Saragossa, Spain, July 14.—Thirty persons were wounded last night during an encounter between strikers and the civil guard in the streets of the city.

Rome, July 14.—The Pope, in view of the increased cost of living, has issued an encyclical to Catholics with a view to helping the working and salaried classes.

Amsterdam, July 14.—The Belgian writer Ottobert, while giving an exhibition flight at Leuwarden yesterday, fell among the spectators, severely injuring several of them.

London, July 14.—The Daily Graphic in alluding to the proposed modifications in the Anglo-Spanish treaty alliance, thinks it will couple as a shock to the average Englishman to learn that by this treaty England is bound to join Japan in the event of her being involved in a war with the United States.

Atlantic shipping conference decided yesterday to continue the existing agreement until October 31, when it is expected a new agreement will be signed.

The companies comprising the conference have had a pool agreement governing immigrant traffic rates. The terms of the agreement recently expired and the conditions under which it shall be renewed, if renewed at all are still a matter of discussion.

There Are Nearly 15,000 Miles of Highways Planned or Under Way in The United States

Washington, D. C., July 14.—(Canadian Press)—With nearly 15,000 miles of transcontinental interstate and trunk line highways contemplated in various sections of the country if all the plans are carried out, it soon will be possible to drive wagons or automobiles from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, from British Columbia to Mexico, and from Canada to Florida.

The United States officer of public roads has just prepared a chart on improved roads contemplated or actually under construction, showing the great network covering the whole country.

FINED FOR ACCOSTING WOMEN IN SQUARE

Wm. Sterling Called on For Two Contributions—A Boy's Case Calling for Inquiry—Paddock Street Arrests

Judge Ritchie presided at quite a busy session of the police court this morning. William Griffith was fined $4 for drunkenness and Jere Sullivan and Newton Wilbur $5 for the like offence.

William Sterling was fined $8 for drunkenness and a like amount for accosting ladies in Queen Square last night.

Walter Azell, a young lad, was arrested last night on charge of lying and lurking in the cellar of Mrs. Walter Gray in St. David street. He was also charged with escaping from the chain gang on May 28.

Albert Thomas was before the court charged with assaulting Mrs. Walter Gray in her house in St. Patrick street and also with threatening to kill her. He was fined $20 or ten days in jail.

Charles Ritchie, arrested on a charge of lying and lurking in Paddock street and using obscene language to a woman, also before the court. William Peterson, or Holm, was arrested with Ritchie last night and was charged with lying and lurking in Paddock street and refusing to assist the police in discharge of their duty.

Lucas told of accusing the two in Paddock street late last night and his report on the case. He said he was not drunk and that he had no reason why he should be arrested. He was asked by Police Constable O'Leary if he ever served a term in Dorchester. This he refused to answer, saying that he did not think that it was proper to question him. Police Constable O'Leary also gave evidence of making the arrest. Both were remanded.

Joseph McAleer, a colored teamster, was fined $5 for treating his horse on Tuesday last. Secretary Wetmore, the S. P. C. A. and Sergt. Baxter gave evidence of seeing McAleer's horse with a bad gash on its back and also told of McAleer's refusal to remove a buckle that was cutting into the sore.

The case of Arthur Love and Charles Gamble, reported for going beyond the stand allotted for coaches at Sir Union Depot, was adjourned till this afternoon. Frank E. Jones, reported for running his automobile without a number, explained the matter. William K. Murray, arrested on a charge of stealing two pairs of boots from J. V. Russell, was further remanded.

Judgment was to have been given this morning in the Carson automobile case, but on account of Mr. Carson's absence from the city, the matter was laid over until Monday.

CONVERT FORT HOWE INTO A BEAUTIFUL PARK FOR THE CITY

Hon. Mr. Pugsley Sends Engineer Here From Ottawa

CITIZENS WILL REJOICE

Project is to Have Motor Roads and Carriage Ways, Plant Trees and Make One of The Most Attractive Places in St. John

As a result of the efforts of Hon. William Pugsley, steps are to be taken to convert Fort Howe into a beautiful park. An engineer from the militia department will come to the city, and in consultation with Mayor Frink and President T. H. Estabrooks of the board of trade will look into the question of the proposed improvements.

When Hon. Mr. Pugsley was in the city recently he visited Fort Howe in company with Mr. Estabrooks. They drove all over it in a carriage, and it is doubtless to many people that a carriage can be taken all over the eminence which looks down upon city and harbor from such a lofty height.

Not would the expense be large. Today it is a bald eminence, treeless and frowning. It could easily be converted into a place of beauty, cool, restful and in every way delightful.

On his return to Ottawa Mr. Pugsley got in touch with the militia department. In respect that an engineer has been retained to come down and submit a report on the proposed improvements.

The work will be done by the greatest pleasure by the citizens, and it is the greatest pleasure of the militia department to do whatever may reasonably be done for the benefit of St. John.

Asked about many matters of local interest, C. Murphy, superintendent of transport of the C. P. R., who arrived in the city today had no announcement to make though he made some comments on matters suggested to him. He came in on his private car attached to the Montreal train, and is on a tour of inspection of the Atlantic division.

The entry of the C. P. R. into Boston, running rights over the N. B. R. to Halifax, St. John-Digby car ferry, and the date of taking over the Dominion Atlantic Railway recently acquired by C. P. R. interests, were all touched on by the reporter.

To the first he said that the matter was to be dealt with by the executive who had it in hand. There appeared to be nothing new as to the C. P. R. running rights over the International and the car ferry project seemed to be a long way off.

