THE THREE KEYS

BY FREDERICK ORMOND.

"Oh, that brings me back to what I was saying," Lathrop exclaimed. "Really, sir, this partnership affair should not be carried on."

"But I insist on it," the financier cried, hotly. "Besides my boy, you have signed ed, so that the thing is settled. And, Morris," he added, gently, "I want you here with me."

"You said that the agreement was dated thirty days back?" Lathrop asked, reflectively.

"Yes. Very well, then," the young man conceded, after a short pause. "Let things go on as they now are for a month longer; if, at the end of that time, you are still anxious to have me with you, I shall be very willing to come, sir."

"Very well," Trevor agreed. "And now come with me. I'll drive you to the club. Afterward, you must go home to me."

"Not tonight, pater," Lathrop said. "I'll ride with you as far as the club, but I must leave you there. I have something of importance which I must attend before the day is done."

"I had formed plans yesterday which were upset by our conversation last night. I wrote a letter concerning them to a very dear friend of mine, and I fear that I may have caused unnecessary pain. So, I must get straight the matter out, without a minute's delay."

Both men were silent during the drive, and, soon after entering the club, Lathrop stepped aside and stood in thought regarding the complication which he had forgotten throughout the day. In consequence, he did not linger long at the club, but hurried off to his apartment.

As he entered the elevator, he was met by an elderly woman.

"There is a lady waiting for you, sir," the attendant answered. "She was in the reception-room for a long time. It is the same one who was here once before, so I took the liberty of admitting her to your parlor."

"She has been here until the time you came. I hope she is right, sir."

"She is right, sir," Lathrop repeated, in some perplexity.

"She is here early this afternoon, sir," the attendant answered. "She was in the reception-room for a long time. It is the same one who was here once before, so I took the liberty of admitting her to your parlor."

Fashion Hint for Times Readers

DRESSY BLOUSE TO MATCH A WOOL SUIT

This year the white blouse is not considered correct with a colored wool suit; the suit must be matched with a dainty blouse in the same shade, or a subtle blending with the color of coat and skirt. This dainty blouse might be powdered with a dash of blue or green, or with a dash of yellow or orange.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS, CHATTY NEWS OF THE GREEN ROOM

"Dick," the young son of Sam Bernard, entertained the members of his father's company to a dinner last week at his father's home and it proved a most enjoyable affair for the members of The Girls of the Wizard were present and spent a pleasant evening.

The New York Review is holding a contest in which votes are cast for the most popular actress in America. Maxine Elliott is now leading with a vote of 730.

"Will she tell her sister that I have no right to be here?" the girl persisted.

"Probably. For that matter, neither had she any right to come here, so the matter is even between you. But do come now."

The discomfited young man sighed faintly and was about to be answered:

"Carrie!"

"It is Carrie," his tormentor mused.

"Yes, this is Edna," Lathrop agreed, impatiently.

"Will she tell her sister that I have no right to be here?" the girl persisted.

"Probably. For that matter, neither had she any right to come here, so the matter is even between you. But do come now."

The young man was silent for a moment and then, with a smile, said:

"I think that we are quits now, Carrie."

Got $595 with $1 Waist

New York, N. Y.—A young woman walked into the store of Mrs. Anna Wassermann, 279 Grand street, and purchased a shirt waist for one dollar.

Mrs. Wassermann was making up her bank deposit and had $410 in cash and checks amounting to $125, on the counter.

Then she wrote across the waist. At noon she discovered her loss, Mrs. Wassermann reported it to the police, but no trace of the young woman could be found.

It is much more difficult to recover lost bags, purses, hats, etc., than to recover lost basin, Confectionery, Billiards, Indigestion, Dye-paste, Lime Pickle, Aching Limbs, Bladder and Skin Troubles quickly disappear under the curative influence of "Fruit-a-tive."

VERY SERIOUS MATTERS

The Times last evening contained two items of news that are worthy of more than passing comment. One was that the city's water supply is pure, and that typhoid fever cases have not arisen from this source. There have been many such cases, and the search for the source is narrowed down by Dr. Warwick's report to tenement conditions and the general state of the city in the matter of cleanliness.

