(By Canadian Press.)

Toronto, Nov. 13.—Answering before Judge Snider yesterday charges of his former secretary, E. C. Settle, accusing him and other Hydro officers of using money and automobiles belonging to the commission for their own convenience, and of using Hydro employees to do work for themselves, Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission, said that when he started on the Hydro Commission he served without compensation, but had stipulated certain requisites be given him, including an auto, chauffeur and hotel expenses.

Rejected Salary Check.

For six years he took no other compensation. At the end of the six years he was offered a cheque by Sir James Whitney for $45,000, being at the rate of $6,000 salary and $1,500 living expenses a year. This he refused.

Later, said Sir Adam, he had a small flat for headquarters in Toronto. The commission furnished the sitting room and the bedroom for himself. Later a bigger flat was used and all the furniture for it was brought from his London residence.

When Mr. Sothman was appointed chief engineer, Sir Adam continued, he had stipulated he be allowed to do outside work as a consulting engineer. The commission had a full knowledge of Sothman's outside work.

Regarding charges that detectives had been hired to watch Home Smith's house, Sir Adam said that the late secretary came to him alarmed, stating that people were congregating in Home Smith's house, who should not be there. The secretary said he had reliable knowledge of the facts.

"I absolutely deny that Mr. Commissioner" interjected Settle from his place in court.

Was Remot Officer.

Sir Adam said, as remount officer early in the war, he had used a car.

IRISH BOUNDARY COMMISSION HALTS

Unable to Call Witnesses, May Need More Authority to Proceed.

(By Canadian Press.)

London, Nov. 13.—The Irish boundary commission's work is at a standstill according to some of the newspapers which say it may be necessary to pass another bill through the British parliament before it can be resumed.

The commission met recently in London, but after two meetings adjourned indefinitely. The difficulty is said to be that the commission found itself powerless to summon witnesses and to pass documents, while it is also stated that the commissioners were not agreed respecting the scope of their work.

The suggestion now is that these points will have to be cleared up by fresh legislation, but nothing to this effect has come from official sources.

Rebukes U. S. Admiral's Speech of Warning in New York.

(By Canadian Press.)

Tokyo, Nov. 13.—(United Press)—Hear Admiral Brad, Tokyo Nichi-Nichi for his speech last Monday in New York in which he discussed the possibility of aerial attacks against the U. S.

In an editorial headed "Hinges on the Warpath" the Nichi-Nichi says such speeches mark efforts toward world co-operation.

"It is impossible to enumerate every blatant exaggeration and truth-twisting attempt to give an impression that Japan is preparing to descend upon the U. S. with a biasing arrow," the editorial says. "Perhaps it is believed that patriotism may be properly demonstrated by such speeches which mark world peace and the efforts to unite Japan upon America in the stabilization of the Pacific."

"Americans in Japan pronounce the Admiral's speech as ludicrous. Japanese aviation, they point out, is in a rudimentary state. The largest Japanese airplane has no larger than little blimps. A naval project to fly to Korea, less than 1,000 miles distant, failed this week."

Customs Men Believe Gi-

LEADER HAS FLED

First Clue Came From the Mors Murder, Involving
"Kid" McCoy.

(By Canadian Press.)

Washington, Nov. 13.—Agents of the customs service have succeeded in breaking up one of the greatest smuggling conspiracies in recent years, it was disclosed last night at the treasury, where it was said that customs agents in half of a dozen sections of the country in recent months have seized and identified smuggled jewelry valued at more than a quarter of a million dollars.

Information as to the success of the agents' efforts, which were inaugurated with the killing at Los Angeles last August of Mrs. Theresa Mors, with whose murder "Kid" McCoy has been charged, was received here yesterday when agents of the service in New York notified the treasury they had wound details of the smuggling operation. The treasury was informed that a man named Medianski, now in flight to a foreign country, was the person who actually had brought the jewelry in.

Any information concerning the identity of Medianski which their knowledge was not definite as to how long he has operated or how much jewelry in the aggregate had been smuggled into the country.

Came Through New York.

The jewelry possessed by Mrs. Mors was the first to be identified positively. From that beginning the agents, it was said, ran down a series of clues in Pacific coast cities. They found much jewelry both in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The trail led eastward and the port of entry was found to have been New York, from which base Medianski, according to customs officials, directed the distribution and sale of the jewelry.

Monday of Harry I. Katz, another trail was opened and this, it developed, had resulted in the finding of more jewelry.

Held in Katz Case.

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 13.—An explanation, unsatisfactory to the police of what he was doing during the seven minutes between 5:38 p.m. and 6 p.m. last Monday, within which period Harry Katz, diamond broker and musician, was shot and killed in his apartment here, caused Hal Hall, real estate broker of San Monica to be held in the city jail last night charged with suspicion of murder.

Large Potato Crop
in U. S. is Expected

Will Be Slightly More Than
Record Harvests of 1917

(By Canadian Press.)

Wakefield, Mass., Nov. 13.—(United Press)—As a result of a late season and the extended drought, the U. S. potato crop this year promises 454,119,000 bushels, "slightly more than the big crops of 1917 and 1922," the New England crop reporting service announced today, declaring "there will be an ample supply of good potatoes this winter at moderate prices."

The late season permitted growing far into October while the absence of rain "generally prevented or checked rot which a month ago threatened heavy loss."

Northern crops ran far above earlier estimates.

Policy of Standard
Weight Loaf Urged

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 13.—A broad loaf of standard weight was urged today by J. Harry Foley, State Superintendent of Weights and Measures, submitted to Governor Silzer. Inspectors of the department have succeeded in checking up short-weight coal deliveries and prosecuting those responsible, the report said. Local officials have co-operated with the department.

Some method of co-ordinating efforts of manufacturers and dealers in ice cream was declared to be necessary, and the report urged that ice cream in delicacies and prosecuting those responsible, the report said. Local officials have co-operated with the department.

Incidentally Justice Minturn held it to be a matter of common knowledge that attempts are made to violate the prohibition laws under the guise of drink sales and that the place where liquor is sold is "the favorite steam-ground for criminals."

EMPIRE PREFERENCE WILL BE AMONGST
FIRST OF QUESTIONS FOR NEW HOUSE

Bitter Discussion Expected
on Anglo-Persian Oil Shares Issue.

(By H. BAILEY,
British United Press.)

London, Nov. 13.—The revival of the imperial preference in 1923 which will give preference to apples, tobacco and fish, dried fruit and honey senting Britain from the dominions is to be one of the first proposals put before the House of Commons when parliament meets.

The free traders are reconciled to these duties and it is pointed out today that in the last trade statistics the dominions made increased purchases of British goods during the last quarter increasing the aggregate from £74,000,000 to £86,000,000 while exports to the United States and Germany declined.

Persian Oil Matter.

The question of selling the Anglo-Persian oil shares on the other hand is likely to raise the most bitter discussion. Baldwin is in favor of selling but there is a large group in the Tory party with influential backing outside which will strongly oppose any effort to get rid of the shares. A clear profit of £15,000,000 could be secured by selling now, but on all hands is heard the insistence that the Empire's oil holdings should not be disposed of to oil trusts.

Lord Beaverbrook is into the fight and is having a lively tussle with the Morning Post on this issue. Those who oppose the sale say that Canada and the other dominions, if consulted, would never approve of the transaction.

Lemberg Paper Says Man Who Carried Letter is Being Hidden.

(By Canadian Press.)

London, Nov. 13.—The cabinet has appointed a cabinet committee to investigate the alleged letter from M. Zinovieff calling for increased activities on the part of the British Communists, according to statements in some of the morning newspapers.

It is believed that the committee's report will be ready for submission to the cabinet at the next meeting probably early next week.

Russian Statement.

Warsaw, Nov. 13.—The Lwowka Gazeta, a Lemberg newspaper usually well informed on Russian affairs, says the alleged Zinovieff letter was divulged by the chief of an important secret section of the Moscow foreign office which directed propaganda in the British dominions.

This official, the paper says, left Moscow suddenly about the middle of October taking with him the famous letter and other secret documents concerning Bolshevik propaganda in the British Empire.

His departure averted consternation among the Soviet authorities and attempts were made to catch him at Berlin. He took an airplane to London, where other agents of the Soviet tried to seize him upon landing, but he again evaded them and handed the Zinovieff letter and other papers to the Consul in London, who, the account says, intended to use the letter in forthcoming debates in the House of Commons in Anglo-Soviet relations.

The newspaper adds that the man who took the documents to London is being kept hidden by the Conservatives for fear of an attack upon him by the Bolsheviks.

PREACHER WEEPS

Faces Court Trial on Charge of Taking Unauthorized Collection.

(By Canadian Press.)

New York, Nov. 13.—Weeping as he protested his innocence, the "Rev." Isaac Solomon vainly pleaded with officials of the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Yonkers, when he appeared in City Court charged with taking up an unauthorized collection at the Sunday school here.

Judge Charles W. Hoole adjourned the case and advised Captain D. A. Cooper of the Yonkers detective bureau to have District Attorney Arthur Rowland notified. Attorney Charles Wallace, for Dr. Solomon, protested that his client had committed no crime. He admitted that he took up a collection, but asserted that the Sunday school superintendent himself contributed to the fund, and no evangelist or good Christian should do that.

Judge Hoole said in an open court by giving a wrong address and no evangelist or good Christian should do that.

MEXICAN DEBATE
ENDS IN SHOOTING

Two Members of Chamber Are Seriously Wounded—Many Shots Fired.

(By Canadian Press.)

Mexico City, Nov. 13.—Two members of the Mexican Chamber of Deputies were seriously wounded in a shooting affray which came as a climax to a stormy debate in the chamber last night. Deputy Lewis Morones, the most prominent Labor leader in Mexico, was shot through the stomach, while Leopoldo Guerrero, aged deputy from Zacatecas, was wounded twice in the chest.

General Jose Maria Sanchez, former Governor of Puebla, had demanded from the speaker's stand that Morones retract charges which he made against Sanchez in a speech last Sunday. He gave Morones the alternative of a meeting of honor, but the deputy declared the matter could be settled immediately.

Friends of the disputants went into the corridor and shots were heard. The chamber was immediately adjourned, deputies flocking into the corridor and out into the street and the shooting became general. It is estimated that more than 200 shots were fired before order was restored.

Made Wine in Home,
Jury Acquits Him

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.—Representative John Philip Hill, of Baltimore, was acquitted by a jury in United States court today of violating the Volstead Law by manufacturing intoxicating wine and cider at his home here.

The trial was the result of a test case forced by Col. Hill, who maintained the Volstead Law gave the farmer the right to manufacture cider and wine, but withheld from the city man the right to manufacture beer.

The trial brought from Judge Soper the opinion that the clause of the Volstead Act defining beverages of more than half of one per cent. of alcoholic content as illegal, did not apply to home made wines and ciders provided the product is non-intoxicating "in fact."

I went out in my bathing suit about two miles off shore, got out of my bathing suit, sunned myself for an hour, then swam for another half and assure you there is nothing so invigorating."

