronomy.

Chemistry, with Natural History including Botany.

The modern Languages.

The arrangement of the Lectures for each term, with the times and places of their delivery, being subject to the approbation of the Governors.

3.—Persons who are not members of the University may, with the permission of the President, attend the Lectures of any Professor or Professors, upon payment of a fee for each course, and may obtain certificates of proficiency at the examinations held by such Professor or Professors.

4.—All persons, whilst in attendance at the Lectures of any Professor, are subject to his control and direction.

5.—The Professor of Divinity shall be a Clergyman in full orders of the Church of England. Vacancies in the Professorship of Divinity shall hereafter be filled up by the Governors, from one or more names, to be submitted by the Bishop of the Diocese at the request of the Board, and if none of the names so submitted be found acceptable, then from other name or names to be in like manner submitted, until the vacancy shall be supplied. And the Bishop shall be requested to allot to him some share in the Cure of the Parish of Windsor, in order that he may be able to give the Divinity students practical instruction in Pastoral Theology.

CAP. IV.

CONVOCATION AND DEGREES.

1.—All Masters of Arts, Bachelors of Civil Law, and members of the University of higher degrees, shall be members of the House of Convocation, but no one shall be entitled to a vote who does not appear in his full Academical habit. The President of King's College as chief magistrate of the University shall preside, and in case of equality upon any division, shall have a second or casting vote.

before the day of meeting.

Hall, and summons sent to every resident member at least two days Academical year, by the President, by public notice affixed in the

2.—The Convocation may be convoked at any time during the

3.—The province of the House of Convocation is more particularly to confer degrees and to transact all business connected therewith. It may incorporate members of any Universities constituted by Royal Charter, or specially recognized by the Board of Governors, undergraduates being admitted to the same standing, and graduates to the same degrees, which they may have respectively attained in their own Universities. Honorary degrees may be conferred upon distinguished persons, whether British subjects or foreigners.

4.—Every candidate for a degree in regular course shall apply to the House of Convocation, by a petition to be presented by a member of the House, setting forth that he has complied with all the requisite conditions, according to the form in the Appendix, and certificates of the several facts mentioned therein, duly signed by the proper authorities, shall be read to the House by the person presenting the petition.

The degree shall then be proposed to the House, and shall be granted if not less than two-thirds of the members present vote for it.

The candidate shall then be introduced by a Master of Arts, or by the Professor of his Faculty if the degrees to be conferred be one of the superior degrees; and after being presented in due form, he shall kneel before the President, who shall confer the degree; after which the graduate shall retire, and shall return in the habit of the degree to which he has been admitted, attended by his presenter, and shall make his obeisance to the chair, which shall be duly acknowledged.

6.—The following qualifications are required of every candidate for the several degrees and diplomas:—

FOR THE DEGREE OF B. A.

To be of twelve terms standing,—the term of matriculation and of taking the degree both inclusive.

To have resided nine terms, attending the required lectures.

To have passed the required examinations.

FOR THE DIPLOMA OF C. E.

To be of nine terms standing,—the terms of Matriculation and of taking Diploma both inclusive.

To have resided nine terms attending the required lectures.

To have passed the requisite examinations.

FOR THE DEGREE OF M. A.

To have taken the degree of B. A. ; to be of twenty terms standing, and to produce a testimonial signed by two of the Professors that he has sent them a satisfactory Essay upon some subject approved by them, and to be read in Convocation, if so directed by the President.

FOR THE DEGREE OF B. C. L.

The same as for the degree of M. A., but the subject of the Essay is to be dictated and approved by some competent Examiner appointed by the Governors, who need not be a Professor.

FOR THE DEGREE OF D. C. L.

To be of thirty-three terms standing ; to have taken the degree of B. C. L. ; and to have satisfied the examiners as for that degree.

FOR THE DEGREE OF B. D.

To be of ten years standing, from the time of taking his first degree ; to have taken the degree of M. A., and to have composed two dissertations, to the satisfaction of the Professor of Divinity, and either the President or one of the Professors appointed by him to act in his stead,—the subjects of the Essays having been selected or approved of by the Professor of Divinity.