More than one physician has declared that the sanitary conditions in many houses in various parts of the city are as bad as to breed disease. At the annual meeting of the Associated Charities, Dr. T. Dyson Walker pointedly referred to one source of contagion—the swarms of flies that have free access to food supplies in some of the grocery and provision stores of the city. He declared that the needs of education in regard to such matters, and said that in view of existing conditions it was surprising that there was not more typhoid fever in St. John. The announcement now made that the water supply is pure should concentrate attention and effort upon the cleaning up of the city and the observance of simple sanitary laws.

The other item of news related to the prevalence of tuberculosis. There were 118 deaths from this cause in St. John last year. The fact is terrible in its significance, and should prompt every citizen to take an interest in the work of the Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. There also there is great need of education, of the sort that makes for greater care and cleanliness, and the observance in the home of simple rules of health. Now that the annual toll of lives, with the accompanying financial loss, to the city and country may be measured with some degree of accuracy, the revelation should lead to such united action as will reduce the mortality. Tuberculosis is a preventable disease. It should never again be permitted to claim a hundred victims in one year in the city of St. John.

PARLIAMENT

Parliament opens today under most favorable auspices for the government and the Liberal party. The year has been prosperous, with a rising revenue, and great activity in trade and all productive industries. There has been a remarkable recovery from the depression of a year or two since, and the outlook promises for 1910 the banner year in the history of Canada.

It is stated that this is Earl Grey's last parliament. Canada will regret to lose a governor-general who has got into very close touch with the people, and who has shared in a singular degree their hopes and aspirations. He has performed the duties of his office with tact and dignity, and in his public addresses has done much to inspire Canadians with high ideals. This country will have in Earl Grey another strong friend and intelligent advocate in the councils of the empire.

The outline of the speech from the throne indicates that important legislation will be considered at this session of parliament. The question of a Canadian navy will be the one that will excite most public interest. It is announced that a plan adopted after consultation with the admiralty should not be objectionable to the Conservatives, who profess to be nothing if not imperialists—always excepting Mr. F. D. Monk. The Intercolonial branch lines will be the subject of a discussion that will be of great interest in the maritime provinces. Glancing over the government bill-of-fare, it will be seen that the session promises to be one of great interest.

The Conservatives have troubles of their own. The party caucus to be held tomorrow is expected to bring out wide divergence of opinion, and the feelings of the members will not be made any more jubilant by the result in West Middlesex yesterday, where a Liberal was elected by an increased majority.

If something could be done to provide good surroundings for boys released from the reformatory they might be saved to industrious manhood and good citizenship. The question deserves serious consideration.

A dozen grains of rice in a salt-cellar will absorb dampness and keep the salt in powder. It also breaks the lumps that may be in salt.

THE WONDER IS

The wonder is that all the world is half as good and sweet.
The captain and the kings who rule, the nobility that we meet;

The trouble is, we want so much we cannot live contented.

With just the portion of the dream that unto us sent.

The wonder is we cannot see beyond our narrow eyes.

The world is the boundless bloom that fills the vale of life;

The trouble is we do not care to kneel and look around us.

Upon the living loveliness with which the world has endowed us.

The wonder is we take our walls of curse
for all that lies.

Around us the world that lifts to wide
the horizon of our dreams;

The trouble is, the selfish will that burns us and consumes us.

While we sit in the light of love a vain with love illumes us.

The wonder is that in this world we've heart for anything.

Except to live and to learn, while grey
Grief holds her wing.

And make chimes tinkling rhyme and fairy lights awake.

The hearts of love that give and take for all that we have.

The trouble is we do not know how much
Upon the tide of seeming life that rounds us leaps and bows.

With love and beauty there, and
God's impartial love that hateth not.

To save us from the hate that haunts and hounds us still.