Bomb in Mail or Escaping Gas
Are Theories in Michigan Fatality.

(By Canadian Press.)

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 13.—Two men were killed, one is dying and 12 are injured as the result of a terrific explosion which late yesterday destroyed the loading dock and receiving room at the main Grand Rapids Post Office with a property damage of $50,000.

The dead are Ernest A. Roth, 30, a truck driver, and Herman Petersch, 47, a clerk, both legs blown off. The seriously injured: Dale Newhouse, possible skull fracture; Fred Petersch, P. O. Petersch, Roth and Newhouse were on the loading platform at the time of the explosion, which sent fragments of the platform a hundred feet into the air, hurled a loading truck upon the federal building roof, buried five automobiles and shattered hundreds of windows within a radius of two blocks.

Two theories, that escaping gas collecting beneath the platform was ignited or that a bomb sent through the mails exploded prematurely, were advanced by postal inspectors and police following a preliminary investigation.

Turks Must Quit
Mosul By Saturday

(By Canadian Press.)

London, Nov. 13.—(British United Press)—The Turks are expected to withdraw from Mosul under instructions from the League on Saturday but so far they have given no signs of going. The British government is quite prepared to give them a few days grace but if there is any attempt to evade the League's ruling the British are quite determined to take the necessary steps promptly and effectively.

Clemenceau added, Steed says, that talking to Wilson was futile, that they would never reach an understanding.

EVA BOOTH THRILLS BOSTON AUDIENCE

Urges Religious Tone for Armistice Day With No Sabre Rattling.

Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army, daughter of the founder of that organization and author of the far-famed slogan "Help Me to Help the Helpless," held a capacity audience at the Boston Opera House...

"I am afraid, among some people, there is a tendency to make the celebration of Armistice Day merely an annually recurring jubilee in remembrance of a great military victory," she declared.

"But if we remember only the triumphs in the field, we fall utterly to impress our minds with the great moral and spiritual lessons to be derived from that triumph and from the events preceding and following it."

"By subordinating the fact of a victory in the field we do not in any way underestimate the courage and heroism of our soldiers. Rather do we perpetuate their memory in a far more commendable and lasting manner."

"Our observance of Armistice Day should be of a decidedly religious tone," she urged, "and we should look back to us as we would to a fountain of inspiration, the spiritual fervor that moved men and women in all parts of the world during those trying days."

"Even the most materialistic of our people were unselfish. They were consecrated. They might not have been conscious of it, but they were fighting, working and praying for ideals and principles wholly apart and distinct from their own selfish interests."

"Therefore, let me say that we should desecrate rather than celebrate Armistice Day if we should allow ourselves to 'at the sabre' or indulge in the great and glorious boasting of the military victory. Armistice Day is a time to look to God. It is a time to re-dedicate our hearts to the cause of peace and to the spiritual progress of humanity."

ALBEE DIVORCE SUIT UNDEFENDED. Son of Vaudeville Manager Fails to Answer Wife's Charges.

White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 13.—After hearing testimony of the plaintiff and a personal hearing that attended their wedding, Supreme Court Justice George H. Taylor Jr. said he would not grant a divorce decree to Mrs. Louise H. Albee, daughter-in-law of the vaudeville producer, from her husband, Reed A. Albee, until the process server had been produced.

Later counsel for the plaintiff brought in court Lincoln H. Lockwood, who swore that he had served Mr. Albee with the summons and complaint in the divorce action in Manhattan on Nov. 18, 1923. A stipulation was also filed with the court in a paper showing that the defendant had agreed to give his wife $75 a week and $225 a month for rent.

There was no defence upon the part of Mr. Albee to his wife's suit. No account appeared for him. Mrs. Albee testified that she had married Mr. Albee in 1914 at the Plaza and that there were no children by the marriage. She gave her address as 1,730 Broadway, Manhattan.

The only witness for the plaintiff was Isaac R. Saneels, who said he was in the theatrical business and had attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Albee at the Plaza. In answer to a question of the plaintiff's lawyer, Saneels said that he was at the Leland House at Schuyler Lake in the Adirondacks in July, 1919, when he saw Albee and a young woman there. It is said the co-respondent is a New York actress, well known on Broadway.

In a voice that trembled with the intensity of his sorrow, Bishop William Lawrence of the Episcopal diocese of Massachusetts, classmate and lifelong friend of Senator Lodge, read the prayers of the service.

A troop of Boy Scouts happened along and administered first aid to the famous veterinarian, who used to be their district commissioner. City Seeks Ruling of Utilities Board in Hydro System Matter.

As a consequence of the judgment of Mr. Justice White, delivered on Oct. 28, in the case of the New Brunswick Power Company vs. the City of St. John, when he refused to grant the injunction applied for by the plaintiff company to restrain the city of St. John from interfering with the lines of the company, but ordered that the Power Commission of the City of St. John, must, within thirty days or some such further time as may be allowed on further application, seek from the Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities for a ruling with regard to any changes in the civic distribution system which the board might feel were necessary to prevent interference, a petition has been presented to the board, by the City Solicitor in this connection. It prays that the Board may approve of the location and mode of construction of the works already constructed, and may also prescribe the terms and conditions upon which it may locate and construct additions to and extension of its works in and upon streets and highways within the City of St. John, and in and upon which the New Brunswick Power Company has already constructed and has works for the like purposes.

The petition follows: To the Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities: In the matter of the New Brunswick Power Act, 1920. The petition of the City of Saint John humbly sheweth: 1. That your petitioner is a municipality within the terms of the Act 30 George V., chapter 53, and has a contract under the said Act with the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission by virtue of section 27 of said Act. 2. That your petitioner has entrusted the construction of the works for the transmission and distribution of electrical power or energy in the City of Saint John, which it is authorized to erect, construct and operate under section 28 of the said Act, and the control and management of the same to a commission to be called "The Power Commission of the City of Saint John." 3. That acting by and through the said Power Commission of the City of Saint John, your petitioner has contracted works for conducting, furnishing or distributing electricity for light, heat or power purposes in and upon several streets and highways in the City of Saint John, in and upon which streets and highways the New Brunswick Power Company has already constructed and has works for the like purposes, which company is a corporation within the meaning of section 53 of the said Act 10 George V., chapter 83. 4. That in prosecution of the powers vested in your petitioner it will be necessary in future to make extensions of and additions to its poles, lines, and works in and upon which the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission has already constructed, and has works for the like purposes. After the meeting, refreshments were served.

The branch made corporate attendance at Holy Communion in the morning and Rev. J. H. A. Holmes, the rector, was the celebrant and delivered an eloquent address.

ACTION

Chairman McKeown of the Board of Railway Commissioners has again pleaded his case at Vancouver with respect to the equalization of railway rates, in order that the railways may serve rightly their highly important functions not only as carriers, but as levers of progress and development.

Hon. Mr. McKeown, having read some criticism of his earlier utterances, still sticks stoutly to his guns. One probably would make no mistake if he read between the lines and formed the conclusion that the Chief Commissioner has a very high conception of the powers and duties entrusted to him in his high office, and that in seeking to advance the public good he may intend, not from reasons of personal ambition, but in order rightly to serve Canada, to establish for himself some such reputation as that held by Judge Mabee when he was head of the Railway Commission. If such is Mr. McKeown's idea, and we have little doubt that it is, he will become a public servant of remarkable value.

In Vancouver yesterday he said that as yet he had heard nothing to convince him that the burden of railway rates should not be equalized, and that he and his associates on the Board are going to try to find the solution and, upon finding it, will have no hesitation in applying it. "When we think the thing is right, gentlemen," he said, "then we are going ahead to do it." The people of Canada, whose vital interests are so greatly affected by transportation, like a man of action, who is not a trimmer or an opportunist, but who drives straight towards his objective once he has made up his mind that he is right.

Another remark he made is of striking and timely interest. "We are," he said, "not going to cripple one locality to the benefit of another; there is a solution consistent with the rapid advancement of transportation facilities, with the welfare of those who have stock in our railways, and with the welfare of each section of the Dominion."

In this connection it should be remembered that Commissioner McKeown has very strong and sound views upon the importance of the constantly increasing use of Canadian ports and Canadian railways, and very evidently he sees that prosperity and contentment in this country, conditions which we all desire to see established, depend in no small measure upon the bold and wise solution of pressing transportation problems which he is now earnestly seeking.

EVANGELINE BOOTH'S FEARS

Evangeline Booth, the famous daughter of the still more famous founder of the Salvation Army, has made thoughtful reference to the character of recent Armistice Day celebrations. It goes without saying that she is among the devoted and intelligent apostles of uninterrupted peace, and that she desires with all the passion of a zealot the promotion of the League of Nations, or of any instrument by which the civilized peoples may arbitrate their differences instead of resorting to the arbitrament of the sword.

Evangeline Booth it was who coined the slogan, "Help Me to Help the Helpless." Before a great audience in the Boston Opera House, which sat in entranced silence for two hours, she told with color and emotion of "the world's greatest romance," in which she herself figured importantly—the great war. In the course of her wonderful address she issued a warning against militaristic thought, and should in no sense be rallying of the fighting spirit, increasing the danger of sudden war. The Allied peoples will fight quickly enough if the necessity arises.

"The victory," she said, "was indeed indescribably glorious. Of that there is no doubt. But if we remember only the triumph in the field we fail utterly to impress ourselves with the great moral and spiritual lessons to be derived from that triumph and from the events preceding and following it. By subordinating the fact of victory in the field we do not in any way underestimate the courage and heroism of our soldiers; rather do we perpetuate their memory in a far more commendable and lasting manner."

What we really should celebrate and look back to as we would to a fountain of inspiration, she went on to say, is the spiritual fervor that moved men and women in all parts of the world during those trying days. She reminded her audience that in that time of stress and of darkness even the most materialistic of the Allied peoples were unselfish. Unfortunately that is not true of them all, but it is true of a remarkable proportion, and she is justified in saying that this great proportion was "consecrated." While they were, perhaps, unconscious of it, they were fighting, working and praying for ideals and principles, wholly apart and distinct from their own selfish interests. Therefore, she said, in conclusion:

"Therefore, let me say that we should dedicate rather than celebrate Armistice Day if we should allow ourselves to 'rattle the sabre' or indulge in the great and glorious boasting over the military victory. Armistice Day is a time to look to God. It is a time to re-dedicate our hearts to the cause of peace and to the spiritual progress of humanity."

At a glance the reader may be disposed to say that these are counsels of perfection. Yet Evangeline Booth on this, as on any topic, while many may differ with her, must command a respectful hearing. Rightly understood, she is not a pacifist; her work in the war showed that. But once the sword was sheathed, she, like many another promoter of peace, desired that it should be kept forever in the scabbard. Unfortunately, this world of ours does not reach any such happy solution suddenly or by a short cut; but the objective is fine beyond contradiction. There is no perfect guarantee against war. It is a noble and far-reaching work on the part of the civilized governments to quickly examine any dispute which may be thought to contain the seeds of conflict, and to seek through conciliation and arbitration a rapid and just settlement which will prevent such a war. The more reasonable advocates of the League of Nations hold this view, that with war, as with forest fires, early action is not only wise and necessary, but must always be taken by leaders if the race is not to be decimated by another conflict even more savage and destructive than that the end of which we celebrated so recently. The time to prevent a forest conflagration is when the first smoke is seen, and the way to proceed is to cut out all the necessary assistance and make sure of another blaze while it is yet small, in order that through neglect the wind may not spread it with great rapidity until whole tracts of forest have become a roaring furnace beyond human control.