If the people of Halifax and Digby took any comfort out of the project when first discussed they may find scant encouragement from Superintendent Murphy's comment that it is a long way off being a big undertaking but he added "But they are doing great things now a days." He could not say when the big corporation would formally take over the "D. A. R." as at present he said there was "a missing link" and the road would have to be worked separately.

"Coming through New Brunswick everything seems to be flourishing," said Mr. Murphy, "Down the river valley is a beautiful country." Mr. Murphy will be out over the division tonight.

THREE CAPE BRETON MEN AMONG THE FIRE VICTIMS

Today's News From Northern Ontario Tells Harrowing Tale of Suffering, Destruction of Property and Loss of Life—Fires Raging in Other Sections

THE FIRE STORY—IN BRIEF

Cobalt, Ont., July 14.—Total dead counted 87. Number of dead estimated between 400 and 500. Property loss estimated at $12,000,000. Towns destroyed South Porcupine, Porcupine, Kelso, Porterville. Strip of territory burned eight miles long.

Cobalt, Ont., July 14.—Never in the annals of Ontario's history has such destruction of life and property been wrought as in the forest fire which on Tuesday and Wednesday devastated the Porcupine district and the town of Cobalt. No one, however familiar with the region, can form an adequate idea of the destruction, and no one will ever be able to do so. It is safe to say that about $12,000,000 in property loss has been sustained. As to the number of lives lost, all sorts of guesses have been made.

An official statement issued by the Transportation and Northern Ontario Railway at North Bay places the number of lives lost and actually accounted for at eighty-seven, but the general opinion is that this number is grossly underestimated. Provincial Police Constable Fred LeFevre, who was in Porcupine on Wednesday and made the statement, is confident that his figures are at least 500 lives were lost in the awful holocaust.

The following places have been almost completely wiped off the map—Cochrane, South Porcupine, Porterville and Kelso. A strip of country eight miles wide and no one knows how long, extending westward from Porcupine Lake, has been burned and charred. Miles upon miles of forest all fall before the terrific blazes.

Since Tuesday night train loads of refugees have gone down from Porcupine and Cochrane to points south. Those escaping with slight injuries or none, have gone to hospitals in Halifax, St. John and Digby. Those more or less severely injured have been taken to hospitals in Halifax, St. John, Leobard and North Bay. All these hospitals are filled with sufferers.

Sufferings Great Every hour of the day brings sinister tales of pathetic scenes at stations along the railway line. Men, women and children thinly clad and bearing marks of the ravages of the fire, are still flocking into the larger towns in this vicinity and North Bay. On a train which left the relief train which reached North Bay last night at 8 o'clock with trunks and a dressing gown, and a woman, this being the only apparel he was able to rescue from the flames at South Porcupine. Many women and children appeared very scantily clad. Many are suffering from shock caused by the mad race for life against the on-rushing flames.

Among the dead are Lester Hinger, Cape Breton; J. W. Grimshaw and Arnold Kelso, Inverness, C. B.

Mere Fires Selwood, Ont., July 14.—Terrible bush fires have occurred in other parts of Ontario besides those in the Cobalt and Porcupine districts. All along the Canadian Northern from Sudbury to Selwood the fires have raged heretofore, destroying millions of feet of lumber. Farmers with their families have abandoned their homes and fled towards Sudbury along the railway where several of the buildings have been burned.

At the southern end of the track the fire came up to the outskirts of Sudbury and threatened the town itself. At Selwood Junction the fire was so fierce that all communication with Selwood was cut off. One man has succeeded in getting through there and brought the news that fifty houses have been burned and the splendid new saw mill owned by the Warren Lumber Company have been entirely destroyed.

The total loss in this town is estimated at about $200,000. It is not known whether or not any lives have been lost. Halleybury, July 14.—Fires are now encircling Matheson and threatening it. J. L. Towns, of Montreal, here from Matheson, with his wife and child, said flames were raging around it and if the wind should come up it would probably be wiped out.

The town has a population of 2,300. Across Lake Temiskaming from Halleybury on the Quebec side, fires are raging as far as the eye can see. That region is only sparsely settled and the settlers' lives will be in serious danger.

WOMAN'S BODY IS FOUND; A DOUBLE CRIME INDICATED

Suicide of W. J. Mullen Discloses Probable Murder of Mrs. Nellie Durant in New Hampshire

Exeter, N. H., July 14.—An investigation into the death of William J. Mullen here Wednesday resulted in the discovery of a double tragedy, the other victim being Mrs. Nellie Durant. Mullen, according to the police, had served several jail sentences for robbery and other offences. Mrs. Durant's husband, the police say, is at present an inmate of the Rockingham county farm at Brentwood.

Mullen was found dead in a three foot spring of water and while the body was being examined two bullet holes were discovered in the back. A revolver was later found in the spring. It then became known that Mrs. Durant, with whom Mullen had been friendly, was missing, and a search was instituted.

Early Thursday her body was found in an open field 300 yards from the spring. There were two bullet holes in her head and the local police are of the opinion that Mullen shot and killed Mrs. Durant and then shot himself at the edge of the spring. Jealousy is believed to have been the cause of the tragedy.

C. N. R. CONSTRUCTION WORK IS HEAVY ONE

More Than 80 Miles in Solid Rock Along Fraser River—Three Miles of Tunnels

Spokane, Wash., July 14.—Construction firms in Spokane holding the sub-contract to build 132 1/2 miles of a total of 102 miles of grade for the Canadian Northern Railway Company, announce they will have between Hope and Kamloops, B. C., within forty-five days. The original contract, which was awarded to Patrick Welch, of Spokane, involves a total expenditure of more than $15,000,000 and is to be completed in two years.