FOR THE DEGREE OF D. D.

To have taken the degree of B. D. ; to be of fourteen years standing from the time of taking his first degree, and to deliver two lectures in the presence of the President or the Professor of Divinity.

The candidate for either of these two last named degrees must be in holy orders in the Church of England.

7.—Every Degree shall be entered in the Register of the University ; and any Graduate requiring it may receive a testimonial thereof under the Seal of the University, upon paying the appointed fee.

CAP. V.

THE COLLEGE.

1.—The College shall consist of a President, six Fellows, and twelve Scholars.

2.—The President shall be a Clergyman of the Church of England, who has taken the degree of Master of Arts, or Bachelor of Civil Law in some University incorporated by Royal Charter, and shall, before admission to his office, take the Oath of Allegiance, and subscribe the thirty-nine Articles of Religion and the three Articles in the thirty-sixth Canon, and shall also sign the declaration (2) in Appendix. He shall reside in the College during the whole of every term, and shall not be absent more than twenty-four hours at any one time, without permission of the Governors, except in cases of great or unexpected necessity.

3.—It shall be the duty of the President to exercise a general superintendence over every department of the College, and all officers and students shall be subject to his control. It will be his duty to watch over the youths entrusted to his care,—to advise and admonish them, making himself personally acquainted with the character and habits of each student, so as to be as far as possible, loco parentis.

4.—At least two of the Fellowships shall be annexed to Professorships in the University, and the remainder shall be filled at the discretion of the Governors, being conferred, as honorary distinctions upon graduates, and a preference being given, in all cases, to candidates educated at Windsor. A vote of two-thirds of the whole Board shall be necessary for a valid election.

The Fellows shall be entitled to rooms in the College so long as they reside, but shall not claim any consideration for them when not occupied by themselves.

5.—The Professors of the University shall also be College Tutors, and if requisite additional Tutors may be appointed. In this capacity they will adopt the catechetical method of instruction. They shall be, if possible, resident in the College.

6.—The Vice-President shall be nominated by the Governore annually. He shall reside in the College during the whole of every term, and perform the duties of Dean, and shall be charged to watch over the morals and general behaviour of the students within the College; he shall see that the exercises are duly performed, and that the Chapel and Hall are regularly attended.

7.—The Bursar shall be one of the Fellows nominated to this office by the Governors. He shall keep the accounts, which shall be audited at the end of every term by the President and Fellows, and his account books shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Governors. He shall receive all payments due from the members of the University and College, and shall pay the servants, all of whom shall be immediately subject to his control. He shall superintend all domestic arrangements, and have the charge of the buildings and moveable property of the College.

8.—The Professors and resident Fellows, or so many of them as shall be in holy orders, shall perform the office of Chaplain in rotation according to the arrangement of the President.

9.—The Scholarships may be filled up as honorary distinctions, until the Governors are enabled, by special contributions or otherwise, to add some emolument to them. The Scholars shall be elected after examination by the Governors or persons appointed by them. They shall cease to be Scholars when of four years standing. The Scholars shall be entrusted with the care of the Chapel lists.

10.—No Servant shall be employed in the College in any capacity who is not regularly appointed or sanctioned by the authorities.

11.—All meals are to be taken by undergraduate members of the College in the Hall, unless a dispensation, on account of sickness, is obtained from the President, who may in such case permit the steward to supply what is required in a private room.

12.—Members of the College may, with the permission of the President or one of the Professors, introduce strangers into the Hall at any meal, paying for them at a certain fixed rate.

13.—No undergraduate shall be allowed to keep a term unless he has paid all his College dues for the preceding term.

14.—A limited number of rooms will be furnished by the Governors and let at $6 per term. They are to be regularly inspected at certain times, and any damage beyond reasonable wear and tear must be made good by the occupier.

CAP. VI.

THE LIBRARY.