Evangeline Booth is a compelling force who makes people think. Her place in history should be high.

AN AFTERMATH

A feature of today's news which has somewhat curious angles, is that unexploded ammunition from the battlefields of France is being dug up or collected for use by the revolutionists who are engaged at the moment in turning Spain upside down. A special despatch to The Times-Star from the United Press tells us that great quantities of arms, shells and grenades, left behind when the Allies and the Germans drew off while Foch and the other leading Allied commanders prepared to dictate the terms which finally led to peace, are being used to arm the Spanish revolutionists.

Yesterday at Soissons an extensive plot was discovered. It was found that the wheat fields across which the armies fought in the red summer of 1918 are being scoured for ammunition and that great quantities of it had been prepared for transport to Spain, which, of course, would put France in the position of having departed from the neutrality which is naturally its policy under the circumstances.

The police arrested two Spaniards, charging them with purchasing grenades from gangs of workmen who were cleaning up the battlefields, and from these prisoners it was learned that a considerable amount of ammunition had been sent to Spain through secret channels. These men had just purchased sixty cases of grenades at 1,000 francs a case. The enterprising Spaniards had five cases in one automobile and were making great speed southward when the French police trapped them on the outskirts of Soissons. Large sums of money for this business are in the hands of a Junta with headquarters in Paris. It is said that recently Spaniards went quietly about among the French peasants in what was the scene of the greatest fighting, paying them fifty francs each for rifles, and gathering up all kinds of war material.

The French secret police have a high reputation for efficiency, and the authorities will very soon make these Spaniards exceedingly hard to find. Looking back to the period of tension and anxiety in the last year of the war, it occurs to one that few would have imagined much of this abandoned ammunition would become a storehouse from which revolutionists would gather material to employ in a civil war. Of course a great deal of ammunition was destroyed after Armistice. Some of it was melted and employed in manufacturing hardware. Millions of rifles were sold but much artillery which was still useful was taken into Allied countries. The Spanish incident is an odd story to come from the land of "the Five Rivers" where, to borrow Kipling's idea, five hundred thousand gentlemen went out to serve the King."

A most picturesque story, giving us a remarkable peep behind the scenes during the critical days of the war when Lloyd George, Woodrow Wilson and Clemenceau stood out conspicuously as the higher political strategists of the Allied forces and those of the United States, come in the news this morning in connection with the famous book published by Wickham Steed, former editor of The London Times, "Through Thirty Years." He tells of one occasion when the British Premier had Clemenceau, by the collar of his coat, or, as we might say, by the back of the neck, and was demanding an apology for being called a liar. Clemenceau's subsequent description of the American President is marked by the virilistic touch for which Clemenceau is famous.

A very large circle of friends and acquaintances both in the city and throughout the province will hear of the death of Mr. Michael F. Mooney with keen regret. Mr. Mooney was a man of constructive mind, genial, and with depth of character. He was connected with many enterprises, built many of our well known buildings, and of course played a great part in the better days of the Misepic industry. He filled a large place in many circles and activities, and he will be greatly missed.

In proposing a friendly and general discussion of our form of civic government Mayor Potts this morning brought up a matter of great interest, and referred to the subject with noteworthy fairness.

The local deficit in connection with the Olympic meet is very small and should be wiped out promptly and easily. The fair in St. Andrew's Rink, which lasts the rest of the week, is deserving of the most generous patronage. We must keep up the good work of developing our fine athletic talent.

For the Youngsters

(Boston Transcript.) Just for once, we should like to read the complete confession of an author of juvenile stories who writes the stories originally for his own children, or at least his own nieces and nephews. Even the peerless Hugh Lofting has this to say of how he came to write the Dotted Line pieces.

"It was during the Great War, and my children at home wanted letters from me—after they wanted them with illustrations rather than without. There seemed very little to write to youngsters from the front, the news was either too horrible or too dull. One thing kept forcing itself upon my attention. It was the very considerable part the animals were playing in the World War. But they were different from the men's. However seriously a soldier was wounded, his life was not despaired of, but a seriously wounded animal was put to death by a timely bullet. That was the beginning of the idea of an eccentric country doctor who gave up his human practice for the care of animals. This was a new plot for my narrative letter to the children. It delighted them, and at my wife's suggestion I decided to put the letters in book form for other boys and girls."

SUPER CROOK HAD FORTUNE HOARDED

Coups of "Camm" Grizzard in Big Gem Thefts are Recalled.

London, Nov. 13.—Twelve months ago, with the dead hand of a man named Grizzard—famous the world over as "Camm" Grizzard—there was told the life story of this greatest of all international crooks. In his time, hard cash, jewels and works of art to the value of a million or more must have passed through his hands. Yet he died worth, to all intents and purposes, a beggarly $1,100. That was the sum total of his life. Now, however, it has come to light that "Camm" Grizzard was worth at least $175,000 stored away in war bonds, bank balances, and bricks and mortar. Probably the fortune he left is much greater than this figure, and time alone will disclose its full extent.

When Grizzard died in September, 1923, it was believed that he had provided for the health and support of his widow and his son, Samuel, an estate approaching six figures. The small amount of $1,100 declared for probate surprised all who knew Grizzard's record and manner of life. No man of his time had for so long been the master mind of the world's most daring jewel thieves, and no criminal had so successfully defied detection. He was caught once or twice, but for the most part his cunning baffled the police. The man never used a banking account of his own, and never paid his agents by check. His money was banked in the names of other people. His payments to the members of his gang were always in notes—even for as much as $15,000. His death, before he had reached 60, took place from diabetes and tuberculosis, a few weeks after release from prison.

Caught in Paris Theft

Of all the jewel coups in which Grizzard was concerned, that of the $650,000 pearl necklace was the most sensational. However, Sir Basil Thomson, then chief of the Criminal Investigation Department at Scotland Yard, proved more than a match for him. The necklace was sent from the Paris shop of Max Meyer in 1913 to his London shop. The box in which it was packed was sealed with eight seals, and registered. Although it reached the London shop with the seals intact, the package was found to contain bits of coal instead of the priceless pearls.

Sir Basil discovered that the seal could be reproduced in a plaster of Paris mould in four minutes. He set a watch, and four men, including Grizzard, were everywhere. He disguised as a policeman, had overheard a conversation in the street which gave the game away. The idea of disguising a detective as a policeman was based on the fact that the thieves knew no uniformed man would be bold to watch them or would knock of their connection with the case.

Grizzard was the author of the plot to steal the pearls. He borrowed the package from the postman for a few minutes, and in that time removed the necklace and remade the seals. The pearls were finally found in a matchbox when no big theft was at hand. Grizzard was the wife of one of the arrested men.

"Thirty-six years or so ago Grizzard, who got seven years for the pearl coup, was a clerk in a firm in Hatton Garden, willing to deal in precious stones without asking questions. And it was this man who directed most of the greatest jewel thefts of the last quarter of a century. He was known in every big city in the world. His agents were everywhere. He financed all forms of jewel raids, and planned them. His gang included a number of beautiful women, who acted as fronts, and he had a number of "big boys" who acted as "big boys" on the continent. One of the notorious robberies which Grizzard was accused of letter from Paris to say the jewels worth $200,000 belonging to the late Marquis of Anglessey. Among the gems was the "Pigeon's Egg Pearl," which was the largest of pearls ever cut. The pearl was arrested and sentenced for the theft, but the gems were not recovered. Nearly a year after the marquis received a letter from Paris to say the "Pigeon's egg pearl" would be returned at a price if he would go over for it himself. So a man made up like the thief, but with a bag full of detectives, and the thieves were duped.

Another coup of Grizzard's was the Cafe Monaco $800,000 haul from a pearl necklace. Grizzard was snatched while he was washing his hands. The dealer's daughter, the thief's wife, was bawled by Grizzard's men, who instructed him by steering accidents. The thief was whizzed off in a taxi-cab by Grizzard, who had been waiting outside. The police searched Grizzard's house, but found nothing. The missing gems were in the apron pocket of a maid who, as the police arrived, went out bare-headed, carrying a letter in her hand. Once Grizzard was caught because he overlooked a flaw in a well-known diamond—a black spot in the centre.

Charles Amereuil, who is charged with abducting the head of a man named Dugas, at St. Bernard's, elected to be tried at the next session of the Supreme Court.

OLD TRAMP ON A COUNTRY ROAD-SIDE

(Ottawa Citizen.) Sun on the fields and rain on the hills And wind in the blowing trees; And what shall I have or what shall I find. When I come to the end, but these? The night is dark and the wind is cold And the road is long; But I can remember a woman's face And hear a child's song.

But I can remember a small house— The frost bites and the wind blows— How many years have passed since then. God only knows. But I can remember a small house, And a hearth-fire— These, and a woman singing Sum a man's desire.

These, and a woman's talking And a climbing child— I never have heard the wind blow With such a pitious sound— Och! but it's cold and lonely Huddled here on the ground. . . . I never have heard the wind blow With such a pitious sound— Och! but it's cold and lonely Huddled here on the ground. . . . But the strength has gone from my limbs, And the grey has come into my hair, And there is no woman waits for me And I have no children anywhere.

The strength has gone out of my limbs, And the keen has left my eyes, And I fear that I shall never find A single thing but these.— The rain, and the cold, and the lonely dark, And the wind in the blowing trees.

ALDEBARAN

(Author Unknown.) Like a fire in the field of night I saw the Red Star shine; The Red Star, the gypsy star, And I claimed its light for mine; The water by the flames, Across the empty moor and fen, That beckoning waves his rosy torch For wild and wandering men. Like a disk of the ruddy gold I saw the Red Star gleam; The Red Star, the gypsy star, That roves in the roads of dream; Across the empty years, He hung his spendthrift store, As a Roman plays with handfuls bright. In the shade of the low tent door. Like a horseshoe on the forge I saw the Red Star glow; The Red Star, the gypsy star, Whose trail the vagabonds know; Beating the bounds of earth, Beneath the alien skies, They wind with joy in their homelike hearts Who have seen the Red Star rise.

In Swelling Chorus, The World Acclaims Hydro

Now, New England Envis Us Our Hydro. Following the splendid tribute of the Halifax Herald and Mail who pointed out that "Hydro has made astonishing cuts of energy rates in St. John, the Boston Post, New England's great morning paper, said, editorially, on November 10: "The bulletin on fuel economy in the home, issued Saturday by Chairman Hultman of the State Commission on the Necessaries of Life, makes us wonder again when Massachusetts is going to catch up to Ontario, Canada, in the intelligent use of coal. We may well consider the example of towns in that province in which homes and factories are run by electricity, generated at huge power stations, carried long distances, and sold at cost to the consumer. "Clean towns, clean homes, and cheap power are a fact today. And we are being urged to burn smoky soft coal because Anthracite is being exhausted. "When will we grow up to energetic co-operative action, the wisdom of which our northern neighbors have so ably demonstrated?"