The local builders already are assembling their outfits with a view to establishing camps at points along the survey before the beginning of August. The work is said to be the heaviest since the construction of the Canadian Pacific line through the Rockies and the Selkirk range.

More than sixty miles of grade will be blown out of solid rock on the steep banks and narrow canyon along the Fraser river, and three miles of tunnels will be driven, two of them being from 2,000 to 2,500 feet in length. Most of the camps are reported to be well above the average. All other camps are reported to be coming along well, and indications are that the yield will be the best in years.

Moncton, N. B., July 14.—(Special)—Reports from farming statisticians here are that the crop this year so far up to the standard notwithstanding the hot weather. Although the hay crop is by no means up to last year it is said to compare favorably with previous years, but in some sections up river it is reported light. Marsh hay is good. Grains are reported doing well near Moncton.

AMERICAN LUMBER MARKET AWAY OFF

The American lumber market is reported as being worse than it has been for the last year and a half. Prices have fallen off to a large extent during the last month and there does not appear to be anything to give encouragement.

Laths have dropped from $3.50 to $3.00 and long lumber apparently has no market, prices ranging from $19 to $23 and $16 and $17 on scantling, a drop of from $5 to $6 during the month.

TIMES GETS LINE ON CROPS OF PROVINCE

Correspondents Report The General Conditions Are Good

HAY MAY BE LIGHT

Some Sections Anticipate This—Hot Weather Has Not Yet Caused Material Damage in The Fields—Rain Would Be Welcomed

Because of reports that the protracted warm spell was causing injury to the crops of the province the Times today secured reports from correspondents in several sections. They are as follows—

St. Stephen, N. B., July 14.—(Special)—The crops in this section are looking well. The crops in this section are looking well. The crops in this section are looking well.

Woodstock, N. B., July 14.—(Special)—No great harm has been done the crops as yet but the hot, dry weather is making itself felt. Rain is badly needed. As a whole the hay crop will be light. The heads of grain are not filling in and the potatoes are willing to some extent, but with the advent of rain the products from the farm should be more than last year, with the exception of hay. There are no forest fires in this vicinity but in the adjoining county of Anson, much damage is being done.

Chatham, N. B., July 14.—(Special)—Not for many years has farming conditions in the district been better than today. Heavy rain fall alternated with warm weather, has made ideal conditions for growth. Crops of all kinds are remarkably healthy and pasturage is abundant. Haymaking will begin next week. Much has been ready to cut for some days, but rain has hindered operations.

St. Andrews, N. B., July 14.—The crops in this section are progressing favorably. The hay crop will be a good one though not so large as last year. Other crops have suffered little from the drought as yet.

Fredericton, N. B., July 14.—The protracted dry spell has not so far as can be learned, resulted in any injury to crops in this section. Few farmers have commenced haymaking and crops are reported to be well above the average. All other crops are reported to be coming along well, and indications are that the yield will be the best in years.

Moncton, N. B., July 14.—(Special)—Reports from farming statisticians here are that the crop this year so far up to the standard notwithstanding the hot weather. Although the hay crop is by no means up to last year it is said to compare favorably with previous years, but in some sections up river it is reported light. Marsh hay is good. Grains are reported doing well near Moncton.

SOCIALIST IS FINED FOR SELLING BEER AT A PICNIC HE ORGANIZED

Montreal, July 14.—Frederick Dods, a Socialist, who organized a picnic and sold beer to the picnicers without a license, was sentenced to a fine of $50 and costs of $53.

THE MYSTIC SHRINERS Rochester, N. Y., July 14.—The proceedings of the 37th annual convention of the Mystic Shriners came to an end with a ball and reception at the state armory last night. Next year's meeting of the imperial council will be in Los Angeles.

POLICEMAN KICKS BOMB, THINKING IT A RUBBER BALL

Brooklyn Sergeant is Now in Hospital and Every Window in Police Station is Shattered

New York, July 14.—As he was leaving a Brooklyn police station early this morning, Sergeant Michael Lane tripped on the sidewalk an object which looked to be a rubber football. He stepped back a few paces, got a running start and gave the supposed ball a kick. It was a bomb.

A JOB FOR TEDDY. The police magistrate and the aldermen have paused in the early closing game, and are gazing at each other.

"No, sir! It's your move," said the alderman last evening.

THE PATROL WAGON. THE WEATHER. A JOB FOR TEDDY.

I should have concluded to what they get in Montreal or Boston, but still it ain't no frost—By He! If the nights wasn't so nice 'n' cool, I call'd 'em be lookin' for the swimmin' hole a good 'ol' often than we do. Hey, what?"

La MARQUISE de FONTENOY Japan's School For Training of Governors - Affairs in Austria-Hungary - New Prince and His Career

(Copyright, 1911, by the Brentwood Co.) It is to the Mikado, or to give him his more correct title, the Tenno, that Japan is indebted for the introduction of competitive examinations for every office of the civil service of the empire. So strict and far reaching is the application of the system, that the appointment of incompetents through favoritism is practically unknown.

The imperial universities and the government departments of education have co-operation with the crown in the matter, and the University of Tokio has even a special department for the training of provincial prefects or governors who candidates for that office receive special instruction, in order to equip them for the administration of the various provinces into which the Empire of the Rising Sun is divided. On graduation they receive the appointment of general secretary to the provincial government, and in due course are promoted to governorships.