1.—A Librarian, and also if requisite a Sub-Librarian, shall be appointed by the Governors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the Library and of all things contained in it, whether books, manuscripts or apparatus, and they with the President and Professors shall be the only persons entrusted with keys of cases and closets in which valuable manuscripts, medals, coins, or other things liable to injury, may be locked up.

2.—The Governors and all officers who have signed the declaration in appendix No. 3, may have a key of the Library, and take out books at any time, entering them in the Librarian's book. (vide Section 4.)

3.—The Librarian or his Deputy shall attend in the Library when necessary. Undergraduates may use the Library when he is present, and may obtain books from him to be taken to their rooms and to be retained for such time as he, with the sanction of the President, may permit.

4.—A Register shall be kept by the Librarian, in which the date of taking out and returning each volume, with the name of the borrower, shall be carefully entered.

5.—Damage done to any book, plate, or other thing belonging to the Library, shall be made good by the person in whose name it is entered in the Register.

6.—The College Board may prepare a list of books which are not to be taken out of the Library. Donors have the same right of restriction to their benefactions.

7.—No person other than a member of the University shall be admitted into the Library unless introduced by a Professor or Graduate.

CAP. VII.

DISCIPLINE.

1.—The immediate government of the College shall be vested in the President, Fellows, and other resident officers thereof. The President may convene a meeting whenever he may think proper, or when requested by two members of the Board; and in case of equality of votes he shall have a second or casting vote. This Board shall always meet on the second day of each term, not being Sunday, and shall prepare a table of the subjects, days and hours of Lectures, which shall be affixed to the notice board in the hall, as soon as adjusted, but always within the first week of the term. It shall decide upon all cases of irregularity and violation of rules which the respective officers are not authorized to punish at their own discretion, provided that in case of any sentence of banishment for more than one term, or of expulsion, an appeal may be made to the Governors, but the infliction of the punishment shall not be suspended pending such appeal. All applications for testimonials are to be referred to this Board.

In case of appeals, a day shall be appointed for hearing the case, of which due notice shall be given to the President and to the party appealing, and the Governors will in each case give order touching the mode of proceeding therein.

2.—Exercises in writing may be enjoined as a punishment by any Professor or Tutor. The punishments to be inflicted by the College Board are—confinement to rooms or college; detention after the end of the term; banishment from the University for a time or entirely; and suspension or removal from office, with forfeiture of privileges and emoluments.

3.—Any member of the University refusing to submit to lawful punishment shall be expelled; and every member expelled for whatever cause, shall be deprived, de jure and de facto, of every office, place, salary, emolument or privilege that he may have enjoyed or been entitled to in the University or College.

4.—No member of the University shall be guilty of immoral or ungentlemanly conduct, or shall hold, maintain or teach any principles contrary to the Christian faith, or to good morals, or subversive of the British Constitution.

5.—Juniors shall pay proper respect to seniors, and especially to those in authority in the University, as heretofore.

6.—Members of the University may reside in any house sanctioned by the authorities, subject to such regulations as may from time to time be framed for them. Students residing in the College are not to be out of it after 9.30 P. M., without the permission of the President or in his absence the Vice-President, and such regulations shall be made as may be found necessary to secure the strict observance of this rule. The College authorities may enter the apartments of any undergraduates at all hours of the day or night.

7.—The Academical habits shall be the same as those which are worn in the University of Oxford; and no undergraduate shall resort to any inn, tavern or public house, except for some special cause to be approved by the President, or shall spend his time in the streets of the town. Any member of the University who shall disobey the Proctor in the performance of his office, who shall refuse to go home when required by him, or who shall be guilty of disrespectful language or behaviour to him, shall be liable to expulsion.

8.—All Bills of Undergraduates are to be sent by the tradesmen with whom the debts are incurred, to the Bursar, at the end of every term ; and parents are particularly requested to refuse payment of any bills not thus sent in.

9.—The introduction of spirituous Liquors into the College, under any circumstances, is absolutely prohibited.