There You Have It. The Boston Post Means Hydro Cooking That Is "Intelligent Use." That Is "Energetic Co-operation." That Is The Wise Course.

Hydro cooking means "clean towns, clean homes and cheap power—sold at cost to the consumer." The coal supply is becoming exhausted. The order of nature is constant; her laws inexorable. You will have to use Hydro in the end, so why not do it right away and practice true economy.

The Legislature adjourned until November 18.
The adverse vote against the Government was anticipated.

JURY DISAGREES IN PONZI TRIAL

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Boston, Mass., Nov. 12.—The jury in Suffolk Superior Court trying Charles Ponzi, former financial wizard, on a larceny indictment in connection with his get-rich-quick scheme of four years ago, today reported to Judge Bishop that they were unable to agree on a verdict on any one of the four counts under consideration. The judge ordered the jury discharged.

The trial was completed late yesterday after Ponzi, acting as his own counsel, had summed up his case. The case was given to the jury with instructions to return a sealed verdict at the opening of court today. The indictment originally had five counts, but Judge Bishop instructed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty on one on which the State had not introduced evidence.

Ponzi, in his closing argument, emphasized that the jury must not only find that money was misappropriated, but there had been intention from the outset to misappropriate it. He reminded the jury that he had already served a term of imprisonment after conviction in Federal Court on similar charges. He also declared that while four years ago he had $9,000,000, at present he was too impoverished to retain a lawyer for his defence. The indictment was based on complaints of Ponzi clients involving $10,800.

Sheppard on last Friday evening when members of the Coburg street Christian church tendered them a novelty shower in honor of the first anniversary of their wedding. Many beautiful gifts were received testifying to the popularity in which they are held. A very pleasant evening was spent, at the close of which dainty refreshments were served and the happy gathering dispersed leaving every good wish for many happy years to come.

Mrs. Frank Cano, who has been visiting here from Montreal, with Mr. and Mrs. J. Lupton McAvity, Hazen street, will leave this evening for her home, after a pleasant visit among her former home friends, by whom she has been greatly entertained. Mrs. Cano was at home with Mrs. McAvity yesterday afternoon, when many took advantage of the opportunity to call upon her and bid her good bye.

Mrs. Walter C. Allison received for the first time since her marriage at her residence, "Woodside," Rothesay, yesterday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock. The house was picturesque in its decorations of yellow chrysanthemums, placed artistically and adding to the glow of the dancing wood fire on the shining brass andirons. Mrs. Allison wore a gown of powder blue canton crepe, beaded prettily and trimmed on the sleeves and draperies with chin-chilla fur. She wore a lovely string of pearls. Mrs. William S. Allison, who received with her, was gowned in a handsome ruse georgette, heavily beaded. The dining room was a bower of bloom, the table being centered with yellow and rose chrysanthemums, with small vases at intervals among the dainty confections in cake and sweets that were served to the guests by fashionably gowned young girls, friends of Miss Helen Allison, daughter of Mr. Walter Allison. Mrs.

Those serving were Miss Marion Henderson, Miss Ruth Robinson, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, Miss Gertrude Ewing, Miss Betty Thomson, Miss Annette Holly and Miss Florence Puddington. Little Miss Octavia McIntyre, in a pretty brown velvet beaded frock, and little Miss Louise Allison, niece of the bride, in a dainty white frock with floral embroidery, opened the door as the guests entered the house.

EXPERIMENT AT Y. W. C. A. CENTRE

The Y. W. C. A. this week is trying a new experiment. It has opened a buffet in the recreation centre at which it will serve light meals for women and girls who are to have the privilege of the use of the recreation centre. It was felt by the members of the board that there must be many girls and women in the city who would welcome a place where they could enjoy recreational privileges and have a nourishing meal at low cost. The buffet was opened yesterday but the patrons were lacking and it appears that the girls and women of the city have no need for the new enterprise it will be abandoned after the close of the trial week. The new department was not intended to be a revenue producing enterprise but it was believed it was something that would be heartily welcomed by the girls and women.

ARRANGE FOR SCOTTISH NIGHT

Arrangements for the Scottish night to be held on Dec. 1, were made at a meeting of the committee of St. Andrew's Society held yesterday afternoon with C. B. Allan, president, in the chair. For the last two years the local society has celebrated St. Andrew's day by holding a banquet and this year it will hold a Scottish night instead, having a programme of music and speeches to precede a dance. The celebration will be held in Pythian Castle and the members may bring guests. Various committees in connection with the celebration were appointed yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon, Clover Valley, were given a delightful surprise on the occasion of their fifth anniversary of their wedding. Thanksgiving Day, in honor of which several friends and relatives assembled at their home to celebrate from a distance and enjoyed games, music and dancing. An old-fashioned barn dance was greatly enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon were presented a substantial purse of gold, the presents being made by Hilding Bartel. "Go With You Till We Meet Again" was sung before the guests left home. Many good wishes for health and happiness were intermingled with the greetings for the bride and groom of 54 years ago.

SCOUTS INVESTED.

There were 11 Scouts invested as Tenderloots of the newly formed St. George's troop last night when Harry Lister, district commissioner, and L. I. Johnson, district secretary, were present and conducted the proper ceremonies. Scout Master N. Lambert and Assistant Scoutmaster D. W. Colwell, took the Scout officers promise also and the new troop is now well on the way to become one of the most flourishing in the city. Some members of St. Jude's troop were present and in all 18 boys were assembled for the ceremonies. Mr. Lister gave a very fine demonstration of knot tying and explained to the boys what the Tenderloot test implied. Games and songs passed the remainder of the evening very pleasantly. Amongst those present were Rev. W. H. Sampson, W. W. Dymohoe and W. Sanderson, Scout committee men; H. Tapley, who has given the Scouts much assistance, and S. G. Olive, who is St. George's Rover Scout Master.

INTERPROVINCIAL MEETINGS MAY BE CONTINUED LATER

Ottawa Conference With the Finance Minister is Brought to Close.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Ottawa, Nov. 12.—The calling of a further conference to deal with the problem which arise from time to time in the administration of provincial affairs is urged in a resolution passed today by the conference held here between Hon. J. A. Robb, acting Minister of Finance, and representatives of seven of the Provincial Governments.

A spokesman from the conference stated that it had been found that the problems arising out of the administration of public affairs in the various provinces presented so many aspects that the solution of such problems would be materially assisted by the further interchange of opinion.

The conference was unanimous in its recommendation for the exercise of economy in the administration of Governmental departments.

The resolution passed by the conference is as follows: "It is resolved that a conference be called at the joint request of the Premiers of Ontario and Quebec to deal with the problems which arise from time to time in the administration of provincial affairs, but not in any way limiting the scope thereof that the following be the agenda:

- 1. Overlapping departments where joint Federal and Provincial jurisdiction is being exercised.
- 2. The consideration of income tax as to collection and allocation.
- 3. Exemption of all purchases by and on behalf of provincial governments from operation of sales tax.
- 4. Adjustment of Federal subsidies to provinces with a view to having provincial subsidies bear a reasonable ratio to provincial expenditures.
- 5. Provincial taxation of all nationally operated railways.
- 6. Interprovincial relations in respect to succession duties.
- 7. Consideration of measures for the reduction of taxation and further economies in administration.

The conference which concluded its work today was attended by the following:

- From Ontario—Hon. W. H. Price, Provincial Treasurer, and J. T. White, Solicitor to the Treasury.
- Quebec—Hon. Jacob Nicol, Provincial Treasurer.
- Nova Scotia—Hon. J. D. Cameron, Provincial Treasurer; Hon. J. C. Tory, and A. S. Barnstead, New Brunswick—Hon. J. E. Michaud, Prince Edward Island—Hon. D. Stewart, Premier.
- Manitoba—Hon. P. M. Black, Provincial Treasurer.
- Alberta—Hon. R. G. Reid, Provincial Treasurer.

C. P. R. HEIFER IS CALGARY WINNER

Calgary, Alta., Nov. 12.—One of the most interesting features in connection with the recent fall stock show, held here, was the dairy competition in which a Holstein-Friesian heifer bred and owned by the C. P. R. made a remarkable record. Entered in the class for the heifers under 36 months, this animal, Strathmore Lucinda Mechthild, two and a half years old, gave 83.9 pounds of milk in 48 hours, carrying the phenomenal butter fat percentage of 5.8.

Such a high test is so extraordinary that, in order to have no doubt of the subject a second test was made with the same result. She won a special prize. She won first in test open to all breeds and the highest number of points received by any animal in the whole competition, namely 138.69 points.

This young heifer was sired by Colonel Morag McKinley, one of the finest individuals of his breed on the continent. Her dam, Lucinda Mechthild, made the notable record of 18,198 lbs. of milk and 752.5 lbs. of butter as a three year old, and has a mature record of 20,728 pounds of milk with 870 lbs. of butter. She comprises one of a herd selected to represent the C. P. R. this year at the Toronto Royal, where she should give a good account of herself.

A beautiful complexion depends upon good circulation. JAEGER pure wool undergarments help to maintain healthy circulation by protecting you from cold. They conserve your vitality.

FOR 25TH TIME W. SHIVES FISHER IS CHOSEN

Mr. Fisher spoke of the aims of the Associated Charities, desiring its purpose as to be a centre of communication between charitable agencies to aid in the diffusion of knowledge on subjects connected with the poor and prevent duplication. The Associated Charities, he said, investigate cases and referred them to the proper source for relief, itself giving only the immediate emergency relief that must be given promptly. He told of the distribution of the small sums handed to the secretary for relief work and of the fund maintained for emergency relief. That fund, he said, was at a dangerously low ebb, having only about $200 now available.

Some Problems.

Rev. J. V. Young paid a glowing tribute to Miss Robertson and spoke very seriously of the terrible conditions of poverty he had met. The great problems he had found to be the man who would not work and whose children could not be allowed to suffer, the man who got drunk and left his family without support and the large families of those who for physical or mental reasons should be kept from the world. Father Young declared no case was undervalued. Consideration must be given the conditions which had produced any particular case. He recommended making generally known the facts of needy cases to secure public sympathy and support as he felt knowledge of facts would bring generous response from the people. He told of the generous assistance which had come following his own appeal and that he did not believe it would be possible to insist on those helped joining with the religious life of themselves with the religious life of the body from which relief was received.

Major Burton and Adjutant Wright, of the Salvation Army, said the Army stood ready to assist the people who belonged to no other organization. Major Burton did not believe it would be possible to insist on those helped joining with the religious life of themselves with the religious life of the body from which relief was received.

Re A. L. Tedford said he had received more appeals for help in the last two months than he had received in any one year before. He thought it should be insisted that those who received relief should in all cases connect themselves with the religious life of the body from which relief was received.