Today the vast majority of the prefects and sub-prefects of provincial governments of Japan are special graduates of this particular school for governors at Tokio the only thing of the kind in the world. They may therefore be said to constitute the very pick and flower of the civil service of the empire and I may add that special pains are taken by the professors of this class to emancipate their pupils from all tendency to red tape, which is the curse of every bureaucracy.

It is difficult in writing about this to refrain from the thought as to whether it would not be possible to inaugurate a similar system in the States, where the governors of states have such vast power placed in their hands, without previous equipment for the post. Although the professional politician would doubtless raise every kind of objection to the idea, yet there is no doubt that almost every governor of a state would benefit by receiving two or three years of special training for his important office.

Hungarian Affairs Emperor Francis Joseph creates princes but rarely. Indeed, he has not bestowed the closed coronet upon more than a dozen of his nobles, throughout his long reign of more than three-score years. I mentioned last week that he had conferred an honor of this kind upon his ex-premier, Count Francis Thun, leader of the great liberal aristocracy of Bohemia, and the governor of that province. He has also granted the same distinction to Count Tassilo Festetics, whose name is familiar all over Europe as that of the principal figure of the Magyar nobility, and as probably the greatest of the territorial magnates of Hungary, his estates extend over nearly a million acres.

ers by the Catholic church, it was because she was able to bring evidence to show that she had been forced against her will to contract it, by her mother the Duchess Marie of Hamilton, and by the latter's near kinsman, Napoleon III, the wedding taking place at St. Cloud. Her mother was by birth a princess of Baden, daughter of that Grandduchess Stephanie of Baden who was a niece and adopted daughter of Napoleon I. and of Empress Josephine. Tassilo Festetics first met his wife at Monaco, and their romance may be said to have commenced with his interference in her behalf to protect her from some particularly odious indignity to which she was subjected by her former husband, and which led to Albert of Monaco receiving a thoroughly Anglo-Saxon thrashing at the hands of Tassilo Festetics.

Man of Much Property The new Prince Festetics is a tall, thin, rather English looking man, with greyish-blond side-whiskers and mustache, talking English without the trace of an accent, and very quiet in his manners and sober in his gestures. He has a palace at Vienna, in the Loewenstrasse, another at Bournemouth next to the Royal National Museum, a palatial villa at Baden-Baden, inherited by his wife from her grandmother, Grandduchess Stephanie of Baden, and any number of country seats scattered about Austria and Hungary, Kratsch being the most famous of them all.

MARQUIS DE FONTENOY. Fire alarm boxes fitted with loud speaking telephones are now installed in the suburban district of Kiel, Germany. They are placed at various points along the streets. This appears to be the first time loud speaking telephones have been applied to fire alarm use. The telephones are mounted in iron boxes, and upon opening the cover an electric contact is made, which rings up the nearest fire department station. Owing to the use of such telephones the voice is heard clearly, in spite of the street noise.

The Evening Chit-Chat By RUTH CAMERON

OUR admiration—yes, our worship—of beauty is based upon the soundest and sunest of biologic bases. Beauty is the outward and visible sign of the inward and spiritual grace—health. Every line, every tint, every texture that makes for ugliness marks a defect or indicates ill health, inefficiency or ill temper. It is no coincidence that 'ugly' means, in popular acceptance, 'critical' and 'vicious' almost as often as 'unbeautiful'.

It is a painful but significant truth that most of us were far more beautiful as babies than we have ever been since. It is the Golden Age of Beauty to which we can all look back, the only time in our lives when we were perfectly natural. Nearly everything that makes a man or woman homely comes from bad surroundings. These are a few nuggets from a veritable gold mine of an article in a recent magazine by Dr. Woods Hutchinson. It is an article which I wish every father and mother in the country might read. I quote them here because they present in Dr. Hutchinson's clear, forcible style what I have often struggled to express—namely, that personal beauty, both for the sake of the pleasure it gives and because it is an index of health is something to be proud of, something we ought to urge our children to try to acquire.

CLOUD WITH SILVER LINING. "I don't see," said Mrs. Wiggins, with a sniff, "how you stand the smell of all those gasoline cars going by here all day long." "I couldn't at first," said Mrs. Wiggins, "but, after all, I find them a great help. Since they've been running, there hasn't been a sign of a muth around the place."—Harper's Weekly.

NO COUNCIL ACTION ON EARLY CLOSING; COURT DECISION IS AWAITED

The uncertain situation bearing on the early closing by-law was unimproved by last night's special meeting of the common council although it had been expected that some action would be taken which would alter the present condition. Large delegations representing both sides attended at the meeting but were not given a hearing, as the mayor said that no request had been made for this.

The petition asking for the repeal of the by-law was read, Ald. J. B. Jones thought the council should not take action until there was a full meeting of the Board of Aldermen. Ald. McGoldrick and Collier thought the recorder should give an opinion but Mayor Frink thought it unnecessary to bring that official into the affair.

Ald. Hayes was heard in support of the by-law, while Ald. Potts thought it would work out satisfactorily. His thought the mayor should write to Judge Ritchie asking for a decision in the case pending before the police court, while Ald. Smith moved, seconded by Ald. McLeod, that "the council give no decision on the request for repeal until the judgment is arrived at by Judge Ritchie in the case pending."