NEW POST FOR SIR PERCY GIROUARD

Assumes Duties of High Commissioner at Mombassa in British East Africa

London, Nov. 9.—Sir Percy Girouard arrived at Mombassa on September 14, and the new High Commissioner made a formal speech at the great reception given to him, in which all classes of the cosmopolitan population joined with fervor. Already three hours after his arrival—some what to the surprise of local officialdom—he assumed the reins of government, and from all reports to hand it really seems that British East Africa was at last entered upon an era of rapid, progressive and practical progress. All that is now required is the speedy assumption of the International code at present still in force, which might be well supplanted by the Roman Dutch law, working for a century in South Africa, with results that are now Standard, observe of his first meeting in Nairobi, for which city Lady Girouard has left to join her husband. "When the sun came out I realized what a wonderful climate exists at Nairobi," commented one of those who are delighted to see the days as nights are delightfully cool, indeed, cold, and one involuntarily longs for a fire. At Kikuyu, a few miles distant, but at a slightly higher altitude, we were informed, the temperatures had fired at eight time. About 11 a. m. the sun shone out beautifully, and for hours is very hot, but the heat is nearly always tempered by lively winds, making life practically as agreeable as in the tropics. The equatorial rain is now beginning to be enjoyed to the white race. Judging from the rosy-cheeked children we saw, I do not think New Zealand or Australia can hardly points to this particular part of Africa in the same climate. The temperate portion of Nairobi is divided into three quarters, remaining one of the City of Rome and seven hills."

BIG STEEL PLANT AT WELLAND, ONT.

Electric Smelting Works to Be Established—Thousands to Work Daily Output

Welland, Ont., Nov. 10.—Negotiations have been concluded for the location of a large steel plant here, which is to be built by electric power. The firm of Blakes & Cassells, of Toronto, have secured the articles of incorporation for the Electric Steel Company of Canada, Limited, with head office in Toronto, and branch office in Buffalo. The men behind the industry have large interests in steel and iron in the United States, and among them are elected are—President, Tyson S. Dynes, St. Louis, Mo.; vice-president, George G. Goodrich, Saratoga, N. Y.; secretary, A. S. Rampe, Ph. D., the last name having designed the plant. Work on the installation of the big mill, will begin in a week. The time and horse-power for the operation of the mill have been contracted for with the Fall River Company. The daily output will be 1,600 tons, which will require five vessels of ore daily or a shipload a day. Five vessels are already under contract to deliver ore before the close of navigation, if it is anticipated that the mill will ready to receive them before the opening of navigation next season.

It is intended to erect next year other mills for the making of finished products in iron and steel.

The location selected is at the junction of the Welland Canal and the Welland Canal feeder, where a site of five acres has been obtained. The dominion government has given its assent to the moving west of the feeder locks and dredging out of the final canal section to the distance fronting on the property. The site is adjacent to the Michigan Central, the Peter Marquette, T. H. and B. and Canadian Northern. The Wabash and Grand Trunk are only slightly remote. This is looked upon as one of the most important of the larger industries Welland has yet secured.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 10.—An attempt to rob New York Central train, No. 24, the American express between Lyons and this city, tonight, was frustrated and two men were arrested at the muzzles of revolvers. A third is believed to have fallen under the train and been killed.

The two men arrested are now locked up, charged with attempted express robbery. They said they were George Williams, aged 18, and Frank Brown, aged 20.

PROGRAMME FOR PARLIAMENT IN SPEECH FROM THRONE

Authority to Lease I. C. R. Branches — The Canadian Navy—Signs of the Conservative Revolt Against Borden

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—All is ready for the opening of parliament tomorrow. This will be the last occasion when Earl Grey will officiate in Canada as the king's deputy on such an occasion.

If is understood that the speech from the throne will open with the usual references to the prosperity and steady and progressive growth of Canada.

There will be a reference to the well-maintained stream of immigration from the best elements of the population of the British Isles and of Europe.

It will be noted that the revenue of the dominion during the year was pretty much as expected and there has been a remarkable recovery from a financial situation in the country which was the cause of some anxiety.

Parliament will be informed that a plan has been adopted, after a consultation with the admiralty, for the organization of a Canadian naval force along the lines of the resolution adopted by parliament last March.

It is understood that the Franco-Canadian trade treaty, having been approved by the French parliament, and the Canadian parliament will be asked to confirm it.

It will also be noted that substantial progress is being made with the National Transcontinental Railway which has been built to a point sixty-six miles west of Edmonton, 88 miles west of Winnipeg; contracts have been let for 393 miles of the mountain section; the line is open for traffic from Winnipeg to the lakes, and the whole of the line from Winnipeg to Moncton is under construction.

It will be noted that the engineers entrusted with the work of preparing plans for the Quebec bridge have advanced to a point to enable tenders for the substructure to be called for.

It will be stated that surveys for the Hudson Bay line have been pushed during the summer, and that a report on the project will be laid before parliament.