Major Burton and Adjutant Wright, of the Salvation Army, said the Army stood ready to assist the people who belonged to no other organization. Major Burton did not believe it would be possible to insist on those helped joining with the religious life of themselves with the religious life of the body from which relief was received.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. Shives Fisher; vice-presidents, Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. F. A. Stetson, J. Hunter White and Rev. A. L. Tedford; treasurer, Percy J. Steel; members of the board of management, C. Robinson, Rev. J. V. Young, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Mrs. Thomas Walker, Mrs. F. J. Power and Mrs. George D. Ellis. The executive will meet at an early date to elect 12 more members of the board of management and to appoint a secretary.

body and if it was favorable as he expected that it would be, he would then ask the Dominion Government to grant the New Brunswick Government authority to bond the Province to carry out the construction work. Simultaneously with the work at Grand Falls there would go forward the hydro-electric developments at Green River and Temiscouata Lake. This would be important to Restigouche for a main transmission line would be as far as possible follow the International Railway to Campbellton and thence down to Chatham.

A New Bridge.

He referred to the proposed inter-provincial bridge between Campbellton and Crosspoint, P. Q., to be constructed jointly by New Brunswick, Quebec and the Federal Government and hoped that the prospect would go through in order to promote the welfare of both provinces.

In a postscript address Mr. Veniot said that, before long, he expected to meet the Premier of Quebec to discuss the proposals. One third of the cost would be borne by each of the parties concerned, he said.

Candidate Talks.

Mr. Leger thanked the delegates for nominating him and insisted upon the vital necessity of organization for victory. He referred to the policy which he would follow as Premier of the province, and expressed his pride and confidence in the leader.

Mr. Bellisle, likewise, thanked those delegates who had supported him and assured the convention that he would do all he could to elect Mr. Leger. He was given a warm reception.

Henry Currie, who a year ago, was chosen as one of the Liberal candidates along with A. T. LeBlanc, whose recent electoral defeat to the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, made today's convention necessary, spoke of the money being expended on the highways of Restigouche. Some $150,000 has been put into road improvements this year, he said. He expressed his pleasure at the choice of Mr. Leger and concluded with a plea for unity to the Liberal party.

C. N. R. HAS RECORD GRAIN LOADING DAY

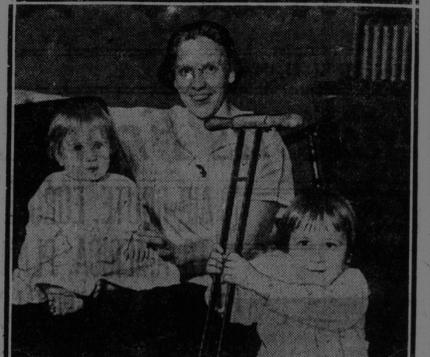

Montreal, Nov. 12.—Western farmers decided to make Armistice Day a record unloading day for Canadian National lines in the Prairie Provinces when they loaded a total of 1,245 cars containing 1,830,000 bushels, according to information received at general headquarters of the C. N. R. here today. The total of cars loaded since August 1 is now 39,062, which with 92,290,000 bushels of grain in storage at country elevators and not an ounce of surplus weight—yet incredibly strong—it is a wonderful feat for speed. The blades are tested as above and are spot welded, as is the frame.

Who Knows These Youngsters?

Who had the heart to abandon these babies? Chicago police would like to know. Two elegantly dressed women left them at a day nursery Oct. 3, saying they would call for them later. But the women have not returned. Billy, the youngster on the kiddie car, is about 2. Nicky, the little girl, sitting in the lap of Mrs. C. Greenleaf of the Home for the Friendless, is believed to be a couple of months younger. Police of a dozen cities are aiding in the search.

SURGERY OF 16TH CENTURY TOLD OF

Dr. L. J. Austin Addresses St. James Literary Society, Montreal.

Boiling oil and tar as antiseptics in amputation cases, with ether and anodyne cures for the terrible ailments of the middle ages were the only remedies known when the sixteenth century began. The one bright factor in surgery in the course of those hundred years was the appearance upon the scene of Ambrose Pare, the great court surgeon of many rulers of France, and upon this topic Dr. L. J. Austin, of Queen's University, spoke before the members of St. James Literary Society, Montreal on Tuesday night.

According to Dr. Austin, the appearance of quacks and patent medicines was not at all confined to comparatively recent times. It was Queen Elizabeth, he said, who first established a tax on patent medicines. It was during the siege of Metz, when the Duke de Guise defended that city against the Spaniards, that the malady of trench fever was first discovered. Trench fever again appeared in 1808 during Napoleon's campaigns at Eylau and Friedland. Then this malady was forgotten until the Balkan wars immediately before the Great War. It was reported, but forgotten, and when the troops developed trench fever again, the 1914-1919 war the disease was thought to be an entirely new thing.

The speaker dealt with the conditions, or lack of conditions regarding surgery when Francis I. reigned in France, Emperor Charles V. in Spain and Henry VIII. in England. Dr. Austin, in a number of interesting slides to illustrate his lecture, among them an old woodcut of the tournament between Henry II. of France and Capt. Montgomerie of the King's Scottish Guard, when the King was mortally wounded by a lance thrust between the eyes. In order to operate upon the monarch a number of primitive methods were experimented with, lances being stuck into their eyes to observe the effect. The King died a few days later from what today would immediately have been diagnosed as a hemorrhage by contrecoup, the fatal injury being at the back of the head.

Dr. Austin described the life of Ambrose Pare and told of the amazing memoirs left by him. It was Pare who first used ligatures in amputations. In those days of no anesthetics the blood was stopped with hot irons. Even today the wounded sailors were made blind drunk on rum, their limb hastily and roughly amputated, the arteries tied and the stumps dipped in boiling tar. Against such radical cures the patients of modern times would shudder with horror. It was Pare, too, who first discovered the benign influence of clean spring water for wounds instead of boiling oil, which had been used until then.

Nurses' pay was once dollar a week. Doctor gives interesting address at graduation exercises.

Visions of nurses whisking about in calico dresses and felt slippers, doing twenty-four hour duty, and receiving at the end of a hard week's work the princely "wage" of $1, were conjured up by Dr. E. M. Morgan in an address delivered at the graduation exercises of the Phillips Training School for Nurses, connected with the Homeopathic Hospital of Montreal on Tuesday evening.

Dr. Morgan gave an unusual and interesting outline of the history of the nursing profession, recalling the nursing system in vogue in colonial days, and referring to an entry in the Journal of Congress in 1876, which allowed for the augmentation of nurses' "wages" at that time to a colossal figure of $1. In 1877 in the United States, the first provision was made for a matron, having charge of nurses. The remuneration allowed in this case was $4-50 of a dollar, and one ration daily. Twenty-four hours was considered a day's duty, with sleep and rest when possible.

Speaking directly to the graduating class, Dr. Morgan reminded them that in their training they had had the opportunity of observing treatment by the two great branches of the profession, homeopathy and allopathy. "Homeopathy," he said, "is a very old Test No. 2. Every "Starr" blade, before being put into a skate, is submitted to a bending test (see illustration at right) and unless the blade springs back (when released) to a perfectly straight line, it is discarded—this insures every "Starr" Skate blade being full of "life" and ringing true.

After tests of this kind you can readily realize how long a "Starr" blade will stay without needing sharpening.

AWARDED $900 IN DAMAGE SUIT

Charles A. Donald Wins Case Arising From Blast- ing Operations

In the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon, Mr. Justice Crockett delivered judgment against the defendants for $900 in the case of Charles A. Donald vs. Moses and the City of St. John. Belyea and Gilbert appeared for the plaintiff, and J. B. M. Baxter, K.C., for the city and H. A. Porter for the contractor.

This was an action brought in the last sittings of the court here by the plaintiff to recover $1,000 for property damage as the result of an explosion of dynamite, which took place at the time the Newman Brook contract was being carried out by the city. The jury in the case returned a verdict of $900 for the plaintiff, but did not fix the liability. Argument of counsel was heard in this connection, and judgment handed down whereby the plaintiff has the option of recovering from either of the defendants. It is understood that the judgment will be appealed.

FIND TOMBS OF THIRD DYNASTY

Archaeologists Make Discovery Rich in Interest—Royal Burying Places.

Cairo, Oct. 13.—(By Mail)—For some time vague reports have been circulating in regard to a very important archaeological discovery at Sakkarah, near Cairo. Cecil Firth, of the Egyptian Antiquities Department has now described the exact nature of the discovery.

It consists of two tomb chapels of the Third Dynasty (3000 to 2500 B. C.), close to the famous Step Pyramid at Sakkarah.

These chapels are built in a style different in almost every respect from what is known as Egyptian architecture. The facades of the chapels are decorated with fluted columns with leaf-form capitals, while the walls have the earliest known form of papyrus capital and column.

These chapels are the earliest stone buildings known (excepting pyramids and such), and show that architecture was already completely developed in the Third Dynasty.

Any possibility that the buildings are a Saite or Greek restoration is ruled out by the graffiti (rough inscriptions, made hundreds or thousands of years later) on the walls, dating back to 1800 B. C. (before the Greeks came to cross the sea).

The chapels are possibly burial places of the princes or queens of the Third Dynasty (3000, 2900 or 2800 years ago), for fragments of the grave-stones of the royal princesses have been found nearby.

Mr. Firth considers that it is one of the most important archaeological discoveries of recent years, especially in its bearing on the early history of architecture.

The Third Dynasty of Egypt was the last of what is called "the Early" rulers reigning in the times before "pyramid-building" had ceased to mean "royal-tomb-building." From the end of the Third to the Sixth Dynasty (1900 or 2000 or 3,000 years before Abraham) is pre-eminently the period when the royal pyramid in stone was the chief monument left by each successive king.

But the great dead, deathless pyramids, especially the "Step Pyramid," across the river from Helwan, now the spire of Royal Cairo, were built in dateless ages long before that.

Nobody knows the date of the "Step Pyramid." It is so old that the very "steps" (great stone terraces) are almost weathered away.

Thousands of years older than the Flood, the Step Pyramid is the oldest building in the world. It is near the site of the City of Memphis, which, it is believed, was founded by Menes, the first King of Egypt.

During the third, fourth and fifth dynasties Memphis was the capital of Egypt, and Kings built palaces and temples of unrivalled magnificence, and provided vast tombs to immortalize their greatness.

PICKLES RECEIVED.

Baxter Lodge, No. 92, L. O. B. A., met at the home of the Worthy Mistress, Mrs. Edward Duff, on Tuesday evening and organized a sewing circle. The members brought gifts of pickles for a pickle shower for the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage. A very generous supply of excellent pickles was received. After accomplishing much sewing refreshments were served and the hostess was assisted by Miss Frances Murray and Miss Blanche Hart.

VISITOR TELLS OF WEMBLEY WONDERS

Engineers Hear Interesting Lecture by Fraser S. Keith of Montreal.