This motion was carried, while a motion of Ald. J. B. Jones and Ald. Frink to repeal the by-law was lost. Mayor Frink said he had written to His Honor asking a decision in the case pending. Ald. Scully did not see why Judge Ritchie should bear the onus of the postponement of the case, and the recorder must have agreed to the course being taken, as he had been conducting the case.

Ald. J. B. Jones thought it unfair to let some shops remain open, while others had to close, and Ald. Elliott thought it a lax proceeding to postpone the case. The vote on Ald. J. B. Jones' motion was as follows:—Yea, Jones, Scully, Wigmore, Nays, Christie, Hayes, McLeod, Smith, Wilson, McGoldrick, Russell, Collier, Klein, C. T. Jones, Potts and Elliott. Ald. Kierstead and Green were out of the city.

DARING YOUTHFUL MOTOR CYCLIST

WHAT ELIZA FLAGG YOUNG HAS ACCOMPLISHED. By the end of the first year, says Rheta Childs Dorr in an article in Success Magazine, Mrs. Young had not only fulfilled her promise of restoring peace in the ranks of the teachers, but for the first time in years the Teachers' Federation ceased to be an aggressive body. Its sword was forged into a plowshare. The whole strength and efficiency of the teaching force became concentrated on the work of educating children. An innovation more startling in public-school affairs, any teacher will tell you, is not on record.

To understand how so much was accomplished you will have to know something of Mrs. Young's unique and compelling personality. She has, to begin a great mind, a mind in which the leading characteristic is order. There is no mental waste, there are no loose ends, there is no displacement of ideas. A mind like this plans a school system as an architect plans a great building, as a field marshal plans a campaign.

An architect does not lay brick, nor a field marshal carry a musket. Mrs. Young never does any work which an assistant ought to do. She parcels out the routine work of the department among several assistant superintendents, retaining for herself those tasks which no one but the superintendent can do. For example, she does not attend to such mechanical tasks as assigning and transferring teachers, considering applications for leave of absence, and the like. She does not spend hours on miscellaneous correspondence. She does not supervise evening schools for adults. She appoints assistants to attend to these matters. They report to her and are responsible to her, but she does not do their work.

By employing people to attend to the routine of school management, Mrs. Young is able to get an enormous amount of work done, and at the same time is herself left free to think to plan and to devise. She never wastes her energies. She makes every effort count. As one of her colleagues in the Normal College said of her: "I never knew a person who lost so little time."

JUST THE COAT. His Ma—"Willie, this pill has a sugar coat." Little Willie—"I know, mamma, but the vest is awfully bitter."

There are many different kinds of liver. Some men tell fish stories, and some save the vest for classical music.

The car was standing near the tennis courts in Gilbert's Lane, when there was heard a slight explosion, and then flames burst from the back and soon spread and before long the car had been totally destroyed.

PLANS FOR NEW YORK BUILDING 100 STORIES HIGH

Architects Say it is Feasible Project, But is so Far Only Speculation

Cleveland, Ohio, July 14.—That New York may some day have a hundred-story skyscraper, 1,200 feet high, is the statement made in an address to the convention of the building owners and managers by George T. Mortimer, vice-president of the United States Realty Company, of New York City. But no actual steps toward such a giant among office buildings have yet been taken.

Mr. Mortimer said: "Just before I left New York I believe that some day such a building will be erected in New York." I expect to do so on my return to New York. I believe that some day such a building may be erected in New York."

Reginald P. Bolton, also of New York, discussing modern office buildings, said that many of New York's buildings are "monuments of uselessness."

THE CALVIN AUSTIN

The Eastern line steamer Calvin Austin arrived this morning with 431 passengers. She did not arrive in time for the passenger train connection with the 7:10 train and they went out on the 11:20 and 12:40 trains. The delay is attributable to the big crowd aboard and the strong tides and the statement is also made by passengers that trouble with the firemen of the steamer was responsible for the tardiness in its departure.

This may refer to the trouble being experienced by some American American ports on account of a general strike of seamen, which includes firemen.

At the Maritime office here he failed to bring any information, the statement being made that they knew nothing of trouble at Boston.

FINE CROP OUTLOOK Crop reports from the west are of the most rosy character. An enormous wheat crop is expected, for there is a much larger acreage than last year, and the condition of the grain is excellent. All other crops promise well.

SIR WILFRID AND OTHERS The following from the Toronto Globe states the position of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and some others in a clear manner. "It is because Sir Wilfrid Laurier has not loved the knee to the East of the new and spurious imperialism that he has received the tribute of confidence conveyed by the demonstrations. There are dissenting voices. In Quebec Mr. Bourassa still insists that Laurier is the crafty friend of a movement to establish the conscription and force the French-Canadian to fight for perdition in sea or land.

PEOPLING THE FARM LANDS Mr. Arthur S. Barnstead, Secretary of Industries and Immigration for Nova Scotia, believes that development companies and co-operative marketing would be of great benefit in securing good settlers for the farm lands of the province. In the report of the department for last year Mr. Barnstead says: "During the summer I devoted some time and thought to the investigation of this matter, and have outlined a plan for the incorporation of a development company, which would secure capital for this purpose. With the aid of a government guarantee abundant capital could be obtained. The object would be, first, to settle on approved farms selected farmer from the British Isles, and all those already engaged in agriculture in the province who desire to secure lands of their own. Secondly, to establish a fund whereby these settlers would be enabled to secure a loan for the purpose of erecting buildings, purchasing stock, and carrying out improvements on their respective properties. Full information respecting suitable farms in the province would be secured and submitted to the respective settlers. In selecting farms they would have the best assistance of the officials of both the agricultural and immigration departments. After settlement the places would be periodically inspected and helpful advice tendered.