It will be intimated that a bill will be introduced to enable the minister of railways on the recommendation of the board of management of government railways, and subject to the approval of parliament, to lease any branch lines of the Intercolonial which will tend to promote transhipment facilities.

It will be intimated that intimation will be given of government bills to deal with banks and banking, insurance, navigable rivers and other matters.

In addition to the legislation foreseen, the speech from the throne, it is understood that there will be a strengthening of the criminal codes provisions in respect to book making and gambling games.

Hon. Mr. Fisher will have a bill enabling the department to erect with diseases among fruit trees, as cattle diseases are dealt with, by destroying the infected animals. Authority will be given to go into orchards and destroy diseased trees.

There will probably be some changes in the rules of the house for the purpose of expediting business and shortening the time of debate.

With the arrival of members and senators, gossip thickens around the disaffection of Conservative stalwarts with their leader, R. L. Borden, on account of his adherence to the Conservative naval policy.

There will be a Conservative caucus Friday, at which Mr. Borden will invite an expression of continued confidence in himself by tendering the confidence with the expectation of its being passed.

There will be little doubt that the Conservatives will heartily reaffirm their support in Mr. Borden as a leader. The move against Mr. Borden is now complete.

NEWS OF SPORTING WORLD IN MANY BRANCHES

PROFESSIONAL AND AMATEUR LINE

Hockey Season Brings Usual Talk of Ignoring M.P.
A.A.A.—Lesson in Refusal of Executive Yesterday to Reinstate Outlaw St. John Baseballists
—The Bowling Boom

The approach of the hockey season raises the old question of amateur and professional. There is the usual talk in some quarters about the governing body in amateur sport. This talk is not inspired by a desire to develop clean sport, but to have a winning team at any cost. Past experience in these provinces has shown that in order to strengthen teams money has been used. The plea is made by friends of this method that money will be used anyway, and that therefore the M. P. A. A. should wink at or ignore the whole business. Such an argument is not used by friends of clean amateur sport. Their reply is that it is victory and profitable betting, and not the advancement of sport that is sought for, the players should be frankly professional and openly paid.

The record of baseball in St. John during the past summer affords a significant illustration of the evil result of letting money considerations sway management or players. One member of the Marathon team was dismissed and another suspended on the charge of throwing a game, and much bitterness ensued between the two. The former was reinstated nothing to nothing for the Star. The Agate, a community team, which plays between the Marathons and Clippers, was disbanded by the latter who have declared their conviction that one if not two members of the Clipper team sold out to the Marathons, and thus lost the series. This is not denied, but the Marathons really know it is pointed out that the Marathon management would have two things to gain by it. One would be the profit to be derived from betting on a sure thing; the other would be the certainty of getting rid of the Marathons, a community team, with St. Peters. The mere fact that such a deal was hinted at is evidence of the atmosphere of suspicion which surrounds the game when persons known to be keen after dollars than sport are actively interested.

If there is to be professional sport, with bets on the side, let it be labelled. Then the people will know what they are getting, and the game on the diamond or on the ice. But if clean amateur sport is desired, let it be kept alive free from the pay sheet and the broker. *

At Halifax's dispatch states that at last night's first meeting of the new M. P. A. A. executive the application of the St. John baseballists for reinstatement was refused. The players do not consider this of their case, but it must have occurred to others that a request for reconsideration was idle. Baseball players of this city were "killed" the goose that laid the golden egg, and they did not play long with this question. There are among the applicants some that one would have liked to have seen replaced in good standing.

Mrs. U. S. Grant

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 10.—Mrs. U. S. Grant, 33 years old, wife of a son of President Grant, died today of apoplexy. Of all the useful inventions CATSPAW Rubber Heel and WALPOLE Hot Water Bottles, discoveries in the same rubber factory, and our most prominent, most useful and beneficial to mankind. Just out of curiosity, and your shoe dealer will tell you it fills up more easily and better, but contrary to the belief that has previously existed, obtaining it will be an economical task.

The experts declare that no "shoeing" will be able to "soak up" the steam shoe will be able to "soak up" the dehydrated rock and dump it in new, practically prepared by nature for its new field of activity. If such be the case, it is the very first time the heel has ever been used for its original purpose, according to the people who have had most to do with it, for hitherto it has been classed as a nuisance akin to coyotes and other harmful productions of nature.—Bend correspondence Portland, Oregon.