That when Sir Arthur Conan Doyle said of the British Empire Exhibition, "Wembley—a great educational factor and the class room of the world," he was not far amiss, was ably illustrated by Fraser S. Keith, general secretary of the Engineering Institute of Canada, in his address before the St. John branch at a dinner in the Union Club last night.

C. C. Kirby, M. A. Pooler, J. B. Sterling, Barry Wilson, A. W. Wilbur, H. C. Cairns, A. G. Tapley, George H. Lowry, J. A. W. Waring, A. A. Turnbull, John L. Holman, G. G. G. Murdoch, A. Gray, A. C. D. Blanchard, W. J. Johnston and S. G. Timmins. G. G. Hare was chairman and introduced Mr. Keith. Mr. Keith before entering on his lecture on Wembley, announced that he had been commissioned by the council to perform a very pleasing act and presented to G. G. Hare a life membership in the Engineering Institute of Canada. This signal honor was only conferred on those who had done some special service to the institute. Mr. Keith explained Mr. Hare's associates received the news by pledging a toast to his health and in giving him three cheers and a tiger. Mr. Hare replied briefly.

Mr. Keith then launched into a discussion on Wembley. At the conclusion of his address a vote of thanks was moved by C. C. Kirby and seconded by F. P. Vaughan. F. A. Bowman presented the charter to the St. John branch. C. C. Kirby received it as one of the charter members. He spoke briefly. The address of C. E. W. Dodwell brought the gathering to a close.

The Charter. The charter presented to the St. John branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada by F. A. Bowman, M. E. I. C., of Halifax, vice-president of the institute, was an interesting feature of the dinner. The charter and list of members of the St. John branch discloses the names of a number of former residents of the city who in recent years were engaged in engineering works in this vicinity. Attention was called to the movements of the members of the engineering profession to different parts of the country with the varying construction needs of the different localities. Former members of the St. John branch who have scattered are: E. G. Horne, to Montreal; J. K. Seammell, Los Angeles, California; A. B. Blanchard, Baddeck, C. B.; E. H. Donnelly, St. Vincent de Paul, P. Q.; A. R. Dufresne, Montreal; C. O. Ross, Penacook, Vermont; Horace Longley, Sydney, N. S.; F. G. Goodspeed, Winnipeg, Man.; E. G. Cameron, St. Catharines, Ont.; Colonel J. Houlligon, Ottawa; H. F. Bennett, Halifax, N. S.; R. D. Jones, St. Catharines, Ont.; A. Grant, Thorold, Ont.; N. F. Nutter, Truro, N. S.; V. S. Chestnut, Midland, Ont.; Bernard A. Allen, Montreal.

There are branches of the Engineering Institute of Canada in the province at St. John and Moncton. The St. John branch, with headquarters at St. John, has 62 members in the city and 85 members resident in the nine western counties of New Brunswick. Since the St. John branch was formed in 1919, the following have been branch chairmen: A. Gray, M. E. I. C.; C. C. Kirby, M. E. I. C.; G. G. Murdoch, M. E. I. C.; F. P. Vaughan, M. E. I. C.; A. G. Tapley, M. E. I. C.; H. F. Bennett, A. M. E. I. C.; G. N. Hatfield, A. M. E. I. C.; G. G. Hare, M. E. I. C.

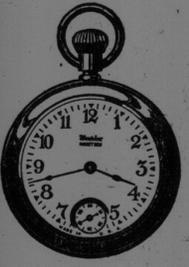

The motto of the Engineering Institute of Canada is as follows: "To facilitate the acquirement and interchange of professional knowledge among its members, to promote their professional interests, to encourage original research, to develop and maintain high standards in the engineering profession, and to enhance the usefulness of the profession to the public."

A workaday watch

ANY watch that keeps reasonably good time is a delicate instrument, and gives better service when given good treatment. Some men do rough work and do not care to risk carrying an expensive watch. Other men have an extra watch, an inexpensive one, when they are roughing it. Pocket Ben is good looking, reliable and inexpensive. A surprising number of men who could afford more expensive timepieces carry Pocket Ben for economy's sake.

Pocket Ben wears the Westclox trade mark on its dial. That means that it has passed careful timekeeping tests before it left the factory. Its price is $2.00.

HALL MOVED TO NEW LOCATION

East St. John United Church Has Place For Services

After nearly two months of toilsome progress from its former site the old East St. John Community Club hall has been placed in position on the property purchased by the United Church and it will be ready for the first services for the united congregation to be held on Sunday. Rev. W. J. Bevis, the minister, is now occupying a rented building at the corner of Park avenue and Beacon street, which has been secured temporarily as the manse and is situated close to the church. It is the intention of the congregation to use the hall until the spring time at least and in the spring it is probable that work on a permanent church building will commence, although nothing definite in this regard has yet been decided upon.

FAIRVILLE W. M. S. HAS OPEN SESSION

Large Gathering Hears Interesting Programme in Methodist Church.

The annual public meeting of the W. M. S. of the Fairville Methodist church was held last night in the schoolroom of the church with Mrs. J. M. Rice, the president, in the chair. The room had been very prettily decorated with Rowan berries and wild flowers. Mrs. Rice led the opening devotions and a scripture reading was given by Mrs. William McCavour. Rev. J. M. Rice offered prayer. An encouraging report of the year's work was given, showing that there had been an increase in members in funds. The society now has 34 regular members and 80 associate members, and it raised the creditable sum of $83.31 through the mite boxes, the opening of which took place at the October meeting. It was specially remarked that the strangers' secretary, Mrs. Arthur Long, and the members of her committee had made no less than 1,200 visits during the year and sent out 100 greeting cards to aged members of the church and to missionaries.

An interesting programme was given in which a motion song trio was contributed by Margaret Lester, Shirley Brownell and Mary Kelly; recitation by Mildred Crosby and chorus by 10 girls of the mission band. Mrs. Arthur Long, delegate to the branch meeting gave a reading entitled "Listening in," which comprised thoughts gleaned at the convention. An exercise was given by seven girls of the mission band who after extending congratulations on the interesting programme gave an address entitled "At the Cross Roads." Mrs. Fulton used a chart to illustrate her address and spoke especially of the need and the present great lack of missionaries. She closed by quoting the poem "Our Work," by Rev. Canon Scott. Mr. Rice in a brief speech spoke of the great work of the church as missions. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Fulton for her address. The girls of the Mission Band who took part in the programme were as follows: The Misses Mildred Crosby, Dorothy Rice, Margaret Stout, Audrey Morrison, Dorothy Spence, Vera Wyard, Hazel Craft, Hazel McCumber, Luella Bunnell and Evelyn Sargeant.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE MEETS. The monthly meeting of the Women's League of St. David's church was held yesterday afternoon with a large attendance. Mrs. A. D. Malcolm, president, was in the chair. Minor business matters were completed and plans were perfected for the annual tea and sale to be held the last of this month. The superfluous sale, held in October was reported as successful and a substantial sum realized for the funds of the league. The members were much encouraged at the interest taken in the work at this meeting.

OXO Feeds the Family's Needs

The family needs good food—especially young children. OXO food is good food, because OXO is the concentrated nourishment and goodness of prime lean beef in the most assimilable form. Add OXO to your meat-dishes—soups, stews, hash, croquettes,—and see how much better they taste,—and how the children will enjoy them! Give the children a cup of hot OXO, too, when they come home from school. OXO warms and strengthens as well as feeds.

OXO CUBES. The Great Beef Economy. Tins of 4 - 15c. Tins of 10 - 30c. Tommy Tomkins' Painting Book. OXO Blanc Mange. Dissolve 2 Cubes OXO in pint hot water, pour into pan and place on the fire. Mix tablespoon corn starch with a little milk, mix and smooth. Add it to the OXO. Cook for 5 minutes until it thickens. Then pour the mixture into a basin to cool.

BENEFIT BRIDGE FOR THE KINDERGARTEN

Mrs. Allan G. McAvity opened her pretty home for a benefit bridge last evening, when there was play at ten tables and more than $45 realized for the funds of the Free Kindergarten Association of which she is president. Several persons have offered additional donations which will swell the fund. Chrysanthemums were arranged about the rooms where the tables were placed. The prizes were won by Mrs. R. Max McCarthy, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. John J. McCabe and Mrs. Atwater Smith. Mrs. G. Heber Vroom and

Mrs. Arthur S. Bowman presided over the tea cups at supper time. Mrs. Walter A. Harrison, Miss Katherine Bell and Miss Dawson assisted in serving. Those present were Mrs. Frank R. Mrs. McAvity will hold an executive meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association at her home this evening. Sheffield plate was discovered in 1742 by Thomas oosover, a Sheffield mechanic.

"But, DOROTHY, salad forks go on the INSIDE!"

DOROTHY changed the forks with a start. She resented Mary's tone of mingled surprise and reproval. But she resented more the fact that she didn't know where the salad forks went. No wonder, either. There were no salad forks at home, nor bouillon spoons, nor many of the other beautiful things they used at Mary's house. Dorothy felt as though she had missed much—because her mother hadn't enough silverware.

Does your silverware help your children to be so familiar with correct usage that good table manners are their natural inheritance? Perhaps not! Even now you may be "getting along" with silverware that falls short of your taste and desire because you do not realize that in 1847 Rogers Bros. Silverplate you can complete your silver service easily and at reasonable expense. And that you can provide every kind of piece you ought to have—bouillon spoons, salad forks or serving pieces—each unsurpassed in beauty and durability. And when you need more pieces in the chosen pattern, you will be able to get them easily; for leading dealers throughout the Dominion have the newer 1847 Rogers Bros. patterns in stock.

May we send you a copy of our booklet, "Etiquette, Entertaining and Good Sense"? Its illustrations of table settings are authoritative to the last degree. You will find it full of suggestions for successful entertaining. Write for it to-day. Meriden Britannia Co., Limited, Hamilton, Ontario.

DR. PUGSLEY HEARS MORE WAR CLAIMS

British American and Western Assurance Company Asks $1,871,299

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Ottawa, Nov. 12.—Paul W. Laques, councillor-at-law, of New York City, today presented further evidence and argument before Hon. William Pugsley, Royal Commissioner investigating Canadian claims for war indemnity against Germany. The amount involved is $1,871,299.81, representing marine losses alleged to have been incurred by the British American and Western Assurance Company, which commenced started actions of a similar nature before the American Government.

The present claim was originally presented in Toronto in May last, when it was decided to postpone the hearing until certain further evidence could be adduced. At the conclusion of the argument today Hon. Dr. Pugsley reserved his decision.

NOT COMING NOW. The secretary of the Canadian Club has received word from Major Ney that John L. Paton, former headmaster of Manchester Grammar school, England, who is in Canada giving addresses under the joint auspices of the National Education Council and the Federation of Canadian Clubs, will not be able to come to St. John until the middle of January. Mr. Paton who speaks on various aspects of educational matters is so much in demand in Ontario that he will be unable to get away from the engagements which he has in that province for some time.