WORSE AND MORE OF IT. A van ran over a man the other day and broke his leg. Recovering his presence of mind a little too late, the driver shouted, "Look Out." His unfortunate victim struggled into a sitting posture and said, "Great Scott! You're not coming back, are you?"

(CHILDHOOD) (After Heine by B. Paul Neuman.) My child, we two were children, Little and merry were we, We wriggled into the hen-house, And hid ourselves there with glee.

"Cock-a-doodle!" it sounded The regular farm-yard cry, "Cock-a-doodle!" it chanted The ears of the passer-by. In the yard there were pecking cases, We pattered them bit by bit, And there in our elegant mansion The pair of us loved to sit.

One of our regular callers Was the cat from over the wall, We met her with bowings and curtsies, And thanked her each time for her call. We trusted her cold was better, Our speeches were smooth and pat, Since then we have said the same things To many an ancient cat.

Some time we sat discoursing Like gray-beards ever so wise, Sighed as we thought of the present, Wished that the past could rise.

Sorrowed that trust, and faith, And love had departed hence; Droned at the price of coffee, And the scarcity of pence.

Gone are the days of childhood, As all things turn to dust, The world, the years, and the panicles, And love, and faith, and trust.

PERMANENT PARLIAMENT COMMITTEE

Ottawa M. P. in London Says It Is To Be of Great Importance-- Good From Meetings of Overseas Representatives

(Times Special Correspondent.)

London, July 6--"It is the idea of today who are the outs of tomorrow, and it is parliament that makes cabinets," remarked a visiting M. P. from Ottawa in discussing the results of the conference and the advantages which may accrue from such a visit as is being paid by the senators and M. P. of the overseas dominions. "If the idea of mutual co-operation with the empire as a whole is to spread, it can only do so through increased intimacy between the elected representatives of the people of all its constituent parts. It is for that reason that I, and I believe all my colleagues, attach immense importance to the first step which has been taken by the establishment of a permanent Parliamentary Committee during our visit."
"This committee, composed of men of both, or all parties, will be a standing committee from parliament to parliament;
it may meet in one of the committee rooms of the various houses of parliament. It should be impossible for a member speaking at Westminster to take such a mistake as did Austen Chamberlain in quoting a reported speech of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the last great tariff debate."
In conversation with other visitors further details were obtained as to what is hoped for from this corresponding committee of M. P.'s.
Apart from meetings of a large number of our members in Ottawa one year, in Australia or South Africa perhaps another, there is the inestimable advantage that for any of us who desire to work up any particular question in detail during a visit to Britain, to Australia or elsewhere with in the empire, the facilities for doing so can be arranged in advance, and much time saved.
"The social advantages are obvious, though by no means intended to be put in the forefront. The first object is that a greater number of men sitting on both sides in all the parliaments of the empire should be posted right up to date regarding legislation and the current of parliamentary opinion upon the problems of the hour."
"I think," said another visiting M. P.,
"that more good to the empire as a whole is coming from the greater knowledge we Australians, Canadians and South Africans are getting of each other, than even from the growth of our intercourse with the statements and parliamentarians of the motherland. Until July 18 we are guests of the British Parliament, and as both hosts and guests hold varying views on the questions of the day, it would be unseemly to make any political speech until we certainly feel that it is our duty as well as our right to discuss political proposals as they are liable to effect the welfare of the empire as a whole, just as freely in England, Scotland or even in Ireland, as we do in our own self-governing part of the empire."
Addressing a meeting last Friday in the Whitehall Rooms, Hon. G. E. Foster skillfully evaded all political references, but said many interesting things about emigration and the lack of knowledge which still exists as to what the resources of Canada actually are, and what the population must ultimately become. The enemies to a better knowledge of each other among the people of the empire he ascribed to "ignorance and prejudice, or indifference and apathy."
"Some people," he added,
"would insist upon pursuing the line of least resistance, even if it took them miles out of their course; they will not take the short cut through the brush or over the fence right ahead." And as it was with individuals and industrial interests, so it was with nations and national interests; still more so with what are called imperial interests.

CATTLEMAN ARE NOT BENEFITED BY HIGH PRICED MEAT.

The government returns show that, although there has been a marked increase in the price of farm stock generally, this has not been true of cattle, especially the united cattle of the ranges, says Miss H.
Wood in an article in Success Magazine.
The consumers cannot lay the high price
of meat to the cowman. It is the dealers and the railroad between us and the consumer who bring up the price. Some years even when beef had been very high in the retail market, the cattlemen, after he has subtracted the carrying cost from the sale price of his animals, has been receiving a price below par. Although this rule
the consumers cannot lay the high price
of meat to the cowman. It is the dealers

CANADA'S CHEESE OUTPUT
A Review of the Conditions—Future Prospects Are Considered Good

The total shipments of cheese from the ports of Montreal and Quebec since May 1 to the week ended June 24 this year, amounted to 320,890; the shipments from the same ports last year for the corresponding period were 324,741. This shows a falling off of 3,851 boxes.

The following informal review of the dairy industry in Canada up to the present time, was furnished to a representative of The Ottawa Valley Journal through the courtesy of J. A. Riddick, Dairy Commissioner.

It was pointed out that the falling off in cheese exports was in itself not a criterion that there was an actual falling off in the total dairy output, although there appeared to be a pretty widespread belief that it was.