URGE GRANT FOR HUDSON BAY ROAD

Deputation Asks Manitoba For $2,000,000 Toward Completion of Railway

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Winnipeg, Nov. 12.—Requesting a grant of $2,000,000 from the Government of Manitoba as a contribution towards the completion of the Hudson Bay Railway, a deputation representing the On-to-the-Bay Association, waited upon Premier John Bracken and other Cabinet Ministers today.

The deputation pointed out that a similar request had been made recently upon the Saskatchewan Government and that the proposal had been favorably received.

In advancing their request, the delegates suggested that in the event of the Federal authorities failing to complete the road, a joint arrangement could be entered into by Manitoba and Saskatchewan with a capital fund of $4,000,000 to carry out the undertaking.

The Premier and members of the Cabinet, while expressing themselves in sympathy with the need for completing the road, favored continuance of pressure upon the Federal authorities in preference to acquisition of the road as a provincial undertaking.

IRELAND HOLDING FIVE BY-ELECTIONS

Dublin, Nov. 12.—What very nearly amounts to a general election is now progressing in the Irish Free State where five seats are at issue, namely, South Dublin, Cork City, East Cork, North Mayo and Donegal. Both Free State and the Republican candidates are standing, and it is not improbable that some of the latter will be successful, thus swelling the number of anti-Treaty members. The anxiety for political prisoners, however, and the coming of the Irish price will tend to stall the Republican as well as national thunder and to create a public opinion favorable to the Government.

William Cosgrave's party is generally believed to be free from internal friction and to still predominate.

BERLIN TIED UP BY SUBWAY STRIKE

Berlin, Nov. 12.—Berlin's elevated and subway strike continued today, thousands walking to their offices and factories. The city's antiquated street cars are quite inadequate to cope with the mass of people. The elevated railway company attempted to induce the police to permit them to use strikebreakers but traffic regulations required that the elevated line be closed to discharge all who were not at work today.

WOMAN RUNS INTO MOTOR CAR

Miss Kate Irvine, of 108 Main street, Fairville, was conveyed to the General Public Hospital last night where she is being treated for shock received when struck by an automobile in Main street, several yards from the corner of Douglas avenue. The accident happened about 10:30 o'clock, and from a report received from a witness, Miss Irvine was apparently attempting to catch a street car in Douglas avenue which was en route to Fairville. She stepped off the curb and went into the street, where she was struck by the side of automobile No. 17,219, driven by Welling Garnett of 42 Murray street. The automobile was going slowly at the time, and if it had not been for the quick action of the driver in turning his car out quickly Miss Irvine might have been seriously injured.

Rowley of 18 Wellington Row, and automobile No. 12,287, driven by Ernest Titus of 83 White street, collided at the corner of Union and Germain streets. WINNING FIRPO LOSES TO CHARLES WEINERT

Is Outpointed by Newark Heavyweight in Twelve Round Bout.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 13.—Luis Angel Firpo's attempted ring comeback was rudely halted last night when Charlie Weinert, local heavyweight, gave the South American champion a boxing lesson in 12 rounds of a no-decision fight and in the opinion of newspaper men at the ringside, gained a comfortable shade over the Argentine.

The Wild Bull was distanced all the way. His bull-like rushes which featured his fight with Dempsey were missing and his terrific right which has respect its harvest of knockouts, was virtually of no use to him against a clever boxer of the type of Weinert.

The Newarker cleverly evaded Firpo's terrific right which once beat Weinert in two rounds in Philadelphia, before Firpo's fight with Dempsey, but Weinert evaded any issue with that right and tied up the Argentine at every level in which that blow was involved.

Weinert gained confidence as the fight progressed when he saw how his style confused Firpo.

Although Weinert's margin was wide, he absorbed considerable punishment himself, both fighters bleeding profusely when the final gong sounded. Firpo's face was badly cut, both eyes being cut while his head streamed from his nose and mouth. Firpo weighed 222 and Weinert scaled 184.

The Argentine fighter appeared slower than ever and seemed to have made no improvement since his defeat by Harry Williams.

In a thrilling semi-final match, Miguel Ferrara, of Argentine, Firpo's heavyweight sparring partner, knocked out Jack Shovers, Elizabeth, N. J. negro, in the first round of a programmed ten-round affair. The end came after two minutes and 14 seconds of fighting.

The preliminaries, with a lone exception, proved to be a series of knock-out exhibitions. In the semi-final Joe Lewis, of New York, outpointed Harold Mays, of Bayonne, N. J. in a 10 round no-decision affair in the opinion of newspaper critics at the ringside.

The men are light-heavyweights. Billy Prestage, of England, knocked out Jack Townsend, of Pittsburgh, in the second round of a six round match.

In the opener Frankie Bates, of Newark, knocked out Johnny Fields, also of Newark, in the first round. A crowd estimated at 8,000 attended the exhibition.

Annual Fall Rush For Fame at Hollywood Is On

By HAROLD E. SWISHER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Hollywood, Nov. 13.—The fall crop are being harvested throughout rural America. The fall rush of sleek-haired, would-be husbands and bobbed-haired farmettes, hoping for quick pickings in Hollywood, is in full swing. All of them are praying for a plentiful yield of fame and funds. Most of them are doomed to painful disillusionment. Throughout the year there is a steady stream of aspirants to cinema fortune pouring into Hollywood, in the spring and again in the fall is this flow the strongest.

True, cameras are clicking merrily in most of the studios with production programmes showing little sign of the usual slack season in the closing months of the year. But the host of those who would gain renown by the spitting and again in the fall is this flow the strongest.

Each time some hitherto unknown is signed for a stellar part, the wave of those seeking similar opportunities well-nigh breaks down the studio gates. It is conservatively estimated that if all the pretty little girls who hecked their rings and bought tickets for Hollywood when they read of the good fortune of Betty Bronson, a nobody in filmland, being selected for the title role in "Peter Pan," were back washing dishes in their home kitchens, half the mothers in the nation could go out and join Mah-Jong clubs or attend all the matinees.

"Read 'Merton of the Movies' and then bear in mind that not all young men have the luck that Merton did," is the advice of William de Mille, noted Paramount Producer, and the words are blown right back into his mouth by the rush of newcomers.

Director Takes Chances
"The amateur actor who comes to Hollywood usually thinks he is taking a great risk in spending a hundred dollars or more for railroad fare," de Mille continues undiscouraged. "But the director who engages him is taking the greater chance, because hundreds of thousands of dollars are involved in every film production.

"The producer usually selects players whose work he knows. Every hour costs money and the director who is compelled to spend time teaching the amateur how to act is leading himself with a tremendous expense, and even then he is never certain that the work of the amateur will be satisfactory."

"The actor who knows his business, who has mastered the art of acting, make-up, costs less money to the production than the inexperienced youth whose every appearance before the camera means a waste of time and film," in de Mille's opinion.

"I have given several young men a chance to play quite important parts in my productions and the result has usually been that we have all regretted it. They were not ready for the parts and felt discouraged, and I had spent thousands of dollars for nothing."

"The worst thing that can happen to a novice is to have a big opportunity before he is ready for it. A part that is too small for him is better than one that is too big. He will grow in the first and fall in the second.

"Some young men have come to the studios ready to do anything. This is a dangerous method of entrance unless the amateur actor has that rare spark of ambition which will not allow him to be diverted from his aim. Using another job as the stepping-stone to the next one is usually very fine, but it generally results in the young man being permanently sidetracked into something else.

"The man who is willing to do anything may end by doing nothing. He comes out here to be an actor and ends by being always a properly man."

Reading Subtitles
Everyone in the world hates the nitwit who reads the subtitles aloud in the motion picture theatres. The public at large will rise up and cheer to learn that the first definite steps against the nitwit may be taken when "The Merry Widow" is exhibited. It will not be necessary to wreak justifiable homicide against them. The law will take its course.

When the screen rights were purchased to the famous light opera, to be filmed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with Erich von Stroheim directing and Mac Murray starring in the title role, the contract definitely stated that no spoken word of the original book of the opera may be used in the theatre in which it is showing. The text may be used as printed matter on the screen—the subtitles—but anyone speaking a line from the play is liable to a heavy fine. So if they read ten aloud, the gardenias may get 'em if they don't watch out.

Warning to Flappers.
Flappers, take warning. If you plan to change your hair, dress so your ears show. Listen to Colleen Moore's experience: For the first time in years the famous flapper of the movies is called upon to publicly exhibit her ears for her role in "So Big," a new film in which she portrays the girl of 1890.

Drafts at the studio on her tender ears brought on neuralgia, according to Colleen's physician. Now she's wearing ear-muffs between scenes to prevent further suffering.

So if you plan to expose your ears, buy your ear-muffs first.

Other Troubles Women Often Have Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lachine, Quebec.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my left side and back, and with weakness and other troubles women so often have. I was this way about six months. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the 'Montreal Standard' and I have taken four bottles of it. I was a very sick woman and I feel so much better I would not be without it. I also use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I recommend the medicines to my friends and I am willing for you to use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. M. W. ROSE, 880/Notre Dame Street, Lachine, Quebec.

Doctor Said An Operation
Provost, Alberta.—"Perhaps you will remember sending me one of your books a year ago. I was in a bad condition and would suffer awful pains at times and could not do anything. The doctor said I could not have children unless I went under an operation. I read testimonials of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and a friend recommended me to take it. After taking three bottles I became much better and now have a bonny baby girl four months old. I do my housework and help a little with the chores. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and am willing for you to use this testimonial letter."—Mrs. A. A. ADAMS, Box 54, Provost, Alberta. G

TICKET SALE STARTS TODAY FOR "THE DUMB BELLS"

FIRST COME FIRST SERVED—TELEPHONE ORDERS FILLED AFTER OPENING RUSH—NO EXCEPTION

Life, lights, color, action, and sudden transitions from thrills to tears, to laughter, are all combined to make "Ace High" the greatest entertainment that The Dumbbells have offered Canadian audiences.

Capt. Plunkett has given "Ace High" a series of particularly lavish settings—a shell-wrecked chateau, practical golf course, 177-covered bit of old England, a typical billet, a coffee stall, marine scene, cabaret setting.

Another setting which has been enhanced to suit the re-organized and now peerless orchestra, is the opening scene of the second act, in which they first appear.

The new show will be found to be entirely different from any of the previous Dumbbells' revues. Not a line or song from any of the other shows has been retained, and there will be no repeat numbers this season, owing to the length and running order of "Ace High."

HOPE HAMPTON TO SUE PRODUCERS

Replaced in "Madam Pompadour" She Will Seek Damages.

New York, Nov. 13.—Max D. Steuer, attorney for Hope Hampton, the actress who last week was replaced in the leading role of "Madame Pompadour" by Wilda Bennett, said that there would be no legal action on behalf of his client leading to an interference with the opening of the show at the Martin Beck Theatre. He said that papers would be filed in a suit calling for the payment of damages by Martin Beck and Charles B. Dillingham, proprietors of the show, for an alleged breaking of their contract with Miss Hampton.