To arrive at a nearer estimate of the season's operations it would be necessary to get all statistics bearing upon the aggregate dairy output. These are not available in so early a part of the season. The total receipts of cheese and butter from the ports of Montreal and Quebec, however, are available and have been published. They show that, as receipts since May 1 this year, to the week ended June 24 are: Cheese 382,700 butter 173,702, as against receipts for the corresponding period of 1910, Cheese 396,518, and butter 124,254.

This shows a falling off of 13,818 cheese, but an increase of 49,448 in butter, the latter increase more than offsetting the reduction in the receipts of cheese so far as the production of milk is concerned.

To be added to this are the immense but unknown shipments to places like Port Arthur and the great Canadian west, which have increased proportionately to the increase of population and provincial home consumption, the bulk of which, however, there have been quantities of butter imported from the United States. There is again confidence in the taken of the shipments of cream to the United States, although this does not appear to be so extensive as it was in the season of 1910.

Taking these and other minor dairy products into consideration the aggregate dairy output for 1911 so far is greater than that for 1910.

The decrease by 33,842 in cheese exports this year up to the week ended June 24 can be accounted for by the conditions of the market. The difference in exports has gone into storage in the expectation of higher prices to and satisfy the enlarged home demand.

Speaking in a more general way, Mr. Riddick said there could be no doubt, however, that the hot spell would materially influence and diminish the milk production. Western Ontario, from which parts he had just returned, was suffering greatly from drought and the hay crop would be short.

This shortage of grass, however, owing to the practice of summer feeding with ensilage and fodder crops, would not affect the milk production as much as might otherwise be supposed. Western Ontario and as far east as Perth had suffered much as considerably from continued dry weather. It was too early yet to form any measurable estimate of the season's dairy output, but the prospects generally appeared to be good. The prices for cheese were higher this year than last, and this was probably attributable to the supplies from New Zealand not having been as great as expected last season.

INTELLIGENCE AND WORK WIN FOR SINGER, DECLARES BARTONE

One Who Has Won Laurels Tells Why There is More Needed Than the Voice Itself to Bring Success

(By Pierre V. E. Key, Special Correspondent.)
New York, July 13—Summers resort tenors with sweet voices, long hair and dreamy expressions are reviving in luxury these days. Any young man who has a good natural voice and can sing a few ballads in the style of attraction of the thousand and one places where charming femininity reigns.

But here and there he is displaced by the singer who has something besides voice. "Love Me, and the World is Mine," sang plaintively in a sweet manner, of the unhappy base of "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," must step aside when an artist who demonstrated this intelligence and labor increasingly if substantial and permanent reward are to come. An artist who demonstrated this intelligence and labor increasingly if substantial and permanent reward are to come.

OUTREMENT IN LINE OF PROGRESS, DECIDES TO HAVE PLAYGROUNDS

Outrement, Que., July 14—The council has now definitely decided to launch out on a comprehensive scheme of playing parks for the younger children of the town. The matter has been under consideration in committee for some time, and after view proposals from all points, the conclusion has been reached that rather than the provision of one large park, the preferable plan will be to provide several small parks, which scattered throughout the town, will accommodate the juvenile populace and keep them out of the dangers of the street.

LACK OF EXERCISE Brings on Troubles which are Best Copied by Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Man was intended to live an active, outdoor life, and his digestive system was modeled accordingly. Indoor work with hands or head, long hours sitting or standing still, especially in air that's none too good, slow down the healthy activities of stomach, liver, kidneys and the millions of tiny skin glands.

Constipation, headache, indigestion, biliousness, rheumatism and similar troubles follow.

Then the worth of that good old reliable family medicine, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, is appreciated. Though it has been in use for over half a century, modern science was not able to devise a safer or better cleanser for the whole system.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are largely vegetable in composition, free from any harmful drug, and mild yet most effective in their action. They are "Mother's standby" in hundreds of homes because they nip in the bud so many of the common ailments.

Made since 1877 by W. H. Homstock Co., Limited, Brockville, Ont., and sold everywhere at 25c. a box.

SIR WILFRID'S QUEBEC SPEECH

(Extracts from Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Quebec speech.)
"I know the cause of the attacks upon me made by the imperialists. It is because I have now, as ever, maintained the triumph of Canadian autonomy. As to the cause of the attacks of the Nationalists, I do not yet know."
"We are loyal subjects of the British crown, but we will never consent to be governed from Downing street. It must be recognized that responsible government exists in both Canada and England."
"I have taken at this conference of 1911 the same attitude which I took at the preceding conferences."
"The ultra imperialists would restore the relations which existed between Canada and England prior to 1837. We insist on the right of self government."
"I have come back to take up the work I was forced to abandon in parliament a few weeks ago. I return in good form, and I am ready to renew the fight for responsibility with the United States."
"We Canadians will not sacrifice our autonomy for annexation and especially not we French-Canadians. That is my reply to the Tory logy of annexation."

EXPRESS MESSENGER SHOT BIG TRAIN TRAMP

C. P. R. Official Gets Bullet in His Shoulder at Wallford, Ont., When He Draws His Gun on Man in Tender.

Toronto, July 13—Express Messenger Hickson, of the C. P. R., lies in Sudbury Hospital with a bullet in his shoulder and a broken rib, and a posse is scouring the country between Wallford and Spanish River looking for the tramp who shot him. The shooting took place at Wallford, on the Soo line, where Hickson saw a man climbing up on to the top of the express car just as the train pulled out.

He went out through the front door, climbed up on to the tender and ordered the man to get down. The tramp replied with a shot in the head, which frightened Hickson. He drew his gun, the tramp drew another and shot the messenger in the shoulder. Hickson fell back and smashed a rib in the fall. The tramp swung off the train and got away into the bushes. The provincial police were notified and left for the scene.

Twenty-three persons travelling on eight tickets were passengers on a Pennsylvania train last week. They were on their way from Bellefonte, Penn., to Italy. The eight adults were accompanied by fifteen children, all less than five years old, and therefore exempt from taxfare.

FRENCH OFFICERS IN QUEST OF CAVALRY HORSES

Capt. de Gallet and First Lieutenant Sabatier de Chavaudais of the French cavalry have been in New York city for a few days and left for Louisville to continue their investigation of American horses for exportation to their native country. They are members of a special detail which has traveled all over Canada and is now making purchases in the states. They have worked very quietly, for, as one of them expressed it, "We fear that when American horse-traders hear the object of our mission they will raise their prices to a prohibitive figure."

It was further explained that there is a stated figure for these horses which they cannot exceed, and the rule in this matter makes it very hard for them in trading. The class of horse which these officers are particularly after is what is known as the "high school" horse. Each officer in the French cavalry has three horses. One is the charger, one the thoroughbred and the other the "high school" or parade horse. The grade of charger has always been admirably filled from the Norman horses, and the French thoroughbred ranks with the finest in the world. But it is the medium sized horse of class which these officers are after.

Their purchases have been made with much secrecy so far, and they were not numerous in Canada. They found the Canadian a husky, tough animal, but lacking in showing qualities. The parade horse of the French army has to be a highly intelligent, classy animal.

TEN DAYS MORE BEFORE CENTRAL IS IN SHAPE

The Washademoak bridge on the Central Railway will not be in position for some days yet as difficulty is being experienced in raising the part that fell into the river. The depth of water is about twenty-five feet. Joseph R. Stone one of the commissioners said today that it has been necessary to drive piles in the river in order to restore the submerged part of the structure. A new cement abutment is also being built and he thought that it would be ten days or more before the bridge would be ready for traffic.

BROWNTAILS ARE ON PATRIDGE ISLAND; TWENTY-NINE FOUND

J. A. Andrews Brings Them To A. G. Leavitt For Identification and is Commended for Work—All Are Males

Brown tail moths in considerable numbers have been found on Partridge Island. J. A. Andrews, who makes his home on the island, where he is employed in connection with the lighthouse, brought twenty-nine male specimens yesterday to A. G. Leavitt for identification and found that in every case he knew what he had been looking for.

Mr. Andrews was anxious to know all about the insects, where they laid their eggs, and what the latter looked like. The danger rests with the female brown tail, and so far none of these has been found in the city. Mr. Andrews is in continuous search in the possibility that some have been blown on the island from down the bay.

Speaking of the matter, Mr. Leavitt said Mr. Andrews was very much alive to the importance of checking the invasion, and that his action in seeking information might well be followed by people throughout the province, and if such were done, there would be much less fear of damage by the insects.

In reference to an account of an invasion of a swarm of brown tail moths off the Nova Scotia coast last week as published in the Times, Mr. Leavitt said that he had no doubt that the insects were the destructive brown tail, probably blown off the Maine coast. Had the wind been blowing off the land when the invasion of moths took place there had been on the night of the thunder storm, Mr. Leavitt said that a swarm of millions of them would have been seen in the bay.

Search for Man in Spruce Lake Woods to be Resumed This Afternoon

Joseph Burbridge, an Englishman, who has been missing at Spruce Lake, in the vicinity of Spruce Lake, has not been seen since Wednesday evening. Constable Fox, Constable Taylor and a guide returned last evening after a laborious search in the woods and saw no trace of him. He has had no cooked food for nine days. The excitable nature of one in his condition of mind has been very noticeable upon the approach of anyone. He disappears with the agility of a deer. The party will go out again this afternoon to continue the search.

Mr. Burbridge came to Canada about four years ago and has worked in Montreal and this city. He has been employed with Samuel Hutton and Charles Armstrong of Fairville.

He is about twenty-nine years old and weighs about 30 pounds. He is of dark complexion and has side whiskers and a mustache which is not very heavy. Series, which are quite plentiful in the woods, must make rather a scanty fare and there is need of parties to make a thorough search of the woods in that neighborhood to recover the unfortunate before a fatal accident occurs.

Mr. Burbridge has relatives in England. They have been sending him money during the last year.

HERE FROM SASKATOON

Geo. V. Tupper, on Way to Old Home in Nova Scotia, Confirms News of Great Crop

George V. Tupper, of Saskatoon, Sask., arrived in the city this morning and at the Royal. He is passing through to his old home in Annapolis Valley, N. S. Mr. Tupper has been twelve years in the west, and has been very successful in the real estate business. His wife is at present visiting in Kings county, Nova Scotia, and he will join her there tomorrow. After spending a vacation there Mr. and Mrs. Tupper will return to Saskatoon.

Speaking of conditions in the west Mr. Tupper was enthusiastic over the crop outlook, and said the general expectation was that the crops would be the best yield in years. At present the wheat for the most part was commencing to shoot, and a period of warmth was desired to quicken the ripening. The chief difficulty feared by the farmers was the possibility that there would be a scarcity of help. More than 30,000 men would be required. The elevators and railroads would undoubtedly be taxed to the utmost with the heavy crop.