"The substitution of Miss Bennett for Miss Hampton," said Mr. Steuer, "is no way to be taken as a reflection on Miss Hampton's ability. During the road try-out Miss Hampton gave some performances of the role that were excellent and some that were not so excellent. With a production of this size, we felt that it was expedient to have a prima donna for the New York opening who would be able to show the other conditions; to being the producer of a show in which she played the leading role.

"We are convinced that we will very easily be able to show that we are acting within our contractual rights in dispensing with Miss Hampton's services."

LEONARD MAY DEFEND TITLE IN FEBRUARY
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 13.—Benny Leonard, world's lightweight boxing champion, has tentatively agreed to accept an offer to defend his title here about Feb. 22, according to word received from the champion in New York. It is understood that Joe Benjamin will probably be Leonard's opponent.

TALES OF AN AUCTION ROOM
London, Nov. 13.—E. G. Allingham has written a book, "A Romance of the Rostrum," dealing with the history of Henry Stevens' famous sale rooms in King street, Covent Garden. The mummy was on its way from the north of England to Ghent. It was lost on the journey, the case was opened, suspicion of foul play was aroused, and a coroner's inquest was held.

"Auk, London"—Mr. Stevens' telegraphic address—speaks for itself. The rooms are famous for sales of Great Auk's eggs, though only 75 recorded eggs are in existence. The "Yarrell" egg was first discovered in a little shop in France. It was bought for $100. It was bought for $100.

Here is a story of a youth who used his eyes and brain when visiting the Natural History Museum. He saw some casts of Great Auk's eggs. Subsequently he was at a sale, and in a lot described as "a collection of shells and fossils" he discovered a Great Auk's egg. He knew it from his recollection of the plaster casts, and bought the lot for $8. sold the shells to a woman bidder for $5 and went off with the egg.

On reaching home he found, to his surprise, another Great Auk's egg at the bottom of the box. A month later he received $1,365 for one egg, $900 for the other.

It was believed that soda-water originated in Mr. Bowley's "mephitic julep" in 1767.

ELECT WHOLE COUNCIL AT ONCE IS PLAN PROPOSED TODAY BY MAYOR POTTS

Asks Commissioners to Think it Over and be Ready for Discussion—Matter of Auto Headlights Comes Up at City Hall Session.

Mayor Potts today suggested changes in the commission government to provide that all five members of the St. John Common Council should be elected at the same time. He requested the members of the council to give thought to the matter preparatory to an open discussion of the subject at an early date. Better lighting of some portions of the city and better regulations for the governing of automobile traffic at night were also spoken of by His Worship.

Commissioner Wigmore moved that the sum of $210 be transferred to the city solicitor for payment to W. A. Quinton for five lots purchased by the city at public auction, the titles having been approved by the city solicitor. Carried.

The sum of $100, balance of his salary as district commissioner for Stanley Ward, was ordered paid to James Leary.

Mayor Potts called attention to the need for more lighting on the Wall street bridge and on North and South wharves.

Commissioner Harding said he was waiting for a detailed plan of the lights of the city before ordering any more lights placed but these matters would be attended to.

The Auto Headlight.

His Worship also said that many motorists did not turn their lights when approaching another car.

Commissioner Harding said this was a matter which needed careful handling. On a night such as last night the dimmers would not be sufficient for the driver to operate the car safely.

Commissioner Wigmore suggested that legislation be passed compelling all motorists to place non-glare lenses on their headlights and this would meet the situation.

Commissioner Wigmore reported that he was still seeking information on the milk question. He had asked the local dealers for a statement of their cost of operation but that furnished had not been satisfactory and he had asked for an amended statement, showing the division of overhead between milk and other operations carried on by the dealers and dairies.

City Government.

Mayor Potts said he had been given to understand that a petition for the repeal of the commission charter and a return to the old ward system was being circulated and it had been said this movement had his endorsement. This was not in accord with the facts. He was in favor of some changes to the charter and had so expressed himself in his inaugural address.

Elect All At Once.

He felt that the commission form of government was the best the city had had to date but some changes were needed and he would like each member of the council to give the matter his best consideration, with a view to discussing the matter a little later. He felt the whole five members of the council ought to be elected at one time and would suggest in order to equalize matters between those who were elected last spring and those who would have to run an election in 1926, that the next election be held in 1927.

When the matter was to be discussed he would invite any members of the citizens committee who had to do with the framing of the commission charter and any interested citizens to attend and take part in the discussion. He wanted to see the city have the best possible government, and he failed to see how any person who had served in the council under both forms could advocate going back to the ward system. The town manager plan was being adopted in some cities but he failed to see where the city could save anything by adopting it as they would have to pay a man at least $15,000 a year.

Commissioner Frink said he thought the suggestion of the ward system was a good one. He was in favor of promoting a return to the ward system.

OLYMPIC FAIR GRIPPING INTEREST.

Many More Extend Patronage—Deficit to Make Up $909.

Interest in the Olympic Fair in St. Andrew's Rink is steadily increasing, as demonstrated by the large number of patrons in attendance last evening. The various games and amusements were well patronized and the outlook is bright for even larger patronage during the remainder of the week. One of the outstanding attractions is the voting contest in which prominent amateur ball players are vying for honors. Last night Nelson of the Royals jumped into the lead with 4,789 votes. Kerr of the Trojans is second with 4,640, while Dalton of St. John the Baptist ran third with 2,500, and Charlie Gorman of the Portlanders was fourth with 1,980. Among the other leaders are Fitzgerald and Murphy of St. Rose's, Bartlett and Daley of the Trojans and Sherwood of the Canucks. It is reported that friends of these players have been holding back their votes until the closing stages, thus keeping in doubt who will be the winner of this popular contest.

Nelson wins an Eversharp pencil for leading last night; Kerr, who was leading Tuesday night, won a fountain pen. Last night's door prize, a ham, was won by Mrs. Theodore Guidry, ticket No. 1,060. Tuesday night's prize, a pair of double blankets, was won by C. W. Downie with ticket No. 843.

Tonight's Plans.

Tonight the members of St. John the Baptist Society and the South End Improvement League will take charge of affairs. They are planning on introducing some new attractions which should be popular with patrons.

Arrangements have been completed with Captain Pain for the services of the Cadet Band to furnish a programme of selections during the evening. It is expected that vocal solos will be rendered by members of the organizations interested.

Need $900.

The object of holding this fair is to pay part of a deficit incurred by maritime athletes while in training for the Olympic sports. The following financial statement of receipts and expenditures was given out today by A. W. Corey, chairman of the Olympic committee, and W. L. Caldwell, treasurer of the Olympic committee:

C. N. R. BRINGS IN 36 CARS OF GRAIN

Big Lot for Early Season—C. P. R. Has Much Ready for Ships.

An excellent start for the winter's export grain traffic through the C. N. R. elevator here has been made with the arrival of 36 cars of grain, via Campbellton and Moncton. This big shipment, which is unusual for this time of the year, will be unloaded at the elevator here on Monday and more is on the way. The C. N. R. office reported here this morning that this was part of a consignment of 173,000 bushels of rye for this port. The shipment is considered a good indication that facilities here will be used to a greater extent than in recent years. This is the first rye to arrive here this year. Local men who have been working hard to secure increased business for the port were pleased when word of its arrival was received. The season's shipments, to-morrow 100 cars of grain, now on the terminals, will be unloaded. There is approximately 175,000 bushels in this lot, while that contained in 500 more cars now enroute here will bring the total up to one million. In addition to the million bushels have been ordered to be forwarded from Port McNichol to West St. John.

WORTHY CITIZEN DIES SUDDENLY

Michael F. Mooney Occupied Prominent Place in City and Province.

The city was deeply stirred this morning when it became known that Michael F. Mooney had died suddenly during the night. While he had not enjoyed perfect health for a time, he was around his business as usual yesterday. About midnight he was stricken with heart trouble at his home, 108 Watson street, West St. John. Medical aid was summoned but nothing could be done and he passed away about an hour later.

Mr. Mooney, as has the firm of which he was a member, occupied an outstanding place in the community. He was deeply concerned in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the community and his passing leaves a vacancy which it will be hard to fill. The firm of which he had been president for some years, last to its credit some of the largest buildings in the city and province and these stand as a monument to their workmanship and dependability. As a citizen he was of the highest type and held in great regard and esteem by all with whom he came in contact.

Mr. Mooney was prominent in the councils of the Liberal party in this city and took an active part in every campaign. His advice was sought by the party managers who recognized his keen insight and good judgment in matters political.

He was an ardent curler and one of the standbys of the Carleton Curling Club. He was past president of the club and only last week was elected a member of the managing executive. He also was a member of the C. M. B. A., Carleton branch.

Born in Ireland.

Mr. Mooney was born at Knocklohrin, Ireland, and came to this country when a lad with his father, Bernard Mooney, who founded the firm here in 1873. He was for some years manager of the Miramich Pulp Co. and of the Mispep Sulphite Fibre Co.

The firm of which Mr. Mooney was president is one of the oldest contracting firms in the city, if not in the maritime provinces. Among the buildings erected by them are: Cornwall and York Cotton Mills, High School, Centenary church, St. Peter's church, St. John the Baptist church, Holy Trinity church, the following school buildings, King Edward, King George, Dufferin, St. Peter's girls, St. Peter's boys, St. Thomas and Aberdeen; Manchester, Robertson, Allison's, Ltd., Emerson and Fisher's, National Drug Company, Bank of British North America, Nurses Home, St. John; U. N. B. Memorial building, Fredericton; Gibson Cotton Mill, Marysville; and the rebuilding of Eastport after the fire there.

THE LATE M. F. MOONEY

They built a section of the pipe line from Loch Lomond to Lake Lattimer when the extension was made and not a dollar has been spent on that part of the main since it was built. Some of the city pavements were laid by them among the larger jobs being King street, Charlotte street, Pond street and Main street.

Mr. Mooney is survived by one son, Joseph B. Mooney, at home; one brother, Edward Mooney, of this city and one sister, Mrs. Sarah O'Connor of this city; and a large number of nieces and nephews. A gentleman of delightful personality, Mr. Mooney numbered a great many friends, to whom his death is a very severe blow. The funeral will be held from his late residence at 8:45 a. m. on Saturday to the Church of the Assumption for Requiem high mass at 9 o'clock.

NON-SUPPORT CHARGED.
John M. Burchill was taken into custody this morning on a charge of non-support. He was represented by A. B. Gilbert and the plaintiff by E. J. Henneberry. After testimony had been taken the matter was allowed to stand over for a week to give the interested parties an opportunity to reach an agreement. The defendant was allowed to go on his recognizance.

OFF-WASHADEMOAK ROUTE.
Jarvis C. Purdy, manager of the Crystal Steam Ship Company, announced this afternoon that the Washademok route had been placed on the Fredericton route next Monday. The D. J. Purdy I will go to Fredericton tomorrow and on his return will be put in winter quarters.

A BLOW-UP.
An explosion of gas at the corner of Princess and Sydney streets about nine o'clock this morning caused some excitement for a time. The manhole covers of the water and sewerage department and the New Brunswick Telephone Company were blown off by the explosion but no damage was done. The cause of the "blow-up" was not ascertained.
